"The Report of the Select Committee on Expenditures" met with general approval of its greater portion, but the section dealing with reorganization of the Athletic Board was defeated by a small majority after heated discussion. The report proposed to abolish the existing board, comprised of nearly twenty members, including team managers. A new board, of five members and two ex-officio members, was proposed in its stead, with the reservation that team managers could appear before the board when necessary. That this plan would actually result in an unwieldy body of seven members plus ten or more team managers, in spite of the fact that the latter would have no vote, was the consensus of opinion which defeated the motion. Although the remaining sections of the report dealing with athletics were fairly well received, the

(Continued on Page 4)

IRISH QUESTIONS WILL BE DEBATED

'De Valera Must be Destroyed' is Subject for McGill-Varsity Teams

FEW GUEST SPEAKERS

"Delendus est De Valera: De Valera must be destroyed", is the topic of the debate to be held in Hart House debates room on Wednesday, January 24, at eight o'clock.

Four speakers will be heard, two from Varsity and two from McGill. This is not, however, a team debate, as one McGill and one Toronto speaker will compose a team. The speakers from Toronto are Mr. K. Mayall and Mr. M. B. Gelber; representing McGill are Mr. M. Doig and Mr. A. Marshall. As yet the two teams have not been composed, but this will be done in a few days.

During the debate, all the important Irish economic and nationalistic questions directly related to Mr. De Valera, and which concern the stability of the British Empire, will be discussed. To give plenty of leeway for members of the audience to speak afterwards, there will be only a few guest speakers.

Tellers for the debate are Mr. O'Kelly, Mr. Sine, Mr. Drymore and Mr. Brucle. Clerk of the House will be Mr. S. Hartman, whose vigorous management has in a large degree made the debate possible.

New U.C. Yell Announced

"Fight—fight—fight!
Uni—versi—ty

Red and White—Red and White on to Victory!

Parum Claris Lucem Dare,
First of all we are
Home of knowledge—finest College, University!"

Selected as the best yell of all those submitted for the prize offered by the U.C. Lit., the above is now proposed as the official battle cry of University College.

When Messrs. Scott, Wood, Draper and Patrick mounted a table and lustily burst forth in the new yell, at the meeting of the Lit Society last evening, it was received with uproarious boos and general derision. As a result of this lack of immediate and spontaneous approval, it was decided to bring up the question of adopting a new yell as official at the next regular meeting.

The yell was composed by two well known undergraduates of the college, but their names are not to be announced until such time as their work has been adopted. The cash prize offered in the contest will also be withheld until that time.

The old yell, with its much criticised "Uni—Uni" is gone forever, but the new version with the emphasized syllables in the second line, if adopted, will ever conjure up the wraith of its departed predecessor.

DISCUSSES RISE OF ENGLISH HOME

Vanity and Custom Contribute to Furniture and Conveniences

ROMANS LOVED COMFORTS

"The rise of our home," stated Professor Currelly, speaking on the "Development of the English Home," in his lecture at the Museum last night, "falls under two distinct divisions, whether we sit on the floor or don't." Eastern people do, he continued, hence it is shown in their development. Vanity must also be taken into account. To keep clothes clean and still sit on the floor the Eastern races developed to a very high degree the idea of rugs. The Western world, on the other hand, since it prefers not to sit on the floor, has adapted furniture to suit its needs.

From India came the idea of the regular bath. The old British house was of a most primitive order but with the Roman invasions the brick house and separate bath house came into use. The Roman villas were extraordinarily comfortable. But the invasion of the wild northern tribes set civilization

(Continued on Page 4)

CONFERENCE SPEAKER IS DR. KOTSCHNIG

Well-Informed Student of International Affairs

Dr. Walter Kotschnig, Secretary of International Student Service, Geneva, now studying in New York, will be the principal speaker at the International Week-end Conference to be held January 27th-28th, 1934.

Dr. Kotschnig has been in close touch with international affairs in Europe and has studied particularly the student point of view, being for years in close touch with students and student movements in Europe.

The Week-end Conference will be modelled after the International Conference of Canadian and American students held in Hamilton during the Christmas vacation. Under the leadership of Dr. T. Z. Koo the delegates studied the relation of Christianity

(Continued on Page 2)

MASS MEETING WILL PROTEST BAN ON PLAY

Progressive Arts Club Answers Action of Provincial Police

MEET TONIGHT

Object to Principle Involved in Suppression of Social Plays

A mass protest meeting, to be held at 8 o'clock tonight in Hygeia Hall is the answer of the Progressive Arts Club to the action of the provincial police in forbidding the presentation of the club's play, Eight Men Speak. Information to this effect was obtained yesterday from Miss Gordon, who is associated with the Progressive Arts Club.

Speaking of the suppression which has aroused considerable discussion, Miss Gordon declared that it was the principle involved in the situation to which the Arts Club objected so strenuously. If the play in question were the only one to be suppressed in this manner, the club would accept the action with little protest, but there is the implication, she said, that all of their plays with any social content will be dealt with in like manner, and it is because of the principle involved that the club has seen fit to appeal against the action of the provincial police.

It was also learned from Miss Gordon that a deputation from the club is making an attempt to see Premier Henry on the matter as an appeal to a higher authority. Attorney-General Price has been asked to deal with the question but to no avail.

No legal action has been taken yet in the matter and it is unlikely that the legal aspect of the case will be contested because, as was pointed out, the law is on the side of those through whom the original action was taken to suppress the play. If, however, any legal action is taken, it will probably be by the Canadian Labour Defence League, a member of the Student League informed The Varsity.

CONDUCTS RESEARCH IN FRENCH LITERATURE

Professor Green Preparing Comparative Study for Publication

When questioned by The Varsity as to his future plans, Prof. F. C. Green of the French Department at University College, stated that his three months' leave will be spent in Europe carrying out investigation work in connection with a book which he is at present writing on Eighteenth Century literary ideals.

"In a sense," stated Professor Green, "this new book will be a little different from those that I have already published. My published works deal principally with the French novel, whereas this last book is my first attempt at a history of French literature."

Undergraduate Exhibit

The Sketch Room Committee is organizing for the month of February an exhibition of paintings and drawing by undergraduates, similar to the one held a year ago. All undergraduates who wish to participate are cordially invited to bring their works to the Warden's office before Wednesday, February 7, at 5.00 p.m. This is the second year that these paintings and drawings have been shown separately and it is hoped that many will contribute to make this exhibition a very successful one.

COSTLY PENALTIES SPELL DEFEAT FOR BLUE HOCKEYISTS IN FALLS

ALEX. M. MILLER

Director of Advertising of the Chrysler Corporation of Canada Limited and President of the Association of Canadian Advertisers, who will deliver an address on the subject "A way of finding out what your life work will be," in Victoria College chapel tonight at 5 o'clock. This meeting is being arranged by the vocational guidance committee of the Victoria Alumni Association and is open to all male students of the University.

NOMINATIONS HELD FOR MOSS AWARD

Candidates Are Elected by Fellow Students in Fourth Year

THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS

With the nominations for Moss Scholarship candidates completed in University College and elections there, and in Victoria, Trinity and St. Michael's to be held in the near future, general interest has been roused in the scholarship itself and those who have held it in the past. It is an annual award of three hundred dollars, unique because the candidates are men or women who have been chosen by their fellows in fourth year Arts. The award is given to one of these college representatives by a committee composed of the President of the University, the President of the Alumni Federation and three of its members.

The John H. Moss Memorial Fund first granted awards in 1921 when Harold D. Brown, Vic, and P. A. Child, Trinity, were joint recipients. Mr. Brown became a Professor of Biology and Agriculture in the West (Continued on Page 4)

VACCINE FOR PREVENTION OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS

On the track of information concerning the remarkable discovery of Dr. Brodie concerning a vaccine for the prevention of infantile paralysis, a representative of The Varsity waited upon Dr. Defries, Associate Director of the School of Hygiene. After gaining an interview with him, several questions were asked concerning the commercial possibilities and practical success of the discovery, in reply to which Dr. Defries replied with a smile, "I do not believe The Varsity would be interested in it." The interview ended with this.

Dr. Brodie, a recent graduate of McGill University, is a clever and conscientious worker and in reward for his scholastic abilities at McGill was given the opportunity to go to New York to carry on his research. He is known both personally and indirectly by several members of this University.

Cataracts Score Four Times
When Varsity Man in Hoosegow

FINAL SCORE IS 5-2

Visitors Fail to Get Breaks but Show Plenty of Speed

Costly penalties spelled defeat for Warren Stevens' gallant band of Blue warriors when they clashed with Gene Fraser's fast travelling Cataracts in their senior O.H.A. fixture at Niagara Falls last night. Leading 5-2 at the end of a hectic sixty minutes of hockey the score was a good indication of the play although on the breaks Varsity were anything but fortunate and Referee Farrell emphasized this with several questionable decisions.

Seven penalties were handed out to the Blue team while Niagara deserved only four. Four of the Cataracts' goals were sent home while Varsity were short handed. In the matter of speed the light Student aggregation were equal if not superior to the Falls but when the Blue team were short handed they were unable to withstand the terrific attack of the Cataracts who went madly in search of goals and the victory which would give them precious points in the senior O.H.A. race. The two points garnered last night gave the Falls a tie for third position with the Torontos.

Frank Shipp, the stellar net guardian for the Toronto team, turned in an exceptionally brilliant performance. Time after time Shipp stepped out of his net to stop vicious thrusts of the speedy Niagara team when they broke clear. Gene Fraser's team won with a three-point margin but in doing so they were aided by the breaks and they were playing at the top of the (Continued on Page 3)

JOURNALIST FIELD ATTRACTS WOMEN

Women Writers Now Working in Every Department of the Press

FINE OPPORTUNITIES

"The vast majority of writers in the world today are women; there are well over one thousand women in Canada at present who are earning their livelihood by writing," said Mrs. J. G. Althouse, speaking yesterday afternoon to the University Women's Press Club. Mrs. Althouse, who is a former president of the Toronto branch of the Canadian Women's Press Club, continued with her topic, "Canadian Women in Journalism", by briefly sketching some of the work done by women journalists. The first of these, notably Katherine Parr Trail and Mrs. Susannah Moodie, were Canadian by adoption, but there soon appeared Canadian-born women writers.

One of these was Sarah Janet Duncan, who was the first woman to be admitted to the Press Gallery in Ottawa. Women also took their part as political writers and were instrumental in obtaining woman suffrage in Canada.

Of recent years women have penetrated into other fields and we now have women sports writers, publicity writers and even war correspondents.

"I think you will agree with me that we have talent, perseverance, courage and singleness of purpose among our women writers. They are working side by side with men, asking no favours from them and receiving none. Let us hope that the key-note of the future will be co-operation with and not competition from the men," said Mrs. Althouse in conclusion.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—E. C. Phelan

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 17th, 1934

THE THIRD OF A SERIES

The man who considers womankind objectively is impressed either with their apathy towards the social problems of the day or with their sentimental hope that woman will yet prove their equality with man by sharing his executive and legislative powers. This apathy would not be denied by the most ardent feminist. Should she be aroused from it the results would be tremendous. One might discover her accepting with alacrity the kind offer of a ward politician to escort her in his limousine to the polling booth. One might even, if one were a Secret Service agent, uncover evidence to prove that she was using her vote with intelligence. Even if this Utopian situation should come to pass, our despair of political measures to effect social reconstruction would lead us to discount the value of her contribution in this field. One generation is not long enough to discover if women could attain the heights reached by men in the field of political endeavour; enough time has elapsed, however, since the emancipation of women to see the suffragette's ideal considerably modified to permit us to wonder whether or not more familiar method should be used in attacking the insistent problems presented by our chaotic world.

Here it is necessary to resort to platitudes—to say with thousands of bewildered pater familias of the eighties that women's place is in the home. Where we would differ from these gentlemen would be in maintaining that through the medium of the home women can be truly effectual in bringing about reconstruction. The wife who knows when and where to insert a diplomatic monosyllable would never achieve the desired result. It would be the woman who by acquainting herself with social and economic problems could form intelligent opinions; it would be the woman who realizes that duty to her family is complementary to duty to the state. To advise a university woman concerning matters pertaining to family life may be somewhat facetious. The fact remains that it is the unusual woman among them who does not consider marriage as a possible career. If this were not the case it would be most deplorable. No one is better fitted to assume responsibilities of this kind than the woman who has been exposed to the best that modern education has to offer. To refuse to recognize this would be as ill-considered as to accept the view, unfortunately held by many, that higher education is wasted upon a woman if she marries before she has attained success from the monetary point of view.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

CHURCH AND STATE

The Editor, The Varsity.

Dear Sir:
Your argument in Monday's Varsity concerning the relation of Church and State deserves some comment. You say that "The State seeks the social good as an end in itself, whereas the Church seeks the social good to glorify God and in obedience to His will." Begging your pardon, Mr. Editor, aren't you just trying to humbug yourself? What rational being is going to "seek the social good" in order to "glorify" an abstraction where his own needs provide a practical reason for doing so?

You also say that "strife per se is acknowledged by both Church and State to be evil." This is ridiculous. Guns which were used in the Great War were blessed by Dr. Cody himself while clergymen, from innumerable pulpits, exhorted the youth of every nation to throw away their lives for the State. Perhaps you mean only strife between the Church and State. On this point you would be well advised to consult a history of Europe.

Peace reigns between Church and State in America not because "they employ practically the same methods" but because manifestly they do not. The State is an economic mechanism, the Church an art form, and the greatest degree of accord is to be found between them when neither encroaches upon the other's territory. The Church, like all art forms, exists so that primitive instinctive behaviour, which is no longer compatible with a social existence, may be expressed in socially acceptable symbols.

When Dr. Cody advises against the Church participating in practical politics, in all probability he is courageously admitting that the leaders of that excellent institution are, for the most part, unfitted to deal with practical problems in economics. They are, after all, not economists but artists. Their work lies in providing an emotional outlet which is sufficiently satisfying to prevent unsocial behaviour on the part of maladjusted individuals. —D.G.W.

TOMALSKI CORRECTED

The Editor, The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

May I take this opportunity of adding a few explanatory notes to the article in The Varsity (No. 64, of Jan. 16, 1934), concerning the interview with Mr. Tomalski, about Polish students.

As I am quite familiar with the educational systems in most European countries including that of Poland I would like to correct a few points in the above interview.

The course in the so-called "Gymnazjum" is a course of eight years and not as stated "about six". This course corresponds to the Canadian High School and College, and the final examination gives the candidate a degree of Bachelor of Arts in different courses, as in: Philosophy, Classics, Humanities, Biological and Mathematical Sciences, Commerce, etc., etc.

There is a distinct difference between College and University. The studies at the University are extremely professional and the only degrees conferred there are those of Master and Doctor.

Mr. Tomalski is quite wrong in forming that "those who desire to enter the teaching profession go into the 'Politechnika'—the 'Politechnika' (in

Art, Music and Drama

A.C. Players' Guild

Upon the invitation of the Players' Guild of University College, Lorne Campbell's group of the Victoria College Dramatic Club will present Insomnia, a modern morality play by H. F. Rubinstein, in the Women's Union at 4:15 p.m. today.

Insomnia is an interesting experiment. Its action is represented as taking place in the interior of a junior clerk's mind, as its owner vainly tries to get to sleep after a hectic day. The troubled state of the youth's mind as he seeks slumber is presented through the use of symbolic characters, "the Ego, Memory, Curiosity, Conscience, Melody, Hope, Fear and Life Force, and, of course, 'excruciating nerves'". Altogether the play should prove to be a most interesting and rather unusual entertainment.

Mr. Rubinstein is a London solicitor, but devotes much of his time to the art of playwriting. His work commands admiration for its variety of form and subject, and his style is distinctive. He has collaborated with other English dramatists in several notable instances.

Massey Hall

One of the most celebrated operatic singers in the world today last night rejoiced a large Massey Hall audience. For those who have frequently heard her over the radio, or elsewhere, Miss Lily Pons' singing needs little exposition. As a coloratura soprano she seems almost unsurpassable, but her art is not ostentatiously spectacular.

English "Polytechnic," word derived from Greek polus = numerous, and techné = science) is a School of Applied Science and Engineering of University standing. On the other hand students wishing to devote themselves to the teaching profession attend the so-called "Seminarium" which in some respect could correspond to the Canadian Normal College, where at the end of their course (5 years after High School) they become Bachelor of Arts in Paed.

I do not wish to discuss the political situation, for it is quite delicate.

If Mr. Tomalski would like to discuss the matter still more fully I am always willing.

I remain yours truly,
Count Arthur de Bystrice, B.A., LL.B., II Meds.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY ANNOUNCES LECTURES

Will Deal with Discovery and Settlement of Ontario

The Ontario Historical Society has announced a series of six lectures dealing with the discovery and settlement of Canada, and the early development of the city of Toronto. These lectures will be held in Trinity College every Saturday afternoon, commencing on February 10th.

On this date Hon. Louis A. Cote will speak on "Jacques Cartier". His Honour, the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario will act as chairman. The three following lectures will portray the activities of the Loyalists. Professor G. M. Wrong will be heard on Feb. 17, speaking on "The Loyalist Background". The Honourable, the Prime Minister of Ontario will be in the chair. On Feb. 24, Professor Chester Martin will speak on "The Loyalists in New Brunswick", with the Reverend and Honourable, the President of the University in the chair. "The Loyalists in Ontario" will be Dr. Geo. H. Locke's topic on the following Saturday. The President of the U.E.L. Association of Canada will be chairman of the meeting. Professor A. H. Young will commence the history of our city with "Toronto, and Why it Grew", on March 10. His Worship, Mayor W. J. Stewart will occupy the chair. T. A. Reed, Esq., of Hart House, will conclude the series with "The Story of Toronto", the chairman of the meeting being the Reverend, the Provost of Trinity College.

lar, but pure and exquisite in every detail. One hesitates to write anything at all about a performance of such sheer delight, which also is a demonstration of first rate musicianship.

The programme opened quietly with a beautiful and chaste Rameau Aria, followed by a more melodious Handel song, and an air from Getty's Zemire el Azor, with which began the evening's vocal fireworks. Better yet was the famous Rossini Una voce poco fa, to which Miss Pons' voice is perfectly adapted, and which, as one who is essentially an operatic star, she commands perfectly. But her character as a coloratura singer by no means precludes a satisfactory treatment of lyrical work. I scarcely thought that Miss Pons could have sung the first three songs of her third group with such remarkable beauty; it is difficult to imagine the Pergolesi composition sung with more delicate poignance, so simple, and so moving, and the Rimsky Korsakoff Rose and the Nightingale was quite as good. Less enjoyable was the next group, but the climax of the evening was in the magnificent performance of the Mad Scene from Lucia di Lammermoor, in which Miss Pons was ably assisted by Mr. Walter Whitaker, first flautist of the Toronto Symphony. Of such singing, as I intimated above, there is little to say in a cursory review.

Mr. Whitaker himself contributed a group of flute solos. One wonders whether the skill of this fine musician is well enough appreciated. Certainly his virtuosity last night was both impressive and delightful.

N.E.L.

It is reported that the sinuous Mae West has received threats from an irate band of criminals, in connection with an impending trial with which Miss West is involved. Accordingly, a police bodyguard has been assigned her.

C-C

Perhaps some one offered to come up and see her some time.

C-C

We would suggest that a certain well-known couplet by the late Mr. Gilbert be qualified. The couplet that is, beginning "When constabulary duty is to be done, to be done . . ."

C-C

The notorious writer and bibliophile Hugh Canthys Felloughy has just related to us another of his remarkable experiences. A female voice over the telephone desired from an educational book department a "four cent book on the three apostles." It was in due time discovered.

C-C

The work alluded to was a primer relating the story of Peter, John and Mary.

C-C

And we had many even more pungent anecdotes to tell. But the arch-enemy of humour, the Night Editor, has taken matters into his own hand and applied the closure.

C-C

Which means that a well-earned rest comes to Neil.

Note.—The Night Editor has taken it into his own hands once again, having used four more lines to fill out this kawllymme. N.E.

CONFERENCE SPEAKER

IS DR. KOTSCHNIG
(Continued from Page 1)

to international aspects of Race, Unemployment and Nationalism.

To present their reports to the Toronto students the delegates to Hamilton have arranged a supper party at the Women's Union on Thursday, January 18th, 1934, at 6 p.m., which will be chaired by a student of international affairs, Sasha Davidson.

As it is some time since the S.C.M. has had an interfaculty party special events of a social nature will be included.

THE FOLLOWING DANCE ORCHESTRAS

Led by Undergraduates of The University of Toronto are Members of

The Toronto Musical Protective Association and Respect the Ethics of FAIR COMPETITION

FRED EVIS and His Orchestra
LORIE HESSIN, and His Orchestra
EDMUND HOUSTON and His Orchestra
ROY LOCKSLEY and His Orchestra
KARL MUELLER and Varsity Entertainers
STANLEY ST. JOHN and His Orchestra
WRIGHT BROTHERS ORCHESTRA
CLIFFORD T. YOUNG and His Orchestra

Any of the above undergraduates will be pleased to furnish experienced musicians for all social functions.

$1.00 WILL REPAIR YOUR WATCH
NO MATTER HOW BADLY BROKEN
Cleaning, if necessary, 75c. extra
GUARANTEED 2 YEARS
FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY!
CITY WATCH & JEWELRY
HOSPITAL Est. 1921
163-7 Yonge St.—Room 12
OPP. SIMPSON'S TAKE ELEVATOR
MAIL ORDERS—POSTAGE EXTRA

Newest Tuxedos, Dress Suits, and Evening Wraps
FOR RENT
Also Complete Outfits
Open Evenings
FREEMAN'S
256 College St. KI. 0991
571 Yonge St. KI. 3270

Testimonies of Christian Science Healing
To-night at 8 o'clock
at St. George St. cor. Lowther Ave.
In the main auditorium of
First Church of Christ Scientist
These testimonies are a feature of the regular Wednesday evening meeting, and present a convenient opportunity for all students of the University of Toronto to become informed of the demonstrable results of the Science of Christianity or Christian Science.

NOW OPEN
Toastette Tea Rooms
53 Harbord Street
Delicious Home Cooking
Moderate Priced
Open 8 a.m. to 11 p.m.
Sundays 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.
Special Noonday Lunch, 25c.
Full Course Evening Dinner for 25c., 30c. and 55c.

DANCING LESSONS
GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps
6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1865

EYES EXAMINED
37 Years' Experience
ALL STYLES OF FRAMES
(Prices lower than the lowest, quality considered.)
F. E. LUKE, Optometrist
167 YONGE ST.—Upstairs
(Opp. Simpson's)

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.

Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

TORONTONENSIS REPRESENTATIVES

A VERY IMPORTANT MEETING

of all

Torontonensis Representatives will be held on

To-day, January 17th, at 5 p.m.

in the Women's Union, St. George St.

It is most important for the success of this year's book that a full attendance be on hand.

JR. BLUE CAGERS PLAY HOSTS TO WEST END TO-NIGHT

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

At a meeting of the women's athletic directorate on Monday Marg Rose was appointed manager of the senior intercollegiate basketball team. Marg starred in the St. Hilda's interfaculty games before Christmas and is now making a good showing in the big team practices.

It was also decided that those doing post-graduate work would not be allowed to play intercollegiate basketball. This seems to be a wise decision as there are a large number of excellent undergraduate players turning out. It was the unanimous opinion of the directorate that these should get first preference. Eighteen players are few enough to represent a university of this size. There is plenty of promising material that must be turned down anyway, without making it unduly discouraging by hanging on to stars who have graduated.

The dates for the intercollegiate hockey games have been settled. On February 3 our pucksters meet Queen's down in Kingston and on February 17 the return game will be played off in a double-header with the Varsity-Port Colborne game.

With the first game so close, it is possible that Coach MacPherson will be cutting down his squad this week. It is fairly safe to predict that the five veterans of last year's team, Eleanor Sanson, Billie Fowler, Jean Atkinson, Mary Rous and Pat Thompson will find places on the line-up.

The schedule for interfaculty hockey will be out this week and the games should be starting in about two weeks. None of the colleges have been able to get in any decent practice so far, but we still have high hopes and why not? We nearly donned our own skates to come down to the Press and we still think it would have been an awfully good idea.

Harold Arnpup has consented to coach the Vic team. Prospects look pretty good for the Scarlet and Gold outfit with Molly Slater, a player of intercollegiate calibre, though unfortunately ineligible, heading the line-up.

About twenty girls have signed the list at U.C. although they expect several of last year's players back the quality of the team is unknown as the first practice is today. However, with Bobby Coulter coaching them, we shall sit back and wait to be shown things.

St. Mike's is yet another unpracticed team and even worse off than U.C. for this will be their first entry in the interfaculty hockey tournament in three years. We hope for their sakes that Rosamund McCullough, Agnes Gardiner and Betty Shanahan will give as good an account of themselves on the ice as they did on the basketball floor.

Athol Wesley, who had such success with the basketball team is coaching the Saints. They had a good turnout at their first practice last night, especially from the freshmen. They have lost a number of good players but are hopeful of working up the new material into a creditable team. Kay Grubbe on defence and Mary MacDonald in goal were the pick of the team last night.

Meds are hoping to keep their team within their own faculty as the hockey team has always been. This is an admirable spirit but we are wondering what will happen to those in the new faculty of Public Health who have been hoping to play with them. However, Meds will be able to decide more definitely after the first practice today whether or not they will take outside assistance.

RIFLE CHAMPIONSHIP

The University of New Brunswick again holds the Dominion rifle championship.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By Wm. A. Crocker

Warren Stevens' Blue pucksters have apparently not "drained the dregs of defeat" completely. In last night's encounter with Niagara Falls it seems that the Blues were the victims of Lady Luck's whimsical fancies as they received a 5-2 setback. The Power City sextet capitalized on two Varsity penalties to the tune of four goals. That tells the story almost completely. The fifth was a gift, being scored accidentally by a Blue hockeyist in his frantic haste to clear. The defeat last night was the second in as many starts and we fear that the senior puckchasers are off on another streak—a losing one. From reports it seems that the game was wide open and fast and provided many a thrill for the spectators present, which incidentally were not few in number.

Tonight Coach McCutcheon's junior basketball squad swings into action again against the West End Y aggregation. The junior Blues have a great deal of power in their line-up as is evident in the record of their performances to date. In five games played they have come out on the wrong end of the decision only twice, both in engagements with the champions from Broadview. In both of these contests the Blues played well below their usual form. This was especially true of Kinsey the real threat on the team who turned in very mediocre performances. However the rest of the team seems to have regained its style and if last Saturday night's tilt is a sample of what the squad can do, the Blues will surely be heard from before they pass out of the picture. Kinsey and Miller, the regular forwards, seem to be playing better ball now and with the steady influence of Krakauer on defence the Blues are expected to take tonight's engagement by a comfortable margin. The game starts at 8.30 p.m. and there will be no admission charge.

After Lew Hayman's squad vacated the big gym floor Varsity's all-star lacrosse aggregation made things hum as they passed the rubber sphere around with deadly accuracy. Although last night's practice was only the second for the all-stars, they showed some unlooked-for teamwork. On Friday afternoon the squad will leave for Rochester to do battle with the Rochester Indians. It is generally believed that if the trip is successful the all-stars will leave on an American tour next spring. However nothing definite is known about the proposed trip as yet.

Speaking to Mr. T. A. Reed yesterday we were informed that the proposed visit of the boxing team of Syracuse University this Saturday has definitely been postponed for a year. The rumours which have been maliciously spread that the boxing coaches were going to use the Sporting Staff of The Varsity to fill the gap were thus definitely spiced by Mr. Reed's statement. The cause for the cancellation of this year's visit is quite apparent—a lack of capable material with which Coach Les Black could work. This surely is a lamentable situation, which could have been remedied if a little more interest in this line of sport had been shown since the boxers certainly have a good set of coaches. However it is to be hoped that a similar situation will not arise next year.

Yesterday's interfaculty basketball and baseball contests certainly provided good entertainment for the many spectators present. In the baseball tilt the fans saw two of the best hurlers in the series in action as Jr. U.C. emerged on the long end of a 3-2 count against Jr.S.P.S. In the basketball game the Jr. Medicals showed the fighting qualities of true champions when they came from behind to nose out Jr. Vic by an 18-15 decision. Last year's interfaculty basketball champs have lost the services of Sugar, this year with Yolles A.C. in the Big Six, but apparently have partly filled the gap with new men in the first year.

U.C. JUNIORS EKE OUT BASEBALL DECISION

Game is Featured by Excellent Pitching on Both Sides

Jr. U.C. took a close decision from Jr. S.P.S. in an interfaculty baseball game yesterday in the lower gym. It was a very hard battle with the edge going to U.C. in the last inning. The final score was 3-2.

The game was featured by excellent pitching. Ganz of U.C. obtained seven strikeouts and allowed four hits, while McLaughlin of School struck out eleven men and allowed five hits in the five innings played. Ganz featured a change of pace that had the School batters swinging hard but McLaughlin depended on a well controlled fast ball for his effectiveness. Errors on the part of the Engineers gave U.C. two of their three runs.

School had its big inning in the second when they got their two runs on two hits and an error. U.C. lost a fine opportunity in the third inning when they had three men on base with none out and managed to score only one run on an error. The next three men threw away their fine chance by striking out. U.C. obtained their final run on an error in the last inning. Cole, catcher, and Gluskin, were effective in the field for the winners, while Purcell played well for the Engineers.

Jr. U.C.—Gluskin, Thompson, Fowler, Laskin, Ganes, Cole, Harris, Kruger, Ganz.

Jr. School—Carrell, Pidduck, Purcell, Quance, McLaughlin, MacMillan, Hesler, Paddon, Willmott.

SCHOOL OF NAVIGATION

The School of Navigation at Queen's University has an enrollment of twenty students this year.

MEDS LOOPERS WIN RAGGED TILT 18-15

Junior Vic Defence too Weak to Withstand Meds' Sallies

The junior Meds team defeated the junior Vic team 18-15 last night in the upper gym in the second game of the basketball series.

In the first half the play was very ragged on both sides. Victoria was the poorer of the two and let the Meds in repeatedly but they just couldn't seem to score. The Meds defence was more efficient but they were too rough and Vic scored four points on foul shots. The Meds also had superior combination and team play. In spite of this the score was 8-8 at the half-time mark.

In the second half Vic came back with a rush and led their opponents by one point for most of the period, but Meds rallied with a three point lead to win the game.

Metzler, Fenner and Wise turned in the best performances for the winners. Wolfe and Faux were the best for Victoria.

Jr. Meds—Wise, Metzler, Newton, Fenner, Medlock, Zarsky, Crocker, Laski, Epping.

Jr. Vic—Wolfe, Faux, Higgins, Saunders, Dutton, McPherson, Beatty, Vaughan, Cockfield.

Referee—McKibbin.

MODERN LITERATURE

Professor W. O. Raymond of the University of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, is of the opinion that at the present time in literature we are "in a sense wandering between two worlds, one of them is dead, and the other struggling to be born".

Men's Tailored-to-measure Suits

19.50

Some of the Biggest Stores in the World Asked SIMPSONS How they did it . . . And We Thought We Could Never Do It Again!

The selection of woollens is the finest we have yet seen, at or near the price—more than 175 patterns, the majority advance designs for Spring, in every wanted colour—worsted, tweeds, Saxones and serges. The tailoring is the kind that has established Simpsons as headquarters of made-to-measure clothing. The sale continues Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Home Lovers Club Terms if you desire. $5 now, the balance in three equal monthly amounts. No interest. No fees. No extras.

Simpsons—Second Floor

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

BASKETBALL SCHEDULES

BIG SIX SCHEDULE

Jan. 20 Varsity at Niagara Falls
24 St. Catharines at Varsity
31 Varsity at St. Mike's
Feb. 7 Niagara Falls at Varsity
10 Varsity at McMaster
15 St. Mike's at Varsity
19 Varsity at Yolles
21 McMaster at Varsity
24 Varsity at St. Catharines

INTERCOLLEGIATE

Jan. 27 Western at Varsity
Feb. 1 Varsity at O.A.C.
9 Varsity at McMaster
17 Varsity at Western 21 McMaster at Varsity
Mar. 3 O.A.C. at Varsity

JUNIOR "Y"

Jan. 17 West End at Varsity
20 Varsity at Broadview
24 Y.M.H.A. at Varsity
Feb. 3 Varsity at Y.M.H.A.
7 West End at Varsity
10 Varsity at West End

MECHANICAL ENGINEERS FORM STUDENT BRANCH

Professor Allent announced last night that a student branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers would be formed in Toronto by permission of the society. An inaugural meeting will be held this afternoon in the Mechanical Building. Membership in the society entitles engineers to a variety of technical literature published by them, and in addition provides valuable contact with experienced mechanical engineers.

BLUES SUFFER DEFEAT IN NIAGARA FALLS

(Continued from Page 1)

form which carried them to an O.H.A. championship last season.

Two goals in last night's contest were of a rather unusual nature. Henry Lauzon should be credited with an assist when Hendry's shot caromed off his pads into the Falls net. Charlie Sweeney was the other unfortunate who scored on his own team when he was attempting to clear.

A penalty to Jimmie McPherson in the opening frame paved the way for the opening pair of counters for the Falls, which came within ten seconds of each other. Up to this time Varsity were playing the Falls off their feet. Twice more in the second period the red light flashed behind the Varsity net and this time it was Cunningham who was in the penalty box. Previous to this Hendry had moved Varsity within one point of the Falls when his shot beat Cuthbert after rebounding off Lauzon.

In the final frame both teams turned on the pressure and McPherson scored a beautiful goal on a solo effort. Another goal a few minutes later was disallowed. Hunter completed the scoring for the Falls.

The game produced the best brand of hockey to be viewed in the Falls for some time. The two thousand customers were kept in an uproar throughout and were still hanging on to their seats when the final whistle went.

Niagara Falls—Goal, Cuthbert; defence, Kalbfleisch, Lauzon; centre, Hastie; wings, Hunter, Peterkin; subs,

Sport Notices

U.C. Women—
Hockey practice today, 5-6, at the Varsity Arena.

Interfaculty Basketball—
Applications will be received at the Athletic Office up to January 20 for positions on the interfaculty basketball board of referees.

Sr. School Water Polo—
Game tonight at 5.30 with Sr. U.C. Team will be same as last game.

Jr. U.C. Baseball—
Practice Wednesday, 1-2.

Jr. School Water Polo—
Wednesday, January 17th, 5 p.m. sharp. Following players ready to play: Thompson, Boyle, Pittis, Clarke, Eggert, Hollands, Morgan, Hoag, Keith, Young. Short meeting in S-5, 1.30 p.m. All out.

Marcuso, Hoch, Bowman, Steel.
Varsity—Goal, Shipp; defence, Campbell, Fullerton; centre, McPherson; wings, Hendry, McConvey; subs, Williamson, Sweeney, Cunningham, Jeffrey.

Referee—Farrell.

MT. ALLISON UNIVERSITY
Two new buildings of the University of Mount Allison, Centennial Hall and the Academy are soon to be officially opened.

Coming Events

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 17
 8.15—Political Science Club, Blue Room, Wymilwood. Mr. Lionel Gelber will speak on "The Crisis in World Diplomacy".
 9 a.m.—Women's ticket list for Arts Ball opens in the U.C. women's cloak room. See notice board there for further particulars.
 8.00 p.m.—Mass meeting to protest against suppression of the play Eight Men Speak, under the auspices of the Progressive Arts Club. All students urged to attend. Hygieia Hall, 40 Elm Street.
 5 p.m.—Medical Society, Room 111 Anatomy Building. Speaker, Hon. Dr. Herbert A. Bruce.
 8.15—U.C. Classical Association meets at the Union, 79 St. George St.
 4.15—Players' Guild presentation at the Women's Union.
 4 p.m.—Women's interfaculty debating union at the Women's Union. Important business and impromptu debate. Tea will be served.
 5 p.m.—Open meeting in Victoria College Chapel for all male students interested in Vocational Guidance. The address will be given by Mr. A. M. Miller, Director of Advertising, Chrysler Corporation of Canada.
 8.15—Meeting of the Italian-Spanish Club at the Women's Union. Music. Speaker. Refreshments.
 6.15 p.m.—Vic men's S.C.M. supper party at Burwash Hall. Speaker, Mr. Addy.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 18
 7.30 p.m.—Regular meeting of the Foresters' Club will be held in the west common room of Hart House. Mr. K. G. Fensom of the Dominion Hardwood Bureau will be the guest speaker. Refreshments will be served. Regular U.C. and P. meeting cancelled.
 4 p.m.—U.C. Parliamentary Club in the junior common room.
 8.15 p.m.—Liberal Club meeting, Music Room, Hart House. Mr. Lewis Duncan will speak and lead a discussion on "Liberalism and the Combined".
 5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club in Hart House Music Room.
 8 p.m.—Meeting of the English and History Club at the home of Miss MacLean, Bayview Ave.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19
 8.30—School Night at Hart House. John Crawford and his orchestra. St. Joseph's College annual At-Home, Alexander Room, King Edward Hotel. Luigi Romanelli's orchestra.
 SATURDAY, JANUARY 20
 7.45 p.m.—374 Victoria "Young and Old" party.
 8.00 p.m.—376 Victoria informal class party at Annesley Hall. Music by Murray Armstrong's orchestra. Dancing 8 till 11.30.
 Beta Sigma Rho fraternity annual at-home, Primrose Club, Willocks St.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 21
 9 a.m.—Holy Communion in Hart House Chapel.
 MONDAY, JANUARY 22
 Men's Glee Club in Hart House Music Room.
 8 p.m.—Victoria College Debating Parliament, Alumni Hall.

Classified Advertisements

FOR RENT
 Attractive accommodation for men students, University vicinity. Phone Kingsdale 7015 from 4.30 to 7.30 p.m.

TYPING
 Theses and notes typed reasonably. Miss Fox, La. 0768.

TYPING
 Stenographer wishes to do typing for students. Reasonable rate. Call KI. 9954.

CONTEMPLATING CHANGE?
 Willocks-Huron—Inspect these comfortable, warm, double, single rooms, hot running water galore. Kingsdale 6091.

DEBATES BY RADIO BEGIN NEXT WEEK

Toronto to Meet Western and Dalhousie to Meet McGill

SCHEQUE PREPARED

The schedule for the undergraduate debates which are to be broadcast by the Canadian Radio Commission, and which will decide the championship of Eastern Canada, has been submitted to The Varsity by Mr. W. J. Dunlop, of the University Extension. The time in each case is 7.30 p.m. to 8 p.m., Eastern Standard Time. The winning team is to meet the champions of Western Canada on February 27 for the Dominion title.

The debates begin on January 23, when Toronto will uphold the resolution, "Resolved that it is not advisable to have a speed limit for motorists," against Western. On the same date McGill and Dalhousie will present the arguments for and against the abolition of capital punishment.

On January 30 Dalhousie is to meet the University of New Brunswick to defend the resolution "Resolved that the Canadian farmer is of greater importance to our country than the Canadian manufacturer," and Western will attempt to justify "the publication of crime news in the newspapers" with McMaster upholding the negative.

The next debate in which the Toronto team will take part is to be held on February 6, on the subject, "Resolved that special legislation for women is preferable to equal rights." McMaster will uphold the affirmative. New Brunswick is to meet McGill on the same date to uphold the motion "Resolved that the pioneer women contributed more to the welfare of the home and the community than do the modern women." In the next two weeks the Eastern Canada champions will be decided by elimination, and on February 27 will be matched with the winners in the West.

In these debates, it is stipulated that when a team representing an English-speaking university is taking the affirmative against a French-speaking university, the first debater will speak in English, the second in French, the third in French, the fourth in English, and the first debater will give his final rebuttal in English. When the reverse situation arises, the arrangement is to be reversed. It is not necessary that the same debating team represent a university throughout the series; new debaters may be selected each time.

The Canadian Radio Broadcasting Commission is considering the presentation of a shield to the winners in each network and a larger shield to the winner for all Canada.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 23
 4 p.m.—Engineering Society meeting in C 22, Mining Building.

8 p.m.—C.C.F. Club at 79 St. George St. Prof. F. H. Underhill.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24
 7.30-8.30—U.C. women's S.C.M. in Falconer House common room, 85 St. George St. Mrs. Jean Hutchinson will speak on "A Christian Basis for Life". All U.C. women invited.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 25
 M. and P. annual at-home, Oak Room, Union Station.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 26
 The Arts Ball, Great Hall at Hart House. Stan St. John's orchestra. Medical At-Home, Royal York Hotel. Supper dance with Wright Brothers' orchestra in attendance.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 27
 S.C.M. International Conference.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 28
 S.C.M. International Conference.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30
 375 S.P.S. junior dance at the Pavilion Blue Room. Refreshments. Dancing to music by the Kampus Katz orchestra.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31
 7.00 p.m.—Commerce Club annual banquet in the Great Hall, Hart House. Sir William Clark, British High Commissioner to Canada, will speak on "Recent changes in the conception of the State's relation to business."

9.00 p.m.—Iota Alpha Pi subscription dance, Embassy Club, Newman hall, Royal York Hotel.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m., notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB

Mr. Lionel Gelber, B.Litt. (Oxon.), will address the club on "The Crisis in World Diplomacy". Mr. Gelber is a Rhodes Scholar of 1930 from Toronto, and has been studying at Balliol College, Oxford, and doing special work under Professor Zimmern on Anglo-American Relations. Wynillwood, Wed., Jan. 17 at 8.15. Blue Room.

U.C. WOMEN'S S.C.M.

The regular meeting of the series will be postponed until next Wednesday, January 24. Mrs. J. D. H. Hutchinson will speak on "A Christian Basis for Life".

374 VICTORIA

"Come young folks, come old folks" to our novelty class party at Wymilwood, Saturday, Jan. 20. Come dressed as a kid or one of the kid's grandparents. Dancing at 7.45 to Harold Taylor's orchestra. Refreshments, prizes, games and heaps of fun for everybody. Let's have the whole year out for our last novelty party! Admission by year card.

RINK COMMITTEE

There will be a meeting of last year's members of the Varsity Rink Introduction Committee at the Arena on Thursday, January 18, at 5.30.

THE FORUM

Regular meeting of the Forum on Friday of this week at 4 p.m. in Room 4, U.C. Messrs. Silberman and Smyth will speak and M. Minsky will be in the chair.

U.C. WOMEN NOTE!

The women's ticket list for the Arts Ball to be held Friday, January 26, at Hart House, opens this morning at 9 o'clock in the women's cloak room. This is the annual formal at-home of the college, and as the price of admission has been greatly reduced this year, the tickets will be in demand, so sign early in order to secure yours.

MEDICAL SOCIETY

The Hon. Dr. Herbert A. Bruce will be the guest speaker at the open meeting of the Medical Society in Room 111, Anatomy Building, at 5 this afternoon.

NOMINATIONS HELD FOR MOSS AWARDS

(Continued from Page 1)

China Union University in Chengtu. He is now head of research for the Canada and Dominion Sugar Co. of Chatham.

Miss A. M. Hilliard was chosen in 1924. She is now on the staff of the Women's College Hospital.

Miss Nora Story used her award for post graduate work in history. She is doing research now in the Public Archives at Ottawa.

Mr. James G. Endicott, the winner in 1923, took post graduate work in England. For eight years he has been a missionary to Szechwan Province, China. Twice he was near death in the deep waters of the Yangtze-Kiang, once from bandits' bullets, and once through shipwreck.

Last year the award was again divided when Mr. N. A. Shaw and J. R. Anderson received it. They are now at Osgoode Hall.

TRINITY FRENCH SOCIETY

A very amusing presentation of Brieux' comedy "La Rose Bleue" was the feature of last evening's meeting of the Trinity College French Society. The play was ably directed by Mlle. Doris McCordie and the cast which was composed entirely of the third year, included Miles, Hilda Salmon, Enid Palmer, Margaret McCulloch, and Doris McCordie.

Each member who had paid his or her dues was given a copy of "Canada" by Wilfred Bovey, Director of Publicity for McGill University, gratis, and Mr. Walters, honorary president, urged that they study the book as a means of obtaining a better understanding of French Canadian character and culture.

VIC MEN'S S.C.M.

Supper party, Burwash Hall, 6.15 p.m., Wednesday, Jan. 17. Speaker, Mr. Addy. Subject, "Tagore and his International University".

S.C.M.

All students are invited to the supper party in the Women's Union on Thursday, January 18th, at 6.00. There will be reports on Hamilton and games. 25 cents.

VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

There will be an open meeting in Victoria College Chapel today at 5 p.m. on Vocational Guidance. The address will be given by Mr. A. M. Miller, director of advertising of the Chrysler Corporation of Canada Ltd. This meeting is open to all male undergraduates of the University of Toronto.

TRINITY S.C.M.

There will be a meeting of the senior group of the S.C.M. tonight in Room 22, 5th floor, Trinity House, at 9 p.m. Mr. Ted Brain will open a discussion on the Reach and Scope of Prayer.

MEDICAL AT-HOME

Friday, January 26, Wright Brothers' orchestra in attendance. Make table reservations early.

CHEMISTRY SEMINAR

Eighth regular meeting, Wednesday, January 17th, 1934, at 5.05 p.m. in the small lecture room of the Chemical Building. Speaker, F. E. W. Wetmore, B.Sc., N.B. Subject, "Approximate Equations".

ITALIAN-SPANISH CLUB

The Italian-Spanish Club will hold their meeting this Wednesday in the Women's Union at 8.15 p.m. The speaker of the evening is Major F. Davy, O.B.E., who is giving an address on "The Spanish Main and the Buccaneers". A musical programme has also been planned, followed by refreshments.

WOMEN'S DEBATING UNION

Women's Interfaculty Debating Union meeting, 4 p.m., Women's Union. Tea will be served. Important business meeting. Impromptu debate.

DISCUSS RISE OF ENGLISH HOME

(Continued from Page 1)

back to its old form of a log hut with the cattle in one end and the members of the family in the other. The furniture consisted of a central table and benches, for the master an individual bench and the mistress' chest given her at the time of her marriage and often holding her dowry.

As early as 1210 a brick house was built. By 1450 they had come into common use and by this time enough rooms had been added to make it resemble a home of today. Panelling was soon adopted, chiefly for heating purposes and varied in size and form throughout the next centuries.

Professor Curly then outlined the development of this most primitive furniture to our present time. The age of George III has produced the highest grade of furniture.

In conclusion he admonished his audience to buy the best since a good thing is ageless.

VILLARI CLAIMS YOUTH BASIS OF FASCISTI

(Continued from Page 1)

members of the Select Committee expressed the opinion that without the new board these would be of little value.

Commenting upon the defeat of the proposal for a new Athletic Board, a member of the committee responsible for the report issued the following statement to The Varsity.

"Those members who represented the athletic interests of the society on the Select Committee expressed themselves as being in favour of the section dealing with the Athletic Board, as did the remainder of the committee."

CONDUCTS RESEARCH IN FRENCH LITERATURE

(Continued from Page 1)

tempt at a comparative study of English and French works during the eighteenth century. The present book has now gone forward a considerable way toward completion, and I have been using a large part of the material in my lectures.

"My stay in Europe will be largely spent at the British Museum in revising my manuscript," Prof. Green concluded. "At the present time I expect that it will be ready for publication sometime during the spring by J. M. Dent and Son, who have already accepted the manuscript."

SUFFERS INJURIES ON VARSITY CAMPUS

Believed to have stumbled while in the act of fighting his pipe, an elderly gentleman named Wales, of 320 Seaton Street, severely lacerated his face when he fell on the ice at the south end of the campus yesterday afternoon. After receiving first aid in the Engineering Building by members of the Medical Staff and the University Police, he was removed to the General Hospital, suffering from shock and a considerable loss of blood. Hospital authorities later stated that his injuries were not serious, and that after medical attention he had been able to proceed home. He is believed to be a brother of Dr. Henry C. Wales of the Medical Arts Building.

USE WRIGHT BEQUEST TO FOSTER RESEARCH

Despite the much lamented paucity of endowments to the University by its graduates, no excitement was evident in the Department of Biology which yesterday became wealthier to the extent of approximately $15,000. This sum was bequeathed to the University by the recently deceased Dr. Ramsay Wright. The will of the late head of the Biology Department provides for an equal division of his estate between the Universities of Edinburgh and Toronto.

Dr. B. A. Bensley stated that in all probability the bequest will be used for the purpose of fostering research works but was unable to say precisely in what manner the endowment will be dispensed. Other members of the staff concurred with Dr. Bensley's surmise but were unable to say what specific study will benefit by the endowment.

DALHOUSIE TEAM DEFEATED

A debating team from Bates College, Maine, recently defeated Dalhousie University, upholding the negative of the resolution, "That this House deplores the rise of economic nationalism."

Pleasant Dreams

Are yours when you tuck yourself into bed in a kid silk nightgown. So rich and lovely it's really a shame to hide them under the sheets. The lovely lace trimming really makes these nightgowns, evening gowns. You'll adore them in White, Peach or Nile and only $1.98 Kidsilk Slips That cling suavely and smoothly to the figure. Daintily lace trimmed to further enhance their charm. And adjustable straps, too. Can you imagine that for $1.00

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
 (Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
 Phone KI. 3800
 4 other shops in Toronto

Here and There

Twenty-nine men and seven women who pioneered Alberta trails died in the present year. All of them saw the west when it was young, the west that existed before 1895. The current year marks the half century since the Canadian Pacific came to Calgary.

Sailing for New York December 14, the 42,500-ton white-hulled Empress of Britain left on a Christmas and New Year's holiday cruise for the West Indies, December 22, returning to New York January 3 and sailing again January 4 for a 4½-month cruise around the world.

Among the "Believe It or Not" facts wellknown to the generality of newspaper readers, may be added the statement of S. G. Hibben, of the Westinghouse Light Company, made recently in an address at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto that "today there are some 10,000 different kinds of artificial light sources."

Approximately 78,000 people own the Canadian Pacific Railway through their ownership of the company's common stock. Of these, 36,000 live in Canada. Of the balance, 21,000 live in other parts of the British Empire, mostly in England, with 16,000 in the United States and 5,400 in other countries, mostly continental Europe.

For the first time in western Canada, an impressive ceremony, the age-old investiture of the Knights of St. John was held recently at the Hotel Vancouver. Vancouver wien six British Columbian were admitted by King George, sovereign head of the order, to high honors. Old world costumes and strange rites added to the dignity and color of the proceedings.

Railways and their important functions in the economic existence of the State were stressed by G. G. Ommamey, development commissioner of the Canadian Pacific Railway at the annual banquet of the Traffic Club of Hamilton recently. They had, he said, contributed materially to development of natural resources, building up of industries and in promoting land settlement and agriculture.

Railway and motor truck transportation are both essential to the economic wellbeing of Canada and neither should be antagonistic to the other, stated Hon. R. J. Manion, minister of railways and canals, at a national conference on transportation held at Ottawa recently. But, he added, while railways are subject to strict regulation and control, motor truck service has not as yet been brought under any comparable control or regulation.

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 18th, 1934

No. 66

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

The creation of jobs by erection of much needed buildings will probably take the place of relief in Ontario suffering from heart trouble.

Hon. H. H. Stevens renewed his criticism of massed purchasing of retail merchants.

Samuel Insull was declared by his physician to be in a serious condition suffering from heart trouble.

Prime Minister R. B. Bennett declared he was opposed to lotteries on moral grounds.

In protest of present wage schedules, 1200 men and women downtown joined in a devastating strike of clothing employees and dressmakers. They charge inhuman treatment by employers.

Reports judge that 2000 were killed and 10,000 injured in the violent earthquakes in India last Monday. Aerial snaps show huge cracks extending for miles.

In an attempt to secure ratification of the St. Lawrence Waterway Treaty at the U.S. House, Representative Bertram Snell expressed confidence that, while it is impossible for Americans to reach the Great Lakes through the St. Lawrence alone, Canadians could do it unaided, if necessary.

Jr. O.H.A. hockey scores: West Toronto 1, Lions 0; St. Mike's 11, Native Sons 5.

WOMEN DEFEND CLAIM FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

See No Reason Why Women Should be Confined to Home

A great deal of protest was evidenced among the women students with regard to yesterday's editorial. Most of those who were interviewed by The Varsity had definite opinions on women's position in the world.

Miss Jean Mutch, III English and History, exclaimed: "Why should women be denied the privileges of a higher education! Our need for self-expression is certainly as great as that of the male sex. There is absolutely no logical reason why women's activities should be confined to the home. A married woman who has had the benefits of higher education has a broad foundation on which to build an intelligent home life."

"Women can influence the world more through the home, than by going outside of it," said another co-ed who refused to divulge her name. "When they enter the political field they are too apt to spend their time passing resolutions instead of doing things," she went on.

Miss Margaret A. Robinson, III English and History, said: "Marriage is not a career for women. It is utterly unimportant to spend the whole of one's education preparing for marriage. Marriage should not be considered as an end in itself. That women should stay in the home is a myth that was exploded years ago. To try to discuss anything of the sort today is simply ridiculous. As far as voting goes, women can vote as intelligently as men, which isn't saying much."

Miss S. Jourard, II Sociology, said: "There is no such thing as intelligent voting, for either men or women. Of course, women should receive higher education. As a matter of fact it should be universal."

Mrs. B. Tepper, III U.C., said: "A higher education prepares a woman for many things, the important thing being marriage. She has a broader point of view and can always see the two sides

(Continued on Page 2)

ONE ACT OF BANNED PRODUCTION PERFORMED AT MASS MEETING

LIKENS UNIONS BAN TO WAR-TIME RULE

Hitler's Recent Labour Policy Considered Retrogressive Move

GIVES POWER TO RICH

Readers of our morning contemporaries yesterday were surprised to see that Chancellor Hitler had passed a decree abolishing trade unions.

When interviewed by The Varsity, Professor MacKenzie of the Law Department was reluctant to make a statement on the subject because of the lack of available information. He was of the opinion that the ruling would have no great effect on unemployment.

Professor Morgan of the Economics Department, was emphatic in his statement that the change would be "a definite step backward". Present information would indicate that labour interests are to be placed completely under the control of the manufacturers and wealthy classes.

Some very interesting disclosures were made by Mr. C. Wilson Woodside of the staff of the Faculty of Applied Science. Mr. Woodside spent about two months in Germany in the summer of 1931 and the same in 1932.

The actual abolition of the trade unions took place last June. At this time, not only were the unions abolished, but their private funds were confiscated for the use of the Nazi. In addition the extensive German system of social insurance was abolished. This definitely puts the great German working class entirely in the hands of their employers. Incidentally a large portion of the better class of German citizenship, normally of independent means, were rendered penniless by the drop in the value of the mark after the war. Thus the present conditions seem to point to an increasingly complete establishment of the Nazi or Fascist regime; which may be very aptly likened to the military rule established in time of war.

OPINION DIVIDED ON NEW U.C. YELL

Many Believe New Yell to be Preferable in Many Ways to Old

FEW CHANGES SUGGESTED

All students of University College interviewed by The Varsity yesterday agreed that the yell selected by the contest committee was decidedly better than the old one.

Max Patrick, IV U.C., a member of the committee, stated when approached that the yell chosen was "incomparably the best of the nineteen submitted in the competition." "The yell is lively and respectable and fits our need," Mr. Patrick went on to explain that the yell in its present state is a mixture of the two best yells submitted because each was too short by itself.

Mr. Gordon Skilling, IV Political Science, and president of the U.C. Lit., replied as follows: "I think the new yell is better than the old, but it is hard to say just how good it is until it has been given by a crowd. However, if adopted as the official yell, I think it will be quite satisfactory."

G. Harwood, II Pass, was the only student interviewed who suggested a revision of the yell. He thought the

(Continued on Page 4)

"Recitation of the Eight"
Staged as Police
Look On

DELEGATION TO HENRY

Strong Effort to be Made to Obtain Permission for Spring

The Progressive Arts Club finally succeeded in presenting at least one act of the banned play Eight Men Speak, when at a mass meeting in Hygeia Hall last night, with the police looking on, the fourth act of the production was performed. This part of the play consists of a mass recitation of "The Eight". It was staged during a brief intermission without costumes or scenery.

Mr. E. Cecil-Smith announced to the large representation that a delegation from the P.A.C. had an appointment to see Premier Henry on Friday when they would ask that the ban on the play be lifted. They were going to make every effort to get permission to show the play again at the Workers' Theatre International Week in March, and were confident of doing so. If they failed then the working-class movement would lose one of its strongest weapons. It was significant that Canada was the only country in the world not avowedly Fascist which banned workers' plays.

(Continued on Page 2)

EQUALIZATION FUND LIKE BRITAIN'S

No Reason for Further Raise in U.S. Price Levels Says Parkinson

OUR INFLATION UNLIKELY

What does the present devaluation movement in the United States signify, and what is its effect on external trade, and is this move a forerunner of similar Canadian action? The following statement concerning this question was given to The Varsity by Professor J. F. Parkinson.

"So far as I can see President Roosevelt's message to Congress with respect to gold and currency is decided

(Continued on Page 4)

A Letter from the President

January 15, 1934.

To the Editor of The Varsity.
University of Toronto.

Few undergraduates of the University of Toronto have left a deeper impression on their generation than the late John C. Copp, a fourth year student in the Faculty of Medicine. His fine character, his athletic prowess, and his interest in the general welfare of the University made him a most winsome personality. His tragic death aroused widespread sympathy and brought into public light the fine qualities that enabled him to exert the wholesome influence he did in the University, the Church, and social life. His friends rightly felt that there should be established some perpetual memorial of his character. A committee of fourteen has been formed to raise a fund to found a memorial scholarship in medicine in this University. Probably no more fitting memorial could be established. It is hoped to raise a sum sufficient to provide an annual income of $250. In the award of such a scholarship his friends plan that not only will the requirement of scholarship be taken into account, but those gifts and graces of character and conduct which in such a signal degree John Copp possessed.

I very cordially commend this effort to the generous support of our whole University constituency. Contributions for this purpose may be forwarded to Stuart Ferguson, Treasurer John C. Copp Memorial Fund, Simcoe Hall, University of Toronto.

Sincerely yours,

H. J. CODY, President.

HALL LINTON

President of Victoria College Alumni Association, who announced yesterday at a meeting of University undergraduates the beginning of a fourth season of vocational guidance, a plan whereby one graduate from each vocation will give information to the undergraduates of his college.

WILL SUBSIDIZE U.C. MAGAZINE

U.C. Players' Guild May Decide to Affiliate with Literary Society

FRESHMAN FEES TO AID

In the future, the U.C. Literary Society will subsidize the Undergraduate magazine, it was decided at the Tuesday meeting of the Lit. and Athletic Society. The plan adopted is to take 60c from the freshman initiation fees, as well as contributing 10c a year for each U.C. student.

As yet there are no definite plans to subsidize the U.C. Players' Guild. The Guild at present is not affiliated with the Lit. Society, or the women's guild. If it should decide to do so, the subsidy question will come up for future discussion.

The new athletic drops are to be made of bronze. Every manager of an athletic team who sits on the Athletic Board shall receive one.

The new U.C. yell has not yet been adopted as official, though the odds are in its favour. This shall be decided at the next open meeting.

Revive International Competition In Dominion's National Game

MEDICINE AN ART SAYS DR. BRUCE

Humour, Genius and Pedantry Blended in Character of Physician

CULTURE DEFINITE NEED

"Medicine is neither a business nor a profession, but an art demanding a knowledge and an understanding which will give a full sympathy for one's fellow men," said Dr. Herbert Bruce, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, at a well attended meeting of the Medical Society last night.

"A mixture of humorist, genius and pedant" was the description given by Coleridge to Sir Thomas Brown, author of the Religio Medici, and a man whom Dr. Bruce considered to be an example of a doctor whose breadth of culture and depth of vision placed him in the rank of those doctors-savants who are all too rare. A more recent example of this class was Sir William Osler, who always considered that a doctor should have the education, if not of a scholar, of a gentleman.

In a second group Dr. Bruce placed the doctor-authors and mentioned Arthur Conan Doyle, whose immortal character Sherlock Holmes, was based on a study of Dr. Bell, his assistant. "A grateful British people," said Dr. Bruce humorously, "promptly knighted Conan Doyle when he decided to bring his famous detective to life again to

(Continued on Page 3)

VOCATIONAL ADVICE URGENTLY REQUIRED

Many Conditions Determine Course Followed by Youths

COUNCIL VALUABLE

Yesterday afternoon the Alumni Association of Victoria College began its fourth year of vocational guidance work for students of the college. The speaker presented at the opening meeting, which will be followed by groups at which various lines of activity will be discussed by graduates, was Mr. A. M. Miller, Advertising Director of the Chrysler Corporation of Canada, who addressed the meeting on the subject, "A Method of Choosing Your Life Work".

"I have often wondered why some sort of vocational guidance has not played a more important part in our educational system," stated Mr. Miller in introducing his subject. "Perhaps the most valuable knowledge that any young man can possess is the knowledge of what position in life he is most suited to fill."

"There are two methods which can be used in finding out what job a person is most suited for," the speaker pointed out. "The first of these is psychological investigation, which will reveal personal aptitudes fairly accurately. In several respects this method is lacking, however. Although it may point out what job a person is most suited for, there are other factors such as early training, financial conditions and opportunities which will greatly affect the choice of a life work. Besides this, in the business world in particular there are other qualities outside of ability which the individual must possess. The man who succeeds in the business world is the man who has character and experience, as well as ability."

(Continued on Page 4)

Blue Lacrosse Team Crosses American Line First Time in Four Years

AT ROCHESTER TOMORROW

Tour of States Used to be An Annual Event—Tour in Spring Possible

By B. J. McGuire

After a lapse of four years a University of Toronto lacrosse team will once again be seen in action on the American side when the Varsity squad clash with the Rochester Indians in Rochester tomorrow night. The time was when a tour of the States was an annual event for the University lacrosse team but difficulties partly caused by decreased attendance has made this trip impossible for some time back. However with the evident revival in the interest of this once popular pastime we may again confidently look forward to the time when Varsity will be a power in the lacrosse world. Much depends on the outcome of Friday's game as a win for the Blue team will go a long way towards reviving the waning interest in this sport, in which case it is not unlikely that an effort will be made to send the team on an extended tour of the American colleges this spring.

The conflicting time of the examinations has in the past made it very difficult for Varsity to arrange dates which would be satisfactory for the American colleges. The Blue stalwarts prefer to play their games after the final exams in the spring, which would be around the end of May. However, at this date the other colleges are beginning to "plug" for the exams and as a result they prefer to have the games played earlier in the season, at a time which would conflict with the Toronto exams.

In 1930 a Varsity team toured the States, winning four out of six games. The Present A.C., who have met

(Continued on Page 3)

S.C.M. Corner

On Friday evening of last week there was a party in the gymnasium of a church at 56 Wellesley Street. There were some sixty present and about half were students; the other half were unemployed of the city. Some of the latter had not been to any such social gathering for years. They folk-danced, sang and played games, and got away for a moment from the cares of job hunting.

The story of that party is a simple one. It arose through the efforts of Miss Lade of the Unemployment Bureau. Some students have been learning the folk dancing from Mr. Madsen of the Madsen Gymnastic Institute, and Miss Lade has organized the parties. A dancing class meets every second Friday evening and the parties are arranged for the intervening Fridays. There is an admission charge of twenty-five cents for two and thus one who is employed may bring an unemployed friend; but if anyone is prevented from coming by this small fee, he may get an invitation free by applying at the church. The success of the two parties which have been held so far has been so manifest, and those who have come have been so enthusiastic that the directors of the project are continuing with redoubled efforts. It is to be hoped that the idea will spread and that such parties in the future will be no uncommon thing in the city.

There may be men who would be interested in joining the dancing class. There is room for about eight more, and if anyone is interested he should inquire at the S.C.M. office in Hart House. Tickets for the parties may be obtained at the church.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—B. L. Smith Assistant—B. J. McGuire

THURSDAY, JANUARY 18th, 1934

UNMASKING MOTIVES

We look about us at the innumerable student organizations, parliamentary clubs, debating societies, press clubs, literary societies, language clubs, fraternities, even The Varsity itself, and we are moved to ask what motive impels the student to join one, or any of these organizations?

Upon examination, our own motive for identifying ourselves with organizations of various kinds, has been revealed as far from disinterested and undefined. This discovery, while it covered us with a certain degree of confusion, has prompted us to generalize concerning the motives of our fellows. If the persons here discussed are not animated by the highest ideals, it is because we are convinced that only one in a hundred joins any organization simply because he is inspired with a desire to further the aims which the organization represents.

We regard with amazement certain individuals who sacrifice their time and energy to the petty detail of executive positions, doing work for which they receive no thanks. We wonder if such labour is actually so disinterested as the individual would have us believe. It is platitudinous to observe that politicians do not serve their country from altruistic motives, but usually succeed in lining their pockets while outlining their platforms. We pity the undergraduate who becomes involved in an executive position because the other members of the organization were too lazy to undertake his task, but he is usually consoled by an illusion of bustling importance and a firm conviction that no one could do the work but himself.

It occurred to us with somewhat of a shock, that, although students, unlike politicians, receive little or no remuneration for their efforts, nevertheless, are undoubtedly prompted to undertake arduous work in order to bag a trip to another university as representative of their organization, or in order to wear some badge or emblem of that organization which should distinguish them from the majority of their fellows, a distinction which their own unvarnished personality might not reveal. We are reminded of the smooth-vested butter and egg man whose correctly pressed suit has nothing to distinguish it from the equally smooth-vested milk and cheese merchant save the Rotarian emblem which dangles from his watch-chain, and we weep to see intelligent undergraduates become the victims of the same emotional herding.

There is a definite aspect of this organization mania which we feel called upon to unmask. We refer to scholarships which require the applicant to have taken part in a large number of antagonistic student activities in order to qualify. The student who, for this reason, identifies himself with organizations in which he has no particular interest, is not to be reproached. Rather, the committee which exacts such qualifications is at fault. A scholar with an academic purpose in going abroad to study may be an excellent student with a fair chance of achieving success in his particular research, but he is denied the opportunity of continuing his work because a certain committee fails to realize that an aptitude for football and debating does not always associate itself with an aptitude for research. The prestige of the athlete is such, that if he can distinguish himself in sport, the community is convinced that he is a worthy citizen and a normal man, while the scholar who can investigate academic problems is considered a peculiar and abnormal creature who is required to present a certificate of sanity in the shape of an athletic membership card. The unfortunate scholar is perhaps hindering the progress of the particular team which harbours him, in addition to wasting his own time. If the committee fears that he may belong to the anaemic goggle-eyed class of student who looks as though he slept with the windows shut, it should accept a certificate that he walks five miles a day which would be sufficient to reassure them on this point.

We wish also to dispel, here and now, the illusion on the part of some who labour in executive positions which have been thrust upon them, that they are doing any good, either to themselves, or to the society which they serve. They are simply spineless creatures who lack the initiative to get out of the situation. With this we discard the assumption that the executive which does a prodigious amount of work is a good executive. The sole merit of an executive is its ability to make others work. But there is a social stigma attached to making other work; one is accused of laziness. Consequently, the poor executive is the one which receives the most adulation, and the phrase "re-elected by acclamation" assumes the sinister aspect of "victimized by common consent".

As a parting shot we lay down the maxim that no woman join any organization of a mixed character from pure motives, that nine out of ten women join such an organization for the purpose of meeting men, and that women's fraternities, in the words of a former president "are organized to hunt men in packs". But the person beneath contempt, and there are such, is the person who joins innumerable organizations in order to get his picture in Torontonensis and have a lengthy biography appended to his name.

Art, Music and Drama

Victoria Dramatic Society

The interchange of productions between the various dramatic societies on the campus is a healthy tendency, which may eventually lead to the revival of the not-long-deceased University of Toronto Dramatic Association. Let us hope so.

The guest production offered yesterday by the Victoria Dramatic Club on the stage of the U.C. Players' Guild at the Women's Union was by far the best short presentation by Victoria that this reviewer has seen since The Shadow of the Glen over two years ago. The play Insomnia, by H. F. Rubinstein, is a clever and amusing modern morality play. Fortunately the author does not take his morality too gravely and the play completely avoids that deadly grimness which beclouds so many plays of this type.

A man is tossing sleepless in bed, and the memories and emotions which tug his mind from the slumber for which he longs are incarnated, and watch him constantly, some by his bed, some from behind pillars and from corners. Whenever their tormenting lags for an instant Conscience in the form of a policeman, prods the poor devil with his baton and recalls some peccadillo of the day. Every now and then Melody (played beautifully by Joyce Seythes) dances past his bed, humming the hackneyed Barcarolle. At length he implores her, if she must hum, to hum something else. Whereupon she obliges with (this was the director's most brilliant touch) "Lazybones, sleepin' all the day . . ." As he becomes frantic the whole crowd of emotions surge in upon him, and the finishing touch is given by the Nerves (also beautifully done, by Eleanor Weir, Jean Randle, Myrtle Turner and Marion Pixley), who dance in with spitting sparklers, like a diabolical whirlwind of fire.

Ego—the body of the man—was played by Mervin Bury, who did a splendid job physically; but whose diction was unfortunately pretty bad, his word-groupings particularly destroying more than half the sense of his lines. Best of the others were Gordon Jack as the Life Force and Lloyd Griffith as Conscience. But apart from those two the diction was uniformly poor, a fault which, one must say regretfully but firmly, has always been most pronounced in Victoria productions. Some of the offenders speak fairly clearly but their speech is still unbecomingly. It is a fault which is by no means impossible of remedy, and this reviewer strongly urges their careful attention to it.

The direction of Insomnia, by Lorne Campbell, was generally excellent, and the set and lighting were extremely good.

It is to be hoped that future Guild productions this term will draw the attention they merit. The inadequate attendance yesterday was both a discourtesy to the Guild's guests and a mark of considerable disloyalty on the part of its members. P.A.G.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

CHURCH AND STATE

The Editor, The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

Yesterday's letter on Church and State is an excellent example of the pseudo-sophistication of modern youth and displays to advantage its inherent superficiality. Its main fallacy is that of "psychologism"; it attempts to put everything in a cynically bad light through the facile method of explaining it in terms of its causes and this fallacy is usually supported by "The fallacy of selection", well known to statisticians, and above all by a subtle and insidious confusion of origin and value. This youthful attitude is a neurotic offspring of the present economic chaos and its consequent disillusionment. It is well illustrated in the aforementioned letter. Because of a particular and temporary degeneracy of the Church and because certain groups have used it to "purge their emotions" and let off their superfluous steam, it is concluded that the Church has never looked with such disfavour upon strife as she often tries to make out and that the only social purpose the Church can possibly serve is a sublimated one. But the tone of disillusion is partially justified by the literal-minded and narrowly theological Protestant interpretation of the Church's social function, as presented by yourself.

Certainly at the heart of the great Roman Catholic tradition, previous to the bourgeois appearance of that Jack Horner sort of person, Martin Luther, and concomitant with the entry of certain individuals recently excommunicated by the Pope, at the heart of the Church teachings is the higher religion in which the real function of such a spiritual agency has been the realization of a great system of values, only partially expressed by the State as it is today. This is perhaps what the editor might have been trying to say. Mike Littner, I.B. & M.

PREHISTORIC ANIMAL

A hitherto unknown prehistoric animal discovered in Argentina is reported to have been one of the great killers of two million years ago.

ANCIENT MAP

A map, apparently drawn by the daughter of Marco Polo, and showing the route of his famous Asiatic journey, has come to light.

De Proclamation concerning

THE EIGHT MAN BAND
The attention of the following classes of society is requested:

1. Workers!
2. Students!
3. Intellectuals!
4. College Professors!
5. Marxists!
6. Conservatives!
7. Bartenders!
8. Confidence Men!
9. And the Hoi Polloi!

Do you agree with the Ontario Liquor Control Board that beer should not be placed in the hands of the police force?

If not, the Workers' Fancy Dress Ball sub-committee asks you to bring your bad temper and your own cigars to a GAS EXHALATION MEETING called by the Retrogressive Art Association of the U.S.S.R.

Monday, February 31, 1934

at 217 a.m.
HALL OF HYGIENE,
1 Forest Hill Road

At Smith,
H. L. Mencken,
Lloyd George,
and other prominent speak-easy operators.

Comrade Nell,
Superintendent of Work.

WOMEN DEFEND CLAIM

(Continued from Page 1)

of any question. Women and men are on an equal basis as far as voting is concerned. Both are influenced a great deal by propaganda."

WESTERN DEBATE

The McGoun Cup debates are to take place at the four western universities, British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba on Jan. 19.

PROF. WRITES THRILLERS

Professor B. S. Keirstead, of the University of New Brunswick, has written two mystery novels. His latest book is called "Murder in the Police Station".

QUEEN'S PROF. HONOURED

Lieut.-Col. W. P. Wilgar, D.S.O., who is Professor of Civil Engineering at Queen's, has been given the title of honorary aide-de-camp to His Excellency, the Governor-General.

STAGE FOURTH ACT OF BANNED PLAY

(Continued from Page 1)

Max Kaplansky, speaking for the Student League, pointed out that the repressive measure was a definitely Fascist move, and was a step towards the further oppression of working-class organization. "We represent a part of the students which realizes that the students have common interests with the working-class, especially as many of us will face unemployment when we leave the University. It is for this reason that we protest against this oppression."

A. E. Smith, secretary of the Labour Defense League, stated that the authorities objected to the play for the same reason that an ugly man objects to a mirror which shows him as he is. The play was an attempt to show up the conditions in Kingston Pen. "The play has been accused of misrepresenting the conditions and also the spirit of our beloved government and of the prison authorities, but it is an actual portrayal of the facts based on reports in the official records and the press, and on accounts from prisoners."

A resolution protesting against the suppression of the play was read and carried unanimously and sent to Attorney-General Price. There was a further resolution against the conviction of Ludwig Renn and other members of the workers' cultural movement in Germany, to be sent to the Hitler Government.

LET POKER HANDS Bring You This Alarm Clock Free!

A dependable, sturdy and attractive timepiece with a musical ring that will wake you pleasantly in the morning! It's easy to get and is guaranteed—just save Poker Hands, use the Turret Poker Hand exchange boards or cigarette counters which will enable you to hasten the completion of your sets. Soon you will have Poker Hands enough for any of the many splendid gifts.

Quality and Mildness
Turret
CIGARETTES
SAVE THE POKER HANDS
Poker Hands are also packed with Turret Pipe Tobacco and Turret Cigarette Tobacco.
Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Ltd.

Study the Art of Living

Toronto is a part of the great world of travel and society, in the Royal York Hotel. Come here to mingle with the city's notables and their most interesting guests, and to add your share to the atmosphere of gay sophistication.

Afternoon Tea Musicale—4.30 to 6 p.m.
Rex Battle's Concert Orchestra. In the Palm Room off the Main Lobby.

Supper Dance—Introducing a new star, Billy Bissett, with his Royal Yorkers. 9 to 1.30 a.m., nightly (except Sunday).

Special Rates for College Parties
Phone Wa. 2511

THE ROYAL YORK

A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL

THE FOLLOWING DANCE ORCHESTRAS

Led by Undergraduates of The University of Toronto are Members of

The Toronto Musical Protective Association and Respect the Ethics of FAIR COMPETITION

FRED EVIS and His Orchestra
LORRIE HESSIN, and His Orchestra
EDMUND HOUSTON and His Orchestra
ROY LOCKSLEY and His Orchestra
KARL MUELLER and Varsity Entertainers
STANLEY ST. JOHN and His Orchestra
WRIGHT BROTHERS ORCHESTRA
CLIFFORD T. YOUNG and His Orchestra

Any of the above undergraduates will be pleased to furnish experienced musicians for all social functions.

THE LANTERN TEA ROOMS

5 WILLCOCKS ST.

Full Course Lunch 25c.

Full Course Dinner 35c.

Suppers served from 8 to 11.30 p.m.

What is it they are all talking about.

EYES EXAMINED

37 Years' Experience
ALL STYLES OF FRAMES
(Prices lower than the lowest, quality considered.)
F. E. LUKE, Optometrist
167 YONGE ST.—Upstairs
(Opp. Simpson's)

NOW OPEN

Toastette Tea Rooms
63 Harbord Street
Delicious Home Cooking
Moderate Prices
Open 8 a.m. to 11 p.m.
Sundays 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.
Special Noonday Lunch, 26c.
Full Course Evening Dinner for 26c., 30c. and 36c.

BLUE LACROSSE TEAM PLAY IN ROCHESTER TO-MORROW

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

St. Mike's hopes for a hockey team received a serious setback yesterday. There is a ruling they know of, but was not very definite about which says that

No player shall take part in the interfaculty hockey series who has played or shared in any game in the same season for a University basketball team or who is claimed by the coach as a member of that team.

All of which means that Rosamund McCullough, Agnes Gardiner and Betty Shanahan will probably be unable to be among those present when St. Mike's takes the ice—if they do now. Tough luck but rules are rules and this is not one to which exception could hardly be made even if it meant the withdrawal of that college from the series.

We don't want that. How about it, St. Mike's? Remember previous experience is unnecessary. Practically the only necessary qualification for interfaculty hockey is the ability to move around on skates. You'll learn the rest just like 90 per cent of the other hopefuls.

Running true to form, the hockey schedule is meeting with difficulties. Just when it seemed to be arranged, Victoria came forth with another team. They can't be blamed for the delay, however, as neither they nor any other college could find out what players they could count on until this week.

It's rather cold to turn one's mind to swimming but it's time some serious thinking was done on the subject. Ruth Knowlton tells us that the Swimming Club met yesterday afternoon and decided on Feb. 28 at the date for the meet, subject of course to the consent of Hart House.

The colleges should have their preliminary meets finished at least two weeks before the date, which leaves just about a month for practicing. With many of last year's stars no longer with us, the managers are turning hopefully to the freshies and rumour has it that it won't be in vain.

U.C. SENIOR CAGERS OUTCLASS TRINITY

The senior U.C. basketball squad outclassed Trinity to the score of 26-13 in a hard fought game last night in the upper gym.

Bell, Scott and Hennessey were the outstanding players for U.C. while A'Court and Eaton were the choice of the losers.

Senior U.C. — Hennessey 5, Scott 6, Laing 2, Bell 7, Himel 3, McKiggan 2, Forsythe 1, Espie, Dodson, Mutteroff.

Trinity — A'Court 9, Eaton 4, Honeyford, Noble, Wright, Whitbread, Shaw, Lossing, Rogers.

HUGE MOTHS

There are moths in the American tropics which measure almost a foot in wing spread.

BLUE JUNIORS RALLY TO TRIM "Y" NETTERS

Entering Second Half Trailing by 13 Points, Win in Final Minute

Travelling fast, Varsity juniors swept to a 30-29 win over the West End Y.M.C.A. team to win a bitter basketball tilt held in the big gymnasium, Hart House, last night. Getting off to a shaky start the Blue team entered the second half 13 points behind their rivals, but a fighting drive carried them into the lead in the dying moments of the game. By their victory over West End Varsity juniors climbed to second place to Broadview Y in the Y.M.C.A. Basketball League.

The juniors failed to make any kind of a start in the first half due to the main to the disappointing performances of Kinsey and Miller, the regular forwards. Led by Pinn, who netted 8 points, and Whittall with 6, West End had no difficulty in piling up a 20-7 lead over the disorganized Varsity team. The students' defence was especially poor and Harlock at centre was out-jumped; the University men tried hard but their score did not show it.

The second period produced some of the finest basketball of the year. Kinsey hit his stride and with Miller and Harlock turned in some smooth, well-oiled plays. Krakauer, on Varsity defence, played magnificently and added 7 points to his team's aggregate. West End attacks were effectively checked by the Varsity guards and the whole team was able to garner but 9 points, while the juniors amassed 23. At three-quarter time Varsity trailed by a single point, 22-23, when the Y team with a sudden spurt drew away to a 3-point lead. Toole and Kinsey played fast and furious to even the score and a five-man team rushed West End off its feet to see the game end in victory for Varsity.

U. of T. Juniors — Miller, Harlock, Kinsey, Stoughton, Krakauer, Davidson, Mullin, Doane, Gladish, Toole.

West End Y.M.C.A. — Dempster, B. Valentine, Pinn, Cromie, Gillespie, Oliver, Marr, J. Valentine, Whittall. Referee — Ed Morgan.

TRINITY, DENTS, S.P.S. WIN POLO CONTESTS

Three interesting interfaculty water polo games were played yesterday afternoon in the pool at Hart House. Trinity Juniors, Dents juniors and S.P.S. seniors were the victors. In the first game Trinity defeated U.C. 2-0. Dents took S.P.S. in their contest by the score of 3-1 and Sr. S.P.S. managed to win over Sr. U.C. by 3-1.

In the opening game Bud Fraser for Trinity scored in the first minute of play on a lone rush. U.C. came back fighting, Shiner missing the open net. In the last period Stratton scored close in for Trinity with McCatty serving a penalty.

For the winners Bud Fraser, Stratton and Cox starred, while Ballantyne in goal looked good for the losers.

Gerrard was the star in the second game, scoring all his team's points. Thompson made some great saves in the School goal. Clarke tallied for School on a pass from Eggert.

In the final game S.P.S. had most of the play but a great display was

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By Wm. A. Crochower

The Varsity joins the students of the University of Toronto in the expression of their sympathy to Normie McClelland, centre player of the Varsity Senior hockey team. Mrs. McClelland had been ailing for some time and passed away yesterday morning at her home in Cache Bay.

Last night's junior basketball game in the big gym at Hart House amply rewarded the six fans present for their great heroism in braving the cold winds that swept the University grounds. Down thirteen points, and on the style shown in the first half, the Blues seemed to be riding into certain defeat at the hands of the West End Y aggregation. Nothing daunted, however, Mac's youngsters showed a complete reversal of form in the second period and taking advantage of a lapse in their opponents' defence they ran up thirteen points to their opponents' four. Play see-sawed for a few minutes and with a minute to go the Blues were down by one point. Miller sent the ball soaring towards the basket but luck was against him and it remained Staughton's task to toss the rebound in with the winning tally. The game saw a return to form of Kinsey and the usually fighting displays of Miller and Krakauer.

Varsity's lacrosse all-star team had a rest but Ross English, the manager of the squad came to the defence of his mates in refuting previous rumours that his squad was made up of a group of players who had no senior experience. English explained that most of his men had played senior or intermediate lacrosse during the past summer and that three of the all-stars had been members of the Mimico seven which was beaten by Hamilton's Dominion champions in the playoffs. Although the personnel of the team has not definitely been decided the following players are expected to leave for Rochester on Friday: English, Keys, Fullerton, Kerr, Harwood, Coulter, Allison, Laing, Burchell, Cochrane, Casslor, Murray and Clipperton.

We were informed last night that the recently-formed Canadian Indoor Tennis Club were going to stage their first T. and D. Tournament at the Eglinton Hunt Club grounds. Hermant, Piggot and Davies of the U. of T. have already filed their entries. The former two were recently ousted in the early rounds of the Canadian championship tournament at Montreal. Other entries from students at the University are invited and should be delivered to Martin Powell by calling at Hu. 3313. Walter Martin, Canadian Davis Cup player, Wilson and Proctor, former Davis Cuppers, have also filed their entries. The entry list closes Friday evening. There is also a slight possibility that Gilbert Nunn will enter the tournament.

On Saturday night Varsity's three cage squads will be in action. The Senior A squad travels to Niagara Falls to play in their first out-of-town Big Six engagement. The Senior Bees meet West End Y and the Juniors play Broadview, both games to be at Broadview. Should the University squads pull out two wins in the Y tilts the playoff hopes of both teams will be greatly enhanced.

Sport Notices

U.C. Sr. Basketball Picture—Will all members be at Fredlands at 5.20 today promptly please and with uniforms.

Trinity Basketball—All players are requested to turn out on Friday at 2 p.m. for practice.

Sr. Vic Baseball—All out today by 4 o'clock for the game with Forestry.

Victoria Basketball—Junior practice, Thurs. 11.00. Senior practice, Friday, 11.00. Players please note interchange of hours. Everybody out.

Varsity Lacrosse—Practice Thursday, 6-7 p.m., Big gym.

Women's Intercollegiate Hockey—Practice today, 1-2 at the Arena.

Interfaculty Basketball—Tomorrow's game is Forestry vs Grad. Studies. Not Dents vs Grad. Studies as previously announced. Revised schedule will be published in tomorrow's issue.

given. Murphy, the U.C. goalie proved invincible in the first period although he was literally bombarded with shots. In the second period Mutteroff scored for U.C. but Bell came back and scored two for S.P.S. Cooper put in the final goal, making the score 3-1 in favour of School.

In last week's games U.C. and Vic juniors tied 1-1, Jr. Meds tied Jr. School 2-2 and Sr. School defeated Sr. Meds 3-0.

MEDICINE AN ART

SAYS DR. BRUCE

(Continued from Page 1)

continue his sleuthing adventures." In referring to Conan Doyle, Oliver Wendell Holmes, the Lieutenant-Governor drew attention to the close affinity between the doctor and the author, leading many to desert the medicine bottle and the scalpel for the pen and bottle of ink. Such was due to the constant interest in life and all the manifestations which is common to both the science of medicine and of literature.

But higher than both these types, is the true doctor, who brings honour to his profession, a man who as often as not is a general practitioner. Such a man is much more likely to be able to combat disease than a research worker, for he has met disease in all its phases in his daily round.

In conclusion Dr. Bruce reminded his audience of Stevenson's famous tribute to the medical profession. "A physician is the flower of our civilization, for in him we find discretion, tact, cheerfulness, and an abundant courage."

REVIVE COMPETITION IN NATIONAL GAME

(Continued from Page 1)

Toronto teams for the past thirty years, gave Varsity their one reverse on this occasion when they tied them 3-3 in the first game and defeated them 4-3 in the return engagement.

In the matter of material the Varsity team will have plenty to work on. Although the only practice they have had this season has been in the interfaculty series most of the men have had senior experience. Mimico has three sure starters, in Bobby Coulter, Max Fullerton and Ross English; Keyes played senior lacrosse for Mount Dennis and Allison was with Orangeville during the past sum-

Have your Hair well shampooed with a Lemon or Henna Shampoo to create those lovely lights and artistic waves. Then add a facial to all this for $1.25

Miss Junkin

At the Red Door

103 BLOOR ST. WEST

Kingsdale 1268

Open for advice regarding scalp trouble.

Permanents with curly ends. Haircuts.

only $1.00
Dinner or Supper
DANCING

Which Includes One of the Famous Savarin Dinners or Suppers

A sumptuous Savarin Dinner or Supper, dancing to the enchanting music of Gene Fogarty and His Orchestra, a Floor Show sparkling with songs and beautiful girls, all for $1.00* (per person).

Every Evening (except Sunday) 6 p.m. to closing

Savarin
BAY at ADELAIDE

TORONTONENSIS GROUPS

All organizations, societies, clubs, interfaculty athletic teams, etc., who have not signified their intention of taking space in the 1934 Torontonensis, should do so at once.

Apply S.A.C. Office, Hart House.

Deans' Messages and 3T4 Write-ups are now due. Torontonensis representatives please note.

mer. Cochrane, Casslor, Harwood, Clipperton, Burchell, Laing and Kerr all have much experience behind them and should be right at home in the big time game. Most of these men were the stars of the interfaculty series which finished last term. Many also were outstanding players in the leagues during the summer. If they are not too badly handicapped by lack of practice and a larger floor they stand more than an even chance of winning over the highly rated Rochester Indians.

Newest Tuxedos, Dress Suits, and Evening Wraps FOR RENT

Also Complete Outfits Open Evenings

FREEMAN'S

256 College St. K1. 0991

571 Yonge St. K1. 3270

RESERVATIONS LA. 9007

DANCE TO
NELS KELLY and HIS KAMPUS KATZ
(The Only Non-union Undergraduate Orchestra)
AT THE PAVILION
WATCH FOR "VARSITY WEEK"

LAKE SHORE AT PARKSIDE DRIVE

REFRESHMENTS

FREE PARKING

TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS are DUE NOW

Please hand these into the
S.A.C. Office, Hart House

Have You
Lost Anything?

If so, put a notice in
"The Varsity."

It will help you find it.

Phone
S.A.C. Office,
Hart House,
Midway 6221.

OFFER $50,000 GRANT

The Board of Governors of the University of Manitoba has received the offer of a $50,000 grant from the Carnegie Trust for the erection of a Junior College.

SPEED OF SWALLOW

Records show that a swallow can fly at a speed of 106 miles an hour.

Classified Advertisements

LQST

Waterman's Fountain Pen, reddish-brown with gold band, on Jan. 15. Phone Kl. 6310.

THE HOSTESS DRAWING ROOM

Toronto's unique social rendezvous, where you may entertain graciously, economically and without personal effort. Reserve your dates for bridges, teas, receptions, banquets, business meetings, etc. 891 Bay St., between Grosvenor and Broad-albans.

TYPING

Expert stenographer will do typing at reasonable rate. Call Randolph 2497.

FOR SALE

Tuxedo, coat, pants, vest, almost new, size 36, too small for owner, $12.50. Phone evenings Lakeside 7982.

FOR RENT

Lovely large bed-sitting room, warm, bright, suitable for girls—boys, good board, one block away from College of Education, convenient for everything. Phone Kingsdale 4751.

FOR RENT

Attractive accommodation for men students, University vicinity. Phone Kingsdale 7015 from 4.30 to 7.30 p.m.

Coming Events

THURSDAY, JANUARY 18
5 p.m.—Vic Women's Lit. Current Events group, Wymilwood.
7.30 p.m.—Regular meeting of the Foresters' Club will be held in the west common room of Hart House. Mr. K. G. Fensom of the Dominion Hardwood Bureau will be the guest speaker. Refreshments will be served. Regular M. and P. meeting cancelled.
4 p.m.—U.C. Parliamentary Club in the junior common room.
8.15 p.m.—Liberal Club meeting. Music Room, Hart House. Mr. Lewis Duncan will speak and lead a discussion on "Liberalism and the Combines".
5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club in Hart House Music Room.
8 p.m.—Meeting of the English and History Club at the home of Miss MacLean, Bayview Ave.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19
8.30 p.m.—First of a series of discussion groups on the menace of Fascism to be held under the auspices of the Student League. First topic, "What Fascism has meant for Italy". Women's Union. All students welcome.

8.30—School Night at Hart House. John Crawford and his orchestra. St. Joseph's College annual At-Home. Alexander Room. King Edward Hotel. Luigi Romanelli's orchestra.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 20
5.30—Tea dance at Newman Club.
7.45 p.m.—374 Victoria "Young and Old" party.

8.00 p.m.—376 Victoria informal class party at Annesley Hall. Music by Murray Armstrong's orchestra. Dancing 8 till 11.30.

Beta Sigma Rho fraternity annual at-home, Primrose College, Willocks St.
SUNDAY, JANUARY 21
5.30—Open forum at Newman Club.
9 a.m.—Holy Communion in Hart House Chapel.

MONDAY, JANUARY 22
Men's Glee Club in Hart House Music Room.

8 p.m.—Victoria College Debating Parliament, Alumni Hall.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 23
4 p.m.—Engineering Society meeting in C 22, Mining Building.

6 p.m.—C.C.F. Club at 79 St. George St. Prof. F. H. Underhill.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24
7.30-8.30—U.C. women's S.C.M. in Falconer House common room, 85 St. George St. Mrs. Jean Hutchinson will speak on "A Christian Basis for Life". All U.C. women invited.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 25
M. and P. annual at-home, Oak Room, Union Station.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 26

The Arts Ball, Great Hall at Hart House. Stan St. John's orchestra. Medical At-Home, Royal York Hotel. Supper dance with Wright brothers' orchestra in attendance.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 27
S.C.M. International Conference.

WOMEN DEBATERS DISCUSS WITHDRAWAL

"Are we going to devote as much of our time and interest to our Debating Society as our intercollegiate sisters do in regard to their Debating Societies?" was the plea of Miss Margaret Farmer at the meeting of the Women's Intercollegiate Debating Union held yesterday, in the Women's Union at 4 p.m.

"McGill and Queen's have more of a chance to arouse interest as they are each smaller in numbers than our own University. But our very largeness provides more choice in personnel for our debating teams. We should be able to find four women students with real debating ability in our midst." Miss Farmer then informed the Debating Union that if the University of Toronto drops out of the Intercollegiate Debating Union, Western University would have a chance to come in. If our interest is mediocre and theirs is strong, they should have the chance.

At this point it was unanimously decided that the Women's Intercollegiate Union would continue to function, and the meeting concluded with an impromptu debate "Resolved that Eddie Cantor has done more for Canada than has Franklin D. Roosevelt." Those taking part were the Misses Jean Mutch, Pauline Simon, Margaret Robinson and Meda Williams.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

LIBERAL CLUB

Meeting tonight at 8.15 in the Music Room of Hart House. Mr. Lewis Duncan will speak and lead a discussion on "Liberalism and Combines".

ENGLISH AND HISTORY CLUB

Those attending tonight's meeting are asked to be at the corner of St. Leonard's and Young (ask the conductor) by 8 p.m. for a drive to Miss McLean's home, Bayview Avenue. Mr. James Taylor will read a paper on "Spengler's Interpretation of History".

U.C. MEN

You are reminded that the subscription lists for the Arts Ball are now posted in the junior common room.

VIC WOMEN'S LIT

Current Events group at Wymilwood today at 5 p.m.

FREE LANCES

Tea at Miss Jackes, 95 Hazelton Avenue, on Sunday, January 21. All Free Lances welcome. Please let Miss Jackes or Dr. Gordon know if you are coming.

SYNTHESIS OF RELIGIONS WAS AIM OF RAM ROY

Work of Religious Leaders in India Outlined at S.C.M. Supper

"Singh spoke of Christianity in terms which the Indian is better able to appreciate than from the Western teachers," stated Mr. P. C. Addy, Massey exchange student at Emmanuel College, addressing a men's supper meeting of the Student Christian Movement at Victoria last evening.

Mr. Addy spoke to the gathering on four of the most outstanding religious men in India during the past hundred years. They are Ram Mohan Ray, Sadhu Sundar Singh, Gandhi and Tagore.

Ram Roy, whose centenary was celebrated a few weeks ago, believed, said the speaker, "that by inculcating into India's religion a synthesis of the Christian, Moslem and Hindu cultures, India would have a larger destiny to fulfill. He looked forward and not back."

Singh was born in 1889. He was a Sikh and from the first his life was dedicated to religious service. He studied religious knowledge at a Presbyterian Mission but was filled with disgust with Christianity and raised a revolt protesting against its teaching. Shortly afterwards, however, he became converted to the faith through a remarkable religious experience and, though it cannot be said that he was a philosopher of any real depth, "he seemed to be living veritably in the presence of God. His greatness lay in his own life."

"The great thing about Gandhi," said Mr. Addy, "is that he spends a great deal of his time in prayer and meditation—he had power and vision. He brought to the people of India the idea of a suffering God, which is entirely antagonistic to the Hindu conception of God."

OPINION DIVIDED ON NEW U.C. YELL

(Continued from Page 1)

omission of the first two lines would be a decided improvement as the "Umi" in the second line savoured too much of the old yell.

R. A. Daly, II English and History, agreed that the first two lines should be omitted because the first line "Fight, Fight, Fight," while suitable at a rugby game is unnecessary when the yell is used at meetings or parties. Further, the shorter yell would have more snap.

Les Rovnree, II Political Science, was sure that the new yell was better than the old. "It has much more pep and is better balanced," he said when interviewed by The Varsity. Arnold Smith, treasurer of the Lit., when approached by The Varsity

U. OF T. SKI CLUB

There will be an open meeting of the Ski Club in the Debates Room, Hart House, at 5 o'clock today. Plans for the intercollegiate meet at Lucerne will be discussed and also plans for the week-end trip to Caledon.

The team that the club hopes to send to the intercollegiate meet will be chosen by a cross-country competition to be held in the near future.

Snow conditions are now suitable for a perfect week-end at the home grounds of the club in Caledon.

Any person interested in a week-end of skiing will be given further information at the meeting tonight.

The membership fee is now payable to the secretary, W. Carlson. The fee includes the price of the crest of the club, which is ready for distribution. All skiers are extended an invitation to this meeting and also to Caledon.

U.C. PARLIAMENT

Today at 4 p.m. in the junior common room the Smith Government will present for second reading Bill No. 2 to institute machinery for censorship of news; while still allowing freedom for expression of their views.

LECTURE SERIES HEARD BY RADIO

Universities Have Co-Operation of Broadcasting Commission

AIDS ADULT EDUCATION

The use of the radio for purposes of adult education is being continued this year through the co-operation of the Broadcasting Commission with the extension departments of several universities. Three series of lectures are being broadcast and several student debates. The first series of lectures was completed before Christmas. The second lecture of the second series was delivered recently by Professor A. Maclean of the University of Toronto on "Glauciers".

The programme for the remaining lectures is as follows:

Jan. 18—Radiation: Dr. G. H. Henderson, Dalhousie University.

Jan. 25—Problems of the British Commonwealth: Dr. A. G. Dorland, Western.

Feb. 1—Modern Scottish Poetry: Professor Malcolm MacPherson, New Brunswick.

Feb. 8—When the Next War Comes: Dr. C. W. New, McMaster.

Third Series:—Feb. 15—The Future of Economics and Engineering: Professor French, McGill.

Feb. 22—Contemporary Irish Poetry: Professor E. J. Pratt, Toronto.

March 1—The Heritage of the Maritimes: Professor H. R. Kingston, Western.

March 15—The Mineral Resources of New Brunswick: Professor W. J. Wright, New Brunswick.

March 22—Science in the Building of a Nation: Professor C. E. Burks, McMaster.

All lectures begin at 8.15 p.m.

The lectures have been arranged by a committee of men from various Canadian universities, in co-operation with the Canadian Radio Commission. The member of the committee from the University of Toronto is W. J. Dunlop of the University Extension.

agreed that the new yell was quite an improvement on the old, and also made the following statement, "I think it is unnecessary for University College to have a special yell. University College is the nucleus about which the other colleges have grown and it should therefore use the 'Toronto' yell."

Two first year students who preferred to remain anonymous thought the new yell was preferable to the old but that it was not good enough to be adopted as the official yell of University College.

No, he's not in training for the Russian Ballet nor has his reason left its moorings. He's simply registering joy over his first telephone call home. "Make it a regular weekly habit, as I do," says his more experienced room mate, "the cost is a mere bagatelle."

For 30 cents

you can telephone about

100 miles

by making an "anyone" call (station-to-station) after 8.30 p.m. See list of rates in from of directory.

VOCATIONAL ADVICE URGENTLY REQUIRED

(Continued from Page 1)

"The second method is to analyse a job and find out just what its requirements are and try to decide with yourself how far you are capable of filling them. I am being continually approached by young men who want to do advertising work because it seems very comfortable and respectable. Usually when I ask these fellows what they think advertising work is made up of, they haven't the vaguest idea. It is of extreme importance to study different kinds of jobs and decide which one you want. The wise business man is not even interested in the young fellow who comes to him and just asks for work of any kind, but he will pay attention to the young man who knows what he wants and is determined to get it.

"The man who has been a success in the business world is usually highly flattered when called upon to advise a young man on his life work," Mr. Miller continued. "Many of them will be only too glad to sit down for an hour or so to discuss the particular line that they have excelled in, and their advice is usually worth listening to. It seems a shame to me that our educational authorities are neglecting these men who might be invited to write books which would outline the general character of each type of work. Such a library would be of invaluable assistance to young people facing life.

"There are three qualities that make for success in this world," Mr. Miller concluded. "They are purpose, will and a passionate love for what one is doing. These are the constructive forces, and they explain why many men of mediocre ability often travel a lot farther than the clever gold-medallist."

EQUALIZATION FUND LIKE BRITAIN'S

(Continued from Page 1)

signed to make it clear that the reduction in the gold content of the dollar in the future will be between forty and fifty per cent. The proposal to establish a fund of two billion dollars to be put at the disposal of the Secretary of the Treasury is an exchange equalization fund similar to that of Great Britain. We may expect that the authority controlling exchange will endeavour to discover just where the exchange value of the American dollar can be most conveniently maintained.

"The final decision to fix gold content will be long delayed, if it ever is fixed at all. In any case, the devaluation of the dollar to sixty per cent of its former gold content will merely give legal recognition to the existing value of gold in the United States.

"I see no reason why the price level should be raised still further as a result of this proposal. What is intended is to prepare for a time when the United States can establish a fixed gold content once more. One may say that the events of the last twelve months have given the gold producers a fortuitous bonus in terms of all those currencies which have affected the 'dejure' or 'defacto' reduction of the gold content of currency.

"I don't expect that Canada will be in a hurry to decide upon the exact degree by which the gold content of the Canadian dollar will be reduced until it is known what Britain will do with the pound sterling.

"The decision to fix the devaluation of the American dollar is due to the desire of the government, which needs very much the profits for recovery measures.

"A legal difficulty looms since the gold reserves are held by Federal Reserve Banks, nominally, semi-independent institutions. Since some commercial banks hold gold reserves the matter may be easily overcome in law. In Canada all gold reserves are under the control and supervision of the Department of Finance.

"I do not believe that the newspaper forecasts for the printing of more notes to meet Canadian government expenditures are likely to be realized, although the ease for it is just as strong as in the United States."

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, JANUARY 19th, 1934

No. 67

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

It was hinted at the Federal-Provincial conference in Ottawa yesterday that the Dominion government may make the provinces and municipalities responsible for direct relief.

Kidnappers of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul bank president, would have secured the $200,000 ransom they demanded, had not the plot come to the notice of the police.

Local medical experts are amazed at the recovery of Alfred Ellis, who shot himself through the brain with out noticeable impairment of faculties. He is charged with attempted murder as is customary in such cases.

Very little co-operation is expected from deposed Sinclair by the leaders of the Liberal party in their proposed extensive drive.

Nationalists in China hold McGill professor, Dr. Kiang Kang-hu, charging that he has conspired with rebels.

Deputy Heriot faces a challenge to a duel with Foreign Minister de Monzie in Paris because of insinuations laid by him yesterday.

Ace Bailey will be at his first hockey game tomorrow night since his accident in Boston.

Liquor ads may appear in anti-prohibition papers under sanction, if Premier Henry is returned to office.

Maple Leafs continued their scoring run by beating Boston Bruins last night for the third time, 6 to 2.

ART EXHIBITION IN SKETCH ROOM

Visitors' Day in February to Allow Women Students to Attend

TALENT AND ABILITY SHOWN

The Sketch Room Committee is organizing for the second year an exhibition of oil paintings, water-colours and pencil sketches by undergraduate members of Hart House. By its various exhibits, as well as by the series of lectures in the Sketch Room the committee is endeavouring to encourage and develop art among the students. For the first time last year, the undergraduate works were exhibited separately from those of the seniors, and the results were sufficiently encouraging to support a second attempt this year.

The exhibition will be held in the Sketch Room from February 10th to March 3rd, and there will be a Visitors' Sunday on February 25th to enable the girl students to visit the exhibition, which the rules of Hart House do not allow them to see during the week.

All undergraduates wishing to participate are requested to bring their works to the Warden's office not later than Wednesday, February 7th at 5 p.m.—framed, if possible. The various works will be judged on the same evening, and all those whose works have been accepted will be notified and requested to make the necessary arrangements to have their drawings or paintings framed. The Sketch Room will be glad to lend frames to those who need them. All works should show plainly the name, year and college or faculty of the competitor.

Last year's exhibition has revealed that many students have real ability and talent, whether fully developed or not, and the Sketch Room Committee

(Continued on Page 4)

PAYMENT OF FEES BY 12 DEFAULTERS PERMITS RE-ENTRY

Remaining Students not Re-Instated Despite Mass Meeting

ONE UNOER CONSIDERATION

U.C. Registrar Gave Permission for Meeting to Raise Funds

Of the original 42 students obliged to discontinue their studies at this University because of their inability to pay the fees, there remain 30 upon whom chill penalty still frowns. Mr. A. B. Fennell, University Registrar, stated yesterday that 13 applications for reinstatement have been received from fee-defaulting undergraduates. Of these, 12 have been welcomed back to the arms of alma mater, upon payment of their dues. The unfortunate 13th, though still unable to satisfy the financial requirements, is being given careful consideration and may possibly be reinstated.

Mr. W. J. McAndrew, the genial Registrar of University College, was disinclined to comment upon the contrast between the alacrity with which funds were raised to enable the University band to accompany the rugby team on its foreign invasions, and no apparent disinterest in the plight of students who are unable to pursue their studies because of non-payment of dues. When asked if steps had been taken to provide these students with financial assistance by means of contributions he stated that action in such a direction was outside his official capacity but that he thought several University College men were endeavouring to organize a campaign for that purpose.

"I granted a student permission to hold a meeting in the college with the object of raising funds for that purpose," stated Mr. McAndrew, "but I know nothing of what transpired at the meeting or even if it was held. Twenty-nine of those who defaulted in their payments were registered at U.C.," he added, "but three of these were on dispensation while three more have been reinstated and I feel quite optimistic about the return of the majority of the remainder."

JAPANESE TRADE SHOWS EXPANSION

Ireland May Want Trade with United States in Future

INFLATION PROBABLE HERE

"Most significant in the Japanese situation is the economic element. Japan in the face of world depression and contracting world markets is expanding her trade at a tremendous rate," said Mr. Earl Lautenslager at the meeting of the Current Events Group of Victoria College in Wymwood yesterday afternoon.

"Ireland speaks of opening her doors to trade with the United States instead of England. It will be more expensive but no doubt the psychological warmth which the Irishman will get from slapping England's face will make up for this loss."

"Here is a chance to see how important the Supreme Court is in the United States," Mr. Lautenslager pointed out in referring to a case in Minnesota where a protest against the farm mortgage moratorium was carried to the Supreme Court. "The Supreme Court really makes the constitution."

(Continued on Page 4)

Hart House Songster

The fifth songster of the year will be held in the Music Room of Hart House on Sunday evening next at 8.45 p.m.

Mr. J. Campbell McLines will conduct the following programme:

Austria
Go from my window
The Wearing of the Green
Father O'Flynn
The Bonnie Earl of Moray
Ca' the yowes
The Deil's awa
Scots wha hae
A Highland Lad
Auld Lang Syne

SOCIALIST VIEWS DEFEATED AT U.C.

Present-Day Libel Laws Are Declared Sufficient by Opposition

ELECTORATE EXPLOITED

At the meeting of the Parliamentary Club of University College yesterday afternoon the government was defeated by a vote of 18 to 8 on a debate that the government instal machinery for the censorship of the news while still allowing freedom in the expression of all views. The Hon. Member from Stobie leading the debate for the Smith Socialist Government, claimed that the electorate was being emotionally exploited by the newspapers. He compared the electorate in Canada to the New Yorkers who read "rags" like the Daily Mirror. Explaining that newspapers are run by political parties and by vested interests, Mr. Stobie said that the government had no intention of restricting the news. "In fact," he went on to explain, "we want to arouse the interest of the people in politics and save the world for democracy."

The Hon. Member from Drynan, in speaking for the opposition, claimed that the government would have to censor not only the newspapers but the huge news-gathering agencies if it was going to effectively censor news. He deplored, however, any censorship beyond that imposed by present-day libel laws since he thought the move was a thinly veiled attempt by the government to see that only news favourable to itself would be published.

Mr. McCallum believed some sort of censorship was necessary; not only to prevent war propaganda being spread but to guard against the sloppy sentimentality which is dishied out on various occasions.

A vote of want of confidence in the government was defeated only by the strenuous plea of the Prime Minister who claimed that in the interests of stability the government should be left in power.

INCONSEQUENCE

Recently the University has been graced by the visit of outstanding representatives of Fascist Italy. Under the auspices of the National Council of Education a very rosy picture of the benefits which Italy has derived from ten years' rule of Mussolini was painted.

In an editorial recently in The Varsity it was stated that Fascism claims to have a solution for the present crisis. This claim on the part of the Fascists was not refuted by the editorial writer. It was merely stated that the writer had an abhorrence for dictatorship and prefers democracy. The fact that Fascism ruthlessly suppresses all progressive movements and clamps a lid on all opposition is very evident. But this is not the only objectionable feature of Fascism.

Fascism has existed for ten years in Italy. It has had ample time to

VARIED COMMENTS REGARDING 'MOTIVE' BY UNDERGRADS

Undergraduates Deny Attitude of "Complete Selfishness" Expressed

NOT JUST DISINTERESTED

Student League, U.C. S.C.M. Upheld as Composed of Interested Members

Yesterday's editorial on "Unmasking Motives" has aroused much interested comment among the students. Many agree with the statement that most people are not entirely disinterested in motive when allying themselves with various organizations, but all tend to modify this remark considerably.

"Miss Minnie Dover, if U.C., stated, 'I do not agree with the opinion that those who accept an executive position and the consequent work it entails do so for the ulterior motive of the prestige it may bring them. Undoubtedly this consideration may influence some but the majority, I believe, accept the position because they are vitally interested in the organization and hope that by their efforts they may be able to be of real service to it.'"

Mr. Harry Lubetsky, III Political Science, and a member of the Student League, found it conceivable that many students join organizations from purely selfish motives, but declared emphatically, "Anyone who joins a student organization connected with the working class movement does so because he is actively interested in the movement. Certainly, here, no honour or glory reflects upon them!"

A member of the U.C. Student Christian Movement executive explained that people who join this organization are moved by higher motives than those purely social, although social intercourse is part of its programme, because friendship is an important factor in this work.

Two English and History students emerged from the depths of essays to point out that people at the University have only time to join such organizations as they are vitally interested in. When asked to elucidate further, one (who consented only to give her initials), Miss D. C. II U.C., stated that such organizations as foreign language club, political study groups and others seem to have a serious purpose.

Miss F. Goldhart, was indignant about the statement of women's motives in joining organizations. "People join organizations because they have a particular interest in their activity," declared, "not because they further

(Continued on Page 4)

Urgent Need for Larger Library Stressed in President's Report

SIR WILLIAM MULOCK
Chancellor of the University and Chief Justice of Ontario, who is celebrating his ninetieth birthday today.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND AS COPP MEMORIAL

Voluntary Subscriptions Will Perpetuate Memory of Late Student

AWARDED IN MEDICINE

As announced in a letter from the President published in yesterday's Varsity, the friends of the late John C. Copp have formed a committee which will raise a fund to found a memorial scholarship in medicine at this University.

This committee gave the following statement when approached by The Varsity: "The committee depends on the interest and sincere desire on the part of the undergraduates and staff of the University to make possible the establishments of this memorial. An appeal for contributions is therefore being made through this paper. The committee realizes that this is a large undertaking and hopes for a generous response. The details of the award have not yet been completely worked out, but the committee hopes to be able to present to the University in the

(Continued on Page 4)

STEVENS' SPEECH RADICAL CONTENT?

Conservative Member Against Chain Stores, but Further Rumours Incorrect

'INTERESTING, NOT RADICAL'

Describing as unfounded and absolutely false any rumour that a speech delivered last summer by Hon. H. H. Stevens at the Conservative Summer School was omitted from "Canadian Problems", the published proceedings of that gathering, because of its radical character, several persons who attended the sessions of the school expressed complete surprise yesterday when The Varsity informed them of the rumour.

The charge against chain and department store buying practices made by Mr. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, in a public address early this week has, of course, caused considerable discussion, but the new rumour concerning his speech of last summer appears to have no basis, as those interviewed yesterday were emphatic in their denials that they had heard any startling remarks delivered

(Continued on Page 3)

Scientific Facilities Adequate, Academic Equipment Insufficient

MENACE TO REPUTATION

Opening of Branch Libraries Alleviates, not Fulfills, the Needs

In his presidential report to the Governors of the University of Toronto issued yesterday to the press, Dr. H. J. Gody emphasized the crying lack of facilities of the University library and warned that unless assistance is soon forthcoming the academic reputation of the University will be imperilled. He pointed out that while the scientific facilities were well looked after, the requirements for the humanities had not been sufficiently filled and that despite the generous assistance lent by the Carnegie Foundation, the situation is still a serious one. "No benefaction to the University would be more timely, more vitally helpful and more memorable than an enlarged library building and a provision for the purchase of more books, especially for the research and graduate departments. Who will come over and help us?" he asked the Governors.

The portion of the report that emphasizes the crying need for greater support for the University library will bring to mind the many occasions on which The Varsity has brought this to the attention of the University and provincial authorities. In referring to the bequests of the Carnegie Foundation and the opening up of small branches of the main library on the campus, the report says, "For these alleviations of our library situation we are grateful. But the fact remains that the Central library is now too

(Continued on Page 4)

N.R.A. PRINCIPLES BECOME CONFUSED

Recovery Unduly Stressed States Professor Knox of Queen's

PRICES, NOT WAGES, RAISED

(Special to "The Varsity")
Kingston, Ont., (CIP) — "The fundamental theory of the N.R.A. is some form of control with our present system of free choice and competition," said Professor F. A. Knox of Queen's University here. He compared the three great experiments being undertaken at the present time. Communism in Russia, dictatorship as it is practiced in Italy and Germany, and the National Industrial Recovery Act in the United States.

The two aspects of the N.I.R.A., though so mixed as to be almost impossible to separate them, are reform and recovery. The latter has been stressed to the disadvantage of the former which is more interesting and indicates a change of outlook. Roosevelt wishes to re-organize labour rapidly and promote the co-operation of employers and employees with the government. Significant reforms such as the prevention of "yellow-dog" labour have been hampered because business men think first of their own interests. Pressure has been brought to bear by industrialists, and in the last months the raising of prices has taken the place of the raising of wages.

"There are many dangers in this trend toward more control as practiced in either of the three methods but this is the road we are going along and we can only hope we won't hit too many bumps," said Professor Knox in closing.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Norah Bowers Assistant—Marion Ridout

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19th, 1934

"EIGHT MEN SPEAK"

The Varsity has given considerable space to the "Eight Men Speak" episode, believing that there was sufficient interest on the campus of the University to warrant such a policy. We are confident that most undergraduates, whether they are in sympathy with the tenets of Communism or not, deplore the high-handed actions of the authorities in banning the play. It is a clear case of suppression of free speech and of curtailing the freedom of the legitimate stage. No valid reasons for the suppression have been forthcoming from the authorities but E. Cecil-Smith in his speech at Hygeia Hall Wednesday evening revealed some startling information as a direct cause of the action of the authorities, information so startling in fact, that the publication of it would have left The Varsity open to a libel suit.

Suppression of free speech and infringement of the normal rights of the theatre are to be deprecated. Free speech has been and is the life-blood of democracy. It is more than passing strange, then, that now the leaders in a democratic society should employ manifestly un-democratic procedure to safeguard its existence. Does not such procedure either justify the contention of the Communists that democracy is a lie to delude the masses, or amounts to an abject confession that its days of usefulness are over and the ominous handwriting has long since been inscribed upon the wall?

For the present, however, we are more concerned with the closing of the Standard Theatre to the Communist play Eight Men Speak as a serious suppression of a definite aesthetic impulse. Because we, the so-called bourgeoisie, have the tendency to appraise art for its own sake or as propaganda, or as anti-social or otherwise, we have been singularly blind to the original, creative work which is being produced in Soviet Russia. According to competent critics, Eight Men Speak is an atrocious sample of Soviet art yet it cannot be denied that it represents a definite step toward the creation in Canada of a new art form.

It has frequently been observed that our Culture is notoriously like the Roman which was a mimicry and plagiarism of the Greek. We have produced practically no original art; the architecture of our university buildings is purely imitative. Now the temper of our age is analytical and critical. The individual stands outside of the universe and judges it exclusively from a personal standpoint. All truth is related to the age. We are thus become a people who do not live; we merely exist. We are satisfied to be spectators on the banks of the stream of life rather than swimmers battling with the current. Communism overcomes this deadening attitude to life. Every Communist believes that he is an integral part of the class struggle. He has identified himself with the life-force. Such a consciousness inevitably gives birth to an original art.

Consequently, we deplore any attempt to smother this creative power in Communism; on the contrary we urge that it be given free play. Let the Communists speak out of their experiences and let us hear their interpretations of the times through which we are passing. They are bound to be fraught with meaning.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS

The Editor, The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

The reference in yesterday's editorial to "scholarships which require the applicant to have taken part in a large number of antagonistic activities in order to qualify", is, I take it, meant to apply to the Rhodes Scholarships in general, if not as the particular example. This being true, it would seem that the writer is grievously uninformed on the terms of the Cecil Rhodes will which sets out the required qualifications for Rhodes scholars, including "fondness for and success in mainly outdoor sports such as cricket, football and the like". Therefore the members of the Rhodes Scholarship Selection Committee have no choice in exacting qualifications of athletic ability from applicants, but in doing so, they are simply carrying out to the best of their ability the trust imposed in them.

I share with the writer a certain dissatisfaction with the selections of the Rhodes Committee in recent years, but my objections are entirely from the opposite side of the question. In my opinion the committees of Toronto and the University of Manitoba are laying too much stress upon academic achievements or forensic ability and are not paying enough attention to the other qualifications laid down in the will. It is known that several years ago the central Rhodes committee at Oxford requested the Canadian committees to send them more brains and less brawn, but this is no justification for veering too much in the other direction. It is generally understood at the University of Toronto that to have any chance of winning the Rhodes Scholarship the hopeful student must begin in his first year to attend every meeting of his college debating society as well as the Hart House debates and to keep this up until he is a senior. No meeting should be allowed to pass without a speech from the floor and frequent feature appearances are strongly recommended. At the University of Manitoba brains and high examination marks are the prerequisites and such insignificant qualifications as athletic ability are considered fulfilled by the candidates' stellar prowess in tidily-winks.

Cecil Rhodes knew the type of men he wanted for his scholarships. For those who, by studious concentration, are able to secure these amazingly high examination results there are opportunities galore to win assistance (Continued on Page 3)

Art, Music and Drama

Friday Afternoon Recital

A Brahms programme has been arranged for this week's recital which will take place on 19th January in the Music Room of Hart House as follows:

I
Der Tod das ist die Kühle Nacht
Die Mainacht
Sapphische Ode
Vergebliches Standchen
Marion Copp, contralto
Frances Adaskin at the piano
II
The Clarinet Trio
Joyce Hornyanski, 'celist; Frances Adaskin, pianist, and Herbert Pye, clarinetist.

III
Es hing der Reiff
In stiller Nacht
Standchen
Wiegenlied
Marion Copp, contralto
Frances Adaskin at the piano

St. Thomas' Church

Direct from the Chancel of St. Thomas' Church, CFRB will present their regular half hour of Choral music at 5.45 p.m. Sunday. Featured on the programme is Dr. Willan's anthem, "There were shepherds abiding in the field." Orlando Gibbons' setting of the collect for the day, "Almighty and everlasting God", is the unaccompanied offering of the Choir. The Male Chorus will sing Mozart's "Ave, Verum Corpus", and the Choir Boys will be heard in Sir Henry Smart's two-part setting of "The Lord is my shepherd", concluding another outstanding broadcast with a well-known Hymn.

SKIS

I think that I shall never see
A snowshoe lovely as a ski,
A ski whose tip so oft is pressed
Against my prone, defenceless chest,
A ski that's in the other's way,
And crossing makes me kneel to pray,
A ski that causes me to wear
A nest of partridge in my hair,
Within my bosom snow has lain,
And I've a sharp posterior pain . . .
Snowshoes were made for dubs like me;
Possibly *** might learn to ski.

C-C

May we remind those who have difficulty in starting their ears these mornings of Lewis Carroll's immortal advice:

Speak roughly to your little car
And choke it when it freezes . . .
C-C

When short of humour we always fall back on Jim Hunter, radio columnist of the Drivelling Belluham, and incomparable fountain of unconscious idiosyncrasy. His latest gem is: "Bodington is, without a doubt, one of the most outstanding of child art entertainers. His features are always so airily and educationally wholesome."

C-C

Maybe he wears a mask.

C-C

A member of the company at the Royal Alexandra tells a story which will delight those who have seen their play. A couple who were evidently habitual moviegoers arrived at Dangerous Corner just after the shot in the first act. Soon after the shot in the third act the man reached for his hat.

St. Paul's Church

Bloor Street East

THE RT. REV. R. J. RENISON,
Rector

University students are specially invited to the Sunday Evening Services at 7 o'clock.

Victoria College Music Club

Merric England, the delightful comic opera being presented in Hart House Theatre next week by the Victoria College Music Club, was first produced at the Savoy Theatre in London on April 2nd, 1902. It was an outstanding success and marked the close of a brilliant series of light operas at that theatre.

The opera was written by Basil Hood and composed by Edward German, who is well known for his Henry VIII dances. Sir Edward was called in to finish the opera, The Emerald Isle, which was left uncompleted by the untimely death of Sir Arthur Sullivan. This production enjoyed only a partial success at the Savoy, but Merric England, its successor, was an overwhelming triumph.

The opera is based upon a supposed incident in the life of Queen Elizabeth, which portrays the plotting of the Earl of Essex and Sir Walter Raleigh for the favour of the queen. The chief comedy element is provided by Walter Wilkins, a player in Shakespeare's company, who has his own ideas of how the great dramatist's plays should be produced. The music is extremely beautiful and rehearsals to date indicate that the whole production will be very well handled.

A feature of this year's opera is the large cast of principals taking part, among whom are a number of the favourites of former years. Essex will be played by Angus Banting, Sir Walter Raleigh by John Bates, and Wilkins by Charlie Joffile. Miss Jean Seacombe will take the part of Queen Elizabeth, and Jean Welford that of (Continued on Page 4)

"This is where we came in," he said.
"Let's go!" And they left.
C-C

Likewise doth
Hugh Canthys Fellowshipby.

INDOOR RIFLE LEAGUE

EXCELLENT AVERAGE

In their first match in the Toronto Civilian Indoor Rifle League the team entered by the University Rifle Club obtained the excellent average of 96. Members of the team are confident of an even higher score in the following matches and are hoping to carry off the Robins Trophy, which will be awarded to the leading club in their group.

For the students F. B. Pickett, II S.P.S., was the high scorer with a total of 98 points out of a possible 100. The other men who shot the match were Broad (captain), Clark, Ferguson, Foreman, Griffin (secretary), Huggins, Powell, Thompson and Tutton.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject Sunday:

"LIFE"

First Church of Christ, Scientist
St. George St. at Louth Ave.
Close to residences and fraternity houses
Sunday Services 11 a.m. 7:30 p.m.
The morning service is broadcast over CFRB. A Sunday School for students under twenty is held at 11 a.m.
On Wednesday at 8 p.m. is the main auditorium is held a meeting at which Testimonies of Christian Science Healing are given.
Downtown on the 15th floor of the Metropolitan Bldg., Adelaide at Victoria, a Free Public Reading Room is open from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily except Sunday, for rest, quiet meditation and study, where the Bible, and authorized Christian Science literature including the text book, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, may be read, borrowed or purchased.
Each and every student is cordially invited to attend the services, and to enjoy the privilege of the reading room.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

Huron Street—Just below Bloor
Holy Eucharists at 7 a.m., 8 a.m. and 9:30 a.m.

11 a.m.—Choral Eucharist
Preacher in D Major
Moir
Presbyter, The Rev. F. Gavin,
Th.D., of the General Seminary,
New York.

Motet, "Ave, Verum Corpus".
Mozart
7 p.m.—Choral Evensong
Presbyter, The Rev. E. R. Nornabell, L.S.T.

Anthem, "Almighty and everlasting God", Gibbons.
Broadcast of Choral Music over CFRB, 6:46 p.m.

Cambridge Suits

Made-to-Measure with Two-Pair Trousers.

at $25

Cambridge Overcoats

Ready to slip on in the season's newest styles.

Now $19.75 - Reg. $30

These are just two of the highlights of our great January Sale.
Come in this week-end.

Fitzpatrick & O'Connell
LIMITED

310 YONGE STREET, Just North of Dundas

THE FOLLOWING DANCE ORCHESTRAS

Led by Undergraduates of The University of Toronto

are Members of
The Toronto Musical Protective Association and Respect the Ethics of FAIR COMPETITION

FRED EVIS and His Orchestra
LORRIE HESSIN, and His Orchestra
EDMUND HOUSTON and His Orchestra
ROY LOCKSLEY and His Orchestra
KARL MUELLER and Varsity Entertainers
STANLEY ST. JOHN and His Orchestra
WRIGHT BROTHERS ORCHESTRA
CLIFFORD T. YOUNG and His Orchestra

Any of the above undergraduates will be pleased to furnish experienced musicians for all social functions.

$1.00 WILL REPAIR YOUR WATCH
NO MATTER HOW BADLY BROKEN
Cleaning, if necessary, 75c. extra
GUARANTEED 2 YEARS
FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY!
CITY WATCH & JEWELRY
HOSPITAL Est. 1921
163-7 Yonge St.—Room 12
OPP. SIMPSON'S TARE ELVATOR
MAIL ORDERS—POSTAGE EXTRA

Nothing But
A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit
for the coming dance.
They are up to the minute.
Also complete outfits and evening wraps.
Two stores to serve you.
Special rates for students.
FREEMAN'S
256 College St. 571 Yonge St.
KI. 0991 KI. 3270

**??
What is every student waiting for?

DANCING LESSONS
GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps
6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1886

NOW OPEN
Toastette Tea Rooms
63 Harbord Street
Delicious Home Cooking
Moderate Prices
Open 8 a.m. to 11 p.m.
Sundays 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.
Special Noonday Lunch, 25c.
Full Course Evening Dinner for 26c., 30c. and 35c.

NIAGARA CATARACTS PLAY VARSITY TO-MORROW NIGHT

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

We are glad to report that St. Mike's are going to have a hockey team after all. With six teams entered in the interfaculty series, the schedule is going to be evenly balanced.

Eleanor Sanson, president of the Hockey Club, tells us that the first half of this schedule, which is published elsewhere in today's paper, must be run off. The playing of the second half, completing the home and home games, will depend on ice conditions and the willingness of the teams to proceed.

The schedule doesn't begin until Jan. 30, and this is where it falls down. Why not start the games immediately? After all, while it would help the quality of the games to spend next week practicing, what price practicing if no ice? Since it has been decided that the schedule be completed with home and home games. We don't pretend to be a weather prophet, but ice from now until the middle of February seems to be, at most, a hockey player's dream.

Dr. Gordon wishes to make it very emphatic that those who are trying out for hockey or basketball, should get their eligibility slips right away. The managers are at fault—they are responsible for seeing that those who are turning out to practices have physical examinations.

There are some who are in difficulty what with both basketball and hockey attracting them. A visit to Dr. Gordon will enlighten them as to their exact position. She has the final say, for physical condition is the deciding factor when a girl gets these ambitious ideas.

It will be some time before those who want to play hockey if they don't make a University team, will be able to find out where they stand. Marion Forward, coach of the intercollegiate team says that her squad of 13 will have to be cut down to 9 but she isn't planning to do this for some time. Consequently, Jean Allen won't be able to pick her intermediate team with 4 players still to come down from the seniors.

So for the present we leave this complicated subject.

And don't forget about those eligibility slips.

S.P.S. SWAMPS PHARMACY

Junior S.P.S. battled their way to a 14-7 win over Pharmacy yesterday afternoon in a scheduled interfaculty basketball game in the little gym of Hart House. The score is a good indication of the play, although both team could stand plenty of practice around the basket and in passing.

In the second period Pharmacy did everything but score, missing plenty of close-in shots. School put the game away by getting four points to Pharmacy's two in the final moments.

D. Miller played a good game for the Engineers, while Sharpe was the high scorer with four points.

Junior S.P.S. — O'Flynn, Latimer, Sharpe, D. Miller, A. Miller, Woods, McArthur, Chernofsky, Eggert.

Pharmacy — Wilson, Huffman, Evans, Katz, Hamilton, Kofsky, Reesor, Puger, Lee, Milburn.

Sport Notices

Junior U.C. Baseball—
Practice on Friday, 1-2.

Sr. Intercollegiate Hockey—
Practice today, 12:30 noon.

U.C. Women's Hockey—
Practice at Arena, Friday, 5 to 6.

Jr. S.P.S. Softball—
Practice Saturday, 1-2 p.m. Game with Meds next Wednesday.

CATARACTS INVADE VARSITY ARENA

Return Tilt Promises Revenge for Blue and White Scorers

MCCLELLAND ABSENT

Varsity Arena will be the scene of a very interesting senior A hockey engagement tomorrow night when Gene Fraser's flashy Falls sextet meet University of Toronto's Big Blues. In the game at Niagara Falls last Tuesday night both squads put on a thrilling battle and the powerful Cataracts were only able to garner a victory by taking advantage of penalties to Varsity, on which occasions they scored four of their five goals against two for Varsity.

At present the Niagara Falls sextet are making a great display to remain within a playoff position and they are showing the form which gave them the Senior O.H.A. championship last year. However, Varsity should more than make it interesting for the Fraser cohorts when they step out on the ice tomorrow night as the Blue-clad warriors are the hardest fighting squad in the group despite their lowly standing and the Cataracts will have to be at their best to hold off the brilliant forays of the Blue and White hockeyists. Varsity will be without the services of Normie McClelland, clever playmaker at the pivot position, due to the sad loss of his mother. The first line of the Blue squad will likely have Hendry at centre, flanked by MacPherson and McConvey on the wings. MacPherson and McConvey have shown great form in their last few games and they should provide Cuthbert in the Falls nets with many anxious moments. Reliable Frank Shipp will be guarding the nets for the students with Campbell and Rey as his defence. The hard plugging Cunningham, along with Fullerton, Jeffrey, Sweeney and Williamson will form the relief corps. Undaunted by the persistent tough breaks which have dogged the Varsity squad since the beginning of the season Warren Stevens' sextet have put up great battles in all their encounters and the "Big Roar" team will have to put on their best combination to turn aside the student thrusts. For the Falls Hasie will likely start at centre along with Peterkin and Steele. The tricky combination plays of this set of forwards and the close checking of Lauron, Mancuso and Hunter will give Varsity plenty to worry about. Without a doubt the game will be hard fought as the Niagara Falls sextet realize that Varsity give their best at all times.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

Jan. 15	Sr. S.P.S. vs Sr. Vic
16	Jr. Meds vs Jr. Vic
17	Trinity vs Sr. U.C.
18	Pharmacy vs Jr. S.P.S.
19	Forestry vs Grad. Stud.
23	Emmanuel vs Wyeliffe
24	Sr. Vic vs Dents
25	Jr. Vic vs Jr. U.C.
26	Jr. S.P.S. vs Sr. Meds
29	Grad. Stud. vs O.C.E.
31	Dents vs Sr. S.P.S.
Feb. 1	Sr. U.C. vs O.A.C.
2	Jr. U.C. vs Jr. Meds
5	Knox vs Wyeliffe
6	Sr. Meds vs Pharmacy
7	Jr. Vic vs Jr. Meds
8	O.C.E. vs Forestry
9	Emmanuel vs Knox
13	Sr. Vic vs Sr. S.P.S.
15	Sr. U.C. vs Trinity
16	Jr. S.P.S. vs Pharmacy
20	Wyeliffe vs Emmanuel
21	Jr. U.C. vs Jr. Vic
22	Grad. Stud. vs Forestry
23	Sr. Meds vs Jr. S.P.S.
26	Dents vs Sr. Vic
28	Wyeliffe vs Knox
Mar. 1	O.C.E. vs Grad. Stud.
2	Sr. S.P.S. vs Dents
3	O.A.C. vs Sr. U.C., 2 p.m.
5	Jr. Meds vs Jr. U.C.
6	Pharmacy vs Sr. Meds
8	Knox vs Emmanuel
9	Forestry vs O.C.E.

Forestry will now be in Group V: Forestry, Grad. Stud., O.C.E.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By B. J. McGuire

Just what must O.A.C. do to get into senior intercollegiate sport? The latest attempt of O.A.C. to enter the charmed circle of senior intercollegiate sport has been turned down. For the past few years this college has been producing teams which are unquestionably the equal if not the superior of those of the members of the sacred four. During the football season the Aggies turned out a squad powerful enough to be a real threat had they been in the intercollegiate loop. That they were only allowed to compete in the intermediate class. Then their intermediate soccer team came to Toronto and eluded the Varsity intercollegiate champions and defeated them easily. Yet Varsity still hold the senior title. For some time past O.A.C. have been attempting to enter a B. W. and F. team in the senior intercollegiate series but have been refused admission. The team which they sent to Toronto for the interfaculty assault swept all before it and would have been a contending power in the senior intercollegiate assault. At the beginning of the week the matter of allowing O.A.C. into the intercollegiate assault was discussed. Varsity and McGill were in favour of it but Queen's refused. So again the Aggies will have to confine their activities to the interfaculty and intermediate series, a class in which they meet with little opposition.

O.H.A. hockey has been experiencing one of the most disastrous financial seasons in years. Just what the trouble is would be hard to locate. The hockey has certainly lived up to the brand of former years, yet the support has fallen off badly. This has been noticeable in every other branch of sport as well as hockey. One thing that strikes us is that the prices remain the same as they were when money was plentiful. A reduction in the price of admission would certainly do no harm and probably a lot of good.

Saturday night Gene Fraser's Cataracts will be seen in action against Warren Stevens' pukehasers at Varsity Arena. Last year's O.H.A. champions are travelling at the peak of their form and are out to gather in the extra pair of points which will put them into third place in the O.H.A. race. The Falls team are the most colourful team in the circuit and should attract a large crowd. However, the Blue team will give them a real argument and whether they win or lose or draw the game will be too good to pass up. The Falls were more than a little lucky when Varsity were over there last Tuesday. Penalties cost the Blue team four goals which is quite a handicap. In the question of penalties Varsity certainly did not receive any breaks. Dud Farrell, who refereed the game, used the penny-meaty-mo system and Varsity always drew the odd number.

And here's an idea for those who like action with music. Next Thursday night a mixture of dancing, boxing, wrestling, gymnastics and more dancing will be served up to all and sundry who deposit four bits with the man at the door. There will be many high class performers on the card and the variety of boxing, wrestling and gymnastics should provide an interesting evening for the most critical. Dancing will commence at 10 p.m. and will continue until . . . The tickets are 50 cents each or six bits a couple.

Varsity's senior B and junior basketball teams face their big tests tomorrow night at Broadway Y. A loss at this stage of the race spells elimination while a victory will give them a good chance at a title.

Tonight the newly formed Varsity lacrosse team will face Rochester Indians in Rochester. The boys will be playing their first game together but their reputations as players in the local circuits stamp them as a formidable aggregation. A win tonight will do much to revive the interest around the campus and again establish this game on the sports calendar.

U. OF T. MEETS FALLS IN BASKETBALL

Strong Teamwork Needed for Blue Team to Win

OUT-OF-TOWN GAME

On Saturday night, Varsity's Senior A team plays its first game away from home, meeting the Niagara Falls Echoes in the big rear city.

Coach Lew Hayman will have to do an "Argonaut" if he expects his team to be up with the leaders at the wire, and he has a good chance of starting them on winning ways against the Echo squad, which from all reports is considered the weak sister of the league. Even so, they will probably turn out to be a hard nut to crack as they have the advantage of playing on their own floor, with a home crowd to cheer them on.

Although the Varsity team can boast of some of the smartest individual performers in the league, they have lacked the team play which carried them to the Big Five championship last year, and they will have to improve greatly in this department if they expect to stay in the contention. The Blue team seems to lack the confidence and spirit that characterized their play last year and a win at this stage will do a lot to bolster the morale of the squad, while a loss will put them deep in the cellar, from which it will be a hard job to get back among the leaders, with the quality of the competition that they have to face this year.

The return of Gold to his last year's form in the Volles A.C. game, added to the splendid performances of Willis,

VIC MAINTAINS LEAD WHEN WOODMEN WARM UP

Closely Fought Baseball in Frustrated Attempt to Catch 'Em

Smashing out six runs in the first inning Senior Victoria came through to win a close interfaculty baseball game from Forestry 7-5, in the big gym at Hart House yesterday.

The Woodmen got away to a slow start and after the first two innings the score read 7-1 in favour of Vic. Forestry tightened up in the closing innings but they failed to overcome the Victoria lead.

Senior Vic — Cragg, Dickie, Grant, Walker, Wallace, Dyke, King, Scott, Altemang.

Forestry — Phillips, Johnstone, Hick, Garrett, Powell, Walstead, Brisley, Greer, Crossley.

Levy and Bodrug augur well for a Blue victory. Caplan turned in a meritable game, considering the fact that it was his first effort of the year, and he should improve with additional competition while Sniderman, who failed to register on the score sheet for the first time in three years, can be counted on to help pile up the Blue total.

Niagara Falls are somewhat of an unknown quantity. Their record this year shows that they have split their two games up to date, losing in Toronto to the fast stopping Volles A.C. quintet and trimming the strong St. Kitts team right in St. Catharines. This will be their first game at home, and a big crowd should be out to greet them.

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

BRITISH CONSOLS

COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

British Consols

SEALED IN MOISTUREPROOF CELLOPHANE

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.

Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from Page 2)

for further study. On the other hand the Rhodes Scholarship is almost the only possibility for the student with widely divergent interests and perhaps only fair scholastic ability. In my opinion the opportunity should not be taken from him.

Perhaps these comments are not strictly relevant to the editorial in question, but in any case I think that they do express the opinion of many students at this University and at the University of Manitoba.

Blair Ferguson,
Occasional Student in C. and F.

MORE ABOUT MOTIVES

The Editor, The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

Is it proper for a writer of editorials to satirize thus (we refer to the recent editorial entitled Unmasking Motives) his comrades in adversity who find the same strange satisfaction for their ego in acting on an executive, that he himself must feel by thus publicly expressing himself through the columns of The Varsity?

Why it should be despicable to find a pleasure in having power is hard to understand. As a matter of fact, among the hoi-polloi who are satisfied to enjoy the achievements of someone else, the executive who openly revels in his position—who loves to bustle around obviously—who beams upon visitors as a member of the welcoming committee—who swells with pride as he hurries away to attend some "committee business"—this is the kind of executive they like to support. They have no use at all for the man who feels obliged to emulate Uriah Heep and parade his innate humbleness—who would much rather be a mere member—who laments all the hard work he has to do for an unappreciative society. What the hoi-polloi wonders is why such an unhappy creature doesn't resign and let one of them have a try.

For the truth of the matter is that far from people not wanting to be at the head table, there is not a rabbit heart among them who does not feel that he (if he had the chance) might carve the board's head just as well.

If you had instructed your editorial writer to make a brief for the rotation of executive offices, so that no one might fill more than one during his undergraduate career, and so that everyone willy-nilly would have to serve in some capacity on some committee at least once, he would at least have acquired the merit of being orig-

EYES EXAMINED

37 Years' Experience

ALL STYLES OF FRAMES
(Prices lower than the lowest quality considered.)

F. E. LUKE, Optometrist
167 YONGE ST.—Upstairs
(Opp. Simpson's)

inal. And besides, such a system, if made workable, would do away with many of the abuses referred to in the editorial.

As for the parting shot in the last paragraph—Please, Mr. Editor, that joke went out Cats and Cats ago. Surely it is not proper for the editorial column to be filled with pussy's leftovers.

H.A.C.

STEVENS' SPEECH

(Continued from Page 1)

by Mr. Stevens.

"There is nothing in the story at all," declared L. L. Golden, who attended the summer school and heard Mr. Stevens' speech; he also aided in the publication of the proceedings. "The speech, as a matter of fact, was quite interesting and was not radical in any regard, but it was delivered near the close of the proceedings and we could not hold up the publication of the proceedings just in order to include Mr. Stevens' speech."

J. Earl Lawson, M.P., told The Varsity that he attended the Conservative summer school, but was not present when Mr. Stevens gave his address. However, he was certain, from the information which he had obtained, that Mr. Stevens uttered no remarks which could in any way be termed radical and which would be omitted from the published proceedings for that reason. "Every speech which was delivered at the summer school was reprinted in the proceedings, except for the questions and answers and a few late talks which were not taken down as part of the proceedings."

"I do not particularly remember Mr. Stevens' speech, but I am certain," that he said nothing very startling," was asserted R. A. Bell, IV Law, who was also present at the summer school. Mr. Bell explained that he was sure that any story of a radical speech delivered by the Canadian Minister was entirely groundless.

Dance Lady, Dance

Lovely ladies, lovely gowns, made lovely by lovely lingerie. You know that sleek, smooth-fitting undies so enhance your appearance by giving the perfect foundation for your dainty frock.

Evening Slips

Of pure silk Crepe de Chine with low-cut back and adjustable straps. Tailored to fit perfectly. In White or Black $2.98

Evening Teddies

Of Satin. Tailored to fit. Low back with adjustable straps. Uplift brassiere of georgette and net. An unusual creation, at $2.98

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone XI, 3900
4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19

8.30 p.m.—First of a series of discussion groups on the menace of Fascism to be held under the auspices of the Student League. First topic, "What Fascism has meant for Italy". Women's Union. All students welcome.

8.30—School Night at Hart House. John Crawford and his orchestra. St. Joseph's College annual At-Home. Alexander Rood, King Edward Hotel. Luigi Romanello's orchestra.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 20
8 p.m.—T.L.C.C.U., 9 Anderson Ave. Subject, "Following, Whithersoever He goeth".

5.30—Tea dance at Newman Club.
7.45 p.m.—374 Victoria "Young and Old" party.

8.00 p.m.—376 Victoria informal class party at Annesley Hall. Music by Murray Armstrong's orchestra. Dancing 8 till 11.30.

Beta Sigma Rho fraternity annual at-home, Primrose Club, Wilcocks St.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 21
5.30—Open forum at Newman Club.
9 a.m.—Holy Communion in Hart House Chapel.

MONDAY, JANUARY 22
6.8 p.m.—Campers' reunion, Wymilwood. Everyone interested welcome. Picnic lunch. Bring your own or order one from Harriet Christie or Mrs. Hutchinson, Ki. 9126, before Saturday.

5 p.m.—Medical S.C.M. group in the S.C.M. library, Hart House. Subject, A.D. 34-1934. Dr. Hall will lead the discussion.

Men's Glee Club in Hart House Music Room.

8 p.m.—Victoria College Debating Parliament, Alumni Hall.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 23
5.10 p.m.—T.L.C.C.U., Wymilwood. Subject, "Fellowship, St. Paul's and Ours".

4 p.m.—Engineering Society meeting in C 22, Mining Building.
8 p.m.—C.C.F. Club at 79 St. George St. Prof. F. H. Underhill.

Classified Advertisements

WILCOCKS-HURON
ST. GEORGE VICINITY
Exceptional front room, fireplace, also other double, single rooms, abundance of hot running water, special low rates. Kingsdale 6091.

"UNMASKING MOTIVES" ROUSES COMMENT

(Continued from Page 1)

their social ambitions. And the writer has the wrong conception of women's fraternities—he should find out more about them before making such statements. Women's frats are to tighten the bonds of friendship among friends."

There was much controversy about the matter of scholarships. "The present system of award makes it necessary for scholars to be shameless lobbyists," one critic asserted. The statement that women's sororities "are organized to hunt men in packs" met with vehement protests and angry condemnation from members of some of these organizations. One young lady (who because of the pungency of her remarks had to remain unidentified) declared, "It's not the women who hunt—it's the men. But first they consult the financial ratings of their lady friends' papas!"

SCHOLARSHIP FUND AS COPP MEMORIAL

(Continued from Page 1)

near future the means for providing a perpetual memorial to one of Varsity's most prominent students." Mr. Stuart Ferguson, treasurer of the committee, told The Varsity that the intention is to raise a fund made up of voluntary subscriptions from friends and admirers of the late John Copp, and it is hoped that the fund will be of sufficient size to provide an annual income of about $250. It is probable that the scholarship will be awarded annually to a medical student in the University of Toronto who has completed his third year, and is entering his fourth. In making the award all-round ability will be considered as well as the requirements of the scholarship.

The committee which will make the award and the exact terms on which it will be made have not yet been definitely determined.

Contributions may be forwarded to Stuart Ferguson, Treasurer, John C. Copp Memorial Fund, either to Simcoe Hall or to the Athletic Office of Hart House, University of Toronto.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24

8 p.m.—Hart House debate with McGill. "Delendus est Devalera".
7.30-8.30—U.C. women's S.C.M. in Falconer House common room, 85 St. George St. Mrs. Jean Hutchinson will speak on "A Christian Basis for Life". All U.C. women invited.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 25

5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club, Hart House Music Room.

8.30 p.m.—Meeting of the Anti-War Society at the Women's Union to discuss action for the term. Members and all interested are urged to attend.

8 p.m.—Rapid Transit-tournament, of Varsity Chess Club, south common room, Hart House.

M. and P. annual at-home, Oak Room, Union Station.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 26

The Arts Ball, Great Hall at Hart House. Stan St. John's orchestra. Medical At-Home, Royal York Hotel. Supper dance with Wright brothers' orchestra in attendance.

JANUARY 27-28

International conference, auspices of the S.C.M., Saturday evening and Sunday. Leader, Dr. Walter Kotshing, Geneva. Registration, including Saturday supper and Sunday tea, 75c; or either for 50c. Limited to 150 students.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30

375 S.P.S. junior dance at the Pavilion Blue Room. Refreshments. Dancing to music by the Kampus Katz orchestra.

9.00—Household Science dance at the Eaton Auditorium. Stan St. John's orchestra.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31

7.00 p.m.—Commerce Club annual banquet in the Great Hall, Hart House. Sir William Clark, British High Commissioner to Canada, will speak on "Recent changes in the conception of the State's relation to business."

9.00 p.m.—Iota Alpha Pi subscription dance, Embassy Club.

Newman Ball, Royal York Hotel.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2

C.O.T.C. ball at Hart House. Nels Kelly and his Varsity Kampus Katz.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9

Victoria College at-home. Dancing 9 to 2. Music by Stanley St. John and his orchestra.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

VICTORIA DEBATE

On Monday evening the following will be the motion: Resolved that in the opinion of this House the Clergy should keep out of politics. Those speaking on the paper are: Jean Dowling, Harold Bailey, Helen Forbes, John Harwood-Jones.

FASCISM

The first of a series of discussion groups on the menace of Fascism to be held under the auspices of the Student League. First topic, "What Fascism has meant to Italy". Women's Union, 8.30 p.m. tonight. All students welcome.

CONSERVATIVES!

Tickets for the banquet and dance of the Federation of Young Canada Conservatives Clubs may be secured from any member of the executive of the Macdonald-Cartier Club.

IOTA ALPHA PI

The Iota Alpha Pi sorority will hold its annual subscription dance at the Embassy Club on Wednesday evening, January 31st. Regular admission prices. Floor show. Phone reservations, Melrose 7244 or Lakeside 6003.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

(Continued from Page 1)
small. We need more space and more books. In the scientific departments our library accommodation and equipment are excellent in quality; the library is the laboratory of the 'humane letters'. Here, I fear, we are in danger of falling short. If we are to keep up with the needs of our research and graduate departments, we must have as soon as may be, enlarged accommodation and an increase in the number of our volumes. Otherwise we cannot maintain our academic reputation."

The president pointed out that a chair in the fine arts has been under consideration for some time and that a department of geography had also been discussed. He also felt that this University should consider the idea of establishing a chair in Chinese.

Last year there were 7,957 students registered in the University. Of these, 1,491 were members of University College. Ontario College of Education rose to third place with 1,101 coming next to Victoria, which had 1,043.

ART EXHIBITION

IN SKETCH ROOM
(Continued from Page 1)

hopes that a great many undergraduates, members of Hart House, will contribute to make this second exhibit a success.

JAPANESE TRADE SHOWS EXPANSION

(Continued from Page 1)

tution today. In this case it is asked to attack the principle whether contract is more important than human rights. The chance of success of Roosevelt's battle on behalf of the common people against great interests is helped by this decision.

"In England the London Daily Mail, a viciously national paper, but one of the biggest papers in Great Britain, has come out lauding Fascism. The importance of this is that the Daily Mail is so sure that there are enough people in England who will agree with them and buy their paper, that they believe it pays them to support Fascism."

Mr. Lauteslager spoke of the question that Canada is facing—that of revaluing the dollar. He believes that inflation will probably come to us after it has come to the United States.

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

Bessie Throckmorton, Eileen Whidden is cast in the part of Jill-All-Alone, a witch, and the May Queen will be played by Pat Lundy. The numerous other principals are well cast also, but space will not permit of their names.

U.C. WOMEN—NOTE!

The women's ticket list for the Arts Ball in Hart House, Friday, January 26, is open only for a few more days, as our allotment of tickets is strictly limited. Remember—unless advantage is taken now to be the "Fairy Princess" to some "poor" boy, this privilege will be forfeited in the future. See the notice board in the women's cloak room in U.C. today.

HART HOUSE CHAPEL

The usual monthly service of Holy Communion will be held in Hart House Chapel on Sunday, January 21st at 9 a.m. All members of the House who desire to attend will be very welcome.

CHESS CLUB

The following is the draw for the final round of the Varsity Chess Club championship: J. R. Grant vs A. L. Rubinoff (Ki. 9142); S. A. Jennings vs A. D. McConnell (Hu. 5857); A. P. Hopkins vs R. T. Burgess (Ken. 4264J); R. Drummond vs R. B. Hayes (Ly. 1737). These games must be completed by January 31. Deposits will be returned to the entrants at the regular meeting on Thursday, January 25th at 8 p.m.

The fact that Mr. T. J. Crawford, who is directing the play, produced Merrie England for Sir Edward German himself, augurs well for the success of the production. Sir Edward has repeatedly expressed to Mr. Crawford his complete satisfaction with the able and skilful manner in which he directed the opera, and the Music Club may be considered very fortunate in having him as director.

It should perhaps be emphasized once again that the Victoria club's production of Merrie England has absolutely nothing whatsoever in common with the stage show of the same name presented last fall at a local theatre.

Sketch Room

The Camera Committee, under the leadership of Professor A. F. Coventry, is showing now a picture exhibition which is proving to be very popular, to judge from the incessant number of students who are to be found at any time, in the Sketch Room. Though it contains many fine pictures, it seems to me that, on the whole, it is inferior to the exhibition of last year. I would suggest to the committee that it makes it compulsory next year to indicate on all pictures what kind of camera is used, as well as the weather conditions for all outdoor work, as some students have done it in the Scientific and Nature Section. This would make it easier for the public to judge the comparative value of the various pictures. I do not suppose that the Camera Committee expects everyone to agree with its awards, though there will probably be no one who will contest the soundness of its judgment, as far as the first awards are concerned at least. There is another point I would like to bring up in connection with the many pictures exhibited by Allen Sangster; I understand that he is working with one of the best photographic firms of this city, and it does not seem fair to the other students to have him compete in the same class. Could not such work be exhibited in a section of its own?

The architectural section contains some fine and interesting pictures, though some still wonder why Weston's picture of a power plant got a second award while G.P.'s excellent picture of some stone carving at Hart House gets only an Hon. Mention, and D.H. H.'s picture of a Village Gateway does not get any. The Design and Still Life is rather disappointing for its lack of imagination though Watson's Carol Singer is not only a good picture but shows an inventive spirit.

In the Scientific and Nature section everyone will readily support the choice of the committee. The pictures by A.F.C. of a spring peeper, and H.L.S. burst pod of a milkweed is worthy of the best work shown at the C.N.E. Most of the pictures in the Portraiture and Figure Study Section are done by A. Sangster and show fine skill

Looking for Easy Answers to the Spring Clothes Problem?

We've a lot of very bright ones in our ALTERATION DEPARTMENT. Answers about what to do with that frock that wasn't quite a success last season... that suit you liked so well you hate to discard. Our stylists and designers have just returned from New York with all the advance news of the Spring styles. And this is the very best time to bring your clothes in for toning up. You'll be amazed at what can be done to make you look like Spring 1934 with little expenditure. Be a little ahead of the others and bring your frocks in for an estimate on "dating them up". You'll certainly be pleased with results!

ALTERATION DEPARTMENT
FOURTH FLOOR—QUEEN ST.

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

in the treatment of the light and shadow effects; this section, however, might easily be more extended. Chas. J. Scott's Dona Maria, which was awarded the first award Jr., won also the K. B. Jackson trophy for the best Junior print, and is certainly worth it. The picture of Atlas, by Woodley, is a fine study of the muscles. Sangster, alone, has some six coloured pictures and his wonderful studies, especially the one of a table with a lamp, modern ash tray, and cigarettes makes us hope that next year this section will include many competitors.

To me, the Landscape Section is the most interesting and the best, even if, putting the first awards aside, it seems to me that many of the pictures without awards or mentions are better than those that did get them. The picture Midsummer, by M.L.S., as well as his Early Canadian Farm, C. Foster's mountain picture, Guardian of the Pass, Chas. J. Scott's Cloud-capped Pine and White Birch are some of the best works exhibited. Sangster also has a very interesting study of Montreal by a cloudy day with sharp contrasts of light, though blurry at places.

It is of course difficult to describe such an exhibition; one is liable to seem partial, but if this review might bring more students to see it, then it will have been of some worth.

C. de M.

Eaton Auditorium

One of the major attractions of the present concert season—a piano recital by Josef Hofmann—was offered last night in the Eaton Auditorium. Except for a short period a few years ago when he was considered to have become "stale", little but universal acclaim has ever been accorded this famous musician. His comprehensive mind, his profound musicianship, and his extraordinary technical skill have called forth mighty volleys of praise since the time he astounded the American continent at the age of ten. All these elements—and some other significant facts—were revealed in his recent last night.

The work which opened the programme—a transcription of a Bach Prelude and Fugue for the organ—was vigorous, if not unusually inspiring. But in the next number his power was almost overwhelming. Of the playing of the great Beethoven Sonata, Opus 57 ("Appassionata") one does not wish to say much. It was played as only a master could do it. The last movement especially deserves attention; its power proceeded from a stupendous virtuosity, and a grip on the structure such as is possessed only by the highest musical minds, a grip which obviously is past analysis. With similar mastery the Schumann Fantasy in C Minor—perhaps the finest of Schumann's piano compositions—was treated, and brought the first half of the programme to a most impressive culmination. So far, the concert was the work of a giant among musicians.

And then the second half! Monstrous as it seems, I must record my wish that I had left during the intermission. And blatant and self-confident though it seems, I can only describe the remainder of the programme as disgusting, and in some ways pathetic. The Chopin Etudes were fair, though they are frequently played better. But how any musician of Hofmann's stature could have closed with a transcription of the Tannhäuser Overture is almost past answering. Nor was that all; for five times he came out and played encores, some of which were drivelling and all of which were hackneyed. The Chopin and the Wagner were technically imperfect, no doubt of that, but they at least were works on a fairly large scale. The encores were played with a complete lack of subtlety, and with a flashy virtuosity which brought forth applause but little refined music.

I doubt if all this was merely an accident of the occasion. Great pianist as he is, Hofmann is manifestly of the old school. I believe that it is safe to say that among younger discriminating musicians and listeners there is a demand for finesse and subtlety not to be found in a performance such as this appalling conclusion. How soon audiences in general will appreciate this, it is difficult to say. But our newer pianists, even of second and third rate classes, realize that besides intellectual and technical power there are considerations of a far more delicate nature, and that virtuosity is not for the sake of striking the greatest number of notes in the least possible time, but must be directed towards producing the highest musical effects. One generation can scarcely inherit the tastes and ideals of another, and though the titans of a former time remain titans still they cannot possibly be regarded as fulfilling the genuine artistic demands of younger aesthetes and thinkers. It is not to be supposed that what Hofmann did last night is representative of his best significance, but it does epitomize one aspect of the fact that the old order passeth. These are strong words I know; but I believe the evidences of their truth lie all about in the musical world today, and have done so for some time. N.F.L.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, MONDAY, JANUARY 22nd, 1934

No. 68

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Beri-Beri, dread scourge of the Orient, is lashing the Chinese at Port Alberni, B.C.

The Leafs honoured the Centennial by scoring their 100th goal in their game with the Black Hawks on Saturday, but in overtime the Detroit team won, 4 to 2.

In an explosion which rocked the countryside at Port Colborne, one man was killed and another so seriously injured that he may not survive. The police suspect that the two may have been incendiaries.

When his car skidded on a slippery corner, Lord Duncannon miraculously escaped death in England. A fellow passenger was killed.

Discontent is brewing throughout France among the government employees and other workers.

Six commissioners have been appointed to administer the affairs of Newfoundland. They are: Premier F. C. Alderdice, Sir John Hope Simpson, W. R. Howley, K.C., T. Lodge, J. C. Puddister and E. N. R. Trenham; three Newfoundlanders and three Britons.

All Alpine passes are being watched in the hunt for the bandit-slayers who terrorized the French Capital recently.

A morality squad raided the Chinese quarter in Montreal and cleaned out a nest of dives.

Much surprise is evinced by the news that Lord Rothermere, the British peer, heartily approves of Fascism and all other organizations of like political purpose.

LIBERAL SPEAKER ATTACKS COMBINES

Conservative's Laissez-Faire Policy is Criticised by Mr. Duncan

TORY DOWNFALL PREDICTED

The meeting of the Liberal Club held in Hart House was addressed by Mr. Lewis Duncan. Mr. Duncan first spoke on the present situation in the government, pointing out the number of political cases which have appeared lately, the "Aird payments", the "Orlila magistracy" questions and others. He emphasized the laissez faire attitude of the present government and (Continued on Page 4)

Staff Additions

President H. J. Cody announces that the following appointments have been made to the staff of the University of Toronto:

Department of Biology, Easter term, 1934:

Assistants—E. C. Bryant, A. H. Carter, D. H. Chitty, W. O. P. Creswick, E. A. Cummings, M. C. DeSouza, J. P. Fleming, N. Hetherington, C. I. Junkin, J. C. Medcof, Miss P. M. Smalley, G. F. M. Smith, W. B. Stallworthy, Miss N. Taylor, W. R. Whitaker.

F. N. Jerome—Research Assistant.
Miss H. Kibble—Clerical Assistant, January to June, 1934.

The following have been granted leave of absence as indicated: E. C. Beck of the Department of Botany from 1 February proximo to the end of the present session.

Professor F. C. Green of the Department of French for the Michaelmas term, 1934.

DR. BENSLEY PASSES SUDDENLY

Dr. Benjamin A. Bensley, Professor of Zoology and Head of the Department of Biology of the University of Toronto, died suddenly at his home at 37 Admiral Road on Saturday afternoon, January 20th. After a fall, which took place in his home early in the morning, he passed into a state of coma from which he never rallied. He had been in failing health for more than a year but had relinquished none of his professional duties up to the day of his death.

Dr. Bensley was born in Hamilton on November 5, 1875, the youngest son of Robert Daniel Bensley and Caroline Vandeleur. After graduating from the University of Toronto in 1896, with honours in Natural Science, he was appointed Fellow in Biology. The following year he assisted Professor R. Ramsay Wright in museum work and in 1898-99 he was locum tenens in Botany during the leave of absence of Dr. E. C. Jeffrey. In 1899 he went to Columbia University, New York, as Fellow in Vertebrate Palaeontology under Professor Henry Fairfield Osborne. The summer of 1900 he spent at Woods Hole, Mass., and the following February he went to London to study the collection of mar-supials in the British Museum. Here he remained until midwinter of 1902, then returning to Columbia University to take his Ph.D. degree in the spring. The same year he returned to Toronto having received the appointment of lecturer in Zoology at this University. He was promoted to an Associate Professorship in 1906 and became a full Professor in 1914. Meanwhile, in 1912-13, he was granted leave of absence and spent the year in visiting a number of European universities and museums, particularly in Germany. On his return he was appointed Acting Head of the Department of Biology on the retirement of Professor R. Ramsay Wright, and in the same year he was also appointed Director of the Royal Ontario Museum of Zoology, a position which he held until his death. He became Head of the Department of Biology in 1914.

Dr. Bensley was an indefatigable worker and a man of the highest ideals of scholarship. The breadth of his interests in the field of biology is reflected in the impartiality which he showed in the development of the various branches of this field within his Department and the sympathetic understanding which he gave to each member of his staff as well as to his students. His special field of research was the comparative anatomy of vertebrates, in which he contributed important memoirs on the evolution of the Marsupialia and in vertebrate palaeontology. He was also the author of a text-book on "The Anatomy of the Rabbit", which has been for many years the standard text at the University of Toronto. At the time of his death he was engaged in the preparation of a text-book on "Comparative Dental Anatomy".

Dr. Bensley gave himself little time for personal research, however, so unselfish was his devotion to the welfare of his Department and the University as a whole. One of his outstanding achievements outside his own special field was the organization of the Ontario Fisheries Branch Laboratory, an organization within the Department of Biology which has done much towards the scientific investigation of the freshwater fisheries of Ontario.

Dr. Bensley was married in 1905 to Miss Ruth Norton of Boston. He is survived by his wife and one son, Dr. Edward H. Bensley of Montreal.

A brother, Professor R. R. Bensley, is head of the department of Biology at the University of Chicago.

The funeral services in Convocation Hall tomorrow at half past two will be conducted by Rev. Dr. H. J. Cody, assisted by Sir Robert Falconer. Dr. Moore will be at the organ.

Dr. Cody, in conversation with The Varsity last night, described Dr. Bensley as "one of the best departmental administrators of the faculty. Retiring, kindly and gentle in his personal dealings, he stimulated research work in his department and the influence of his personality on the graduates of his department was very fine."

All lecture and laboratory work in the department of Biology is cancelled today and tomorrow.

S. Hughes, M. Patrick Win Massey Awards

Two well-known Varsity fourth-year students, Mr. S. H. Hughes of Trinity College and Mr. J. M. Patrick of U.C., have been nominated by the Hon. Vincent Massey for the Massey Scholarship award. The award is understood to be of the value of $1,000 payable in American funds and is tenable for study anywhere.

Mr. Hughes received his early education in England and at Upper Canada College, and during his study here has been awarded the George M. Wrong and Maurice Cody scholarships in Modern History. He is a member of the Joint Executive of the S.A.C. as the Trinity College representative, and is the S.A.C. representative on the Athletic Directorate. Prominent in debating activities, he was secretary of the Debates Committee and president of the Macdonald-Cartier Club last year and is at present head of the Historical Club. For the past two years he has been cox of the intermediate rowing crew.

Mr. Patrick came here from St. Catharines Collegiate. He holds the position of editor of The Undergraduate, official University College publication. He has also been active as a debater, at Hart House and U.C. and is president of the English and History Club. A long list of scholarships earned here includes the Maurice Cody, the G. H. Armstrong, Robert Bruce, Elizabeth Ann Wintercoy and the Gertrude Lawler awards.

Both students plan to use the award at Oxford, for further study in History.

WIDE ACCLAIM GIVEN TO BOOK BY PROFESSOR

Dr. Cecilia Krieger Translates Mathematical Treatise from Polish

ON "GENERAL TOPOLOGY"

Dr. Krieger Was First Woman to Receive Doctorate Here in Mathematics

Dr. Cecilia Krieger, of the University of Toronto, is the first to translate "General Topology" by Wladaw Sierpinski, professor of mathematics in the University of Warsaw, for which she is receiving wide acclaim. Dr. Krieger explained to The Varsity the nature of the work.

"It is the second volume of Professor Sierpinski's treatise on 'The Theory of Aggregates'. He himself translated into French volume one on 'Transfinite Numbers', but the 'General Topology' was available till now only in Polish. This branch of mathematics was founded in the second half of the nineteenth century by George Cantor, and has since become the basis of every branch of modern mathematics and is closely related to symbolic or mathematical logic. Professor Sierpinski, himself, is the head of the Polish National Academy and editor of the journal Fundamenta Mathematicae, containing articles in English, French, German and Italian.

Her translation, Dr. Krieger stated, will be used as a text book in graduate courses in mathematics all over the world.

In 1931 Dr. Krieger returned to her native Poland to see Professor Sierpinski. (Continued on Page 4)

SCHOOL NITE AGAIN SUCCESS

Hundreds of Engineers Dance and Frolic at Annual Jamboree

SKITS ADD TO GAYETY

Gay lights, beautiful girls, sweet music and a wealth of fun transformed Hart House into a Fairyland on Friday evening, when some fifteen hundred Schoolmen and their friends joined in celebrating School's biggest and gayest party—School Nite.

Commencing shortly after eight-thirty in the big gym, the boys demonstrated their ability to impersonate cherubs, devils, and even Women, in a series of skits that kept the audience in alternate spasms of laughter and applause. "Pansy, the Wonder Horse" was a contortionist that found more new shapes than a chorus dancer, and provoked applause from every one of them. The mad Chemists of J4 were certainly mad enough, but the prize of the evening goes to the pair who bearded Houdini at his own game, and made the body float in the air. This trick was undoubtedly the cleverest piece of parody on stage or off that has been produced in Toronto, and was received as such.

All who could manage to crowd into the tank were amused by a snappy water polo game between Senior and Junior School. Dancing to the music of John Crawford and his orchestra was held in the Music Room, the Read. (Continued on Page 4)

STUDENT SYMPHONY TICKETS

Seats at students' rates for symphony concert on Tuesday evening will be on sale between 12 and 2 and 5 and 6 on Tuesday at Porter's Desk in Hart House.

HOCKEY TEAM ADDS ANOTHER VICTORY BY DEFEATING FALLS SQUAD 3 TO 2

Masthead Meetings

There will be a full meeting of the masthead of "The Varsity" as published in today's issue, in the Women's Office, U.C., at 5:00 sharp, today, Monday. Attendance is absolutely compulsory.

POPULAR STUDENTS DISCUSS MOTIVES

Many Claim that Interest in Campus Politics is Genuine

AWARDS SECONDARY?

Discussion is rife in University undergraduate circles concerning the accusation made in a recent editorial discussing the motives which prompt students to undertake executive positions. It was generally agreed by prominent office holders that at the most the situation had been overstated and that genuine interest in the activity caused most people to join a society.

This attitude was well expressed by Mr. Gordon Skilling, who thought that the editorial was an exaggeration and that people who run for offices do so because they are interested in the organization.

Several students prominent academically and well-known through their extra-mural activities, refused to be quoted on the matter and deemed it wise to withhold the reasons for refusal.

Mr. J. K. Thomas, president of the Philosophical Club, replying to the question "Is there a job racket in University clubs?", "It is impossible to give unqualified assent to this rather vague generalization. Most people, I believe, join a club because they are interested in the purposes and objects of that organization; but that there is a clique of job-hunters or club-runners is apocryphically true. It is impossible to assert what their motives are. Scholarships that demand all-roundness in a candidate are seeking a mythical creature made up of Atlas, Aristotle and Aquinas, and may tend (Continued on Page 4)

MUSICIANS' UNION VOICES PROTEST

Hiring of "Scab" Dance Bands Draws Ire of Organized Labour

UNION THREATENS ACTION

Considerable interest has been aroused on the campus over the attempt of the Toronto Musical Protective Association, commonly known as the "Musicians' Union", to discourage the hiring of an orchestra led by an undergraduate, at University parties, due to the fact that the players are not members of the "Union". Letters have been written to the Social Committee of the Engineering Society advising them to "For moral and ethical reasons to bring pressure to bear upon the offending party to make him see the light." A. D. Dowell, secretary of the association, has forwarded copies of the letters to The Varsity with the suggestion that they be published, and for brevity's sake they are printed below in part.

The Association originally wrote to the Engineering Society advising them as quoted above, and stating that unless they ceased hiring the "Varsity" (Continued on Page 4)

Outskate, Outplay Opponents for Third O.H.A. Senior Verdict

COME FROM BEHIND

Team Wholly Rejuvenated Since Recent Tour in States

Displaying the same form which carried them to three successive victories on their American tour, Varsity swept the Niagara Falls Cataracts to a 3-2 defeat Saturday night in the "T" arena. Due to the loss of Kalbfleisch, Gene Fraser had two freshly kalsomined gents on the bench in the persons of Harrington and Prestia, but even with their addition the Big Roar team was unable to check the speedy Varsity forwards who outskated their opponents to cop the verdict.

Needing the two points to maintain their unstable playoff position, Niagara Falls forced the play from the beginning but slowed up when Harrington got the gate for dumping Rey. After ten minutes of mediocre play, Ernie Roy took Mickey McConvey's pass to open the scoring. As in the game at the border, Varsity lost their lead when, with Hendry off for a trip, a four-man rush left Peterkin and Hastie uncovered in front of Shipp with the latter picking the corner. Shipp featured this first session with some lovely stops.

With the second period barely three minutes old, Rey manoeuvred through the Falls team to whistle a knee-high drive past Cuthbert. Varsity again pressed hard but when McClelland got the thumb for booking, Shipp again held the fort. The Fraser-coached (Continued on Page 3)

SENIOR CAGERS WIN BIG SIX GAME

Varsity Basketeers Defeat Niagara Falls by Score of 32-23

BODRUG STARS FOR BLUES

Playing basketball superior to any they have shown this year, Varsity's Senior A team finally broke into the win column on Saturday night, when they defeated a fast and aggressive Niagara Falls quintet by a 32-23 count in a well-played Big Six fixture at the St. Pat's gym in the Big Roar city.

With Bill Bodrug, chunky Blue forward putting on the most brilliant individual scoring performance of the current game season, and rolling up the remarkable total of eighteen points, the Students had a decided advantage over their purple-clad rivals, and were never threatened at any stage of the game, holding a 13-point margin at the half-way mark. Lew Hayman's co-horts put up an airtight defence against the fast-passing, speedy-breaking Wingfoots, and with thirteen minutes of the first half gone, held them to four points. The Niagara coach substituted his entire team three times in the first canto, but was unable to floor a quintet that could break through the powerful defence of Mitchell and Sniderman with any success. Bodrug and Gordon up front found it comparatively easy to elude their checks and dribble in for soft baskets. Lefty Willis, at centre, although he did not (Continued on Page 3)

SYMPHONY LECTURES

Allan Sly is speaking on Mozart's "Jupiter" symphony, the Brandenburg Concerto, No. 3 by J. S. Bach, and Strauss' Tillenspiele, at 5.10 today in Hart House Theatre.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
Managing Editor ..... M. SHULMAN, '34
C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '35; News: K. G. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crocker, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Martin B. Loeb

MONDAY, JANUARY 22nd, 1934

FURTHER DISCLOSURES

Unmasking motives is a dangerous procedure. Human beings are so constituted that they undertake very little that does not promise some personal gain. Consequently when we investigate the motives which prompt university students to leave home, family, everything, either daily by street car or each term by bus or train, in order to join the ranks of those who deify "Higher Education", we expect that very definite ideas of personal gain will be the inducement. It is entirely justifiable that it should be so, for that term is not used to denote anything so base as mere monetary considerations. The advantages of Higher Education are essentially individualistic: neither the satisfaction that comes from insight into fundamental truths nor the sanity that is the natural attendant of a balanced sense of values can be shared.

The student who comes to university armed with the idea that, in doing so, he can establish himself most successfully in the eyes of the world is not at fault,—for this blame rather the world itself and the educational system of which he is a victim. His set of values have been held up before him from his earliest infancy: he knows that success is measured in terms of money and he has not had time as yet to discover for himself whether or not this evaluation is correct. But this student because he is ambitious and because he has a definite end in view, cannot possibly gain a degree without being affected in a measure by the forces which justify the existence of universities. He, by his diligence and observation, will be led into paths of thought that escape the vaguely wandering mind.

The most surprising thing is to find students who seem unable to express their motives for coming here. Whether or not their hesitancy is prompted by the realization that these are not worthy of such a high adventure, is difficult to say. It is safe, however, to state that this vagueness is genuine since the individual whose incentives are low can usually cloak them with something that resembles the aspirations of the lofty mind. For instance, the woman whose sole desire in registering as a candidate for a B.A. is to make a successful marriage is most likely to be found praising a career as the only thing in life. It is the poor misled souls who can express no motives that are the worst menace. It is deplorable that the faculty should be forced to waste time upon people who are here merely because it is the thing to do; because their families have always expected them to, or to escape said families, can only at best clutter up our overcrowded buildings. We have the great Pass Course for them; because of them we are the largest university in the British Empire; because of them we are unable to enjoy the benefits of the tutorial system. But the registrar cannot cross-examine each candidate for university entrance to find out what has prompted the action, and, in any case their fees are all paid in good Canadian currency. So we must be philosophical about them and hope that "Truth" will penetrate their inner consciousness.

FIND STRANGER IN RESIDENCE

Police Called to Question Man Found Loitering in Burwash Hall

CHECK PETTY THEIVING

The first tangible result of the close check being made on all strangers in men's residences was seen in North House, Burwash Hall Saturday night when an unknown man was apprehended loitering in the house and detained for examination by city police. After questioning by an officer, he was allowed to go with a warning. Petty thieving laid to strangers has been a not infrequent source of worry to occupants of men's residences on the campus and recently the men in Burwash were advised by Mr. Little, senior tutor, to keep on the lookout for strange persons in the house and report to the proper authorities. The man in question was seen to enter the house and proceed to make himself at home. After hovering around the phone booth for some time without making any attempt to use the instrument, he was questioned by Byron Rich, a resident of ye house. He is said to have explained that "He was a shirt salesman", but strangely enough was carrying no samples of his ware.

While a few of the students were detaining him in conversation, Don Archie Hare of Middle House arrived on the scene and a few minutes later a minion of the law put in an appearance. After questioning, the suspect was allowed to proceed on his way.

Art, Music and Drama

Friday Afternoon Recital

This week's Hart House Friday Afternoon Recital consisted of a Brahms programme, given by Miss Marion Copp, contralto, and a trio composed of Frances Adaskin, pianist, Joyce Hornyansky, cellist, and Herbert Pye, clarinetist. The recital was one of the most satisfactory yet presented, well-rounded and consistent in tone.

Miss Copp possesses a full, rich voice which she handles with much good taste as well as skill. Brahms' songs are well-known for the importance of the piano accompaniments, which are really an intimate part of the whole structure, and Mrs. Adaskin's work, as always, deserves high commendation. The second group was especially lovely with a delicate warmth of sentiment which was most satisfying.

The Clarinet Trio fitted into the mood of the recital extremely well. It is a happy combination of instruments for a rich, mellow effect, and the composition is melodious and pleasing—so pleasing, in fact, that the audience, demanding an encore, was gratified to have the last movement repeated. The ability of these musicians is well-known around Toronto, and all that is necessary here is to thank them for their kindness and beautiful work on Friday.

N.F.L.

Much attention has been devoted of late to the new school of art, of which Eight Men Speak was alleged to have been an illustration. We have discovered another manifestation.

C-C

Perusing one of The Varsity's most popular Exchange journals, to wit, The Worker, over a couple of cups of capitalistic coffee, we came upon the following stern indictment of the present system. Many of our more literary readers, though not subscribing to the sentiment, will sense the poetic fire and technique which justifies our printing it just as it was printed.

C-C

"At Christmas the windows are filled with toys

To be bought for capitalist boys and girls

But the workers' girls and boys don't ever buy any toys.

"But the capitalist never think of the workers, They only think of their fat belly, When they walk around, it jumps around like a bowl of jelly.

"The capitalist have a tree, that the workers never see

But the workers don't waste time on such stuff,

For Christmas is full of bluff.

"The capitalist have candy and sometimes they have brandy The capitalists are very rude, sneering at the workers without food."

C-C

Though originally this poem appeared in the Children's Corner, we deemed it worthy of the publicity to be derived from inserting it in The Varsity's best read column.

Kugur-Nell.

Note—After considerable research the Night Editor ascertained beyond dispute that it was actually two cups of coffee.

JUNIOR QUINTET DROPS A GAME

Broadview Y Outplays Blue Youngsters to the Tune of 31-21

HARLOCK VARSITY STAR

Succumbing to the apparent jinx that the Broadview Y team appear to have over them Varsity juniors dropped another basketball game at the Y on Saturday night by a score of 21-31. Due partly to poor refereeing and partly to the fact that neither Kinsey nor Miller could seem to get their eye on the basket, the Blue team were rather badly out-scored.

At that, the game was not as one-sided as the score indicates because, while they couldn't sink the leather, the Varsity team could certainly handle it and their passing and combination play was at times very good. In the first half Broadview took some time to get started but Samme, their flashy forward player, slithered through the defence for four baskets to give them

FLOOD DAMAGES SUBJECT OF TALK

Cause, Effect and Cure of Floods Are Described by Dr. Barbour

AT CONVOCATION HALL

When Rivers Run Wild—In China and Elsewhere, was the subject of an illuminating lecture given by Dr. George Barbour at Convocation Hall on Saturday evening in which he described the causes, the cures of floods and the havoc wrought by them in various of the flood plains of the world. In the main he dwelt upon the flood plains of the Mississippi River system, the Colorado River and the Yellow River in China. The lecture was accompanied by lantern slides many of which were taken by Colonel Lindbergh.

According to Dr. Barbour floods originate in various manners. A flood may be caused by the collapsing of a dam, as was the case with one in the southern part of California which could not withstand the force of the water for geological reasons overlooked when the dam was constructed. A flood may be caused by ice jams but perhaps the greatest danger zone lies along the banks of rivers which have reached maturity.

The cures are as various as the causes. The planting of trees in flood areas has been tried but is not practical since about all they do is to prevent erosional damage. Two very successful cures of late years have been retention dams and storage reservoirs. Hydraulic jumps and dykes are also used. The Chinese protect the banks of the rivers with baskets of stones which help to a certain extent. There have been records of the floods in China since 2200 B.C. Dykes were put around the Yellow River and retained its course from 2278 to 602 B.C.—a fact hardly credible today.

The slides showing the damage done by the floods were particularly enlightening. There were pictures of all the well-known flood areas of America and China showing the areas in the grip of the floods themselves and also the path of desolation left by the subsided waters.

a start. As usual this team was quite weak on foul shooting, scoring only four out of fourteen tries in the period. It might be remarked here that during the whole game the whistle blew more for travelling than for fouls and the longest interval in which the whistle did not blow was 54 secs. The period ended with Broadview leading 18-10.

In the second half Varsity started off slowly, waiting for openings and playing possession of the ball. In this way they crept close to the leaders and began to turn on the steam. This proved their undoing because they threw the ball away on numerous occasions with long, risky passes.

Harlock was high scorer for Varsity with 8 points of which 6 were free throws. Miller and Krakauer were the outstanding players for their team, while Bredin, Samme and Andrews were the best of the Broadview outfit.

Broadview — Andrews 5, Bach 4, Bredin 7, Moores 3, Samme 8, Martin 4, Carter, Chessum, Black, Cornbloom. Varsity — Miller 6, Kinsey 2, Harlock 8, Toole 2, Krakauer 3, Stoughton, Gladish, Mullin, Rutledge, Doan.

Nothing But
A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps.
Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.
FREEMAN'S
256 College St. 571 Yonge St.
KI. 0991 KI. 3270

EYES EXAMINED
37 Years' Experience
ALL STYLES OF FRAMES
(Prices lower than the lowest, quality considered.)
F. E. LUKE, Optometrist
167 YONGE ST.—Upstairs
(Opp. Simpson's)

THE EPICURE GRILL
AND
TEA ROOM upstairs
opp. Eaton's College St.
433 YONGE STREET
Special attention to Students
Full Course Meals from 26c. up
We serve economical plate luncheon 20c.

DO YOU WANT TO WIN A PRIZE?
$5 First - $3 Second - $2 Third
For the best group of 4 snapshots most representative of Campus Life
FOR TORONTONENSIS
Wednesday, January 24th is positively the last day to turn these in to the S.A.C. Office, Hart House. Seniors, the success of this section of the book depends on you.

THE ANNUAL CONCERT OF The Blue and White Band Convocation Hall
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21st
This year better than ever before. Guest artists, and a fine programme. Keep this date open.

FELT CRESTS
Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.
50c.
To be worn only on Univeristy Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

FIRST CAGE TEAM WINS AT FALLS; BEES AND JRS. LOSE

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

Three cheers for Varsity! Did you see the game on Saturday night? If not, why not? The Blue team came through with a win—and right in the last two minutes too. Come up and see them next time.

The interfaculty hockey schedule, which through some error was not published on Friday, will positively appear today. We still think that there is a lot of good hockey weather going to waste but we hope our forebodings will prove to be wrong.

Again we find that night editors are not infallible. For the benefit of any of our gentle readers who may have been mystified on Friday concerning a certain sentence which was carelessly treated after it left our hands, we herewith reprint it in its original form.

"Since it has been decided that goals on the round are going to count, it seems almost imperative that the schedule be completed."

Coach McPherson hasn't cut down his hockey squad yet. Only nine players can be kept for the intercollegiate games, but he may be expecting to need all those turning out, in the inter-city league.

Nothing definite can be learned about the plans of the City League. This new team with Fran Crooks at its head seems to be holding things up. "Crookie" has been disappointed in some of the players she had been counting on. Just now she is waiting for a ruling to say that teachers of P.T. can play with them. By next week, however, things ought to be getting under way.

Sport Notices

Interfaculty Hockey—

A meeting of the managers of the hockey teams who were represented in the Jennings Cup series last year, will be held in the Athletic Office this afternoon at 5 o'clock to arrange the groupings and consider schedules. If the manager cannot attend the president of the Athletic Association is asked to send a delegate.

Vic Water Polo—

Game today with Trinity. Everybody out.

Basketball Managers—

Important meeting for interfaculty basketball managers at 5 p.m., Room A, Hart House, Monday, Jan. 22. Every team should be represented.

Baseball Umpires—

Umpires for this week are: Monday, Burt-Gerrais and Shulman; Tuesday, Carveth and Dyke; Wednesday, Shulman and Cragg; Thursday, Gould and Wong; Friday, No game. All games must start by 4.10.

U.C. Squash Tournament—

The annual U.C. squash tournament will commence in a few days. All those desiring to enter will kindly sign the list in the junior common room by Wednesday evening.

U.C. Athletic Board—

Meeting today at 1 p.m. All members please be present.

Rowing Club—

It is not too late to turn out and all men interested are urged to begin getting in condition. All men wanting P.T. for rowing must read the notice board in the Rowing Room and sign the new list in the Athletic Office at once.

LACROSSE SQUAD SUFFERS DEFEAT

Rochester Indians Win Fast Came from Varsity All-Star Team

BLUE TEAM NOT PREPARED

Special to "The Varsity" by Staff Reporter

Rochester, N.Y., Jan. 20.—Before a crowd of more than 3,000 wildly excited fans, University of Toronto box-lacrosse team took a 19 to 5 trimming from the Rochester Iroquois Indians, rated the strongest lacrosse outfit on the continent. The Blue and White squad, playing their first game together, Rich, a resident of the house. He is hand, put up one of the finest exhibitions of Canada's national pastime seen at the Armouries in some time, but they lacked the class of the Redskins to win. The top-sided score is no indication of the play and it was only the phenomenal goal-keeping of Taber that prevented the "T" players from making the final count close.

Five times Fullerton, Coulter and Kerr worked their way through the entire Iroquois outfit only to be foiled by the sensational work of Taber, while several times he outwitted Caslor and Clipperton. The U. of T. lacrosseists had fully as many shots on the Rochester nets as their opponents had at English but they either lacked the necessary scoring punch to score or they were turned back by Taber.

The Indians played a fast-passing, fast-breaking game which caught the "T" players flat-footed at times and made their defensive system look weak. The Iroquois pass the ball with the same speed as they shoot on goal and they work themselves into scoring position with bewildering criss-cross plays.

Varsity grabbed a 3 to 1 lead in the first period but their lack of practise and condition began to tell as the game progressed. The count by periods was 3-1, 7-3, 13-4, 19-5. Kerr accounted for two of Varsity's counters, while Caslor, Coulter and Murray got one apiece. Kerr and Coulter were the most effective of the "T" home players while Hamilton played a strong game on the defence.

Rochester Iroquois — Goal, Taber; defence, Winslow, M. Martin; rover, B. Isaacs; centre, T. General; forwards, Twoguns, Jackson; subs, Hill, Hess, Jameson, Young, L. Isaacs, Miller.

University of Toronto — Goal, English; defence, Fullerton, Keyes; rover, Coulter; centre, Harwood; forwards, Kerr, Allison; subs, Laing, Hamilton, Clipperton, Cochrane, Murray, Burchell. Referee — Geo. Kalls.

WOMEN'S INTERFACULTY HOCKEY SCHEDULE

GROUP I
Jan. 31	Vic I at U.C.
Feb. 2	Meds at Vic I
7	U.C. at Meds
GROUP II
Jan. 30	Vic II at St. Mike's
Feb. 2	St. Hilda's at Vic II
6	St. Mike's at St. Hilda's
GROUP I
Feb. 9	Vic I at Meds
13	U.C. at Vic I
16	Meds at U.C.
GROUP II
Feb. 9	Vic II at St. Hilda's
13	St. Hilda's at St. Mike's
16	St. Mike's at Vic II

TO ACCOMPANY EXPEDITION Dr. C. McLean Fraser, of the University of British Columbia is to accompany the Hancock expedition, the purpose of which is to further oceanographic studies.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

Warren Stevens is in a very rare mood now. And why not? The occasion of another Varsity O.H.A. Sr. victory is sufficient reason for celebration any day. The boys made it look tough for the outfit that gets employment in the famed honeymoon town last Tuesday night and then Saturday night here on home ice Steve's pucksters pulled out those precious two points by winning 3-2 against the Niagara Falls sextet. Ernie Rey's two counters and then Normie McClelland's life-saver in the dying moments of the game told the tale. Apparently the boys got out there and played their heads off as usual and this time they landed the breaks. And the Falls is no pushover either.

Gymnastic Coach Barton has a big event all lined up for Thursday night in the Big Gym. One of the special features on the bill at the Interfaculty Gymnastic Competition will be the demonstration of Danish Gymnastics by a squad of students from II year S.P.S. The Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing Club will give some group and individual bouts. The gymnastic competition will be run off with two sets of apparatus going at the same time—high bar and horse, parallels and tumbling. Students are reminded if they wish to take advantage of the special rate of 75c per couple, they must secure their tickets by noon Thursday. The judges will be F. Milligan, former instructor of physical training at St. Andrew's College, M. J. Pryce, physical director of the Eaton Boys' Recreation Club, R. Bonney, Pres. of the Gymnastic Club of Central Y and Nat Keefe, associate director of P.T. at Toronto Normal School.

The senior A cage team visited Niagara Falls Saturday night and hit a fast clip all the way during the game. The result was a win which is their first in the Big Six. The seconds almost handed the West End Y quintet a defeat but lost by one point. West End haven't been beaten yet but that is the closest clip they have had to date. The juniors again lost to the league leaders when Broadview Y downed them 32-23. Chances for playoff positions are getting slim now for all three cage teams but there is still an opportunity for the seniors to come through.

Being defeated by the Rochester Iroquois 19 to 5 is no disgrace to the University of Toronto box-lacrosse team. The Indians are unquestionably the outstanding team on the continent. They have only been defeated twice on their own floor which, incidentally, is of huge proportions and was a serious handicap to the "T" players. One of the losses sustained by the Rochester outfit was designed, it is said, to keep the cash customers coming to their matches. A team must lose once in a while. This collection of braves have administered drubbings to the best senior teams in Canada including Hamilton Tigers, present Mann Cup holders. The last time that the Tigers invaded the American city they were beaten 21 to 6.

All of which would seem to indicate that Varsity has a really strong team when compared with the best of O.A.L.A. squads. At that they are confident that they could give the Indians a terrific battle before they suffered defeat, provided they had a month's stiff training together.

Varsity Loses Close Cage Game

Senior B's Find West End Y too Much and Are Defeated 22-21

Y MEN ONLY PLAY SIX MEN

By a margin of one point Varsity's Senior B basketball team lost to West End Y on Saturday night. The game, which was played at Broadview Y, was fast just as the 22-21 score shows.

West End had only six men not on the sick list but these made up in quality of play what they lacked in numbers, covering the floor like demons. Only the cool, steady work of Harry Newman on the defence prevented them from gaining a much greater lead. In the first half West End started out with a strictly defensive game but gradually warmed up and by puncturing on all the breaks managed to end the half on top of a 12-8 score. Baird and Watson were very effective on the offensive and combining well with Buller's play-making were a constant threat to the Varsity defence.

In the second half, following their usual custom, Varsity came back fighting all the way and began to make things hot for the Y-men. They played together like a real team, the steadiness of Harry Newman and Applebaum providing a good background for the fast and shifty forward play of Magwood, Gibson and Stronach. They were all fighting hard, especially after the rebounds from which they gathered many of their points. On their play in this half they deserved to win but the sniping of Watson and Sanford for the Y proved a little too much. These two scored all their team's points in the second period, chalking up five apiece and if anyone was to be picked as the best on their team these two would fill the bill. For Varsity the Newman brothers, Applebaum, Gibson and Stronach were the cream of a good smooth play-out team.

West End — Aubrey, Baird, Butler, Watson, Sanford and Martin.

Varsity — N. Newman, H. Newman, Gibson, Mitchell, Stronach, Applebaum, Magwood and Vanderleek.

Junior Ice-Men Lose Tight Game

West Toronto Nationals Fight Hard to Win Close Game from Varsity

SCORE 6-4

A highly improved junior hockey team representing the University was once more disappointed in hopes of victory when West Toronto Nationals juniors won a hard game, 6-4 from the Blue team at the Maple Leaf Gardens last Saturday afternoon. At the end of the second period the score was tied 2-2, although Varsity had the better of the play, and it was not until the third period that the Nationals juniors could show any superiority. Ripley of Varsity, in playing a brilliant game missed two goals, one when his stick was held from behind, and another when he barged a rebound over the top of the open net. If these shots had been registered on the score sheet, the final score would have been a better representation of the play of the game.

(Continued on Page 4)

HOCKEY TEAM WINS

THIRD O.H.A. VERDICT

(Continued from Page 1)

squad got the prettiest goal of the evening on a perfectly executed three-man thrust. Steele took the puck into the corner, centred it to Hastie who slid it across the goal mouth to Peterkin, who didn't fool. Varsity fans had a scare when after splitting the defence, Hoch had Shipp at his mercy, only to hit the post. McPherson came close and on the return rush Lauzon shot into Shipp's pads.

Shipp again saved from Lauzon to start the last canto but the play was slowed up by a flock of penalties. With Peterkin gracing the pine for tripping Cunningham, Rey joined him for hooking Steele. No sooner were they back on than Prestia and Campbell were chased in successive order for trips. McClelland worked in close on Cuthbert but Hoch hooked him around the neck and for two minutes was "outside looking in". With three minutes to go, it looked like overtime when Hoch parked Hendry to draw another rest. Hastie ragged the puck for fully 30 seconds, but McClelland, McConvey and Fullerton broke fast, the diminutive Normie flipping the puck over the prostrate goalkeeper. With but two minutes to go, Cataracts played every man up and came close but never clicked. For forty-five seconds the puck wasn't out of Varsity territory and the bell rang with eleven men inside the Blue defence.

Niagara Falls needed those two points in the worst possible way, and the result shows that out of the race herself, Varsity still has something to say as to who gets in.

Varsity—Goal, Shipp; defence, Rey, Campbell; centre, McClelland; wings, Hendry, McPherson; alternates, Cunningham, Sweeney, McConvey, Fullerton.

Niagara Falls — Goal, Cuthbert; defence, Lauzon, Hoch; centre, Hastie; wings, Peterkin, Steele; alternates, Hunter, Maucous, Harrington, Prestia.

Referee — Johnny Mitchell.

SENIOR CAGERS WIN BIG SIX GAME

(Continued from Page 1)

break into the scoring records, was the sparkplug of the Blue team, using his height to the best advantage in the corner tip-offs, and feeding his forwards unclosely under the Falls hoop. Parker, Westover and Harris were the only home town boys who had any success against the "T" team, between them notching sixteen of their points.

Varsity started off by playing a strictly defensive game against their smooth, quick-breaking opposition and on the offensive resorted to a slow, methodical, accurate passing attack depending on a quick break to score. They displayed a minimum of the wild passing and disorganized scoring efforts that marked their play in the Yollies A.C. game. Niagara Falls relied on speed and quick passes to bring them within scoring range, but most of their shots were of the long range variety, as they could not penetrate the stone-wall formation set up by the Blue team. Varsity's offence began to click within a few minutes of the opening whistle when Mitchell took a long pass from Sniderman and dribbled in to score. Bodrug made it 4-0 from a throw-in under the Niagara hoop. A new team sent in by the Falls coach made no difference as Gordon tallied after some beautiful passing by the Blues. A nice set-shot by Parker after 8 minutes of play gave the home crowd their first opportunity to cheer, but Red Gordon's basket immediately following on the same type of shot, added to Bodrug's great playing when he tore loose to score five baskets before he was relieved, dampened their ardour considerably. Two baskets by Breaky and Parker and a couple of foul shots brought the Falls total up to eight, with Young's basket in his only appearance on the floor along with Bodrug's foul shot making the score

THE SIMPSON BOOK SHOP
Just off the Press!
"Men Against the Sea"
By Charles Nordhoff
And James Norman Hall Authors of "Mutiny on the Bounty"
$2.25
Telephone Adelaide 8411
Book Shop—Street Floor
THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps
6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners' Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1866

TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS are DUE NOW

Please hand these in to the S.A.C. Office, Hart House

21.8 at half time.

Coach Hayman had a few anxious moments in the second stanza when the Wingfoots came back fighting strongly and in lightning like fashion scored two counters on well executed plays. Varsity took time out to relieve the pressure and settled down after that. Play roughened up considerably in this half and as a result Willis and Mitchell for the Blues were banished by the four personal fouls route. Niagara Falls kept fighting every inch of the way but they could not overcome the big Varsity lead. Gordon, Bodrug, Gold and Levy made sure of the game for the students in this half, while Parker, Westover and Harris tried their hardest to make it close. No fault could be found with the handling of the game by M. Hendrick of Niagara Falls, N.Y., both teams failing to take advantage of his gift throws, Varsity converting 4 out of 15 into points, while the Wingfoots could only chalk up 5 out of 19.

Bill Bodrug's display gives him the "four star" rating, with Sniderman, Mitchell, Willis, Gordon and Gold also doing yeoman duty for the Blues. Parker was the high scorer for the Falls quintet with 9 points, and along with Harris, Westover and Bridge gave their best in attempting to down the students.

Varsity — Gordon 5, Bodrug 18, Willis, Sniderman, Mitchell 2, Gold 3, Levy 2, Prince, Young 2.
Niagara Falls — Harris, McCutcheon, Campaign 1, Zimmerman, McVeigh, Haines 4, Brezmer 2, Parker 9, Westover 3, Bridge 2, Hillisheime 2, Carter.

TICKETS
$3.00 per couple
(tax included)

ARTS BALL
HART HOUSE, FRIDAY, JANUARY 26th

Stan St. John's Orchestra
Ticket Sale in Lit. Office,
Wednesday, 12-2 p.m.

More Dances- Arts Meds S.P.S.

and other gay affairs

Evening Gloves

In the accepted 16-button length, Black or White kid, with a glistening Cleopatra pearl fastening. An exceptional value in Evening Gloves $2.95

So-Sheer

The wispy evening chiffon. Just the sheerest stocking ever. You'll adore their gossamer fineness and permanent dullness $1.00

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 3800
4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

MONDAY, JANUARY 22
6.8 p.m.—Campers' reunion, Wymilwood. Everyone interested welcome. Picnic lunch. Bring your own or order one from Harriet Christie or Mrs. Hutchinson, Ki. 9126, before Saturday.
5 p.m.—Medical S.C.M. group in the S.C.M. library, Hart House. Subject, A.D. 34.1934. Dr. Hall will lead the discussion.
Men's Glee Club in Hart House Music Room.
8 p.m.—Victoria College Debating Parliament, Alumni Hall.
TUESDAY, JANUARY 23
5 p.m.—Vocational Guidance group in Room 18, Victoria College. Mr. H. A. Hall, K.C., will speak. All men students invited.
5.10 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., Wymilwood. Subject, "Fellowship, St. Paul's and Ours".
4 p.m.—Engineering Society meeting in C 22, Mining Building.
8 p.m.—C.C.F. Club at 79 St. George St. Prof. F. H. Underhill.
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24
8 p.m.—Hart House debate with McGill. "Delendus est Devalera".
7.30-8.30—U.C. women's S.C.M. in Falconer House common room, 85 St. George St. Mrs. Jean Hutchinson will speak on "A Christian Basis for Life". All U.C. women invited.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 25
6.8—U.C. men's S.C.M. supper party, Hart House. Speaker, J. D. Ketchum, "Social Function of Religion".
5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club, Hart House Music Room.
8.30 p.m.—Meeting of the Anti-War Society at the Women's Union to discuss action for the term. Mem-

Classified Advertisements

LOST

Gold full-view glasses in Sutherland and Parker optical case. Finder please phone Ki. 1915.

Dancing 9 to 1 to Nels Kelly and his Varsity Kampus Katz. Free Parking. Refreshments.

$1.25 per couple on presentation of distributed tickets or registration cards.

JUNIOR ICE-MEN LOSE TIGHT GAME

(Continued from Page 3)

Morgan made a fine start in the opening moments of the game by scoring for Varsity after a lone rush up the ice. Soon afterwards however, Shipman in the Varsity goal was unable to cope with a three man attack, and allowed Sheedy to score. A third goal went into the net behind Shipman as a surprise to everyone, including Shill, who shot the puck from out beyond the blue line.

Walkey of Varsity hit the corner of the National net to even the score in the second period. The Varsity forward line combined very nicely, but the work of Hall in the National goal kept all the shots out of danger. As the two teams entered the last period, a series of scrambles resulted in another goal for Shill. The boys were checking each other with great force, each man sticking so closely to his check that a bit of hard feeling resulted. In the effort to win the game, the Varsity forwards left Shipman unprotected many times, and three goals were scored by Sheedy, Robertson and Taylor in quick succession. Johnny Poupre with a fast display of skating scored two goals of his own for the blue team. A goal by Laurent finished the scoring for the day.

Poupre, Ripley and Lavery on the first line turned in a real game for Varsity. The work of Wainwright on the Varsity defence was pleasing, his substitution for Art Upper bringing no evidence of weakness to the team. Sheedy, Shill and Laurent played good hockey for West Toronto.

West Toronto—Hall, Laurent, Holden, Jennings, Sheedy, Shill, Taylor, Hussey, Robertson, Conacher.
Varsity—Shipman, Wainwright, O'Leary, Poupre, Lavery, Ripley, Morgan, Walkey, Hamer, Sissons.

SPECTATORS WANTED

The Students' Council of the University of British Columbia is taking action to promote a larger attendance at basketball games.

bers and all interested are urged to attend.
8 p.m.—Rapid Transit tournament, of Varsity Chess Club, south common room, Hart House.
M. and P. annual at-home, Oak Room, Union Station.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 26

The Arts Ball, Great Hall at Hart House. Stan St. John's orchestra. Medical At-Home, Royal York Hotel. Supper dance with Wright brothers' orchestra in attendance.

JANUARY 27-28

International conference, auspices of the S.C.M., Saturday evening and Sunday. Leader, Dr. Walter Kotschnig, Geneva. Registration, including Saturday supper and Sunday tea, 75c; or either for 50c. Limited to 150 students.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30

375 S.P.S. junior dance at the Pavilion Blue Room. Refreshments. Dancing to music by the Kampus Katz orchestra.

9.00—Household Science dance at the Eaton Auditorium. Stan St. John's orchestra.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31

7.00 p.m.—Commerce Club annual banquet in the Great Hall, Hart House. Sir William Clark, British High Commissioner to Canada, will speak on "Recent changes in the conception of the State's relation to business."

9.00 p.m.—Iota Alpha Pi subscription dance, Embassy Club.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2

C.O.T.C. ball at Hart House. Nels Kelly and his Varsity Kampus Katz.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9

Victoria College at-home. Dancing 9 to 2. Music by Stanley St. John and his orchestra.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12

8 p.m.—Alumni Bridge, Eaton Auditorium.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18

4 p.m.—W.U.A. musicale at the Union. Artists, Scott Malcolm and Reginald Golden. U.C. women and their guests are cordially invited.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

VICTORIA COLLEGE

Don't miss the debate tonight in Alumni Hall at 8 p.m. Come out and express your opinion on the motion: Resolved, that in the opinion of this House, the Clergy should keep out of Politics.

VICTORIA WOMEN

"Women as Parents", lead by Mrs. F. L. Bartlett, lecture and discussion this afternoon in Wymilwood, 4-5.

U.C. MEN'S S.C.M.

On Thursday, January 25, Prof. J. D. Ketchum will speak at a supper party in Hart House from 6-8 o'clock, on the subject of "Social Function of Religion". Meet at the S.C.M. office at 6 p.m. sharp. All U.C. men welcome.

VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

This evening at 5 p.m. Mr. H. A. Hall, K.C., Vic '15, will speak to men interested in law as a career, Room 18, Victoria College. Everyone welcome.

U.C. MEN AND WOMEN

Out of consideration to the men and women of the college who wish to attend the Arts Ball, but have not yet signified their intention of doing so, the subscription lists will be left open until 5 p.m. today.

LIBERAL SPEAKER ATTACKS COMBINES

(Continued from Page 1)

predicted an early downfall.

From here he went on with his subject, "Liberalism and Combines", which he showed to be a problem facing the present and future governments. Competition, he stated, was non-existent among large concerns which combine and obtain a monopoly over business so that they may dictate to both producer and buyer and force both to accept their terms.

Mr. Duncan has conducted an investigation into the combines in the fruit and vegetable business in British Columbia. One combine, the Nash Company, with headquarters in Minneapolis, had control of practically all jobbers and as well were directors of the brokerage firms who bought the produce from the producer and sold to the jobbers. This company was able to exploit both the farmers in B.C. and the public in the prairie provinces to a surprising degree.

Mr. Duncan pointed out the difficulty of obtaining judgment since there were any number of loopholes in the code dealing with this situation and cases are prolonged indefinitely. The speaker closed by inviting discussion from the floor, an invitation which was readily accepted by the many older Liberals who were in attendance.

Situations quite similar to those stressed by Mr. Duncan were shown to exist in the tobacco trade and many others. Open discussion was quite popular at the meeting and a great deal of interest was shown by all present.

IRISH POLITICS TO BE DEBATED

(Continued from Page 1)

hardship? Does the economic well being of Ireland depend upon the defeat of the De Valera Government? Such questions as these will be answered at the debate.

When questioned concerning the political situation in Ireland Prof. W. F. M. Kennedy of the Department of Law, legal adviser of the Cosgrave Government, declined to make any statement for the press on account of his professional connection with the government.

There will be four speakers, two from Varsity and two from McGill. It will not be a team debate, however, as one speaker from Varsity and one from McGill will compose the team. The speakers for Toronto are Mr. K. Mayall and Mr. M. B. Gelber representing McGill are Mr. M. Doig, and Mr. A. Marshall.

Tellers for the debate are Mr. Sime, Mr. Drynan, Mr. O'Kell and Mr. Bridle. The Clerk of the House will be Mr. Bell, the Speaker Mr. Hermant.

ROYAL HYDROID COLLECTION

The Emperor of Japan has sent his collection of hydroids to Dr. C. McLean Fraser, head of the Department of Zoology of the University of British Columbia to check up on their classification.

WIDE ACCLAIM GIVEN BOOK BY PROFESSOR

(Continued from Page 1)

pinski, with whom she had till then only corresponded. She spent ten days in Warsaw as the guest of the University of Warsaw, after studying for some time in Göttingen.

When questioned as to the position of women in the study of mathematics, Dr. Krieger replied, "It is a subject on which it is very difficult to generalize. It really depends on the individual. To be sure, so far the greatest work has been done by men, but that does not mean that women will not make their mark."

Dr. Krieger, herself, was the first woman to get her Doctor's Degree in Mathematics at the University of Toronto.

Her book is being published by the University of Toronto Press.

SCHODL NITE AGAIN SUCCESS

(Continued from Page 1)

ing Room, the east common room and the big gym at the conclusion of the second presentation of the skits. Gay couples thronged the corridors and sitting-out rooms, where cheerful fires and soft lights attracted them. In the Great Hall a dainty buffet supper that did justice to the culinary arts of the staff was served as the dancers paused for a brief rest.

The arrangements for the evening were in the hands of a committee in charge of D. Douglas, and the patronesses were Mrs. E. A. Allent, Mrs. E. A. Smith, and Mrs. R. R. McLaughlin.

POPULAR STUDENTS DISCUSS MOTIVES

(Continued from Page 1)

towards an essential mediocrity; but viewing scholarship awards in retrospect, I think that there is little cause for complaint."

Mr. S. M. Hermant mentioned that several notorious examples in the past two or three years pointed to the fact that students accept offices for the purpose of being able to put these down in their application for scholarships, but he was sure that this as a general rule is not the motive for taking executive positions.

As far as Hart House debates, the University College Literary and Athletic Society and the various social clubs are concerned, Mr. Hermant stated that these accusations could not be true since these organizations could only attract people who have interests that concurred with those of the club itself. "In any case," concluded Mr. Hermant, "only a first class student has an opportunity of winning a scholarship and therefore affiliations of any kind must be incidental when the awards are being considered."

U.E.C. STUDENTS

Seven students of the University of British Columbia have been asked to discontinue their attendance because of failure to make the required fifty per cent in the majority of their Christmas examinations.

EATON'S

Eatonia Sweater Coats . . .

The Best Regular Value in Town!

Examine an EATONIA Sweater Coat closely. Note especially the quality of the fine all-wool yarn. Note the full shape—neat fit—style and finish of this sweater coat. Then you can fully appreciate why we guarantee EATONIA Sweater Coats for Men to be "The Best Regular Value In Town!"

Choice of two styles: V-neck cardigan (as sketched) in light and dark blue, green and salmon heather mixtures; and heavier weight shawl collar style in various two-color combinations. Sizes 36 to 44.

Each $3.00

MAIN FLOOR—QUEEN STREET

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

MUSICIAN'S UNION VOICES PROTEST

(Continued from Page 1)

Kampus Katz" the offending orchestra led by Nels Kelly of 111 S.P.S., relations with such places as The Parkdale Canoe Club, the Royal York Hotel, and Hart House would become somewhat strained.

In the reply of W. S. Smith, vice-president of the Engineering Society, little sympathy for the "Morals and ethics" of the union were evidenced, and a failure to intimidate this society by threats is shown from the following excerpts: "As long as the executive of our various clubs and year societies deem the music provided by Nels Kelly as suitable for their requirements, they have our permission to hire him. I am sure that there is no possibility of the Royal York Hotel, Hart House, or Parkdale Canoe Club or any other hall interfering with us in any such non-sensational matter. . . . If the prices tendered by some of your Union Bands were within reason, they might receive more consideration. I am sorry you deemed it within your right to bother us with this matter, and your unwarranted interference is resented. Mr. Kelly may be an offending party for both moral and ethical reasons as far as you are concerned, but we have every intention of using his band on future occasions."

Apparently the above reply did not meet with the wholehearted approval of the "Union", for a second letter was forwarded to the Engineering Society politely asking Mr. Smith whether he was authorized to speak on behalf of the society, or his rather discourteous letter was his personal opinion. Having previously stated that Kelly had twice promised to join the Union, they reiterated that they did not know he existed until he approached them about the matter. After giving a list of supposedly "Union" undergraduate orchestras, many of whom were not connected with the University, they dimmed the letter with the following paragraph: "As our Organization feels that civilization generally is only possible because of a serious attempt made to subscribe to decent ethics in life, we are astounded that the opinion expressed in your letter is so contrary to the teachings of the University of Toronto."

Unfortunately, at the time of going to press, the reply of G. W. Tyson, president of the Engineering Society, was not available for exact duplication, but its general tenor is understood to have expressed some doubt as to the "Morals and Ethics" of the Union and their connection with such things as Engineers knew them. It further requested that the pointless argument be closed, stated that Mr. Kelly was in possession of correspondence from the union inviting him to "See them about matters to his advantage", and advised the union that such interference with campus activities would be strongly resented at the University.

An attempt to get in touch with the union to ascertain if they were contemplating any further action on the matter was unsuccessful, but it is understood that Kelly's orchestra will furnish the music at the C.O.T.G. ball and several other functions in the near future.

UNIVERSITY RECEIVES GRANT

According to information received by The Varsity, the University has recently benefited to the extent of $3,000 in a bequest of the late Janet Findlay. The money will be used to establish a scholarship in the dept. of Mechanical Engineering, and will be known as the J. A. Findlay Scholarship.

DR. CODY GUEST SPEAKER

On Saturday evening, Dr. H. J. Cody, was the guest speaker at the Annual Dinner of the Canadian Society of New York, at Hotel Biltmore in New York city. Dr. Cody's subject was "Some Trends in Canadian Life".

SPECIAL FACULTY NIGHTS

Mon. Jan. 22	..... Meds
Tue. Jan. 23	..... U.C.
Wed. Jan. 24	..... Vic
Thu. Jan. 25	..... S.P.S.
Fri. Jan. 26	..... Dents, Forestry
Sat. Jan. 27	..... Fraternity Nite

"VARSITY WEEK" is here

Reservations:—
LA. 9007

THE PAVILION

Sunnyside and Parkside Dr.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, TUESDAY, JANUARY 23rd, 1934

No. 69

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

France, the United States and Soviet Russia all issue warnings of immediate trouble in the Near East. Russia in particular is preparing for an attack by Japan.

The Henry Government will not put into effect any new beer and wine policy before the next election.

Quebec—Two men were found guilty of a fraud involving $1,500,000 in connection with illegal liquor shipments.

Three persons were killed when a passenger train was bombed in Yugoslavia.

Newfoundland's Minister of Agriculture and Mines resigned yesterday after he had been arrested on a charge of theft of the Government's valuable collection of foreign stamps.

Italy will stand with France against any attempt of German Nazis to interfere in Austrian affairs.

Steps will be taken immediately in Washington to recognize the new government of Cuba.

Andy Ritchie, former Toronto Mercantile League player, and recently with the Atlantic City Sea Gulls, died of injuries received in a hockey game on Jan. 12th.

Chief Gunson of the St. Thomas police force resigned yesterday although he was absolved of guilt in the recent trial.

The United States will embark soon on a $380,000,000 navy construction programme.

A meeting of the Trinity College Science Club will be held in the rooms of Professor Coventry in Hart House this evening at 8 o'clock.

U.C. ELECTIONS

In the elections held yesterday at U.C., R.A. Bell was the successful candidate for the Moss Scholarship. For the 3T4 permanent executive those elected were, President, B. W. Ball, Vice-President, Margaret Armstrong; Treasurer, Jean Hunniset; Secretary, J. R. Scott.

SPORTS STAFF MEETING

A meeting of the Sports Staff of The Varsity will be held in the office today at 1.30 o'clock. Every member of the staff must be present as important business will be transacted.

Service for Dr. Bensley To Be Held To-day In Convocation Hall

With the entire University, both student body and faculty mourning his loss the funeral services of the late Dr. Benjamin A. Bensley, will be conducted today by Rev. Dr. H. J. Cody at Convocation Hall at 2.30 p.m.

As Dr. Bensley has been connected with the Biology staff almost continuously since he acted as assistant in museum work in 1898, the pall-bearers have been chosen from among the senior members of the Biology Department. The active pall-bearers will be W. H. Piersol, M.B., Professor of Histology and Embryology; A. G. Huntsman, M.B., Professor of Marine Biology; E. M. Walker, M.B., Professor of Invertebrate Zoology; A. F. Coventry, B.A., Associate Professor of Vertebrate Embryology; J. R. Dymond, M.A., Associate Professor of Systematic Zoology, and Dr. W. H. T. Baillie, M.A., Associate Professor of Mammalian Anatomy.

Honorary pall-bearers will be J. A. O'Brien, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Toronto Museum; W. A. Parks, B.A., Ph.D., Director of the Royal Ontario Museum of Paleontology; F. B. Allan, M.A., Ph.D., Professor of Organic Chemistry; J. S. Walker, M.A., Ph.D., Director of the Royal Ontario Museum of Mineralogy; Dr. C. T. Curry, M.A., of the Royal Ontario Museum; Dr. E. S. Moore, M.A., Professor of Economic Geology; Dr. F. N. G. Starr, F.R.C.S., Professor Emeritus of Clinical Surgery; Professor C. D. Howe, Dean of Forestry; Professor Bradley, Dean of Graduate Studies; F. B. Thomson, Head of the Department of Botany, and Professor E. F. Burton, Head of the Department of Physics.

MOTIVES ARE HIGH STUDENTS ASSERT

Charge of Matrimonial Aim in College Career Denied

DECISIONS DIFFICULT

The consensus of opinion gleaned from the campus concerning yesterday's editorial revealed amusement and annoyance which flared sometimes into open indignation. The general feeling seems to be that the editorial neglects to acknowledge the idealistic factors of a university training and cynically stresses only the baser motives.

"There can be no real reply to an editor of such mental quirks who insists on either a frank admission of base motives or postulates them as un-

(Continued on Page 4)

BIOLOGY HEAD PASSES

DR. B. A. BENSLY, head of the department of biology at the University of Toronto, who died on Saturday following a fall at his home.

RADIO DEBATES

Ontario's speed laws will be under fire when the first of a series of intercollegiate radio debates is scheduled to go on the air at 7.30 p.m. Mr. S. M. Hermant and Mr. S. H. S. Hughes representing Varsity, will defend the affirmative of the motion "that no necessity exists for the present speed limit", against two speakers from the University of Western Ontario.

ECONOMIC CONDITIONS ARE CAUSE OF THEFTS

Outsiders Take Great Risks for Comparatively Small Gains

The discovery of a suspicious looking character in Burwash Hall Saturday night would seem to verify the belief that petty theft in the various University residences is due to outsiders. Mr. Little, Bursar of Victoria College, believes that prevalent economic conditions are such as to cause outsiders to take great risks for comparatively small gain. Earlier in the term, he told a Varsity correspondent, one student had noticed a man loitering around, and on returning to his room after a momentary absence, his club bag and watch were missing.

Colonel Le Pan, superintendent of Buildings and Grounds, said yesterday that the number of cases of theft from year to year were few, and that the amounts involved were small. Students in residence are expected to lock their doors, and to report to the proper authorities any loiterers unable to satisfactorily explain their presence. Col. Le Pan further stated that cases of this kind were not more numerous this year than other years. Earlier in the year there had been a series of thefts at Whitney Hall but an arrest and conviction had been made and since that time there had been no recurrence of the epidemic.

The Varsity was informed from official sources that Hart House has been remarkably free from cases of theft. It is impossible to prevent undesirable from entering Hart House but if students avail themselves of the adequate checking facilities and are reasonably careful, there is no reason to believe that their belongings are not perfectly safe.

CUMMINGS WILL

The University may possibly benefit from the will of the late Dr. Samuel Cummings. Dr. Cummings was formerly a leading surgeon in Toronto and died at Havana in December. The bulk of his estate of about $500,000 passes to his sisters and in case of default will go to the University of Toronto. His large medical library is willed to the Toronto Academy of Medicine.

VICTORIA DEBATE ALLOWS CHURCH POLITICAL VOICE

Christ, Moses and Luther Cited by Opposition to Support
Claim

ENCROACHMENT CHARGED

Soiled Vestments Only Result from Any Contact with Modern Politics

On the resolution that "The Clergy should keep out of politics", the Government of the Victoria College Debating Society was defeated by a majority of 55 to 33.

While affirming that ministers ought not to be denied the privilege of voting, that they ought to be prohibited from making political statements to or for the public, was the opinion of Harold Bailey, leader of the Government.

"It is not the function of the Holy Scriptures to give advice on the social and political questions of the day, but to rouse a feeling of righteousness in the people. When a minister attempts to speak on socialism, tariffs or other

(Continued on Page 4)

BELL DECLARED POPULAR VICTOR

University College Elections for Moss Scholarship Candidate

COMMITTEE TO MAKE CHOICE

As a result of yesterday's elections, R. A. Bell, popular fourth year law student, has been declared University College nominee for the Moss award. Mr. Bell has distinguished himself in the activities of the university, being president of the Macdonald-Cartier Club, Speaker of the U.C. Parliamentary Club and prominent in the debating activities of the university. Two

(Continued on Page 4)

Venerable Vision Victim of Joke Harm Undone by Water and Soap

By J. E. A.

The Varsity's War Correspondent gazed at the fragile vision of purity as it stood there in all its virginal whiteness. Not far away were the time (and Med) darkened walls of S.P.S. There was not a particle of doubt but that it was a work of art, but the embarrassing question persisted—exactly what was it?

The wheels and license number suggested the possibility of it being a motor car. This idea persisted in the Correspondent's mind, which clung to the dim recollection of an ancient white hearse, once observed long ago. But then again, it had a distinct resemblance to a white tiled bath tub, complete with roof and windows. The reporter started to look around for the soap rack.

Suddenly a door burst open and a roaring horde of engineers tumbled out of the little Red Footbush, and pounced upon the Fragile Vision. For a few seconds the air was dark with flying gobs of black paint, and as suddenly as they had come the howling mob disappeared. The venerable vehicle still reclined in the gutter, but its white flanks were scarred with gaudy lettering. "Dirty Meds", "More Beer"—a pitiful collection of quotations from the usual engineering vocabulary.

Beside the ruined Vision stood a solitary dejected figure, sobbing violently.

"Were you a friend of the er-victim?" the War Correspondent solicitously enquired in sympathetic tones. "Yes,—oh, yes! yes!" the sobbing grew more violent. "She brought me all the way from Gull Lake cradled in her tender lap—and now to think it had to come to this!"

"Was she always white?" the reporter asked.

"No,—oh no! no! I just painted her with my own hands—and now to think it had to come to this!"

The Correspondent reflected that it had come to this twice already. As the crying burst forth with renewed vigour, he hastened to further solace the bereaved school man.

"Had you thought of trying to remove the writing on the wall with a little soap and water?"

"Say—do you! do you suppose it would come off?" and the mourner was immediately transformed into a happy student with beaming eyes and flashing smile. "Say, y'know, I think I'll try that."

The War Correspondent watched him vanish into the nearest building for soap and water. Maybe the Fragile Vision wasn't a bath tub after all, or maybe it just didn't have modern conveniences.

STUDENTS AND MUSICIANS' UNION ARGUE STATUS OF KAMPUS KATZ

Engineering Society Executive Consider Controversy Trivial

INTERFERENCE UNJUSTIFIED

Students Do Not Approve of Coercive Methods of Music Union

Members of the Engineering Society executive, while considering the matter too trivial to merit much consideration, were unanimous in their criticism of the action taken by the Toronto Musical Protective Association in attempting to coerce the society into dispensing with the services of Nels Kelly and his Kampus Katz orchestra at engineering parties, because he was not a "Moral and Ethical" member of the Musician's Union. In reply to letters from the union, the Engineering Society definitely refused to be intimidated by threats that relations with the Royal York, Parkdale Cane Club and Hart House might become somewhat strained from the union's standpoint if they continued to engage Mr. Kelly, who is as well as being leader of his well known orchestra, president of the third year at S.P.S., and an active member of the Engineering Society.

"The methods of coercion adopted by the Musician's Union will never be viewed with favour by university students," said Don Ritchie, second vice-president of the Engineering Society, when questioned by The Varsity. "The union talks repeatedly of morals and ethics, but we fail to see just where they exist."

"In the opinion of the Engineering Society," stated C. W. Tyson, president, "the interference of the Musical Protective Association is entirely unjustified. Since the association has

(Continued on Page 3)

VARSIITY STAFF MEETING

There will be a meeting of the combined men's and women's news staffs of The Varsity in the Women's Union, Wednesday afternoon at 4.30. Attendance is compulsory. Tea will be served at 4.30.

Musicians' Union Claims that to Employ Kampus Katz is Unethical

PROTEST TO ENGINEERS

Compare Student's Protest to Silly Explosion of a Fourteen-Year-Old

"Silly, nonsensical, like the explosion of a fourteen year old," was the comment of A. D. Dowell, secretary of the Toronto Musical Protective Association, when questioned by The Varsity on the reception given their letters to the Engineering Society criticizing the action of Nelson Kelly, leader of the well known Varsity Kampus Katz orchestra in playing for less than the union rates at various campus parties.

The Musician's Union recently sent letters to the Engineering Society advising them to cease hiring the orchestra for "Moral and ethical" reasons, and asking them to try and make Kelly "See the light". Labelling the action of the union as "resented interference" the members of the Engineering Society executive replied caustically, asking the union to cease such a trivial controversy, and stating that they would continue to hire the orchestra, and would not be intimidated by the union.

"These fellows must have handed out a lot of peanuts and blotters to

(Continued on Page 3)

EXCHANGE SCHOLARSHIPS BENEFIT PASS STUDENTS

Not Awarded for Athletics, Acquired Learning or Leadership

"In order to give Canadian university undergraduates an opportunity to leave the university at which they are registered and resume their studies at another in some other part of Canada the N.E.C.U.S. have arranged to award a number of exchange scholarships every year carrying these privileges," declared Miss Parkes of the S.A.C. office in an interview with The Varsity.

These exchange scholarships are not an innovation of the current year but have been awarded for the last seven years. At the present time there are three undergraduates at the University of Toronto, exchange students who are carrying on their studies through the aid of this scholarship. Two of the recipients are registered in University College, Miss Hoshal, fourth year, who hails from Saskatchewan, and E. R. Prudhomme from Alberta. The other exchange student is registered at Victoria and comes from Alberta. Varsity has in the past been able to send a few students to other universities on these travelling scholarships and is planning to increase the number of awards.

The scholarships are not awarded to the applicants ranking highest in

(Continued on Page 4)

Engineering Society To Hear Talk On Business Aids

G. McEwen, vice-president and general manager of the Imperial Varnish and Colour Company will be the speaker at the meeting of the Engineering Society in Room C22 of the Mining Building this afternoon. Mr. McEwen's subject will be "Budgetary Control as an Aid to Business", and his wide experience with the above firm should enable him to give some valuable advice to engineers who are contemplating entering business in executive positions after graduation.

As usual the meeting will be held at 4 p.m. sharp, and members are advised to be in their places promptly.

Clergy in Politics May be Witches Vic Doubts but Laughs to Stitches

By Norman C. Phillips

Ask and ye shall receive. The honourable member for Havelock found guidance. Yea even in the columns of the Daily Star, hear, hear

What is in a name? Are students at Victoria victorious? It is a sad case when a red-haired member cannot scintillate. You people would hardly believe what he read in the American Mercury. Why he was horrified!

shame
Moses, Amos and Elijah
Jezabel and Jeremiah

Who was Elijah? An honourable member knows the inside story. How are you on limericks?

applause

"Throw out the lifeline."

A gentleman wishes to continue on the line that has just been thrown out.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34
Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '35; News: K. G. Prentice, '35,
Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crocker, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Harriet Clark Assistant—Mabel Gorham

TUESDAY, JANUARY 23rd, 1934

THE RIGHTS OF MAN

Some one has at last exposed the nefarious system of commission tyranny which exists in Ontario, and it should be a matter of satisfaction to every undergraduate of this university that no less a personage than the Chancellor of the University of Toronto, Chief Justice Sir William Mulock, raised the issue, and demanded that ordinary democratic justice be meted out to the people of this province and more particularly to the citizens of the City of Toronto. The sequel to Sir William's address to the Bar Association, however, was even more startling than the speech itself, for the point of his remarks had evidently been missed by many of the legal luminaries who were present. When interviewed, many of the K.C.'s thought of such routine commission work as the Compensation Board and the Welfare Board, and purposely overlooked the Toronto Police Commission and certain offices of the Attorney-General's Department. Any form of regulation from which there is no appeal is to be deplored but the most glaring instances of this kind are those of the Toronto Police Commission.

Apparently it takes but the evidence of one policeman to stop the production of a play, or the order of one detective to cancel a lecture. No matter what the circumstances of a case may be, no provision is made for reviewing and possible redress. It is admitted that by no court action could the play Eight Men Speak have been suppressed. The situation which exists at present is that no legally constituted court of justice has the power to overrule the decision made by a small group consisting of aging gentlemen of archaic ideas, a conservative lawyer and a politician. These are the people who have the authority to determine what is art, to suppress free speech, and to dictate political policies.

It is timely to hear the protest voiced by Sir William, for Fascist tyranny has already robbed the people of this province of rights for which their forefathers fought not many decades ago. If Canada is to escape the form of government which limits the rights of man, more protests against such almighty moguls will be made, and more vigorous demands for liberty and justice for all people. Indeed, if such demands are not honoured, the "powers that be" may well expect more persuasive tactics than mere vocal protestations from the people of this country. Our forefathers, French and English, fought for the same rights which are being ignored today. This is the great peril inherent in commission tyranny,—internal strife!

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

RE CAMERA COMMITTEE

The Editor,
The Varsity.
Dear Sir:

May I ask space to discuss a few points in your account, published last Friday, of the Photographic Show in Hart House, points in which your friendly critic's remarks lead to some misunderstanding.

It is implied very clearly that the Camera Committee of Hart House makes the awards; it does not. The Committee chooses from the prints submitted those that are hung; the awards are made by a photographer invited to act as judge and critic, this year Mr. Stanley Harrod, associate of the Royal Photographic Society, Past President of the Toronto Camera Club and for several years connected with the Photographic Salon of the C.N.E. If your critic had been able to attend the opening night, he would have heard Mr. Harrod explain, among other things, the reasons for his awards; this is not saying that he would agree with them, but I think some of his difficulties would diminish.

Your critic complains of a lack of imagination in the Design and Still Life Class; that is of course his right; the variety of opinion evoked by any exhibition of pictures is one of its most interesting features: his disappointment, however, might have been mitigated had he examined on the neighbouring wall the Genre pictures, which he does not mention.

It is hardly correct to say that "most of the pictures in the Portraiture and Figure Study Section are done by A. Sangster"; four out of a total of seventeen scarcely justifies such a total exclusion of the other exhibitors. I think, too, if C. de M. tried photographic portraiture, he would withdraw the word "easily" from his suggestion that this group might be enlarged.

Finally, I cannot agree that it would be helpful to indicate on all pictures the kind of camera and the weather conditions. To begin with these two items of information tell very little; to them must be added, at the least, date, time of day, kind of negative material, filter, stop and developer, if the data are to have any significance. Such a catalogue would be intensely dull to any but more or less experienced photographers, would spoil the

(Continued on Page 4)

Art, Music and Drama

A.C. Players' Guild

This week the Guild will present the screen scene from Sheridan's School for Scandal—in modern dress.

This is an interesting experiment, for the average 18th century play, artificial in its speech and plot can not be adapted to 20th century realism. But Sheridan's lines and characters are ageless. Those acquainted with the play will recall the sparkling wit and ingenious situation of this scene which has its humorous appeal even to the modern audience.

Ruth Wood will play the much-envied role of Lady Teazle—the gay young wife of an old man seeking understanding from the philanderer, Joseph Surface, to be played by Peter Sandiford—a newcomer to the Guild. Jack Graham, well known for character parts in Guild productions, will play Sir Peter Teazle, while the delightful part of Charles Surface will be taken by another newcomer—Paul Bridle.

This production promises an excellent half-hour's entertainment for all interested in dramatics as well as members of the Guild.

D.E.H.

Sketch Room

I am grateful to Professor Coventry for correcting a wrong statement I made in my review of the Photographic Show in the Sketch Room last Friday. I was under the impression that the awards were made by the Camera Committee and therefore "stand corrected". I would have been glad indeed had I been able to attend the opening of the show and hear the explanations of Mr. S. Harrod; my excuse is that I was notified about it too late, which explains in part why my judgment differs from the one of the judge.

Having taken pictures for many years, and though recognizing the difficulties of the photographic portraiture, I still maintain that this section could be enlarged another year. As to my request for more information as to the conditions in which the pictures are taken this has been first suggested to me by some students, and agreeing with them I passed it along. I would be sorry if my remarks seemed to be essentially critical, for I certainly enjoyed spending some hours in the Sketch Room, but having some personal opinions, I gave them.

C. de M.

With the Theatres

Loew's—

If you like boxing you won't want to miss the feature picture at Loew's this week; and even if you don't like fistfights it's a good way to spend a couple of entertaining hours. The picture is called The Conquering Sea but don't let that worry you.

The story is wound about the well-worn triangle. Myrna Loy falls in love with an up-and-coming young boxer, played by Max Baer, and throws over her lover, a New York night club owner, acted by Otto Kruger. Success goes to her young husband's head (she married him, of course) and when he becomes involved in a couple of affairs with other women, she leaves him and returns to her former lover. Eventually, however, when Baer manages to stay ten rounds with Carnea in a championship challenge bout, she goes back to him and all is well, except for Kruger, but he is happy because she is, etc.

Miss Loy's acting is excellent; she always seems to fulfil her part perfectly in whatever picture she plays. Baer also does a fine bit of acting. Otto Kruger is adequate and Walter Huston as "The Professor", Baer's manager, gives a fine performance. There is a boxing match between Prima Carnera and Max Baer, with Jack Dempsey as the referee, lasting at least fifteen minutes, that will make boxing enthusiasts go wild, even though it is obviously acted.

The inevitable news reel with the inevitable hockey game, and a Terrytown comedy are also included in the programme.

P.S. Don't take the children.

G.H.J.

Imperial—

To say that the presentation at the Imperial is well worth seeing is merely to repeat a well worn phrase, but to add that Kay Francis is on the bill may add something to it. The House on 56th Street combines all the glamour of the roulette table and the professional gambler with the tragedy of a twenty-year prison sentence that breaks the perfect love match for all time. Kay Francis, as the mother who sacrifices everything for her daughter who believes she is dead, keeps you spellbound till the last shot, with perhaps all the possible meanings applied to the word "shot". The picture is packed with human interest, something really unusual in a modern production, and we are ready to lay heavy odds that you will be occupying the front two inches of your seat during the most of the show.

The coloured silly symphony is quaint, the news reel is fair, and the stage presentation is well up to the Imperial style. All together—it's a good show.

K.G.R.

(Continued on Page 4)

Picobac Tobacco
NOW 10¢
HURRAY!

"Gentlemen—because so many of my fellow Canadians are smoking Picobac, it has become the largest selling burley tobacco in Canada—and because of its great popularity you benefit. You can now buy Picobac for 10¢ and get still more tobacco for your money."

"I urge every pipe smoker to buy one of the handy pocket tins of Picobac and get acquainted with a tobacco that's fireproof, more sociable in a pipe. As a matter of fact, you'll hardly recognize the old pipe, once it's loaded with Picobac, lighted and drawing well. Sweet? You bet! Mild? You can smoke it hour after hour and never get fed up. Cool? You'd travel a thousand miles and over find a mellow, cooler smoke."

Picobac is the pick of Canada's Burley crop, grown in south Ontario. . . always cool . . . mild and sweet to your pipe.

Good for making cigarettes, too.

—and don't forget, you get more tobacco for your money.

Handy pocket tins now 10c.

1/2 lb. tins Now Reduced from 75c. to 60c.

IT DOES TASTE GOOD IN A PIPE!

Picobac

Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Limited

Study the Art of Living

Toronto is a part of the great world of travel and society, in the Royal York Hotel. Come here to mingle with the city's notables and their most interesting guests, and to add your share to the atmosphere of gay sophistication.

Afternoon Tea Musicale—4.30 to 6 p.m.
Rex Battle's Concert Orchestra.
In the Palm Room off the Main Lobby.

Supper Dance—Introducing a new star, Billy Bissett, with his Royal Yorkers.
9 to 1.30 a.m., nightly (except Sunday).

Special Rates for College Parties
Phone Wa. 2511

THE ROYAL YORK
A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL

THE LANTERN TEA ROOMS

5 WILLCOCKS ST.

Full Course Lunch 25c.

Full Course Dinner 35c.

Suppers served from 8 to 11.30 p.m.

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St.
KI. 0951

571 Yonge St.
KI. 3270

DO YOU WANT TO WIN A PRIZE?

$5 First - $3 Second - $2 Third

For the best group of 4 snapshots most representative of Campus Life

FOR TORONTONENSIS

Wednesday, January 24th is positively the last day to turn these in to the S.A.C. Office, Hart House.

Seniors, the success of this section of the book depends on you.

Yours in nausa
Schnitzel, Schnitzel and Schnitzel,
Sociable Committee.
C—C

Schnitzel Etcetera
Internat. Corresp. Instit.

Dear Sirs:

We have just received your rather discourteous, Immoral and Unethical aggregation of dirty cracks, and we wish to point out that we have plenty fine Horseradish we can supply you on an Ethical basis which for obvious reasons we can't describe in print. We are greatly dumfounded that the Horseradish you use isn't up to the high pinnacle of the University of Etobicoke. Please tell us whether you

(Continued on Page 4)

INTERFACULTY GYMNASIIC MEET IN HART HOUSE THURS.

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

Marion Forward is going to turn out a winning basketball team if hard work means anything. None of the players were slouches to start with, but by now they must be wondering if this is the same game they knew of yore. They were certainly put through their paces last night.

It's a long time until the tournament and Marg Rose, manager of the intercollegiate squad, is hoping to get them some practice games in a couple of weeks. Last year a game was arranged with a "Grad" team and at present plans are being made to repeat it. There are many outstanding basketball players who have left the university but are still in the city, who can be counted on to provide real competition even in a pick-up team.

Is it an overdose of modesty, or something, that prevents players who did well in the intercollegiate games from showing up at the intermediate basketball practices? Forget it. Indulge that secret wish of yours to keep on playing, and turn out next time. Fran Harkness, the manager, will back me up on this invitation, which is directed chiefly to those in the junior years.

While the intermediates are not in any league, they usually manage to get in some good games with teams in the city. Other years there has been a trip to Hamilton to meet the Normal Grads. However, nothing definite has been arranged about this so far.

The officials of the Badminton Club haven't yet drawn up their constitution. It isn't known whether badminton will be treated as a major sport or not. Certainly it isn't, as far as the strenuousness of the exercise is concerned, but it probably has a wider appeal among co-eds than other more energetic sports. Last year, auxiliary awards were given (who wouldn't really say given because they haven't yet been received). But badminton adherents naturally want to get equal treatment, with tennis for instance. If enthusiasm and perseverance qualify them for Junior T's, they will get them all right.

Badminton suffers the fate of all other women's sports at this University, namely lack of adequate facilities. The court at the Lillian Massey isn't regulation size, which eliminates that. Vic women have the use of a very cold gym. Festive decorations and a slippery floor often hamper the style of the players at the Women's Union. Consequently they have to go begging for church and clubs courts. We wish them luck.

VARSITY JUNIORS SUFFER DEFEAT

Parkdale Canoe Club Sweep All Before Them at Varsity Arena

VARSITY RALLY TOO LATE

Unable to match strides with their much speedier opponents and being rather weak defensively, Varsity juniors last night dropped another game, this time to Parkdale Canoe Club to the tune of 9-1 at Varsity Arena. The score is a good indication of the play, for Varsity spent most of the time in their own end of the rink and were at no time very dangerous.

Led by Carnegie, their stellar centre man, whose speed and stick handling

VARSITY SR. O.H.A. MEET PORTS AGAIN

The Sailors Need Points So a Keen Game is Expected

VARSITY CHECKING BETTER

Tonight the fast travelling Varsity seniors stuck up against Herbie Matthews' Port Colborne Sailors in the latter town and an eagerly anticipated contest will develop. The Sailors need points like a student needs money, as they are three points behind Niagara Falls who occupy fourth place, the last playoff berth. On the other hand, Varsity gets a kick out of beating teams who need points, as witness Saturday night. The students are just finding themselves and wish to finish their season in a blaze of glory, just to show that they are of O.H.A. calibre, a fact which many alleged sports writers doubt.

The last time they displayed their wares in the Canal Town, the home-sters managed to hold Stevens' boys to a 2-2 draw, tying it up in the closing minutes of play. As a result the Blues are not being underestimated, and the uncertainty shrouding the injuries sustained by Morrill and Reid, the Ports' stellar defence pair, makes the matter of calling the winner very difficult. The Sailors have not fared any too well lately, and with Varsity combining and checking better, it looks like anybody's game. Campbell and Rey like the rink at Port Colborne and if Frank Shipp can duplicate his last performance, a student victory is not too much to expect.

Warren Stevens has his squad working smoothly and has done wonders with the material at hand. The players themselves thrive on work and a good game team is never beaten until they admit it. During Saturday's fixture the boys wanted to get right back into the fray as soon as they were relieved. So, conditions regarding both teams being as they are, a lively, spirited contest is on the books, provided there is not too much bell-ringing.

was one of the features of the game, Parkdale swept all before them, Blaver and Marshall put up an almost airtight defence that Varsity had a great deal of trouble in penetrating. The former scored three of his team's goals, and the latter assisted on one of the sweetest combinations that completely baffled Wainwright and Sissons when P.C.C. scored their first goal. Silkroth, the lanky sub-centre man, scored 2 goals, the first on a clever solo and the second on his third successive shot from close-in.

O'Leary scored Varsity's only goal well on in the second period on a rebound from a hard shot from Ripley that hit the screen above the goal. Poupore put in a good game and came near scoring a few times, giving Turner a scare when he stickhandled his way through the team, only to lose the puck at the goal mouth, at the opening of the game.

The first period saw rather see-saw hockey, both teams rushing up and rushing back, the first goal being scored after 9 minutes of play by Blaver. Ripley and Sissons put on a good rush that almost tied the score, but lost their chance when the shot went high.

In the second period Varsity was for the most part tied up in its own end, and when they did break away, they rarely beat the defence. Ripley, Poupore and O'Leary put on a few dangerous rushes but they didn't seem to amount to much. Parkdale again scored twice, while Varsity registered its lone tally in this period.

In the third period Parkdale walked all over Varsity scoring 5 goals and missing many golden opportunities. (Continued on Page 4)

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

With the sweet taste of a victory over the Falls hockey team still in their mouths, the Varsity seniors anticipate another possible two points at Port Colborne tonight. The chances are slim of course with the students playing away from home but there is an element of psychology in sport that must not be ignored completely. The lads have been playing a hard luck battle all season with the breaks more against them than with them. Consequently we figure that the win of last Saturday night can be repeated. It may not be tonight but you can count on a few points before this O.H.A. Sr. schedule has been tossed into the waste paper basket and the fans start to crowd Connie Smythe's mansion for the playoffs. Niagara Falls didn't look much like a threat for the playoffs Saturday night. On the dope to date it looks like a battle between the league-leading Hamilton Tigers and the Toronto although the West Toronto Nats and the Sailors still have a chance. And those same Sailors would feel almost as peeved as Niagara Falls did Saturday night if they lost to Varsity tonight. The Blues play the Kitchener outfit here Saturday night and if you will pardon our optimism, another two points would make Varsity's so-called weak sister reputation a lot more vague.

There hasn't been much talk or interest in senior basketball around the north wing of Hart House yet but with the big team started on a winning streak after the win in the Falls Saturday night things will be getting warm now. The Hayman-coached quintet has been spotty and a bit "laxadazical" so far. Last week there was a record attendance of seven out to practice one day and Lew failed to make an appearance. As a matter of fact some of the lads were still being introduced a week ago, so the story goes. They have played three games to date and in the first two they lost. The game with St. Mike's, according to one of the players, was lost because Varsity outfit talked itself out of a win. Then they all had a blue Monday feeling when they played Yolles A.C. and that was the second defeat in two starts. Els Willis kept everybody in good humour on the way to the Falls with practical and other kinds of jokes so they trimmed the Cataracts handily to open up the season's activities properly. At the beginning of the season the Varsity squad looked like easy winners of the Big Six. To date they don't. If they come around to a state of normalcy and show a little more interest and fight they have very good chances in both Big Six and Intercollegiate Series. A very wise shift in the lineup was made last week when Moe Mitchell was shifted to a guard position. The move makes a little more height available defensively on the back court. It also gives Willis a chance to show his wares at centre which he did Saturday night. If he can be consistent the team will be well balanced. Bodrug hit his stride in the winning encounter also. It is too bad that Normie Newman's value wasn't discovered before he had played two Y senior games. That eliminates the chance of using him in the Big Six. With improvement in his defensive play Newman will be a ranking player because his offensive tactics are deadly when it comes to going after points.

Tomorrow night the three Varsity cage teams entertain in the Big Gym. The Big Six team plays St. Catharines at 9:15, the senior B team plays Broadview Y and the juniors take on the Y.M.H.A. squad in the first two contests. Then on Saturday night the Intercollegiate Series opens with Western at Varsity in two games, senior and intermediate.

MUSICIANS' UNION'S CLAIMS

(Continued from Page 1)

get elected to those positions," stated Mr. Dowell. "I know personally a number of students in Engineering who are about fed up on their bluff."

When questioned by The Varsity as to whether they were contemplating action against any other undergraduate orchestras, Mr. Dowell stated that there were "A lot of rats running around chiselling their brother musicians", but they, like Kelly, were only "A drop in the bucket" as far as the Musicians' Union was concerned. "In our forty years of experience, we have run into thousands of Kellys," said Mr. Dowell. "They don't worry us at all. This matter will straighten out by itself."

According to Mr. Dowell, Kelly came to the union on two occasions "Crying his eyes out" because another non-union orchestra was ruining his business with out prices, and the union succeeded in inducing the other leader to join the union and become "Moral and ethical" in his prices. Kelly, he said, promised to join the union himself on two occasions, but to date has failed to do so.

Although stating that the union had "Never heard that Kelly existed" and that he was only another "Drop in the bucket", Mr. Dowell admitted that his orchestra was taking a lot of business from union members. He denied that Kelly's orchestra was becoming increasingly popular, but claimed it was obtaining contracts by playing below a fair and "ethical" rate.

"Do you expect that the union will close down on Hart House or the Royal York, if Kelly and other similar orchestras play there?" asked The Varsity.

"The matter will be dealt with by the executive body," replied Mr. Dowell.

ell. "I do not wish to anticipate what they will do about the matter."

"How do you explain that you wrote to the Engineering Society stating that you never knew Kelly existed, when Mr. Kelly is in possession of a letter from your office last year stating that you had heard he was operating an orchestra and inviting him to come down and see you about matters to his advantage?" asked The Varsity.

"We have hundreds of fellows in and out of here every week," was the reply. "We may have sent out such a letter without giving the matter much thought."

INTERFACULTY WATER POLO JUNIORS PROVE KEEN

Meds Trim Dents and Victoria Gets a Draw with Trinity

Last night's interfaculty water polo double header produced two of the best games of the season to date. In the opener Jr. Meds came from behind to take a 2-1 decision from Dents while Trinity had to stage a last period rally which went for two goals to get a 4-4 draw with Victoria.

Meds had the better of their argument with Dents for the major part of the game and only the brilliant work of Kingsberg in the losers' nets kept the score so low. Wood tallied the Dents' one and only counter in the opening minutes of play to give them a one-point lead. Adams, however, wiped out the advantage before the period ended and sank the winning counter in the next chapter.

Trinity College, in their contest with Victoria, got off to a two-goal lead, but found it wiped out before the period.

(Continued on Page 4)

Announcing Delivery of the

New 1934 Chevrolet and Buick

Sedans and Coupes with the New Front Wheel Knee-action

RENT one of these new models and get a real driving thrill

Hertz Drivurself Stations
33 Dundas St. West Elgin 4102

STUDENTS DO NOT AGREE WITH MUSICIANS' UNION

(Continued from Page 1)

gone out of its way to be nasty with us, we can only consider the matter closed, and have no further communication with them. They have termed our replies to their interference as discourteous, and while we might say a great deal in reply, we believe the best policy is to reserve comment, and let people judge for themselves. Apparently the union considers everything not in agreement with their ideas of 'Morals and Ethics' as being discourteous."

W. S. Smith, first vice-president of the Engineering Society referred to the letter with which he replied to the correspondence from the union, and said that the whole matter was unwarranted interference, and that he did not propose to take any further notice of the advice of the union. "Kelly is as Moral and Ethical as any orchestra leader in the province, his prices are reasonable, and he pays his players a fair wage. We are perfectly satisfied with our dealings with him. As a demonstration of his integrity, he refused to use his own orchestra at a party of the year of which he is president, and hired a union band for this occasion. What more could anyone ask?"

Nels Kelly, leader of the orchestra whose rapid growth has drawn the attention of the Musicians' union, denied using any unfair methods or extremely low prices to take advantage of other orchestras. "We were considering joining the union, so that we might be able to play over the radio," said Mr. Kelly, "but we never at any time promised to join." He considered the statements of the union made to the Engineering Society executive as entirely untrue, and presented a letter on the union letterhead to support his statement that they had invited him to see them about joining. He had been instructed by legal advice that the letters of the union gave him grounds for libel action, and that he was at present considering taking the matter to court.

It is understood that at Trinity House a porter is stationed at the door as a special precaution in keeping a check on strangers who might enter the place.

EYES EXAMINED

37 Years' Experience
ALL STYLES OF FRAMES
(Prices lower than the lowest, quality considered.)
F. E. LUKE, Optometrist
167 YONGE ST.—Upstairs
(Opp. Simpson's)

Sport Notices

Women's Basketball—Intermediate basketball team to practice today from 6-7 at O.C.E.

U.C. Swimmers—Practice will be held in Hart House pool, Tuesday, January 23 at 3:45.

Basketball Managers—Applications for position of junior manager of basketball club will be received up till January 26. Good opportunity for promotion.

Baseball—Practice hours still available: 9-10 Mon., Tues., Wed., Fri. 2-3 Thurs., every second week only. Managers wishing additional hours see Mr. McCutcheon.

Senior Assault—The senior interfaculty assault will be held on Wed., Jan. 31st and Thurs., Feb. 1st. All entries must be handed in at the Athletic Office by noon on Tues., Jan. 30th.

Basketball—Practice hours still available for interfaculty teams: 9-10, Mon., Tues., Wed., Thurs., Fri., Sat.; 10-11 Mon., Wed., Fri.; 11-12 Mon., Tues., Wed., Thurs.; 1-2 Mon., Tues.; 2-3 Mon., Tues., Wed. (2-3 hours every second week only); 3-4 Friday. Managers wishing additional hours see Mr. McCutcheon.

Vic Basketball—Junior practices, Tuesday 10 a.m., upper gym, Hart House; Wednesday, 5 p.m., Vic gym.

Jr. S.P.S. Softball—Game with Jr. Meds on Wednesday, 4 p.m. sharp.

Tickets $2.75
Tax included
Orchestra by
J. Stanley St. John

VICTORIA COLLEGE AT-HOME
HART HOUSE, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9th

Lists in the College Office
Sit-down Supper

Coming Events

TUESDAY, JANUARY 23

5 p.m.—Vocational Guidance group in Room 18, Victoria College. Mr. H. A. Hall, K.C., will speak. All men students invited.

5.10 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., Wymilwood. Subject, "Fellowship, St. Paul's and Ours".

4 p.m.—Engineering Society meeting in C 22, Mining Building.

8 p.m.—C.C.F. Club at 79 St. George St. Prof. F. H. Underhill.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24

4.15 p.m.—U.C. Players' Guild at the Women's Union. Miss Doris Huston presents the screen scene from Sheridan's School for Scandal.

A meeting of the U.C. Classical Association will be held at the Women's Union. A programme of Greek music is to be attempted.

8 p.m.—Hart House debate with McGill. "Delendum est Devalera".

7.30-8.30—U.C. women's S.C.M. in Falconer House common room, 85 St. George St. Mrs. Jean Hutchinson will speak on "A Christian Basis for Life". All U.C. women invited.

8.30 p.m.—Victoria College Music Club presents Merric England in Hart House Theatre.

S.C.M. Executive Plans International Week-end

During the Christmas vacation some one hundred and fifty American and Canadian students met at McMaster University to discuss for five days from a new point of view the problems of Nationalism, Racial antagonism and Unemployment. Although they had prepared themselves by study and discussions during the fall, yet this S.C.M. conference revealed to each member that these problems were infinitely complex. Most of the groups did not formulate any final reply, but raised many more questions while offering also some practical suggestions. One point, however, is evident from the reports of the delegates: that these problems of nationalism, racial antagonism and unemployment concern everyone and that even a passive attitude is a support.

In order to give to the students of this University the benefit of the discussions at Hamilton by the S.C.M. delegates of Toronto, an International Week-end on Jan. 27 and 28 has been organized. The S.C.M. cabinet has been able to secure as leader, Dr. W. Kotschnig, assistant general secretary at Geneva, who is in regular contact with the S.C.M. of every country. This week-end will start on Saturday at 5.30 p.m. with a supper at the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street, to be followed by an address on The Present World Outlook. The conference will then divide itself into three groups whose respective subjects will be: Christianity and (a) Nationalism, (b) Race, (c) Unemployment. The groups will meet again on Sunday, before the morning service which will be held at Victoria College, and will be open to all students. Dr. Kotschnig will preach on Christianity and the Present World Outlook. After a general forum and tea at 79 St. George the conference will meet again in Victoria Chapel. Rev. John Macleod, of Emmanuel College, will speak on Christianity and the Individual.

In order to obtain the utmost from the groups, the total registration will be limited to 150—though both services on Sunday will be open to the public and the registration fee has been fixed at 75 cents—including Saturday supper and Sunday tea.

The main object of this week-end conference is not to have another academic discussion on such vital problems but to succeed in formulating a directive, from the Christian point of view; it will be then up to the individual to decide whether he will live accordingly.

Classified Advertisements

TYPING

Expert stenographer will do typing at reasonable rate. Call Randolph 2497.

CHURCH MAY SPEAK

(Continued from Page 1)

economic problems, he is encroaching on the rights of statesmen, economists and lawyers," the Government maintained.

The leader of the Opposition gave historical justification for the clergy's interest in social reform, mentioning among others the names of Moses, Jesus and Martin Luther who were not only founders of the Protestant faith but who also endeavoured to bring about social reform.

"It is only because the class in power object to any interference in their rule that they try to suppress such influential people as the clergy from becoming actively interested in political questions," Miss Forbes declared.

Miss Jean Dowling, in speaking for the Government, said that competent leadership was required in politics. "It involves a knowledge of finance and of other economic problems for which the clergy is not qualified. It is a case of the blind leading the blind and would leave the clergy open to ridicule, thus lowering their prestige."

"Politics is a dirty business, and the Church cannot mix in it and keep from being bemired," was the opinion of the second speaker for the Government.

This was denied by Mr. Howard-Jones of the Opposition. "Politics is not the science whereby man cheats his fellowmen, but the divine science which embraces as its object the happiness of mankind. Politics needs something besides the intellectual—the spiritual. This is what drives men into doing things, not merely talking about them. It is a well known fact that an honest man could not enter the government. It is the duty of the Church to get good people in or to get themselves in," the Opposition declared.

BELL ELECTED

MOSS CANDIDATE
(Continued from Page 1)

years ago he served as treasurer of the U.C. Literary and Athletic Society and last year as its secretary. However, he declined to make any comment upon his nomination other than expressing his gratification as to the result.

This Memorial Fund, the gift of a friend of the late John H. Moss, is annually awarded to the best all-round man or woman in the fourth year. The students of each of the four colleges are to elect their representative. The Committee of Award, consisting of the President of the University, the President of the Alumni Federation, and three of its members, will then choose the successful candidate. A report from the head of the college as to the character and standing of the candidate is submitted along with a report from the Registrar of the University as to his or her academic standing. These reports will influence the decision of the judges in regard to the four candidates.

EXCHANGE SCHOLARSHIPS

(Continued from Page 1)

academic standing, nor to those who have distinguished themselves by their athletic prowess or qualities of leadership, but to such students whose courses most closely correspond to those given in other universities in Canada. This regulation makes the scholarship a special boon to the Pass Course students. Medical students and others registered in specialized courses are not likely to desire the exchange privilege. Originally the awards were made only to students in the third year, but now the privileges are available to students in second year, in view of the fact that there is now a three-year course at the university.

The scholarship students do not have to pay tuition fees at the university where they are registered nor at the one to which they will be transferred. Fees will be cancelled at both ends. Railway fares and board expenses must of course be covered by the students. The awards are not made with a view to conferring financial benefit. As a matter of fact, it usually costs the student more to attend college as an exchange student than it would if the student attended the home university. One student reports to the S.A.C. that her exchange year at Varsity has cost her $50 more than her previous one. The exchange student must go to a university in another district than that at which he is registered, the Canadian districts being 3 in number—Maritime, central and western.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

Scenes from School for Scandal, under the direction of Miss Doris Huston will be presented at the Women's Union at 4.15 p.m. on Wednesday, January 24th.

VICTORIA COLLEGE AT-HOME

Lists for the Vic At-Home will be in the office of the College beginning Wednesday, January 24th, and will continue there till the following Wednesday. For women wishing to sign, there will be a list placed in Wymilwood. Sign early, before you forget about it, for the sale of tickets is limited. For information see the V.C.U. Bulletin Board.

VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

This evening at 5 p.m. Mr. H. A. Hall, K.C., Vic '15, will speak to men interested in law as a career, Room 18, Victoria College. Everyone welcome.

"MERRIE ENGLAND"

Hood and German's immortal masterpiece Merric England is being presented in Hart House Theatre every evening this week at 8.30 by the Victoria College Music Club. First performance tonight. A few good seats still available.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from Page 2)

appearance of the mount, and in the upshot has nothing to do with the success of the picture as such. Our enjoyment of a painting does not depend on our knowledge of what it is painted on, or that the colours were produced by this or that mixture of pigments; we are concerned with the final result. So also with photographs, if the result is what the author intended, the means are unimportant with the possible exception of some architectural and with the certain exception of all scientific pictures. Here photography is concerned with record pure and simple, and since the photographer has wide powers of modifying his results the precise data of his treatment are an integral part of the record.

A. F. Coventry,
Chairman, Hart House
Camera Committee.

ANNOUNCING A NEW ORGANIZATION

The Editor,
The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

The editorial of Friday last affords a propitious prelude for the announcement of the formation, recently, on the campus of the Student Branch of the Friends of the Soviet Union. Most students are no doubt aware of the long existence, in Canada, of a national and many local branches of this organization, but are perhaps not quite clear as to its purpose and functions. One of its tasks is to popularize the economic, social, cultural and artistic achievements of the Soviet Union through our monthly magazine "Soviet Russia Today", through popular lectures, through films and slides, etc.

The following excerpt taken from Friday's editorial all too truly and clearly reveals the dire need for such an organizational function in a cultural centre: "We have been singularly blind," it reads, "to the original creative work which is being produced in Soviet Russia."

Another and related task is to expose and counteract the malicious lies and slanders hurled against the young workers' and peasants' republic by the press and other hostile or Russophobic agents. Besides the hopelessly false and distorted picture thus created in the public mind such a flood of deliberately misleading propaganda has the regrettable effect of not only unjustifiably prejudicing the public mind but of benumbing the wholesome and enlightening interest in the achievements of the U.S.S.R. as amply demonstrated by the above citation.

We have every reason to believe that the Student Branch of the F.S.U. will meet with the immediate acclaim and support of all students who are interested in the truth.

The organization opens its doors wide to all students, academic or extra-academic, quite regardless of their private political opinions, who are sympathetically interested in the achievements and security of the Soviet Union.

The Student Branch has already set up a provisional executive committee which will announce soon, through the columns of The Varsity, details of the first open meeting. All students are urged to watch for these announcements.

L.W.
Student Branch of the F.S.U.

HART HOUSE MEALS AGAIN

The Editor, The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

As I was lunching in the hall of the Impregnable Fortress today I was reminded of a pretty ditty which I learned from a small friend of my youth:

As I was walking by the lake
I met a little rattlesnake;
I fed him on some jelly-cake,
Which made his little belly ache.
With due respect to its author I beg to present you with one of my own, based as you see not on man's innate regard for the rattlesnake:

The single male his meal doth take
In Hart House Hall, in mournful state;

His meal consists of convent cake,
Which make both heart and tummy ache.

A suitable heading might be "Fresh from the Nunnery".

Yours truly,

—Anonymous.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

have an opinion, and if so where you keep it. Don't you know that our Horseradish had that mug Crying his Eyes Out?

We remain,
Mor-ethically yours

Jo-Jo (Himself).

C-C

Jo-Jo (Himself) Esquire;
Horseradish To You

Dear Sir:

We will have you know that your Horseradish smells like a fourteen year old drop in the bucket and our fifteen hundred associates do not wish any further missiles on this silly squabble, so Horseradish to you and all your strained relations. We are sending a copy of this to Society Spice so that you side winders will get all the publicity you're after. Even if Jerry's Horseradish is immoral, it suits us.

Moral Less yours
Schmitzels.

—Kugur.

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

BRITISH CONSOLS

COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

British Consols

SEALED IN MOISTUREPROOF CELLOPHANE

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body. Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL
Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

WITH THE THEATRES

(Continued from Page 2)

Tivoli—

There is plenty of fun in this week's bill at the Tivoli. To begin with there is Jack Hulbert and Cicely Courtneidge, England's comedians supreme in Falling for You. Along with this is a highly amusing and tuneful Disney "Silly Symphony" called Lullaby Land and a good set of Screen Souvenirs. To add to the humour we are given an insight into the life of the machine-like automatons at R.M.C.

The English humour of Falling for You is equally if not more appealing than most of the slap-stick stuff turned out at the Hollywood mill. Hulbert and Courtneidge are two stars who never fail to keep an audience laughing and of whom one never grows tired. They are able by personality just as much as comical situation, to maintain the interest and supply joyful entertainment. This week's presentation at the Tivoli is an all-round good one and well worth seeing when in search of sheer enjoyment. M.B.L.

Shea's—

Constance Bennett lapses a little too easily from a cynical, self-confident young "Incorrigible" just released from a reformatory, into a winsome young thing who sacrifices her Bed of Roses for the bunk of a Mississippi freight boat. However, the picture provides a good deal of witty dialogue and some excellent scenes. Unfortunately, the censor's touch becomes painfully noticeable at times in jerky transitions. Joel McCrea plays a more than adequate supporting role.

The stage show is not up to Shea's usual standard, although there are several acts worthy of mention. The little play featuring Vaughan Glaser presents an interesting situation skillfully handled. The Paxinos trio of tight-rope acrobats performed exceptionally able feats, which failed, somehow, to draw the applause they merited. The other acts were amusing—in spots. R.E.W.

MOTIVES ARE HIGH STUDENTS ASSERT

(Continued from Page 1)

derlying where genuinely fine ones do exist," said Max Patrick, IV U.C., when interviewed. "A student of theology ought to be ashamed of himself for attributing such baseness to human beings." When asked to comment on the woman whose sole aim in college is a successful marriage, he protested that he was not a sufficient authority on the feminine mind.

"The editor should read Bentham on vague generalities," declared Cecil Wilson, IV Victoria. "Why shouldn't we come to university for personal reasons? What I contend is that those things for which a university is constituted, come by the way.

Grace Becker, IV Commerce and Finance, vehemently refuted the statements concerning home seeking coeds. "It is unfair to insinuate that most women come to university to capture an eligible husband. Besides men don't like university women. They are scared of women brainer than themselves. Let's give the editor the benefit of the doubt and say he's being facetious."

F. McAtter, IV U.C., was puzzled when questioned as to his opinions. "I'm not very well versed on the motives of women in coming to college. I don't agree with the editor's monetary views on a university education. Personally I don't think a college degree is going to net me a big income. It gives an individualistic point of view. To counteract this the pass course is an excellent thing."

"The editor shouldn't make such sweeping statements," said Joyce Lownsbrough, IV English and History. "The pass course is good for people who can't make up their minds. It isn't such a terrible thing not to be able to make up one's mind. He disregards the idealistic motive which is uppermost in most of our minds."

Everyone seems agreed that we should "never let the pass course die." One student stated indignantly that if it weren't for the pass course this university might not have the financial support it has.

VARSITY JUNIORS SUFFER DEFEAT

(Continued from Page 3)

Varsity's five man rushes left them cold when an opposing player would break away, for they couldn't match their speed. This was the main cause of such a large score.

Varsity—Goal, Owen; defence, Wainwright, Sissons; forwards, Poupore, Ripley, O'Leary; subs, Morgan, Walkey, Lavery.

P.C.C.—Goal, Turner; defence, Marshall, Blaver; forwards, Carnegie, Hunchcliff, Bart; subs, Folliis, Sil-krob, Disher, Hodgkin.

JUNIOR WATER POLO

(Continued from Page 3)

iod ended. In the second half Vic went to the front, sinking two goals to give them a substantial lead. However, Bud Fraser and Cressy McCatty combined in the final minutes for a pair of counters which evened the score at 4-4.

Trinity—Martin, Cox, E. Fraser, B. Fraser, Stratton, McCatty.

Vic—Dickey, Runnells, Devitt, Dalziel, Hay, Menzies, Whiting.
Jr. Meds—Korman, Glassman, McDonald, Stubblings, Trail, Adams, Dick. Dents—Kingsberg, Woods, Smith, Wildfong, Hawkins, Twibble, Leckie.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24th, 1934

No. 70

WILL NEW LIBRARY BE INCLUDED IN RELIEF PROGRAMME?

BLUE SEXTET OUT OF CELLAR

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Vienna—Austria will appeal to the League against shipments of explosives from Germany to Nazi terrorists in their own country.

Fresno, Cal.—Health authorities are searching the countryside for an escaped Japanese leper.

Three men were arrested in connection with an $800 "hold-up" last Sunday night, which proved to be a hoax.

America's foremost skiers will compete at the new Thorsdike jump on Feb. 10th.

Provincial police are investigating an alleged abortion ring operating throughout Ontario.

Singapore—A secret parley of naval experts is discussing the completion of the base here to safeguard British interests in the East.

Brantford—It was discovered that the section of the Municipal Act under which a writ has been issued to force aldermen to return $2,600 pay, applies to "insane and destitute persons."

Attorney-General Price expressed himself as "tired" of complaints against the enforcement of the Lord's Day Act.

Maple Leafs defeated Montreal 8 to 4.

UNION'S STATEMENT IS PROVED FALSE

"Undergraduate Orchestras" As Advertised, Are not at Varsity

OTHER NON-UNION BANDS

Of the eight "Undergraduate" dance orchestra leaders whose names appeared in a Varsity advertisement recently sponsored by the Musicians' Union, at least three have no connection with the University, it was learned yesterday.

"We didn't say that they were at the University now," declared A. D. Dowell, secretary of the union, in an interview yesterday.

"Your advertisement claimed that they were 'Undergraduates,'" The Varsity pointed out, explaining that an "undergraduate" is technically and generally understood as a student attending the University.

"Oh, that's all right!" Mr. Dowell exclaimed emphatically.

Edmund Houston and Stan. St. John who were among those mentioned in the advertisement, have each attended Varsity in the past, but are not registered at present, nor is either one a graduate.

"Advertisements for insertion in The Varsity are accepted as submitted," explained E. A. Macdonald, business and advertising manager, with reference to the criticized advertisement.

"If the statement made is untrue, I was unaware of it, but I would certainly call it to the attention of the advertiser if the same insertion was to be run again."

(Continued on Page 4)

Varsity Defeats Port Colborne In Hard Slugging Contest, 5 to 2

WIN CUNNINGHAM

Pivot man for the Blue team, who scored two goals and an assist to lead the scoring of the Varsity team in their victory over Port Colborne last night.

NEW OBSERVATORY OPENING DELAYED

Larger Staff is Required to Cope with Additional Work

PROF. CHANT IN CHARGE

It is not known when the formal opening of the new David Dunlop Observatory will take place, but it is expected that the new telescope will be in operation next autumn and that the new staff will take up their duties at that time.

Professor C. A. Chant, who has an enviable reputation among astronomers, having not only the degree of Ph.D., but also being a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, will be the director of the new observatory.

When approached by The Varsity, yesterday, Professor Chant explained that the present staff of three members, including Professor R. K. Young, also an F.R.S.C. and himself would have to be enlarged to manage the new observatory and he hoped that some of his astronomy pupils would after graduation be able to fill some of (Continued on Page 4)

Knox Government Is Overthrown

For the first time in the history of the Knox College Undergraduate Association, the government was defeated by an overwhelming majority in a vote of confidence vote. Speeches by Marcus Long, leader of the Opposition; Jack Graham and Gordon Cuthbertson exposed alleged maladministration and incompetency, and called upon the House to censure the present office-holders.

When the motion was passed by a 46 to 20 vote, Mr. Cuthbertson asked Mr. Harold Lowry, the Prime Minister, when he intended to tender his resignation. The Premier refused to answer the question on constitutional grounds. It is rumoured, however, that Mr. Lowry will call upon the Leader of the Opposition to form a new government at the next meeting.

Last Period Scoring Bee Provides Four Goals for Blues

CUNNINGHAM SCORES TWO

Shipp Plays Spectacular Game in Nets to Keep Score Down

By Art MacFarlane

Overwhelming a one-point deficit by a last period scoring spurge of four goals, Varsity forced Port Colborne to absorb a 5-2 defeat at the Port last night. This win moves Varsity out of the cellar position which they have occupied since early in the season. The Blues came from behind twice to tie up the score before forging to the front 30 seconds after the third period started. Although only dominating the play in the final 20 minutes, the Warren Stevens' puckchasers were full value for their win as the Port Colborne defence crumbled under their ceaseless attack.

The first period produced some ragged hockey and only one goal, the latter scored by Hudson from a scramble in front of the Varsity net midway through the session. The Varsity goal keeper, whose capable net-minding featured the whole game, had no chance on the shot. The refereeing in this chapter could have been improved, as both teams, the Sailors especially, were getting away with high sticks.

The second period was jammed full of thrills as the teams tore into each other. Varsity missed two smart chances to tie it up, McPherson over-skating the puck on one occasion, while Horne tripped Rey when the latter had a good chance. After seven minutes of play, Hendry drilled one from the blue line which Moore fanned on completely. This rather soft goal was nullified when Morrison sifted through the whole Varsity team 18 seconds later, to again give the Canal-towners a one-goal margin. The usually pacific Jimmy McPherson became (Continued on Page 3)

DEBATE ON VALERA INFLAMES MOB

All Leaves Are Cancelled for University Police Force

SNOW MELTS ON GREENS

The Irish blood of the undergraduates ought to be aroused at the prospect of hearing their country assailed in Hart House tonight. With two leading exponents of Ireland, Messrs. Gelber and Mayall, holding forth against their brother Paddies from McGill, the green ought to predominate. It has been rumoured that an eminent undergraduate editor with a name closely akin to that of one of the Irish Saints will be present in his native garb and will speak in dialect. The University police force are expected to be out in full force to protect their rights.

The officials at the debate are all noted Irishmen, namely Gelber, Mayall; Doig and Marshall of McGill as speakers on the paper. Sime, Drynan, Bridle, O'Kell as tellers. R. A. Bell as Clerk of the House. S. M. Her-mant as Speaker of the House.

PAST PRESIDENT PAYS TRIBUTE TO DR. BENSLEY

Dr. Cody Conducts Impressive Funeral Service for Late Professor

MANY FRIENDS GATHER

"Life Was One of Unremitting Labour," Says Sir Robert

A fitting tribute was paid to the late Dr. Benjamin A. Bensley by his friends and admirers who gathered in Convocation Hall yesterday afternoon to attend the simple, but impressive, funeral service for the recent head of the biological department, who died so suddenly a few days ago. Students and members of the faculty made up a large number of those who desired to pay their final respect to their lately departed leader and friend.

The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. H. J. Cody, who began, as well as concluded, by reading several very appropriate passages from the Bible. Singing by the audience was confined to two numbers, "Oh God, Our Help in Ages Past" and "Abide With Me".

In a brief but earnest message, Sir Robert Falconer paid a glowing tribute to Dr. Bensley's many admirable qualities. He alluded to the Doctor's fine early career which was climaxed by his being chosen to succeed Professor R. Ramsay Wright as head of the biology department.

The many difficulties with which he was early confronted were also outlined by the speaker. He was handicapped by lack of adequate quarters for the rapidly increasing number of students in his department. "But, he was a good administrator and was able to overcome the difficulties of his cramped quarters," Sir Robert said.

In discussing the deceased's later life, Sir Robert Falconer paid equally fine tribute. "Dr. Bensley's life has been one of unremitting labour," he (Continued on Page 4)

Medicals Will Cavort At Annual At-Home

Friday evening of this week looms forth as a great night for the medical students and their friends. The annual At-Home to be held in the Convocation Hall at the Royal York Hotel promises to be one of the biggest events of the year. The music will be supplied by the original Wright Brothers orchestra from 8 until the early hours of the morning.

The arrangements have been made this year as last for a supper dance and the list of table reservations made to date are only one of the factors pointing towards a successful party. The medical students will mingle with faculty members in one of those evenings which are responsible for the good understanding that exists between the students and the faculty in the medical school.

Among the faculty members present will be Dean and Mrs. Fitzgerald, Dr. and Mrs. Gallie, Dr. and Mrs. Graham, Dr. and Mrs. Grant. Guests from Western, Queen's and McGill medical schools as well as representatives from the colleges on the campus will be there to join in an evening of fun which one will go a long way to surpass.

DR. CODY LOTH TO ASK FAVOURS FROM QUEEN'S PARK GOVERNMENT

VARSITY STAFF MEETING

There will be a meeting of the combined men's and women's staffs of The Varsity, in the Women's Union, today, at 5:00 p.m. Attendance is compulsory. Tea will be served at 4:30 p.m.

STAFF DISAGREES WITH VIC VOTE

Clergy Should Deal Only with Moral Values of Political Issues

NON-PARTISAN MINISTRY?

"Personally I do not approve of the participation of clergymen in party politics," stated the Reverend Leonard Dixon of the S.C.M., when interviewed yesterday in regard to the defeat of the resolution that "The Clergy should keep out of politics" in the House of the Victoria College Debating Parliament. "However," he added, "it is the duty of clergymen as it is of all men to support any legislature which will morally benefit the people."

The Reverend John Dow of Emmanuel College, expressed similar beliefs. In his opinion, "A clergyman is essentially a pastor and it is his job to provide moral guidance for his flock. Professor Dow also expressed disapproval of ministerial participation in politics "except in regard to those political issues which may influence the moral condition of the public. Any activity in regard to these issues," he added, "should be confined to their moral side and a clergyman should certainly not influence the individual (Continued on Page 4)

C.C.F. ADVOCATES SENATE ABOLITION

Present Constitution Makes Canada Dependent on British House

SENATE BLOCKS REFORMS

The amendment of the Canadian constitution was the subject of the lecture given by Professor Underhill to the C.C.F. Club at its regular meeting at the Women's Union last evening.

Professor Underhill stated that one of the primary planks of the C.C.F. platform is the amendment of the constitution to bring it into line with economic conditions in Canada. He explained that the intention of the Fathers of Confederation was that the Federal Government should control all affairs of national interest, but the increasing economic centralization of today which was not foreseen in 1867, has made the economic provisions of the B.N.A. Act obsolete and harmful.

"At present," he stated, "the ultimate decision in all questions of constitutional amendment rests with England." Professor Underhill regretted this condition, and said that if it continued to exist "England might some day have to act as arbiter between an inflamed majority and a stubborn minority," a position which England would like to avoid, since any decision would be unpopular with one side or the other. Considering this and considering that the English Parliament is (Continued on Page 4)

"We Don't Like to Ask Too Much of a Good Giver" Says President

NO ASSURANCE AS YET

Premier Unable to Discuss Question Until Taken Up with Governors

When approached on the subject of the inclusion of a new University library in the building programme announced by Premier Henry, President Cody stated that the Provincial Government has hitherto been good to the University and "we don't like to ask too much of a good giver."

The Board of Governors has not had any communication with the Provincial Government regarding the erection of a new library in connection with this programme, Dr. Cody added. The question of a new building has often been discussed by the Board, but economic conditions in recent years have prevented any definite action.

The Varsity was unable to gain an interview with Premier Henry regarding the need for a new library at the University.

The Prime Minister's secretary informed The Varsity that Mr. Henry could not speak to the press regarding matters of which he knows nothing officially. Such matters as the erection of a new library have to be decided on by the Governors of the University. The Premier intimated through his secretary that any opinion that he held was not for publication until official discussions had been held with the Board of Governors. When (Continued on Page 4)

SPEED LAWS TOPIC OF RADIO DEBATE

Western Upheld Speed Laws Against Varsity Speakers

DECISION TOMORROW

"Resolved that it is not advisable to have speed limits for motorists," was the topic of a debate between the University of Toronto and the University of Western Ontario in the first in a series of inter-university debates to be broadcast every Tuesday evening. The affirmative was upheld by S. H. S. Hughes and S. M. Her-mant of the University of Toronto.

"I propose to show that the speed limit is as dead as the dodo," said Mr. Hughes. "Speed laws in Ontario constitute a most formidable body of legislation. They are a relief of the days when autos were new and strange." Mr. Hughes proposed as a remedy the abolition of all speed limits. "Make laws conform to the circumstances and then conform to the laws" he concluded.

"The prime factor of all law is its reasonableness," asserted S. M. Her-mant, supporting the affirmative. "Reasonableness is the only test. Time, circumstance and the party concerned must be the deciding factors." He went on to state that it was a well-known fact that speed laws were not obeyed and that bus schedules openly ignored the existence of such restrictions.

"A speed limit is something to be desired by all," said Mr. Larry Dampier, supporting the negative. "If there are no speed limits, the responsibility rests on the driver. The United (Continued on Page 4)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '34
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '35; News: K. G. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crookover, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—E. C. Phelan Assistant—C. de Mestral

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24th, 1934

ABOLISH THE LECTURES

The leaders of learning in our universities, although professing a progressive attitude towards the problems of the world and their solution, retain a system of pedagogy reminiscent of the Middle Ages and not consistent with the present emphasis on originality in thought.

Students are herded together into classes of various dimensions where professors, of recognized academic ability, lecture to them for forty-five minutes in a necessarily superficial manner while they frantically and unsuccessfully endeavour to write coherent notes on the subject of the address. During their stay in the lecture-room they are subject to a strict discipline, like public school children, and may be openly censured at any time or even ordered to leave the room. Conduct must be maintained at a high level and a definite silence maintained in lieu of attention. In some of these lectures attendance-records are kept to make sure that neither ambition nor idleness, on the part of the student, may force the professors to lecture to empty seats.

The lectures in most courses are inadequate and of little value to any student desiring a full knowledge of the subject. Recourse must be made to standard texts for full information. The students who read them before the lecture receive nothing new from the professor; those who read them afterwards are amazed at the superficiality of the lecture-system. Furthermore, some of the professors, although expert in their particular specialty, have no ability to present their material in an interesting manner. They lecture in an incoherent, monotonous, unintelligible style and their listeners are, for the most part, completely oblivious to all other interests but that of time.

Even in the few instances where the professors are capable of presenting their material in an interesting and intelligible manner they cannot contribute as much to the student's fund of knowledge as may be obtained by a diligent and methodic study of an authoritative work on the subject. These men, realising the inadequacy of the lecture-system, constantly recommend certain books for serious perusal, with the usual warning that no student who fails to read them can expect to understand the subject. Unfortunately the student, because of irregular time-tables, is forced to spend the day either attending lectures or waiting for them and cannot do justice to this supplementary reading. It is impossible to accomplish any valuable work in the intervals between lectures.

Yet, apparently, this lecture-system is considered almost sacrosanct by the authorities. Attempts of ingenious students to secure the lecture-notes in our own university, by hiring a stenographer, were frowned on and the "culprits" compelled to attend the lectures in person and secure their own notes. Some continued the practice surreptitiously with distinct advantage to themselves and consider it the only effective means for doing worthwhile work.

If the lecture-notes are of value, as they ought to be, in directing the student in his studies, it would certainly be an advantage to receive them intact and not in the chaotic state of most student note-books. Our present system does not permit this and therein lies one of its greatest defects. The students would be spared the necessity of "nefarious" practices, able to devote more time to intensive reading, and given a wider scope for a general knowledge of their particular studies, by giving them copies of their professors' notes and abolishing our present system of lectures.

("The Varsity" will continue the discussion of the defects in our modern pedagogical system in tomorrow's editorial.)

INDUSTRY SAVES MONEY THROUGH BUDGET CONTROL

Mr. C. McEwen Tells Engineers of Success in Own Business Through Budgeting

Mr. C. McEwen addressed the Engineering Society in the Mining Building yesterday on "Budget Control as an Aid to Business". Mr. McEwen drew his familiarity with the subject to his experience as the vice-president and general manager of the Imperial ### Varnish and Colour Co.

The necessity for an improved form of business control is indicated by the fact that the average life of a company in the United States is estimated as seven years. The year's budget for a company is set up about a month before the year begins. At this time estimates are made of the probable total sales and profits for the coming year, based upon the previous year's business. Allotments are then made for various operating expenses and for the purchase of new equipment according to the amount available and the

Art, Music and Drama

Massey Hall

At Massey Hall a benefit concert will be given tonight, in aid of the Convalescent Home of St. John the Divine. The performance will be given by the Hart House String Quartet and Harriet Cohen, English pianist, who played with the Toronto Symphony last night. The programme will include Schubert's "Death and the Maiden" quartet, and a quintet for piano and string quartet by Elgar.

Hart House Theatre

In Hart House Theatre, on Thursday, January 25th, the Victoria College Dramatic Society will present Boys of the Section, an original one-act play by William R. Feasley, IV B. and M. Those who saw Marjorie Drake's production of Mr. Feasley's The Merry Wives Consider, last season, will welcome this new comedy from his pen. The play is again gently satirical, and dependent very largely upon characterization, but the location this time is rural, and the theme entirely different. It should be a highly amusing presentation.

The large cast includes Alice Belfry, Lois Brobst, Pearl Irwin, Florence Myatt, Greta Ross, Gladys La Chance, Alice Holme, Bernard Cooperman, Lorne Campbell, Stanley Giles, Wallis Field, Ken Woodworth, Ossie Rowe and Basil Penlington. The direction is by Robert Christie, and the stage management is in the very capable hands of Doug Nicholl.

The curtain will rise at 5.10, and all who are interested are invited. There is no charge for admission, but a collection, not compulsory, will be taken to cover the janitor's overtime.

C.W.C.

Victoria College Music Club

Last night at Hart House Theatre the Victoria Music Club presented Hood and German's Merric England. While the acting in the first act definitely showed signs of first-night nervousness, growing confidence and a friendly audience made the players warm to their parts, so that by the end of the play a fitting spirit of buoyancy and gaiety prevailed.

The chief criticism we have with the performance is not with the players but rather with the opera itself. Hood and German are by no means the successors of those bright Englishmen, Gilbert and Sullivan. Merric England lacks the spontaneity and charm of a Pinafore (the opera last year presented by the club). The music has not the catchy, luring quality which Sullivan infused into his tunes. Something is lacking — that essence which constitutes the difference between a smashing success and merely

(Continued on Page 4)

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

REPLY TO MR. LITNER

The Editor,
The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

Mr. Littner's letter on "Church and State" requires an answer, because by placing the wrong emphasis on my remarks he has accused me of a crime which I did not commit. I made no attempt to put the situation in a cynically bad light. (I prefer not to table anything "bad" or "good" if it can be avoided.) Instead, I made a heroic excuse for the Church (particularly the Catholic Church), by pointing out the one legitimate service which it can and does perform. I challenge Mr. Littner to suggest any other way in which it is equipped to be of use to its followers at the present time. Perhaps he is not aware that most normal individuals have a number of minor maladjustments for which they can receive compensation only through the arts, (including religion), and that there is nothing particularly undesirable in this situation.

Returning to the point of the Church's attitude toward strife, can Mr. Littner produce any convincing evidence which would indicate that the Church has actively shown her disapproval of strife frequently enough for us to believe that it is part of her policy? As far as I know, the Quakers are the only real pacifists in the Church.

Mr. Littner says: "The real function of such a spiritual agency has been the realization of a great system of values." Has the Church realized any system of values, which is significant today?

D.G.V.

individual needs. In a single year budget control saved for Mr. McEwen's company $20,000, in contrast to the old hit and miss system.

The meeting was opened with the usual engineering songs. The first was the "Psalm of Life" to ensure all within hearing that "meekness and peacefulness" are more to engineers' liking than "morals and ethics". It is feared the piano player was a non-union man. "We engineers' must do something about this."

EARTH'S ARMOUR

The earth would be pelted by pieces of meteors if it were not for the layer of atmosphere around it. Friction, caused by air resistance, burns up most of the "shooting stars" before they reach us.

The Editor has received the following letter on a piece of brown paper, which he has turned over to us.

C—C

473rd Internationale Office of the B.F.S.U.E.P.P.M.L.R.A.*
Moscow, USSR

Comrade:—

We were astonished beyond measure, in fact we were surprised, to observe in a recent issue of your paper in a column entitled The Champusov Katski an item manifestly ridiculing the contribution to our culture of a Y.C. C.F.U.S.S.R. (Young comrade of Canadian junior friends of the United States of Soviet Russia). We consider this infra dig, lese majeste, and sub judice, and we don't like it. It is another example of the atrocious and meretricious libels and scandals hurled by the organs of well-fed and bloated capitalists against the labourer's paradise, commonly called Russia, and we suspect that the author is a Russophobic agent and that he is hostile too. We are developing our culture on a sixty-five year, four month and three day plan, and as we have been at it only three months, we resent this preposterous and puerile impropriety concerning our promising prelude.

We have referred this matter to Comrades Stewartski, Parkeroff and Starovich, commissioners of the OGPU (OGP to U).

B.F.S.U.E.P.P.M.L.R.A.

on behalf of

Josef Vissarionovich Dzhughashvili called Stalin

*Branch of the Friends of the Soviet Union Existing for the Purpose of Preventing the Malicious Lies of Russophobic Agents.

C—C

We assure our readers that this column will not be intimidated, not to say scared by the brainless bravado of bearded Bolsheviks, or anybody else. This column was conceived in hopes of alleviating the night editor's worries, born in the travail of the struggle to fill up the pages of The Varsity, and dedicated to the cause of making the world safe for plutocracy. GOD SAVE THE THING!

MacNeil.

Night Editor's Note.—The following bit of filler seems an excellent, if entirely accidental, reply to MacNeil's tirade.

WAR AGAINST ILLITERACY

The Soviet Union plans to battle illiteracy by seven years of compulsory education for every child in the Union.

$1.00 WILL REPAIR YOUR WATCH
NO MATTER HOW BADLY BROKEN
Cleaning, if necessary, 75c. extra
GUARANTEED 2 YEARS
FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY!
CITY WATCH & JEWELRY
HOSPITAL Est. 1921
163-7 Yonge St.—Room 12
OPP. SIMPSON'S TAKE ELEVATOR
MAIL ORDERS—POSTAGE EXTRA

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps. Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St.
KI. 0991

571 Yonge St.
KI. 3270

HERE are the advantages that make Dominion Ring Books longer lasting, more convenient to use and better looking:—

Steel Hinges, anchored right into the leather cover, not only make the book flat-opening for easy writing, but prolong its life at the point where ordinary books wear out first.

Fibre Back, coloured and grained to match the leather, prevents scuffing.

Flattened Steel Rings have greater capacity and are easier on punched sheets. Available in 3 or 7 rings.

Yet with all these advantages Dominion Steel Hinge Equipment costs no more than ordinary ring books.

Made in Canada by

DOMINION BLANK BOOK CO., LTD.

ST. JOHNS, QUE.

DO YOU WANT TO WIN A PRIZE?

$5 First - $3 Second - $2 Third

For the best group of 4 snapshots most representative of Campus Life

FOR TORONTONENSIS

Wednesday, January 24th is positively the last day to turn these in to the S.A.C. Office, Hart House.

Seniors, the success of this section of the book depends on you.

DO YOU APPRECIATE YOUR BAND?
Then put this date down and be on hand for

THE ANNUAL CONCERT

of The Blue and White Band

Convocation Hall

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20th

This year better than ever before. Guest artists, and a fine programme. Keep this date open.

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps
6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1885

EYES EXAMINED

37 Years' Experience
ALL STYLES OF FRAMES
(Prices lower than the lowest, quality considered.)
F. E. LUKE, Optometrist
167 YONGE ST.—Upstairs
(Opp. Simpson's)

FREE ADMISSION TO CAGE TRIPLE-HEADER TO-NIGHT

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

The date that was mentioned last week for the interfaculty swimming meet has been changed. While even yet, it is not definite, March 9 will be suggested at a meeting of the Athletic Directorate to be held this week.

That will leave even more time for the colleges to get their teams in shape. Miss Cochrane tells us that there have been excellent turnouts at the Lillian Massey all winter. This year a special hour has been allotted on Thursdays for those for whom swimming is compulsory. This has eased up the overcrowding which is unfortunately a common occurrence with such a small pool.

Violet Orde, sister of the famous Nan, ought to be a good bet for Trinity and Kay Brown of U.C., another freshee, looks as though she will be distinguishing herself by her swimming as well as her basketball.

Public Health has an hour on Tuesday night along with the Meds. So far the nurses alone have taken advantage of it, but as usual the two faculties will probably enter a team together.

The intercollegiate hockey team practices again tomorrow at noon. The manager Marne Faulds would like to get a game for them on Saturday night with Preston. As they can hardly use the Arena then, it is doubtful if it will be arranged.

We hope that all the interfaculty hockey teams had a practice last night. The old adage "Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today" is one we would recommend to them all. U.C. had such a successful practice the other night that two of the players were requested to turn out to intercollegiate practices. Public Health has sent two players to try for the Meds team. Mary Thom, who starred on the Victoria first team, should be a big help to them.

Sport Notices

Sr. Vic Basketball—
Game with Dents today at 4.15. Everybody out.

Baseball—
Junior U.C. practice on Wednesday from 1-2.

U.C. Hockey—
Practice for senior and junior teams Friday 12.30-1.15.

Women's Intercollegiate Hockey—
Practice today at the Arena, 1-2.

TRACK MEET RESULTS

50 yards—1, Caldwell, Meds; 2, Ashenburt, S.P.S.; 3, Dore, Dents. Time, 5 4/10 secs.
1.2 mile—1, Conway, Trinity; 2, Campbell, U.C.; 3, McGuire, Meds. Time, 2 4 1/5 secs.
Standing High Jump—1, Austin, S.P.S.; 2, Stewart, Knox; 3, Newton, Meds. Height, 4 feet, 8 ins.

FIRST SKYSCRAPER

Switzerland's first skyscraper is in the process of erection at Lausanne. It is twenty storeys high.

ACTIVE RESISTANCE TO WAR
A new society in Europe for the prevention of war has the policy of "active resistance".

DANCE TO FOLLOW GYMNASIUM MEET

Annual Interfaculty Meet to Provide Strong Competition in Many Sports

B. W. AND F. EXHIBITIONS

Tomorrow night in the Big Gym the annual interfaculty gymnastic meet will take place. Besides the work on the parallel bars, the horse and the mats, there will be exhibitions of boxing, wrestling and fencing by members of the B. W. and F. Club. The results of the gym work will determine mainly the personnel of the intercollegiate team which will represent Varsity in their annual meet with McGill; the ten best men will be chosen and the best six of these picked at a later date for the team. There are four teams of four men each entered and two individuals, Farrar of Forestry, and McIntosh of Dents, while the teams are Meds, Trinity and two from S.P.S. The competition will be for the Harold A. Wilson Cup which has been taken by School for the last four years. They will not find it so easy to retain their laurels this time as they will be up against what is probably the strongest material they have faced since they won the cup. Meds have acquired the junior championship of Canada in the person of S. McDonald, who has held the title for the past two years. The judges will include Charlie Zwygand, the senior champion of Canada, who will also give a demonstration. The second year of School are staging an exhibition of Danish exercises which will consist of drill work by thirty-two men.

The boxing, wrestling and fencing will consist of class demonstrations of the finer points and a bout in each sport. Several members of last year's intercollegiate team will be participating, Gray, Watt, Bannister, Dimitrieff and Johnston in the wrestling and F. N. Smith in the boxing. The meet gets under way at eight o'clock and will continue until ten. Dancing to the music of Nels Kelly and his Kampanus Katz will then take place.

The price of admission is fifty cents but double tickets can be obtained for seventy-five cents in the Athletic Office, or the locker room any time up till five o'clock Thursday.

VARSITY JUNIORS TO PLAY OSHAWA

Chances for Victory Slight Since Injury to Shipman

WILL OPEN UP GAME

Weakened considerably by the absence of Art Upper, Varsity juniors travel to Oshawa to meet the highly-rated Imps, who have only dropped one game this season. The juniors have faded badly since the loss of their stellar defence man, who was injured in the middle of the season, but regardless of this they have always managed to make things very interesting for their opponents. All hope of their obtaining a playoff berth vanished last Monday evening when they were defeated by Parkdale Canoe Club and so having nothing at stake a wide open game can be assured.

Owing to the injury of Shipman, Owen will tend to the net-minding duties, and although he hasn't performed as well as the former, this can be credited to the weakened defence. Wainwright, who has replaced Upper, has shown up very well, and is the hardest working man on the squad. The first line of Ripley, Poupore and O'Leary have plenty of speed and some smart plays which should show up well in tonight's tussle.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By Paul B. Smith

For the first time of the season Varsity's victory-starved hockey team are out of the cellar. Last night the Blue-clad squad stepped into Port Colborne and forced the once highly-rated Ports to accept a 5-2 defeat. This three-goal margin is rather convincing and leaves no room for a hard luck alibi. At that Varsity were probably no better than in many of the games they have lost previously but on the other occasions the breaks just didn't come their way. The Hillman, who handled the game, let the boys away with a lot of slashing in the first period which increased as the game went on. The last chapter was a sample of the blood and thunder hockey with knees, elbows and sticks flying in all directions. However, Varsity won in what was doubtless the most exciting contest of the season.

Coaches Hayman and McCutcheon are trotting three Varsity basketball teams out onto the floor of the Big Gym tonight in Hart House for a triple-header with Y.M.H.A., Broadview and St. Kitt's Grads in junior and senior Y.M.C.A. and Big Six scheduled games. Admission free of charge has been granted for the sake of students who would like to see these teams in action and get an idea of their chances in the intercollegiate games to be held here Saturday night with the University of Western Ontario teams. So all those who are interested in the cage sport should take this opportunity of seeing three good games for nothing. Admission will not be provided gratis on Saturday night of course. By the way, word comes through from London that the senior Mustangs will be a tough morsel on Varsity's intercollegiate senior menu this year. They are taking their basketball seriously over there and they are working the squad strenuously in an attempt to go places this season. Two hours every day is the routine and, for us, plenty of evidence of their probable powers. They say their intermediate team is not so strong a contender, but that was said once before when they won games.

February 3rd has definitely been set as the date for the annual senior interfaculty swimming meet and as it is not so far distant the various teams are hard at the training grind. The coveted Fitzgerald cup, emblematic of interfaculty swimming supremacy will again be contested for. The competition rules are to be the same as the Canadian Intercollegiate Swimming Union rules, except that a competitor may enter three events, including relay, and the team will be limited to fifteen men. Potential naturals and veterans are urgently requested to answer their team manager's call to arms. The U. of T. swimming and water polo clubs are desirous of making this meet a banner one and are leaving no stone unturned in their effort to do so. A very attractive card has been arranged, all that remains for the evening to be a success is a full turnout. Early gossip has it that Trinity and S.P.S. will be waging a terrific battle for honour by the time the last event is called. The presence of the McCarty brothers on the Trinity team lends considerable prestige, but from all accounts they are not going to have things all their own way by any means. Saturday evening, February 3rd. Don't forget.

The University of Toronto Ski Club is organizing an interesting programme. Interest in the popular winter sport is apparently running quite high. The club, which was formed two years ago, was comparatively inactive last year due to the lack of snow, but this season it is an entirely different story. There are several enthusiasts among the undergraduates and they will soon have an opportunity to compete for places on the University skiing team. The Blue and White have twice been represented at the annual Lake Placid college week carnival and also at the famous Huntsville carnival. On the 2nd and 3rd of February the Varsity skiers will be entertained at Dartmouth University where they will compete with other renowned North American colleges. This meet is probably the most famous of any held on the continent, and anyone who can stand on skis is strongly advised to practice up; try sliding down the cellar stairs, the snow will seem a lot softer after that really is. This is a wonderful trip, and one you would never forget. We don't think the lads will need much coaxing to come out though. More particulars regarding the club will be given shortly.

DENTS BAT OUT VICTORY OVER ENGINEERS 11-8

Yesterday afternoon in the Big Gym at Hart House the Dental College nine hammered their way to an 11-8 victory in a scheduled interfaculty baseball fixture against a powerful School of Science team. With only four innings of play possible the Dents started out strong with three runs in the first inning. School attempted to even it up in the same frame but only crossed the plate twice. The second inning gave the jaw-breakers a big lead when the engineers faltered to allow five runs. The losers tried a hitting barrage in the other two chances at bat but were able to score only five runs to make the total score 11 to 8 with the Dents crowd making three more in the fourth.

Sr. S.P.S. — Muir, Wells, Carbone, Johnston, Cooke, McBride, Collins, Hawker, Burgoyne, Turley.
Dents — Peterson, Gardner, Saddler, Oswald, Hackett, Mason, Hamilton, Stapleton, Chodoroff.

Referees — Dyke and Carveth.

ALASKAN INDIANS

Among Alaskan Indians and Eskimos, the village and not the tribe is the governing unit, the villages being widely separated.

VARSITY BEATS PORTS IN WILD BATTLE, 5-2

(Continued from Page 1)

tired of wearing Hudson's stick around his neck and both were chased for roughing it. With Cunningham already off for a minor infraction, Varsity played two men short, but Frank Shipp turned aside everything labelled goal.

After only 30 seconds of play in the final canto, Win Cunningham tied the count assisted by Hendry and McPherson. A few minutes later McPherson golfed one over the net from a scramble with Moore lying on the ice. Seconds later, though, he tallied on a nice backhand shot, Hendry assisting him to put Varsity in the lead for the first time. Port Colborne opened up wide to try and even the figures, but Varsity broke away twice to put the game on ice, McPherson to Cunningham and Cunningham to Rey.

Win Cunningham was the individual star, but Hendry, Rey, and Shipp turned in stellar efforts. Hudson, Wade and Morrison were the pick of the Sailors.

Varsity — Goal, Shipp; defence, Rey, Fullerton; centre, Cunningham; wings, Hendry, McPherson; alternates, McClelland, McConvey, Sweeney, Williamson.
Port Colborne — Goal, Moore; de-

EMMANUEL OVERWHELMS RIVAL THEOLOGES, 29-13

Emmanuel overwhelmed Wycliffe to the tune of 29-13 last night in the upper gym. Emmanuel had an advantage in height of almost a foot per man and they made full use of it. The Wycliffe squad kept the score practically tied for three quarters of the game but could not hold the pace.

The first half was featured by hard fighting but poor playing. The Emmanuel defence left some large holes that Wycliffe used to good advantage. Fouling slowed up the game considerably and the half ended with the score 8-8. Emmanuel improved their play in the second half and gradually forged ahead. Their greater height and numerous substitutions began to tell on their opponents and Wycliffe weakened rapidly. The game ended with Emmanuel on the top end of a 29-13 score.

East with ten points was the high scorer for Emmanuel while Morrissey with five points led the Wycliffe men. Lautenslager and Vaughn for Emmanuel and Kaminsky and Fairweather for Wycliffe were the other stars of the game.

Emmanuel College — Lautenslager, Griffith, East, Gladman, Vaughn, Bath, Stinson, Stuart, Bates.

Wycliffe College — Fairweather, Kaminsky, Morrissey, Lancaster, Metcalfe, Cross.

Testimonies of Christian Science Healing

To-night at 8 o'clock

at St. George St. cor. Lowther Ave. In the main auditorium of First Church of Christ Scientist

These testimonies are a feature of the regular Wednesday evening meeting, and present a convenient opportunity for all students of the University of Toronto to become informed of the demonstrable results of the Science of Christianity or Christian Science.

TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS are DUE NOW

Please hand these into the S.A.C. Office, Hart House

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body. Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL
Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

SEWALK AGITATION PROMISES RESULTS

Victoria students will be able to cross Queen's Park with a reasonable surety of having their feet dry at the end of the journey in the near future. The Varsity was informed by the Department of Parks that an order of cinders had been placed to smooth the primrose path of tramping co-eds. The proposed sidewalk along University Avenue from the Museum to Hoskin Avenue will be carried out next spring in all probability. This work will not include the path from Hart House south to the Medical Building. The proposed sidewalk is a local improvement and will be assessed to those holding property fronting on the walk. The strip from Hoskin Avenue south is park property, however, and as such is under the care of the Parks Department.

MEDICAL AT-HOME

ROYAL YORK HOTEL, FRIDAY, JANUARY 26th

Dancing 9 p.m.-3 a.m. Wright Bros. Orchestra
Table Reservations Early $4.25 including tax

Coming Events

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24
4.15 p.m.—U.C. Players' Guild at the Women's Union. Miss Doris Huston presents the screen scene from Sheridan's School for Scandal.
A meeting of the U.C. Classical Association will be held at the Women's Union. A programme of Greek music is to be attempted.
8 p.m.—Hart House debate with McGill. "Delendum est De Valera".
7.30-8.30—U.C. women's room, 85 St. George St. Mrs. Jean Hutchinson will speak on "A Christian Basis for Life". All U.C. women invited.
8.30 p.m.—Victoria College Music Club presents Merrie England in Hart House Theatre.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 25
4 p.m.—Women's interfaculty debate, U.C. upholding the affirmative of the motion: "Resolved that this House deplors the present system of public education in Ontario". St. Mike's is opposing the motion. Women's Union. Tea will be served.
8 p.m.—S.P.S. debating club, debates room, Hart House.
5 p.m.—Hart House Theatre, Boss of the Section, a one-act play by William R. Feasley, IV B. and M.
6.8—U.C. men's S.C.M. supper party, Hart House. Speaker, J. D. Ketchum, "Social Function of Religion".
5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club, Hart House Music Room.
8.30 p.m.—Meeting of the Anti-War Society at the Women's Union to discuss action for the term. Members and all interested are urged to attend.
8 p.m.—Rapid Transit tournament, of Varsity Chess Club, south common room, Hart House.
M. and P. annual at-home, Oak Room, Union Station.
FRIDAY, JANUARY 26
The Arts Ball, Great Hall at Hart House. Stan St. John's orchestra. Medical At-Home, Royal York Hotel. Supper dance with Wright brothers' orchestra in attendance.

Have You Lost Anything?
If so, put a notice in "The Varsity."
It will help you find it.
Phone S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Midway 6221.

Classified Advertisements

LOST
Black Parker pen on Friday, January 19, between U.C. and Bay Street or in Hart House. Finder please phone La. 1227.

LOST
Last week, gold full-view glasses, in Sutherland and Parker optical case. Finder please phone Ki. 1915.

LOST
A gray and red Parker pen. Finder please telephone Ki. 3266.

NEW LIBRARY POSSIBLE

(Continued from Page 1)
said, adding however that, though he the Prime Minister knows the wishes of the Governors he might then give The Varsity an interview on the subject.

The Varsity also attempted to get an interview with Dr. Bruce, who is one of the Governors. The details regarding the need for a new library at the University were communicated to the Lieutenant-Governor through his secretary. Dr. Bruce replied that considering the political aspect of the question he would be unable to voice an opinion.

OBSERVATORY OPENING WILL BE DELAYED

(Continued from Page 1)
the offices, although it might be necessary to bring other experts to the University. He was unable to say just how many new men would be required and no definite plans had as yet been made for bringing in anyone. Asked as to whether or not the new observatory would cause more students to take the various astronomical courses, Professor Chant answered that he hoped so and saw no reason why more people would not become interested in the subject with the opening of such a new and up-to-date observatory.

SPEED LAWS TOPIC OF RADIO DEBATE

(Continued from Page 1)
States has a speed limit in 67 per cent of the states. Michigan is one which has no such law. This circumstance tends to make driving more reckless than it ordinarily would be. To abolish the speed limit is to set loose reckless drivers upon the road. It may not be observed but it serves as a check," said Mr. Danpier in conclusion.

"The race is not always won by the swift," alleged Miss Angela Abbott the second speaker for the negative. "Most accidents are caused by cars travelling at an excessive rate of speed. There is no doubt that a man driving 60 miles an hour cannot stop quickly enough to avoid a collision," she continued. "Fast driving is reckless driving. Therefore," maintained Miss Abbott, "speed laws are advisable to prevent accidents which are caused by travelling at an excessive rate of speed."

The decision of the judges will be announced over the radio Wednesday evening.

WOMEN'S TICKET LISTS PROVE POPULAR AT U.C.

May Procure Tickets for Partners in Other Faculties

"I am not at all sure that the opportunity of signing lists for the University College dances is a new one for the women of the college," stated Frank Woods, Social Director of the U.C. Lit., when asked if it was an innovation. "We feel that there may be women in the college who wish to procure tickets for the dances so that they can go to them with men of another faculty. The response received from the women for the Follies was very gratifying."

Miss Jean Hunslett, president of the University College W.U.A., said that the sale of tickets to women was a convenience only and that a large sale was not expected. "The practice of allowing women to sign the lists was adopted at the suggestion of the Lit.," she stated, "and there is no idea of competition with the men."

"I think it is a very good idea," replied Miss Mary Salter, secretary of the W.U.A., when her opinion was asked. "Although there are many women in the college who do go to the Arts Ball and other college dances there are doubtless many who would like to go to them but go with men in other faculties who may not sign the men's lists. Of course when a girl signs up for a ticket it does not necessarily mean that she is paying for it." "Why shouldn't women sign the lists?" queried one U.C. woman. "This is a free country for heaven's sake! Many women who are at college go with men who are not, why shouldn't they invite them? The college Romeos are not the only men who can dance!"

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

PHYSICS SEMINAR

McLennan Laboratory Seminar, on Thursday, January 25, 1934, at 4.15 p.m. in Room 42.

The seminar will be devoted to accounts of certain phases of Canada's participation in the International Polar Year. The members of the Canadian parties will be present to take part in the discussion. The specific papers to be given are as follows:

Atmospheric Electricity, Earth Currents and Aurora, Mr. B. W. Currie. The Meteorology and Aerology of the Polar Year, Mr. R. C. Jacobsen.

ARTS BALL TICKETS

Tickets for the Arts Ball may be obtained today between 12 and 2 p.m. at the Lit. office.

EMMANUEL DEBATE

On Wednesday evening in Emmanuel College there will be a debate held on the subject: "Resolved that in the opinion of this House the foreign missionary enterprise of the Christian Church today is unjustified". Affirmative speakers, H. N. Frye, Mr. Hodinott; negative speakers, E. Lautenschlager, J. D. Copp; guest speakers, Prof. J. Line, Dr. Jesse Arnup. Wednesday, Jan. 24 at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

The regular meeting of the Political Science Graduates Club will be held in Room 206 of the Economics Building on Wednesday, January 24, at 4 o'clock. Mr. Wallace will lead the discussion on "The Canadian Press".

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The January spoon shoot will take place this week.

CHESS CLUB

Tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. in the south common room, Hart House, the Varsity Chess Club will hold its regular fortnightly meeting. The fourth lecture in the series, "How to Improve your Game" will be given. Deposit will be returned to those who took part in the tournament. A rapid transit tournament will be held at the conclusion of the meeting.

NOTE—U.C. WOMEN

The annual Public Speaking Contest held under the auspices of St. Margaret's Alumnae will take place this year on Monday, February 12 at 8 p.m. sharp at the Union. Rules and lists are posted in Whitney Hall, the Union and U.C. cloak room. Please sign the lists now so that arrangements may be made for "heats" if necessary. The prize of $25 in cash should prove sufficient incentive to those who wish to test their powers of speech. Sign Now!

C.C.F. ADVOCATES SENATE ABOLITION

(Continued from Page 1)
obviously and necessarily unqualified to decide wisely on important internal Canadian questions, Professor Underhill gave it as his opinion that, quite aside from any party issues, some new, purely Canadian method of amendment should be established.

Any such method would, of course, involve the consent of both the Canadian Houses; and since the Senate, which the C.C.F. platform describes as "a bulwark of capitalism" would stand in the way of any radical amendments the C.C.F. demanded the abolition of the Senate.

Professor Underhill stated that he himself thought that the only successful reform of the Senate would be its abolition; but since this would naturally be so difficult as to be almost impossible, he would advocate at least limiting the veto of the Senate as that of the English House of Lords was limited in 1911.

$50,000 GRANT

The University of British Columbia has been given a $50,000 grant by the Carnegie Trust.

U.C. CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

A meeting will be held at the Women's Union at 8.15. A programme of Greek music is to be attempted.

HART HOUSE DEBATE

Will those who wish to speak at the Hart House debate taking place this evening at 8 p.m. in the Debates Room on "Delendum est De Valera" kindly hand their names in at the Warden's office before 5 p.m.

VIC DRAMATICS

This evening at 5.10 Boss of the Section, by W. R. Feasley, at Hart House Theatre. Everybody welcome. The usual collection.

U.C. PARLIAMENT

Next session is Thursday, January 25th at 4 p.m. The Smith government will introduce the following resolution: "That, in the opinion of this House a Monroe Doctrine for Canada is now necessary."

VICTORIA MUSIC CLUB

8.30 p.m.—Victoria College Music Club presents Merrie England in Hart House Theatre.

CHEMISTRY SEMINAR

Ninth regular meeting, Wednesday, January 24th, 1934, at 5.05 p.m. in the Small Lecture Room of the Chemical Building. Speaker, H. L. Collins, B.A. (West). Subject, "Some Micro-determinations of Arsine and their applications".

MECHANICAL CLUB

The meeting tonight will be held in B-6, Botany Building, and not in the Mining Building as previously announced. Talking pictures and slides of the Abitibi Power Development will be presented by R. L. Hern, Engineer-on-Construction.

U.C. WOMEN IMPORTANT

The women's ticket list for the Arts Ball will be open today and tomorrow till noon in the women's cloak room in U.C. The sale of tickets will take place tomorrow in the Union from 12.30-1.30; if this time is not convenient for anyone who has signed the list, please leave word at the Union and a ticket will be reserved. The price of the ticket pays for the best formal of the year in Hart House, with Stan St. John's orchestra!

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

Sheridan's School for Scandal will be presented this afternoon in modern dress at the U.C. Women's Union in the auditorium at four-fifteen. This production, under the direction of Miss Doris Huston, should prove interesting, so please crown their efforts with your attendance.

DR. BENSLEY'S FUNERAL

(Continued from Page 1)
always had a great number of troubles and difficulties which he kept to himself, he never failed to maintain his characteristic geniality.

"He understood the value and import of science as an instrument of education," the speaker stated later, referring to Dr. Bensley's valuable work in his particular sphere.

Finally, Dr. Bensley's very unselfish nature was praised and suggested as an explanation of his admirable record. "I never heard of any friction within his department and I have often heard many fine expressions of respect for him," Sir Robert added.

STAFF DISAGREES WITH VICTORIA VOTE

(Continued from Page 1)

votes of the members of his congregation or support any specific party plank."

The Rev. F. W. Langford, Registrar of Emmanuel College, and Professor John Line of the same college, were disinclined to comment upon the resolution despite its decisive defeat by a majority of 55 to 33.

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

a clever playlet. The wit is of a brittle nature, consisting of a juggling of words, not that of sparkling brightness that catches both ear and intellect. At times the epigrams are strikingly bright; quite often they fall short of wit only because of a hardness that strikes a false note. The comedy is at its best in parody and burlesque.

Of the characters, by far the best is Charlie Joffile, as Walter Wilkins, a player in Shakespeare's company. He has the cleverest lines in the play, and carries off the honours fittingly. He has mastered that art of stage business which makes his presence on the stage always interesting, and he has the knack of attracting attention and holding it, often merely by some gesture or nod of the head. His singing is of a fine quality, combining a pleasing tone with excellent enunciation. The most amusing parts of the opera, the recitative on Romeo and Juliet and the masque of St. George and the Dragon owe their effectiveness chiefly to his witty and natural manner, his easy humour.

Jean Secombe was excellent as Queen Elizabeth. She has a beautiful singing voice, and a pleasantly majestic manner, though she was quite nervous on her first entrance. Jean Welldorf has improved her singing since last year and makes the most of her part, although her gestures seem stilted and stiff at times. Patricia Lundy makes a delightful May Queen. Her whole bearing is admirably suited to the part and her singing voice is adequate. Aileen Whidden as "Jill-All-Alone" gives an interesting performance, although her voice both in speaking and singing, is not particularly pleasing.

C. J. L. Bates, Jr., as Essex was rather good, but his gestures, too, were unnatural. His best work is in the song, "When Cupid first this old world trod", to which he lends a refreshing brightness. Angus Banting as Sir Walter Raleigh would have been very effective, had his voice been consistently clear and of more even quality. It had a trick of fading out which made it impossible for the hearer to hear or sing. Of the brothers, Long Tom and Big Ben (Richard Joffile and Dal Landell) the lover of "the witch" gave a more dramatic performance and was more satisfying.

As for the other players, most of them were well cast but ungloriously in gestures. It is to be hoped that this stiffness will be remedied, so that the production may be more smoothly rounded out. The work of the chorus was at first very inadequate, lacking in spontaneity and verve, but they became more familiar with the stage atmosphere as the play went on. There is still much room for improvement in this part of the production, in synchronization and movement of dances.

As a whole, the production was of a good quality, but not superlative. It was saved by a considerable lift in the atmosphere of the second act. The finale, Robin Hood's Wedding, was exceedingly fine.

Toronto Symphony

Last evening's programme of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra was in all respects the high point of this musical season—in fact, one could say the high point of the orchestra's career. It was an extremely varied and interesting programme. There was a lyrical feeling about the whole of the first part of the programme, which opened with the Bach Brandenburg Concerto No. 3 for strings. This showed MacMillan's absolute mastery in Bach interpretation. There was an excellent restraint and control of rhythm, especially in the first movement. The fugue, however, lacked a little in this respect, especially at the very end.

The Mozart Jupiter Symphony No. 41 (incidentally the first Mozart symphony played under MacMillan), was the epitome of sensitivity. The sheer joy of movement in the allegro vivace was a marvellous contrast to the second movement with its plastic rhythm and exceedingly delicate colouring. The whole thing showed a definite growth in the orchestra's development.

The second half of the programme was an excellent contrast, consisting of two moderns—Arnold Bax and Free!

To-morrow
from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

We are giving away Silk Stockings to celebrate "5000 DAY".

With every pair of our No. 5000 purchased from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 25th, we will give you absolutely free, a smart pair of first quality silk hose. In order to accommodate as many students as possible, we have found it necessary to limit the sale of No. 5000 to not more than two pairs to a customer. "Every Toronto woman wearing No. 5000", is our ambition. We make this offer feeling that to wear them once is to wear them always.

$1.00
and another pair of Silk Stockings Free

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 8800
4 other shops in Toronto

Richard Strauss. Harriet Cohen, the English pianist, was the soloist in the Bax Symphonic Variations. In this she showed an excellent technique, a great deal of temperament and fire, but whether she has any poetic and intellectual depths or not it was impossible to tell from the work performed. The Box itself as a composition was rather interesting, a bit too long though (even with five cuts). It was rich in thematic content, the orchestral part being particularly lovely, but the piano score tended to monotony. The general effect was most successful for a first performance and Miss Cohen received an ovation.

The Till Eulenspiegel of Richard Strauss brought this concert to a most glorious end. MacMillan brought out the contrasting moods so distinctly that Till Eulenspiegel in all his humours and vagaries lived his life before us.

The concert was an ambitious achievement, well conceived and showed to the fullest extent MacMillan's genius in many interpretative moods. D.G.

UNION'S STATEMENT IS PROVED FALSE

(Continued from Page 1)
Objection to the claim of Nels Kelly, III S.P.S., that his was "The only non-union undergraduate orchestra", in another advertisement, has also been raised.

"I have been leading a non-union orchestra, playing at University functions, for the past three years," stated Harold Taylor, III Vic, and a similar statement was obtained from another non-union musician, Murray Armstrong of II Victoria.

STUDENTS TAKE OUT ISSUE

The issue of the Vancouver Sun for January 16th was taken out by the staff of the Ubysey, the undergraduate publication of the University of British Columbia. The custom has been followed for some years.

Tickets for the ARTS BALL on Sale at Lit. Office, 12-2 TO-DAY

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 25th, 1934

No. 71

VARSITY BASKETEERS SCORE TRIPLE VICTORY

LIBRARY PROPOSAL RECEIVES SUPPORT

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Paris—France demands a naval power greater than Germany and Italy combined.

Natal, Brazil—On February 3rd, a four-day transatlantic airmail service in Dornier Wal flying boats will be inaugurated between Germany and Brazil.

Sarnia—The city's youngest mayor, Gordon Hodgins, was found poisoned last night.

Seattle—With the invention of a small cheap plane-auto with folding wings, the ordinary citizen will be able to keep one in his garage, for highway or flyway travel.

Ontario will receive $17,500,000 for public works as her share of the Federal programme.

There will be no taverns here as in Quebec, according to the latest forecasts by Henry today.

Hazard, Ky.—For slugging a miner on a street last Saturday, a young negro was hanged after a frenzied mob had riddled his body with bullets.

Special care will be given subnormal patients by the segregation of more hopeless cases, when the new legislation being prepared by Hon. Dr. Robb goes into effect.

EVEN STUDENTS FAVOUR LECTURES

Suggestion to Abolish Class-work Disliked by Students

HELP TO FORM OPINIONS

None of the students interviewed by The Varsity about yesterday's editorial agreed that lectures should be abolished. Norma Maclean, II Trinity Pass Arts, said that this was "a most inopportune time to suggest such a thing when the unemployment situation was so critical. What on earth would the poor professors do?"

Most of the students felt that the value of lectures wholly depended on the professor. Andrew Outthet, I Law, U.C., said that he disliked professors that read their notes. He thought that "you should only get the highlights of the course in lectures and that the student should make his own notes."

Elspeth Noyes, II Victoria Pass Arts, is of the opinion that too much stress is laid upon lectures. She believes that you should study a subject (Continued on Page 4)

VISITORS' OAY

Sunday 28th January will be Visitors' Day in Hart House when members may introduce visitors including ladies into the House between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. Members will be asked to show their membership cards at the door.

The building will be open for inspection. Tea will be served in the Graduate Dining-Room between 3 and 4.30 p.m. at 25c per cover.

RELIEF PROGRAMME SUGGESTION MEETS WITH GENERAL APPROVAL

Present Library Considered Inadequate to Meet Demands

NO ROOM FOR ADDITIONS

Definite Information not Available Until Estimates Released

"The University has outgrown the library." Such were the words of Professor Wallace, head librarian of the University when questioned concerning the rumour that a new library relief programme. Professor Wallace went on to say that the library was certainly inadequate for the demands it must face. He pointed out that there was insufficient room for the students to do work which had to be done in the library. The reading room, too, was shown by the professor to be over-crowded at nearly all times during the day.

"Most of all," continued Professor Wallace, "we will have to take books out of circulation if we are to continue in our policy of adding from 10,000 to 12,000 books a year." As yet this has not happened but in the near future such a measure will have to be taken for the library is fast becoming filled with books and there will be no more room for any additions.

Summing up his opinion Professor Wallace closed his interview with The Varsity by saying, "In regard to the books, to workers in the library, and to readers, the present library is inadequate."

Although the need of a new library has been firmly established the question as to whether it is included in Premier Henry's building programme (Continued on Page 4)

NO OPINIONS AVAILABLE ON SEX HYGIENE QUESTION

Little Chance of the Matter Being Considered for Several Years

The professional attitude towards sex hygiene being taught in Toronto University, as it is at Columbia, is one of complete silence. Questioned by The Varsity reporter as to its immediate good or harmful effect on the students, professors of the Psychology and Ethics Departments ventured no opinions on the matter.

Public interest was first aroused when Rev. John O'Hara, vice-president of Notre Dame University, criticized what he called "this course in coeducating." All Columbia freshmen are required to attend lectures on physical education. This includes a study of sex hygiene, along with such subjects as "food and nutrition," and "immunization and the public health."

"It is not under consideration at present, and there is little chance that it will be for several years," said Professor Ketchum of the Psychology Department, when the matter was put to him. Professor Brett of the Ethics Department was equally reticent on the subject, declaring that it had not yet come up for consideration.

Dr. Porter, head of the medical services for men students, declared that as yet he had not heard of the matter. Pressed for an opinion, he declined to answer, but said on a few days' consideration he might have something to say.

Favour Restoration of Salary Cuts Before Construction Commenced

GOVERNORS TO MEET

Next Project to be Considered if Good Conditions Had Prevailed

"The question of library accommodation will have to come up before the Board before a great length of time. It is purely a matter of when the government will have the money," stated Dr. H. B. Anderson, member of the Board of Governors of the University, in an interview with The Varsity yesterday concerning whether it would be advisable for the Board to consider urging the government, in view of its avowed policy to expend funds upon public works rather than direct relief, to include the project of a new library building for the University in their programme of public works.

"Personally," said Dr. Anderson, "I would like to see the salaries of the professors restored to their former (Continued on Page 4)

LIBRARIES NOT INCLUDED IN HOCKEY TEAM TOUR

Yesterday The Varsity interviewed nine members of the Varsity senior hockey team in the hope that they might be able to give some information on university libraries in the United States, since their recent tour took them to several American universities. In view of the interest being taken at present in our own library facilities it was hoped that a comparison with the libraries of Yale, Harvard and Princeton could be obtained.

Unfortunately all enquiries regarding American libraries were fruitless. Several players regretted their inability to give information but explained that their time during the tour was so taken up with games, travelling, and inspection of sports buildings that they were unable to visit the libraries—although at Yale such a visit was suggested.

Mr. Speaker Receives Green Tie De Valera Gets It In The Eye

By N. C. Phillips

To the tune of "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," sung by several loyal Irish potato pickers, the Hart House debate got under way last night. Green ties and blue shirts were worn. In fact the first event of importance was the presentation of a green tie to the Speaker.

Pagan Era—Christian Era—De Valera
Moved by Mr. Gelber and later reiterated innocently by Mr. Harley. It seems that several members had been culling the anthologies of Irish jokes. Most of them were just Irish jokes.

Mistah Speakah
A gentleman from Wycliffe has a method of destroying people without using Capital Punishment. Prison reformers please note.

Mr. Patrick, the saintly member from U.C.: "I am 60 per cent Scotch." Voice from the rear: "... and 40 per cent soda."

Mr. Doig: "I suggest that this man be corked." Will anyone second the motion that we Kilpatrick?

SUNOAY CONCERT TICKETS

Eighty single tickets, which will admit men students only for the concert on Sunday next, will be issued at the Hall Porter's desk at 1 p.m. on Thursday.

DEBATE DECISION SUPPORTS VALERA

Bristling Attacks Fail to Shake Faith in Irish Leader

GUESTS FROM MCGILL

After two hours' debate, during which almost every angle of the Irish question was discussed, the motion, "Delendus Est De Valera", which was the question put before the House at the Hart House debate last night, was decisively defeated by a vote of 77 to 37. The debate was featured by the presence of two guest debaters from McGill University—Mr. M. Doig and Mr. A. Marshall.

At times, the air fairly bristled with attacks on the name of De Valera, and on his policies, while at other times, the spirit and patriotism of the Irish President were praised to the limit. Several meritorious Irish jokes were related in the course of the debate, (Continued on Page 4)

MECHANICAL CLUB HEARS ABITIBI CANYON DESCRIBED

Enormous Work Illustrated by Commentated News Reel and Data

"The Abitibi Canyon Power Development"—these words will have a new meaning to members of the Mechanical Club following an address last night by R. L. Hearn, resident consulting engineer of the Dominion Construction Corporation. Mr. Hearn gave a short description of the job, followed by a four reel talking moving picture of the actual construction.

To minimize danger from forest fires it was necessary to clear twelve square miles of forests. To house the (Continued on Page 2)

CHICAGO STUDENTS ARE NOT COMPELLED TO TAKE LECTURES

Three Terms a Year—and Only Three Subjects a Term

EVEN EXAMS OPTIONAL

Standing Based on Work at End of Second and Fourth Years

Under a new system instituted about two years ago, students at the University of Chicago are no longer compelled to attend lectures or to write term examinations. Mr. C. Riley, a graduate of the University of British Columbia, who is at present doing geological research work at Toronto, explained the operation of this new plan to The Varsity yesterday. Mr. Riley spent some time following post-graduate studies at the Chicago University recently.

"Lectures at Chicago are no longer compulsory and there is no roll call. If a student wishes he may be excused from lectures entirely by speaking to the professor when the course begins. Otherwise he attends regularly or as often as he pleases," stated the U.B.C. graduate.

Three subjects only may be taken during each of the three terms of the college year, but the course in each subject is completed during a single (Continued on Page 4)

WEEK-END VISITOR TO ADDRESS S.C.M.

General Secretary of I. S. S. and Former Editor of "Vox Studentium"

OR. WALTER KOTSCHNIG

The university is to be honoured this week-end by the visit of Dr. Walter Kotschnig, formerly editor of Vox Studentium, the organ of the World Student Christian Federation, and now General Secretary of the International Student Service of Geneva. Dr. Kotschnig is personally known to many students on the campus and to many members of the staff who have sought his advice, or who have benefited by his aid in connection with the I.S.S. while travelling in Europe or elsewhere.

Dr. Kotschnig's international affiliations date from the years just after the Great War when the World Student Christian Federation sent out a call to all the nations for European Student Relief, especially for the help of the German students who were suffering drastically from the effects of the inflation. The call was promptly and generously answered in spite of considerable nationalistic controversy, and after the European Student Relief had completed its task, in 1926 it was reorganized from within on a non-sectarian basis, independent of the W.S.C.F., as the International Student Service.

It was at that time that Dr. Walter Kotschnig was made Associate General Secretary of the Service. Born of an Austrian middle-class family who had been hard hit by the war, he (Continued on Page 4)

SENIOR A CAGERS DEFEAT ST. KITS IN PEPPY GAME

Close Tussle Saved by Last Minute Stand by Varsity

GORDON OPENS SCORING

Plenty of Action and Shots Keep Play at Fast Clip

By L. Rosenblatt

With a speedy, scrappy and sparkling display of basketball, the Varsity senior A team defeated the St. Catharines Grads by the score of 25-13 last night in a Big Six fixture played in the big gym at Hart House. Although the score appears to be one-sided, it was really a close tussle and it was only near the end of the game that Varsity was able to run up a comfortable lead.

Varsity started off at a fast clip and had quite a few shots at the basket before the visitors got out of their own end of the floor. The play moved up and down the floor at an amazing rate and both teams had a great many shots at the hoop, but neither could ripple the twine. Many baskets were being missed by such narrow margins that it had the spectators sitting on the edges of their seats. After Varsity had fouled St. Kits three times in a row Red Gordon was given a pass and scored a nice set shot to start the ball rolling for U. of T. At this point the play began to slow down and a more scientific style was resorted to. The next few minutes produced some nice criss-crossing by the Varsity team but the only scoring produced was three foul shots by the Blues and one point by the Grads.

The second half produced a great deal more of scoring and varying styles of play. Much of the scoring came in spurts and for most of the time the teams kept a close check on each other and a great many fouls were being handed out. Varsity, however, finally found themselves and in a burst of speed sunk a row of baskets to give them a considerable lead and were never threatened thereafter. The final score ended at 25-13.

Sniderman, Bodrug and Willis played head basketball for Varsity, while Diggins was the best for St. Kits. Varsity—Gordon 6, Bodrug 5, Willis 3, Sniderman 9, Gold 2, Levy 1, Prince, Young, Kaplan.

St. Catharines—H. Cambray, Pearl, Dixon 3, Newman 2, Diggins 4, C. Cambray 2, Hallett, Meacher 2, Graham, Leeson.

MISSIONS UNJUSTIFIED UPHOLDS TRINITY DEBATE

Shall the Christian Church sit complacently in its back yard and see the scintillant brilliance of the fluctuating Word pass into oblivion insofar as the myopic eyes of the foreign heathen are concerned? Yesterday evening at Emmanuel College, H. N. Frye and Mr. Holdnott jested and raced through an entertaining "Yes" to the subject of debate: "Resolved that in the opinion of this House the foreign missionary enterprise of the Christian Church today is unjustified." E. Lautenschlager and J. D. Copp protested to a successful conclusion.

Professor J. Line, as one of the guest speakers, lamented the fact that missionary work implies a considered superiority on our part. Dr. Jesse Arnum, the other guest speaker, recounted personal experiences in foreign parts and insisted that friendships established by missionaries are future bonds between nations.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOER, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. G. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crocker, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Ken G. Robb Assistant—Frank E. Pujolas

THURSDAY, JANUARY 25th, 1934

ABOLISH THE EXAMINATIONS

American universities are criticised, and rightly, for their mass-production. Thousands of young men and women are graduated each year to take their place in the milling mob of mediocrity with only a diploma to mark their College career. They are totally unfit to assume their status as intelligentsia in the community or to contribute anything valuable to the social well-being. Most of them are so completely under the influence of a system that they cannot think for themselves in unexpected situations. The result is a superficial approach to life in general and the problems of government in particular.

Our Canadian universities partially escape this charge of mass-production because of their small numerical strength. But, in proportion to this strength they are also culpable. Many of the graduates from these institutions, presumably educated, have no ability commensurate with their standing and are often inferior to others without the same opportunities. The wholesale distribution of degrees, often to people of little ability, has detracted from their value. They no longer represent a distinction of intellectual superiority and mental capacity for important duties. Mediocrity may share this high honour with genius.

Mass-production is not merely quantitative, it is also qualitative. It is here that our Canadian universities are most closely aligned with the American institutions. Students enter the universities with varying degrees of ability but these distinctions are not recognised. All of them are forced to follow the same routine and adhere to the same standards. The lecture-system, criticised in yesterday's editorial, tends to suppress individual initiative and the fear of examinations limits the breadth of outlook desirable in future leaders. The distinctions of ability noticed in later life are due more to inherent ability than to the course of instruction called education.

The problem centres around the purpose of a university education. Is it simply an attempt to give as many people as possible a smattering of knowledge by a process of public-school infusion? If so, then the person with the best memory will be the most completely educated. Or is it to develop critical minds trained to destroy and construct, to appreciate a problem with all its ramifications, and to contribute leadership in the larger fields of endeavour? The latter seems the more obvious justification for the existence of our institutions of learning but the former is the purpose actually dominating at present.

This will be clearly seen in a survey of the present requirements for a degree. Students, who have succeeded in remembering enough of their high school instruction to pass the government examinations, are permitted to enter the university where they are classified by courses and placed under the tuition of certain professors. The average professor lectures to them twice a week for approximately seven months. At the end of this time the students are required to summarise the information obtained from him in a period of two and one-half hours. If they secure a 50 per cent average of correctness they are considered educated and granted a degree. It is unnecessary to discuss the injustice of these tests, their inadequacy as measures of the individual's ability, the superficiality of the results obtained, and the possibility of physical conditions hampering certain individuals at the time. It is enough to point out, what everyone knows, that it is possible for students who have done no valuable work during the year and lack mental acuteness, to "cram" enough, during the preceding month, to satisfy the examiner. They are actually memory-tests. Consequently our universities are graduating individuals as educated who have merely an exceptional memory without the power to think. The system of lectures and examinations cannot safeguard against this result; therefore it is necessary to abolish them, in the interests of education and the standards of our universities, and substitute some other method more indicative of the individual's ability.

(The Varsity will offer constructive suggestions for the revision of our system in tomorrow's editorial.)

Art, Music and Drama

A.C. Players' Guild

Yesterday afternoon the Players' Guild presented scenes from Sheridan's School for Scandal. The screen scene with its many developments, was amusing in spite of the difficulties the cast had in expressing adequately the spirit of the play. The lack of costume (it was played in modern dress) was a handicap, in rendering the very 19th century lines. Costumes would have helped Peter Sandford as Joseph Surface. Mr. Sandford is a newcomer to the stage and his progress to be noted at each rehearsal was phenomenal. Paul Bridge, as Charles Surface, played his straight comedy (a very difficult role) with precision, combined with ease.

Ruth Wood played the part of Lady Teazle in a very pleasing fashion; she appears too seldom on the Guild stage. Jack Graham as Sir Peter Teazle gave an excellent bit of characterization, and all through his part he never failed to play right within his character. The production was not as smooth as it might be; it lacked in co-ordination. Miss Doris Huston, as director, had a very difficult play to put on the stage, and in spite of many obstacles, she produced a presentation which was enjoyed thoroughly by the large audience.

M.B.L.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

The Editor,
The Varsity.

Dear Sir:
It seems incredible that the writer of yesterday's editorial should be entitled to a degree after his name. The attitude therein expressed is entirely wrong for one engaged in a University career of any type.

Subjection to discipline in lectures, I think, would be irksome only for those people for whom professional "bouncers" are necessary. It is assumed that when one is of University age, that stage ought to be attained where it is realized that silence and courteous attention is due to anyone addressing an audience. University is obviously no place for one who attends a lecture "completely oblivious to all other interests but that of time".

I wonder what the honourable gentleman considers the functions of professors to be. Surely the proper conception of this profession is not one of spoon-feeding, but of serving as a guide in that line of life in which the student desires to specialize.

A professor, of necessity, presents a superficial view of his subject. He also recommends works for further reading and study in order that each individual may have the opportunity of engaging in research and further study in that side of the lecture topic particularly attractive to him.

The very fact that students, with the object of saving a little time by "cutting" their lectures, who fearful of missing the notes of that same lecture, and therefore wished to hire a professional stenographer, shows in itself that they realized the value of the lecture.

Your whole outlook seems preposterous, coming from one engaged in academic work, and though you say that this discussion of the "defects in modern pedagogical system" will be continued we hope it will not be for long, and that you, as the editor, will bear in mind that every man in the street is capable of destructive criticism, of an ignorant and unthinking type, but it is only the few that are capable of intelligent and constructive criticism.

Yours sincerely,
Emily Keeley,
Trinity 375.

Mechanical Club Hears

Abitibi Canyon Described
(Continued from Page 1)

men employed on the scene a complete modern town of 2000 inhabitants was built. This town was completely steam-heated and possessed a school, electric power, and full health and recreational facilities. During its two years of existence it experienced no disease epidemics and required no police department.

In building the dam 1,000,000 pounds of dynamite were used to excavate 1,300,000 cubic yards of earth and rock. A 300 foot clear span steel bridge was erected to aid in the construction of the dam, and now lies dismantled and waiting for a purchaser. Work on the project went on

We emerge from what we had hoped was a permanent retirement deep within the confines of our natal alley, solely upon the urgent behest of the W.C. Night Editor. It appears that Comrade Nell has gone into hiding following the receipt of further intimidating letters from the B.F.S.U. E.P.P.M.L.R.A., which as you have probably forgotten is the mystic symbol of the local Branch of the Friends of the Soviet Union Existing for the Purpose of Preventing the Malicious Lies of Russophobic Agents. When last heard from he was lurking in the unexplored depths of Victoria College Library, disguised in a pink wig, blue spectacles, a slightly greenish beard and a rich coating of dust, muttering to himself, "It's not the B.F.S.U.E. P.P.M.L.R.A. I'm afraid of, it's the S.B.F.S.U.S.O.P.K.R.F.E.W.P.P.M.L.L.I.A.U.S.S.R."

And now that that's off our typewriter, we can buy a new one and get down to business.

Our friend Fellowship wandered in the other night with a clipping from the Help Wanted columns of a local daily: "Messenger boy for grocery store, must have bicycle, room, board, also pay."

To date we understand no police reserves have been called out to handle the rush of applicants for the sinecure.

(Night Editor, blotto voce, "Some sinecure turning out to be!")

We were somewhat intrigued the other day by the statement of an eminent Victorian exponent of the higher witicism as reported in our Undergraduate Daily, to wit: "The leader of the Opposition gave historical justification for the clergy's interest in social reform, mentioning among others the names of Moses . . . and Martin Luther who were not only founders of the Protestant faith . . ."

Nice of him to admit that neither of these prominent clergymen were only founders of the Protestant faith, but why didn't he add John Wesley and make it the Methodist Church?

MEDICALS WILL CAVORT
AT ANNUAL AT-HOME
—Headline in yesterday's Varsity.

Which gives rise, of course, to the age-old question, How many cavorts make one gal?

Watson, the pump-handle.

Chaz.

day and night, summer and winter, for two years. It is estimated that in all 25,000 men were employed in manufacturing and assembling the various units of the project.

Special tribute must be paid to H. H. McLean, vice-president of the company, who managed the 2,000 men employed on the scene of construction.

There is something in knowing how to make cigarettes. Look around you and notice how many men and women smoke

Winchesters!

Winchester
CIGARETTES

SAVE THE POKER HANDS

Blended Right!

Study the Art of Living

Toronto is a part of the great world of travel and society, in the Royal York Hotel. Come here to mingle with the city's notables and their most interesting guests, and to add your share to the atmosphere of gay sophistication.

Afternoon Tea Musicals—4.30 to 6 p.m.
Rex Battle's Concert Orchestra. In the Palm Room off the Main Lobby.

Supper Dance—Introducing a new star, Billy Bissett, with his Royal Yorkers. 9 to 1.30 a.m., nightly (except Sunday).

Special Rates for College Parties
Phone Wa. 2511

THE ROYAL YORK
A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL

THE LANTERN TEA ROOMS

5 WILLCOCKS ST.

Full Course Lunch 25c.

Full Course Dinner 35c.

Suppers served from 8 to 11.30 p.m.

only $1.00

Dinner or Supper
DANCING

Which Includes One of the Famous
Savarin Dinners or Suppers

A sumptuous Savarin Dinner or Supper, dancing to the enchanting music of Gene Fogarty and His Orchestra, a Floor Show sparkling with songs and beautiful girls, all for $1.00* (per person).

Every Evening (except Sunday) 6 p.m. to closing

Savarin
BAY at ADELAIDE

ARTS BALL Tickets Sale continues at Lit. Office, 12-2 TO-DAY

GYMNASTICS, B. W. & F., AND DANCING IN H. H. TO-NIGHT

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

The intercollegiate hockey team had a good practice yesterday. There are still eleven girls turning out. Only nine of these will be making the trip to Kingston, but all will be used in the Toronto Hockey League games.

Next Wednesday night the first game will likely be played. The Varsity team will meet the aggregation that Fran Crooks Westman has been instrumental in getting together, in a double-header with the Industrial League.

The ruling concerning non-competitive amateurs has deprived the "grad" team of the services of Theo Elmslie, who is teaching P.T. at Loretto College. Hazel Anderson is going to be able to play, however, as she isn't paid for the P.T. work she does.

This ruling is a necessary one, but it certainly is all-exclusive. Professionalism to our mind doesn't call up a picture of the work of a high school P.T. teacher. The supposition is, no doubt, that a person who spends her time in physical training work will have the advantage of superior condition and more practice over her amateur sister. Any P.T. teacher we have known would smile wearily at such an idea.

TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS are DUE NOW

Please hand these into the S.A.C. Office, Hart House

PROMOTED

A. I. Walker, recently appointed General Freight Agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, with headquarters in Toronto, succeeding R. E. Larmour, who retires under the company's pension rules after 35 years of loyal and efficient service. Mr. Walker, who has steadily worked his way up to his present position, has a wealth of experience in the company's freight service. Prior to his recent promotion he was General Freight Agent for the company in Montreal.

SENIOR B CAGERS CAPTURE GAME BY FAIR MARGIN

Speedy Finish Replaces Lack of Pep in First Half

Y.M.C.A. TAKEN 32-27

Gibson Garners 11 Points to Lead Scoring of Game

The Varsity senior B basketball team raced ahead of the Broadview Y.M.C.A. to win by a 32-27 score in a fast game played in the big gymnasium in Hart House last night. Leading by 8 points in the first half the Blue team had to travel at high speed to overcome the 3-point lead held by their rivals at three-quarter time.

The first half was rather insipid at times. Play was jerky and constantly interrupted by many outs, frequent foul shots and occasional bursts of scoring. Varsity showed basketball which was good enough to show a 16-8 score at half-time. The students worked in best at close range and netted most of their baskets on very pretty plays. The team work of the Y aggregation was weak; the Green Shirts scored but two baskets in the first period, half of their points being made on fouls.

Broadview started the second frame with a rush, R. Mitchell sinking a basket and two foul shots before Varsity garnered a point. A storm of shots, which found the Collegians' basket from mid-floor finally gave Broadview a bitterly fought for 3-point lead. The Blues rallied again and again, but in their over-eagerness threw away pass after pass of which the desperate Y team took full advantage to loop the ball and chalk up more points to keep them up front. The last quarter saw the Senior Bees play scintillating basketball. Led by the fiery red-head, Gibson, a fighting Blue team swept Broadview out of the picture; every man on the Varsity squad was handling the ball flawlessly, and seemed equally efficient at play-making. Gibson, with 11 points, was high scorer of the game, while Magwood, Mitchell and Stronach also shone for the winners. Breathet's 10 points made him best man for Broadview, and his teammates, the two Mitchells and Wolfe, turned in stellar games as well.

Varsity — N. Newman, Applebaum, Mitchell, Ronson, Stronach, Vanderleek, Magwood, Henderson, Gibson.

Broadview — C. Mitchell, Marriot, Weldon, McLeod, Wolfe, Breathet, B. Mitchell.

Referee—Percy Millar.

JUNIOR S.P.S. OWN MEOS IN CLOSE BALL GAME

"Obs" McLaughlin Leads Schoolmen to 5-4 Victory, Playing Star Game

Scoring four runs in the first inning Jr. S.P.S. barely eked out a 5-4 victory over the Jr. Meds team in an interfaculty baseball game played in the Big Gym yesterday afternoon. The Meds representatives made a gallant fight to tie the game up, but only the brilliant hurling of "Obs" McLaughlin the School pitcher, in the pinches prevented them from accomplishing the trick.

McLaughlin was the star for the winners, turning in a sparkling performance that fairly had the Meds squad in a daze. He collected no less than 12 strikeouts and was nicked for five hits. Towards the end of the game he showed signs of becoming (Continued on Page 4)

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By W. A. Crochower

There'll be big doings at Hart House tonight when the U. of T. gym instructors put on their little show in conjunction with the interfaculty gymnastic meet. The struggle for the Harold A. Wilson trophy, emblematic of the interfaculty gymnastic championship promises to be closer than ever this year. In addition to this the B. W. and F. section will put on a series of contests. To make it a perfect evening Nels Kelly and his Kampus Katz orchestra will supply the necessary tunes to soothe the minds of the defeated athletes. The price of admission is fifty cents with students getting a bargain price of two for seventy-five cents. This offer holds only until noon today. The show starts at 8, but there'll be no dinner.

It seems that those in charge of the gate receipts at Hart House have finally solved the problem of low attendance figures—free admission. Well, it always has been said that the customers must get what they want. There were about two hundred or so fans at last night's basketball triple-header and every one of the two hundred departed for home thoroughly pleased with the evening's proceedings. The reason is simple—Varsity scored a triple victory and the last game was a dandy. On Saturday night the Blue cagers will take on three more teams, two from Western and one from Broadview Y in a junior fixture. If the seniors play just a little better ball on Saturday than they did last night, they'll go a long way towards the intercollegiate title.

And now about last night's contests. From a spectator's point of view the Big Six game lacked nothing. It had colour, speed and enough scrappy incidents to bring forth bursts of applause every now and again. The score at half-time was 5-5 and we're willing to wager that this is some kind of a record or other. Each team found it extremely hard to score in the first half as the ball just wouldn't stay in the twine. Besides the St. Kitt's Grads were a little off colour as six of their team figured in a serious auto accident en route to Toronto. Although their car was a total wreck fortunately none of the six was hurt too badly. Graham was in a state of coma and came to just a few minutes before the game started. The other five played after being patched up by Doc Moe Mitchell, who was out of the Varsity lineup due to a sore leg. In the second half the Blues seemed to have the benefit of Lady Luck and pulled ahead gradually, showing better form as the game neared its finish. What we would like to say about the contest is that the Blues are doing remarkably well considering the fact that Hayman is lucky to have five men out at every practice. Perhaps Lew's secret sessions during the rest period do the trick.

Just about this time last year a tall fellow by the name of Ford was developing into a smart centre man on the senior quintet. This year it appears to be Lofy Willis. Lofy played a wonderful game last night and took plenty of punishment during the proceedings, but didn't flinch once. Good work Lofy—keep it up!

In the Y contests Mac's lads pulled out two expected wins, although the Senior Bees almost went down to defeat due to lifeless and sloppy play in the second half. This seems to have become a habit with the Blues and accounts for their lowly position in the Y group standing. However if they expect to win the intercollegiate title a little more spirit will be needed. The junior victory was at the expense of the Y.M.H.A. quintet and saw the Blues winning handsily.

The interfaculty series in basketball and baseball are well under way now and the hockey will start next week. The schedule will be published so as to cover one week at a time in order to prevent a serious pile-up of postponed games. Whenever necessary games will be played indoors, otherwise they will be outdoor fixtures.

Varsity's junior pucksters ran into another defeat at Oshawa last night by an 8-0 score. The squad seems to feel the loss of Art Upper badly. On Saturday night Steve's rejuvenated gang of puckchasers play hosts to Irving Erb's squad in a fight to determine which team will stay out of the cellar. Warren's Blues are determined to make it three in a row and we feel sure that with the benefit of the home atmosphere they'll pull out a win. They all admit they've seen enough of the cellar by now.

JR. HOCKEY SQUAD LOSE TO OSHAWA

Blues Outplayed in Every Department by Motor City in Clean Game

DEFEATED BY 8-0 SCORE

Led by the dashing "Jo-Jo" Graboski, Oshawa Majors swamped the Jr. Varsity hockey squad in an O.H.A. fixture staged in the Motor City, to the tune of 8-0. The game was exceptionally clean, with only one penalty being meted out, that being to Varsity. The Majors outplayed the Blue Shirts in every department and seldom did the Collegians appear to be dangerous.

For the first fifteen minutes the U. of T. puckchasers battled on even terms with the homers, play ranging from one end of the rink to the other, but Cooper of Oshawa paved the way for a three-goal spurge when he beat Owen from close in. One (Continued on Page 4)

VIC BASKETEERS OVERTAKE DENTS

Eight Points Behind at End of First Period, Win in Overtime

FINAL SCORE 19-14

Senior Vic basketekers defeated Senior Dents in an extremely hard-fought game, played in the upper gym in Hart House yesterday afternoon. The game proceeded into five minutes of overtime and until the very last minute the outcome was an uncertainty.

Dents played sterling basketball in the first period, securing eight of their points and keeping Vic scoreless. In the second period the Victorians started with a bang and Barry notched a basket for the first point for his team. After this the students from Victoria scored almost at random and were able to tie the score before the final bell.

(Continued on Page 4)

a velvet jacket

OUT for dinner—a velvet jacket makes it possible to wear a very formal evening frock. Evening bridge—again a chic little jacket gives your dinner frock new smartness.

Flattering frills falling softly over the shoulders—a loosely knotted neckline make this jacket irresistibly young. The short bolero type that's smart with so many frocks. $7.95.

THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

DO YOU APPRECIATE YOUR BAND? Then put this date down and be on hand for

THE ANNUAL CONCERT of The Blue and White Band Convocation Hall

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20th

This year better than ever before. Guest artists, and a fine programme. Keep this date open.

Sport Notices

Sr. U.C. Baseball—

Game with Knox today at 4 p.m.

Senior Assault—

The senior interfaculty assault will be held on Wed. Jan. 31st and Thurs. Feb. 1st. All entries must be handed in at the Athletic Office by noon on Tues. Jan. 30th.

U.C. Water Polo—

All members of both teams out today at 4. Practice game with Trinity.

U.C. Jr. Basketball—

League game today at 4 p.m., upper gym, Hart House.

Interfaculty Swimming—

Managers note: Entries for meet must be handed in to Athletic Office, Hart House, and not later than Thursday, Feb. 1st.

SENIOR U.C. ANO MEDS

TIE IN WATER POLO GAME

Last night in an interfaculty water polo fixture which was featured by the expert goal tending of both goalies, Sr. U.C. came from behind to tie the score with Sr. Meds at 1-1. No overtime was played. The contest produced many thrills and at times had the spectators gasping as the goalies put on startling displays.

In the second half U.C. came back fighting desperately but were finally rewarded when Lipman whipped in the

EYES EXAMINED

37 Years' Experience
ALL STYLES OF FRAMES
(Prices lower than the lowest, quality considered.)
F. E. LUKE, Optometrist
167 YONGE ST.—Upstairs
(Opp. Simpson's)

Classified Advertisements

MEALS

Excellent meals at weekly rate. Discount to students, 11½ Spadina Rd. Kingsdale 1574.

THE HOSTESS DRAWING ROOM
Toronto's unique social rendezvous, where you may entertain graciously, economically and without personal effort. Reserve your dates for bridges, teas, receptions, banquets, business meetings, etc. 891 Bay St., between Grosvenor and Broad-albue.

tying and final goal.

Cameron, Henderson and Murphy played well for U.C., while Lipman, Murphy and Mutteroff displayed good form for Meds.

Sr. Meds — Cameron, Vaughan, Magder, Henderson, Wittis, Culiner, Davidson, Coleman, Groves.

Sr. U.C. — Murphy, Booth, Kingsbury, Walker, Beatty, Mutteroff, Lipman.

MEDICAL AT-HOME

ROYAL YORK HOTEL, FRIDAY, JANUARY 26th
Dancing 9 p.m.-3 a.m. Wright Bros. Orchestra
Table Reservations Early $4.25 including tax

Coming Events

THURSDAY, JANUARY 25
8.30—Victoria College Music Club presents Merrie England in Hart House Theatre.

4 p.m.—Women's interfaculty debate, U.C. upholding the affirmative of the motion: "Resolved that this House deplores the present system of public education in Ontario." St. Mike's is opposing the motion. Women's Union. Tea will be served.

8 p.m.—S.P.S. debating club, debates room, Hart House.

5 p.m.—Hart House Theatre, Boss of the Section, a one-act play by William R. Feasby, IV B. and M.

6.8—U.C. men's S.C.M. supper party, Hart House. Speaker, J. D. Ketchum, "Social Function of Religion".

5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club, Hart House Music Room.

8.30 p.m.—Meeting of the Anti-War Society at the Women's Union to discuss action for the term. Members and all interested are urged to attend.

8 p.m.—Rapid Transit tournament, of Varsity Chess Club, south common room, Hart House.

M. and P. annual at-home, Oak Room, Union Station.

Hart House Debate Says

De Valera Merits Support
(Continued from Page 1)

however, and they served to relieve the seriousness of the discussion.

Mr. M. B. Gelber, University College, who moved the question for debate, based his opposition to the policies of De Valera on the latter's economic programme which he declared is ruining Ireland by the economic nationalism which is its essence. He charged that the Irish Republican army, which is in the nature of "storm troopers", is intimidating the people and that De Valera, by oppressing the opposition, is sowing the seed for the growth of a fascist reaction. "By exploiting animosity toward England," he added, "he has been able to obfuscate the most pressing problems of the Irish nation."

As the first speaker for those who opposed the motion, Mr. M. Doig began by criticizing Mr. Gelber for stating that "De Valera is creating a patriotic mirage." He asserted that De Valera is constitutionally and morally entitled to air his views; if he is wrong, the best policy would be, not to destroy him, but to let him stay where he is until the Irish people decide that he is not carrying out their wishes. "De Valera is not to be judged by an English or Imperial standard," he urged, opposing the idea that De Valera should be "destroyed" because his policies are not in the best interests of England or of the British Empire.

Mr. A. Marshall, the third speaker of the evening, upheld the motion and demanded that De Valera be "destroyed" on the grounds that he had done nothing towards fulfilling his promises since attaining office. He voiced his opposition to the fact that De Valera, instead of the Irish people, had declared what Ireland wanted.

Mr. K. M. Mayall, faculty of Forestry, declared that the Irish had elected De Valera because, after nine years, they had found the treaty with England quite objectionable. He deplored the English treatment of Ireland during and after the last war; the destruction of trade is not to be associated with De Valera's policies, he protested. "I say only time will tell whether the treaty will be amended or whether the prediction of Charles James Fox that Ireland will renounce her connection with England will come true," he concluded.

During the open debate which followed, the House was privileged to enjoy a detailed and sympathetic history of the Irish troubles delivered by Professor DeLury of University College, who believed that "Non Delendus est De Valera."

QUEEN'S STUDENTS IN WAR

Over 1500 men and women from Queen's University served in the Great War.

Exams, Lectures Optional For Chicago Students

(Continued from Page 1)

quarter. Thus a total of nine subjects can be taken during the year. This arrangement also existed under the previous system. "However," explained Mr. Riley, "although term examinations are held at the conclusion of each course, these tests are not compulsory."

There are two sets of "comprehensive examinations", held at the end of the second and fourth years respectively, upon which scholastic standing is based. Every course comes under such exclusive groupings as "Physical Sciences", "Social Sciences", "Humanities", etc., and the examinations in all courses in each group are written at one sitting. "These 'comprehensive examinations' are of the new objective form entirely."

"There is a constant endeavour to make the lectures as attractive and interesting as possible, and in spite of the lack of compulsion, good attendance is found at all classes," continued Mr. Riley.

A practice of giving mental tests to students entering the University has been followed for some years. The average mental rate has shown considerable improvement since the inauguration of the new system, indicating that scholars of a higher type are now attracted to the University.

The most noticeable effect of the system is the marked increase in the book circulation figures at the Chicago University Library. It is thus felt that the plan now in operation produces a greater interest among the students in their work.

Junior Hockey Squad Swamped by Motor City

(Continued from Page 3)

minute later Graboski scored on a solo rush and this was followed by another goal twenty-five seconds later when Jo-Jo fed Maundrell a perfect pass.

On opening the second canto Tony Graboski ran the score up to four on a nicely executed play, which fooled the Varsity defence completely. The students then showed some signs of life but Poupre and Ripley missed some great chances when they had broken through the Oshawa defence. After Poupre had been waved to the cooler for tripping, Goodchild scored Oshawa's fifth goal on a pass from J. Graboski. The third session saw the Motor City lads start where they left off, scoring three more goals, Maundrell getting two and Goodchild one.

Junior S.P.S. Down Mds In Close Ball Game

(Continued from Page 3)

erratic, but he bore down before much damage was done. On the other hand, Gould, who did the flinging duties for the Doctors, fared badly in the second inning, when the Schoolmen connected for five hits and then added four more in the four remaining frames.

Vic Overcomes Dents Lead To Win Game in Overtime

(Continued from Page 3)

In the overtime the Victorians played entirely on the offensive and scored five more points, making the final score 19-14 in favour of Vic.

VARSITY JUNIORS SCORE EASY WIN OVER Y.M.H.A.

In a Y League fixture last night, Varsity juniors scored an easy victory of 25-12 over the Y.M.H.A. in Hart House.

The game was a very ragged affair throughout, with the play surging from end to end. Both teams worked the ball in repeatedly and then failed to score. This led the Y to attempt long shots, with which they were unsuccessful, hitting the ring again and again. Varsity continued their close team play and piled up the winning score.

Varsity Juniors — Miller 5, Kinsey 9, Krakauer 5, Gladish 4, Harlock 2, Toole, Stoughton, Doan, Davidson. Y.M.H.A. — Blackman 6, Nelson 2, Kruger 2, Sitchin 1, Rubinstein 1, Dressler, Simon, Wittenberg, Sherif, Strauss.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

U.C. WOMEN

The annual public speaking contest for the prize of $25 donated by the St. Margaret's Alumnae will be held at the Women's Union on Monday, February 12, at 8 p.m. Sign notices in women's cloak room, University College, where rules are posted.

LIBERAL CLUB

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, January 30, at 8.15 p.m. in the Music Room of Hart House. Mr. Kenneth Christie will speak and lead a discussion on "Liberalism and the Cost of Government in Canada". This is a vital problem and any interested students are invited.

ARTS BALL TICKETS

Those who failed to get their Arts Ball tickets yesterday may do so today between 1 and 2 p.m. at the Lit. office.

S.P.S. DEBATING CLUB

A debate will be held at 7.30 p.m. this evening in the Debates Room, Hart House.

O.C.E. MEN

Sign Friday morning for tickets to the Hart House Sunday Evening Concert.

PHILOSOPHICAL CLUB

Meeting in Wymilwood tonight at 8 p.m. The paper will be given by Mr. Bidney on Prof. Urban's Theory of Value.

Present Library Inadequate To Accommodate Demands

(Continued from Page 1)

still remains unanswered. Inquiries at the Parliament Buildings failed to shed any light on the subject as neither Mr. Wilgras, provincial librarian nor Mr. George Jones, of the Treasury Department, would give any information concerning Premier Henry's relief programme.

"Until the estimates of the programme are released or until the provincial government notifies the Board of Governors, nothing can be known about a library," said the librarian at the Parliament Buildings. Mr. Jones could divulge nothing concerning the question as nothing is known officially about the new building programme.

"There is a very definite need for an enlarged university library," stated Professor G. M. Wrong of the History Department at U.C. when asked by The Varsity about the necessity and advisability of a new university library. "But I cannot offer any view as to whether or not there is much likelihood of one being obtained, since I have not received any definite information on this matter."

Professor C. A. Ashley of the Economics Department believed that no library could fulfil its real purpose unless the students had direct access to the books. "Otherwise I think that an enlargement of the present system whereby the special department libraries have duplicate books of those in the university library, might be made," he concluded.

Speaking only on behalf of the teaching of English, Professor G. Wilson Knight of the English Department at Trinity College, said that an enlargement of the library would be preferable as an aid in the teaching of this subject, if more attention was paid to the work of the writer himself, rather than in the purchasing of numerous books giving interpretations of their works.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

5 p.m. in Hart House Music Room.

THE FORUM

Regular meeting of the Forum on Friday, Jan. 26 in Room 4, U.C. Messrs. Shaffer and Watson will speak and Mr. J. Mirsky will be in the chair.

DEBATE POSTPONED

The women's interfaculty debate between U.C. and St. Mike's, scheduled for this afternoon, has been postponed until Thursday, February 1st, at 4 p.m. at the Women's Union.

VIC WOMEN'S LIT.

The Current Events group will meet today as usual in Wymilwood at 5 p.m.

M. AND P. SOCIETY

The annual M. and P. At-Home will be held on Thursday, January 25th in the Oak Room, Union Station. Dinner at 7.30 p.m. Dancing and cards, 9.1. Tickets obtainable from member of executive.

ANTI-WAR SOCIETY

The Anti-War Society will meet in the Women's Union, 79 St. George St., tonight at 8.30, to discuss action for the term. Members and all who are interested are specially urged to attend.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The January spoon shoot will be held this week.

Dr. Anderson Considers Library Action Doubtful

(Continued from Page 1)

figures before a new library is built. That to me seems a more urgent requirement."

"The Board of Governors are fully cognizant of the urgency of the situation but the government is up against a difficult problem in trying to finance things at present. There is another thing to be considered in providing relief by way of public works. It is a pretty expensive method when one remembers that a large amount of the money goes into materials and comparatively little directly into the hands of the working man. The government has been pretty generous and I know that they would give a willing ear to a representation on behalf of new library accommodation if they had the money."

"Do you believe that such a representation will be made by the Board at the present time?" asked The Varsity.

"I would be very doubtful," replied Dr. Anderson. "As we know, they have had to economize a great deal and prospects of an immediate remedy of the situation as far as aid from the government is concerned, are not very hopeful. I think that the necessity is understood pretty well; as a matter of fact, I understand that the provision of new library accommodation was, had good conditions prevailed, the very next project to be considered." Asked if the Board of Governors would be likely to consider the matter at its meeting this afternoon, Dr. Anderson replied that he could not say as he was not informed of the agenda for the meeting.

Undergraduates Disapprove Of Abolition of Lectures

(Continued from Page 1)

for what it is worth in itself. She would like to work at her own speed and try examinations when she was ready for them."

"Personally, I get a lot out of lectures from the professor's personality and his own interest in the subject," said Jean Roger, III Victoria Pass

4 BANKING OFFICES Especially Convenient for VARSITY Students

On BLOOR ST.:

1. At the corner of St. George St.
2. Just east of Bay Street.

On YONGE ST.:

3. At the corner of Grosvenor St.
4. Just north of Bloor Street.

37 BRANCHES IN TORONTO

MODERN, EFFICIENT BANKING SERVICE . . . the outcome of 116 years' successful operation

BANK OF MONTREAL

Established 1817

TOTAL ASSETS IN EXCESS OF $750,000,000

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body. Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St. K1. 0991

571 Yonge St. K1. 8270

Arts. "Lectures help you to form your own opinion of books and tend to co-ordinate your knowledge."

Dot Redmond, I Meds, agreed with this statement but liked the idea of being given a copy of the professor's notes.

Frances Palmer, I Honour Science, does not think that the majority of students can conduct a study for themselves without guidance. "A person can take in more if the topic is illustrated by lectures than if they just read it," she said.

Medical students especially believe in the value of lectures and disagree with the remark that, "Even in the few instances where the professors are capable of presenting their material in an interesting and intelligible manner they cannot contribute as much to the student's fund of knowledge as may be obtained by diligent and methodic study of an authoritative work on the subject." Topics are covered in their lectures which are not satisfactorily dealt with in any text-book.

J. C. Rathbun, president of I Meds, said that "Lectures should be maintained as it is entirely necessary for someone to explain subjects to you in a simpler manner than books do."

Dr. Kotschnig to Address S.C.M. Week-End Conference

(Continued from Page 1)

was obliged to acquire his secondary school education at Graz by earning money as a tutor, an agricultural labourer, a coal miner, and a night attendant in a lunatic asylum. After studying at the Universities of Graz, Kiel and Amsterdam, he took his Doctorate in Economics, Sociology and International Law at the age of twenty-four. His work during that time for the Student Relief led to his becoming joint editor of Vox Studentium with his wife soon afterwards.

On the resignation of Dr. Hoffman in 1927, Dr. Kotschnig was appointed General Secretary of the I.S.S. and since that time has been travelling extensively among students all over the world. He comes to Toronto on January 27 from New York where he is taking a post-graduate course at Columbia University, and his series of addresses at the S.C.M. conference on "The World Outlook Today", will constitute an authoritative, comprehensive and timely view of contemporaneous events.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16
ROYAL YORK HOTEL

SCHOOL AT-HOME

Dancing 9 p.m. to 3 a.m.
Wright Bros. Orchestra

"THE" PARTY OF THE YEAR
FOR ONLY $4.00

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, JANUARY 26th, 1934

No. 72

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS.

The Varsity is in accord with the sentiment of the statement by Dr. Cody that the Provincial Government has hitherto been good to the University and "we don't want to ask too much of a good giver". And we also appreciate the interview granted The Varsity by Dr. Anderson, a member of the Board of Governors, in which he said that he would like to see the salaries of the professors restored to their former figures before a new library is built. Nevertheless, we feel constrained to take exception to both these statements on the ground that they are quite beside the point.

The Ontario government includes in its regular budget a fund for the maintenance and expansion of the University. It might be granted that this would be unreasonable at this time to ask for an increase in this fund either for new buildings or for a restoration of the professors' salaries. But the money necessary for the erection of a new library would come from a special relief fund devoted to public works. If the money were not expended on new public buildings, it would have to be doled out in direct relief. Obviously the government's new policy is healthier socially and economically.

The question before the government is this: "What buildings shall it erect? Where is the need most acute?" The Varsity believes that the Board of Governors should exercise its influence to help the government settle that question. It should hardly be necessary to enlarge upon the dire need for a new library on the campus, for everyone connected with the University is aware of it. Students, librarians, faculty, and even members of the Board of Governors, have testified to the fact that present facilities are woefully inadequate and actually impeding the progress of the University of Toronto. A University which has been rated so highly by educationalists outside Canada can ill-afford to suffer its standards to be lowered at this juncture.

The Varsity has every reason to believe that the Board of Governors, as now constituted, has considerable influence with the Ontario government. It would be lamentable if a new library were not built in the near future; it would be shameful if every possible effort were not expended in order to secure it!

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Ottawa—Legislation to establish a central bank, to revise the bank charter and to reduce the gold coverage of the dollar was indicated today in the Speech from the Throne with which the Governor General, Lord Bessborough, opened Parliament.

Geneva—A plebiscite to permit Austrians to determine the form of government they prefer is advocated in German circles as a solution of the Austrian problem.

Calcutta, India—Total fatalities of 6,000 and property damage in the millions will be the final toll of an earthquake felt throughout India ten days ago, it was believed, by authorities this morning.

Munich—A campaign to restore the popularity of duelling among students was inaugurated here today by Federal Student-Director Oskar Satebel.

Judicial investigation into all property purchases by or for the T.T.C. since 1929, will be formally proposed to the Board of Control by Controller Sam McBride, he said last night.

Hazard, Ky.—Four men were held and more arrests were predicted by Perry County officials as they pressed their investigation of the lynching of a negro slayer of a coal miner two nights ago.

Paris, France—The French Cabinet appeared to be tottering this morning despite the recent votes of confidence in Premier Chautemps in connection with the national scandal resulting from the collapse of the Bayonne municipal pawnshop.

Montreal—The Toronto Maple Leafs were blanked 6-0 by the Montreal Maroons here last night.

NO SUPPORT GIVEN POLITICAL CLUBS

John Lay Deplores Students' Lack of Interest in Politics

PROMINENT MEN SPEAK

"The attendance at political club meetings in the University is positively disgraceful," was the statement made by John L. Lay, prominent member of the Liberal Club at the University. "At the last meeting of the C.C.F. Club there were only thirteen women and eleven men present, of whom two were members of the Liberal Club and a third was a Varsity reporter."

Following up this statement, Mr. Lay remarked that "The University is the place where the men of tomorrow should meet and discuss the problems which they will have to face when they have control of the country."

At the meetings of the various political clubs, prominent men who have studied their subjects give addresses which are instructive and well worth hearing. As an example of this, Mr. Lay cited the instance of the last Liberal Club meeting, when Lewis Duncan talked about "The Nash Combine". This is a gigantic organization which controls the distribution of the B.C. fruit throughout Western Canada and part of the United States, stifling the smaller companies. Mr. Duncan was appointed to a commission to investigate the operations of this concern. Operating under different names in all the cities of Western Canada, the extent to which this organization concerns the distribution of fruit is almost impossible to realize.

Mr. Duncan pointed out that although his coming was known, the concern continued to operate and he uncovered enough evidence to convict any ordinary company. Despite this (Continued on Page 4)

FRANK SHIPP

Clever net guardian for the Blue team and rated among the best in the O.H.A. who will be seen in action when Varsity face Kitchener here on Saturday night.

BLUE PUCKSTERS MEET KITCHENER

Will Attempt to Gain Third Straight Win in Three Starts

TEAMS EVENLY MATCHED

Having scored impressive victories in their last two starts the Varsity senior sextet will endeavour to lengthen their winning streak at the expense of Irving Erb's Kitchener Waterloo squad when they meet here tomorrow night at Varsity Arena in a scheduled senior O.H.A. fixture. In the current senior O.H.A. season Varsity has garnered nine points, one point more than their opponents, and for the first time are out of the last position, and they are out to leave the Empire team firmly ensconced in their place.

The Kitchener Waterloo squad will be hard pressed to stave off the onslaughts of the Varsity forwards, who are now travelling at the peak of their form and Berner no doubt will have (Continued on Page 4)

ANTI-WAR SOCIETY PLANS PROGRAMME

Sending of Delegate to London Anti-War Conference Possible

TO ISSUE A PAPER

A definite programme of action for the coming term was laid down at the meeting of the Anti-War Society last night including plans for the issuing of a paper next month, the holding of a National Student Anti-War Convention in March or April, and the sending of a delegate to the World Student Anti-War Conference in London next summer.

"We are already in touch with leaders of the Anti-War Movement at the Universities of Manitoba and British Columbia and at McMaster," said M. Wayman, II U.C. "Organization of the Movement is well under way in several universities, and we hope that it will be possible to hold a convention for Eastern Canada at least, with the possibility that some of the Western universities may also be able to send delegates."

The possibility of sending a delegate to the first World Student Anti-War Conference, to be held in London next summer, was also discussed, and though the matter of expense was recognized as a difficulty, it was hoped that some arrangement might be made. (Continued on Page 4)

WOULD URGE GOVERNMENT TO BUILD NEW LIBRARY AS PART OF PUBLIC WORKS RELIEF PROGRAMME SAY VICTORIA, ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE LIBRARIANS

Rev. Fr. Scollard Deplores Lack of Room in Library

NEW BUILDING NEEDED

Lack of Space for Storage of Books an Acute Problem

That the new library project is definitely in line with the government's building project, was the opinion of Rev. Fr. Scollard, B.A., librarian of St. Michael's College. "The University library at present has an efficient staff and an excellent collection of books, but better results would be obtained were it not for the lack of room," he told The Varsity.

He deplored the lack of space for reading, but deemed the inadequacy of room for storage of books an especially acute problem.

Fr. Scollard held it to be a well-known fact that if the library were to continue to function to the best advantage, a new building was necessary. He said that in the past it had been a government policy to carry out a building programme each year, and that the new library project was now in line.

Such a step on the part of the government would serve the purpose of unemployment relief, and at the same time mark the beginning of a progressive and constructive public works programme.

Continuing, he said that at some universities the students were expected to get practically all of their knowledge from the libraries, and while he regarded this as an extreme, he wished to emphasize the importance of the library as an instrument of education.

EXAMS NECESSARY STUDENTS DECIDE

"A Change of System is Needed Rather Than Abolition"

SYSTEM NOW INADEQUATE

The majority of people who were interviewed with regard to yesterday's editorial, "Abolish the Examinations", felt that contrary to the said editorial some system of examination was necessary. They felt, however, that there is little room at the University for the development of individual initiative.

Mr. R. B. McCulloch, III Pol. Sc. and Econ., Victoria College, said: "The present examination system is inadequate, but some method of examination is absolutely necessary. A change of system is needed rather than abolition."

Several people felt that the exams were an effective sword to hold over the heads of idle and unambitious students: "Most students would never do any work if they did not have examinations. They often miss their lectures and when they go it is only to sleep peacefully for an hour. But examinations are not a fair criterion of a person's scholastic ability. On the whole our education is very superficial. The student has little or no opportunity to follow his own inclinations as far as work is concerned," remarked Miss F. Gordon, III Arts, U.C.

"A method of examinations is needed, but the editorial states that people of superior intelligence are often grouped with those of lower and are thus out of their class. This should be remedied for the benefit of the clever student," replied Mr. J. K. (Continued on Page 4)

Board of Governors "Keeping in Touch"

The matter of the construction of a new library at the University of Toronto did not come up for discussion at the meeting of the Board of Governors held yesterday.

Dr. Cody told The Varsity last night that "the Board was keeping in touch with the situation".

ARCHITECTS DENY ANY LIBRARY PLANS

Mathers and Haldenby Are not Preparing Sketches for Building

GREAT NEED FOR LIBRARY

Following up a rumour that has been current on the campus in recent days The Varsity yesterday approached the firm of Mathers and Haldenby, registered architects, and asked if there is any substance to the story going around that they are preparing sketches of a new library building to submit to the Board of Governors.

"There is absolutely nothing to the story," stated Mr. Haldenby. "The last piece of work that we did for the University was the Dunlop Observatory and there hasn't been anything of any consequence since then. I quite agree with The Varsity, however, that there is a great need for further library facilities in the University. I understand that Doctor Cody has said something to this effect in his annual report."

MUSEUM LECTURES PROVE INTERESTING

Hundreds of Public Are Being Turned Away Each Week

"The Tuesday afternoon lectures in the Museum Theatre are proving of great interest to the public and each week hundreds are being turned away," Miss Rayner, secretary, told The Varsity in an interview yesterday. In general, the attendance has been on the increase recently. A figure, typical of Sunday afternoon attendance, is the one of January 14th, when 2779 were recorded as entering. The record Sunday afternoon attendance is 6600. (Continued on Page 2)

OLDEST SOCIETY TO HOLD BALL

Brilliant Lighting Effects to Feature Annual Affair

EIGHTIETH ANNIVERSARY

"The Arts Ball will be one of the most brilliant affairs of the year with its unique lighting effects and red and white colour scheme," Mr. F. W. Woods, Social Director, told The Varsity. "We are celebrating the eightieth anniversary of the founding of the University College Literary Society, the oldest society on the campus."

The patrons and patronesses will be: President and Mrs. H. J. Cody, Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Cochrane and Miss M. B. Ferguson.

Some representatives from various (Continued on Page 4)

Dr. Barber, Victoria Librarian, Declares Library at Present Is Inadequate

RELATIVELY SMALL NOW

Library Has Lagged Behind Other Departments of the University

"I will stand behind whatever Mr. Wallace may do in his efforts to have the government give consideration to the project of new library accommodation," stated Dr. F. L. Barber, Librarian of Victoria University, in an interview with The Varsity yesterday afternoon.

"In view of the government's proposal to provide relief through public works and the present situation as regards the University Library, do you believe that the time is ripe to approach the government on the matter of the library building?" asked The Varsity.

"I certainly do," replied Dr. Barber. "My view is, and I am not alone in this, that the library in any college is one of its most important departments and that the University of Toronto, as one of the chief centres of higher education, ought to have one of the very finest of libraries, to which all the colleges might look for their reading."

"I understand that there are only approximately 300,000 volumes in the library, which makes it a relatively small one for the size of the institution which it serves. Universities like the University of Edinburgh have a much smaller student body but a considerably larger number of volumes than (Continued on Page 4)

S.C.M. Corner

A great number of students who do not belong to the S.C.M. view this organization either as a group of idealists and sectarians, or as a group of students who spend their time in study groups but do not live very differently for it. Both views contain some truth, no doubt, yet it is quite as true that most students—members or in sympathy with the S.C.M.—are striving to find how their religion is to be applied in their daily life. The problem whether it is possible to live a real Christian life in the midst of our Western civilization, which is distinctly materialistic, is not an easy one to solve. Else, is the message of Christ a fixed programme which every one can easily follow, or is it rather a direction, a new standard of values, according to which every age, as well as every individual has to adapt his life? It is precisely because the S.C.M. realizes the tremendous importance of such questions that it is organizing for this coming week-end, an International Conference, with Dr. Kotschig, of Geneva, as principal leader. During this week-end, some one hundred and fifty students will discuss, in three different groups, the following problems: Nationalism, Races and Unemployment. Each group will study first what these problems, or movements, represent, what are their positive as well as their negative values; then it will appraise them from the Christian point of view in order to find out how, as Christian students, they should face them, on the University campus, as well as in their life at home, or outside.

These three groups are not to engage in academic discussions, though a great deal of real work is to be done; after all these three problems affect our own lives and future much more than we realize, and there is no doubt that the general attitude towards them taken so far has contributed largely to make (Continued on Page 4)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms .....	Randolph 3730
Business Office .....	Midway 6221
Women's Office .....	Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745
Editor-in-Chief .....	A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor .....	PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors .....	ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
	M. SHULMAN, '34
Managing Editor .....	C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor .....	B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor .....	FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor .....	J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor .....	N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama .....	M. B. LOER, '36
Art .....	C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. G. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Milton Shulman

FRIDAY, JANUARY 26th, 1934

EDUCATIONAL METHODS OF THE FUTURE

The Varsity, in offering the following suggestions for reform in our educational methods, does not claim for them perfection, completeness or originality. At best they are only tentative, and derive their value, not from their inherent worth but as representing the trend which educational methods in the future will take.

The absurdity of lectures and examinations is, we believe, sufficiently clear to all people who have considered the problem. But we cannot abolish them in toto without providing an adequate substitute. A certain element of discipline, not of conduct but of effort, must be maintained. The students must be given not only sufficient time for individual investigation but also careful assistance and guidance by capable instructors.

At present most students, because of the demands of their time-tables, are unable to do any worth-while reading until after evening dinner. By abolishing the irregular lecture-system they will be able to concentrate during the day when their mental faculties are most acute and the desire for recreation not so imperative. A definite reading list will be suggested to them, and an outline of the year's work, provided by a professor, in the form of notes, will guide them according to his own viewpoint in the effort to discover the salient facts. The students will be required to prepare synopses of the books read, with essays on particular subjects, to be handed in at stated intervals to the professors in the various departments for criticism and constructive suggestions. Each morning the students will assemble in small groups under the direction of a professor to discuss problems arising from their reading in the particular subject engaging their attention at the time. Discussion will be permitted by all members of the group and each one will be expected to contribute pertinent views when called upon. At the end of the year theses will be prepared and submitted, and the standing of the student based on the work done during the term and the ability displayed in this final thesis.

These seminars may be held in the morning, leaving the rest of the day free for the student to investigate the various authorities on the subject and prepare his synopses. By this means a more comprehensive knowledge of the subject will be obtained. As his work will necessarily involve discrimination between the conflicting schools of thought, the student will be trained to think critically, if not creatively.

Students who show no ability or ambition will be warned to attend to their duties or advised to leave. No opportunity will be given for "loafing" during the early part of the year. Concentrated effort just prior to final examinations, which is possible at present with disastrous results to the students in later life, will thus be impossible. Work must be maintained at a high level during the entire session. Thus would the calibre of graduates be raised and the student who at present may best be described as a mental sponge would be freed from the tyranny of the lecture-examination educational system.

MUSEUM LECTURES

PROVE INTERESTING

(Continued from Page 1)
The series of Free Public Lectures scheduled to be delivered each Tuesday from 5-6 p.m. in the Lecture Theatre, is as follows:

Jan. 30—The Origin and Evolution of the Earth. (Illustrated). Professor E. S. Moore.

Feb. 6—The Development of Limestone caverns (a trip through the famous Luray caverns in Virginia—motion picture). Professor E. S. Moore.

Feb. 13—The Function of the Royal Ontario Museum of Mineralogy. (Illustrated). Professor T. L. Walker.

Feb. 20—The Semi-Precious and Ornamental Stones of Canada. (Illustrated). Professor A. L. Parsons.

Feb. 27—The Development of Life on the Earth. (Illustrated). Professor W. A. Parks.

March 6—Dinosaurs. (Illustrated). Professor W. A. Parks.

March 20—Life in the Water. (Illustrated). Professor J. R. Dymond.
There has been no notable exhibit acquired lately in this department, Professor Curdell's secretary stated. Small gifts continue to come in and the work of displaying materials on hand goes on steadily, however.

The group visits of students that have been run recently take the form of regular classes conducted by Miss R. Home. The present series of lectures is on "Interior Decorating" and the next lecture is on Friday.

Attention was called to the fact that Professor Curdell speaks every Sunday evening at 6 p.m. over the stations of the Canadian Radio Commission. His subject is based upon some item of interest in the Museum.

Art, Music and Drama

Friday Afternoon Recital

An English programme has been arranged for today's recital which will take place at 5 p.m. on 26th January in the Music Room of Hart House as follows:

I
Ay me she frowns ..... Pilkington
Can she disdain ..... Pilkington
Tobacco ..... Tobias Hume
The owl is abroad ..... Purcell Evening Hymn ..... Purcell

II
Phantasy ..... Benjamin Dale
(for viola and piano)

III
Love Pagan ..... Martin Shaw
O Mistress Mine ..... Kathleen Irwin
Tom Filuter and his man, by Ned the dog-stealer, Lord Berners Have you seen but a white lily grow ..... Delius
Irnelin ..... Delius

IV
Pavana ..... William Byrd
The King's Hunting Jig ..... John Bull
Charterhouse Suite—Vaughan Williams
Toccata ..... Gustav Holst

V
Come away, Death ..... Benjamin Dale
(for voice, viola and piano)
Frederic Manning, baritone
Ettore Mazzoleni, pianist
Thomas Brennan, viola

Victoria Dramatic Society

Yesterday afternoon there was presented in Hart House Theatre before an enthusiastic audience an original one-act play by one of the Victoria Dramatic Society members, Mr. Feasby called his play Boss of the Section; unfortunately due to rather muddled stage-direction, the point of the title line of the play was rather lost.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

GOES TO LECTURES?

The Editor,
The Varsity,
Dear Sir:

It may be a little trite to say that there are lectures and lectures, but there are. Even conceding the point that we are over-lectured, it seems a pity to condemn the system because it is abused. Unless professors are to function only in the capacity of tutors, which at the present time is economically impossible, the lecture system seems to be the only method by which their knowledge can be made available to the student. The point is whether that knowledge is worth making available. In those cases where a professor is doing really original work, of a nature calculated to interest his students, the lectures can obviously be of great value. Where it is simply a matter of handing out re-hashed texts they are a sheer waste of time.

One really important point in connection with taking notes has not been mentioned. No good student attempts to retain the whole material of a lecture. He selects those points which interest him personally and which link up with other work he is doing. A student of history and a student of psychology take very different notes from a lecture in economics, because the influence of their other studies places a very different emphasis on the material. The selective process involved in taking notes is the valuable part of the lecture to many students, because it is the main factor in improving (Continued on Page 4)

St. Paul's Church

Bloor Street East

THE RT. REV. R. J. RENISON,
Rector

University students are specially invited to the Sunday Evening Services at 7 o'clock.

The play itself from even an amateur standpoint was of little merit. The exposition was artificial, the plot barren and the characters, while consistently drawn, were little more than types. The fault of the whole play seemed not in the situation, which was not dramatic in the least, but rather that the play itself was too short. With fifteen more minutes and fewer characters to dispose of at the end, the play would be immeasurably improved. As it is, all that we gather of any moment in the play is that a rural school board is dissatisfied with its teacher. She turns up at the board meeting, justifies herself, and instead of dismissing her they increase her salary. There is nothing else.

The production itself was on the whole, extremely good, the lines and comic business being very capably handled. The characters were, of course, suitable to amateurs, being of the Tomkins Corners, billy-goat beard variety which required little more than a few properties, a cracked voice and the usual rural business. On the whole they were admirably done. The more normal characters could have been a little crisper in their lines and more definite in their movements and should certainly go to church in the country to see how farmers look in their Sunday best. And what place has that brilliant blue sky on a dark May night?
T.R.G.

St. Thomas' Church

An adaptation of Handel's "Largo" for Chorus will be heard during this weekly feature, presented by CFRB at 5:45 p.m. on Sundays. Master Paul Foskett will offer "Tarry with me, O my Saviour" (Parker). Sir John Goss' "O Saviour of the world" and Far-
(Continued on Page 4)

There will be no Cat today, owing to the mysterious disappearance at a late hour last night, of the Feature Editor.

It is feared that he has met with foul play at the hands of the S.-B. F. S. U. S. O. P. K. R. F. E. W. P. P. M. L. L. I. A. U. S. S. R. (Sub-Branch of the Friends of the Soviet Union Substituting Only for the Purpose of Kidnapping Russophobic Feature Editors Who Publish and Promulgate Malicious Libels and Lying Imnuendos Against the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics.)

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject Sunday:
"TRUTH"
First Church of Christ, Scientist
St. George St. at Lowther Ave.
Close to residences and fraternal houses
Sunday Services 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.
The morning service is broadcast over CFRB. A Sunday School for students under twenty is held at 11 a.m.
On Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the main auditorium is held a meeting at which Testimonies of Christian Science Healing are given.
Downtown on the 15th floor of the Metropolitan Bldg., Adelaide at Victoria, a Free Public Reading Room is open from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. all except Sunday, for rest, quiet meditation and study, where the Bible, and authorized Christian Science literature including the text book, Science and Health with key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, may be read, borrowed or purchased.
Each and every student is cordially invited to attend the services, and to enjoy the privilege of the reading room.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

Huron Street—Just below Bloor
Holy Eucharists at 7 a.m., 8 a.m. and 9:30 a.m.

11 a.m.—Choral Eucharist
Service in a minor Loveleek
Precher, The Rev. E. R. Normabell, L.S.T.
Metel, "O Sacred Feast" - Willan

7 p.m.—Choral Evensong
Preacher, Capt. Allsopp, Church Army.
Anthem, "Breathe on me, breath of God" - Noble

Broadcast of Choral Music over CFRB, 5:45 p.m.

Says a Druggist . .

"If a man's best friend is his mother, his next best friend is his pipe, providing it is charged with his favorite tobacco. My choice is Wakefield. Its protective packing of tin foil—and now cellophane—ensures freshness. The coarseness of the 'cut' causes it to pack well and eliminates sandiness and grit, two elements which cause a pipe to clog."

L. S.—Montreal.

Wakefield

ENGLISH MIXTURE

Packages 15c and 25c

Large Home Tin $1.00

THEOSOPHICAL HALL

52 Isabella Street

Special Lectures by

MR. RUPERT G. LESCH (of Buffalo)

Sunday Evening at 7:15 p.m.

Weekday Evenings at 8:00 p.m.

Sunday, Jan. 28th—REINCARNATION and KARMA.

Monday, Jan. 29th—HEALTH and HEALING.

Tuesday, Jan. 30th—THE MYSTICAL SIGNIFICANCE OF WAGNER'S MUSIC DRAMAS.

Wednesday, Jan. 31st—THE SCOPE OF CONSCIOUSNESS.

Thursday, Feb. 1st—MEDITATION.

Friday, Feb. 2nd—THE FOURTH DIMENSION.

MR. REGINALD STEWART will play on Sunday evening, January 28th.

Questions Answered.

Free Lending Library.

STUDENTS WANTED

Subscription solicitors for high class national periodical. A liberal commission. Apply
Canadian Social Hygiene Council 105 Bond St.

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps
6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1865

JUST STARTED

The BON-TON CAFE

"Just a Real Charming Place"
Private Dining Room for Banquets a Specialty.
Special Full Course Dinner and Supper 25 cents.
Courteous Staff Open 7 a.m. to 2 a.m.
666 Yonge St. Phone MI. 0145

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Stairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

$1.00 WILL REPAIR YOUR WATCH
NO MATTER HOW BADLY BROKEN
Cleaning, if necessary, 75c extra
GUARANTEED 2 YEARS
FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY!
CITY WATCH & JEWELRY
HOSPITAL Est. 1921
163-7 Yonge St.—Room 12
OPP. SIMPSON'S TAKE ELEVATOR
MAIL ORDERS—POSTAGE EXTRA

Nothing But
A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit
for the coming dance.
They are up to the minute.
Also complete outfits and evening wraps.
Two stores to serve you.
Special rates for students.
FREEMAN'S
256 College St. 571 Yonge St.
KI. 0991 KI. 3270

FELT CRESTS
Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.
50c.
To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

VARSITY HOSTS TO WESTERN CAGE TEAMS SAT. NIGHT

SENIOR AND INTERMEDIATE SQUADS TO CLASH WITH WESTERN HERE

Blue Seniors Will Be Out to Take First Intercollegiate Fixture

INTERMEDIATES STRONG

If Seniors Show Class They Are Capable of, They Will Likely Win

By John T. Stubbs

The intercollegiate senior and intermediate basketball series will open Saturday night when two teams from the University of Western Ontario are billed to engage two teams from the University of Toronto in the Big Gym at Hart House in Varsity's home games. At the same time McGill plays Queen's seniors in Kingston.

Coaches Hayman and McCutcheon of the Blue squads are taking these first two games seriously as the local student aggregations have not shown their best form consistently as yet for more than a game at a time. In the last two starts the senior outfit has won but in defeating St. Catharines they did not show the smooth class of ball of which they are capable and which they displayed in Niagara Falls last Saturday night. The intermediates have had a fairly good record but their play has not been beyond criticism either. In starts they show real speed and accuracy in both ball handling and shooting but then again on occasions they have been wont to drop into a slump for five or ten minutes at a time and have either lost the game or come close to doing so. With a real fighting spirit and the determination to get out there and win without a let-up of five minutes or so, they can come through with the goods.

The senior team is a potent crowd on a cage court when they show their wares in the way they have on occasion. When they get down to business it will be just too bad for any team in either the intercollegiate or the Big Six. Starting off the intercollegiate series at home this year without the handicaps of the start of the schedule last year, the Western team should be taken for a slide. If the locals can hold the visiting quintet with a defensive that is air tight and make the lanky Mustangs shoot from outside for a minimum of twenty points, then you can count on a Varsity win with about thirty points. But the visitors have height and condition that has to be coped with by the Blues. The purple-clad streaks can floor a team that averages six feet one and a half inches in height.

Moe Mitchell, who was out of the game Wednesday night, will be in uniform providing his leg injury continues to improve. Willis probably will start at centre with Bodrug and Gordon on the forward line. Mitchell, Sniderman and Gold will be found on the back court for most of the game. Young and Levy will alternate on the front string as will Prince. Caplan will alternate at centre.

KNOX LOSE TO U.C. IN BASEBALL GAME

U.C. Ekes Out Very Close 5-3 Victory in Big Gym

The Senior U.C. nine made it two straight when they eked out a close 5-3 win over Knox yesterday afternoon in the big gym, Hart House, in a scheduled intercollegiate baseball fixture. The Presbyterians had a tough break when, with men on second and third and two out in the fourth, Stewart hit a line drive which bounded off the wall into Weir, who was headed for home plate and automatically put Knox back in the field.

Weakness at bat spelled defeat for the purples, while the redmen connected with Robbins' best for four

Purple and White Cagers Will Field Strong Team

NEW TYPE OF TEAM

Made Good Showing On Their Pre-Season Tour of States

By J. S. W. Aldis

London, Ont., Jan. 25th. — The Purple and White cagers will have just completed two hard weeks of exams when they meet Toronto Varsity on Saturday. Despite this siege the senior and intermediate Mustangs this year will be the strongest Western teams Varsity has yet encountered. Coach Lou Davis will field an entirely new type of team to Blue and White fans can be sure of a surprise. The intermediates under Alex Munro also have a few tricks up their sleeve.

The seniors made a remarkably good showing on their annual pre-season tour through Michigan and Ohio and they have learned a lot since then. Formerly Western has been represented by experienced individual-type players. While the men this year are not so brilliant individually they work together to form a smooth-working unit. They have a tight defence which will clip the wings of such men as Bodrug, former Western coach.

Captain Cherniak and Ron Hogan, two stalwarts from last year, will look after the back court, together with Bill Rider, a newcomer from last year's Dominion champion Y Aces. Centres will be Whitwell and Gattas, the latter also playing his first year in senior ball. Garrett and Fletcher, two more of this year's recruits, will probably be the starting forwards. Both are very fast, scrappy players, the former being a tricky sharp-shooter. Wilson and Zavitz, the other forwards, form an experienced, tricky combination.

The Meds, unable to play senior ball this year, have strengthened the intermediate squad. This team will likely be chosen from Clarke, Lepine and Rider, Meds from last year's seniors, while the Arts selections will probably be J. McArthur, A. McArthur, McKenzie, Coates and Shore, all exceptional ball players. At any rate the Mustangs intend to hoop them.

VIC DEFEAT U.C. AT BASKETBALL

U.C. Lead at Half-Time but Fail to Hold Lead in Second Period

SCORE IS 26-16

In an interfaculty basketball tilt played yesterday on the upper gym floor, Jr. Vic took a 26-16 decision from Jr. U.C. The game was much closer than indicated by the score, U.C. holding a 14-12 lead at the half-way mark, which Vic soon overcame in the second stanza and then went on to win in a canter with Higgins and Faux hauling down most of their points, while they held U.C. to a single basket.

The first half was a see-saw struggle, neither team being able to run up a sizable lead. Both teams were wearing sweaters of the same colour and runs in the second inning.

Senior U.C. — Himel, Luckett, Haas, Warner, Keife, Gray, Haig, Robbins, Shulman.
Knox — MacDonald, Campbell, McEachern, Weir, Smith, Stewart, Hebdon, Fumeston, Sinclair.
Umpires—Wong, Craig.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

The University of Western Ontario is sending what they deem to be a winning cage team to Toronto for the intercollegiate senior basketball opener with Varsity tomorrow night. Can Varsity take the lanky Mustangs? Will the Blues click is the important question. Hayman's battlers were successful in backing the St. Kitt's Grads into the corner Wednesday night and the visitors had lots of height too. With every man in there working with a vengeance the Varsity defensive style of play should hold out any team in Big Six or intercollegiate competition. Blue teams have been known to hold an opposing outfit to a standstill outside their own basket for ten minutes at a time. The same tactics will have to be employed to beat Western. With Willis in the pivot position to feed the shooters on the front line and Sniderman and Gold to score from outside and on the cuts the locals should be able to outscore the Londoners on their own floor without trouble. The seconds in the intermediate game should have very little trouble making a good job of their contest as the Mustang seconds are not rated very highly. McGill will win in Kingston against Queen's without much trouble as the Redmen have an almost intact team of four years' standing and the Tricolour have lost Wilf Newman by graduation. His loss removes about a third of the potency of the Queen's quintet unless they have some new aces to fill his shoes—a thing that is hard to do.

A crowd of 320 watched the triple-header Wednesday night and another good house is expected for the college opener tomorrow night. The juniors play Broadview at 6.30 o'clock, the intermediate game is billed for 7.45 and the senior tilt for 9.30. The complete bill is a good evening's entertainment and promises to produce some first class basketball. The admission charge will be 25 cents. Those who watched Wednesday night's contests will agree that the nominal charge for tomorrow night is evidence of good value received. Drop around boys and girls and give the lads a voice or two but save some of it for the last fixture. It's going to be a thriller.

At the same time the hockey fans will be treated to another win by Warren Stevens' twine bulgers. The lads have hit their stride and it will take a better team than the present cellar-men to stop them unless we miss our guess. Yes, we know that has been missed a couple of times this year but upsets are liable to occur any time where the competition is at all close. The game with Kitchener should be another red hot tussle from start to finish so get out and give the Varsity team the support they deserve on their performances. They're worthy of it.

The group which includes Jr. U.C., Jr. Meds, and Jr. Vic in the interfaculty basketball series are providing a lot of interest for the student cage fans who line the track of the upper gym around four-fifteen every afternoon. The medics won the Sifton Cup last year after a series that was tough sledding all the way. In their game with Vic they were only able to pull out a win in the last few seconds. Yesterday afternoon Vic took the measure of the fast Jr. U.C. quintet in an exciting game. On the face of things and the games played to date it looks like one of these three teams or Sr. S.P.S. to take that trophy this year. The Schoolmen have a powerful squad which is an almost complete replica of the one that went into the playoffs last year. They are making a strong bid for the silverware this time and they will bear watching.

ATHLETES TUMBLE NEATLY AT MEET

Snappy Boxing and Nice Fencing Provide Thrills for Show Extraordinary

FARRAR IS CHAMPION

The Faculty of Medicine proved to possess the best gymnasts on the campus at Hart House last night when their representatives scored 740 points to defeat S.P.S., holders of the championship for five years. The victory was due in large part to the work of MacDonald and Robertson on the this led to a lot of confusion in the passing. Higgins for Vic and MacFarlane for U.C. were the high scorers in this half with 8 and 7 points respectively.

In the second canto, Vic came back without any sweaters at all and this must have disorganized the U.C. team as they couldn't get going. A last minute basket by Nellie representing their scoring efforts. Vic showed a much improved scoring attack in this half, and Higgins and Faux broke through to score six points apiece, the final score being 26-16.

McFarlane, David, Humenick and Kreiger turned in good efforts for U.C. while Higgins and Faux scored most of Vic's points.

Jr. Vic — Higgins 14, Cockfield 2, Faux 6, Elzey, Dutton, Morrison, Saunders 2, Wolfe 2.

Jr. U.C. — MacFarlane 7, Damsky, David 3, Humenick, Kreiger 4, Lipman, Hicks, Mirsky, Shiner, Neill 2. Referee—Willis.

parallel bars, who flung themselves in, through, over and under the bars with fine abandon. For all-round work, however, the judges awarded the individual championship to Farrar of Forestry. His tumbling was the neatest displayed during the evening. Second place was awarded to Kirk of Trinity, who gave a well polished performance.

The meet as a whole was one of the most successful in years, largely due to the efforts of Dr. Barton, who assembled the fine programme, which was run off without a hitch. Mr. Zwybar and Mr. Keith, coaches of the gymnastic squad, gave an exhibition of plain and fancy acrobatics which was highly appreciated. Mr. Martin, as well as bringing together a fast wrestling show, put a group of S.P.S. students through a half hour of Danish gymnastic exercises, which showed the remarkable constitution of the Danish race. Coupled with these athletic displays, a boxing show, and a fencing exhibition filled out an extraordinary programme. McCarty and Smith boxed three rounds at a tremendous clip, while at the same time Watt and Dimitroff tangled each other into a frenzy on a neighbouring mat.

The team to represent the University in the intercollegiate gymnastic meet will be chosen from the first eight men to place in the meet last night. These men are: 1. Farrar (For); 2. Kirk (Tr.); 3. McDonald (Meds); 4. Beard (S.P.S.); 5. Barber (S.); 6. Robertson (Meds); 7. Lewis (S.P.S.); 8. Langstaff (Meds).

WAR DEBT CANCELLATION

Major D. K. Knott of Edmonton recently expressed himself in favour of the cancellation of all war debts as the only solution of the present economic crisis.

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

BRITISH CONSOLS

COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

British Consols

SEALED IN MOISTUREPROOF CELLOPHANE

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

The interfaculty hockey teams have been practicing hard all week. Victoria seems to be ahead of the other colleges as they have managed to get in three practices, but of course having a rink in one's own backyard is a decided advantage. The thaw that has been threatening every morning has fortunately changed its mind about three o'clock in the afternoon and ice has been available for the hockey players at night.

The U.C. practices have been well attended, with as many as fourteen players putting in an appearance. They are counting on the practice today to accomplish much as it is the last one before their first game.

St. Mike's are planning to pick their team today. St. Hilda's have slightly more time as their first game isn't until Feb. 2.

Due to the absence of snow this may not be the correct time to mention skiing, but vague rumours have reached us this week that there are a number of women at the University who would be interested in the formation of a Skiing Club. With suitable weather conditions there is no reason why enough enthusiasm could not be worked up to get such a club started.

Two years ago there was a Women's Skiing Club. Some of the reasons for its lapse are herewith given for what they are worth. Lack of snow was the first discouraging factor, and then the long trip to the city limits was found to be too tedious. The other reason given isn't commendable but it certainly falls in line with a recent editorial. Some thought that a mixed club would be preferred and lost interest when such an idea was scorned by the men.

We hope that we haven't been unduly discouraging by mentioning the difficulties. Under capable leadership it ought to work out successfully, if, of course, some snow would fall. Those interested might work on the idea anyway.

Sport Notices

Jr. School Water Polo—

5 p.m. sharp. Jr. S.P.S. vs Jr. Meds. Following men: Thompson, Pitts, Boyle, Clarke, Eggert, Morgan, Hollands, Hoag, Kearney.

Swimming—

The first events of the Durnan trophy will be held tomorrow, Saturday, at 12 o'clock. The first two events, 50 yd. and 100 yd. free style.

P.T. for Rowing—

All men wanting P.T. for rowing must sign the special list in the Ath-

STUTTERING

Stammer no more. Lower, clearer, more confident speech. My free, Script pamphlet and "Ten Commandments of Speech" will help you. Write W. Benson, 11 St. Clair St., Toronto

TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS are DUE NOW

Please hand these into the S.A.C. Office, Hart House letic office before Friday, February 1st. Any man who hasn't signed the list by then will not be given P.T. under any conditions.

Interfaculty Water Polo—

Standing of teams to date:

GROUP A
	Won	Lost	Drawn
Trinity	1	0	1
Victoria	0	0	2
Junior U.C.	0	1	1

GROUP B
	Won	Lost	Drawn
Senior S.P.S.	2	0	0
Senior Meds	0	1	1
Senior U.C.	0	1	1

GROUP C
	Won	Lost	Drawn
Junior Meds	1	0	1
Dents	1	0	1
Junior S.P.S.	0	1	1

GAMES TODAY—FRIDAY

4.30—Victoria vs Junior U.C.
5.00—Junior S.P.S. vs Junior Meds
5.30—Senior S.P.S. vs Senior Meds
Games must start on time.

Interfaculty Hockey Schedule—

Week Jan. 29-Feb. 2
Mon. 29 (outside ice at the stadium).
4 p.m.—Dents at Sr. U.C.
5 p.m.—Sr. School at Sr. Meds
Tues. 30 (in Varsity Arena).
4 p.m.—Jr. U.C. at Jr. School.
5 p.m.—Vic at Jr. Meds
Tues. 30 (outside ice at the stadium)
4 p.m.—Trinity at Emmanuel.
5 p.m.—Knox at Wyldcliffe.
Thurs. 1 (outside at the stadium).
5 p.m.—Forestry at Pharmacy.
Fri. 2 (in Varsity Arena).
4 p.m.—Emmanuel at Wyldcliffe.
5 p.m.—Dents at Sr. School.

These games start at 4.05 sharp. If 5 men cannot be placed on the ice at this time a five minute penalty will be imposed on one player when the sixth does arrive—this until 4.10 when the lack of a full team will necessitate a default.

Get Your ARTS BALL Ticket To-day 1-2 p.m.

Clever Creations in Crepe de Chine

Quality lingerie of all silk Crepe de Chine. Beautifully enhanced with rich lace and priced so reasonably, too.

Dance Set

Uplift brasserie and smart party, in Pink, Peach, White and Nile $1.49

Costume Slip

With adjustable straps, in Tealose and White $1.98

Teddies

Novel lace design. In Tealose, White and Nile $1.49

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)

Phone KI. 3600

4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

FRIDAY, JANUARY 26
8.30 p.m.—Victoria College Music Club presents Merric England in Hart House Theatre.
1.40-2 p.m.—Prayer, Room 38, U.C.
The Arts Ball, Great Hall at Hart House. Stan St. John's orchestra.
Medical At-Home, Royal York Hotel.
Supper dance with Wright brothers' orchestra in attendance.

JANUARY 27-28
International conference, auspices of the S.C.M., Saturday evening and Sunday. Leader, Dr. Walter Kotschnig. Geneva. Registration, including Saturday supper and Sunday tea, 75c; or either for 50c. Limited to 150 students.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 27
5.30 p.m.—Tea dance at Newman Club.
8 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., 156 St. George St. "Practical Aspects of the Quiet Time".

Have You Lost Anything?

If so, put a notice in "The Varsity."

It will help you find it.

Phone
S.A.C. Office,
Hart House,
Midway 6221.

Classified Advertisements

LOST

A Parker fountain pen and pencil, red mottled. Phone LI. 2426.

S.C.M. CORNER

(Continued from Page 1)

this world the shameful mess that it is. It is useless to start indicating the old generation; what is necessary is that we prepare ourselves to take up the leadership that will soon be ours—between the pre-war generation which still rules and our generation there is only a handful of men.—It will not be an easy task, yet just because it is difficult it attracts us, and there is a growing number of those who believe that by bringing Christianity into the daily life, not to lower religion, but to lift up the level of our common existence, it will be possible to create a world that will be more just, and kinder than ours is.

This International Conference,—see the posters in every college,—is open to all students, whether members of the S.C.M. or not. Why not come?

SUNDAY, JANUARY 28

5 p.m.—Tea at Newman Club.

MONDAY, JANUARY 29

5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club in Hart House Music Room.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30

4.30—Meeting of the University Women's Press Club. Mrs. Anne Anderson Perry, well-known journalist, will speak on "Publicity". Contributions for the Short Story Contest will also be accepted. Tea.

5.10—Victoria College Dramatic Club. Jean Dowling's group presents a one-act play at Hart House Theatre.

8.15 p.m.—Liberal Club meeting in the Music Room, Hart House. Mr. Kenneth Christie will speak.

8.15 S.P.S. junior dance at the Pavilion Blue Room. Refreshments. Dancing to music by the Kampus Katz orchestra.

9.00—Household Science dance at the Eaton Auditorium. Stan St. John's orchestra.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31

8.15 p.m.—The next regular meeting of the Biological Club will be held Wednesday evening at the Women's Union.

8.15 p.m.—A meeting of the German Study Club will be held in Wymlwood. The evening will feature a piano recital by Miss Naomi Yanova Granatstein. The evening will conclude with refreshments.

8.15 p.m.—Vic Classical Club, "Classical Jeux d'Esprit", 151 Dawlish Ave, Lawrence Park.

8 p.m.—Oriental Society meets at Dr. Meek's. Address by Mr. R. M. O'Pray.

7.00 p.m.—Commerce Club annual banquet in the Great Hall, Hart House. Sir William Clark, British High Commissioner to Canada, will speak on "Recent changes in the conception of the State's relation to business."

9.00 p.m.—Iota Alpha Pi subscription dance, Embassy Club.
Newman ball, Royal York Hotel.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1

4 p.m.—Important session University College Parliament in junior common room.

7.15 p.m.—The Foresters' Club will hold its annual banquet in the Great Hall of Hart House. Mr. T. A. McEldowney, Director of the Forest Products Laboratories of Canada, will address the gathering on "Forest Products Research."

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2

9.30—Ontario College of Pharmacy, supper, graduating dance. Crystal Ball Room. Luigi Romanelli.

C.O.T.C. ball at Hart House. Nels Kelly and his Varsity Kampus Katz.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3

Pi Lambda Phi annual charity ball, King Edward Hotel.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8

Rowing Club dinner. Please sign the list in Rowing Room in Hart House.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9

9.1—School of Nursing At-Home. Victoria College at-home. Dancing 9 to 2. Music by Stanley St. John and his orchestra.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12

8 p.m.—U.C. Public Speaking Contest for women at the Union. See rules and lists in U.C. cloak room and Union.

8 p.m.—Alumni Bridge, Eaton Auditorium.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13

8.15 p.m.—"Le Malade Imaginaire", presented by U.C. French Club at Hart House. Secure tickets now from the executive and cast.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16

Jarvis Collegiate Centennial Ball at Eaton's College St. Auditorium. Jack Slater's orchestra.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The January spoon shoot will be shot today. This is the last chance for those who have not fired this match. The groups have been rearranged to give everyone a better chance. This match must be shot in order to qualify for the Henderson Pins.

SHORT STORY CONTEST

The deadline for the University Women's Press Club is Tuesday, January 30. Bring your contributions to the meeting. Mrs. Anne Anderson Perry is speaking on Publicity.

VIC DRAMATICS

Keep in mind Jean Dowling's play on Tuesday, January 30 in Hart House Theatre at 5.10 o'clock.

S.C.M. WEEK-END

"The Present World Outlook" will be the subject of the first address by Dr. Walter Kotschnig at the S. C. M. Week-End—Saturday at 7 p.m. at 79 St. George St. Supper at 5.30. Register at the S.C.M. offices today if you have not already done so.

LIBERALS

University Liberals will be welcome tonight at a meeting in Margaret Eaton Hall, corner Yonge and McGill Streets at 8.15 p.m. Dr. McQuibban, M.P.P., Ontario Liberal House Leader, will speak, and it is felt that his talk will be of general interest to University men due to the active part Dr. McQuibban will be taking in the forthcoming session of the Legislature.

EXAMS NECESSARY STUDENTS DECIDE

(Continued from Page 1)

Tackaberry, I Pass Arts, when questioned by The Varsity.

Mr. S. Spiegel, III C. and F., thought that there was a great deal more to the question than met the eye. He said: "Educationalists, teachers and students alike agree more or less that our system of education and examination is inadequate. As poor as the system is at the University, it is still worse at our public and high schools where little or no originality is necessary. One cannot expect the University to do wonders with students who have had no better training than is given at our secondary schools. We should therefore concentrate on the earlier and more important stages to prepare good material for the University."

"We should not have an examination system because they do not show ability. I think that anyone who gets his degree certainly works for it. The fact that he gets a degree shows that he possesses a superior intelligence," stated Miss Madge Shaw, I Arts, U.C.

"While from the point of view of the individual student, the abolishing of the annual examinations would indeed be a godsend, nevertheless, to maintain the quality of past graduates of this University, examinations, perhaps along different lines from the present ones are certainly a necessity," was the emphatic reply of Mr. Lang, III C. and F.

"We should not have an examination system because they do not show ability. I think that anyone who gets his degree certainly works for it. The fact that he gets a degree shows that he possesses a superior intelligence," stated Miss Madge Shaw, I Arts, U.C.

"While from the point of view of the individual student, the abolishing of the annual examinations would indeed be a godsend, nevertheless, to maintain the quality of past graduates of this University, examinations, perhaps along different lines from the present ones are certainly a necessity," was the emphatic reply of Mr. Lang, III C. and F.

"We should not have an examination system because they do not show ability. I think that anyone who gets his degree certainly works for it. The fact that he gets a degree shows that he possesses a superior intelligence," stated Miss Madge Shaw, I Arts, U.C.

"While from the point of view of the individual student, the abolishing of the annual examinations would indeed be a godsend, nevertheless, to maintain the quality of past graduates of this University, examinations, perhaps along different lines from the present ones are certainly a necessity," was the emphatic reply of Mr. Lang, III C. and F.

"We should not have an examination system because they do not show ability. I think that anyone who gets his degree certainly works for it. The fact that he gets a degree shows that he possesses a superior intelligence," stated Miss Madge Shaw, I Arts, U.C.

"While from the point of view of the individual student, the abolishing of the annual examinations would indeed be a godsend, nevertheless, to maintain the quality of past graduates of this University, examinations, perhaps along different lines from the present ones are certainly a necessity," was the emphatic reply of Mr. Lang, III C. and F.

"We should not have an examination system because they do not show ability. I think that anyone who gets his degree certainly works for it. The fact that he gets a degree shows that he possesses a superior intelligence," stated Miss Madge Shaw, I Arts, U.C.

"While from the point of view of the individual student, the abolishing of the annual examinations would indeed be a godsend, nevertheless, to maintain the quality of past graduates of this University, examinations, perhaps along different lines from the present ones are certainly a necessity," was the emphatic reply of Mr. Lang, III C. and F.

"We should not have an examination system because they do not show ability. I think that anyone who gets his degree certainly works for it. The fact that he gets a degree shows that he possesses a superior intelligence," stated Miss Madge Shaw, I Arts, U.C.

"While from the point of view of the individual student, the abolishing of the annual examinations would indeed be a godsend, nevertheless, to maintain the quality of past graduates of this University, examinations, perhaps along different lines from the present ones are certainly a necessity," was the emphatic reply of Mr. Lang, III C. and F.

"We should not have an examination system because they do not show ability. I think that anyone who gets his degree certainly works for it. The fact that he gets a degree shows that he possesses a superior intelligence," stated Miss Madge Shaw, I Arts, U.C.

"While from the point of view of the individual student, the abolishing of the annual examinations would indeed be a godsend, nevertheless, to maintain the quality of past graduates of this University, examinations, perhaps along different lines from the present ones are certainly a necessity," was the emphatic reply of Mr. Lang, III C. and F.

CHAPEL SERVICE

Dr. Walter Kotschnig will give an address in Victoria College Chapel on Sunday at 11 a.m. on "Christianity and the Present World Outlook". At 7 p.m. Prof. John Macleod will also speak in Victoria Chapel on "Christianity and the Individual". All students are welcome to attend.

WYMLWOOD MUSICALS

This week there is a recital by a group of distinguished artists: Joyce Hornyanski, cellist; Herbert Pye, clarinetist, and Miss Copp, contralto.

VIC MUSICALS TICKETS

Tickets will be given out in the College Hall today from 1.45 to 2 p.m. Allotments for all years.

VIC AT-HOME TICKETS

Vic undergraduates are reminded that the lists for the Victoria College At-Home are in the college office now. Graduates in Emmanuel and in Graduate Studies may sign there also. Women's list in Wymlwood.

I. S. S.

Dr. Walter Kotschnig would like to meet with all students who are interested in International Student Service at 79 St. George Street, on Sunday, January 28th at 3 p.m.

U.C. MEN AND WOMEN

Your last opportunity to obtain an Arts Ball ticket in 1934 will be today between 1 and 2. It's going to be a good party so don't miss it.

NO SUPPORT GIVEN POLITICAL CLUBS

(Continued from Page 1)

In the discussion which followed the meeting, which was attended by more than twenty Toronto Liberals as well as many undergraduates, the fact that the same sort of political graft existed in Ontario came to light. In the words of a prominent Toronto Liberal, "The University should be a regular hotbed of political discussion. It is the place for experiment and investigation. Nothing is so stimulating as intelligent discussion and I am surprised that there is so little interest shown."

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lay asked The Varsity to extend from him a warm invitation to all undergraduates, irrespective of party, to attend the next meeting of the Liberal Club, which will be held next Tuesday evening.

Thrift House Has Been Redecorated

TO express still further the modern furniture trend in an economy setting. New and clever curtain treatments. New color combinations. New and interesting furniture. Modern interior Decorating at its economical best. Simple, Harmonious, Gloriously practical!

Eaton's College Street has taken pride in the moderate pricing on the carefully selected furnishings which have been assembled to complete the home-like charm of Thrift House.

MAIN FLOOR

EATON'S - COLLEGE STREET

BRITISH NEWSPAPER CLAIMS DEBTS SETTLED

Professor Mackenzie Doubts Possibility of Such Agreement Now

A statement that war debts had been settled at the rate of ten cents on the dollar was made at the Canadian Club by John C. Hodge, of Dun and Bradstreet. Mr. Hodge said that this opinion was advanced in the Manchester Guardian some weeks ago and since then had passed unchallenged. The speaker thought that this might be an indication that one of the world's most controversial problems had been solved.

According to the opinion of Professor Norman MacKenzie of the Law Department, this is purely a matter of conjecture. The Manchester Guardian did print something to this effect a few months ago. But it was either in the form of an editorial or an independent article. There was nothing to back it up in the form of fact. Professor MacKenzie did not know of anything that has happened recently that would justify this attitude.

VICTORIA LIBRARIAN URGES NEW LIBRARY

(Continued from Page 1)

has ours. The same thing is true of American universities, such as Yale and Harvard; not only have they a very large number of volumes in their stacks but they have spent millions in buildings."

"Dr. Wallace has not a stack big enough for the University nor a building big enough for the stack, small though it is. I believe that the government could well enough afford to put money into library buildings for the University. Here at Victoria we would be mighty glad to see better library facilities provided for the University of Toronto."

"Then you believe," questioned The Varsity, "that the Board of Governors should be urged to ask the government to consider the erection of a new library building among their public works projects?"

"I do," answered Dr. Barber. "I feel very strongly on the whole question. The library has not only not kept up, but it has lagged behind the other departments of the University."

ALL MUST SUPPORT DANCE
Science freshmen of Queen's have ruled that every student must purchase a ticket to the year dance.

UNIVERSITY EDUCATION
University of Manitoba debaters have decided that a university education does not "prolong the childhood of students".

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

rant's "Lord, for Thy tender mercy's sake" will be included on this programme. The Male Chorus use a choral work, "Beautiful Saviour", composed unknown, first recorded as being sung in 1617.

Conservatory Quartet

The fourth concert of the Conservatory String Quartet series, presented Thursday evening, was a delightful recital including a Mendelssohn, an Arthur Benjamin, and an extremely interesting and infrequently heard Beethoven. The Mendelssohn quartet, Opus 12, Number 1, received a more than adequate interpretation, and was in itself sufficiently interesting to hold attention throughout. The Canonetta, following upon the first movement in Adagio tempo, was a charming bit of humorous contrasts, accentuated still more by the final Andante. The latter, as handled by the quartet, achieved a nice balance of plaintive melody and intricate harmony in the accompanying voices. The restraint and control of the four artists made the whole composition a thing of exquisite tonal beauty. They managed, with true appreciation, to overcome that monotony that is all too frequently obvious in Mendelssohn's work.

The series of post oral scenes that comprise the Benjamin Fantasy showed less control. They began bravely enough, with their odd harmonies and strange fragmentary themes, but the final impression was that a wealth of melodic material had been inadequately treated by the composer, and timidly attacked by the performers.

A bolder rendering of the Scherzo in the Beethoven quartet in G Major would have made the whole final selection more effective. Coming as it does after the Andante Cantabile of the second movement, with all its broad, melancholy harmonies, the merry lilt of the Scherzo seemed to lack vitality as the quartet played it. However, the performance of the last movement quite equalled in excellence that of the first two. While the whole quartet could have showed more of the ruggedness Beethoven commands, it lost little by this omission. The concert, as a whole, was extremely pleasing, and showed a general improvement over the previous ones of the series. All the numbers showed good taste, and a finesse as refreshing as it was artistic. M.M.R.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from Page 2)

pressing material on the memory. Stenographic notes, for this reason, are of relatively little value.

Books, incidentally, can rarely be as up-to-date as lectures, particularly in the sciences. D.G.W.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, MONDAY, JANUARY 29th, 1934

No. 73

CAGERS WIN INTERCOLLEGIATE OPENERS

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Tiltsburg — Harold Hunsley, of Dereham, accused of arson, was threatened by a mob of 300 farmers at his home here, till the crowd was dispersed by police who took Hunsley into custody.

London—Foreign Secretary Sir John Simon is expected to declare a policy of disarmament on behalf of the British Government when Parliament opens today.

Berlin—Opposition leaders in the German Evangelical Church have silently acquiesced to the leadership of Reichsbishop Ludwig Mueller, Nazi appointee.

New York—Research scientists at Columbia University claim to have extracted a substance produced by rats to cure their own cancers, hailed as the greatest advance yet made in cancer research.

Tokio—At least 40 persons are dead as the result of a severe four-day blizzard in Korea.

London—Britain will always be prepared to accept an honourable settlement of her differences with the Irish Free State, according to Dominions Secretary J. H. Thomas.

Paris—Former Premier Edouard Herriot will probably be asked to form a new government following the resignation of the Chautemps Cabinet Saturday.

There will be no mention in the Speech from the Throne of legislation for freer sale of beer and wine when the Provincial Legislature opens on Wednesday.

North Sydney, N.S.—The Canadian Government Icebreaker Montcalm brought provisions and contact with the outside world to 3,000 Cape Breton Islanders yesterday, who had been cut off by ice and reduced to short rations.

Masthead Picture

"The Varsity" masthead picture will be taken at Freeland's studio at 1.15 sharp today. Those who were members of the masthead last term are also requested to attend.

Collegians Are No Longer Royal Even Though They May be Loyal

Did you know that every Tom, Dick and Harry can't use the word "Royal" to name their peanut stands or wet wash laundries? Anyway this seems to be the case.

Loch Algie, a former undergraduate, past member of Hart House Music and House Committees and one-time leader of the Varsity Band, has had to drop the word "Royal" from his orchestra, "The Royal Collegians".

We even went so far as to look up some law—in Falconbridge and Smith's "Manual of Canadian Business Law, 1933" at page 203, we read, "A name containing the words 'Imperial', 'Royal', 'Kings', 'Queens', 'Crown', ... will not be accepted by the Provincial Secretary."

When The Varsity approached the leader of this popular campus orchestra, we enquired why such words could not be used in a name.

"Possibly," he replied, "because they

No Bachelor Tax Trinitarians Ask

By P. M. M.

Bachelors will not be taxed in this country whatever Mussolini may be doing about it in Italy, decided the Trinity Lit, after debating on the joys and sorrows of the single state.

The instinct to mate is a beautiful thing.

Mr. Hughes: "Bachelor buttons have been changed to zippers and are now taxed on a sliding scale."

The soft pitter of infant footsteps.

A free wheeling bachelor should be taxed because he is a machine that is difficult to brake.

Have you ever walked a baby?

Liberty, equality and maternity. The tyranny of an overbearing wife, Mr. Depew pleads the cause of the martyrs of matrimony.

Bachelors are throat easy!

Mr. Hughes at the end of a long black cigar, distilled an odour only to be tolerated in a masculine atmosphere.

Bachelors are the trail blazers—but married men contribute to nepotism luxury!

And as far as the House was concerned, this was all that mattered.

TRINITY BACHELORS WIN CLOSE DEBATE

Marriage as a Luxury Should be Taxed, Declares
Lyndon Smith

BACHELORS BLAZE TRAILS

"Marriage is a crucial decision in a man's life and he should not be coerced into it by hordes of tax-collectors," said D. C. Baillie, speaking against the motion "That bachelors over the age of 35 should be taxed", which was lost by a small majority at a regular meeting of the Trinity Lit. last Friday night. Bachelors are the benefactors of mankind, ready to blaze new trails while the married man is tied down to the "joys of married life".

Professor Lyndon Smith in a witty and well-delivered speech, considered marriage both from the point of view of a luxury which, as such, should be taxed, and as an unpleasant duty which every man owed to the state. He suggested that marriage should be on a much more scientific basis than it is at present.

(Continued on Page 3)

EUROPEAN TREND NOT TOWARD WAR STATES KOTSCHNIG

Speaker at S.C.M. Conference Says Tendency Towards Collectivism

HAS RELIGIOUS QUALITIES

Christianity is at Present Allied with Defunct Social Order

"Europe is no more heading towards an immediate war. It is passing through a revolution greater and more important than all Kellogg or other international pacts; we see there a definite breaking away from individualism towards collectivism," said Dr. W. Kotschnig, at the opening of the S.C.M. International Week-End Conference. Speaking on "The Present World Outlook", he pointed out how the Balkans as well as the Little Entente, had joined hands, putting an end to the efforts of France and Italy to direct them. In Germany, Hitler has been put into power mostly because he promised a new and juster social order that needs peace to achieve. Even France is ready to come to direct terms with Germany, without consulting the Little Entente. In the East the recognition of Russia by the U.S. has checked the immediate danger of a war with Japan.

"All the war talk we hear about is mostly printed to justify armaments (Continued on Page 4)

SIR WILLIAM CLARK TO SPEAK TO CLUB

British High Commissioner to be Guest at Commerce Club Banquet

GRADUATES EXPECTED

Sir William Clark, British High Commissioner to Canada, will address the Commerce Club at their annual banquet to be held in the Great Hall, Hart House, next Wednesday evening. The subject of the address is, "Recent changes in the conception of the State's relation to business."

It was learned from the club's president, C. E. Drury, that among the guests will be several prominent business men whom Professor G. E. Jackson will introduce. To mention a few there are Mr. H. Fry, of Fry, Miller, Spence and Co. Ltd.; Mr. G. M. Wedd, manager, Canadian Bank of Commerce; and Mr. J. S. McLean, President Canada Packers.

All graduates have been notified and many of them are expected.

KOTSCHNIG TO SPEAK IN HART HOUSE TODAY

The part played by University students in European politics will be the subject of a short address by Dr. Walter Kotschnig from 1.30 to 2 p.m. in the Debates Room of Hart House today. There is probably no man in Europe who has a more profound knowledge of what undergraduates in the chief countries of Europe are thinking about than Dr. Kotschnig, who is an Austrian by birth and speaks three or four languages perfectly.

Arrangements Made For C.O.T.C. Frolic

The annual ball of the University of Toronto C.O.T.C. will be held in Hart House on Friday, February the second. A twelve piece orchestra will supply the rhythm for dancing in the gymnasium, which will be decorated for the occasion, and a sit-down supper is to be served in the Great Hall at approximately midnight. Special arrangements have been made to avoid crowding at any time during the ball, and every effort has been put forth to ensure a very pleasant evening for one and all.

Dress will, of course, be formal, and a touch of colour will be added by the mess kit and blues of many of the officers present. Among the guests to whom the Officer Commanding, Lt. Col. J. R. Cockburn, has extended his invitation, are Brigadier T. V. Anderson, Col. H. J. Cody, and many of the members of the Headquarters Staff.

Mrs. H. J. Cody, Mrs. T. R. Loudon, Mrs. H. H. Madill, Mrs. W. S. Wilson and Mrs. M. B. Watson have kindly consented to lend the ball their patronage.

LECTURE SYSTEM STILL REQUIRED

Professors Declare Abolition of Present System
Impractical

LECTURES ARE SOPORIFIC

The unanimous opinion of professors interviewed by The Varsity regarding the total abolition of lectures was that, while the students are appallingly over-lectured, any such drastic reforms would be both impractical, and inapplicable to all departments.

Professor Felix Walter of Trinity College characterized recent editorial suggestions as the wooliest stuff he had read for some time. "The University is muscle-bound and needs a cathartic," he said, "it has become so complex that any new proposal throws a monkey-wrench into the machinery." Mr. Walter considered it impossible and undesirable that lectures should form no part of the educational system, but finally remarked that professors as well as students were over-lectured. His only cure for the University's ills was to abolish everything and start all over again.

(Continued on Page 4)

Matrimonial Club's Activities Show Victorians' Proclivities

With a "Hey Robin, jolly jolly Robin", Vic Matrimonial Club production again passed into oblivion. "Merrie England is dead. Long live Merrie England". As the last curtain fell for the last time, many had that "morning after the night before" feeling, which was dispelled only by the radiance shed by Maestro Crawford, bowing among the footlights. Lusty voices which had only a few moments before sung their swan song, burst into the "Scarlet and Gold".

Producer Lavery behind the scenes handed out cigars and handshakes during the production. "That's a great kid!" "Come on now tella, get in there!" "Not much wonder the show was a 'howling success'!"

But really someone ought to notify the Humane Society. When five big men set out to kill one little fish what chance has the poor fish? "Hit 'im in the wish-bone. Sock 'im in the jaw". But Mr. Carp still kept on

TWO VARSITY TEAMS OPEN SEASON WITH DOUBLE WIN OVER MUSTANGS

Seniors Spring Surprise with Aggressive Victory on Home Floor

WIN BY 41 TO 16

Western Press Hard in First Minutes but Drop Behind

By John T. Stubbs

Getting off to a flying start in the intercollegiate senior basketball series, Varsity handed the Western Mustangs a surprise lacing in the Big Gym at Hart House Saturday night with a 41-16 count. For the first eight minutes the Londoners pressed hard and had the edge on Hayman's crew in the play but from then on the story was much different. After the losers had notched two free throws in the opening drive, Sniderman flipped one through the hoop to tie it up and after that the purple-clad lankies never came close to threatening the winners' supremacy.

Red Gordon, coming on for Bodrug, put the zip into the Blues' attack that put them out in front. His aggressive play powered by speed and accuracy, counted for nine points before the game was over. Assisted by Willis at centre, who acted as pivot man on the Varsity attack the local forwards and guards alike were able to bore through the Western defence continually.

Refuting the advance information that the Mustangs had several tricks up their sleeve to fool the Varsity cagers, there was only one offensive play that was worthy of the adjective clever. It scored one of the three baskets secured by the Western team throughout the game and then failed to make any impression on the learned (Continued on Page 3)

PROFESSOR MACKENZIE SPEAKS AT CHICAGO

Professor N. A. MacKenzie of the Department of Law, University of Toronto, is speaking in Chicago on Friday and Saturday of this week; first to the Council of Foreign Relations on "Canadian-American Relations"; second, to the Oak Park Institution on World Co-operation, his subject being "The Present State of Machinery for World Peace".

Intermediates Win Easily and Demonstrate Marked Superiority

SCORE IS 32 TO 23

Western Fortunate in Holding Blues' Lead to Nine Points

By W. A. Crochower

Demonstrating their superiority in every department of the game Varsity's intercollegiate intermediate cagers easily defeated Western's intermediate squad by a 32-23 count in the opening game of the intermediate series played in the big gym at Hart House on Saturday night. The half time score of 20-9 in favour of Varsity was a good indication of the play throughout the game.

Soon after the opening whistle Normie Newman sent the Blues ahead by sinking a nice one-handed shot from the side. McCutcheon's men didn't relinquish this lead at any point in the game but managed to increase it gradually so that with still ten minutes to go they eased up a little and coasted in to victory.

Except for a few minutes in the second half when the Blue attacks became disorganized the London aggression kept their hands full trying to stop the shifty attacks of the Toronto squad. Although the Mustangs managed to hold Varsity's lead to nine points, credit for this is not due to their good defensive play but rather (Continued on Page 2)

COUNTRY STUDENTS NEED ASSISTANCE

More Scholarships Required to Help Students from Out of Town

PREFERENCE IN BURSARIES

Unanimous approval was voiced by members of the staff when interviewed by The Varsity about President Cody's recommendation to the Board of Governors that more scholarships be provided for students from out of town. The need for these was great, they agreed and the present provisions were not as adequate as they might be. "I am heartily in accord with Dr. Cody," declared Principal Wallace of University College. "In this college we try to minimize the difference with bursaries which are given to students of outstanding ability who require financial assistance. All other things being equal, the preference here is given to students who come from out of town, as they naturally have to encounter greater financial expenditures." "Is it the better instruction given in the city schools that enables students from Toronto to win more of the matriculation scholarships?" asked The Varsity.

"That may be one reason," Principal Wallace replied, "but there is another which perhaps has greater effect. Students in the high schools of Toronto are keenly aware of the various scholarships offered by the University and the Colleges. Some students from out of town actually do not know of these opportunities and of course do not send in applications for them. By means of circular letters and posters we are trying to acquaint every secondary school of the urgency of informing (Continued on Page 4)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SEULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '35
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. G. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crookover, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—C. L. Coburn Assistant—R. E. Watters

MONDAY, JANUARY 29th, 1934

OBJECTIONS OVERRULED

A number of people appear to be in error as to the means whereby it is hoped that the Government will see its way clear to building us a new University Library. As was pointed out in The Varsity last Friday, no one has suggested that any increase be made in the regular University grant, or that a special sum apart from the contemplated expenditures of the Government should be set aside. All that is asked is that the Government should include the erection of a new Library, or at least considerable extensions to the present building, in its programme of public works for relief purposes.

The Economic Objection

There are two objections which may be raised to the inclusion of such a project in a relief programme. Both are fundamentally unsound. The first objection is that construction of public buildings is an undesirable form of relief work because it requires a large capital outlay in the form of materials, etc. It will be urged that if the direct relief "dole" must give way to relief works, at least such work should be undertaken as will provide the maximum of direct payment to the unemployed, specifically such work as sewer building, road improvement and highway construction.

Capital Outlay not Wasted

Those who object to other projects on this ground, however, forget that any outlay of money on construction materials will help to counteract the contraction of private business, and not only aid in the process of economic recovery, but also provide employment indirectly in the labour of providing these materials. Dr. H. M. Cassidy, in a paper published from the Proceedings of the Canadian Political Science Association for 1932 states:

"There is some evidence that Canadian business activities have not been curtailed quite so much as those in the United States during the last two years. Perhaps our extensive programmes of public construction have provided a cushion for our descent into the valley of economic humiliation which has been lacking in the United States, where the Federal government and most of the states have done little or nothing to set in motion relief works."

Dubious Value of Many Projects

At the same time, Dr. Cassidy points out, many of the relief projects have been of dubious value to the community. Works have been undertaken which had little or no utility, merely for the sake of providing work; in other cases municipal needs in such matters as sewer construction and street grading have been anticipated by as much as five and ten years, with the result that it is not only now impossible to provide further useful work of this description, but it will continue to be so for many years; we have been robbing ourselves of normal employment for the future to meet present needs. Not only has much of the work been of little value, but it has been highly expensive. Due in part to the necessity of providing the maximum of employment at any cost, and in part to a widespread feeling that the works were not fulfilling any other particularly useful purpose and that normal care and efficient management were unnecessary, excess costs on relief jobs have ranged from 5 to 300 per cent., and it was estimated by Dr. Cassidy that expenditures on the 1930-31 municipal programme, for instance, "must have been at least 40 or 50 per cent. higher than normal costs, on the average."

In contrast with the drawbacks to such forms of relief work, we have the carrying on of projects which are of value to the community because they fill a real need, and which can be undertaken without inefficiency or waste, simply because they are necessary projects designed with a definite end in view, not merely palliatives for unemployment. The Library project falls definitely into this class.

The Political Objection

The second objection which will probably be raised is both cynical and fallacious. It will be said that an election is imminent, that municipalities all over the Province will be demanding their fair share of relief works, and that the voting power represented in the University is too small to merit its inclusion. This objection will not be raised in public discussions, but it will be of great weight in committee meetings and party conferences. Fortunately this is a project which will be of value to the city as a whole, as well as to the University. It will provide employment for Toronto men as surely as will any purely municipal project. It behooves Toronto's municipal and legislative representatives to add their influence in support of the project both as a measure of assistance to the University and as a means of doing much to lighten the city's burden of distress.

Art, Music and Drama

Mussey Hall

The artist at the next Tuesday evening concert, on January 30, will be Ychudi Menuhin. This young violinist, although only seventeen, has already gained an amazing reputation, and he needs no introduction to Toronto audiences.

Sunday Evening Concert

One of the finest of recent Hart House concerts was given last night by Miss Wilma Stevenson, pianist, and Mr. George Lambert, baritone. Miss Stevenson combines a clarity and incisiveness with a careful restraint in her playing, which results in a most satisfying effect. The Bach numbers were played with great delicacy, in the best of possible taste. There was a quiet eloquence in the Chopin Bolide in F Minor, and a real mastery of the music. The modern works were less enjoyable, but only because the particular compositions are not unusually attractive.

Mr. Lambert sang two groups of Sea Chanties, assisted by three singers whom he brought with him. As he himself said, these works have become somewhat hackneyed, and need to be understood in their true perspective. Mr. Lambert's singing of these, with the aid of his strong trio, ought to please the most fastidious. There was a richness and dignity about the work which was most appealing, and provided consistent and thorough enjoyment for everybody. Mr. Lambert is to be praised always for both his vocal technique, and his remarkable charm as a public performer.

N.F.L.

Friday Afternoon Recital

The artists of the Friday afternoon recital are well known to University undergraduates as capable interpreters of the English school. Both Mr. Manning and Mr. Mazzoleni have been heard on more than one occasion and their presentation of two groups of songs was well received. Mr. Mazzoleni, as solo pianist, gave a short group of Old and Modern English works, things seldom heard but of much interest.

The finest number of the programme was Benjamin Dale's Come Away Death—a setting of the well-known Shakespeare song for voice, viola and piano. This was an exquisite thing, representative of the fine work of the modern English school.

At this point we present Mr. Brennan, violinist, to whom we are indebted for the opportunity of hearing another modern English work—Phantasy—by Benjamin Dale.

Those who attended this recital must have felt repaid for their trouble.

F.B.S.

"The Varsity" has been fortunate in obtaining the services of the famous detective Mr. File Advance, in the search for the Feature Editor, thought to have been kidnapped by Soviet agents. Records of Mr. Advance's investigation will be published from time to time. The first account appears below.

File Advance in the Music Room

I was engaged in bathing the famous Andalusian Frog Hound belonging to File Advance, whose bodyguard, valet, and personal friend I happen to be, when I heard the doorbell ringing furiously. A moment later two men came rushing in, two men whom I recognized as John X.-F.-Z. Barkum, district bailiff, and Sergeant Teeth, of the suicidal squad. Without a word they burst into Advance's bedroom, where he was lying, smoking one of his beloved Rajahs.

"Advance . . ." began Barkum. But Advance interrupted him.

"Just been readin' about it in The Varsity," he drawled, crushing his cigarette in an ash tray. "The Varsity is a paper I am never without. I consider the A. M. & D. column . . ."

Teeth broke in. "You don't think this guy could have fallen in the Hart House tank, do you? It's going to be drained again next month . . ."

"Better wait till I have consulted my Spinoza," sighed Advance, lighting one of his beloved Rajahs, and starting to dress. "My theory at the present time is based on the Steintz gambit," he added, crushing his cigarette in an ash tray.

Ten minutes later we were in Hart House Music Room, where Advance wished to commence his search. I lost him for a moment in the tobacco fumes, and when I saw him again he was crushing one of his beloved Rajahs on the Steinway piano. He was murmuring to himself "Most intriguing! These carvin's on the lid have a primitive abandon and lack of delicacy about them which suggest the stone age, certainly they are not later than the bronze age. Yet I doubt if the instrument is quite as old as that."

I was about to point out that they probably represented the initials of carousing University College students, when Sergeant Teeth called attention to a poem inscribed on the opposite wall, the last lines of which he read to us:

"'Since fingering is so good a thing
I with all men would learn to fing.'"

What does that mean, Mr. Advance?"

"Ah, sergeant," replied Advance, "you raise a fascinating point. It is not generally known that in the literature of that period 'th' was often written as 'f'. I interpret the couplet as follows:

'Since thinging is the good a thing
I with all men would learn to thing.'"

We were stunned by this show of erudition. Then someone alluded to the theft of the nude picture from the Music Room last fall.

"There," said Advance, lighting one of his beloved Rajahs, "we come to the nub of the problem."

"Nonsense," said Barkum brusquely, "No more of your dilettantism, please."

Advance looked supercilious. "Find that nude and you'll find the Feature Editor," he replied carelessly, crushing his cigarette in an ash tray.

S. S. Damfine.

(To be continued in an early issue.)

With the Theatres

Loew's—

. . . and so she fell in love with the million dollar voice and nothing would stop her until she had him for her own. If you go to Loew's this week better brush up your French. There are a couple of cracks in that tongue which we missed. Going Hollywood is another extravaganza of life as it ain't. The whistle and gurgles boy Bing Crosby, takes a leaf from his own book as the crooner who goes west to make a picture. Marion Davies, the eternal jeune fille, and Fifi Dorsay make up the remainder of the triangle. The sequences are rather good and they fit in with the story. There is a Charley Chase, an Aesop Fable, and the little woman learns how to roast a duck. (Household Science please note.)

N.C.P.

INTERMEDIATES TRIM WESTERN

(Continued from Page 1)

to the tough luck which the Blues had around the baskets, as many of their shots which appeared to be in the hoop bounced out.

For Western, Rider, A. McArthur and McKenzie turned in fine performances, with Rider standing out as the best for the visitors.

For Varsity, Normie Newman and "Aps" Applebaum gave creditable displays, with the former easily being the best man on the floor.

Western — Clarke 3, Greenwood, Rider 7, A. McArthur 5, McKenzie 4, I. McArthur, Shore 2, Coates 2.

Varsity — Vanderleck 4, Applebaum 8, N. Newman 8, Mitchell 2, H. Newman 5, Gibson 3, Magwood, Stronach. Referee—Tom Pogue.

PICK-UP!

Neilson's
JERSEY MILK CHOCOLATE

The choice of most Canadians

For that 4 o'clock feeling

THE BEST MILK CHOCOLATE MADE

Nothing But
A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit
for the coming dance.
They are up to the minute.
Also complete outfits and evening
wraps.
Two stores to serve you.
Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S
256 College St. 571 Yonge St.
KI. 0981 KI. 3270

JUST STARTED
The BON-TON CAFE
"Just a Real Charming Place"
Private Dining Room for Banquets a Specialty.

Special Full Course Dinner
and Supper 25 cents.

Courteous Staff Open 7 a.m. to 2 a.m.
656 Yonge St. Phone MI. 0145

DANCING LESSONS
GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dances
Latest Steps

6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1865

Your Eyes
will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

THE EPIQUEUR GRILL
AND
TEA ROOM upstairs
opp. Eaton's College St.
433 YONGE STREET

Special attention to Students
Full Course Meals from 25c. up

We serve economical plate luncheon
20c.

THE ANNUAL CONCERT
of The Blue and White Band
Convocation Hall
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20th
This year better than ever before. Guest artists, and a fine programme.
Keep this date open.

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

BLUES MAKE IT THREE STRAIGHT AGAINST KITCHENER

Sport Notices

Basketball—
U.C. Seniors. Everybody out at 3 p.m. in uniform to have picture taken before practice.

Senior Assault—
The senior interfaculty assault will be held on Wed. Jan. 31st and Thurs. Feb. 1st. All entries must be handed in at the athletic office by noon on Tues. Jan. 30th.

Baseball Umpires—
Monday, Carveth and Cragg; Tuesday, Burt-Gerrans and Wong. Only games this week. All games must start by 4.10.

U.C. Squash Tournament—
The draw for the U.C. squash tournament has been posted on the squash board. All first round matches must be completed by Sat. Feb. 3 or those concerned will be subject to default.

Vic Badminton Club—
Meeting tonight at Vic gym, 7.30.

THE SCORE BOX

Senior Basketball
Varsity .....	41 Western .....
McGill .....	21 Queen's .....
Intermediate Basketball
Varsity .....	32 Western .....
Junior Basketball
Broadview "Y" 32 .....	Varsity .....
Senior O.H.A. Hockey
Varsity .....	5 Kitchener .....
Junior O.H.A. Hockey
St. Mike's .....	18 Varsity .....
Interfaculty Water Polo
Sr. School .....	4 Sr. Meds .....
Victoria .....	5 U.C. .....
Jr. School .....	4 Jr. Meds .....

TRINITY BACHELORS WIN CLOSE DEBATE

(Continued from Page 1)
As a result of the overthrow of the Government on a vote of non-confidence, nominations were called for, and elections for the various offices will take place next Wednesday.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

The result of Saturday night's intercollegiate senior basketball openers in Toronto and Kingston was two startling scores. Varsity 41—Western 16; McGill 21—Queen's 20. Having seen the game here we can figure out why it was so one-sided but until we hear the causes we are bewildered about that Kingston game. What happened to the Redmen? Or what have Queen's got this year in those flashy Tricolour uniforms? Something's wrong somewhere so figure it out for yourself. Varsity handed McGill their only defeat in years when they downed the Redmen here in the last scheduled game of 1933. Queen's almost did it Saturday night. It was either a Tricolour defensive or a crippled McGill attack that stuck these figures on the score sheet. Next Saturday night's Queen's-Varsity tilt here in Hart House begins to take on an air of importance that was hitherto unthought of in Toronto.

The Western cagers put up a game battle against Varsity but their inability to ripple the twine on the long shots and their inability to beat the locals' defensive was what made the score one-sided along with a high-powered attack by the Blues. The Mustangs ran into hard luck all night on their shots and it was a hard spoonful to swallow but they never stopped trying. To watch the Blues holding off the visitors when the latter had possession reminded us of the pictures we used to see of covered-wagon days when the redskins attacked the circle of prairie schooners and the defenders stood with their backs to the fire. The Mustangs circled back and forth but three baskets was all they pulled out of the fire all night. That is a record performance that won't be repeated for a while or we miss our guess. Hand it to those cagers of Hayman's. They put on a display that was worth watching. And if they keep it up they'll go plenty of places before the exam time-tables come out. Pleasant thought, that last one. Worrying too are you?

Warren Stevens and his lads come in for the big hand again. 5-1 against the Kitchener-Waterloos. Three straight wins in the O.H.A. Sr. group is good going for any team. That gives the boys eleven points and Kitchener sinks deeper into the cellar, having eight. Coming out of Hart House Saturday night we stopped and asked about Varsity's chances in the playoffs. Is that optimism or is it optimism? Well, all they have to do to get into the playoffs is beat McGill and they enter as winners of the intercollegiate. The game Friday night in Montreal against the Redmen will give some indication of their chances. Hold them in Montreal, men, and turn it on here. The Montreals aren't so impressive on the smaller Varsity Arena as they are on the Forum ice surface as a rule. The McGill sextet hasn't lost a game yet and they are ranked as strong contenders for the Allan Cup. The players and the university authorities have come to an agreement whereby the team may continue in quest of the cup that is supposed to represent the "amateur" senior hockey championship of Canada. You can take the word "amateur" for what it's worth. In our estimation that isn't much.

Ted Burpee, Varsity skier, furnished a surprise when he hustled across the finish line in second place in the intercollegiate ten-mile cross-country ski race at the Seigniory Club, Quebec. Bud Clark of St. Patrick's College, Ottawa, finished first and Jack Houghton of McGill was third. Clark's time was 1:17.38. The point standing after the race gave St. Patrick's 5 and Toronto 3.

SENIOR CAGERS DEFEAT MUSTANGS

(Continued from Page 1)
protégés of Lew Hayman, Varsity's mentor. Referee Tom Pogue kept the contest well in hand with his close-calling, ever-ready whistle. The locals were called for nineteen offences of which the visitors made ten good. On the other hand Western was called fourteen times and Varsity counted on eleven throws down the charity lane for the better foul-shooting record. Gold for Varsity and Whitwell for Western each made an exit with four fouls.

The U. of T. squad showed superiority in every department of the game after they dug in their heels and took the controls with eight minutes of play elapsed. Their opening score of two single counters gave the Davis-coached outfit their only lead of the game which didn't last long or amount to much. Varsity stepped in and ran up eleven points before Western got another foul shot through the hoop. The winners' drive was continued until half time saw the count at 18-9. Varsity's checking held the Mustangs outside all the time, only allowing them to break through on a cut rarely. The losers failed to see they were playing a losing battle trying to get inside for their counters and weren't setting them up from outside enough. When they did they were either wide of the mark or were robbed on the shot. At any rate they wouldn't go through the ring at all.

In the last half instead of sitting back and holding it up, the Blues kept forging ahead until the final basket made it 41-16. The fast breaking of the Varsity forwards caught the Londoners asleep several times with the ball sailing up the whole length of the floor from a throw-in. This is one of the Hayman tactics that is an addition to the locals' portfolio and has been proved worth the wear and tear on the players who have to break fast to keep open for the pass. The best play of the evening was pulled on just such an occasion. Bodrug, after getting three points as the half opened, beaved it down to Sniderman in the corner. Sniderman was checked by Willis' check, but flipped it over the latter's head to Willis under the hoop. The latter then ripped the twine, but the whole play was manipulated in a flash and brought a big hand from the

VARSITY SENIORS DEFEAT KITCHENER

Score Four Goals During Last Period for Final Score of 5-1

MANY SPECTACULAR PLAYS

By F. J. Lambert

Turning in a sparkling performance in the last period and generally outmanoeuvring the fast-tiring Kitchener Waterloo sextet Varsity's Big Blues skated their opponents to a standstill, scoring four of their five counters after being deadlocked for two hectic periods, to gain a well-earned 5-1 victory over Erb's Empires in the scheduled Senior O.H.A. fixture played at Varsity Arena last Saturday night. Spectacular rushes, close checking and lusty defensive displays on the part of both teams featured the game.

Outstanding in the Varsity victory were Frank Shipp, whose stellar net minding held the Kitchener-Waterloo squad well in check, along with the combination plays of McPherson and Hendry, and the clever strokes of McClelland, while for Kitchener, Roth and Mackie played great hockey.

In the first two periods both squads played careful hockey, watching their checks closely and their game was rather slow. After eleven minutes of play in the initial stanza McClelland bulged the twine behind Berner on a pass from Jeffrey and Rey. However, Roth of Kitchener came back six minutes later to score on Shipp with Mackie assisting. On the opening of hostilities in the second period both teams tried hard to score but on each and every occasion Shipp and Berner were unbeatable. On an offside play Mackie for Kitchener scored on Shipp, but the goal was disallowed.

In the early minutes of the final chukker Roth swept right in on Shipp who made a remarkable stop by diving on the disc. In a swift exchange of play the Varsity defence players, Rey and Fullerton, scored on Berner. On a brilliant solo effort McClelland weaved through the entire Empire team to score unassisted. Facing the two-goal deficit Erb's cohorts went on the attack to bombard the Varsity net, but Frank Shipp was equal to the occasion. Warren Stevens' blue-clad warriors retaliated and McPherson and Hendry combined to add two more to the Varsity total and the final bell found the count, Varsity 5, Kitchener 1.

Varsity — Goal, Shipp; defence, Rey, Fullerton; centre, Cunningham; wings, Hendry, McPherson; subs, McClelland, Sweeney, Jeffrey, Campbell. Kitchener — Goal, Berner; defence, Kampman, Kuntz; centre, Roth; wings, Zuch, Mackie; subs, Heller, Hamel, Felbaum, Lederman. Referee—J. Mitchell, Guelph.

crowd.

For Varsity the whole team turned in creditable performances with Gordon, Willis, Sniderman and Bodrug taking the limelight. The losers had three players worthy of praise in Hogan, Whitwell and Garrett.

Western — Fletcher 2, Garrett 4, Whitwell, Hogan 4, Zavitz 2, Rider 2, Gctas 2, Wilson.

Varsity — Bodrug 7, Mitchell 5, Willis 7, Sniderman 7, Gold 1, Gordon 9, Young 4, Levy 1. Referee—Tom Pogue.

WOULD APPOINT SHAW

Science students of the University of Manitoba in a recent debate approved of George Bernard Shaw as prime minister of Great Britain.

STATUE TO LIVINGSTONE

A bronze statue to David Livingstone is to be placed in Victoria Falls Park in Southern Rhodesia, by the waterfall he discovered in 1855.

New!

"Work of Art"

By Sinclair Lewis

$2.50

Telephone Adelaide 8411

Book Shop—Street Floor

THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS

and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS are DUE NOW

Please hand these into the S.A.C. Office, Hart House

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

This week hockey is really going to get started. January seems to be going out like the proverbial lion, a fact which ought to cause great rejoicing in the hearts of the interfaculty players, who can only play when weather conditions permit. The first game is to be tomorrow night.

Two changes have been made in the interfaculty hockey schedule. Meds will meet Vic I on Feb. 5 instead of Feb. 2, and St. Hilda's will play Vic II on Feb. 1 instead of Feb. 2.

It has also been decided that games on the round will count instead of goals, except in the case of a tie when of course goals will count. This seems to be a much wiser arrangement.

We wish to correct a statement made in a recent issue of The Varsity to the effect that the badminton court at the Lillian Massey was not regulation size. We have been informed since that this is not true. We apologize for not verifying the information given us, which sounded reasonable in view of the fact that the swimming pool and the gym there are built on the small scale.

No more definite news can be given regarding the announcement of the hockey game between the Varsity team and Fran Crooks Westman's team on Wednesday night. It is probable that it will be played but neither team has received exact information about it. It would be a good idea if they could have a game this week as the first game with Queen's is being played this coming Saturday.

Recovery Under Way E. W. Beatty Believes

Reviewing Canadian business conditions of the past year and at the same time looking forward to the prospects for 1934, E. W. Beatty, Chairman and President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, thinks the country is on the way back to prosperity, although the way may be long, and at times difficult. In a statement published in the "Montreal Star" he says:—

"Of 1933 I think it is perhaps the year of relief that most of us will say—that's that, and now for 1934. We meet this New Year with something of a better understanding of the extent of this so-called depression. It is all about and what we ought to do about it. We see along the road leading to it and more clearly and further than we did a year ago. That fact has inspired confidence and courage and has started us moving towards the better times that broadened prosperity will bring to all. The road is not an easy one; there are long hills and difficult spots, but it offers no danger or problem too great to be surmounted by the courage and energy of the Canadian people. We have before us problems that will tax the ingenuity and strength of our leaders in statescraft, finance and industry and make great demands upon the patience and understanding of our people, but if these problems are met with courage and dealt with in accordance with the laws of sound economics which are as relentlessly unchangeable as the laws of nature, this country will emerge from the purging in far better shape to progress than it has ever been before, and individual prosperity for all classes of our people will be more firmly established. I believe that the elusive corner we were hoping to turn through many weary months, slipped past us all unnoticed some time ago, and that we have definitely passed through the worst and most trying phase of the period."

Railroad Situation.
"The past year has been particularly difficult for our railroads and there seems little reason to hope that conditions are going to be much easier for those who operate them in the immediate or near future. Alteration in Canada's status from the position we used to claim as the world's chief producer of breadstuffs has already proved for some years to bring the volume of Canada's rail freight back to the high figures of a few years ago."

It is therefore imperative upon the managements of those railways depending upon earnings to meet operating costs, interest and other charges that all possible measures of economy in operation shall continue in force. But when this is accomplished the problem for Canada is far from solved. Must Reduce Taxes.
"All that is true of the railways is true in some respect of most other public facilities, and such progress as has been made over the past year along the line of effecting economies in administration of public affairs has been helpful, but has served mostly to point the way to larger and more fundamental re-arrangements looking towards an easing of the great load of national debt, and a reduction of taxation to the extent of which has come to assume ominous proportions. There is no need for further stressing the inescapable necessity for such action. I do not believe that any thinking Canadian viewing national affairs with the proper perspective will deny that the drain upon public and individual wealth consequent upon the general railway situation continues to over-shadow all other problems, and it is by far the most important difficulty that has to be surmounted before the way to prosperity lies open before us."

The Remedy.
In order to clarify the situation early in the year, I outlined in two public addresses what I believed to be the only possible solution for this problem. In effect, I proposed that the people of Canada as owners of the Canadian National Railway should enter into a partnership arrangement with the shareholders of the Canadian Pacific, and that the resulting organization should be operated by the privately owned concern, thus relieving railroad management in this country from the too-well proven evils of political influences and at the same time removing from the path of our greatly harassed political leaders the embarrassments that must ever accompany responsibility for railway operation. My proposals at that time met with a volume of approval and support such as, frankly, I had not anticipated, and I found even in places where it was least to be expected that they received a serious consideration that showed how widespread was the conviction that this problem had to be settled in some satisfactory and permanent manner. Nothing that has since happened has tended to change my conviction that in these proposals lies the only sound ultimate solution of the difficulty. I can think of nothing short of this that may be attempted that will offer adequate relief from an economic drain that has in all the possibilities of national disaster. I have reason to believe, also, that I share this conviction with a large and increasing number of citizens who are giving thought to the state of real economic peril in which we stand."

PANHellenic BALL, Monday, Feb. 5th, Royal York Hotel
Tickets from any Fraternity Girl, $1.60 including tax

STOCK UP ON STOCKINGS

We offer the following to fill your every hosiery need:

Chiffon and Service Weight—Real silk, first quality hose. No seconds or sub-standards. Reinforced heel and toe. In all the new shades ..... 69c.

No. 5000—A beautiful, dull, sheer hose. Chosen by smart women everywhere. In all the desired shades ..... $1.00

Creme Hose—So clear and dull, high quality stocking that will wear and wear ..... $1.15

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 9800
4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

- MONDAY, JANUARY 29
5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club in Hart House Music Room.
TUESDAY, JANUARY 30
5 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., Wymilwood. Speaker, Miss E. M. McCarthy of Chelo, China.
4.30—Meeting of the University Women's Press Club. Mrs. Anne Anderson Perry, well-known journalist, will speak on "Publicity". Contributions for the Short Story Contest will also be accepted. Tea.
5.10—Victoria College Dramatic Club. Jean Dowling's group presents a one-act play at Hart House Theatre.
8.15 p.m.—Liberal Club meeting in the Music Room, Hart House. Mr. Kenneth Christie will speak.
8.15 p.m.—Junior dance at the Pavilion Blue Room. Refreshments. Dancing to music by the Kampus Katz orchestra.
9.00—Household Science dance at the Eaton Auditorium. Stan St. John's orchestra.
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31
5 p.m.—Vocational guidance talks. All Victoria men are invited to hear Mr. W. H. Goodman speak on Journalism. Room 18.
8.15 p.m.—The next regular meeting of the Biological Club will be held Wednesday evening at the Women's Union.
8.15 p.m.—A meeting of the German Study Club will be held in Wymilwood. The evening will feature a piano recital by Miss Naomi Yanova Granatstein. The evening will conclude with refreshments.
8.15 p.m.—Vic Classical Club, "Classical Jeux d'Esprit", 151 Dawlish Ave., Lawrence Park.
8 p.m.—Oriental Society meets at Dr. Meck's. Address by Mr. R. M. O'Pray.
7.00 p.m.—Commerce Club annual banquet in the Great Hall, Hart House. Sir William Clark, British High Commissioner to Canada, will speak on "Recent changes in the conception of the State's relation to business."
9.00 p.m.—Iota Alpha Pi subscription dance, Embassy Club.
Newman hall, Royal York Hotel.

Classified Advertisements

LOST

Gentleman's silver plated wrist watch Friday afternoon, Jan. 26 at Junior Meds hockey practice at Varsity Stadium. Finder please leave at S.A.C. office, Hart House.

ST. MIKE'S TRIM JUNIOR PUCKSTERS

Blues Overwhelmed by Irish in One-Sided Game

FINAL SCORE IS 18-2

The University of Toronto junior hockey team suffered an overwhelming defeat at the hands of the powerful St. Michael's College sextet at the Maple Leaf Gardens on Saturday afternoon. Shortly after the start of the game it was evident that it was simply a question of how many and the 18-2 score pretty well indicates the superiority of the Irish. The first period was slow and uninteresting with the Blue and White team only able to match one goal with the opposition's four. Proceedings livened up somewhat in the second stanza when the Blues tried desperately to match the strides of the fast stepping Saints who were busy scoring eight goals. The third period produced the best hockey of the contest. Although hopelessly out of the picture the Varsity team gave everything they had and were finally rewarded with a goal. Six Irish goals in this frame completed the scoring.

St. Michael's—Goal, Teno; defence, R. Hamilton, Burke; centre, Jackson; wings, Metz, Kelly; subs, Drouillard, Wilson, Acheson, Bauer.

Varsity—Goal, Shipman; defence, Wainwright, Sissons; centre, Poupore; wings, O'Leary, Ripley; subs, Morgan, Walkley, Lavery, Owen.

DEBATORS COMPETE FOR TAYLOR TROPHY

Metcalfe and Sorensen Win
Wycliffe Literary Society Debate

The final debate of the Wycliffe College Literary Society for the Taylor Trophy was held on Friday evening. Mr. R. V. Metcalfe was the first speaker for the motion, resolved that "The Radio Commission is of Benefit to Canada". He challenged the opposition to produce anything that would honestly depreciate the Radio Commission, and based his arguments upon the service of the Commission to the individual.

Mr. S. A. R. Wood, leader of the opposition, contended that all the Commission had done was to revive the bilingual question, to spend thousands of dollars in buying out private stations, only to close them, and to create a panic in the change of wavelengths. When the vote was taken the House upheld the motion and the judges awarded the trophy to Messrs. Metcalfe and Sorensen.

ARCTIC MONOTONY WORSE THAN COLD

Davies Describes Experiences
Photographing Aurora
Borealis

"The cold is not the chief drawback to life in the Arctic, but rather the monotony of each day," stated Dr. F. T. Davies in his lecture before the Royal Canadian Institute on Saturday evening in Convocation Hall. "It was necessary for us to keep a 24-hour watch, for our work was to photograph the Aurora when conditions were favourable. We took double station pictures of one point of the Aurora, using the Canadian Government radio station at Chesterfield, and another station which Dr. Curry built out of sods of earth."

The winter clothing of the inhabitants around Chesterfield consists of caribou suits and boots, both of which the women make and repair, the lecturer continued. Their diet is varied, caribou, seal, walrus, fish, duck and ptarmigan. They are an independent race and would go to great privation before applying for reserve rations at the Mission. The snow lasts until June, the ice until July, while even then the water is 3 feet deep or so, over a thick shelf of hidden ice.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

VICTORIA WOMEN

"Women in the Church" is the subject of lecture and discussion to be held by Miss Winnifred Thomas, the General Secretary, W.M.S. of United Church of Canada, this afternoon in Wymilwood. 4-5 p.m. Everybody welcome!

MEDICAL S.C.M.

Monday, January 29th, 5 p.m., Medical S.C.M. group in S.C.M. library, Hart House. Dr. Hall will lead the discussion. All medical students are invited.

377 VICTORIA

Please notice the change in the date of your class party from Saturday, Feb. 3 to Friday, Feb. 23. Party will be held in Burwash Hall.

U.C. PARLIAMENT

Next session, Thursday, Feb. 1st, at 4 p.m. The Bissell Government will present for second reading Bill No. 3 to institute machinery for the sterilization of the unfit. Opposition led by S. M. Hermant.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The Mitchell Cup Shoot will be held this week. This match must be shot in order to qualify for city competition.

VICTORIA CLASSICAL CLUB

The Victoria Classical Club meets on Wednesday, January 31 at 8.15 p.m. at the home of Prof. H. Bennett, 151 Dawlish Ave., Lawrence Park. Prof. J. C. Robertson will speak on "Classical Jeux d'Esprit".

COUNTRY STUDENTS NEED ASSISTANCE

(Continued from Page 1)
their students of these advantages."

Mr. C. E. Auger, Registrar of Victoria College, was another supporter of President Cody's recommendation. "Most of our bursaries are given to out of town students in their upper years. Of course this does not assist those high school graduates who have a good record but who have been eliminated from the scholarships by a city student with a few more marks. City schools such as University of Toronto Schools are able to hold special scholarship classes which give their students a decided advantage which country schools cannot offer."

"What type of preference would be given to out of town students?" asked The Varsity.

"This could be in the form of regional scholarships limited to country students," Mr. Auger replied. "At the present time, I should estimate that two-thirds of the University matriculation scholarships go to the students from Toronto. In Victoria College we have a higher proportion of country students and our college scholarships are about evenly divided. If we had a larger scholarship fund we could of course assist more of the worthy students."

Professor Norwood of the Department of English was of a similar opinion. "Scholarships," he said, "should be awarded to students who are in need of the money, provided their academic record is good. Students who earn a scholarship without actually earning the money might resign the emolument which would then revert to the next student whose need might be greater. There is no doubt that a larger number of scholarships would be extremely valuable in averting the tragedy of a student of exceptional ability being prevented from coming to the University, or from obtaining full benefit while here, simply because he is handicapped by lack of the required resources."

MATRIMONIAL CLUB SHOWS PROCLIVITIES

(Continued from Page 1)

Juliet from her balcony breathes seductively to young Romeo. "Why don't you c'm up 'n see me some time?" Straight from the banks of the Nile came Cleopatra's sirens clad in . . . To say nothing of the Princess. But they looked very fascinating, especially the sweet young thing who posed so gracefully, with three many arms to support her. Well who couldn't?

And we mustn't forget the "chawning" solo dancer clad in her glad rags! Well for cat's sake. If we must have live fish, why not live cats? It looked like a caddy to us. No wonder they called her Jill-all-alone, with that feline for a boon companion. But to her go the laurels, for she resisted the overwhelming temptation to pick the brute up by the tail.

But we gotta hand it to Queen Bess. She didn't trip on her train or fall out of her throne once.

And we couldn't help but see the purposeful look in Raleigh's eye when he strode over to that stump and placed his foot upon it.

So with the cast all in excellent spirits (?), another leap year ended.

LECTURE SYSTEM STILL REQUIRED

(Continued from Page 1)

"Lectures have become a tyranny," stated Professor R. S. Knox of University College, "but, rather than do away with them, their number should be decreased. For good students, there should be something like the tutorial system, but it would not be practicable in the junior years with the present inadequate staff. Consequently, the lecture system, kept within limits, is the ideal solution."

According to Dr. Ryerson, Acting Dean of the Medical Faculty, any upheaval in the existing organization would have to be gradual, and, of necessity, begin with primary education. "At present, the abolishing of lectures is impractical, not only from the economic standpoint, but because the student will not work unless someone outlines and interprets his course of study," he said. Dr. Ryerson stressed the fact that under the seminar system, the inexperienced first year student would have greater difficulty in adapting himself to University life. Professor McTaggart of the Physics Department agreed with him that such a system, besides being inadvisable for the first and second years, would involve an undue increase in funds.

"From my own experience, lectures save the student's time," commented Professor Louis MacKay of University College, "for the undergrowth is cleared out by the lecturer. One student in a seminar can waste more time than a professor ever does, but probably the system could be established by not much more than a rearrangement of time."

"Lectures are a soporific—their chief benefit is to prevent the subject from becoming too exciting," was the humorous remark of Professor Auger of Victoria College. "Seriously, however, the system proposed by The Varsity editor is high-schoolish, and would put the student more in leading strings than ever, for there is already a tendency in the undergraduate to accept rather than inquire. To suggest the abolishing of lectures presupposes their worthlessness: a more sensible idea is a combination of the lecture and the tutorial systems."

EUROPEAN TRENO NOT TOWARD WAR

(Continued from Page 1)

expenditures. This new collectivism, whether nationalistic or communist, has many qualities of a religion, and it offers to youth the ideal of service and sacrifice for the well-being of a larger group, with planned economy. Already there is no unemployment in Russia and one year of Hitlerism has reduced it by 40 per cent in Germany. Yet, both nationalism and communism are exclusive—race claims in Germany, discrimination against negroes by the N.R.A. codes. Collectivism exists, however, and should be directed and served by people in accord with it. Universities must wake up and students prepare themselves to take these new responsibilities."

Preaching on Sunday morning at Victoria Chapel on "Christianity and the World Outlook", Dr. Kotschig showed why Christianity was losing ground while these new movements were gaining. "Christianity has become identified with a defunct social presenting

EATON'S

TWO SMART STYLES
in Eatonia Suits
for
YOUNGER MEN

Three button single-breasted oxford grey sketched at right, and double-breasted navy blue botany serge at left.

$20.00 WITH TWO PAIRS OF TROUSERS

Although these two smart models are not unusual in colour, they are distinctive in regard to style. The three-button model, with top and bottom buttons idle, is rapidly winning a great following with the smarter-dressed younger men. While the navy blue is cut to give an impression of high waist-line. At $20.00 these suits are splendid value, and are tailored in a manner that will make them keep their appearance after months of wear.

Purchasable on Deferred Payment Plan (Toronto Delivery Area). Terms, 25 per cent. down and the balance, plus carrying charge, in three equal monthly payments.

Grado Dept.
Second Floor—James and Albert Streets

order; it has often been interested in protecting vested interests. Besides, it has been so busy stressing other-worldliness that it has brought no practical remedies for the ills of this world." Are, then, Communism and Nationalism the religions of the future? No. Being a reaction against an extreme individualism they go too far in the opposite direction.

"They level men to a dead and fixed uniformity. Christianity is not doomed to failure, if it takes the present opportunities. Beyond our differences and difficulties it points out to a transcendent, yet imminent God, who is in us, and in our neighbours. Therefore it can solve the problem of the relations between the individual and the community, by relating them to a greater value: God. We are called to serve as the tools of God in our states where he has called us. Are we listening and following his call?"

A following article will review Professor J. McLeod's address, concluding the Conference, as well as the result of the three forums on Nationalism, Unemployment and Race.

APPOINTED TO GENEVA POST

John G. McNaughton, a graduate of McGill University, has been appointed to the Geneva staff of International Student Service.

TO PUBLISH TWICE WEEKLY

The Gateway, the student newspaper of the University of Saskatchewan, is now being published twice a week. Hitherto it has been a weekly.

FUNCTION OF RELIGION TO CURB INDIVIDUALISM

J. D. Ketchum Addresses U.C. Men's Group of S.C.M.

"The essential function of religion is to curb individualism and re-absorb the individual into the social life of the group. The individual loses himself in the group through the sharing of emotional experiences with others." This was the theme of Mr. J. D. Ketchum's address last night to the men of U.C. who are interested in the Student Christian Movement.

"Your presence here tonight shows at least two things," said Mr. Ketchum. "First, you are far removed from your original religious experience and are trying now to analyse it and see what it means."

"Secondly, it shows that our civilization is in the process of decomposition, for, in a flourishing civilization, religion is general, uniform and unquestioned, but when a civilization is on the decline people begin to study religion in a critical and detached way. "Our civilization is characterized by the 'tongue in the cheek' attitude. We try to test everything and from our own judgment."

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

The Board of Governors of McGill University has appointed a committee to recommend a successor to the late Sir Arthur Currie.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, TUESDAY, JANUARY 30th, 1934

No. 74

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Moscow—The Chinese Communist party has promised aid to the Soviet Union if the latter should be attacked by Japan.

London—The British Government passed a formal memorandum today favouring a measure of arms equality and re-armament in defensive weapons for Germany.

Ottawa—A thoroughgoing investigation into the mass buying procedure of the big department and chain stores and the milling and meat-packing industries is promised by Premier R. B. Bennett.

Washington—A mass rehabilitation scheme undertaking the removal of hundreds of thousands of unemployed to cities offering work is being considered by the U.S. Government.

Paris—Edouard Daladier will be the next Premier of France, with Edouard Herriot leading a strong Opposition group.

Fortaleza, Brazil—Italy's first attempt to conduct a scheduled air-mail service across the Atlantic ended in disaster yesterday when the plane crashed, injuring two of the crew.

London, Ont.—Senator E. S. Little and two of his brothers face criminal charges here as a result of the collapse of a business enterprise.

Recommendations of the Report of the Committee on Criminology of the Social Service Council of Canada, presented yesterday, include a prisoners' welfare organisation, better hospital accommodation, segregation of prisoners, and constructive work with remuneration.

Sherbrooke—A serious epidemic of glanders has broken out among horses in the Eastern Townships of Quebec.

Winnipeg—A wave of warm weather is sweeping across Western Canada.

Vienna—Chancellor Dollfus last night warned Germany that he would appeal to "an international forum" if the Nazis attempted a revolution in Austria.

New York—The possibility of a nation-wide plan of unemployment insurance was suggested here yesterday by Miss Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labour in Roosevelt's Cabinet.

INCONSEQUENCE

Dulce et Decorum?

The Toronto Daily Star last week inaugurated a series of Official Canadian War Photographs, released from the archives at Ottawa. Three full pages of death and destruction daily—men going into battle, wounded struggling painfully back to hospital, battlefields strewn with mangled, tortured bodies, shattered towns and wrecked cathedrals—all the misery, the horror, the hopeless, reckless desperation of the front-line trenches are presented for us without mitigation or reserve.

Streamer headlines carry home the message of the scenes portrayed—"War's Agonies Indicted by Official Photographs" . . . "Death, Anguish, Humiliation Are War's Reward" . . . "What Can Endure Before the Insane Plows of War?"—in no uncertain terms the meaning of the photographs is born in upon the reader.

As The Star declares, "War in all its stark reality is set up in the judgment place for all men to see. . . . No pen, not even the nervous, staccato pen of a Henri Barbusse, can tell in 200 pages what some of these single

LOCAL LABORATORY CONDUCTS RESEARCH FOR CANCER CURES

Theory Offered that Rats Produce Serum for Self-Cure

VALUE DOUBTED

Recent American Investigation not Yet Known to Medical Faculty

"Any advance in the treatment of cancer, which proves itself effective in relieving humanity, will be considered the greatest step accomplished in medicine in recent years." The foregoing was the comment made by Dr. E. S. Ryerson, Assistant Dean and Secretary of the Faculty of Medicine, in regard to the recent discovery made by Professor William H. Woglom, of the Crocker Institute for Cancer Research, at Columbia University. Professor Woglom has succeeded in isolating the secretion by which rats cure any cancers which are induced to grow in them in experiments.

Dr. Ryerson, being unacquainted with the data of the recently conducted experiments, could make no definite statement as to the probable value of the discovery or of the authenticity of the claims put forward in support of its potential use as a serum.

(Continued on Page 4)

ORATORICAL CONTEST SPONSORED BY W.U.A.

Prize of $25 Great Incentive to All University College Women

One of the most interesting of extra-mural activities is the annual public speaking contest which will take place this year on Monday, February 13 at 8 o'clock in the Women's Union. This popular event, open to all University College women, is held under the auspices of the St. Margaret's Alumnae. The actual details of arrangement are looked after by the W.U.A., under the presidency of Miss Jean Hunnisset. The three judges will be appointed by Dr. Wallace, the St. Margaret's Alumnae, and the W.U.A.

There is a substantial prize of $25 which should prove a not entirely im-

(Continued on Page 4)

S.P.S. Year Party

A perfect floor, gay favours, delicious refreshments, and plenty of the usual Engineering idea of pulchritude will mark the celebration of the Junior dance of the students from the Little Red Schoolhouse, when they gather at the Pavilion at Sunnyside this evening. Nels Kelly, leader of the popular Varsity Kampus Katz, who have just completed their "Varsity Week" at the Pavilion, and his merry musicians, will furnish the music in their own inimitable style, while the gay couples blend with the delightful setting of Sunnyside's favourite rendezvous.

The patronesses for the evening will be Mrs. C. H. Mitchell, Mrs. R. W. Angus, and Mrs. T. R. Loudon. Dancing, as usual, will continue from nine to one o'clock.

S. C. M. CONFERENCE HEARS DR. MCLEOD

Christianity and Individualism Discussed in Historical Setting

STUDY UNEMPLOYMENT

This is the second of two articles on the S.C.M. International Week-End Conference held on Jan. 27 and 28.

"Jesus' first concern with individuals was that they should share his vision of God," said Professor J. McLeod, of Emmanuel College, in the concluding address of the S.C.M. International Conference. Speaking on Christianity and the Individual, he said that from the beginning Christianity dealt with individuals; it will and must do so. Often in the Gospels we can see Jesus going away from the crowd and telling a man or a woman, "I have something to say to thee." A sentence from an early Church Father expresses this main concern of Jesus: "The glory of God is a living man, and the life of man is the vision of God." Indeed the God of Jesus is not a God to be used, but a thrilling reality, inspiring awe and attention. Because God is akin and near to us, life has a meaning.

(Continued on Page 4)

BRITISH IMMIGRATION NOT YET DESIRABLE

More Farmers Would Only Accentuate Economic Problems

PLAN NOW IMPRACTICABLE

"Although Canada has all the mechanical facilities and is developed on a scale suitable for an increased population by immigration, the time for such a procedure is not ripe," stated W. M. Drummond, Assistant Professor of Political Economy, when asked by The Varsity to give his opinion on British immigration into this country.

"Up to 1929 there was no question that an increase in population would bring great returns, but under the present economic conditions it is decidedly undesirable. The idea that the immigrants could occupy the farms in the western provinces is practically out of the question. The reason for this is the false assumption of agricultural conditions today."

Mr. Drummond went on to the effect that this plan, like the "Back-to-the-Land" movement, might appear to be quite rosy, since the farmers, in both cases are supposed to be able to live entirely on the produce from the farm, and in this manner would offer no competition to those already in the district. But, unfortunately, this does not always hold true in practice as in theory. In a depression the farmers

(Continued on Page 2)

EUROPEAN STUDENTS ARDENT SUPPORTERS OF NEW DICTATORS

Dr. Kotschnig Gives Reasons for Prominence of Students in Politics

NATIONALISM INCREASING

Young Men Hold Chief Offices
Under New Nationalistic
Government

"I believe that the combination of political teaching and the active spirit of European students promises a real future for Europe," stated Dr. Walter Kotschnig at the conclusion of his address in Hart House yesterday.

Speaking on the subject, "The part played by Students in European Politics," Dr. Kotschnig, here in connection with the S.C.M. International conference, outlined some of the reasons why students played such an important part in the politics of Europe. "In the first place," he said, "there is a long-standing tradition of student activity in politics. All the political upheavals of the last hundred years or more in Europe have been headed or supported by students. The latest evidence of this is the recent revolution in Spain."

(Continued on Page 2)

FLYING RAID MADE BY HOUSE COMMITTEE

Registration Cards Demanded from Everyone Entering House

Yesterday afternoon between the hours of three and four a check-up was made of all persons entering Hart House. Men were stationed at the various doors to demand credentials. Anyone who entered the House was asked to produce his registration card.

In an interview with The Varsity the Warden made the following statement, "It has always been the custom of the Committee to check up from time to time to see that the House is not used by unauthorized persons. Men students who have not paid their fees have no right to use the facilities of Hart House."

"This check-up is to make it perfectly plain that those men whose registration has been cancelled and who have not paid their University fees, have no right to use Hart House."

Be Ever Mindful of Thy Latter End Advise Excerpts from "Lady's Friend"

By Sally-Go-Round-the-Sun

Far be it from The Varsity to condemn the conduct of the young gentlemen occasionally seen taking their constitutional across the campus, but, in the words of our revered great-aunts, it is not refined. Accordingly, we lay down the following elegant precepts for the guidance of the softer sex in diverse circumstances, from the pen of

A Lady (A.D. 1837)

Before we can discuss beauty and beaux, it is necessary to whisper to the young woman who suffers from cold limbs and extremities, or animal effluvia (B.O. 1933 edition), about BATHS. The whole person should be sponged in cold water and white soap once a day. By practice you will become so expert as not to make any slop on the carpet. (That's a straight quotation, too.) Warm baths will have no debilitating effects if indulged in once a week. Although linen undergarments are more genteel than cotton, the latter will be found warmer.

By A Lady

What every girl should know
A hundred years ago—
Life, my dear Violette, is a prepara-

NEBULOUS PLATFORM OF LIBERALS BLAMED FOR LACK OF INTEREST

Harley States Allegation Made Through Lack of Understanding

PROBLEMS FACED SANELY

Express Hope that Discussion Will Foster Interest in Clubs

When interviewed with regard to the allegations made against the Liberal Club, J. A. Harley, vice-president, issued the following special statement on behalf of the club:

I heartily approve of the statement of Mr. Lay which deplores the lack of interest in political clubs at the University, and I do not think that a finger can be pointed at any particular club. Surely the undergraduates should take more advantage of the opportunities for consideration of the problems today in the different clubs, irrespective of their political allegiance.

The charge that the Liberal Club has suffered due to a lack of a Liberal plan is absurd, and shows a mentality which displays an absolute lack of understanding of Liberalism. Liberalism as exemplified by the Liberal party does not appeal to the passions and prejudices of special interests with promises of a cure-all or panacea for present ills; but the method of Liberalism as expressed by Mr. King provides, "Conscious and deliberate direction, expressed in carefully thought out policies to meet each new situation as it presents itself." Surely young University men should be attracted to a party which attacks problems in such a sane and reasonable manner.

No doubt considerable interest will be aroused by the long-awaited visit of Mr. Bennett to the Hart House debate next month, and I hope that

(Continued on Page 3)

An Apology

The authorship of the brilliant quip "Bachelor buttons have been changed to zippers, and are now taxed on a sliding scale," attributed to Mr. Sam Hughes by The Varsity reporter, has been denied by the Trinity debater. We regret that the misquotation offended Mr. Hughes, and we are therefore pleased to be able to make this correction upon his own request.

Hughes Sees in Impending Election Cause for Recent Activity

LEADERSHIP LACKING

Opposition Deplore Indecision and Vagueness of Liberal Party

The small attendance at the meetings of the Liberal Club is due to poor organization and nebulous platform of this party, according to various well-known campus politicians interviewed by The Varsity during the week-end. "Since the Liberal party is trying to steer a middle course between the other two parties, it is not surprising that it fails to attract undergraduate interest," said Arn Smith, speaking on behalf of the C.C.F. Club. Commenting on the alleged student apathy towards politics in general, Mr. Smith advanced the theory that this could be largely corrected by making a course in political studies, a compulsory subject in the Pass Course.

"Ever since the inception of the Liberal Club on this campus, it has been characterized by poor organization and a complete lack of any outstanding men to make it of any account on the campus," said Dick Bell, president of the Macdonald-Cartier Club, in amplifying Mr. Smith's statement. "In addition the Liberal party at the present time have no original constructive programme of their own to offer to the electorate."

Syd Hermant, when questioned as to his political leanings, declared that the various parties did not interest him. However, though totally unacquainted with any Liberal principles, he had won the prize offered at the annual oratorical contest sponsored by the Women's Liberal Club two years previously.

M. Wayman, when questioned as to the interest taken by students in the

(Continued on Page 4)

LARGE FIELD OFFERED TO CHURCH WORKERS

University Graduates Needed to Carry on Important Work

BROAD EDUCATION HELPFUL

"I have come to the conclusion that the Church is the most influential channel through which one can work in Canada," stated Miss Winnifred Thomas, the General Secretary of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church during her lecture on "Women in the Church" at Wymilwood Monday afternoon.

"The church offers opportunities either for voluntary or paid workers. University graduates who really care and who give themselves are soon in demand beyond the community." The Church sends women only where there is the greatest need. In church work there is the constant drawing out of the best you have to give which drives you to study and thought and stimulates you to grow.

"The secret of life is not independence but interdependence," said Miss Thomas. "The more you understand different kinds of people the richer your life will be."

"If you go into church work seek to study enough so that you will have something of quality and depth to put into your work," advised Miss Thomas. In conclusion the speaker declared, "I do not know of a single person in the church in my ten years of association who has left it because she was dissatisfied with the work she was pursuing."

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. G. Prentice, '35,
Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:

E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Patricia Palmer Assistant—Margaret Eddy

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30th, 1934

WANTED: AN EMPLOYMENT BUREAU

It has been brought to our attention that Mr. E. A. Macdonald, secretary of the Students' Administrative Council, has been able to render invaluable service to students of this University by providing part-time work for them. Through his efforts something like fifty undergraduates have secured temporary employment in the past year. In view of this, it would appear that the work might well be expanded to embrace a Bureau of Employment, conducted through the S.A.C. office. The McGill Students' Council operates a Bureau of Appointments, a distinct service to its undergraduates. The creation of such a department by the S.A.C. would undoubtedly be welcomed by the students at Toronto, and would commend the members of the Council to the faculties which they represent.

There are, of course, other employment agencies on the campus but there is no reason why they should conflict with an office in Hart House. In the present distressing times the more avenues to employment for undergraduates the better. Working through the S.A.C. and upon the advice of faculty representatives, it would be in close touch with individual needs among the undergraduate body. The contact which the S.A.C. office has with downtown offices and business concerns marks it as the logical medium for affording deserving students with temporary or summer employment.

BRITISH IMMIGRATION NOT YET DESIRABLE

(Continued from Page 1)

are nearly always the first hit and the last to recover. Present day agricultural prices testify to that!

If the immigrants, instead of going on the farms, went into the urban centres, this would tend to cause more unemployment, a thing which Labour would not permit. In past years large sums of money have been expended in inducing British immigration, with the result that after being "broken in" they have crossed the line to the States.

England, in bringing up this question in parliament probably has some economic deal in mind, with immigration as one of the factors. Moreover the question remains, are these the exact type of immigrants that are wanted—those that England is getting rid of? Immigration will be all right in the near future and some steps should be taken to aid this, but right now it would be a mistake.

EUROPEAN DICTATORS UPHELD BY STUDENTS

(Continued from Page 1)

Dr. Kotschnig explained that in Europe political parties are much more clear-cut than in this country, and each of them stands for a definite ideal. In Europe there are at present six or seven dictators who cannot rely on the support of the older members of the population, who have been brought up in the tradition of democracy. Consequently they go to the students for support, and very young men are to be found in virtually all the important positions under the dictators.

"As most of the student body is drawn from the middle classes, and the middle classes are essentially nationalistic, the trend is definitely towards nationalism. I am certain that Germany, for instance, will eventually be pushed in the direction of real collectivism and planned economy," Dr. Kotschnig concluded.

SMELTING ANCIENT PROCESS

Iron was smelted to make simple gardening tools as far back as 1200 B.C.

Liberal Club to Hear Mr. K. Christie

"Liberalism and the Cost of Government" will be the topic of the address given by Mr. Kenneth Christie at the meeting of the University Liberal Club in the Music Room at Hart House at 8.15 tonight.

Mr. Christie, a graduate of Victoria College, is one of the more prominent of the younger Liberals of the city and he has always taken a keen interest in the fortunes of the University Liberal Club.

He is the leader of a group which has made a special study of governmental problems and he will be accompanied by several members of the group who will assist in the discussion which is to follow the address.

MEDICAL WOMEN HOLD ANNUAL NABOB TEA

Staff and Students Mingle at University Women's Club

On Saturday afternoon, January twenty-seventh, the University Women's Club was the scene of the annual Nabob Tea held by the medical women's undergraduate association. This tea is fast becoming an institution whereby staff and students mingle to their mutual pleasure. Dr. Marion Hilliard and Misses Jessie Gray and Bliss MacQuarrie, received the guests, amongst whom were Sir Robert and Lady Falconer, Dr. Augusta Stow-Gullen, Dr. Edna Guest, Dr. Norma Ford, Dr. and Mrs. Fletcher McPhedran and many others too numerous to mention.

Mrs. Edward Gallie, Dr. Manson, Mrs. Hendry and Mrs. Wasteneys poured tea. An atmosphere of renewed friendships and keen enjoyment pervaded the gathering, and as the guests reluctantly departed, they were unanimous in declaring this tea a thorough success.

Art, Music and Drama

The Royal Alexandra

Last night at the Royal Alexandra it was Toronto's privilege to have the opportunity of seeing the New York Theatre Guild's presentation of S. N. Behrman's Biography. Unfortunately, it was an opportunity of which few, so far as this reviewer could see, availed themselves.

The play concerns itself with an artist of thirty-five who is engaged at the moment in writing the story of a somewhat purple past. Into the play appear the first love, now on the way to a senatorship, who naturally desires the work to be suppressed and the uncompromising but attractive anarchist who longs with all his heart for an exposure of a member of the class which he hates. From this situation the play Biography is written. It is not one of those comedies which Mr. Shaw deprecates—where the spectator is unwillingly tickled into laughing at incongruous situations and artificial lines, but one with moving situations and great depth of humanity.

The production itself was of the highest artistic merit. Here was no supporting company with a star, but a group of capable artists to help unfold the story of the heroine. The only exception, perhaps, which could be taken was Mr. Strudwick's presentation of the character of "Richard Kurt" which at times almost assumed Pecksniffian proportions of consistency in his downright lack of compromise. For the rest the acting was as good as any that has been seen here for some time; Miss Flynn's bit as "Slade Kinnicoat" being especially refreshing in the last act.

Miss Claire's own performance was a triumph in every respect. She lacked that fault which is to be found in most stars of utilizing her technique to draw the eyes of her audience. Miss Claire demonstrates in all she does that acting is after all a fine art, without receding in acting as such an art will find sorting to such tricks. Those interested in Miss Claire's performance a delight; others will find in this production entertainment of the highest order.

T.R.G.

Massey Hall

Unparalleled in artistic sweep and achievement, Yehudi Menuhin, American boy genius of the violin, who will be heard tonight in Massey Hall, recorded only his 17th birthday on January 22nd, 1934. Today critics in great musical centres declare of him: "Already decades have passed since the world has heard such an electrifying musician as this magic violinist Yehudi Menuhin." "The Old World and the New are at his feet." Such tributes are everywhere showered on him.

At the age of 3 he begged for a violin; at 4 came his first lessons on it; at 5 he stood before an audience that listened in astonishment at his musically precocity. Then, aged 7, came a great day for Yehudi; standing on the stage as soloist with that same orchestra which had stirred his first musical awakening, the child played a violin concerto; evoking overwhelming enthusiasm. One year later he attracted and astonished New York, being taken soon afterward by his

(Continued on Page 4)

With the Theatres

Shea's—

Shea's entertainment bill this week features a Jimmy Dunn screen presentation which Dunn fans may enjoy. The new feminine lead, Claire Trevor, receives an unofficial O.K. from your humble correspondent. The stage show may lack originality but is definitely good. Colby and Murray have seldom been surpassed on the vaudeville stage for sheer gracefulness in the dance. Two smart Irish lasses strut smartly on the same number. Bomby and his Gang, familiar to most of us, present several operatic selections with a mixed quartet. Most, if not all, of the eight acts have been seen in the city before, but the programme is sufficiently versatile to please most theatre-goers.

E.C.P.

Imperial—

The rare combination of an enjoyable stage show and a first rate screen feature is the presentation at the Imperial Theatre this week.

Counsellor at Law, a Universal picture, is a stirring story of the ups and downs of a shrewd New York lawyer, in the person of John Barrymore. Barrymore portrays a man whose one passion is work, a man who climbs from the slums to an office in the Empire State Building, loves a faithless wife, and is loved by his private secretary—but you will want to watch the plot unfold before your own eyes. John Barrymore is at his best, and he is supported by a cast including Bebe Daniels, Doris Kenyon, and ten players who originated their roles in the sensational Elmer Rice stage play which ran for two years on Broadway. A chatty switchboard operator provides much of the humour and office atmosphere.

On the stage the Imperial presents "Spices of 1934", Broadway's newest sensational musical revue. Count Berni Vici and his 15-girl symphonists offer a varied and well-executed programme ranging from the "Last Round-up" to "Ravel's 'Bolero'" and Tchaikovsky's "1812 Overture". The orchestra is unique, and its work superb. Among the other stage attractions are Harriet Cruise, Columbia radio star; Mary and Bobby, dance specialists; and Bordine and Carrol, from the Folies Bergeres, Paris. Mademoiselle does a Toronto version of the revived "fan" dance.

For an entertaining stage show, with colour and lighting effects seldom seen here, and a thrilling and well-acted picture, we advise you to hie yourself at the Imperial this week. You won't be disappointed!

DeC. H. R.

The POKER HANDS You Save Will Bring The Presents You Want!

Save all the Poker Hands you can get and it won't take long to secure the free gifts you want. In tobacco stores and at cigarette counters, look for the Turret Poker Hand Exchange Boards which will enable you to hasten the completion of your sets.

Quality and Mildness Turret CIGARETTES

SAVE THE POKER HANDS

Poker Hands are also packed with Turret Pipe Tobacco and Turret Cigarette Tobacco.

You ought to see the Tivoli this week.

M.C.C.

Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Ltd.

TO-NIGHT ONLY MASSEY HALL

YEHUDI MENUHIN

WORLD FAMOUS BOY VIOLIN GENIUS

TICKETS: HALF PRICE FOR STUDENTS

Present Registration at Massey Hall Box Office for identification before 7.30 p.m.

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St. K1. 0991

571 Yonge St. K1. 3270

JUST STARTED The BON-TON CAFE

"Just a Real Charming Place" Private Dining Room for Banquets a Specialty.

Special Full Course Dinner and Supper 25 cents.

Courteous Staff Open 7 a.m. to 2 a.m. 558 Yonge St. Phone MI. 0145

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician 167 Yonge St. (Upstairs) (Opposite Simpson's)

THE ANNUAL CONCERT of The Blue and White Band

Convocation Hall

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20th

This year better than ever before. Guest artists, and a fine programme. Keep this date open.

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

VARSITY INVADES HAMILTON FOR O.H.A. FIXTURE TO-NIGHT

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

Our prayers for colder weather have been answered with a vengeance. The skating may be fine but the walking is decidedly not so good. If things continue as they are, the attendance at the first interfaculty hockey game will probably be composed of The Varsity reporter and the respective coaches and subs.

Nevertheless at the Stadium Rink tonight at 7 o'clock, the Vic second team and St. Mike's are playing the opening game of the series.

Marion Shaidle, who has starred for St. Mike's baseball team, is expected to be the outstanding player on the hockey line-up. Victoria have had a great deal more practice, so their second team may prove to be better than the best St. Mike's can put up.

The hockey game that was supposed to take place tomorrow night between the Varsity team and Fran Crooks Westman's team will not be played, owing to the fact that the arena will not be available. Last week the arrangements for the game with Preston fell through for the same reason.

It is a regrettable fact that the team did not have the opportunity of playing a game this week as it would have been the best kind of workout for them in preparation for the intercollegiate match at Kingston this coming Saturday. Queen's will be trying hard to win the cup which they haven't seen for some time and Coach MacPherson's squad may meet more opposition than we would wish for it, especially with the strength of the team untried before the first encounter.

The intercollegiate basketball teams haven't passed the practicing stage either. And no prospect of any games in the near future either! Sally Ballard and Wilma Hazlett are busy trying to get a team of graduates together to oppose the senior outfit but the game won't be played this week.

INTERFACULTY GAMES CLOSELY CONTESTED

U.C. and S.P.S. Are Winners in First Outdoor Event

GOOD HOCKEY DISPLAYED

With the thermometer hovering around six degrees less than nothing, interfaculty hockey made its bow for 1934 on the outdoor rink at Varsity Stadium last night. University College and Dents clashed in the opening game and U.C. celebrated the occasion with a 1-0 victory over the Dents, while Senior School downed the Meds 4-1 in the second encounter.

The Dents-U.C. fixture was a fast, wide open game which produced real hockey. Both teams were backed up by good goal-keeping, with McCartney holding down the Dents end and Loughed in the U.C. nets. There was no score in the first period of play but in the second Keith rammed home what proved to be the winning goal.

Senior School had things much their own way in their fixture with Meds, which produced good hockey in the opening game and then degenerated into a shiny game. The Engineers stepped into an early lead, running in three goals before the Meds were able to counter once. Scott then registered Meds' single point and McLaughlin came back with his second counter for the Engineers to conclude

BENGALS AND BLUES MEET IN HAMILTON

Group Leaders Hosts in Game With Varsity

BLUES SEEK REVENGE

Tonight Warren Stevens' Senior Blue sextet face a yeoman task when they invade the Mountain City to engage the league leading Hamilton Tigers in a Senior O.H.A. tilt, which promises to be a great battle from start to finish. Fresh from three consecutive victories over Niagara Falls, Port Colborne and Kitchener respectively, the battling Blues are out to avenge the stinging defeats administered to them during the current season.

However, the Bengal sextet at present are the class in the Senior O.H.A. circle, and are very difficult to defeat on their own ice. In McGowan, Blake, Bennett and Conick they have a potential scoring threat, while Farrell and Radke play a very robust defensive type of game, providing the agile Marsh, in the Hamilton nets ample protection. The two Varsity forward lines of Cunningham, Hendry, MacPherson, McConvey, Jeffrey and McClelland which have been interchanged frequently, in their last few games have chosen a finesse around their opponents' goal mouth and no doubt "Hawie" Marsh will be provided with many anxious moments. The defence pair of Fullerton and Rey will be guarding the reliable Frank Shipp in the Varsity citadel, from the Bengal sorties.

CANOE CLUB DEFEAT VARSITY PUCKSTERS

Many Attacks on Nets Only Lively Feature in Game

FINAL SCORE 4-3

The best Bill Dewar's Varsity juniors could do last night in their O.H.A. engagement with the Toronto Canoe Club sextet was come close, and as their 4 to 3 defeat would indicate they certainly did. The victory for the Paddlers was the first they have registered in the season's campaign and then it was anything but decisive.

The Varsity-Toronto Canoe Club affair, which was the curtain raiser to the double header, was just another junior O.H.A. game, similar to most of the listless exhibitions which have been served up this season.

A penalty to Sissons in the first period paved the way for the only counter of that stanza, when King beat Owen after picking up Wilson's rebound. The Paddlers added another in the opening minutes of the second period, but it was of a rather doubtful nature and only allowed after considerable discussion. Ripley and O'Leary then tied the count when the scoring for the first period. From there to the end the game slowed up considerably, neither team producing any further scoring efforts.

Dents — McCartney, Spence, McDonald, Squires, Joint, Valiquette, Grecco, Clarke, Linkin, Mackie.

U.C. — Loughed, Keith, Warner, Connor, Cramp, Harwood, Jamieson, Button, Corrigan, Bigelow, McMichael, Dawson.

School — Welch, Kennedy, Wilson, McNiel, Murray, Hodgson, King, Caldwell, McLaughlin.

Meds — Leachman, Scott, Lynch, Coleman, Young, Thompson, Preston, Sniffon, Thompson, McCreary. Referee—Jimmie McPherson.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

Tonight the rejuvenated Varsity hockey outfit under the tutelage of Warren Stevens, will make a sortie into the confines of the city of Hamilton, lair of the Bengals. The kitties may be expected to scratch the boy blues but the latter aren't going to be lacerated by even the league leaders. In other words we won't call the Varsity squad to win but we'll call them to make the Tigers work for the two points they will get. With six more games to play Varsity is now five points below Port Colborne and three above Kitchener. On Friday night the boys will be playing McGill in Montreal. Then next week they have three games at home, two O.H.A. Sr. contests on Tuesday and Thursday, and then the return game with McGill on Saturday afternoon probably.

In the course of a chat with Warren Stevens coach of the Varsity Big Five champions last year, we secured his opinion on what may have happened in Kingston Saturday night when the Tricolour made it so close a battle with McGill. Steve ventured the opinion that it may have been the fact that Lewin had an off night or it may have been Bewes of Queen's sinking those long farm-league shots that make your hair stand on end when they ripple the twine with a swish coming from back of centre floor. The unfortunate part of such a state of affairs in a basketball game is that such shots count just as much as a basket that is really earned. Lewin, the captain of the McGill team, is their most valuable player and when he has an off night, which isn't often, the Redmen have a tough struggle to pull out a win. Lewin made four points in Kingston. Some basketball authorities would say that Don Young is the best player in the intercollegiate series. He is very valuable as a playmaker and floor general but if his cohorts on the front line can't run around with him and score on his passes it is a different story because Young himself cannot set up the hoops. McGill has lost Calhoun and Rice, the latter being the more valuable. Queen's has lost Newman, Carter and McLaughlin. Varsity has acquired a well-balanced team for the first time in many years and they look as though this may be a Varsity cage title year in the college series.

The interfaculty series opened yesterday for the student hockey teams with two good games. U.C. took the measure of a strong Dents team 1-0. The Red and White must have given the Dental College outfit a bit of a start in the opener because we had been told that the latter faculty had designs on the title this year. Sr. S.P.S. was engaged with Meds in the other game of the doubleheader and flashed the light four times to once by the doctors. There will be more enthusiasm in the scheduled games this year because of the trouble that has been taken by the Athletic Directorate to make satisfactory provision for the playing of games on good ice and at reasonable times.

Varsity enthusiasts in the sport of skiing will be interested to know that the three-man team representing U. of T. at Lucerne's Seignior Club intercollegiate meet brought home two second place ribbons or something. Ted Burpee, IV Trinity, finished behind Clark of St. Patrick's College, Ottawa, in the 18 kilometre cross-country race. Then W. S. Carlson performed well enough in the jumping competition to secure second place. Carlson is in II yr. Forestry. M. Sherwood, II S.P.S., broke a pole in the cross-country and was thus deprived of much chance of finishing in the money so to speak.

On Feb. 10th and 11th at Dartmouth, the international intercollegiate ski meet will be held. This is the most important meet of the current season for the college ski teams. Varsity may send a team to this meet but it has not as yet been definitely decided. In the event of the trip being made by a Varsity team, preparations are under way now and if the weather permits, there will be a series of trial races held at Caledon this coming week end for this purpose.

Speaking of skiing, one gayly-clad and elaborately-equipped performer on the elongated barrel staves is said to have been practicing diligently the other day on the stretches of ice that line the curb along St. George St. in front of the fraternities, Trinity House and Whitney Hall. Requests are rumoured to have emitted from the aforesaid sanctums to the effect that the inmates would appreciate it if more skiers would parade in full regalia for the amusement of the holders of window seats.

In this column yesterday we made the statement that all Varsity had to do to enter the amateur hockey playoffs would be to defeat McGill and enter as winners of the intercollegiate series. But it seems that some time or other the rest of the O.H.A. Sr. clubs objected to letting U. of T. have two chances to their one at the title. The result is that the rule book now includes a clause whereby Varsity enters those playdowns through the O.H.A. or not at all. That is just one more reason why we think Varsity would be better off right now if they were not in the O.H.A. as things stand.

Foster was serving a penalty to send the teams into the final twenty minutes deadlocked at 2-2. The last lap produced considerable excitement. Housley put the winners one up on a gangling attack with O'Leary doing penance and a few minutes later when Varsity were pressing in an effort to get the goal back A. Hara broke away for another counter for the Boatmen. A last minute rally by Varsity gave them their third point and they were swarming around the winners' net when the final whistle went, which prevented them from notching the equalizer.

T.C.C. — Goal, McQuestion; defence, Hedges, Foster; centre, Wilson, wings, King, O'Hara; subs, Chisholm, Barrett, Kelly, Housley.

Varsity — Goal, Owen; defence, Vainwright, O'Leary; centre, Poupore; wings, Ripley, Lavery; subs, White, Morgan, Sissons, Walkey.

EYESAVING BOND
REGISTERED

Insist on this watermark, visible in every full size sheet

Long hours of night study ahead of you?

Try EYESAVING BOND and avoid that "Tired Eye" feeling. Just try it. You will be surprised.

It has extra strength that resists tearing at the punching

For sale at your Book or Stationery Store

LUCKETT'S
STERLING
LINE
Made in Canada

Insist on this Trade Mark in all your Loose Leaf Books and Refills.

The Lockett Loose Leaf, Limited - Toronto

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
CREST PINS or RINGS
(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body. Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time in Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL
Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

ALLEGATIONS ANSWERED

(Continued from Page 1)

the students will welcome the visit of the Prime Minister of Canada to a University debate. The visit of Mr. Woodsworth last fall and the impending visit of Mr. Bennett show that the Debates Committee are fostering interest in dominion affairs. However, I would suggest that in view of the nearness of a provincial election, a debate be arranged on the record of the present administration, and that Mr. Hepburn be invited to be the visiting speaker.

I hope that the present discussion will bring to the attention of the students the existence of these various political clubs, and that all the clubs will benefit from the publicity obtained.

VARSAITY WOMEN AS HEALTHY AS EVER

Dr. Gordon Satisfied that First Year as Good as Predecessors

"The standard of health among the first year women students of the university, is as high or higher this year, as last," stated Dr. Edith Gordon, women's medical advisor yesterday. In an interview with The Varsity, Dr. Gordon said that a complete report of comparative health conditions would not be made up until the end of the term, but according to information at hand at present, there is no marked lowering of the general health status in the results of the recent compulsory physical examinations.

"There are one hundred and fifty students taking the general physical training course; these are students who were found to be in A1 physical condition. Ten students are attending corrective classes and twenty one, found to be physically unfit, are exempt from all physical training. The only discrepancy from last year's conditions occurs in this last class, since there are seven more students exempted this year."

Sport Notices

Sr. Interfaculty Assault—

Entry list for senior interfaculty assault closes today at one o'clock. Those entering should hand in eligibility certificates to Athletic Office. Fencing bouts will start Wednesday afternoon.

Rowing Teams—

P.T. for rowing. Men wanting P.T. for rowing are reminded that Friday, Feb. 2nd is the last day to sign special list in the athletic office. Anyone who hasn't signed this list will not be given P.T. under any consideration.

Sr. Ice Basketball—

Practice Tuesday, 3-4, Hart House. Everybody out.

Durnan Cup—

Second groups of the Durnan Cup to be held today (Tuesday). Events will be 100 yd. back and 200 yd. breast.

Interfaculty Hockey—

Owing to a change in the hours assigned for the interfaculty hockey games, at Varsity Arena on Tuesday, the following change has been made: 3.30, Jr. U.C. vs Victoria; 4.30, Jr. School vs Jr. Meds. It is absolutely imperative that these games start on time.

Indoor Track Meet—

The 220 yds, mile and standing broad jump events will be held tonight from 4.30 to 6.

Trinity Baseball—

Practice Tuesday at 2 p.m. Game with Sr. Vic at 4 p.m. Will the following please be on hand: Burchell, Hayward, Wyckoff, Monteith, Whitbread, McCullough, Davis, Kemp, Blagrove, Martin, Futhey.

PANHELLENIC BALL, Monday, Feb. 5th, Royal York Hotel
Tickets from any Fraternity Girl, $1.60 including tax

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

BRITISH CONSOLS

COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

British Consols

SEALED IN MOISTUREPROOF CELLOPHANE

LIBERAL PLAN DEPLORED

(Continued from Page 1)

Student League, declared that this organization was both political and economic in aim and in contrast to the various political clubs around the campus, consisted of members who were ready to act as well as to talk.

"I should imagine that twenty must have been a record attendance for the Liberal Club," said Sam Hughes when approached by The Varsity. At any meeting he had attended there had rarely been more than half a dozen present and he could only attribute this extraordinary attendance at the last meeting, to the fact that the Liberal party had just realized that an election was impending and had hastily built up some sort of platform.

TORONTONENSIS

WRITE-UPS

and

GROUP

PHOTOGRAPHS

are

OUT NOW

Please hand these into the
S.A.C. Office, Hart House

Have You
Lost
Anything?

If so, put
a notice in
"The Varsity."

It will help
you find it.

Phone
S.A.C. Office,
Hart House,
Midway 6221.

Classified Advertisements

DANCING
S. & S. DANCING ACADEMY
834 Yonge Street
Phone K1. 4278
3 LESSONS $1.00

MEALS
Excellent meals, home atmosphere.
Single meals or weekly rate.
Discount to students, 1 1/2 Spadina
Rd. Kingsdale 1574.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

U.C. PARLIAMENTARY CLUB

Thursday, February 1st at 4 p.m.—Debate on Bill No. 3 to institute machinery for the sterilization of the unfit.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB

Mrs. Ann Anderson Perry, well-known journalist, will speak on "Publicity" at the meeting of the University Press Club today at 79 St. George St. Tea at 4.30. The meeting will begin promptly at 5. Contributions for the short story contest will also be accepted.

LORETTO COLLEGE TEA

There will be a talk by Mr. Chapman of St. Michael's College on "Conventry Patmore" at a tea at 4 p.m. on Friday, February 2 at Loretto College. Everybody interested is cordially invited to attend.

IOTA ALPHA PI

The Iota Alpha Pi annual subscription dance will be held on Wednesday evening, January 31st at the Embassy Club. There will be a regular floor show and Ferde Mowry's music. The admission is the regular Embassy price. Tickets may be purchased from members or at the club.

VIC DRAMATICS

The members of Jean Dowling's group will present a one-act play to-day, Jan. 30th, at 5.10 p.m. in Hart House Theatre. Admission free.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

Canadian Brides during 1933 were successfully caught?

What per cent were fumbled and how many of these were recovered?

C-C

Why must the contents of this column invariably be interrupted by the letters, "C-C"?

Has it any reference to the unit of liquid measurement, such as so many CCs of, say, dishwater?

Dishwater you infering?

C-C SENIOR!

—The City Slicker!

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

parents for study in Paris with Georges Enesco, famous Rumanian violinist.

At 10 Yehudi Menuhin playing at his debut the Beethoven concerto with the New York Symphony Orchestra, treated demonstrations surpassing all precedent, just as he had done shortly before in Paris on his debut with the Lamoureux Orchestra. Since then Yehudi Menuhin has conquered all of America and all Europe.

As a particular endeavour to aid the students of the University of Toronto in their wish to hear the best in music, the management of Massey Hall are offering bona fide students, tickets at half price for tonight's concert. Present your registration card at the Box Office before 7.30 p.m. We hope many students will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear Yehudi Menuhin.

Eaton Auditorium

There is a great possibility that I will get involved in an article which might be entitled "Shawn the Man, and Shawn the Dancer". Ted Shawn appeared last night in a dance recital at Eaton's Auditorium with a group of six male dancers and any critical remarks thereon will be extremely difficult to express. Shawn is perhaps the greatest of pioneers in the modern American dance; he was one of its great exponents and he will continue as one of the great teachers. His own exhibition last evening was not impressive, and I wonder if he will be satisfied with fame as past master of American dance. All that remains of Ted Shawn, The Dancer, is the intellect and some spirit, but the perfection of physique is lacking, and it is impossible to keep memories of the now pitiful Fokine's out of thought's range when we see Shawn dancing. That is Shawn, The Dancer.

Shawn, the Man, however, is the cue for flows of praise, not unwarranted. Shawn, we may call the philoso-

TRINITY CLASSICAL SOCIETY

Tonight at 8 o'clock a meeting of the Trinity College Classical Society will be held in the Board Room of the College. Mr. Frank Butler will read a paper on the subject "The Empire of the Antonines". Refreshments.

317 VICTORIA

Please note change in date of class party from Sat. Feb. 3 to Fri. Feb. 23. Party will be held in Burwash Hall.

VIC WOMEN'S LITERARY SOCIETY

Mr. Lismer's group in Art Appreciation will meet Tuesday, 30th, at the Grange at 5 o'clock. Exhibitions by Cornelius Kreighoff's paintings—early Canadian. Your last chance to see a specially interesting group.

ITALIAN-SPANISH CLUB

There will be a special meeting for the Italian students of the Italian-Spanish Club in Wymilwood at 4.15 on Thursday afternoon to hear an address given by His Excellency Piero Parini, the general director of Italian schools abroad. There will also be a presentation of a short Italian play, "Telemaco Il Disordinato", the cast including Miss Margaret Pirie, Miss Betty Brunke, Mr. Frank Francesco, and Mr. Cremasco. Mr. Randolph Crowe and Miss Margaret Rutherford will provide the musical entertainment.

pher of the dance. He has studied this art, the most fundamental art of them all, and he has been able to come to significant conclusions. Shawn spoke intimately to the large Auditorium audience last night and explained his theory of the dance.

Unfortunately I do not agree with some of the foundations on which he bases his new revolution in dance form. He insists that the dance is a man's art and thereby implies an exclusion of women dancers. He bases his argument on the fact that in the ancient world and in present primitive communities women are excluded from dance rituals and he goes on to expound the view that if the dance is to live the invasion of women into the dance, which has been going on for the last few centuries, must be repulsed. He has become a sort of emancipator and he must fail. Music and musicians are still imbued with a rhythm that is definitely connected with feminine movement and Shawn himself has been unable to keep out of his dance arrangements, gestures which are definitely effeminate. The fault is not with Shawn's interpretation of the dance, however, rather with the interpretation of history, for he has forgotten to take into account the social status of women in either ancient or modern primitive communities. The neglect of women in the arts in none of which women of other civilizations have been particularly noted as great participants, would be a retrogression that modern civilization will hardly be expected to make. If, though, Shawn's crusade brings men into the art of the dance it will have succeeded amply; we need more Kruttsbergs and Cartiers, more Escuderos and Weidmanns, yes and more Shawn.

Last evening's programme gave samples of all the dance forms in which Shawn pioneered. Shawn's best solo bit was his famous Spanish Flamenco Dances in which he was able to give expression to his own personality. By far the most outstanding dances on the programme were the "Workers' Songs of Middle Europe" which were dance expressions of the modern trend of propaganda in art. In conclusion, the work of the group of six men dancers who were trained by Shawn shows that Shawn is to be a great factor in leading the way to new and more perfect forms of the modern dance. The young men had caught the modern spirit and were well trained in technique and out of this small group will possibly grow a school of dance form to be influenced by even more modern formulae and which will soon bring back the dance to its lofty position as the most fundamental of all artistic expression.

M.B.L.

INCONSEQUENCE

(Continued from Page 1)

challenge of despotism," and the sentiment that "Canada's glorious army of war dead still lives on!" The predominant attitude was: We aren't ashamed of our share in the war; we're still rather proud of it. These pictures are really glorified to remind us of half-forgotten glories—our doctors stopping to rescue a wounded enemy in No Man's Land; our nurses martyred at their posts by German shells—the magnanimity and gallant courage of our soldiers and the depraved brutality of the foes who chose our hospitals and churches as targets for their guns.

The Star is to be congratulated on having deleted all such sentimental twaddle from its later pictures. Glorification of our troops merely because they fought for instead of against us can serve no good purpose; it can serve to blind us to the reality of the sufferings they endured. Even now few returned men will talk frankly of their war experiences. This is not the modest deprecation of courageous heroes who would eschew the glory they deserve; it is the silence of men who desire only to forget, of men who know in their hearts that they were not the gallant heroes we portray them, but mere dumb, driven beasts, cannon-fodder enduring because they must, because there was no escape save a merciful wound or death.

C.L.C.

A LADY'S FRIEND

(Continued from Page 1)

Questions' or 'Tiddlywinks'. Should the conversation take an unpleasant turn, quickly open a volume of etchings kept on the centre table for that purpose."

By A Lady

A young lady should be on guard against her youthful instructors. Serious politeness is her best shield against their rashness. (Hm! Did they ever try ridicule? Never remind me that you are a candidate for matrimony—treat them as if they were intellectual beings. Remember, my child, that a woman must always twist to be chosen. If you do not want to be a marked woman, make no effort to keep the most agreeable gentleman in the room entirely to yourself. Which last remark is most heartily concurred in.

By A Lady (A.D. 1934)

Hush! Hush! Whisper who dares—No woman can strip her arms to the shoulders, and show her back and bosom, without injuring her mind. Upon retiring the undergarments should be arranged in a well-ventilated, but secluded spot. In the case of a sudden fire, consider how mortified you would feel to see a gentleman stumbling over your petticoats! Yes—said

By A Lady

Several exercises may be indulged in with the greatest propriety, if suitable arrangements are made. We cannot recommend fishing—it should be repugnant to the feelings of a humane and delicate young woman to pleasure in torturing and killing those pretty, harmless creatures. The dangers attendant on horseback exercise to a gentlewoman are so numerous that it should never be indulged in without female companionship. (Can't take it, eh?) Memo—in the country the study of mineralogy or botany will render walks highly salubrious.

To A Lady

Ustinks we are glad we are not an er—lady.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

(Continued from Page 1)

potent incentive to those who wish to test their powers of speech. Lucky winners in recent years have been Mary Clarke, Norah Bowers, and Rae Himmel.

Rules and lists of the contest are posted in Whitney Hall, the Union, and the U.C. cloak room. Those intending to participate are urged to sign now, so that arrangements can be made for the "heats" if necessary.

Students are invited to attend this Oratorical Contest, and enjoy what has always proved an hour's excellent entertainment.

ALBERTA TAKES TROPHY

The University of Alberta has won the McGowan Trophy for debating.

The staff of The Manitoban the student newspaper of University of Manitoba, has been given the opportunity of inspecting the different departments of the Winnipeg Tribune.

PLEASURE IS WHAT I SMOKE FOR.

BUCKINGHAM
GIVE REAL PLEASURE—THE BEST SMOKING
VALUE IN TOWN

A FULL SATISFYING SMOKE FOR EVERY CENT

THAT'S TELLING THEM.
SMOKE BUCKINGHAM "SEZ I."
AND SMOKE FOR PLEASURE.
AND PREMIUMS!

It's
'throat-easy'
Smoke
Buckingham
PREMIUM CARDS IN EVERY PACK

CANCER INVESTIGATIONS

(Continued from Page 1)

He was inclined to be skeptical of its value as a cure-all, in view of the number of so-called cures which on careful investigation had been found inapplicable to the type of cancer to be found in man. Dr. Ryerson said, however, that he had a great respect for Dr. Francis Carter Wood, the head of the institute, who was doing valuable work in his chosen field of research. When questioned about research work in this line in Toronto University, Dr. Ryerson stated that a great deal of work was being done not only by means of surgery and the X-ray but also in the study of radium in its application to cancer treatment. Dr. N. B. Taylor, Professor of Physiology, stated that he was not in a position to testify as to the ultimate possibilities of the discovery, since he had had no access to literature dealing with the subject.

However, he informed The Varsity that Dr. F. G. Banting and his associates were conducting extensive experiments in the search for a cure for such malignant growths, at the Banting Institute.

STUDY UNEMPLOYMENT

(Continued from Page 1)

ing, far wider than the narrow circle of our family, village, town or nation. "The first challenge of Christianity is to believe, not to do 'The New Testament shows people who saw and accepted a vision before they understood it, and something of the splendour above was communicated to them. 'Faith is being fascinated; the first word of religion is to see, not to do.' But what are the results from our yielding to this vision? The Gospels shows us first a great release. Life has grown bigger, though the outward conditions may not have been altered. Then, life is explained by a new set of motives. 'Indeed Jesus did not tell men what to do, but he put them in the mood to do it, and do it gladly, with a love for the work!' How can we change the world if we refuse the vision to change ourselves? Christ, who was real, was able to love and work against hatred because he always saw the vision."

The Conference divided itself into three groups, one of which studied the question of unemployment, under the leadership of Professor Cassidy. As an analysis of the problem it reported that unemployment was chronic in all countries since the industrial revolution. It is a result of business men buying labour rather than maintaining it, because they operate only for a profit. Students should not be content with helping relief committees, but should study the causes and possible remedies. They will have to compromise with the ideals of the group, at times, in order to strengthen the machine which is primarily necessary for carrying a policy, but they must devote themselves to the solution of the problem of unemployment which may wreck our social order.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31st, 1934

No. 75

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Moscow—A new height record was claimed for stratosphere ascents but the balloon which made the flight is reported missing.

Hamilton—$75,000 damage was caused by a fire in the heart of the business district last night.

Ottawa—Premier Bennett last night condemned the banning of titles in 1919 as illegal.

Rev. A. E. Smith, secretary of the Canadian Labour Defence League was charged with sedition by a Grand Jury. The charge resulted from statements attributed to him at a public meeting on Jan. 17.

An abridged edition of "Cry Havoc" is to be distributed throughout Ontario schools by the Department of Education.

More than 400 passengers were marooned on snowbound trains in Quebec and New Brunswick.

GOVERNMENT COSTS UNDER DISCUSSION

Check on Expenditure Needed
Says Christie at Liberal Meeting

SUGGESTS MERGERS

Last evening Mr. Kenneth Christie, graduate of Victoria College and past-president of the Liberal Association of Toronto, addressed a meeting of the Liberal Club of the University in the Music Room of Hart House. The meeting, which was fairly well attended, was addressed on the subject of "Liberalism and the Cost of Government in Canada".

In introducing his topic, Mr. Christie pointed out that there was an increasing need for all party members to be well informed on the important questions of the day, since there was a general tendency for people to vote independently of the traditional party lines, accepting those leaders who appeared to be most intelligent and most conversant with the problems to be faced. All classes today are interested in the matter of government, and for that reason those who hoped to lead today must be well informed on political problems.

"One of the topics which commands most interest in every circle of the community today is that of the cost of government," the speaker stated. "A study of this subject is particularly difficult in Canada because of the inadequacy of reliable statistics, because of the complexity of government organization and because of the diversity of bookkeeping systems used. It is plain, however, that the debts and expenditures of governments in Canada has increased enormously in recent years. As J. J. McLeod, President of the Bank of Nova Scotia recently remarked, Canada is fast becoming the slave of the money market in Wall Street and the money market of Lombard Street in London.

Mr. Christie cited figures to show the alarming increase in government expenditure and debt since Confederation, and pointed out in conclusion that the policy of the Liberal Party, as represented in the public utterances of Mr. Mackenzie King and Mr. Mitchell F. Hepburn, was to insist on a drastic reduction of every form of expenditure, and a thorough investigation of the fiscal policies of both the Federal and Provincial bodies in Canada.

SCHEME FOR BUILDING NEW LIBRARY RECEIVES UNIVERSAL SUPPORT

Would Aid Employment Where Employment is Most Needed

STATISTICS INACCURATE

Sixty Per Cent of Unemployed from Building Industries

In an effort to back up the statement recently made editorially, to the effect that the construction of a new university library would aid re-employment, The Varsity interviewed Mr. Marcus, secretary of the National Construction Council of Canada.

"Sixty per cent of the unemployed population in Canada at the present time would normally be employed in the building and subsidiary industries according to unofficial figures compiled by the National Construction Council," he stated.

"It must be made clear that this figure cannot be conclusively substantiated but after considerable research by the Council, it has been arrived at with a very fair degree of accuracy and is the only statistic on the subject which can be considered of any value," Mr. Marcus added. "The subsidiary industries are understood to be those industries which produce building materials, raw materials, such as lumber and coal, tools and machines used in construction, and so on. It can be seen from this that the number of wage-earners affected by the erection of a building is large and widespread."

Mr. Marcus pointed out that in compiling the figures on this subject no reliable information was available from the Department of Statistics at Ottawa or from many unofficial labour or trade organizations. He remarked that it is generally accepted, however, that for every man actually employed in the erection of the building there was another man behind him employed in some allied industry.

According to the rather dubious figures of the Department of Statistics for 1925, there were 300,000 men employed in construction proper and 70,000 employed in the allied industries. Mr. Marcus stated that these figures are not generally considered to be an accurate representation of the facts.

"If the number of unemployed in Canada at the present time is estimated at a quarter of the wage-earners, these

DR. COLEMAN LEAVES ON GEOLOGICAL TOUR

Will Make Survey of Andes to Study Glacier Movements

Dr. A. P. Coleman, Professor Emeritus of Geology, is leaving early in February for Colombia, South America to continue his geological investigations. During his long career as a geologist he has studied glacial action of both ancient and recent ice ages in many parts of the world. His attention now is to make a survey of the Northern Andes to see to what extent the glaciers moved down those mountains during the recent ice age from which we are just emerging. Some of Dr. Coleman's work has been the exploration and mapping of the Canadian Rockies, the geological survey and mapping of the Sudbury district, the study of Labrador and of the Toronto Inter-glacial beds. In the course of his work he has made extensive contributions to the Royal Ontario Museum.

Dr. Coleman is the recipient of many honours. Besides holding degrees from several universities, he was awarded

(Continued on Page 2)

Students Vehement Regarding Inadequate Reading Facilities

SPACE TAXED BEYOND LIMIT

Laud Idea of Building by Government Relief
Project

The government should at once arrange to include a new library building in their programme of public works, if the opinions of several dozen students interviewed on the campus yesterday by The Varsity mean anything.

"As a part of their public works programme," stated Wilf Decch, III C. and F., "the government could not undertake a more useful project than equipping the provincial university with better library facilities. Not only is available space for books taxed beyond the limit but the accommodation of the reading rooms has long ceased to keep up with the registration. A check room for hats and coats is an almost necessary attachment to a library of any size."

"I certainly think that the time has come when something should be done about better library accommodation," said Miss Z. E. Davidson, III Vic, when interviewed.

"It is certainly evident that an addition is needed," was the opinion of W. B. Cummings, II Pass. "Relief money should be spent on something of permanent advantage and surely nothing could be of greater advantage nor is there any other building of more immediate necessity than a library."

(Continued on Page 4)

SENIOR ASSAULT OPENS TONIGHT

Action Assured as Gladiators
Seek Interfaculty
Titles

O.A.C. AGAIN STRONG

Leather trading will be much in evidence tomorrow night when the annual interfaculty assault opens in the big gym at 7:45. Last season O.A.C. came down and swept all before them to take the championship by a wide margin and tomorrow night they will be again in there fighting it out in defence of their title.

Plenty of action is assured when the gladiators square off tomorrow night as both gyms have been humming with activity for the past few weeks as the boys whipped themselves into shape for their big test in the senior struggle. Tomorrow and the succeed-

(Continued on Page 3)

GREAT HALL CHANGES

The Secretary of the Hall Committee of Hart House reports that certain changes in the evening meal in the Great Hall have been introduced by the Hall Committee and approved by the Board of Stewards.

For the convenience of those members who have found it difficult to arrive by 6.30 p.m., the dinner hour has been extended to 6.45 p.m.

Changes have been made in the dinner menu to provide a greater choice in the selection.

The tables in the Great Hall are now set up to accommodate only five persons on each side.

Permission has been granted for smoking during the dinner hour by any members desiring this privilege.

QUEEN'S REPORTS GRADUAL INFLUX OF FRATERNITIES

Report Says Organizations Have No Outside Affiliations

NOT RECOGNIZED HERE

Anti-Fraternity Feeling at Queen's Much Stronger Than Here

A short report was submitted recently to the Alma Mater Society of Queen's University by a "fact-finding committee on fraternities" which was appointed to investigate the fraternity situation at that university. Beginning with the statement, "There are at present within this University two bodies fulfilling the functions of fraternities and calling themselves by that name." The report goes on to outline the avowed functions and purposes of these fraternities which, as yet, have no national or international affiliations.

The Varsity, desiring to learn how the fraternities at Queen's compare with those in Toronto, sought to obtain the opinions of several fraternity members on the campus yesterday and found that, with the exception of minor differences, the fraternal organizations of the two universities are quite similar. The important difference, however, is that the fraternities at Queen's are entirely local organizations with no outside affiliations, whereas those at Toronto, as far as could be learned, are, with few exceptions, recognized as member fraternities by various other similar bodies in Canada and the United States. The exceptions here are the Knights of the Round Table, who have Canadian affiliations only.

In conversation with Charles Magwood and Rod Phelan, both of Psi Upsilon fraternity, The Varsity discovered that in only two or three respects do the regulations and restrictions of the Queen's fraternities differ from those of the Toronto bodies. Both students pointed out that, unlike the organizations at Queen's, those at Toronto do not exclude freshmen from membership; they do not set up scholastic standards for their members except that they do not desire as members students who have failed or made very poor showings in their scholastic work; and finally, they have no clause in their constitutions barring excessive

SKI CLUB PLANNING FOR ACTIVE SEASON

Members Compete Successfully at Lake Placid and Huntsville

The Ski Club started off the season with a bang this year, and with more snow in sight proposes to keep on banging. A team consisting of Cromarty, Carlson, Burpee, Lossing and Salmon met with considerable success at Lake Placid during the Christmas holidays, while the University was again represented at the Huntsville Carnival by Ross Wilson, who won the Cross-Country, and by Wilf Carlson, who came second in the Jumping. Last week-end Ted Burpee romped in second at the Seignettey Club ahead of a good deal of class in the ten-mile Cross-Country, and Carlson proved he had the habit by again placing second in the Jumping.

On the 9th and 10th of February the Ski Club will send a team down to the colourful Dartmouth Carnival, where all the Canadian and Eastern American Universities will be represented. To pick this team a cross-country race will be held next Sunday.

(Continued on Page 4)

BLUES MEET HEART-BREAKING DEFEAT AS TIGERS OVERCOME VARSITY LEAD

Staff Honours
President Cody

At a reception at the Museum last evening President and Mrs. Cody were the recipients of a sterling coffee urn from the members of the University staff.

Following the presentation, Mrs. Cody and the President expressed their appreciation of the spirit of co-operation and friendship displayed by the members of the Faculty and pledged their continued loyalty to the University.

The guests were received by Dr. and Mrs. Cody and Dean DeLury of the Faculty of Arts. Among the distinguished guests present were His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor Dr. Bruce, the Chancellor, Sir William Mulock, and the heads of the various colleges and faculties of the University.

COLLECTIVE FARM BOON TO SOVIET

Agrarian Problem a Difficult
One to Solve States
Mr. Ketchum

INDUSTRY SUCCEEDING

By G. H. Jack

"I have no hesitation in asserting that the collective farm has 'taught on' throughout the Soviet Union, for it was my interesting experience to visit many of these farms and they were flourishing in a very decided degree," stated Mr. Carl J. Ketchum, M.C., well-known British War Correspondent and lecturer, in an exclusive interview with The Varsity at the University Club last evening.

Mr. Ketchum has just returned from a trip of seven thousand miles through the European section of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, having spent four months in a study of the conditions of Russian life as it is today. He will speak in Massey Hall this evening on "Russia Today".

Asked to give his opinion on the agrarian problem in Russia, Mr. Ketchum replied, "I believe that one of the most difficult problems the Russian people set themselves to solve was the agrarian problem, which in agrarian countries has defied leaders and governments through the ages. The definition of the agrarian problem is the method of keeping the lonely peasant or farm worker in the most remote farming regions of the country hard at work on his isolated farm while at the same time keeping him abreast of the cultural advantages which accrue to the city worker whom he feeds. I frankly believe that by the process of collectivization, the Soviet Union is well on the way towards the achievement of a solution."

"Eighty per cent of the farm lands of the whole Union may now be said to have been collectivized and some twenty millions of formerly isolated individuals have been brought into up-to-date, well-organized, co-operative farms where they have the advantage of universities, theatres, sports stadia, etc. on the premises."

"What was your personal opinion of the success of the first Five Year Plan as far as industry was concerned?" The Varsity asked.

"In industry, which was of secondary importance from a Canadian point of view in my eyes," replied the journalist, "I came to the conclusion that the Plan has succeeded entirely in the matter of industrial construction. The tractor and other factories conceived under the Plan are in full operation in every community of the Union."

(Continued on Page 3)

Blues Play Best Game of Season before Yielding to Tigers

BOTH GOALIES STAR

Hamilton Overcome Varsity's Lead with Three Goals in Five Minutes

By F. J. Lamberti

Fighting desperately against superior odds, out-playing and out-scoring the powerful Tiger team for two periods, Varsity's rejuvenated hockey squad last night met with a heart-breaking defeat when Hamilton broke loose for three goals in five minutes to overcome Varsity's one-goal lead and take a 3-2 victory from the Toronto students. Given only minor consideration early in the season Warren Stevens' squad have come on with a belated rush and last night proved their worth when they played the league leading Tigers to a standstill for fifty minutes of the game in one of the toughest and fastest struggles to be witnessed in Hamilton this season.

Stepping onto the ice as if they had never heard of the Tigers and their reputation, Varsity's light but fleet forwards began to carry the play to the Bengals and had them bottled up in their own end for the first twenty minutes. Hawse Marah, in the winners' nets at this stage and in fact throughout the entire contest played in sensational style and it was only his efforts along with considerable hard luck on the part of the Blue marksmen which held Varsity scoreless in the first period. Varsity continued to apply the pressure in the second period, back checking beautifully to break up most of the Tiger attacks before they got properly under way. Penalties became frequent in the second chapter and each team took advantage.

(Continued on Page 3)

ST. MIKE'S DEFEAT VARSITY CAGERS

Irish Come from Behind with Last Minute Rally to Get Decision

SCORE IS 24 TO 22

By M. Glushin

In a hard fought, close checking Big Six basketball game, St. Michael's College ended a 24-22 win over Varsity's senior A team at Broadway Y last night. Two baskets by Crowley and Hickey in the closing moments of the tilt gave Bill Storen's squad the winning margin. Varsity's inability to take advantage of gift throws cost them the game, as they were only able to convert two out of the eleven charity handed them into scores.

St. Mike's counted four out of ten. Both teams were playing minus a star defenceman, Sniderman's steady influence and scoring ability being sadly missed by the Blue team, while the absence of Connolly, ace scoring threat of the Bay St. cagers weakened them considerably, although Masucci, who took his position, played a bang-up game, his three baskets at crucial points playing a big part in Varsity's downfall.

The game was a see-saw affair, with both teams taking turns at holding the lead, as most of the scoring was done in two basket spurts. St. Mike's went to the front on a nice dribbling effort by Masucci with Willis tying it up on a set shot in the next play. Strong defensive tactics kept the score down in the first ten minutes with Varsity holding on to a 4-3 lead as a result of Mitchell's basket from close in. Red Gordon made it 6-3 in his first ap-

(Continued on Page 3)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. G. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crocker, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:

E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.
Night Editor—E. C. Phelan Assistant—B. J. McGuire

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31st, 1934

DUTCH DATES

We will not attempt in the short space assigned to us to delve into the origin and history of Dutch Dates; certain anthropologists claim that they can be traced back to the good old Dutch custom of "bundling" (Summer—Folkways), but too little, alas, is known of this once popular institution. We must content ourselves with the fact that the Dutch Date is a fait accompli, although exactly how much is accompli we must leave to the researches of the Department of Sociology.

The increasing popularity of the institution during the Depression allegedly just past should prove fascinating to research workers of the future. Unfortunately it is too soon to determine whether it is merely an ephemeral phenomenon dependent on the stress of temporary economic stringency, or whether the custom has been so deeply embedded in the structure of our folkways (Summer again) as to have become an integral characteristic of social relationships.

The Dutch Date may be loosely defined as an arrangement previously agreed on whereby two persons of opposite sex, roughly speaking, share jointly the expenses of any entertainment mutually enjoyed. The aforementioned hypothetical research worker of the future will also find a rich field for investigation in the extent to which more or less incidental items come under the terms of the contract. Our imperfect acquaintance with the finer minutiae of the topic makes it impossible to do more than throw out a few tentative suggestions for future guidance: Does the agreement usually extend to street-car fare and taxis? In the case of the latter, does it also include the driver's tip, if any? Where further refreshment is deemed necessary at the close of a dance or other social function, is the total bill split equally or does each pay his own shot regardless of appetite. The matter of refreshment incidental to certain functions is one which also might be raised, though not, we trust, till the present generation of entertainment-seekers has settled down into sober middle age.

The drawing of conclusions would appear to be incumbent. This is always the most difficult part of any investigation, and fortunately that to which least attention is given; herein lies the supreme value of the institution of Royal Commissions. This line of thought, however, touches too closely upon the question of political activities to fall strictly under the classification of entertainment. Having now touched upon the social and political sides of the question, there remains for consideration only the religious aspect. As this opens a field of discussion too broad for inclusion within the narrow confines of a single column, we are constrained to defer it to a more opportune occasion.

Note—"The Varsity" will discuss editorially, as soon as further evidence has been obtained, the problem of the Dutch Date and the Collection Plate.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

The Editor,

Dear Sir:

May I be one of the first to congratulate Mr. Hughes on the stand he has taken in regard to the quotation which was attributed to him, i.e., "Bachelor's buttons have been replaced by zippers which are taxed on a sliding scale". Admittedly at first glance such a statement would appear innocuous and not worth Mr. Hughes taking exception to. Yet Sir, this is not the point, since it is obviously only fair and proper that our campus celebrities should have their utterances treated with the respect that other equally distinguished men receive. Moreover Sir, though I hesitate to mention it, there is a distinctly vulgar note in this remark attributed to Mr. Hughes. On this account, remembering the numerous occasions on which dubious remarks have appeared in your paper supposed to have been made by men of integrity at least equal to that of Mr. Hughes, which were obviously a fiction invented by your reporters, I once again place myself in the forefront of those who would wish to congratulate the Trinity debater on the stand which he has taken.

Yours sincerely,
A. Campbell,
II Arts.

HAS A PEEVE

The Editor

Dear Sir:

Many, many years ago, Minnie and Mickey Mouse got together, and as a result of their efforts the combine was born. Ever since, combines and cliques have reared their ugly heads in this beautiful world of ours. There is a law against these institutions in Canada! Is there a law against them in this University? This seat of higher (Continued on Page 4)

Art, Music and Drama

A.C. Players' Guild

The Players' Guild has chosen, for presentation this week, scenes from Van Druen's Young Woodley. The play is set in an English Public School and is, to a great extent, an exposé of the vicious system to be found in such institutions. It is one of the most completely dramatic, as to plot and characterization, which has appeared in the last decade. Young Woodley was banned in England for some years and consequently put into the form of a novel.

The story is centred in Roger Woodley, an imaginative boy, who is shy, reticent, sensitive and poetic. He falls in love with Laura Simmons, young wife of an elderly and pompous school master. She, tired of her sheltered existence, finds a new source of happiness in returning the sentiment. They are discovered and the outcome of the situation is dealt with in the scene presented.

The cast is well-known on the Guild stage. Alan Jarvis will play Young Woodley; Max Patrick the school-master and Margaret Huston his young wife. Fergus Tobin will take the role of Ainger, a fellow prefect, and Mr. Woodley, Roger's father, will be played by Robin Godfrey. The production is under the direction of Martin Loeb, D.G.W.

Massey Hall

It is on rare occasions that Toronto opens her arms to a visiting artist with complete abandon. Yehudi Menuhin's violin recital of last evening was a veritable triumph. With stamping of feet and vociferous applause, the captivated audience refused to withdraw until the fifth encore had been played. This amazing youth received his ovation with curious unconcern, as if unaware that Nature seldom produces such genius, such astounding virtuosity and depth of penetration combined.

It appears that Menuhin has long since exhausted every technical difficulty known to the violinist. Showers of scintillating scale passages struck off at white heat, the play of staccato, transparent harmonics and perfect double stopping testified to this. But still more remarkable was the strength and richness of tone; the powerful conception of the music played.

The gem of the programme was the Mozart Concerto in D Major written when Mozart was ten years of age. The exquisite playing of such delicate, enchanting music is a luxury that can seldom be indulged in. The Paganini Concerto, also in D Major, played from the complete and original text was exactly what one might expect—a blaze of virtuosity built upon a few rather weak but pleasing themes. If artists must exhibit their dexterity, there are few vehicles which afford better opportunity to the player and more pleasure to the listener. Menuhin was wholly equal to the almost insurmountable difficulties of this composition, always master of the material which he moulds in a highly exciting fashion.

The programme concluded in the usual way with a group of more or less well-known concert favourites. I think that in some of these compositions, at least, Menuhin showed the direction in which future development must take place. Amongst the encores, we must mention the breath-taking charm of Debussy's Girl with the Flaxen Hair, the Schubert Ave Maria, although hackneyed, was irresistible with its mature mellowness of tone. At the piano, Walter Bohle provided an extraordinarily fine accompaniment, in every way worthy of Menuhin's artistry. F.B.S.

Organ Recital

The fifth of the Convocation Hall organ recitals was given yesterday afternoon by Dr. Ernest MacMillan. The programme consisted entirely of works by Cesar Franck, a composer on whom many intellectuals can hardly lavish too much praise. I have had occasion in these columns before to state my scepticism concerning much of this extraordinary admiration. My own opinion is that while Franck was undoubtedly a refined and skilful musician, whose work repays attention, his alleged "white heat of rapture and ecstasy" is rarely, if ever, on a large enough scale to be overwhelming in effect or importance, and is often a result of the listener's imagination, stimulated by some peculiar psychological qualities in this unusual music. And though few will agree in this, and though lack of space prevents enough elaboration to make these remarks useful, I must go on to state that I say this with even Franck's most famous work, the Symphony in D Minor, in mind. Franck is to me always the greatest of improvisors!

Nevertheless, there is no denying the beauty of a programme such as Dr. MacMillan played yesterday. Especially fine are the Chorals, of which he played Nos. 1 and 3—works built up with very great skill indeed, and strong in their total effect. The lovely Pastorale in E is unusually quiet in its reflectiveness and written with the greatest delicacy. Dr. MacMillan is probably the most perfect of Toronto organists, combining a technical mastery with a profoundly musical mind. His organ work is inevitably convincing—sure and balanced, the art which conceals art. The pity is that we do not have an opportunity of hearing him more frequently.

N.F.L.

Heard around the Press at 1 a.m.—
"Why can't this night go on forever?"
Then this Cat would never have to be finished.

C-C

Spectacular achievements are the order of the day!

Believe it or not I. M. Tippley has drawn to our attention the response of a 3 year old from Oshkosh, R.I., to our tentative suggestion to offer a prize for the youngest living school child to memorize F. D. Roosevelt's inaugural address.

Blistering Mouth Wash went to mat with a germ, and killed it in 44 hours, 3 minutes and 10 seconds, clipping 3 seconds off the old record held by Ripshedd.

Gandhi, who if the depression continues, will shortly be the world's best dressed man, has reduced by 1.5 to 2 3.10 seconds the time it takes him to disrobe.

C-C

More spectacular than any of these accomplishments will be the achievement of the winner of the literally

Club Dinners--50c.

also Special Student Luncheons at
35c. and 25c.

"The Good Companions"

"... a wonderfully cheerful and pleasant place... menus so varied and interesting that you are sure to find what you like best."

Tea Cup Reading with Afternoon Tea 1179 BAY ST.
Lunch or Dinner RA. 2411

$1.00 WILL REPAIR YOUR WATCH
NO MATTER HOW BADLY BROKEN
Cleaning, if necessary, 75c. extra
GUARANTEED 3 YEARS
FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY!
CITY WATCH & JEWELRY
HOSPITAL Est. 1921
163-7 Yonge St.—Room 12
OPP. SIMPSON'S TAKE ELEVATOR
MAIL ORDERS—POSTAGE EXTRA

Nothing But
A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit
for the coming dance.
They are up to the minute.
Also complete outfits and evening wraps.
Two stores to serve you.
Special rates for students.
FREEMAN'S
256 College St. 571 Yonge St.
KI. 0991 KI. 3270

DANCING LESSONS
GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps
6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Elcor)
Rand. 1866

JUST STARTED
The BON-TON CAFE
"Just a Real Charming Place"
Private Dining Room for Banquets a Specialty.
Special Full Course Dinner
and Supper 25 cents.
Courteous Staff Open 7 a.m. to 2 a.m.
558 Yonge St. Phone MI. 0145

HERE are the advantages that make Dominion Ring Books longer lasting, more convenient to use and better looking:—

Steel Hinges, anchored right into the leather cover, not only make the book flat-opening for easy writing, but prolong its life at the point where ordinary books wear out first.

Fibre Back, coloured and grained to match the leather, prevents scuffing.

Flattened Steel Rings have greater capacity and are easier on punched sheets. Available in 3 or 7 rings.

Yet with all these advantages Dominion Steel Hinge Equipment costs no more than ordinary ring books.

Made in Canada by

DOMINION BLANK BOOK CO., LTD.

ST. JOHNS, QUE.

THE ANNUAL CONCERT
of The Blue and White Band
Convocation Hall
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20th
This year better than ever before. Guest artists, and a fine programme.
Keep this date open.

FELT CRESTS
Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hert House, or Room 82, University College.
50c.
To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweeter, gym suit or blazer.

ST. MIKE'S CAGERS DEFEAT VARSITY TO LEAD GROUP

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

There is going to be a hockey game tonight after all. Fran Westman's team, called the "Vagabonds" will meet the Varsity team in an exhibition game at the Arena at 7.30. It ought to prove most interesting from the standpoint of the spectators; some students will have a divided allegiance as Fran Crooks Westman is probably the most brilliant and popular hockey player who ever attended the University. Margot Thompson, who played on the Blue team last year, will also be with the "Vagabonds". It will be a splendid test for the varsity squad and all the players who have been turning out will probably have a chance to show their capabilities.

Everybody had an awful lot of fun at the hockey game between St. Mike's and Vic II last night, both players and spectators. When two teams of inexperienced women hockey players get together, you'd be surprised at the number of amusing things that can happen. The spirit of the players leaves nothing to be desired and with more practice the coaches ought to be able to turn out real teams. It is too bad that so few women play hockey before coming to college. It is a game that is hard to learn when one is older, and the enthusiasm that is shown in the interfaculty series is therefore all the more commendable.

Ruth Leavens of Victoria has the stamina and speed that the game requires. As this is only her first year playing hockey we predict a successful future for her. Marg McGuire of St. Mike's was good, with more practice she rushes down the ice ought to be really effective. Jean Gordon of Victoria is an experienced player. We hope her knee will permit her to stay in the game all season.

The intermediate basketball team is not yet chosen and any guards who have not yet turned out to practices are requested to do so. While many players seem to think that it isn't worth while to play for this team, they should realize that it is a privilege to have the opportunity of playing under coaches like Phil Griffiths and Jean Allen. Next year many of those on the senior team will be graduating and who could better fill their places than those who have practiced assiduously this year and know the playing technique stressed by the intercollegiate coaches.

Those in School of Nursing are reminded that they are allowed to turn out for the intermediate team. There are a great many players who performed well in the interfaculty series who haven't turned out to the practices. Remember the hours, 6-7 on Tuesday and Thursday nights at O. C.E. Games will start in the third week in February.

Sport Notices

Senior Assault—

Contestants must weigh in at Mr. Barton's office before one o'clock. The draw will be made after the weighing in. All contestants call at the Athletic Office before 5 o'clock to find out when they fight.

U.C. Water Polo—

All members of both teams out today for the games on time. Juniors, 4.30; Seniors, 5.30.

Trinity Basketball—

Important practice, Thursday at 9 a.m.

ST. MIKE'S DEFEAT VARSITY CAGERS

(Continued from Page 1)

pearance in the game, and then three whirlwind St. Mike's baskets, two by Marks and the other by Magher, changed the complexion of the game. Varsity came back strong in the last few minutes of the half with two quick counters, one by Gordon and the other by Willis on a beautiful one-hand shot giving the Blue team a 17-11 edge at the half-way mark.

The second half was close all the way, neither team being able to run up any kind of a lead. With Massucci, Marks and Crowley scoring on well-executed plays, and Willis, Levy and Bodrug tallying for Varsity, the score was deadlocked at 20 apiece with six minutes to go. At this stage St. Mike's quick short passing game began to tell on the Blue squad and two quick baskets by Crowley and Hickey sewed the game up for them. Bodrug's basket in the last minute renewed Varsity's hopes, but the final whistle found them scrambling in front of the St. Mike's basket two points short.

For St. Mike's the entire starting line-up played heads-up ball all the way, with Marks and Massucci being especially impressive. The Blue team did not play up to their form of the last three games, being decidedly weak from a scoring angle. Willis at centre was the shining light for Lew Hayman's outfit, while Bodrug, Mitchell and Gordon also turned in creditable performances.

Varsity — Bodrug 6, Mitchell 2, Willis 8, Gold, Levy 2, Gordon 4. St. Mike's — Magher 2, Crowley 4, Hickey 3, Marks 9, Massucci 6, Carey, Hynes.

Referee—"Hee" Creighton.

TIGERS DEFEAT VARSITY WITH FINAL RALLY

(Continued from Page 1)

vantage of the odd man to stage a gangling attack. Varsity withstood a concentrated attack at this stage that had Ship stopping rubber from all angles. A few minutes later Varsity missed a great chance when the Tigers were three men short and Varsity only one. The Blue team were very unlucky here, missing with several shots that had Marsh beaten. Both squads were back at full strength with no damage done when a penalty to Red Farrel gave Varsity another break. Cunningham then broke away to beat Marsh for the only goal of the period.

Varsity went into the final frame one goal to the good but a penalty to Sweeney gave Hamilton the advantage and they swept in for the tying goal and prolonged their rally for the next five minutes for two more counters. Varsity again took the offensive and had Hamilton on the run for the remainder of the game but were able to register only once again, Ray scoring on a solo rush. Staging a rush in the dying minutes of play Vin Cunningham was bodied by Farrel and removed from the game with a slight concussion.

Hamilton — Goal, Marsh; defence, Radke, Farrel; centre, McGowan; wings, Fitzgerald, Chisholm; subs, Bennett, Blake, Conick, Howard.

Varsity — Goal, Ship; defence, Rey, Campbell; centre, McLelland; wings, Sweeney, Jeffery; subs, MacPherson, Cunningham, Hendry.

CARIBOU MIGRATION

Birds are not the only long distance travellers; caribou of North America are known to migrate 800 miles.

World's Silver Production
North America produces three-fourths of the world's silver.

Basketball—

Jr. Vc practice Wednesday, 11.00 at Vic gym.

Jr. U.C. Basketball—

Game with Sr. U.C., Wednesday 1-2.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By Paul B. Smith

St. Michael's College basketball team defeated the Blue and White cagers last night on the Broadway Y floor by 24-22 to take first place in their Big Six group. Varsity were without the services of Sniderman, who was conspicuous by his absence, but the Irish cause was not aided by any means as Joe Connelly was missed every bit as much from the Double Blue line-up. Varsity led 17-11 at the half way mark, but a consistent and fighting St. Mike's team deadlocked the score at 20-20 with six minutes to go. Crowley and Hickey scored two baskets in the latter part of the game to give the Saints their margin of victory. The teams each scored ten baskets and Varsity scored two fouls, while St. Mike's capitalized on four. Willis, Gordon and Bodrug deserve mention for their display with the Blues. Massucci, Marks and Crowley were standouts for the Irish.

The annual interfaculty assault gets under way tonight in the Hart House gym. Coach Martin has assembled a wrestling squad this year which is reputed to be one of the best that has been seen in this vicinity for some time. O.A.C. can be relied upon to send down their usual quota of smart wrestlers again. The agriculturists will be defending their interfaculty championship and as they won it by virtue of their superior matmen some exciting and furious battles are anticipated. In the boxing department, Smith of School is a strong favourite to carry off the 126 pound wreath. Daley of St. Mike's, McCatty and Millson of S.P.S. are expected to supply the contention in the lightweight event. In the welterweight division it looks to be a battle royal; Powell and Grant, if they meet, will loosen teeth and spill plenty of gore. This paragraph would be hopelessly inadequate without mention of Bannister, the S.P.S. wrestling star who, incidentally, is defending champion in the 135 pound class. The assault starts tonight and will be completed tomorrow night.

Junior U.C. oppose the smart Trinity water polo team this afternoon at half past four in the Hart House tank in what promises to be one of the stand-out contests of the current season. Trinity must win this game to regain the leadership of their group. Victoria are showing the way with one win and two draws for a total of four points, Trinity are one point behind, having had a win and a draw. At five o'clock, immediately following the first game, Dents and Junior S.P.S. will contest a very important issue. In this group Junior Medicine and Junior S.P.S. are deadlocked for first place with three points apiece. Dents are pushing the leaders very closely with two points. Today's winner in this game will assume undisputed possession of first place in group C. Senior U.C. will make a brave attempt to put a halt to the winning ways of the fast travelling senior S.P.S. squad in the night-cap which is called for half past five. A win for the School notators in this set will assure them of a playoff berth. The Engineers are leading Group B. The competition in the interfaculty water polo series has been particularly keen and from all accounts today's games will not differ in this respect.

Yesterday's interfaculty indoor track meet was productive of some very encouraging results. W. Hogg, representing S.P.S., won the mile run in the fast time of 4:31.25 seconds to establish a new indoor interfaculty record for the distance. A. C. Conway of Trinity and R. D. Thompson of Meds were second and third respectively. E. Dore of Dents got down in front in the 220 yds. sprint to win from Caldwell and McGuire of Meds. Dore reversed the tables in yesterday's event, having been previously beaten by Caldwell in the 60 yd. dash. Some very creditable performances have been turned in at the meet, which is being run off in series; events are held every Tuesday on the Hart House track.

The performance of the Varsity hockey team against Hamilton needs no further comment. Any team that can hold the Tigers is good but Varsity went even better than this and out-played the mighty Bengals for fifty minutes, only to falter for a few minutes and see their lead cut down and passed. Try as they might Varsity just couldn't get those two goals back, although they did get one. The injury to Cunningham which came in the final minutes is certainly regrettable. Win was hit hard by Red Farrel on the Hamilton defence and removed with a slight concussion. It is to be hoped that the injury is only slight and he will be back in action for the opening of the intercollegiate series with McGill.

TRINITY, KNOX COLLEGE WIN IN DOUBLE HEADER

Emmanuel, Wycliffe Swamped in Opening Hockey Games at Stadium

Two one-sided hockey games were played last night in the Varsity Stadium when Trinity shut out Emmanuel with a 4-0 score and Knox defeated Wycliffe 5-1.

Trinity put it over Emmanuel during their superior team play and faster skaters. Knight, with two goals, and Brennan with one were the Trinity stars. The other goal was scored by an Emmanuel man. Both goals were good, but Williams for the losers had much more to do and made many fine saves.

Knox had the play practically their own way during the whole game. Cuthbertson, Stewart, Neilson, Caslor and Boulch each scored a tally for Knox. Ammet scored Wycliffe's only goal in the last minutes of the game. Wycliffe's outstanding player was Metcalf, in goal.

Knox — Weir, Stewart, Prouse, Cuthbertson, Neilson, Caslor, Campbell. (Continued on Page 4)

McCATTY BROTHERS TAKE BOTH DURAN CUP EVENTS

Trinity College Again Likely to Produce Individual Champion

The McCatty brothers made a clean sweep in each of the two races run off in the Duran Cup competition in the Hart House tank last night. The Duran Cup is emblematic of the individual swimming championship of the University and was won last year by W. McCatty, followed by C. McCatty, both of Trinity College.

"Wince" McCatty, who is captain of the Varsity swimming team, won the 200 yd. breast stroke by a wide margin and came second in the 100 yd. backstroke. C. McCatty won the back stroke and came second in the breast stroke after a hard tussle with Collins of Medicine.

There are four races left with which to decide the 1934 holder of the cup and determined efforts are being made to wrest it from its present holder. The next races will be run off Thursday afternoon.

100 yd. back stroke: C. McCatty, (Continued on Page 4)

VICTORIA BEATS U.C. S.P.S.-MEDS DRAW

Victoria Display Strong Team to Swamp University College 8-0

MEDS-SCHOOL GAME FAST

Yesterday afternoon at Varsity Arena four teams opened their interfaculty hockey seasons; Vic defeating Jr. U.C. 8-0 and Jr. Meds and Jr. School tying 1-1.

In the first contest Victoria were easily the best and showed their superiority by coasting home with an 8-0 victory. They out-classed U.C. at all stages of the game and the final outcome was evident after the first few minutes of play. In the first period Farrel opened the scoring after three minutes and duplicated the feat four minutes later. Then Arnpup rammed home two goals in quick succession, the last one a rebound. Monzon ended the scoring in the first period.

The second period was a repetition of the first, Vic scoring three goals. The scorers in this period were Pratt, Gregory and Wallace. Vic showed up to be a well balanced team with the first line of Farrel, Arnpup and Monzon turning in a brilliant effort. U.C. tried hard but were unable to do much against the sturdy defence and the persistent back checking of the Vic forwards. The best for U.C. were Thompson and Morlock.

In the second game the old rivals, Jr. Meds and Jr. School met in a close but hard fought battle. In the first period there was no scoring as the checking by both teams was very close. Both teams missed good chances to score in this period.

In the second period Meds had a real chance to open the scoring when Boddington after a fine rush passed the puck to a team mate standing in front of the goal who just missed the pass. After this the game opened up and with Boddington off for tripping both teams made dangerous rushes. Meds finally opened the scoring after ten minutes of play when McEwen denied the twine on a pass from Charles. School then began to press and tied it up four minutes later when Terry scored from in front of the goal on a pass from Kerr. This ended the scoring and the game ended in a 1-1 tie. Boddington and Charles were best for Meds, while Davidson and Kerr played well for School.

Victoria — Young, Dyke, Bryers, Arnpup, Pratt, Monzon, Putnam, Farrel, Grover, Gregory, Wallace.

U.C. — Campbell, MacPherson, Morlock, Fowler, Thompson, Morrison, Laing, Griffiths, Grand, Garrett.

Jr. Meds — Williams, Boddington, Charles, McKee, McEwen, Robinson, Gray, Sprung, Coxon, Anderson.

Jr. School — Angus, Atkin, Brunette, Press, Terry, Kerr, Davidson, Willmot, Woods, Slavert.

SENIOR ASSAULT OPENS TONIGHT

(Continued from Page 1)

ing night will write fins to the career of more than one ambitious athlete who is desirous of making a place on the intercollegiate team via the interfaculty championship route.

There have been numerous entries to date in both the boxing and wrestling fixtures with the lighter weights as usual fielding the most contenders. The boxing bouts are certain to produce action as several promising youngsters are shaping up as real contenders. Freddie Smith looks good, McCatty a likely winner in the lightweight division. Both these boys are clever boxers, can hit with both hands and are fast. However, there are several other good men they will have to dispose of before the championship is theirs. Powell looks like the choice of the welters and should win. The 155 pound class is wide open as

Testimonies of Christian Science Healing

To-night at 8 o'clock

at St. George St. cor. Lowther Ave. In the main auditorium of First Church of Christ Scientist

These testimonies are a feature of the regular Wednesday evening meeting, and present a convenient opportunity for all students of the University of Toronto to become informed of the demonstrable results of the Science of Christianity or Christian Science.

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS

and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS are DUE NOW

Please hand these into the S.A.C. Office, Hart House

Brunko, the junior champion, is out with a broken rib. The middleweights have as yet only three entries but O.A.C. have not been heard from to date. This Aggie squad are always real scrappers and may upset the dope before the evening ends. They always have a strong team and this year will be no exception. This is especially true in the wrestling and although Mr. Martin has a promising squad of grapplers at his disposal, the Aggies have proved superior in this game so often that it would be unwise to start calling the winners in these events before viewing the Aggie entries.

COLLECTIVE FARM

BOON TO SOVIET

(Continued from Page 1)

"Do you think that the Soviet has succeeded in inculcating into the masses the idea of service rather than that of profit?" we asked.

"Fairly well. The Party holds that the idea of national service without individual profit is a psychological factor which will ultimately lead to the greatest happiness for the greatest number of people."

"How did you find the present educational system?"

"I discovered that the system of education in Russia today is based absolutely and irrevocably on the principles of Communist teaching with a very great leaning towards the technical and industrial idea," replied the correspondent.

"Is Russia favourably situated at present as far as her food situation is concerned?" asked The Varsity.

"There is no doubt that the food shortage is probably more acute than in any other civilized country in the world, but a record wheat crop last summer combined with the factor of American recognition, which means, ipso facto, enormous credits to Russia very shortly, and the provisions in the second Plan for raising the standard of living, indicate, in my humble opinion, very conclusively that Russia has at last, long last, emerged from her more serious economic difficulties and is on the highway towards relative prosperity."

Luigi Romanelli and his
King Edward Hotel Orchestra

Dress Optional

ONTARIO COLLEGE OF PHARMACY GRADUATION DANCE

Crystal Ballroom, King Edward Hotel, Friday, February 2nd - Dancing 9 to 3

SUBSCRIPTION

$3.00 PER COUPLE

Tax included

Coming Events

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31

- 4.15—Players' Guild presentation of Young Woodley in the auditorium of the Union.
- 5 p.m.—Vocational guidance talks. All Victoria men are invited to hear Mr. W. H. Goodman speak on Journalism. Room 18.
- 8.15 p.m.—The next regular meeting of the Biological Club will be held Wednesday evening at the Women's Union.
- 8 p.m.—Oriental Society meets at Dr. Meek's. Address by Mr. R. M. O'Pray.
- 8.15 p.m.—Vic Classical Club. "Classical Jeux d'Esprit", 151 Dawlish Ave. Lawrence Park.
- 8.15 p.m.—Carl J. Ketchum's lecture on "Russia Today" at Massey Hall.
- 7.00 p.m.—Commerce Club annual banquet in the Great Hall, Hart House. Sir William Clark, British High Commissioner to Canada, will speak on "Recent changes in the conception of the State's relation to business."
- 8.15—German Club meeting in Wymilwood. Miss Naomi Yanova Granatstein will render piano selections. An amusing dialect skit will be given by staff members. Refreshments.
- 9.00 p.m.—Iota Alpha Phi subscription dance. Embassy Club.
- 9.30 p.m.—Newman Ball at the Royal York. Supper dance.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1

- 4.15—M. and P. meeting, Room 43, Physics Building. Speaker, Mr. Keith Russell, "Amateur Radio".
- 4 p.m.—Women's Union, Women's Inter-faculty debate, U.C. upholding the motion: Resolved that this House deplores the present system of public education in Ontario. St. Mike's will take the negative. Tea.
- 4.15—Meeting of Italian-Spanish Club in Wymilwood. Play and address by His Excellency Piero Parini, general director of Italian schools abroad.
- 5 p.m.—Meds S.C.M. open supper meeting at 24 Prince Arthur Ave. Speaker Dr. Wellington Stevens.
- 4 p.m.—Important session University College Parliament in junior common room.
- 7.15 p.m.—The Foresters' Club will hold its annual banquet in the Great Hall of Hart House. Mr. T. A. McEthanney, Director of the Forest Products Laboratories of Canada, will address the gathering on "Forest Products Research".

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2

- 9.3—Ontario College of Pharmacy, supper, graduating dance. Crystal Ball Room. Luigi Romanelli.
- 8.30 p.m.—Second of series of study classes on menace of Fascism, conducted under auspices of Student League. Topic for this class, "Will Fascism come to Canada?" Women's Union. All students welcome.
- C.O.T.C. ball at Hart House. Nels Kelly and his Varsity Kampus Katz.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3

- 6.30 p.m.—I.T.C.C.U. and I.S.C.F. at Knox Church. Speaker, Dr. A. C. Hill.

Classified Advertisements

MEALS
Excellent meals, home atmosphere. Single meals or weekly rate. Discount to students, 1 1/2 Spadina Rd. Kingsdale 1574.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body. Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL
Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY TEAMS PLAY SCORELESS DRAW

Forty minutes of enthusiastic hockey last night in the opening game of the women's interfaculty hockey series, between Vic II and St. Mike's, resulted in a scoreless tie. Both teams had the usual faults of inexperience—lack of combination and poor shooting, but in spite of the score Vic seemed to have the edge on the play. However, they couldn't beat Justine McMartin, St. Mike's goalie, who was ready for them every time.

Ruth Leavens was easily the most outstanding player for Victoria, with Mary McGuire, centre on St. Mike's, doing good work on her team. The first period was very slow; the play was ragged and uncertain. There was more action in the last two periods, but the play rarely worked past the defence. Both goalies had a comparatively easy time but they handled everything that came their way most effectively. There were no penalties.

Victoria — Centre, R. Leavens; wings, M. Turner, E. Hart; defence, J. Blundell, A. Jones; goal, B. Gordon; alternates, J. Gordon, G. Workman, D. Burgess, M. Pratt.
St. Mike's — Centre, M. McGuire; wings, M. Shadle, P. Schnarr; defence, M. Vining, C. Dunn; goal, J. McMartin; alternates, C. Loughlin, C. Weiner, K. Gallagher.

Referee—George Patterson.

SKI CLUB PLANNING FOR AN ACTIVE SEASON

(Continued from Page 1)
day in the Caledons, and a slalom will also be run off.

A meeting of the club will be held tomorrow, Thursday, in the Debates Room, Hart House, at 5 o'clock, which all those interested in skiing, as well as members, are invited to attend. The Ontario Championship Meet, with four events—Downhill, Slalom, Cross-Country and Jumping—will be held here on February tenth, and the club wants to be well represented. Membership includes a crest, a chance to represent Varsity, for which colours are granted, the use of the Caledon ski grounds, and lots of good practice. Those especially interested in jumping may note that the new 150-foot Thorncliffe jump will be open, with imported snow, this week-end.

Those especially interested in jumping may note that the new 150-foot Thorncliffe jump will be open, with imported snow, this week-end.

McCATTY BROTHERS TAKE BOTH OURNAN CUP EVENTS

(Continued from Page 3)
Trin; W. McCatty, Trin; Jennings, S.P.S.; Wallace, U.C.; Eggert, S. P. S. Time, 1.08.

200 yd. breast stroke: W. McCatty, Trin; C. McCatty, Trin; Collins, Meds; Drury, Vic; Wood, S. P. S. Time, 2.52.
Timers—Loundes, Winterburn.

TRINITY, KNOX COLLEGE WIN IN DOUBLE HEADER

(Continued from Page 3)

bell, McEachern, Bugbs, Bouch.

Trinity — Ambrose, Knight, Burchell, Stewart, Minnett, Brennan, McLellan, McCreary, Scrivener, Holton.

Wyliffe — Metcalf, Ammet, Zimmerman, Wood, Fairweather, Kibble, white, Morrissey, Symons, Pattison.

Emmanuel—Williams, Witzel, Kerr, Crosby, Husser, Gamble, Amos, Weir, Martin.

7.30 p.m.—Skating party and open house at Newman Club.

8.30 p.m.—Mid-winter dance, Universities of Alberta, Manitoba and Saskatchewan at 79 St. George St. Informal.

Pi Lambda Phi annual charity ball, King Edward Hotel.

Who Wants To Write Rhyming Heads For Back Page Features?

(The late Hugh Canthys Fellowship, it has just been discovered, left a mass of personal correspondence which exceeds in quantity that of Katherine Mansfield—or John Middleton Murry, who probably wrote most of it himself—and in putridity the Shaw-Terry letters. This first of an interminable (Oh yeah?—Ed.) series was written to his friend Horace Hupfenpfluff, the noted baso refundo (mail-order cellist) on the occasion of his visiting Herr Hupfenpfluff's home on the Rhine as a representative of the Fleischman Company, one of the "Three Rise Men of the Yeast," as they were termed. (It is not generally known that a young man named Adolf Hitler was one of the other agents; who the third has never been discovered, but it may have been Rudy Vallee, who became the father of his first child about that time, after only a week of Fleischman's Yeast.) Dear Horace,

You say that I will be met at the station by the local Strife and Bum Corps, consisting of six tramps and their wives, reinforced by a squad of New York policemen, bearing a banner with this strange device "Ex-celts we are."

Thanks for the good intentions, but it does seem a trifle unpretentious. Now, in my day we never thought of welcoming a visiting celebrity with less than a covey of elephants, a jolly Rajah, a troop of Indian slouts (or Silchs, as they are known), and a pensive detachment of Gurkhas, complete with spats (you will remember the nation-wide appeal in 1911 for the worthy cause of "Getting Gurkhas Gaiters," a natural confusion in the sound of which led to the collectors' being flooded with garters, which so disappointed the recipients that they traded in their acquisitions for the new desiderata (which, as you recall, prompted the writing of a popular moral ballad entitled "They Barter their Garters for Gaiters, When They Should Put the Dough in Potatoes" (referring of course to the starvation prevalent in India at that time). The Brown Bread Co., makers of the Old Home Potato Loaf, protested that the song ought to go "Should Put Potatoes in the Dough," but little or no attention was paid, and the song reached a height of popularity rivalled only by that other "moral protest" ballad which decried the voracious devouring of sheep by the Bulgarian royal family at a time when the peasants who produced the sheep were reduced to eating tinned asparagus and shrimps. The song I refer to, of course, is "They Batten their Buttons on Mutton, the Gluttons!")

But to return to the gaiters. It was discovered that the dissatisfaction with the garters was partly due to puzzlement at the problem of what to hold up with them (the bandits of northern India, of course, had no difficulty in this regard, but in the central and southern parts, where the tourist trade was as yet unknown, the problem was able. (It is recorded, by the way, that a certain cockney from New York, on being asked tersely by a native the prevailing question, "Hold up?" replied "Wy not tride 'er hin on a Hauburn?" (It may be worth noting in this connection, as an example of the well-deserved fate of a punster, that one gaiter dealer, on being approached with the proposition of a trade-in of garters, asked, "Which do you want—street gaiters or alley gaiters?" He was promptly "put on the spot," as they say in India—a process generally acknowledged to be extremely deleterious to corporal survival, and which has even been known to prove fatal to a sergeant-major.))

In the case of a padded-celebrity like myself, such a welcome would seem especially appropriate. However, any reception you care to offer will be accepted with studied politeness.

My retinue will consist, not of a pupil, as your ophthalmological mind may have anticipated, but of the following (any old retinue consists of a following, but only a Fellowship's of the following: The Black Watch; the Bulova Watch; Die Wacht am Rhein; oceri, or Goose-step Corps from Uganda (Kenya beat that?); the battered remnant of Genghis Khan's great army (whose favourite game, of course, is "Genghis says Khan's Up!"); one of Tamerlane's invincible battalions (singing "Everybody Hand in Hand, Swingin' Tamerlane"; and a hand-picked squadron of Field Marshals, with uniforms from Marshall Field's.

Well, Afghanistan, or whatever it is, your old comrade, Hugh Canthys Fellowship.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

SKETCH ROOM

Lawren Harris will speak in the Sketch Room of Hart House at 5 p.m. tomorrow, dealing with some of the well-known Canadian artists such as Tom Thomson, A. Y. Jackson and Arthur Lismer, and illustrating his talks with slides.

GERMAN STUDY CLUB

The German Study Club invites everyone interested to attend the meeting to be held tonight at 8.15. Miss Naomi Yanova Granatstein will play piano selections. An amusing dialect skit will be given by staff members. A large attendance is hoped for. Refreshments.

VIC DRAMATICS

There will be a meeting of All Read-Through Groups at Wymilwood to-night, Wed. Jan. 31st at 8 p.m. All those interested are invited to attend.

ALBERTA, MANITOBA, SASKATCHEWAN

The alumni and their friends of the Universities of Alberta, Manitoba, and Saskatchewan are holding a mid-winter informal dance on Saturday, Feb. 3rd at 79 St. George St., starting at 8.30.

PLAYERS' GUILD

This afternoon the Players' Guild of U.C. will present the last scene of John Van Drunen's problem play Young Woodley. This promises to be one of the best productions this year.

VICTORIA AT-HOME

The lists for the Victoria College At-Home will close on Friday. Sign the lists in college office now.

COMMERCE CLUB

The annual banquet of the Commerce Club will be held tonight at 7 p.m. in Hart House. Sir William Clark, British High Commissioner to Canada, will be the guest speaker. The members may obtain tickets from the members of the executive.

VICTORIA MEN

This afternoon at 5 o'clock in Room 18, Victoria College, Mr. W. H. Goodman of the Mail and Empire will give a vocational guidance talk on Journalism.

U.C. MEN

A picture of the U.C. Parliamentary Club will be taken in the near future. Discussion as to time and place at next session of the club, Thursday, February 1st, at 4 p.m.

ORIENTAL SOCIETY

The Oriental Society will meet at 8 p.m. at the home of Dr. Meek, 68 Spadina Road. An address on "The Code of Hammurabi" will be given by Mr. R. M. O'Pray.

UNMUZZLED

Carl J. Ketchum, M.C., world-famous Canadian born British war correspondent and feature writer, will give his suppressed address on "Russia Today", illustrated with authentic pictures, at Massey Hall tonight, on Wed. Jan. 31st at 8.15 p.m. A limited number of tickets at special student rates will be on sale between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. today at the entrance of Hart House, U.C., the Library, and the Pol. Sci. Building.

STUDENTS CRITICAL OF PRESENT LIBRARY

(Continued from Page 1)

C. C. Cole, II U.C., observed, "The facilities are limited, undoubtedly, and any sort of a building would be welcomed. The present building should be abolished or if it is repaired more adequate heating and ventilating equipment should be installed."

"We should most certainly have a new library," stated Miss Beth Gundy, III Vic, "the old building is drafty, noisy and poorly lighted."

"The only objection I have to the University Library," remarked G. F. M. Smith, III Biology, "is that when you ask for a book there are sent to the departmental libraries in the Botany or Biology Buildings, for example, and vice-versa. It's rather tiresome. I would suggest that all the scientific and medical books be kept in their respective libraries."

"It gives me a pain in the neck," observed R. A. McMinn, I St. Mike's. "I think that the government should take immediate steps to include a new library for the University in their building programme. Why can't the library be run like the Public Library system. There is too much red tape required to get a book out and when you do get it out it has to be in by ten next morning. This quarter fine is a hold-up. Surely better facilities would correct this."

Many others interviewed expressed similar dissatisfaction with the system that now obtains, finding fault with other features of the library and expressing the opinion that many of the evils might be corrected were there better facilities.

FRATERNITIES APPEAR ON QUEEN'S CAMPUS

(Continued from Page 1)

influence and participation in athletics or politics.

The many similarities between the fraternities at the two universities were emphasized by those interviewed. As at Queen's, no monetary barriers exist in Toronto; that is, if a student has sufficient money to join a fraternity and meet all of the necessary expenses, there are no further monetary qualifications. Also, the fraternities here, as elsewhere, supply residences for the men at very little if any greater cost than that of the majority of rooming establishments.

There is probably, however, a greater anti-fraternity feeling at Queen's than has been noticed on the local campus. Neither university, of course, recognizes the existence of fraternities, but Queen's students, especially, are probably less enthusiastic about them than are Toronto students. F. M. Vanstone, another fraternity member interviewed yesterday, suggested that, if the opinions of the few Queen's students whom he knew could be taken as representative, the existence of fraternities is believed to mitigate against the fine school spirit for which Queen's has long been noted.

FIRST YEAR EMMANUEL

Skating party at Varsity Stadium at 8 tonight. Supper at Diana Sweets at 10.15. Special entertainers, skits. Those not skating be on time for the supper.

M. AND P. SOCIETY

A regular M. and P. meeting will be held on Thursday, February the first in Room 43, Physics Building. The speaker will be Mr. Keith Russell, Radio Inspector, subject, "Amateur Radio", with practical demonstrations.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The last Mitchell Cup will be shot this week. It is essential that everyone who has not shot this match do so at once.

BIOLOGICAL CLUB

8.15 p.m. The regular meeting of the Biological Club will be held this evening at the Women's Union. There will be three speakers, Miss Lyons, Dr. Cain and A. H. Carter.

SHORT STORY CONTEST

The deadline for the University Women's Press Club Short Story contest has been postponed to Thursday, February 1st. The judges will be Miss Byrne Sanders, editor of "Chateaufort" and Mrs. J. G. Althouse. Leave contributions in the women's Varsity office. Here's your chance to have your work judged by competent critics.

Virginia Dare's "No Profit" Sale of Better Lingerie commencing Thurs.-Fri.-Sat. Can you Imagine!

Real Silk Crepe de Chine Costume Slips $1.00

Adjustable straps. Lavishly trimmed with lace. In White and Tealrose, all sizes.

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 3600
4 other shops in Toronto

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from Page 2)
learning? Apparently not, for they flourish, feeding on the fat of the land.

Let us investigate one of these. Our scene is the junior common room of University College. It is 8.30, Thursday morning. Seven people are seated on chairs, in a row. They are patiently awaiting the arrival of the gentleman whose duty it is to distribute the "doubles" tickets. It is early, though. The tickets are not to be given out until 8.45. As this time approaches, more and more people drift in, until, at the chosen time, there are approximately 25 men waiting in line. But the gentleman does not arrive. 9 o'clock approaches. Where is he? Perhaps at home, in bed, chuckling over his subtle remarks of the evening before. Some have lectures at 9. They have wasted enough time. Angry they leave. Their lectures are worth more than the chances of a free date. Some, questioned Thursday morning, everyone agreed that there was a clique in connection with the dissembling of tickets. They are tiring of these underhanded methods. What is the U.C. Lit. going to do about it? We want action, and action now.

Why compel us to come at 8.45 a.m. and wait in line? Why not follow the simple policy of some of the other colleges, and put up a list to be signed? If this proves impractical, at least be fair, and assign a definite day and time for the allotment of tickets. Make sure that the gentleman, in whose care they are entrusted, arrives on time, and does not keep us late for lectures. Let everything be clean and aboveboard. Publish a notice in The Varsity the day before the designed morning. Let us approach the matter from a scientific point of view, and thus maintain the excellent reputation our U.C. Lit. enjoys.

Sincerely,
Ner Littner.

LIBRARY PROJECT AS RELIEF MEASURE

(Continued from Page 1)

unemployed in the building and allied industries would reach the 600,000 mark. The wide stimulus to industry produced by the undertaking of a construction project is not sufficiently realized," Mr. Marcus asserted.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1st, 1934

No. 76

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Washington—President Roosevelt today fixed the value of the U.S. dollar at $9.06 of its former gold equivalent and advanced an offer to buy and sell gold at $35 an ounce.

Chicago—Verne Sankey, notorious kidnapper and suspect in the Lindbergh case, was captured here today by Federal agents.

The fifth and final session of the eighteenth Ontario Legislature was opened by Hon. Dr. H. A. Bruce yesterday afternoon.

Montreal—Official announcement of the promotion of S. J. Hungerford to the presidency of the C.N.R. was made here today.

London—Germany's return to the League of Nations was declared an essential condition "to any world arms accord", by the British Government's disarmament memorandum announced today.

Tokio—The Japanese Diet was informed today that new Japanese auxiliary vessels will outrank those of the United States by 1937 and that if navy men of the two nations dictate policy in a coming navy conference "a rupture would be inevitable".

Hon. William H. Wright, Justice of the Supreme Court of Ontario since 1923, died yesterday at his residence after several weeks' illness, in his 73rd year.

NO ENCOURAGEMENT GIVEN JOURNALISTS

Editor Dissuades Young Men from Any Journalistic Career

NEED SENSATIONALISM

"The modern newspaper is a business institution run for profit," said Mr. W. H. Goodman, city editor of the Mail and Empire in an address to the Vocational Guidance group at Victoria College yesterday afternoon. "Since 50 to 60 per cent of a paper is advertising matter a wide circulation is necessary and to achieve this the paper must appeal to a great many people. For that reason all papers run to sensationalism in some form or another."

He didn't encourage young men to take up journalism because the hours are very long, the work is hard and discouraging and not nearly as glamorous as some people think, because the reporter is not a participant in the many things going on around him.

"The university graduate should have an advantage over those with less education," Mr. Goodman thought, but from his own observations such was not always the case. "The successful newspaperman should have a genuine interest in everything going on around him," he stated, "and he should be able to mix with all classes of people. A specialist does not make a good journalist as a rule because he is too narrow minded," the speaker continued.

Pictures fill a very important place in the present day paper according to Mr. Goodman, since they not only make the paper more attractive but also present the news in a graphic manner.

"If you are an active, healthy young man and determined to try your hand at the game, you may, if you get a break, succeed, but don't entertain the idea of being a reporter all your life. Aim to become an editor or some other responsible man and be prepared to work day and night," he concluded.

Torontonensis Announces Photograph Winners

The editor of Torontonensis wishes to announce that prizes have been awarded to the following by the committee in charge of the Campus Life Contest for Torontonensis: First prize of $5 to J. F. Weston, IV S.P.S.; second prize of $3 to A. Miller, II S.P.S.; third prize of $2 to M. Bury, IV Victoria.

These prizes have been awarded for the best group of 4 pictures submitted for the Campus Life section of Torontonensis. Prize winners may receive their checks by calling at the S.A.C. office in Hart House on and after Friday, February 2nd.

OPINIONS VARIED ON DUTCH DATES

Most of Co-Eds Not Keen
On Idea but Males Approve

SOME PROFESS IGNORANCE

Wednesday's editorial concerning Dutch dates has started Varsity to thinking. Most of the co-eds are against it. Most of the males are for it. Their opinions coincide with that of Herm Hass: "It's a good idea if you know the person well enough."

Doug Carter, II Pol. Sci., explained the true function of the ideal Dutch date. All costs are divided, even the car fare. And concerning the tip, if such there be, each party makes their own desired contribution.

"It works in some cases," stated Lenora Robb, I Pass. "I think it's all right to go Dutch to a show. We always do."

We approached a man in II Pass who answered our query with a look of amazement. "I don't know," he faltered, "I've never had a Dutch date."

(Continued on Page 2)

RIFLE TEAM WINS IMPORTANT MEETS

Club Shows Indications of Becoming Champions of Toronto League

HAVE HIGHEST SCORE

The University of Toronto Rifle Association must be commended for their recent showing in competition with several other and more experienced clubs.

Last Friday the club shot a score of 590 against a score of 583 shot by the Toronto Hydro-Electric Rifle Club. In this match the members of the team and their scores were as follows: R. L. Broad, S.P.S. (Captain), 100; W. V. Thompson, S.P.S., 100; T. J. Powell, Arts, 99; A. S. Foreman, S.P.S., 97; J. D. Ferguson, Dents, 97; A. T. Griffiths, Arts, 97.

The score of 590 is the highest score recorded in the Toronto Small Bore League for the year. The individual score of 100, as shot by two members of the team, requires ten consecutive shots all touching a circle one-quarter inch in diameter on a target placed at a distance of 25 yards.

In competition with the worthy enforcers of law and order from No. 9 Police Station, the club shot a score of 573, only ten points behind their opponents' score of 583.

The club shows every indication of becoming champions of the Toronto Small Bore League, which includes the following eight teams of amateur marksmen: The University Rifle Association, C.N.R. Rifle Club, Hydro Rifle Club, and others.

(Continued on Page 4)

SPEAKER DISCUSSES FIVE-YEAR PLANS AT MASSEY HALL

Journalist Claims the Working Conditions Are far too Rigorous

SEVEN HOUR DAY

Describes Government and Economic Position of Russia

"The foreign element should not derive any encouragement from my address," stated Carl Ketchum in his talk on "Russia Today" at Massey Hall last night. He went on to describe the government of the U.S.S.R. and its economic and social position.

The country is a union of seven major republics and about fifty autonomous communities. Government is by council and the supreme power is not Stalin but the Central Executive Committee, of which he is the secretary-general.

There are three organizations through which the Communist Party controls the country. They are the (Continued on Page 4)

CLAIM TICKETS FAIRLY ALLOTTED

Charges of Favouritism Denied by U.C. Literary Executive

NO UNOERHANO METHOOS

"There is nothing unhand about the way Sunday Evening Concert tickets are distributed to the men of University College," stated A. C. Smith, treasurer of the U.C. Lit. commenting on a letter appearing in yesterday's Varsity. The writer of this letter charged the Lit. executive with "unhand methods" in distributing the tickets and also with causing students desiring tickets, considerable delay and inconvenience.

S. M. Hermant, secretary of the Lit., is responsible for the ticket distribution for these concerts, but The Varsity was unable to get in touch (Continued on Page 4)

War Correspondent Finds Untrue That "Royal" as Title is Taboo

By R. G. A.

The Varsity's War Correspondent felt hurt. A heavy blow had been dealt his fondest illusions, his faith in Canadian democracy and the rights of man had been sadly crushed. They wouldn't let Mr. Algic call his orchestra the "Royal Collegian"! The Correspondent wasn't quite clear if they were, but he was sure their actions were unbecomingly unbecoming.

He got the telephone book from The Varsity office and opened it at page 326. There, staring him in the face, were two full columns of "Royals". There was the "Royal Chesterfield Manufacturers"—did that mean they built indoor rugby grids especially to the Queen's taste?

A little way down the list was the "Royal Fish Company"—did they ever provide Haddock a la King for a royal banquet? Did the "Royal Cleaners and Dyers" ever do a satisfactory dry cleaning job on the Prince of Wales' suit for 65¢? What possible service could the "Royal Hemstitching and Novelty Company" do for the monarchial household—or the "Royal Meat Choppers and Coffee Mills"? In the proverbial unlyfing figures, Toronto has at least eighty-two business concerns,

Professor Leaves Books To University In Will

In the will of the late Irving H. Cameron, for many years Professor of Surgery in the University of Toronto, there appears the following bequest:

"To the University of Toronto all my medical books, pamphlets, and instruments, save and except such as my son, Matthew Crooks Cameron, shall desire to reserve for his own use and purposes, or for presentation as memorials to any of my friends whom he may select." There are several hundred pounds of books, journals and pamphlets. President H. J. Cody states that the University is most grateful for this magnificent gift.

PLENTY OF ARTICLES IN U.C. MAGAZINE

Editor of "Undergraduate" Finds No Dearth of Literary Material

HUMOUR SECTION

"The Undergraduate this year will take the form of a historical number dedicated to the eightieth anniversary of the University College Literary and Athletic Society," said J. M. Patrick, editor of the University College undergraduate publication, in an interview with The Varsity last night.

"It will embrace numerous features of the life of University College during the last eighty years," said Mr. Patrick. "We have broadened out this issue into fields of more particular interests to the students. There will be no articles by professors. The literary side of college life is, of course, well represented. There are two articles on drama, political articles, sports articles, scientific features, including one on "Sterilization" by D. Chitty. There is a ten thousand word story on the history of the Literary Society. There is a considerable humour section and a consistent effort has been made to keep this department out of the high school magazine class and up to university standards. A humorous attack on the C.O.T.C. is one of the contributions in the issue."

The front cover will be an etching of University College by Owen Staples. A precedent is being set in the format of The Undergraduate this year. The page size has been increased and the number of pages doubled; different (Continued on Page 4)

O.A.C. TAKE LEAD IN OPENING BOUTS AS INTERFACULTY ASSAULT STARTS

Engineers Start Saving For School At-Home

The inmates of the Little Red School House know a good thing when they see it. This morning they will be advised that "A Quarter a Day will Pay your Way" which, in the vernacular of the Schoolmen, means that if you go without lunch from now until February 16, you will have just enough money to buy your ticket to the "School At-Home", provided, of course, that you don't starve in the meantime. But the best part of all is the fact that every ticket carries an iron bound guarantee that the committee will procure either a man or a woman, if necessary, to go along with every ticket sold. Even the ladies are being coaxed with the tempting slogan "You furnish the Bucks, We'll furnish the Ducks", whatever that means. Anybody wanna be a duck?

INDUSTRY CONTROL FEATURES ADDRESS

Sir William Clark is the Guest Speaker at Commerce Club Banquet

FREE COMPETITION EVIL

Sir William Clark was the guest speaker at the annual Commerce Club banquet in Hart House last night. Sir William, who is British High Commissioner to Canada, chose as the subject of his address "Changes in the Relation of Governments to Business."

The main feature of the address was an outline of the attitude taken by the governments of the more important nations to various forms of control of industries and trade. In Russia the communistic system, in which the state is in full control, appears to be (Continued on Page 4)

OTHERS SUPPORT HUGHES PROTEST

Inaccuracies in Quotations Are Blamed on Telephone Calls

DEPENDS ON REPORTER

"The Varsity quotations were good at times, bad at times, varying with the individual reporter," said Mr. Sam Hughes, IV Trinity, concerning the way he was recently misquoted by The Varsity as to his statements while debating.

The discussion arose when The Varsity published the remark, "Bachelor buttons have been changed to zippers, and are now taxed on a sliding scale," was attributed to Mr. Hughes during a debate last Friday at Trinity. That bachelors over the age of 35 should be taxed. This was proven wrong by Mr. Hughes, and criticism was subsequently directed at The Varsity for misquoting statements through the correspondence column. Pursuing the issue, a consensus of opinion on the matter was taken throughout the campus.

Mr. Dick Bell, IV U.C., "I refuse to say anything on account of the usual misquotation." He based his assertion on the fact that he has suffered on the same account previously.

"On the whole, The Varsity is accurate in its quotations, but like all other papers, makes a few mistakes," said Gordon Skilling, IV U.C. "It would be better if less interviewing were done by telephone," he added.

Champions Look in Fair Way of Retaining Davidson Cup Another Year S.P.S. SECOND

Results and Draws for the Second Day's Bouts Announced

Once again O.A.C. are shaping up like the faculty to beat in the Senior Interfaculty Assault which opened at Hart House last night, and with six wrestlers and three boxers safely through the first round they appear to be well on their way to spend another year in possession of the Davidson Cup. S.P.S. is the only other faculty which is in any way in a threatening position and they had only four boxers and three wrestlers survive the first round. However, these men and several who have drawn byes may yet make it interesting for O.A.C. and conceding the other faculties their share of champions, S.P.S. may even get down in front.

The leather pushers last night produced plenty of action. Four of the seven bouts failed to go the limit and none were one-sided. McCarty and Powell came through as expected, although Powell was given a real argument by Ewing, an O.A.C. welter. McCarty's flashing left hand had Gear, another Aggie performer, baffled from the first bell and Referee Harry Henning halted the bout in the second round. Millson and Gillespie staged a speedy scrap for two rounds, but a cut over the eye forced Millson out of action in the third. Hallett was another performer to win in less than three rounds, getting the decision after Lamberti had put up a courageous exhibition against the better conditioned Hallett. Walton's hand was raised (Continued on Page 4)

S.C.M. Corner

NATIONALISM AND CHRISTIANITY

This article reviews the discussions of the study group on Nationalism during last week-end conference.

Nationalism was defined as a phase in the development of the nations which exalts a community of feelings towards a common ideal. Now nationalism has many forms reflecting the varied causes that provoke it. In countries like Czechoslovakia, or Switzerland, we can see a nationalism of freedom, which had its sanction in the Wilson declaration. These countries, composed of various races, arose because of a common suffering that prompted them to assert their independence. Such nations have been the first ones to recognize the rights of the minorities. Next comes the authoritarian nationalism, as seen in Italy, Germany and Poland, though some call the first a dynamic authoritarianism, due to the absolute control of I Duce. It is mainly caused by a common feeling of inferiority, whether moral or economic. In nations like France and England we find the nationalism of inertia; it is essentially latent, but not less powerful for it. It is close to reaction and needs only a spark to make it explode.

Under its authoritarian form nationalism has often been a last resort of the vested interests against the rising revolution, yet, as in Italy it may bring a new economic structure checking the power of private means,—at least as power as Mussolini is in power. By education of youth nationalism tries to establish itself permanently, but its essence which is exclusive is apt to create new conflicts in the future. It suppresses the egoism of the individual only to create the "glorious selfishness" of the nation eriged upon a high throne.

(Continued on Page 2)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '35
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. G. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Milton Shulman Assistant—W. L. Somerville

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1st, 1934

PSYCHIATRIST WANTED

Psychology, as a science, has made rapid advances in the last few years, particularly in the field of mental hygiene. Yet for all its obvious success and cures in this branch of medical science, there are still many sceptics who scoff and laugh at psychiatry as nonsense which should not be given very much serious consideration. However, that the ranks of these deriders are becoming sadly depleted, can be easily seen when one realizes that in most of the big universities across the border there is present on the staff a psychiatrist, whose duty it is to advise and consult with students on any mental problems with which the latter might be troubled.

But in this respect the University of Toronto is behind the times. We have an up-to-date, competent psychology department, but we have no psychiatrist, no individual whose sole function it is to study specialized cases of mental disorder among students. That students are subject to such defects and diseases is an undoubted fact, as the alarming rate of student suicides can easily testify. True, suicides on our campus do not constitute a problem in themselves, but nervous breakdowns and other forms of mental disintegration might conceivably lead to some people adopting this extreme measure to extricate themselves from an apparently insoluble dilemma. And therefore it might now be advisable to start bolting the doors of the proverbial stable before the horses are stolen.

Students are, on the whole, highly-strung individuals. Studying makes them more susceptible to mental disorders than the average layman who does the same work day in and day out, and takes his monotonous grind pretty much for granted. Students must face problems that other people their own age might not encounter. Inability to study correctly is in itself a difficulty that some individuals are never able to solve. Sex problems, inferiority complexes, inability to adapt oneself to a new environment, failure in examinations, are only a few of the more numerous barriers that some students must overcome before a healthy and sane life is open to them. And the psychiatrist is the only logical and reliable authority to consult when such problems face the individual.

The psychiatrist is a specialist. It is the ultimate aim of his science "to ascertain the best means to promote normal thought and action, individually and collectively, and to apply the knowledge so obtained to the causation and prevention of mental defects, disorders and diseases." It is his duty to give the individual cases that come to his attention, the benefit of the experience and knowledge that has been accumulated by his science for many years. It is reasonable therefore to suppose that his advice will be far more intelligent and reliable than that of any common quack who cares to stick his finger in the mental pie.

It may be argued that most people would be reticent about revealing such personal problems to an individual who is, more or less, a total stranger to them. But squeamishness, in such matters, is a thing of the past. Most students of this institution would, we hope, be broad-minded enough to realize that a consultation of this nature would be treated in a purely impersonal and scientific manner by the psychiatrist, and that, of course, nothing of the interview would be revealed to anyone beyond the individuals concerned.

That the problems that face the student are such that would warrant a psychiatrist being placed on the campus, are very obvious. That the departments of psychology and medicine would heartily welcome such a specialist as an addition to their ranks, is a fact of which we are almost positive. From what sources, if any, an objection against such an innovation might come, we are not absolutely sure. But, nevertheless, it is our firm conviction that the establishment of a psychiatrist on the campus is a necessity that should be given some immediate attention.

S.C.M. CORNER

(Continued from Page 1)

Christians, however, can consider the state only as a means and never as an end in itself. Nationalism may be a necessary step in the evolution of the nations, yet, just because it considers one group alone, just as communism considers one class only, it cannot be a permanent means to bring a new, better social order, for its views are frankly materialistic, and it does not strike at the root of our trouble, which is greed. It is only by bringing into the state, and its servants, the Christian idea of stewardship that a real international social order will be possible.

INCONSEQUENCE

"International Nickel rises again." On the financial page of the papers you can see this headline now almost every day. Financial advisers are telling clients to put their money into nickel, as the most spectacular investment of the moment. This can only have one explanation: preparation for war.

Canada produces ninety per cent of the world's nickel supply. Nickel is an essential material for armaments, in the production of both guns and chemicals. Speaking of alloys containing nickel, Robert C. Stanley, president of the International Nickel Company of Canada, stated, "These alloys met their first real test in armour plate and munitions during the Spanish-American War and became the backbone of naval and military equipment in the World War." During the last war Canada supplied both sides and Canadian soldiers were blown to pieces with the help of the nickel supplied to Germany to make profits for Canadian producers.

Once more the International Nickel Company is exporting vast quantities of nickel, particularly to Japan and Germany, but to all the other great powers too. An official of the company stated recently that they didn't know whether the nickel exported to Germany was being used for armaments or bathroom fixtures. Perhaps the recent increase of imports into Germany is due to a wave of cleanliness inspired by the Nazis. However, we do know that last fall the Bennett Government provided facilities for the export of 1,200,000 pounds of nickel matte to the I.G. Dye Trust Company of Germany, which does not deal in bathroom fixtures. During 1933 Canada's exports of nickel increased 212 per cent over 1932, the total being worth $22,800,000.

While Bennett, King, and Woodsworth make a declaration in favour of a peaceable policy, we do not notice that they make any move to hinder the nickel-producers of Canada in rendering invaluable assistance in the armament race now taking place all over the world. Are they blind to the nickel situation or are their peaceable phrases merely lip-service to hide Canada's own war preparations?

—S.L.

VICTORIA ALUMNI GRACE AT-HOME

A Most Entertaining Evening
Has Been Planned by Committee

NOVEL FAVOURS

A feature of the Victoria College At-Home this year which will lend added interest to the affair is that the Alumni Federation of the College is joining hands with the Victoria College Union for the function. This action has been decided upon in response to the large number of requests being received from graduates who desire to attend. Consequently the dance will be of special interest to graduates of Victoria, as well as to the students of the college.

The At-Home is to be held in Hart House on February 9th, and indications at present are that it will be the most successful affair in many years. Stanley St. John and his orchestra will provide the music for dancing in the big gym. Common rooms will also be used for dancing if necessary. Decorations of a very special nature are being provided and favours will be distinctly novel. A sit-down supper of high order is being provided by the Hart House chef and all in all the committee in charge promise a most entertaining evening.

Members of the committee in charge at the At-Home are: Collin Todd, Jean Dowling, Ted Avison, Corinne Dempsey, Paul Armstrong, Helen Forges, Dick Davidson, Helen Rogers, George Dickie, and George Beavers, representing the Alumni Federation.

MOTOR INDUSTRY SUBJECT OF TALK

"What's all the Shooting About in the Automobile Industry?" is the somewhat startling topic that will be presented to the students of Applied Science this afternoon, when Mr. W. J. Davidson, Executive Secretary of the General Technical Committee of the General Motors Corporation addresses the meeting of the Engineering Society in Room C22 of the Mining Building at 4 p.m.

Mr. Davidson's previous addresses to the Engineering Society have been received with enthusiasm, and the address today should prove to be no exception. As well as illustrating the talk with lantern slides, Mr. Davidson will bring with him some apparatus to demonstrate the efficiency of the new "Knee Action Wheels", which are being incorporated in several of the General Motors cars. The meeting as usual will commence promptly at four o'clock, and members of the society planning to attend are urged to be on hand promptly at the hour to enjoy the singing of "School" songs that will precede the meeting.

CHAMPUS CAT

Continuing the report of Mr. File Advance's search for "The Varsity's" Feature Editor, kidnapped last Thursday night:

File Advance in the Tuck Shop
Upon ordering a package of his beloved Rojaks from the Tuck Shop operators, and discovering that there would be no more in stock till next Wednesday, Advance resisted the temptation to buy a Malted Milk Chocolate Bar, borrowed half a dozen of the right cigarettes (Rojaks), and went in to muse on the murals decorating the inner luncheon chamber. The rest of us found this entertainment dull, and the pictures, to say the least, obscure, but Advance seemed to feel that these works of art would give us the vital information we needed.

"This is an especially interesting piece," drawled Advance, lighting one of his beloved Rojaks and pointing to a picture in which men in fancy dress costumes haunting the foreground, and coats-of-mail lie strewn indiscriminately on the floor. "A modernistic impression of the Dining Hall, after the Hart House Masquerade," he added, crushing his cigarette in a Coca-Cola bottle.

Barkum shrugged his shoulders with manifest impatience. "Enough of this, Advance," he barked, "the trouble with this case is that there are no clues." Advance looked pained. "My dear Barkum," he sighed, lighting one of my beloved Sweet Castorals, "in this picture alone I have enough evidence to send the Warden of Hart House to the penitentiary for gross disregard of public decency and all the conventions of classic art. But my personal theory, he drawled, crushing my cigarette in his trouser cuff, "is that the missing party has been kidnapped by S.-B. F. S. U. S. O. P. K. R. F. E. W. P. P. M. L. L. I. A. U. S. S. R. agents."

(To be continued)

S. S. Damfine.

C-C

Anyone having any information on Chinese ceramics, bronze of the Ming Dynasty, hieroglyphic scratches on the urn in the lobby of the Imperial Theatre, or even on the whereabouts of the Feature Editor, will please communicate with "The Varsity". Three professors to whom the F. E. owes essays are already hot on the trail.

OPINIONS VARIED ON OUTCH OATES

(Continued from Page 1)

One young lady looked perplexed when asked her opinion concerning the matter. "I don't know," she frowned, "is it a communistic idea?" "Dutch dates?" we asked vaguely. "Dh," she blushed, "I thought you said Dutch States."

The pick of the World's Tobacco crops assures you
of a mild and matchless flavour when you Smoke
these famous cigarettes

Winchester

CIGARETTES

SAVE THE
POKER HANDS

Blended Right!

only $1.00
Dinner or Supper
DANCING

Which Includes One of the Famous
Savarin Dinners or Suppers

A sumptuous Savarin Dinner or Supper, dancing to the enchanting music of Gene Fogarty and His Orchestra, a Floor Show sparkling with songs and beautiful girls, all for $1.00* (per person).

Every Evening (except Sunday) 8 p.m. to closing

Savarin

BAY at ADELAIDE

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you
consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Diptometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

JUST STARTED The BON-TON CAFE

"Just a Real Charming Place"

Private Dining Room for Banquets a Specialty.

Special Full Course Dinner

and Supper 25 cents.

Courteous Staff Open 7 a.m. to 2 a.m.

668 Yonge St. Phone MI. 0145

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit

for the coming dance.

They are up to the minute.
Also complete outfits and evening
wraps.

Two stores to serve you.
Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St.
KI. 0891

571 Yonge St.
KI. 3270

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

BLUE HOCKEYISTS PLAY MCGILL IN MONTREAL TO-MORROW

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

The intercollegiate hockey team was most fortunate in being able to have that game with the "Vagabonds" last night. One game is equal to a week of practicing—the defeat last night will do them no harm, and a great deal of good. Besides, it wasn't the "Vagabonds" that beat them, it was Fran Westman. Without wishing to belittle either team, she was so much better than the other players that she made their efforts look even less effective, especially the Varsity defence.

The Blue team has lots of speed and when the players get roused enough to go in and fight, they will be able to make things awfully difficult for their opponents. The passing was rather wild and spoiled plays that looked as if they had scoring possibilities. The players are going to get their skates sharpened before the game with the Queen's team and that will eliminate much of the unsteadiness that was so noticeable last night—they apparently aren't used to having such hard ice.

Jean Atkinson, one of the hardest workers on the team, was hurt in the last minute of play. She suffered a minor scalp wound which will fortunately not keep her out of the game on Saturday.

The Vic first team didn't show enough superiority in their game with U.C. last night to take them into the finals, as had been expected of them. Anne Scott has got what it takes, and if she can imbue the rest of the team with the same fighting spirit it will make a lot of difference.

Marion Clements, if Victoria, has the honour of scoring the one goal of the game, and the first goal of the year. In an exclusive interview with The Varsity, she modestly attributed her success to the fact that she ate half a shredded wheat biscuit instead of her usual porridge for breakfast yesterday morning. (Adv.)

Tonight Vic II meet St. Hilda's at Little Vic at 5 o'clock. St. Hilda's won the interfaculty title last year. They always put in a strong team but this is their first game and anything can happen.

Sport Notices

Interfaculty Swimming Meet—
Managers note—Please hand entries in today, February 1, to Athletic office. All swimmers not having eligibility forms, must sign and hand into the Athletic office.

VIC DEFEATS U.C. IN WOMEN'S HOCKEY

The Vic I team defeated U.C. last night at the Stadium Rink by the score of 1-0. The first period was slow in getting started with neither team having the advantage. The play was faster in the second period. Marion Clements scored the only goal on an assist from Anne Scott.

Anne Scott, the peppy Vic defence-man, was the outstanding player on the ice. Jean Horshall and Betty Guest were best for U.C. Both teams worked hard but fell down on their shots.

Victoria — Goal, M. Cowan; centre, M. MacKay; wings, M. Eastwood, R. Schwartz; defence, A. Scott, M. Sclater; alternates, J. Fenton, M. Clements, M. Faulds, J. Batho.

U.C. — Goal, H. McDermid; centre, N. Curran; wings, B. Guest, S. Taylor; defence, J. Horshall, D. Prowse; alternates, I. Grubin, F. Walters, M. Walkom, G. St. Aubin.

CAGERS TO MEET O.A.C. AT GUELPH

Intermediates Prepared to Give the Champions Hard Struggle

JUNIORS ALSO PLAY

This evening two of Varsity's blue-dad cage teams invade Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, the intermediates to play a scheduled intercollegiate fixture, the juniors in an exhibition game.

The Blue seconds will be at full strength, with every man in first class condition. They are working together very smoothly with plenty of pep and punch to their plays and look like a hard team to beat.

No news has come down from the Aggies' citadel but the important thing to remember is that they are the present intercollegiate intermediate champions. That may mean anything or nothing as they have not yet been seen in action, but they always trot out good basketball teams up there and Varsity will need all their tricks to pull out a win.

However, the Newman brothers, Applebaum and Gibson will be on hand and should give a good account of themselves. With them will be Vanderleek, Mitchell, Stronach and Henderson.

The junior game is an exhibition tilt to put a little more experience under their belts. For the last few years Varsity has completely dominated this section of intercollegiate basketball competition with the result that the other teams have dropped out. Besides playing in the junior Y league they are this year playing exhibition games with a view to building up good material for future senior teams. They have a good start in Kinsey and Miller, two fast, accurate forwards who have an almost uncanny eye for long shots, and Krakauer, a very steady guard.

Last year's juniors trounced O.A.C. at Guelph by something like 56-6 and this year's team will make a determined effort to do it again. The rest of the team to play are Harlock, Doan, Toole, Stoughton and Gladish.

VAGABONDS TAKE EXHIBITION GAME

Varsity Women's Hockey Team Lose by Score of 5 to 0

FRAN WESTMAN STARS

Although defeated 5-0 by Fran Westman's speedy "Vagabonds" in an exhibition fixture at the Varsity Arena last night, the women's intercollegiate hockey team showed considerable promise and look to be ready to produce their best hockey when they clash with Queen's on Saturday.

The score is not exactly indicative of the play, except as a standard of the relative difference between Fran Westman's playing and that of any other player on the ice. She scored three goals unaided, and gave Margaret Thompson an assist on a fourth. Margaret Thompson scored the fifth goal so it was the Varsity grads who defeated their erstwhile team-mates.

The Blue team showed their best form in the second period when they held the "Vagabonds" scoreless. The first lineup of Eleanor Sanson, Jean Atkinson and Billie Fowler worked together nicely and showed that they are capable of speedy skating. Charity Grant on defense did some hard checking. Her stick-handling ability showed to good advantage when she took the (Continued on Page 4)

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By W. A. Crochower

This afternoon Warren Stevens will take his band of warriors (they're no longer the "weary Blues") on the annual hockey visit to Montreal, where the team plays McGill tomorrow evening. The Blue cause will be endangered to some extent by the fact that Steve will not be able to make use of Fullerton and McConvey, both athletes having been snowed under by exams last May. The team will be made up of Shipp, Rey, Campbell, Williamson, McPherson, Jeffry, Hendry, Sweeny, McLelland and Cunningham. Contrary to previous reports Win Cunningham was not injured seriously on Tuesday night and will be able to take part in Friday evening proceedings.

In reviewing the possibilities of a Blue victory we find the going pretty hopeful. It is a matter of common knowledge that McGill has a team which is destined to figure in the Dominion playdowns, but then again so has Hamilton. Varsity's showing last Tuesday night was extremely pleasing. Minus the services of Fullerton and McConvey the Blues almost tied the proverbial knot in the Tigers' tails. Although we won't go so far as to say that the Tigers will become Dominion champions we feel sure that they will have their little say in the matter and if the Blues can hold a serious contender for fifty minutes of a scheduled game they certainly should be able to hold most teams, including McGill. At any rate the U. of T. cause is not hopeless although just a little while ago it was one peg lower than hopeless.

To complete the veritable mass exodus of Blue athletes, three basketball squads will leave the campus at 2 o'clock this afternoon and run off to Guelph. The teams leaving are the intercollegiate intermediate squad, the juniors and the U.C. interfaculty aggregation. The intermediates, better known as Senior Bees, will tangle with last year's intercollegiate champs. Although no information has come out of Guelph concerning the strength of the Aggies' quintet Coach McCutcheon feels sure that his charges will be able to walk off with the decision. On the strength of the Bees performance against Western last Saturday we feel the same way about it as does Mac. It certainly was a treat to watch Mac's youngsters go through their movements like trained seals. The intermediates certainly have a fine group of cagers. In Normie Newman the Bees have a sure-fire senior A prospect. Last Saturday, although Newman had an off night, he garnered eight points. He should be "on" any day now. In addition to Newman the Aggies will have to keep a watchful eye on Applebaum, another deadly shooter, and Gibson. The juniors are going along to take part in an exhibition game just to get a little more experience.

While on the subject of basketball we would like to mention Saturday night's doubleheader. Lew Hayman's non-practicing wonders will play hosts to the mystery team from Queen's. In saying "mystery" we mean just that. Queen's in holding McGill to a single point lead last Saturday, created the first and probably greatest surprise of the year. The game, which incidentally gets under way at 8:30 p.m., will act as a guide to Varsity's hopes for the intercollegiate cage title. At 7:15 p.m. the senior Bees will take part in the curtain-raiser and at 8 p.m. the interfaculty swim meet is scheduled to commence. To make it a perfect evening dancing will start at 10 p.m. in the big gym.

Interfaculty basketball came into the limelight yesterday when the supposedly powerful Sr. School squad, last year's runner-up for the Sifton Cup, barely eked out a victory over the Dents team. Reports of the game certainly classify the Schoolmen, who were expected to be one of the squads in the finals, as just another team and it again appears that the group composed of the Jr. Meds, Jr. Vic and Jr. U.C. teams will once more furnish the strongest contender. Jr. Meds, last year's champs, are again leading their group, followed by the Vic squad. The medials meet U.C. tomorrow and should they win they will probably have clear sailing to the playoffs.

The first portion of the interfaculty senior assault, which was run off last night, again put O.A.C. in a good position to repeat last year's victory. The Aggies have three men left in the boxing and six men in the wrestling contests and in this respect are away ahead of any other faculty team. S.P.S. although in a challenging position are not considered strong enough to cause the Aggies too much trouble and it begins to look as though the Guelph squad will repeat.

S.P.S. DEFEAT DENTS IN CLOSE CONTEST

Last Minute Rally Gives the Schoolmen 17-15 Victory in Cage Game

KINGSBERG STARS

By staging a last minute rally, Sr. S.P.S. were able to defeat Dents by 17-15 in the basketball game played last night on the Hart House upper gymnasium floor.

With but a few minutes to play Dents were eight points up and they figured this was a big enough lead with which to win. However, School put on the pressure and with Cooper leading the attack they quickly scored nine points to give them the victory. Despite the closeness of the score the play was ragged and uninteresting to watch.

Dents earned an early lead in the (Continued on Page 4)

WATER POLO GAME GIVES DENTS LEAD

Trinity, Dents and S.P.S. Emerge Winners of Three Games

FLASHY FIXTURES

Playing flashy games for the major part of the tussles, Trinity, Dents, and Sr. S.P.S. emerged victors over Jr. U.C., Jr. S.P.S. and Sr. U.C. respectively in a triple-header water polo fixture played in Hart House pool yesterday. The games brought about but one change in the interfaculty standings, with Dents resting on the top of their group, one point above Junior School.

In the opener Jr. U.C. could not cope with the fast Trinity team, with the result that the Trinity representatives had very little trouble in registering a shut-out. C. Fraser started the scoring for the victors, on a hard shot

PRELIMINARY BOUTS STAGED BY FENCERS

The preliminary fencing bouts in the interfaculty assault-at-arms, were staged yesterday afternoon in the Fencing Room in Hart House.

Out of the ten entries, four were eliminated. The rest go on to the finals, which will take place tomorrow at 5 o'clock. The six successful contestants are arranged in two groups. Those in the first group are, in ranking order, Merryme, Coone and Richardson. The second group contains Bachert, Michell and Scully.

G. Bachert, I.U.C., is generally considered to be the favourite for tomorrow's bouts. He has had European experience and fences in the spectacular Italian style. J. Michell, I. Trinity, the winner in the junior assault is also regarded as quite clever with a foil.

New!

"Work of Art"

By Sinclair Lewis

$2.50

Telephone Adelaide 8411
Book Shop—Street Floor

THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

SPEED AND THRILLS GALORE!

NORTH AMERICAN SPEED SKATING CHAMPIONSHIPS

at
MAPLE LEAF GARDENS

Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 6 and 7

HOWARD NICHOLSON, World Figure Skating Champion and LELA BROOKS, World's Feminine Speed Champion are on the bill.

Proceeds in aid of Kiwanis Philanthropic Work.

Boxes and Rails $1.10 Blue Section 55 cents and 6000 rush seats at 25 cents each night

Everybody--

is talking about the CONCERT by the

VARSAITY BAND

IN CONVOCATION HALL

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20th

Make that "Date" Now and

WATCH FOR FURTHER PARTICULARS

that had goal all over it. In the second period McCatty scored another one for Trinity, and twenty seconds later C. Fraser got his second goal, running up the score to three. C. Fraser and McCatty starred for the Trinity team, while Ballantyne, the U.C. goalie, shone for the losers.

In the second game the Dents squad came from behind and barely nosed out Jr. S.P.S. by the score of 2-1. It was an interesting game throughout but the Dents defence and Kingsberg in goal were too strong for the losers. Gerard and Kingsberg starred for the winners. Gerard scored both Dents' goals, while Hollands, who got Jr. School's lone tally, was the best of the losers.

The final game brought out a fine exhibition of defensive work displayed by Sr. S.P.S., when they defeated Sr. U.C. by the score of 4-2. The game was the best of the three played, and only the defensive tactics of the Schoolmen kept the U.C. team from scoring more than they did. Hawke, Hooper and Bell were the marksmen for School, with Bell, who scored twice, shining for the victors, while Booth and Lipman scored for U.C., Lipman, Murphy and Mutteroff played well for the losers.

Luigi Romanelli and his
King Edward Hotel Orchestra
Dress Optional

ONTARIO COLLEGE OF PHARMACY GRADUATION DANCE
Crystal Ballroom, King Edward Hotel, Friday, February 2nd - Dancing 9 to 3

SUBSCRIPTION
$3.00 PER COUPLE
Tax included

Coming Events

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1

- 4 p.m.—Italian-Spanish Club meeting in Wymilwood. Address by His Excellency Piero Parini, general director of Italian studies abroad. Musical entertainment. Tea.
- 4.15—M. and P. meeting, Room 43, Physics Building. Speaker, Mr. Keith Russell, "Amateur Radio".
- 4 p.m.—Women's Union, Women's Interfaculty debate, U.C. upholding the motion: Resolved that this House deplores the present system of public education in Ontario. St. Mike's will take the negative. Tea.
- 5 p.m.—Meds S.C.M. open supper meeting at 24 Prince Arthur Ave. Speaker Dr. Wellington Stevens.
- 4 p.m.—Important session University College Parliament in junior common room.
- 7.15 p.m.—The Foresters' Club will hold its annual banquet in the Great Hall of Hart House. Mr. T. A. McEthanney, Director of the Forest Products Laboratories of Canada, will address the gathering on "Forest Products Research".

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2

- 9.3—Ontario College of Pharmacy, supper, graduating dance. Crystal Ball Room. Luigi Romanelli.
- 8.30 p.m.—Second of series of study classes on menace of Fascism, conducted under auspices of Student League. Topic for this class, "Will Fascism come to Canada." Women's Union. All students welcome.
- C.O.T.C. ball at Hart House. Nels Kelly and his Varsity Kampus Katz.
- SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3
- 6.30 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U. and I.S.C.F. at Knox Church, Speaker, Dr. A. C. Hill.
- 7.30 p.m.—Skating party and open house at Newman Club.
- 8.30 p.m.—Mid-winter dance, University of Alberta, Manitoba and Saskatchewan at 79 St. George St. Informal.
- Pi Lambda Phi annual charity ball, King Edward Hotel.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 4

- 10 a.m.—The Progressive Arts Club (Workers' Theatre Group) invites student dramatic societies to a discussion of International Theatre Week, which is being held in March. P.A.C. headquarters, 80 Berkeley St.
- 5.30 p.m.—Dr. Paul O'Sullivan will give an address on Democology at Newman Club.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6

- 5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in S.C.M. library, Hart House.
- 8 p.m.—English and History Club at 69 Bedford Park Avenue.

Classified Advertisements

THE HOSTESS DRAWING ROOM

Toronto's unique social rendezvous, where you may entertain graciously, economically and without personal effort. Reserve your dates for bridges, teas, receptions, banquets, business meetings, etc. 891 Bay St., between Grosvenor and Breadalbane.

MEALS

Excellent meals, home atmosphere. Single meals or weekly rate. Discount to students, 11% Spadina Rd. Kingsdale 1574.

COACHING IN GERMAN

For beginners or advanced students, conversational or literary German. Reasonable rates for University students. Fritz Holtz, 49 Avenue Rd., Ki. 3017.

LOST

At Hart House Theatre Saturday night January 27, marquisette brooch, flowers and leaves design. Reward offered. Return to Jean Welford, Victoria College, phone Hu. 6243.

LOST

On January 20 in Hart House Theatre, a vocal score for the music of Merric Englund. Finder please phone Hu. 9327.

NO ENCOURAGEMENT GIVEN JOURNALISTS

(Continued from Page 1)

type, paper and cover will distinguish the magazine from that of former years. A larger number of cuts, including pictures taken about University College, will be employed, in keeping with the historical nature of the issue.

It is expected that the circulation of The Undergraduate will be doubled this year. By a special arrangement of the Literary Society with the Women's Undergraduate Association, University College women will be able to purchase one copy each at a nominal price of ten cents, while undergraduate men will pay fifteen cents. The usual price of the publication is twenty-five cents, so that each undergraduate of the college will be enabled to purchase a copy of their magazine at a substantial reduction. The Undergraduate will be issued on February 22nd, in connection with the Octogenarian Banquet of the society.

"Did you find any dearth of material in the way of contributions?" The Varsity asked.

"Quite the contrary," replied Mr. Patrick. "There was plenty of good material, more than we can run, in fact. A considerable amount of very fine poetry was received. No one can say that the literary genius of the University is dead after having seen the contributions submitted for this issue."

INDUSTRY CONTROL FEATURES ADDRESS

(Continued from Page 1)

operating successfully. The Italian method is something between this and the loisles fire which the English practiced, perhaps more than any other nation, in the early part of the century. The present trend in Nazi Germany is to an opportunist system in which the prime interest is that of the state with trade strictly subordinate to it.

The United States intends to retain the N.R.A. as a permanent industrial code, subject to change by the government as required, according to an address to Congress by President Roosevelt. In the United Kingdom, the present tendency is to consolidation, but not nationalization, of the basic industries of the country. It is now recognized that free competition is an evil and amalgamation of competing industries is desirable.

A feature of the dinner was the presentation of the Crocombe Squash Cup to Mr. Ansley Aldridge. In the absence of the donor the cup was presented by the vice-president of the club, Mr. Beatty.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8

6.45 p.m.—Rowing Club dinner in the Graduates Dining Room, Hart House. Please sign list in Rowing Room.

U.C. Parliamentary Club

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9

Annual Loretto Abbey College At-Home in the Crystal Ballroom of the Royal York Hotel. Leo Romanelli's orchestra.

9.1—School of Nursing At-Home, Victoria College at-home. Dancing 9 to 2. Music by Stanley St. John and his orchestra.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12

8 p.m.—U.C. Public Speaking Contest for women at the Union. See rules and lists in U.C. cloak room and Union.

8 p.m.—Alumni Bridge, Eaton Auditorium.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13

8.15 p.m.—"Le Malade Imaginaire", presented by U.C. French Club at Hart House. Secure tickets now from the executive and east.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14

U.C. junior-senior dance, Roof Gardens, Royal York. Informal.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16

9.3—Annual School At-Home in the Royal York Hotel. Wright Brothers orchestra.

Jarvis Collegiate Centennial Ball at Eaton's College St. Auditorium. Jack Slater's orchestra.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18

4 p.m.—W.U.A. musicale at the Union. Artists, Scott Macleod and Reginald Golden. U.C. women and their guests are cordially invited.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22

Rowing Club dinner. Please sign the list in Rowing Room in Hart House. Celebration of the eightieth anniversary of the founding of the U.C. Lit., Parliamentary, Club, banquet, Lit. meeting.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

SCHOOL AT-HOME

A limited number of members of the other faculties of the University will be permitted to attend the School At-Home on Friday, February 16. Tickets may be obtained in Hart House at the Hall Porter's Desk the noon previous to the party. A list will be open at the Engineering Society and tickets will also be on sale there.

3TS VICTORIA

Don't forget our class party this Saturday night in Wymilwood. It will be a sports party and will commence at 7.45 p.m.

ENGLISH AND HISTORY CLUB

The club will meet next Tuesday night, February 6th, at Miss Lismer's home, 69 Bedford Park Ave. Mr. Munro Beattie will speak on "The Novels of Henry James". The meeting to discuss the English and History course has been postponed until February 14.

SKI CLUB

A Ski Club meeting will be held in the Debates Room at 5 o'clock.

U.C. PARLIAMENT

The topic for debate at the session this afternoon is the Sterilization of the Unfit. Come prepared to speak!

JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE

The third year executive of University College wish to announce that this year's junior-senior dance will be held on Wednesday, February 14, in the Roof Gardens, Royal York Hotel. Watch for further details.

THE FORUM

Regular meeting of the Forum on Friday, Feb. 2 at 4 p.m. in Room 4, U.C. Messrs. Stobie and Smith will speak and Mr. Rogers will be in the chair.

KETCHUM DISCUSSES FIVE-YEAR PLAN

(Continued from Page 1)

army, the secret police and the various agencies for propaganda. The latter include the newspapers, the theatres and the schools. One of the finest things achieved by the present administration has been the "liquidation of illiteracy" by adult education.

The speaker outlined the purpose of the first and second Five-Year Plans. The working conditions are, such as "no full-blooded Canadian would stand for five minutes". Men and women work for seven hours a day, five days a week. The slogan of the plan is "He who would live must labour; he who would be idle must perish." It has been rigorously followed.

In Mr. Ketchum's opinion Russia has emerged from the most difficult stages of her transformation from an agricultural to an industrial nation. But this has been achieved only at the cost of great suffering.

Social and moral life in Russia is radically different. Religion is regarded as "the opium of the people". Marriage and divorce are easily obtained. The lenient penal system is a remarkable experiment. Communal life is displacing the home.

As for the future, this year's good crop, American recognition and the forthcoming British trade agreement augur well for Russia's economic position. Mr. Ketchum closed his address with the presentation of some official Russian slides.

VAGABONDS TAKE EXHIBITION GAME

(Continued from Page 3)

puck down the ice alone several times. The goalies were worked equally hard except for Fran's brilliant rushes when Gladys Munroe just didn't have any chance.

Vagabonds—Goal, M. Boulby; wings, B. Winlow, H. Anderson; centre, M. Thompson; defence, F. Westman, M. Trinnel; alternates, B. Barr, Eileen Broad, B. McKenzie.

Varsity—Goal, G. Munroe; wings, J. Atkinson, E. Sanson; centre, B. Fowler; defence, M. Rous, C. Grant; alternates, M. Morris, P. Thompson, B. Mark, J. Hogg, K. Symons.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

5 p.m. Men's Glee Club in Hart House Music Room. No meeting on Monday the 5th.

VIC MUSIC CLUB

All members of the club are reminded of the madrigal practice today from 1.2 p.m. in Alumni Hall. Will those who rented scores kindly return them to Wilf Deeth as soon as possible; anyone wishing to keep their score should straighten up the balance of the cost. An account of the tickets sold should be given to the team captains at once. Important announcement concerning party. Everybody out.

ITALIAN-SPANISH CLUB

Special meeting of the Italian-Spanish Club to hear an address given by His Excellency Piero Parini, the general director of Italian studies abroad, in Wymilwood at 4 o'clock sharp. Randolph Crowe and Margaret Rutherford will provide the musical entertainment, and tea will be served following the meeting.

SKETCH ROOM

Lawren Harris will speak in the Sketch Room of Hart House at 5 p.m. tomorrow dealing with some of the well-known Canadian artists such as Tom Thompson, A. Y. Jackson and Arthur Lismer and illustrating his talk with slides.

ALUMNI FEDERATION

The Alumni Federation of the University of Toronto is holding a Bridge at Eaton's College Street on Monday, February twelfth, at 8 p.m. The patrons and patronesses will be the Honorable George S. and Mrs. Henry, Sir William Mulock, Sir Robert and Lady Falcener, President and Mrs. H. J. Cady, Mrs. G. W. Monk, Mrs. H. D. Warren and Mrs. D. A. Dunlap.

CLAIM TICKETS FAIRLY ALLOTTED

(Continued from Page 1)

with him yesterday. Mr. Smith, when interviewed, explained the system used in distributing the tickets. The college representative is notified by Hart House to call for the U.C. allotment of 70 double tickets on the Wednesday before the concert.

Students may obtain tickets any time after 8.45 a.m. Thursday and there is usually a lineup. The representative (Mr. Hermant) arrives at 8.45 and gives out the tickets as long as they last to those students nearest the front of the line.

With regard to the particular Thursday mentioned in the letter Mr. Smith explained that Hart House failed to notify Mr. Hermant about collecting the tickets and he therefore did not appear to distribute them. The officials of Hart House were responsible for the inconvenience to the students.

Mr. Frank Woods, social director of the Lit. said that as far as he knew Hermant was always very punctual in arriving to give out the tickets. Mr. Woods also stated that there is no favoritism in ticket allotment.

Mr. Smith pointed out that if lists are posted for students to sign, two visits are required—one to sign for the ticket and one to collect it—also there would be a lineup to sign the list.

"8.45 a.m. has been considered the most convenient time for distributing tickets because throughout the day the U.C. students are scattered in many parts of the campus. If some other time is more convenient those interested should bring the matter up at an open meeting of the Literary Society," said Mr. Smith.

Mr. Smith also supported Mr. Woods' statement that there is no favoritism in allotting tickets to students who come on Thursday morning. A member of the Lit. executive (not the year executives), may obtain a ticket before Thursday morning for his personal use. The number of tickets distributed in this way is usually about 4 or 5, said Mr. Smith.

COOLEST STARS

The coolest stars have a temperature of almost 3,000 degrees.

Study the Art of Living

Toronto is a part of the great world of travel and society, in the Royal York Hotel. Come here to mingle with the city's notables and their most interesting guests, and to add your share to the atmosphere of gay sophistication.

Afternoon Tea Musicals—4.30 to 6 p.m. Rex Battle's Concert Orchestra. In the Palm Room off the Main Lobby.

Supper Dance—Introducing a new star, Billy Bisset, with his Royal Yorkers. 9 to 1.30 a.m., nightly (except Sunday).

Special Rates for College Parties Phone Wa. 2511

THE ROYAL YORK

A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.

Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

O.A.C. TAKE LEAD IN OPENING BOUTS

(Continued from Page 1)

in victory after he had pounded away at a fellow-Aggie, McFadyen, for almost two rounds.

The wrestlers also put on an exciting show, although only six of the thirteen bouts were won by falls. Eaton, Dimitrieff, McLennan and Wright looked the choice of the crowd, all taking their bouts on two straight falls.

Timekeeper—Dr. Campbell. Referee for Boxing—H. Henning; Judges—R. Rapsey, H. Rapsey. Referee for Wrestling—C. Martin; Judges—C. Worth, M. Chepesuk.

WRESTLING

125 lbs.—O'Leary, U.C., defeated Wolfe, S.P.S. One fall; Holden, S.P.S. defeated Taylor, O.A.C.

135 lbs.—Robertson, Meds, defeated Smith, O.A.C.; Rattle, O.A.C., defeated Minaker, S.P.S.

145 lbs.—Tyson, S.P.S., defeated Martin, O.A.C.; Shadketon, O.A.C., defeated Dickout, S.P.S.; Eaton, S.P.S., defeated Sutton, Trinity, straight falls.

155 lbs.—Hagey, O.A.C., defeated MacKenzie, Meds, straight falls; McLennan, O.A.C., defeated Evans, Meds, straight falls; Dimitrieff, S.P.S., defeated Lloyd, S.P.S., straight falls.

165 lbs.—Wright, O.A.C., defeated Turner, U.C., straight falls; Newell, U.C., defeated Kentola, For., one fall; Steensma, O.A.C., defeated McKillop, S.P.S., straight falls.

BOXING

118 lbs.—Gillespie, O.A.C., defeated Millson, S.P.S., technical knockout, 3rd round.

135 lbs.—Otto, St. Mike's, defeated Kemp, Vic; McCatty, S.P.S., defeated Gear, O.A.C., technical knockout, 2nd round.

145 lbs.—Powell, For., defeated Ewing, O.A.C.

165 lbs.—Beatty, O.A.C., defeated O'Kelly, Vic; Hallett, S.P.S., defeated Lambert, St. Mike's, technical knockout, 3rd round.

Heavyweight—Walton, O.A.C., defeated McFadyen, O.A.C., technical knockout, 2nd round. Draw for this afternoon (Feb. 1st) at 4 p.m.

WRESTLING

135 lbs.—Holden vs Johnston; Rattle vs Bannister.

145 lbs.—Tyson vs Shadketon.

155 lbs.—Dimitrieff vs Hagey.

165 lbs.—Wright vs Newell.

BOXING

135 lbs.—McCatty vs Gray. Draw for this evening.

WRESTLING

118 lbs.—McAlpine vs Cranfield.

125 lbs.—Winner of Holden vs Johnson, vs O'Leary.

135 lbs.—Winner of Rattle vs Bannister, vs Robertson.

145 lbs.—Winner of Tyson vs Shak vs Eaton.

155 lbs.—Winner of Hagey vs Dimitrieff, vs McLennan.

165 lbs.—Winner of Wright vs Newell, vs Steensma.

175 lbs.—Buckley vs Watt. Heavyweight—Watt vs Gray.

BOXING

118 lbs.—Gillespie vs McAdam.

125 lbs.—Jessup vs Smith.

135 lbs.—Winner of McCatty vs Gray, vs Otto.

145 lbs.—Powell vs Archibald.

155 lbs.—Beatty vs Hallett.

175 lbs.—Jones vs Fearman. Heavyweight—Springborn vs Walton

RIFLE TEAM WIN IMPORTANT MEETS

(Continued from Page 1)

Club, North Toronto Rifle Club, and three teams supported by the Toronto Irish Regiment.

The club also holds interfaculty competitions, for which each of its seventy members are eligible. In the fall a series of matches are held at the Long Branch Rifle Ranges for possession of the Delury Shield, donated by Professor A. T. Delury. During the winter a similar series of matches are held for the Mitchell Cup, donated by Dean C. H. Mitchell of S.P.S.

S.P.S. DEFEAT DENTS IN CLOSE CONTEST

(Continued from Page 3)

first period when Kingsberg got three baskets. School then hit their stride and had a good share of the play for the rest of the half. Dents were leading 9-7 when the whistle sounded.

Dents started strong in the second half and ran up their lead to eight points. For the second time School returned to life and sank the necessary points to give them the game.

Kingsberg and Dempster played well for the losers while Cooperman's play went a long way in giving School the victory.

Senior S.P.S.—Douglass, Waldon 3, Reid, Black, Cooperman 8, Wilkinson 1, Hall 3, Hagerman 2, Caldwell.

Dents—Harris 2, Kay 2, Weir, Kingsberg 8, Brown, Shaughnessy, Dempster 3, Potashin, McHugh.

TO APPOINT COMMISSION

A special athletic administration has been appointed by the Students' Union of the University of Manitoba while a special committee conducts an enquiry into the athletics of the university.

CARNEGIE MUSIC GRANT

The music department of the University of Saskatchewan has received a Carnegie Music Library set donated by the Carnegie Music Foundation.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2nd, 1934

No. 77

O.A.C. ARE AGAIN, INTERFACULTY B. W. & F. CHAMPIONS

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

During the past 36 hours, snow has formed one of the most extensive blockades in recent years on the highways of Western Ontario.

Alderman Fred Hamilton was seriously injured yesterday in a fall on King Street.

Dr. G. V. Harcourt, M.P.P., died last night a few hours after leaving the House of Assembly, a victim of a heart attack.

Chatham, Ont.—"Voluntary sterilization is absolutely necessary in the case of mental defectives," stated H. D. Smith, K.C., president of the Kent County Children's Aid Society, in an address here yesterday.

New York—Toronto Maple Leafs drew 5-5 in an ice battle with the New York Rangers here last night.

Berlin—Germany has issued a denial to Austrian accusations that German interference exists in Austrian affairs.

Bay of Whales, Antarctica—Admiral Byrd's men are working feverishly to discharge the remaining stores before further disintegration of the ice pack sets in.

Paris—France has rejected Germany's offer of a non-aggression pact and refuses to consider any rearmament of Germany.

DEBATERS OPPOSED TO STERILIZATION

U.C. Parliament Expresses Disapproval of Legislation

VOTING IS CLOSE

It may be compulsory in Germany, and advocated in England and the United States, but by a vote of 17 to 15 the University College Parliamentary Club yesterday afternoon decided against legislation compelling the sterilization of the unfit.

After the member of the downtown Press had been ejected the meeting got under way with Mr. Pivnick speaking for the advocates of sterilization. He pointed out that insanity and various social diseases are inherited and there are only two ways of curing the evil: segregation or sterilization. To segregate all the weak-minded, morose lunatic creatures who encumber society was too costly, he thought, and therefore advocated the other alternative.

He was backed by Mr. Sol Rae, who claimed that "Degenerates are increasing at a greater rate than the population."

"The government inspects dairy cattle to make sure that they are free from disease," it was pointed out, "and surely the welfare of the human race is of more importance than the welfare of the cow kingdom."

Mr. Stobie delivered perhaps the greatest oration for the motion when he stated that "When a person has scarlet fever we segregate him; why then when we know that a person is likely to cause untold suffering through spreading social diseases should we not protect society from him?" Climaxing his speech with an expression that inspired all his followers, Mr. Stobie shouted, "If we go so far as to weed

(Continued on Page 4)

Queen's and Blue Basketeers To Clash Here on Saturday

Queen's Seniors Make Two-Came Trip to London and Toronto

EXTENDED REOPEN

Show Real Form in Spite of Loss of Many Stars

By R. W. Clark

Kingston, Ont., Jan. 31st.—Queen's senior basketeers face their hardest grind of the season, when they make the two-game trip to London and Toronto this coming week-end. The Tricolour quintet sprang quite a surprise on local followers of the court game when they held the champion McGill squad to a one-point victory in an exciting battle last Saturday.

Queen's, wrecked through graduation, are in the process of rebuilding, and that a firm foundation has been laid was amply proved against the Redmen.

Only Don Bews and Doug Rooke of last year's squad remain from the veteran squad in playing the best basketball of his career. Alongside Bews on defence, Bruce McGill has shown real form and has earned a regular berth. Stew Brown's ability to get the tip-off as well as general all-round play have given him the call for centre. Rooke, of last year's team, and Chuck Finlay, have teamed up well in the forward positions and with Brown to (Continued on Page 4)

CANADIAN COURSE IS 'MIDDLE PATH'

Methods of Meeting Unemployment Problem Compared

EUROPEAN AFFAIRS

"Canada is following the middle path in solving her unemployment problem," said Mr. Earl Lautenslager in his weekly talk on Current Events at Wymilwood.

"Canada is spending a certain amount in direct relief, which is not a cure for her ills and also a large amount to try to encourage business and lift the depression. However, the amount spent for the latter is so little that it won't solve Canada's problems. The American government's policy, on the other hand, is to spend furiously to raise the U.S.A. out of the depression."

Announcement was made in the Japanese Diet, in discussing the question of their navy that at the close of 1933 Japan's navy should be 68 per (Continued on Page 2)

DISPLAY OF BOOKS GIVES VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

A collection of books on Vocational Guidance will be on exhibition in the Economics Reading Room of Victoria University Library to the end of February. Students registered in any of the colleges may consult these books daily between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. The books may be borrowed also, for a period of one night.

These books fall into three main classes—I. Books on methods of teaching vocational education; II. The psychology of vocational guidance; III. Practical information, listing occupations of various sorts, with an analysis of the necessary training and qualifications for the successful pursuit of each profession, trade or industry.

Varsity Cagers Prepared for Stiff Encounter on Saturday

STRONG AGGREGATION

Powerful Offensive is Relied on as Chief Weapon

By John T. Stubbs

Lew Hayman's cage quintet has a real battle in view when they prepare for the intercollegiate senior basketball game with Queen's to be held in Hart House Saturday night. The Tricolour lost by one point to the champion McGill squad last week in Kingston and as a result of that game are to be watched closely by contenders for the cage title this year.

However, Varsity is expectant of taking the Queen's cagers here on their own floor and will battle to the last ditch to stay in first place with the Redmen. Last year Varsity lost the first game with Queen's in Kingston in a listless game where the final score was 24-18. In the return game in Toronto the Blues asserted themselves to show their superiority and secured a sizeable margin. Bews, the Queen's long shot ace, will be held in check closely and not allowed to throw them from centre floor. The Varsity offensive should be sufficiently powerful to score a favourable margin of points on their own floor. The defensive tactics of the two teams will be the deciding factor in the final decision.

Varsity's lineup will consist of Willis at centre, Bodrug and Mitchell as forwards, Sniderman and Gold as the guards, and Gordon, Levy and Young as relief men. With the exception of Sniderman, the whole squad has been out regularly to practices and has been working hard to get into shape for this (Continued on Page 4)

Sunday Evening Songster

The sixth songster of the year will be held in the Music Room of Hart House on Sunday evening next at 8.45 p.m.

Mr. J. Campbell McInnes will conduct the following programme:

Who would true valour see
My Lady Greensleeves
How should I your true love know
My love's an arbutus
Cease your fanning
Calisto censure me
Golden Vanity
My love she's but a lassie yet
My heart is sair for somebody
Men of Harlech

Varsity Reporters Go on Spree Beer, Wine, Scotch, Gin and Tea

A Music Critic takes a holiday. And lets his partner sing.

Bring me a cup of Oxo
And who is the gentleman who is to interview Magistrate Jones at 11.30 today?

Oh please bring me a cup of Oxo
"The only thing about balancing the budget is that have to have both sides the same. Most politicians don't realize that."

Ravellit Take this letter!
What's he reading—his paper napkin?

Call me voluptuous
"It's serious, Pat. A hundred and forty dollars worth of liquor will go a long way."

Cancel the Oxo
And the Feature Editor was putty in the hands of a mere feature writer!

THIRTY SUSPENDED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF AUTUMN FEES

Any Further Reinstatements Must Be Made by Board of Governors

TRINITY FEES SATISFACTORY

Only Few Students Received Financial Assistance from Bursaries

No action is being taken at the present time, nor is any further action contemplated in the case of those students who have been suspended from the University for non-payment of their fall term fees, according to Mr. A. B. Fennell, University Registrar, whom The Varsity questioned yesterday concerning the fate of these unfortunate students.

Mr. Fennell stated that, of the 42 students who were originally suspended, 12 have been reinstated, the remainder being deprived of the opportunity to continue their work. Their names have been sent to the heads of the departments in which they were respectively enrolled.

The chances are very slight that the remaining 30 students, who are under suspension at the present time, will (Continued on Page 4)

ADVANCE IN RADIO IS ANTICIPATED

Experimenters in Radio Will Make Improvements in Future

MR. RUSSELL SPEAKS

"The radio amateur of today, although he is often only fourteen or fifteen years of age, is almost an engineer and due to this I'm looking forward to great advances in the field of radio in the very near future," said Mr. Keith Russell, Radio Inspector for Toronto District, in his address on "Amateur Radio" before a meeting of the Mathematical and Physical Society yesterday afternoon. "It is safe to say that out of the hundreds of experimenters in radio, some geniuses are sure to rise."

Mr. Russell outlined for the members the history of amateur radiotelegraphic communication. Beginning with (Continued on Page 4)

SCHOOLMEN HOLD SECOND PLACE AS. O.A.C. TAKES EASY VICTORY

WOMEN'S SPORTS STAFF
HOLOS MEETING TODAY

There will be a meeting of the Women's Sports Staff in the Women's Office today at 1.45 p.m. Any not on the staff now, who would like to report basketball, hockey or badminton, are invited to attend.

PAINTING EXHIBITION

All undergraduate members of Hart House who wish to participate in the painting, water-colour and drawing exhibition, are reminded that all works are to be at the Warden's office not later than Wed., Feb. 7th at 5 p.m.

NEED IS STRESSED OF PSYCHIATRIST

Perfect Health Necessarily Includes Mental Health

STUDENT PROBLEMS

"A psychiatrist should form a part of the health department of every university," stated Dr. E. A. Bott of the Psychology Department here, when commenting on yesterday's editorial, "Perfect health means mental as well as physical health, and these two are closely linked together," Dr. Bott continued. "A student should feel no compunction about enlisting the aid of a psychiatrist in straightening out any of the many difficulties and confusion in which he is very apt to find himself."

"These are especially prevalent in the student's struggle to adapt himself to the tremendous change from the more or less spoon-fed high school life to college life and relative independence. Unfortunately, people in general are not yet educated to the idea of considering mental hygiene as a branch of hygiene as a whole. They have an innate feeling that there is some connection between mental troubles and disgrace, and the stigma 'Psychiatrist' on a door is sufficient to scare most students away. They do not realize that the university feels as interested and responsible in the case of mental troubles as in the case of a broken leg, or heart seizure. These are in actuality simply different types of illness."

"The problem of 'squeamishness' about discussing such troubles would be solved by having one centre for (Continued on Page 4)

"KNEE ACTION" SPRINGS EXPLAINED BY SPEAKER

Yesterday afternoon the Engineering Society welcomed back a previous speaker in the person of Mr. W. J. Davidson, executive secretary of the general technical committee of the General Motors Corporation. "What's all the Shooting about in the Automotive Industry?" was the rather unusual title which Mr. Davidson chose for his address. As might be supposed, he dealt with the recent advances in the constructions of motor vehicles. Mr. Davidson brought sections of auto frames and front wheel assemblies for demonstration purposes. He also had special apparatus to illustrate the principle of "knee action" springs. The attendance at the meeting, which was the largest of the year, indicates the popularity of the speaker.

Class Shown in All Events as Farmers Prove Superiority

KNOCKOUT SCORED

Meds Occupy Third Position; University College Fourth

The Ontario Agricultural College last night repeated their victory of last year in the senior interfaculties assault when they piled up a total of 106 points, for an impressive lead over their closest rivals, S.P.S., who were trailing far behind with 61. The Aggies lived up to expectations in every respect and left no doubt as to who deserves the right to hold the Oavidson Cup.

The concluding rounds of the tournament provided the best scraps of the entire contest, although the long series of eliminations tended to slow some of the boys up considerably. Hallett, a middleweight boxer, made a good impression in his scrap with Beatty of O.A.C., and although he was always out in front and continually pounding away, the Guelph boy refused to quit, and was still in their swinging when the final bell went. McCarty, the speedy Varsity lightweight, fought his way into the finals, but was unable to continue due to an injured eye.

FINALS

Wrestling
118 lbs.—McAlpine, O.A.C., defeated Cranfield, O.A.C., straight falls.
125 lbs.—Johnson, Meds, beat Holden, S.P.S.
135 lbs.—Bannister, S.P.S., beat Robertson, Meds.
145 lbs.—Eaton, S.P.S., defeated Tyson, S.P.S.
155 lbs.—Haggy, O.A.C., defeated McLeland, O.A.C.
165 lbs.—Wright, O.A.C., defeated (Continued on Page 3)

DEFECTS SCORED IN SCHOOL SYSTEM

Present Educational System Stands in Need of Reform

CO-EDS DEBATE

"Our system of education in Ontario does not allow for any individual attention to students," stated Miss Dorothy Linklater, U.C., yesterday afternoon, speaking for the motion, "Resolved that this House deplores the present system of public education in Ontario," which was carried by a vote in the House of 13 to 7. "Our education should train the children of this province to think for themselves."

The speakers upholding the motion upbraided the discrepancy between the education given in the city and country schools. Not enough consideration is given to scholarship in choosing the teachers for the high schools. There is very little interest in current events and a stifling of all political discussions in both our public and high schools.

Miss Patricia Callen, St. Michael's College, speaker for the opposition, said that education should be divided into three branches, mental, physical and moral. "An education is a collection of mental tools which should be used to fix the individual for life not to make him an encyclopaedia." The speakers for the affirmative de-

(Continued on Page 4)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '35
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. G. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crocker, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:

E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—K. E. Prentice Assistant—F. R. Leggett

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2nd, 1934

ARE OUR PROFESSORS PROPAGANDISTS?

The charge is being repeatedly made that professors at the University of Toronto are political propagandists, and to date the charge has been inadequately answered. The charge, of course, emanates from those who represent political or economic interests in conflict with the views entertained and the doctrines disseminated by members of the faculty. Were the professors champions of the status quo, there would be no outcry.

It is an undeniable fact, however, that many of the professors who deal with economic, political, social and religious subjects are exerting a profound influence upon the minds of the students at the University of Toronto, and are moulding them pretty much after one pattern. That pattern is socialistic. Whether the greater part of the student body would openly align itself with the C.C.F. or not, is a highly debatable question; nevertheless, it is our conviction that most of the undergraduates at Toronto entertain socialistic sympathies of one kind or another. We have this belief upon the popularity and activity of the organizations on the campus with a socialistic or Marxian flavour, such as the C.C.F. Club, the one time Fabius Society, the Friends of Soviet Russia, the Marxian Society, the Student League, the League for Social Reconstruction, and the Movement for a Christian Social Order as seen in the literature and conferences of the Student Christian Movement. Our conviction is deepened when we think of the popularity of professors with known socialistic principles in the departments of Sociology, Ethics, Economics, Political Science, and some theological faculties.

The Varsity deprecates the wholesale education of youth in one frightfully circumscribed school of thought. To have young people look to socialism, or some phase of it, as the one solution of our problems is as intellectually disastrous and deadening as the dogmatism of a past generation. Frankly we can see no easy escape from this warped and stunted philosophy, for its tide threatens to sweep all before it. But all students ought to realize that they have been caught in its eddy, that socialism is a passing phase with this age, that it represents but a part and not the whole truth and for that reason can never afford an ultimate solution. Are the students of this University aware that they are being moulded by a very relative, and possibly superficial, philosophy?

But although our universities have been mainly responsible for the inculcation of socialistic ideas, it is utterly false to describe our professors as propagandists. "Propagandist" bears a nasty connotation which cannot be applied to the teaching staff at this University. A propagandist is one who, with little regard for the legitimacy of his ideas, deliberately seeks to convert others to his pet theories, or to his particular political creed. Back of his teaching, there lies an ulterior motive.

Professors, as scientific investigators, are forced by the logic of thought and the logic of history to arrive at certain conclusions concerning society and its needs, uninfluenced by partisan interests. Professors, as educators, are constrained to impart what for them is truth.

CANADIAN CDURSE IS "MIDDLE PATH"

(Continued from Page 1)

cent as strong as that of the U.S.A. Mr. Lautenslager compared the naval race between Japan and U.S.A. with that of Great Britain and Germany.

"The German Church has lost its battle against Fascism," stated Mr. Lautenslager. "The German Church had lost its backbone and had no strength to fight. This defeat may bring a revival of the Church."

"Germany is falling into the line of all tyrannies since ancient Greece," Mr. Lautenslager pointed out in his reference to the ten-year Peace Pact recently made between Poland and Germany. "One of Hitler's election promises was to get the Polish corridor. Now he has Germany subdued and he doesn't grasp the opportunity."

"The Jews are quite alarmed at the definitely growing feeling of distrust towards the Jews of Canada," Mr. Lautenslager considered such a fear quite groundless.

"I admire Rev. A. C. Smith's spirit in giving up his security and devoting himself to a cause in which he believes," declared Mr. Lautenslager in referring to the trial now taking place.

"He has allied himself with the Labour Party and is probably a Communist and I don't approve of his views or methods but I do admire him for taking his stand."

PRIMITIVE "POISON GAS"

"Poison Gas" was known to South American Indians, who burned the Spanish pepper plant for this purpose when besieging walled villages.

Art, Music and Drama

Friday Afternoon Recital

A SPANISH programme has been arranged for today's recital which will take place at 5 p.m. on 2nd February in the Music Room of Hart House as follows:

I
Seventeenth Century Songs
Desengañados Ya, Jose Marin
Corazon que en Prision Jose Marin Eighteenth Century Songs
Por Colacion Seis Abates Blas de Laserna
Las Majas de Paris Pablo Esteve
A La Jota Mrs. E. H. Craigie, soprano

II
Sonata in D Flat Padre Soler
Sonata in G Minor Padre Soler
Sonata in F Sharp Padre Angles
Fugato Alberto Guerrero, pianist

III
Jota Tortosina Joaquin Nin
Eres como el Sol de Hermosa Joaquin Nin
Cancion de Cuna Manzanera
Granadina Manzanera
El Vito Joaquin Nin
Seguidilla Manuel de Falla
Mrs. E. H. Craigie, soprano

IV
Triana

File Advance in the Dining Hall

As the lunch hour came around, we moved along with the multitude towards the centre of attraction at Hart House, which appeared to be a dining hall. Sergeant Teeth observed that the place resembled the dining hall at a well-known penitentiary, except for the confusion, or words to that effect. Advance merely lit one of his beloved Rajahs to counteract the aroma.

"Come, Sergeant," he said, "let us examine the colloidal suspension in yonder tureen."

Teeth looked puzzled. "Soup," I suggested helpfully.

Advance sent out for a hydrometer, and began to scrutinize the substances left in a sieve through which he strained the famous liquid.

"Fascinating!" he was murmuring, as he ran his fingers through the peculiar slime which he found. "Whether these bodies are cotylosauria or parapsida, I cannot say offhand."

"Parapsidis and parapsidisn't," said Barkum wittily. But Advance was too absorbed to care.

"But of this I am sure," he continued, extinguishing his cigarette in a glass of milk, "the fish you see here represent rare species of both Crossopetrigii and Holsteoidii. And Paramocia fairly abound," he added, lighting one of his beloved Rajahs.

"What do you make of the liquid?" asked an interested student who was finishing his bowl of the delicacy under inspection. "Does it belong to the Carboeylic series?"

"Pendin' the arrival of scientific instruments and a pocket encyclopaedia, I hate to be dogmatic. But it obviously contains a large quantity of Diiodotyrosine:  $\beta$ -(3, 5-diodo-4-hydroxyphenyl)- $\alpha$ -aminopropionic acid."

How about some 2,4,6-tri-hike," said (Continued on Page 4)

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

Huron Street—Just below Bloor
Holy Eucharists at 7 a.m., 8 a.m. and 9.30 a.m.

11 a.m.—Choral Eucharist
Service in A minor - Lovelock
Preacher, The Rev. W. Lyndon Smith, M.A.
Motet, "Hail O Virgin" Rachmaninoff

7 p.m.—Choral Evensong
Preacher, The Rev. E. R. Norman, L.S.T.
Anthem, "O Saviour of the world" Goss

Broadcast of Choral Music over C.F.R.B., 6.45 p.m.

Serenade Isaac Albeniz
Fire Dance Manuel de Falla
Alberto Guerrero, pianist

Toronto Symphony

At the next concert of the Toronto Symphony, on February 6, the guest artist will be Piatigorsky, world famous 'cellist. The programme will be as follows:

Concerto Bocherini
for Violoncello and Orchestra
Symphony No. 2, in E Flat Elgar Concerto Saint-Saens
for Violoncello and Orchestra
Carnival Overture Dvorak

St. Thomas' Church

Johann Sebastian Bach is featured on C.F.R.B.'s presentation on Sunday at 5.45 p.m. when the Choir sing "Jesu, joy of man's desiring." Master Arthur Cooper sings an aria from Handel's "Theodora," "Angels ever bright and fair," and the capella offerings of the Choir will be Rachmaninoff's eight-part motet "Hail O Virgin," and Dr. Willan's "O Sacred Feast." This outstanding programme concludes with the Male Chorus singing "Beautiful Saviour."

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

COMES TO MR. HERMANT'S RESCUE

The Editor, The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

The charges made by one of your correspondents, that the distribution of tickets to the Hart House Musicales are, at U.C., in the hands of a clique, are entirely without foundation. Tickets are, and always have been, handed out without favouritism. Seldom (in no case last or this term), are any who desire them turned away. On the rare occasions when a few are unable to obtain them, it is for the excellent reason that there are only a limited number of tickets available for distribution at U.C.

So far as the specific charges against Mr. S. M. Hermant are concerned, that he was negligent in not distributing the tickets for last Sunday evening on the Thursday morning preceding the concert as is customary, the simple explanation is that he did not have the tickets. He was not informed that there was a concert on the Sunday referred to. He discovered it only casually, during a conversation with the Warden of Hart House on Wednesday night week. It was then too late (11.30 p.m.) to obtain the tickets or to post notices in U.C. Mr. Hermant, at considerable personal inconvenience, serves the college faithfully in these respects.

G.K. Drynan, 3T4 Law, U.C.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject Sunday:

"LOVE"

First Church of Christ, Scientist, St. George St. at Lowther Ave. Close to residences and fraternity houses Sunday Service 11 a.m., 7.30 p.m. The morning service is broadcast over C.F.R.B. A Sunday School for students under twenty is held at 11 a.m.

On Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the main auditorium is held a meeting at which Testimonies of Christian Science Readings are given. Downtown on the 11th floor of the Metropolitan Bldg., Adelaide at Victoria, a Free Public Reading Room is open from 9.30 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily except Sunday, for free, quiet meditation and study, where the Bible, and authorized Christian Science literature including the text book, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, may be read, borrowed or purchased.

Each and every student is cordially invited to attend the services, and to enjoy the privilege of the reading room.

St. Paul's Church

Bloor Street East

THE RT. REV. R. J. RENISON, Rector

University students are specially invited to the Sunday Evening Services at 7 o'clock.

Club Dinners--50c.

also

Special Student Luncheons at 35c. and 25c.

"The Good Companions"

"... a wonderfully cheerful and pleasant place ... menus so varied and interesting that you are sure to find what you like best."

Tea Cup Reading with Afternoon Tea Lunch or Dinner

1179 BAY ST. R.A. 2411

COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

British Consols

SEALED IN MOISTUREPROOF CELLOPHANE

THEOSOPHY

52 Isabella Street

Sunday Evening at 7.15 p.m.

MR. RUPERT G. LESH (of Buffalo)

on

"THE SCRIPTURES AND THEIR DEEPER SIGNIFICANCE"

Special Soloist

MISS MARGARET FEWSTER

Questions Answered.

Free Lending Library.

DANCE

"The High Hatters"

It's Music That Matters

The smartest and neatest appearing orchestra on the campus—of course it's different!

Insure the success of your formal, or that year party by booking early.

LOCK ALGIE

El. 4400

Ml. 7848

TICKETS FOR THE North American Speed Skating Championship

at MAPLE LEAF GARDENS

Tuesday and Wednesday Next

Feb. 6 and 7

may be procured at S.A.C. Office, Hart House

Price 55 and 25 cents

All proceeds in aid of Kiwanis

Philanthropic work

See Howard Nicholson, World Figure Skating Champion

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute.

Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St. K1. 0991

571 Yonge St. K1. 3270

$1.00 WILL REPAIR YOUR WATCH
NO MATTER HOW BADLY BROKEN
Cleaned, if necessary, 75c. extra
GUARANTEED 2 YEARS
FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY!
CITY WATCH & JEWELRY
HOSPITAL Est. 1921
163-7 Yonge St.—Room 12
OFF. SIMPSON'S MAIL ORDERS—POSTAGE EXTRA

DANCING LESSONS
GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps
6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1885

Your Eyes
will be scientifically examined if you
consult Luke.
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

BLUE AND WHITE HOCKEY TEAM TO INVADE KINGSTON SATURDAY

Confident of maintaining the supremacy they have enjoyed for the past number of years, Varsity's women's intercollegiate hockey team embark tomorrow for Kingston where they will meet the Tricolour sextet in the first of their home and home series. During the past twelve years Varsity have met with success in this series ten times and judging by the ability they have displayed in recent workouts, look quite certain of adding this season's trophy to their already imposing list.

Although the experience so far has been somewhat limited, they have seen sufficient action to enable the players to get into a smooth working combination and they are ready to go in and play heads-up hockey.

Four vacancies were left this year by Margot Thompson, Dama Lumley, Dot Starr and Janet Gow, but Coach MacPherson has some promising new players who are combining well with the veterans. Chariety Grant, who has the makings of a real stick-handler is on the defence along with Mary Rous. Eleanor Sanson, Billie Fowler and Jean Atkinson, all players with intercollegiate experience, form the first lineup, with Mary Morris, Betty Mark and Pat Thompson on the alternate shift. Gladys Munroe is capably filling the position of goalie.

FORESTRY WIN 3-1 OVER PHARMACY

Woodsmen Score Two Goals in Five minutes Before Bell

LARSSON IN GOAL

Scoring two quick goals in the last five minutes of the game a strong Forestry team registered a 3-1 victory over the Pharmacy squad in an inter-faculty hockey fixture played at the Stadium yesterday afternoon. The game was one of the finest to date, with plenty of speed and clever hockey being displayed by both teams.

The game started out with play ranging from one end of the rink to the other, and only the fine goal-tending by the rival goalies kept the teams off the score sheet. Midway in the first period the Foresters, on a smart play that carried them right to the Pharmacy goal mouth tallied the first goal. After this goal the Druggists tried hard to get the equalizer but the onslaughts of Wilton and Cottrill were of no avail. In the second canto Pharmacy succeeded in knotting the count on a shot that beat Larsson in the Forestry nets easily.

The final twenty minutes produced the finest hockey of the game, with both teams trying hard to score the winning goal and only the brilliant defence put by the Druggists kept the Forestry squad from running up the score. With five minutes left to play the Foresters took advantage of the fast-tiring Pharmacists and rammed home two quick goals to make the final score 3-1.

The game was fast and very clean and only the ability that the winners (Continued on Page 4)

Sport Notices

U.C. Hockey—
Practice today from 1 to 2 for both teams at Little Vic.

Interfaculty Swimming Meet—
All competitors must get passes from the Athletic Office this afternoon.

Baseball Rules—
Copies of indoor baseball ground rules are available for baseball managers. See Mr. McCutcheon.

Rowing Club—
Men are reminded that today is the last day to sign the special list to signify intention of getting P.T. for rowing. No one not signing this list will be given credit.

Intercollegiate Swimming—
No practice Saturday.

Kingston, Ont., Jan. 31.—Coach Roy Dougall's 1934 Levena hockey sextet seems to be as strong as ever, and the general belief around Queen's sports circles is that they should put up a good battle here on Saturday night when the Blue and White team invades the Jock Hartie Arena for the first of the season's ice battles.

The personnel of the team is somewhat altered this year due to graduation, but several of the veterans will be on hand. Some promising newcomers will also take places on the team, among them a fresher, Arlene Averill, whose defence work has been spectacular. May Mills, seasoned defence star, has returned to college this term, but will be with the team in the capacity of manager only. Of the old guard, Jean Nelson, Ruby Cordy, Marg Chambers, Lillian Ward and the star goalie, Marg McGregor, will all be back on deck for the struggle.

The following will take the ice to uphold the honour of the Tricolour: Ruby Cordy, Marg McGregor, Lillian Ward, Jean Nelson, Marg Chambers, Arlene Averill, Marg Brophy and Aileen MacLean.

HOCKEY PLAYERS WILL ENTER RACE

Varsity Well Represented in Most Speed Skating Events

NOVEL ATTRACTIONS

Of special interest to students will be the series of races for hockey stars from the various leading universities throughout the province at the North American Indoor Speed skating meet being held Tuesday and Wednesday at Maple Leaf Gardens.

University of Toronto, although they have not definitely decided on their four-man team as yet, will have a strong entry to cope with the threats of Queen's, Western and McMaster. All three schools plan taking a fall out of the Toronto U. and Varsity, with their best speedsters available, are not treating the matter any too lightly.

While the University races will be of great concern to the students, the features of the meet will rest in the speed and figure events, of which there will be finals on both nights. The best skaters available on the continent have been secured for the meet and speed, thrills and spills as the gladiators traverse the tricky sharp turns will lend utmost excitement.

Howard Nicholson, three-time world figure champion and Constance Wilson Samuels, North American and Canadian feminine champion, will headline the figure bill with Mrs. Edward H. Gooderham, formerly Miss Cecil Smith, Jack Eastwood, Osborn Colson, Miss Maud Eustace Smith, Miss Eleanor O'Meara and Ralph McCreath, the supporting cast.

Great rivalry is being evidenced in the speed events for senior girls. Kit Klein and Dot Frane, North American Outdoor and U.S. National champion respectively, will be here to oppose Lela Brooks, holder of several world's records. They both beat Lela in the U.S. meets and the Torontonians are out to avenge the whipping.

Novel attractions, the foremost being the Centennial speed events for the less accomplished skaters, barrel jumping and novel races for mercantile hockey stars, will be on the bill.

SR. U.C. DEFEATED IN GUELPH

Last night the Senior U.C. team attacked the O.A.C. interfaculty squad in Guelph, and suffered a 19-15 defeat at the hands of a hard fighting collection of Agriculturists.

Led by Paddon and Munroe the winners piled up 14 points in the first half. The U.C. team just couldn't seem to find the basket and although they shot repeatedly, they only scored 10 points at half time.

Both teams checked hard in the second half. Scott, Lang and Hennessey led the U.C. attack but only managed to make the final score 19-15. The play was ragged throughout and it is still a question which is the better team.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Plenty of action, at home and abroad is in store for the Blue and White this week-end. At Hart House the Varsity basketball team will try conclusions with Queen's, while on the same bill there is offered an interfaculty swimming meet in the Hart House pool. These two shows will be followed by music and dancing on the big gym floor. This kind of entertainment is becoming increasingly popular around the campus and Saturday night's bill should attract quite a crowd. Down in Montreal tonight Warren Stevens' colourful hockey squad will tangle with the powerful McGill Redmen in the first of their two game intercollegiate series. Saturday night at Kingston the Varsity women's intercollegiate hockey team will meet Kingston in the first of their two game series. The ladies stand a good chance of bringing back a comfortable lead, but the men—

The clash between Varsity and McGill offers little encouragement for the Varsity supporters. The Redmen have just finished winning their group in the Mount Royal Q.H.A. and have yet to be beaten. Down the corridors around the Forum the railbirds are picking McGill to figure in the Dominion playoffs. Baz O'Meara of the Montreal Star is of the opinion that this year's Montreal students are even better than the great M.A.A.A. team of a few years ago which was of a championship calibre. As yet no one has accused Varsity of any attempt to muscle into the Dominion finals but they will certainly be in there giving everything they have and when it comes to a tough grind these boys have plenty of what it takes.

We would like to draw attention to the fact that the Varsity-Central Y Senior B basketball game previously announced as being played at Hart House, has been transferred to Central Y and will start at 7.15.

Once again O.A.C. demonstrated their superiority in the B. W. and F. tournament completed last night at Hart House. The Aggies went into the fray at a disadvantage in having little or no time for practice but on the other hand, their numerous entries, far exceeding that of any other faculty, made them all the more difficult to conquer.

RED TEAM STRONG FOR OPENING GAME

Still Undefeated After Twelve Starts, Favourites for Finals

IMPRESSIVE RECORD

Montreal, Jan. 31.—Captain Nelson Crutchfield and his Redmen, intercollegiate hockey champions of last year, will face Varsity in the Forum on Friday night with fullest intentions of keeping the college title in the Metropolis. Despite the fact that the intercollegiate league of last year has again become a home-and-home series between Varsity and McGill due to the fact that U. of M. dropped out the McGill players are every bit as anxious to win and Warren Stevens' team will find themselves up against a tough combination when they take the ice.

With fourteen wins and two draws to their credit so far this season in sixteen games McGill are in a fair way to set something of a record in this respect if they continue their winning habits. They have beaten every team in the senior group which boasts some of the smartest players in the province, such as Ralph St. Germain, former McGill star himself and Dave Neville of Royals. The two draw games did no damage whatever and since that time McGill have thoroughly avenged the tie with St. Francois as they beat them 10-2 in their next meeting.

Tonight McGill will seek their 17th game without defeat when they meet Victorias, whom they whipped earlier in the month by a score of 7-0.

McGill are being mooted from many sections as potential Allan Cup winners and their supporters are confident that they can win the local senior title and continue the hunt in the playdowns. At present they are four and a half points up on Royals, their closest rivals (Continued on Page 4)

INTERFACULTY SWIMMING

The Senior Interfaculty Swimming Meet for the Fitzgerald Cup, will be held in Hart House pool, Saturday evening, 3rd February, 1934. It is hoped that there will be a full turnout from every faculty. The events are as follows:

1. 300 yds. medley relay: 1st man '00 yds. back; 2nd man 100 yds. breast, 3rd man 100 yds. free
2. Diving.
3. 50 yds. free style.
4. 440 yds. free style.
5. 100 yds. back stroke.
6. 100 yds. free style.
7. 200 yds. breast stroke.
8. 200 yds. sprint relay (4 men).

Fitzgerald Cup rules: Competition rules to be the same as C.I.S.U. rules, except that a competitor may enter three events, including the relay and the team will be limited to 15 men.

VARSITY CAGERS LOSE TO O.A.C.

Long Pass to Awde Snatches Victory from Hands of Intermediates

JUNIORS SUCCESSFUL

By G. T. Burt-Gerrans
Running into a streak of bad luck, Varsity dropped an extremely close game to the champion Aggie intermediates at Guelph last night, 24-25. The juniors won handily by a score of 40-22.

In the intermediate game O.A.C. started off badly and seemed unable to work together. However, at half time they had managed to tighten up and creep to within two points of Varsity.

They started off the second session with a bang, both teams fighting for the lead. Normie Newman had had luck on his foul shots and saw two long shots climb out after rolling half way through the hoop. Applebaum had a touch of the flu and couldn't work in to score although he showed flashes of the form of which he is capable.

With about a minute to play Varsity playing every man up on the attack, were trying to increase a one-point lead when Awde broke away down the rink, received a long pass over his shoulder and flipped it in to put O.A.C. ahead. Varsity came heart-breakingly close to scoring in the remaining seconds but couldn't quite make it.

Throughout the game Harry Newman's steady play making and his brother Normie's flashy attacking game were standouts. Varsity checked well all the way through, and most of the Aggie scores were on lucky breaks and long passes from their own end. For the Farmers Awde, Hutcheson and Breckin were the best.

In the junior game the team checked O.A.C. very closely and combined well to score for themselves. Miller played very well and Kraaker, while weak defensively at times, turned in a good game. Kinsey didn't play his usual game and was good only in spots.

O.A.C. Intermediates—Breckin 5, Aitken 4, Buchanan, Thorpe 2, Awde 8, Hutcheson 6, Cook.

Varsity Intermediates—Applebaum, N. Newman 15, Vanderleek 4, H. Newman, Stronach 2, Gibson 2, Henderson, Mitchell 1.

Varsity Juniors—Miller 13, Kinsey 8, Harlock 2, Kraaker 8, Doan 1, Stoughton 2, Mullin 2, Gladish 2, Stewart, Toole 2.

O.A.C. Juniors—Monell 12, Swain 2, Mitchell 2, Alexander, Gauthier 1, Chidley 3, Stuart 2, Blake.

ITS VICTORIA

Don't forget our class party in Wymilwood tomorrow night. It will be a sports party and will start at 7.45.

Everybody--

is talking about the CONCERT by the

VARSITY BAND

IN CONVOCATION HALL

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20th

at 8.15 p.m.

Make that "Date" Now and

WATCH FOR FURTHER PARTICULARS

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.

Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

Tomorrow the Blue hockey team meet Queen's in the first game of the home and home series for the intercollegiate cup. We predict a win for them again despite the fact that this will be the thirteenth year of competition. Why be superstitious? They are capable of a much better brand of hockey than that they displayed on Wednesday night. Coach MacPherson put them through a hard workout yesterday and instructions forgotten in the heat of the game have been again impressed on their minds. Billie Fowler has a hard accurate shot and ought to be good for a couple of counters with the help of her hard-working team-mate, Jean Atkinson, and the fast-skating Eleanor Sanson.

A regrettable incident occurred last night in interfaculty hockey. Kay Symons, who has been in action with the intercollegiate team, took the ice with the St. Hilda's team, which she should not have been allowed to do. The fault was not hers, rather that of the St. Hilda's manager and coach, who should have been conversant enough with the rules to know that no woman who plays on an intercollegiate team can play on an interfaculty team.

Even without Kay, the Saints would have had the better team but that makes no difference. Eleanor Sanson, president of the Hockey Club, is going to call a meeting to make a decision on the matter and settle the ruling once and for all. The game will likely have to be played over again.

INTERFACULTY HOCKEY

The following is the schedule for the coming week in the interfaculty hockey series. Managers are advised to observe closely whether their teams are playing in the Arena or at the Stadium.

Monday, Feb. 5 (Stadium)—
4 p.m.—Jr. U.C. vs Jr. S.P.S.
5 p.m.—Pharmacy vs O.C.E.
Tuesday, Feb. 6 (Stadium)—
4 p.m.—Emmanuel vs Wycliffe
5 p.m.—Vic vs Jr. Meds
Tuesday, Feb. 6 (Arena)—
3.30 p.m.—Trinity vs Knox
4.30 p.m.—Sr. U.C. vs Sr. S.P.S.
Thursday, Feb. 8 (Stadium)—
5 p.m.—Dents vs Sr. Meds
Friday, Feb. 9 (Arena)—
4 p.m.—Vic vs Jr. S.P.S.
Forestry vs Pharmacy

ALL TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS

Are due now and must be handed in to the S.A.C. Office, Hart House, at once to get in this year's book. Unless definite arrangements have been made to the contrary.

INTERFACULTY ASSAULT (Continued from Page 1)

Stensman, O.A.C.
175 lbs.—Watt, S.P.S., defeated Buckley, O.A.C., straight falls.
Heavyweight—Watt, O.A.C., defeated Gray, S.P.S.
Referee—C. Martin.
Judges—M. Chapesnik, Fletcher and Tyson.
Boxing
118 lbs.—McAdam, Trinity, won by default from Gillespie.
125 lbs.—Smith, S.P.S., defeated Jessup, Vic.
135 lbs.—Gray, O.A.C., defeated Otto, St. Mike's.
145 lbs.—Powell, Forestry, defeated Archibald, O.A.C., knockout in third round.
155 lbs.—Hallett, S.P.S., defeated Beatty, O.A.C.
175 lbs.—Jones, O.A.C., defeated Fearman, S.P.S.
Heavyweight—Walton, O.A.C., defeated Springborn, Trinity, technical knockout in second round.
Referee—Dr. Gossage.
Judges—N. Sinclair, J. Rapsey, K. Mackay, H. Rapsey.
Announcer—Dr. Brown.
Fencing
Intercollegiate senior team has been chosen as follows: 1. Bachert, U.C.; 2. Mitchell, Trinity; 3. Scully, U.C. The following have been chosen for the intermediate team: 4. Coone; 5. Richardson; 6. Mervynne.
Referee—C. Walters.
Standing of the different faculties: O.A.C., 106; S.P.S., 61; Meds, 15; U.C., 13; Trinity, 5; Victoria 10; Forestry 14; St. Mike's, 1.

"No Profit" Sale of Better Lingerie (continued)

This illustration cannot do justice to these distinctive gowns. The newest styles are represented. Real Silk Crepe de Chine in the Rose Bud pattern, georgette trimmed. The very new swim suit backs are here too, with their lacy straps. Fine embroidery and rich lace play a large part in the styling of these really luxurious nightgowns. Those who wear only the loveliest will readily see that these are values up to $4.98. No Profit Sale price ..... $2.98

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KL 3600
4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2
9.30—Ontario College of Pharmacy, supper, graduating dance. Crystal Ball Room, Luigi Romanelli.
8.30 p.m.—Second of series of study classes on menace of Fascism, conducted under auspices of Student League. Topic for this class, "Will Fascism come to Canada?" Women's Union. All students welcome.
C.O.T.C. ball at Hart House. Nels Kelly and his Varsity Kampus Kats.
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3
6.30 p.m.—T.L.C.C.U. and L.S.C.F. at Knox Church, Speaker, Dr. A. C. Hill.
7.30 p.m.—Skating party and open house at Newman Club.
8.30 p.m.—Mid-winter dance, Universities of Alberta, Manitoba and Saskatchewan at 79 St. George St. Informal.
Pi Lambda Phi annual charity ball, King Edward Hotel.
SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 4
10 a.m.—The Progressive Arts Club (Workers' Theatre Group) invites student dramatic societies to a discussion of International Theatre

Classified Advertisements

LOST
At Hart House Theatre Saturday night January 27, marquisette brooch, flowers and leaves design. Reward offered. Return to Jean Welford, Victoria College, phone Hu. 6243.

LOST
Ladies' green gold wrist watch, sexagon shape, at the Varsity Stadium Rink, Wednesday evening, Jan. 31. Reward. Phone Hyland 1965.

LOST
Black and white striped fountain pen, between Medical Bldg., and Lantern Tea Rooms, on Wednesday, Jan. 31. Finder please leave at Room 106, Medical Bldg.

DEFECTS SCORED IN SCHOOL SYSTEM

(Continued from Page 1)
plored the existence of examinations. They constitute a menace to the student's health and deprive him of any originality of thought. They have a detrimental effect on both what is taught and how it is taught. The examinations are neither thought-producing nor do they give an accurate test of the student's ability.

QUEEN'S BASKETEERS

(Continued from Page 1)
make a formidable attacking unit. Relief roles are capably filled by Jimmy Rose, who played some years back, Joel Eby of Ottawa and Harry Sonshine, who formerly performed with Toronto Lizzies. Jack Finlay has been brought out of retirement to manage the squad. Queen's hope to annex a victory against the Mustangs on Friday and are determined to make matters very interesting for Lew Hayman's Blue and White team the following night.

REO TEAM STRONG FOR OPENING GAME

(Continued from Page 3)
and a win tonight will give them undisputed possession of the top position for the finals.

Defensively, McGill are every bit as strong as in former years. Hollie McHugh is holding down the cage assignment since Maurice Powers withdrew from active competition and McHugh's record of a goal-a-game to date in the senior circuit hasn't even been closely approached. Allan Hall and Gordie Meiklejohn form the regular rearguard. Hall is a westerner who entered McGill to complete his medical course. Meiklejohn is regarded as the hardest hitting back defence performer in the city as well as one of the cleanest and he packs a terrific shot as well.

With Jean Paul Elie ineligible, it is likely that Fred Wigle, hard-hitting intermediate defenceman will get the call to fill in.

FORESTRY WINS 3-1 OVER PHARMACY

(Continued from Page 3)
displayed in taking advantage of the breaks earned them the decision. McConnell and Weststead starred for the winners while Wilton, Cottrill and Inch were the standouts for the losers.

Forestry—Larsson, McConnell, Weststead, Young, Johnstone, Howard; subs, Beatty, Mundy, Edwards, Dyer. Pharmacy—Briscol, Andison, MacDonald, Bingham, Wilton, Cottrill; subs, Evans, McDougall, Inch, Rhinehardt.

Week, which is being held in March. P.A.C. headquarters, 60 Berkeley St. 5.30 p.m.—Dr. Paul O'Sullivan will give an address on Demology at Newman Club.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6
5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in S.C.M. library, Hart House.
8 p.m.—English and History Club at 69 Bedford Park Avenue.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8
6.45 p.m.—Rowing Club dinner in the Graduates Dining Room, Hart House. Please sign list in Rowing Room.

U.C. Parliamentary Club.
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9
Annual Loretto Abbey College At-Home in the Crystal Ballroom of the Royal York Hotel. Leo Romanelli's orchestra.

U.I.—School of Nursing At-Home. Victoria College at Home. Dancing 9 to 2. Music by Stanley St. John and his orchestra.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12
8 p.m.—U.C. Public Speaking Contest for women at the Union. See rules and lists in U.C. cloak room and Union.

8 p.m.—Alumni Bridge, Eaton Auditorium.
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13
8.15 p.m.—"Le Malade Imaginaire", presented by U.C. French Club at Hart House. Secure tickets now from the executive and cast.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14
U.C. junior-senior dance, Roof Gardens, Royal York. Informal.

Sophronia Gets a Big Sensation At Hockey Players' Disintegration

By Harriet Clark

Dear Jimmie:

You were asking me if anything exciting had happened. Well, not exactly—at least we weren't there—but there was the most AWFUL hockey game somewhere or other a little while ago. We read about it in The Varsity; and of course if we didn't know that Varsity reporters are dependable we wouldn't have believed a word of it.

It was such an awful game! There were actually "knees and elbows flying in all directions." Those little marks after "directions" means that I took that right out of the article. But you know Jimmie, I don't really believe that bit, because there wasn't anything about putting them on again, and of course a hockey player without knees or elbows would be sort of useless.

But that wasn't all—they made one poor player wear a hockey stick around his neck! What do you suppose that was for? Perhaps it was like a cow in a poke. Anyway he got tired of it and he did something dreadful—because they put him out of the game. And that is a disgrace, only a lot of other players got put off too, so you can see it was an awful game.

And it must have been an awful game Jimmie, because on player forgot himself so much he started to play golf over the goal-net and another one started to scramble one of the men on the other team on the ice—as if he was on EGG! Imagine! And they didn't say how it happened, but some Varsity men fell into the cellar, and had to get out again. Or perhaps that was another game; I know they call them the "cellar-men", anyway, so it must have been some game.

You know Jimmie I was so interested and excited I read the article all the way through and I never read sports stories because they are so dull you know. Only this one wasn't and I'm going to read all the sports stories from now on—except the dull ones.

And perhaps I may go to a hockey game. You know I've never seen a lot of elbows and knees flying around and I think it would be very interesting, although of course it would be so awful that maybe I wouldn't be able to look.

I've just remembered I made a New Year's resolution to study once in a while so I guess I'll have to do some ANTHROPOLOGY. It has a lot about bones in it too, only it's mostly jawbones the prehistoric men seem to have been in the habit of throwing away.

Write soon to your loving cousin—Sophronia.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The last Mitchell Cup match will be shot today. This match must be shot in order to qualify for the team for city competition.

STUDENT SELF-GOVERNMENT

Student self-government has been established at the Manitoba Union of the University of Manitoba, including student courts, student judges, and student constables.

VIC AT-HOME

Ticket lists will close on Friday afternoon, so get your name on the lists today, at once.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)
Teeth between his teeth, with heavy sarcasm.

Again Advance was oblivious.

"Now from this evidence, Sergeant," he said, putting his cigarette butt in an inner pocket, "you will realize the likelihood of hearing from the missing Feature Editor at any moment." Quickly he added, "I should like to verify that opinion by taking a jaunt up to the Museum where the exhibition of rara aves, though not good, is adequate."

At that moment the president of the S.A.C. came rushing in, waving a telegram, yellow with age.

Advance lit one of his beloved Rajahs, and read the message. The cryptic inscription was merely Die Wacht am Rhein.

"The Feature Editor's watch," he announced carelessly, handing his cigarette to the messenger, "has been found in the Rhine."

S. S. Damfine.

DEBATORS OPPOSED TO STERILIZATION

(Continued from Page 1)
our flower gardens, why should we not weed the gardens of humanity?" Mr. Smith led the revolt against the motion and pointed out that since so little is known about the laws of heredity and environment it might be better to abolish the slums and degrading living conditions of modern society than to sterilize the unfortunates living therein.

Mr. Shaffer also opposed the motion and informed the House that if a policy of sterilization as advocated by the government had been practiced in the past we would have had no Caesar, Alexander the Great, Napoleon, William the Conqueror, Beethoven or G. B. Shaw.

Other speakers, too numerous to mention, produced statistics and reports to show that the great majority of feeble-minded people are not so due to inherited qualities, and that far from preventing the spread of social disease and weak-mindedness, a programme of sterilization might hasten the degradation of society.

After carefully weighing the evidence the House decided against the motion, defeating it by a vote of 17 to 15.

Varsity CAGERS

(Continued from Page 1)
tough match. If the team works as well as they did against Western, Varsity can be counted on to pull out a win and their second consecutive victory in the series. Queen's goes to Western for a game on Friday night and returns to Toronto for the local tilt.

SUSPENSE THIRTY FOR NON-PAYMENT OF AUTUMN FEES

(Continued from Page 1)
be reinstated, for only by special action can such reinstatement be made henceforth. "January 31st was the last day on which I had the authority to reinstate suspended students," Mr. Fennell declared, "and any reinstatements from now on will have to be made by the President and the Board of Governors of the University."

Asked whether those students who

JUST LIKE GARBO

co-eds can queen it, in the new collar and cuff sets that made their debut with such success in the "Queen Christina" film. You'll make a hit in any one of the various styles in, pique (sketched) $1.50, other versions in organdy and novelty fabrics, $1.75 to $2.50.

MAIN FLOOR—CENTRE

also at

EATON'S—COLLEGE ST.

THE T. EATON CO. LIMITED

had been reinstated had received financial help through a bursary, Mr. Fennell stated that he had absolutely no information on the subject, but he felt inclined to doubt that financial assistance had been given in that way to more than a very small number.

The Varsity was unable to get in touch with Mr. W. J. Little, Bursar at Victoria College, but it is unlikely that that college is following any different policy in the matter. Mr. Fennell said that he and Mr. Little had kept in fairly close touch with each other during the entire course of the situation and both Victoria College and the University have adopted somewhat the same attitude towards the problem.

"We are quite satisfied with the way the fees are coming in, and the results so far compare very favourably with those of last year," Mr. S. H. Jones, Bursar of Trinity College, told The Varsity yesterday.

Mr. Jones explained that the fees for the first term were due at the end of October and those for the second term were due at the end of January (last Wednesday). A few days of grace are allowed and the fees are still coming in.

The Varsity was unable to obtain details about the number of students at Trinity who have already paid their fees, but the Bursar described the situation as satisfactory.

ADVANCE IN RADIO IS ANTICIPATED

(Continued from Page 1)
Marconi's successful experiment in trans-oceanic radio, the speaker outlined the various difficulties early experimenters encountered with crude apparatus such as coherers, tuning coils, and variable condensers.

Paralleled with his description of the development of radio in general, Mr. Russell portrayed the history of the American Radio Relay League, founded by Hiram Percy Maxim in 1914. In December of 1915 the League published the first issue of its official magazine, Q.S.T. In February of 1916 the first amateur coast-to-coast relay chain was successfully established. After the war, during which time amateur stations were suppressed, a bond issue was floated to re-finance the League. Today at least one-third of the bonds are unredeemed; the old-time amateurs have them framed in their "ham shacks". In 1921, in December, the first amateur transatlantic messages were transmitted and received satisfactorily.

Today the A.R.R.L. holds an important place in radio affairs. "The League is looked on as the amateur spokesman in the matter of radio legislation."

Don McKinley set up his amateur equipment and, operating under the call VE3AU, gave a practical demonstration for the benefit of the audience. Atmospheric conditions prevented the use of his radio-telephone apparatus but satisfactory results were obtained with continuous wave transmission.

NEED IS STRESSED OF PSYCHIATRIST

(Continued from Page 1)
both branches of hygiene, and making absolutely no distinction, except by the addition of another doctor an experienced and capable psychiatrist."

Dr. Bott approved of the editorial's suggestion that attention in the early stages of mental disorder should not be overlooked. "Extreme cases such as suicide should not be overstressed, but attention given to common mental ailments, which are naturally frequent in a gathering of some 7,000 students such as there are here. Any large group of people, picked at random, will contain a certain percentage of people whose mental health is not perfect. Hard studying is not a considerable factor, except sometimes in the case of very high-strung persons. In fact, careful research has shown that geniuses usually have good physical health.

It should not be thought that the University, and the Psychology Department in particular, is not sensible to the need for guidance in this line. Some students come to this department for advice, but probably only a small percentage of the number who need it. The size of this University prevents the professors from knowing many of the students well, and so there is urgent need for a capable advisor, and one with the type of personality that will encourage students to seek his aid in difficulties.

Lists Close
To-day

VICTORIA COLLEGE AT-HOME

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9th

Tickets $2.75
Orchestra by STAN ST. JOHN
Sit-down Supper

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5th, 1934

No. 78

BLUE CAGERS OUST QUEEN'S; MCGILL PUCKSTERS WIN 5-0

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Geneva—It is rumoured that today will witness some action by the League of Nations in the Austria-Germany dispute. It is expected that the delicacy of the situation will bring an extraordinary meeting of the League Council about February 12th.

Toronto—Massey Hall was filled to overflowing for a mass meeting protesting the arrest of A. E. Smith, prominent labour organizer.

Paris—Premier Edouard Daladier spent the week-end reorganizing a cabinet when members resigned because their leader had dismissed the Chief of Police in Paris for allowing Monarchist rioting.

Ottawa—Three Toronto lawyers are expected to receive appointments to the Bench. John A. McEvoy, K.C., is slated to become judge of the Supreme Court of Ontario.

Belgrade, Yugoslavia—Greece, Roumania, Turkey and Yugoslavia have signed a non-aggression pact to hold for ten years. The pact is hailed as a great advance in smoothing out the differences in the stormy Balkans.

Toronto—Today the Toronto Stock Exchange will be enlarged to include the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange.

Detroit—Toronto Maple Leafs lost to Detroit Red Wings by a score of 2-1 on Sunday after defeating Ottawa Senators 8-4 on Saturday.

New York—Rioting continued all week-end in the taxi drivers' strike, and one man was reported killed. Scores of cabs still running were wrecked.

HUMAN ORGANISM IS DESCRIBED

Professor Thomson of McGill Explains Chemical Action in Body

AT CONVOCAATION HALL

"Unity of the body is maintained by chemical means" said Professor D. L. Thomson of the department of Biochemistry, McGill University, at Convocation Hall on Saturday evening. Professor Thomson interpreted nerve-muscles' reaction as correlating to mechanism of organisms. Messages and impulses that run through the spinal column and down other fibres, are of two kinds, those that serve to bend and flex the joints, and those that extend and straighten the joints. The action takes place before the brain thinks it out, for the speed of an average nerve fibre is 200 miles an hour, slower than the ordinary telegraph. Impulses are all of the same strength for any single nerve fibre. A light touch on the skin sends to the brain a series of impulses. A vigorous touch sends messages of the same strength, but more rapidly, and they take longer to die out. A message along the optic nerve will be interpreted as a flash of light, whereas it may be an injury or an electric shock.

"If we compare the nervous system to a telegraph system, we may compare the action of glands producing hormones to the scattering of propaganda leaflets from an airplane," said Professor Thomson. "Certain glands (Continued on Page 4)

Students Fanatical Supporters Of Nationalism, Says Dr. Eddy

PROMINENT VISITOR

Dr. G. Sherwood Eddy

Prominent author, traveller and lecturer on international affairs who is delivering an address at Deer Park United Church tonight.

STUDENTS DISCUSS CANADIAN FASCISM

Mr. Wayman Analyses Movement and Shows its Growth in Canada

WORKERS MUST PREPARE

"Fundamentally Fascism is the last kick of a dying capitalist class, the last form of reaction before that system finally totters," said Mr. M. Wayman in a discussion on the subject "Will Fascism come to Canada?" at the Women's Union on Friday evening. It involves government dominance of industry, the abolition of trade unions—the right to strike . . . makes no attempt whatsoever to overcome financial crises, and manifests itself in a more violent suppression of the workers as they gain political power," he continued.

There are certain indications that Fascism, by subtle propaganda, has made definite inroads in Canada. "In Quebec there is a party which, though openly supported by the Conservatives, is nevertheless distinctly Fascist. No government, municipal, provincial or federal, is making any effort to prevent this party from issuing pamphlets, magazines and other such material." (Continued on Page 4)

J. K. THOMAS ELECTED TRINITY MOSS SCHOLAR

Mr. J. K. Thomas has been elected Moss Scholar for Trinity College for 1934.

He is a brilliant student, having obtained the only first class in the Honorary Philosophy Course every year. His campus activities are widespread. He was president of the Trinity Dramatic Society, and Speaker of the Trinity Lit, and is now Editor of the Trinity Review, a member of the Hart House Musical Committee, a member of the Historical Club, and president of the University Philosophical Club. He has also played rugby for Varsity.

Mr. Thomas is to be congratulated on his election, an honour which is well deserved and a fitting climax to a brilliant and diversified undergraduate career.

Students Active in Extremist Movements in Germany, China and Japan

SWEEP BY PASSION

War Unlikely in Next Decade States World-Famous Traveller

By Reg. E. Watters

"Throughout the world, in those nations where any great political or militaristic change is in the air, students are among the most ardent, yes, even fanatical supporters of the extreme nationalistic temper," declared Dr. Sherwood Eddy, former world secretary of the Y.M.C.A. in an interview with The Varsity. "And this in spite of the tolerant and broadminded attitude that higher education is supposed to engender. But, after all, they are human and no worse than the rest of us."

"In Japan, for instance," he went on, "one of the colleges presented to the military authorities a white silk flag stained with a drop of blood from each student. The flag was to be carried into Manchuria as a symbol of the students' enthusiastic endorsement of Japan's imperialistic programme. Again in China, the student body is even more passionately nationalistic. There, a kind of children's Crusade was undertaken. It was a most pathetic and moving spectacle, since the students had set out to walk 1,000 miles to Manchuria to wrest back this section of their country. They were utterly without arms, thinly clad and carried in the front rank a coffin to enclose the body of the first student who should fall in this hopeless march. I suppose that they believed this patriotic demonstration would stir their country." (Continued on Page 4)

PROFESSORS DENY POLITICAL BIAS

Prof. Urwick Says that it is Untrue to Call Staff Politicians

OBJECT IS TO ANALYZE

"It is utterly untrue to state that we are political propagandists; the last thing we wish to do is to force our opinions on our students. Our object, as professors, is to analyse existing conditions and to plan the whole analysis before the students to allow them to form their own opinions," declared Professor E. J. Urwick, commenting upon Friday's editorial headed "Are Our Professors Propagandists?"

Professor Urwick wished it understood that he was speaking for his own department only, but as he is head of the Departments of Political Science and Economics, and Chairman of the Sociology course, he is in a position to speak for most of the professors referred to in the editorial. He thought the editorial should not go unanswered. (Continued on Page 4)

HART HOUSE ELECTIONS

Elections for Hart House Committees will be held on Wednesday 7th March. Nominations open Friday 23rd February at 9 a.m. and close Wednesday 28th February at 6 p.m. Withdrawals will be permitted until 6 p.m. on Thursday 1st March.

TO DEBATE AT MCGILL

H. Gordon Skilling

President of the University C. C. F. Club, who will support a resolution in favour of the C.C.F. platform as guest speaker at a McGill debate Wednesday evening.

TORONTO DEBATING TEAM TO VISIT MCGILL UNION

Two members of the Hart House Debates Committee, H. G. Skilling and R. A. Bell, both of University College, have been invited to debate with the McGill University Debating Union next Wednesday, on the resolution, "That the C.C.F. platform offers the greatest possibilities of benefit to the people of Canada."

Mr. Bell will speak in opposition to the resolution and Mr. Skilling, who is president of the C.C.F. Club, will support it. A C.C.F. member of Parliament is also expected to attend.

The two Toronto representatives will leave for Montreal tomorrow afternoon and expect to be back by Thursday, The Varsity has learned.

HOPE TO INCREASE WALBERG LEGACY

Small Part of Fortune is Used to Help Needy Students

LEFT FOR NEW BUILDING

Seeking information on the way in which the half-million dollar Walberg legacy, left last summer to the University, will finally be spent, The Varsity on Friday consulted officials of the University who are particularly interested in the disposition of the fund.

Through his secretary, Dr. Cody gave out the following statement: "As yet the ultimate distribution of the money has not been decided on by the Board of Governors. At the present time, however, a small part of the legacy is being used to make loans to needy students in the Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering."

C. H. Mitchell, Dean of the Engineering Faculty, explained fully the nature of the grant.

"Mr. Walberg," he said, "was an eminent financier and engineer who amassed a considerable fortune during his life through the construction of many works throughout Quebec and Ontario. About five years ago, Mr. Walberg died and left his wealth to an only sister, his closest relative. Just a year ago this sister died and when her will was probated, it was discovered that she had bequeathed nearly half her estate, about $500,000, to the University."

"A stipulation was attached to the bequest, however, to the effect that it must be used in the construction of a building or some other type of permanent improvement." (Continued on Page 2)

Varsity Basketball Team Overwhelms Queen's to Tune of 41-27

BLUES NEVER THREATENED

Queen's Outplayed in Defensive and Offensive Tactics and Lack Accuracy

By John T. Stubbs

Returning to Toronto after an overtime defeat in London Friday night, the Queen's U. basketball team were forced into submission by a superior Varsity quintet at Hart House Saturday night when the final score was 41-27. The local cagers were never threatened from the start as they continued to pile up points at random against a weak defence and a very important offensive by the Tricolour. The whole Varsity team shared the scoring with Bodrug and Sniderman getting eight apiece. Brown for Queen's however was the standout of the game as far as scoring honours were concerned, netting 17 points. Queen's were particularly inaccurate in their free-throw shots as they were given 23 and only made 5 of them good. The Blues did much better making 11 out of 17 shots.

The visitors showed considerable ability in ball-handling but the way they tried field baskets left much to be desired. Rooke and Bews, expected by Varsity to be the play makers and scoring threats, were checked closely and made only four points apiece. (Continued on Page 4)

WOMEN HOCKEYISTS WIN FROM QUEEN'S

Superior Varsity Pucksters Invade Kingston and Emerge Victors

SCORE IS CLOSE: 1-0

By Josephine B. Harley

Varsity's women's intercollegiate hockey team opened their season's campaign with a brilliant 1-0 victory over Queen's at the Hart Arena, Kingston, on Saturday night. That the Varsity scoring sheet only showed one goal was entirely due to the efforts of Marg MacGregor, Queen's goalie, whose capable net minding time after time dashed the hopes of the Varsity supporters. She put up a splendid exhibition as she was under fire during most of the forty-five minutes, while Gladys Munroe, Varsity goalie, had few shots to handle.

Right from the first minute of play the Varsity sextet showed their superiority. Charity Grant got away on some nice rushes but Marg MacGregor was ready for her every time. Jean Atkinson who was injured in last Wednesday's game and whose chances of going on the ice were doubtful until the last minute, turned in a sparkling performance. Jean, Billie Fowler and E. Sanson combined beautifully several times to pass the defence but failed to outguess the goalie. Marg Chambers, Queen's centre, broke away a couple of times, but Mary Rouse, close checking Varsity defence player, was too good for her. Just before the end of the period Jean Nelson, who had been turning in a nice performance on the Tricolour defence, was forced to retire for repairs to a cut eyelid suffered during a scuffle around the Queen's goal.

The play during the second period was kept almost entirely in the Queen's defensive area. The Blue pucksters did everything but score. M. MacGregor pulled off some miraculous saves, stopping what looked like sure goals. Betty Mark, Varsity alternate. (Continued on Page 3)

McGill Pucksters Turn on Power House to Defeat Varsity 5-0

BLUES MAKE FINE SHOWING

Redmen Show the Speed and Ability for Which They Are Famed in East

By B. J. McGuire

Living up to advance notices which heralded it as the greatest hockey machine in the East, the powerful McGill sextet forced Warren Stevens' Varsity squad to accept a 5-0 defeat in the Montreal Forum in the first game of the intercollegiate series on Friday night.

Granted only an outside chance against the much ballyhooed McGill team, Varsity created quite a surprise when they stepped out and not only held the winners for most of the game but at times actually outskated and outplayed them. The fact that four of the Red team's five goals came when Varsity was short handed is the best available commentary on the respective merits of the two squads. At that Varsity was more than a little unfortunate several times and missed chances for what looked like sure goals which would have changed the entire complexion of the game.

Disaster overtook Warren Stevens' boys in the last half of the second period when the McGill machine clicked for four counters. Trailing 1-0 at this period and threatening every minute to tie the score Varsity ran into a string of penalties which was the cue for a vigorous McGill attack and with Varsity short Bobby Bell herded four forwards into action and sent them upon the attack. Varsity were pressed back behind their own blue line and in an effort to clear the puck was passed in front of the nets, (Continued on Page 4)

George Hendry

Brilliant Varsity wing man, who turned in one of the best games of his career against McGill Friday and who will again be in action when the teams lock horns in the second encounter here this week-end.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms	.....	Randolph 3730
Business Office	.....	Midway 6221
Women's Office	.....	Midway 6611
Night Phone	.....	Midway 8745
Editor-in-Chief	.....	A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor	.....	PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors	.....	ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A., M. SHULMAN, '34
Managing Editor	.....	C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor	.....	B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor	.....	FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor	.....	J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor	.....	N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama	.....	M. B. LOEB, '36
Art	.....	C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. G. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crocker, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.
Night Editor—Martin B. Loeb

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5th, 1934

THE HAND THAT ROCKS THE CRADLE . . .

When one of the most vivid, stupendous and colossal of the war pictures that Hollywood released somewhere in the twenties was receiving the dutiful attention of press-agents, one of these versatile gentlemen remarked, "If the women of Germany could have seen this exposé of the events of 1914-1918 the world would have been spared this tremendous tragedy". All of which goes to show that even press-agents realize the power of the female of the species. It may be stated without fear of contradiction that women are cognizant of it; and very few fail to exercise this power when the opportunity presents itself. The amazing part is, that 'womankind' can, with customary self-deception, condemn men in scorching terms as being stupid animals who create situations that can only be relieved by wholesale bloodshed, while they themselves continue to make it possible—even imperative—for men to fight.

The most recent example of this mockery is the annual ball given by the Canadian Officers Training Corps. There were undoubtedly women who attended that function who cherish high ideals and lofty sentiments about the brotherhood of man and yet who allowed themselves to be fascinated by the primitive appeal of uniforms and colourful display. How many students of this university, where ideals are provided with fertile soil and the intellect is cherished rather than the emotions, would have the courage to refuse to be a party to such an enterprise? It is a direct glorification of war just as much as was the propaganda that women so wittingly circulated during "The World War". What self-respecting man could stay at home when the feminine cohorts were kneeling at the feet of the "boys" who were going over to protect our women and children from the invading Hun? When attention was being lavished upon these poor unfortunates, what man could resist the call to arms? If women had stubbornly refused to recognize the existence of war, if they had remained aloof, the world would not have been carried away by the emotions that make war possible—hate, fear, desire for revenge.

And we of the generation that escaped it are creating a situation that will make possible a recurrence of this horror. Military balls are being given and women are delighting in them. When the call comes they will be there just as in the last war, cheering when the march echoes through the streets and weeping as they wave to the rows of uniformed heroes. But they will suffer afterwards, just as they did before.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

NOW WHERE ARE WE?

The Editor, The Varsity.
Dear Sir:

In regard to the editorial of Feb. 2, the following remarks:

1. Most of our undergraduates in Medicine, Dentistry, Engineering, Forestry, etc., including a good many in Arts, have had little or no training in social philosophy. Of these, most do not have views, but only express them.

2. If the sample of undergraduate society met by the editorial writer has been mostly socialistic we envy him his good fortune.

3. Unfortunately some of these organizations only pretend to be socialistic (if he is trying to apply any precise meaning to the term socialism).

4. If Christianity is compatible with socialism, as the title Christian Social Order seems to imply, surely he does not really mean all those horrid adjectives that he applies.

5. If the "dogmatism of a past generation" is "intellectually disastrous and deadening," and also if "socialism is a passing phase," he omitted to mention just what is the nature of his Utopia.

6. If a "propagandist is one who with little regard for the legitimacy of his ideas, deliberately seeks to convert to his pet theories or to his particular creed," how would he term a propagandist who has such a regard, and attempts conversion? Prophet, perhaps? It is a sad blow to his definition that socialists themselves use the term in the latter sense.

However, all this is of slight import, for we but fight balloons with feather dusters. Realizing that attempts on our part to convert would do little, we assure the writer that we pity him just as much for his disagreeable views, as he pities us for our misbegotten ones. What we really wish to point out is the main contradiction in the editorial, for which purpose we quote verbatim as follows: (Any omissions are for clarity and not distortion.)

Item I: "Many of the professors are exerting a profound influence upon the minds of the students at the University of Toronto, and are molding them pretty much after one pattern . . . socialistic."

Item II: "The Varsity deplores the wholesale education of youth in one

(Continued on Page 3)

Art, Music and Drama

Hart House String Quartet

Last Friday evening the Hart House String Quartet gave one of those programmes for which it has become internationally famous. There has been a decided tendency during the past year on the part of these modern artists towards modern music. Perhaps I am lagging in this respect, but I had decided at the previous concert that three such numbers were almost too much for one evening. It is with a sense of ease, however, that one sits down on seeing the names of Brahms and Beethoven on the same programme.

In the Brahms Quintet in G Major, the quartet was ably assisted by Thomas Brennan on the viola. Brahms, who was one of the last of the classical composers, has been surpassed by few in the field of chamber music. The work carries great forcefulness, especially in the first movement, but is rather lacking when the solo part is concentrated upon.

The second half of the performance consisted of Beethoven's well-known Quartet in C Sharp Minor. This speaks for itself and it would be presumptuous for me to comment on it when the programme claimed that "it begins where words fail". In the rendition of this work, the quartet attained a smoothness and finesse which it seems to do best when unaccompanied.

W.A.W.

The Brahms Quintet in G Major, Opus 111, played by the Hart House String Quartet in their concert this week-end, is another excellent illustration of that master's singular power as a melodist. There is a full, mellow, beauty in this work which is satisfying beyond description. There has been, and probably will continue to be, much disagreement on the merits of Brahms. For my part, I find it difficult to discuss, since the technical mastery and musical taste of his compositions seem to me impeccable. And for this opinion there is little better support than in the chamber music of Brahms.

The great work of the evening, of course, was the Beethoven Quartet in C Sharp Minor, Opus 131. It is a composition which must make a tremendous impression, even on the first hearing, on any musical listener, but really to comprehend it is only possible after many hearings, and only for the few, at that. As the programme notes justly remarked, it is also practically impossible to comment on the work. Its beauty is such as only Beethoven, in this and in certain other of his last writings, has revealed: a product of a great mind at a remarkable stage of development, at last capable of expressing itself perfectly, and with something of profound importance to say. This Quartet in C Sharp Minor, by the way, is much more perfectly sustained than the Quartet in B Flat, which we heard last season. It is interesting to note that in the latter work the most impressive part is the famous Cavatina, and there it is like a strong man breaking down and weeping. An unearthly calm pervades all of the Quartet in C Sharp Minor, even in passages of heart-breaking import.

The actual performance was very brilliant indeed. Only a quartet of virtuosos can play the Beethoven work at all, and only a great quartet could play it so impressively. It is increasingly plain that there is nothing in Toronto to match this ensemble for technical skill, for purity and balance, for clear understanding and perfect taste.

N.F.L.

Friday Afternoon Recital

Mr. Alberto Guerrero, and Mrs. E. H. Craigie were the artists at this week's Friday Afternoon Recital. It was a Spanish programme, and it was logical that these two musicians should give it. Mrs. Craigie quite evidently is an authority on Spanish songs, and her performance was most convincing. She possesses a clear and beautiful voice, always controlled, without any apparent errors in vocal or musical judgment. Much praise is due the attractive manner in which she presented the songs, both as to the brief explanations and the charm of the actual performance.

(Continued on Page 4)

CHAMPUS CAT

Owng to th fct tht ths is a tght isu, th Ct hs dgratd nto a srt of semi spd ring. A ky to ths cod wl apr on pg 5.

C—C

It hs bn clid to r atrn th th prsnt of th Ntl-Wr Scy ws th rcpnt of th Vrsty tckts fr th frst mltry dnce of th camps, to wit, Th COTC Bl. Ths mst b ntrprd as an efrt to rldc th fnds of th Dpt of Ntl Dfnc and thrbv prvt xpndtur on rmnts.

C—C

A rpt hr wkld in Shnghi On the Dly Wng Sney Yua Pk Ws asked by th btrs To lev out th ltrs A, E, iOu & Y.

C—C

We aknwld th fct tht th systm is crkd Bt aftr rlxn we see

R tym is so crmd—th pble b dmd If it cnt folw (ths ntu-fangld high-falshn systm tht takes so much time to lyell out) scsslece.

It takes me a hpe of a long time too Th Chbrd Chmps C!

Slowing up a bit towards the end, we revert to our former style to save time, and reprint the following masterpiece that originated with Chaucer, and has gained added popularity in College Humour, Punch, Liberty, Bal-yhoo and The American Journal For The Propagation of Scientific Advancement. Volume IXL, Series iii, No. 1789, Section L, Subsection 1066, Paragraph 3, Page 1492. (A.D. 1935).

C—C

There was a young man from Japan, Whose poetry no one could scan When asked to tell why He would always reply "Because I endeavour to put as many syllables in the last line as I possibly can."

Th Cmbnd Ftr Sft

FLAVOR!

the choice of the majority

THE BEST CHOCOLATE MADE...

Nothing But
A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps. Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S
256 College St. 571 Yonge St.
KI. 0991 KI. 3270

Your Eyes
will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

DANCING LESSONS
GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dances
Latest Steps
6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1865

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
CREST PINS or RINGS
(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body. Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL
Room 82, University College and Hart House
First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

McCATTY BROS'. FOUR WINS GIVES TRINITY SWIM TITLE

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

The Blue team came through with a win over Queen's on Saturday night as was expected of them. Not a very convincing one judging by the score, but no one seeing the game could question the superiority of the Varsity squad. Queen's have their goalie, May MacGregor to thank for the good-looking score. It was she alone who can take the credit because of her practically perfect performance.

The Varsity outfit looked 100 per cent better than they did last Wednesday night. If they can turn in the brand of hockey in their game this week with the Vagabonds, the result may tell a different story. Jean Atkinson deserves congratulation for the manner in which she performed. She earned the goal she got and then some. Her teammates on the forward line, E. Sanson and Billie Fowler, gave her excellent support. Charity Grant and Mary Rous turned in nice games, both defensively and offensively. The alternate lineup did not weaken the team any; Betty Rous in particular giving a good performance.

They have speed and endurance and when they develop a scoring punch, will give a much better account of themselves. No doubt Coach MacPherson will concentrate on this very necessary part of the game.

The misunderstanding about the Vic II-Trinity hockey game is straightening itself out. It seems that Kay Symons has decided that she wants to continue with interfaculty hockey for which she is still eligible. The Hockey Club is meeting on Tuesday to discuss rulings on eligibility.

Tonight Meds met Vic I, who are conceded to have the strongest team in their group. Meds, however, have Mary Thom of Public Health, and she should be a real help to them.

WOMEN HOCKEYISTS WIN FROM QUEEN'S

(Continued from Page 1)
centre, showed up well as a puck-carrier, twice taking the puck through the whole Queen's team, only to be beaten by the goalie.

Just when it seemed that the Blues, outskating and outplaying their opponents, were fated not to score, Jean Atkinson took the puck through the defence, outwitted the Queen's goalie and slipped in the lone tally of the game. The rest of the period produced rather slow and ragged hockey, both teams tiring. All Queen's efforts to tie the score were of no avail.

Queen's — Goal, M. MacGregor; defence, J. Nelson, L. Ward; centre, M. Chambers; wings, M. Brophy, E. MacLean; alternates, H. Cram, A. Averill, R. Cordy.

Varsity — Goal, G. Munroe; defence, C. Grant, M. Rous; centre, B. Fowler; wings, J. Atkinson, E. Sanson; alternates, B. Mark, P. Thompson, J. Hogg, M. Morris.

Sport Notices

U.C. Water Polo—

Everybody on senior team out today at 5.30 sharp for game with Meds.

U.C. Athletic Board—

Meeting today at 1 p.m. All members please be present.

Baseball Umpires—

Monday, Gould and Shulman; Tuesday, Carveth and Burt-Gerrans; Wednesday, Dyke and Carveth; Thursday, Gould and Anten. No game Friday. All games must start by 4.10.

DEPLORES WATER SUPPLY

A recent editorial in The Manitoban, the student publication of the University of Manitoba, deplores the inadequate water supply at Port Gary.

TRINITY CAPTURES SWIMMING TITLE

By 9 Points S.P.S. Loses Inter-faculty Fitzgerald Trophy to Trinity

O.A.C. WINS THIRD PLACE

Forcing the pace from start to finish the team from Trinity College captured first place in the Senior Inter-faculty swimming meet in Hart House on Saturday night. With this first place goes the Fitzgerald trophy, held last year by S.P.S. The Schoolmen tried hard but had to be content with second place, nine points behind the leaders while O.A.C. placed third.

The meet proved as big a drawing card as the basketball games and produced some very close and exciting races. The McCatty brothers each won the two events in which they entered; Winston in the 440 yd. free style and the 220 yd. breast stroke; Cressy in the 100 yd. back stroke and the 100 yd. free style. These two events were run immediately following one another and Cressy pulled the "iron man" stunt by winning them both quite handily.

The 220 yd. sprint relay, won by Trinity, was the closest finish of the evening, one-fifth of a second separating Trinity and S.P.S. Next to it in point of excitement was the 50 yd. free style won by Murray of U.C.

The O.A.C. team showed themselves a real threat in all events in which they entered and ended up firmly seated in third place. They appear to take their swimming as seriously as their basketball up there, with the result that they must always be watched. The team standing was as follows: 1, Trinity, 36; 2, S.P.S., 27; 3, O.A.C., 11; 4, U.C., 7; 5, Meds, 1. Medley relay: 1, Trinity; 2, S.P.S.; 3, O.A.C. Time: 3' 27.4".

Diving—1, Eggert, S.P.S.; 2, Peer, O.A.C.; 3, Benallick, O.A.C.
50 yd. free—1, Murray, U.C.; 2, Bickle, Trin; 3, Hooper, S.P.S. Time: 26.3.5.

440 free—1, W. McCatty, Trin; 2, Follingsbee, O.A.C.; 3, Hooper, S.P.S. Time: 5 min., 42 sec.

100 back—1, C. McCatty, Trinity; 2, Jennings, S.P.S.; 3, Charles, O.A.C. Time: 1' 11".

100 free—1, C. McCatty, Trin; 2, Eggert, S.P.S.; 3, McDonald, O.A.C. Time: 61.3.5.

200 breast—1, W. McCatty, Trin; 2, Wood, S.P.S.; 3, Collins, Meds. Time: 2' 49.1.5".

200 yd. relay—1, Trinity; 2, S.P.S.; 3, U.C.; 4, O.A.C. Time: 1' 32.3.5".

WYCLIFFE LOSE; SENIOR DENTS WIN

Wycliffe Loses 2 to 1 and School is Defeated by 6 to 1

IN INTERFACULTY HOCKEY

In a double header Friday afternoon in Varsity Arena, Emmanuel College emerged victorious over Wycliffe by the score of 2-1 and Senior Dents beat Senior S.P.S. by the tune of 6-1. Both contests were fast, furious, phenomenal and full of fun.

The first game of the afternoon was featured by numerous solo efforts and individual rushes. There was no score in the first period owing to the fact that Metcalfe and Williams were unbeatable in the nets. Lavery, however, opened the scoring for Emmanuel in the second period on a beautiful pass from Kerr. Kibblewhite aided by Morrissey, tied the score a few minutes later and this tie was not broken until the very last second of the game when Kerr got away all by himself to beat Metcalfe for the winning goal. Kerr and Lavery were the pick of the winners. Kibblewhite and Morrissey played well for the losers.

The second game was not as one-sided as the score may indicate. It was on the other hand very closely

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

McGill secured an almost insurmountable lead in the first of the two-game intercollegiate series with Varsity in Montreal. The score, 5-0, doesn't give us much opportunity for optimism as to the final result. The Blue pucksters stayed right in the fight and gave what they had all the way. They were beaten by what may turn out to be the best team competing in senior amateur hockey in Canada this year. Next Saturday the same two teams will play the second game of the series in Toronto at the Varsity Arena. The Blues should make it a lot closer in that game when they are on their own ice. In the past two years McGill has not been nearly as impressive up here and Warren Stevens' crowd will battle them to the last bell.

The score is not an exact indication of the difference in the play of the two teams. Varsity minus players who were in the penalty box when four of the goals were scored. That was in the last half of the fatal second period. For the rest of the game, both before and after, they were right alongside the Redmen all the way. The apparently sure goals they missed, if scored, would have changed the whole complexion of the battle. In fact it would have been a close game. The Toronto team at times were able to turn it on, out-skate, and out-play the McGill aces. As the second period opened they were forcing the play and it looked as though the score was about to be tied 1-1 any moment when the Blues started to draw penalties. Then, with the breaks in their favour, the Redshirts opened up a furious offensive and secured their four goals in rapid succession. Next week we will be able to see the two teams in action here and if the Toronto outfit gets an even break there won't be any five-goal margin in the final and total count on the round.

It isn't good taste to dish up a bunch of alibis but Varsity had some tough breaks that are worth taking into consideration if you are a supporter of the U. of T. team. Shipp played a great game in the nets even though he had a dislocated finger. Al Campbell had to have three stitches to close a gash and then went back on the ice. Four of the five goals were scored in the last ten minutes of the second period with Varsity men in the cooler and the whole team rattled. Those lads started the game with an inferiority complex and then, after they found out they weren't outclassed, they stepped in and made things hot for the Redmen. The crowd of 7,000 fans saw a great game and are enthusiastic in their praise of the greatly outweighted Toronto speedsters.

Saturday night the Varsity senior eagers had very little trouble in subduing the Tricolour basketballers 41-27. The half time score was 22-7 and shortly after the second half got under way the Blues were up 25-7. From then on the game was listless although Queen's did try hard to pull up their weakened showing. Lew Hayman's men were never pressed hard enough to make them play the ball of which they are capable. The losers apparently did not show their best form either because Bews and Rooke were not up to snuff. The game seemed to confirm our belief that away from their own floor the Tricolour team is not to be feared but on their own court they are hard to beat. With the exception of Bews, Rooke and Brown, the Queen's team has no real class on the lineup. The rest of the squad would not rank with the majority of the intercollegiate players. Their plays were not impressive with the exception of two, their checking was not as scientific as might be expected, but their ball-handling was just as good if not better than that of Varsity on the evening's performance. The Varsity team is not as finished a bunch of ball-handlers as was that of last season. On the other hand they are faster and able to break more quickly.

Queen's were particularly weak on their foul shots. Bews had seven throws and scored two. Brown had four and made three. Rooke had eight and didn't get any of them. Rose had three and didn't count on them. Finley had one and missed and was expelled for four personals. Gold for Varsity was put off on the same charge. Varsity had seventeen throws and scored eleven of them. Queen's had twenty-three and scored five.

The score sheet would indicate that Hayman gave orders to watch Bews and Rooke particularly because both scored only four points. But that same score sheet looks as if the Blues failed to reckon with Brown who played centre, because he was high scorer of the game with 17 points. That is a big score for any ball player and it doesn't speak so well for the opposing check or checks.

The two defeats over the week-end by Western and Varsity put Queen's out of the running for this year unless they win all three games to come and Varsity and McGill collapse. Western defeated the Tricolour in London by one point in overtime. The race for this season boils down to a battle between Varsity and McGill again. Last year these two teams defeated each other and the series would have resulted with the two tied for first place had Varsity not dropped two games which they should have won, against Western and Queen's.

This afternoon there will be an important interfaculty water-polo triple-header played in the Hart House tank. Vic and Trinity are battling it out for their group title. In the second group Sr. School are winners and Sr. U.C. and Sr. Meds fight it out for second place. The game in group III sees Dents and Jr. Meds fighting it out for the group title also. The competition is keen and with honours at stake for playoff positions in the first and last games, the fans should see a lot of water flying besides a fast-moving ball.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from Page 2)

frightfully circumscribed school of thought . . . intellectually disastrous and deadening . . . warped and stunted philosophy . . . socialism is a passing phase."

And in contradiction—

Item III: "Professors, as scientific investigators are forced by their logic of thought and logic of history to arrive at certain conclusions concerning society and its needs, uninfluenced by partisan interests. Professors, as educators, are constrained to impart what for them is truth."

"The charge is being repeatedly made that professors at the University of Toronto are political propagandists, and to date the charge has been inadequately answered." And it still is.

BENEATH the deep-dipped coat of chocolate hide tasty nut meats and luscious, chewy caramel. And in the centre, a fudge so good you can hardly wait for one more bite. Satisfy that craving—ask for

CENTRAL Y WINS FROM SENIOR B'S

Second Squad Falls in Wide-Open Game with City Finalists

CLOSE SCORE OF 38-31

In a Y.M.C.A. basketball league tilt played at Hart House on Saturday night as a preliminary to the intercollegiate game, Central Y downed Varsity senior B team by a 38-31 count. The game was a wide-open affair with both coaches using their subs freely since the engagement had no bearing on the standing as the playoff positions have already been clinched by West End and Central Y. The Varsity squad was weakened considerably by the absence of the Newman brothers, Norm having been shifted up to the intercollegiate team while Harry was unable to make the game.

The first half was close all the way, neither team being able to run up a commanding lead. Varsity took an 8-4 lead early in the half due mostly to some nice shooting by Applebaum, but the red and black shirted Y team came back strong to hold a 17-14 advantage at the halfway mark. Coach Johnston used his second-string team all through the half and they managed to hold the Blues in check, with Blues, Olsen, Reeves and Kates piling up their points. Mitchell, Applebaum, Magwood and Stronach were most effective for Varsity in the first half.

In the second half Varsity gave the Central regulars a great battle, managing to get within one point of them on several occasions, but the Y team ran amuck in the closing minutes of the half, shooting baskets with reckless abandon, the final score being 38-31, with Magwood and Reynolds doing most of the damage.

Magwood for Varsity was high scorer with nine points, while Henderson, Stronach, Mitchell and Applebaum were also in the limelight. Central displayed two smooth working quartets with Magwood, Reynolds and Blues being especially impressive.

Central Y — Kates 2, White 2, Olsen 5, Blues 6, Reeves 6, Hachlerlin 2, Melville 2, Wagnan 7, Reynolds 6, Oggy.

Varsity — Magwood 9, Applebaum 5, Vanderlick, Mitchell 8, Ronson, Henderson 6, Gibson, Stronach 3. Referee—Tom Pogue.

Yours in hope of a better day
F. Herman, IV C. and F.
Mike Littner, I B. and N.

ALL TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS

Are due now and must be handed in to the S.A.C. Office, Hart House, at once to get in this year's book. Unless definite arrangements have been made to the contrary.

THE EPICURE GRILL AND TEA ROOM upstairs
opp. Eaton's College St.
433 YONGE STREET
Special attention to Students
Full Course Meals from 25c. up
We serve economical plate luncheon 20c.

JUNIOR U.C. BASKETEERS LOSE TO JR. MEDS 33-11

Jr. Meds had little difficulty swamping in the Jr. U.C. team by a 33-11 score in a one-sided interfaculty basketball game played in the upper gymnasium in Hart House on Friday afternoon. The Arts men were simply outclassed in every department of the game; only, perhaps, in foul shots which netted them almost half their points, did they merit the spotlight.

The young doctors took the first half easily, emerging at the end of the period with a 13-4 lead. The U.C. players made every mistake possible, threw away pass after pass and played an erratic defensive game. The medical team had hit their stride and were not to be stopped. They netted 20 points in the second frame and despite numerous changes in the lineup always worked together with well-learned ease. Wise and Fenner, for the winners, were high scorers of the game, amassing 8 points apiece, while Newton, Zarsky and Barrett also played sterling games for Meds. Damsky and Humcnick were outstanding for the losers, and Hicks performed well on defence.

Jr. Meds — Metzlu, Wise, Newton, Fenner, Zarsky, Crockower, Gould, Cash, Barrett, Mellock, Laskie.

Jr. U.C. — MacFarlane, Damsky, David, Kruger, Hicks, Humcnick, Lippman, Neill, Vaneke.
Referee—D. Douglas.

"No Profit" Sale

continues with Crepe de Chine
Dance Sets

Be sure to see these lovely sets. Brassiere of uplift design, trimly trimmed with georgette or lace. Panties are cut for smooth fitting, to enhance any frock. This is another No Profit Sale. $1.49

We are terribly sorry that we didn't have enough slips to meet the large demand last week. However, that was just one of our No Profit specials. There are many more to come, so watch this column religiously.

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone K1. 3600
4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

- MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5
5 p.m.—Vic Women's Lit. music group at Wymilwood.
- TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6
5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in S.C.M. library, Hart House.
8 p.m.—English and History Club at 69 Bedford Park Avenue.
5 p.m.—Victoria College vocational guidance groups. "The Ministry," "Publishing".
8 p.m.—Joint meeting of the Student Branch of the F.S.U., with Central Branch at 527 Bloor St., near Lip-pincott. Mr. S. Lautenslager of the University will speak on "China and the Chinese Soviets". All students interested and their friends most cordially invited.
- WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7
7.30—In Falconer House common room, a discussion of the questions arising from the recent series of "Religion and Life" will be led by Sir Robert Falconer All U.C. women invited.
- THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8
8.30 p.m.—Professor Felix Walter will speak to the Anti-War Society on "The Pacifist Dilemma in France" in the common room of the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street.
6.45 p.m.—Rowing Club dinner in the Graduates Dining Room, Hart House. Please sign list in Rowing Room.
U.C. Parliamentary Club.
- FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9
Annual Loretto Abbey College At-Home in the Crystal Ballroom of the Royal York Hotel. Leo Romanelli's orchestra.
9.1—School of Nursing At-Home. Victoria College at-home. Dancing 9 to 2. Music by Stanley St. John and his orchestra.
- MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12
8 p.m.—U.C. Public Speaking Contest for women at the Union. See rules and lists in U.C. cloak room and Union.
8 p.m.—Alumni Bridge, Eaton Auditorium.
- TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13
8.15 p.m.—"Le Malade Imaginaire", presented by U.C. French Club at Hart House. Secure tickets now from the executive and cast.

STUDENTS SUPPORTING NATIONALISM, SAYS EDDY

(Continued from Page 1)

men to greater efforts."

"Is the same student devotion to contemporary issues evident in Germany?" asked The Varsity.

"Very much so," Dr. Eddy replied. "Hitler has united behind him a larger proportion of the student body than any other German leader has done. About 70 per cent of the students are supporters of his dictatorship, and even more of the general population."

"What is the significance of the student burning of the books which had been written by Jews?" The Varsity asked.

"They were swept away by a highly emotional, even medieval passion. Most of them approved of the literary program which is a good symbol of the narrowness of the fanatically nationalistic outlook. Liberty of thought, of speech and of the press is discouraged. It is also significant that the student body is most enthusiastic and active under the contemporary dictatorships, especially those of Stalin, Hitler and Mussolini."

"Can we trust the reports of the recent German atrocities, Jewish pogroms and the suppression of all liberal thinkers differing from the principles of the Nazi party?" The Varsity inquired.

"There were, undoubtedly, atrocities in Germany," Dr. Eddy declared, "but that stage, I feel, is largely past. The slow strangulation of Jews, Socialists, Communists and others, although not by official decree, was at least by governmental permission. Hitler's Brown Shirts, in all about 800,000, are not state soldiers, but militia, and these were responsible for the persecutions. Among them were some sadists who delighted in brutality—but the German people as a whole are not to be condemned en masse... It is another case of a vigorous majority."

"Is there any immediate danger of another war either in Europe or in the East?"

"There is more likelihood of a war in the Orient," was the opinion of Dr. Eddy, "but I see no reason why it should not be entirely local. Japan, China and Russia would probably be involved, but there is no reason why the chief European or American powers should take part. In Europe, Germany is, of course, another zone of uneasiness, but I think war can be staved off for a decade at least."

"What would you say is the chief trouble with the League of Nations that it displays such lethargy in the face of this danger?" asked The Varsity.

"The League can best be described as seriously ill," Dr. Eddy explained. "It needs a surgical operation to cut out the cancerous ingrowth of the Versailles treaty. After such remedial treatment it would have the strength to act in a more determined manner than at present when its chief function is that of a policeman exacting disheartening reparations from Germany. Another very important alteration to be made is the repeal of the rule of unanimity of decision by which one of even the lesser states can effectively block any new design. Britain and other countries would welcome this change, as it would certainly make for greater League efficiency; and, moreover, it would be a decisive factor in bringing into the League all the major powers. As it is, of the seven chief nations, the United States, Russia, Germany and Japan are now all out."

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14
U.C. junior-senior dance, Roof Gardens, Royal York. Informal.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16
9.3—Annual School At-Home in the Royal York Hotel. Wright Brothers orchestra.
Jarvis Collegiate Centennial Ball at Eaton's College St. Auditorium. Jack Slater's orchestra.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18
4 p.m.—W.U.A. musicale at the Union. Artists, Scott Malcolm and Reginald Godden. U.C. women and their guests are cordially invited.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20
8.15 p.m.—Annual concert of the Varsity band, Convocation Hall.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22
Rowing Club dinner. Please sign the list in Rowing Room in Hart House. Celebration of the eightieth anniversary of the founding of the U.C. Lit., Parliamentary, Club, banquet, Lit. meeting.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m., notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

U.C. WOMEN'S S.C.M.

Sir Robert Falconer will lead a discussion and will answer questions arising from the recent series "Religion and Life". The meeting will be held in Falconer House common room on Wed. Feb. 7 at 7.30. All U.C. women invited.

SYMPHONY LECTURE

Adam Sly will speak this afternoon at 5 o'clock in Hart House Theatre on Elgar's Symphony No. 2 in E Flat.

VIC MUSIC CLUB

All scores must be returned immediately. If you wish to keep your score you may do so by completing the balance due on them. For either of these purposes: Wm Deeth will be in the college hall tomorrow, Tuesday, Feb. 6 from 9.45-10 and from 1.30-2.

"LE MALADE IMAGINAIRE"

Will the cast of the U.C. French play please note the following rehearsals: Tues. Feb. 6, 4-6 p.m., Room 51, U.C. Act I; Wed. Feb. 7, 3-5 p.m., Room 51, U.C. Act II; Thurs. Feb. 8, 2-6 p.m., Union, individual parts; Fri. Feb. 9, 2-6 p.m., Union, whole play; Mon. Feb. 12, 7 p.m. sharp, Hart House, Dress Rehearsal.

side the League. It is impossible to achieve much of world importance with this handicapping situation."

"What are the most prominent features of the Asiatic situation in general, apart from the clash between China and Japan?"

"Broadly speaking, the whole of Asia is in revolt against foreign imperialism, with its exploiting of cheap labour and militarism. It is an attempt to cast off the white man's rule which has been imposed on them—by force while they were in a relatively defenceless condition. China, for instance, wishes to drive out the seventeen nations which at various times have encroached upon her territory. Unfortunately for Asia, the various countries in that continent have been unable to unite against the foreigners. In India, I believe the British administration has, on the whole, been beneficial. India has needed some unifying factor to bind together the nine religions, two hundred languages and four thousand castes. Its goal should be self-government, with dominion status within the Empire."

Sherwood Eddy will lecture at the Canadian Club at noon today on the subject, Three Dictators. Stalin, Mussolini and Hitler. Tonight he is delivering an address at Deer Park United Church.

McGILL DOWNS VARSITY IN HOCKEY SERIES

(Continued from Page 1)

where Jack McGill picked it up and flipped it by Shipp. Varsity went to pieces after this disappointing score and a wild scramble resulted which had the crowd of seven thousand all but insane with excitement till the period ended. Nine penalties were handed out, with the result that the period ended before both teams were at full strength again at the same time. When the smoke cleared away with the bell at the end of this hectic ten minutes the score read 5.0 and Varsity's hopes for an intercollegiate hockey championship had received a shattering blow.

As a hockey team the McGill squad has just about everything. They have size, speed and ability. McHugh, in goal, has had nineteen goals scored on him in twelve league games. With nineteen games behind them the McGill squad have yet to be defeated and only twice have they been held to a draw. Throughout the East they are popularly believed to be superior to the Moncton Hawks, last year's Allan Cup champions and in the opinion of many the cup is right now as good as theirs. Above all they have the colour which has made them the greatest drawing card in amateur hockey around the Forum.

Varsity also played well. They were out-weighted by fifteen pounds per man which was certainly a handicap. As was expected they held their own in

SYMPHONY TICKETS

Tickets will be on sale at students' rates for the Symphony Concert from 12 to 2 in Hart House on Tuesday only.

SHERWOOD EDDY TO SPEAK

At Deer Park United Church, Mon. Feb. 5 at 8.15 p.m. "Germany" will be the subject of Dr. Sherwood Eddy's address. Do not miss this opportunity of hearing him.

U.C. PARLIAMENT

A picture of the members of the U.C. Parliamentary Club will be taken on the front steps of University College on Tuesday, February 6th at 1.15 p.m. All who ordinarily attend the club meetings are requested to be present.

VICTORIA WOMEN

"Women in Public Life", lecture and discussion led by Miss Marion Ferguson, Dean of Women, U.C., today at Wymilwood at 4.45 p.m. This is the last of the series "Women in the World Today". Everybody welcome.

VIC MUSIC GROUP

Vic Women's Lit., music group at Wymilwood today at 5 p.m.

the matter of speed against the Mont-real squad. The defence held and the wings worked well, but the advantage in weight and experience held by McGill were obstacles which proved too great to be overcome. Frank Shipp turned in an exceptionally fine game despite the fact that he was in there with a dislocated finger which he received in the warming up exercises. Al Campbell and Rey were good on the defence although a gash which required three stitches to close slowed Al up somewhat in the second. Hendry, Cunningham, McLelland and McPherson all tried hard and it was only through bad breaks which kept only through bad breaks that they were kept off the score sheet.

Varsity opened the game in a rather shaky manner which the reputation of the McGill team probably accounted for. However, after ten minutes of ragged play the Blue team began to carry the play to their opponents and missed many good chances. A penalty to Campbell gave McGill a break and they capitalized on it for the opening goal and the only one of the period. Varsity opened the second frame with a rush and looked to be in line for a win when penalties paved the way for the McGill rally which spelled defeat for the Toronto team. The final chapter was about evenly divided with both squads missing several good chances but missed, to have the period go scoreless.

McGill — Goal, McHugh; defence, McKeljohn, Hall; centre, Crutchfield; wings, McGill, Shaughnessy; subs, Farquharson, Farmer, Robertson and Wigle.

Varsity — Goal, Shipp; defence, Rey, Campbell; centre, McLelland; wings, Jeffery, Sweeney; subs, Wilkenson, Hendry, McPherson, and Cunningham.

VARSAITY BEATS QUEEN'S IN BASKETBALL FUTURE

(Continued from Page 1)

Brown was not given sufficient attention in the second half by the Blues and was left open for plenty of shots. He was right on for most of them too as his score indicates.

Varsity started the game off with a determined attack. Bodrug dropped three through the hoop and Newman made good his two free throws for eight points while Rooke made the only basket for Queen's. From then on until half time the locals forced the Tricolour into their own end of the floor and kept scoring baskets and foul shots until it was 22-7. As the second half opened Bews missed three foul shots and Gordon of Varsity set up a beauty, with Sniderman making another charity shot good for a 25-7 count. With this large margin the Varsity team became listless, although they scored sixteen more points before the game ended. Queen's kept trying and made a determined effort to change

Spring Suits and Coats

---on Parade in Simpson's February Sale

"DASHING" is the word that has to be rescued from oblivion to describe the new suits and coats. We can't make a better style story for them than their own—they're the best-looking fashions we've seen in many a Spring.

Women who buy NOW at Special February Sale Prices save a substantial amount.

SIMPSON—THIRD FLOOR

THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

the core from its lop-sided appearance. Not being threatened terribly the Blues lacked the punch and speed they are able to show. The Tricolour led by Brown improved and found the rim for twenty points before the final whistle to make the score 41-27 as the game ended. Rooke and Brown were the only Queen's scorers in the first half while in the second Bews and Rose contributed besides.

Queen's — Finley, Rooke 4, Brown 17, McGill, Bews 4, Rose 2, Sonshine, Eby, Gordon.

Varsity — Bodrug 8, Newman 5, Mitchell 2, Gordon 6, Gold 4, Sniderman 8, Levy 2, Willis 5, Prince 1.

Referee—Percy Miller, Toronto.

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

Mr. Guerrero, naturally, has a real grip on the music he played. Apart from that, it must always be noted that his pianism is of much importance. There is a subtlety about his approach to the instrument that is not easy to describe, but which is readily perceived and very distinctive. In fact, to gain a new insight into the problems of piano playing and the basis on which to attack them, one does well simply to hear and see Mr. Guerrero play. This, of course, is only of interest to pianists; but there are so many who really are involved in this practical ride, that the point is perhaps worth making. A man like Mr. Guerrero is keenly aware of everything that has to be done in every stage of the performance, and directs his thought and energy precisely towards achieving that end. Such an attitude is a reaction from the vagueness that surrounds so much thought on the subject, and which has for years expressed itself in a multitude of mystic catch-words, like "singing tone," and "arm-weight." What people need is not obscure and often incorrect theory, but an exact acquaintance with the realities of playing the piano.

N.F.L.

HUMAN ORGANISM IS DESCRIBED

(Continued from Page 1)

such as the pancreas gland eject chemical secretions, or insulin, into the body, that aids in burning of the sugar in the body. If the pancreas gland is removed, symptoms of diabetes will appear, which may be relieved by extracts of insulin. The removal of the thyroid gland causes a general slowing down of all activities in the body, both mental and physical. Removal of the adrenal glands causes general weakness and thickening of the blood. The sex glands produce germ cells and cause hormones.

"It has recently been found," he said, "that removal of the anterior pituitary that is located at the base of the skull, is possible, especially in the rat. Its removal causes cessation of growth. Many molecules of substances produced in man are destroyed before they reach their end. We can develop the property of reducing chemical substances. The fact that these substances exist is not more remarkable than that the tissues respond to these substances."

ISSUE STUDENTS' DIRECTORY

The students' directory of the University of New Brunswick has appeared in a recent issue of The Brunswickian.

STUDENTS DISCUSS CANADIAN FASCISM

(Continued from Page 1)

fascists; though it might be argued that the government has not right to do so, nevertheless the fact remains that workers' papers are confiscated indiscriminately."

With the increase of workers' agitations, the course which the authorities intend to pursue has become evident. As the power of this class grows the government will inevitably tend to a Fascist policy. "It may be possible to stave off Fascism by means of workers' leagues," Mr. Wayman went on to say. "In order to do this however, it is necessary to make these organizations something for which the workers will be willing to fight—a union which works for and gains better conditions. At present the employees take no active part in the agitations, the chief action being carried on by international leaders who, incidentally, receive very high salaries."

Little support was given to the C.C.F. party for it was thought that if a balance of power such as exists in France, were ever to occur in Canada, dictatorship ideas would soon creep into its policy.

PROFESSORS DENY POLITICAL BIAS

(Continued from Page 1)

inasmuch as it might leave an erroneous impression of the University professors in the mind of the uninformed reader and also as it is unfair to accuse professors of being champions of any one cause.

"If it is true," he said, "that the minds of the students are being moulded after a pattern it must be an extremely varied pattern for every professor puts his individual interpretation upon things and most of them think differently. I should be quite unable to classify myself according to any political creed and although I know that some of them are more critical of conditions than others, it is quite possible to be critical without being a socialist."

He does believe that socialistic sympathies are much more prevalent among the undergraduate body now than a few years ago but that that is an outcome of the times. There are both Communistic and Socialistic ideas very strongly in the air at present which are being expressed by speakers outside the University, by publications in the Press, and in pamphlets. The students imbibe these ideas in their search for solutions to the present economic condition.

Mrs. Hutchinson, secretary of the Student Christian Movement, commenting on the fact that the Movement was one of the societies described in the editorial as having a socialistic flavour, made the following statement: "The S.C.M. has no policy in regard to socialism, but it would be surprising if its members were silent on a matter so much in public discussion at present. Among the members themselves some are inclined towards socialism and some are not."

Professor F. H. Underhill of the History Department declined to give an interview on the subject, and Professor J. Line, professor of Ethics in Victoria College preferred not to be quoted as he had not given the matter sufficient thought.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6th, 1934

No. 79

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Recommendations of the commission investigating Windsor Children's Aid Society cruelty charges, urge the dismissal of the Strang sisters and the superintendent, M. R. Winters.

Paris—Demonstration by 1,000 war veterans in front of the President's residence was put down by mounted republican guards last night.

Havana—Strikes spread in Cuba in spite of efforts of the new government.

London—Reliable reports state that Soviet adherence to international wheat price-control and acreage reduction agreement is within reach.

Vienna—Austria yesterday appealed to League of Nations for protection against German aggression after one province had gone Fascist.

Rome—Thirty-nine persons were killed in Ortopio by a huge avalanche of rocks and snow.

Ottawa—Wives of Parliamentarians were warned last night that the rule against knitting in the galleries of the House of Commons will in the future be rigidly enforced.

Ottawa—A Labourite resolution calling for inquiry into hours of labour, was adopted in the House of Commons last night. Charges were made that "slave camps" were being operated by the Ontario Government.

Niagara Falls—The Cataracts defeated Kitchener Empires 3-2 here, practically clinching a place in the O.H.A. senior A playoff.

Washington—More than 14,000 alleged bootleggers were freed from threat of prosecution under the Jones and Volstead Acts when all prohibition cases pending since the repeal of the 18th Amendment were swept from the Federal Court dockets.

PSYCHOLOGY OPTION IN HONOUR COURSE?

Badly Needed, but not Probable for Honour Students at Present

NEEDS CONTINUED STUDY

The introduction of psychology as one of the options for the one-hour-a-week pass subject required on many honour courses is an innovation desired by many students, and one that will probably come in time, but too late for students now attending this University to benefit by it.

In this connection Dr. E. A. Bott, of the Psychology Department, stated that although this department is now crowded to capacity with students, there is a definite need for a psychology course in the honour courses. Graduates in Modern Languages, for instance, are coming here for psychology, and are seriously handicapped because they have no grounding in the subject.

Psychology is a study that must be undertaken with the intention of continuing it for several years, because a shorter period will not take the student far enough for a proper understanding.

Philosophy too could be studied with much benefit, especially by students of Honour German. However, those who entered the University in the term of 1933-34 with the intention of beginning Philosophy in their second year found that this privilege had been withdrawn, and only by petition could students begin even in the second year.

Germany is Greatest Danger Zone of Future Europe States Dr. Eddy

Queen's Formulate Plan To Abolish Fraternities

(Special to "The Varsity")
Kingston, (CIP)—A mass meeting will be held in Grant Hall on Wednesday morning to consider amendments to the Alma Mater Society Constitution, dealing with the proposed solution to the fraternity problem at Queen's. The action by the executive follows their election on straight anti-fraternity tickets last fall. The amendment is designed to permit and encourage the formation of associations which are purely local in character for social purposes, but they will be restricted from too excessive participation in political and athletic activities. Individually these organizations will be forbidden to have outside affiliations, secret oaths, pledges, non-English names, constitutions or passwords. If the amendments pass, penalties for a breach of the proposed regulations controlling the newly formed organizations are absolute suspension of the offending members from student activities at the discretion of the Alma Mater Society. Two alleged fraternities at Queen's will probably be given until next fall to conform to the new scheme for the encouragement of social groups.

GREEKS INFERIOR IN VARIOUS WAYS

Modern Civilization Excels
Ancient in Science if not Morals

SOCRATES IN A FORD CAR

The claim of Professor Joad of the University of London, that modern man is far behind the ancient Greeks in his ethical conceptions and his understanding of the art of living; that, with scientific knowledge far ahead of theirs, "he used the things science had produced for him like an imbecile", in the opinion of professors interviewed by The Varsity is a rather wild generalization of the common place viewpoint.

According to Dr. Kingston of Trinity College, "It needs to be remembered that there were unsolved social and moral problems in Greek society, and the general characteristics of Greek morality are not wholly impressive. I think it must be admitted that in the modern world we have made more significant contributions to knowledge in the natural sciences than in social and moral studies. More intensive and exact thinking seems necessary on the moral and social problems of our time."

"The Greeks were in the same mess as we are," said Dr. Cochrane of University College, "but both our virtues and our vices are on a larger scale. We have adopted our ethical conceptions from the Greeks, they must be given credit for being the pioneers. But the brilliance of their literature reflects the need which they saw for reform." Dr. Cochrane questioned that we are far behind the ancient Greeks in our ethical conceptions, suggesting that Professor Joad's statements were delivered in the course of a lecture in which he tried to substantiate.

Student Exhibition

Undergraduate members of Hart House, who wish to participate in the next exhibition in the Sketch Room, are reminded that all paintings or drawings should be in the Warden's office, on Wednesday, February 7, not later than 5 p.m.

Manchurian Situation is Also Profoundly Discussed in Lecture

RELATED "JAPANESE JOKE"

Believes that the Pursuit of Christian Precepts Will Right Social Ills

Describing the U.S.A. as an experiment in liberty and the U.S.S.R. as an experiment in justice, Dr. Sherwood Eddy declared it the mission of the Christians of the old and new world to establish a society combining both the love of God and of man, in an address entitled "Danger Zones of the Future" at Deer Park United Church last night.

"In professed Christian countries where the clash of capital and labour, wealth and poverty are producing the largest headlines and the richest men in the world, I put my faith in the conviction that the following of the principles of Christianity will bring a solution to the turmoil of the present day," Dr. Eddy stated.

In a review of the possible zones of future strife, Dr. Eddy surveyed the situation in Germany, Russia, Japan, India and China in a manner which revealed a profound knowledge of these countries, derived from his forty years of travel around the globe.

"There are three possible developments in Germany," said Dr. Eddy. "Hitler may fail economically. In that case, the Nazi party will split into a socialist left wing and a nationalist right wing, and an even greater terror, Goehring, may seize power. Hitler may plunge the world into a war or he may learn a lesson as did Mussolini and promote an era of peace and stability. Germany is the greatest danger (Continued on Page 4)

ROCKWELL KENT REGARDS ARTIST AS AN EXPLORER

Intellectual, Spiritual and Physical Realms Belong to Artist

TORONTO ARTISTS PRAISED

Illustrated Lecture Depicts His Dangerous Travels Around Globe

"The artist is an explorer—outward, inward, recording what he finds," said Rockwell Kent, American painter, illustrator and author to an audience of members of the Art Gallery last night in Eaton auditorium. The illustrated lecture reiterated again and again this novel concept of the artist as an explorer in realms of spirit, mind and the physical world. From the early awakening of the city-bred boy to nature on the rocky coasts of Maine, through thrilling adventures in Newfoundland, Labrador, Cape Horn, Greenland, Rockwell Kent transported his audience to the most recent of his explorations in art, in magnificent, frozen Greenland.

"I'm no Stefansson or Amundsen. I'm a poor amateur who has gone to safe and comfortable places in not undiscovered corners of the world." (Continued on Page 4)

Sunday Evening Concert

Representatives from the various colleges and faculties are requested to call at the Warden's office on Wednesday 7th February between 12.30 and 1.30 p.m. for their allotment of tickets for the Sunday Evening Concert on 11th February.

Papers a Hundred Years Ago Most Peculiar Dealings Show

By C. L. Coburn

The University Library is now exhibiting specimens of Toronto newspapers, The Advocate, The Courier and The Patriot, for 1834, which naively reveal many amusing details of life in the small provincial town of Toronto one hundred years ago.

A house advertised in The Courier, for instance, is located simply as, "a house situated in King Street, being the third door from Yonge Street, on the North side."

Of special interest in the light of recent discussions on the right of the clergy to interest themselves in practical politics is an editorial in The Advocate of March 26, 1834, upbraiding Egerton Ryerson and The Christian Guardian, a Methodist publication, for their political partisanship. The editorial declares: "We begin to believe that Mr. Ryerson will find it rather a difficult matter to persuade the Methodists of Upper Canada to look upon 'Moderate Toryism' with the same misapprehensions of delight and admiration which have induced him through the columns of The Guardian, by authority of Conference, to uplift his hallujahs to the honour of England's Tyrants, since his return from 'Babylon the Great'..."

"The next general conference of the Methodist Church is ordered for the month of June in this year, and it will then be seen whether Mr. Ryerson's conduct in appearing as a thorough partisan on the political arena, in the name of the Church, meets the approbation of the body to which he belongs."

At the same time an advertisement appeared for a schoolmaster for an

CANADIAN STANDARD OF SCHOLARSHIP IS JUVENILE COMPARED TO EUROPEAN

Radio Debate

The second in the current series of intercollegiate radio debates takes place tonight from 7.30 to 8 o'clock when Varsity opposes McMaster over stations CKNC and CRCT. The subject is resolved: "that special legislation is preferable to equal rights for women." For Toronto, Messrs. Hughes and Herment will uphold the negative.

VARSITY JUNIORS DEFEAT CANOEISTS

Blue Team Capitalizes Breaks of Mediocre Game
Last Night

SCORE IS 4-1

Varsity juniors completed their schedule last night by trimming the Toronto Canoe Club 4-1 at Varsity Arena. The game was ragged, producing little good hockey, and Varsity won through capitalizing on their breaks. Despite last night's win, the junior Blues wound up the season in the cellar, trailing the Red Ringers by two points.

After twelve minutes of mediocre hockey Ripley opened the scoring when he lifted one from the defence which McQuestion fumbled. Two minutes later Poupore sifted through the Canoe Club defence to give Varsity a two goal edge. Owen pulled off some smart saves when White was chased for tripping, but the period ended without further scoring.

Play opened up fast in the second session as Hedges backhanded a sizzler past Owen to make the count 2-1. The game developed into a shiny match, when both teams ran into a flock of penalties, and were content to shoot the puck up the ice. Even when at full strength, the teams could not combine to any extent, one man rushes being the order of the night. White did some nice body checking which raised the ire of some of the fans, and finally he and Bowman were felled for mixing it.

In the last period, the game speeded up a notch, both goal-keepers being called on to pull off some beautiful stops. After six minutes of speedy rushing, O'Leary weaved through the entire Red Ringer defence to further boost the total. More penalties resulted in more shiny until near the end of the period when O'Leary again bulged the twine to make the count (Continued on Page 3)

Preparations Being Made For Annual Band Concert

Students with sensitive ears who have been suspicious that the weird noises emanating from the basement of the School of Science between five and six o'clock on Monday and Thursday evenings were caused by the inhumane dissection of an alley cat or some other offending animal, will no doubt be relieved to hear that the cause is nothing more serious than the preparations for the Annual Band Concert by two and fifty campus musicians. The concert, which will be held in Convocation Hall on Tuesday February 20th, will include a number of novelties, foremost of which may be mentioned a quintet of five trombones which, according to the latest reports, will bring tears of appreciation to your eyes. Full details of the programme will appear in The Varsity shortly.

Dr. Needler Claims Secondary School Training is Woefully Inadequate

CAPABLE OF HIGHER WORK

A European University Entrant Has Classical Equipment of Graduate Here

That the Ontario High School fails lamentably in comparison with its European counterparts in the performance of what is at least one of its avowedly important functions, namely, preparation for the university, is the conviction stated by Professor G. H. Needler of University College in an article entitled "The Secondary School and the University" published in the latest edition of the Canadian School Journal.

The reason for this, says Dr. Needler, lies not in incompetence in the teachers nor in inferior qualities in the pupils but "the cause lies deeper down. Our system does not give the opportunity. Teachers are handicapped by poor conditions, while pupils seeking training for university studies are robbed of their birthright."

"Not all the high school subjects labour under similar disadvantages. The studies that suffer most are naturally those that depend upon the proper acquisition of a foreign language, ancient or modern—that is, of the instrument with which alone the work in their own immediate fields or those (Continued on Page 4)

PAINT SCIENTISTS TO HOLD MEETING

Dr. Holley Will Address Chemical Club at Royal York
Friday

The Toronto Paint and Varnish Production Club are sponsoring the next meeting of the Toronto Chemical Association, which will be held on Friday, February 9th, at 7.30 p.m. in the library of the Royal York Hotel, Toronto. Dr. C. D. Holley of the Sherwin-Williams Company, Detroit, will address the members on the subject: "Paint Problems We Still Have With Us." Dr. Holley is considered one of the greatest living paint scientists and has probably contributed more to the paint industry than any other man. The meeting will be preceded by an informal dinner at 6.30 p.m. Members who expect to be present at the dinner are requested to advise the Secretary of the Toronto Paint and Varnish Production Club, Mr. F. S. Gundy, 2-20 Moore St., before Thursday, February 8th.

The next meeting of the Toronto Oils, Fat and Soap Section will be held in Hart House on Friday, February 9th at 6.30 p.m., Mr. C. J. S. Warrington of the Canadian Industries Limited, will speak on "Factory Production of Palm Oil in the Belgian Congo."

WOMEN'S FRATERNITIES HAVE GALA NIGHT

Four clever skits featured the Panhellenic banquet last night in the Royal York Convention Ballroom. The skit called Antony and Cleopatra under the direction of Miss Dorothy Salter was awarded the most applause. In addition each of the eleven fraternities delighted the others with humorous songs. The Scholarship Cup for preeminence in scholastic attainment was awarded to Pi Beta Phi.

Following the banquet the orchestra under the baton of Stanley St. John supplied the music for the dance held in the Concert Hall. The dance was a novel feature for the Panhellenic Association this year. The proceeds of the dance are to be donated to a Scholarship Loan Fund.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3731
Business Office ..... Midway 6220
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone-Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34
Managing Editor ..... C. L. COURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. G. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Josephine Harley Assistant—Harriet Kamman

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6th, 1934

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS

One of the purposes of the editorials of The Varsity is to excite thought and discussion concerning the questions raised. If this purpose is fulfilled we feel that our efforts have not been in vain. We have never anticipated complete agreement with our views; that would be fatal to valuable controversy. Nor have we claimed infallibility for the positions we assume. The correspondent who observes flaws in our arguments is a distinct asset to the undergraduate newspaper.

The Varsity misinformed its readers concerning the need of a psychiatrist on the campus in an editorial published last week and we hasten to make this correction. There is a psychiatrist to deal with mental disorders among students at this University and the information is contained in the President's Report. It is surprising, however, that members of the department of psychology were also unaware of it. The publicity which The Varsity has given to this matter should do no harm.

We welcome, therefore, criticisms of the paper generally and of this column particularly. Unfortunately, most of the letters received this year have been so intellectually rapid, and so obviously inspired by snap judgment that we have begrudged the space devoted to them. Once in a long time we receive a letter such as was published in yesterday's issue—a letter which gives evidence of a degree of thought and industry in its preparation. The contradiction discovered by our correspondents in the editorial entitled, "Are Our Professors Propagandists?" we believe, must stand. We perceive no legitimate reason for surrendering either premise. The human mind is too prone to ignore the anomalies of experience, and to seek a synthesis which may be convenient and reassuring but which nevertheless is false. Besides, G. K. Chesterton would be ashamed of us!

LET'S PLAY WAR

"Many authorities who have had a close up view of conditions in the East are convinced that hostilities between Japan and the Soviet Union will break out within six months. Some of the best-known European statesmen believe that such a war would bring Nazi Germany in on the side of Japan and align the United States with the Soviet Union in which case only a miracle, would prevent the conflict assuming world proportions." The quotation is taken from the editorial page of a downtown Toronto newspaper. Some snatches from a paragraph in the same editorial read, "... the United States will support the Soviet if war comes and be (Ex-Premier Herriot of France) predicted that victory would go to the side with the greatest endurance. ... Other deputies thought the United States would be content to blockade Japan. ... France should join the blockade if Japan were the aggressor. ... Belief that Germany would attack the Soviet from the European side was voiced. ..."

The sides are chosen! At the drop of the handkerchief we'll all go to it! War is but a game to newspapers and authorities. Newspapers reek with patriotic fervour at the first pistol shot, and incidentally add thousands of readers to their circulation; and authorities dabble and mess about with maps and bombastic phrases, while millions of their countrymen are having their entrails blown out in hells of mud and fire.

The world situation today is exactly analogous to the one that preceded the World War. In the post-mortem that followed on the heels of the fight to make "the world safe for democracy," it was discovered that Germany, France, Austria, Russia and the Balkan States all were waiting for the lid to blow off and accepted the possibility of war with a rather philosophical mien. War was discussed and bandied about in much the same manner as it is today, and everyone watched the dark clouds gathering rather anticipatively and took the coming thunderstorm pretty much for granted.

No longer do we find tucked away on the back page the words "If we have another war" but rather our newspaper headlines scream and shout at us about "the next war." Since they seem to believe that it is an impossibility to prevent another conflagration, our statesmen are becoming content to sit back and twiddle their thumbs while waiting for the inevitable to happen. That "the inevitable" will only be another gruesome, inhuman, and impossible-to-describe "rendezvous with death" is an indisputable fact that any scientist can affirm.

Meanwhile our newspapers and military graybeards insist on playing wooden soldiers with the nations of the world. They choose up sides for us, line us up on either side of the floor, get their toy cannons into action and proceed to bowl us over mercilessly. With jingoistic propaganda and nationalistic jargon they proceed to instill in the masses hate and animosity towards men whom they previously thought were "pretty good fellows." Youth is told what man is his enemy before he can find out for himself, and is then sent out to die in God-forsaken mud-holes. Free thought is being strangled by agents who will profit, rather than suffer from bullets and poison gas.

Is youth, the target of high-velocity guns and death-ray machines, to watch in mute silence the ghastly preparations for this destruction? Must we hold our tongues, while silk-hatted delegates smirk at each other across shining conference tables, and armament manufacturers double production to belie the glib speeches of peace and good-will that emanate so freely from our nations' capitals? We are afraid these questions must remain unanswered for the time being.

But can we not at least plead with those who are near to us, and older than us, and have more influence than us, to do their best for our sakes? And is it not possible that newspapers and so-called patriots will cease making enemies for us and poisoning our minds with insane hate, if we take some sort of united action in requesting them to do so? Or has civilization already sunk too low?

Art, Music and Drama

Sketch Room

Not content to secure some copies of the "Medici Prints" Collection, the Sketch Room Committee has been able to secure also from the Art Gallery, a most unusual collection of modern Austrian coloured woodblocks, some of which are as fine as the best known Japanese prints of the Walker Collection at the Ontario Museum. Some of them indeed reproduce so perfectly water-colours that one is likely to believe that they have been finished by hand painting!

Engelberth Lan shows three mountain views, very sober in tone and simple of design, which proves that nature does not need to be treated according to geometrical concepts, nor exaggerated, to make us realize fully its beauty. In his picture of a fisherman lowering his net, Nostre achieves something which is not far from perfection in the gradation and blending of colours; were it signed by a Japanese name no one would be very much surprised. Hans Frank's "Peacock" is very Oriental in composition and the richness of his colours, as well as his mastery in the use of wood block is such that one would give a great deal to see how such work is done. The best works, however, are probably the woodcuts done by Leo Frank: a mountain lake with some luminous sun-rays coming through the mist of the background, while the meadows and trees of the foreground come out in sharp contrast by their sharpness. Another woodcut represents a peasant coming back from work with his horse in silhouette against the sky, while a strong wind is sweeping some nearby trees; few colours and lines are used, yet the whole is striking and transports you, really, in front of such a scene.

The rest of the woodcuts reveal not only a very high degree of technique, but also an artistic emotion and understanding that is not often seen in similar work. While they are by no means of the same type as the woodcuts and drawings to be seen in the display case of the Sketch Room, it is yet interesting to see both, and realize the possibility of such an art.

C. de M.

Thanks to the Sketch Room Committee it is now possible for the members of Hart House to see a most valuable collection of splendid reproductions of paintings of the old masters. They have been able to secure from the National Gallery, at Ottawa, the loan of about 20 Medici Prints, which, to my knowledge, are the best ones ever made. Most of the originals are scattered in the various museums of Europe and it is certainly a unique occasion to study paintings by men like Botticelli, Tintoretto, Rembrandt, Holbein, Whistler, etc. Speaking in the Sketch Room last week, L. Harris stated that most of the modern movements in European paintings could be traced to some paintings of old masters as the museums are no more looked at with as great respect, and for the last fifty years an increasing number of artists have sought their inspiration either in nature or their imagination, even their intellect, as in the case of movements like cubism and futurism.

Yet for study purposes the works of the past will always remain all-important, not only on account of their fine technique, but also for their real beauty, the best paintings alone having been transmitted to us: paintings like "The Last Supper" by Leonardo da Vinci, "Bacchus and Ariadne" by Tintoretto, "Henry VIII" by Holbein Jr., or the portrait of Carlyle by Whistler are masterpieces, and men shall never tire of looking at them.

There is also another interest in the

(Continued on Page 4)

CHAMPUS CAT

As I entered Shylock Joines' office the great detective removed the hypodermic needle from his arm, inserted his underslung briar in his mouth, and poised the omnipresent triple-power reading-glass before his beak-like nose. "Good afternoon, Flotsam," he remarked, "I see you have been enjoying the last number of Punch. I must be sure to get a copy."

Accustomed as I was to Joines' incomparable powers of deduction, I found myself completely at a loss. "Good gracious, Shylock," I cried, "how on earth did you know I had been reading Punch?"

"Elementary, my dear Flotsam," he replied, "I observed on your lower lip a fragment of mashed turnip, and on your vest a spot of greenish orange liquid of the particular shade peculiar to Hart House soup, which has scarcely yet begun to eat into the cloth. Obviously you have just dined in the Great Hall. On the other hand, your countenance is remarkably peaceful. As the only known antidote to the effects of a Hart House meal is a solid hour reading Punch, the inference was obvious. But I have no time to waste on first principles. We have a real job on our hands, Flotsam. I have just been retained by The Varsity to find one of their Feature Editors, who has been carelessly misled."

"But I thought File Advance had been on that case for over a week," I replied.

"Exactly, my dear Flotsam. That is precisely why they have retained me. I'm glad you came in. I always think better with you along to exhaust the supply of foolish questions and misleading clues. Come."

As we entered the office of The Varsity, a gaunt, emaciated individual

(Continued on Page 4)

When the word "war" has been stricken from our vocabulary, only then is there a possibility of "peace on earth, good-will to men." But until that time it is asking too much of our newspapers and statesmen to stop manipulating wooden soldiers, to stop chattering sides, and to stop playing war. Leave that pastime to children. They're not as dangerous!

POLITICAL FUTURE ASSURED TO WOMEN

Ability to Bear Arms No Longer Criterion of Political Rights

MISS FERGUSON SPEAKS

"The exclusion of women from politics is a relic of barbarism. It dates back to the times when people grouped themselves in walled cities for defence, and only those who could bear arms had a voice in the government," said Miss Marion Ferguson, Dean of Women at University College, addressing a meeting of the S.C.M. in Wymilwood yesterday afternoon. Miss Ferguson went on to sketch the career of women in politics and told of their emergence into public life, describing the struggle for the franchise in Great Britain, New Zealand, the United States and Canada.

The first women in England to be elected to Parliament were Lady Astor and Miss Wintingham. They were elected on their husbands' reputations, rather than their own. These first elections raised many questions as to what they should wear, and where they should sit. Repercussions were felt

(Continued on Page 3)

Five keen, double edged blades to fit any Gillette-type razor, for only one complete set of Poker Hands! Many other useful and attractive gifts for men and women. Ask your dealer for a copy of the latest list.

Quality and Mildness Turret CIGARETTES

SAVE THE POKER HANDS

Poker Hands are also packed with Turret Pipe Tobacco and Turret Cigarette Tobacco

Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Ltd.

Study the Art of Living

Toronto is a part of the great world of travel and society, in the Royal York Hotel. Come here to mingle with the city's notables and their most interesting guests, and to add your share to the atmosphere of gay sophistication.

Afternoon Tea Musicals—4.30 to 6 p.m. Rex Battle's Concert Orchestra. In the Palm Room off the Main Lobby.

Supper Dance—Introducing a new star, Billy Bisset, with his Royal Yorkers. 9 to 1.30 a.m., nightly (except Sunday).

Special Rates for College Parties Phone Wa. 2511

THE ROYAL YORK

A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL

Nothing But A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St. 571 Yonge St. KI. 0991 KI. 3370

The New "BLUE AND WHITE MARCH"

Written by CAPTAIN JOHN SLATTER, V.D.

includes the "TORONTO" and a special arrangement

of

"The Blue and White"

Here the premiere performance at the

Varsity BAND CONCERT

Convocation Hall, Tuesday, February 20th

Tickets on sale S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Room 82, U.C., and may be obtained from Bandsmen.

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

JUST STARTED The BON-TON CAFE

"Just a Real Charming Place"

Private Dining Room for Banquets a Specialty.

Special Full Course Dinner

and Supper 25 cents.

Courteous Staff Open 7 a.m. to 2 a.m.

556 Yonge St. Phone ML 0145

VARSITY JRS. CONCLUDE SEASON WITH WIN OVER T.C.C.

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

The intercollegiate basketball squad is being kept down to a steady practice routine by Coach Forward. The required team of nine players hasn't yet been definitely chosen but a game with the intermediates which is being planned for this week is expected to help the coach in her difficult problem. All the players who have been turning out are very evenly matched as to ability, and it looks as though Varsity is going to be sending an exceptionally well balanced team down to London.

Marion Henderson and Helen Hilliard, two Varsity grads, are going to have the jobs of officials at the intercollegiate basketball meet which is being held in the Technical School gymnasium on the 23rd and 24th of this month. That leaves less than three weeks for Coach Forward to get her team whipped into shape. Mary Rous, their manager, is trying to get some games for them before the final tilt. The encounter with the Grad team will probably take place in Hart House on the 15th as the curtain raiser to the Varsity Seniors-St. Mike's game.

Badminton players are beginning to think seriously about the tournament which is to be held the end of this month. Victoria are having their preliminaries now and although they have most of their last year's team still with them, two new players, Ruth Leavens and Marion Fetterly are showing excellent form and are expected to reach the finals.

St. Hilda's are even more fortunate. Their elimination games have been run off and their representatives to the interfaculty have been chosen, with Isobel Pepall, Marg Lamb, Enid Palmer and Peggy Glasco all competitors last year, heading the list. Betty Clement, of first year, is their other entrant.

POLITICAL FUTURE ASSURED TO WOMEN

(Continued from Page 2)

even in the world of fashion, Lady Astor's black velvet tricorn being generally adopted.

According to Miss Ferguson, New Zealand is one of the most advanced countries in the world, "politically, socially and morally." Women there gained the franchise earlier than any other country. In the United States the struggle was complicated due to the fact that the decision rested with the government of the different states rather than with the federal government. Canadian women gained the franchise in 1920. Since then, the trend of legislation in Ontario shows that women are constantly extending the scope of their political interests. Women's enfranchisement shows that the ability to bear arms in defence of the city is no longer the criterion of political rights.

Sport Notices

Jr. U.C. Baseball—
Game on Tuesday, 4.5, with Junior Meds.

Sr. Vic Baseball—
Practice Tuesday at 3 p.m., Hart House. Everybody out on time.

Jr. Vic Basketball—
Tuesday, 10. Upper gym, Hart House.

Indoor Track—
The pole vault, the 440 yds. dash and the mile walk will be held this Tuesday at 4.30 p.m. The standing broad jump which was postponed last week will be held on Tues. Feb. 13.

SKATE CHAMPIONS COMPETE HERE

University Represented by Strong Entry—Exciting Programme Offered

AT MAPLE LEAF GARDENS

Reaching proportions never before equalled in the annals of speed skating in Canada, the North American Indoor championships billed for Maple Leaf Gardens, this Tuesday and Wednesday, are providing an excellent bill under the guiding hand of the three Toronto Kiwanis clubs.

With the entire proceeds being turned over to assist in the furtherance of the philanthropic work being carried on by the Kiwanis, the meet, or rather giant carnival, is practically assured success. The venture is an expensive undertaking for the Kiwanis and only near-capacity houses on both Tuesday and Wednesday will give them a substantial balance.

The continent's outstanding speed and figure stars have been secured to compete. Kit Klein, North American title holder; Dot Francey, U.S. National champion and Elizabeth Dubois of New York will all be on hand to give Lela Brooks, Canada's best, a run for senior women's honours.

Canada's hopes rest on the blades of Herbie Plack and Al Walters of Toronto. They will be pitted against North American outdoor and U.S. National luminaries in every event.

Figure skating, with the bill headlined by Howard Nicholson, Granite Club professional, three times world champion, is also of high calibre. Mrs. Constance Wilson Samuel, North American and Canadian title holder, will also take part along with Miss Maud Smith, Mrs. E. Ward Gooderham, formerly Miss Cecil Smith, Jack Eastwood, Osborn Colson, Miss Eleanor O'Meara and Ralph McCreath. All are outstanding in the figure skating world.

Apart from the speed and figure skating, there will be clown acts, centennial races for the less accomplished speed stars, races for hockey players from the mercantile leagues around Toronto and the leading universities, including a strong entry from University of Toronto, Queen's, Western and McMaster.

Barrel jumping will also be a feature of proceedings and this thrilling sport is bound to catch the eye.

JR. SCHOOL O.C.E. SCORE HOCKEY WINS

Pharmacy Puts Up Real Fight Before Succumbing to O.C.E.

ENGINEERS STOP VICTORIA

Two exciting fixtures were exhibited in last night's interfaculty hockey series at the Stadium Rink with Jr. School and O.C.E. chalking up much needed wins. In the curtain raiser the Engineers stopped Jr. U.C. 3-0, while the second half of the twin bill gave O.C.E. a close 2-1 win over Pharmacy.

Junior School had little trouble in their encounter with the University College sextet, going into the lead on Kerr's counter off Davidson's pass. The winners continued to have things much their own way although they had difficulty in getting by McPherson on the O.C. defence. However, the U.C. attacking line with the exception of Morlock, was rather ineffective and provided little trouble around School's nets. Terry and Aikens completed the scoring for the Engineers. Terry getting his on a pass from Wheaton and Aikens scoring on a solo effort.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By B. J. McGuire

Despite rumours to the contrary Warren Stevens' hockey hopefuls will be keeping the fireplace warm instead of making things warm for West Toronto Nationals up at the Arena tomorrow night as per schedule. The date for the clash of Varsity and the Westons is still up in the air although it is quite possible the encounter will occur on Feb. 17. This is the date when the Port Colborne Sailors were scheduled to pay their last respects of the season to Varsity. Before that time it is quite probable that the Sailors will be out of the running and ready to call it a season. As the team could not hope to make expenses in their trip to Toronto it is only reasonable to expect that they will default and save the seventy dollars required to make the trip. Seventy bucks will buy the club a lot of refreshments. In the meantime the boys can tune up for their fixture with the Tigers here Thursday night.

The Kiwanis Club are in there again. This time they are after results in a big way and to attain them have undertaken a North American speed and figure skating championship meet. Every effort is being made to make this a success and every form of ice entertainment available will be exhibited to attract the customers and the club are confident of full houses both nights. On the success of this venture depends the future of the countless young chaps to the benefit of which this club devotes itself.

Among the numerous other events is scheduled an intercollegiate relay race open to hockey players only. Queen's, Western and Varsity have all entered teams. The Varsity squad will probably consist of Maxie Fullerton, Normie McLelland, Charlie Sweeney and Jimmie McPherson. Varsity is popularly believed to have the fastest skating crew in the O.H.A. circuit. This will be an excellent opportunity to see just how fast the boys can slip along and at the same time help out a worthy cause.

The University Ski Club seems to be getting somewhere and have long since graduated from the ranks of the also-rans in the events in which they enter. Last Sunday these boys from Toronto the Good went out to Caledon for competition in a cross-country race and turned in a very creditable performance. McDougal surprised the field when he skidded in 25 seconds in front of Ross Wilson of Olympic fame in the six mile race. Of the six Varsity men who started in a field of 25 all finished well up in the race. This week-end the U. of T. team composed of six men will enter the Dartmouth carnival, one of the biggest affairs in the winter sports calendar.

Down around Montreal they are beginning to write Toronto's obituary as a hockey centre. Mild winters, they believe, has made it impossible for the youngsters to get in the practice which will develop them into players in the future. Sad to say there is more than a semblance of truth in this attitude. For the past few years it has been very difficult for the public school kids to get out and skate around for hours as they did some years back. This condition, along with the scarcity of artificial ice, has certainly limited the opportunities of the youngsters. Montreal, however, is suffering from no scarcity of ice nor has it for the past few years. The few degrees difference in temperature has given them plenty of ice. However, things are different this year and it may be possible that Toronto is getting back to the good old days.

And Bill Dewar smiled again last night. His juniors chalked up their second win of the season and so ended a most unsatisfactory season. Junior hockey hit a new low in merit and a new high in tediousness during the past year. Seldom has a season been so unsatisfactory. Most of the contests have been more than slightly reminiscent of the old shiny game which produced the sport. Lopsided scores, caused by an unbalanced league, has made these contests more of an ordeal than an evening of entertainment. Four hours of the type of junior hockey displayed this season, and that's what the double headers amount to, would try the patience of a cigar store Indian.

VARSITY JUNIORS DEFEAT CANOEISTS

(Continued from Page 1)

4-1. For the winners, Owen, Poupore and White turned in smart efforts, while Hedges, Housley and King tried hard for Canoe Club.

Varsity — Goal, Owen; defence, Wainwright, O'Leary; centre, Poupore; wings, Ripley, Lavery; subs, Walker, Morgan, Sissons, White.

T.C.C. — Goal, McQuestion; defence, Foster, Housley; centre, Wilson; wings, O'Hara, King; subs, Barrett, Hedges, Chisholm, Bowman.

O.C.E. and Pharmacy put up a splendid exhibition in which the O.C.E. team were forced to the limit to get down in front of the fast travelling Druggists. O.C.E. went into a one-goal lead on Tough's score early in the game but Pharmacy's bid for goals was rewarded when Anderson tallied to tie the score. O.C.E. again turned on the pressure, Scully scoring their second and winning goal.

Jr. U.C. — Campbell, McPherson, Morrison, Thompson, Morlock, Fowler, Gunette, Grand, Slingsby.

Jr. School — Angus, Burnette, Press, Davidson, Terry, Kerr, Aikens, Wilmot, Wheaton.

O.C.E. — Real, Dore, Davidson, Scully, Bunt, McKinnon, MacMillan, Passmore, Tough, Moffat.

Pharmacy — Briscoe, Reinhardt, Anderson, Wilson, Cottrell, MacDonald, Evans, Inch.

R. G. FINISH BY S.P.S. DEFEATS PHARMACY 4-5

Clinching the match with a last inning splurge, S.P.S. last night in the lower gym defeated Pharmacy by 5 to 4 in a hotly contested baseball game. Trailing by 4-2 at the end of the first inning, School came from behind to tie the score in the fourth, and to win the game in the fifth with two runs, when Stewart, Pharmacy pitcher, failed badly and Gardner, who relieved him, walked in the tying run and proved easy for Carbone, who drove in the winning run.

Pharmacy took an early lead before School had become properly organized and held it until the fourth inning. Playing heads-up baseball they demonstrated their superiority until the last two frames when they began to weaken badly. School, on the other hand, reached their peak just as the losers were fading and but for lack of time would have run up a much larger score.

Hawker, Muir and Miller put in good games for S.P.S. while Wilburn and Ford were the best of the losers. Pharmacy — Wilburn, Evans, Cottrell, Ford, Wilson, Armstrong, Shoemals, Kofsky, Stewart, Gardner, Perry, Hamilton.

S.P.S. — Muir, Hawker, Carbone, McBride, Cooke, Dorbey, McLaughlin, Johnston, Miller.

Insist on this watermark, visible in every full size sheet

Long hours of night study ahead of you?

Try EYESAVING BOND and avoid that "Tired Eye" feeling. Just try it. You will be surprised.

It has extra strength that resists tearing at the punching

For sale at your Book or Stationery Store

LUCKETT'S
STERLING
LINE
Made in Canada

Insist on this Trade Mark in all your Loose Leaf Books and Refills.

The Lockett Loose Leaf, Limited - Toronto

WYCLIFFE LOSES TO KNOX CAGERS

Knox Rallies Strongly in Last Half to Score Well-Earned Win

SCORE IS 26-19

Displaying a whirlwind attack in the second half of an interfaculty basketball tilt played yesterday afternoon on the upper gym floor, Knox trounced Wycliffe by a 26-19 count. The Presbyterians couldn't get going in the first half and found themselves on the short end of a 7-4 score, but recovered rapidly in the second canto to outscore the faltering Theologs from Wycliffe by a 22-2 margin.

Close checking tactics on the part of both teams kept the score down in the first stanza, Wycliffe breaking the ice midway through the period on a foul. Lack of finesse around their opponents' hoop cost the Knox cagers many baskets as they had a good margin on the play. Wycliffe faded badly in the second half and Knox rallied to go to the front and pile up an impressive lead.

Knox displayed a well balanced outfit once they got started, with Neilson, Paulin, Brown, Shortt and Mackay being especially impressive. Wycliffe were very weak both offensively and defensively. Emmet, Cheris and Morissey were their only players who could cope with the Knox attack.

Knox — Mackay, Mutrie 2, Shortt 2, Neilson 9, Paulin 7, Brown 6, McLean.

Wycliffe — Kaminsky, Fairweather 1, Morissey 2, Chevris 2, Lancaster, Kibblewhite, Emmet 4.

JR. MEDS. TRINITY WIN GROUP TITLES

Two Group Water Polo Titles Won by Single Points

SR. U.C. BEAT SR. MEDS

Last night's water polo programme in Hart House pool saw two group winners declared Trinity and Jr. Meds annexing their respective group titles. The games were close throughout and produced plenty of fight. Trinity tied with Vic 2-2 and Jr. Meds nosed out Dents 3-2.

ALL TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS

Are due now and must be handed in to the S.A.C. Office, Hart House, at once to get in this year's book. Unless definite arrangements have been made to the contrary.

All the scoring in the Trinity game was done in the first half. Both teams checked hard and cleanly, and only the good work of both goalies kept the score as low as it was. Cressy McCatty, playing for Trinity, was the fastest man in the tank and this fact often prevented almost certain scores by Vic. In the second half Vic played all out to break the tie but Slim Martin in the Trinity goal was too clever for them and repeatedly pulled off brilliant saves that appeared to be good for a point. Trinity needed only a tie to give them the group but in spite of this they fought hard all the way and tried to score right up to the last whistle. McCatty, Martin and Stratton were the Trinity highlights while Menzies and Fisher were best for Vic.

The same conditions prevailed in the second game as in the first. Jr. Meds needing a win and Dents needing only a tie to clinch the group. Both teams started off at a terrific pace but the defences were so good that no score was made in the first half. Over the interval Dents were a man short due to a penalty but right after the game started again they went out and scored the first goal of the game. Things looked bad for Meds but they were right in there fighting all the time and Adams tipped one in to tie it up. It still looked bad with the score tied and time creeping on but with only fifty seconds to go Meds scored a long shot and went into the lead. To make things more sure they scored again thirty seconds later. They were lucky they did because just as the final whistle blew Dents notched another goal, making it 3-2.

In the last game Sr. U.C. and Sr. Meds were fighting it out for the cellular position. The game turned out to be a circus with anything allowed and as far as could be ascertained U.C. got the decision.

FRIDAY,
FEBRUARY 9th

VICTORIA COLLEGE AT-HOME

Tickets on Sale To-day in College Hall
1.30 to 2.15 p.m.

Coming Events

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6

5 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., Wymilwood. Subject, "Fellowship with one another?"

5 p.m.—Miss Evelyn Craw's S.C.M. Group on Leadership Training at 137 Bloor St. West.

5.10 p.m.—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in S.C.M. library, Hart House.

8 p.m.—English and History Club at 69 Bedford Park Avenue.

5 p.m.—Victoria College vocational guidance groups. "The Ministry," "Publishing".

8 p.m.—Joint meeting of the Student Branch of the F.S.U., with Central Branch at 527 Bloor St., near Lippincott. Mr. S. Lautenslager of the University will speak on "China and the Chinese Soviets". All students interested and their friends most cordially invited.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7

7.30 p.m.—In Falconer House common room, a discussion of the questions arising from the recent series of "Religion and Life" will be led by Sir Robert Falconer. All U.C. women invited.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8

5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club in the Hart House Music Room.

6.45 p.m.—Rowing Club dinner in the Graduates Dining Room, Hart House. Please sign list in Rowing Room.

8.30 p.m.—Professor Felix Walter will speak to the Anti-War Society on "The Pacifist Dilemma in France" in the common-room of the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street.

U.C. Parliamentary Club.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9

4.6 p.m.—Women's S.C.M. tea in Wymilwood for Miss Margaret Kinney. Annual Loretto Abbey College At-Home in the Crystal Ballroom of the Royal York Hotel. Leo Romanelli's orchestra.

9.1—School of Nursing At-Home. Victoria College at-home. Dancing to 2. Music by Stanley St. John and his orchestra.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10

3.30 p.m.—Trinity College Library, The Hon. Senator Cote, K.C., LL.D., on Jacques Cartier, 400th anniversary of the discovery of Canada.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11

11 a.m.—Professor Gregory Vlastos of Queen's will address a special S.C.M. Chapel Service in Emmanuel College Chapel. All students welcome.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12

C.C.F. Club, Wm. Irvine, M.P.

8 p.m.—U.C. Public Speaking Contest for women at the Union. See rules and lists in U.C. cloak room and Union.

8 p.m.—Alumni Bridge, Eaton Auditorium.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13

8.15 p.m.—"Le Malade Imaginaire", presented by U.C. French Club at Hart House. Secure tickets now from the executive and cast.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14

3 p.m.—Dr. John Mackay of South America will give an address in Trinity College Library on "The Spiritual Spectrum of Latin America".

U.C. Junior-senior dance, Roof Gardens, Royal York. Informal.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15

8.30 p.m.—Medical Society "Dafyddi" Night, Hart House Theatre. Tickets may be purchased from year presidents and members of the cast.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16

8.30 p.m.—Medical Society "Dafyddi" Night, Hart House Theatre.

5.10 p.m.—Dr. E. Stanley Jones of India will address a mass meeting of students in Convocation Hall. President Cody will preside.

9.5—Annual School At-Home in the Royal York Hotel. Wright Brothers orchestra.

Jarvis Collegiate Centennial Ball at Eaton's College St. Auditorium. Jack Slater's orchestra.

Classified Advertisements

TYPING

Stenographer wishes to do typing for students. Reasonable rate. Call Ki. 9954.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

came forward and introduced himself as the Editor. "Please be brief, Mr. Jones," he requested, "I am very busy today."

"Of course you are," he replied Jones. "Why don't you let the Women's Editor write the editorial tonight?"

"How did you know . . .?"

"Elementary, my dear sir. Only the throes of literary composition could make a man look the way you do. But let us be starting. I suppose Advance has gone through the waste-paper basket thoroughly?"

"Why, no," replied the Editor, "It hasn't been touched in three weeks."

The loose-limbed figure was galvanized into instant action. Diving head-first into the basket, he scattered papers right and left like a miniature volcano. "File Advance is an even greater idiot than I took him for," he muttered. "Didn't he know that half the contents of this basket would consist of rejected features? Every other scrap of paper may represent a possible motive for the crime—if you can call it such. Ah! Here we are. This ought to settle our difficulties."

Emerging from the depths, he clutched a small twisted scrap of dirty paper, which he carefully unfolded. It appeared to be some form of memo, though the words listed on it were quite unintelligible to me. It read:

Cat
Fanny's Corsets
Problem
Fruit Juice Seminar
Thesis
Write Out Essay
Library Fine
Toothbrush

"Ha!" ejaculated Jones. "Why didn't you tell me the missing Feature Editor was a woman?"

(To be continued)

Sir Arthur Conan Chaz.

ART, MUSIC AND ORAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

Sketch Room: a very interesting display of drawings, water-colours and woodcuts which have been recently purchased with the "Warden's Art Fund", as well as by the Sketch Room Committee. They include works by Canadian artists such as L. Harris, A. V. Jackson, J. E. MacDonald, Thoreau Macdonald, Tom Stone, T. H. Varley, etc., and I recommend very strongly to all visitors of the Sketch Room to take time to look at them. It is not sufficiently realized that all the paintings of the Group of VII are backed by hundreds of sketches and drawings of nature through which their present technique has been developed. It is therefore worth while to study carefully these works if one is to understand and appreciate the present trend in Canadian painting.

C. de M.

GREEKS INFERIOR IN VARIOUS WAYS

(Continued from Page 1)

tate his point of view. "It is not a question on which I would care to give a snap judgment," he said. "As for scientific knowledge, we have made some very foolish applications, and the joy of Socrates at seeing a Ford car!"

Dr. Brett, head of the Philosophy Department of the University, stated that Professor Joad's statement was true in a limited sense. "There is much truth in it, that the success of natural sciences has considerably outstripped any understanding of the moral and political sciences. This source of argument is drawn from the fact that people can use complicated scientific machinery without knowing anything about it. The point that moderns are far behind the ancient Greeks in ethics and the art of living ignores the historical facts about the way the Greeks did behave. Ancient Greeks had very objectionable habits, and their social systems could not be tolerated today."

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18

4 p.m.—W.U.A. musicale at the Union. Artists, Scott Malcolm and Reginald Godden. U.C. women and their guests are cordially invited.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20

8.15 p.m.—Annual concert of the Varsity band, Convocation Hall.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22

Rowing Club dinner. Please sign the list in Rowing Room in Hart House. Celebration of the eightieth anniversary of the founding of the U.C. Lit., Parliamentary, Club, banquet, Lit. meeting.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

CHEMISTRY SEMINAR

The seventh regular meeting, Wednesday, February 7, 1934, at 5.05 p.m. in the Small Lecture Room of the Chemical Building. Speaker, C. Unruh, B.Sc. Subject, "The Chemistry of the Rubber Hydrocarbons."

WOMEN'S S.C.M.

A tea to meet Miss Margaret Kinney, travelling secretary of the Student Christian Movement of Canada, will be given in Wymilwood on Friday, February 9th, from 4 to 6.

S.C.M. LEADERSHIP TRAINING GROUP

Miss Evelyn Craw's group on leadership training will meet on Tuesday, February 6th at 5 p.m., 137 Bloor St. West.

VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

5 p.m., Tuesday, February 6th, "The Ministry": Leader Rev. J. Manush, of Hope United Church. Room 18, Victoria College. "Publishing": Leader, Mr. W. H. Clarke of Clarke, Irwin and Company. Room 14, Vic.

VIC AT-HOME TICKETS

Tickets for the Vic At-Home will be on sale in the college hall today (Feb. 6th) from 1.30 to 2.15 p.m. Get your tickets now and save time.

SCHOOLMEN

Don't fail to attend the School At-Home because you lack the necessary partner. The committee guarantees to furnish a beautiful lady for the evening, with your ticket, if you so desire. Ladies lacking escorts will be given the same careful attention. The At-Home will be held in the Royal York on Friday, February 16 with Wright Brothers orchestra in attendance. Plan to be there.

T.I.C.C.U.

Fellowship with one another, is the subject for discussion at 5 p.m. in Wymilwood.

ENGLISH AND HISTORY CLUB

The club meets tonight at 8 p.m. at 69 Bedford Park Ave. Mr. Beatty is speaking on "The Novels of Henry James."

OR. EDDY DISCUSSES WORLD PROBLEMS

(Continued from Page 1)

zone of the future in Europe."

Dr. Eddy has talked to both Russians and Japanese in regard to the Manchurian situation. He related the case of a Japanese official who stated that it was their aim to "divide and conquer" both China and Russia. When Dr. Eddy published this fact in the United States, the official hastily sent a letter to him in which he stated emphatically that the statement was "just a Japanese joke."

"Japan had a strong case in Manchuria," Dr. Eddy continued, "and if they had resorted to law instead of to violence involving the breaking of three treaties, they would probably have gained a very fair consideration." In regard to Russia, the Soviet will declare war if Japan sets foot in their territory and although they expect that Japan will be victorious in the early encounters, Russia will win the war by a defence at the natural boundary in the interior.

The next danger zone of the future that Dr. Eddy discussed, was China. He considers that China has reached the lowest point of moral corruption and political disunion in her long history of 4000 years. Pointing out that she had overcome great crises in the past, he pronounced the conviction that China will survive the present situation, without a complete collapse. Dr. Eddy declared that "The petrified civilization of changelous China is disintegrating into a sheet of sand." He stated that China was faced with the task of changing from mediaevalism to modernism, which she was trying to accomplish by the short-cut of communism.

"There are two processes going on in China, the breaking down of the old and the building up of the new. The

U.T.S. GRADUATES

The University School's Dramatic Society is presenting Sheridan's Rivals on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. All U.T.S. graduates are invited to come and see this year's feature production.

DR. T. Z. KOO

Dr. T. Z. Koo, whom many will remember having heard in Convocation Hall and at Elgin House a year ago, will give a Radio Recital on his Chinese flute today at 3.30 over WEAF.

FRIENDS OF THE SOVIET UNION

There will be a meeting of the Student Branch of the F.S.U. held jointly with the Central Branch of this organization at 8 o'clock tonight at 527 Bloor St., east of Lippincott St. Mr. S. Lautenslager of this University who has spent eight years touring and lecturing in China, will speak on "China and the Chinese Soviets". All students and their friends who are interested in the subject are most cordially invited to attend.

U.C. PARLIAMENTARY CLUB

A picture of the U.C. Parliamentary Club will be taken from the front steps of University College on Tuesday, February 6th at 1.15 p.m. All those who ordinarily attend the club are requested to be present.

C.C.F. CLUB

Mr. William Irvine, M.P., will discuss the club on February 12th, probably at lunch time. Time and place announced later.

VIC MUSIC CLUB

A most important meeting of the club to discuss future plans, including finances, party, and other matters to be held in Alumni Hall on Thursday, February 8 at 1.25 p.m. All members absenting themselves will be considered not interested.

TRINITY SCIENCE CLUB

Mr. C. Godefroy of Holland, will address the club today, Tuesday, February 6th, at 9 p.m. in the Dons Common Room, Trinity House. The subject will be "Java—and its Volcanic Formations".

destruction is being carried on by civil wars, banditry, bribery and corruption, opium, famine, flood and unemployment," Dr. Eddy continued. "Communism appears as the last counsel of a desperate people. China is the one country in the world threatened with the establishment of a communist state in the near future. Christianity is the constructive force which by education is striving to build up a modern state founded on the principle of love instead of hate. The enemy of Christianity in present-day China is not the old religions as formerly, but Communism."

Dr. Eddy spent a ten day visit in close personal contact with Mahatma Gandhi, and considered him as one of the most Christ-like men he had ever met. He thought that India had a very strong case in regard to her protest against British rule, and that the danger of an aggressive policy adopted by the more turbulent supporters of the national policy made the Indian situation another danger zone of the future.

"When a great social and economic upheaval occurs in the largest country in the world, there is certain to be a change in the situation. The three great evils which would prevent me from ever accepting the Communist ideal, are the denial of liberty, the violence of a continual revolution and the dogmatic atheism and anti-religious zeal," Dr. Eddy declared.

WITH THE THEATRES

(Continued from Page 2)

enjoyed very much, and a featurette in technicolor, Not Tonight Josephine, portraying musically the private life of Napoleon Bonaparte. It's a good show all round.

G.H.J.

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

BRITISH CONSOLS

COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

British Consols

SEALED IN MOISTUREPROOF CELLOPHANE

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.

Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

ROCKWELL KENT AS AN EXPLORER

(Continued from Page 1)

Though this is Rockwell Kent's modest opinion of his travels, the dangerous routes revealed in his moving pictures belied his words.

The pictures photographed were rare and difficult studies of the wild scenery of Greenland and its interesting inhabitants. Mr. Kent's account of Leif Ericson, the first discoverer of Greenland, and the little Nordic band he left behind, lent a touch of romance to the stern story of Greenland. The inhabitants are survivors of the old Stone Age. They are skeptics yet happy. "They do not," said Mr. Kent, "measure happiness by things."

Slides were shown of a selection of Mr. Kent's own works. He does not reproduce nature, he interprets her subtle and often hidden meaning. "The artist," he said, "wants to see essential things."

When Mr. Kent explained it, appreciation of modern art seemed very simple. "Art has something for people. Only be silent. Don't try to like what you don't like."

He has a very high opinion of our Toronto group of painters and greatly admires the Toronto Art Gallery. He is optimistic also about American art. "In America," he said, "we feel that there is an art awakening."

DR. NEEDLER DISCUSSES EDUCATIONAL METHOOS

(Continued from Page 1)

indirectly dependent upon them can be done."

By elaborate comparative tables for the secondary schools of France, Germany and Ontario, the writer demonstrates that Ontario boys and girls are behind their European fellows of the same age by three years in the languages and about two in mathematics and most of the other subjects. "The European boy, when he enters the university at the same age as our Ontario matriculant, has a knowledge of Latin and Greek which, judged by any test whatever, is probably equal to that of the fourth year student in Honour Classics at the University of Toronto. And the same is true of modern languages: our standard, as far as languages, ancient or modern, are concerned, is simply juvenile. Confirmation of this humiliating fact I have had again and again from brilliant graduates of ours who have gone over to continue their studies in Europe."

Dr. Needler condemns the training given in Ontario secondary schools under their present organization as "woefully inadequate" but he offers at the same time constructive suggestions, expressing "the very optimistic belief that a salutary and necessary reform might be accomplished by some quite simple administrative book-keeping." He says that he is convinced "that the change that is needed to meet the situation is altogether a matter of administrative adjustment and could be effected almost over night. The equipment, intellectual as well as material, we have already. As for cost, I am sure that not a cent would have to be added to the annual budget."

"What we want is a real elevation of the school standard by at least two years. Our Ontario high schools are now, or could by a turn of the hand be made, capable of doing this higher grade of work. They must be allowed to do it if our Ontario youth are not to go on being sacrificed to mediocrity, and our universities are to receive them adequately trained for university work of a recognized world standard." The two great requisites here and now, according to Professor Needler are first, the extension of the whole high school course downward by two, if not three years; and, second, the opening up of a new approach to the university for those who do not need Latin.

OLO NEWSPAPERS TELL PECULIAR STORY

(Continued from Page 1)

"Mr. Todd, from England, having had considerable exercise in the following branches of the Arts, proposes giving private lessons in Water Colour Drawing, with Figure and Landscape, in a style simple and peculiar to himself; to which he will add painting on Ivory, Mezzotint, Glass and Etching; with a new process for preserving from the sun and fly, all kinds of drawings."

"Persons desirous of bringing out their friends from the North of Ireland can do so by paying their passage money to Buchanan & Co."

"T. Blossom has constantly on hand at his produce Store No. 3, Commercial Buildings, Mess, One Hog, and Prime Pork, Hams in Pickle, and Smoked Dried Beef; Butter, Cheese, Lard, Flour and first quality Rectified Whiskey. A Consignment of Dried Fruits and Nuts of all kinds is daily expected, which will render his Stock one of the most complete and extensive in this city."

"Prospectus of a Work to be entitled 'The Milesians, Or an enquiry into the Origin and History of the Irish' . . . Public spirited and influential Irishmen in Montreal, Quebec, Toronto, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, &c. &c. are requested to aid in subscription for and sale of this work."

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7th, 1934

No. 80

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Paris—At least a dozen were killed and over a thousand injured in a frenzied battle between guards and a rabble army of 20,000 rioters last night when a mob demanded the overthrow of the Daladier Government. Soldiers fired repeatedly on the mob in an endeavour to clear the Place de la Concorde.

A want-of-confidence motion by Nixon was ruled out in a torrid session of the Ontario Parliament yesterday.

Washington officials denied Japanese reports that U.S. is aiding the development of aviation in China.

Ottawa—A radical revision of the British North America Act is being urged to give the Federal Government more complete control over matters which affect the Dominion as a whole.

London—Sir John Simon warned that Britain must increase her armaments unless an agreement is soon reached at the Geneva parley.

Havana—One student was killed and a dozen injured when a crowd of several thousand protesters against capital punishment clashed with police.

Herb Flack of Toronto led the field of American invaders in the speed skating championships here last night.

Ottawa—C. H. Cahan stated last night that amalgamation of the two railways was necessary unless there was rapid improvement in operation.

URGES ATTENDANCE AT ANTI-WAR MEET

Vigorous Discussion of the Society's Plans is Promised

WILL PUBLISH PAPER

"We are particularly anxious that all the members of the Anti-War Society and any others who are interested in the programme of the society should attend tomorrow night's meeting in the Women's Union," said C. L. Coburn, Chairman of the Executive to The Varsity yesterday.

"In addition to an address by Professor Felix Walter on 'The Pacifist Dilemma in France', we are expecting a vigorous discussion of the society's plans for the immediate future. Preparations are already under way for the production of a paper, probably to be called Anti-War, and the full co-operation of the members of the society will be necessary to ensure its success.

"We are also anxious to call a conference late in March of supporters of the Anti-War Movement in universities throughout Eastern Canada, with the hope that a few at least may also be able to come from the West. We are getting in touch with representatives of several universities, and though it is too early yet to announce any specific arrangements, we are laying our plans in the assurance that the conference will be well attended.

"Another question of great importance which will be brought up tomorrow night is the possibility of our sending a delegate to the World Student Anti-War Conference in London this summer. This is, I believe, the first wholly student conference of its kind, and if we can be represented there it will enable us to link ourselves up with the Movement throughout the world and to receive a great deal of valuable information with regard to conditions in those countries in which

(Continued on Page 4)

John Copp Scholarship

A meeting of the committee in charge of the John Copp Scholarship was held on Sunday, which was attended by the men presidents of the several faculty societies. Arrangements were made to launch a subscription campaign amongst the undergraduates. R. L. Seaborn, Head of Trinity College, pledged one dollar per person for the men registered in Trinity College yesterday and several other faculties have pledged their support. This scholarship will be presented to the fourth year medical student or B. and M. student who possesses the attributes of Johnny Copp to the highest degree. As the scholarship is to be dedicated to the memory of Johnny Copp, the subscription should be welcomed by every undergraduate. The co-operation of the women undergraduates is to be solicited as well as the men.

PUBLISHER URGES NEED OF VOCATION

College Education Should Develop Attitude of Mind

MAY PROVE HANDICAP

"It is not the course in which you graduate that matters, but the development of an attitude of mind," stated Mr. W. H. Clarke of Clarke, Irwin and Company, in his talk on "Publishing" to a vocational guidance group at Victoria College yesterday afternoon. "The determination to know more, to fill your place in the world, is necessary, or a college education may prove a handicap.

"Book publishing is divided into two classes: books for the general reader, and educational works. Publishers are now beginning to doubt the wisdom of giving the public what it wants, as the public taste becomes cloyed. It is surprising to many to learn that best sellers nowadays are philosophical and religious works. No amount of advertising, contrary to popular opinion, will make a poor book a permanent best seller.

"You don't go into publishing because you like books, any more than you would sell Lux because you like soap," concluded Mr. Clarke. Persistence and judgment—and a knowledge of typing, are necessary factors in the publishing game.

(Continued on Page 4)

SCHOOL MARKSMEN WIN MITCHELL CUP

Outscore Arts by Two Points
After Victory Seemed
Lost

A two-point lead rendered S. P. S. winner of the U. of T. Rifle Club Mitchell Cup series for the third successive year. The cup is presented annually to the team securing the highest scores in three matches, of which the first is held in December, the second in January and the third, just concluded, in February. The School team and their scores were as follows: R. L. Broad, 194; F. B. Pickett, 191; W. V. Thompson, 193; W. R. Tutton, 188; C. A. Clarke, 187; totalling 960. Their nearest opponents, Arts, had the following team: A. T. Griffith, 196; J. H. Powell, 190; A. Sharpe, 187; J. H. McIntyre, 187; D. J. Ritchie, 187; totalling 958. The two-point lead was secured after Arts were confident of their victory, by Thompson shooting 99 on his final target.

Arts supporters will take consolation from the fact that Arts took the DeLury Shield away from S.P.S. by a similar two-point lead in competition at the Long Branch Rifle Ranges last October.

The Mitchell Cup was donated to the Rifle Association for annual presentation to the winning interfaculty rifle team in 1926 by Brig.-Gen. C. H.

(Continued on Page 4)

ANGLO-AMERICAN MONETARY PACT DEEMED UNLIKELY

New World Gold Standard is Forecast by Roosevelt's Action

FRANCE'S GOLD POLICY

"International Co-Operation Very Desirable," Says
Plumtree

Little credence was placed in the rumour of an Anglo-American monetary accord by Professor A. F. W. Plumtree of the Economics Department when The Varsity sought his remarks on the subject yesterday. He asserted that he considered any such agreement unlikely in view of the fact that the American currency has already been stabilized, and also in view of the United States' traditional tendency to pursue an independent policy.

In indicating the probable result of an Anglo-American agreement, however, Professor Plumtree said, "The sooner we get international co-operation the better, provided that it is sensible, and Anglo-American co-operation is likely to be quite sensible."

The precarious position of France in attempting to remain on the gold standard was pointed out. Whether or not any Anglo-American agreement is negotiated, France stands in grave danger of being forced off gold, anyway, by Washington's monetary policy alone. The raising of the price of gold has the tendency to cause a flow of gold out of France, thus weakening her position. Also, the lower Britain values her currency in terms of gold, in the event of a devaluation of the English pound, the more will France tend to be forced off the gold standard.

Nevertheless, France's abandonment of the gold standard would not be as

(Continued on Page 4)

Come and Watch Our Bluettes Ice-Amblers Lassies Provide Some Fancy Scramblers

By Basil J. McGuire

They call it hockey

Perhaps this is due to the resemblance it bears to that popular pastime played by Warren Stevens' boys in blue, and other clubs operating under the same general rules. We are referring of course to the women pucksters.

But it looks like rugby

True enough it is in many ways similar to hockey. But again it might be a form of rugby. The laborious advance of the puck up the ice is strangely reminiscent of the gridiron game where four yards at a time is considered good going. That's the beauty of the game, its versatility. No confining themselves to any cramped rules for these lassies. Shuffle board, fan dancing and fencing all make their influence felt.

Shuffleboard, golf, or billiards!

The referee usually calls the teams together before the game and explains that the general idea is to carry the puck up the ice and this accomplished, deposit it between two uprights placed at opposite ends. The spectators offer five to one it can't be done.

Never mind the referee, girls!

Then comes the face off. The referee is in a tough spot and realizes it. These girls are mighty careless with their sticks. And the gladiator-like stance they assume bodes ill for anyone within reach when action commences. So Mr. Referee steals up as close as safety will permit, heaves the puck in the general direction of the combatants and runs for his life.

Fanny doesn't live here any more.

The usual procedure then is to take

ONTARIO PRESS SHOWS INTEREST IN EDITORIALS

Guelph Paper Comments Stand on Lectures and Examinations

"ASTONISHING EDITORIALS"

Credits Editor for Courage to Place His Convictions in Print

That the daily press of Ontario is interested in the student publication of its provincial university is evident by the following extract which appeared in the editorial columns of The Guelph Mercury of issue of January 31, under the caption "A Student's Utopia".

"According to the great proportion of the students of the University of Toronto the new editor of The Varsity, the official undergraduate newspaper, has sentiments which do him credit. He doesn't believe in examinations. Neither does he believe in lectures. And to cap it all he has the courage to say so in print, let pedagogues of the old tradition roar as they may. Small wonder his readers speak as one voice—almost—when they hail him the noblest writer of them all.

"Last week The Varsity came out with a series of astonishing editorials on the subject of modern methods of implanting higher education in youthful brains. Their author clearly had no respect for the hallowed past. His aim was to sweep the decks clean. The most sacred principles of University routine he treated as the Goths and the Vandals treated Rome.

"First in the list came the matter of lectures. Before reading the dash of young editor's remarks on this topic even the most unabashed undergraduate had become more or less resigned to lectures. They simply had to be, he thought, and let it go at that,

(Continued on Page 4)

REGISTRATION FEE

Officials at Simcoe Hall yesterday informed The Varsity that conditions concerning the five dollar Registration Fee remain unchanged. At present the fee is not being levied on students at the University.

"The matter lies in the hands of the Board of Governors," explained A. B. Fennell, the Registrar. "There will be no change unless official notification is received from the Board."

MAX FULLERTON

Who plays on the defence in the game with Hamilton tomorrow night.

SUPPORTS NEEDLER SCHOOL PROBLEM

U.C. Registrar Urges French be Taught in Public Schools

EDUCATION INADEQUATE

"Although my study of the problem has been insufficient for me to either agree or disagree with Professor Needler's article as a whole, nevertheless I concur with his opinion that our secondary school language education is inadequate," stated Mr. W. J. McAndrew, Registrar of University College, when asked for a statement yesterday in regard to the article, "The Secondary School and the University," written by Professor G. H. Needler of the same college, and appearing in the current issue of the Canadian School Journal. "I find that students coming to the University are not adequately prepared for a university education in French and should be placed to see that preparation made more extensive both in breadth and intensity," said Mr. McAndrew, "and I agree with Dr. Needler that this can best be done by an actual elevation of the school standard by at least two years."

As applied at least to the teaching of French, Mr. McAndrew was in harmony with Professor Needler's statement that "the change that is needed to meet the situation is altogether

(Continued on Page 2)

McGill Organizes Dance Date Bureau

McGill University announces that a society to select dance partners for bashful students has been organized.

The committee of the society not only guarantees to find partners but certifies such partners will be "sure to please", and the meeting is not to be left to chance. The qualifications of each potential partner will be checked off and classified. As officials explained, a tongue-tied freshman will find himself with a valuable co-ed, and vice-versa.

The machinery of selection has been set up in anticipation of the annual freshman dance.

ST. MIKE'S COACH EXPLAINS POLICY OF ATHLETICS

Father Lynch Defends Right of Self-Government in Sports

ANNUAL ARTS BANQUET

Aims, Policies of Mediaeval Institute Described by Dr. Phelan

The annual Arts banquet of St. Michael's College was held in the appropriately decorated college dining room last evening. Seated at the head table as honoured guests were Dean DeLury, Dean of the Faculty of Arts; Warden Bickersteth, the Honorable Justice Kelly, the members of the Board of Trustees of St. Michael's College, and other notables.

After a sumptuous repast during which the college orchestra rendered several selections, Mr. Raymond A. Carroll, president of the Students' Council and toastmaster for the occasion, rose and offered a toast to the Pope and the King. Mr. Joseph J. Timmins paid high tribute to the graduating class and his speech was replied to by Mr. W. M. Walton. The college Glee Club choristers offered a well-received contribution after the freshman year had been duly honoured by Mr. A. D. Harris and Mr. R. J. Aulenbacher.

In his reply to the toast to Athletics, Rev. Father M. S. Lynch pointed out the policy of the college in regard to athletics. "Being a boarding school, we try to live our lives within the four walls of the institution; thus we retain the right to govern our own athletics." Father Lynch went on to say "Our system is a very intricate one and is grossly misunderstood by outsiders. For the past twenty-five years we have governed our own activities, and it would show as much wisdom to let someone else direct our athletics as it would be for us to allow someone to come in and tell us how and

(Continued on Page 4)

CATARACTS HERE FOR CAGE BATTLE

Varsity Squads Play Double
Bill at Hart House
Tonight

JUNIORS VS WEST END Y

A double bill of cage entertainment is scheduled for Hart House on Wednesday night when Varsity's fast stepping Senior A squad plays host to the Niagara Falls Wingfoot quintet in a regular Big Six tilt, Coach Mac McCutcheon's junior outfit taking on the West End Y eagers in a Y League engagement in the curtain raiser.

The Big Six fixture should be a keenly contested affair as both teams need the win in order to stay close to the leaders. A Blue team victory will put them one game behind St. Mike's, who along with Yolles A.C. are at present occupying the coveted playoff positions while a win for the "honey-moon city" aggregation will materially enhance their playoff aspirations.

Although Lew Hayman's boys had a fairly easy time of it in defeating the Wingfoots on their own floor, it was mostly due to the sterling efforts of Bedrug who scored 18 out of their 33 points, and it cannot be expected that he will repeat the amazing feat. However, the Blue eagers seem to have hit their stride, having won their last four out of five games by big scores, and all on the Hart House floor where they have shown their best form. Willis

(Continued on Page 4)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—E. C. Phelan Assistant—Howard Small

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7th, 1934

EDUCATION AND REVOLUTION

"Throughout the world, in those nations where any great political or militaristic change is in the air, students are among the most ardent, yes, fanatical supporters of the extreme nationalistic temper, and this in spite of the tolerant and broadminded attitude that higher education is supposed to engender." This statement, given to The Varsity in a special interview with Dr. Sherwood Eddy, former world secretary of the Y.M.C.A., must have come as a shock to many students at the University of Toronto. Divorced from active participation in the political movements in Europe and blinded by a well-known provincialism, many are at a loss to comprehend the events taking place on the continent, much less to understand the part the students are playing. From our sheltered atmosphere, the fanaticism and irrationality described by Dr. Eddy may, at first, seem incredible.

Dr. Eddy, himself a pacifist, is, apparently, opposed to this militaristic attitude, considering it inconsistent with the ideals of education. But we, as fellow-students, may excuse, although we cannot condone, it. The insufferable conditions prevailing in these countries, the heritage from a former generation, presented a challenge to these students to bring order out of chaos,—a challenge that has become an imperative. The crisis, for them, seemed to demand immediate and, if necessary, violent measures.

This attitude, Dr. Eddy notwithstanding, is not inconsistent with the purpose of higher education. Higher education is not primarily to create broad-mindedness, which may be merely a synonym for mental vacuity and stagnation, but to develop a critical attitude which is essentially analytic and synthetic, destructive and constructive. Often the immediacy of the problem will accelerate the movement for solution and determine the process.

It was too much to expect that men, wide-awake to the oppressions of unscrupulous leaders, would continue to remain passive spectators of the farcical performances in the European political arena. Their intellectual powers, trained to penetrate the superficiality of mere platitudes, naturally reacted to a system that sought to justify futility by tradition and poverty by a divine decree. Action was demanded by their observation and, although we may deplore their use of extreme violence to further an ideal of justice, we must admire their spirit, in deserting the sheltered cloisters of learning, to bear the brunt of realizing what their logic demanded. It is unfortunate that folly-blinded leaders, by clinging desperately to illogical and often inhuman policies, should force thinkers to doff their gowns and don the garb of revolutionists. The students of Europe were enkindled with a vision which they were forced to nourish in secret until it overpowered them with its magnitude.

We may share, with Dr. Eddy, a doubt, not only about their methods, but the quality of their ideal. In most of these countries the students are not only leading the movements for national recovery but for national expansion. From a purely rational viewpoint we question the wisdom of that measure but we do not consider the expression of it as inconsistent with education. Any such charge would condemn, not only these particular students, but our entire educational system with its insistence upon patriotic instruction as an integral part of the education of our children. The students of Europe have merely carried to a logical extreme what we consider imperative for citizenship.

SUPPORTS NEEDLER ON SCHOOL PROGRAMME

(Continued from Page 1)

a matter of administrative adjustment and could be effected almost overnight". In his opinion such a change could be most readily effected by simply including French on the curriculum of at least the upper grades in public school.

Mr. McAndrew also opined that a comparison between the relative academic levels of Canadian and European students was difficult to make, but was inclined to believe Professor Needler's statement to the effect that European standards were much higher, since "students to Oxford from Toronto University have informed me that they experienced considerable difficulty with their Modern Language studies."

Art, Music and Drama

U.C.S. Dramatics

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week the Dramatic Society of the University Schools will present Sheridan's comedy, The Rivals. Those acquainted with the play will recall the sparkling wit and ingenious situation of plot which has its humorous appeal even to the modern audience.

All the roles will be played by male actors and it will be interesting to watch the several female impersonations. Graham Sanderson will fill the part of Mrs. Malaprop and Charles Walker will be seen as Lydia Languish.

In the past the society has presented such plays as Androcles and the Lion and Abraham Lincoln with excellent results. The technical equipment is up to date and makes possible lighting effects after the modern school. For this play the directors have been fortunate in acquiring some fine pieces of period furniture and little will be left to desire in this end of the production.

It is hoped that many old boys and those interested in school dramatics will attend. The play is under the direction of J. L. Gill and C. E. Phillips.

Toronto Symphony

PROGRAMME

Concerto in B Flat Major Beethoven
Symphony No. 2, in E Flat (Op. 63) Elgar

Concerto in A Minor (Op. 33) Saint-Saens

Overture, "Corneval" Dvorak

Dr. E. C. MacMillan, Conductor
Gregor Piatigorsky, 'Cellist

The Toronto Symphony Orchestra played Elgar's Symphony No. 2 in E Flat (Op. 63) in Massey Hall last night and they played it from 9.00 o'clock till 10.00 o'clock. One can only wonder why. Elgar has written some extremely fine music (Land of Hope and Glory to the contrary notwithstanding) but this tedious symphony is not among them. Elgar very frequently makes a great deal of noise, and the more noise he makes the less it seems to mean. Even last night's programme notes apologetically remarked, with regard to the second movement, ostensibly a funeral march: "If there is a hint of pageantry in the music it is of the period which should form a mental background for hearing the symphony." There was no mere hint of pageantry, there was a repetitious blare of it. It must be admitted that there is a corner-stone of deep emotional feeling in this symphony, as in much of Elgar's work, but it is hidden under a massive edifice of sound. In addition the composition is interminably long, and not satisfactorily coherent.

It was particularly cruel to allow the Elgar symphony to destroy the delightful impression of the Bocherini cello concerto. Simple in construction and supremely delicate in treatment, this work is one which demands the most careful handling by both orchestra and soloist, and Dr. MacMillan and Gregor Piatigorsky, the assisting artist, treated it with the full measure of respect it deserves. Piatigorsky's cadenza in the final movement particularly was a delight to hear and behold.

Even more agreeable was to allow the Saint-Saens concerto. In some respects more delicate, yet infinitely more virile than the Bocherini, it bears the hallmark of a composer who was at once a musical virtuoso and an acutely sensitive artist. The deft musicianship of Dr. MacMillan and of Piatigorsky could scarcely have been showed to better advantage than in this number. Apart from the odd moment when conductor and soloist appeared mutually suspicious of one another's intentions they worked in perfect harmony; the result was an overwhelming ovation for both. M. Piatigorsky was called to the platform time and again, finally complying with a Bach Gavotte, a thoroughly enjoyable encore which permitted the soloist to display both his

(Continued on Page 4)

File Advance at Wymilwood

Advance was as near to being excited as I had ever seen him. He was puffing at one of his beloved Rajahs. "The blunderin' fool," he was exclaiming, referring to Shylock Jones' impetuous action in searching The Varsity office waste basket. "His rude psychological ideas have evidently no place in them for trans-individualism. Has he never read Professor Blocks? As for me, I stand aloof from the eschatological and supernatural implications of the case, and am therefore able to view the problem on a purely rationalistic basis. Of course, in his aimless and haphazard investigations he occasionally stumbles on the truth, and then he picks himself up and continues as if nothing had happened." He deposited his cigarette on a soap dish.

"But why do you want to inspect his Wymilwood apartment, even in his absence?" queried Teeth.

Advance sighed, and lit one of his beloved Rajahs. "Much as I would like, Sergeant," he said, "to view the Eumorphopolous collection of ceramics in the Art Gallery, I am of the opinion that we might find some piece of evidence he has picked up, and which he will use improperly. Come," he concluded, crushing his cigarette in the canary's water trough.

While we waited to ascertain whether Jones' apartment in Wymilwood adjoined the Blue Room, the Yellow Room, the Ultramarine Room, or the Evening in Paris Room, Advance sat down at the piano. He told us afterwards that he planned to play a Bach Fugue, but was unable to carry out this intention owing to the fact that the last Wymilwood recitalist had smashed the instrument in a fit of anger. Instead, he examined thoughtfully the peanut shells which were strewn on the pine floor. "At first I thought these were Menander fragments," he murmured apologetically, lighting one of his beloved Rajahs.

At length we made our way to the apartment, and gained admission by a device well known to the Sergeant. Crushing his cigarette in the keyhole, Advance looked around him. "Pfft!" he muttered. "Not a single Grecian urn. The barbarian!"

In a book case we found an enormous deposit of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylic Acid, sometimes called aspirin. "Jones," announced Advance, "deduces the world into thinking that he takes cocaine or opium, in order that it may rate his ability more highly. The truth is that he injects a solution of aspirin into his blood stream." He paused, pulled up his sock, and lit one of his beloved Rajahs. "He does this to relieve his recurrent attacks of housemaid's knee, produced by excessive stooping down to interfere in other people's business," he concluded dramatically.

In another corner was a heap of Merscham pipes, on which was lying a dead mouse. The unfortunate rodent had evidently investigated too closely.

"Poor, wet, cowerin', timorous beastie!" quoted Advance sympathetically, tossing off this gem from the ancient Arabian. "Had it a sister, had it a brother?" he added, crushing his cigarette in the bowl of one of the pipes.

"Nuts," observed Teeth. We applauded the sentiment.

"The sucus entericus of this Diplacantha Cranata was evidently unequal to the task of digesting the pyridine products of Jones' foul pipes," he pointed out lucidly.

Advance lit one of his beloved Rajahs, and began to examine the objects on the desk. In an envelope labelled Finger Nail Clippings he came upon something which caused a sud-

(Continued on Page 4)

Club Dinners--50c.

also

Special Student Luncheons at 35c. and 25c.

"The Good Companions"

"... a wonderfully cheerful and pleasant place... menus so varied and interesting that you are sure to find what you like best."

Tea Cup Reading with Afternoon Tea 1179 BAY ST. RA. 2411
Lunch or Dinner

For "The" SCHOOL AT-HOME

Friday, February 16th
Get Your DRESS CLOTHES

at
FREEMAN'S

256 College St. 571 Yonge St.
KI. 0891 KI. 3270

Two stores to serve you.
Special Rates for Students.

$1.00 WILL REPAIR YOUR WATCH
NO MATTER HOW BADLY BROKEN
Cleaning, if necessary, 75c. extra
GUARANTEED 2 YEARS
FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY!
CITY WATCH & JEWELRY
HOSPITAL Est. 1921
163-7 Yonge St.—Room 12
OPP. SIMPSON'S TAKE ELEVATOR
MAIL ORDERS—POSTAGE EXTRA

Your Eyes
will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

DANCING LESSONS
GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dances
Latest Steps
8 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1665

The New "BLUE AND WHITE MARCH"

Written by CAPTAIN JOHN SLATTER, V.D.

includes the "TORONTO" and a special arrangement

of

"The Blue and White"

Hear the premiere performance at the

VARSAITY BAND CONCERT

Convocation Hall, Tuesday, February 20th

Tickets on sale S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Room 82, U.C., and may be obtained from Bandsmen.

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

GIRLS! Lure Your Man to "The" School At-Home

BLUES & CATARACTS IN BIG SIX TILT HERE TO-NIGHT

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

A report has come from the Hockey Club, which met last night to discuss rulings on eligibility, and more particularly the St. Hilda's-Vic II game of last Friday. It was realized that Kay Symons was still eligible for inter-faculty hockey under By-Law 8, Section 5 (a) of the Constitution of the Women's Athletic Association, which says

"No player shall take part in the corresponding Interfaculty Series who has played or spared in more than one game in the same series for a university team."

However, as she did not have the required interfaculty eligibility slip, she should therefore not have played in that game. Under these circumstances the Hockey Club decided that the game between Vic II and St. Hilda's should be re-played at the earliest date that can be arranged between the two faculties.

Except for this game, the first half of the interfaculty schedule will be completed after the game between U.C. and Meds tonight. Since ice conditions have been so favourable and there is a fair chance that they will remain so, it has been decided to run off the second half of the schedule as it was drawn up.

The intercollegiate hockey team is playing a league fixture with the Vagabonds at 7 p.m. in the Arena tonight. It ought to be an interesting game as the Blue team have shown great improvement since their first encounter a week ago.

Interfaculty hockey is certainly looking up. With scores of 7-0 and 5-1 turned in last night, no one can say that women players can't get goals. Judging by such creditable performers, it seems safe to predict that those old rivals, St. Hilda's and Victoria will be meeting in the interfaculty finals.

Kay Symons was the outstanding player for the Saints although Mary Dignam made three of the goals.

Sport Notices

Sr. School Water Polo—

Practice today at 5 p.m.; final practice before game Friday.

Sr. Intercollegiate Hockey—

Practice today, 5-5.30.

INTERFACULTY WATER POLO PLAYOFFS

Fri. Feb. 9—Jr. Meds vs Sr. S.P.S. Mon. Feb. 12—Trinity vs Sr. S.P.S. Wed. Feb. 14—Trinity vs Jr. Meds. Fri. Feb. 16—Final game between two leading teams. All games start at 5.30.

SENIOR MEDS TOP GROUP BY WIN OVER PHARMACY

Slow Game in Basketball Opener Gives Doctors 26-16 Victory

Sr. Meds successfully opened their basketball season yesterday afternoon by beating Pharmacy 26-16 in the upper gym. The win puts Meds at the top of the group in a tie with Junior School, while it practically eliminates Pharmacy, who have lost their two starts. The game was listless and slow and the only interest provided was in the fine shooting of Hoffman of Pharmacy, who got 13 points, and Simon of Meds, who got 15.

In the first half Pharmacy opened the scoring, but after that Meds were never headed, the half ending 14-4. In the second half Pharmacy were able to get inside their opponents defence and

HOCKEY CONTESTS FEATURE SCORING

Emmanuel Team Beats Rival Theologs by 5 to 2 Score

VIC TAKES MEDS 4 TO 1

High scores were the feature of the two interfaculty hockey games played on the Stadium ice last night, when Emmanuel defeated Wycliffe 5-2 and Vic took Jr. Meds to the tune of 4-1.

The opener was Emmanuel's game all the way as they showed considerable superiority in their play. Kerr opened the scoring for Emmanuel after about five minutes of play with a fine solo effort and repeated a few minutes later. Wycliffe kept in the running when Kibblewhite scored on Morrissey's pass. Kerr notched his third goal just before the end of the period, making the score 3-1.

Neither side could get going in the second period until Crosby scored for Emmanuel on a fast combination play. Kibblewhite scored his second counter for Wycliffe with Morrissey again assisting. Crosby finished the scoring on a pass from Kerr. Fine work in the nets by Metcalfe kept the Emmanuel score within reasonable limits. Kerr, for the winners, was the best man on the ice, while Huether and Fairweather were outstanding for Wycliffe.

The Vic-Jr. Meds game was speedy from start to finish with neither team gaining any advantage until the dying minutes. The first period developed into a dogfight which, however, did not prevent some fast open play. The netminders for both teams were supreme in this period, handling difficult shots with ease and the period ended with the score sheet blank.

Ten minutes of the final period went by with the goalies stopping everything, until Williams, minding the nets for the Doctors, was cut on the mouth in a scramble about his goal. He continued but seemed to find difficulty with the Vic shots. In the next minute of play Boddington, on the first forward line for the Doctors, had his shoulder badly wrenched and was helped off the ice. His absence took the spark from the Meds play and, within two minutes, Dyke opened the scoring for Vic on a lone rush. Gray tied up the score within half a minute but Pratt immediately put Vic ahead again on a beautiful rush the length of the ice. Monzon made it 3-1 for Vic on a pass from Dyke and Arnup closed the scoring on a shot from a scramble inside the Meds' blue line.

For Vic, Dickie, Dyke and Pratt starred, while Boddington and Gray were best for the Medicals. Wycliffe—Metcalfe, Huether, Zimmerman, Kibblewhite, Fairweather, Morrissey, Toone, Wood, Newton-Smith, Emmet. Emmanuel—Williamson, Edwards, Gamble, Kerr, Lavery, Crosby, T. Huser, G. Huser, Martin. Vic—Dickie, Bryers, Dyke, Farrell, Monzon, Arnup, Tackaberry, Gregory, Pratt, Grover.

Jr. Meds—Williams, Gray, Kerr, Sprung, Boddington, Charles, McKee, Robinson, Coxon, McKewen. Referee—McLattery.

due to the sniping of Hoffman, held Meds to a 12-12 score, making the final outcome 26-16.

The best for Meds were Simon, Culiner and Himel who, up until Christmas, was with the Sr. Intercollegiate team, and who started the majority of the Meds plays. Hoffman and Katz played well for the losers.

Meds—Himel 4, Simon 15, Culiner 2, Gibb, Miller 2, Magder 1, Rosenbergs 2, Scher. Pharmacy—Wilson 1, Hoffman 13, Katz 2, Evans, Hamilton 1, Pugen, Koffsky, Milburn, Lee. Referee—Applebaum.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

The Montreal Star of last Saturday, besides printing a two-column story on the McGill-Varsity hockey game (Toronto papers please note), ran a full-column feature entitled "Watching McGill blank Varsity". The writer seemed obsessed with the notion that the Redmen could have made the score 10-0 if they had so desired. The same column took great delight in kidding Warren Stevens along about being peeved over the tactics of the McGill outfit. We are not denying the fact that the Redmen could have made the score a lot worse, although we doubt it. Warren Stevens was annoyed. The reason? Coach Bell turned four forwards loose in the last period when there were no penalties being served. There is no rule against it, but a big score wouldn't help to draw a crowd here. The fact remains that when Bell did turn his forwards loose in an apparent effort to run up the score, they failed.

Another interesting feature of the column was the intimation that since Varsity had won their last four starts in the O.H.A. Sr. Group, the calibre of hockey played in the O.H.A. could be compared to that of the Q.H.A. in terms of the Varsity-McGill game's score. At that rate the winner of the Ontario playoffs hasn't much chance against McGill, probable winners in the East. That is sufficient justification for hearty laughter.

It so happens that since Varsity is playing in the O.H.A. and McGill is competing in the Q.H.A. series, neither team can enter the C.A.H.A. playoffs as winners of the intercollegiate. Both have to enter as winners of the provincial series or not at all.

And now in regard to Western as an entry in the intercollegiate series this year. Definite word as to their agreement to McGill and Varsity terms has not been received but will be forthcoming today or tomorrow.

Varsity has agreed to play Western one game in Toronto. McGill agreed last week-end to play Western one game in Montreal. Since there is not sufficient time to play home and home games, the winner will receive four points for the win and in case of a draw both teams will get two points. The McGill-Varsity games winners receive two points for a win and one for a draw. Those are the terms offered to Western on Monday. It is doubtful if they will accept but if they do Varsity defeats McGill here Saturday night, the three-team series will likely end in a draw. That is supposing that both Varsity and McGill will defeat Western in the two games played with the Londoners. It is not probable that Varsity will defeat McGill here Saturday night but the U. of T. players have voiced their determination to give the Montreal collegians a real battle.

In glancing over the recommendations that will be considered by the next meeting of the O.H.A. Executive we were impressed by the objectionable efforts of the moneyed moguls to ruin amateur hockey in Ontario and Canada if they can work it. The O.H.A. saw fit to go on record, at a recent meeting of their executive, as being in direct opposition to such moves as are being made to admit commercial teams to compete in amateur hockey series. One recommendation is the elimination of the rule which now prohibits O.H.A. teams from using commercial names. They recommend that the name of the city be added to the commercial name. "Toronto C.M.'s" is the example proffered. The committee also recommends that each club of such nature should sponsor a junior team. Another recommendation says city and town clubs be permitted to sign up to four players each season from other clubs, so as to give every player eligible for senior company a chance to play senior hockey. These players must be secured employment by the clubs at legitimate occupations and must work at the positions secured for them.

They recommend a change in the residence rule to the effect that the date of residence in the town or city concerned be after Sept. 15th instead of May 15th as at present. Another obviously "weak" clause recommends that players secure permission from their last club to transfer to a new club. If this is refused the player may apply to the O.H.A. In other words they will give it to them if the club losing the player objects to their loss. The recommendations are all justified if one takes it for granted that O.H.A. hockey is to become purely "professional" instead of amateur. The use of the word amateur in the appellation of such a series would be very ironical to say the least. Almost every kind of sport that pays a gate of any amount is being tainted in just such a manner nowadays and purely through the untiring efforts of those who are in the game for the replenishment of their own pockets.

That the University of Toronto should have to compete against such clubs is not fair to the reputation of Varsity's hockey teams when they are branded as weak sister teams in their series. There are two suggestions that are really commendable on the other hand. One is the prevention of junior players taking part in senior competition until they are over the junior age limit. The other is the creation of a Junior A series for the stronger (loaded) clubs and a Junior B series for the clubs which are smaller, have to play on natural ice, have smaller populations to draw from, and are located in towns which are not as favourable locations for successful clubs as the cities. In plain English one series is for loaded or professional clubs and the other is for amateur clubs. Why all the attempts to cover up, on the face of things, the fact that all three series in O.H.A. hockey are actually professional and not strictly amateur as when created? You can see for yourself what the previously mentioned recommendations mean. Transferring is just being thrown wide open. Just as seems to be the case at present, the club with the most pull with the O.H.A. executive gets the best of the bargain. The friction that has been going on this season and especially that concerning the Sudbury Club is proof enough of that. However these recommendations are not past the C.A.H.A. yet.

Congratulations are in order for Rod Phelan, member of the intercollegiate intermediate football team and captain of the U. of T. golf team of last fall. Phelan stepped out in the Ontario Badminton series played at Kitchener last week and downed some of the toughest competitors at the bird game to come out of the contest with the Ontario singles crown. Just another addition to an already large number of athletic achievements.

KNOX, SENIOR S.P.S. HOCKEY WINNERS

Schoolmen Stage Upset by Beating Senior U.C. 2-0

TRINITY DEFEATED 3-1

Knox and Sr. S.P.S. emerged victorious in a scheduled double header hockey game at Varsity Arena yesterday afternoon. In the opening game Knox got the breaks to defeat Trinity 3-1. Caslor and Neilson each scored a goal for the Presbyterians in the first period, while the best Trinity could do was hit the post.

Coach Charlie Sweeney maintained a five-man attack throughout the whole second period, hemming the Knox men in behind their own blue line for the greater part of the play, but the best Trinity could do was score a goal. At that Caslor broke away and scored the last Knox goal. Trinity had a slight edge in stick handling, but their shooting was erratic. We put on a great display of goal-tending, stopping a constant hail of rubber in the final stanza.

Sr. S.P.S. created quite an upset when they blanked Sr. U.C. 2-0 in the second game. The Engineers started out fast and Kennedy scored on a pass from Patterson in the first minute of play. Both teams played wide-open hockey. The Red and White were fighting all the way, but they lacked finish around the nets. Patterson got credit for the second goal when the rubber glanced off the goalie's skates into the net. U.C. had four penalties while the Engineers knew enough to stay on the ice. Patterson and Vessie were the best for the winners, while Coulter worked hard for his team.

Knox—Weir, Stewart, Prouse, Campbell, Neilson, Caslor, Davidson. Trinity—Ambrose, Stewart, Brennan, Knight, Burchell, Minette, Burton, Scrivener, McClellan.

Sr. S.P.S.—Vessie, Kennedy, Dolbear, Hewitt, Caldwell, McLaughlin, Patterson, McKie, Murray, Hobson. Sr. U.C.—Loughheed, Warner, McMichael, Coalter, Keith, Harwood, Jamieson, Cramp, Bignell. Referee—Jimmie McPherson.

ST. HILDA'S PUCKSTERS DOWN ST. MICHAEL'S 7-0

The St. Hilda's hockey team defeated St. Mike's by a score of 7-0 last night at the Little Vic rink. St. Hilda's had the edge from the first drop of the puck. Their back checking worried the St. Mike's forwards who rapidly became disorganized. Time after time Marg McDonald, the St. Hilda's goalie, made hair-breadth saves. The St. Hilda's defence worked well together and were able to check Rosamund McCullough, the outstanding member of the St. Mike's forward line. St. Mike's put up a good fight but were outclassed from the beginning.

St. Mike's—Goal, J. McMartin; defence, M. Vining, R. Rankin; forwards, K. Mulville, M. McGuire, P. Schurr; alternates, K. Laughlin, K. Weiner, R. McCullough.

St. Hilda's—Goal, M. McDonald; defence, K. Grubbe, E. Palmer (1); forwards, I. Wallbridge, K. Symons, P. Harrison (1); alternates, M. Dignan (3), J. Kirk, P. Cleland (1), R. Hopkins.

VIC WOMEN WIN AGAIN DEFEATING MEDS 5-1

In the women's hockey game played with Meds at 6 o'clock last night at Little Vic rink, Vic I won their second victory.

The Victoria team outplayed Meds throughout in all departments of the game, as the 5-1 score would indicate. Vic netted three goals in the first period and two in the second, to one for Meds, scored by Mary Thom in the last minute of play. Even at that, Vic

Testimonies of Christian Science Healing

To-night at 8 o'clock at St. George St. cor. Louther Ave. In the main auditorium of First Church of Christ Scientist

These testimonies are a feature of the regular Wednesday evening meeting, and present a convenient opportunity for all students of the University of Toronto to become informed of the demonstrable results of the Science of Christianity or Christian Science.

ALL TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS

Are due now and must be handed in to the S.A.C. Office, Hart House, at once to get in this year's book. Unless definite arrangements have been made to the contrary.

JUST STARTED The BON-TON CAFE

"Just a Real Charming Place" Private Dining Room for Banquets a Specialty.

Special Full Course Dinner and Supper 25 cents.

Courteous Staff Open 7 a.m. to 2 a.m. 556 Yonge St. Phone MI. 0145

U.C. GAINS POINTS IN TRACK EVENTS

One-Mile Walk and Quarter-Mile Dash Add Eight Points to Total

Two more events were run off in the interfaculty track and field meet last night in Hart House. This meet is held every Tuesday afternoon from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., three events being scheduled for each week, a total of fifteen events being run off before the championship is decided. Last night, due to a late start, only two events were possible, the pole vault being postponed until later.

The one-mile walk saw all the points go to U.C. as there were only two entries, Goulding and Hazen thus adding 8 points to the U.C. total. The quarter-mile dash saw some very creditable performances, although the best time turned in was three seconds short of the interfaculty indoor track record. The first three listed below were the only point winners, registering 5, 3 and 1 for their respective faculty totals:

1. Campbell, U.C., 55.3 sec.
2. McGuire, Meds, 56.0 sec.
3. Burnett, S.P.S., 58.0 sec.
4. Fleming, S.P.S., 58.4 sec.
5. Caldwell, Meds, 59.1 sec.
6. Thompson, Meds, 59.2 sec.
7. Peter, U.C., 60.2 sec.
8. Krailo, S.P.S., 60.6 sec.

missed many chances to score in the final frame.

Mary Thom was undoubtedly the most outstanding player for Meds, although B. MacQuarrie turned in a good performance. It would be difficult to say who were the best for Victoria. All played well.

Meds—Goal, Jamieson; defence, Bickle, Riggs; centre, Thom; forwards, MacQuarrie, Peters; alternates, Manery, Seaman, Gould, Greer.

Victoria—Goal, Cowan; defence, Scott, Selater; centre, Mackay; forwards, Eastwood, Schwaartz; alternates, Fauds, Clements, Batho, Fenton. Referee—Mac Pratt.

BOYS! Take "Her" to the Royal York on Feb. 16

Coming Events

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7
7.30—In Falconer House common room, a discussion of the questions arising from the recent series of "Religion and Life" will be led by Sir Robert Falconer. All U.C. women invited.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8
8.15—Political Science Club, Dr. Innis to speak on "The Political Scientist in Canada". Wymilwood Blue Room.

5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club in the Hart House Music Room.

6.45 p.m.—Rowing Club dinner in the Graduates Dining Room, Hart House. Please sign list in Rowing Room.

Here and There

The first event in the celebration of the Centennial of the City of Toronto, to be held this year, took place at the Royal York Hotel in the closing week of 1933 when Mayor Stewart handed out letters of "Centennial" bread to a large crowd of interested residents.

Emile St. Goddard and Leonard Seppala, heroes of many hard fought Dog Derbies, will fight it out again in the Quebec Dog Derby of February 23-25 next to be held in Quebec City. Many other teams have already registered and special training events for the big show are being held.

A tip for the encouragement of the younger ski generation is given by the Canadian Pacific Railway in the company's inauguration of a special school age ski excursion at low rates to the Laurentians just outside Montreal. The special was heavily patronized by the youngsters.

Statistics recently issued by the Bureau of Railway News and Statistics show that the safest way to travel is by railroad. In a year's operation of Canadian and United States railroads only one passenger was killed out of a total of 469,048,529 persons carried a total of 16,941,246,109 miles.

The old belief that women cannot wear high heels without injury to posture and health was described as "hunk" by J. S. Tower, shoe expert of Milwaukee, delegate to the National Shoe Retailers Association convention recently held at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto.

A Canadian inter-collegiate ski meet, unique development in Eastern Canada as far as skiing is concerned, will be held at the Seignior Club, Montebello, end of January. Toronto University, Ottawa University, McGill and St. Patrick's College in Ottawa are among the collegiate teams to be represented.

Snow shovels and twenty below in many places in Canada are replaced by mashes and 65 above at Victoria B.C., these days where the sixth annual midwinter golf tournament swings into action at the Royal Colwood Course February 19-24. Enquiries and early entries from ardent golfers indicate that again this year the tournament will be a big success.

Silver Fox Breeders' Association convention was the first of three big gatherings held at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec City this year. It was simultaneous with that of the Canadian Fruit and Vegetable Jobbers' Association and was followed shortly after by the convention of the Canadian Association of Tourists and Publicity Bureaus.

Gratification at the way in which the public is using the new rail "substitute service" between Moose Jaw and Regina was expressed by H. R. Mathewson, general passenger agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, Winnipeg when interviewed recently at Regina. He had had ample opportunity to view the running of the new "seven-a-day" train service between the two cities and was very pleased with the results being obtained.

Classified Advertisements

U.T.S. OLD BOYS!

University Schools Annual At-Home, March 9, 1934. Dancing: 8.45-1.30. Music by Rossini's orchestra. Subscription, $3.00. Phone applications to James Turnbull, Hy. 6057, or to the School. List closes Mon. Feb. 19th.

ST. MICHAEL'S DIRECTOR STATES ATHLETIC POLICY

(Continued from Page 1)

Rev. H. S. Bellisle made the presentation of medals and scholarships, after which Rev. G. B. Phelan delivered a most interesting address in reply to Mr. D. C. Walsh's brilliant toast to the Institute of Mediaeval Studies. Rev. Dr. Phelan explained the aims and policies of the Institute. "The Mediaeval Institute is the only one of its kind in which graduate work in Philosophy is carried on. It is an organization within the college. The work is a work of study. We are out of touch with a Christian civilization that once flourished; the Institute attempts to find from their works and history some guidance for our own thought. The work is a co-operative system in which the students are apprentices under the guidance of teachers."

Rev. E. J. McCorkell offered the toast to the University of Toronto, amusingly reminiscing on his associations with Dean De Lury when a student at the University. "The day will never come when we will be insensible to our indebtedness to the University of Toronto, of which we have become a part," Father McCorkell said. He paid glowing tribute to the University's unique organization and to its spirit. He lauded the men who organized it in 1827, stating that "they were men of courage". Mr. G. A. Patterson, on behalf of the students of St. Michael's College, presented the Dean with a scroll of honour.

Dean De Lury, in his reply to the toast to the University, thanked the students for their expression of goodwill and said "That although one knows that there comes a time to retire, one does not necessarily have to sever connections." The Dean spoke at some length on the early activities of the University and Federation, "Colleges of various traditions have managed to maintain their academic characters. Federation made for greater anxiety to understand the point of view of the other man. The true spirit of co-operation was brought out."

Proceedings were brought to a close with "God Save the King".

8.30 p.m.—Professor Felix Walter will speak to the Anti-War Society on "The Pacifist Dilemma in France" in the common room of the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street, U.C. Parliamentary Club.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9

4-6 p.m.—Women's S.C.M. tea in Wymilwood for Miss Margaret Kinney. Annual Loreto Abbey College At-Home in the Crystal Ballroom of the Royal York Hotel. Leo Romanelli's orchestra.

9-11—School of Nursing At-Home. Victoria College at-home. Dancing 9 to 2. Music by Stanley St. John and his orchestra.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10

3.30 p.m.—Trinity College Library, The Hon. Senator Cote, K.C., LL.D., on Jacques Cartier, 400th anniversary of the discovery of Canada.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11

11 a.m.—Professor Gregory Vlastos of Queen's will address a special S.C.M. Chapel Service in Emmanuel College Chapel. All students welcome.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12

C.C.F. Club, Wm. Irvine, M.P. 8 p.m.—U.C. Public Speaking Contest for women at the Union. See rules and lists in U.C. cloak room and Union.

8 p.m.—Alumni Bridge, Eaton Auditorium.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13

5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in the S.C.M. Library, Hart House.

8.15 p.m.—"Le Malade Imaginaire", presented by U.C. French Club at Hart House. Secure tickets now from the executive and cast.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14

3 p.m.—Dr. John Mackay of South America will give an address in Trinity College Library on "The Spiritual Spectrum of Latin America".

U.C. junior-senior dance, Roof Gardens, Royal York. Informal.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15

8.30 p.m.—Medical Society "Daffydil" Night, Hart House Theatre. Tickets may be purchased from year presidents and members of the cast.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Buildings. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

ANTI-WAR SOCIETY

Professor Felix Walter will speak to the Anti-War Society on "The Pacifist Dilemma in France" tomorrow evening at 8.30, in the Common Room of the Women's Union. Further preparations for the publication of a paper and other activities will also be discussed. All those interested are invited to attend.

VIC AT-HOME TICKETS

For those who did not get their tickets to the Victoria College At-Home, the tickets will be on sale again today at 1.30 p.m. in the Alumni Hall. Programmes will also be given out on the presentation of tickets.

THE FORUM

Regular meeting of the Forum on Friday, Feb. 9 at 4 p.m. in Room 4, U.C. Messrs. Singer and Rogers will speak and Mr. Watson will be in the chair.

VIC WOMEN

The V.C.U. women's spring tea dance will be held in Wymilwood on Saturday, February 17th, from 4.30 to 7.30 p.m. Lists open on Monday, Feb. 12.

UNDERGRADUATE EXHIBITION

Undergraduate members of Hart House, who wish to participate in the next exhibition in the Sketch Room, are reminded that all paintings or drawings should be in the Warden's office not later than 5 p.m. today.

SUNDAY EVENING CONCERT

Eighty single tickets, which will admit men students only for the concert on Sunday next, will be issued at the Hall Porter's desk at 1.00 p.m. on Thursday.

POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB

"The Political Science Student and the Canadian Problem" will be discussed by Professor Innis Thursday, February 8th at 8.15 in Wymilwood Blue Room.

PUBLISHER URGES

NEED OF VOCATION

(Continued from Page 1)
disturbing at the present time as it The Reverend John Manuel, in his vocational talk, stated that "The Ministry is one of the finest ways of serving humanity; and this generation wants to serve humanity more than any other that has preceded it."

Those attributes that a student for the ministry must have are a knowledge of public speaking, a genius for organizing and financing and a true devotional spirit. While much of the influence of a clergyman is exerted through the pulpit, the speaker thought that not enough stress has been laid upon pastoral work.

"If one looks at the Ministry in comparison with other careers, the Ministry is bound to suffer. That is, from a material point of view. You can count on the fingers of two hands all those men in the United Church of Canada who are receiving salaries of five thousand dollars a year. But there are rewards of another nature. There is the satisfaction of serving one's fellow man."

MONETARY PACT DEEMED UNLIKELY

(Continued from Page 1)
might have been several months ago, Professor Plumtree thought. The more stable conditions of the world currencies, as well as the recent re-establishment of a definite relationship between gold and the American dollar were suggested as reasons for the less probability of any chaotic conditions resulting from France's forced abandonment of gold.

That the recent action of President Roosevelt forecasts a new gold standard for the world, however, was confirmed by Professor Plumtree. The new standard will be different by virtue of the fact that, instead of establishing a fixed price for gold, its price will be changed from time to time; President Roosevelt is empowered to establish the price at any time. The effect is to introduce a large element of management into the system.

CHEMISTRY SEMINAR

Eleventh regular meeting, Wednesday, February 7, 1934, at 5.05 p.m. in the Small Lecture Room of the Chemical Bldg. Speaker, C. Unruh, B.Sc. Subject, "The Chemistry of the Rubber Hydrocarbons."

VIC DRAMATIC CLUB

Will all members note bulletin board in the college hall re important announcements concerning the annual Dramatic Club At-Home. This notice requires immediate attention! Don't fail to see it AT ONCE!

U.C. PARLIAMENT

Next meeting is Thursday, 4 p.m. The Bissell Government will present for second reading the resolution: "That this House has every confidence in, and that this country will continue to be a member of, the League of Nations." Opposition will be led by the Hon. S. M. Hermant. Palman qui merat ferat.

ATTENTION U.C. MEN

Henceforth all U.C. Sunday Evening Recital double tickets will be distributed at 8.45 a.m. on the Thursday preceding the recital, unless otherwise specified in The Varsity. This is effective tomorrow morning.

ROWING CLUB

The annual dinner of the Rowing Club is to be held on Thursday, Feb. 8th in the Great Hall in Hart House at 6.45 p.m.

U.C. WOMEN!

The final W.U.A. Musicales of the year will be held on Sunday, February 18 at 4 p.m. at the Union, when Mr. Scott Macdonald and Mr. Reginald Godden will be the guest artists in a duo-piano recital. Members of the faculty and their wives, and women of the college and their friends are most cordially invited. Please keep this date in mind. February 18—one week from next Sunday!

SCHOLD MARKSMEN

WIN MITCHELL CUP

(Continued from Page 1)
Mitchell, Dean of the Faculty of Applied Science. For the past three years Dean Mitchell has presented silver pins to the members of the winning team.

The club has shown extraordinary skill and ability in its recent matches with other members of the Toronto Small Bore League.

CATARACTS HERE FOR CAGE BATTLE

(Continued from Page 1)
at centre has shown himself the most improved player on the squad. Early in the season he confined his activities mainly to play making and setting up the rest of the team for easy shots, but in the last few games he has also displayed a strong scoring punch that has added considerably to the effectiveness of the squad. Moe Mitchell and Bill Bodrug have teamed up well on the forward line, and with Red Gordon, make up a trio of forwards that can be ranked with the best seen in these parts. Gold and Sniderman, the veteran defence pair, have finally rounded into their last year's form when they guided Varsity to the league championship. Levy, Prince and Young have shown up well in relief roles and with added competition can be expected to step into a regular position if necessary.

Niagara Falls are coming here fresh from a 41-40 win over St. Catharines, and any team that can pile up that many points against the St. Kitt's outfit cannot be taken too lightly. They play a fast, short passing game and rely on a quick pass to score. In Westover, Haines, Parker and Breakey they sport a quartet that can pile up points if not watched closely, and if they can be held in check by Varsity's defensive formation, a Blue victory is assured.

Mac McCutcheon's performers ought to take West End in the preliminary as they have already beaten them twice this year. These juniors play a snappy brand of ball and are sure to provide plenty of action.

PRESS INTERESTED IN EDITORIAL POLICY

(Continued from Page 1)

reasoning that it was not his to reason why, but his to go and try—to keep awake during their uninteresting progress. But the new editor was made of sterner stuff. He tried to reason why and the most he got in reply was the echo of his own question drifting mournfully back.

"As a result of earnest perpend came this conclusion as to university lectures. They are generally dull and totally uninspiring. The very thought of lectures conjures up a picture of some bored professor reading off a manuscript, or sometimes reciting in a monotone what he has said so often that the words come out mechanically, while some students strive frantically to get down his words in the form of illegible notes, and fail miserably, and others drift into the borderland of slumber, and still others are not in attendance at all.

"In place of lectures The Varsity would substitute a system of supervision by professors in the various branches of knowledge, and printed sets of lecture notes. Thus students and teachers would obtain a new lease of interest. The students would be able to dig beneath the superficial in their chosen subjects. Likewise the professors would have time for comparatively uninterrupted research work and development of dormant creative power.

"Now we come to examinations. There's the rub in many a jolly undergraduate's University career! They are as inevitable for the student as death and taxes and almost as gloomy. Even public school youngsters, not to speak of their high school brothers, have decided ideas about examinations. All cry out, "Examinations defendi sunt!" with every bit as much bitterness as Cato manifested in calling for the destruction of Carthage.

"To put it briefly, the editor of The Varsity would go so far as to abolish examinations. He considers them as inadequate and outmoded as lectures. But wait, all you seekers on the path of learning, don't jump to conclusions. It is true that our young commentators wish to end for once and all the bugbear of examinations, but he has something to offer in their place. To be successful under his plan the student must show outstanding ability and zeal in his supervised course and must be constantly handing in essays of a men higher brilliance than is now required for the inspection of the professor in charge. At the end of the year he must have ready a thesis on some assigned topic that is a genuine contribution in some respect at least to the particular body of knowledge in which his interest lies.

"The Varsity may be a journalistic Don Quixote tilting against a scholastic windmill which is not going to alter its course for all the puny knights-errants in the world. If we confine our universe of discourse to the immediate future, no doubt it is. But if we peer into the future its editor's role may seem more valuable. His may be a good prophecy. When the idea obtains currency that higher education cannot be imprinted on young men and women just as a modern press strikes off newspapers in the thousands when it is sterling quality rather than some of his suggested innovations may be seriously considered. At any rate the people of Ontario are pleased to know that the students themselves appreciate the opportunities the provincial university offers them and are concerned with the question of making it ever more efficient."

"No Profit" Sale

of Better Lingerie

Here is another remarkable Value.

Dance Sets—

With tiny wild roses budding in a field of Peach or Fish Crepe de Chine. A dainty set that will delight any woman. Especially reduced .....$1.49

Always a great value

No. 5000 Hose—
"The Choice of smart women everywhere." So dull, so long wearing and only $1.00

So-Sheer—

All that the name implies. A high quality stocking at a very low price .....$1.00

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)

Phone KI. 8800

4 other shops in Toronto

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

magnificent technique and his artistic sensibility to the full.

The final number, Dvorak's "Carnaval" Overture, rounded off to perfection a programme which with the exception of the one number constituted a distinctly satisfying evening. Originally designed to embody the overflowing exuberance, the sheer joy of living, of youthful life, its energetic vigour and the pervading spirit of joie de vivre make it an ideal selection for a finishing touch. C.L.C.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

den knitting of the brows and a straightening of the monocle. He held up for our inspection two strands of corn coloured hair and a summons to appear before a county court on a charge of calceity.

"What an amazing weapon this is," cried Advance.

"But what earthly connection has it with the missing [Feature Editor?]" snapped Barkum.

"Just this," said Advance slowly. "If Jones fails to find the party, we will expose him. And," he added, dunking his cigarette in the inkwell, "if he does find the F.E. we'll black-mail the great detective!"

S. S. Damfine.

URGES ATTENDANCE AT ANTI-WAR MEET

(Continued from Page 1)

the threat of war is especially strong." The meeting will be held tomorrow evening in the Common Room of the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street, at 8.30 o'clock.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.

Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8th, 1934

No. 81

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Paris—To the cry of "Hang Herriot" frenzied rioters raged through the city yesterday firing at police, breaking windows and burning everything burnable. Hoodlums and Communists were held mainly responsible for the riots, which completely disorganized the city and surrounding towns. The pretender to the French throne was reported ready to attempt the re-establishment of the Royalists. Doumergue has been asked by President Lebrun to form a Cabinet following the resignation of Daladier.

Ottawa—The House of Commons was startled by a demand from J. H. Stitt, Conservative member from Manitoba, that a one-third cut in interest payments and a new 100 million dollar issue of currency be undertaken.

London—"The Life of Our Lord", an original by Charles Dickens, sold for approximately $15 per word.

Toronto—The Ontario Government authorized the dissolution of the Windsor Children's Aid Society yesterday.

Vienna—Fascists are in virtual control of several provincial sections of Austria, and black shirted troops are making drastic demands of the populace.

Washington—At a surprise White House conference called by President Roosevelt, a programme providing strict federal supervision of Stock Exchanges was agreed upon yesterday.

Toronto—Herbert Clark of Toronto last night captured the North American skating title.

PHYSICS SEMINAR

A seminar of the Department of Physics will be held this afternoon at 4.15 p.m. in Room 43 of the McLennan Laboratory. The programme will be as follows: "The properties of Solutions of Metals in Liquid Ammonia," by Mr. L. B. Leppard. "Mean Free Paths of High Velocity Ions and Atoms of the Rare Gases," by Mr. H. F. Batho. "Recent Specific Heat Measurements," by Mr. S. M. Dockerty.

EXAM METHODS ARE ADEQUATE

Numbers, Pseudonyms and Signatures Prove Sufficient Here

FINGERPRINTS NOT NEEDED

"The idea of using fingerprints to check students at examinations has never been considered here," stated Mr. A. T. Laidlaw, Assistant Registrar of the University, when questioned by The Varsity regarding the methods employed in the different faculties for examinations. "The faculties of Arts, Forestry, and Household Science use pseudonyms to protect the candidates, while the faculty of Dentistry has numbers assigned to students, and Medicine has a special system of its own."

Pseudonyms are given to candidates so that there may be no criticism of the system of marking. Examiners are unaware of the identity of the students whose papers they are considering, and a judicial, unbiased form of marking is thus assured. Every effort is made to protect the interests of the candidates. Mistakes rarely occur in the arrangement of marks, and there is always a careful check.

(Continued on Page 4)

SHOULD HAVE COURSE IN DRAMATICS IS OPINION OF RAYMOND MASSEY

Ordinary Academic Work Prevents Average Student from Acting

MAY SPEAK HERE

Intimate Interview Given to "The Varsity" by Famous Actor

By Martin B. Loeb

"The University should provide a course in dramatics," said Mr. Raymond Massey, Toronto's most famous exponent of dramatic art on the present-day stage, in an interview granted in his dressing room before the matinee yesterday afternoon. "The great majority of students cannot have the time to participate in a series of plays and at the same time carry on their ordinary academic work." This was a supreme impetus to the much discussed action of instituting a course which would give instruction in the Fine Arts. Mr. Massey, as was only expected, showed great interest in Hart House Theatre, where under the late Mr. Forsythe, he began his stage career.

Mr. Massey is now appearing at the Royal Alexandra in a world premiere of Kleih Winter's latest play "The Shining Hour", which is to open next Tuesday in New York, and which the east hopes to keep on the boards for the rest of the season. I spent the good part of Monday afternoon at the Royal Alexandra watching Mr. Massey who is himself responsible for the staging of the play, while he was arranged into a great many intricacies of professional staging. The actor, his wife, Adrienne Allen, and Gladys Cooper, foremost of England's actors.

(Continued on Page 4)

PARODY OF BIBLE DOOMED TO FAIL

Atheists on Saner Ground than Nazi Religion Makers Says Professor Martin

MUST BE SPONTANEOUS

"It is nonsense to depict the Saviour as anything but a Jew, as our Christianity has its roots in the Jewish religion," declared Professor Martin, Ph.D., of the U.C. Oriental Department, concerning recent developments within the German church. According to reports, German scholars are re-writing the Bible, with early Teutonic heroes and gods being substituted for Old Testament characters, and Christ transformed into a prophet of "pure Aryan blood."

"Hitler wants to transform religion, since he cannot abolish it, into one with German traditions instead of Jewish," Professor Martin continued. "It is simply a case of trying to make black white and white black. Even atheists are upon saner ground than parodists of the Bible."

"The German people miss their liberty very little, as they have seldom had any. But from the time of Luther they have had almost always a

(Continued on Page 4)

DEBATERS SUCCESSFUL

Messrs. Hughes and Hermant of the University of Toronto were successful in upholding the negative in the Radio Debate with McMaster on Tuesday evening, it was learned by The Varsity yesterday. The resolution was "That special legislation is preferable to equal rights for women". The debate was broadcasted over stations CKNC and CRCT.

JACK MCGILL

Colourful right winger of the McGill Redmen, who will be seen in action against Varsity here Saturday night. McGill is considered one of the best wingmen in amateur hockey.

REGISTRATION FEE STILL UNSETTLED

Board of Governors to Make Final Decision Shortly

PAYMENTS CREDITED

"I expect that the Board of Governors will definitely settle the matter of the Registration Fee very shortly, since the session will soon be drawing to a conclusion," F. A. Moore, Bursar of the University and Secretary of the Board of Governors told The Varsity yesterday.

"Those students who paid the fee at the beginning of the fall term have been credited with the five dollars towards the payment of other fees," he explained.

"Do you think the Board is likely to levy the fee at such a late date in the session?" The Varsity asked.

"I don't know anything about the matter until a decision is reached by the Board of Governors," was the reply, "and as Bursar I will take no action until officially notified by the Board."

If You Can't Get Baby Named Here's a Thousand All Explained

By Norman Langford

The University Library has come into possession of a new volume entitled Dictionary of Given Names. This tome, which it is hoped will prove a boon to troubled parents, opens with some extraordinarily useful information.

Bright, see Bridget

For instance, how many undergraduates were aware that in the United States, out of only 60,000,000 males, 20,000,000 are named one of: Charles, James, George, John or William. And this is but a sample of the fascinating lore.

Bright, see Bridget

Another valuable feature is an appendix containing suggested names for twins. Among the recommendations we find: Chaloner and Charma; Tom and Thomasia; Philbert and Philomet; Wynona and Wenoia; Damon and Pythias.

Bright, see Bridget

Perhaps some clue to character may

LONESOME MALES NEED NOT WORRY UNDER NEW SYSTEM

Scheme Introduced for School At-Home May Spread Rapidly

DATE BUREAU AT MCGILL

Ample Time to Verify the "Suitable" Side of Arrangement

Since McGill University has founded a date bureau and the Engineering Society at Toronto has advertised that it will furnish girls to lonesome men wishing to attend the School At-Home The Varsity has investigated the problem of men without partners, and women without escorts.

Stan Smith, who with Miss Bradshaw of S.P.S., evolved the scheme awaiting trial at School, explained that fraternity girls, residence girls, girls living at home and working girls; in short, girls of any size, shade or disposition would be found for any young men applying. Questioned as to his guarantee of finding a "suitable" partner, Mr. Smith explained his system. "We give you the girl's phone number and you can call her up and talk to her. If you are impressed with her voice but want to see her before deciding, there is no reason why you should not take her to a show before

(Continued on Page 4)

CHEMISTRY OF RUBBER DISCUSSED IN SEMINAR

Formation of Complex Organic Compounds Described in Detail

"Chemistry of the Rubber Hydrocarbons" was the subject dealt with by C. Unruh, B.Sc., at the Chemistry Seminar yesterday afternoon in the Chemistry Building. Mr. Unruh explained the chemical reactions which may be carried out with rubber when it is dissolved in solvents such as acetone. He demonstrated on the blackboard the formulae of the various complicated organic compounds formed.

Rubber latex contains about 30 per cent crude rubber. To this up to 5 per cent sulphur is added for tires and other soft rubber products, and 25 per cent to 30 per cent for hard rubber products. The actual chemical reactions undergone by rubber in vulcanization have not yet been satisfactorily explained. Isoprene, a volatile liquid, is the most important of the isomeric

(Continued on Page 4)

REAL TUSSELE ANTICIPATED TO-NIGHT WHEN TIGERMEN MEET SENIOR BLUES

KENNY FARMER

Who patrols the left boards for Bobby Bell's Redmen who clash with Varsity here Saturday night. Farmer is reputed to be ready to wear the uniform of Les Canadiens.

PARISIAN RIOTS CAUSE FOR ALARM

Participation of War Veterans Reflects General Unrest

NEWS STRONGLY CENSORED

"The republican form of government in France is safe, but the present cabinet is in danger," Professor De Champ told The Varsity when interviewed in connection with the disturbances in Paris.

"An alarming feature of the rioting is the participation of the war veterans. It is not surprising that the Communists are involved in the disturbance, but the fact that the veterans also are protesting against present conditions seems to indicate that the general opinion is bitter against the government," said Professor De Champ.

Professor De Champ feels that the next election is quite likely to result in the return to power of a more moderate party than the present one. The average Frenchman wants stability and freedom to live in peace—he will probably choose a less radical party at the next election.

As far as the republican type of government is concerned, Professor De Champ was quite emphatic in stating that it will continue. There will be no serious revolution to put Royalists or Communists in power because neither group is sufficiently strong. The army will probably remain loyal to the republic. The French on the whole would be unlikely to accept soviet government.

"The information available here is not extensive and it is therefore difficult

(Continued on Page 4)

TO PUBLISH MARCH

"The Blue and White March", the new campus marching air by Captain John Slater, V.D., that has met with the unanimous approval of the members of the Varsity Band, will shortly be published, it was learned by The Varsity. The new march which will be dedicated to the University, will be first played at the Band Concert, where Dr. and Mrs. Cody will be among the distinguished guests present to hear the latest addition to the increasingly popular "Blue and White".

Last Week's Clash Promises to be Repeated with Different Results

NOTHING AT STAKE

Cunningham and McClelland Will Lead Varsity Attack

The Hamilton Tigers Senior O.H.A. pace setters make their final appearance at Varsity Arena tonight when they engage the Varsity senior Blues in a scheduled senior hockey fixture. Although there is nothing at stake the mighty Bengals will have to be at their best to stave off Varsity's last bid to gain a victory over the potential champions of the senior O.H.A. group. To date the Hamilton sextet have lost very few games and they are out to add another win to their already long list.

Last week Warren Stevens' plucky sextet almost surprised the powerful Bengals right in the mountain city and it was only after turning in one of their best displays seen in Hamilton during the current season that the Blues ceded victory by a score of 3.2 to Hamilton Tigers. Throughout the entire game the flashy attacks of the senior Blues had the Bengals in distress but penalties proved costly to the overzealous Blue forwards and the Tigers came on to gain two points at Varsity's expense.

The game to be played tonight should spur the Varsity hockeyists to greater efforts and the Hamilton sextet should find the Big Blue team more than a match to their hard checking attack. In Conick, Blake and Bennett, Hamilton has a trio of young stars who give

(Continued on Page 4)

UNIVERSITY BENEFITS BY $1,000 BEQUEST

Chicago, Feb. 7—The will of Mrs. Mary Prescott MacArthur, who died in Atlantic City, N.J., Jan. 14, disposes of estate estimated at $485,000.

Half her property is given her husband, Dr. Robert A. MacArthur. The balance is divided among numerous relatives, friends and charities. The University of Toronto and "Protestant Church of Canada" are given $1,000 each. Eighteen cousins are given $500.

S.C.M. Corner

A university campus is crowded with organizations, based on motives of a social, artistic or intellectual nature, each seeking to provide through its activities an opportunity for service or self-expression suitable to a student of definite taste and ability. Amongst organizations and groups which are to a certain extent mutually exclusive and whose interests are necessarily limited by their very nature, the S.C.M. sincerely attempts to be non-partisan. It does not present any one "ism" as a cure-all for the ills of the world. Its members individually may belong to societies of markedly different political flavour. If the majority favours one trend of thought rather than another it is because, after honest consideration of varying points of view, that one has been chosen as the best in the light of the Christian faith.

Most of us who think about the subject at all feel the injustice of many of man's present day relationships with his fellow-man. No one will deny that at least a minimum of change is necessary. In the S.C.M. will be found those who would retain the existing order with that minimum of change, as well as those who would do away with the present structure entirely, and

(Continued on Page 4)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35,
Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.
Night Editor—K. G. Robb

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8th, 1934

IS CIVILIZATION DECLINING?

History has been variously depicted diagrammatically as a steady upward curve, as an ascending curve with stretches of decline, as a relatively straight horizontal line, as a jagged up and down figure, and as a complete circle. The popularity of these separate curves varies with different periods of world-history and the prevailing philosophy of different peoples. The Greek view of history was radically different from that of the Persian; both are quite foreign to us today. Because of the a-historical sense of the Indian peoples, we of the Western World can have little intellectual traffic with them.

The peoples of the Western World have been obsessed with an evolutionary interpretation of history which harbours an ardent faith in progress in spite of occasional retrogressions. This view is being violently called in question today and the easy-going optimism of the 19th century shattered. The cyclic representation of history is finding favour with the study of Comparative History.

Extraordinary analogies are laid bare when our Culture is compared with that of ancient Rome prior to the fall of the empire. Rome won a world empire by her genius for military and political organization, even as Great Britain and the United States have done in modern times. Rome's positive contribution to culture was comparatively small. "She was rather the agent in the expansion of Hellenic Culture than its creator; her part was that of the soldier and the engineer who paved the way for the advance of civilization. Rome was intensely practical and utilitarian; we are quite as thoroughly pragmatic in our day. Rome organized the world to exploit it. Her capitalists, money-lenders and tax-gatherers reaped a lucrative harvest at the expense of subject peoples. The age of the Republic ended in an orgy of exploitation which produced fearful poverty and brought Rome to the brink of destruction.

The crisis was averted by the Imperialism of Augustus Caesar, in which the genius of the empire was worshipped and the tyranny of capitalism destroyed. In the Nationalism of Hitler and Fascism we have a modern counterpart. The germ has already spread to Canada. The National State Party of Canada will appeal to the masses who are only too glad to hear that the British are God's chosen people and must not be contaminated by any mingling with non-Aryan races.

The apparent prosperity and vast development of city life under the Roman empire soon collapsed. The process of urbanization, the suicidal exploitation of the resources of the provinces, the vast expenditures on public buildings, games and doles for a pleasure-crazed and indolent population which yielded nothing in return, sapped the vitality of the empire and deprived it of reserves of both men and money to combat external invasion and internal disruption. The great break in the history of the ancient world followed the fall of the House of Severus. When the Illyrian soldier-emperors had subdued anarchy within and repulsed enemies from without, the empire took on a new complexion. Later Diocletian and his successors re-organized society so that the institutions of the city-state, private property and slavery hardly existed. The whole economic life was controlled by the state. "It was, in fact," to quote one authority, "a great system of state socialism, in which the state was the one landowner and organized the manufacture and distribution of goods by state monopolies and state factories and state ware-houses. Thus did life go out of the Roman empire and citizenship came to mean little more than the obligation to pay taxes." The seeds of disintegration had been sown.

The astounding similarities between the histories of the Roman empire and of events of modern times, and the trend that they seem to be taking, have led thinkers to the conviction that civilization is declining. This view has been most convincingly set forth by Oswald Spengler in his massive work The Decline of the West, a philosophy of history which has challenged all branches of thought on the continent. His thesis has been sustained by many subsequent writers. While not all historians are agreed that civilization must inevitably fall, it is generally believed that the present period constitutes the Crisis of Civilization in the West. Tremendous importance is therefore attached to political movements such as Fascism and Communism, and they are being appraised not for the value of their immediate application but for their significance to world-history. Only by such a standard of judging can we free ourselves from a purely subjective valuation of socialism and nationalism. "Where there is no vision, the people perish."

Art, Music and Drama

Art Gallery

The new exhibition of French painting of the XIX Century, gives to the visitor the thrilling joy of being able to follow, from the beginnings, the first efforts to break away from an academic formula until, through a long series going from Delacroix, Corot, Manet, Pissaro, it reaches Cezanne, the greatest of the Impressionist group as well as the inspirer of most of the succeeding movements in painting. Furthermore after going through many rooms of French painting, one comes to an exceedingly good selection of works by the Group of VII, and it is most interesting to notice what influences the topography of a country has upon its art.

A portrait by Ingres and two subject-paintings by Puvis de Chavannes represent the last link with the old classic art in France; they are old, dull, very prosaic, though not lacking in fine drawing. It is from then on that the Impressionist movement begins, under Claude Lorrain, as an attempt to break the religious serenity and almost inhuman composure of Classicism. The romantic Delacroix is the first "revolte" and his colourful work, partly inspired by Constable, can be well followed by his three paintings exhibited. Yet the struggles he went through marked him, and it took a Corot to ennoble the movement and save it from exotism; he is a lover of the twilight, and few painters have recreated better the quiet and transparent atmosphere of France.

Under Daumier and Courbet the movement becomes more realistic. The former is a strong satirist, something of a Balzac, as his famous "Third Class Railway Compartment" painting shows; with him French painting finds anew a solid humanity, and "a new and deep evaluation of old things". Both in his landscapes or portraits Courbet seems to "seize nature at the throat", for he was alive and could see strongly.

Next comes Manet, who had a revelation: he found out that mixed colours, when laid flat, are never as alive as spots, or dashes of the original colours making the mixture, and he painted accordingly, going out to the country with his eyes wide open. Fiercely criticised in Paris his rejection of the Salons caused the creation of the "Salons des Independents", in 1874. Renoir, who is represented by some wonderful nudes, went further in this process of colour disintegration, by finding out that yellow light and blue shadows on the body or the face are reconstructed by the eye of the on-looker. He has more composition than either Manet or Monet, as well as a beautiful brush stroke. Sourat, who has three paintings, is almost motionless, and too scientific in his application of Manet's idea. There are many interesting works by Pissaro, Monicelli, immediate friends of Cezanne, who sought the opposite of the rather shallow surface study of the Impressionists, by turning his eye inside, seeking the dynamic essence of things; form and his passion is reflected in all later movements, such as Cubism, Futurism, etc. Passionate colourist, he tried to recreate the glowing colour, and by his study of spectrum he managed to unite colour and form, see his painting of a vase in a garden.

With Cezanne, this great, strong, solitary, who never painted anything for sale, but who live to paint, the Impressionist movement is at a turning-point. Strangely enough Cezanne, acclaimed by all modern painters as their leader, is yet not followed, but rather distorted, if not exploited by those who forget that art is not to be intellectual only.

Many paintings have not been reviewed, for lack of space, but I hope that this short inside guide to the exhibition will encourage many students to visit this remarkable collection and have there as many thrilling hours as I had.

C. de M.

Varsity Night Office, Thurs, Feb. 8, 3 a.m. (C.U.P.) — A tremendous furor was caused here this morning by the arrival of a telegram alleged to have been signed by the missing Varsity Feature Editor. With difficulty the Night Editing Staff were able to ascertain that the wire had originated somewhere between here and Montreal, but the exact location as yet remains a mystery. Fido Glance, understudy to the Great Detective, is reported to be investigating. The text ran as follows:

C-C
I AM HERE STOP INFORM PHANNIE ALL IS WELL STOP
ASK THE EDITOR HOW MUCH LONGER I HAVE TO STAY TO MAKE NEWS STOP ASK FIDO TO COME HERE AND TELL
PHANNIE NOT TO STOP KEEP THIS A SECRET IF YOU CAN.
STOP PRINT PRACTICALLY NO-THING IF YOU CANT STOP.
AFFECTIONATELY, OSWALD.

Braving the intense cold of 116 degrees of F.R.O.S.T., the entire feature staff turned out in a body by Fisher to find out if the Funny Fable was a Fabrication, and at an early hour this morning practically nothing, as usual, had been learned.

C-C
Consensus of opinion, however, acknowledged the Fact that possibly the telegram was in code, and efforts have been made to decipher the key word "Phannie". It is believed to have some connection with the name of a nationally known Foundation garment manufacturer, popularly known as "Phannie's Corsets" for that Phantom Phigure. University police have made an extensive search of all Foundation Factories with a hope of finding the missing Feature Editor, but all their efforts have failed.

A young woman member of the Feature Staff was reported to have fainted when the alarming telegram

With the Theatres

The moral in connection with Janet Gaynor in Carolina, at the Imperial seems to be "don't see the end of the picture first". The technique at the end is rotten. Robert Young is the scion of an old Southern family ruined by the Civil War. His mother wishes him to marry an heiress, but he has other ideas. And so in the end Prince Charming married the poor little girl from the cottage and they all lived happily ever after.

Lionel Barrymore as Uncle Bob, the aged hero of the Civil War, gives the picture what life and humour it has and the negro singing is really quite good. The southern atmosphere is fairly well achieved. The most unfortunate part about the picture is the inclusion it gives one to laugh in the wrong places. The short is not extraordinary and the stage show is only up to average. On the whole a mediocre programme.

SKETCH ROOM LECTURE

Continuing the series of talks on Canadian Art, given in the Sketch Room of Hart House, Mr. F. H. Bridgen will speak today on the beginnings of the Canadian Society of Artists and will deal with the work of John A. Fraser, Horatio Walker, F. McGillivray Knowles, Robert F. Gagin and others. The lecture will start at 5 p.m. and will be illustrated with slides.

was read, and the Night Editor had considerable difficulty in finding an effective restorative. However, with a Pan he was able to bring her around and before expiring a second time, the Fair young thing was heard to say "He's a Nice Boy but..." Nothing further was gleaned however.

Kugur.

(Night Editor's Note: The Feature Editor, due to his absence, has been absolved from all responsibility for telegrams which he may not have written.)

PICOBAC IS A REAL SMOKE!

"My idea of a real smoke is a pipe and Picobac tobacco. I can smoke it all day — without burning my tongue... without making my mouth sore... without spoiling my appetite for meals."

"Picobac is just that kind of a smoke!"

"And, gentlemen, the Picobac flavour is SOMETHING—I'm telling you. Something different... sweeter... milder —and COO...!"

"I'm proud to say I'm a Picobac man."

and I'm telling you now, gentlemen, Picobac is a real SMOKE, and the longer you wait to try it, the longer you lose out. "Grown from selected seed in sunny southern Ontario—cultivated... cured... matured... and manufactured according to the latest up-to-date ideas, Picobac is the pick of Canada's Butey crop and a mild... cool... sweet smoke. "And don't forget, when you buy Picobac you get more tobacco for your money. It's good for making cigarettes, too."

HANDY POCKET TIN 10¢... ALSO IN 3/4-POUND HUMIDOR TINS

"IT DOES TASTE GOOD IN A PIPE!"

Picobac

GROWN IN SUNNY SOUTHERN ONTARIO

Another
IMRIE BROS.
Special

English Broadcloth Shirts

Separate Collars or Collars Attached

Colors Guaranteed

$1.29

or

3 for $3.50

To meet the needs of University men Imrie Bros. offer these fine quality shirts. We have priced them specially to conform with present-day budgets and we can absolutely guarantee the quality. They wear well, the colors are unfadeable and they are sure to be popular with Varsity men.

IMRIE BROS.

TWO STORES:

140 YONGE STREET, Corner of Temperance
274 YONGE STREET, Opposite Imperial Theatre

Study the Art of Living

Toronto is a part of the great world of travel and society, in the Royal York Hotel. Come here to mingle with the city's notables and their most interesting guests, and to add your share to the atmosphere of gay sophistication.

Afternoon Tea Musicale—4.30 to 8 p.m.
Rex Battle's Concert Orchestra. In the Palm Room off the Main Lobby.

Supper Dance—Introducing a new star, Billy Bisset, with his Royal Yorkers. 9 to 1.30 a.m., nightly (except Sunday).

Special Rates for College Parties
Phone We. 2511

THE ROYAL YORK

A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL

For "The"
SCHOOL AT-HOME
Friday, February 16th
Get Your DRESS CLOTHES
at

FREEMAN'S

256 College St. 571 Yonge St.
KI. 0991 KI. 3270

Two stores to serve you.
Special Rates for Students.

BLUE PUCKSTERS PLAY HAMILTON TIGERS HERE TO-NIGHT

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

That the standard of hockey played in the City League is considerably higher than that in the intercollegiate series was abundantly demonstrated last night up at the Varsity Arena when Fran Crooks Vagabonds administered a 6 to 1 trimming to the Blue and White squad. The Blue-clad puckchasers earned an even break in the territorial play with the Vagabonds but once again their inability to conclude their rushes and combination plays with well-timed and well-placed shots on goal left them on the short end of the 6 to 1 tally. The winners presented several clever marksmen in Betty Winlow and Fran Crooks who notched 2 goals each, and Margot Thompson and Betty Barr, who earned a goal apiece.

The Varsity squad showed plenty of fight and checked back like fiends. Billy Fowler, at the pivot position, made an excellent job of holding Fran Westman, the Vagabond scoring threat in check. At the same time Billy was the spearhead of Varsity's thrusts on their opponents' net and the play-maker of the outfit. The diminutive Mary Rous was a real crowd-pleaser with the way she stepped into the Vagabond forwards as they crossed her blue line.

Tonight up at the U.T.S. gymnasium Varsity's intermediate and senior basketball teams tangle in their first game of the season to enable the strategy board to choose the personnel of the teams. Jean Allen and Phil Griffiths, coaches of the second team, will draw their team from the material available after Marion Forward has selected the players to represent the University of Toronto in the tournament at Western on February 23, 24. This year Varsity will make a determined effort to regain the Bronze Baby, emblematic of the intercollegiate championship. To date the coaches have been unwilling to make any statement concerning their prospects or names of players who will catch a place on the first team.

The interesting feature about yesterday's interfaculty hockey game in which University College blanked the Medics 1-0 was that both goalies wore glasses and no masks. It would have been just too bad if one of the sharpshooters on either team made a mistake and lifted the puck off the ice. However, our front page correspondent must have convinced the goal keepers that they were taking no undue risk.

VICTORIA BASKETEERS SUCCUMB TO DOCTORS

Junior Meds defeated Victoria College by the score of 40-17 in an interfaculty basketball tilt played yesterday afternoon in Hart House upper gym.

Throughout the first period the game was closely contested, both teams playing real smart basketball, with the result that Meds were leading by only four points at the end of that session.

In the second period, however, the Meds broke loose and due to the splendid combination and superb shooting, the young doctors were able to pile up an insurmountable lead. The Victorians came back strongly many times and although outplayed in many ways, they kept the students from Medicine on the go till the last minute of play.

Jr. Meds — S. Wise, Metzler, Newton, Fennar, Zarsky, Crockower, Medlock, Burnett, Lasky.

Jr. Vic — Price, Higgins, Faux, Vaughan, Ellesley, Forissson, Wolfe, Cockfield, Saunders, Dufton, Beatty.

NIAGARA CAGERS DEFEAT BLUES IN SENIOR GAME

"Ejection Parade" Features Play as Whistle Blows Repeatedly

LUCK WAS OUT

Power City Men Turn in Powerful Performance to Win

By W. A. Crockower

Thoroughly outplayed and outmaneuvered Lew Hayman's Senior A quintet ran into a surprise 42-35 reverse at the hands of the Niagara Falls Wingfoots in a furious encounter played in the big gym at Hart House last night. The last time these two teams met the Blues walked off with a nine point lead but last night's encounter was sweet revenge for the Power City Purples.

Right from the opening whistle the Wingfoots settled down to work and before long Zimmerman shot a beautiful one from the corner to start the scoring. The Blues were never again on even terms with the visitors. As the half progressed the Power City squad increased their lead with the Blues failing to show the fight which has been characteristic of their play recently. A feature of the period was the failure of the Falls squad to score a basket when they had three men in the Blue zone all by themselves. Towards the end of the half the Haymanites were able to increase their total via the free throw method and (Continued on Page 4)

WEST END JUNIORS CAPTURE CLOSE GAME

Even Break at Half Time Fails to Hold for Varsity

The West End Y.M.C.A. junior basketball team squeezed out a win over the University of Toronto juniors by a 25-23 score in a toss-up game played in the big gymnasium, Hart House, last night. Breaking even with a 13-13 score in the first half the juniors found themselves trailing near the dying moments of the game and a spectacular finish was begun too late for them to wipe out their opponents' lead.

Dempster was the star of the game, while Marr and the two Valentines also showed up well for West End. Harlock was outstanding for Varsity, and his team-mates Krakauer, Miller and Toole turned in very fine games as well.

West End Jrs. — J. Valentine, Pim, W. Valentine, Marr, Oliver, Whitla, Dempster, Cromie, Hamilton.

U. of T. Jrs. — Miller, Kinsey, Harlock, Krakauer, Stoughton, Toole, Mullin, Gladish, Stewart.

Referee — C. R. Bogue.

Sport Notices

Hockey— Practice for U.C. teams Friday, 9.30-10.30 a.m.

Sr. Vic Baseball— Practice today at 1. No practice Saturday.

Women's Intercollegiate Basketball— Practice game between seniors and intermediates today at 6.30 at U.T.S. gym. Everybody out on time.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By W. A. Crockower

Tonight Warren Stevens' boys get their last crack at Hamilton. It is the ambition of the Blue team to defeat every team in the circuit at least once and as this is the last time they face the Tigers a battle is assured. Up in Hamilton in their last encounter the Students came as close as it is possible to come without winning so don't be surprised if they stop the Bengals tonight. Incidentally Doc McIntyre is firmly intent upon playing the West Toronto-Varsity tilt. At the present time Doc's team and Toronto are battling for second place or in other words fighting for the honour of not having to meet Hamilton in the playoffs since the first and third teams and the second and fourth sextets in the standing play off in the semi-finals. Doc thinks that the game with Varsity should just about put his team in second place.

While speaking of hockey we would like to mention the fact that the intercollegiate relay race for hockey players which was scheduled to be run off last night at the Maple Leaf Gardens was cancelled. The result of the race was anxiously awaited and its cancellation is a sad blow to Varsity hockey fans who felt sure that the Blues possessed the fastest skaters.

Last night's Big Six basketball tilt resulted in a one-point win for Yolles A.C. over St. Mike's and a surprise defeat for the Blues at the hands of Niagara Falls. The game at Hart House was the strangest we have ever seen. Forty-seven fouls were handed out by Referee Webb Bowman during the course of the game and this certainly affected the Blues' style of play. They never did get set again after Gold was put off to be shortly followed by three of his team-mates. However, in the opinion of Coach Hayman his team didn't deserve to win, so, in spite of the fouls, that's that. Although we're not going to offer an alibi for the Blue defeat we would like to say that it was due to a lack of drive in the Blue offensive. Gordon, who up to date has been the team's sparkplug, showed no fight and as he goes, so goes the fighting spirit of the team. So it seems.

Webb Bowman has a reputation hereabouts for being a whistle-blower who blows to his heart's content. He lived up to his reputation last night, in a big way. When informed that he had handed out 47 fouls Bowman merely said "What of it, I call them as I see 'em. The rule book states definitely what constitutes a foul and what doesn't. I follow those rules to the letter." His last statement seems to be the cause for all the trouble. Hayman contends that certain technicalities in the rule book should be overlooked by a referee. Bowman says that rules which should be overlooked should be thrown out of the rule book. To illustrate Hayman's views we would like to say that a penalty called on Gold last night for face-blocking is the only face-blocking penalty called in the Big Six to date. At a conservative estimate we would say that Bowman blew his whistle at least twice in every minute of play. Rules or no rules this was twice too often.

The week-end has a busy time in store for the Student cagers. Tomorrow afternoon at 4.45 p.m. the Varsity intercollegiate intermediate and Big Six squads leave for Hamilton to tangle with McMaster. On Saturday night the Blues play Yolles at West End Y. Two wins out of three would not be too much to expect. The McMaster Big Six squad hasn't lost a game to date and the Blues are determined to start the ball rolling the wrong way for the Baptists.

In yesterday afternoon's interfaculty basketball game the Jr. Meds squad, last year's interfaculty cage champions, made certain of their group title by defeating the Jr. Vic aggregation 40-17. Slowly but surely the basketball situation is beginning to clear up and as the smoke lifts it seems that Sr. S.P.S. and Jr. Meds, last year's finalists, will again be in there when the final fight for the Sifton Cup gets under way.

WATER POLO MATCHES FURNISH SURPRISES

The series has caused considerable surprise so far, inasmuch as Victoria, last year's champions, were eliminated by Trinity. The Trinity team is composed of men with no previous experience in the game. The keenness and general enthusiasm which they have displayed in their practices as well as their games certainly entitled them to win their group. While this was accomplished by good team work, some of the outstanding stalwarts are Stratton, McCarty, Burroughs and Cox.

The Jr. Meds also upset prophecies when they nosed out the favoured Dents team to win their group title.

The Senior School team is generally considered to be the favourite for the interfaculty title. They have won every game up to date, which looks promising for them. Hooper, Bell, Fraser and Woods are players of intercollegiate ability.

U.C. WOMEN SKATERS BLANK MEDS WITH SINGLE

U.C. women's hockey team defeated Meds last night at Stadium Rink by 1-0, the only goal being scored in the last five minutes of play.

The game was slow and provided few interesting moments, the below-zero weather considerably cooling off the enthusiasm of the players. Jean Hoshal and Betty Guest were best for the winners, while Mary Thom and Bliss MacQuarrie turned in good efforts for Meds.

U.C. — Goal, H. McDermott; defence, J. Hoshal (1), D. Prouse; centre, M. Walkom; wings, S. Taylor, C. St. Aubin; alternates, B. Guest, N. Curran, E. Grubin, F. Walters. Meds — Goal, A. Jameson; defence, E. Riggs, P. Gould; centre, M. Thom; wings, M. Bickell, B. MacQuarrie; alternate, M. Greer.

NORM McLELLAND

Flashy centre player of the Varsity hockey team, who adds plenty of speed to the front line.

VAGABONDS BEST LADY PUCKSTERS

Faltering in Second Period Varsity Allows Four Goals

LIVELY BATTLE

Playing a vastly improved game but still a little short in experience, the Varsity women's hockey team went down, battling gamely, to a 6-1 defeat at the hands of the powerful Vagabonds at Varsity Arena last night. On the territorial play the Blue team looked just as good as the winners except for ten minutes in the second period when they faltered, enabling the Vagabonds to score four goals in quick succession.

Varsity skated off with a rush and for the first few minutes dominated the play, showing some nice combination work. Their back checking worried the Vagabonds, Billie Fowler in particular doing good work and stopping Fran Crooks Westman, dangerous scoring threat. The first tally was slipped in by Margot Thompson on a pass to the goal-mouth from Betty Winlow, and the second on a similar play from Fran Westman to Betty Barr. Gladys Munroe, Varsity goalie, who turned in an exceptionally fine game, did not have a chance on either of these shots.

The second period was rather disastrous for the Varsity squad who after opening up with a rush, faded badly, and allowed the Vagabonds to run in three goals in the first half of the session. Fran Westman added another on one of her rushes before the period ended. Varsity made another bid in the dying moments of the stanza, with Billie Fowler counting in on a beautiful shot after a solo rush.

Varsity tightened up in the last period, and playing heads-up hockey, held the winners scoreless and forced the play into the Vagabonds' defensive area. The work of the Varsity defence, Mary Rous and Charity Grant, (Continued on Page 4)

ARCADIAN COURT

caters for

- teas
- balls
- bridges
- dinners
- at-homes
- receptions
- frat parties

telephone the Hostess - Adelaide 8711

THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

Our representative will interview applicants in the Debates Room today (Thurs.) from 1.30-4.00.

SR. U.C. SWAMP TEACHERS BY OVERWHELMING MARGIN

Score of 33-4 Features Interfaculty Baseball Tilt

Displaying excellent prowess with the willow, Sr. U.C. swamped the O.C.E. aggregation by the score of 33-4 in an interfaculty baseball fixture staged in Hart House yesterday afternoon. The game was not very exciting, but it produced one of the finest games of the season.

The U.C. squad was minus their star hurler, Robbins, but Shulman, who undertook the twirling duties for the Red squad, turned in a fine game after getting off to a very shaky start, in which the Teachers scored all their runs.

Sr. U.C. — Himel, Luckett, Hass, Warner, Kerlie, Karr, Gray, Haig, Shulman.

O.C.E. — Scollie Mason, McKillan, Davidson, Inkster, Moffatt, MacDonald, Shaver, Vyvyan.

Umpires—Carveth, Dyke.

You have been to the rest
Now come to "the" best
Only $4.00 to make the test

SCHOOL AT-HOME

Royal York Hotel
Friday, February 16th
Dancing until 3 a.m.

Floor Show
Wright Bros. Orchestra
Sit Down Supper

Coming Events

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8
8.15—Political Science Club: Dr. Innis on "The Economic Scientist and the Canadian Problem". Blue Room, Wymilwood.
5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club in the Hart House Music Room.
6.45 p.m.—Rowing Club dinner in the Graduates Dining Room, Hart House. Please sign list in Rowing Room.
8.30 p.m.—Professor Felix Walter will speak to the Anti-War Society on "The Pacifist Dilemma in France" in the common room of the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street.
U.C. Parliamentary Club.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9
4.6 p.m.—Women's S.C.M. tea in Wymilwood for Miss Margaret Kinney.
Annual Loretto Abbey College At-Home in the Crystal Ballroom of the Royal York Hotel. Leo Romanelli's orchestra.
6.1—School of Nursing At-Home. Victoria College at-home. Dancing 9 to 2. Music by Stanley St. John and his orchestra.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10
8 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., 205 Madison.
3.30 p.m.—Trinity College Library. The Hon. Senator Cote, K.C., LL.D., on Jacques Cartier, 400th anniversary of the discovery of Canada.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11
11 a.m.—Professor Gregory Vlastos of Queen's will address a special S.C.M. Chapel Service in Emmanuel College Chapel. All students welcome.

NIAGARA CAGERS DEFEAT BLUES

(Continued from Page 3)
the half ended with Niagara Falls leading 21-14.

The Blues started the second half with the old fighting spirit clearly evident and soon had the score at 21-20 in favour of the Falls. However, at this point the entire Varsity squad faded badly and played scramble ball during the rest of the game. Just at about this time the "Ejection Parade" began, with Campaigne, Hillshiem, McVeigh and Parker of the Falls, and Gold Mitchell, Sniderman and Kaplan getting the gate. This disrupted the play of both teams. However the Power squad adjusted their play to Referee Bowman's whistle-blowing, while the Blues didn't. The Falls eagles sank shots fast and often while the Blues just had no luck at all on their shots. With about eight minutes to go to full time the Blues became desperate and the Falls defensive system let down long enough for the Haymanites to run in a few baskets. Play ended with Varsity pressing hard but still being outkicked on their shots.

The outstanding player on the floor was Haini of Niagara Falls. In addition to being top scorer of the contest with 17 points, Haini played a very heady game and accounted for many point-producing plays. Parker and Hillshiem of the Falls also turned in creditable performances. For Varsity Sniderman again played heads-up ball, while Bodrug worked ceaselessly in an effort to make things favourable for the Blues. The rest of the team, except Gold, had a decided off-night.

Varsity — Bodrug 7, Young 3, Mitchell 1, Prince, Sniderman 9, Gold 2, Gordon 3, Levy 2, Willis 5, Kaplan. Niagara Falls — Harris, McCutcheon 3, Campaigne, Zimmerman 2, McVeigh 1, Haini 17, Parker 8, Hillshiem 7, Wetsover 4, Carter.

Classified Advertisements

THE HOSTESS DRAWING ROOM
Toronto's unique social rendezvous, where you may entertain graciously, economically and without personal effort. Reserve your dates for bridges, teas, receptions, banquets, business meetings, etc. 891 Bay St. between Grosvenor and Broad-albani. Ki. 9861.

PRIVATE TUTOR

M.A., Oxford, Latin, English, History, Mathematics, French, and special subjects. Midway 3110.

NAME YOUR BABY HE'LL KEEP IT—MAYBE

(Continued from Page 1)
Interesting antiquarian note: "FreeLove (Usage) This name was bestowed upon girls of highly respected New England families in late Puritan days, evidently through a misconception of the practices advocated by the apostles of its creed; but enlightenment evidently came, for within a few years it was discarded abruptly."

Brischia, see Bridget
"Bridget (Celtic) Strong one.
Sweet Bridget bluish'd and there-withall
Fresh blossoms from her cheeks did fall.—Robert Herrick."

S.C.M. CORNER

(Continued from Page 1)
start building from the foundations. But these are not the things of paramount importance. The superimposing of any one type of government, while it might be more or less expedient, is at best only a short run policy, an artificial means of directing human life. No order will be good in the truest sense, nor will it be lasting, until the people within it are in accord with Him who said "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind, . . . and thy neighbour as thyself."

For the S.C.M. as an organization to be identified with one political theory only would be as disastrous—and as childish—as for it to champion one school of art to the exclusion of all others. The standard by which the S.C.M. must judge and the basis upon which it must act will be more clearly understood if we keep the emphasis where it belongs—on the word Christian.

SNAPPY SCRAP TONIGHT IN SENIOR O.H.A. FIXTURE

(Continued from Page 1)
their best at all times, giving the opposition goal tenders plenty of work, while the sturdy defence of Farrell and Radke give Marsh, the cool goal custodian of the Hamilton Tigers for the last four years, good protection. Cunningham and McClelland, centre and alternate at the pivot position respectively, will lead the Blue and White attack, ably assisted by the fast shooting Hendry and Jimmy MacPherson, while Ray and Fullerton, the Varsity defence pair, with Campbell as relief man, will endeavour to check the fast Tiger forwards from taking shots from close in on Frank Shipp, the reliable Varsity goal custodian. From start to finish the game should result in a thrilling encounter, as Varsity are determined to avenge the loss sustained last week.

COURSE IN DRAMATICS FAVOURED BY MASSEY

(Continued from Page 1)
resses, were the advisers all through the tedious job of getting the lighting in the correct effects and were the diligent supervisors of placing the cruel "tormentors". The whole afternoon was a thrill probably never to be equaled to the mere amateur observer. In a spare moment I arranged to see Mr. Massey at some less busy time. And to add to the list of experiences in the career of your Varsity interviewer, it was arranged that I see him while he was putting on his make-up before the matinee yesterday.

As Mr. Massey was tugging on a pair of high riding boots we discussed the London stage. Mr. Shaw's latest play, "On the Rocks", we learned "was not doing so well", but that in proportion to the number of theatres London was having a better season than that of New York's. Mr. Massey began reminiscing about other London seasons. I asked him about "Miracle at Verdun" which the Players' Guild once thought of producing, and Mr. Massey made some very nice remarks about the "greatness" of the play, and then he made some remarks about propaganda from the stage. "Propaganda in the theatre is wrong if done consciously. The theatre provides emotional stimulus, sometimes more simply it provides entertainment. If propaganda supplies a means of arousing the emotional reaction it can find a legitimate place."

Recently an English actor appearing here was a bit contemptuous of the whole so-called Little Theatre movement. Mr. Massey disagreed and had only complimentary remarks to make concerning the increasing interest in dramas. "The activity of amateur groups in northern England is ex-

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

VIC MUSICALE TICKETS

Sign the list for double tickets in the college hall today from 1.45 to 2 p.m. The tickets will be given out on Friday at the same time.

MEDS S.C.M.

Monday, February 12, 5 p.m., Meds S.C.M. group in S.C.M. library, Hart House. Dr. Hall will lead the discussion.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

A full attendance is requested at the meeting at 4 p.m. today in view of the near approach of the Recital on Friday the 23rd. Meetings on Monday and Wednesday till the Recital, in Hart House Music Room. Please bring in music sheets.

O.C.E. MEN

Sign Friday morning for tickets to the Hart House Sunday Evening Concert. Tickets will be given out before 9 a.m.

ANTI-WAR SOCIETY

Professor Felix Walter will speak to the Anti-War Society on "The Pacifist Dilemma in France" tonight at 8.30 in the Common Room of the Women's Union. Further preparations for the publication of a paper and other activities will also be discussed. All those interested are invited to attend.

remely interesting, although there is not so much happening in other sections. They are doing a lot of experimental work and are stimulating a country-wide interest in the theatre." When questioned on college dramas in England, Mr. Raymond Massey could only say, "At Oxford and Cambridge the students are lamentably apathetic to dramas and they do not seem to be able to produce anything good at all. They lack initiative and they are dramatically sterile."

By this time it had been a good fifteen minutes since the quarter hour call had gone around and Mr. Massey had become transformed from a gallant cosmopolitan man-about-town into a tanned country gentleman and I left as the curtain was about to rise, armed with a tentative promise that Mr. Massey would come up to speak to the students at the University.

PARODY OF BIBLE DOOMED TO FAIL

(Continued from Page 1)
freedom of conscience and of religion, and Hitler, inflamed by his own power, will find that in this matter he has met real opposition."

"The whole thing is a madhouse," stated Professor Bryden, Doctor of Theology at Knox College, "and we take it too seriously. There is no religion between Aryanism and Christianity. I do not believe the Hitlerites have much backing in this policy, and with such a tremendous reaction in the German church, it may have effect while the Germans themselves fear Hitler, but it will break up eventually. You cannot manufacture a religion; it grows out of people's souls. Forcing a creed upon a nation has failed before and it will smash the government which tries it again."

Professor Kingston, Ph.D., of the Theology Department of Trinity College, declared that he did not know to what extent the report was actually true. "It would seem rather incredible and altogether unwarranted," was his reply. "Literature to be good literature, must spring spontaneously from the people, it cannot be artificial. The same is true of religion."

VAGABONDS BEST LAOY PUCKSTERS

(Continued from Page 3)
was outstanding.

Vagabonds — Goal, M. Boulby; defence, F. Westman, M. Porter; centre, M. Thompson; wings, B. Barr, B. Winlow; alternates, E. Broad, H. Anderson.

Varsity — Goal, G. Munroe; defence, M. Rous, C. Grant; centre, B. Fowler; wings, E. Sanson, J. Atkinson; alternates, B. Mark, J. Hogg, P. Thompson, M. Morris.

VIC MUSIC CLUB

The attendance of all members of the Music Club is called to the meeting to be held today at 1.25 in Alumni Hall. Since plans for the party and for the rest of the year will be discussed it is imperative that every member be present. If you have not yet paid for your score (or returned it), please do so today.

POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB

Dr. Innis will address the club on "The Economic Scientist and the Canadian Problem" on Thurs. Feb. 8 at Wymilwood, Blue Room.

SCHOOL AT-HOME

The list for the greatest of university parties will open at the Engineering Society office at 9 a.m. Assure yourself of a ticket by signing early. A word of warning to the wise should be sufficient.

VIC AT-HOME

There are still some students who have not called for their tickets and who may get them today (Thurs.), at 1.30 in the college hall. There are also a few tickets for any who have not signed.

PHILOSOPHICAL CLUB

Meeting tonight at the Women's Union at 8 p.m. The paper will be given by Mr. J. Hinchcliffe, on "Judgments".

NEW SYSTEM HELPFUL TO LONESOME MALES

(Continued from Page 1)
asking her to the dance." So far there have been no applications, but Mr. Smith is still hopeful.

Jean Hunnisset of U.C. is interested in Mr. Smith's plan in the hope that something akin to it may possibly be developed for class parties and year parties at U.C.

Ben Ball, 4th year president of U.C., was of the opinion that few U.C. men lacked women admirers, but he is so anxious to see a crowd at the Junior-Senior dance next week that he has agreed to furnish lady partners for any bashful young men wishing them.

"I'd be willing to take a chance on an inexpensive dance."

was the sentiment expressed by most of the men interviewed who were in favour of the establishment of a date bureau. Some, of course, have had consistently bad luck on "blind dates" and were consequently pessimistic of the success of such a venture.

Hugh Housen, IV U.C., would willingly, in fact gladly, apply to the bureau for such dances as the U.C. Follies, School Nite, Honour Science Dances or class parties, but would prefer to take someone whom he knew fairly well to such dances as the Masquerade, Arts Ball, or School At-Home.

Alex MacNaughton, I Trinity, explained that if he were a bashful youth and wanted to go to a dance he would apply to a date bureau but believed that it would only be fair for the girl to go "Dutch".

CHEMISTRY OF RUBBER DISCUSSED IN SEMINAR

(Continued from Page 1)
compounds formed from rubber. Rubber is attacked by the oxygen of the air, forming resinous compounds. This reaction is accelerated by light and heat. Purified rubber is attacked more readily than crude rubber, since the latter contains substances which slow up the reaction.

The next seminar, to be held next Wednesday, will be addressed by Mr. W. G. More, on the subject of "Organic Reagents in the Determination of Copper".

EXAM METHOOS ARE AOEQUATE

(Continued from Page 1)
have been very few cases of imperup to see that no errors crop up. There sonation at this University because as a rule, declared Mr. Laidlaw, the students of this University are honest.

The VALUE of a BANKING CONNECTION

The business or professional man knows the true value of his bank . . . it is an essential part in his daily life.

During college days a banking connection may be established which will prove useful now in helping you to build up a success fund, and of advantage later when you enter business or professional life.

The Bank of Montreal welcomes your account as a student and, with its long experience, great resources and nation-wide organization, it is in a position to give you helpful service wherever you may live in later years.

BANK OF MONTREAL

Established 1817

MODERN, EFFICIENT BANKING SERVICE

. . . the outcome of 116 years' successful operation

TOTAL ASSETS IN EXCESS OF $750,000,000

In any case, such matters can be easily read laboratory reports and other regular work of his students he is quite detected and dealt with immediately. It is at times difficult to choose a sufficient number of satisfactory pseudonyms to be no effective disguise of the identity of the writers. Thus this subterfuge is really no protection to the students in a course of this kind. The system came to be a farce, and the faculty, realizing this, abolished the system, which, besides being of no advantage, involved superfluous systematizing.

PARISIAN RIOTS CAUSE FOR ALARM

(Continued from Page 1)

cult to know what is the exact state of affairs in France," Professor De Champs pointed out. However, there are several features which stand out as contributing to the present situation in Paris.

First of all there is general suffering and discontent due to the present economic crisis which is very severe in France. Secondly, the civil servants are discontented because of wage cuts.

Thirdly, the pawnshop scandal, in which the government was involved to some extent, has caused a considerable loss to investors and brought condemnation on the government.

Finally the dismissal of the Paris Chief of Police because of some Royalist demonstration which was allowed to take place has aroused discontent in several quarters. All these factors contribute to the general unrest which has broken out with rioting in Paris.

The centre of the Communist element is in the cities near Paris. In these cities there are large numbers of industrial workers who have Communist tendencies.

Did You Ever See A Quintet of Five Trombones playing in Unison?

This is only one of the novel features at the

VARSITY BAND CONCERT

at Convocation Hall, Tuesday, February 20th

8.15 p.m.

Tickets on sale S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Room 82, U.C., and from Band Members.

See one from your faculty.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9th, 1934

No. 82

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Yesterday's 17-below-zero average was the coldest day in the history of Toronto. No relief is expected until tomorrow morning.

Paris—All workers were asked to join in a general strike next Monday. The city was in a smouldering quiet yesterday as the populace waited for Premier-Designate Doumergue's next move. A demand for the restoration of the monarchy reached here by courier from the Duc de Guise, pretender to the throne.

Sioux Falls—Verne Sankey, confessed kidnapper and suspect in the Lindbergh case, hung himself in a prison cell last night.

Vienna—A plot by Bolsheviks and Marxists was uncovered by police, when they raided Socialist centres and seized bombs and munitions capable of destroying entire sections of the city.

The Leafs were held to a 3-all tie by the Americans last night, and Charlie Sands was carried off the ice with what was believed to be an injury to his spine.

WEATHER MAXIMS NOT RELIABLE

Merely Local Significance
Meteorological Office Claims

SKY SIGNS DISCREDITED

"Sky signs cannot be looked upon as very reliable weather signs," said Mr. W. E. W. Jackson of the Meteorological Office, when questioned by The Varsity about a recent article on the infallibility of popular weather sayings. "They are merely of local significance and therefore of very little practical use."

Most sky signs are the result of general atmospheric movements which really determine the weather and only in so far as they are the result of these movements can they be relied upon. "Rain before seven, fine before eleven," one of the most generally accepted maxims of old weather lore, is usually true only because a severe storm very rarely lasts for more than four hours and after a storm the weather always becomes fine. Halos which are regarded as an ominous portent are the result of the formation of ice particles in the atmosphere through which the sun is reflected and the colours which we see are those which are reflected by a prism. It depends, however, upon whether the halo is seen in the eastern or western portion of the sky before its significance can really be determined.

VICTORIA AT-HOME

R. C. Todd, chairman of the committee in charge of the Victoria College At-Home, which is being held in Hart House this evening from nine till two, has informed The Varsity that the patronesses of this brilliant affair will be: Mrs. H. J. Cody, Mrs. W. T. Brown, Mrs. Leopold Macaulay, Mrs. E. W. Wallace, Mrs. R. Y. Eaton, Mrs. H. Linton, Mrs. A. Hampson, Dr. Norma Ford and Miss Muriel Manning.

Some six hundred guests are expected in Hart House tonight, The Varsity was informed. Stanley St. John will provide music in the big gymnasium for the dancers, and a sit-down supper will be served in the Great Hall at 10.45. A second supper will be served at 12.15.

U.C. PARLIAMENTARY CLUB DIVIDED ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS QUESTION ### ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

The celebration of the Eightieth Anniversary of the University College Literary and Athletic Society, by the Hon. Sir Adam Crooks, will take place on Thursday, February 22nd, 1934. A special programme, befitting this gala occasion, has been arranged, including a special session of the University College Parliament in the afternoon, a commemorative dinner in the Great Hall of Hart House, and a regular meeting of the society in the historic Junior Common Room. As large numbers of graduates will undoubtedly wish to be present, active members of the "Lit." are advised to make their arrangements early to attend these functions. Please see the notice boards for further details.

FRENCH PACIFISTS FACE DILEMMA

Main Function of Fascism Preparation for War in Future

ANTI-WAR SOCIETY MEETS

"The great dilemma of the French pacifists is due to a series of events which have taken place in the last twelve months outside the borders of France, namely the growth of Fascism in Germany," stated Professor Felix Walter in an address to the Anti-War Society last night, "and the main function of Fascism is preparation for a future war."

Professor Walter explained that in France, as in other countries, pacifism was a well-supported movement, but that a sharp cleavage existed among the various types of pacifists. Describing these types, he included the "status quo pacifist," who is not really a pacifist at all but an opportunist who sees that his country has got as much as it can from the last war and wants peace to maintain the status quo; the Briandists, now disappearing; the conscientious objector for religious reasons and the objector on philosophical grounds. (Continued on Page 4)

SELF-SACRIFICING SPIRIT LACKING IN CANADA

The Dominion Avoids Taking Dramatic Steps Like Those of U.S.A.

"You can put over a political revolution but not a religious revolution," said Mr. Earl Lautenslager, in his talk to the Current Events Group of Victoria College at Wymilwood yesterday. He pointed this out in connection with the remodelling of the German Bible which has caused so much discussion of late.

"Some good has come from Fascism when the German people will sacrifice part of their Sunday dinner once a month to bring food to the poor," said Mr. Lautenslager. "There is much brutality in Germany but we haven't got enough of the self-sacrificing spirit in Canada to do that."

"Premier Bennett's announcement at a banquet at the Royal York recently—that Canada will not take any dramatic steps like the United States, but will pull through by hard work and thrift—is a difficult thing to say before unemployed men," remarked Mr. Lautenslager. "This is the difference between planned economy and laissez faire."

"Canada has acted in the typical Benettonian fashion in doing nothing drastic," said Mr. Lautenslager in referring to Canada's reaction to the (Continued on Page 4)

Tie Vote Swayed by Speaker in Favour of Opposition Platform

LEAGUE TOO IDEALISTIC

Only Sane Way to Protect Canada from War is Withdrawal

A defeated motion "Resolved that this House has every confidence in, and will continue to be a member of, the League of Nations", was the result of the debate of the U.C. Parliamentary Club yesterday afternoon. The struggle was quite close and the House turned in a tie vote which was swayed in favour of the Opposition by the vote of the Speaker.

The Government, which was represented by Messrs. Keenan, Gray and Stobie, voiced its approval in the strongest of terms. "The League of Nations represents the greatest step that was ever taken towards world peace. We are behind it in every respect and are morally bound to continue in its support." "The prestige of Canada has been greatly increased by membership in it and we have at the same time maintained our political independence." "The League has been attacked as being idealistic, and many have found fault with it on that account, but there has never been a movement towards world improvement which has not been idealistic, and this (Continued on Page 4)

CANADA MUST DEVELOP AS UNIT, SAYS INNIS

Restored Equilibrium of Prices Would Benefit the Country

"The development of Canada as a unit must be kept in the foreground in attempting to deal with the depression here," stated Dr. Innis, in his address to the Political Science Club at Wymilwood on Thursday evening. "The West should never be developed so that the East may lose, or vice versa, especially as the trend has always been for the West or the Maritimes, for example, to blame Central Canada for its misfortunes."

We still talk in democratic principles, but there is a tendency toward centralization developing here, for which we should be thankful.

The low price and low yield of wheat in the West is a serious factor in the depression here. There is a decline (Continued on Page 4)

QUEEN'S STUDENTS DECLARE 'NECKING' IN POOR TASTE

Faculty Formals Occasion for Promiscuous Petting, is Claim

"ALL RIGHT IN ITS PLACE"

Statement of Queen's Editor
Supported by Toronto
Students

Kingston, Feb. 8.—Student feeling, as expressed in the Queen's University Journal, appeared against "necking". In an editorial regarding "formal necking" (a formal is a college social function), the paper said:

"The science formal with its attendant celebrations looms in the immediate offing. For the past few years at all faculty formals by the time the dance gets well under way, lights are doused, the room is in total darkness and smooching reigns supreme, punctuated by glowing cigarettes."

"We of Queen's pride ourselves on our ability to acquire knowledge—yet we indulge in childlike love-making which is not only promiscuous but is distinctly poor taste at an important college function."

"It reflects unfavourably on ourselves and adds nothing to our reputation among outsiders. The science formal committee would do well to inaugurate a new deal by seeing that the lights in the dark rooms are kept burning."

The Varsity attempted to find out the opinions of the students of the University of Toronto on this vital subject.

"The influence of necking has increased, is increasing, and ought to be (Continued on Page 4)

MCGILL MOCK PARLIAMENT ACCLAIMS C.C.F. POLICY

Government Denounced As Impractical by Bell

Montreal, Que., Feb. 8 (CIP)—By an overwhelming majority of hilariously jubilant supporters, the policies of the C.C.F. were acclaimed as offering the greatest possibilities of benefit to the Canadian citizen at last night's special session of the mock parliament held in the Union ballroom at McGill University before an audience of 300. The motion, championed (Continued on Page 4)

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY AMENDMENTS BARS FRATERNITIES ON CAMPUS

FRANK SHIPP

Who has been doing fine work in the Varsity nets all season and will likely prove a stumbling block for the McGill sharpshooters here Saturday.

BLUE PUCKSTERS FACE FINAL TEST

Must Defeat Western in Saturday's Game to Meet Redmen

Varsity TEAM IMPROVES

Saturday night at Varsity Arena Warrant Stevens' boys are facing their big test in the intercollegiate hockey series. Once again optimism reigns in the Blue camp as the boys tune up for this all important engagement. The reasons are clear, Western is in the intercollegiate series. And that means a home and home series with games to count and not goals. No longer does that five goal deficit chalked up in Montreal last week loom up as an insurmountable barrier, an obstacle barring the way to an intercollegiate title. Now it's just another game which a victory tomorrow night will make up for. Should Varsity win tomorrow they stand an even break for a championship. Western, recently admitted to the circuit, will probably be weak and Varsity (Continued on Page 3)

"Varsity" Advertisements Bring Fine Results

As an advertising medium, The Varsity is meeting with considerable approval among undergraduates, judging from the following letter, which was received by the business office yesterday. The Varsity reaches more students than any other means, and many organizations have found it of decided advantage to inform everyone of their activities through the advertising columns. This letter demonstrates what more than one organization has often proved.

Mr. MacDonald,
Advertising Manager,
The Varsity,
University of Toronto.

Dear Sir:

In planning for the Annual At-Home of the Engineering Society the Committee decided that the general student body should be sufficiently advised of the grandeur of this function by a good system of advertising. We determined to try The Varsity as a means of advertising and inserted several streamer notices therein. The results derived from this inexpensive medium have proved highly satisfactory and beyond our greatest expectations.

The assured success of the 1934 School At-Home will be largely due (Continued on Page 4)

Affects Three Star Players of 1934 Football
Team

DRAW SOCIAL DISTINCTION?

Toronto Students Disagree Concerning Dangers of Fraternities

By John T. Stubbs

An amendment to the constitution of the Alma Mater Society of Queen's University, which was passed by a large majority of students at a mass meeting held Wednesday, will bar at least three star football players from the senior football team of 1934. The amendment prohibits the existence of fraternities on the campus and places a penalty of not less than one academic year's debarment from social, political and athletic activities on all students who are members of fraternities.

This action on the part of the A.M.S. may serve to shatter the much-flourished hopes of the Tricolour grid team for an intercollegiate title next season as it will prevent Captain How Hamlin, Bill Glas, Dafeo, Red McNichol and perhaps others from playing. These three men have voiced their intention of remaining attached to their fraternity.

The chief reason for their latest move against fraternities as expressed by the A.M.S. is the fact that fraternities draw a social line of distinction between fraternity men and non-members of these secret organizations, one of which has existed for ten years and another for three. Attention was drawn by the speakers to the harm done by fraternities at the University of Toronto and at McGill University by these organizations and the detrimental effect they have on social, political and athletic activities in these universities.

(Continued on Page 3)

EXTENSION WORK BENEFITS MANY

Includes Sanitarium Classes,
Workingmen's Groups, and Night Lectures

RADIO AIDS EDUCATION

Mr. Dunlop, of the University Extension, when questioned by The Varsity about some of the recent work done by the Extension, replied with the following:

"One of the recent interesting accomplishments of the Extension was the establishing of classes at the Hamilton Sanitarium for Tuberculosis. Dr. Holbrook, the superintendent of the institution, wrote to me about the problem of attempting educational courses for the patients."

"Accompanied by a professor from McMaster I visited the institution. We found many of the patients had a considerable education, some of them had attended universities and these were left in charge of the McMaster professor for direct instruction."

"The number that could be dealt with this way were few and the question was, what to do with the rest?"

"Every patient is equipped with radio carphones and this simplified matters. I recommended Professor MacDonald's Book Review broadcasts. Also there is broadcast every week lectures by professors from one of the seven universities in Eastern Canada and this is tuned in for the patients."

"But besides this something of a definite nature was needed. The employees of the Sanitarium were formed into a 'Worker's Educational Association'. This association meets every (Continued on Page 4)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper
Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night 'Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35,
Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Florence R. King Assistant—Marion E. Ridout

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9th, 1934

SHALL WE FOLLOW THE EXAMPLE OF QUEEN'S?

The situation at Queen's University is attracting more attention than any other action of student governments at the present time; that a university on this continent should by consent of the student body, totally eliminate fraternities from the campus has many implications, especially to the alumni, undergraduates and staff of universities faced with a similar situation.

There is, however, very little correspondence between the situation in Kingston and the one here. Queen's University finds itself in a small centre; the unity of the student body is as they themselves recognize, a very remarkable thing, and it is with great foresight that they have banned fraternal organizations of any kind among the students. To be or not to be a mason may become a serious problem for the Queen's man, who knows?

The principles that prompted their action have no application on our campus. There are many who would like to draw a parallel, saying that in a university the nearest approach to ideal conditions of living may be found; that the existence of fraternities is in opposition to democratic conditions that should exist in such a body, and finally that fraternities encourage students to devote a too great proportion of their time to social activities.

It is obvious in the first place that a city as large as Toronto would make impossible the existence of absolute unity in any student body. When such a large proportion of the students have homes in the city and their only social contacts come through small groups it is evident that some organization will be found. Moreover not only the size of the city in which we are situated but also that of the student body itself prohibits the kind of unity for which the Tricolour have always been famous. That we are divided into faculties and colleges is indicative of the fact that some division is necessary; that the college and faculty divisions are even smaller in other universities where the numbers are unwieldy is even further indication that these divisions are beneficial.

Apart from the necessity of cliques or fraternities of a more or less social nature on our campus, there seems to be no apparent need for adverse criticism of these bodies as we find them. Fraternities do not attempt to create any sharp division among the student body or to make distinctions of a dangerous and anti-social nature; they do offer a means of social intercourse that would be otherwise impossible since our system of residences is so inadequate and the opportunities so few for city and out-of-town students to meet. While they are not officially recognized by the Caput they form an integral part of student life in the University of Toronto—a valuable part indeed—and as such they merit the respect that is accorded them.

THE QUEEN'S JOURNAL PLAINT

An editorial, deploring the necking (vulgar word) which takes place at Formal Dances at Queen's University, is reprinted from the Journal in today's issue of The Varsity. With a certain naivete obtaining only at Kingston and with the wholesome righteous indignation of the reformer, the editor admits that such promiscuous and erotic diversions "reflect unfavourably on ourselves and add nothing to our reputation among outsiders." The Varsity doesn't doubt it for a moment, and will support the editor in this assertion on every possible occasion. The Tricolour scribe concludes his article by calling upon the science formal committee to "keep the lights burning" in the "dark rooms" in an effort to stem the tide of osculation at Queen's dances.

It is regrettable that the morality—or should we say the good taste—of the students at Queen's University has reached such a low ebb as to provoke an article so startling as the one in question. It has been found at Varsity, however, that a reliance upon the discretion of the students has proved sufficient.

ACCOUNTANTS' RESULTS

The results of the December examinations of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario have recently been published. The first place in the final examination was filled by J. R.

M. Wilson, a graduate in Political Science; the first place in the intermediate examination by H. B. Clearhue, a graduate in Commerce and Finance. Out of the 57 successful candidates in the intermediate, 10 took the C. and F. course.

Art, Music and Drama

Friday Afternoon Recital

A FRENCH programme has been arranged for today's recital, which will take place at 5 p.m. on 9th February in the Music Room of Hart House as follows:

I
Bonjour Suzon ..... Delibes
Pensee d'automne ..... Massenet
L'Anneau d'Argent ..... Chaminade
Ivy Dale, mezzo-soprano
Louis Crerar, at the piano

II
Suite ..... Poulenc
presto andante vit
Frederick B. Skitch, pianist

III
La Cloche ..... Saint-Saens
Les Papillons ..... Chausson
Après en Reve ..... Faure
Ivy Dale

IV
Sonatine ..... Ravel modere mouvement de menuet anime
Frederick B. Skitch

V
La Chevelure ..... Debussy
Psyche ..... Paladilhe
Habenera (Carmen) ..... Bizet
Ivy Dale

VI
Voiles ..... Debussy
Poissons d'Or ..... Debussy
Frederick B. Skitch

St. Thomas' Church

After Evensong, Sunday, Feb. 11th at 7 p.m., there will be an Organ and Choral Recital at St. Thomas' Church, Huron Street. Among the numbers on the programme are "Pastorale" (Scazzati), "Prelude and Fugue in B flat" (Bach), "Largo", from the New World Symphony Returning home after his visit to the Varsity office, Shylock Jones was in one of his most optimistic moods. "Depend upon it, Flotsam," he assured me, "we have at last unearthed a definite clue to the mystery of the Feature Editor. Now if I can only keep that idiot Advance from interfering with my investigations, the task should prove a simple matter of deduction."

As we were leaving Wynmildwood, a rather well-known local apartment-house with no mean reputation in the neighbourhood, Jones remarked, "If you're in a hurry, Flotsam, I'd like to drop in here a moment. I have a room reserved here in order to conceal my real headquarters, and I rather think we'll find traces of a visitor." So saying, he led the way to a distant section of the building where we would be little disturbed by the orgies (if any) of the other residents and closely examined one of the door-ways.

"Just as I thought," he remarked, "File Advance has been here before us. Observe that the single strand of a spider's web which I placed across the door-jamb is severed. I really hadn't thought that even Advance would have been caught by so simple a subterfuge; it should be apparent to any intelligent amateur. But apparently there are no depths of stupidity which he cannot plumb. The man is a menace to society, Flotsam, a veritable menace. Let us see what other blunders he has perpetrated."

St. Paul's Church

Bloor Street East

THE RT. REV. R. J. RENISON,
Rector

University students are specially invited to the Sunday Evening Services at 7 o'clock.

(Dvorak), and "Festival Toccata" (Fletcher). The Choir will assist, singing a Choral from a Church Cantata, No. 22, "Awake us, Lord, and hasten," and Mozart's setting of "When I survey the wondrous Cross," with Mr. LaVoie, basso, singing the solo passages. Master Arthur Cooper sings an aria from Handel's "Theodora," "Angels ever bright and fair".

The Half Hour of Choral music over CFRB at 5.45 p.m. on Sunday will include Arcadelt's "Ave Maria" and an Excerpt from Dr. Nicholson's Oratorio "God is Love". Master Paul Foskett sings a setting of the prayer of St. Thomas' Aquinas "Anima Christi", and Master Barry Jones sings an aria from Mendelssohn's "St. Paul". The broadcast concludes with Mozart's setting of the well-known Hymn "When I survey the wondrous Cross".

Madison Theatre

Road to Life, the first Russian talking picture ever produced, is making an exclusive appearance at the Madison Theatre, for one week only, commencing Mon. Feb. 19th. It is a startling drama of Russia's wild children, orphaned by war and famine, these roving bands of boys and girls left to their own resources, pillaged and committed deeds of violence in order to exist. The picture is based on actual fact and the "actors" are really the wolf children themselves and not professional screen stars. You are made to feel that the wickedness of these waifs is not intrinsic but the result of environment. T. Kryla, as the leader of the boy vagabonds with his engaging grin, the most likeable yet described by the camera, walks away with the picture. In Road to Life, the most impressive of its many virtues is its utter sincerity and honesty, devoid of all pretence and artificiality. (Continued on Page 4)

Whipping out a folded paper of finely powdered chalk and the omnipresent magnifying glass, he painstakingly scrutinized the door-knob and key-hole. "Hal!" he exclaimed, "a perfect set of finger-prints. Photograph them, Flotsam, and you might file this small hair adhering to the key-hole in my records. I believe we shall find it matches Advance's eyebrows."

Entering the room, Jones crossed over to his desk, examined it closely, and suddenly began to chuckle. In a moment the chuckle gave way to a paroxysm of laughter which was so hearty I very nearly began to apprehend an apoplectic fit. "Ah, my dear Flotsam," he said when finally he was able to talk, "I think we have nothing more to fear from Advance's meddling. The trap has been sprung perfectly." (Continued on Page 4)

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject Sunday: "SPIRIT"
First Church of Christ, Scientist
St. George St. at Lower Ave.
Close to residences and fraternity houses
Sunday Services 11 a.m., 7.30 p.m.
The morning service is broadcast over CFRB. A Sunday School for students under twenty is held at 11 a.m.
On Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the main auditorium is held a meeting at which Testimonies of Christian Science Healing are given.
Downtown on the 15th floor of the Metropolitan Bldg., Adelaide at Victoria, a Free Public Reading Room is open from 9.30 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily except Sunday, for rest, quiet meditation and study, where the Bible and authorized Christian Science literature including the text book, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, may be read, borrowed or purchased.
Each and every student is cordially invited to attend the services, and to enjoy the privilege of the reading room.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH
Huron Street—Just below Bloor
Holy Eucharists at 7 a.m., 8 a.m. and 9.30 a.m.

11 a.m.—Choral Eucharist
Service in A minor - Lovelock
Preacher, The Rev. E. R. Normanbell, L.S.T.
Motet, "Anima Christi" Nicholson

7 p.m.—Choral Evensong
Preacher, Rev. H. R. Mockridge,
Rector of All Hallows Church
Anthem, "Lord for Thy tender mercy" Farrant

Broadcast of Choral Music over CFRB, 5.45 p.m.
Short Recital of Organ and Choral Music at Evensong, works by Scarlatti, Bach, Handel, Mozart, Dvorak and Fletcher.

GREATER MADISON

BLOOR AT BATHURST

EXCLUSIVE SHOWING

RUSSIA'S FIRST TALKING PICTURE
(English Titles)

SENSATIONAL DRAMATIC STORY

OF

The "Wild Children" of Russia
ROAD TO LIFE

The camera turned into the streets of Moscow to give you the tragedy of a great nation.

CRITICS SAY:—

One of the three exceptional pictures among the 46 shown on Broadway this season.—New York World Telegram.

One of the best 10 pictures produced anywhere in the world.—Tagblatt-Berlin

ONE WEEK MON., FEB. 19th TWICE NIGHTLY—7.30-9.30 p.m.
25c., 30c. tax included

WILL NOT BE SHOWN IN TORONTO AGAIN FOR MONTHS

A Vice-President writes . . .

"I am a confirmed pipe smoker, and have used your 'Wakefield' English Mixture for some time. I like the coarse manner in which this tobacco is cut, as it seems to burn more freely and one is not smoking matches all the time when using 'Wakefield'."

"I have never tried your Buckingham New Crop pipe tobacco but if it is as good as 'Wakefield', it should be very popular with pipe smokers."

"Yours very truly, J. H. C.—Toronto."

Wakefield

ENGLISH MIXTURE

Packages 15c and 25c Large Home Tin $1.00

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St.
KI. 0991

571 Yonge St.
KI. 3270

Did You Ever See A

Quintet of Five Trombones playing in Unison?

This is only one of the novel features at the

VARSITY BAND CONCERT

at

Convocation Hall, Tuesday, February 20th

8.15 p.m.

Tickets on sale S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Room 82, U.C., and from Band Members.

See one from your faculty.

$1.00 WILL REPAIR YOUR WATCH
NO MATTER HOW BADLY BROKEN
Cleaning, if necessary, 75c. extra
GUARANTEED 2 YEARS
FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY!
CITY WATCH & JEWELRY
HOSPITAL Est. 1921
163-7 Yonge St.—Room 12
OPP. SIMPSON'S TAKE ELEVATOR
MAIL ORDERS—POSTAGE EXTRA

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Step
6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1865

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

McGILL HOCKEY TEAM TO INVADE VARSITY TO-MORROW

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

The St. Hilda's-Vic II encounter, arranged for last night and the two interfaculty games scheduled today have been postponed until next week. This seems like an exceptionally good idea in view of the excessive frigidity of the weather. Women's hockey is a recreation as well as a sport and the two don't combine in below-zero weather. So why bother?

Interfaculty hockey has had a much better chance this year and consequently has aroused a great deal more interest. It has been years since anybody could complain about the weather being too cold. Victoria and St. Hilda's will in all probability be battling it out in the finals. Since the Saints managed to take the basketball championship away from Vic, who knows but what Vic may retaliate by skating off with the hockey title.

U.C. are out of competition chiefly because their best players are on the intercollegiate squad. Tracing it back even further, the majority of the Blue team players learned their hockey at private schools. If collegiates would only add hockey to their sporting curriculum, there would be a great deal more real competition in all the games around here. But that is only a pipe dream!

No answer is possible to a man's criticism of women's hockey. Few women are physically able to play the game as he considers it, but after all why carry out a comparison. Personally we commend all the interfaculty hockeyists for their fine spirit and their evident enjoyment in the game.

The intermediate basketball team has two games arranged. The first of home and home games with Hamilton Normal will be played here on Feb. 16. On Feb. 20 they will meet Runnymede Seniors.

Sport Notices

Interfaculty Water Polo—
No game today.

Track—
Competitors in the field events must be ready at 5 p.m. sharp next Tuesday.

Sr. Vic Basketball—
Game Saturday, 3 p.m., Big Gym, Hart House.

Vic Rugby Team—
Full attendance is urgently requested at Room 28 in the college, Monday at 1.45.

Interfaculty Hockey—
Games this afternoon at Stadium: 4 p.m., Wycliffe vs Knox; 5 p.m., Sr. U.C. vs Sr. Meds.

NELS CRUTCHFIELD

Captain of the McGill Redmen, who meet Varsity in the second game of the series here Saturday night.

HAMILTON TIGERS DEFEAT VARSITY

Clever Back Checking of Bengal Team Ruins Combination Play

FINAL SCORE 9-2

By Frank Lamberti

Unleashing terrific attacks throughout the entire game the league leading Hamilton Tigers subdued the Varsity squad by a score of 9-2 in a very rugged senior O.H.A. fixture played at Varsity Arena last night. Time and again the hard pressing Blue sextet lost golden opportunities to score on the powerful Bengal machine, only to have either the agile Hawse Marsh in the Hamilton nets outguess them or the clever back checking of the Tiger forwards to check their combination plays. For the Tigers the efforts of the fast breaking forwards, Conick, Blake and Bennett were outstanding, nothing seven of the Hamilton goals, while for Varsity MacPherson and McClelland turned in another fine performance of their smooth combination play. Frank Shipp in the Varsity citadel was called upon to make many brilliant saves and his constant alertness kept the score down to nine.

From the opening gong both teams set up a great pace, play alternating quickly, and on a penalty to Howard, husky Hamilton defence man, Varsity took the initiative, playing five forwards up in an effort to tally only to have "Toe" Blake and Max Bennett break away from their checks, to score the first tally after five minutes had elapsed. The Hamilton squad came to score again when Radke tricked the Varsity defence out of position, giving a perfect pass to McGowan, who made no mistake, scoring from close in. Two minutes later on a play similar to the first, Conick and Blake combined to beat Shipp.

In the second stanza the Big Blue team set up a barrage of attacks but to no avail as on each and every occasion Marsh was equal to the task. For half of the period, the clever sorties of the shifty McClelland along with MacPherson and Hendry held the Hamilton squad well in check, but the Tigers dazzling attacks once more came to the fore and they succeeded in swelling their total to five as the period ended.

Undaunted by the five goal lead of the mighty Bengals and throwing discretion to the winds the Varsity Blues played wide open hockey in the final session, but the Hamilton aggression matched them stride for stride, scoring with a vengeance, displaying brilliant sweeping forays which had the Blue and White team bewildered, adding four more to their count. However, in the last few minutes of play facing the possibility of being shut out, the Blues showed their power plays to good advantage and on a pass from McClelland, MacPherson scored. In a mix up in front of the Hamilton nets MacPherson and McClelland again combined to garner the last goal of the game, and as the final gong sounded the scoreboard read Hamilton 9, Varsity 2.

Hamilton — Goal, Marsh; defence, Farrell, Howard; centre, McGowan; wings, Fitzgerald, Chisholm; subs, Radke, Conick, Bennett, Blake.
Varsity — Goal, Shipp; defence, Rey, Fullerton; centre, McClelland; wings, Sweeney, Jeffrey; subs, Williamson, Campbell, Hendry, MacPherson, Cunningham, McConvey.
Referee—Duke McCurdy.

FORESTRY DEFEATS O.C.E.

In a hard fought interfaculty basketball game in the upper gym yesterday afternoon, Forestry defeated O.C.E. by a score of 31-15. The game was fast throughout with Skolko the high scorer for Forestry. Drago was best for O.C.E. with four baskets.

Forestry — Hick, Skolko, Harrison, Burt-Gerrans, Kantola, Young, Carlson, Stevens.

O.C.E. — Drago, Lewis, Hendershot, Vyvyan, Real, Stevens, Brown, Inkster, Billington, Damude.
Referee—W. Miller.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By B. J. McGuire

Everything comes to him that waits. For years now the University of Western Ontario have been seeking admittance into the senior intercollegiate hockey circles. Every attempt brought them a little closer and today finds their wish granted. The Mustangs will play senior hockey in the intercollegiate series. A suitable date that seemed so difficult to arrange has at last been found with the Mustangs playing in Montreal Feb. 19. The date for the clash with Varsity is not definitely arranged as yet but Feb. 24 looms up as most probable. Due to the fact that Western are only playing one game with each team they will count four points instead of two as is the case in the two game series. Now that the Mustangs are in it remains to be seen how wide a swath they will cut in senior competition.

The entrance of the Mustangs has turned out to be the Good Samaritan act as far as Varsity is concerned. The intercollegiate series now instead of being a two game affair with goals to count against McGill, will be a home and home series, games to count. This means that the five goals Montreal registered against Varsity no longer hang over their heads, as an insurmountable handicap. That win of McGill's just counts two points and can be equalized by a win by Varsity Saturday night. Such a win is by no means impossible. The Blue team are at the peak of their form, have every advantage of their home ice, have cured themselves of the idea that McGill are the uncrowned champions and are ready to make a battle of it. Saturday night's game is certainly too good to pass up. The Montreal team are the most colourful squad in the East, have in fact been playing to houses of 7,000, all season, which is a good indication of their ability as crowd pleasers. They have a remarkable record, undefeated in nineteen starts. Varsity as a team are not quite so impressive. They are, however, batters, fighters till the last whistle. They are pleasing to watch and worthy of support. Incidentally in this series the only gate club gets in at home. Of the 7,000 paid admissions in Montreal they get nothing. Saturday night's game, then, being what it is, should attract the largest house of the year. The boys are worthy of support, why not give it to them.

This bids fair to be a busy week-end for the cagemen. Friday night Varsity will meet McMaster's six-foot quintet at Hamilton. The following night they will tangle with the league leading Volles on the West End floor. On the same night and place Varsity Juniors will meet West End in a Junior Y.M.C.A. fixture. The Big Six title for Varsity this season looks pretty well out of reach at present. However, things are different in the intercollegiate circle where Varsity loom up as the next champions. Queen's and Western have both bowed to the Blue team and McGill obtained a rather fluky decision over Queen's. This would indicate that Lew Hayman has more than an even chance to capture the title last season to McGill.

Next week-end will see the opening of the intercollegiate assault at Varsity. It's three years since a Toronto crowd had a chance to view the tournament, which invariably produces an evening of real scraps. Bert Light of McGill has a handful of smart battlers at his disposal and judging by the success of the Queen's club so far this year the same can be said of Jack Jarvis of that club. However, Varsity are not so bad themselves and should at least stand an even chance of a title.

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY BARS FRATERNITIES

(Continued from Page 1)

When approached on the matter by The Varsity, Mr. T. A. Reed, secretary of the Athletic Association of U. of T. deplored the intimation that fraternities were a danger to Varsity's athletics. He made the statement that during his term of office since the war he was not acquainted with the name of one fraternity to which any particular athlete in the university belonged. He also pointed out that to his knowledge, no coach that the University has had since the war in charge of senior football has known or been influenced by the fraternity to which any of his players belonged.

Warren Stevens, Director of Athletics and coach of the Varsity senior football team stated that a fraternity could be a decided benefit to the activities of any university if it was organized properly, had as its chief executive a capable man, and carried on its activities in a beneficial manner. He also ventured the opinion that the difficulty of having the four senior football players barred from competition would be overcome somehow or other before the season starts next fall. "I think Teddy Reeve would just about give his right arm as do without How Hamlin next year," said Mr. Stevens.

Mr. G. Wallace, first year Osgoode, graduate of Queen's of 1933, player on Queen's hockey team, a member of a fraternity since coming to Toronto, and acquainted with the fraternity system both here and in Kingston, stated that as far as he knew all the Queen's men now in 1st year Osgoode were affiliated with law fraternities, yet most would agree that these organizations are not at all necessary at Queen's.

"The A.M.S. should see that fraternities are coming to Queen's whether they are beneficial or not and should not pass such rigid restrictions against them with that understanding as it will not help any in their abolition," said Mr. Wallace. He also said that some agreement must be made before these players will be allowed to play football next fall. Otherwise the A.M.S. would carry no weight as it does now and should.

Several students on the Toronto campus agreed that there is no class distinction here between fraternity and non-fraternity men. Some voiced the opinion that no fraternity or group of fraternities has any particular power or influence in social, political or athletic activities at Varsity. It is a well-known fact that the leaders in these activities are to a great extent fraternity men, yet they have never been known to place any organization before the university in their activities.

Nobody particularly cares whether a man belongs to a fraternity or not at Varsity and no social line is drawn between the two groups. There are several men of outstanding ability in these three activities who are not members of fraternities and there is no attempt at comparison in any way between them and the fraternity men. The two groups mix genially in all matters and activities and always have.

ALUMNI FEDERATION BRIDGE

Among those who taken tables for the Bridge being given by the Alumni Federation of the University of Toronto, in Eaton's College Street, on Monday, February 12th, under distinguished patronage, are as follows:

Honourable W. H. Price
Honourable Geo. S. Henry
Mrs. D. A. Dunlap
Senator W. N. McGuire
Mrs. H. D. Warren
Dr. Cody
Dr. N. R. Speakman
Mr. C. M. Colquhoun
Mr. W. Perkins Bull, K.C.
Dr. Alex. Elliott
Miss Alice Willson
Professor C. E. Auger
Professor N. E. Ford
Mr. Charles McCrea

Another
IMRIE BROS.
Special

English Broadcloth Shirts

Separate Collars or Collars Attached

Colors Guaranteed

$1.29

or

3 for $3.50

To meet the needs of University men Imrie Bros. offer these fine quality shirts. We have priced them specially to conform with present-day budgets and we can absolutely guarantee the quality. They wear well, the colors are unfadeable and they are sure to be popular with Varsity men.

IMRIE BROS.

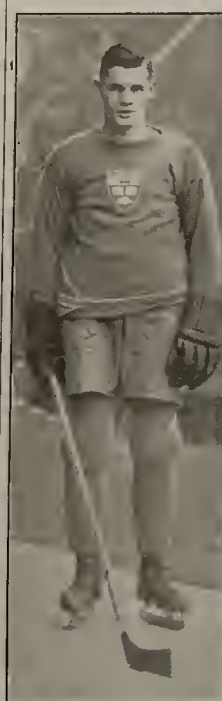

TWO STORES:

140 YONGE STREET, Corner of Temperance
274 YONGE STREET, Opposite Imperial Theatre

British Consols

SEALED IN MOISTUREPROOF CELLOPHANE

GEORGE HENDRY

Captain and right winger of the Varsity squad, who will lead the attack against McGill Saturday night.

STUTTERING
Stammer no more. I've come! My free, helpful pamphlet and "Ten Commandments of Speech" will help you. Write W. Dennison, 11 St. Clair E., Toronto should defeat them with ease and fight it out in the end with the Redmen.

BLUE PUCKSTERS FACE FINAL TEST

(Continued from Page 1)

The Blue team gained a lot of confidence in their last encounter. Hailed as the next Dominion champions the Montreal team presented a formidable appearance. Just recently emerged from the cellar position Varsity were granted little consideration against Bobby Bell's squad. But the Varsity squad were steadily improving and still are. They showed when they went out against McGill and not only held them scoreless but actually looked just as good until penalties paved the way for a McGill victory.

The Blue team will be the same as that which faced the Redmen in their initial clash. Frank Shipp, however, won't be suffering from a broken finger as he was in the last game. This should help some, although it would be hard to improve on his performance in Montreal.

Varsity are getting better every game. This is their last chance of getting anywhere in the hockey circles this season. They are playing on their own ice and will be giving everything they have, in which case win, lose or draw it is certain to be a contest too good to be missed.

OLDEST IRON WEAPON

A dagger from the tomb of Tutankhamen is probably the oldest iron weapon from the true Iron Age.

"No Profit" Sale of Better Lingerie

Flash! . . . . .

Satin Panties

In the popular step-in style. Sleek, shimmering, all silk, satin. Luxuriously smooth in Pink, Tea Rose or White. Dainty imported lace design, en applique. All sizes. . . . .

$1.00

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 8800
4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9

4 p.m.—Mr. Raymond Massey will speak to the Players' Guild at the Women's Union.

4-6 p.m.—Women's S.C.M. tea in Wymilwood for Miss Margaret Kinney. Annual Loretto Abbey College At-Home in the Crystal Ballroom of the Royal York Hotel. Leo Romanelli's orchestra.

9-11—School of Nursing At-Home. Victoria College at-home. Dancing 9 to 2. Music by Stanley St. John and his orchestra.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10

3:30 p.m.—Trinity College Library. The Hon. Senator Cote, K.C., LL.D., on Jacques Cartier, 400th anniversary of the discovery of Canada.

5:30 p.m.—Last tea dance of the year at Newman Club.

8 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., 205 Madison.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11

11 a.m.—Professor Gregory Vlastos of Queen's will address a special S.C.M. Chapel Service in Emmanuel College Chapel. All students welcome.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12

4:30 p.m.—Final of 2nd year U.C. debate to be held in the junior common room for representatives in the Robinette Trophy. Topic: "Resolved that the benedict is happier than the bachelor". Affirmative is upheld by Mirsky brothers, negative by Rac and A. C. Smith. Everybody welcome!

C.C.F. Club, Wm. Irvine, M.P.
8 p.m.—U.C. Public Speaking Contest for women at the Union. See rules and lists in U.C. cloak room and Union.

8 p.m.—Alumni Bridge, Eaton Auditorium.

Classified Advertisements

PRIVATE TUTOR

M.A., Oxford, Latin, English, History, Mathematics, French, and special subjects. Midway 3110.

U.C. PARLIAMENT REJECTS LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(Continued from Page 1)
is the only organization capable of saving Western civilization."

"Unfortunately, we cannot know what would have been the course of affairs if the League had not been formed, and because, as it is, it has some faults, we flout them to the sky." "It may be that the League has not done much as yet in matters of war, but what it has done in the affairs of peace alone more than justifies its existence and continuance."

The attitude of the Opposition was adequately summed up in the closing remark of Saul Rae, the third speaker, when he said: "After all, we are not here to debate whether the League is potentially a good thing, or not, but whether it has been a success in as far as it has gone. And it has not. It is a failure."

This was followed by an address by Mr. Hermant, the leader of the opposition, who stressed the fact that Canada, being so close to the United States and so far from any other country, was adequately protected by the armed forces and navy of that nation, which would support her for economical and trade reasons and thus make war on Canada an extremely improbable event. Hence, by remaining a member of the League, she leaves herself open to being drawn into European wars, in which she has no concern and which, in themselves, are inevitable. He stressed the fact that the Canadian government was concerned primarily in the welfare of the Canadian people and that the only sane way to protect them from the scourge of the battlefield, fighting for the interests of others, was in immediate withdrawal. Faced with the fact that United States, though not a member of any such body at the time, was forced to engage in the Great War, and asked why this was so, he replied to the effect that the step was taken through foolishness such as the government was now advocating by supporting the League.

The other members of the opposition, Reg Watters and Milton Shulman, together with Members of the House, voiced their opinions, and the tie vote being settled by the Speaker, the government was forced to resign. The next session will deal with the superiority of the interests of humanity over those of the nation, when the two are in conflict.

MCGILL MDCK PARLIAMENT ACCLAIMS C.C.F. POLICY

(Continued from Page 1)
by William Irvine, M.P., was successfully piloted through a lengthy sitting despite hardy opposition.

He was supported by Gordon Skilling (Toronto), Minister of Labour in the Cabinet of the Rt. Hon. Lloyd Reynolds, Prime Minister, and opposed by R. A. Bell (Toronto), as leader of the opposition, and Philip Vineberg, party whip.

Irvine wound up the debate with smashing arguments which tore through the opposition in which he clearly outlined the stand of C.C.F. Bell denounced government as visionary and impractical, and demanded evidence of how the programme could be carried out. Skilling labelled the opposition of combined Liberal-Conservatives as "casual opportunists", who had no definite plan to offer as an alternative.

"NECKING" REPRDVED AS IN POOR TASTE

(Continued from Page 1)
diminished," quoted a III year English and History student when asked about conditions here. "Immorality may be fun but it is not worth 100 per cent virtue and three squares meals a day. Seriously though, I do think the lights in the 'dark room' should be kept burning," she said.

Two U.C. people threatened dire consequences if their names were mentioned but consented to give their opinions of "formal necking". The first: "Necking is all right in its place but that is not what I go to a formal for. Anyway I've never been at a formal at this University where people necked openly. The lights are dimmed but not put out entirely." The second: "I agree with the editorial that necking is extremely poor taste at an important college function. If you want to neck you can stay home."

One of the male offenders made the following cryptic remark, "My mother hasn't told me everything yet."

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

GRADUATING CLASS, U.C.

Men of the graduating class wishing to take partners from outside the year and women wishing to have escorts not in the graduating year at the Junior-Senior dance, may purchase single tickets in the rotunda between 12 and 2 p.m. Monday.

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

Mr. Raymond Massey has promised to speak to the Players' Guild this afternoon at 4 p.m. in the Women's Union, 79 St. George St.

U.C. MEN

Today at 4 o'clock in the junior common room four teams from the first year will debate the resolution that "Great Britain as a world power is decadent", in order to select a team to represent first year in the Robinette competition.

VIC 3T6 WOMEN

Tickets for the Sophomore-Senior party on sale in the college hall Friday from 11 till 2, and Monday. Don't forget the class meeting today at 1:30.

VIC WOMEN!

The Spring Tea Dance will be held in Wymilwood on Saturday, February 17th from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. Lists open in Alumni Hall on Monday, Feb. 12 at 8:45 a.m. Allotment of tickets for all years. Sign early!

FRENCH PACIFISTS

(Continued from Page 1)
ground, who are increasing: the "jury" pacifists who support the League of Nations and control by a system of sanctions; the "neo-pacifists" or revolutionary pacifists who may not be revolutionaries in the accepted sense of the word, but pacifists who realize that the basic cause of war lies in the whole social, economic and international system, and that peace can be assured only by a change in the system; and the "professional" pacifists, such as chemists, doctors, etc., who have refused to turn their professional services to war-service.

The present pacifist dilemma, Professor Walter explained, lies in the threat of Fascism, of a war which might impose upon the conquered a Fascist form of government with all its evils. In the face of this threat the conscientious objectors find themselves in a difficult position; they must face the prospect of accepting either war or Fascism. One whole wing of pacifism has, in fact, collapsed, but the other wing is invulnerable. This is the neo-pacifist wing, whose supporters insist that individual revolt against militarism is useless without a wholesale change in the system which makes war inevitable.

VARSITY ADVERTISEMENTS BRING FINE RESULTS

(Continued from Page 1)
to the benefit derived from the insertion of our advertisements in The Varsity. We wish to thank you for bringing this great medium of advertising to our attention.

Yours sincerely,

N. Stanley Smith,
Chairman,
School At-Home.

EXTENSIDN WORK BENEFITS MANY

(Continued from Page 1)
Wednesday night at eight o'clock in a large schoolroom. A professor lectures to these people for two hours and the bed-ridden patients get the whole lecture from their earphones, because as the professor lectures he also broadcasts. These patients have had ten weeks' lectures in Psychology and are now about half way through a similar series of lectures in Economics.

"You can readily see how much these lectures must mean to those people."

"The attendance at the night classes here at the University, also run by the Extension, has been very good," Mr. Dunlop went on to say. "There are about seven hundred registered at the classes here in the city."

3T4 VICTORIA

Our formal party is to be held at Wymilwood on Feb. 23. Only those whose year fees have been paid in full will be eligible. If you have not yet paid yours see a member of the executive about it at once. Don't miss this, our last undergraduate party.

JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE

As announced elsewhere in these columns the U.C. Junior-Senior dance will be held Wednesday next, in the Roof Garden of the Royal York. Men and women of the college may obtain tickets on Monday between 12 and 2 p.m. in the rotunda.

PROFESSOR VLASTOS

The many friends and admirers of Professor Vlastos will welcome the opportunity to hear him while he is in Toronto over the week-end. He will give the address at the special service arranged by the S.C.M. in Emmanuel College Chapel on Sunday at 11 a.m.

VIC AT-HOME

There are about 25 tickets left for the Vic At-Home, which will be sold to the first students of Victoria College who call for them. If you want one be sure that you see Collin Todd in Middle House, as soon as you read this notice.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)
Seeing my bewilderment, he pointed to a heavily embossed document on the desk. "That is an order for me to appear in court which I had my friend Inspector Pursey make out," he explained. "As you may see, it from the nicotine smudge in one corner, it did not escape Advance's attention. Curious, why the cat never keeps his hands clean. At any rate, I'll give you heavy odds he is now seeking evidence to prove I live a double life and has forgotten all about the Feature Editor. Never allow yourself to give way to professional jealousy, Flotsam, it raises havoc with a man's career."

"But now to business," he went on. "Let us see this memo again."

Taking from his pocket the scrap of paper he had found in the Varsity office he read it through once more, and then handed it over to me. Once more I puzzled over the cryptic words:

Cat
Fanny's Corsets
Problem
Fruit Juice Seminar
Thesis
Write Out Essay
Library Fine
Toothbrush

"I can make nothing of it," he replied, "unless there is some significance in the second entry."

"Not in the least, my dear Flotsam," declared Jones. "That is easily explainable. The Feature Editor's first initial is N, and he prefers to be known as Nell. His second initial is F, and I have every reason to believe it stands for the name Frank. Now the feminine form of Frank is Francine, of which Fanny is a common diminutive. I deduce, therefore, that this entry is of interest only as it throws light on the subject's sartorial peculiarities. It was already obvious to me from the hand-writing that he is a woman in disguise, but that can be attended to later. The immediate problem is to trace her movements since she disappeared. And if you will now come with me to the University Library I am confident we shall find another clue."

"What do you expect to find there, Jones?" I asked.

"I'm not quite sure yet," he replied, but I can tell you where we shall find it. The exact spot is on the second floor of the stacks, the twenty-seventh aisle of shelves, the fifth shelf from the top and the seventeenth book from the end. If that book is still present, I can tell you exactly where we shall find the missing Feature Editor. Elementary, my dear Flotsam."

Conan Chaz.

Meet Me At The Fountain In The Round Room

Canada's most beautiful restaurant. Pay off hospitality scores with a luncheon or bridge tea. The Round Room's new Social Directress and Consultant is there to assist you in planning your party to the last minute detail. Round Room hospitality is adjusted to take care of parties of from two to hundreds.

For consultation regarding entertainments phone Mrs. W. L. Johnson, AD. 5011.

EATON'S - COLLEGE STREET

SELF-SACRIFICING SPIRIT LACKING IN CANADA

(Continued from Page 1)
more dramatic action of the United States. An increase of sixty per cent in Dominion notes will be made. This money is to be put in circulation by public works.

"The lowering of interest rates affects different people in different ways. Many good things would go if this action were taken. However, this may be necessary to keep the country from going bankrupt." A rift in the Conservative ranks at Ottawa was caused when the Conservative member disagreed with the plans of his party. He advocated that more money should be printed and interest rates lowered one-third by government action.

"The German courts—even after the law was reformed, were interpreting the law against the Jews. 'A nation,' stated Mr. Lautenslager, 'whose courts don't respect its law can't be called a civilized country.'"

CANADA MUST DEVELOP AS UNIT, SAYS INNIS

(Continued from Page 1)
in living standards there, with no corresponding decline in railway rates or Eastern prices. An attempt at restoring equilibrium of prices should benefit all of Canada.

The development of mining in the East, or building public works, may raise difficulty. Tariffs carry a great burden, expected as they are to aid so many different branches of the economic system in unemployment relief, exchange control and protection.

Possible solutions include monetary control, social legislation, and taxation machinery, by which a larger portion of Canada's debt might be carried by the East.

"Political speakers depend a great deal too much on talking," concluded Dr. Innis. "Any definite progress in the politics of a country requires careful thought and difficult analysis. Discussions are best in a small group of competent men who have an adequate knowledge of the problem with which they are dealing."

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)
The ecstasy is really ecstatic, the despair is real despair. Seldom have human emotions been so realistically registered in pictures.

The entire dialogue is in Russian with the titles in English. So realistic is the production that a word need not be spoken to lend force to the dramatic climaxes and thrills of Road to Life. It will appear at the Madison Theatre for a limited engagement of one week only and will be shown at regular prices.

N.C.S. Dramatics

The Rivals, presented this week-end by the University Schools' Dramatic Society, shows a great deal of fine acting. Murray Cotterill as Sir Anthony Absolute, holds the attention of the audience and dominates his scenes. His studied brusqueness is not overdone, nor does he take his snuff indiscriminately.

Graham Sanderson as Mrs. Malaprop, handles his part very well. His, or her, "malapropisms" do get across. However, at times he is inclined to shout too much. We would like to see Mrs. Malaprop played less acridly and with more benevolence. Nevertheless it is Cotterill and Sanderson who hold the stage.

The female impersonators, especially Charles Walker as Lydia Languish, are quite realistic. The other members of the cast are consistent in doing justice to the play. The permutations and squabbles and counter plotting are well done. Mavor Moore's Faulkland is played with the necessary fretfulness and brings forth the query as to whether Sheridan intended us to applaud or mock the over-sensitive lover.

The scenery and lighting are carried out effectively. The simplicity of the sets is particularly fine. The directors, Mr. Gill and Mr. Phillips, have created some impressive effects. On the whole the play is a lively and sensible revival of Sheridan. It is well worth seeing in view of the coming vogue for classical comedy.

N.C.P.

U.C. FRENCH CLUB

"LE MALADE IMAGINAIRE"

Tuesday, February 13th

Tickets 50c. at the Hart House Box Office.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12th, 1934

No. 83

SENSATIONAL RALLY TIES UP MCGILL GAME

CANADIAN CONSTITUTION STILL NEEDS STEADYING INFLUENCE OF SENATE

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

A Chinese tong war in Montreal resulted in the wounding of eleven persons.

Clyde Pangborn, American long distance flyer, is projecting a non-stop flight around the world.

Charles A. Lindbergh yesterday protested to President Roosevelt against the decision to revoke all domestic air mail contracts.

Two officers of the Mauretania claim to have seen a sixty-five foot sea serpent disporting itself in the Caribbean Sea.

Sir Malcolm Campbell, the famous British racer, will make his next assault on the speed record over the bed of Salsdore Lake, Utah.

The Leafs secured revenge for three previous defeats at the hands of the Canadiens by taking a 4-2 decision over the Habitués on Saturday.

In an address to the All-Union Communist Congress, the Commander-in-Chief of the Russian armies in the Far East accused Japan of converting Manchukuo into a military base.

One million French workers went out on strike last night as a protest against fascist methods of Premier Doumergue. The walk-out is nationwide and covers all branches of industry.

Ten thousand spectators viewed the Ontario ski championship which was run off Saturday afternoon over the new Thorndike jump.

MASSEY PRAISES PLAYERS' GUILD

Future Actors Are Produced by Such Groups He States

BETTER FACILITIES NEEDED

"It is from groups like yours that the actresses and actors, and the theatre of the future, will come," stated Mr. Raymond Massey in an address to the Players' Guild of the University on Friday afternoon. "When I was at Varsity, there was no Hart House and our dramatic organization, the Players' Club, of which, I suppose, the Players' Guild is a lineal descendant, used to do plays in Burwash Hall," went on Mr. Massey. "The work of the Little Theatres is of tremendous value to the theatre of the future and there is much activity in that direction here. But I think it a pity that there is such a dearth of dramatic effort in Toronto; better facilities could be provided if the work were more concentrated."

Mr. Massey then spoke of the lamentable apathy towards the drama among students at Oxford and Cambridge, and said that there should be a definite department devoted to dramatics in the universities. "At Yale, Professor Baker works in all the various aspects of the theatre and has

(Continued on Page 4)

Function of Body Described by Senator Louis Cote

"BOARD OF CONTROL"

Formed of Experienced Men with No Party Distinctions He Claims

By Reg. E. Walters

"There is still a need for the Senate in the Canadian constitution," declared Senator Louis Cote, B.A., K.C., LL.D., in a special interview granted to The Varsity last Saturday afternoon. "The Senate," he explained, "serves as a Board of Control to keep the House of Commons within the salutary bounds of tradition and gradual evolution. The Dominion necessarily passes through periods of national unrest when the Commons, influenced in their decision by fear of the next election, might attempt to enact legislation in accordance with the common temper, and which in more sober times might never have been enacted."

"There is still another important function served by the Senate," he continued. "Confederation was a pact between the two Canadas, French and English, and a permanent Senate recruited from among men of greater experience in political affairs, with no party distinctions, can maintain that agreement intact by seeing no legislation is passed which conflicts with the limits of Confederation."

"Do you mean that once a Senator is appointed he loses the sentiments of the party responsible for his appointment—that he really becomes impartial?" we asked.

"No," replied Senator Cote. "I cannot say that the Senator sheds his sentimentality entirely—he has his personal convictions—but I have been told by a Senator of long standing that he does not remember a single instance of the Senate divided by a straight party vote. There are always those who dissent from the policy advocated at that time by their original party."

"Do you think that it is a good constitutional feature to have the number in the Upper House strictly limited without the opportunity, as in the British House of Lords, of creating

(Continued on Page 4)

TRINITY LIT. VOTES DOWN PRACTISE OF EUTHANASIA

Termed 'Suicide by Proxy' and 'New Form of Justifiable Homicide'

"Surely a gentle and painless death is preferable to lingering disease, incurable insanity, and the presence of monstrosities in this world," said F. E. Smith, guest speaker at an open meeting of the Trinity and St. Hilda's Lit., when visitors from Huron College upheld the motion that "This House favours the practice of Euthanasia," which was lost on a close vote. Like any other progressive idea, those who uphold it must be prepared to meet a storm of criticism and abuse from the conservative diehards.

"Suicide by proxy" and "An opportunity to create a new form of justifiable homicide" was all that Euthanasia implied, in the opinion of Graham Lawson, replying for the negative. Religion, law and medical ethics all combined to condemn the practice.

Mr. Armishaw described at some length the legal formalities which would have to be gone through, if the bill permitting painless extinction ever passed through the British House of

(Continued on Page 4)

INSPIRATION!

An inspired editor of the "Queen's Journal" condemns promiscuous necking.

IRVINE TO SPEAK AT C.C.F. CLUB

Western M.P. Slated to Appear at Luncheon Meeting Today

FINANCIAL PLATFORM

One of the outstanding members of the Canadian House of Commons and a strong supporter of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation (C. C. F.), is Mr. William Irvine, M.P., who is down from Ottawa to speak to the University of Toronto C.C.F. Club at lunch time today.

A Western farmer himself, who returns to his farm in Alberta between sessions of the House, he will be a suitable authority to discuss the policy of the C.C.F. group with reference to agriculture. Another vexed phase of the C.C.F. platform, the financial, will also be the subject of some remarks from Mr. Irvine in his address.

Mr. Irvine, although born in Scotland, has sat in the House for a long period of years, during all of which he was a representative from Alberta. Defeated in the elections of 1917, he was successful in 1921. The general election of 1925 put him out of the Commons for one year. He was re-elected in 1926 and again 1930. Dur-

(Continued on Page 4)

JUNIOR-SENIOR PARTY TO BE HELD DOWN-TOWN

St. John's Orchestra Will Provide Music for U.C. Dance

As has been announced elsewhere this year's Junior-Senior Dance will be held on Wednesday, February 14th in the Roof Garden of the Royal York Hotel. The holding of a year party downtown is a precedent for U.C., but the Junior-Senior has attained a standing in the social events of the college year that merits this action.

As in the past a member of the graduating class will be admitted on presentation of an "admit to lecture" card and identifying himself or herself as the owner of that card. Members of the graduating class, also as in the

(Continued on Page 4)

SATTERLY REPEATS FAMOUS LECTURE

Experiments with Liquid Air Performed at Saturday Lecture

KETTLE BOILS ON ICE

"There is no reason why we should not make Toronto the centre of this kind of work," said Professor John Satterly, speaking on "Liquid Air" at Convocation Hall on Saturday night. The lecture was illustrated amply and interestingly with experiments of the last few, with liquid hydrogen, could have been performed nowhere else on the North American continent, so it looks as though we are forging ahead.

Experiments which were performed in music halls about 1900, such as boiling a kettle of liquid air on a block of ice, were illustrated and lucidly explained. A metal ball, after having been immersed in liquid air, was put in a flame, and hoar frost was formed on it. Liquid air was poured into water of room temperature, and it froze the water, while the water boiled it. "Morning rations", including a banana, celery, bacon and an egg, were immersed in it and came out "beautifully crisp", and could be smashed like glass. Liquid oxygen was suspended in air between two magnets.

"This will leave white blisters, but it's all in the cause of science," said the professor as he poured some of the liquid air over the back of his hand to show that it would run off quickly. A fire extinguisher and a pail of water of swallowing it, as it expands greatly, he took some into his mouth to prove it could be done. There were "fire-works" too, when such things as soda wafers and cotton waste were saturated with liquid oxygen, then ignited. A fire extinguisher and a pail of water added atmosphere to this performance.

The materials used for the different experiments were all of very low temperatures, liquid helium, the coldest, being -433 degrees Fahrenheit, only 5 degrees above absolute zero. Alcohol and mercury were both frozen solid by immersion in liquid air, and a hammer, which proved its authen-

(Continued on Page 2)

SCORE THREE GOALS IN FIVE MINUTES TO EVEN SCORE ON REDMEN 4-4

INTER-UNIVERSITY RADIO DEBATES

Following is a summary of the results of recent inter-university radio debates:

In the Ontario group the results are as follows: University of Western Ontario, 34; University of Toronto, 32; McMaster University, 31. The University of Western Ontario is the winner.

In the Quebec-Maritime group the results are: McGill University, 30; Dalhousie University, 28; University of New Brunswick, 27. McGill University is the winner.

Therefore, on Tuesday, February 13th, 7:30-8 p.m., E.S.T., a team from the University of Western Ontario will take the affirmative side and a team from McGill University, the negative side of the semi-final debate, the topic being, "Resolved that the farmer has greater opportunities for happiness than has the business man in the city."

The judges will be the Honourable Dr. Murray MacLaren, Minister of Pensions and National Health, and the Honourable Mr. W. D. Euler, M.P. The judges will listen to the debate in the Commission's studio in the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa.

The winner of this semi-final debate will, on Tuesday, February 20th, at 7:30 p.m., E.S.T., debate with the winner of the Montreal-Laval-Ottawa group, the topic being "Resolved that the British North America Act is a pact which is binding upon each of the nine provinces."

ANNUAL CONCERT OF VARSITY BAND

Captain Slatter Has Arranged Elaborate Programme for Event

NEW MARCH'S PREMIERE

Students who have followed with interest the activities of the Blue and White Band during the busy season are shortly to have an opportunity of hearing these campus musicians at close range when they present their annual band concert in Convocation Hall on Tuesday, February 20, at 8.15 p.m. An elaborate and popular programme has been arranged under the guidance of Captain John Slatter, V.D., who will direct the band on this occasion, and a number of solos by guest artists of high repute will intersperse the selections of the band, which will include humorous numbers and the latest version of the popular "Blue and White."

A special march has been written by Captain Slatter, that will shortly be published and dedicated to the University, and the words of the "Toronto" and the music of "The Blue and White" have been included in this novel arrangement that has won tremendous popularity with the members of the band.

The concert will be given under the patronage of Dr. and Mrs. Cody, and Lt.-Col. Cockburn, Commanding Officer of the University of Toronto Contingent of the Canadian Officer's Training Corps.

Tickets may be obtained (for a very modest sum) from the S.A.C. office in Hart House, Room 82, University College, and from members of the band. Students are advised to get in

(Continued on Page 2)

Varsity Successful in Holding Highly-Touted Red Team to Draw

LOTS OF FIREWORKS

Whirlwind Finish Gives Fans Many Thrills in Colourful Game

By B. J. McGuire

The Red and White flag of the McGill Redmen sways placidly from the riggers of the Forum today as the team returns victorious from the intercollegiate hockey trail with the college title safe in their possession. In Toronto the Blue and White colours of the youthful Varsity team still fly proudly for the team succeeded in doing what only two teams out of twenty have been able to record—fighting the Redmen to a draw, for the score read 4-4 at the final bell at Varsity Arena Saturday night.

Great indeed was the contrast between the records of the respective charges of Warren Stevens and Bobby Bell. In twenty starts the McGill team were unbeaten, tied only twice. The youthful and inexperienced Varsity sextet looked to have little chance against a squad with such a reputation. Yet Saturday night the spark of a great team flared up as they went out, matched speed for speed, goal for goal with the McGill sextet and had them fighting desperately to escape their first defeat in the dying minutes of one of the most exciting games to be witnessed in the local rink this season.

All the fireworks which usually feature a clash between these traditional rivals were displayed in Saturday's fixture. The McGill squad found themselves checked at every turn by the Blue wings and after the first few minutes penalties began to flare up. Fourteen penalties were handed out, with seven going to each team.

The McGill sextet lived up to all advance notices as one of the greatest teams in the East. They proved this by scoring two goals with a man in

(Continued on Page 4)

MCMASTER CAGERS WIN BIG SIX TILT

Overcome Varsity Lead with Brilliant Last Minute Rally

FINAL SCORE 41-39

W. A. Crochower

Flashing a brilliant offensive in the last two minutes of play McMaster University's Big Six squad cut down a three-point lead held by the University of Toronto squad and carried off a 41-39 decision in a fast and furious exhibition of the cage pastime played in the spacious gym of the Westdale Collegiate in Hamilton. The win kept the Baptists in the lead of the Niagara group of the Big Six. During the last five minutes of play the lead changed hands three times with the result that the spectators were in a sustained frenzy right up to the final whistle of the game.

Right from the opening whistle it was evident that the lanky Baptists had a tremendous advantage in height as the Blues had difficulty in getting organized after a shaky start. The first period featured frequent and prolonged arguments with Doc Mitchell upholding the Blue cause in spectacu-

(Continued on Page 4)

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35,
Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:

E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—E. C. Phelan Assistant—N. C. Phillips

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12th, 1934

THE DECLINE OF MANNERS

"Manners mayketh man" is the motto of an English Public School which still has courage enough to be proud of its tradition. William of Wykeham was wise beyond belief when he picked this text as a guide to the educators of youth, some seven centuries ago. For it is these guides, be they teachers or parents, who are responsible for the decline of manners which is the outstanding characteristic of the younger generation. It is, of course, just this lack that leads the unthinking portion of the older people to accuse this generation of absence of morals, since manners and morals are so much concerned with good or bad taste that it is difficult to distinguish between them. It is fortunate indeed that morals still retain their high level or life would be a good deal more than just uncomfortable.

Bad manners is the surest index of an inferiority complex. In these days of so-called democracy, when one is left without the stimulus of a superior class to imitate, it is impossible to rely on one's merits. We have evolved a fiction of intellectual superiority which, in most cases, falls to pieces on examination, built as it is on the flimsiest foundation of glib pronouncements. This is probably the reason why bad manners reach their height in academic circles. The youth who enters the University (any university), enters with a preconceived idea of intellectual sanctity. He is not quite sure what form it may take, but he is prepared for first impressions and over awed by his fear of making mistakes. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred he will meet with an example of bad manners within an hour of his arrival. Is it any wonder, then, that his only protection is an emulation of what he finds in this temple wherein he is to learn the secret of democratic equality which he soon learns to call intellectual superiority? He dare not be polite, for politeness would be an overt act of criticism; it would stamp him as different, and one must not be different in this democratic world. Only our intellectual inferiors can afford good manners. That is why the table manners in a lumber camp are so infinitely superior to those at an University Commons. That is why your neighbour in a navy's lunch room will pass the sugar without being asked, but you will have to grab it in the college boarding-house. That is why the labourer gives up his seat in a street-car to a standing woman while the student sits sprawled over enough room for two.

But the student is not to be blamed entirely for this. The writer watched three faculty members hold a vivacious conversation for twenty minutes, in the middle of a walk bordered with deep mud. Every student who used that walk was compelled to step into the dirt to pass, and not one of the three moved an inch, nor winked an eye. After watching this length of time, the writer used that walk, but he did not step into the mud. There are ways of combating even such grossness. True superiority, whether of intelligence or birth, fosters good manners. It carries with it the privilege of responsibility: responsibility for those less fortunate. Responsibility implies consideration: it insists upon good taste: it acknowledges individuality: like charity, it suffereth long, and is kind; is not puffed up. If those in authority presume on their positions through a lack of fitness, or a feeling of insecurity, it is no wonder that those who sit under them will be smirched with the same mud.

But, we are told, there is no time for grace in this age. One is only concerned with getting what one can in the quickest possible time. Good manners waste time. Unfortunately for the callow mind, this is not true. Once you catch up with life; even in this materialistic age, you will find that "Manners mayketh man" still. You can translate it into a good sound materialistic adage, if you prefer. It is still true that "you can catch more flies with honey than with vinegar".

ANNUAL CONCERT OF VARSITY BANO

(Continued from Page 1)

touch with a band member from their own faculty as soon as possible, and procure tickets, as present sales indicate that there will be a shortage of accommodation. All those who attended the concert given by the band last season will be anxious to hear the new selections that will feature the 1934 edition, and premiere performance of the new "Blue and White March" should prove a considerable attraction to University students. A full programme of the concert will appear in The Varsity shortly.

SATTERLY REPEATS FAMOUS LECTURE

(Continued from Page 1)

tivity, was made of frozen mercury. "And you think it's been cold in Toronto lately!"

Art, Music and Drama

Friday Afternoon Recital

This week's Friday Afternoon Recital was given by Miss Ivy Dale, mezzo-soprano, and Mr. Frederick B. Skitch, pianist, who presented a modern French programme. Miss Dale has a rich but not a heavy voice, which she employs with much certainty. Especially satisfying was her last group: Psyche, by Paladilhe was the loveliest thing on the programme, and the familiar and brilliant Habanera, from Bizet's Carmen, sung with verve and dramatic ease, made so manifest an impression on the audience that further comment is unnecessary.

Mr. Skitch has what many pianists more experienced than himself will never attain, a style. When you will hear him play, whether or not it satisfied you, you are aware that you have heard something. There is a definiteness, a completeness, about his playing, combined of course, with a convincing grasp of the piano, which preclude any element of "amateurishness".

Mr. Skitch played, to begin with, an attractive Poulenc Suite; his second number was a much less attractive, though more important, Ravel Sonatine. There is doubtless an intrinsic interest in this composition, but it by no means shines through the notes on a first hearing. Debussy is always pleasing, and in this sort of work Mr. Skitch's taste and judgment would seem beyond approach. Pellee is a fascinating piece for the fastidious listener; and in the playing of the encore—Debussy's Minstrels—there was a masterful ring it was good to hear. I wonder how many of the audience realize how arresting and important Mr. Skitch's musicianship is?

N. F. L.

Sunday Evening Concert

Madame Jeanne Dusseau easily won her audience last night by her recital of Old German Songs, followed by many delightful modern French and English songs. Most of the songs were of a melancholic mood, which her deep, rich voice quickly communicated to her listeners. Not only has Madame Dusseau a great control of her voice, joined with an almost perfect technique, but her voice itself, especially in the middle range, has a warmth that captivates you, transporting you into the sphere of her songs, from which one is only brought suddenly down to earth by the applause, —a noise that seems to me always singularly unmusical and out of place at a concert.

Of her four French songs only the "Chevaux de Bois", by Debussy, were in a gay and whimsical mood, while Debussy's "Chevalier" took you into the pleasant and always sweet mood created by music about one's first love. Madame Dusseau's very fine rendering of the song "Depuis le Jour" of Charpentier's opera Louise makes us hope that we shall have the treat of hearing her once again, but next time, —more than one song of this excellent composition.

The third part of the recital consisted of English and Scottish songs which enabled Madame Dusseau to show us the great resources of her voice, as well as her very sure and artistic sense. "Pretty Ring Time" by Warlock, as well as a Scottish lullaby "O, Can Ye Sew Cushions", were both of a gay and alert tempo supported by a very melodious accompaniment. Delius' "The Princess", possesses great charm and suggestion. After hearing two more songs by Bax and Bridge, an enthusiastic audience called Madame Dusseau for encores and would gladly have listened to many more than were actually given.

C. de M.

Massey Hall

At the next Tuesday Evening Concert in the Massey Hall series, the management presents the Hall Johnson Negro Choir. This is a concert of unusual interest, particularly as this organization was the original chorus of the famous drama Green Pastures.

The present cold spell, with its usual crop of sniffles, woolen undies and three-sizes-too-large caps, has reminded your Kitty that it is time for The Varsity's annual scoop—the news that spring is coming—and has, as usual, inspired us with our sentimental spring pome.

Oh, the catnip that blooms in the spring moow, meow.
Brings promise of nightly moonshine
As we merrily, cattishly sing

We welcome the hope it may bring meow, meow.
Of a summer of birds and sweet cream
And that's what we mean when we screech or we sing

As welcome as catnip that blooms in the spring
Are three blind mice.

C-C

After that superfluous effort we just couldn't contain ourselves—no one else could either—so we decided to include two scoops in this one column—Dear reader (alas, too dear) St. Valentine's day is coming—and to you and my Pussentine the following is dedicated:

Thine eyes
Are as mysterious pools of a midsummer night
Thy lips are bonied wine.

Thy hair ripples like a moonlit cascade,
Like a dew-wet rose thy cheeks
Graceful as a weeping willow is thy figure.

In short, my love,
I'm merely trying to tell you,
Thou art ALL WET.

C-C

Tomorrow a poetic license will be taken out by—or with—

Alias.

Stewart 2.

VIC AND PHARMACY ARE HOCKEY VICTORS

Victoria made it three straight when they defeated Jr. S.P.S. by 1-0, while Pharmacy scored its first victory of the season when it won by a 5-0 score over Forestry Friday afternoon in a double header hockey match at Varsity Arena.

Both matches produced a very good brand of interfaculty hockey. Vic's goal was scored by Hamil on a pass from Monzon after a clever combination that had the defence tied in knots. Forestry outplayed their opponents for a large part of the match and earned the five goal margin.

For Vic, Dyke, Farrell and Monzon stood out, while Aitken and Kerr were the pick of Jr. S.P.S. Young and Johns were the best of Forestry and Reinhardt and Cottrill put in good games for Forestry.

Vic — Goal, Dickie; defence, Dyke, Bryers; forwards, Farrell, Monzon, Kemp; subs, Pratt, Gregory, Tackaberry, Grover.

S.P.S. — Goal, Augers; defence, Press, Aitkens; forwards, Terry, Kerr, Stanard; subs, Burnette, Wilmot, Wood, Wheaton.

Pharmacy — Goal, Briscoe; defence, Bingham, Reinhardt; forwards, Inch, Anderson, Wilton; subs, Cottrill, McDougal, MacDonald.

Forestry — Goal, Laisson; defence, McConnell, Wilstead; forwards, Johnston, Knott; subs, Edwards, Beatty, Mundy, Wilson.

M.Sc.'s all!

What? Chefs with degrees? Every man jack of them. Once freshmen in the Murray School of Fine Cooking,—today they have mastered their science... M.Sc.'s all! And that's just another reason why Murray's excel.

Club Dinners—50c.

also Special Student Luncheons at
35c. and 25c.

"The Good Companions"

"... a wonderfully cheerful and pleasant place... menus so varied and interesting that you are sure to find what you like best."

Tea Cup Reading

with Afternoon Tea
Lunch or Dinner

1179 BAY ST.
RA. 2411

U.C. FRENCH CLUB

"LE MALADE IMAGINAIRE"

Tuesday, February 13th

Tickets 50c. at the Hart House Box Office.

The New "BLUE AND WHITE MARCH"

Written by CAPTAIN JOHN SLATTER, V.D.

includes the "TORONTO" and a special arrangement

of

"The Blue and White"

Hear the premiere performance at the

VARSITY BAND CONCERT

at

Convocation Hall, Tuesday, February 20th

8.15 p.m.

Admission 15 cents

Tickets on sale S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Room 82, U.C., and from Band Members.

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit

for the coming dance.

They are up to the minute.

Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you.

Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St.

KI. 0991

571 Yonge St.

KI. 3270

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps

6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1866

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you

consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optomietrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

BIG SIX BASKETEERS TRIM VOLLES A.C. IN ROUGH TILT

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By M. A. F.

Vic women, attention. There will be a swimming practice tonight from 8-9 in the O.C.E. pool. No one turned up for the practice last week, and unless we have a little action tonight the meet will be decidedly feeble. The Vic meet is Wednesday, Feb. 14 from 8-10 in the O.C.E. pool. Vic has not done much of late in interfaculty swimming so how about turning over a new leaf this year?

When St. Hilda's walked away with a score of 7-0 over St. Mike's in last Tuesday's hockey game it looked as if the blue and grey sextet were headed for the championship with no difficulty. A scoreless tie with the Victoria second team on Saturday morning rather changes the outlook. It would seem that there will be considerable rivalry for the women's interfaculty hockey title this year as usual.

The women's senior intercollegiate basketball team is lined up for a practice game with the "Y" at 6.30 tonight in the O.C.E. gym. This game will probably be the final practice before Marion Forward definitely chooses her senior squad. Competition for the nine positions is very keen, with eleven girls still in the running. Al Butler, B. Longley and Eleanor Wallace, the standbys of last year's team, are fairly sure of positions; there is enough good new material to back them and form a first rate Varsity outfit.

On Thursday at 7.30 at Hart House the 1934 senior team will play its first game against the Varsity Grads with a return game on Monday, Feb. 19.

The first half of the interfaculty hockey schedule is completed. In Group I which consists of Vic I, U.C. and Meds, Vic has scored 2 wins and U.C. defeated Meds. In Group II in which Vic II, St. Hilda's and St. Hilda's are playing, Vic II has two scoreless ties, St. Mike's one scoreless tie and one defeat, St. Hilda's one scoreless tie and one record win.

Montreal, Que. Feb. 7.—The Canadian Pacific S.S. Montrose, Captain M. F. Murray, sails from St. John Friday and Halifax Saturday with passengers for Glasgow, Belfast and Liverpool.

Prominent among those sailing are Richard Jack, R.A.; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. F. Van Den, Wyngeart, J. W. Barrow, J. E. McComber, and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Strong of Montreal; Mrs. L. Barnett, Miss Bernice Wassell, W. Loree, W. H. White, J. N. Winton, A. S. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bishop, Professor Leitch, D. Brown, of Toronto; Major W. Mavor, Stuart Sharpe, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. R. Buchanan, St. John, N.B.; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Sedgewick, of Calgary.

Casablanca, Morocco, Feb. 9.—The day was spent here by the Canadian Pacific's Mediterranean cruise liner Empress of Australia, and her large party of U.S. and Canadian tourists had their first taste of Oriental life and colour since the cruise began a little more than a week ago.

The visitors came ashore early in the day, some taking a motor drive through this town and others making an excursion by electric train to Rabat, administrative capital of the protectorate and seat of the French Residency.

Most of the tourists were astonished at the progress in development of public works and building activities in both Rabat and Casablanca, which are now regarded as among the most progressive towns in North Africa. Picturesque native quarters still back on the tourist, however, and the bazaars were found as interesting as the mosques, Sultan's palace, gardens and other sights of the towns.

The Empress of Australia sailed this evening for Cadiz, Spain.

AFTER BAD START BLUES WIN 36-30

Neat Combination Play is Big Factor in Their Victory

HALF-TIME SCORE 17-15

By Geo. Burt Gerrans

After a slow start, Varsity's Big Six basketball team tightened down on Yolles A.C. and pulled out on top of a 36-30 score. The game, played at West End Y, on Saturday night, was featured by rough play on the part of the furniture men and good natured but fighting tolerance on the part of the Blue squad.

In the first half Eisen started the ball rolling for Yolles by chalking up nine points before Varsity could get one. After the first five minutes Varsity clamped the lid on the little chap and prevented him from scoring another point during this half. At the same time they were looking after their own score sheet and by neat, fast combination rolled in several baskets, leading by 17-15 at the interval.

Yolles came back with a bang in the second half and Yank Shanahan ran in five points to put his team one up. From that point on the game became more of a battle with first one team and then the other taking the lead. Yolles were much given to taking long shots at the basket, most of which did not go in. On the other hand Varsity worked the ball around till they saw a break and then did some plain and fancy ball handling which usually ended up in a score.

Yolles tried to let loose a last-minute spurt to draw even but Varsity saw them all the way, matching speed with speed with the result that the Blues were six points up when it was all over. To pick any players on the Varsity team as being outstanding would be to do the others an injustice because the combination and passing at times verged on the "too-polite".

Levy was high scorer for Varsity with ten points and the generalship of Bodrug and Gold kept things moving smoothly in the right direction.

The best for Yolles were Eisen, Shanahan and Shapero. Sniderman also turned in a good game.

Varsity — Levy 10, Bodrug 1, Willis 2, Sniderman 7, Gold 4, Gordon 1, Young, Mitchell 9, Prince 2.

Yolles — Sone, Eisen 13, Gallander 4, Shapero 2, Sibulash, Sniderman, Hanna 1, Shanahan 8, Pearson 2.

SECONDS VANQUISH McMASTER 38 TO 31

Ragged Exhibition Results in Easy Win for Blue Squad

NEVER HEADED

In a rather uninteresting and raggedly played basketball game the Varsity intermediates led by the sharp-shooting Applebaum, outscored the McMaster quintet to the tune of 38-31 in an intercollegiate fixture played at Hamilton on Friday night. The tilt was featured by a great many long shots, most of the baskets being scored from outside the defence.

The Blues outplayed their rivals throughout the game and never relinquished the lead which they gained early in the contest. At foul shooting Varsity also showed better form, sinking 4 shots out of 8, whereas the Baptists only scored on 2 out of 8.

In the first half Varsity started

(Continued on Page 4)

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

Varsity has never been beaten by McGill on Toronto ice. But who thought so Saturday night five minutes to full time? Then came those three goals to prove that the Redmen's jinx can't be downed. Most of the fans present wanted to know how McGill came to defeat Varsity 5-0 in Montreal. One reason is the bigger ice surface at the Forum. The other is that Varsity was disorganized for ten minutes and were labouring under penalties.

To return to the game here we can say that no gamer sextet has donned the U. of T. uniform than this year's team. With the score 4-1 against them those lads never lost hope. Then they pulled the ganging act inside the McGill blue line and the light flashed three times in about five minutes to tie the score. Without a doubt it was the best game that has been played at the U. of T. Arena this season.

For twelve minutes after the second period started both teams were laying in the hips, elbows and knees. It kept the crowd on the edges of their seats. As a matter of fact the whole game was exciting. The way Frank Shipp stopped most of the shots banged at him was nothing short of phenomenal. You saw a McGill man go in on Shipp and then you looked at the light. It didn't go on and then you saw the puck in the corner. Two of the Redmen's goals were gifts on what should have been easy shots to handle but they went into the net somehow or other.

Ernie Rey played a great game on the defence, too. Campbell, Hendry, Cunningham and McPherson scored the four goals for Varsity. Normie McClelland gave Jack McGill plenty to worry about and finally McGill lost his temper for which he went to the cooler. That second Varsity front line of Cunningham, Sweeney and Jeffery deserve a big hand too. You can count on one hand the number of goals that have been scored on Shipp when they are on the ice. In other words, they can back-check. Cunningham almost scored a goal when Varsity was two men short.

Nels Crutchfield at centre for the visitors was the best player on the ice. He has everything, so there isn't much use trying to describe him in detail. Jack McGill had more speed than he could use at times. He must be a treat to watch on a big sheet of ice. The McGill team has plenty of weight all over the lineup. Even McHugh in goal has plenty of weight. And even on the small ice surface Saturday night there were times when the visitors' combination power plays were smooth and effective. But there isn't much need to worry about McGill defeating the Hamilton Tigers in the playoffs for the Allan Cup.

There were fourteen penalties handed out during the game and, as you can imagine, feelings were rubbed the wrong way a bit several times. But there were no fights and no hard feelings after the game when the two teams shook hands. The Varsity team and its supporters have every reason to be proud of their performance. McGill has never been beaten in twenty starts this season. They have been tied by three teams and the U. of T. sextet is one of them.

Friday night the senior cagers lost a tough decision to McMaster in a Big Six tilt. Between the referee and the time-keeper the Blues didn't have a chance even though they were one point up when the full time was actually played. But to square things up they turned around after their defeat in Hamilton and defeated the league-leading Yolles quintet at West End Y Saturday night to show the boys how it can be done. The intercollegiate intermediates defeated McMaster Friday night to stay right in the thick of their series and the juniors dropped a game Saturday night to West End Y.

Engineers Frolic On The Ice Shinny Game Good At Any Price

By "Unsnivill"

The 3rd year Civil Engineers had tea with the 4th year uncivils between periods of an historic hockey game Sat. afternoon. The score was six-all but nobody cared about that.

It was a lovely game!!!

The game was extraordinarily clean. There were only 30 penalties handed out. The speed of the contest was so great that "Thunderbolt" Hewitt of 111 yr., going down the ice at lightning-like speed, couldn't stop and flew clean over the end of the rink, landing in the much-loved snowbank . . . loved by Hewitt.

Later come back to me

"Fireball" Agnew, the former Frog's Ice Centre ace, in one of his cork-screw rushes so bewildered his opponents and himself that he scored a goal unassisted against his own team. "Red" King, public enemy No. 1, turned in the best performance of his ice-splitting career, having no less than 17 penalties to his credit . . . 9 trips and 8 cross-checks.

How about a Lady Byng Trophy for King?

The IV year team have applied for a lead puck and cast-iron sticks for the next game. The pick of their team was "Squint-Eye" Dolbear, former Port Perry flash-in-the-pan, who had to be put out of the game. His bullet-stops were ripping the goal nets into shreds. "Stand-em-up-and-knock-em-down" McBride played very gently on the defence. His airplanespin body checks lifted opponents clear over the boards.

Sweet-Hearts Forever!!!

The game was nip-and-tuck, hip-and-duck, find-the-puck, all the way. Neither team could break the tie or a skull.

But they tried ever so hard!!!

The line-ups: III yr. — "Pop-Eye" Parker, "Thunderbolt" Hewitt, "Fireball" Agnew, "4-pin" King, "Wimpy" Arnold, "Frozen-Pan" Johnson, "Rocket" Patterson.

IV year. — "Squint-Eye" Dolbear, "Above" McBride, "Hickory" Hoscacon, "Engineer" Wilson, "Smoke-Shot" Johnson, "Iron-Hip" McDonald, "Worsters" Waring.

The referee was killed in action at the first face-off. The overtime will be played at 3.75 a.m. the second Tuesday of the week after next.

MARIA GUY'S Breton Sailor has made her the big name in Paris this season. We've sketched the original, one of the highlights of our French collection—the flat cloche crown is attached to the rolled-up brim, a simple ribbon band and cockade trim it. Millinery Salon—Third Floor.

THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

Sport Notices

Interfaculty Hockey—
Week Feb. 12-15

Monday at Stadium—
4 p.m.—Wycliffe vs Knox
5 p.m.—Sr. U.C. vs Sr. Meds
Tuesday at Stadium—
4 p.m.—Jr. U.C. vs Vic
5 p.m.—Jr. S.P.S. vs Jr. Meds
Tuesday at Arena—
3.30—Trinity vs Emmanuel
O.C.E. vs Pharmacy
Wednesday at Arena—
4 p.m.—Dents vs Sr. U.C.
Sr. Meds vs Sr. S.P.S.
Thursday at Stadium—
4 p.m.—Wycliffe vs Trinity
5 p.m.—O.C.E. vs Forestry

Baseball Umpires—

Monday, Carveth and Shulman.
Tuesday, Wong and Cragg.
Wednesday, Dyke and Anten.
Thursday, Gould and Bert Gerrans.

Water Polo—

Postponed playoff between Jr. Meds and Sr. S.P.S. will be played next Friday, Feb. 16 at 5 p.m. Final game on Monday, Feb. 19.

Track—

Track athletes are urged to be on hand at 4.30 sharp Tuesday, Feb. 13th for the indoor meet. Events: 2 miles, 1.2 mile relay, running high jump, pole vault, standing broad jump.

Women's Intercollegiate Basketball—

Game between Y and seniors, 6.30 at U.T.S. gym. Seniors please be at U.T.S. by 6.15 to get uniforms.

THE EPICURE GRILL AND TEA ROOM upstairs

opp. Eaton's College St.
433 YONGE STREET
Special attention to Students
Full Course Meals from 25c. up
We serve economical plate luncheon 20c.

SAINTS AND VIC TIE IN REPLAYED GAME

The much-delayed hockey game between St. Hilda's and Vic II was played off Saturday noon and resulted in a scoreless tie.

There was little of the excitement that was evident in their first encounter and neither team displayed the brand of hockey of which it is capable. The first period was slow and uncertain, but the last two periods produced plenty of action. St. Hilda's dominated most of the play, although Vic's fighting second team with the aid of B. Gordon, their efficient goalie, combined to consistently break up the St. Hilda's attacks.

Kay Symons was the best player for the Saints, who were unfortunately without the services of K. Grubbe, stellar defenceman. Ruth Leavens turned in a fine performance for Vic and Jean Gordon was particularly good on defence.

St. Hilda's — Goal, M. MacDonald; defence, E. Palmer, M. Dignan; forwards, I. Wallbridge, K. Symons, P. Harrison; alternates, J. Kirk, P. Cleland, R. Hopkins.

Vic II — Goal, G. Gordon; defence, J. Gordon, J. Blundell; forwards, R. Leavens, M. Turner, E. Hart; alternates, G. Workman, M. Pratt, D. Burgess, A. Jones.

Referee—B. Brennan.

80th ANNIVERSARY--U.C. LIT. FEBRUARY 22nd, 1934

Parliamentary Club - Dinner - Lit. Meeting

Tickets 75c. - Feb. 14th, 12-2 p.m., College Rotunda

"No Profit" Sale

CONTINUOUS

Nightgowns—

A wide variety to choose from. All are of Real Silk Crepe de Chine. Some have open panel backs and are lavishly lace trimmed. Others are richly enhanced with distinctive embroidery. $2.98

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
 (Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
 Phone RI. 3600
 4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12
 1.30—C.C.F. Club at Women's Union, 79 St. George St. Wm. Irvine, M.P.
 4.30 p.m.—Final of 2nd year U.C. debate to be held in the junior common room for representatives in Robynette Trophy. Topic: "Resolved that the benedict is happier than the bachelor". Affirmative is upheld by Minsky brothers, negative by Rae and A. C. Smith. Everybody welcome!

8 p.m.—U.C. Public Speaking Contest for women at the Union. See rules and lists in U.C. cloak room and Union.

8 p.m.—Alumni Bridge, Eaton Auditorium.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13
 4.30 p.m.—Meeting of the University Women's Press Club at the Women's Union. The Short Story Prize and Press Club pins will be presented, and the winning articles read aloud. Original work meeting. Tea.

5 p.m.—T.C.C.U., Wymilwood. The speaker is Rev. D. E. McDonald of India.

Classified Advertisements

PRIVATE TUTOR

M.A., Oxford, Latin, English, History, Mathematics, French, and special subjects. Midway 3110.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPING

Theses carefully and accurately typed. Ly. 6501.

LOST

In the men's cloakroom, Anatomy Bldg., a wrist-watch. Finder please return to Medical Office. Reward.

VARSITY-McGILL 4-4

(Continued from Page 1)

the penalty box. Varsity also turned in their blue ribbon game, staging as usual a last period attack which netted them four goals and allowed them to come through with a tie.

The game opened as a speedy, close checking contest in which the McGill sextet met with unexpected resistance. Nels Crutchfield sank the only counter of the first session when he picked up McGill's rebound to beat Shipp from close in. The second went scoreless, although both goalies stopped several hard drives. Farquharson again registered in the third with a rather fluky shot from the blue line which caught Shipp unawares. Campbell for Varsity and Meiklejohn for McGill then tallied within a minute of each other with Crutchfield getting his second goal three minutes later. Things looked rather bad for Varsity at this stage with the score reading 4-1 with about five minutes to go. The Blues then opened up with an offensive which had the McGill team on the run and swarmed around the Montreal nets, peppering McHugh with shots, three of which he failed to locate. Cunningham bagged the first one, on a pass from Rey. Hendry tallied three minutes later and with one minute left to play McPherson flashed the red light for the equalizer after taking Rey's pass.

The entire Varsity team played real hockey. However, the work of Cunningham and McPherson when the Blue team was short handed was exceptionally good. Rey was a standout both offensively and defensively, while McLelland looked to be the fastest man on the ice. The well balanced squad from McGill had no weak spots, although the performances of McGill and Crutchfield was perhaps the most noteworthy.

McGill—Goal, McHugh; defence, Hall, Meiklejohn; centre, Farquharson; wings, Farmer, Robertson; subs, Powers, Crutchfield, Shaughnessy, McGill.

Varsity—Goal, Shipp; defence, Campbell, Rey; centre, McLelland; wings, McPherson, Hendry; subs, Williamson, Cunningham, Sweeney, Jeffrey.

SUMMARY

First Period
 McGill.....Crutchfield (McGill) 14.20
 Second Period

No score.

Third Period

McGill.....Farquharson ..... 2.00

Varsity.....Campbell ..... 5.00

McGill.....Meiklejohn (McGill) ..... 5.30

McGill.....Crutchfield (McGill) ..... 9.00

Varsity.....Cunningham (Rey) ..... 14.00

Varsity.....Hendry ..... 17.20

Varsity.....McPherson (Rey) ..... 19.00

Penalties—first period, Crutchfield

Farmer (2), Jeffrey, Hendry, Campbell;

second period, Campbell, Jeffrey,

McGill; third period, Wigle, Campbell,

Farmer, McLelland, Meiklejohn.

Referee—"Duke" McCurry.

5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in the S.C.M. library, Hart House.

8 p.m.—Joint meeting of the Avukah

Society and the League for Labour

Palestine at the Women's Union.

8.15 p.m.—"Le Malade Imaginaire", presented by U.C. French Club at Hart House. Secure tickets now from the executive and cast.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14

8.15 p.m.—The U.C. Classical Association will meet in the Women's

Union, St. George St. A play by Professor Norwood.

8.30 p.m.—U.C. Junior-Senior dance,

Roof Garden, Royal York. Stan

St. John's orchestra. Informal.

3 p.m.—Dr. John Mackay of South America will give an address in Trinity College Library on "The Spiritual Spectrum of Latin America".

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15

8.15 p.m.—Open meeting of Liberal

Club in the Music Room, of Hart

House. Mr. Mitchell F. Hepburn,

M.P., will speak.

8.30 p.m.—Medical Society "Daffydill"

Night, Hart House Theatre. Tickets may be purchased from year presidents and members of the cast.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

U.C. WOMEN

U.C. ladies' swimming meet is to be held Tuesday, February 13th in the U.T.S. swimming pool at 8 sharp. All interested in trying out for the inter-faculty team please turn out.

U.C. JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE

It has been necessary to make a change in the orchestra for the Junior-Senior dance. Stan St. John will provide an eight piece orchestra for the evening.

"LE MALADE IMAGINAIRE"

There are still a few more tickets available for the U.C. French Club play at Hart House Theatre tomorrow evening. These may be procured at the box office. There are no reserved seats.

U.C. MUSICALE

The final W.U.A. musicale will be held next Sunday, February 18 at 4 p.m. at the Union, when Mr. Scott Malcolm and Mr. Reginald Godden will give a two-piano recital. It is hoped that all U.C. women will take advantage of hearing these well-known young duo-pianists. All members of the faculty and their wives are cordially invited to be present. U.C. women are perfectly at liberty to bring guests, and it is hoped they will avail themselves of this opportunity.

U.C. PARLIAMENTARY CLUB

Next session—Thursday, February 15th at 4 p.m. The Hermant Government will meet the House for the first time. Debate on interests of individual as apposed to interests of the state.

FORESTRY AT-HOME

Let's make this the best party ever—all out for the annual At-Home in the Music Room, Hart House at 9.30 p.m., February 16th.

C.C.F. CLUB

C.C.F. Club at 1.30 sharp today in the Women's Union, 79 St. George St. Mr. William Irvine, M.P., will discuss the agricultural and financial aspects of the C.C.F. platform and answer questions. All are welcome, especially members.

U.C. EXECUTIVES

Special meeting of all University College executives in the Lit. offices on Monday, February 12th at 1 o'clock. Members of the Lit. Executive, Athletic Board, Staff of the Undergraduate; Officials of the U.C. Parliament and Year Executives are requested to attend.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

5 p.m. today in Music Room. Please note succeeding concerts at 5 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays (not Wednesdays as printed last week).

IRVINE WILL ADDRESS

VARSITY C.C.F. CLUB

(Continued from Page 1)

ing his eleven years in the House as a representative of the United Farmers of Alberta, he has secured a reputation as a forceful speaker. It was the U.F.A. which took the initiative in forming the C.C.F. two summers ago and since that date Mr. Irvine has devoted all his energies to the support of the new party.

Last week Mr. Irvine was the guest speaker of the McGill Debating Union. This week it is the opportunity of the students of Toronto to hear him. The C.C.F. Club is opening their meeting to the public.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PARTY

TO BE HELD DOWN-TOWN

(Continued from Page 1)

past, will be required to purchase a single ticket for their lady friend or escort as the case may be. These tickets will be on sale in the Rotunda from 12 to 2 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the week of the dance. Members of the college not in the graduating class may purchase couple tickets. These tickets will be on sale at the same time.

Stanley St. John's eight-piece orchestra have been engaged to provide the harmonious discord so essential to terpsichorean revels. Although the dance has been moved to the stately castle on Front Street, it is hoped that it will lose none of the informal gaiety that has marked this event in past years.

McMASTER CAGERS

WIN BIG SIX TILT

(Continued from Page 1)

lar fashion. Coming out to start the second period with the score 21-20 in favour of Art Burridge's crew, the Blues seemed destined to go places but the advantage in height seemed to be too great a handicap. Down three points with five minutes to go Levy and Gold sank two quick dunks to give Varsity a 37-36 lead. Bodrug and Sniderman sank free throws to make the score 39-36 for the Blues. The Baptists remained in there when Laughren and Stroud got two free throws in succession to make the score 39-38. When at this point, with 30 seconds to go, Stroud, who had been on the rampage all night, went wild and sank a beautiful one-handed throw to make the score 40-39 against the Blues. In a desperate effort to sink a rebound Caplan fouled Stroud who sank the free throw to make the count 41-39.

The second half saw a continuation of the arguments with Doc Mitchell again to the fore. Doc apparently knew the rules too well as he was put off by Referee Jeffers for arguing too frequently. In addition to Mitchell the Blues lost the services of Willis and Caplan who were ejected for personal fouls.

The McMaster crew showed a pair of stars in Dilworth and Stroud. The latter was high scorer while Dilworth was just two points behind. Palmer, former St. Mike's star, was held well in check. Lew Hayman's squad as a whole, played well, with Bodrug, Sniderman and Levy leading the Blue scorers.

Varsity—Goal 5, Sniderman 7, Mitchell 5, Bodrug 10, Willis 4, Caplan 1, Young, Levy 7, Prince.

McMaster—Dilworth 13, Palmer 4, Laughren 5, Stroud 15, Moore 4, Lennie, Fittin, Dingwell.

Referee—Jeffers.

SECONDS VANQUISH

McMASTER 38 TO 31

(Continued from Page 3)

fast and soon had the score up to 8-0. But McMaster went after them and forced McCutcheon's men to take time out when they tied the score at 12-12. The half ended with Varsity on the long end of a 17-14 count.

In the second half Applebaum broke loose and soon had the Hamilton squad on the run. Hard as the home team tried they couldn't cut down the lead and the game ended with the final score 38-31.

In addition to Applebaum, both Vanderleek and H. Newman turned in nice games for Varsity, while Dingwall and Hill were the big threats on the McMaster squad.

Varsity—Applebaum 18, Gibson 2, Vanderleek 6, H. Newman 5, Stronach 5, Henderson 2, Young. McMaster—Dingwall 16, Hill 10, Holland 1, Etherington 1, Fudge 2, Sharpe, Downs 2, Torrance.

Referee—Jeffers.

EFFICIENCY at the HELM

WHEN YOU SHOP WITH A D.A. AT EATON'S

Varsity Man or Co-ed—You can steer the good ship "Budget" into smooth sailing with an Eaton D.A. as your compass.

Figure your probable expenses for a week, a month, a term. Then deposit in Eaton's D.A. sufficient to cover the amount. Then when shopping simply say "Charge to my D.A." At the end of the month you receive an itemized statement of your purchases. Use it as a basis for future budgeting and a record of past expenditures.

There are other features:

1. All purchases are delivered as paid.
2. You can telephone for goods advertised "No C.O.D. Phone Orders".

Call in or write for information to the "Customer's Deposit Account Offices".

Main Store—Fourth Floor
 College Street Store—Third Floor

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

SENATE IMPORTANT

IN CONSTITUTION

(Continued from Page 1)

additional members if the Commons require to force a bill through the Senate?" we inquired further.

"Yes, the number should be limited," Senator Cote answered, "simply because of what I said before—that during a period of national strife, without the fixation of numbers in the Senate bills might be forced through by Commons which in saner times might be regretted. The present number of ninety-six members is, I think, sufficient, and it would not make for economy to enlarge it."

"Is it true that the Commons tried to repeal Section 98 of the Criminal Code several times, only to be frustrated by the Senate?"

"I do not know if that is the case or not," was the reply of Senator Cote, who received his appointment only recently, "but I do not remember hearing of any absolute impasse between the wishes of the Commons and of the Senate."

"What do you think of Section 98—is it in accordance with the principles of British justice?" we asked further.

"Yes, it is. British tradition has always been in favour of evolution by what is called constitutional means. And a law preventing the planning of the overthrow of the machinery of government by force, a revolution usually organized by those of foreign birth who have come into this country which our ancestors and ourselves have built up to the state it is now in—surely such a law repressing these elements and defending our own rights is justifiable?"

"Do you agree with Prime Minister Bennett's attempt to revive titles in Canada?" we inquired next.

"I am fully in accordance with that policy," replied Senator Cote. "By means of a title of some kind, men and women of merit who have, through some kind of service, benefited their country and fellowmen may be rewarded in a most suitable way. It is not inconsistent with democracy, as it is said to be. Recognition by titles does not constitute a setting up of an aristocracy but an acknowledgement that these persons so honoured possess superior merit."

MASSEY PRAISES

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

(Continued from Page 1)

helped to develop such important playwrights as Philip Barry."

Mr. Massey said further, "I have always had a longing to see in Canada, an arrangement whereby English casts may be brought out with some hope of success. My idea is to bring out a nucleus of a London company and recruit the rest of the cast from Canada. This experiment, however, might be uncertain of success, since it is difficult to mix English and Canadian talent. There is polish in the English stage and vitality in the American. But the American stage lacks feeling; it is less sensitive to emotional values. On the other hand, the English stage is too anaemic. I sincerely think, however, that Canadian drama will soon achieve a prominence sufficient to have plays produced in London."

Mr. Massey placed great stress upon the importance of Little Theatre activity. "It gives," he said, "an impetus to theatrical advance. Almost every contemporary actor of note was prepared for the theatre in the training ground of a Little Theatre."

Glowing accounts of the interest in the drama and the work of the Players' Guild, have been heard by Mr. Massey, he said.

The distinguished speaker was introduced by Professor Lange of the University, who sketched his brilliant career. A graduate of Varsity, Mr. Raymond Massey was prominent in campus theatrics, going on later to win outstanding success on the London stage, as well as great popularity in motion pictures. His latest appearance, prior to his present American tour, was in the London stage success "The Rats of Norway."

TRINITY LIT. VOTES DOWN

PRACTISE OF EUTHANASIA

(Continued from Page 1)

Commons. After he had finished the opinion was expressed that the patient would probably have died from natural causes before the legal machinery had been brought into operation.

H. L. Seaborn took the first speaker to task for confusing the theory of Euthanasia with the old Stoic ideal which was indifferent to man's sufferings and did not take the present-day gloomy attitude.

Stan St. John's Orchestra
 Roof Gardens, Royal York

JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE
WEDNESDAY, $1.25 per couple

Tickets in Rotunda
 12-2 p.m. To-day

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13th, 1934

No. 84

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Austria is virtually in a state of civil war as the result of a three-cornered conflict between Nazis, Fascists and Socialists. About 150 were killed and hundreds were wounded yesterday in street fighting between Socialists and government troops.

Premier Bennett declares that it is Canada's policy to support any measure brought forward within the Empire for world peace and disarmament.

Six were killed and eight wounded in a prison riot in Walla Walla, Washington.

The British Government began a trade war upon France by placing a twenty per cent surtax on French imports, because of the alleged discrimination against British imports into France.

Leon Blum, French Socialist leader, regards the success of the twenty-four hour general strike as an indication that the labouring classes will stand solidly together to fight Fascism.

HONOURS DIVIDED IN PUBLIC SPEAKING

Winning Co-Eds Both Choose Canada As Their Subject

JUDGES UNANIMOUS

The University College Women's Public Speaking Contest, held last night at the Women's Union under the auspices of the St. Margaret's Alumnae Association, was won jointly by Miss Audrey Howard, and Miss Margaret Dawson. The judges, Professor E. K. Brown, Mrs. Blackstock and Professor E. A. Dale, were so agreed on the merits of the speeches of these two contestants that instead of awarding a single prize they decided to divide the honours. Both winning speakers chose Canada as the topic for their discussion, Miss Howard's subject being, "The Beauty of Canadian Scenery", and Miss Dawson's "Canada's Symbol of Prosperity".

Miss Howard drew her hearers from this workaday, mundane world of worry and tumult, "where the most familiar word beginning with a d is depression" to a contemplation of the scenic glories of the Dominion. Beginning with a view of our awe-inspiring Rockies, and taking in her scope a wide panorama of Canada's beauties from the Pacific to the Atlantic.

Miss Dawson discussed Canada's gold mining industry, showing its importance in the world today and pointing out its potentialities.

There were eleven speakers in the contest. Miss Elsie Teddingham spoke on "Canadian Poetry", treating her subject not in a critical way but rather garnering names and poems from her Scrap Book. Miss Harriet Kamman, treating the topic, "Intelligence and the Censorship Problem", discussed the stupidity of a censorship system. "Censorship is an abomination in the sight of the Lord," she declared. "There is no education of tastes like freedom, and no cure like surfeit."

Miss Virginia Campbell, in speaking on "The Condition of Women in India", deplored the wretched state where child marriages are undermining the health and thought of the nation, which is bound in the shackles of the past. Miss Nora Loeb, whose subject was "School as a Preparation for Life", pointed out the inadequacy of a system which teaches men only the means whereby to live, instead of

(Continued on Page 4)

U.C. TO CELEBRATE 'LIT'S' BIRTHDAY IN GREAT HALL

Changes and Developments
Since 1854 to be Outlined

FAMOUS MEN MEMBERS

Lit. at One Time Performed
All the Duties of the Present S.A.C.

On Thursday, February 22, the U.C. Literary and Athletic Society celebrate their eightieth anniversary in the Great Hall of Hart House. Here U.C. students and graduates will assemble to a sumptuous banquet and to be regaled with their stories of the ever-glorious past.

The function opens with a meeting of the U.C. Parliament at 5 p.m. The debate is one of immediate interest to the listeners: "Resolved that the influence of the graduates upon this University is a pernicious one." Dinner is served in the Great Hall at 7 p.m. The regular meeting of the society, informal, will take place in the common room, where smokes and cider will be served. Addresses will be given by Principal Wallace of U.C., Sir Robert Falconer and Dean DeLury.

All graduates of the old King's College and U.C. are invited and between 250 and 300 are expected. Among the more distinguished graduates are William Mulock, oldest living member of the society, and Dr. Cody. Other outstanding ex-members who have been invited and will probably be seen there are Premier Henry, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, W. E. N. Sinclair, Hon. Vincent Massey, Mr. Justice MacFarlane and Mr. Justice Armour.

(Continued on Page 3)

MEDICAL SOCIETY DAFFYDIL NIGHT

Seven Skits and Other Stunts to be Given by Meds and Medettes

A TRADITIONAL EVENT

"Daffydil Night" the annual Medical student night, will be presented by the Medical Society in Hart House Theatre on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. This entertainment has a most interesting history, and is probably the oldest affair of its kind in the University. Daffydil was first held in 1897 and since that time has had a varied career. It has been presented in Massey Hall on many occasions and also in Convocation Hall, being recognized as a university function in 1914. Daffydil has been held in Hart House Theatre since 1928.

The main part of the programme consists of seven skits, presented by each of the years and the medettes. The titles of the various numbers are as follows: 1st year, "In the Morgue"; 2nd year, "Samson and Delilah"; 3rd year, "Six and Five Eighths"; 4th year, "Lewd Interchange"; 5th year, "A Mob Scene"; 6th year, "The Last Round-up"; and the Medettes offer scenes adapted from "Mixed Methods and Not Lost", by Ronald Genes. Additional features will include inter-act numbers and the famous Gistern Choir—twelve male voices singing medical songs accompanied by an undergraduate orchestra.

Epistols, the glorified magazine programme, edited by Eddie Delorme, will be distributed to the audience. This well-known publication contains cartoons, sketches, and many humorous poems and features. It is reported

(Continued on Page 3)

MASTHEAD MEETING

There will be a meeting of the masthead of The Varsity in the Women's Office at 4.45 p.m. today. This will be an important meeting and everyone should attend.

STUDENTS TO HEAR FAMBUS MISSINARY

Dr. E. Stanley Jones of India Spending Ten Days in Canada

WORKS WELL-KNOWN

The occasion of the visit of Dr. E. Stanley Jones to Toronto will afford the students of the University of Toronto an opportunity to hear one of the most outstanding missionary-evangelists and religious writers in the world today when he addresses a mass meeting of the student body in Convocation Hall at five o'clock next Friday afternoon. The President of the University, Dr. H. J. Cody, will be chairman. Dr. Stanley Jones is known for his remarkable ministry among the peoples of not only India, where he is officially stationed, but of Japan, Korea, China, Burma, South America and the United States. He is the author of a number of widely read books, of which perhaps the best known are The Christ of the Indian Road and Christ at the Round Table.

Dr. Jones arrives here on Thursday from Montreal and Ottawa where he is now speaking. He will address a ministers' round table conference in Bloor Street United Church during the morning. On Thursday evening there will be a men's supper meeting in Simpson's Arcadian Court, at which Sir Robert Falconer is to preside and Dr. Jones will be the speaker. On Friday at five o'clock will be the meeting for students in Convocation Hall under the auspices of the Student Christian Movement of the University. Yorkminster Church will be the scene of a general mass meeting at eight o'clock when the chairman will be the Rev. W. A. Cameron and the guest speaker Dr. Jones.

During the last quarter of the past year Stanley Jones addressed a series of conferences in twenty-six cities of the United States, speaking to capacity audiences of from five to twenty-five thousand people and the reports received from these various centres indicate that great interest is being aroused by this remarkable and inspiring speaker in the burning question of missions.

Ye Snooty Cadillacs Delight To Beat Ye Ford in Daring Flight

—By R.G.A.

A hundred students of biology and zoology crowd the S curve that winds its precarious way around the south end of Queen's Park. A thousand thousand pretty snow flakes flutter down to the winding roadway and lay a shiny, slippery carpet. A heavy streamlined limousine shoots around the side of the Parliament Buildings. It skids dizzily on the first curve. At a forty-five degree angle it approaches the reverse turn. It pivots on its front wheels and whirls merrily about for three complete revolutions. The crowd roars!

The sport soon became highly organized. As car upon car swept around the spiral curve with breath taking gyrations to pile up with the rest of the wreckage, the growing assembly of spectators showed their approval with shrieks of delight and vociferous applause. One student was quickly appointed referee. Another began keeping score. Each drive was credit-

STUDENTS AGREE MANNERS NEEDED AROUND CAMPUS

The Instincts Which Breed Politeness Are Dying Out

SUFFRAGETTES BLAMED

Majority of Students Exonerate Professors of Charge of Rudeness

"Bad manners are not confined merely to the University," said Professor Victor Lange, when asked his opinion of the editorial "The Decline of Manners", which was published in yesterday's Varsity. "Manners in a lumber camp are apt to be as bad as those prevalent here," he said. "Good manners were due to instinct in the first place, but this instinct is rapidly diminishing, and good manners such as exist, are now due to good breeding. Individualism for one thing, and the suffragettes for another, may be blamed for the decline of good manners. Good manners are not a waste of time, for they conquer people," he offered as his opinion.

Murray Levine, of English and His. (Continued on Page 3)

LIBERALS TO HEAR ONTARIO LEADER

Mr. Hepburn's Visit Gives Opportunity to Judge
His Cause

It was announced to The Varsity last evening that Mr. M. F. Hepburn, M.P., Ontario Liberal leader, would address an open meeting of the Liberal Club at Hart House next Thursday evening.

Mr. Hepburn first actively entered the political field when he was elected as member of the Dominion House for Elgin in 1926. He soon became a front benchman due to his debating ability and the fearlessness which he showed in attacking what he considered to be wrong. His fame became widespread and in 1930 he was returned to Ottawa with a greatly increased majority. Shortly afterwards he was chosen the leader of the Ontario Liberal party and since that time he has been tireless in his efforts to place before the electors of Ontario the record of the present administration at Queen's Park and to point out where he believed there is room for improvement.

RHODES SCHOLARS RISE IN PROTEST AGAINST CHARGE OF MEDIOCRITY

ROBINETTE TROPHY

Speaking against the motion, "Resolved that the benedict is happier than the bachelor", Arn Smith and Saul Rae were adjudged the winners in the final of the 11 year U.C. debate as representatives for the Robinette Trophy.

DECLARES FARMERS PAY TO PRODUCE

U.F.O. Secretary Says Their Purchasing Power Must Be Restored

INFLATION NECESSARY

"Farmers are paying for the privilege of working," said Mr. Herbert Hannam, secretary of the U.F.O., who in the absence of Mr. William Irvine, M.P., addressed the C.C.F. Club in the Women's Union yesterday noon.

He cited an instance of a young man who asked for work on a farm near Belleville. The farmer to whom he applied could not afford to pay him, nor even to board him. The final result was that the young man paid the farmer ten dollars to work for his board. Mr. Hannam stated that from statistics taken during the past twenty-five years in the state of New York the average income of a farmer was three hundred and sixty-seven dollars, a hired man's wage.

"Our first task," said Mr. Hannam, "should be to put the farmer's purchasing power back where it was before the depression." Mr. Hannam explained that whether we thought of the farmer as a human being or not, we must restore his purchasing power in order to give a foundation to other economic interests. In order to do this it must be the policy of the U.F.O. and C.C.F. to organize trade (Continued on Page 3)

SENIOR D.H.A. GAME LAST OF SEASON

Western Toronto Nationals
A Powerful Team—
Play Varsity

EXPECT KEEN CONTEST

A game with one of the most powerful teams in senior O.H.A. faces the Varsity senior hockey team tonight, when they meet West Toronto Nationals at Maple Leaf Gardens for the last time of the current season. The return of Russ Bowman to the National defence marked an improvement in the whole National team last Friday, when they defeated Torontos by a decisive margin. With such a game behind them, the West Toronto squad are probably counting on sweeping the Varsity team to one side tonight.

Yet it must be assumed that if Varsity are defeated, it will mean that the West Toronto team play the very best hockey of which they are capable. Any team which can skate with the admittedly important McGill University outfit and hold them to a tie, cannot be considered lightly at any time. McPherson and Hendry are well up in the scoring percentages, with McLellan not far behind. With these three men shooting the puck around, unexpected things are bound to result.

The defensive trio of Stein, Bowman and McAlpine will repel the Varsity invaders with accustomed gusto. Fullerton and Rey will be out in front of Shipp presenting a strong background for the Varsity forwards.

(Continued on Page 3)

Canadian Rhodes Committees Are Not Cuiquid Over-stressing Athletics

RHODES' PLAN FULFILLED

Influence of "Scholars" as Teachers Claimed As Important

"People seem to expect Rhodes Scholars to be a mixture of Socrates, Alexander the Great, Jesus Christ, and Thomas Aquinas," said Professor L. A. MacKay, interviewed on the subject of M. H. Halton's article in The Star, in which Rhodes Scholars were accused of being "pleasant mediocrities". "It's something to be considered pleasant, and not unpleasant, mediocrities," he added.

Other former holders of the scholarships seemed to share his view that too much is expected of them. "It is absurd the way people think that Rhodes Scholars must be supermen," Professor M. D. C. Tait remarked.

Dean Brett was of the opinion that the choice of Canadian Rhodes Scholars was in accordance with what Cecil Rhodes would have wished. "Their weakest point usually in these awards is the assumption that they have anything to do with a man's final occupation. In fact the purpose of Rhodes' will has been satisfactorily met by those persons now in Canada who formerly held such scholarships. The influence is quite as important in the sphere of teaching as in the more pretentious occupations referred to as 'public life'. I don't think either that athletic qualifications have been exaggerated, though it has been the policy to choose men not 'sickled over with the pale cast of thought'."

On this question of overemphasizing athletic qualifications Mr. N. J. Endicott, a former Rhodes Scholar, remarked that while Canada was exempt from this fault, the same could not be said about the States. There was some truth in the wisecrack of calling Oxford and Cambridge contests "Cambridge versus the Rhodes Scholars". He gave an explanation of why so many of them took up the career of teaching. "Men who want to spend a further three years at the university after they have already spent four years here are naturally those who want an academic career."

Downtown Air Purer Than in Queen's Park

In the downtown sections of Toronto the pollution of the atmosphere is as bad as in the industrial and mining districts of Great Britain, according to the Smoke Control Association of Toronto. Dr. Barrett of the Industrial and Hygiene department of the University of Toronto has been carrying on investigations during the past year which show that air pollution is becoming a grave menace to public health.

The gauges which have been set up in different parts of the city are "cones of measured surface area, on which dust particles in the air eventually collect. These fall into bottles which are removed monthly in order to measure the contents." According to these gauges the air around Queen's Park contains more pollution than that in the industrial district around Keele and St. Clair, and is almost as bad as in the downtown district.

Dr. Barrett told The Varsity that so far he had been concerned only with the necessary scientific research; he does not consider that enough data is yet at hand to justify an inquiry into the causes and results of this pollution. The University itself can do nothing about the situation, on account of this lack of information. Dr. Barrett feels that a more lengthy investigation should be made before any definite conclusions can be reached.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6211
Women's Office ..... Midway 6211
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35,
Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Harriet Clark Assistant—Sally Lunn

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13th, 1934

THE O.H.A. AND PROFESSIONALISM

It would seem as though desperate and apparently successful efforts are being made by certain interests in the local hockey world to obtain complete control of the amateur association for their own financial benefit. As one hears one story after another of the moves that have been made during the past few years in so-called amateur hockey circles, one cannot help but interpret them as an insidious attempt to further the interests of professional hockey, and as a treacherous attempt to destroy amateur hockey in everything but name.

Recent decisions of the O.H.A. executive have been manifestly inconsistent and unjust. One instance is the refusal of transfers to the Sudbury club. While we do not dispute the fact that the northern team did not deserve to have the transfers sanctioned, we cannot condone the transfers which were readily granted the Hamilton Tigers. Sport fans are asking why such favoritism should be shown to Hamilton? Would it be because of the revenue the O.H.A. gains from the Tigers? Is it because of some "pull" the team possesses? Would the Maple Leaf Gardens have any interest in the case?

The all too apparent importation of players to bolster the line-ups of various teams is deplorable. Clubs which have been championship contenders this year and last have been fortified with the best material available. We recognize the fact that the O.H.A. executive, no matter how honest may be its desire to purge amateur hockey of such reprehensible activities, is faced with an exceedingly difficult task. Yet a move is underway to increase that difficulty by changing the transfer date from May 15 to September 15. It is abundantly evident that there is an aggressive element in the O.H.A. that does not want equal rights for all teams in the province, and is not the slightest concerned for the maintenance of the amateur code.

The O.H.A. executive seems to favour those clubs which have the most influence with it, and earn for the Maple Leaf Gardens the greatest revenue. If it is true, as has been freely reported in the press, that a contract exists between the O.H.A. executive and the Maple Leaf Gardens whereby all home games for Toronto teams (with the exception of the University of Toronto, which refused to agree) must be played at the Gardens, there is cause for strenuous objection. More amazing still is a clause in the same contract which empowers the Gardens to set the prices for the games. Does it not appear that the O.H.A. is being run for, if not by, interests at the Maple Leaf Gardens, the home of the Maple Leaf professional hockey team?

And now certain recommendations are to be presented to a forthcoming meeting of the O.H.A. which can only be damaging to amateur hockey in Ontario and beneficial to professional interests. One of these recommendations has already been cited, namely, the change in the transfer date from May 15 to September 15. Why have a transfer date at all? Why not emerge from behind the hypocritical cloak and announce the formation of a semi-pro league which will be a recruiting ground for the Maple Leaf hockey team? But then, let's stop calling it the O.H.A.

Another recommendation which will go before the meeting is that Commercial teams be admitted to the O.H.A. provided they preface the name of the club with the name of the city in which they are playing (for example, Toronto C.C.M.), and provided they also enter a junior team in the O.H.A. This latter clause may not be so pleasing to the Commercial bodies but it ought to please the Maple Leaf Gardens and the Maple Leaf hockey club. At that it should prove highly profitable to commercial firms. The dimmest wit can tell us how much chance the ordinary club will have in competition with say, the McColl-Frontenac, with the immense financial resources it could afford to spend "to go out and get" a championship team for advertising purposes. Think how much it would be worth to such a company to enter the Ontario finals and then on into the Canadian playdowns, and have their games broadcast to thousands of listeners over the radio.

Incidentally, where are these Commercial teams to get their material when the players they now use also compete in the O.H.A.? Obviously, there will be an exodus of hockey players from the rest of

Art, Music and Drama

Sketch Room

For the second year the Sketch Room Committee is giving us an Undergraduate Exhibition which is not only interesting, but contains many good and promising works. S.P.S. is represented by 13 exhibitions, O.C.E. by 6, Meds by 3, while the various Arts Colleges have 10; the exhibition includes oil paintings, water colours, pastels, pen and pencil drawings, as well as some line and woodcuts. While landscapes predominate, there are also many nudes or portrait studies, only one still-life and two letters compositions.

Fred McCormick shows three pen caricatures which possess wit, backed by good drawing, and a knowledge of the distortion needed for this kind of work. F. N. Smith's water colours have good composition and colour contrast, though lacking, yet, some freedom of technique. His pencil drawing of a girl proves that he has a very sure hand. The best water colours exhibited are perhaps those of J. T. Ridley, who has treated exceedingly well some difficult subjects, such as the interior of a barn, or a house seen through some trees, with a fine rendering of the shadows. The only two water colours of G. A. Barton make us regret that he has not sent some more, for he has rendered successfully the spirit and atmosphere of the landscapes he chose to represent, especially the glacier which ends in one of those quiet and wild mountain lakes. Should Barton be able to master oil painting in a similar way visitors of future exhibitions will quickly appreciate him. Another good water colourist is Ken Becker, whose treatment of birch trees, Northern Ontario lake, or sky, is not only sure but also very delicate. Bernard Flynn is very gifted and possesses a good technique. His pastel portrait of an old man, especially, is by far his best work, being truly original. While his water colour of a girl, or drawings of a nude and other subjects are good, they reflect too much, however, the "magazine type" of illustration, most catching, with the necessary sex-appeal to please, but this is not art and it is to be hoped that the artists of tomorrow, as well as the public, will revolt against this false standard. W. A. Slater shows originality and art in his illumination of Wolfe's proclamation; the same qualities are found again in his pencil study of a barn, the best work of its kind. V. E. Henderson has brought back some interesting pastels from his trip around the world, and it is to be hoped that Canadian scenery will encourage him to carry on.

From O.C.E. we have some good woodcuts by T. C. Campbell, L. J. Carroll and L. Anderson. The same college has also sent us the only oil painting of the exhibition: D. Rumpel has already a personal style and technique though he'll need to bring less matter on his canvases. W. Geldart can render vividly a stormy and cloudy sky, while by his perpendicular treatment of colour masses he can obtain most impressive effects. H. A. Mulligan's painting is near some of the members of the Group of VII, yet his use of colours is not always consistent or unified within a picture.

G. Kemp, a member of the Sketching Class, exhibits some very interesting studies, well worked out, with a distinct and clear rendering of the various planes, as is so apparent in his sketch of a nude. The drawings of A. Levinthal and G. Henry, while by no means as good as Kemp's work, should not discourage their authors, (Continued on Page 4)

Canadians certainly appreciate choice cigarettes... they smoke more Winchesters than any other blended cigarette!

Winchester
CIGARETTES

SAVE THE POKER HANDS

Blended Right!

Study the Art of Living

Toronto is a part of the great world of travel and society, in the Royal York Hotel. Come here to mingle with the city's notables and their most interesting guests, and to add your share to the atmosphere of gay sophistication.

Afternoon Tea Musicale—4.30 to 6 p.m.
Rex Battle's Concert Orchestra. In the Palm Room off the Main Lobby.

Supper Dance—Introducing a new star, Billy Bissett, with his Royal York Orchestra. 9 to 1.30 a.m., nightly (except Sunday).

Special Rate for College Parties
Phone Wa. 2511

THE ROYAL YORK
A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St.
KI. 0991

571 Yonge St.
KI. 3270

The New "BLUE AND WHITE MARCH"

Written by CAPTAIN JOHN SLATTER, V.D.

includes the "TORONTO" and a special arrangement of

"The Blue and White"

Hear the premiere performance at the

VARSITY BAND CONCERT

at

Convocation Hall, Tuesday, February 20th

8.15 p.m.

Admission 15 cents

Tickets on sale S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Room 82, U.C., and from Band Members.

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

DAFFYDIL NIGHT! Hart House Theatre, Thursday, February 15th,

QUEEN'S AND MCGILL FIGHTERS HERE NEXT WEEK-END

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

Marion Forward's intercollegiate squad came out on the top of a 27-26 score in their game against the Y team last night. Most of the faults of an untried team were evident but the players themselves were well aware of their errors as soon as they were committed and consequently should show smoother organization in their encounter with the Grads this coming Thursday.

The passing of the Varsity team was particularly good, especially on the forward line. Coach Forward had sent them in with instructions to concentrate on their passing, and it was therefore spectacular at the expense sometimes of what looked like excellent chances to score. Phil Griffiths, who refereed the game, was very careful in checking up on steps, which should be of benefit to the team, as Marion Henderson and Helen Hilliard, who are officiating at the intercollegiate tournament, are noted for their zeal in that direction.

The personnel of the team which will represent the University at London, should be announced very soon. All the places are being closely contested for and the final choice will be no easy one to make.

Sally Ballard, who is getting the Grad team together, will have the services of three star forwards, Wilma Hazlett, Louise Crouch and Eleanor Stewart, on Thursday night. Their work on past Varsity teams was instrumental in keeping the Bronze Baby in the proud possession of the University of Toronto for a number of years and even now their combination will be a worthy test for the present wearers of the Blue and White.

The second half of the interfaculty hockey schedule seems to have been completely disarranged, and the Hockey Club must be entirely exempted from any responsibility in this matter. The arrangements have been left to the interfaculty managers with instructions to report the particulars of the president of the Hockey Club when decisions concerning the time and place of the games were made. It will be impossible for our wandering scribes to cover games when the necessary co-operation is entirely lacking. The Hockey Club are doing their duty, we humbly suggest that The Varsity is doing likewise. It only remains for the interfaculty representatives to follow the good example.

SENIOR O.H.A. GAME LAST OF SEASON

(Continued from Page 1)

The National substitute line is well-balanced, with such fellows as Large and Good on the list, as is also that of the Varsity team, with Sweeney, McConvey, Campbell and Cunningham. The first time these two teams met this season, Warren Stevens had but a group of inexperienced youths, with a few of last year's players. The well-organized National team made short work of such an aggregation. It is a tribute to Warren Stevens' coaching ability that in this, the last engagement with the National team, his hockey squad can be counted on to play right up to the fast Nationals.

Sport Notices

Sr. Vic Basketball—Game with S.P.S. on Tuesday at 4 p.m. No practice Tuesday from 3-4.

Rowing Club—For the benefit of any one interested in rowing, who has not yet been out on the machines, it is not yet too late to begin turning out.

SENIOR MEDS OUT U.C. WINS IN HOCKEY

Meds Press Hard but Finally Lose Out in 8-2 Game

U.C. STILL IN THE HUNT

Senior U.C. eliminated Senior Meds from the interfaculty hockey race by administering an 8-2 defeat last night at Varsity Stadium. The win keeps U.C. right in the hunt for the bunting and judging by the way they went last night, they are going to be hard to beat.

The game was wide open from the drop of the puck, both teams pressing hard. Gordie Keith notched the first, slamming one past McCreary. Before the period was over U.C. scored twice more on efforts by Bigelow and Cramp while Coleman notched one for Meds.

The first half of the second period was slow, with Meds forcing the play to try and tie it up. They managed to cut the Red and White lead when Sniffen beat Loughheed from close in. However, their defensive work slipped, and U.C. whipped in five more, three by Bigelow and two by Coulter. Play was slowed up by an inch of snow which kept falling to hinder play.

Loughheed, Bigelow, Coulter and Keith stood out for U.C., while Lynch and Coleman were best for Meds.

U.C. — Goal, Loughheed; defence, Warner, McMichael; centre, Coulter; wings, Cramp, Jamieson; subs, Bigelow, Keith, Harwood, Corrigan.

Meds — Goal, McCreary; defence, Lynch, Sniffen; centre, Coleman; wings, Legatt, Robertson; subs, Starr, Oile, Scott.

Referee—Max Fullerton.

WYCLIFFE OUTCLASSED BY KNOX HOCKEY TEAM

Knox Gets Six Goals in Last Ten Minutes of Tense Play

Outclassing their rivals completely, Knox swamped Wycliffe by a score of 7-0 in an interfaculty hockey game, played at the Stadium yesterday. The game was ragged and listless throughout, mainly due to the heavy blanket of snow which covered the ice.

Knox dominated the play for most of the forty minutes, bottling up the Wycliffites in their own end of the rink and only the erratic shooting of the Presbyterians plus some brilliant stops by Metcalfe, kept the winners from running up the score. Towards the end of the period Bawlich put Knox one up on a solo rush that split the Wycliffe defence easily.

In the last chucker, Knox went to town, raming home six goals in the last ten minutes of play. Neilson, Cuthbertson, Caslor and Campbell being the marksmen, the former two notching a brace of counters.

Knox — Weir, Prouse, Stewart, Neilson, Cuthbertson, Caslor; subs, Bawlich, Campbell, McEachern.

Wycliffe — Metcalfe, Zimmerman, Emmett, Fairweather, Wood, Toone; subs, Kibblewhite, Morrisey, Huether. Referee—Fullerton.

JUNIOR VIC EASY VICTORS OVER GRADUATE STUDIES

Behind the one-lit pitching of Edwards, Jr. Vic romped home to an easy 10-2 victory over Graduate Studies in an interfaculty baseball tilt played yesterday in Hart House.

Edwards was the star of the Vic team with Colmer and Cronia also showing up well. Braaten and Bridgland played effectively for the Grads. Jr. Vic — Cronin, Cunningham, Hamilton, Cowan, Colmer, Grills, Barry, Clipperton, Edwards.

Graduate Studies — Duffel, Braaten, Bridgland, Edmonds, Jansen, Clarke, Wong, Rogers, Miller. Umpires—Carveth and Shulman.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

Next week end will be an important one for Varsity. The success of the senior basketball team in the intercollegiate series will be considerably dependent on a win in London against Western. If the local quintet can win again from the Mustangs they will have every chance of stepping into McGill the following week here at even odds. The Redmen haven't lost yet but they have come uncomfortably close in two starts. They won by one point against Queen's and only ousted Western's chances by three points in Montreal. If respective scores mean anything Varsity could be called to win the title. The Blues defeated Western 41-16 and Queen's 41-27. On that basis we say the title is coming to Toronto this year.

St. Mike's will be playing Varsity in a Big Six fixture here in Hart House Thursday night. It will be a real game to watch. The Irish have been slipping a bit of late and if they don't pull out of their slump Varsity will take a game from them. The first two games were close, being decided by one and two point margins and one was in overtime. St. Mike's couldn't take Yolles in their last two starts and Varsity took the former Lizzies' measure on Saturday night. It will be a real game and a great battle between two rival quintets.

Next Friday night the intercollegiate Assault-At-Arms will be opened in Hart House with McGill, Queen's and Varsity competing. O.A.C. applied for admission but Queen's cast a dissenting vote, which excludes the Guelph aspirants even though Varsity and McGill were willing to let them in.

Varsity's chances are not anything to cause one to forecast the Tom Gibson Trophy's resting here another year but at the same time the other two groups of competitors seem to have been depleted considerably. Varsity and McGill will battle it out in the fencing bouts with Varsity conceding an edge at present. The boxing bouts will be interesting to watch because many of them will be fought by men who are after titles in the absence of their former holders from competition. The wrestling should see Varsity making points in at least three weights. Until the draws are sent in and the teams definitely chosen it is impossible to go into details. Later on in the week the readers of this column will be informed of the draws and records of entries.

At the ski jumping contests staged last Saturday Varsity had three entries and their performances in view of the excellent competition is very commendable. Wilf Carlson made twelfth place, Len Lofing was granted sixteenth position and A. K. Gregson twenty-fourth in a field of thirty entries.

SPORTS MEET

The meet will start at 4.30 p.m. sharp today. No delay can be permitted as the events must be run off on time. All competitors are requested to be on hand at the appointed hour if they wish to compete in their events.

VIC SEXTET DEFEAT U.C. ON SNOW COVERED ICE

The Victoria first team demonstrated the right to head group I of the women's interfaculty hockey series by defeating U.C. 2-0 at Little Vic Rink last night.

The skating was heavy going, consequently the play was considerably slowed up. In fact in the last period both teams experienced difficulty in digging the puck out of the snow drifts. Mary MacKay scored the first goal in the first stanza, on an assist from M. Eastwood. The second goal was scored on a beautiful solo rush by Anne Scott.

Betty Guest and Nan Curran turned in nice performances for U.C., while Jennie Batho and Anne Scott were best for the winners.

U.C. — Goal, McDermid; defence, Hoshal, Prowse; centre, Walkom; wings, Taylor, St. Aubin; alternates, Guest, Curran, Gruben, Walters.

Vic I — Goal, Cowan; defence, Slater, Scott; centre MacKay; wings, Eastwood, Schwarz; alternates, Clements, Fenton, Batho.

MEDICAL SOCIETY DAFFYDIL NIGHT

(Continued from Page 1)

ed that there is no censorship over either Epistaxis or the skits this year. This ancient medical institution has felt a curbing influence intermittently throughout its long career, but the responsibility is now being left entirely to the discretion of the producers and editors.

Daffydil has sometimes been handicapped by the reluctance of women to attend in male company. However, it has been learned on good authority that there is no cause for alarm in this respect. "Don't let silly rumours prevent you from spending an enjoyable evening," said one of the directors to The Varsity last night.

DECLARES FARMERS PAY TO PRODUCE

(Continued from Page 1)

so as to get as much world trade as possible, then come home and organize industries.

"There will be no relief for the farmer from conditions today until price is levelled up. There is no sympathy in urban centres with farmers when they ask for inflation. It is only an economy method. But it must be done. The farmer needs to control marketing. He can best prevent exploitation by meat packers and such organizing industries by co-operation."

"In our U.F.O. programme, we ask for refinancing of all farm mortgages. It means relief from debt. The C.C.F. programme has been criticised because it does not socialize agriculture. The C.C.F. programme will socialize the market." In the opinion of Mr. Han-nam this will solve the pertinent problems of the farmer.

STUDENTS AGREE MANNERS NEEDED

(Continued from Page 1)

tory, said, "The days of chivalry are not merely dead, they are dead and buried. Better manners are displayed on the wrestling mat than in Hart House dining hall, when 'boarder's reach' is the order of the day—but if you don't grab you don't get anything," was his parting shot.

In Al Turner's opinion, I U.C., "Manners are broadening out, and we are taking a step forward. Just because people tend to be more frank we say they have bad manners. We must get rid of all these empty formalities and foppishness. There are better manners displayed in lumber camps where I have been," he said, "but they are the result of the men's shyness and ignorance."

Mary Lugsdin, Moderns, U.C., in defending the manners of members of the faculty, said, "I have always found my professors courteous, and ready at all times to go out of their way to help students, and I consider it a pleasure to do so to them for advice."

"If faculty members have at any time been guilty of discourtesy," said Marion Stambler, II Household Economics, "it can only have been because they were too wrapped up in their affairs to have noticed it."

EYESAVING BOND
REGISTERED

Insist on this watermark, visible in every full size sheet

Long hours of night study ahead of you?

Try EYESAVING BOND and avoid that "Tired Eye" feeling. Just try it. You will be surprised.

It has extra strength that resists tearing at the punching

For sale at your Book or Stationery Store

STURTESS
LUCKETT'S
LINE
Made in Canada

Insist on this Trade Mark in all your Loose Leaf Books and Refills.

The Luckett Loose Leaf, Limited - Toronto

U.C. TO CELEBRATE "LIT'S" BIRTHDAY

(Continued from Page 1)

The U.C. Literary and Athletic Society looks with pride on its past achievements. It was first founded as the Literary and Scientific Society of King's College in 1854, with its chief Adam Crooks, later Hon. Adam Crooks, first Minister of Education in Ontario.

In 1875 the system of elections was introduced. They were sometimes held in U.C. but usually in some town tavern, where a good stock of draught beer was always near at hand. The ballot boxes were kept open as long as one vote was cast every five minutes.

Politics and political parties were prevalent. Elections became mere excuses for street brawls. At the same time, however, there were some excellent debates, with men of such calibre as Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, G. Howard Ferguson, George S. Henry and Mackenzie King debating. At the same time the Lit. Society performed all the duties which the Students' Administrative Council carry out in the University today.

In 1889 The Varsity was taken over by the Lit. Society, till 1895, when it gave over part control to the women, the Meds and the Engineers. Till they abandoned it altogether, they had almost complete control of the staff and editorial.

During the war the Literary Society died a natural death, and debating, politics, all were abandoned.

The society was revived in 1919, but till 1922 was a failure. Then a committee organized all U.C. men as compulsory members, with a two dollar fee. All athletics were to be managed by the society, now called the U.C. Lit. and Athletic Society. As its functions today it is an active movement, actively promoting debates, the U.C. parliament and interfaculty sports.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

terializes after the dies (or dice) have been carefully examined, the thrower is enabled to vent his feeling by calling out "Natural".

C-C

In the case of a crap, the thrower "loses", and on a natural he "wins". With any other number, however, he must continue to cast the dies (or dice) until he repeats his number (thereby winning) or throws a seven, in which case he loses.

C-C

If the total thrown is four, the thrower grits his teeth and mutters "Little Joe" and proceeds to grapple with this great wrestler, for history claims that he has never been thrown.

C-C

Five is a more hopeful cast for the thrower, for Phoebe, as this number is oddly termed, looks kindly upon her creator and will sometimes repeat.

C-C

All the players watch with bated

ALL TORONTONENSIS
WRITE-UPS
and GROUP
PHOTOGRAPHS

Are due now and must be handed in to the S.A.C. Office, Hart House, at once to get in this year's book. Unless definite arrangements have been made to the contrary.

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

breaths after the dies (or dice) have presented a total of six for this is very close to seven, the deadly number.

C-C

Eight is humourously called "Box-cars" by the initiate, due to the possibility of forming it from two fours which appear on the dies (or dice) as four dots arranged in a square.

C-C

The number nine is fatally termed "The German Curse" because of its resemblance to the word of negation in that language—nein.

C-C

Ten, or "Big Dick", is classed with four (Little Joe) because of the difficulty with which it is rethrown.

C-C

When a player loses on the number seven, the dies (or dice) must be relinquished by him to the next player, and so on.

C-C

It is rumoured that a particularly execrable form of gambling has crept into the play of this harmless fireside pastime, and such a practice is to be shunned and deprecated by all true lovers of the game.

C-C

If any further difficulties arise among our readers a further explanation will be cheerfully given. A course of simple lessons has also been arranged to introduce beginners to the finer points of the game, and any wishing to join in this instruction are requested to get in touch with Hiccup.

Friday, February 16th, 8.30 p.m. Tickets 75c. DAFFYDIL NIGHT!

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

BRITISH CONSOLS

COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

British Consols

SEALED IN MOISTUREPROOF CELLOPHANE

Coming Events

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13
4.30 p.m.—Meeting of the University Women's Press Club at the Women's Union. The Short Story Prize and Press Club pins will be presented, and the winning articles read aloud. Original work meeting. Tea.

5 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., Wymilwood. The speaker is Rev. D. E. McDonald of India.

5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in the S.C.M. library, Hart House.

8 p.m.—Joint meeting of the Avukah Society and the League for Labour Palestine at the Women's Union.
8.15 p.m.—"Le Malade Imaginaire", presented by U.C. French Club at Hart House. Secure tickets now from the executive and cast.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14
5-6 p.m.—Victoria College Vocational Guidance groups. In Room 14, Dr. J. H. Couch will speak on Medicine and in Room 18 Mr. C. G. King will speak on Bonds and Mr. A. R. Courtice on Trust Companies.

1 p.m.—Luncheon meeting, Macdonald Cartier Club. Speaker, Hon. Dr. Robb.

4.15—In the auditorium of the Union will be presented "Episode", a one-act play by Arthur Schnitzler.

8.15 p.m.—The U.C. Classical Association will meet in the Women's Union, St. George St. A play by Professor Norwood.

8.30 p.m.—U.C. Junior-Senior dance, Roof Garden, Royal York. Stan St. John's orchestra. Informal.

3 p.m.—Dr. John Mackay of South America will give an address in Trinity College Library on "The Spiritual Spectrum of Latin America".

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15

4 p.m.—U.C. Parliamentary Club.
8.15 p.m.—Open meeting of Liberal Club in the Music Room, of Hart House. Mr. Mitchell F. Hepburn, M.P., will speak.

8.30 p.m.—Medical Society "Daffydil" Night, Hart House Theatre. Tickets may be purchased from year presidents and members of the cast.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16
Intercollegiate boxing, wrestling and fencing.

8.30 p.m.—Medical Society "Daffydil" Night, Hart House Theatre. Small admission price includes "Epistaxis".

Have You Lost Anything?

Have You Anything For Sale?

For quick results put a Classified Ad. in "The Varsity."

Phone Midway 6221

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

JUNIOR-SENIOR TICKETS

You are reminded that the capacity of the Roof Garden is limited. The ticket sale will be closed when this limit is reached. Get your ticket early and be sure of attending this popular party. Tickets on sale today in U.C. rotunda from 12 to 2 p.m.

T.I.C.C.U.

Rev. D. E. McDonald of India will be the guest speaker at an open meeting in Wymilwood at 5 p.m. today.

LIBERAL CLUB

Mr. M. F. Hepburn, M.P., Ontario Liberal leader, will speak to the next meeting on Thursday at 8.15 p.m. in the Music Room of Hart House. Any students who are interested in provincial affairs are cordially invited.

THE UNDERGRADUATE MAGAZINE

The Undergraduate Magazine will go on sale on February 22nd in connection with the Octogenarian celebration of the U.C. Lit. Registration cards must be presented for reduced rates. Sale in U.C. rotunda.

W. S. C. F.

In connection with the universal day of prayer observed by the World Student Christian Federation, there will be a service of intercession conducted by the S.C.M. in Trinity College library next Sunday, Feb. 18th, at 4.45 p.m.

DR. JOHN MACKAY

Dr. John Mackay, a prominent figure in the student world of both North and South America, will give the address at the annual meeting of the Bible Society in the Eaton Auditorium this evening at 8 o'clock.

VIC ATHLETIC AT-HOME

The Victoria College Athletic At-Home will be held this Friday night, with the dinner in Burwash Hall, followed by dancing in Wymilwood. Those who have not yet signed the list in the college office are asked to do so at once.

THE MARS CLUB

The first meeting of the Mars Club will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4.30 in the common room of 73 St. George St. Mr. Hart Buck will speak on "The Technique of Promotion of Ill Feeling between U.S.S.R. and Japan". Mr. M. Wayman, prominent member of the Student League, will lead the discussion. All interested in the revival of industry and the removal of the depression are invited.

SCHOOL AT-HOME

Book list is now open in the Engineering Society store. Sale of tickets—Thursday, 2.5 and Friday 10-12 and 2-5. Tickets will also be available for men of other faculties in the main lobby at Hart House on Friday, 12-2.

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

but rather stimulate them to catch up, and the same applies to the drawings of W. Ramsay, though, there, we find a surer drawing. C. J. Rowe is decidedly attracted by decoration and his stylization of animals is a clever piece of work. Among the water-colourists not yet mentioned are R. C. Mitchell, who has a good technique though lacking some power; J. L. Brenzel, whose autumn scenes are worth seeing; D. C. Grube, J. W. Morley, and H. K. Black need greater imagination and daring, both in the choice of subjects and in technique. Lack of space prevents me from reviewing the works of H. L. McQuire, G. A. Cawper-Smith, G. Keith, L. G. Pain and F. Woods, which is by no reflection upon their qualities. As next Sunday is visitor-Sunday I hope that many girl students will avail themselves of that opportunity to see this interesting exhibition.

C. de M.

ENGLISH AND HISTORY CLUB

The meeting to discuss the English and History course, pro and con, will be held one week from tonight, Feb. 20th, 8 p.m., at St. Joseph's College. Several members will read papers. Staff members in English and History have been invited and undergraduates in the English and History course will be welcome.

LABOUR PALESTINE AND AVUKAH

A joint meeting will be held on Tuesday, February 13 at the Women's Union at 8 p.m. Symposium on the subject, "The Role of the Student in Zionism".

U.C. LIT

In the event of anyone reading the Student Handbook, the executive of the Lit. wish to announce that the meeting scheduled for tonight has been cancelled.

U.C. ANNIVERSARY DINNER

Tickets for the 80th anniversary dinner of the U.C. Lit. on Feb. 22nd will be on sale in the college rotunda on Wednesday, Feb. 14th from 12-2 p.m.

MACDONALD-CARTIER CLUB

Hon. Dr. Robb, M.P.P. Algoma, Minister of Health, will address a luncheon meeting of the Macdonald-Cartier Club at 1 o'clock Wednesday in the north common room of Hart House.

U.C. PARLIAMENTARY CLUB

Next session, Thursday, February 15th at 4 p.m. in the junior common room. The Hermit government will meet the House for the first time.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB

Meeting today at the Women's Union. Awarding of the Short Story Prize and Press Club pins. Come and hear what Miss Byrce Saunders, editor of "Chateleine", and Mrs. J. G. Althouse have to say about the prize winning stories, which will be read. Tea.

VIC WOMEN

Tickets for the tea dance to be held Saturday, Feb. 17th in Wymilwood, will be sold in the college hall tomorrow, Wednesday, Feb. 14th, from 9-11 a.m. Lists are now posted on the bulletin board in the college. Sign before Wednesday morning.

VIC VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

For Wed. Feb. 14, two groups have been arranged. In Room 18, Victoria College, Dr. J. H. Couch will speak to students interested in Medicine as a life work and in Room 18, Messrs. C. G. King and A. R. Courtice will discuss Finance, the former speaking on Bonds and the latter on Trust Companies. Each of these groups will prove of great interest to a large number of Vic students.

H.C. Players' Guild

On Wednesday at four-fifteen at the Women's Union the Player's Guild will present one of the "Anatol" sequences by Arthur Schnitzler. These plays deal with the various amours in the life of a young Viennese bachelor and are generally sparkling with amusing situations and some of the best kind of high comedy. The paraphrase, done by Granville Barker, happily catches the spirit of the original in a not-too-literal translation, and it would not be too optimistic to say that the Guild audience are in for an amusing half hour. The play is under the direction of Mr. Robin Godfrey, and the cast includes two newcomers, Miss Hill and Mr. Donald Stewart.

Eaton Auditorium

Next Thursday night Toronto concert goers will have the privilege of hearing the famous American baritone, John Charles Thomas. The event will be of particular interest in view of

A better leaf.
A cooler blend.
A smoke for all the while.
A smoke for every time and place.
Smoke
Buckingham
and Smile.
It's "Throat Easy"

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body. Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

Mr. Thomas's recent debut at the Metropolitan Opera. Critics have long been wondering why this singer had not, before now, been added to the Metropolitan Opera personnel; the following are typical criticisms on the occasion of his first performance with the celebrated company.

"The Thomas voice is unique. It flows so melliflously, with so (apparently) little effort and such perfection of breath control that the listener forgets to think of technique or anything else than the velvety quality and the nuances of tone which conduce to the dramatics which again nobody but Thomas would have the temerity to present."

"His deeper tones were glorious in their organ-like quality, while in the upper tones they rang as clear as crystal."

H.C. French Club

The U.C. French Club are presenting as their annual play in French, Moliere's last masterpiece, "Le Malade Imaginaire". As a vehicle for students to play in French drama the play is as adequate as could be desired, although not approaching "Le Monde ou l'on s'ennuie" as done last year. "Le Malade Imaginaire" is a satire on the organized medicine men of the 17th century. The plot centres around Argon (if one could so concentrate a Moliere plot). Argon is suffering from diseases which doctors have foisted upon him and is about to suffer from a son-in-law which a doctor would foist on him. To save the situation the servant Toinette and Beralde, Argon's brother, straighten out everything so that the daughter is awarded the right to marry Cleante, the man she loves and Argon is rid of the troublesome doctors.

This is no place to criticize Moliere as presented on the modern stage. Unfortunately, however, the play is somewhat dated and, its humour, because of satire, is not always able to be appreciated.

The play is admirably well cast, nearly everybody cast to character, which accounts for much of the success of the play. Added to the casting, the direction of Mr. Finch and Miss Cole have given a finish and integrity to the production. Time and other limitations forbid the Intermède scenes and it is quite unnecessary to have the anti-climax of finishing off with the very incongruous "troisième intermède".

Outstanding in the cast were Betty Sifton as Toinette, the servant girl, and Fergus Tobin as Beralde, both of whom did fine pieces of acting as well as having a fine command of French. Ralph Constam as Argon, Joan Parmenter as Angelique also carried out in a very even style two very difficult parts. Some of the acting shows the signs of inexperience but praise is due to all in the way in which they have overcome the obstacles of a foreign language and strangeness of a stage. Others in the cast were Randolph Crowe in a good bit of character as Bonnetor, Margaret Pirie, who has great success in a very difficult scene as Lorison, Thomas Diaforis is played by Morris Sniderman, and his father is played by Cecil Hambley. Joyce Tedman is charming as Beline and acts her part consistently. Francisco Molinaro as Purgon is a bit too bombastic, Eric Medcalf in the role of Cleante lacks some of the polish necessary in a comedy of manners and Ted Livingston does his part with sincerity.

Anyone interested in French drama or in amateur productions should see "Le Malade Imaginaire" this evening. As a study in French drama no one can deny its importance and as an amateur production it shows that we have in the University students who have the stuff for actors if they once had some stimulating leadership.

M. B. L.

HONDURS DIVIDED IN PUBLIC SPEAKING

(Continued from Page 1)

giving them some insight on how to live. Miss Dorothy Linklater described the personality of "Dolphus", the dictator of Austria, the man who is "a sort of Nazi giant-killer". Miss Kay Westlake spoke on "Earl Haig," outlining his life and achievements.

Miss Betty Robinson, in speaking on "The Revolt of Youth Against War" denounced war as justified neither by the causes that produce it nor the consequences.

Miss Dorothy Walker, whose subject was "Patriarchal Survivals", discussed the present-day social evils which are the remnants of the patriarchal regime. She traced the practices of this ancient system down to the modern age, and described the social conditions which are necessary if we are to find social adjustment.

Miss Jean Mutch discussed "Woman, her Place and Progress" outlining the development of woman's position from earliest times. Woman's emergence into public life is an indication of her growing power in the world, Miss Mutch declared.

The award in this contest is the interest on $600

Tickets In Rotunda for JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE, 12-2 p.m. To-day

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14th, 1934

No. 85

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

A death toll of two thousand was estimated as civil war raged throughout Austria yesterday. France, Italy and Britain were reported to be organizing an international army to preserve the independence of Austria, although Geneva feared an ultimate Nazi victory.

Today's papers carry many stories and features on the carnage and war in Austria and students are advised to procure these publications to get full accounts of the proceedings.

Ottawa—After Liberal denunciations of Bennett's policies in the House today a non-confidence motion was defeated by a majority of 34.

Vatican City—Pope Pius warned against efforts to drag the world back into paganism. It is believed that he was referring to the Nazi sterilization law and Bolshevism.

Ottawa—Dr. Manion stated that there will be no amalgamation of railroads under the present government.

St. Michael's and Oshawa tied in an overtime playoff game 3-all.

Max Schmeling was easily beaten by Steve Hamas in a fifteenweight boxing bout at Philadelphia last night.

WESTERN, M'GILL DEBATE HAPPINESS

Argue Relative Opportunities of Business Man and Farmer

BROADCAST OVER RADIO

"Resolved that the farmer has a greater opportunity for happiness than the business man in the city," was the topic of a debate broadcast over radio stations CRCT and CKNC last evening, between the University of Western Ontario and McGill University. The affirmative of this first debate in the semi-finals was supported by Mr. Larry Dampier and Mr. Borden Spears of the University of Western Ontario, while Mr. George Brodick and Mr. Philip Vanbey of McGill upheld the negative.

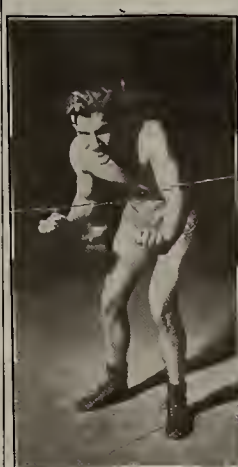

"A business man is a cog in a machine," said Mr. Dampier. "The farmer, on the other hand," he pointed out, "lived in an environment of nature which could be enjoyed by the business man only through the medium of books. Farmers are farmers by choice and not necessity," he stated. "Peter McArthur once said that he could not remember the price of one crop he raised but only the joy he received from growing it."

"Farmers work hard but they are no slaves to a time clock," asserted Mr. Spears, supporting the affirmative. "If they want to take an afternoon off for fishing they may do so. What would not a city worker give for this feeling of independence?" he continued.

"Life for the farmer is not merely routine, it is drudgery," alleged Mr. Brodick of McGill, the first speaker for the negative. "Farming is the most precarious of occupations and is determined by factors over which the farmer has no control. Nature alone determines whether his crop will be good. Business men would not be the victims of such occurrences," he declared.

"The city is synonymous with opportunity," maintained Mr. Vanbey, defending the negative. "Country boys, unless they drift to the city, must till the soil or be parasites. City youths have a wide field of occupations from (Continued on Page 2)

EDITORIAL UNFAIR, SAYS HEWITT BUT VARSITY AUTHORITIES IN ACCORD

BANNISTER OF S.P.S.

Former intercollegiate champion, who will represent Varsity in the lightweight grappling division when the intercollegiate assault gets under way here this week-end.

PROFESSOR RAPS NEW TRADE WAR

Anglo-French Trade Dispute Mutually Destructive Says Morgan

COMMERCE THROTTLED

"The Anglo-French trade 'war' can be only mutually destructive and is to be thoroughly condemned," stated Professor L. T. Morgan of the Economics department when he was questioned yesterday regarding the recent action taken against each other by England and France.

"Every reduction in Britain's exports is vitally important to her, since the goods which England must import have to be paid for and a decline in exports makes this payment extremely more difficult," Professor Morgan continued. He proceeded to point out that France is in an unfavourable position, also, since her trade which balanced in 1929 has subsequently become unbalanced and this new "war" is only going to aggravate the situation.

Professor Morgan expressed himself (Continued on Page 2)

FUNCTION OF MUSEUM TO DISPLAY MINERALS

Most Important Use is That of Scientific Research

The first function of the Royal Ontario Museum of Mineralogy, according to Prof. T. L. Walker in his address at the Museum yesterday, is to display as well as possible the minerals found in Ontario; to have such a display that a stranger would go away with the idea that in the province of Ontario there is something in the way of useful minerals.

The second function is toward the public, the people of the city or of the province. In this respect, Prof. Walker mentioned that 125 years ago mineralogy appeared to be much more popular.

At the present time the people have fallen away very much from any interest whatsoever in minerals. The Museum also has an obligation toward the students of the University (Continued on Page 2)

Claims Editorial Attempt to Undermine Public Confidence

PROOF HARD TO SECURE

Hendry Believes There Is No Doubt Concerning "Packing"

"Incorrect and unfair," was the comment made by W. A. Hewitt, secretary of the O.H.A. executive and director of Maple Leaf Gardens, when interviewed by The Varsity and questioned in regard to his opinion on the editorial which appeared in Tuesday's issue.

"It looks like a malicious attempt to undermine public confidence in the O.H.A. executive and the Maple Leaf Gardens," stated Mr. Hewitt.

He said that the only hope of maintaining hockey here and in cities around Toronto was the admittance of the commercial teams in order that the clubs concerned might be assisted in their efforts to keep out of the red. "They are willing and able to pay well for their advertising and hockey players and clubs have a chance to benefit thereby," he continued.

Mr. Hewitt made no statement as to the chief point of the editorial which maintained that the recommendations to come before the O.H.A. executive at its next meeting, would be detrimental and perhaps destructive in their effect on amateurism in hockey if ratified and put into practice. Nothing (Continued on Page 3)

IMPROVEMENT SEEN BY DEAN OF S.P.S.

Opportunities for Graduates Better Than Last Year Mitchell Believes

WATERWAYS WOULD HELP

"Opportunities for graduates are even better today than in last June," stated Brigadier-General C. H. Mitchell, Dean of the School of Practical Science, in reference to his annual report to the President. "That report was made at the end of the last school year and the situation has since improved."

The great developments, as pointed (Continued on Page 4)

McGILL PROFESSORS HOLD POSITIONS ON ABILITY ALONE, STATES BEATTY

DR. ROBB WILL ADDRESS
MACDONALD-CARTIER CLUB

Minister of Health to Discuss Problems at Luncheon Meeting

The Macdonald-Cartier Club will be honoured by the presence of the Hon. Dr. Robb, M.P.P., Minister of Health, and one of the outstanding Conservatives in the province of Ontario, at a luncheon meeting in Hart House today.

Dr. Robb, a graduate of 1903, representing Algoma in the provincial legislature, has for many years been prominent in public affairs. He began his career by serving two terms as mayor of Blind River. He was first elected to the provincial parliament by acclamation in 1915, defeated in 1919 and 1923, he was re-elected in 1926 and 1929 and was appointed Minister of Health in 1930.

Dr. Robb will discuss many of the problems facing the country today in which students are vitally interested.

COSMOPOLITANISM DOMINANT MARK OF NEW CULTURE

Interest in Economics Great in South American Universities

NEW INTELLECTUAL TYPE

Features of New Civilization Appear in South America

By C. de Mestral

"In South American universities the interest for economics is far greater than the old cultural search; the old type of pure intellectual is losing prestige and a new type appears which takes a vital part in the affairs of his country," said Dr. John Mackay in an interview with The Varsity.

"Coming to Peru in 1916, as missionary, I soon had the opportunity to found the Anglo-Peruvian College, and later on, was called upon to give lectures on philosophy at the University of San Marcos—the oldest university of the Southern Hemisphere. Since then I have been somewhat of a public speaker for the Y.M.C.A. and S.C.M. in South America, which, however, has not prevented me from having regular contact with Europe and the States."

"Is the life of the South American nations of any interest and importance for us, Dr. Mackay?" "Certainly. In South America, as in the Northern Hemisphere, we have the projection of the Old World into a new one. There are great differences between the Latin and the Anglo-Saxon cultures, yet they complement each other. Just as in the U.S.A. or in Canada we find more an echo of Anglo-Saxon culture, we can perceive in South America the original features of a new and great civilization. Take Argentina for instance: with a population almost equal to Canada, it amalgamates very quickly with various races—the same as enter North America. Within a generation all emigrants are Argentine due to the strong national spirit and culture. Buenos Aires is certainly the finest expression of this new culture whose dominant mark is cosmopolitanism, a very distinct Latin characteristic. For daily foreign news the leading Argentinian newspapers are the best probability."

In reply to a question as to the place of the South American universities in (Continued on Page 2)

Views on Public Questions not a Determining Factor

SPEAKS IN GENERAL TERMS

In the course of a speech before the Graduates' Association of McGill University, Mr. E. W. Beatty, Chancellor of the University and president of the Canadian Pacific Railways, made the following statement:

"It may be taken for granted that every McGill lecturer or professor retains his position in that university because of his ability and not because of the popularity or otherwise of the views he may hold as an individual on public or economic questions. One other difficulty must be avoided, and that is the use of college professors for propaganda or other purposes under retainer without their commercial association being known. This is, of course, a form of misrepresentation which no university or member of its (Continued on Page 3)

GROWTH OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATS HAS RUINED GERMANY, SAYS WRITER

HART HOUSE COMMITTEES

During the past week the following members have been re-elected to next year's committees:

Debates Committee: Mr. J. S. Woods, III Trinity College, and Mr. S. M. Hermant, III University College.

Sketch Committee: Mr. D. V. LePan, III University College, and Mr. J. R. Sime, III Forestry.

Library Committee: Mr. C. A. Conway, II Trinity College, and Mr. K. M. Mayall, III Forestry.

All members are reminded that nominations for the standing committees and the Camera and Squash Raquets Committees open at 9 a.m. on Friday 23rd February and close at 6 p.m. on Wednesday 28th February.

The Debates Committee nominations open at 9 a.m. on Wednesday 28th February and close at 6 p.m. on Monday 5th March. The election will take place at the final debate of the year on Thursday 8th March.

Nomination forms are now available at the Warden's office.

MACKENZIE STATES CANADA'S STATUS

Canada Becomes Belligerent if Britain Declares War

If Great Britain declares war on a foreign power, Canadians automatically become belligerents. However, the extent of Canada's participation is determined in part by the Canadian government and in part by the enemy of enemies in the case.

This, briefly, is Canada's status in the event of international war, as explained to The Varsity yesterday by Professor N. A. MacKenzie.

"When His Majesty is at war, all his subjects are at war, including his Canadian subjects."

Mr. MacKenzie proceeded to comment upon the advisability of Canada definitely announcing her foreign policy, as suggested recently by a member of the Federal Parliament.

"Canada's announcement that she would not participate if Great Britain declared war, might cause Britain to be more determined in her efforts to avoid international conflict. On the other hand, however, it might have the additional effect of encouraging an enemy nation to go to war against England."

Considering the critical nature of the international situation at the present time, however, Professor MacKenzie suggested that it might not be advisable for Canada to make public her foreign policy.

"The chief concern of any Canadian government should be the relations between United States and Great Britain, and the maintenance of a world international system that would prevent war," the professor concluded. "At the present time, however, I believe Premier Bennett's recent statement is correct, that Canada can have little influence in the present international situation."

German War Veteran Discusses Nazi Point of View in Letters

WITNESSED WAR'S CRUELTY

First of Series on Political Conditions in Germany Appears Today

This is the first instalment of a letter written by a German citizen to a student in Graduate Studies at the University of Toronto. The letter gives an authentic presentation of the Nazi point of view and reveals the motivating ideas in, and the German reasons for, the Hitler Movement. Bremen, Germany, January 29, 1934.

Dear —, I am happy to be in the position to give you some brief information concerning the political conditions in Germany; brief, I say, because it should be far more detailed to give a full-coloured picture of the new movement under the leadership of Hitler. I may be allowed to observe that I believe myself to be in a better position to form a personal judgment about the actual state than many men sending news into the world—news that is false and does a lot of harm. Such men have no outright intention of telling lies but lack objectiveness and knowledge of the important general facts forming part of the situation and the events.

Being now over sixty, I have travelled a good deal in my life and can read and speak three modern languages fluently. Besides that, I possess a more than ordinary knowledge of three more living languages. I have made a close study of the literature of all six languages, not to mention my knowledge of Greek and Latin which I learned in my early days at college.

The World War saw me not behind the stove or in parliament but on the front in the heavy artillery. I served 31 months as a sergeant, the last four as an officer. So I saw enough of hardship and strain on body and (Continued on Page 4)

GUILD IS UNABLE TO ENTER FESTIVAL

Comes too Near Examinations for U.C. Players' Guild to Compete

VIC SOCIETY WOULD HELP

"Undoubtedly university dramatic societies are producing the best amateur plays in Canada," Mr. Martin Loeb, president of the U.C. Player's Guild, told The Varsity, commenting on the Queen's Guild winning their district Drama Festival. "However," he continued, "the U.C. Player's Guild will not be in the competition this year. It comes in March—too near examinations. We have money enough, and if they would hold the Festival in the winter, as they might well do, we would be glad to take part."

Mr. R. S. Eberhard, president of the Victoria Dramatic Society, told The Varsity they would be glad to co-operate with any other university society in entering the regional Drama Festival. "We would go into it ourselves," he continued, "but we haven't enough money. The entry fee is $25 and there are other extra expenses. By working together the various colleges could easily handle the matter."

Mr. Eberhard pointed out that if Queen's whose examinations come earlier than those of Toronto could find time for the Festival we certainly could. He doubted if initiative for undergraduate representation at the Festival would come from Hart House.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6511
Night Phone-Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:

E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Gordon H. Jack Assistant—D. G. Tipton

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14th, 1934

A LETTER FROM A DISCIPLE OF HITLER

We wish to call attention to a letter which is being printed in several instalments in The Varsity, commencing in today's issue. Written by a German citizen, with an evident Nazi bias, to a student in Graduate Studies at this University, it affords a precise presentation of the German Nationalist point of view. The Varsity is not publishing this letter to arouse sympathy for Hitler nor to persuade its readers to accept German Nationalism. Nor is our purpose primarily to expose fallacies in the letter and in the Nazi Movement. Our chief motive is to give the undergraduates at Toronto an authentic and original presentation of the new German mind. Least of all is it our intention to arouse the deplorable race prejudices which obtain in that nation today.

The Varsity would take violent exception to whole passages in the letter, not only as regards the writer's interpretation of historical facts but as to the accuracy of the facts he cites. In future issues of The Varsity we hope to publish editorials dealing with different phases of the situation in Germany.

For the present we shall be satisfied with an observation so simple as to lay us open to the charge of mental puerility, yet an observation so seldom acknowledged today. The whole Nazi Movement and the letter of our correspondent amply demonstrate that truth is of relatively little consequence in the formation of political movements. What is evidently far more important than the truth about history and society is a people's belief of what is true concerning history and society. (We are well aware that sophists will tell us that truth is what is truth for us. However well this premise has been argued, men have never wholly lived their lives in accordance with it. The acceptance of such a premise in toto ultimately destroys any concrete relation of the phenomenal world with ourselves.) In any case, it is ridiculous to say that our German correspondent does not believe what he writes; he does! His beliefs fashion his whole attitude to life and its problems, and largely determine his social acts. The legitimacy of the facts upon which he bases his beliefs is of slight importance.

The tremendous power in ideas when once they have become settled convictions is being borne in upon our minds. The importance of beliefs, of creeds and doctrines if you will, political or religious—so scorned by our tolerant, broad-minded and therefore wishy-washy generation—is clearly illustrated by German Nationalism and Russian Communism. The only salvation from Fascism and Communism is an equally profound faith in some other creed! The faith that shall save us from these pagan religions—for that is what they are—must be as intolerant, as uncompromising, and as evangelical as they. The day of an insipid broad-mindedness is over. We must be one thing, and not many.

FUNCTION OF MUSEUM TO DISPLAY MINERALS

(Continued from Page 1)

versity. In the lectures the collection of minerals cannot very well be brought in front of them. Now they can come to the Museum and see the specimens which have been labelled especially for their benefit.

However, in Prof. Walker's opinion the more serious and most important function of the Museum is for scientific research; sometimes they succeed in bringing to light something useful and more often not. The idea that science and research is practical is shortsighted. A piece of research work of no value at the present time may be of great service to future generations. It was largely due to the great interest and advocacy of Sir Edward Walker that the present Museum exists.

PROFESSOR RAPS NEW TROAE WAR

(Continued from Page 1)

self as definitely opposed to the action of England and France, which he regarded as only part of the world-wide tariff war. "One of the major causes of the world depression is the throttling of international trade," he said, "and this new trade dispute only throttles trade that much more."

He added the suggestion that, in view of the drift of the world toward economic nationalism and a wholesale violation of fundamental economic law, the political and economic teaching being given to students in the universities is apparently going for naught. "We are teaching economic theory in vacuo," he mused.

Art, Music and Drama

Organ Recital

The sixth recital in the series of University Organ Recitals was given by Mr. Maitland Farmer, organist of St. Paul's Church. The programme, composed of two Moderns and two Classics, began with a Grand Fantasia in F Minor, by Mozart. It is seldom that Mozart appears on an organ programme. Indeed this composition together with two others, was originally written for mechanical organ. Despite this fact it was a fine and effective work as performed by Mr. Farmer.

Following the Bach Chorale and Variations was a particularly worthwhile Sonata of Rheinberger's. In the Pieces de Fantaisie of which time permitted only the playing of the Clair de Lune and Carillon. Mr. Farmer did his most delicate work. The programme, as a whole, was capably handled, but a more varied registration would have made the numbers more colourful and effective.

F. B. S.

Massey Hall

Only a few people in Toronto took advantage of the opportunity of hearing one of America's finest singing ensembles, namely the Hall Johnson Negro Choir which sang at Massey Hall last night. It is a shame that a concert must be first developed into a social event before a gratifyingly large audience can be assured for the Hall Johnson Singers are the equals at least of the famous Don Cossacks in the field of singing harmony. Personally I feel that there is no folk music as musical and as emotionally effective as negro spirituals and blues and the growth of this peculiar and characteristic type of music is one of the most interesting and phenomenal events in the history of musical art.

The programme contained a lot of the old favourites as well as some not so familiar but which will be remembered as favourites from this time on. Most outstanding perhaps were the St. James Infirmary Blues, Water Boy, and John, the Revelator. This choice, however, does not mean that there was any one selection which was not to be enjoyed to the fullest extent. Nothing too glowing can be said about the character of the songs or the manner in which they were sung.

Sometimes there is a faint manifestation that the choir is becoming tainted with the traditional choir technique and I think it would add to the whole effect if Mr. Johnson were not in front directing the singers so that a more spontaneous atmosphere would pervade the performance. Now that a few of our Toronto patrons of the arts have heard these singers and will quickly spread about all the praise that is due this amazing ensemble, it is certain that if Mr. Johnson brings his choir here again the house will be more than one-tenth full.

M. B. L.

M.C. French Club

It is true that dress rehearsals are no criteria of the first night performance and in the time honoured custom the French Club presentation, "Le Malade Imaginaire" polished up all the ragged edges which jarred the previous performance. The most important and distinct improvement was evident in Erle Medcalfe's playing of the lover Cleante. It seems that with some concentrated practice the smoothness so necessary in the Moliere comedy came, easy. The experienced players continued their good work and again Betty Sifton and Fergus Tobin were outstanding both as to their acting and their pronunciation of French. Neither the acting nor the accent of Ralph Constam in the leading part was quite the necessary perfection. More should be said about Morris Sniderman who did so admirably in the part of Thomas Diafoirus. Miss Parmenter as Angelique played her part with a great deal of spirit and was always convincing and satisfying.

Mr. Finch should again be congratulated in his direction and with more people of his calibre taking more interest in University dramatics perhaps something could be done in a fashion more suitable to the progressive theatre movement. For a long time except for

(Continued on Page 3)

File Advance and the Hidden Clue!
Sergeant Teeth put a muscular shoulder to the private door and burst into the room where File Advance had just lit the butt of one of his beloved Rajahs. Four seconds earlier he had communicated to Advance, over the telephone, the fact that Shylock Jones had learned of our quiet visit to his apartment. Advance, however, sat impassively calm.

"The truth is Sergeant," he drawled, blowing a Swastika-shaped smoke ring out of one nostril, "that I anticipated, nay, hoped, that Jones would discover traces of our presence. Nothing is more useless than a chagrined detective. But the incident shows how amazingly artificial his methods are. I left three fragrant cigarette butts distributed about the room, and the first inkling he has of our little call is on observing that a cobweb over the door is broken. As a matter of fact, I removed the damaged cobweb which was originally there, substituted another, and Jones himself smashed it." He squinched his cigarette butt, replaced it in his pocket, only to take it out immediately and relight it.

"Well," said the distraught Sergeant, beginning to breathe easier, "I have here a picture for you to see."

"Ah, Sergeant," replied Advance, "doubtless one of your collection of old masters."

"No, sir, we haven't got anything on any of these guys," answered Teeth, evidently interpreting Advance's remark as an allusion to the well-known Rogues' Gallery. "This here is a pic-

(Continued on Page 4)

COSMOPOLITANISM MARK OF ARGENTINIAN CULTURE

(Continued from Page 1)

the life of their nations Dr. Mackay stated that they are an important and leading factor. "Not only have some universities a large number of students—over 8,000 at Buenos Aires—but they are active. It is at the old University of Cordoba, that, in 1918, began the first student strike in order to reform the old university system, a relic from the mediaeval age. Professors were giving only part time attention to their lectures, holding other jobs besides. After having successfully transformed and improved the educational system, students, almost everywhere in South America, turned to social problems and politics, even before the Youth Movement in Germany. In Chile, Peru and Argentina a definite entente was concluded between the workers and the students who became the intellectual leaders of new political parties. This came out of the students' revolt against an unsatisfactory old regime that had to be changed.

"In Peru the Apra Party has a clear-cut programme, backed by a sound and forward-looking economic theory; it was formed originally by students of less than 20 years of age who have gradually won recognition and reforms. Today, their young leader, Haya de la Tera, is expected to become the next President, so great is his ascendancy, backed by a brilliant intelligence."

WESTERN AND MCGILL DEBATE ON HAPPINESS

(Continued from Page 1)

which to choose. Farmers have fewer opportunities for contact with people whereas in the city one may be inspired by men in all walks of life."

The decision of the judges will be announced over the radio Wednesday evening. The second debate in the semi-finals will be heard over the air next Tuesday evening.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME!

EIGHTIETH ANNIVERSARY U.C. LIT.

TICKETS ON SALE COLLEGE ROTUNDA
12-2 P.M. TO-DAY

Like Whistling?

Everybody can whistle when they play

"THE WHISTLER AND HIS DOG"

a humorous selection at the

VARSLITY BAND CONCERT

at

Convocation Hall, Tuesday, February 20th

8.15 p.m.

Admission 15 cents

Tickets on sale S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Room 82, U.C., and from Band Members.

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St.
KI. 0991

571 Yonge St.
KI. 3270

$1.00 WILL REPAIR YOUR WATCH
NO MATTER HOW BADLY BROKEN
Cleaning, if necessary, 75c. extra
GUARANTEED 2 YEARS
FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY!
CITY WATCH & JEWELRY
HOSPITAL Est. 1921
163-7 Yonge St.—Room 12
OPP. SIMPSON'S TAKE ELEVATOR
MAIL ORDERS—POSTAGE EXTRA

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps

6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Floor)

Rand. 1865

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you

consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrists and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.

Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

DAFFYDIL NIGHT! Hart House Theatre, Thursday, February 15th,

WATERPOLO PLAYOFFS BOOKED FOR TO-DAY AND FRIDAY

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

The Varsity women's hockey team play their second league game with the Vagabonds tonight at the Arena at 7 o'clock. The Vagabonds came out on the short end of a 5-2 score in the game with Preston on Saturday and will be in there fighting to pull out a convincing win tonight. The Blue squad haven't shown the hockey they are capable of so far but they are getting better all the time and should be able to provide real opposition for any team.

Coach MacPherson has received a letter from the Port Dover Ladies' Hockey Club asking for an exhibition match. If it can be arranged it ought to be quite a game. Fran Westmon told us that the Preston team reported the Port Dover Ladies as being an exceptionally hard checking team. So putting two and two together, it looks as though the Varsity players would be coming up against the pick of the four teams if they meet Port Dover.

The intermediate basketball team had their best practice to date last night. The team will be considerably strengthened by the presence of some who have been practising with the intercollegiate squad this season. It will necessitate some confusion at first, to have to break new players into her system, but Jean Allan is hopeful of producing a smooth team out of the clever individual players who have come from different intercollegiate teams.

The U.C. swimming meet last night wasn't a huge success. Only eight swimmers turned out, and not all the scheduled events were run off due to the cold. Kay Brown, a freshman, was good, and showed considerable promise as a speedy swimmer. Among those who will represent U.C. at the intercollegiate meet next month will be Joyce Tedman, Kay Brown, Doris Lealie, Jean Knowlton, Molly Stevens and Doris Lealie.

HOGG SETS NEW RECORD FOR TWO-MILE RUN

Records Tumbling in Inter-faculty Track Meet

Records continue to tumble as the indoor intercollegiate track meet holds its weekly events in the Hart House gym. Last night Bill Hogg of S.P.S. set up a new record for the two-mile run when he covered the distance in 10 min. 9 seconds, to better the old mark of McAuliffe of 10:19 3-5, which had existed since 1922. All three events in the card were won by S.P.S. Two-mile run—1, Hogg, S.P.S.; 2, Kibberville, U.C.; 3, Huetner, U.C. Time, 10' 9".

Broad jump—1, Austin, S.P.S.; 2, Stewart, Knox; 3, Milne, Meds. Half-mile relay—1, S.P.S.; 2, Meds; 3, U.C. Time, 1:50 3-10.

Sport Notices

Baseball—U.C. Women's Badminton—Junior U.C. practice Wednesday, 1-2. Game with Junior S.P.S. Wednesday, 4-5.

U.C. Senior Basketball—Game today with O.A.C. at 4 p.m. Everybody out on time.

Anyone wishing to play in the U.C. tournament, please sign list in the cloakroom. Watch The Varsity for further notices.

Jr. S.P.S. Softball—Game with Jr. U.C. today at 4 p.m. sharp.

Sr. U.C. Baseball—Practice today at 1 p.m.

NATIONALS DEFEAT VARSITY TEAM, 3-1

Game Featured by Good Work of Goalies on Both Sides

SCORE WAS CLOSE

Varsity's hopes of defeating the West Toronto Nationals have as a result of their 3-1 defeat at the Gardens last night faded into oblivion for the present season at least. In each encounter in which these two teams figured the score has always been close and last night's fixture was no exception, with both squads fighting it out to the last whistle.

For two periods little by way of excitement was produced, although plenty of stiff body checks were handed out. The close checking style played by both squads made open hockey difficult, with the result that the first two periods went scoreless. A penalty to Hendry in the third paved the way for the winners' opening counter which came from McAlpine's stick as four Nats swept upon the attack. Robinson broke away a few minutes later to beat Shipp all alone on a sizzling shot which lodged in the upper corner of the net.

Trailing 2-0 at this stage the Varsity team came back into the race when Hendry took Cunningham's pass for Varsity's single point. Varsity opened up in an effort to get the equalizer, giving the West Toronto squad their chance to break away for their third counter.

The game was featured by the exceptionally good work of both goalies, Stein for West Toronto was more than anyone responsible for his team's victory, while Shipp also worked well for Varsity. McLellan and McPherson turned in their usual aggressive games for the Blue team with Rey on the defence stopping everything that came his way. Chapman, Good and Robinson formed the most effective line for the winners, while McAlpine and Bowman were difficult to pass on the defence.

West Toronto — Stein, McAlpine, Bowman, Chapman, Kerr, Huggins, Robinson, McLellan, Good, Keys. Varsity — Shipp, Rey, Campbell, McLellan, Hendry, McPherson, Jeffrey, Cunningham, Fullerton. Referee—Duke McCurry.

SCHOOLMEN DOWN VIC CAGERS, 23-9

Good Passing and Checking Are Principal Features of Encounter

VIC STAGES LATE RALLY

The Senior School team overwhelmed Senior Vic 23-9 in a rather uninteresting basketball game played last night in the upper gym.

The checking was close on both sides and most of the baskets were scored on long shots. Vic had poor luck in these, as Stubbs hit the rim time and again. Both teams had excellent team work and passing ability, but seemed unable to find the basket. The Schoolmen secured the lead right at the start and were 9 points up at half time.

In the second half Vic came back fighting and scored 7 of their points. Douglas, Wilkinson and Hagerman were the School sharpshooters. The Vic scorers were Barry and Stubbs. Sr. S.P.S. — Douglas 8, Wilkinson 7, Hagerman 4, Reid 2, Black 2, Hall, Colson, Waldon, Cooperman, Caldwell. Sr. Vic — Barry 3, Stubbs 3, Vinnels 2, Richardson 1, Taylor, Neeb, Read, Parmenter, McKibbin. Referee—Forsythe.

Prof. Lee Travis at the University of Iowa recommends the playing of ping pong to his students in speech to cure stammering.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

Considerable comment seems to have been aroused by the editorial which appeared in yesterday's issue. Mr. Hewitt in an interview seems quite indignant at some of the charges. We expected that. Notice that in his statements he very cleverly avoids the issue. What he says may be true but he does not give any clear-cut expression of opinion as to the charges laid at the door of professional interests. What else expected that.

If these powers are going to professionalize amateur hockey in these parts we say go ahead. But we maintain that such an organization should be labelled in name as professional or semi-professional in order that some use of the word amateur may be truthfully made in connection with the O.H.A. As in the past it is next to impossible to pin anything on the culprits. They cover their tracks very effectively. But don't ever think for one minute that the loosening of the rules is going to do anything to keep amateur hockey in Ontario on the up-and-up.

In our opinion the continual fracas that exists between the different amateur athletic association branches is nothing more nor less than a battle between factions which are more concerned about their own interests than they are about the welfare of amateur sport.

There are three teams in the intercollegiate water polo playoffs being played this week. Truly pulled a surprise when they blanked Sr. S.P.S. 4-0 Monday. Meds are represented by a strong team too. Each team gets a crack at the other two and the two teams that come out of this week's engagements will battle it out for the title on Monday next.

Varsity dropped a game to West Toronto Nationals last night in a scheduled O.H.A. Sr. game 3-1. The Blues play Port Colborne at Varsity Arena Saturday night and then go down to the corner of Church and Carlton for a tilt with the Torontos on Tuesday night. That completes the schedule for Varsity. Port Colborne are after a win Saturday night in a desperate effort to catch the Cataracts in a tie for fourth place. They have a chance of doing that too so the game here should be a good one. Varsity can take them and crash their chances of entering the playoffs. But the Sailors won't be leaving anything untended to get by the students.

Bill Hogg clipped ten seconds off the two-mile record in the intercollegiate indoor track meet yesterday afternoon in a smart effort. To chisel that much time off any indoor distance record takes a lot of running and some stiff competition.

In figuring out the standings in the Big Six basketball race yesterday we figured the Toronto group out so that a Varsity win over St. Mike's tomorrow night will give the Hayman gang a lead over the Saints. Varsity has won three and lost five but St. Mike's have lost five too. Another loss for the opposition and the Blues will be out in front. The loss in Hamilton against McMaster by two points was a "gyp". And the McMaster crowd aren't apparently unbeatable either because they dropped a game to St. Kitts Grads. This year's Big Six race is a mighty close one and it's not over yet.

Senior School are going to make a strong bid for the intercollegiate basketball title this time. They have a lot of class on their lineup and the present champs, Jr. Meds, will have to work fast to oust them. The addition of Hal Collins to the Engineers' squad will make a big difference if he can work into their style of play and add to its effectiveness.

Victoria College has another powerful hockey squad in the intercollegiate hockey series and the way they have been flashing the red light behind the jets in their games seems to indicate that they are a lot better than the teams they have played against. What the other groups will produce may be strong opposition but the Scarlet and Gold sextet seems to have what it takes to go into the playoffs again.

TRINITY AND O. C. E. ARE VICTORIOUS

Emmanuel Team Loses Opener and Pharmacy Drop the Night-Cap

SCORES ARE 6-1, AND 1-0

In a scheduled intercollegiate double-header played at the Arena yesterday afternoon Trinity emerged victorious over Emmanuel in the first game by a 6-1 count. Pharmacy dropped the night-cap to O.C.E. by 1-0.

The initial fracas was as uninspiring as the score would indicate. Trinity dominated the play throughout, although two of their goals were of the soft variety. Burchell was easily the best man on the ice, garnering three counters. Millard played well in the nets, but did not have many chores to attend to. Laverty accounted for Emmanuel's lone tally. The game was clean, only one penalty being meted out by Referee Fullerton.

The Pharmacy-O.C.E. battle was fast and furious from start to finish. A goodly amount of slashing and tripping kept the contestants pepped up throughout. O.C.E. displayed a powerful defence which caused the Pharmacy boys plenty of anguish. Scollie and McKinnon starred for O.C.E., McKinnon scoring the only goal of the contest on a beautiful shot from close in. Briscoe, in goal, was Pharmacy's best. The game was late in starting, but the actual playing time was only thirty minutes, with the final gong coming as an unpleasant surprise to the Drugists, who were striving mightily to tie the score.

Emmanuel — Williams, Witzel, Edwards, Kerr, Crosby, Laverty, G. Huser, C. Huser, Martin.

Trinity — Millard, McLellan, Holton, Burchell, Brennan, Minnett, McCreary, Scrivener, Burton.

O.C.E. — Real, Passmore, Moffatt, Scollie, Bunt, Davidson, Tough, McKinnon, MacMillan.

Pharmacy — Briscoe, Bingeman, Reinhardt, Wilton, Anderson, Inch, McDougall, Cottrell, McDonald, Evans. Referee—Max Fullerton.

PROFS HOLD POSITIONS ON ABILITY ALDNE

(Continued from Page 1)

staff can possibly condone." Through the facilities of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press, The Varsity obtained an interview with Mr. Beatty but the Chancellor declined to make any comment on the subject.

A despatch from the McGill Daily states that the general opinion at McGill appears to be that Chancellor Beatty was speaking in general terms only, without any particular example in view.

"Men prefer curves to the straight lath-like figure. Of that I am absolutely convinced."—Mae West.

VIC AND MEDS WIN IN HOCKEY SERIES

Victorians Have Decided Edge Throughout Sixty Minutes of First Game

S.P.S. LOSE SECOND GAME

Two fast, peppy games were run off in the intercollegiate hockey series at the Stadium last night when Vic blanked Jr. U.C. with a 3-0 score and Jr. Meds nosed out Jr. S.P.S. for a 2-1 verdict.

Vic had the edge the whole route in the first game and would probably have had a considerably larger score but for the splendid net minding by Campbell for U.C. The Vic forwards repeatedly pierced the opposing defence and several times just failed to register a score. Meanwhile, the Vic defence were supreme and behind them in goal, Young capably handled everything that came his way. Monzon with two goals to his credit and Tackaberry were the scorers for Vic. Bryers on defence and Farrell at centre also performed their duties well. For U.C. Campbell was the standout with MacPherson and Slingsby also starring.

In the Meds-School conflict, the Doctors were handicapped by the fact that they were playing without substitutes. However, in the first half they showed their superiority with faster and smoother combination and were rewarded with their two scores, the first by McEwan and the second by Gray. In this period, all efforts of the School men went astray due more to lack of combination than to lack of fight. In the second period the play of the Engineers improved considerably and they gave back as good as they received. Play was in the Meds section of the ice the major part of the time and the efforts of the Engineers were rewarded when Kerr scored on the rebound from Wilmot's shot. All further efforts were of no avail and the game ended with the Meds on top of a 2-1 score. For the Meds, Gray, McEwan and Bailey were the best while Terry, Wilmot and Wheaton played well for School.

Jr. U.C. — Campbell, McPherson, Thompson, Fowler, Morlock, Slingsby, Guinette, Piggott.

Vic — Young, Bryers, Dyke, Monzon, Farrell, Arnup, Tackaberry, Putnam, Grover.

Jr. Meds — Bailey, Gray, Charles, McEwan, McKee, Coxan.

Jr. School — Angus, Burnette, Aiken, Press, Terry, Kerr, Wilmot, Wheaton.

HEWITT CLAIMS EDITORIAL UNFAIR

(Continued from Page 1)

was said as to the professionalization of the O.H.A.

Captain George Hendry of the Varsity hockey team when approached on the matter, said, "I don't think that there is any doubt about there being a packing and bolstering of certain teams. But, I don't think that Hamilton was favoured more than some other teams by the O.H.A. executive because the Torontos which are considered the farm of the Maple Leafs, got Nakina Smith for the last part of the season just as Hamilton got Chisholm."

Some of the authorities in athletic circles at the university were quite in accord with the editorial and its stand although they did not wish their names or statements published in detail.

Several students when questioned stated that what was said was no doubt true, but that proof for same would be impossible to secure. One student said that what was stated as fact was quite right in his opinion and that what was implied would probably be correct too if the truth were known.

Male students at Boston College have asked co-eds who are lonesome to wear red dresses. This was done so that the students would be able to get a partner when they wanted to go out.

Testimonies of Christian Science Healing

To-night at 8 o'clock

at St. George St. cor. Lowther Ave. In the main auditorium of First Church of Christ Scientist

These testimonies are a feature of the regular Wednesday evening meeting, and present a convenient opportunity for all students of the University of Toronto to become informed of the demonstrable results of the Science of Christianity of Christian Science.

ATISFYING CINTILLATING ENSIBLY PRICED UPBUB UPREME CHHOL AT-HOME

Royal York February 16

TUCK SHOP SPECIAL

Chocolate Malted Milk Any Sandwich 3 Date Cookies 20c.

2 p.m. - 5 p.m.

WED., THURS., FRI.

ALL TORONTONENSIS WRITE-UPS and GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS

Are due now and must be handed in to the S.A.C. Office, Hart House, at once to get in this year's book. Unless definite arrangements have been made to the contrary.

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

annual efforts like that of the French Club the University has rested dormant and refused to do anything ambitious behind the footlights. It is to be hoped that Raymond Massey's suggestion that dramatics on the campus should become consolidated will be followed so efforts like the French Club's would become more frequent. Some body like Mr. Finch is needed to provide leadership to dramatic effort here instead of leaving the leadership to people who are only mildly interested in presenting plays of any significance. M.B.L.

FEEES FOR ACTIVITIES

The Student Union of the University of New Brunswick has proposed compulsory fees for student activities and collection of such fees on the same basis as tuition charges. The proposal is to be forwarded to the President and Senate of the university.

Friday, February 16th, 8.30 p.m. Tickets 75c. DAFFYDIL NIGHT!

Coming Events

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14
5-6 p.m.—Victoria College Vocational Guidance groups. In Room 14, Dr. J. H. Couch will speak on Medicine and in Room 18 Mr. C. G. King will speak on Bonds and Mr. A. R. Courtice on Trust Companies.

1 p.m.—Luncheon meeting, Macdonald Cartier Club. Speaker, Hon. Dr. Robb.

4.15—In the auditorium of the Union will be presented "Episode", a one-act play by Arthur Schnitzler.

8.15 p.m.—The U.C. Classical Association will meet in the Women's Union, St. George St. A play by Professor Norwood.

8.30 p.m.—U.C. Junior-Senior dance, Roof Garden, Royal York. Stan St. John's orchestra. Informal.

3 p.m.—Dr. John Mackay of South America will give an address in Trinity College Library on "The Spiritual Spectrum of Latin America".

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15

4 p.m.—U.C. Parliamentary Club.

4.15—M. and P. meeting, Room 43, Physics Building. Speakers, Professor I. R. Pounder, "The Figure of the Earth"; Mr. A. A. Janis, "Some Aspects of Organic Chemistry". Refreshments.

5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club, Hart House Music Room.

8.15 p.m.—Open meeting of Liberal Club in the Music Room, of Hart House. Mr. Mitchell F. Hepburn, M.P., will speak.

8.30 p.m.—Medical Society "Daffydil" Night, Hart House Theatre. Tickets may be purchased from year presidents and members of the cast.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16

8.30 p.m.—A. E. Smith, National Secretary of the Canadian Labour Defence League, now under indictment on a charge of "sedition", will address an open meeting of the Student League of Canada, at 350 Dundas St. W.

Intercollegiate boxing, wrestling and fencing.

8.30 p.m.—Medical Society "Daffydil" Night, Hart House Theatre. Small admission price includes "Epistaxis".

5.10 p.m.—Dr. E. Stanley Jones of India will address a mass meeting of students in Convocation Hall. President Cody will preside.

9.30—Annual School At-Home in the Royal York Hotel. Wright Brothers orchestra.

9 p.m.—The Foresters' Club annual At-Home in the Music Room of Hart House.

Jarvis Collegiate Centennial Ball at Eaton's College St. Auditorium. Jack Slater's orchestra.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17

Intercollegiate boxing, wrestling and fencing.

3.30 p.m.—Trinity College Library. Professor G. M. Wrong on The Loyalist Background, 1763-1783, 150th anniversary of the Loyalist settlements in Ontario and New Brunswick.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18

3 p.m.—Important meeting of the Fraternanza of the University will be held in the Music Room. A full attendance of all members is requested.

9 a.m.—Holy Communion, Hart House Chapel.

Have You Lost Anything?
Have You Anything For Sale?

For quick results put a Classified Ad. in "The Varsity."

Phone Midway 6221

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS RUINED GERMANY, SAYS WRITER

(Continued from Page 1)
soul, and sufferings of horrible cruelty which were the exception with the allies but the rule with the Germans. Future writers—if honest—will sing the song of the superhuman bravery of the German soldier at the front. Already some English writers have done so in an impartial and fair way, for which the German nation will ever be thankful and appreciative.

This has been a rather long preface before coming in medias res. It is necessary to go back some distance in order to make the German political conditions clear to a foreigner, especially to the men of the "new world".

The U.S.A., with its 120 millions, a country of about 20 times the size of Germany, has never known the turbulence of dynastic and religious antagonism which for centuries has tormented the European nations, chiefly Germany. The monarchical system was the wedge driven between the different small states to form kingdoms, dukedoms and other . . . doms of illiputian size when measured by American sizes.

German emperors, induced either by ambition or religious devotion, lent their powers to the Roman pope, or ruined their countries in fighting against him. So the consolidation of the German empire—contrary to British or French political development—was again and again retarded. When the Lutheran Reformation in Germany broke, the sole power of the Catholic confession, and the Protestant faith stood up against Roman or Translucant influence, another set-back was given to Germany's political development.

It was fortunately balanced by the gain in the freedom of the Christian spirit. But the difference in the confessions has drawn a deep cut in the body of the German nation. This cut was carefully kept open by those interested parties that could only gain by it and benefit by the discord in the nation. After the Franco-German war of 1870 the unification of the German people was finally realized. The crack in the German nation, however, prevailed, and has been more and more deepened by the political Catholic Party, the "Zentrum".

Meanwhile another poison was injected into the body of the German nation, Social-Democracy. While the religious division between Catholics and Protestants created a deplorable situation, the growth of the Social-Democratic party proved to be the ruin of Germany. Yet the living force of the German nation was so enormous that the loss of the Great War had to come before this party could undermine the country and hurl her from the climax of success to utter helplessness, and make her the playball of the rest of the nations of the world.

(Note: Tomorrow's instalment will give the Nazi point of view toward the Jews and their reasons for the persecution of that race.)

4.45 p.m.—World Student Christian Federation, Service of Intercession, Trinity College Library.

5.45 p.m.—S.C.M. International Tea, 79 St. George St.

4 p.m.—W.U.A. musicale at the Union. Artists, Scott Malcolm and Reginald Golden. U.C. women and their guests are cordially invited.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19
5.10 p.m.—Meds S.C.M. group in the S.C.M. Library in Hart House. The speaker will be Dr. Malcolm Cameron of St. Michael's Hospital.

8 p.m.—Victoria College Debating Parliament, Alumni Hall.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20
5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club, Hart House Music Room.

5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in S.C.M. Library, of Hart House.

8 p.m.—English and History Club, St. Joseph's College.

8.15 p.m.—Annual concert of the Varsity band, Convocation Hall.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21

6 p.m.—Vic Classical Club will meet at 92 Wychwood Park. Speaker, Prof. E. T. Owen.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

CHEMISTRY SEMINAR

Twelfth regular meeting, Wed. Feb. 14, 1934, at 5.05 p.m. in the Small Lecture Room of the Chemical Bldg. Speaker, W. G. Moore, B. Chem. Eng. (Wash.). Subject, "Organic Reagents in the Determination of Copper".

INTERNATIONAL TEA

Following the service of intercession in Trinity Library next Sunday, the S.C.M. has arranged for the annual international tea at 5.45 p.m. at 79 St. George Street. Tickets may be obtained from either of the S.C.M. offices.

U.C. CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

A meeting will be held at the Women's Union on Wed. Feb. 15th at 8.15 p.m. A play by Professor Gilbert Norwood will be presented.

U.C. PLAYER'S GUILD

This afternoon at the auditorium of the Women's Union will be presented "Episode", a one-act play from the sequence of "Anatol" by Arthur Schnitzler. This promises to be one of the most amusing bits the Guild has done.

JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE

Last chance to get tickets for this party is between 12 and 2 p.m. today in the U.C. rotunda. You are reminded that the party is informal and all members of the college may buy tickets.

M. AND P. SOCIETY

The M. and P. Society will meet on Thursday, February 15th in Room 43, Physics Building. Speakers: Professor I. R. Pounder, "Figure of Earth"; Mr. A. A. Janis, "Some Physical Aspects of Organic Chemistry". Tea will be served at 4.15 p.m.

MACDONALD-CARTIER CLUB

Hon. Dr. Robb, M.P.P., and Minister of Health for Ontario, will address a luncheon meeting of the Macdonald-Cartier Club at 1 p.m. in north common room, Hart House. Members and their friends are heartily urged to attend as Dr. Robb has an excellent address prepared.

SCHOOL AT-HOME

Remember "the" party on Friday the 16th at the Royal York. Dancing 9 to 3 with the Wright Bros. orchestra. Ticket list is now open. Sale of tickets, Thursday 2-5 and Friday 10-12 and 2-5 at the Engineering Society store. From 12-2 on Friday tickets will also be available in the main lobby at Hart House for men of other faculties.

LATIN AMERICA

Dr. John MacKay, a recognized authority on student life and thought in South and Central America, will give an address this afternoon at 3 o'clock in Trinity College Library on "The Spiritual Spectrum of Latin America".

U.C. PARLIAMENT

The Hermant Government will move "That this House acknowledges that the duty which the citizens of Canada owe to their country is secondary to the duty they owe to humanity, whenever and wherever the two are in conflict", at the next session, Thursday, Feb. 15th at 4 p.m.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE LIT

Once in a lifetime we have a chance to celebrate the Eightieth Anniversary of the University College "Lit". The tickets go on sale to undergraduates in the college rotunda today between 12 and 2 p.m. As the subscription will obviously have to be restricted present members of the society are advised to get theirs immediately.

U.C. GRADUATING CLASS

You are reminded that your registration cards admit only yourself to the Junior-Senior. You will have to purchase your lady friend or escort a single ticket, which are on sale between 12 and 2 p.m. today in the rotunda. It may be necessary to identify yourself at the door.

U.C. PLAYER'S GUILD

Mr. Robin Godfrey presents "Episode" by Arthur Schnitzler, at 4.15 p.m. today in the Women's Union.

LETTERS I Don't Dare Mail

By Milton Shulman

General Balbo

Rome, Italy.

Dear General:

My barber, Tony Angelo, who is as loyal a fascist as you will find anywhere, has been continually urging me to write this letter to you. And even if he hadn't spoken to me on the subject I would have written anyway. Now Tony is a real loyal countryman of yours, and I hope that you won't get him into any trouble because of this epistle. In fact when he is lathering my face, he gets so enthusiastic about Mussolini and Primo Carnera, that he is continually showing the shaving brush into my mouth, which is very disconcerting indeed. Nevertheless Tony has a complaint to make, and personally I can't blame him.

My dear General, do you realize that you have inadvertently brought back to this country the menace of the beard? I realize sir, that this is a terrible accusation to make, but it is all too true. Of course, you had no idea when you first planned your hazardous flight across the Atlantic of the immense power publicity has on this continent, and you could not have known that your face would be photographed, mimeographed and telegraphed, smiled at, cheered at, yelled at, admired, hurrahed and toasted by millions of goggle-eyed movie and newspaper fans. Therefore, my dear Balbo, you are not at all to blame.

But sir, I would heartily recommend that you take immediate steps to counteract this destructive fact that you have so innocently introduced. There is no need to go into the unhygienic and crime-producing propensities of the beard. Crime-producing, I contend, because of the obvious means of disguise that are afforded by a ten days' growth and which any decent, he-man criminal can take advantage, and thus hide behind this cloak of anonymity until the hue and cry for his arrest has subsided. Sir, the beard in one stroke would destroy all the crime prevention we have spent so many years in building up. Furthermore, sir, I would add to our ever-increasing unemployment problem, a fact to which the local barber's union can amply testify.

There is obviously only one way in which this damaging fact can be obliterated, and that my dear general, is for you to make another historic flight. But this time it must be on a much grander scale than was the last one. And this time you must visit us minus your beard. It has to go! I might suggest that this time you lead across the Atlantic a squadron of some 100 seaplanes all flying across in the formation of a Fascist salute. Or you might even try coming across with thirty or so dirigibles, each dirigible shaped like Mussolini's nose, and as long as they didn't enter our countries' stock-up, I think they would create a tremendous amount of good-will. These are only a few suggestions that you might use, but in any case be sure that you have your beard shaved off before you attempt anything new, or this letter will have been written in vain, and poor Tony Angelo, will have to go on city relief. Hoping to see your beardless face beaming out at me once again from the rotogravure section of my Sunday paper, I am yours very truly,

Milton Shulman.

T.T.C. Commissioners,
Toronto, Canada.

Dear Commissioners:

I am writing this letter to you on behalf of the thousands of street car riders who will undoubtedly soon be too nervous wrecks unless some drastic steps are taken immediately. Sirs, the treadle must go! As an ardent, devoted, runner-like-hell-after-street-cars I believe it my duty to point out to you that you are contributing another problem to our already over-burdened civilization, a problem that is comparable only to the depression and the Yellow Peril. Innumerable times have I seen a passenger glare at the door before him, wait for it to open, look beseechingly or angrily (it depends on the individual) at the conductor, who simply yells, "step down", which the passenger does not do, waiting patiently for the door to open, and finally gets off the car a mile or so down the road. The rest of the occupants of the car watch the whole gruesome affair and are being placed under a tremendous strain while they attempt to mentally adjust themselves to the obvious disorder and tension that is all about them.

Then again the directions for manipulating this complicated hydraulic contraption are too vague and intricate for the average intelligence to comprehend. "Step on Step", "Step Down", "Step on Treadle", or "Do not stand on treadle", are a few of the easier directions which people incidentally never see, and most of them would not understand anyway (especially the word treadle, which most of us confuse with a sticky substance that looks almost the same in print).

Sir, if all the missed stops the treadle

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

ture of the Missing Feature Editor and his two brothers, the only one taken since the bird checked out." He handed over the photograph, which I reproduce here:

An Engineer ...

phoned and informed me that most of the girls would be going to the S.P.S. At-Home next Friday. He said that each Schoolman expected every girl to look her smartest and asked me to advertise those things that mean so much to the chic women at such affairs. (Versatile, these engineers.)

Satin Step-ins—

Carefully cut from real silk satin in White or Tealose. Smartly enhanced with a dainty lace motif. They cling so suavely to the figure, you'll want one at least, especially at 1.00

Evening Teddies—

Of Black or Tealose satin, sleekly cut on tailored lines. Adjustable straps for perfect fit. Georgette brassiere top. A perfect foundation 2.98

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 3800
4 other shops in Toronto

IMPROVEMENT SEEN BY DEAN OF S. P. S.

(Continued from Page 1)
out in an editorial in yesterday's Mail and Empire, have taken place in the gold mining and the base metal industries. The St. Lawrence Waterways project, if it is ratified by the United States and Canadian governments, will also absorb a large number of engineers.

"All branches of practical science," Dean Mitchell told The Varsity, "are recovering. Mining engineering, chemical engineering, architecture, all are presenting openings. Only civil engineering is still quiet. Chemical engineering particularly has gone ahead. This is only natural as the country becomes more and more industrialized."

The Dean pointed out various commonplace objects about his office, the production of which depends on the chemical engineer. Paper, glass, dies, varnish, the chemical engineer has some connection with the manufacture of them.

"The seasonal changes in industry do not affect the graduate very much," according to the Dean. "It is the upturn in the summer which provides the undergraduate employment for the holiday period!"

In a booming country the young graduate will always be able to find a job alongside with the experienced engineer. Canada now seems to be on the upgrade and as her industries begin to run full speed there is reason to believe that there will be positions for all the graduates of the School of Science.

SENDS "CONSCIENCE MONEY"

The Oxford Group Movement invaded the University of Manitoba last week, when a letter was received by The Manitoban, which contained a "confession" from a co-ed that she had received three copies of the paper without paying for them. She enclosed ten cents as payment.

was responsible for, were placed end to end, they would never stop and it is with this cheerful and very philosophical thought that I leave you, expecting that you will give this matter your most careful consideration as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely,
Milton Shulman.

Tickets In Rotunda for JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE, 12-2 p.m. To-day

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15th, 1934

No. 86

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Rome, Italy.—Last night Premier Benito Mussolini ordered a formidable concentration of troops on the Italo-Austrian frontier, as a purely precautionary measure.

Vienna, Austria.—In the face of a renewed Socialist attack on the capital, Chancellor Dollfuss last night appealed to revolting workers to "quit this madness" of armed opposition to the government.

Berlin, Germany.—Chancellor Hitler and his supporters are playing a waiting game in regard to the Socialist rebellion in Austria.

Ottawa.—That Portsmouth Penitentiary has been seething with revolt for nearly a year, with officials warning Ottawa of imminent outbreaks, was the startling disclosure made to the House of Commons by Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of Justice.

Berlin.—The government of Chancellor Hitler moved today towards the formation of a single, unified state to replace the 17 single federated states composing the German Reich.

Toronto Maple Leafs defeated the All-Stars 7-3 before a packed house, in the Ace Bailey benefit game.

SUPPRESSION CAUSE OF AUSTRIAN RIOTS

French Justified in Alarm Over Nazis in Austria Says Glazebrook

PARIS PROVIDED SPARK

"The present civil war in Austria is a direct expression of the strong Socialist sentiment in Vienna which has been largely suppressed under the Dollfuss government," said Professor George Glazebrook of the History Department in a special interview given to The Varsity yesterday, on the question of the motive underlying the present disturbances in that country. On a recent visit to Vienna, Mr. Glazebrook had noted that the country had seemed peculiarly adapted to the workings of a socialist state.

Asked whether there was any connection between the disturbances in Paris and Vienna, he thought that though they had originated under different circumstances, the outbreak in Paris, as has happened before in history, probably provided the spark for similar signs of discontent in other European centres. However, French alarm at the possibility of an Austro-German "Anschluss" was certainly justified since although the Nazis had taken no part to date in the present disturbances it was generally expected that they were merely waiting for the Socialists to bear the brunt of the attacks against Chancellor Dollfuss' Fascist-inclined government.

With reference to the attitude of Great Britain and the other powers, he was of the opinion that they would not intervene in Austria's internal affairs at any rate until the matter had been given consideration by the League of Nations as stated in recent Press despatches.

In conclusion, Professor Glazebrook commented on the tendency of the Toronto papers to magnify events which often proved to be of merely local significance. He cited as an example of this, recent headlines concerning street fighting in Paris, where the actual fatal casualties had not numbered more than half a dozen.

FRESHMEN CRAWLED OVER SHARP STONES IN BYGONE DAYS

Retiring Professor Wright
Discusses Initiations of Years Ago

HEAD OF ARCHITECTURE

Has Been Member of the Faculty for Forty-Three Years

"Have I seen many changes around the University? I've been here as a faculty member for forty-three years, so what do you think?" Thus did Professor C. H. C. Wright, head of the department of Architecture, reply to the query of The Varsity yesterday. A graduate of the School of Practical Science in 1888, Professor Wright received his appointment as head of Architecture in 1890, after working with a firm of contractors in Boston for two years.

When Professor Wright took charge the department of Architecture was a complete innovation and the only one. (Continued on Page 4)

TRUST COMPANIES OFFER OPENINGS

Many Graduates Are Being Constantly Taken into Trust Firms

TALK ON FINANCE

"The Trust Company is the department store of Finance, it covers a wide field and offers great opportunities to men of integrity and business ability," Mr. A. R. Courtie told the Vocational Guidance Group in Finance at Victoria College yesterday.

Mr. Courtie told the group of the great development, during recent years, in the number, size and scope of Trust Companies.

There are many departments, the most important being that of executor of estates. This department is of great benefit to the public because it gives stability to the administration of an estate which cannot be obtained when a private individual is the executor.

Further, the work of an executor and trustee in a Trust Company is extremely interesting for one has the (Continued on Page 4)

SCHOOL AT HOME BETTER THAN EVER

Tickets from Engineering Society and in Hart
House

ENGINEERS' PARADISE

Enjoying the reputation of being one of the foremost formal parties on the campus, the 1934 edition of the Annual School At-Home promises to outshine its predecessors, and perhaps all the other campus functions of a similar nature, according to the committee in charge, when questioned by The Varsity.

Realizing that a mighty task awaited them if they were to produce a party that would compare favourably with the At-Homes of other years, the committee has spared neither time, effort, nor expense in preparations that are as elaborate as they are complete. The Banquet Hall and the Concert Hall of the Royal York have been re-

(Continued on Page 4)

APPLICATIONS FOR EXAMS DUE FIRST OF MARCH

The Registrar's office at Simcoe Hall wishes that it be drawn to the attention of art students that the May examination applications are due on the first of March. If these forms are not made out and handed in by this date there is a dollar fine. Also these applications must be made out regardless of whether or not the exam fees have been paid as yet. The forms are to be had at the registrar's office at the colleges or at Simcoe Hall. The students are requested to take special care that they are accurately filled out so that there will be no danger of clashes in the examination time table.

CONSERVATIVE MEN LOYAL TO POLICIES

Discusses Laurier and Macdonald at Macdonald-Cartier Club

PROVINCIAL POLICIES

"Study such outstanding men as Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sir John A. Macdonald for a lesson in human nature," said Rt. Hon. Dr. Robb during an after luncheon address to the Macdonald-Cartier young Conservative Club at Wednesday noon. He went on to discuss the Conservative leaders and their party, staunchly defending their policies in Canada and the province of Ontario.

In speaking of Prime Minister (Continued on Page 2)

BENNETT TO SPEAK AT NEXT DEBATE

Canadian Position in Empire Markets to be Subject

BELL ON AFFIRMATIVE

The Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Prime Minister of Canada, will speak as honorary visitor at the next Hart House debate being held in the debates room on Wednesday, Feb. 21st at 8 p.m.

Mr. A. B. Bell, president of the Macdonald-Cartier Club, will introduce the motion "That in the opinion of this House it is in the best interests of Canada to retain her present preferred position in Empire markets." Mr. A. D. B. Marshall will oppose Mr. Bell. The House will then be thrown open and any member catch. (Continued on Page 2)

Firemen Fight as Sirens Blow But When Chief Arrives—Sooooo

—By R. G. A.

Two alarms!—Four stations!—two dozen firemen!—Too many ladders!—Then comes the final panicking climax.

A stately figure emerges from a maroon limousine with one pink headlight. He dons his overcoat and bowler, and dons a yellow mackinaw and a great big beautiful white fireman's hat. On the scarlet crest at the front, is a golden inscription—"FIRE CHIEF!"

The gasping throng is suddenly hushed in reverent awe. Then comes a shrill falsetto piping from some nicely hidden source—

"SoooooOOOO!"
Altogether, it was just too embarrassing; imagine sending firemen from the Orange Order to a fire at St. Mike's! The water just wouldn't come up the hydrant, the host just wouldn't go up the ladders, and the ladders just wouldn't go up the walls. But all the

JEWS DENDUNCED FOR LIBERALISM BY NAZI WRITER

Second in Series of Letters Shows Effect of Jews on Germany

ONE PER CENT POPULATION

Accused of Being Heads Drawing
Wires of Acting
Dolls

The second instalment of a letter from a German Nazi to a Graduate Student at the University of Toronto, revealing the grotesque ideology of Hitlerism.

The third medium of destructive effect was the liberalism which worked quietly like a latent disease. Its creators were hardly ever seen by the great mass of the people because they were the same as the fathers of the socialist heresies, namely, the Jews. This Jewish-born liberalism was meant to blind the man in the street and to gain for a relatively small number of unscrupulous heads the capitalistic power which still rules the world. Only this same lot is responsible for the self-mutilating four-years' fight of the white races against each other in the great war in which these white men did not hesitate to call coloured peoples to their help.

International Jews, representing either liberalism or capitalism, international Roman Catholic political ambition (not the true catholic religious faith), international socialism which has nothing to do with the endeavour to improve the living conditions of the workers, these have ruined Germany. At least the first and the last named of these three movements will prove to be a danger to countries with a white population and an advanced civilization.

As the seed of the Russian revolution was secretly sown by the co-operation of intelligent Jews who still hold in that country the power, so it was in Germany long before the revolution in 1918.

Systematically they had for a long time, by means of their undoubtedly great intelligence, gathered the press into their hands. And when in November 1918 the so-called republic was established, the heads drawing the wires of the acting dolls were mostly Jews. On one hand they were preaching the doctrines of socialism while on the other they made their business in such a secret way that gradually the world's capital came into their possession. At the same time they (Continued on Page 4)

ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE RESIDENCE GUTTED BY RAGING TWO-ALARM FIRE

MITCHELL F. HEPBURN

Ontario Liberal Leader, who will address the University Liberal Club in Hart House tonight.

LIBERAL LEADER TO ADDRESS CLUB

M. F. Hepburn Has Had Spectacular Rise in Public Life

STUDENTS WELCOME

Mr. M. F. Hepburn, M.P., who is speaking to an open meeting of the Liberal Club tonight at Hart House, is a young man who has had a spectacular rise in public life since he was elected to the Dominion House for West Elgin in 1925.

As leader of the Ontario Liberal Party, "Mitch", as he is called by his friends, has done much to revivify the party by his forceful personality and by his active campaigning in all sections of the province. He has been sparing of neither his time nor his energy in performing what he considers his duty.

Tonight will mark his first public appearance in Toronto this year, and it is significant of the interest which he is taking in the viewpoint of young people that he is speaking to the university men on this occasion.

Speaking as he will in the shadow of the Legislature, his message will be of particular interest in view of the forthcoming election this summer. Therefore it is expected that the staff and students will take advantage of this opportunity to hear Mr. Hepburn on his first visit to the University of Toronto.

SENIOR HOOPSTERS TO MEET ST. MIKE'S

Loss for Blue Quintet Will Give Them Very Little Chance for Title

GAME AT HART HOUSE

It is to die or die for Lew Hayman's senior basketball quintet when the Blue team takes on Bill Storen's St. Mike's squad in the third and last Big Six engagement between the two teams at Hart House on Thursday night. As a curtain raiser the Varsity girls' intercollegiate team will oppose Varsity Grads. A win for Varsity will put them on an even footing with the Blue Street aggregation while a loss will give them the chance of retaining the title fading into thin air.

The game looms up as one of the (Continued on Page 2)

Flames Breaking Out Before Eleven A.M. Create Veritable Furnace

HOOR AND HALF FIGHT

Miss Sheppard, First Trapped in Building, Collapsed Later

By R. G. Anglin

A two-alarm fire completely gutted the St. Michael's College maids' residence yesterday morning before firemen were able to conquer the stubborn blaze. Flames breaking out shortly before eleven a.m. created a veritable furnace in the lower hallway of the palatial house at 53 Queen's Park Crescent which was formerly a private residence. When the first reels arrived at 11.05, firefighters were faced by a blazing inferno which was rapidly leaping upwards to the second floor. Shattered by the heat, upstairs windows on north and south sides of the residence belched black smoke clouds as firemen attempted to erect ladders and to attack the flames above.

City Fire Chief George Sinclair arrived shortly after the first trucks reached the scene to take command of the combined brigades from the College, Yonge, Adelaide and Yorkville stations. Deputy Chief Maclean and District Chief Tate assisted in marshalling the forces combating the growing blaze. Hose lines were laid through the front door and through upstairs windows at the front, on the north side, and at the rear of the house.

Little impeded by the forces pitted against it, the fire rapidly spread to the north and south wings on the second floor, captured the circular tower in the southwest corner of the building and leaped upward through the ceiling into the gable above the tower.

In response to shouted orders from Chief Sinclair as he raced into the house, firemen forced their way into the tower room and began to demolish the ceiling. Streams of water were then directed through the ceiling and (Continued on Page 4)

S.C.M. Corner

"More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of."

Next Sunday, the third Sunday in February, will be observed by the World Student Christian Federation, as is usual each year, as the universal day of prayer for students. The members of the Student Christian Movements in twenty-seven countries across the world—Canada included—will on that day join in corporate intercession that they join in corporate intercession for the world over. It is one of the occasions when the bond of fellowship which holds the Federation together—a bond, by the way, which survived even the shocks of the Great War—is particularly real.

How urgent is the need for such corporate intercession across the world at this time! Social injustice, racial prejudices and animosities, individual and corporate selfishness and greed, mutual misunderstandings and suspicions between peoples and nations, the fear and mistrust which beget war—these, to mention only some of the more obvious ones, are problems of our time, challenge us all. And prayer is a means within the reach of us all whereby God's will, which is man's welfare, can be accomplished through us.

But obviously prayer can only be effective if we pray. The S.C.M. therefore calls upon the students of the University to join with students throughout the world in making next Sunday a day of special intercession—individual and corporate. A special service of intercession will be held in the library of Trinity College on Sunday at 4.45 p.m. in which all are invited to join.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... RANDOLPH 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Milton Shulman Assistant—F. R. Leggett

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15th, 1934

A QUESTION TO CHRISTENDOM

We declared in yesterday's editorial that the only salvation from Fascism and Communism is an equally profound faith in some other creed! The faith we had in mind which harboured the possibility of such a salvation is Christianity. But we admit, quite frankly, that Christianity, such as we see in operation today, does not possess that necessary power. Christianity has failed to stem the tide of pagan beliefs which are in the ascendant in Europe today. The reason has been that Christendom does not know its own Gospel, and has failed to realize that it is utterly incompatible with these new political movements. Indeed, so strong has Hitlerism become in Germany that it has reached a position where it can dictate to the Church. In his desire to establish a unified German nation, Hitler has attempted to nationalize the Church. One step has been to unite the numerous Protestant bodies under one government and under one bishop. The idea of a bishop is abhorrent to non-conformist bodies in any form but the idea of the Reichs-bishop, appointed by Hitler, is in opposition to all Christian conceptions of worship and ecclesiastical government. The Reichs-bishop, an appointee of the State, has jurisdiction over the theology of the Church, and has power to dismiss and appoint ministers and priests.

More amazing are the recent reports of the attempts to purge Christianity of its Judaistic character—which, of course, means the destruction of Christianity itself—and to blend it with the primitive religion of the Nordic people. Hitler's attempt to create a synthetic religion is not the first in history. Augustus Caesar essayed the same task centuries ago. Neither Imperialism nor Nationalism, however, no matter how orthodox or religious its garb may be, can satisfy the spiritual needs of the human soul. They must, in the end, fail.

Churches are not brought into being by the legislation of the State, by the appointment of a bishop, by holding conclaves at which creeds and forms of government are dispassionately determined. Nor are Churches created by common consent or by a majority vote. And Hitler, be he ever so successful in securing a majority vote in favour of his religious enterprise, will never be able to manufacture a Church. The creation of a Church has always been a mystery, even to the psychologists.

While it is true that German Christianity was unable to prevent the rise of the pagan doctrines of Fascism and Communism, a substantial portion of the Church, Catholic and Protestant, has refused to submit to the State, and has boldly denounced the Hitler Movement. Naturally, these Christians are being persecuted by the Nazis. The persecution, however, should do the Church no harm. Christianity has this in common with Communism: it flourishes under persecution. The true German Church will remain long after German Nationalism is dead and buried, even as the Church was the one institution to survive the fall of the Roman Empire.

That both Fascism and Communism have been immensely more virile and prosperous in Europe than Christianity, particularly among the youth, is a matter of extraordinary concern for all Christendom. Has the Church lost the fire which burned so furiously at its inception and at periods of revival? Can the modern Church with its broad-mindedness, its willingness to compromise with, and embrace all philosophies, with its pitiable efforts to recommend itself rationally to the minds of men, with its fear of being dubbed a fool, and with its almost complete identification with the ends, the ideals and the methods of the State withstand the assaults of paganism?

Let those who are concerned for the Church—and surely there are many at the University of Toronto—be not misled into thinking that we are entirely removed from the problems facing the Church in Germany. Because the crisis is not so apparent in America, is no reason why we should not behold the signs of the times, especially when we owe to Germany much of our theological bias. Therefore, let us take stock of our resources. And let us not conclude that the weakness of the German Church may be attributed to her indifference to social problems, and that if we only lend our weight and influence to the solution of these we will escape the catastrophe. Least of all, let us never be drawn into thinking that the Church can absorb or

Art, Music and Drama

A.C. Players' Guild

Episode, a one-act play from the sequence of "Anatol" by Arthur Schnitzler, produced for the Guild yesterday by Mr. Godfrey, was a delightful piece full of smart repartee, and in spite of previous apprehensions from certain quarters as to its success, was well acted by Robin Godfrey, Donald Stewart and Margaret Hill.

It is one of those clever dialogue comedies without much characterization, which require smooth, thoughtful acting to carry the interest and to convince the audience. Donald Stewart was particularly clever, as a foil to Anatol, in the role of Max, a type of subdued cynic—usually a thankless part, but he handled it so well, putting such subtle shadings into his remarks that one was caught listening for his answers and almost forgot Anatol, himself. Not that Mr. Godfrey was negligible—though he acted with more sureness as the Cockney in Drink-water's Bird in the Hand, which of course, was more of a character part than a humorous one. Here, however, he was not altogether his usual easy self. His first lines were off-colour, and although during most of the action he played Anatol remarkably, with momentary flashes of real skill, his unfortunate exit when Bianca got in his way, seemed to shadow his previous performance. Margaret Hill was well cast and quite satisfactory in the brief part of Bianca.

—J. P. M.

Down among the Engineering tribes at the south end of the campus, a really novel system of advertising has been originated, and as this cholm has always been a hearty advocate of anything and everything, we take the idea to our feline bosom with the best of felices.

C-C

The Schoolmen have promenade a sandwich board about the campus with the glaring inscription to the female of the species adroitly plastered across it "Lure Your Man To The School At-Home". To prove how quickly the co-eds have adopted the idea, we reprint the following snapshot taken in front of the Library, which all goes to show that when Victoria women go to work, they go to work in Earnest.

C-C

In this case, it's in Wimpy.

C-C

As you will notice, the striking gentleman with the School insignia across his manly chest, is naively holding a valentine behind his back which may indicate procrastination or indecision.

C-C

However—what chance has a mere man got?

C-C

While we're on the subject we print the following True Story, which, as you well know, was probably inspired by that thrilling episode yesterday, when some kind soul had File Advance Hid in Glue.

C-C

"Little Oscar lay on his bed in Trinity House, the object picture of a saddened freshman, his copious salt tears coursing down his pink cheeks, and falling in briny drops on the damp black and red coverlet. As his boyish frame shook with plaintive sobs, we gently inquired the nature of his sorrow. And here is what he said—

C-C

"Every morning sharp at eight I must arise or else be late
I pack my books and like a fool
(Continued on Page 4)

make terms with any form of blatant Nationalism. The Church can have no truck nor trade with any such Movements. And in the future the Church can expect no quarter from either Fascism or Communism for she, by her very nature, cannot be tolerant towards them!

CONSERVATIVE MEN LOYAL TO POLICIES

(Continued from Page 1)
Henry of the Ontario House, he disclosed that he was not only a college graduate, but a man trained in the school of experience, having been a member of the board of education, member of parliament, minister of agriculture, and minister of education. A man of honesty and courage who fights for his beliefs.

"Mr. Hepburn, leader of the opposition, can scarcely bear comparison," continued Dr. Robb. "He has made no good speeches and offered no constructive ideas. We have to consider this in our next election."

"They accuse the Conservative government of being wasteful and extravagant, but they cannot prove it, although we dare them to through the House records. In fact our party has reduced normal expenditures of the province in the last four years by eleven millions, the first time on record. Lower than this we cannot go. Hepburn cannot cut Old Age Pensions and other necessary expenses."

"Ontario now has a debt of 572 millions, of which 184 millions have been lent at interest to the Hydro, 55 millions to the farmers to pay off mortgages. Again, the government is bearing a heavy burden in this relief measure."

Quality and Mildness
Turret
CIGARETTES
SAVE THE POKER HANDS
Poker Hands are also packed with Turret Pipe Tobacco and Turret Cigarette Tobacco.
Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Ltd.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

A DR. JEKYL AND MR. HYDE
The Editor, The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

Would it be possible for M.B.L. to satisfy our curiosity as to his ability to be present at two different performances in one evening, a feat attested by his dual review in yesterday's issue. If the second review of the French play was intended as an apology for the blunder of his previous somewhat premature write-up it was most decidedly not made evident.

Yours, etc.,

L. Levenstein,
M. Sniderman,
J. H. Boothe.

Ed. Note:—The first review of the rehearsal was written upon special request.

SENIOR HOOPSTERS
TO MEET ST. MIKE'S
(Continued from Page 1)

highlights of the cage season as both teams are fairly evenly matched and usually provide the fans with the best brand of basketball, and in addition they will be fighting for the coveted playoff position. In their furious tilts this season St. Mike's grabbed off two close victories, their total margin in the two games being three points and indications point to another highly exciting tilt that will not be settled till Volles A.C. squad on Saturday night the final whistle blows.

Varsity's win over the powerful has considerably brightened their prospects. In addition a new Blue scoring threat has been uncovered over the week-end in the person of Irwin Levy, who chalked up 17 points in the two games, which gives Hayman two smart sets of forwards to work with. Bodross and Levy, and Mitchell and Gordon. Caplan and Willis will handle the centre chores, with Gold and Sniderman looking after the guard duties. Prince and Young are being held in reserve.

BENNETT TO SPEAK AT NEXT DEBATE
(Continued from Page 1)

ing the Speaker's eye may speak for five minutes. The Prime Minister will close the debate with a forty minute speech.

This debate will mark the beginning of the eleventh year of Hart House debates and the occasion is thus doubly auspicious.

Owing to the fact that the space is strictly limited and a large number of undergraduates wish to be present, the Debates Committee would ask that the following regulations be adhered to.

Only members of Hart House will be admitted to the debate upon the presentation of their registration or membership cards.

No member may introduce a guest on this occasion.

Study the Art of Living

Toronto is a part of the great world of travel and society, in the Royal York Hotel. Come here to mingle with the city's notables and their most interesting guests, and to add your share to the atmosphere of gay sophistication.

Afternoon Tea Musicals—4.30 to 6 p.m.
Rex Battle's Concert Orchestra.
In the Palm Room off the Main Lobby.

Supper Dance—Introducing a new star, Billy Bisset, with his Royal Yorkers.
9 to 1.30 a.m., nightly (except Sunday).

Special Rates for College Parties
Phone Wa. 2511

THE ROYAL YORK
A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL

Nothing But
A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit
for the coming dance.
They are up to the minute.
Also complete outfits and evening wraps.
Two stores to serve you.
Special rates for students.
FREEMAN'S
256 College St. 571 Yonge St.
KI. 0991 KI. 3270

Like Whistling?

Everybody can whistle when they play
"THE WHISTLER AND HIS DOG"
a humorous selection at the

Varsity Band Concert

at

Convocation Hall, Tuesday, February 20th
8.15 p.m.

Admission 15 cents

MANY FINE ATTRACTIONS GUEST ARTISTS

HEAR THE NEW BLUE AND WHITE MARCH

Tickets on sale S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Room 82, U.C., and from Band Members.

Hear "MITCH" HEPBURN TO-NIGHT, 8.15, Debates Room, Hart House

VARSITY MEET ST. MIKE'S IN CRUCIAL CAGE GAME TO-NIGHT

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

Tonight in Hart House gym at 7.30 the women's intercollegiate basketball team meet the Grads' team. Last year the Grads slipped right back into their old smooth-working form and came out one basket on top in the first game. With most of the same players repeating in the exhibition fixture tonight, an equally exciting contest is promised. Phil Griffiths, however, won't be on hand as Toronto Ladies are playing a league game. That may make all the difference.

The intercollegiate basketball team has been chosen. It sounds like an exceptionally well balanced team on paper and their playing ability will have ample chance to be demonstrated tonight. Four of last year's players are back. Eleanor Wallace and Alice Butler on defence, and Bea Longley and Grace McClintock on the forward line form a strong nucleus for this year's squad. Helen McGarry, Grace Becker and Mary Louise Carre who have had experience with the intermediates, Mary Rose of St. Hilda's, interfaculty winners, and Kay Brown, a clever new player, complete the lineup.

That Coach MacPherson has taught the Varsity team how to play hockey was convincingly demonstrated last night when they outplayed the Vagabonds in the first and last periods of the game, weakening only in the second stanza. Their checking made the Vagabonds look silly at times, and Fran Westman couldn't get going at all. It was good to see Dama Lumley back in uniform and she turned in a brilliant performance. The players are beginning to work together like a team and they should skate Queen's off their feet on Saturday.

Sport Notices

Women's Intercollegiate Basketball—

Game tonight in Hart House gym at 7.30. The following players are to be there by 7.20 in uniform: B. Longley, G. McClintock, M. L. Carre, K. Brown, M. Rose, E. Wallace, A. Butler, G. Becker, H. McGarry.

Sr. Vic Baseball—

Practice today at 1. No practice on Saturday.

U.C. Women's Badminton—

Anyone wishing to play in the tournament, please sign list immediately in the cloakroom. Watch The Varsity for further notices.

University Rugby Managers—

Applications for managers of the junior, intermediate and senior intercollegiate rugby teams, must be handed into the Athletic Office by Wednesday, February 21st.

VAGABONDS DEFEAT IMPROVED TEAM

Blue Squad Show Great Deal of Improvement Over Last Game

SCORE 4-2

Displaying a brand of hockey superior to that of their previous performance, the Varsity women's team took a 4-2 defeat from the Vagabonds in a city league fixture at the Arena last night. Except for some careless work in front of the net in the second period when the Vagabonds scored three

POWERFUL SQUADS ENTER ASSAULT

For First Time in Three Years Hart House Again Scene of Assault

FRIIDAY NIGHT

Only once in every three years is a Toronto audience able to view the annual intercollegiate assault which invariably produces the most exciting evening in a season of mitt and matt activities. Friday night will see the opening of this fistic classic and after three years Hart House will once again be the scene of action and if the quality of the performers is any attraction the B. W. & F. Club should be sure of a capacity house both nights.

Besides the appeal this line of athletics holds for everyone interested in active sport, there is also the traditional colour always lent when the rival universities clash. McGill, Queen's Varsity will be represented with men in every weight from featherweights to heavies, and the traditional rivalry of all three colleges is a guarantee of an evening of action.

Varsity's record in this annual affair is somewhat enviable. In thirteen years (from 1920 to 1933) the Blue battlers have captured the title ten times. McGill held it in 1923-24 and Varsity were on top from then until 1929 when they again dropped the crown for one year only. Queen's have only held the crown once during this period and that was in 1932.

The competition this year looks to be keener than ever and the race looks to be wide open. Queen's have been getting better every year and rumour has it that they are very confident of their ability to get down in front this year. McGill also looms up as a dangerous contender, particularly in the boxing and fencing events. On the other hand Varsity is considerably weakened and placing most of their money on the wrestling team to bring them victory. Whatever happens it is certain to be worth seeing and as it is only once in three years, it is hoped that there will be a full house to support the Blue battlers.

goals, the Blue team played smart hockey, featured by excellent defensive work.

Varsity took an early lead and finished the first period one goal up, both Billie Fowler and Pat Thompson scoring one goal to the Vagabonds' single. Dama Lumley, who was back in her Blue and White uniform guarding the net, was nevertheless called upon to make some spectacular saves. However, Varsity certainly looked to be the better team.

The Vagabonds came back strongly in the second period and out-skated Varsity who relaxed just long enough for the score to be changed to 4-2 in the Vagabonds' favour.

In the third period the play was evenly matched and hard fought. Billie Fowler and Eleanor Sanson were responsible for stopping Fran Westman, Vagabonds' spectacular player; the back checking of both forward lines completely disorganized the rushes of the double blue squad.

Mary Rous and Jocelyn Hogg were outstanding. They checked hard and were right there when danger threatened. Every Varsity player was toeing the mark, which was not the ease with the Vagabonds.

Vagabonds — Goal, M. Boulthby; defence, F. Westman, M. Trimmel; centre, M. Thompson; wings, B. Winlow (2), B. McKenzie (1); alternates, H. Anderson, M. Porter, M. McKenzie, B. Barr, E. Broad (1).

Varsity — Goal, D. Lumley; defence, M. Rous, C. Grant; centre, B. Fowler; wings, J. Atkinson, E. Sanson; alternates, J. Hogg, M. Morris, B. Mark, P. Thompson (1).

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By B. J. McGuire

Tomorrow night Varsity will trot out their 1934 edition of the B. W. & F. team who will be defending the Gibson cup against the McGill and Queen's invasion. Only once in three years does a Varsity audience get a chance to view the proceedings when these rivals clash and starting tomorrow night things should happen in a big way around the gym. On the eve of the struggle the race looks to be wide open. Varsity's boxing team is considerably weaker than last year and the Blue hopes of retaining the title rest mostly with the wrestlers and fencers. McGill are weak in wrestling material but have a lot of nice boxers particularly from the welterweight up. Jack Jarvis is certain to have a strong team from Queen's but is neglecting to send in his entry till the last possible minute.

Some of the scraps look good enough to headline any show. All three teams have good men in the welter class. Queen's have the famous Peever while McGill have unearthed a chap by the name of Quinn who fought his way to a championship on the Pacific coast. When and if this pair start dealing in leather we want to be around. McGill also has George Maughan, Canadian heavyweight champion. George should win that class in a walk. With regard to Merv Peever we might also say that he tried conclusions with Curly Duncan at Kingston some time ago. Rumour has it that the old war horse, Curly, took a decision from Merv. In which case we call Quinn to take Mr. Peever. We hereby conclude our calling act as we would probably be wrong anyway. These boys are amateurs, which means action, so we advise all and sundry interested to drop in tomorrow night, do their own calling and watch the results.

Varsity's hopes of making a mark in the hockey world now rests solely with Jimmie McPherson and the ladies' team. Jimmie deserves to be congratulated on the job he has made of coaching this squad. Starting with an inexperienced club who had little by way of hockey ability but ambition, Jimmie has built up a smart team and now has the girls playing real hockey. Last night they dropped a close decision to the Vagabonds, who at the first of the season just toyed with the Varsity team. The outstanding thing about last night's game, aside from their general improvement, was the great work of Mary Rous on the defence. Mary is somewhat of a pocket size edition of a defence man, but the way she stopped the flashy Fran Crooks last night was a treat to watch.

Tonight will just about tell who is who in the Big Six basketball. St. Mike's and Varsity play a belated engagement with double points at stake. A win for the Varsity squad will just ease them out in front of St. Mike's, while a victory for the Irish puts a blanket on Varsity's chances of getting anywhere in the Big Six. An added attraction to this event is the girls' game, which forms the curtain raiser to the twin bill. Varsity's intercollegiate squad will play an exhibition game with a grad team and should provide an exciting fixture. The place is at Hart House. The price is two bits or a student ticket. The ladies open the show and the line forms to the right.

Only the faint echo of the shout which went up when Jack Sinclair pulled down that pass and galloped over for the touchdown which gave Varsity the intercollegiate title, remains of the football season, but we expect many still remember the Varsity band. These were the lads in Blue and White who went out between engagements to amuse the crowd and furthermore they made a good job of it. Varsity undoubtedly possessed the best band in the intercollegiate circle. They lent a colour to the game to which it owes as much as to anything else its popular appeal. What we are trying to say is that this band is holding their annual concert next Tuesday and are anxious for a large turnout. They certainly made a hit with the crowd back in the fall and the best way of demonstrating that we still remember them is by turning up at their concert. It is certain to produce an evening of rare entertainment and we can think of no better way of spending any Tuesday night than by once again familiarizing ourselves with the music of this band.

SR. U.C. TIE DENTS IN HOCKEY GAME

Trinity Greatly Outclassed Wycliffe with 8-1 Win

In an interfaculty double header played in Varsity Arena yesterday afternoon Senior Dents held Senior U.C. to a scoreless tie and Trinity College defeated Wycliffe by the score of 8 to 1.

The first game of the afternoon was exceedingly close the whole way, with both teams struggling with might and main from start to finish. At times the contest was so close that tempers flared, with the result that both sides were penalized frequently. With Greco in the cooler for Dents, U.C. featured five-man rushes and bombarded the Dentist nets continually but without success. Both goalies stood out like shining stars and proved invincible. Squires, Greco and Valiquette played well for the Dentists, while Buton, Keith and Coulter were best for U.C.

In the second game the smartly coached Trinity aggregation greatly outclassed their rivals with speed, style and scoring ability. Although the Theologians from Wycliffe opened the scoring in the first minute of play they were unable to hold this lead and the Trinity pucksters succeeded in piling up an unouchable score. For Trinity Joe McCreary, Burchell and Brennan

WOMEN NATATORS HOLO ANNUAL MEET

Members of First Year Prominent in Victoria Swimming Events

Last night before a crowd of spectators, numbering at least three, the women of Victoria College held their annual swimming meet at U.T.S. pool.

Members of first year were prominent in various events, and the individual championship went to Isabel Brown of that year. Anne Scott and Isabel Alexander, both of fourth year, earned second and third positions respectively. Events:

Plunge: 1, S. Currelly; 2, I. Alexander; 3, I. Brown.
Diving: 1, I. Brown; 2, A. Scott; 3, I. Alexander.
Ornamental: 1, I. Brown; 2, I. Alexander; 3, M. Sharpe.
Style: 1, A. Scott; 2, S. Currelly; 3, M. Sharpe.
Breaststroke: 1, R. Longhurst; 2, I. Brown; 3, A. Scott.
Backstroke: 1, B. Barton; 2, I. Alexander and M. Rous (aeq.).
Free Style: 1, J. Fenton; 2, M. Sharpe and A. Scott (aeq.).

were the best, while Metcalfe, Emmet and Kibblewhite played well for Wycliffe.

JR. MEOS LOSE 7-1 IN WATER POLO

Trinity Now Enters Finals; Will Contest Eckhart Trophy

As a result of their 7-1 win over Jr. Meds last night in the water polo fixture, Trinity earned the right to enter the finals for the Eckhardt trophy. Jr. Meds and Sr. S.P.S. will lock horns Friday afternoon to decide who will be the Anglians' opponents. The fact that Trinity scored three goals while playing short handed demonstrates their superiority over the Medicos. Jr. Meds were playing under a handicap as their regular goalkeeper was ill, but Wallace, who substituted at the last minute, played an excellent game and only a brick wall could have stopped Trinity from scoring.

features all the newest works of fiction—only 75c. a day per volume.

Library—Street Floor
THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

Another IMRIE BROS. Special

English Broadcloth Shirts

Separate Callars or Callars Attached

Colors Guaranteed

$1.29

or

3 for $3.50

To meet the needs of University men Imrie Bros. offer these fine quality shirts. We have priced them specially to conform with present-day budgets and we can absolutely guarantee the quality. They wear well, the colors are unfadeable and they are sure to be popular with Varsity men.

IMRIE BROS.

TWO STORES:

140 YONGE STREET, Corner of Temperance
274 YONGE STREET, Opposite Imperial Theatre

JR. U.C. BASKETEERS TRIM O.A.C. QUINTET

Sr. U.C. reversed their loss in Guelph by trimming the O.A.C. basketball quintet 37-19 yesterday afternoon in Hart House. The first half saw the U.C. team led by Hennessy romp into a huge lead with a heavy barrage of close-in shots that ran the score up rapidly.

The first half was played in the upper gym and the second half in the big gym. Hennessy ran in five quick baskets in the first three minutes to put the winners away out in front. He added another before the half closed, assisted by two hoops from Scott. Then the visitors stopped the splurge and scored ten points. Half time score 21-10. The first part of the second frame saw the Guelph outfit out for blood but they failed to penetrate the U.C. defence. As the agriculturists faded in the closing minutes Scott went wild to make the final count 37-19, assisted by Bell and McKigan.

Scott was high scorer with 14 points and Hennessy scored 12. Bartlett and Paddon did some nice shooting for the O.A.C. team, to count 7 and 8 respectively.

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

Copyrights and Patents

J. R. Cadwell, M.D.
Barrister, Solicitor, etc.
300 Bloor St. East
Ra. 2121-2122

VIC WOMEN BLANK MEDS IN INTERFACULTY HOCKEY

Piling up six goals in the last period, Vic I blanked Meds women's hockey team last night at the Stadium Rink 6 to 0.

Mary Thom, centre, turned in a fine performance for Meds. The Scarlet and Gold team displayed better stick-handling and speed, most of the goals being made on solo rushes.

The Sensational Medical Fun Fest, Thursday and Friday, February 15 and 16

DAFFYDIL NIGHT, Hart House Theatre, 8.30 p.m., Admission 75c.

TICKETS ON SALE AT BOX OFFICE AND MEDICAL OFFICE

Coming Events

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15

8 p.m.—Victoria College Dramatics read-through groups will meet in Wymilwood.

4 p.m.—U.C. Parliamentary Club.

4.15—M. and P. meeting, Room 43, Physics Building. Speakers, Professor I. R. Pounder, "The Figure of the Earth"; Mr. A. A. Janis, "Some Aspects of Organic Chemistry". Refreshments.

5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club, Hart House Music Room.

8.15 p.m.—Open meeting of Liberal Club in the Music Room, of Hart House. Mr. Mitchell F. Hepburn, M.P., will speak.

8.30 p.m.—Medical Society "Daffydil" Night, Hart House Theatre. Tickets may be purchased from year presidents and members of the cast.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16

8.30 p.m.—A. E. Smith, National Secretary of the Canadian Labour Defence League, now under indictment on a charge of "sedition", will address an open meeting of the Student League of Canada, at 350 Dundas St. W.

Intercollegiate boxing, wrestling and fencing.

8.30 p.m.—Medical Society "Daffydil" Night, Hart House Theatre. Small admission price includes "Epistaxis".

5.10 p.m.—Dr. E. Stanley Jones of India will address a mass meeting of students in Convocation Hall. President Cody will preside.

9.3—Annual School At-Home in the Royal York Hotel, Wright Brothers orchestra.

9 p.m.—The Foresters' Club annual At-Home in the Music Room of Hart House.

Jarvis Collegiate-Centennial Ball at Eaton's College St. Auditorium. Jack Slater's orchestra.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17

Intercollegiate boxing, wrestling and fencing.

3.30 p.m.—Trinity College Library. Professor G. M. Wrong on The Loyalist Background, 1763-1783, 150th anniversary of the Loyalist settlements in Ontario and New Brunswick.

8 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., 655 Spadina Ave., subject, "The Sower".

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18

9 p.m.—Wymilwood Musicals, guest artist, John Crooke, baritone, of Montreal, accompanied by Herbert Dunkley.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

I hurry on my way to school. Now such exertion makes me foam. When Engineers have School At-Home!

They brag about it in their ads. They're proud of it—the dirty cads. I think what they should do instead "Give Trinity men their School In Beds"

C—C

According to a prominent advertiser in The Varsity yesterday, Schoolmen "expect every girl to look her smartest" at the At-Home, and by way of a hint they suggest Satin Slip-ins and Evening Teddies in Black and Teal Rose.

C—C

Line up on the right if you want to be ahead of Kugur.

Classified Advertisements

THE HOSTESS DRAWING ROOM

Toronto's unique social rendezvous, where you may entertain graciously, economically and without personal effort. Reserve your dates for bridges, teas, receptions, banquets, business meetings, etc. 891 Bay St., between Grosvenor and Broad-albani. Kl. 9861.

LOST

Parker Pen at St. George Street. Please notify Suzanne Currelly, La. 0236.

FRESHMEN CRAWLED OVER SHARP STONES

(Continued from Page 1)

partment of its kind in Canada. From a small department in which all the teaching was done by himself, Mr. Wright has seen it grow to a registration of fifty, with six faculty members.

"The initiations of today are nothing compared to what we had to go through," stated Professor Wright. "I escaped the initiation in my freshman year because I was a member of the soccer team, which was the team in those days." However, the initiation in which he took part as a sophomore may be regarded as typical of the times.

All the most objectionable freshmen were listed by the sophs, who were real men in those days, and the unfortunate individuals who had been singled out for attention were made prisoner and kept in captivity throughout the day of initiation. When night fell the cowering frosh were led blindfolded to the basement of U.C., the floor of which was in many places covered with stone chips left by the builders. There a mock trial was conducted with a senior or graduate for magistrate, and sentence was imposed on the first year man. If any freshmen were misguided enough to resist, they were subjected to an ordeal beside which the modern School initiation resembles a Sunday School picnic.

As a preliminary, the frosh were made to crawl on their hands and knees over the sharp chips of stone which covered the floor. When their hands and knees were bleeding nicely, the "barbers" were called in and the rebels were deprived of half their moustaches, part of their hair and other essentials to the well dressed man. Finally, they were taken outside and dragged in the Taddle, a stream which at that time ran through the University grounds. Unfortunately one man was dropped onto a picket fence which ran beside the stream, and although he was not seriously injured, the incident was the beginning of the movement to curtail initiations.

The poor freshmen were not allowed to carry gloves, canes or other fancy accessories, and they were compelled to tip their hats to all seniors. The crowning penalty for being a frosh, however, was the prohibition against being seen with a lady anywhere but at the Conversation.

"There was, of course, no such thing as Hart House when I joined the staff," stated Professor Wright. "The nearest thing to it was Moss Hall which stood where the biology building now stands."

The big social function of the year was the Conversation which was a concert held annually in Convocation Hall, part of U.C. The building was entirely lit by coal-oil lamps, and it was while putting these in position for the Conversation of 1890 that the disastrous fire took place. "Incidentally, they were some parties in those days," said Professor Wright, "which may account for the fact that a man tripped and upset the tray of lamps!"

U.C. JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE PROVES HUGE SUCCESS

The seniors and juniors of University College made merry last night when they held their annual dance in the Roof Garden of the Royal York. It was the first time that the dance had been held downtown, and the innovation proved highly successful. The fact that it was St. Valentine's night lent an even more festive air to the event, and combined to make an altogether enjoyable evening. Stan St. John and his orchestra provided the music for the gay occasion.

VICTORIA COLLEGE SENATE ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP

The Senate of Victoria University wishes to announce that it has awarded the Lincoln G. Hutton Scholarship for 1933-34 to Miss M. I. Death for her essay on "The Negro Race in Recent Novels and Dramas", and that Honorable Mention is made of the essay of Mr. B. W. Rich on "The Theory of Relativity from the Point of View of the Layman".

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

SCHOOL AT-HOME

Tickets will be on sale today from 2.5. The sale will continue Friday from 10-12 and 2-5. Men of other faculties are reminded that they may procure tickets in the main lobby at Hart House on Friday 12-2.

VIC WOMEN!

Women who have not yet secured their tickets for the V.C.U. tea dance to be held on Saturday, February 17, may get them in the college hall today, Thursday, Feb. 15, from 1.30 to 2 p.m.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Meeting at 5 p.m. in Music Room. Next meeting Tuesday at 5 p.m. (not Monday). Final rehearsal, Thursday 22nd. Recital Friday 23rd. Full attendance urged.

MACDONALD-CARTIER CLUB

A luncheon meeting of the Macdonald-Cartier Club will be held in the Graduates' Dining Room, Hart House, on Wednesday, February 21st at one o'clock. The Right Hon. R. B. Bennett, Prime Minister of Canada, and leader of the Liberal-Conservative party, will speak.

A. S. M. E.

A meeting will be held in C 22 this evening at which Mr. J. G. Co-burn will present an address on "Can Depressions be Prevented?" All members of the Student Branch are invited to attend.

RESIDENCE GUTTED BY TWO-ALARM FIRE

(Continued from Page 1)

The men themselves clambered up into the blazing loft. Flames could be seen from outside as they broke through the red tile-work of the cone-shaped roof, and shattered slate began to rain down upon firemen in front of the house. The wooden scantling work inside having been completely burned away, just at eleven-thirty the whole structure of the slate roof collapsed within the tower before the firemen had all left the room below. None of these men were hurt, however, although others suffered frostbite, minor burns and cuts.

It was nearly an hour and a half after their arrival before the fire-fighters managed to get the blaze under control. As late as twelve o'clock noon a further outbreak in the gable above the north wing necessitated the hurried replacement of an extension ladder which had just been removed. A hose line from inside the residence was quickly passed through an upper window to a fireman on the ladder who managed to quench the fresh outbreak.

When they saw smoke pouring from the windows of the maids' quarters next door to their residence at 57 Queen's Park Crescent, Archie Harris, Ed Lawlor and Bob Miller of St. Michael's College, were the first to discover yesterday's fire. As there is no telephone in either house from which to put in an alarm, Harris and Lawlor raced across the snow covered lawn with a chemical fire extinguisher from their own house. Rose Sheppard, one of the maids, who had been sick in bed in her room on the second floor, was standing, screaming, on the front steps of the burning building, and clutching a bundle of clothes. When the students tried to open the door, they found it to be locked, the catch apparently having snapped after Miss Sheppard made her hasty exit.

Miss Sheppard was then taken into the other boys' residence one door to the south, where she collapsed from effects of the smoke and shock. An ambulance was called and the invalid lady rushed to St. Michael's Hospital.

The origin of the fire was subject to a difference of opinion between Fire Department officials and the students who discovered the blaze. In conversation with The Varsity during the fire, City Fire Chief Sinclair stated

THE FORUM

A regular meeting of the Forum will be held on Friday, Feb. 16 at 4 p.m. in Room 4, U.C. Messrs. Patrick and J. Mirsky will speak. Mr. Stobie will be in the chair.

VICTORIA DRAMATICS

There will be a meeting of all the Read-through Groups in Wymilwood this evening at 8. All interested are invited.

"DAFFYDIL" NIGHT

Don't miss the funniest evening of the year! Tickets are still available at the Hart House Theatre box office and the Medical Office for Thursday Feb. 15 and Friday, Feb. 16. The curtain goes up at 8.30 p.m. Small admission includes a copy of Epistaxis.

LIBERAL CLUB

Open meeting tonight in Debates Room, Hart House, at which Mr. M. F. Hepburn, M.P., will speak.

U.C. PARLIAMENT

Today at 4 p.m., motion, "That this House acknowledges that the duty which the citizens of Canada owe to their country is secondary to the duty they owe to humanity, whenever and wherever the two are in conflict."

VICTORIA COLLEGE

Tickets for the athletic At-Home will be on sale in the college hall between 1.30 and 2 p.m. Get your tickets early.

that he thought the blaze had begun in the lower front hallway.

"I have been down in the cellar and there is nothing to indicate that the trouble started there," explained Mr. Sinclair, "but when the men entered the house a chertfield close to the front door was in flames, as was the whole hallway."

However, Harris, Lawlor and Miller, the St. Mike's students who discovered the blaze, were convinced that the fire had first broken out in the basement.

"I am sure that there were flames in the cellar before the fire had reached the ground floor hall," Harris told The Varsity.

Patrick MacLaughlin, janitor of the St. Michael's residences, was also of the opinion that the fire started in the basement, and that it was likely caused by overheated furnace pipes.

TRUST COMPANIES OFFER OPENINGS

(Continued from Page 1)

satisfaction of seeing estates administered in the interests of the beneficiaries (frequently widows and children) without loss through unsound investments.

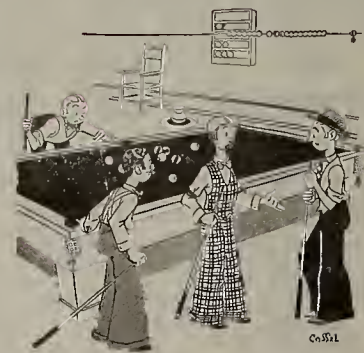

Trained men such as professional men and university graduates are constantly being taken in because it is realized that they are valuable in such a company.

"University graduates who enter the bond business have before them an interesting and profitable future if they possess initiative, imagination and an active mind," said Mr. C. G. King in speaking to the group on Finance.

The sales department of a bond house is the most important for through it contact is made with investors, both large and small. Therefore the university graduate entering the bond business should use the statistical accounting, or general administration departments as a training ground for a position of responsibility in the sales department.

Mr. King warned the group that the bond business must be considered from the long term viewpoint because progress for a young man is very slow for the first few years.

The bond business is open to all who have the necessary ability and the university graduate starts with some advantage because of his mental training.

No, he's not delivering an alibi for the last miscue. He's merely taking a breather and regaling the boys with the highlights of his last telephone talk with the home folks. "Which reminds me," says Fedora Freddie, "that to-night's my regular night to call."

For 30 cents

you can telephone about

100 miles

by making an "anyone" call (station-to-station) after 8.30 p.m. See list of rates in front of directory.

SCHOOL AT-HOME BETTER THAN EVER

(Continued from Page 1)

served for dancing and a sit-down supper respectively. The popular Wright Brothers orchestra will furnish the syncope for dancing, and the dreamy music of the Royal York Concert Organ will play during the intermission while the guests sample the heights of this hostelry's culinary art. Following the banquet, dancing will be resumed until three o'clock.

A floor show featuring Wes and Lisa Adams, the popular dancing partners who have recently appeared at the Embassy Club, the Imperial Theatre, and the Royal York Supper Dance, will add the spicy touch to the entertainment, and decorations and lighting effects in the Gold, Blue and White of the Faculty of Applied Science will transform the ballroom into an Engineer's Paradise.

The reception of the guests will commence at 9.30 in the grand foyer of the Convention Floor. The patronesses for the evening are Mrs. H. J. Cody, Mrs. C. H. Mitchell, Mrs. C. R. Young, Mrs. H. E. Haultain, Mrs. R. W. Angus, Mrs. C. H. C. Wright, Mrs. J. W. Bain, Mrs. H. W. Price, Mrs. C. A. Guess and Mrs. W. J. T. Wright. Delegates from McGill, Queen's, O.A.C. and McMaster will be present to represent the Engineering Societies of these universities.

The sale of tickets will commence this afternoon, and all those wishing to attend are advised to make sure that they have added their names to the lists posted in the Engineering Society. They may also be obtained from the Hall Porter, Hart House, on Friday from 12 to 1.

Frosh wearing high school sweaters on the campus of the University of Washington will be ducked in the frosh pond, according to an ultimatum issued by Big "W" Club members.

JEWS OENOUNCED FOR LIBERALISM

(Continued from Page 1)

did all they could to accelerate the process of impoverishing the working men and to make the army of the proletarians greater every year.

The Jewish influence in politics and finance was tremendous, and the worst of it was that the man in the street did not realize it. Germany showed at the census of 1932 the following population figures:—

Total population	63,181,000
Protestants	40,015,000
Catholics	20,193,000
Jews	564,000
Others	1,550,000

This means that the Jewish population does not represent 1 per cent of the entire population. Contrary to this very low percentage, in the learned professions the Jews numbered far ahead of the white peoples. For instance:—

Berlin had in 1931 in all 3,450 lawyers, of which 1,925 were Jews. Breslau had 285 lawyers, of which 192 were Jews. Frankfurt had 659 lawyers of which 432 were Jews. In such trades and occupations where physical work was required as in agriculture, the Jews were represented by the extremely low figure of 1 per cent of the working population, while of the whole German population 28.9 per cent made their living at hard-arm work.

In the German universities, the Jewish blood increased in numbers and in influence. In 1914 there were 3,140 professors of which not less than 937 were Jews, i.e., 30 per cent. In 1932 the medical faculty of the university of Berlin comprised 45 per cent of Jews. According to statistics of 1931 25 per cent of the philosophical faculty at the University of Breslau was Jewish, 45 per cent of the medical faculty and 47.6 per cent of the Faculty of Law.

(Note:—The third instalment of this letter will be published in tomorrow's issue of The Varsity.)

Don't Miss the Varsity Band Annual Concert, Tuesday next, February 20th at 8.15 p.m. in Convocation Hall

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16th, 1934

No. 87

QUEEN'S-McGILL HERE FOR SENIOR ASSAULT

Faith of Students is Weakened If Religion Divorced from Life

By C. de Mestral

"Most of the students, today, cannot go through their university years without weakening their faith, because Christianity has been divorced from everyday life and thoughts," said Dr. E. Stanley Jones, when interviewed yesterday by The Varsity. "My recent contact with the largest American Universities has convinced me that students are so confused by the paradoxes of our economic order, where religion plays such a small part, that they turn to cynicism. Yet, they all yearn for some sounder and more spiritual Kingdom than our materialistic social order. In the Universities of India, too, students are in a chaotic state of mind, being torn between the hunger and need for studies and the great call of a rising patriotism. Of late there has been a decided tendency among Indian students to take a direct share in the reshaping of their economic and political society."

Dr. E. S. Jones

In reply to the question whether Gandhi was becoming discredited in India, Dr. Jones stated that as a political force Gandhi was not as strong as he had been. "Among Mohammedans, especially, he has lost something of his leadership to an All-Indian Movement. Yet, inside Hinduism, Gandhi is becoming the greatest power towards a revival. His unceasing campaign for the re-organization, within Hinduism, of 60,000,000 pariahs, or untouchables, has given a new lease of life to this religion, which is broadening and dropping some of the old caste divisions. Millions turn back towards Hinduism, a Hinduism strongly influenced by some of Christ's teachings, indeed, because, to them, what is good enough for Gandhi is good enough for them."

"Would you say, then, that Gandhi is an obstacle to the Christianization of India, Dr. Jones?" "No, though, (Continued on Page 4)

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Vienna—A new crisis threatens Chancellor Dollfuss today in spite of his defeat by the Socialist insurrectionaries as members of his own party accuse his government of responsibility for the uprising.

Paris—The new government of ex-President Gaston Doumergue was supported by three-fourths of the Chamber of Deputies in a confidence vote yesterday.

Berlin—France refuses even to discuss Hitler's proposals for a rearmament agreement and a non-aggression pact, the German Government was informed in a note yesterday.

Washington—Warned that Congress would not support his proposals, President Roosevelt is alleged to have temporarily dropped plans for cancellation of war debts.

The Toronto District Labor Council yesterday passed a resolution protesting the indictment for sedition of A. E. Smith, Secretary of the Canadian Labor Defence League.

London, Ont.—A demand that the government bear the full cost of relief was made by the Ontario Mayors' Convention yesterday.

An ultimatum by the T.T.C. demanding an 8 per cent wage cut may result in a street-car strike in Toronto, according to union officials.

DR. JONES TO SPEAK IN CONVOCATION HALL

Dr. Stanley Jones, the most outstanding missionary of our days, author of: "The Christ of the Indian Road", and many other books, will speak today at 5 p.m. in Convocation Hall. His subject will be: "Our Approach to an Awakened East". Dr. Cody, President of the University, will be the Chairman of this special meeting for students.

LIBERAL STUDENTS ADVISED TO THINK

Must not Adopt Readymade Policies Declares Hepburn

CONITIONS CHANGING

"It is the obligation of youth to look into these problems of government," Mitchell Hepburn, M.P., told the University Liberal Club last night. "Don't adopt a 'laissez faire' attitude and accept ready made policies, but think for yourselves."

Mr. Hepburn declared that the prime problems that we are facing were those of adapting ourselves to changed conditions. The basis of Canadian prosperity is the purchasing power of the basic producer. As we have little or no control over world markets we must therefore do everything to lower the price of goods used by this class and thereby lower the cost of production as much as possible.

"We are going through an economic evolution and it is true that there has been a slight improvement," continued the speaker. "But we must not be too optimistic as much of the upturn is probably due to increased government expenditure and that probably means increased taxation."

The Liberal party will not allow the (Continued on Page 4)

VARSITY, QUEEN'S AND McGILL EQUALLY OPTIMISTIC AS BOXERS, WRESTLERS AND FENCERS MAKE READY FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP COMPETITION

Personnel of Tricolour Squad Not Yet Announced for Meet

MANY NEW FACES

Queen's Aggregation Looms Up As Big Threat in Competition

By Chuck Cochrane

Kingston, Ont., Feb. 14.—The Tricolour B. W. & F. squad looms up as a big threat in the annual intercollegiate assault. Although the coaches have not yet made an official announcement of the personnel of their teams, it is expected that many faces, new to intercollegiate competition, will be seen.

The boxing contingent will be built around "Merve" Peever, winner of four titles, who is showing his usual brilliant form in workouts, Jim Peters will probably contest the light-heavy division. Grant Baker, intercollegiate flyweight champion two years ago, has graduated to the bantamweight on his return to the ring and may be seen at that weight. Jack Ewen, former McGill welterweight will likely catch a place on the Tricolour boxing team and is expected to give a good account of himself.

Among the wrestlers upon whom Coach Bews pins his hopes, are Ralph Miller at heavyweight and "Tony" Forsberg. Hutchison has returned to the wars after an absence of one year, and will endeavour to annex his second intercollegiate title.

Despite the number of newcomers on the lineup, the Limestone City crew present a formidable challenge for intercollegiate honours. The coaches have devoted much time and energy to preparing their proteges since they anticipate real battles from the opposing teams.

DR. WEST EXPLAINS NEW VOCABULARY

Aims to Simplify English to Create a Universal Language

WORK NEARLY COMPLETED

"A new English vocabulary of approximately thirteen to fourteen hundred words is now being completed," said Dr. Michael West of the University of Toronto when interviewed by The Varsity as the results of a conference of the Language Research Institute held at the New York University to make simplified English the universal language.

"Professor Ogden was the first one who had the idea of making a world English vocabulary. He limited his test to eight hundred and fifty words. Eighteen of these words were verbs, while the rest of the eight hundred and fifty were adjectives, adverbs and nouns. His collection however suited only particular groups of people. The worst thing about his vocabulary was that it would produce pigeon English. A number of groups realized that his list was all wrong and consequently decided to produce one that was right."

"It was decided that the revised vocabulary must be small, and capable of saying anything that a foreign learner, especially a child, is likely to (Continued on Page 4)

HERB WIGGERS

Provincial fencing champion of Quebec, who will be McGill's big threat in the foils contest when the assault gets under way tonight.

Redmen Hope to Redeem Last Year's Failure in Assault

VACANCIES WELL FILLED

By M. J. Gormale

Montreal, Feb. 14.—Having graciously allowed both Queen's and Varsity to assume in turn possession of the intercollegiate B. W. & F. crown, McGill's current ring and mat selections entrain for Toronto with every intention of annexing for themselves the honours in the annual assault. Fortunately enough, several old standbys have answered the frantic call of the coaches to fill in the vacancies and so the Redmen are enabled to start from scratch with their rivals.

The hitherto weak link in the organization, the wrestling adjunct, has responded admirably to the ministrations of its new coach, Frank Saxon, and bids fair to improve on its miserable performance of last year when but one title was captured. Bell, the only titlist on the squad, is succeeded (Continued on Page 3)

ACOUSTICAL EXPERT NOT SUPERSTITIOUS

Anderson Considers Local Hollywood Theatre His Masterpiece

WORLD FAMOUS AUTHORITY

Few undergraduates know that the University has as a member of its teaching staff one of the world's foremost authorities on the subject of building acoustics. Professor C. R. Anderson, of the Departments of Engineering Physics and Photography, is recognized as virtually the only authority on the subject in Canada and one of the few living men who have made a really thorough study of its technique.

Professor Anderson graduated from Harvard with the class of 1904 and even then was especially interested in the study of building acoustics. Ever since that time he has been striving to bring the importance of the subject to the notice of the public, and making (Continued on Page 2)

Blue and White Title-Holders Full of Confidence for Struggle

WILL DEFEND TROPHY

Entertain High Hopes Despite Vacancies in Last Year's Squad

By B. J. McGuire

Full of fight, confidence and optimism, Varsity's latest edition of the B. W. & F. team will tonight answer the challenge of the McGill and Queen's warriors in defence of the Tom Gibson Trophy, emblematic of the intercollegiate assault championship being held this year at Hart House. Despite several gaps in last year's championship squad, caused by examinations and graduations, Varsity's hard working coaches have again at their disposal a squad which will be real contenders for major honours, and they are entertaining high hopes of once again annexing the title.

Varsity's chief hopes of a repeat victory lies in their wrestling team. Three men who have worn the intercollegiate crown are again appearing in the Blue and White and should be good for wins. These men are Johnston at 125, Bannister at 135 and Dimittier at 155 pounds. Of the remainder of the team O'Leary at 118, Eaton at 145 are fast, clever performers, while Newell and Watt in the 165 and 175 pound class, have shown considerable promise in their training and will be hard to beat. Gray, the regular heavyweight, has been injured, and is being replaced by Snelling, who incidentally knows plenty about the game. On the boxing squad, only Freddie Smith in the bantamweight class has (Continued on Page 3)

PROGRESS OF JEWS STOPPED BY HITLER

Education of All to Sense of Personal Responsibility
His Desire

DOES NOT WISH WAR

The third instalment of a letter by a German Nazi to a student in Graduate Studies at the University of Toronto.

When Hitler came into power one of his first steps was to stop the progress of the Jews. In this he did no more than fulfil an act of self-defence in keeping the Jewish blood and influence from poisoning the German race physically and morally. For it is no secret for anyone who wishes to understand, that the Jewish progress is due to a great extent to the fact that moral hesitations do not hinder the Jew in his undertakings with the same force as they hinder the white man. This may be the result of education but race and religion have undoubtedly a lot to do with it.

Hitler has broken the Jewish influence. He does not wish to make war. He has confessed this solemnly and publicly. He has never touched the rights of any religious confession. Protestants, Catholics and Jews attend to their religious services as ever but he has disbanded the clubs of the godless.

As for the dressing of young and old in the brown, nationalistic garb, referred to in the paper of which (Continued on Page 3)

ENGLISH LECTURES GIVEN NEXT WEEK

Professor Sedgewick to Give Alexander Series on "Irony"

SPEAKER FROM VANCOUVER

In connection with the Alexander Lectures to be delivered by Professor Sedgewick of the University of British Columbia in Hart House Theatre next week, Mr. W. J. Dunlop, Director of Extension Work and Publicity in the University gave The Varsity the following statement:

"Professor W. J. Alexander was for about thirty-five years head of the Department of English of University College in the University of Toronto. In that time he made an international reputation as an English scholar. On his retirement some eight years ago his former students and friends raised a sum of money for the establishment, in his honour, of the Alexander Foundation. (Continued on Page 4)

UNIVERSITY BAND IN ANNUAL CONCERT

Premiere of Revised Version of Theme Song by Leader

PLAY 'POET AND PEASANT'

Students are reminded again that the Blue and White band, which won well deserved praise for its spectacular performances last fall during the rugby season, is giving its annual concert next Tuesday evening at Convocation Hall.

A varied programme of classical and semi-classical music has been arranged. The Poet and Peasant Overture and some of the Chocolate Soldier is being included. The music provided by the band will be interspersed with several solos by well known artists, and the evening will be the premiere presentation of Captain John Slater's new version of the ever-popular "Blue and White". The full programme is to be announced in The Varsity previous to the concert. The tickets are being sold through members of the band and can also be obtained at the S.A.C. office in Hart House and Room 82 at University College.

NOTICE

Students registered in the Faculty of Arts are reminded that applications for the Annual Examinations should be filed on or before March 1st. Forms may be obtained at the Registrar's Office, Simcoe Hall, or at the College Registrar's Offices.

ELEANOR SANSON

Captain and left winger of the women's intercollegiate hockey team, who will lead the attack against Queen's on Saturday night.

Courtesy Evening Telegram.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper
Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone-Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '34
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crocker, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Mary White Assistant—Marion Ridout

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16th, 1934

HITLER AND THE JEWS

The letter from a German Nazi being published daily in The Varsity has aroused considerable discussion. The opinion has been voiced, not by our Jewish friends alone, that the publication of the letter would tend to incite anti-Semitic feeling on the campus. In this we cannot concur. The letter itself, with its ridiculously irrational condemnation of the Jews, must damn the Nazi Movement in the eyes of students at this University. Moreover, we believe it is foolish to turn our backs upon facts which stare us in the face almost every time we pick up a daily newspaper. We must not be guilty of the typical Nazi practise of suppressing news. More false doctrines have been exploded by bringing them into the light of reason than by hiding them in the shadows of ignorance.

Let us examine, therefore, some of the charges that are laid to the Jew by our German correspondent. The Jews are blamed for the capitalistic system and for secretly gaining possession of most of the world's capital. At the same time they are blamed for attempting a revolution which would overthrow the capitalistic system. Apparently whatever the Jew may do is sufficient reason to make him the target for abuse. Any student of history or economic theory knows that the capitalistic system evolved through the operation of economic forces, unassisted by any doctrines promulgated by Jews. It is true that they, because of the peculiar genius of their race and partly because of the necessity that is laid upon them by other peoples to seek certain kinds of employment, have been leaders in the financial world. But they have been no more guilty of abusing the capitalistic system than many other prominent capitalists we might name, both in Canada and in the United States.

The fact that the Jews have been singularly active in efforts to change the existing social order should exonerate them from the charge of being anti-social. It is rather amusing to hear Karl Marx referred to as that "damned Jew" when in reality he is a German. It is especially amusing, coming from the Nazis when ostensibly one of the planks in their political platform is State Socialism, a direct by-product of Marxian thought.

The figures which have been given to show the preponderance of Jews in the learned professions is a remarkable compliment to that people. It would seem that in Germany virtue and intellectual acumen are to be rewarded with persecution. The hounding of the Jews amounts to an admission of intellectual inferiority. Unable to better the Jews by legitimate means, the Germans have resorted to force, like a dull-witted bully who punnels a victim considerably his inferior in stature.

The Jewish race has made an extraordinary contribution to our civilization. The world would be vastly poorer were it not for them. And, incidentally, the world owes far more to the Jews than it does to the Germans. The names of Einstein, Spinoza, Disraeli, Mendelssohn, Ricardo, Zangwill, and Elman, and a host of others, are imperishable for their contributions to science, art, literature, philosophy. And we must not forget that our Christian religion, not only through its founder, but in the source of its fundamental concepts, is dependent upon Judaism. Our Nazi correspondent has failed to convince us that the genius of the Semitic race is subversive of the best in our Western Culture.

The assertion that the Jews were responsible for the Great War is too absurd to warrant rebuttal.

ACOUSTICAL EXPERT NOT SUPERSTITIOUS

(Continued from Page 1)

ing use of his knowledge in the designing of hundreds of buildings.

The difficulty of convincing architects that buildings which are intended for public use must be specially designed with an eye to their acoustical properties was increased by the fact that the subject has always been surrounded by what might be termed superstitions, such as the belief that wires stretched across the ceiling of a building will better its acoustical properties.

Progress was very slow until the foundation of the Acoustical Society of America in the year 1928. From a membership of thirty-five at that time, the society has grown to include six hundred members on this continent as well as associate members from all corners of the globe. A great impetus was given in the same year by the coming of talking pictures, for the production of which expert knowledge of acoustics was essential.

"While I am retiring from the work of teaching undergraduates at the end of the year, I am by no means retiring in the true sense of the word. I intend to devote my whole time to the subject of building acoustics as soon as I am free of the necessity of teaching. If you want to excel in

(Continued on Page 3)

Art, Music and Drama

Friday Afternoon Recital

A RUSSIAN programme has been arranged for this week's recital which will take place at 5 p.m. on 16th February in the Music Room of Hart House as follows:

I
Variations on a Russian Theme ..... Khandoskin (1795) Master Alfred Johnson, pianist

II
Promenade .....
Gnomus .....
The Great Gate of Kiev ..... Moussorgsky (1874)
Boris Berlin, pianist

III
Aria from the Opera "Prince Igor" ..... Prince Galitzky's Song ..... Borodin
A. Wantroff, baritone
Chanoo Gelsin, at the piano

IV
Contes de la vieille grand'mère ..... moderato ..... Prokofiev (1918) andantino .....
sostenuto .....
Sonatina ..... Compagnette (1929)

allegro assai .....
lento sostenuto .....
allegro molto .....
Boris Berlin

V
When the King went forth to War ..... Koenemann
Aleko's Song from "Tzigany" ..... Lishio (1875)

A. Wantroff

Sundan Evening Songster

The seventh songster of the year will be held in the Music Room of Hart House on Sunday evening next at 8.45 p.m.

Mr. J. Campbell McInnes will conduct the following programme:

The Church's one foundation
Das Muhirad
Wieniglein
Sea Fever
Trade Winds
Port of Many Ships
All Women Born
Down among the dead men
O Willie brewed a pack o'maut
Innsbruck
Early one morning
The Heavens declare the glory of God
Jerusalem

St. Thomas' Church

Another fine programme of much variety and interest will be presented by CFRB on Sunday at 5.45 p.m. direct from the Chancel of St. Thomas' Church, one of the features being an excerpt from a Bach Cantata "Awake us, Lord and hasten" The "Sanctus, Benedictus and Agnus Dei" from Dr. Willan's "Missa Brevis in E flat" will be one of the capella offerings of the Choir. The Male Chorus will sing a 15th century Italian motet, "Vere Langores", by Antonio Lotti. Russian composers will be represented.

(Continued on Page 4)

The next time I saw Jones I was surprised to find him still perplexed as to the mystery of the missing Feature Editor. He had seemed so confident that the full solution to his problem was in his grasp, hidden in the dusty archives of the University Library. "No, my dear Flotsam," he replied to my anxious query, "I fear we shall have to postpone that line of investigation indefinitely. The volume I needed has been taken out by a member of the History Department, and there is no prospect that it will be available for at least six months. However, I have just obtained some fresh data which throws an entirely new light on the problem. Do you recognize this picture?" showing me a copy of The Varsity fresh from the press, still odorless, in fact, of that peculiar mixture of shoe-blackening and fish-oil which the publishers insist on calling printer's ink.

I glanced at the picture in bewilderment.

"No," I replied, "I can't exactly place it. At a venture I should say it represents a particularly infuriated

St. Paul's Church

Bloor Street East

THE RT. REV. R. J. RENISON,
Rector

University students are specially invited to the Sunday Evening Services at 7 o'clock.

Night Editor at 2 a.m. asking a member of the Sports Staff if this is any time to be bringing in a two thousand word advance on the Intercollegiate Ping-Pong Tournament.

"Yes," replied Jones, "I admit that the look of demonic fury of the individual on the left and the look of incalculable imbecility on the face of the other might lead one to that conclusion, but not this time. This, my dear Flotsam," (I could almost see the italics quiver on his breath) "this is a facsimile reproduction of two members of the Feature Staff caught in the act of plotting. Nefarious plotting, in fact," he remarked with dry humour, returning to his normal tone. "The figure on the left is the Drama Editor of The Varsity, disguised as the Dean of Women at S.P.S. and the other is an obscure feature writer who calls himself Kugur, impenetrably disguised as himself. I thought for a moment it was File Advance, but the resemblance is merely superficial."

"Have you made any further progress?" I inquired. "I have, my dear Flotsam, I have interviewed both these gentlemen and forced them to tell me all they knew of the matter."

"Good Heavens, Jones, how did you

(Continued on Page 4)

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject Sunday:

"SOUL"

First Church of Christ, Scientist
St. George St. at Lowther Ave.
Close to residences and fraternity houses
Sunday Services 11 a.m.-1.30 p.m.
The morning service is radio-cast over CFRB. A Sunday School for students under twenty is held at 11 a.m.

On Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the main auditorium is held a meeting at which Testimonies of Christian Science Healing are given.

Down town on the 15th floor of the Metropolitan Bldg., Adelaide at Victoria, a Free Public Reading Room is open from 9.30 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily except Sunday, for rest, quiet meditation and study, where the Bible and authorized Christian Science literature including the text book, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, may be read, borrowed or purchased.

Each and every student is cordially invited to attend the services, and to enjoy the privilege of the reading room.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

Huron Street—Just below Bloor
Holy Eucharists at 7 a.m., 8 a.m. and 9.30 a.m.

11 a.m.—Choral Eucharist
Litany in Procession

Missa Brevis in E flat ..... Willan
Preacher, The Rector.

7 p.m.—Choral Evensong
Preacher, The Rev. W. Lyndon Smith, M.A.

Anthem, "Incline Thine ear" ..... Ippolito-Ivanof

Lenten Cantata "The Last Supper" Forsyth will be sung at the close of Evensong.

Broadcast of Choral Music over CFRB, 6.46 p.m.

call for PHILIP MORRIS

10 FOR 10¢

25 FOR 25¢

PREMIUM CARDS

IN EVERY PACK

CELLOPHANE WRAPPED

FOR FRESHNESS

P60

GREATER MADISON

BLOOR AT BATHURST

EXCLUSIVE SHOWING

RUSSIA'S FIRST TALKING PICTURE

(English Titles)

SENSATIONAL DRAMATIC STORY

OF

The "Wild Children" of Russia

ROAD TO LIFE

The camera turned into the streets of Moscow to give you the tragedy of a great nation.

CRITICS SAY:

One of the three exceptional pictures among the 48 shown on Broadway this season.—New York World Telegram.

One of the best 10 pictures produced anywhere in the world.—Tagblatt-Be in

ONE WEEK MON., FEB. 19th TWICE NIGHTLY—7.30-9.30 p.m.

25c., 35c. tax included

WILL NOT BE SHOWN IN TORONTO AGAIN FOR MONTHS

Another
IMRIE BROS.
Special

English Broadcloth Shirts

Separate Collars or Collars Attached

Colors Guaranteed

$1.29

or

3 for $3.50

To meet the needs of University men Imrie Bros. offer these fine quality shirts. We have priced them specially to conform with present-day budgets and we can absolutely guarantee the quality. They wear well, the colors are unfadeable and they are sure to be popular with Varsity men.

IMRIE BROS.

TWO STORES:

140 YONGE STREET, Corner of Temperance

274 YONGE STREET, Opposite Imperial Theatre

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit

for the coming dance.

They are up to the minute.

Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you.

Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St.

KI. 0891

571 Yonge St.

KI. 3270

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps

8 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1385

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

VARSITY WOMEN MEET QUEEN'S FOR HOCKEY TITLE SAT.

YOU CAN'T AFFORD to miss a good thing like this

The Annual Concert of The Varsity Band

at
Convocation Hall, Tuesday, Feb. 20th
8.15 p.m.

assisted by the following guest artists

MADEON ROWAN
WINNIFRED COUSINS SMALLEY
FRANK LOCKSLEY

Hear your Blue and White musicians at their best

Novelty Numbers

Captain John Slatter, V.D., Directing

TICKETS 15 CENTS

On Sale at S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Room 82, University College, and your faculty bandmen.

Plan to come and enjoy a fine evening's entertainment.

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

Tomorrow night, Jimmie MacPherson's smart Blue team meet Queen's again, carrying a one-goal lead over from the previous encounter. The game is in the Arena at 7.30 before the Varsity-Port Colborne battle. How about coming and giving the Blues a big hand? It is Varsity's last chance at a hockey title and a little encouragement goes a long way. The players have practiced hard and Marg MacGregor, stellar Tricolour goalie, will have her hands full—yes, even too full.

Eleanor Sanson, captain of the Varsity team, whose hard-checking has featured every game so far, will be teaming up with Jean Addison and Billie Fowler on the first line. Mary Rous and Charity Grant on defence, Dama Lunley in goal, Betty Mark, Jocelyn Hogg, Pat Thompson and Mary Morris, alternates, complete a team which is going to keep the Beatty Ramsay trophy on ice for Varsity for another year, we fondly hope and expect.

The intercollegiate basketball team convincingly trimmed the Grads last night without playing very good basketball. At least we hope they can play better. They can stand a lot of shooting practice—free shots, close-in shots, all kinds. The passing was excellent but that doesn't win games.

The Grads had their moments but they were few. Louise Crouch, Wilma Hazlett and Eleanor Stewart had flashes of smart combination but neither the condition nor the practice to back it up. Jean Allan and her team-mates on defence kept the Varsity forwards well guarded.

Bea Longley showed her inimitable basketball form. She certainly can make plays and while she usually leaves the shooting duties to the other forwards, she scored some nice shots in the second half.

Tonight, the intermediate basketball team is meeting the Hamilton Normal outfit in the boys' gym at O.C.E. at 7. They work hard without getting any credit, except the satisfaction they themselves get out of playing. That's the real sporting spirit.

ST. MIKE'S CAGERS WIN BIG SIX GAME

Varsity's Lack of Accuracy Costs Them Game
Again

FINAL SCORE REAOS 33-31

For the third time this year, Bill Storen's St. Michael's College quintet squeezed out a close win over Lew Hayman's Varsity squad in a hard-fought Big Six basketball game played last night at Hart House, the final score reading 33-31 at the whistle.

With six minutes to play, the score was deadlocked at 26 apiece, but two foul shots and two quick baskets by Joe Connelly spelled defeat for the Blues, and virtual elimination from the Big Six race. Once again Varsity's lack of accuracy from the foul line cost them the game as they were only successful in scoring 5 out of their 24 foul throws, while their rivals got 9 out of 14.

Bill Storen pulled a fast one by starting three of his second string men, but his strategy served its purpose as they ran up a 9-5 lead before Marks, Connelly and Hickey made their appearance. They maintained this four point advantage to the end of the half, leading by an 18-14 score. St. Mike's took a 4 point lead early in the period but couldn't improve on it as the Blue team sunk basket for basket along with them, with a couple of baskets by Joe Connelly near the end of the half giving them their half-time margin. Sniderman, Gold and Mitchell did most of the Blue scoring while Meagher, Crowley and Connelly kept the Bloor St. colours to the fore.

The second half was packed with thrills and kept the fans, most of them from St. Mike's, in a furor throughout. Connelly opened the tallying for St. Mike's while Sniderman countered for Varsity in quick order. A foul shot and another Connelly hoop stretched their lead to seven points, but three quickfire baskets by Mitchell, Levy and Gordon cut it to a single point.

Varsity — Levy 4, Bodrug 2, Mitchell 6, Sniderman 6, Gold 4, Willis, Young, Gordon 9.
St. Michael's — Meagher 7, Sullivan 2, Crowley 4, Carey 3, Massucci, Connelly 14, Marks 3, Hickey, Cloney. Referee—T. Pogue.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By B. J. McGuire

After three years Varsity is once again the scene of an intercollegiate slug fest which is technically known as the assault-at-arms. To date there has been very little interest displayed in this classic, which is certainly hard to understand considering the appeal this sport has among the local clubs. The evening is certain to produce some of the best scraps to be viewed in the local gymnasium for some time.

Queen's are in there with a strong representation and Jack Jarvis as expected has withheld his entry till the last minute. Right now there is a strategic battle going on as to just who is who in the welter class. Queen's has of course the famous Peever, while McGill are placing their bets on a chap named Quinn who made a name for himself on the Pacific coast. Varsity also has a good welter, Powell by name, and all three coaches are anxious to get their man in where they will have the least trouble. This means a shift in the division and it is doubtful if this will be definitely settled till weigh-in time tomorrow.

Incidentally Chuck Cochrane dropped in to rebuke us with respect to a rumour we circulated to the effect that Curly Duncan took a decision from Peever. The only thing Duncan took from Peever, says Chuck, was a flock of leather which hovered around his pan all evening.

The curtain is just about to fall on hockey around the campus for another season, but before it does the women's intercollegiate title and the resting place of the Beatty Ramsay Trophy has to be decided. As a curtain raiser to the Varsity-Port Colborne game Saturday night Varsity and Queen's renew their struggle for the title. The Varsity ladies will carry a one-goal lead into the fray as they defeated Queen's 1-0 in Kingston. Since that time the squad under the tuition of Jimmie McPherson has improved one hundred per cent and should be a cinch for the title. The hardest worker on the Varsity team, Jimmie has succeeded in getting the girls to play just that kind of a game. Gone is the lethargic attitude which usually characterizes a girl's game and which at times tended towards a burlesque rather than a contest. Right now the girls open up at the first bell, go in there and fight till the last minute of play. Jimmie has certainly handled his job well and will probably emphasize this with an intercollegiate title for Varsity.

BLUE BASKETEERS TO MEET WESTERN

London Win May Put Varsity in Commanding Position for Title

INTERCOLLEGIATE SERIES

Lew Hayman's Blue and White cagers, fresh from two successive and impressive wins in the intercollegiate senior series, accompanied by the intermediate squad, will invade the grounds of the Purple and White Mustangs of the University of Western Ontario tomorrow with the avowed intention of handing the Western aggregation a second trouncing.

In their two previous starts, the senior Blues piled up impressive totals, having accounted for 41 points in each contest. This is a far more impressive record than the titelholders from McGill have to date. The Redmen have been lucky to come out on the long end in their two starts, having pulled out a one-point and three-point decision. A win in London should put the Varsity senior squad in a commanding position to take the title. The Blue seconds have two wins out of three to their record and a win for them will mean a lot at this stage of the race.

Lew Hayman's squad will be hard to beat no matter who is put on the floor. The starting lineup will probably be Sniderman and Gold on defence, Mitchell at centre and Bodrug and Gordon on the wings. Willis will substitute at centre and Levy and Normie Newman will relieve the forwards. Newman should turn in a good game tomorrow as he has overcome the nervousness he showed when used in the Queen's game.

Mac's intermediate squad promises to start in just where they left off in the last game, which was played here. In Applebaum McCutcheon has a forward who can sink shots almost at will. In the game at McMaster last Friday Applebaum scored 18 points and if he keeps this gait up he should be decidedly useful. The rest of the squad is composed of a lot of up-and-coming lads who have been rounded into a smooth-working aggregation by tedious practice. The fruits of this practicing will be seen tomorrow.

PROGRESS OF JEWS STOPPED BY HITLER

(Continued from Page 1)

You sent me a clipping, it is true that even children, young boys and girls above ten years, are seen to march along in this most catching and smart uniform—but there is nothing of preparing for war in it. Hitler is not the first man who realized the fascinating power of the uniform as also did General Booth when he founded the Salvation Army or General Powell who brought the Pathfinder Movement into effect. Nobody, however, thought of considering this as a menace to peace. Only when Germany, which had been kicked about as a football by the Versailles politicians, did the same, the Jews, and those who were under their invisible yoke, cried and pointed their fingers to this Germany. Hitler is right in reaching as far out with his propaganda as to take hold of the very youth, the future of the country. Many of the older generation cannot catch the chief aim of Hitler's propaganda and programme.

He wishes to educate every man and woman to the sense of personal responsibility. The class of the wealthy people "beati possidentes" must be made aware of the fact that they cannot sit upon their property and see others starve and slave while the poor man, having nothing more than his bodily strength or skilled capacities, is not to live on the alms of others but must work and produce something useful for the benefit of another. The workman has, however, the obligation to work, but the capitalist under the eyes of the government, has the obligation to create opportunities for all men to do honest work, and to see the work of the simple man just as highly esteemed as that of a mighty brain-worker or high financier.

With regard to the drilling of young men there is a natural necessity for it. At the last meeting of the Party in Nurnberg there were assembled more than 800,000 men. Such an enormous crowd could never have been handled without being first drilled in their march and formation.

The Jews say they are soldiers, but they are soldiers without rifles or arms or machine-guns or cannons, and France with her coloured army of more than 2,000,000 soldiers forced to military service in her colonies possesses more quick-firing guns and motorized cannons than Germany is allowed to have hand rifles.

ACOUSTICAL EXPERT NOT SUPERSTITIOUS

(Continued from Page 2)
anything your field is limited, and this is my chosen field."

Professor Anderson's activities are world-wide and he has furnished the acoustical specifications for buildings in the South Seas, India, Australia and all over the world. "I have supplied specifications for two radio stations right here in Ontario, CKNC and CKLW, as well as a government station in New Zealand. While they are not the most difficult to design, radio stations are the most exacting from the point of view of the acoustical specialist," said Professor Anderson. "The imperfection in the actual technique of broadcasting is sufficient to cause the management of a station a good deal of trouble without having acoustical imperfections to contend with as well."

Asked for his opinion of the acoustical properties of some of the local theatres, Professor Anderson revealed that he has been responsible for the majority of the large theatres in this respect. "I regard the Hollywood as my finest piece of work in Toronto," he said, "because I was given a free hand. The other theatres have been reconditioned for sound pictures, but the Hollywood was built especially for sound and talking films."

MCGILL MAT SQUAD GREATLY IMPROVED

(Continued from Page 1)

in the 118 pound class by Tommy Southwood, champion two years ago. Myer Golfman, who won the welter-weight crown three years ago, returns in an attempt to regain his lost laurels. Pistreich, at 165 pounds and the light-heavyweight, McLean, are veterans of last year's unsuccessful campaign.

The remaining four mat selections are all enjoying their first taste of intercollegiate competition but in most cases have done considerable wrestling locally. They are, Black, 125 pounds; Lazarovich, 135 pounds; Billingsley, 155 pounds, and Stewart, heavyweight.

Bert Light's boxing squad is badly depleted by the non-return of four champions, but all in all just as powerful as last year. George Maughan, heavyweight titlist, is back in harness along with Swift, who drops from the 145 pounds to the lightweight division, and Les MacGregor, who returns to the light-heavyweight berth after the lapse of a year.

Quinn, 145 pounds, is the U.S. Pacific coast champion, while MacDonald, 155 pounds, is a heavy performer from Saskatchewan. Savage, 165 pounds, is a tenacious, plucky fighter and Caron, 118 pounds, and Hollingsworth, 125 pounds, are freshmen in their first year of fighting.

The fencing team, perennial champions, is composed of Herb Wiggers, individual champion, DeMontigny, another veteran, and Van Reet, a newcomer who recently gained the Quebec foils title.

VARSITY TITLE-HOLDERS FULL OF CONFIDENCE

(Continued from Page 1)

mixed in senior company before. Fred at present wears the intercollegiate crown in this division, and should be in line for a repeat order. Bobby McAdam fought last year in the intermediate squad and has moved up to senior company where he will perform in the 118 class. At 135 is Sid McCatty, a shifty boxer with a beautiful left hand which should win him a title.

Powell in the welter class has shown considerable promise, is a hard hitter and knows the answers. The rest of the team is relatively inexperienced, but have plenty of ambition and are certain to cause trouble before they get through. The lineup is Flynn at 155, Hallett at 165, Fearman in the 175 and Springborn in the heavy class. Varsity is also counting on the fence-

A professor of Latin and Greek
Can smoke cigarettes like a streak.
But it's not for his knowledge
Falls are joining his college.
But the odd BRITISH CONSOLS
to sneak.

10 for 10c. — 25 for 25c.
and in line of 50's and 100's

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

BRITISH CONSOLS
COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

Brentwood

A supreme value
at $25

MADE-TO-MEASURE

A Cambridge tailored suit at a moderate price that sets a new standard of value for the 1934 Spring Season. Drop in and see the new woollens and the latest style trend for Spring.

"You'll like our clothes"
Reed.

Fitzpatrick & O'Connell
LIMITED
310 YONGE STREET
Just north of Dundas

Sport Notices

Trinity Basketball—
Important practice Friday at 2 p.m.
Full turnout requested. Next game will be on Monday at 4 p.m.

Ski Club Meeting—
A meeting of the Ski Club will be held on Friday 16th February at 5 o'clock in the Debates Room. Entrants for coming meets and the question of a university ski meet will be discussed. All faculty representatives are requested to be present.

ing team to pull a few points for them. Scully is the only member with intercollegiate experience, but both Packard and Mitchell, the other two members of the team, are experts at the game and should add points for Varsity.

ARE YOU SUPPORTING THE VARSITY BAND?

Everybody going to the S.P.S. Dance?

I'm sure you'll all have a wonderful time. See the lovely undies at your shop. They are designed to make you even more beautiful. When you are looking your best and feeling your best, you'll enjoy yourself so much more.

Pantie—

Of real silk Crepe de Chine, in Tealose or White. Smart step-in styles that fit smoothly over the hips with a graceful flair of rich lace. An unusual value at 69c.

In Satin 1.00

So-Sheer—

The wispy evening chiffon. Just the sheerest stocking ever. You'll adore their gossamer fineness and permanent dull 1.00

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 3800
4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

- FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16
8.30 p.m.—A. E. Smith, National Secretary of the Canadian Labour Defence League, now under indictment on a charge of "sedition", will address an open meeting of the Student League of Canada, at 350 Dundas St. W.
Intercollegiate boxing, wrestling and fencing.
8.30 p.m.—Medical Society "Daffydil" Night, Hart House Theatre. Small admission price includes "Epistaxis".
5.10 p.m.—Dr. E. Stanley Jones of India will address a mass meeting of students in Convocation Hall. President Cody will preside.
9.3—Annual School At-Home in the Royal York Hotel. Wright Brothers orchestra.
9 p.m.—The Foresters' Club annual At-Home in the Music Room of Hart House.
Jarvis Collegiate Centennial Ball at Eaton's College St. Auditorium. Jack Slater's orchestra.
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17
Intercollegiate boxing, wrestling and fencing.
3.30 p.m.—Trinity College Library. Professor G. M. Wrong on The Loyalist Background, 1763-1783, 150th anniversary of the Loyalist settlements in Ontario and New Brunswick.
8 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., 655 Spadina Ave., subject, "The Sower".
SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18
9 p.m.—Wymilwood Musicales, guest artist, John Crooke, baritone, of Montreal, accompanied by Herbert Dunkley.
3 p.m.—Important meeting of the Fraternity of the University will be held in the Music Room. A full attendance of all members is requested.
4.45 p.m.—World Student Christian Federation, Service of Intercession, Trinity College Library.

Classified Advertisements

ROOM TO RENT
Cawthra Mansions, well furnished, large, warm, sunny room, suitable for two, reasonable; board or grill privileges optional. KI. 6804.

LIBERAL STUDENTS ADVISED TO THINK

(Continued from Page 1)
exploitation of the people. It has been said that they are the enemies of industry. On the contrary the prospect of industry was always brightest under a Liberal regime. Low production costs are the aim of his party and trade will be conducted freely after negotiation, not blasting.

"It is a great thing to spend money on education," Mr. Hepburn stated, intimating that the university would not suffer if the Liberals are elected in Ontario. "An educated electorate would not tolerate any government which leads them into such economic troubles as we are now suffering."

The question of monetary reform was touched upon briefly by the speaker. He pointed out that there was nothing terrible in revaluating the gold content of the dollar or about inflation. There must be some measure of reform and it will help both the taxpayer and the exporter.

"Increased costs of government add to the costs of production," said Mr. Hepburn, regarding this province in particular. "There is much duplication of services that might be removed and expenditures cut by almost fifty per cent. There is too much government by boards and commissions that could well be done by deputy ministers."

DR. WEST EXPLAINS NEW VOCABULARY

(Continued from Page 1)
want to say. It must leave gaps to accommodate the different words that would be used, for example, by a boy and a girl. To make a vocabulary on sensible lines you must have a set of words to express an idea. You must have the names of materials to aid in definition. Such words are necessary to help you define what you don't know the name of.

"I made a vocabulary while I was in the East which was suitable for Egypt and the Near East. I sent a description of my general lines of procedure to New York. But two different lists were already being compiled in New York under the direction of Miss Elaine Swenson, director of the Language Research Institute. A fourth list has been made by Mr. Harold Palmer in Japan.

"There is a difference of only eleven per cent between each of the four vocabularies. It is quite possible to smooth out the differences between them to get them into agreement. There is a margin of only one hundred and thirty words where they differ. In the case of the Egyptian and American vocabularies, of those one hundred and thirty words, about four per cent are merely the choice of a different word to express the same idea. About two and a half per cent can be accounted for by differences in environment. To illustrate this point we may take the word 'Mohammedan'. It is very important in Egypt and relatively unimportant in the United States. One and a half per cent is difference of language, that is to say 'Americanisms'. The remaining four per cent consist of differences of opinion as to what ideas should be expressed in the list.

"Miss Swenson edits 'The American News', a paper which comes out every fortnight in New York. This newspaper is limited to a vocabulary of nine hundred words, yet it deals adequately with all international affairs. 'The Ghost Train' by Arnold Ridley has been translated by Dr. West into very simple English and the vocabulary is limited to one thousand words.

9 a.m.—Holy Communion, Hart House Chapel.

5.45 p.m.—S.C.M. International Tea, 79 St. George St.

4 p.m.—W.U.A. musicale at the Union. Artists, Scott Malcolm and Reginald Godden. U.C. women and their guests are cordially invited.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19

5.10 p.m.—Meds S.C.M. group in the S.C.M. Library in Hart House. The speaker will be Dr. Malcolm Cameron of St. Michael's Hospital.

8 p.m.—Victoria College Debating Parliament, Alumni Hall.

Daffydil May Lack Censorship But Varsity Can't Print a Quip

Reports from Hart House early this morning state that the attendants have finally succeeded in ridding the theatre of the peculiar blue smoke that pervaded the atmosphere after the performance of Daffydil last night. Shall we get to work on that May West puzzle now?

We nominate the lily to the woman in the "six and five eighths" skirt when her lover threatened to display his operation—somebody opened my mail. What happened to the last five oysters? The first year skirt didn't have quite the atmosphere of the others. It was almost serious.

And you don't have to be a Med student

They ran a big taxi ad on the front page of the programme but we couldn't find the phone number of Epis Taxis in the directory.

There was no fan dance. Praise be! The female lure in "Samson and Delilah" was good but wait till you see the plumber-doctor in the Medettes' skit.

Such restraint! Such delicacy!

The character take-off by the sixth year will cause many a doctor to blush unseen. They brought roars from the two-bit seats, however.

"Ask him if he has a brother"—Percival, just a Flower

We wondered what Dr. Coleman had in the bottle, but after the parade of the prisoners through the theatre, there was no further doubt. We had an aisle seat.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

W.U.A. MUSICALS

University College women are reminded of the final W.U.A. musicale of the year to be held this coming Sunday, February 18 at the Union at 4 p.m. sharp, when Mr. Scott Malcolm and Mr. Reginald Godden will give a duo-piano recital. This is a musical treat not to be missed, and it is hoped that fourth year especially will avail themselves of this opportunity of an hour's enjoyment. The women of the college are perfectly at liberty to bring guests if they desire.

VARSITY BAND

Important! Last rehearsal for concert in Convocation Hall at 5 p.m. on Monday. Everybody must be there sharp on time.

WYMWILWOOD MUSICALS

A song recital will be given by John Cook, baritone, Herbert Dunkley at the piano on February 18, 9 p.m. The artists are coming from Montreal and a large audience will be appreciated.

S. C. M.

All members and friends of the S.C.M. are urged to attend the service of intercession in connection with the Day of Prayer for students to be held in Trinity College Library at 4.45 on Sunday, and also the International Tea at 79 St. George Street at 5.45.

TRINITY COLLEGE CHAPEL

The address at the 11 a.m. service on Sunday, February 18th, will be given by the Honourable and Reverend Dr. Cody, President of the University of Toronto.

FAITH OF STUDENTS WEAKENED SAYS JONES

(Continued from Page 1)

from a Christian point of view, he is both an asset and a liability. Without him Hinduism would, very probably, crumble to pieces; yet, the new interest for Christ, found in India in the later years, is undoubtedly due to Gandhi. It is only through the race prejudices and the narrowness of some South African Christians that he has not become a Christian; though Christ has brought him closer to God, even if he says that he has not found him yet. And, after all, is not the Non-Violence ideal essentially Christian; most of all it is through the life and sufferings of Gandhi that India has seen the meaning of the Cross, in one of her noblest sons.

"Does the present state of Christianity in the West warrant the continuance of the missionary effort?" "Yes. Do we hesitate to export our science, though we would dare say that we have fully organized our findings of science in our collective life? Besides, if we find that we can't share what we have in Christ with everyone, then we will soon not be able to hold it at home. What is not universal is not true. When truth is discovered in science it belongs to the race as such. It is not different in religion. If we discover truth in religion it belongs to every man, as man, and we must become witnesses to it everywhere."

"DAFFYDIL" NIGHT

Don't miss the funniest evening of the year. Tickets still available at the box office and medical office. Performance opens at 8.30 p.m. in Hart House Theatre. Small admission price includes a copy of Epistaxis.

U.C. PARLIAMENT

The next session will be a special one to assist in celebration of the 80th anniversary of the U.C. Lit. House convenes at 5 p.m. rather than 4 p.m. as usual. Resolution "That the influence of graduates upon this University is a pernicious one". All graduates of U.C. invited.

SCHOOL AT-HOME

The ticket sale today will be from 10-12 and from 2.5 at the Engineering Society store. Men of the other faculties may obtain tickets in the main lobby at Hart House from 12-2.

STUDENT LEAGUE

Open meeting. A. E. Smith, national secretary of the Canadian Labour Defence League, now under indictment on a charge of "sedition" will address an open meeting of the Student League tonight at 8.30 at 350 Dundas St. W. (opposite Art Gallery).

HART HOUSE CHAPEL

The monthly service of Holy Communion will be held in Hart House Chapel on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. All members of the House who desire to attend are welcome to do so. Special reference will be made to the Universal Day of Prayer for students throughout the world.

NOTICE

Certificates of attendance in connection with the payment of the second instalment of University of Toronto Scholarships (Matriculation and Faculty of Arts, not including College Scholarships) may be obtained at the Registrar's Office, Simcoe Hall.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

"Elementary, my dear Flotsam. I merely threatened to make public the fact that our friend Kugor steals all his worst jokes from Milton Shulman, and that the 'Drama Editor' (the quotation marks bristled on his tongue) has copied verbatim the ideas of the reviewers for The Star and The Flail and Vampire."

"And what did they reveal?" "Merely the solution to our problem. The missing Feature Editor, my dear Flotsam, is in reality a discredited envoy of Moscow sent to this country for the express purpose of committing sabotage in the Department of Household Science. Having failed in her task, she has been abducted by the S.B.F. S. U. S. O. P. K. R. F. E. W. P. P. M. L. L. I. A. U. S. S. R. and is at present confined in a soup-cupboard in the Women's Union."

(To be concluded eventually.)

Connar Chaz.

windblown

Across the Campus Wearing a

SUIT in SCHIAPARELLI'S SPRINGTIME SILHOUETTE

Every line of her trig turn-out pointing forward to 1934 with all its feeling of movement in the right direction, . . . the right direction for Fashion as inspired by Schiaparelli for Spring days, in the "Windblown Silhouette".

The suit sketched, with shoulders slightly padded to breast the breezes, in tweeds as you like them in beiges and greys. Sizes 14 to 20.

Each $25.00

THE SUIT SHOP
FOURTH FLOOR
ALBERT STREET

THE T. EATON CO. LIMITED

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

presented by Ippolitoff-Ivanoff's "Incline Thine ear to me". Another young soloist will sing his first solo when Master Nelson Swift is heard in an aria from Mendelssohn's "Elijah", "Hear ye, O Israel". This program, particularly in keeping with the Lenten season, will be one of the most outstanding of the day.

During the Choral Evensong at 7 p.m., the Choir will sing Cecil Forsyth's Lenten Cantata "The Last Supper". This is the first of a series of special choral works during the Lenten season.

Madison Theatre

Russia's first attempt to produce an all talking picture has met with complete success. Road to Life has proven a sensation; the picture opened its American premiere at the Cameo Theatre, New York, where it appeared for two solid months to capacity audiences. While the dialogue is in Russian language, the titles are in English and the story is really so poignant and powerful that it could be understood in any language. William Bokelof of the New York World-Telegram nominated Road to Life as one of three exceptional pictures among the forty-six seen on Broadway this season. It makes its first Toronto appearance at the Madison Theatre, Bloor at Bathurst, for one week only, coming Monday, and will be shown at the usual prices.

Eaton Auditorium

John Charles Thomas, famous American baritone, last night in Eaton Auditorium gave his first public recital since his debut at the Metropolitan Opera a short time ago. Mr. Thomas is one of those remarkable artists who arouses the enthusiasm he deserves. His masterly singing, his delightful personality, and his well-aimed dramatization all tend to satisfy the uncritical and the most fastidious listener alike.

His best work was undoubtedly in the first group, which consisted of German songs. The simple lyricism of the Franz Widmung, and the smoothness of the Handel Aria, gave the programme a most impressive opening. Of the forcefulness of the Brahms songs, and the Hermann Drei Wandrer, too high praise could hardly be spoken. And of these eloquent numbers the best was probably the intensely dramatic Schwesterlein, which was very affecting indeed.

Fine also were the French songs, but much less gripping. But, as to encores—why is it that these great artists always trip over Annie Laurie? Even the diction was poor in this number, and the total artistic effect was the least pleasing of anything done all evening. If hackneyed songs are to be sung, there must be a finish and charm about them to redeem them from their usual character. That Mr. Thomas can do the popular type of work with high art was proven by the group of English songs, which got progressively better. Special commendation is due the singing of Steal Away, and his final encore, Old Man River, was, speaking quite seriously, a work of artistic force and magnificent drama.

Earlier in the day I endeavoured to meet Mr. Thomas, but got no further than his personal representative. That gentleman, however, told me, among other things, something of Mr. Thomas's programme philosophy. He feels quite correctly, that the concert stage is far removed from the lecture platform, and that the object of a vocal concert is to provide entertainment. I have remarked in these columns before that only the most extraordinary kind of singer can make of the vocal recital an adequate artistic medium. The trouble generally is that singers, so far from attempting to offset this disadvantage, resort to presenting the worst musical buncumbence conceivable, in the hope of producing popular enjoyment. Mr. Thomas is such an artist as knows how to do what is entertaining without, for the most part, jarring on anyone's musical sensibilities. And this happy faculty, of course, primarily owes its existence to Mr. Thomas's rich and mellifluous voice, and his technical ease—the essential attributes of his art, perfect and balanced in every respect. N.F.L.

ENGLISH LECTURES GIVEN NEXT WEEK

(Continued from Page 1)

dation. The income on the capital invested in this foundation is used each year to bring some outstanding English scholar to the university for a series of lectures. This year the lecturer is Professor G. G. Sedgewick, head of the Department of English in the University of British Columbia. The general subject of the lectures is "Of Irony". The lecture given on the 20th is "The History and the Shapes of Irony", and on the following days they will be "Irony in Drama", "Irony as Dramatic Emphasis", and "Irony as Dramatic Preparation". Professor Alexander occupies a seat on the dais when the lectures are given.

The VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19th, 1934

No. 88

VARSITY FIGHTERS TAKE SENIOR ASSAULT

WOMEN PUCKSTERS WIN HOCKEY TITLE

Hold Queen's Team
To Tie Score, 1-1
Winning Round 2-1

Bluettes Have Now Held Title
Eleven Times in Thirteen
Years

-DEFINITELY SUPERIOR

Billie Fowler and P. Thompson Are Pick of the Winners

The Varsity women's hockey team won the intercollegiate title 2-1 on the round by tying Queen's one-all at the Varsity Arena Saturday night. The women pucksters have the enviable record of winning the Beatty Ramsay trophy, emblematic of the intercollegiate championship, eleven times in thirteen years of competition. Queen's put a vastly improved team on the ice compared with their exhibition in Kingston but Varsity looked to be worthy champions in spite of the even score.

The first period ended scoreless with neither team having threatened dangerously. Billie Fowler and Pat Thompson took some nice shots from the blue line but Marg MacGregor, Queen's stellar goalie, was equal to them.

Jimmie MacPherson sent his team back in there fighting hard and from then on they showed their superiority in speed and style. Pat Thompson scored for Varsity on a pass to the goal mouth from Betty Mark, who had stuck-handled her way through the Queen's defence. Varsity's speedy first line, Billie Fowler, Eleanor Sanson and Jean Atkinson, did some fine

(Continued on Page 2)

EJECT STUDENT LEAGUE

PROF. A. F. COVENTRY

He is officially Associate Professor of Vertebrate Embryology, but does not regard his subjects as the most important in the world. This may be because he has at least a nodding acquaintance with most subjects. On the campus he habitually wears grey flannel trousers, a different-coloured sackcoat and a pipe. In the privacy of his Hart House garret he wears shorts. In his summers in Temagami, he wears a pipe. He has been a rower of note on Varsity crews, and he could probably give most squash players at Varsity a few pointers on the game. One of his formulae for initiating a conversation is to start a discussion of string. He knows how many cartilages there should be in the front campus and roughly the number of mice per acre on his Temagami Island. His erudition notwithstanding, he thinks it a good idea if his students cut some of his lectures.

Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of caricatures and thumb-nail sketches of campus characters.

Hold Meeting After Interference; Capitalists Flayed by A. E. Smith

Students Will Send Deputation to Police Commission in Protest

SMITH ON TRIAL TODAY

"The capitalist system exists only on the continual degradation of the working class and is prepared to go to any length to preserve that degradation and Fascism is its rearguard action of capitalism in its efforts to maintain the exploitation of the working class," declared A. E. Smith, secretary of the Canadian Labour Defence League when addressing members of the Student League on Friday night after police interference had necessitated their finding another rendezvous.

This is the first time that the students have been implicated in revolutionary matters. Accordingly it was decided to send a deputation of students to the Toronto Police Commission to protest the latter's insinuating attitude.

Mr. Smith goes on trial Monday on the charge of sedition for having made the allegation that the authorities at Ottawa were responsible for the attempted murder of Tim Buck in his cell in Kingston penitentiary.

"The sedition law is a fool law, an anti-social law. It accuses one of setting class against class, but nobody can do what history and society has already done. But this is contempt of court and you must not have contempt of court no matter how contemptible it may be. The law orders you to protect the courts even when all sanctity has been swept away."

The speaker went on to read the sworn evidence of Tim Buck, who persisted in repeating "while I don't say they shot at me deliberately, they shot at me," and when investigating the bullet marks, which are still in cell six.

(Continued on Page 4)

NOTICE

Certificates of attendance in connection with the payment of the second instalment of University of Toronto Scholarships (Matriculation and Faculty of Arts, not including College Scholarships) may be obtained at the Registrar's Office, Simcoe Hall.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY TEAM

Winners of the intercollegiate title. Reading from left to right: Marnie Faulds, manager; Mary Rous, Betty Mark, Jo Hogg, Eleanor Sanson, Dana Lumley, Mary Morris, Pat Thompson, Jean Atkinson, Billie Fowler, Jimmy McPherson, coach.

Courtesy Evening Telegram

POWELL'S SURPRISE WIN OVER PEEVER PAVES WAY FOR VARSITY CHAMPIONSHIP; MANY EXCITING BOUTS FEATURE CARD

Freshman Outpoints Four-Times Welterweight Champion and Varsity Outscores Queen's by Single Point

VARSITY 8, QUEEN'S 7, MCGILL 2

Blue Assault Team Secures Five Wrestling Titles and Three Boxing Crowns; McGill Again
Wins Fencing

By John T. Stubbs

Repeating their win of last year, the University of Toronto took the B. W. & F. title and the Tom Gibson Trophy in the finals of the Intercollegiate Assault-at-Arms staged in the Big Gymn of Hart House Saturday night before a full house.

The final count by bouts was Varsity 8, Queen's 7, and McGill 2. In the early fights on the card the Tricolour loomed up as probable champs when they marched through 5 fights in eight events, including the afternoon's fencing, which proved McGill the winner. With Varsity taking 2 wrestling titles it did not look so good for the Blue and White in the first eight events but Powell provided the high-light of the Assault when he out-pointed Peever, four times Queen's welter titleholder, in a history-making battle. That gave Varsity their third win in nine fights, but it was only the first of six in a row which gave U. of T. the trophy for the second consecutive time.

PRACTICAL VIEWS ON CHRISTIANITY

Dr. E. Stanley Jones Explains Attitude of East Towards God

"THE EAST WANTS GOD"

"The most changeable portion of this earth of ours is the 'Changeless East'. The East passionately wants freedom from Western civilization: they want the right to make their own mistakes. I have met more scepticism during this past year than in my previous twenty-six years' experience; but in spite of this scepticism there is an undertone of craving for God. The East wants God."

In a brilliant, inspired and fearless address, Dr. E. Stanley Jones set forth his practical views on Christianity before the almost capacity audience in Convocation Hall, Friday afternoon. Visiting Canada for ten days, as guest of the Inter-Church Foreign Missionary Boards, the well-known author and religious worker from India visited the University upon the invitation of the Student Christian Association here. The large crowd which gathered to hear Dr. Jones was made up not only of students but of many people not connected with the University.

"Anyone who goes to the East at the present time, must be able to relate his gospel to the changing conditions there," Dr. Jones continued, following out his theme, "Our Approach to an Awakened East." "Everywhere old systems are dying off, unable to suit

(Continued on Page 2)

ALAN SLY LECTURE TODAY

Mr. Alan Sly will give a lecture on Beethoven's 7th Symphony, Stravinsky's Petrushka Suite, and two Bach Chorales as arranged by Dr. MacMillan, in Hart House Theatre this afternoon at 5.10 p.m.

Symphony tickets at students' rates will be on sale at the Hall Porter's desk on Tuesday from 12 to 1 and from 5 to 6 p.m.

Varsity secured five wrestling titles and three boxing crowns. Queen's went into every bout with a battling spirit and grim determination but a lack of knowledge of the science of wrestling proved their undoing although they came through with three mat wins and four in the boxing. The Redmen took the fencing point 14 of the duels while Varsity won 7 and Queen's 6. Wiggers took the single championship by defeating his teammate De Montigny 5-3 after each had finished with five wins and a loss each. Harris fenced well for Queen's.

BOXING

Queen's gained points in four glove encounters while Varsity trailed close with three. McGill took one bout to complete the card of eight.

Baker of Queen's knocked Caron of McGill down three times in the first round before he secured his technical k.o. in a minute and 45 seconds in the 118 lb. bout. Ennis (Q) had a slight margin in the first round of the 125 lb. mitt battle but Hollingsworth (M) came back strong in the second with straight lefts and counter-rights to take the second. The latter seemed to have a margin in the third three minutes, but the judges gave the decision

(Continued on Page 4)

NAZI REVOLUTION STRICTLY LEGAL

Task of Hitler is to Convert Nation to New Form of Government

NO PARLIAMENTARY SYSTEM

This is the fourth instalment of a letter from a German Nazi to a student in Graduate Studies at the University of Toronto.

The most essential task of the Hitler Revolution is and will continue to be to convert the nation, tired of fruitless and disgusting parliamentary government under Social Democratic leaders, to quite another form of political institution.

It would be beyond the limits of this paper to give you an outline exposition of what Germany is to be

(Continued on Page 4)

ABILITY MUST BE THE PRIME FACTOR IN CHOOSING PROFESSORS, SAYS CODY

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

King Albert I, beloved war-hero of the Belgians, was killed yesterday when he fell over a precipice in the pursuit of his favourite sport of mountain climbing. When found by a search party he had been dead for ten hours. His son, the Crown Prince, immediately became King Leopold III.

Britain, France and Italy in a joint communique, warned Hitler that the independence of Austria must be maintained.

London—A second bodyguard will watch Premier MacDonald after threats were made on his life.

New York—Lindbergh denied reports that he had made huge profits from air-line stocks.

Hollywood—Garbo's friendship with her director, Rouben Mamoulian, was described as purely platonic by her friends, and it is believed that she will never marry.

Toronto Maple Leafs defeated Boston 6 to 4; St. Michael's beat Oshawa 8-2, in week-end hockey games.

Should Not Accept Retainer from Commercial Firms Under Cover

AGREES WITH BEATTY

Much Freedom Allowed Here for Dons to Express Their Own Views

By J. H. Perry

"Ability, knowledge, personality and general force as a teacher and research worker are the only factors taken into consideration in making appointments to the staff of the University," stated Dr. Cody to The Varsity when interviewed on Friday. The President of the University gave this reply when asked to comment on a statement made recently by Mr. E. W. Beatty, Chancellor of McGill University, to the effect that every McGill lecturer and professor retains his position because of his ability and not because of his popularity or the views he may hold as an individual on public or economic questions.

Dr. Cody also agreed with Chancellor Beatty that no college professor should indulge in propaganda or accept a retainer from any commercial organization without making the fact generally known.

"In this University," he stated, "we allow the professors a great deal of freedom to express their convictions

(Continued on Page 2)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper
Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '34
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crocker, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:

E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.
Night Editor—E. C. Phelan

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19th, 1934

STRIKE UP THE BAND

Tomorrow evening University students will have their opportunity to express their appreciation of an organization of which the University may well be proud, when the Varsity Band delivers its Annual Recital in Convocation Hall. Those who are competent to decide have given to the Band no small credit for its part in bringing success to Varsity's football teams, inasmuch as it has proven an inspiration to the players and has roused enthusiasm among the student body. It is not necessary, however, for the Band to bathe in the reflected glory of victorious Varsity teams, for while Blue and White footballers have on occasions met with defeat, it may be truthfully said that the Varsity Band has yet to meet its equal.

Since its complete reorganization four years ago, the spectacle of bandmen drilling on the front campus has been a familiar sight during the Fall weeks. The Student's Administrative Council keeps in touch with the members of the Band during the summer months, and the first practices of this school year were actually held before the commencement of lectures. The activities of this colourful organization were not abated at the close of the Rugby season, however. Since that time it has been preparing with undiminished zeal for its Annual Concert which will conclude its activities for this year. At Montreal, at Kingston and at London, the Varsity Band has done the University credit as its representative. The Varsity Band is more than a rah-rah organization, more than a mere aid to the cheerleaders. Under the leadership of Canada's premier bandmaster it has become a musical organization of no mean note and its concert tomorrow evening promises to be a musical event. Above all, it is the Students' Band, your band, and demands the support of the students and staff of the University. Convocation Hall should be filled to the roof tomorrow evening. Nothing less than a demonstration such as this will be a suitable expression of your appreciation of the Varsity Band.

ABILITY PRIME FACTOR IN CHOOSING PROFESSORS

(Continued from Page 1)

on controversial matters, but in return we expect that they will assume a large degree of responsibility for any statement they may make or any opinion they may hold. Of course, every person has this right in any walk of life, and it is the common duty of all to be responsible for both opinions and actions. At the present time there is no problem of professors becoming propagandists in this University, nor have we any objection to professors accepting remuneration from any outside business organization. Most of the staff in the Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering have acted as consultants at some time or other for construction firms, and several of the men in the Economics Department have also done work for organizations outside the University. It is felt that in most cases the work done is advantageous to the community as a whole, because generally it is of a kind that requires the specialized knowledge that is only to be found in a University. Admittedly there is some danger in this course, since the outside connections of the professors may at times make their views biased in one direction, whereas the very essence of a professor's calling is to seek out and present the truth in the cool light of unbiased reason. There is always danger of some sort in every path of life, however, and in this place it seems that the risk can hardly be avoided unless we are to adopt a policy of outright repression.

Dr. W. T. Brown, Principal of Victoria College, took much the same attitude as did the President of the University. "When we are choosing a new professor to fill a vacancy we ask ourselves first what particular ability a certain man has in his chosen field of study. We consider that to be a professor a man must be a good scholar, a good teacher and must be willing to co-operate and work into the corporate life of the University. These are the factors which influence our choice, and the views of the man as an individual on public and economic questions has no great weight in our decision."

Questioned as to professors spreading propaganda, Dr. Brown stated, "undoubtedly it is not ethical for a professor to accept a retainer or become involved in any propaganda of a controversial nature without notifying his superiors. It seems quite legitimate to me for a professor to hold whatever convictions he may choose, provided that he does not let these interfere with an unbiased presentation to his students of ideas and theories with which he himself may not agree. Normally professors are of the type of person who will keep a well balanced opinion and a broad view on most subjects. When one does happen to get off on a tangent about a matter of controversy, however, the students soon know where his personal bias lies, and they make allowance for this bias in weighing his views."

Dr. M. W. Wallace, Principal of University College, felt that the subject was too complex to decide in a few words. "Every lecture," he stated, "is propaganda of some sort, since the personal convictions of the professor cannot be entirely ruled out. I believe that if there is not substantial freedom for the professors, however, the institution is dead. The professor must have the right to entertain convictions of his own, and, while enjoying this right, he is expected to use ordinary common sense in presenting his views."

Art, Music and Drama

Friday Afternoon Recital

The second last of the Hart House Friday Afternoon Recitals was given this past week. The programme, a Russian one, was arranged by Mr. Boris Berlin, pianist, and Mr. A. W. Troff, baritone.

The recital was opened by the playing of Variations on a Russian Theme, by Khandoskin. The soloist in this number was Master Alfred Johnson, pianist, who played with astonishing vigour and sweep for one so extremely young. Mr. Berlin played excerpts from Moussorgsky's Pictures in a Gallery, and later, compositions by two modern composers, Prokofiev and Compagnetz. The former of these will be remembered by radio listeners who heard him last year, performing his own works with the Boston and New York Symphony orchestras. Mr. Berlin obviously has an authoritative knowledge of Russian music and his comments were illuminating.

Mr. Wantroff possesses an unusual voice, full and powerful in the extreme. The two final numbers, When the King went forth to War, by Koenemann, and a song from Taigany, by Lishin, were especially good, vocally and dramatically.

N.F.L.

Massey Hall

The Toronto Symphony Orchestra, under Dr. Ernest MacMillan's direction, is giving its eighth concert on Tuesday night next at Massey Hall. This concert will stand out in the minds of all, as never before has the music lover been presented with such a varied musical menu. Too many cooks often do spoil the broth but a staff such as will be presided over by Dr. MacMillan as maitre d'hôtel could guarantee to delight the palate of even the most critical. The cocktail and entrée—two delightful choral preludes by Bach, arranged for orchestra by Ernest MacMillan. This is followed by the main course—the Beethoven Seventh Symphony, considered by many the greatest work of this genius. The intermission will enable our musical digestive juices to function and be followed by an exquisite sweet—"The Swan of Tuonela" and the "Petrushka" suite by Stravinsky, the tid-bit of the entire menu for many. This feast will be topped off by a delectable liqueur—the beautiful waltz, "The Blue Danube" which brings that mental relaxation and comfortable lassitude as the natural result of pleasing repelation. For here is beautiful music to be enjoyed without the mental effort of concentration that has gone before, an opportunity to hum an accompaniment and to sway to the mesmeric rhythm of childhood memory.

The score of the "Petrushka Suite" includes a part for piano which will be ably handled by that distinguished Canadian pianist, Alberto Guerrero.

The Cat today takes pleasure in reproducing photographs of the leading figures in the search for the missing Feature Editor.

FILE ADVANCE

taken while investigating the disappearance of a harem belonging to the Sultan of Siam.

SHYLOCK JOLNES

taken while he was Drum Major of the Varsity Band in 1904.

PROTEST INDICTMENT OF LABOR SECRETARY

(Continued from Page 1)

Justice Kingstone, the sedition charge against A. E. Smith and the attempt to rush the trial through, are attempts on the part of the government to silence the charges of hundreds of thousands of unionists, labour people and progressive individuals to the effect that the government failing an investigation into the case, must stand responsible for the attempt on Buck's life; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that this gathering demands dropping of the charges against A. E. Smith; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we demand an immediate popular enquiry into the attempt on Tim Buck's life and into conditions of political prisoners in Kingston Penitentiary; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we demand the repeal of the anti-labour Section 98, and demand the release of all those imprisoned under this section.

PRACTICAL VIEWS ON CHRISTIANITY

(Continued from Page 1)

themselves to the altered needs. Will the Christian religion be able to adapt itself? God used to appeal to men as the open door out of difficulty. Now men want God for reconstruction."

Then the speaker proceeded to deal with the relation of religion to science.

"Science takes the poetry of Milton and analyses it physically, studying the perfection of rhyme and meter. Religion is grateful for that, but is not satisfied. Religion interprets and evaluates the inward ideas. Both the scientific and religious interpretations are required to supply the true value.

"Science and religion each have their own field, and each can make its contribution to the other. Religion has hood to give to science. Science has a sense of cool experimentation verification and then sharing its results, to contribute to religion. I suggest to this group that we accept this contribution. I suggest that no one argue, no one talk abstractly about religion; but that he tell his experiences, verify their worth, and share them with others."

"I have put my religion out to the world and said, 'Take it; and if you can, break it!' It may now bear some scars, but underneath the scars are no uncertainties.

"Your religion will work to the degree that you work it," Dr. Stanley Jones concluded. "Today men want Christianity, not because it offers some future reward, but because here and now, 'It works'!"

WOMEN'S HOCKEY TEAM WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

(Continued from Page 1)

passing, but Queen's defence were checking hard and held them back.

Despite the goal scored on Varsity in the last period they had the better of the play. Charity Grant and Jean Atkinson made nice rushes and kept the puck in Queen's danger zone. Marg MacGregor several times had to fall full length on the ice to save what looked like sure goals. Jean Nelson on the Tricolour defence, proved to be a real playmaker, but did not have adequate support, with Pat Thompson and Jo Hogg closely checking her wings. Eileen MacLean scored on a shot from the side that glanced in off Gladys Munroe's skate. Things got rough at the end of the game, Lillian Ward, Queen's defenceman, collected three penalties in a row, but both teams were careless with their sticks.

Mary Rous and Charity Grant played their customary fine games on the Varsity defence, while Billie Fowler and Pat Thompson were most outstanding on the forward line. Marg MacGregor turned in a stellar performance for Queen's, but shared the playing honours this time with Jean Nelson, peppy defenceman.

Queen's — Goal, M. MacGregor; defence, J. Nelson, L. Ward; centre, M. Chambers; wings, M. Brophy, E. MacLean; alternates, H. Cram, A. Averill, R. Cordy.

Varsity — Goal, G. Munroe; defence, M. Rous, C. Grant; centre, B. Fowler; wings, E. Sanson, J. Atkinson; alternates, J. Hogg, P. Thompson, M. Morris, B. Mark.

2-Year-Olds

Don't shoot the landlady when the monotony of her meals gets your goat. Call up some of the frat and try Murray's. The food is delicious . . . and easy on the pocket-book. And you'll all feel like 2-year-olds after the change!

TORONTO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

MacMILLAN, Conductor

NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

—PROGRAMME—
Two Choral Preludes . . . . . Bach—MacMillan
Symphony No. 7 in A Major . . . . . Beethoven
The Swan of Tuonela . . . . . Sibelius
"Petrushka" Suite . . . . . Stravinski
Albert Guerrero, Pianist
Waltz, "The Blue Danube" . . . . . Strauss

MASSEY HALL
PRICES:
$2.50, $2.00, $1.50, $1.00
BOX OFFICE
NOW—AD. 7301

YOU CAN'T AFFORD to miss a good thing like this

The Annual Concert of The Varsity Band

at Convocation Hall, Tuesday, Feb. 20th 8.15 p.m.

assisted by the following guest artists

MADELON ROWAN
WINNIFRED COUSINS SMALLEY
FRANK LOCKSLEY

Hear your Blue and White musicians at their best

Novelty Numbers

Captain John Slatter, V.D., Directing

TICKETS 15 CENTS

On Sale at S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Room 82, University College, and your faculty bandmen.

and at door Convocation Hall, Tuesday Night

Watch Tuesday's "Varsity" for Complete Programme

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St. K1. 0981

571 Yonge St. K1. 8270

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dances

Late Step

6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1885

PUCKSTERS ELIMINATE PORTS; CAGERS DIVIDE AT LONDON

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

A picture of the women's hockey team, intercollegiate champions, appears elsewhere in the paper. The only absentee in the lineup is Gladys Munroe, capable Varsity netminder in the intercollegiate series. She turned in an excellent performance on Saturday night, the only goal scored against her being more or less of a fluke.

The game was half an hour late in starting, which may account for the lack of punch in the first period. The Varsity women were tired from waiting, and the Queen's team likewise, after being rushed right from the train to the Arena. Varsity, however, played better and speedier hockey, and only the excellent work of Marg MacGregor in goal, and Jean Nelson on the defence, kept the score even.

There were few solo rushes in the game. Both of the Varsity forward lines tried to make plays and showed real ability in combination work. Jimmie MacPherson certainly has taught them to backcheck and the Queen's attacks had trouble in progressing beyond the Varsity's blue line. Jimmie deserves a lot of credit for the fine showing made by the Varsity players. He has worked hard with them and taught them how to play hockey as a team.

This is the thirteenth year that the Beatty Ramsay has been competed for. We aren't superstitious but we really could not help wondering if thirteen really was unlucky when it was mentioned on Saturday that Queen's might not enter a women's hockey team next year. Such an event would be most regrettable. It is to be hoped that arrangements will be made that are agreeable to the powers that be at Queen's and that women's intercollegiate hockey will continue to exist.

The intercollegiate basketball team plays an exhibition game with McMaster tonight at Hart House at 7.15. The tournament comes off this weekend at London and the game should be an excellent preparatory workout. Kay Brown, a new player, was high scorer for the Blue team in the Grad game and should be an extremely valuable player, judging by the form she has shown so far.

The intermediates took a trimming from the Hamilton Normal team on Friday night. However, it was their first game and the school teachers have been playing together since last October, while the intermediates have just begun to have enough turning out to form a team.

Sport Notices

Trinity Basketball—

Will the following please be on hand for Monday's game at 4 p.m. sharp: Whitbread, A'Court, Grant, Rogers, Honeyford, Eaton, Noble, Lossing, Wright.

U.C. Senior Basketball—

Game at 4 p.m. with Trinity.

U.C. Athletic Board—

Important meeting at 1 p.m. today in the Lit. office.

BLUE CAGERS LOSE TO WESTERN 25-23

Third Single-Basket Defeat for Varsity in London

Putting a serious crimp in the University of Toronto's intercollegiate senior title aspirations, the University of Western Ontario's cage squad avoided

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

Varsity took the B. W. & F. title Saturday night in a close race with Queen's. The Tricolour started off the evening with a vengeance and it looked like good-bye to the Tom Gibson Trophy this year. That was when the count was Queen's 5, Varsity 2, McGill 1. Then Powell took the well-worn welter headgear from Peever in a great fight. Peever is a great fighter but Powell is a smart boxer. It takes a real mitman to take the lefts that Peever received, smile all the way, and keep coming. Powell started in as though it was a struggle to avoid being knocked out. Then he snapped out a bunch of straight lefts and one-two that put him out in front. A right to the jaw in the second by Peever almost caught Powell but the latter was equal to the slugging and came back again. Another right to the body caught Powell over the heart but a left to the nose stopped Peever again. There wasn't much waiting around on the part of either. Powell waited for Peever to come in and then attacked after Peever made his swing. Don't ever think they were swung on rusty hinges either. It would have taken just one of those blows to put any welterweight away for the evening. But Powell kept his mits up and stopped them all. Give the freshman from Upper Canada a big hand lads. He earned the welterweight crown when he took it from Merv Peever.

Harry Henning assistant Varsity boxing coach, said Friday night that Powell would beat Peever but nobody believed him. A fight between Quinn (M), who was knocked out by Peever Friday night, and Powell, would be a real boxing bout. And maybe Quinn would win because he too is a smart boxer with lots of experience. Powell has very little experience in senior company but he has what it takes just the same. The question is now, will Merv Peever retire? He said so last year but he was in this year and he said not long ago this was his last meet. If Maughan had lost to Barber Saturday night Varsity and Queen's would have been tied in bouts with eight apiece, but the meet title would have gone to Varsity because they came second in the fencing. Maughan was knocked out in a very peculiar fight with Waugh (Q) in Kingston two years ago and the point gave Queen's the title instead of Varsity getting it, as would have been the case had Maughan won.

Maughan may be Canadian heavyweight champ but he is not in a class with the rest of the Dominion champs. There must be a shortage of heavies in this country. (No offence intended.) Barker is just starting his boxing career and was no match for the McGill heavy.

D'Arcy Lee, recent Varsity grad, Ontario fencing champ and referee of the fencing bouts for the Assault, took Wiggers (M) on after the latter had taken his team-mate, De Montigny, 5-3. Lee hadn't much difficulty in out-pointing the Quebec champ at that.

Warren Stevens and his hockey team trounced Port Colborne 5-2 Saturday night and thus cut off the Sailors' attempts to make harbour in the O.H.A. Sr. playoffs. Varsity led 3-0 at the end of the second period. Then nine penalties in the next ten minutes saw Varsity two men short and the Ports quickly made it 3-2. At full strength again, the Blues rammed two more in to finish it off.

The feared defeat happened to the senior cagers in London. That town is certainly a jinx to Varsity teams. A win there is earned in any sport for Varsity. The Mustangs are a bunch of possessed battlers in their own diggings as Lew Hayman and his squad learned Saturday night when they were defeated 25-23 in an intercollegiate senior game. The intermediates kept up their record with an easy victory and stay in first place.

A Big Six game is booked for Hart House in the Big Gym tonight with Hayman's crowd again meeting Yolles A.C. The boys took the former Lizzies the last time and it would make it tough for the latter if they dropped again to Varsity right now. McMaster ladies will be entertained by the U. of T. feminine quintet in the first game on the evening's programme. Drop around and go get an eyeful of some smart basketball.

In the race for intercollegiate titles McGill has a lead with six crowns to Varsity's five. At Christmas time the water polo title gave McGill a five-four margin but they added the hockey championship while Varsity takes the B. W. & F. The swimming and basketball titleholders are yet to be decided which will round out the thirteen. It looks like a shut-out year for Queen's unless we have miscalculated somewhere. Never mind, the Tricolour will take the football crown next year unless we miss our guess. They admit it themselves down in Kingston and why not with a powerful new team being gradually built up by Teddy Reeves and others?

Word was received last night of the death of Dr. Jack Hendry, brother of George Hendry, the Varsity hockey captain, in the John Hopkins Hospital at Baltimore. The Varsity extends to George Hendry and his family sincere sympathy in their bereavement.

Varsity Seconds WIN DECISIVELY

Outscore Western 45 to 26 to Lead Basketball Group

Scoring a decisive 45-26 win over Western Saturday night in London, Varsity intermediates are now securely perched in first place of the intermediate intercollegiate basketball loop.

The Seconds turned in one of their best performances of the season and after the opening few minutes Western were badly outclassed. Lepine for Western, was the high scorer of the night, but every man on the Varsity squad scored at least one basket to give the Blue team their big advantage. (Continued on Page 4) ed elimination by defeating the Varsity senior basketballers by a 25-23 score in a fast and furious melee played in the gym of the London Technical school in London, on Saturday night. For the third time in three years the Blues have been handed a one-basket heartbreaking defeat in London, the squad having lost to Western in London by two points in the last three consecutive years.

As in their recent Big Six games in Toronto the Blues' defeat is due, to some extent, to their failure to sink fouls. Hayman's pats failed to score on 9 out of 16 attempts. But for the fact that Western were even worse on free throws the score sheet would have been vastly different. The climax of the game came when, with 50 seconds left to play, Normie Newman, (Continued on Page 4) let it rain . . . let it pour

NEVA-WET PROCESSED BAGS

haven't spotted yet! They're smart, too, in a novel crepe material processed to repel rain. Several engaging styles with metallic trimmings and fascinating handles. Inexpensive at $4.95.

STREET FLOOR

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

BLUE HOCKEYISTS BEAT SAILORS 5-2

Hectic Last Period Brings Many Penalties to Both Teams

NEARLY FREE-FOR-ALL

By Art MacFarlane

Varsity definitely eliminated Port Colborne from the O.H.A. playoff race at Varsity Arena Saturday night when Warren Stevens' Blues administered another 5-2 defeat to the Canal Towners. The game was one of the fastest seen in the Arena this season, and Varsity easily earned a three-goal edge as they out-started and out-last-ed the opposition. Due to the enforced absence of George Hendry, Win Cunningham was moved over to right wing, Phil Jeffrey teaming up with McConvey and Sweeney to form the second line.

The game started off fast and the terrific speed was maintained for the full twenty minutes with both teams turning it on. After about six minutes of dazzling rushes, Phil Jeffrey picked up the puck behind his own net, evaded Morrill, stick-handled past the defence, and after drawing Moore to one side, slammed the puck into the net to open the scoring. Seconds later, Campbell made a dangerous end to end rush only to have Moore kick it out.

Varsity flashed a sparkling offensive in the second session and when Horne was penalized for cross-checking MacPherson, the Blues ganged the Port Colborne goal and were finally successful when Cunningham picked up the puck from a scramble behind the net and brought it out unchecked to flip it over the prostrate Moore.

Led by Morrill, the Ports turned on the gangling act, Frank Shipp making three sensational stops within a minute, two from Morrill and one from Upper at a three-foot range. Three minutes from the end of the period, Phil Jeffrey again tore down the left boards, and in centring the puck from the corner, it glanced into the net off Hudson's skate. Varsity were forced to end the period minus the services of McConvey and Cunningham, who were chased for two minutes, the former for a trip which he didn't commit and the latter for a blue line bodycheck.

The hectic last period was the wildest twenty minutes played in Varsity Arena this season. Seldom able to penetrate the Varsity defence and then only to see Frank Shipp turn aside their thrusts with uncanny skill, Port Colborne began to say it with elbows and cross-checks, and the fun started. Reid was fenced for a high stick and was joined by Upper a few minutes later for a cross-check. Jeffrey and Moun- (Continued on Page 4)

The CHATEAU LAURIER

Ottawa's Hotel of Distinction

To be assured of comfortable accommodation—stay at the CHATEAU LAURIER.

Here you will find accommodation for 1,000 guests—with rates that have been adjusted to meet the demands of present day economy, but where, though your stay be of short duration, or of extended nature, the traditions of Canadian National Railways—Courtesy and Service—have been maintained.

Full details from any Agent of

CANADIAN NATIONAL

T16

SUMMARY OF PRELIMS

BOXING

- 118—Baker (Q) defeated McAdam (V) K.O. in second.
- 125—Hollingsworth (M) def. Smith (V), decision.
- 135—Smith (M) def. McCatty (V), decision.
- 145—Peever (Q) def. Quinn (M), decision.
- 155—Smyth (Q) def. McDonald (M), decision.
- 165—Hallett (V) def. Bench (Q), decision.
- Heavy—Barker (Q) def. Springborn (V), K.O. in first.

WRESTLING

- 125—Thomas (Q) def. Black (M).
- 135—Forsberg (Q) def. Lazarovitch (M).
- 145—Eaton (V) def. Katz (Q).
- 155—Dimitruff (V) def. Long (Q).
- 165—Newell (V) def. Pitsreich (M).
- 175—Watt (V) def. McLean (M).
- Heavy—Miller (Q) def. Stewart (M).

INTERFACULTY RESULTS

Jr. S.P.S. defeated Pharmacy 34-20 in a basketball fixture. Sr. S.P.S. entered the finals of the water polo series by beating Jr. Meds 5-1.

THE EPICURE GRILL AND TEA ROOM upstairs

Opp. Eaton's College St. 433 YONGE STREET

Special attention to Students

Full Course Meals from 35c. up

We serve economical plate luncheon 20c.

HOCKEY SCHEDULE

Monday at Stadium—
5.00—Pharmacy vs Forestry
Tuesday at Stadium—
4.00—Trinity vs Wycliffe
5.00—Victoria vs Jr. S.P.S.
Tuesday at Arena—
4.30—Jr. U.C. vs Jr. Meds
Wednesday at Arena—
4.00—O.C.E. vs Forestry
5.00—Sr. Meds vs Sr. S.P.S.
Thursday at Stadium—
4.00—Knox vs Emmanuel
5.00—Jr. Meds vs Victoria
Friday at Arena—
4.00—Sr. S.P.S. vs Dents
5.00—Sr. Meds vs U.C.

BUY YOUR TICKET FOR THE LIT CELEBRATION TO-DAY

Mon. - Tues. - Wed. are the last days of our "No Profit" Sale

Real
Silk Crepe de Chine

Cut from heavy quality real silk
Crepe de Chine, all sizes, in White or Tealose. Every piece lavishly trimmed with fine drawn laces. Adorable styles, and so beautifully made, that when you see them, you'll want the whole set.

Teddie ..... $1.39
Slip ..... $1.49
(Adjustable Straps)
Dance Set ..... $1.39
Nightie ..... $1.98
Pantie ..... 89c

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 3600
4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19
5.10 p.m.—Meds S.C.M. group in the S.C.M. Library in Hart House. The speaker will be Dr. Malcolm Cameron of St. Michael's Hospital.
8 p.m.—Victoria College Debating Parliament, Alumni Hall.
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20
5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club, Hart House
Music Room.
5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in S.C.M. Library, of Hart House.
8 p.m.—English and History Club, St.
Joseph's College.
8.15 p.m.—Annual concert of the Varsity band, Convocation Hall.
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21
8 p.m.—Hart House debate attended by the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett. Members of Hart House only.
1 p.m.—Macdonald-Cartier Club luncheon. Speaker, Right Hon. R. B.
Bennett.
8 p.m.—Vic Classical Club will meet at 92 Wychwood Park. Speaker,
Prof. E. T. Owen.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22
7.30 p.m.—S.P.S. Debating Club in Debates Room, Hart House. The first of the inter-year debates.
Sale of the Undergraduate Magazine,
U.C. rotunda and elsewhere.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7
Hart House Elections.
THURSDAY, MARCH 8
Hart House Debates Committee Elections.

Classified Advertisements

TYPING

Typewriting done by competent typist including all types of work.
By contract or hourly rate of fifty cents. Work handled carefully and expeditiously. Telephone Junction 1228.

FOR SALE

Tenor banjo good as new, 10 dollars. Consult J. R. Moore in Engineering class, 3rd year.

STUDENT LEAGUE MEETING STOPPED

(Continued from Page 1)

teen, Judge Madden said, "there is no doubt about it, they tried to murder this man".

"We do not intend to let this matter drop. Charging me with sedition will not silence this. Our efforts are only a struggle, a small incident in the mighty drama in the world today, but we have the capacity of building up public opinion. We have politicians guessing in forty different ways and if they are going to go on and not try to restrain cold-blooded murder then they will have bitten off more than they can chew."

A defence movement is the only hope. 1934 is the year marked out for aggressive warfare against the Soviet Union but there will be no war in the Soviet Union without war on a great many capitalist countries and it is the object of the working class now to build up a bulwark against this imperialism.

"The pacifist manifestations under the leadership of such men as Bennett,
King and Woodsworth are to liquidate the fears of the petty bourgeois and when war does come they will throw up their hands and cry 'we did everything we could' when all the time they have been preparing in every way."

"The working class," concluded Mr.
Smith, "is on the way to power, and they will arrive, but not in a straight line—it will be full of sacrifice, pain and striving, but it is the only road."

HITLER REVOLUTION IS STRICTLY LEGAL

(Continued from Page 1)

brought to; I will only explain that parliamentary government will be replaced by the Stande-Aufbau, or Chamber of Professional Representatives, in connection with the State Councilors. This will provide that everyone must belong to the organization of his trade, occupation or profession, the heads of which will cooperate with the government officials.

It is planned that in coming years the young men will all be called upon to work for one year in the Arbeitsdienst, the compulsory Manual Labour Service, with spade, shovel or other manual tool, in order to teach everyone without exception, and especially the educated and the wealthy, to know something by experience of manual labour, and to learn to honour it instead of looking down on their fellow-workers whose lot the Almighty has cast in the profession of common labourers.

The young men are now trained in discipline, obedience, and cleanliness, both physically and morally, and while being drilled are kept away from saloons and bad influences.

Hitler's Revolution, has developed upon a strictly legal foundation. Never in history has a more disciplined revolution taken place, and never were the revolutionaries so well aware of their responsibility to the nation or so unselfish as are Hitler and his staff.

Hitler has wiped out the terrible conditions of immorality which prevailed under the post-war government, under the leadership of the former Catholic Centre and Social Democrats, and which were a disgrace to civilization and to culture.

It is marvellous how successful Hitler has been in the short time he has been in power, in his fight against corruption, crime, prostitution and the swamps of political corruption, and for respect for law.

SENIOR CAGERS LOSE

(Continued from Page 3)

the youngster who was moved up to a starting position on the lineup, was given two free throws. He missed them both. Five seconds later Levy sank a basket just as Referee Pogue blew his whistle for some unaccounted for reason.

Varsity — Bodrug 5, Newman 9,
Mitchell 1, Sniderman 2, Gold, Levy,
Willis 6, Gordon.

Western — Fletcher 7, Garrett 6, Whitwell 2, Chuniak 3, Rider 6, Gettas 1, Wilson, Zavitz.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

VICTORIA COLLEGE DEBATE

The motion for this evening will be "Resolved that Government by the C.C.F. would not be in the best interests of Canada." The following will speak: Marion Rickard, Norm Knight, Jean Ross, Jim Holden.

LAW CLUB

Joseph Sedgwick, Esq., K.C., will speak to the Law Club on Tuesday, Feb. 20th at 8 p.m. in the junior common room. Subject, "The Work of the Attorney-General's Department".
Elections.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The last spoon shoot of the year will be held today and Wednesday of this week. Everybody out.

VICTORIA COLLEGE

The attention of undergraduates is drawn to the fact that next Friday,
Feb. 23 is the first election day at Victoria College. Nominations must be in the hands of the Chief Returning Officer by 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb.
20th, and must be on the form of nomination approved by the V.C.U., which may be procured from the desk in the college office.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE MEN

For the benefit of those who haven't purchased their tickets for the Eightieth Anniversary Dinner in Hart House on Thursday, a special sale will take place in the college rotunda between 12 and 2 p.m. today.

VIC VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

The attention of male undergraduates of Victoria College is drawn to the two groups to be held at 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 20. In Room 14, Mr.
K. S. Dinsmore, C.A., will speak on Accounting, and in Room 18, Dr. K. S.
Bernhardt and Mr. J. W. Ansley will speak on Post Graduate Work and Teaching, respectively.

MACDONALD-CARTIER CLUB

Tickets for the Macdonald-Cartier Club luncheon in the Graduates' Dining Room, Hart House, on Wednesday,
February 21st at 1 p.m., at which Rt.
Hon. R. B. Bennett will speak, may be purchased on Tuesday, February 20th in the entrance hall of Hart
House, between the hours of 12-1.30.
All members must purchase tickets at this time and no one will be admitted without a ticket.

POWELL BEATS PEEVER TO RETAIN ASSAULT FOR U. OF TORONTO

(Continued from Page 1)

Ewen, who previously fought for the Redmen, but was wearing the Tri-colour trunks in the 135 lb. class, made quick work of Swift (M) when he knocked out the latter in 45 seconds of the first round. Then came the big fight of the night with Powell climbing through the ropes to meet the undefeated welterweight champ from Queen's in the person of Merv Peever.

The Tricolour cyclone had won the welter crown four years straight and Ewen of McGill, now Queen's 135 lb.
entry, was the only man he had not k.o'd. With that record facing him,
Powell was not conceded a chance since Quinn, the smart McGill entry and Pacific Coast champion, had been knocked out in the preliminaries. The fearless freshman from Upper Canada College stepped in and parried Peever's first rush after the hand-shake smartly.

Then to everyone's surprise he caught the Tricolour champ off balance with a straight left that shook the latter's timbers considerably. Peever saw that he had to knock Powell out in a hurry to win and tore at him with a vengeance notwithstanding his ever-present smile. Powell faded and ducked, parried and poked, and out-pointed his opponent through the first three minutes.

Then the second round started with Peever slamming a hammer-blow to Powell's jaw that rattled the Varsity entry. The fair-haired lad from U.
C.C. was not caught napping, however, and came back strong. He caught Peever off balance again and the latter went down and up like a rubber ball, only to tear in again. Powell's lefts that were shipped out a split second after Peever swung his rights, gave the former the second round.

In the third Powell stuck to his guns and had to stop plenty of hard wallops on the gloves and arms besides keep up an offensive. Peever maintained his popularity with a hearty smile throughout the contest even though he was taking more punishment than he could give and was the first to extend hearty congratulations to his conqueror when the judges gave their decision to Powell.

De Marco (T) turned in another clever display of boxing against Smyth of Queen's. The Toronto lad hadn't the condition that Smyth had, neither did he have the attack and scrap. On the other hand he had the smartest fade and American style of fighting that was seen during the evening. The decision was a close one and went to De Marco.

In the 165 lb. bout Hallett (T) k.o'd Savage of McGill in 2.45 of the third round. Hallett took a mean hammering from the Redman in the first and second rounds. Some of the blows were called fouls by the referee since they were delivered beneath the eye with an open glove. In the last three minutes Hallett came back strong and caught the fast-fading redhead with a right cross to the jaw that put the latter away for the count.

Peters (Q) technically k.o'd Brenhouse of McGill in the 175 lb. final.
Brenhouse showed plenty of spirit to stay with the Tricolour entry from Ottawa as long as he did and then argued with the referee for stopping the bout.

Maughan, the Canadian heavyweight champ from McGill, demolished Barker (Q) with a technical in the second round after 1.45 had passed. Barker was a football star with the Hamilton Tigers two years ago but his grid prowess couldn't stand up under the battering ram from Montreal.

WRESTLING

Of the eight wrestling bouts Varsity took 5 and Queen's three. O'Connor (Q) took a fall in 4.25 against Southwood (M) in the 118 lb. bouts. Then Johnston (T) drew a big hand from the crowd with his clever defence and quick holds as he took a fall in 7.25 from Thomas of Queen's in the 125 lb. final. Forsberg (Q) had more strength and weight than Bannister
(T) and had little trouble in gaining a decision with no falls in the 135 lb.
bout. In the 145 lb. category Eaton
(T) was very scientific to take two clever falls in 2.31 and 9.10 from Johnson (M). In two dull bouts Dimitriff
(T) gained a decision over Billingsley
(M) in the 155 lb. class and Newell
(T) scored another decision over Joliffe (Q) in the 165 lb. bout.

Watt of Varsity provided an interesting fight with Conqueror of Queen's in the 175 lb. wrestling. The Tricolour fighter started in with pro-tactics but got nowhere and Watt secured two rapid falls in 3.10 and 3.55.
In the final heavy wrestling Snelling
(T) was defeated by Miller (Q) on the judge's decision, which was called close when there were no falls.

MANY NOVEL FEATURES AT SCHOOL AT-HOME

(Continued from Page 1)

Smith, who inaugurated the "date bureau" that was successful in finding "Dates" for about six gentlemen for the evening.

Visitors from the Forestry At-Home, the Riverdale and Harbord Collegiate At-Homes, and several fraternity dances lived the closing of the party, which concluded at 3 a.m.

EATON'S

BROWNS....

As Well as The Ever Popular Blues and Greys... In These

YOUNG FELLOWS' SUITS

$25

WITH TWO PAIRS TROUSERS

Purchasable by Deferred Payments (Toronto Delivery Area), 25% down, and balance, plus a carrying charge, in 3 equal monthly payments.

The young chap sketched wears a new two-button single-breasted suit of deep, rich brown with a faint stripe and almost indistinct check pattern. If you'd rather take your browns plain — you may.
This is but one of the many smart suits in this selection. Single or double-breasted models for particular young men, skillfully tailored from fine woollen worsted in brown, fawn, grey, blue-grey, and blue shades. Pleated trousers.
Sizes 31 to 37.

GRADS' DEPARTMENT—EATON'S—Second Floor
James and Albert Streets

THE T. EATON CO. LIMITED

BLUE HOCKEYISTS BEAT SAILORS 5-2

(Continued from Page 3)

tain got the thumb for mixing it up and Morrison joined them for boarding Cunningham. Only prompt action by Referee Armstrong prevented a fight when McClelland and Upper jabbed each other and then MacPherson and Hudson squared off. This left three men for each team on the ice, but for some unknown reason Port Colborne had three men come back to one for Varsity. With a two-man advantage Port Colborne scored twice, the goals being seconds apart and Mountain being the marksmen for both. Five minutes later MacPherson took Mc-Clelland's pass to make it 4-2. With every man up the ice for the Ports, the puck came to the Sailors' blue line and McConvey staged a race for possession with the goal keeper. Mickey side-stepped Moore and slid the puck forty feet along the ice into the vacant goal to complete the scoring.

Frank Shipp was the best man on the ice, making 51 stops despite a dislocated finger. He was closely followed by Campbell and Jeffrey. Morrill, Upper and Reid were the pick of the visitors.

Varsity — Goal, Shipp; defence, Campbell, Rey; centre, McClelland; wings, MacPherson, Cunningham; subs, McConvey, Jeffrey, Sweeney.

Port Colborne — Goal, Moore; defence, Hudson, Horne; centre, Cuthbert; wings, Wade, Morrison; subs, Morrill, Mountain, Upper, Reid.

Referee — Armstrong.

BLUE SECONDS WIN

(Continued from Page 3)

The whole Varsity squad turned in an exceptionally fine game and it would be unfair to pick any stars. Lepine was the pick of the Western squad.

Varsity — Applebaum 8, Young 6, Vanderlick 11, Stronach 3, H. Newman 6, Magwood 4, Mitchell 3, Gibson 4.

Western — Lepine 12, Grimwood
3, Rider 4, McVicar 1, McKenzie 4,
Shore, McArthur 2, Clark.

DON'T FORGET--BAND CONCERT TO-MORROW NIGHT

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20th, 1934

No. 89

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Vienna—Nazis serve ultimatum to Dolfuss, giving eight days to accept Hitlerite policy or renewed war. The Italian press attacks Berlin and British Lord Privy Seal arrives in Germany for talks on disarmament.

Brussels—Body of King Albert borne back to capital to lie in state for three days.

Ottawa—Prime Minister Bennett asked Parliament to record approval of course in seeking reciprocal trade arrangements with United States.

Ottawa—The House of Commons adjourned a debate 64-49, killing proposal of a national flag for Canada.

Washington—Department of Justice recommends a series of bills that would give Federal Government right to step into every crime committed by racketeers and gangsters.

Toronto—Edward Beatty of Midland declared indigible by O.H.A. executive.

Sunday Evening Concert

Representatives from the various colleges and faculties are requested to call at the Warden's office on Wednesday, 21st February between 12.30 and 1.30 p.m. for their allotment of tickets for the Sunday Evening Concert on 25th February.

OPEN MEETING OF V.C.U. CALLED

Students Urge Immediate Action Concerning Common Room

STUENTS PETITION UNION

"That the Victoria College Union take immediate action concerning the redecoration and furnishing of the Men's Common Room in the College" is the motion to be considered in this afternoon's meeting of the Union, to be held in Alumni Hall at five o'clock. The present common room in the basement of the college is very poorly furnished, and decorated, and in addition has very poor lighting. The meeting of the V.C.U. was called upon petition in order to remedy these defects.

The Varsity learned that Ted Avison, president of the Union, was dubious of the success of the motion. Dick Davidson, the vice-president, emphasized the inadequacy of the present common room as a place for Victoria students resident in the city, to spend their leisure moments. However, the Victoria College Union has no money to spare for the needed improvements, and thus can only appeal to the college property committee for assistance. Dr. Barber, superintendent of Victoria University, expressed himself as willing to accede to the wishes of the students, as far as limited available finances permitted.

Some years ago the common room was refurbished with the expenditure of about $1,000. About four years ago $300 was spent in redecoration and painting the room. At this time the undergraduate body provided a table and chairs, of which the table and most of the chairs were soon removed for other uses.

Dr. Barber stated that the plans for the long hoped for Victoria University Library included a common room for the use of the students. Since Victoria University receives no government grant, but is entirely dependent

(Continued on Page 4)

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO BANO

Which is presenting its annual concert in Convocation Hall at 8.15 tonight, under the patronage of Dr. and Mrs. Cody, and Lt. Col. J. Roy Cockburn, officer in command of the University of Toronto C.O.T.C. Captain John Slatter, V.D., will conduct the programme, which will feature the new marching arrangement of the "Blue and White" that is being played for the first time in public this evening.

VARSLITY BAND ANNUAL CONCERT

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF

PRESIDENT AND MRS. CODY

AND

LT. COL. J. ROY COCKBURN

Officer in Command of the University of Toronto C.O.T.C.

CONVOCATION HALL

Tuesday, February 20th, 1934, at 8.15 p.m.

The Varsity Band under the Direction of CAPTAIN JOHN SLATTER, V.D.

will render the following programme in Convocation Hall, Tuesday, February 20, assisted by Madelon Rowan, Soprano; Winnifred Cousins Smalley, accompanist, and Frank Locksley, soloist.

PROGRAMME

March Militaire—"Fantasie" - - - - -	Bothamly
Concert Overture—"Poet and Peasant" - - - - -	Suppe
March—"Light of Foot" - - - - -
Soprano Solo—a. "Plaisir D'Amour" - - - - -	P. G. Macini
b. "The Silver Ring" - - - - -	Chaminadi
MADOLON ROWAN
Characteristic moreau "Patrol of the Gnomes" - - - - -	Ellenberg
March—"The Thunderer" - - - - -	Sousa
Trombone Quintet—a. "Drink to me only with thine eyes" Arrgd. Captain J. Slatter
b. "In cellar cool" - - - - -	Arrgd. Captain J. Slatter
Soloists—PERCY, LEE, GARRETT, MORRISON, BOTHWELL
Descriptive piece—"On the road to Moscow" - - - - -	Loets
(Across the snow with sleigh bells ringing)
Cornet Solo—"Le Reve D'Amour" (The Dream of Love) - - - - -	H. Millers
Solo by FRANK LOCKSLEY
Popular March—"Marching along together" - - - - -
Soprano solo—a. "I love you truly" - - - - -	Carrie Jacobs Bond
b. "And Love was Born" - - - - -	Jerome Kern from "Music in the Air" - - - - -
MADOLON ROWAN
Grand Operatic Selection—"The Chocolate Soldier" - - - - -	Strauss
Humorous interlude—"The Whistler and his dog" - - - - -	Prior
Alma Mater March—"The Blue and White" - - - - -	Captain John Slatter
(Incorporating by kind permission the "Blue and White" (Clayton E. Bush) and dedicated to the University of Toronto.)
GOD SAVE THE KING

Reportress Sees Glamour in News Professors Have Opposite Views

By Harriet Kamman

Dear Sophronia:

You said in your last letter that you read about a very funny hockey game in The Varsity, well darling, anyone can read the funny reports in The Varsity, but you ought to write them. I mean I do. At least I am a cub reporter, and it is really glamorous. Everybody has numbers, and mine is 30, and I have to put it at the bottom of all my stories. I am just waiting for the day when I can sign mine Number 11. But just now I am simply in a dither. You see, once I was accidentally funny in a story I wrote, and the feature editor—you know, the one who wears corsets, though you wouldn't think it to look at him, at least, I thought the bulges were his pens and handkerchiefs and things—well, he told me to write an amusing feature about interviewing the professors, so could you help me? I mean, please?

You are supposed to begin your story with a quotation, and I have spent simply hours looking through "40,000 quotations", for one about professors, but the pages from "Profanity" to "Sleep" were torn out, so I couldn't find anything except that a teacher needs to be a rara avis. I phoned a Latin professor to ask him what it meant, and he said "a funny duck, even as you I said", and hung up, but somehow that seems so disrespectful.

Well, anyhow, interviewing is really awful. Once I was helping a reporter who had to find out why it is "make money", (that's what the clipping said) and one man was sitting at his desk just buried in papers, and he told me to "Get the — out of here". And another time I interrupted a conference to ask a professor something about the Ancient Greeks, and he growled to me to "go and find someone more ancient than he was", but I didn't know where to go. Interviewing is so mortifying! How was I to know they served tea at 4 o'clock at Baldwin

(Continued on Page 4)

Pragagate Italian Culture Under Plan Revealed By Consul

Plans for the establishment here by the Italian government of an institution for the advancement of Italian culture are well under way to completion, according to information obtained by The Varsity from a reliable source. It is understood that the primary function of the organization will be to promote the study here of Italian Art, Literature and History, with politics, of course, strictly taboo.

The Italian government at present maintains such institutions in several European metropolises such as Athens, Berlin and Warsaw, at New York under the name of Casa Italiana and at San Francisco.

LEAGUE DEEMS BREAK-UP UNJUST

Meetings Held On Campus Are Immune from Police

NOT A RECOGNIZED BOOY

"The action of the Toronto police in suppressing our meeting Friday night was entirely contrary to all principles of British justice for which our ancestors have struggled for a thousand years," Mr. M. Wayman, president of the Student's League, stated last night in an interview with The Varsity concerning the breaking up of the League's meeting Friday night when Mr. A. E. Smith was the guest speaker.

"This is the first time that any meeting of students of the University has been interfered with by the police and we intend to send a deputation to the Police Commission in protest of this unfounded insinuation of the nature of the League," Mr. Wayman declared.

Mr. Wayman explained that the police had entered the building where they were holding their meeting and warned the proprietress that her license would be revoked if she did not dismiss the meeting. The owner became very much disturbed and readily com-

(Continued on Page 4)

HON. R. B. BENNETT GUEST AT DEBATE

Bell and Marshall to Lead Conservatives and Liberals Respectively

C.C.F. PLAN ATTACK

The presence of the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett at the Hart House debate on Wednesday night has aroused a great deal of interest in the various campus political clubs. Messrs. Bell and Marshall, leaders of the Conservative and Liberal forces respectively, will lead the attack with their cohorts supporting them in five minute speeches. Unfortunately all who wish to speak will not have the opportunity owing to the limited time but as many as possible will be given the chance. Those undergraduates who are planning to attend the debate are advised to be on hand early in order to get a seat. Registration or membership cards will be presented at the door.

The subject is one that is of particular interest at the present time and is the Prime Minister's favourite. However, the C.C.F. and Liberal objections will be voiced with vigour. This will be the first time that the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett has faced the criticism of an undergraduate body and the local politicians are not going to pull their punches.

(Continued on Page 4)

C.C.F. LEADERSHIP THOUGHT SUITABLE FOR GOVERNMENT

Negative Side Carries Day in Victoria Debating Parliament

BASIS OF LIFE TO CHANGE

Capitalism Has Developed to Utmost and Must Soon Go

"Would any sane person have an operation for appendicitis, tonsils, gallstones and tuberculosis of the knee at once?" was the amazing question put by Marion Rickard, first speaker on the affirmative side in the Vic Debating Parliament. Miss Rickard compared the C.C.F. to the sweeping knife of the surgeon trying to cure the many ills of Canada. "Resolved that in the opinion of the House, government by the C.C.F. would not be in the best interests of Canada", was the resolution of the evening. Jim Holden, leader of the opposition, drew his conclusions from philosophy. He traced Marxian Communism through the varied phases of its development down to its present application to Russia. "The C.C.F.," he stated, "is a thoroughly democratic organization. It proposes needed changes through existing political machinery. This organization is not radical but thoroughly democratic."

The second speaker of the affirmative made the second astounding statement of the evening. "The C.C.F. is a corpse".

In speaking of the functions of parties, Miss Ross of the negative averred that the C.C.F. educates the country in the spiritual and intellectual.

(Continued on Page 4)

HITLER'S DEMAND MERELY FOR PEACE

Claims that Jewish Control of World Press Explains Opposition

LEAGUE OF NATIONS SCORED

This is the fifth and last instalment of a letter from a German Nazi to a student in Graduate Studies at the University of Toronto.

If anyone sincerely wishes to help Germany he cannot hope for more than that Hitler will live long enough to fulfil his mission; enormous tasks are still awaiting accomplishment against the open and secret attacks of Jews and other enemies of Hitler's programme.

The misunderstanding of present conditions in Germany is mostly due to the fact that the world press is far too much under Jewish influence and leadership; they seek the threat to their financial and political power, once the eyes of the white (sic) people are opened.

If the leading statesmen of countries populated by people of white race, and enjoying the benefits of their civilization and culture, were not just as shortsighted as they were before the outbreak of the war, they would not allow the tragedy of Geneva in the Assembly of the "League of Nations". For fifteen years they have pretended to work for the pacification of the world, but could not come to a decision as to what are weapons of attack and what of defence. It reminds one of medieval times, when high officials and statesmen occupied themselves considering the question of whether the Duke of So-and-So was of higher rank than the Duke of Such-and-Such, and had the privilege of sitting on the right hand of the king.

(Continued on Page 4)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper
Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '34
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '35; News: K. E. Prentice, '35,
Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crocker, '39.
Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Pat Palmer Assistant—Mabel Gorham

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20th, 1934

HART HOUSE COMMITTEES

Once again the time approaches when the amateur politicians of the university may practise the virtues of democracy and exercise their franchise to elect new members for the Hart House Committees. Soon the building which is famed as the finest piece of Gothic on the continent will be turned into a bedlam. The apparently serious, and sensible undergraduate turns collegiate, and endeavours by the aid of noise, gum, or peanuts, to sway the emotions of the electorate so that he may be elected to some committee, on which he will do little or nothing all year except sit at the High Table. If we may judge by recent elections the person with the most ballyhoo, and whose supporters shout most vociferously, is usually elected, irrespective of merit—and this by an educated electorate! How much can we expect from the unenlightened people outside? We suppose that candidates must be very thankful that the electors have no babies to be kissed. With this exception undergraduates go through the usual actions of a candidate in a political election, and are elected on grounds as far removed from competency for the job as is any member of parliament. We do not suggest that able and efficient men are not to be found among Hart House Committee men. This would be ridiculous, but we do suggest that better committees would be the result of a more dignified and rational system of voting.

We don't suggest that men should not play the fool sometimes, but why on earth if they value Hart House and all that it stands for, should they want to behave like high school personality boys, or become rah-rah boys in the worst film manner, when the serious business of electing committees to run the House is at hand? A habit has grown up of buying votes by giving out stupid articles to undergraduates, which is fast becoming a tradition, a tradition that has little to commend it, and which should and must be broken if this university is to be considered worthy of the high name which it bears.

The stupidity and eccentricity of the thing may appeal to freshmen, although they usually have better taste, but to men in senior years it is just "a racket" and as such degrading to Hart House Committee men. There is no reason why this next Hart House election should be carried on in the same banal manner as last year; no reason why the House Committee should not make a rigid ruling forbidding all this nonsense and tomfoolery; no reason why the undergraduates of this university should not support such an action wholeheartedly if they have the welfare of Hart House and this university at heart.

Let each college vote for the candidate it thinks will be a worthy addition to the committee, so that while it is impossible to prevent a certain amount of lobbying, only men who are well-known in the university through their activities in other fields, or through their organizing capacities will be elected to these committees, and the loud mouthed "chisellers" and self-advertising departments may be relegated to the limbo where they belong.

COMMERCE CLUB PRODUCES JOURNAL

Discussion in Second Issue Indicates Vigour of Club

The second number of the Commerce Journal, published by the University Commerce Club, appeared last week. The Journal consists of about twenty-four pages of discussion concerning economic problems. It is a certain indication of the vigour and vitality of the club; such a publication would do credit to any organization.

The articles are all written by experts in their respective fields. It is unusual to find the work of so many learned economists between two covers and for so reasonable a price. Moreover the subjects all are concerned with present-day Canada, and are of interest to every person who has an interest in Canadian economic problems.

There is an exposition of the government policy towards combating the depression written by Professor Gilbert Jackson, in which he expresses the fear that "Canadian historians, in future, may not have much to say, for the qualities of leadership that we have manifested during these hard times."

Dr. H. A. Innis, another authority on Canadian affairs, has written concerning economic recovery in Canada. Other articles deal with wheat, tariffs, international trading policies and contain the most recent data concerning our economic difficulties.

Art, Music and Drama

Madison Theatre

The "Road to Life", the Russian picture at the Madison this week, is undoubtedly one of the very finest pictures ever produced. The picture not only gives a glimpse of Soviet Russia but is a dramatic story which does not rely on romantic fabrication. The story is the history of Russia's successful experiment in reducing juvenile delinquency. The notorious "wild boys" ran through the streets of pre-revolutionary Russia and carried on a racket of petty thieving. When the Soviet Union took on the job of organizing its vast population, mostly illiterates, one of its most difficult tasks was the reclaiming of these "wild boys".

"The Road to Life" is a dramatic history of this social work. The orphans who had been uncontrollable in orphan homes and who escaped the vigilance of the police, were taken to "collectives", and taught to work co-operatively. The leader of the "collective" boy settlements, Sergeyev, portrays a man of great breadth of character and a personality which is so strong that it is able to win the respect of all the "hoodlums" which he has in charge.

There is not enough space to say all that should be said about so great a picture. No one with any interest in cultural and social development can afford to miss the "Road to Life"; it is probably to be the greatest and most beautiful presentation to be seen in Toronto this year.

M.B.L.

FOOTLIGHT PARADE MARTIN B. LOEB O O O O O O O O

Here goes for a new column! A link perhaps between the great dramatic world and our own university theatrical activities! News in brief from the world of "make believe"; but enough of introduction, let's get on.

SHEA'S THEATRE

This week at Shea's Toronto gets a rare opportunity to be able to talk about the stage show and then let it go at that. For no less personages than the favoured pair of America's entertainers, Amos 'n' Andy, make personal appearances 3 times a day and show their usually unseen audience what might go on in a broadcasting studio. Further eulogy of these talented "black-face" comedians is unnecessary. The rest of the vaudeville bill is not so bad, offering song and dance acts, chorus dancing and a comedy skit.

The picture is passable, "Orient Express", is developed on the same lines as "Rome Express" and is a dramatic tale of seven characters aboard the speeding train bound from Ostend to Constantinople.

LOEW'S

Something new in triangles with only two sides, and a lot of clever trickometry, which finally turns the darn thing into a couple of parallel lines is the brief account of "Moulin Rouge" at Loew's this week. Connie Bennett plays the part of a fascinating wife who manages to have her husband fall in love with her by disguising herself as the leading lady in her husband's show. Complications set in when the hubby (Francis Tone) goes farther than she expects. The whole story is carried out in a humorous vein amid velvet settings and Connie's costumes my dear. Shots from hubby's show are worked in with the Boswell sisters appearing along with a lot of other sisters. For extra value for your money there are two short comedies, a cartoon comedy and a news reel. Colonel Stoopnagle and Budd are good in one of the shorts if you are a fan of theirs.

TIVOLI

We again get the opportunity (those that want it) of seeing Eddie Cantor ogle in the amazing spectacle "Roman Scandals". The picture has an admirable supporting cast in Ruth Etting, Gloria Stuart and David Manners, to say nothing of the galaxy of pretty women. There are plenty of funny situations and good wise-cracks and a couple of really snappy song-hits. Eddie Cantor and his pictures are definitely out-shining his radio work in their popular appeal and the "vox populi" is not always as dumb as we might sometimes be forced to maintain.

IMPERIAL

Six of a Kind—An unusual handful—Charley Ruggles as usual in his stock role of the worried husband explaining his way through matrimony—you may be surprised to discover that nine reels of Burns and Allen is about seven too many—W. C. Fields taking six minutes to tell why he is called "Honest John", in the intervals of fooling a billiard-shot—the plot is, as usual, slipped in at the last minute through an oversight—like a good ragout, reminiscent of hash but with a much better flavour.

CHAMPUS CAT

Following the example of the double barrelled column to our left of yesterday, we believe we should horn into this Band business, do a little blowing on our own account, and see if we can drum up a little excitement for the Blue and White thumpers when they huddle in Convocation Hall tonight and pollute the air with their own conceptions of what's music.

C-C

These boys seem to think that the depression is hardly over, for they certainly know how to pizzolo price for their tickets. If your boy friend won't take you we suggest that euphonium and if he can baritone or two from those five trombones, he'll probably be glad to try this latest anaesthetic.

C-C

And if you think five trombones will sound violin Convocation Hall, come along and you will alto your theory. We don't want to harp on this theme too long, however, particularly as it would be wrong to give the Toronto Symphony concert this evening unfair competition.

Kugur.

As this issue of the Cat is to be devoted to the Arts and Letters, we append the following gem from our favourite poetess.

C-C

There was an old sculptor called Phidias
Whose knowledge of art was insidious.
He carved Aphrodite
Without any nightie,
And startled the purely fastidious.
MacVic.

Correspondence

WANT A COMMON ROOM

The Editor, The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

On Tuesday of this week the students of Victoria College are meeting to decide if a common room for men is to be furnished in the college.

All men students of the college feel keenly the lack of a room such as U.C. and Trinity provide. They also feel that this should be paid for out of the rather large fees ($725 per man) collected from men students who attend Victoria.

The common room in the basement of the college is a disgrace in its present condition. The students can remedy this condition by supporting the motion on Tuesday.

J. R. Okell,
3TS Victoria.

Stage show—indifferently uninteresting—Jack Arthur yields to anonymous request with the movie-classic, In a Persian Market, complete with slightly decorative slave-girls—also a curtailed attack on Ravel's Bolero with Spanish (?) dancing and orchestration. Ravel never contemplated—scarcely an improvement.

News—excellent scenes of Paris riots. Also another session of contract in which Expert Ely demonstrates that racketeering has nothing on the Culbertson system.

An adequate programme.

PICOBAC IS A REAL SMOKE!

"My idea of a real smoke is a pipe and Picobac tobacco. I can smoke it all day—without burning my tongue... without making my mouth sore... without spoiling my appetite for meals."

"Picobac is just that kind of a smoke!"

"And, gentlemen, the Picobac flavour is SOMETHING—I'm telling you. Something different... sweeter... milder—just COO-ee!"

"I'm proud to say I'm a Picobac man."

and I'm telling you now, gentlemen, Picobac is a real SMOKE, and the longer you wait to try it, the longer you lose out. "Grown from selected seed in sunny southern Ontario—cultivated... cured... matured... and manufactured according to the latest up-to-date ideas, Picobac is the pick of Canada's Burley crop and a mild... cool... sweet smoke. "And don't forget, when you buy Picobac you get more tobacco for your money. It's good for making cigarettes, too."

HANDY POCKET TIN 10¢... ALSO IN ½-POUND HUMIDOR TINS

"IT DOES TASTE GOOD IN A PIPE!"

Picobac

GROWN IN SUNNY, SOUTHERN ONTARIO

Study the Art of Living

Toronto is a part of the great world of travel and society, in the Royal York Hotel. Come here to mingle with the city's notables and their most interesting guests, and to add your share to the atmosphere of gay sophistication.

Afternoon Tea Musical—4.30 to 6 p.m.
Rex Battle's Concert Orchestra.
In the Palm Room off the Main Lobby.

Supper Dance—Introducing a new star, Billy Bissett, with his Royal Yorkers. 9 to 1.30 a.m., nightly (except Sunday).

Special Rates for College Parties
Phone Wa. 2511

THE ROYAL YORK

A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL

TED ROBINS' Dance Orchestra

TEN PIECES—OPEN FOR ENGAGEMENTS

Both Canadian and United States experience

Best of References - - - Terms Reasonable

Auditions on request

Elgin 0949

Night: Junction 2865

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance.

They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you. Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College St.
KI. 0991

571 Yonge St.
KI. 3270

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.

Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

BLUES BEAT YOLLES; TRINITY TAKES WATERPOLO TITLE

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By M. A. F.

The Varsity seniors were all set to meet McMaster last night at 7.15 in the Big Gym at Hart House. But they were foiled for McMaster just did not show up. By 7.45 the seniors were desperate and phoned Hamilton only to learn that their opponents were at that very moment casually practicing at the Westdale Collegiate gym some fifty miles from Toronto. So that was that! Of course it is just possible that McMaster sent a telegram or letter of explanation which went astray. As things now stand, however, they point to a decided lack of consideration and management on the part of the Hamilton squad.

Nothing daunted, Varsity put on the scheduled exhibition game, mustering an opposing team from the three senior subs plus Betty Shanahan, Edith Ardagh, and Marjory Wallace Elwood. The "Scrubs" showed up splendidly and gave the senior some real opposition, mounting up a score of 24 to the seniors' 48. Bea Longley played her usual steady game and Kay Brown once again showed marked promise, although she was rather off her shot. Marg Rose and Grace McClintock starred for the second team.

The interfaculty hockey series was supposed to have been completed last week but odd and devious things made this impossible. However, there are only three preliminary games to be run off, so that by next week the finals will be under way. At a hockey meeting today definite plans will be drawn up for the playoffs. One game will not decide the championship this year. In fact if all goes well a decision will be based on the best two out of three games.

The Victoria first team has cinched the lead in Group One, having scored two wins over U.C. and two over U.C. Meds and U.C. are still to play a game from 6.7 on Wednesday night. In Group Two St. Hilda's has yet to meet Vic II and St. Mike's for the second time. St. Hilda's and Vic, as usual, are contesting the title and at present St. Hilda's has the edge. On Wednesday at 7 the playoff between these two aggregations takes place at the Little Vic rink. The St. Hilda's-St. Mike's game on Friday night, will be important in determining the former's final position.

The St. Hilda's swimming meet is to be held tonight at 7.30 in the U.T.S. pool. The results of this meet will serve as a basis for choosing the Blue and Grey team. Ruth Knowlton will be their big hope in the finals, and there is every indication that Vi Ord will go far towards taking her sister's place. The freshies have been displaying marked enthusiasm ever since Christmas and we are looking to them to do big things tonight. Come on Saints—turn out to support your year and your college.

The date of the interfaculty swimming meet has been changed to Wednesday, March 7. Bear this date in mind for it should be a big one in the women's sports schedule. Vic and U.C. have already had their meets and have selected their teams. By the end of the week all the faculties will have their teams lined up and ready for two weeks of hard practice before the meet.

With the intercollegiate basketball tournament coming along this week-end, plans are being made for supporters of the teams to travel to London. Miss Parkes is arranging the trip and any who are interested are urged to communicate with her.

OVERTIME RESULTS IN BASKETBALL WIN

OVERTIME RESULTS IN BASKETBALL WIN

League-Leading Yolles A.C. Quintet Are Defeated 44-43

By M. Glushin

After one of the most hectic and thrilling basketball displays ever seen on any court, Lew Hayman's fighting Varsity squad took a 44-43 overtime decision from the league-leading Yolles A.C. quintet in a Big Six encounter at Hart House last night. With Phil Gold spurring the team on in a last minute drive that tied the score at 41-41, after they had been trailing the whole game, Varsity finally emerged victorious in the overtime session, once again due to the inspiring play of Gold who ripped the twine on three successive foul shots after "Nig" Eisen, diminutive Yolles star, had put the Furniture team in the lead with a beautiful long shot!

Varsity's well-earned win was disputed, when a check-up of the score card after the game revealed the score at 43-43, but after a fierce dispute between managers, scorers and the referee, the Blue cagers were finally declared winners and were still clinging to a slim hope of getting into the playoffs. A first fight that involved Prince of Varsity along with Eisen and Sniderman of the Furniture squad enlivened proceedings in the first half, and saw the banishment from the game of the Varsity player and Sniderman, who had rushed to defend his half-pint team-mate at whom Prince had taken a lusty swing in return for a "shiner".

The game was wide open throughout, both teams throwing science to the winds, with the result that baskets followed one another in quick order. The Yolles squad took a 26-17 lead at the half-way mark due mostly to the accurate sniping of Eisen and Orrin Hanna. The Blues were only able to score three baskets from the court, but gave a brilliant foul shooting display that netted them eleven points out of their 14 charity throws.

Varsity came back strongly in the second canto with two hoops by Willis and Levy in the first ten seconds. Yolles countered with several quick "two pointers" but 4 Varsity baskets in succession brought the score up to 34-33 for Yolles with 5 minutes to go, and a minute later to 39-33 after some nice shooting by Sone. At this point Phil Gold, who had sprained his ankle in the Western game, was injected into the tilt to replace Young, banished through the "4 personal" rule. Mitchell made it 39-35 and two foul shots

"MO" MITCHELL

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

After last night's rumpus, row, riot, or what have you, in Hart House at the Big Six basketball game between Varsity and Yolles, it would seem as though a riot is becoming an annual fixture for the ex-Lizies and Varsity. Last year Allison and Shanahan were involved in a combat that led to a free-for-all with almost-serious results. Last night it was not quite so bad but it provided plenty of excitement while it lasted. The post-game argument gave Varsity the win by one point, 44-43. Glushin, The Varsity reporter, was the one mainly instrumental in the final decision. According to custom, in writing basketball games, the reporter kept a running account of the score and the players involved. When the score sheet was checked it read 43-41, but after an argument between score-keepers, managers, coaches, players, etc., Glushin's copy was taken as the correct report over the official score card. Apparently Eisen got away with murder all night and then Prince became fed up with him and poked him gently in retaliation. Referee Irwin expelled Prince and Sniderman of Yolles who rushed onto the floor to take part.

Trinity scored a decisive win yesterday afternoon in ousting Sr. School 3-1 for the interfaculty water polo title. McCatty never missed in the race to the ball and a smart break on the face-off which baffled the School swimmers twice for goals was the play that won the game for the Trinity team. A Red and Black swimmer was left unchecked on the other goal-making play and promptly rammed home the sphere. Some sensational stops were made by the Trinity net-minder without which School might have come out on top.

Tonight the Varsity hockey team dons its uniforms for the last time this season when they dress at the Maple Leaf Gardens to cross sticks with the Torontos. The defeat of the Port Colborne Sailors on Saturday night would have been a fitting climax to their season's performances. On the other hand the boys can be counted on to put up a battle with the Torontos even if they are beaten without George Hendry, who will be absent due to the death of his brother.

Don't forget to support the Varsity Band tonight.

added another couple. Sone's tally brought it up to 41-37 with about a minute to go, but two accurate set-shots by Gold found the teams deadlocked at the full-time whistle, 41 each.

The overtime was one mad scramble after the ball, with Eisen sinking a long shot to open the scoring after Varsity had missed on a couple of heart-breakers. Gold was given two fouls and proceeded to tie the score up, also scoring the winning point in similar fashion. Varsity managed to keep the Yolles squad off the score sheet for the rest of the nerve-racking time of play by hanging on to the ball.

From a Varsity standpoint, Phil Gold's eagle-eye shooting in the dying moments and in the overtime rates him as the outstanding player of the game. The rest of the Blue team gave fighting displays and showed a never-say-die spirit that was a treat to watch. For Yolles, Eisen, Hanna and Sone were brilliant at times with Shanahan and Sniderman also giving noteworthy exhibitions.

Varsity — Levy 6, Bodrug 8, Mitchell 12, Willis 4, Young 4, Sniderman, Gold 8, Prince 2.

Yolles A.C. — Sniderman 4, Eisen 14, Hanna 11, Shanahan 5, Shapero, Sibulash, Sone 9.

Referee—L. Irwin.

Sport Notices

U.C. Hockey—
Practice for teams Wed. 12.30-1.30. Arena.

Baseball Umpires—
Umpires for this week are: Tuesday, Shulman and Burt-Gerrans; Wednesday, Dyke and Anten; Thursday, Carveth and Cragg; Friday, Gould and Wong.

Jr. School Softball—
Game today with Jr. Meds at 4 sharp.

Indoor Track—
The following events will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 20th, starting at 5 o'clock sharp: Shot put, running high jump, 100 yds., and mile relay.

Sr. Vic Basketball—
Practice Tuesday, 3-4, Hart House.

Rugby Managers—
Applications for the position of manager of the intermediate or senior rugby teams must be in the Athletic Office not later than Wednesday, February 21st.

TRINITY WINS 3-1 IN WATER POLO

Sensational Win Over Senior School by Superior Speed

MCCATTY AGAIN SUPERIOR

Trinity's speedy band of water polo-ists made history last night when they defeated Sr. School 3-1 in the final game of the interfaculty series to give the Red and Black team possession of the Eckardt Cup for the first time in history.

Superior speed was the chief reason for the success of the new champions, who until this season had failed to get beyond the group finals. Another important factor in the victory of the Trinity squad was the presence of the two McCatty brothers. Cresy McCatty, as rover, was the speediest man in the tank and gave Trinity an edge in the face-offs, not one of which went to the Engineers. Vince, who performs on the intercollegiate team, handled the coaching duties, and certainly produced results.

The game opened as a close checking affair which gave little opportunity for open play. Vince McCatty opened the game in a brilliant manner from a Trinity standpoint when he netted the opener from almost the centre of the tank just after the face-off. Curly Stratton concluded the scoring of the first half to put Trinity two up when he broke away on left wing, swam half the length of the pool and flipped one by Brown in the School net.

With the advantage of the shallow end School forced the play in the last session, testing Martin with some hard shots. However, after a brief rally in the first few minutes School were again backed into their own end and a penalty to Don Trayner paved the way for Trinity's final tally, which Curly Stratton registered on a shot from the side. A change in the School forward line started a second rally which gave School their only goal, Webber collecting it on a solo rush.

Rugby Elections—
Nominations for the 1934 Rugby Executive must be in the Athletic Office not later than Thursday, February 22nd. The elections will be held on March 1st.

Insist on this watermark, visible in every full size sheet

Long hours of night study ahead of you?

Try EYESAVING BOND and avoid that "Tired Eye" feeling. Just try it. You will be surprised.

It has extra strength that resists tearing at the punching

For sale at your Book or Stationery Store

STERLING'S LUCKETT'S } Insist on this Trade Mark LINE } in all your Loose Leaf Books
Made in Canada } and Refills.

The Luckett Loose Leaf, Limited - Toronto

YOU CAN'T AFFORD to miss a good thing like this

The Annual Concert of The Varsity Band
at
Convocation Hall, To-night, Feb. 20th 8.15 p.m.

assisted by the following guest artists

MADELON ROWAN
WINNIFRED COUSINS SMALEY
FRANK LOCKSLEY

Hear your Blue and White musicians at their best

Novelty Numbers

Captain John Slatter, V.D., Directing

TICKETS 15 CENTS

On Sale at S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Room 82, University College, and your faculty bandsmen.

and at door Convocation Hall, Tuesday Night

Watch Tuesday's "Varsity" for Complete Programme

SR. U.C. WIN BASKETBALL TILT FROM TRINITY 32-23

REVISED INTERFACULTY HOCKEY SCHEDULE

By consistently sticking to combination play, Sr. U.C. won an interfaculty basketball tilt from Trinity 32-23 in Hart House last night. Trinity gathered most of their points on long shots, their combination being weak at times.

U.C. started off in the first half by penning Trinity in their own end of the floor and with the period half gone were leading comfortably at 12-3. Trinity came back strongly in the latter part of the period and due to Eaton's steady play and the almost uncanny accuracy of A'Court's shooting the half ended 12-9 for U.C.

U.C. started the second half with too much of a bang and became slightly disorganized, with the result that Trinity drew even at 14-14. Forsythe and Scott didn't like the look of things so they each ran in three baskets to help things along during which time the U.C. combination began to click and everything was rosy. Baskets by Dadson and Mutteroff were useful and

It has been found necessary to draw up a different schedule for this week's interfaculty hockey games. All managers are advised to observe carefully the changes made and to pay particular attention to time of games.

Tuesday at Stadium—
5 p.m.—Victoria vs Jr. S.P.S.
Wednesday at Arena—
4 p.m.—Knox vs Emmanuel.
5 p.m.—Sr. Meds vs Sr. S.P.S.
Thursday at Arena—
4 p.m.—Jr. Meds vs Victoria.
5 p.m.—O.C.E. vs Forestry.
Thursday at Stadium—
4 p.m.—Trinity vs Wycliffe.
5 p.m.—Jr. U.C. vs Jr. S.P.S.
Friday at Arena—
5 p.m.—Sr. S.P.S. vs Dents.
5 p.m.—Sr. Meds vs Sr. U.C.

the game ended with U.C. on top at 32-23.

Forsythe, Scott, Bell and Hennessey were the U.C. highlights, while Grant, A'Court and Eaton were outstanding for Trinity.

Sr. U.C. — Hennessey 6, Scott 6, Laing 4, Bell 6, Forsythe 6, Himel, McKigan, Dadson 2, Espie, Mutteroff 2.

Trinity — Grant 4, A'Court 12, Honeyford, Whitbread 3, Rogers 4, Eaton, Lossing, Wright, Noble.

(Continued on Page 4)

BUY THE "UNDERGRADUATE" MAGAZINE, FEB. 22

Coming Events

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20

- 5-6 p.m.—Victoria College vocational guidance groups. Room 14, Mr. K. S. Dinsmore, C.A., will speak on Accountancy and Room 18, Dr. K. S. Bernhardt and Mr. J. W. Ansley on Post Graduate Work and Teaching.
- 7.30 p.m.—Foresters' Club will hold a smoker in the east common room of Hart House. Nominations for Hart House committees and for executive positions on the Foresters' Club will be received. Smokes provided.
- 5 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., Wymilwood. Speaker, Miss M. Darrick.
- 5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club, Hart House Music Room.
- 5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in S.C.M. Library, of Hart House.
- 8 p.m.—English and History Club, St. Joseph's College.
- 8.15 p.m.—Annual concert of the Varsity band, Convocation Hall.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21

- 4.15—Players' Guild present Euripides' "Medea" under direction of Miss Dorothy Walker.
- 1.20.2 p.m.—Open meeting of the Commerce Club in the Debates Room of Hart House. Mr. H. S. Ross, K.C., D.C.L., of Montreal, will speak on "The Road to Permanent Peace and Prosperity for All", stressing the necessity of a universal monetary system and suggesting a medium of exchange for it.
- 8 p.m.—Hart House debate attended by the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett. Members of Hart House only.
- 1 p.m.—Macdonald-Cartier Club luncheon. Speaker, Right Hon. R. B. Bennett.
- 8 p.m.—Vic Classical Club will meet at 92 Wychwood Park. Speaker, Prof. E. T. Owen.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22

- 5 p.m.—Special session of U.C. Parliamentary Club in junior common room.
- 7 p.m.—Dinner, Great Hall, Hart House.
- 9 p.m.—Regular meeting of U.C. Lit. Society, junior common room.
- 7.30 p.m.—S.P.S. Debating Club in Debates Room, Hart House. The first of the inter-year debates.
- Sale of the Undergraduate Magazine, U.C. rotunda and elsewhere.
- 5 p.m.—U.C. Parliamentary Club.
- 7 p.m.—Anniversary dinner, Great Hall.
- 9 p.m.—Lit meeting, junior common room.

Celebration of the eightieth anniversary of the founding of the U.C. Lit. Parliamentary Club, banquet, Lit. meeting.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23

- 9.30.2.30—Victoria College elections in Alumni Hall.
- 9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Standing Committees open. These nominations close Wednesday, 28th February at 6 p.m.
- 7.30.10.30—Biological Club will hold its Quadrennial Conversation in the Botany and Biology Bldgs.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24

- 9-12 a.m.—Biological Club will hold its Quadrennial Conversation in the Botany and Biology Bldgs.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28

- 9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Debates Committee open. These nominations close Monday, 5th Mar. at 6 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7

Hart House Elections.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8

- Hart House Debates Committee Elections.

Classified Advertisements

ROOM TO RENT

A double bedroom, twin beds, suitable for two students, quiet home, warm, plenty of hot water, use of phone, $5.00 per week, 290 Avenue Road, M. 3317.

LOST

Fraternity pin set with pearls. Please notify Nora Loeb, LL. 7463.

STATE MEDICINE FUTURE PROSPECT

If Wanting Wealth Avoid Medicine Wisely Advises Doctor Couch

NO OUTLET FOR SURPLUS

"Right now is about as bad a time to enter medicine as any in the last 2000 years," according to Dr. J. H. Couch, staff surgeon of the Toronto General Hospital. Despite the present dismal prospect he holds out rosy hopes for the future of the profession. The doctor has a position of respect in the community and enjoys independence from outside control over his work. In addition his position is such that he can afford to be wholly honest, which statement cannot be made in reference to many other offices.

"If you want to become wealthy don't go into medicine," if you would follow Dr. Couch's advice. The days when doctors could command extravagant fees has passed. At that time there were only a few good surgeons, now the average graduate doctor has the same training as the high-salaried man of some years past. At the same time a doctor has always made at least a decent living.

State medicine is a certainty of the not so far distant future, according to the doctor. At present many doctors are being employed by contractors and insurance companies at a fixed salary, which indicates a gradual change in the direction of state medicine.

Another fact which must receive attention is that Ontario universities annually graduate five to six hundred doctors, while the province can only absorb three hundred. In previous years the remaining half of these men have, to a large extent, found positions in the United States. This opening has been blocked by a law preventing Canadian doctors from either practising or working in laboratories or hospitals there. The University of Toronto as a provincial government university cannot refuse applicants for entrance who meet the requirements set down in the calendar. Thus the immense expenditure necessary to educate three hundred men for whom no positions are available must go on unchecked. Last year applications from American students to the number of four hundred were refused. It has been estimated that it costs $18,000 to educate a man in medicine, without allowance for the salary which he might have received in the interim.

Hart House Elections

Nominations for the standing committees of Hart House—the House, Hall, Library, Music and Sketch Committees—together with the Camera and Squash Raquets Committees, open this Friday, 23rd February at 9 a.m. All nominations must be handed in at the Warden's office by Wednesday, 28th February at 6 p.m. and no withdrawals will be permitted after 6 p.m. on Thursday, 1st March. Nomination forms which must be complete with the name, address and signature of the nominee, as well as the mover and seconder, can now be obtained at the Warden's office.

Nominations for the Camera and Squash Raquets Committees will be received within the same period as that for the other committees. The Camera Committee elections will be held on the same day as the general elections, Wednesday, 7th March, in the upper room of the camera quarters. The Squash Raquets Committee elections will take place Thursday, 8th March.

The elections will be held on the same system as last year. With a view to giving the smaller faculties and colleges a chance of representation on the committees the candidate from each faculty or college receiving the highest number of votes (provided this number is three hundred or more) is declared elected. However, this rule does not apply in the case of candidates from any faculty or college which is already represented on the committee by either or both of the two men re-elected each year from and by the old committee.

The election of the Debates Committee will take place at the last debate of the session on Thursday, 8th March.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 4 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

VICTORIA MEN!!

Come out to the V.C.U. meeting tonight at 5 p.m. to support the motion for furnishing a men's common room in Victoria College.

U.B.C. ALUMNI CLUB

A luncheon will be held for Prof. G. E. Sedgewick in the Diet Kitchen on Wed. Feb. 21st at 1 p.m.

U.B.C. ALUMNI CLUB

A dance will be held on Saturday night at 9 p.m. at "Shakespeare Land", 6 Wellington St. East.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE MEN

Will the following please be sure to report their returns at the Lit. offices at 1 p.m. today: Forsyth, Westaway, Morlock, Scott, Bell, Bridle, Hermant, Patrick, S. Smith, Skilling, Scully, Hass, Fullerton, Corrigan, Ball, Rae, A. C. Smith, Draper, Lanning, Kirkpatrick, Woods, Secombe.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Meeting today at 5 p.m. in the Music Room. Final rehearsal, Thursday.

T.I.C.C.U.

Miss M. Darrick, of China, will be the guest speaker at an open meeting in Wymilwood at 5 this afternoon.

U.C. MEN

Those U.C. men who did not obtain their tickets for the Octogenarian dinner in the Great Hall of Hart House on Thursday may do so on Wednesday and Thursday in the rotunda between 12 and 2 p.m.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Wednesday is the last day for the February Spoon Shoot. This match must be shot in order to qualify for the Henderson Pin.

TRINITY SCIENCE CLUB

Tonight, Tuesday, Feb. 20, the T.C. S.C. will hold its annual "Cannon Rollo Night" in the Dean's Residence. Prof. A. F. Coventry will speak on "Biological Philosophy".

ALEXANDER LECTURES

The Alexander Lectures will be held every afternoon this week in Hart House Theatre at 5 p.m. Professor G. G. Sedgewick of the University of British Columbia will be the speaker. The topics are: Tuesday, Feb. 20—The History and the Shapes of Irony; Wednesday, Feb. 21—Irony in Drama; Thursday, Feb. 22—Irony as Dramatic Emphasis; Friday, Feb. 23—Irony as Dramatic Preparation.

VIC ELECTIONS

The first election day is Friday, Feb. 23. Nominations for associate president of the V.C.U., the associate presidents of federated mixed societies and the presidents of women's federated societies close today. The chief returning officer will be in the college hall from 4 to 5 p.m. today to receive nominations.

Biology Club Conversazione

It has been the custom of the Biological Club to arrange every four years a Conversazione (a meeting of the people for scientific discussion) in which the various branches of this science (botany, zoology and biochemistry, etc.), exhibit for your personal experiments and collections of scientific works. Members of the staff will be present to discuss and explain any part of the exhibit that interests you, and we feel sure that those who are interested in science will derive a great deal of benefit from this display. For those who are pursuing studies in the non-science courses we extend a special invitation.

So on Feb. 23 from 7.30 to 10.30 p.m. and Feb. 24 from 9 to 12 a.m. the botany and biology buildings will be open to the public.

The Biological Club sincerely hopes that you and your friends may find time to drop in and see this scientific exhibit, especially those who are not

ENGLISH AND HISTORY CLUB

The meeting to discuss the English and History course takes place tonight at 8 p.m. at St. Joseph's College. Members of the staff and undergraduates in the English and History course are invited to attend.

MACDONALD-CARTIER CLUB

Tickets to the Macdonald-Cartier Club luncheon on Wednesday, February 21st, at which Prime Minister Bennett will speak, will be sold in the entrance hall of Hart House today between the hours of 12-1.30. All members must purchase tickets at this time. Nobody will be admitted without a ticket.

S.P.S. DEBATING CLUB

The S.P.S. Debating Club will hold the first debate in the inter-year series on Thursday at 7.30 p.m. in Hart House. Fourth year and first make the first bid for the Sedgewick Shield, which goes to the winner in the series.

3T4 VICTORIA

Final moving pictures of the year will be taken today at 1.30. Meet in the college hall. Tell your class-mates and let's have everyone on hand, and on time. The pictures are to be shown at the Senior Reception.

FRENCH CLUBS

The joint meeting of the French Clubs of the University announced for Feb. 20 has been postponed. The date will be announced shortly.

LIFE SAVING CLASSES

Members of the Life Saving classes are reminded of the lecture on "Resuscitation" to be given by Dr. G. D. Porter in the Debates Room tomorrow (Wednesday) at 5 p.m. The attendance will be taken to apply on Physical Training credits.

VIC VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

The attention of male undergraduates is drawn to the 2 groups to be held today at 5 p.m. In Room 14, Mr. K. S. Dinsmore, C.A., will speak on Accountancy, and in Room 18, Dr. K. S. Bernhardt and Mr. J. W. Ansley will speak on Post Graduate Work and Teaching, respectively. These groups have proven of great value in the past and all those interested are urged to attend.

OPEN MEETING OF V.C.U.

Today at 5 p.m. in Alumni Hall there will be an open meeting of the Victoria College Union to consider the following proposed motion, "That the Victoria College Union take immediate action concerning the redecoration and furnishing of the men's common room in Victoria College."

HART HOUSE DEBATE

Men who are planning to attend the Bennett debate in Hart House on Wednesday at 8 p.m. are reminded that they must have their registration or membership cards with them. They are also reminded to be early.

President and Mrs. Cody Patronize Band Concert

Convocation Hall will resound with the martial strains of the Varsity Band playing at the annual concert tonight. Under the direction of Captain John Slater, V.D., the band will render a varied programme of marches and descriptive pieces leading up to a grand finale with the new alma mater march, "The Blue and White".

The programme will be interspersed with a cornet solo played by Frank Locksley and two groups of soprano solos sung by Madelon Rowan, assisted by Winnifred Cousins Smalley. All of these artists are well known for their radio work.

The concert will be under the patronage of Doctor and Mrs. Cody and Lieutenant Colonel Cockburn, officer in command of the University C.O.T.C.

connected with the department of science, in order that you may acquaint yourself with the activities of the University of Toronto along this line.

STUDENTS PETITION UNION

(Continued from Page 1)

upon the income endowment of about $3,000,000, and approximately half the tuition fees collected from the college, the library can only be constructed when sufficient money is donated for the purpose from external sources.

Marshall Lavery, one of the men signing the order for the meeting this afternoon, was of the opinion that the Union has sufficient money for all necessary changes, if the present budget for this year were revised.

HON R. B. BENNETT GUEST AT DEBATE

(Continued from Page 1)

The subject is "That in the opinion of this House it is in the best interests of Canada to retain her present preferred position in Empire markets." The Prime Minister will close the debate with a 45 minute speech.

The debate will commence at 8 p.m. sharp and the House will rise at 10.30.

C.C.F. LEADERSHIP THOUGHT SUITABLE

(Continued from Page 1)

tual development which it needs. Speakers from the floor presented some refreshing ideas. "We are entering a new Middle Age," said Mr. Avison cheerfully. The guest speaker of the evening, Mr. McInnis of Vancouver, presented some facts on the C.C.F. programme. "Capitalism has been developing for 150 years. There is no further room for development. We will have to break the shell of capitalism and begin life on a new basis. The farmer is exploited through the world market, the labourer in the factory. He is a cheaper slave for the employer than the city worker. It is because of this that the farmer and labourer have been able to come together and form the C.C.F."

HITLER'S DEMAND MERELY FOR PEACE

(Continued from Page 1)

Meanwhile in Russia millions of people have been starving, famine raging in the country formerly abundant with grain and agricultural products, but ruined by a revolution which was chiefly the work of Jews. And the Far East is afire. In Asia the yellow races, especially the Japanese, are rubbing their hands with satisfaction at the behaviour of the whites, who do not see the threat to the future of the white race, of European and American civilization.

It is in fact, a very dark outlook, unless common sense will make responsible men take the reins into their hands before it is too late.

Hitler, for his part, asks no more than to be left in peace in his protection of our country, and to have freedom to prove to the world that the German Revolution is not to be compared with the Russian. Instead of tearing down, he wishes to build up by steady and gradual development, the commercial and spiritual conditions of manhood.

POLICE INTERFERENCE CONSIDERED UNJUST

(Continued from Page 1)

"We are not a recognized body on the campus," Mr. Wayman continued, "and although we applied to Hart House for permission to hold our meeting there, the request was not granted because the Caput did not approve of our guest speaker. If the meeting had been held on the campus, the Toronto police would not have been able to interfere. We intend to hold a membership meeting on Friday to organize our further course of action."

The Student League members dispersed after police intrusion last Friday night and gathered again in another meeting place where they were addressed by Mr. A. E. Smith on the nature of Section 98 of the Criminal Code and the treatment of Tim Buck in Kingston Penitentiary.

TRINITY DOWNS ENGINEERS 3-1 IN WATER POLO

(Continued from Page 3)

School — Brown, Charters, Woods, Bruce, Bell, Hooper, Hawk, Webber, Frayer.

Trinity — Martin, Cox, Reed, E. Frayer, Stratton, B. Frayer, Burrows, C. McCarty.

Referee—A. Winterburn.

This joyous young couple, quite snappy, Have discovered a way to be happy Just to ask for a smoke They consider a joke— You must try "BRITISH CONSOLS," Old Chappell

10 for 10c. — 25 for 25c. and in tins of 50's and 100's

Smoke a FRESH cigarette
BRITISH CONSOLS
COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

Your Eyes
will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

Copyrights and Patents

J. R. Cadwell, M.A.
Barrister, Solicitor, etc.
300 Bloor St. East
Ra. 2121-2122

NEWS WRITER SEES GLAMOUR IN REPORTING
(Continued from Page 1)

House? So I barged right in, and did I ever barge out again quickly!

So you see, darling, interviewing is not so much funny, as terrifying. You sort of have to catch the professors flying—I mean their gowns flying behind them as they stride along. I chased one the whole length of the U.C. corridor, but all he would say was "No, no, no, absolutely not," rather emphatically. Sometimes they do you know, and sometimes they don't. Talk, that is. I knocked for hours at one professor's door, and nobody answered so I peeped through the letter box, and he was whiffing around in a box of chocolates. I knocked some more, and still he didn't answer, so I peeped through again, and he was on his knees simply glowering through at me. I guess it was his favourite kind of candy. But sometimes they just talk, and talk, and talk, and you can't stop them and so I missed the last bus home.

But whatever you do, never interview professors over the phone. The first time I did—he is quite young, and good-looking, you know, I was so embarrassed I said something about attractive lecturers, instead of lectures. And he said, "the most attractive lecturers do not necessarily give the most attractive lectures!" Which is really very true.

So if you think there is anything funny about interviewing professors, would you please write and tell me? As soon as you can, because the linotype has to wait if the copy is late. Your loving Jinnie.

P.S. I wouldn't feed Oscar so much meat if I were you. He might get vicious.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21st, 1934

No. 90

ELECTIONEERING IN HART HOUSE WILL CONTINUE

House Committee Has Studied Problem, Found Methods Legitimate

MEMBERS ENJOY BALLYHOO

U.C., However, Has Found Noiseless Elections Successful

"The House Committee of Hart House has definitely decided to continue the present system of election campaigning," stated J. Copland, III Forestry, a member of the Committee, when asked by The Varsity to comment on yesterday's editorial regarding this time-honoured practice. "The system of distributing blotters and other devices for publicity has been customary in these elections for some time, and I am in favour of continuing this tradition," he declared. Mr. Copland explained that this matter has been the subject of considerable investigation and that there had been some discussion about abolishing the existing method of election procedure. After due consideration, however, the Committee decided that electioneering as it functions at present is a legitimate way for candidates to make themselves known. So often, candidates may be known to their fellow students by sight, but such devices as blotters and posters bring their names before the voters in a very effective manner. Mr. Copland (Continued on Page 4)

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

New York—One of the fiercest blizzards in the history of the Eastern States paralyzed activity and disrupted communication along the Atlantic seaboard yesterday, taking toll of twenty-one lives.

Vienna—Chancellor Hitler has considerably reduced tension in the Austrian situation by "deflating" Habicht's sensational ultimatum to Chancellor Dollfuss. Paris nevertheless considers a show-down inevitable between Hitler and Mussolini.

London—The Daily Mail published a despatch from Doorn, Holland today, saying that the former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany would not be represented at King Albert's funeral in Brussels yesterday.

Brussels—Rumours of a plot by Belgian Radicals to mar the coronation of Crown Prince Leopold on Friday by a demonstration for a republic have put authorities on careful guard.

Madrid—A new crisis appeared imminent in Spain as Leftist Premier Alejandro Lerroux announced yesterday that "stern reprisals" would result if Rightists attempted his overthrow.

Ottawa—Introduction of the Central Bank bill on Thursday was forecast yesterday.

Queen's Park—In a stinging denunciation of building contractors' methods in the province, A. Russell Nesbitt, Cons., yesterday demanded a probe into the conditions, which he described as "infernal" and "criminal."

Cristobal, Canal Zone—A "sharp increase" in shipments from Chile to Europe of nitrate, essential to munition making, has been noted in Panama Canal traffic, and has aroused comment because of the tense European situation.

Blue Pucksters Meet Defeat In Encounter With Torontos

APPLICATION FORMS FOR EXAMINATIONS

Students registered in the Faculty of Arts are reminded that applications for the Annual Examinations should be filed on or before March 1st. Forms may be obtained at the Registrar's Office, Simcoe Hall, or at the College Registrars' Offices.

CENTENNIAL SPORTS SHOW WIDE SCOPE

Extensive Programme Planned by Committee Under Prof. Loudon

REACH CLIMAX IN JULY

"Not a single sport possible under Toronto conditions will be left out of the programme," This statement, from the Publicity Department of the Toronto Centennial, was given The Varsity yesterday as an index to the scope of the task of the Centennial Sports Committee, whose chairman is Professor T. R. Loudon, well-known University of Toronto sportsman.

The climax to this array of athletic endeavour will be reached in the monster meet to be held in Exhibition Park, July 2nd, 3rd and 4th, when every sport adaptable to the Exhibition area will be seen on land, water and air. The track meet will include all lines of track and field competition, and will be capped by a long distance relay race, one of the most ambitious ever attempted, by which long distance runners from towns and cities in a radius of a hundred miles and more will bring messages from their mayors to Mayor Stewart, some of the runners starting the night before in order to reach Exhibition Park on schedule. The Dominion Day regatta, held at that time, will take in canoeing, rowing, sculling, swimming, diving. The sailing and yachting programme, being arranged by the Great Lakes Yacht Sailing Association, will bring to York (Continued on Page 4)

The "Blue and White" Has Grand Ovation

Blue and White!

By rounds and rounds of applause, U. of T. showed her appreciation of the new alma mater march of which she is justly proud. The Blue and White, by Captain John Slatter. She showed her appreciation of Varsity's band by turning out half a thousand strong to the concert in Convocation Hall last evening.

Under the patronage of the President, Dr. H. J. Cody, who was himself present at the affair, the concert provided, along with the band, a number of guest artists. Plaisir d'Amour and L'Amour d'Argent were sung as soprano solos in the early part of the programme by Miss Madelon Rowan, who later on appeared again, offering I Love You Truly, followed by And Love Was Born. A quintet of trombones, played by Messrs. Percy, Lee, Garrett, Morrison and Bothwell, offered first a number in harmony, Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes, then a number in unison, In Cellar Cool, both arranged by Captain Slatter. A cornet solo, Le Reve d'Amour, was given by Mr. Frank Lockley.

Just before the climax in The Blue and White, the band played a humorous novelty, The Whistler and his Dog, by Arthur Prior, which was enthusiastically encored.

Throughout the concert, the applause of the audience showed appreciation of a well-rounded, well-played programme.

Old "Jinx" Holds Cood Once More with 13-3 Defeat

WIDE-OPEN HOCKEY

Blues' Defence Collapses in Third Period of Play

By Art MacFarlane

Varsity wound up their O.H.A. schedule by suffering a 13-3 trouncing at the hands of their old nemesis the Torontos. For two periods the Blues made a game of it, but the complete collapse of their defence in the last period enabled Art Halliwell's pets to romp through for 9 goals. The game meant nothing to either team, so the adding machine total may be accounted for in some measure by the wide-open hockey served up by both squads.

Torontos gained a three goal lead in the first ten minutes of play through goals by Kitchen, Lough and Mann, and seemed content to coast. Nothing daunted, Varsity tore into their highly touted opponents, and Ernie Rey swept around the Torontos defence to completely outsmart Duran. Three minutes later McClelland tobied a pass to Cunningham, who flipped it home to past Varsity back in the hunk.

Fast breaking resulted in Varsity's third goal when Fullerton rushed from end to end to knot the count at 3-3. "Weiner" Lough drew the second pen. (Continued on Page 3)

WESTERN IS SCENE OF WOMEN'S GAMES

London Women Arrange to Entertain Visiting Basketeers

WESTERN TEAM REVISED

London, Ont., (CIP)—The women's senior intercollegiate basketball tournament this year will be held at Western on Friday and Saturday, February 23 and 24. This is an annual occasion when the women from McGill, Toronto, Queen's and Western meet to battle for the famous "Bronze Baby" Trophy.

On Friday night Queen's will meet Toronto Varsity and McGill will meet Western. On Saturday the two winning teams of Friday night will meet to decide the championship, the two losers also playing.

(Continued on Page 3)

The Truth Shall Make Them Free Dating Learned in Vic Library

By Lulu

An official S.P.S. Date Bureau may be news, but an unofficial one has existed on the campus for some time. We refer to Victoria College Library—the heeie hunting ground where many a round-eyed co-ed fulfils the paternal instructions embodied in the good old war cry—

"My father sent me to Victoria And resolved that I should get a man—"

Besides, they have books there. And students (not Steved Dents, you rascal you!).

And the truth shall make them free! For instance there's that darling curly headed freshman with the innocent blue eyes who blushing stammers a request for "Sex and Common Sense!" There just aren't any children any more, or there?

And the truth shall make them free! Then the hesitating young lady— "Have you something—well—er—hub—nice on Byron? That last book I took home mother said 'Higher learning or

RECIPROCITY PACT DEEMED UNLIKELY FOR THE PRESENT

Present Economic Trend in United States Adverse

TARIFFS MAY GO HIGHER

Promise of Reciprocity Considered a Political Manoeuvre

"Very unlikely in view of the events of the last few months in the United States" was the way in which Professor D. C. MacGregor of the Economics Department characterized the possibility of a reciprocity treaty between Canada and the United States, which Premier Bennett announced on Monday night in the House of Commons that Canada stands ready to negotiate. "In fact, the danger is that the American tariffs may go the other way," Professor MacGregor added.

"The promise of a measure of reciprocity with the United States would seem to be a political manoeuvre which falls in the same class with the rumpus about 'mass buying,'" he stated. "In view of the higher production costs (Continued on Page 4)

E. AND H. COURSE IS CRITICIZED

Students Offer Suggestions for Improvement of Course

DISAGREE IN DETAILS

"There seems to be nothing on which you are agreed except that the English and History course is all wrong," said Mr. D. Creighton of the History Department last evening at the meeting of the English and History Club at which the merits and demerits of the English and History course were discussed. The general subject was expounded in three papers, read by Mr. Bissell, Miss Audrey Saunders and Mr. Stobie, and the general impression of the papers was summed up in Mr. Creighton's remark.

Mr. Bissell gave it as his opinion that there is too much French and Latin in the course. Miss Saunders said there was not enough French, that it should be continued in third and (Continued on Page 4)

REPRESENTATIONS BY COMMITTEE APPROVED BY MEETING OF V.C.U.

PREMIER R. B. BENNETT
Who is to be the guest speaker at the Hart House Debate tonight.

'IRONY' UNDERGOES A LONG EVOLUTION

"Escape from Reality" is Becoming Modern Meaning

FIRST ALEXANDER LECTURE

"Escape from reality" is coming to be the modern meaning of the word "irony," said Professor G. G. Sedgewick, speaking on "The History and the Shapes of Irony" in the first of the annual series of Alexander lectures at Hart House Theatre yesterday afternoon. This is probably due to our civilization, he stated, and is only one in a long list of meanings of a word which has had "as many shapes as the old man of the sea." A Greek definition is that it "states one opposite by means of another." Cicero describes it tersely as "to say one thing and mean another." As used by the romantic school it has been called "self parody," and "language mocking itself." Goethe says it is a "view of life from on high." Again it has been described as "behaviour similar to God." Our dictionaries define it as "a mode of speech, the implication of which is opposite to the literal meaning of the words."

To the Greeks, irony implied understatement, and usually contained the idea of abuse, of something "as elastic as rubber, and as slippery as oil." Later with Bacon, it implied a spiritual detachment which was real irony, though he did not call it that. All through the romantic period this idea was prevalent. There is no example of the "irony of fate" so familiar to us until the 19th century, and the conception of dramatic irony, of something that "means one thing to the speaker and another to the audience" was not recognized as such until the latter part of that century.

"Demosthenes called men who shirked their public duties, ironic," and since then the meaning has been changed, been added to, until today we have a multiplicity of ideas contained in the word, and it is quite probable that still more meanings will come, and that some will go.

Bright Sayings of Professors

Professor of Vertebrate Embryology drops a piece of chalk: "The agility of the inanimate is often disconcerting."

Professor of History goes the way of all anglers: "The fishing there is so good they have to take some of them out to enable the rest to live."

Professor of Physics insinuates: "You would be surprised what you can see on a dark night."

Dissatisfaction with Present Common Room Expressed

TO APPOINT COMMITTEE

Property Committee to be Approached for Changes

That a committee of five be appointed to investigate and make representations through the Executive-in-Council of the Victoria College Union to the property committee of the college concerning present conditions of the men's common room and to make suggestions, and that the members of the committee be T. L. Avison, A. M. Lavery, J. R. Okell, J. B. McDiarmid, and W. J. Burgess, was the motion passed at a special meeting of the Victoria College Union summoned yesterday to consider redecorating and refurbishing the men's common room in the college.

"The common room of Victoria College is a disgrace," stated Marsh Lavery in introducing the question, and he proceeded to state at length the need for improving the common room. Mr. Lavery displayed two battered chairs and a cardboard waste receptacle as exhibits A, B and C, indicative of the present furnishings of the room. "We would like to see a couple of easy chairs and a couple of chesterfield couches as part of the equipment of the common room," he stated, and moved "That this open meeting recommend to the Executive-in-Council of the V.C.U. that an appropriation from the V.C.U. be voted toward the decoration of the common room, said appropriation to be supplemented by the Property Committee and that it be done immediately."

Dick Davidson moved an amendment to the effect that a committee of three be appointed to investigate the condition of the room and to make suggestions. (Continued on Page 4)

PREMIER BENNETT IS GUEST TONIGHT

Will Attend the Hart House Debate This Evening

ANNIVERSARY MEETING

The beginning of the eleventh year of Hart House debates will be signalled tonight by the presence of the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett as the Honorable Visitor. The resolution, "that in the opinion of this House it is in the best interests of Canada to retain her present preferred position in Empire market," will directly concern the tariff policy of the federal government.

As this is an anniversary meeting there will be special opening ceremonies in which several professors who in the past have acted as Speakers, will take part. Other visitors will include Premier Henry and the Hon. W. H. Price. The motion will be supported by R. A. Bell and Bruce Marshall, the son of the Hon. Duncan Marshall, will lead the opposition. Among the undergraduate members who will probably speak are Gord Skilling, the president of the C.C.F. Club, Sam Hughes, a leading Conservative, and Arn Smith. All the political clubs on the campus are interested in the subject and it is believed that there will be a heated controversy.

Extra accommodation is being arranged for undergraduates and as the cold spell will probably keep some away, no one should be turned away. The speakers will be S. M. Hermant, the Clerk, Harold Fair. Tellers will be N. Tyson, S.P.S., J. Woods, Trinity, H. Rice, Meds, and A. Smith, U.C.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper
Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... RANDOLPH 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. CORNUM, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '34
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35,
Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockerow, '39.
Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—K. E. Prentice Assistant—Arch Crossley

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21st, 1934

CONGRATULATIONS!

The University College Literary and Athletic Society tomorrow officially celebrates its eightieth birthday. The oldest, and perhaps the most active, society on the campus merits the congratulations of the University, and they are given unstintingly. After eighty years of slow and steady growth, it today stands as the one remaining and binding link that we still have with those days when the University and the City of Toronto itself, were in the throes of a difficult and arduous struggle for existence. That the society has managed to survive, and also keep step with the phenomenal growth of these other two great enterprises, is of lasting credit to the courage and persistence of its members and leaders.

It was on February 22, 1854, that a group of undergraduates assembled in the rooms of Dr. Daniel Wilson, a professor in English and History, for the serious purpose of forming a society that would embrace all the extra-curricular activities of the college. And it was on such an inauspicious occasion that the University College Literary and Scientific Society was born. With an enthusiastic and energetic executive at its head, the organization, in spite of innumerable obstacles and difficulties, began to expand, both in size and influence. Traditions were established, the programme enlarged, and the activities increased; and by 1859, when the new home of University College was built, the society was flourishing.

In due time it became the University organization, and the fact that Law and Medical men, and later men in the School of Science, interested themselves in it, is an indication of the position which the Lit. held in this period. But towards the end of the century these faculties were excluded from membership in the society, and it became strictly a college organization. Of particular interest to The Varsity is the fact that this publication, founded in 1880 as a joint stock company, was in 1889 taken under the kindly care of the Lit., and remained under its direct control for a number of years.

The history of the society is a long and colourful one. It has had its ups and downs, successes and failures. Sometimes interest in it lagged so woefully that it was almost extinct, while at others, with the coming of a more vigorous group of undergraduates, it once again existed as a robust and flourishing organization. It is fitting that on its octogenarian celebration the society should be at the top of one of these waves of enthusiasm, and enjoying the respect and admiration that such a body deserves.

As a school of debating it has been unsurpassed. As a common meeting-ground where undergraduates learned to know one another, to exchange ideas, and to discuss their social, athletic and academic interests, it has performed one of the primary functions of the University. That men such as William Mulock, Allan Aylesworth, Lyman Duff, Howard Ferguson, H. J. Cody, Mackenzie King, Arthur Meighen, Hamar Greenwood, Isaac Stringer, Malcolm Wallace, A. T. DeLury, George S. Henry, W. E. N. Sinclair, and a host of others spent their undergraduate days vitally interested in the Lit. and its activities, is proof enough of its importance as a moulder and fashioner of men who will play dominant parts in the history of their country. That the society will continue to produce such men, is not too rash a prophecy. University College and the University of Toronto may well be proud of such an organization!

So let us join in extending to the University College Literary and Athletic Society, many happy returns of the day, and a future brimming over with success, prosperity and longevity!

AFRICA PRODUCES MOST OF THE WORLD'S GEMS

Canada Yields Only Small Fraction of Total Output

"There are a great many stones in Canada that I hope to see out some day. It may be, as times go on, that we will have more to show you," said Professor A. L. Parsons, Professor of Mineralogy and assistant director of the Royal Ontario Museum of Mineralogy, in the concluding remarks of his illustrated address on Semi-Precious and Ornamental Stones of Canada at the Museum yesterday afternoon.

Africa, it was pointed out, produced 92 per cent of the world's gems. Of the remaining eight per cent Canada yields only a very small fraction. Precious stones are produced in close connection with trade routes. If they are not found by the sea they are invariably found along caravan routes. "The most popular stone probably is quartz," he stated. "It is one of our promising things and works up well in beads—but even beads," he continued, "must be treated with a certain degree of judgment."

(Continued on Page 4)

Art, Music and Drama

M.C. Players' Guild

This week's presentation at the Guild is the latter part of Euripides' Medea. The action commences with Medea's resolved to destroy Jason's bride and father-in-law, then to flee for protection to Aegeus at Athens, after murdering her own children.

Only one of the cast, which numbers twelve, has appeared on the Guild stage before. The leading parts will be played by two actors of promise, Miss Betty Fraser in the role of Medea and Mr. Gordon Robertson as Jason. The dramatic speech of the Messenger will be done by Miss Bernice Merrick. The play is under the direction of Miss Dorothy Walker.

M.B.L.

Hart House Theatre

Three original Canadian plays were presented in Hart House Theatre last evening by the Playwrights' Studio Group. The Group is an association of young Canadian authors whose plays are periodically presented on the Hart House stage.

The plays cannot be considered representative Canadian drama as they contain no expression of what may be considered typical ideals of a society peculiarly Canadian. Although each play has individual merit, on the whole they are merely incidents dramatically portrayed. The acting in all three plays was excellent.

The Little Blueberry by Virginia Coyne Knight, presented the usual triangle in a construction camp background. The character of the courageous little Quebecoise was well interpreted by Miss Betty Boylan. As in the other plays, the lines were the chief merit, the plot being unequally developed.

The mysterious atmosphere of Fear Fantasy by Dora Smith Conover, added credence to the psychological study of the girl with a "fear complex". The individual characters were well drawn and acted, particularly that of Sarah McBride, but the play was not well rounded off.

The Goers, written by Rica McLean

A short treatise on the game of Poker—a simple form of amusement which anyone can learn in a short evening. There are several different forms of this ancient game, such as Racehorse, Stud, Showdown and Strip. The most popular variety however is called Draw Poker.

C—C

The game is played with an ordinary pack of playing cards. Some of our readers may have qualms about using such an instrument of pleasure, but we trust that most of the objections have by this time died out. Enlightened people nowadays do not consider playing cards as harmful or immoral if kept away from the children.

C—C

The nomenclature of Draw Poker has arisen after long ages of play. The origin of some of the most peculiar of the terms is veiled in obscurity but many of the others will appear fairly obvious.

C—C

Any number of players may join in the game, which is a definite asset to a family amusement of this kind. A dealer is chosen and five cards are distributed to each of the players. If, after considering his hand, a player thinks there are possibilities of it winning he "antes up", that is, contributes a chip or token to the "pot" in the centre of the playing board.

C—C

We would like here and now to correct any false impression that these tokens may cause. There should be no element of gambling in a well-directed game. Many people now keep a set of chips on hand which they use for this purpose. The chips are of various colours and each colour has a separate value.

(Continued on Page 4)

Farquharson, contained some excellent repartee and though it should be considered a skit rather than a play, it was more logically developed than the others.

In all three plays the clever lines and excellent acting of the casts compensated for the lack of original ideas and on the whole the evening was most interesting and entertaining.

F. R. K.

Toronto Symphony

The Toronto Symphony last night provided an extremely varied programme, ranging from Bach Choral Preludes to The Blue Danube Waltz. The former were two in number—In Thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, and In Thee is gladness—and were arranged for orchestra by Dr. MacMillan himself. Their effect at the opening of the programme was very satisfying indeed, particularly the second, with its exhilarating paeans of joy and faith.

The Beethoven Symphony No. 7 was given a masterly reading. The finish and sureness of effect of our orchestra has improved most gratifyingly, as has been evidenced by several performances this season, and it becomes increasingly possible for Dr. MacMillan's authoritative to find more or less adequate expression. This Symphony, not one of the very greatest, is exceedingly attractive, and powerful with the force of Beethoven's vitality and technical genius. The Seventh Symphony, and the Fourth, seem to me the most enjoyable of all the Beethoven symphonies (considered, that is, from the standpoint of simple pleasure), and some of these less celebrated and less pretentious works are valuable in perceiving the true measure of the master's greatness. Let a music lover hear this composition for the first time, and he will sense with exhilaration the virility of Beethoven's spirit, his sheer pagan joy, and his mastery of the form of communication which he chose.

The modern compositions, Sibelius' The Swan of Tuonela, and Stravinsky's The Firebird (Continued on Page 4)

FOOTLIGHT PARADE

MARTIN B. LOEB

O O O O O O O O

Did you hear the rumour that the picture Miss Fan's Baby is Stolen, was yanked after three days' run at the Imperial because there was an anti-Nazi boycott of the German actress Dorothea Wieck who starred in the picture? A propos, there didn't seem to be any boycott of the German Beethoven's 7th Symphony last night.

O O O O

For some reason the Soviet Ballet Dancers, Vecheslova and Chabukani have cancelled their appearance at Massey Hall next Tuesday evening. This was something that a great many people were looking forward to and the last minute announcement disappointed a lot of us.

Dr. MacMillan is jumping into the breach and giving a symphony concert consisting of popular classics.

O O O O

Rather late but never too late, we must congratulate Queen's Dramatic Guild who won the Eastern Ontario Drama Festival with a play called Submerged, not the famous Russian one. It is too bad that the students here have not found it convenient to enter the Drama Festival. It has been talked of but the Dominion finals come too near examination time to get any support from student dramatic societies. Let's hope Queen's wins the Dominion finals and bear the standard of higher education to victory.

O O O O

Hart House Theatre is not producing (Continued on Page 4)

COLLEGE MEN

Seeking Summer Employment!

Maclean's Magazine offers students an opportunity by which they can earn money in worthwhile amounts (salary and bonus) during the summer vacation. The work is congenial—territory can be arranged by writing to the student sales manager. Write, call or phone to-day for particulars and interview, to Student Sales Managers, Room 46, 481 University Avenue, Toronto.

THE MACLEAN PUBLISHING CO. LTD.

The CHATEAU LAURIER

Ottawa's Hotel of Distinction

To be assured of comfortable accommodation—stay at the CHATEAU LAURIER.

Here you will find accommodation for 1,000 guests—with rates that have been adjusted to meet the demands of present day economy, but where, though your stay be of short duration, or of extended nature, the traditions of Canadian National Railways—Courtesy and Service—have been maintained.

Full details from any Agent of

CANADIAN NATIONAL

T16

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance.

They are up to the minute.

Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Two stores to serve you.

Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College Street
K1. 0991

571 Yonge Street
K1. 3270

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps

6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1865

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.

Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

DENTANTICS presents "THE TORCHBEARERS" at HART HOUSE THEATRE
February 22nd and 23rd
8.30 p.m. Tickets 80c. including tax, from all Dental students

McMASTER BASKETEERS MEET BLUES HERE TO-NIGHT

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

Tonight at seven o'clock at the Arena, the Varsity hockey team, winners of the intercollegiate title, meet the Vagabonds in the third game of their City League series. Elimination faces Jimmy McPherson's charges unless they win tonight in which case the series will continue until one team has won three games. A win for the Vagabonds tonight will clinch the title for them as they already have two victories to their credit and the championship is being decided on the best three games out of five plan.

The Hockey Club met yesterday to decide about the interfaculty hockey playoffs. The schedule which has now been extended beyond its allotted time, is to be positively finished by this coming Thursday night. The winners of the two groups will meet each other on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of next week to decide the champion in the best two out of three games.

Vic I is definitely winner of the first group, although Meds and U.C. still have a game to play off. The result will not affect the standing of the winner. There are two teams still in the running in Group II. If Vic II should defeat St. Hilda's tonight, it would materially help their position. The Saints have two wins and a tie to their credit, while Vic has two ties and a win.

The winner of Group II will meet Vic I next Monday, this first game being Vic's home game. The managers of the various teams are requested to watch The Varsity for further notices.

The intermediate basketball team didn't play Runnymede Seniors last night, as had been tentatively planned. They had an excellent practice with Wilma Harlitt and Louise Crouch turning out to help them along.

The intercollegiate team will probably be playing a return game with the Grads tonight. If their shots are on, with the advantage of their speed, they should repeat their conclusive win of last week.

Sport Notices

Sr. U.C. Baseball—
Practice today at 1 p.m.

Trinity Basketball—
Trinity vs O.A.C. Trinity lineup: Whitbread, A'Court, Rogers, Honeyford, Grant, Lossing, Noble, Wright. The team will assemble at the corner of Bloor and Bay Sts. at 12:15 sharp on Thursday.

Jr. U.C. Baseball—
Practice Wednesday 1-2.

U.C. Women—
Last chance to sign the entry list for the badminton tournament. Sign now in the cloakroom and watch for the date in The Varsity.

Jr. U.C. Basketball—
Team report on floor at 3:30 for game with Vic.

Women's Intercollegiate Basketball—
Game tonight between Seniors and Varsity Grads, 6:30 at O.C.E.

New York Americans defeated Chicago Black Hawks 3-1 in New York last night.

4-4 TIE WITH VIC ELIMINATES S.P.S.

"Man" Monzon Stars for Vic in Close, Hard-Fought Hockey

BURNETTE PLAYS WELL

In a close checking game played at the Stadium yesterday, Vic and Jr. S.P.S. battled to a 4-4 tie, as a result of which S.P.S. was eliminated from their group. The Schoolmen jumped into an early lead with Stavert annexing two counters. Monzon retaliated with one for Vic. Then Davidson added another for S.P.S. In the final period Vic staged a terrific onslaught resulting in three counters. S.P.S. tied it up on a lucky goal and the game ended with no further scoring. Vic had a wide margin in the play during the final period, but Angus outgassed them on several occasions. Monzon was best for Vic, getting a goal and an assist. Burnette played well for School.

Victoria—Dickie, Bryers, Farrell, Dyke, Arnup, Monzon, Pratt, Tackaberry, Gregory, Grover.
S.P.S.—Angus, Press, Aitkens, Burnette, Davidson, Stavert, Willmott, Terry, Wheaton.
Referee—Normie McLelland.

ST. HILDA'S CHDOSE SWIMMING TEAM

St. Hilda's held their swimming meet last night at O.C.E. preliminary to choosing their team for the interfaculty meet. Ruth Knowlton, who has been an outstanding swimmer for the Saints for three years, won the individual honours, with Vi Ord, a freshman, a close second.

Plunge: 1, R. Knowlton; 2, M. McCullough; 3, K. Emery.
Free Style: 1, V. Ord; 2, M. McCullough; 3, R. Knowlton.
Diving: 1, R. Knowlton; 2, V. Ord; 3, E. Palmer.
Backstroke: 1, M. Hall; 2, E. Wilson; 3, V. Ord.
Style: 1, R. Knowlton; 2, M. Ash-ton; 3, E. Palmer.
Breaststroke: 1, V. Ord; 2, M. Ash-ton; 3, E. Palmer.
Ornamental: 1, R. Knowlton; 2, E. Palmer; 3, K. Emery.

HAROLD SNIDERMAN

Montreal Maroons held second place in the Canadian section of the N.H.L. by defeating Ottawa Senators 6-2 last night in Ottawa.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By W. A. Crocker

Gather round, lads, while we tell a tale of revenge. Two weeks ago Hayman's crew played Art Burridge's McMaster aggregation in Hamilton. Every one of Hayman's warriors walked off the Westdale Collegiate floor muttering about high knees, hard elbows and "oh for another chance at them". Tonight the Blue team will get its chance. Although we hope that there'll be no riot, nor any fighting we feel sure that tonight's contest will be the hardest fought game of the year. When the Blues and the Baptists met in Hamilton a deliberate error in time-keeping gave Burridge's squad a two-point decision. However the Blues will see that they lose no more games through deliberate "accidents" and promise to show the home fans that they were cheated out of a win in Hamilton. We, personally, do not feel as sure of a win as do the Blues, whose record to date has been anything but consistent.

Speaking about consistency—Hayman's squad went ultra-inconsistent in London last Saturday. The senior cagers turned in what probably was their worst showing of the year. They just did nothing right and in addition they were off in shooting. However their poor shooting was no excuse for the abuse which was heaped on them. The members of the team were openly accused of "folding up". This was absolutely untrue. We'll cite one case. Gold was accused of "quitting cold right after the first few minutes of play". This statement was absolutely uncalled for as the player in question played forty minutes of ball without a murmur while suffering severely from an injured ankle. He could barely walk after the game. Because of his injured ankle he wasn't started on Monday night against Yolles. However when he did get in the game because he had to be quickly displayed his fighting heart in pulling the game out of the fire, a bad ankle notwithstanding. Other players were also accused but the foregoing serves to show the falsehood of the accusation. Hasty remarks, such as were uttered in the small hours of last Sunday morning after the game do not act as a builder of team spirit.

And still another hint to the senior Blues, just as an afterthought. Lew Hayman was engaged to coach the squad and think up all the strategic plays. A couple of the players would do well to devote their energies to playing and leave the thinking to Lew.

Mac McCutcheon's squad will play hosts to the McMaster crew in the intercollegiate intermediate fixture which will go on at 7:30 tonight. Mac has built a balanced aggregation around Applebaum, the high scorer of the team. The intermediate Blues have lost only one game in the intercollegiate series to date and that by two points. On the other hand their wins have been decisive and convincing. In the last game between the two teams the Seconds handed the Baptists a real pasting and should easily repeat tonight.

And still more about basketball. Varsity's loss to Western last Saturday complicates the intercollegiate senior situation. It looks as though the Blues will have to take the Redmen both here and in Montreal. However if the Redmen lose to Western, which is by no means an impossibility as the Mustangs are almost unbeatable on their home floor, it will get the Blues out of a tough situation. If no complications arise in Kingston the Blues will still have a good chance for the intercollegiate senior case crown. The McGill aggregation play here on Friday night and the Blues will have to get into high and stay there for the rest of the season.

Warren Stevens' men finally hung up their hockey togs for the season last night in anything but a blaze of glory. The game was of no importance as the Toronto entrants had agreed to let the Nationals have the second place berth, a tie for that position notwithstanding. In summing up the hockey situation at Varsity for the past year one must have nothing but praise for Steve's warriors. Faced with unequalled and biting criticisms on all sides the Blues finally got going and turned in some highly creditable performances, most notable among which being that last minute offensive against McGill, potential Allan Cup holders, to even the score at four-all.

On Saturday night the intercollegiate swim meet between Varsity and McGill will take place. Western is sending down a team to compete in exhibition events and if the Mustang team shows to advantage a place will probably be offered them in the intercollegiate competition next year. The Redmen won the title last year by winning the relay, defeating the Blue relay squad by one-fifth of a second. The competition this year promises to be just as close as ever and some interesting events are scheduled to take place.

CALDWELL AND DORE RUN HUNDRED IN 10.9

Competition is Keen as More Interfaculty Track Events Are Run Off

Last night in Hart House, three more events in the interfaculty indoor track meet were run off. These were the hundred yards dash, the mile relay and the running high jump. The competition has been keen in all events but reached its peak in the hundred yards. In this event Caldwell and Dore tied for first place when they set up the time of 10.9 seconds. The third place was held off next Tuesday. The third place was held by Ashenburt, S.P.S., with a time of 11.1 seconds.

Three teams were entered in the mile relay representing S.P.S., University College and Dents. The School secured a win in this event with a

JUNIOR SCHOOL BATSMEN TAKE MEASURE OF MEDS

S.P.S. Win Brings Triangular Tie in Interfaculty Baseball

Jr. S.P.S. played heads-up ball to defeat Jr. Meds 5-3 in a closely contested baseball game yesterday afternoon in the lower gym at Hart House.

fast team composed of Burnette, Fleming, Kraits and Ashenburt. Second place was held by the Dents.

In the running high jump, Ken Milne, I Meds, gained an easy victory at a height of 5 feet 9 inches. He reached this without making a second attempt at any jump. Vennels of Victoria and Austin of School ranked second and third. The shot put was postponed till next week.

EMMANUEL BASKETEERS TAKE WYCLIFFE, 36-15

Theologians Fight Hard on Basketball Floor

Emmanuel swamped Wycliffe College with a score of 36-15 in a high-scoring interfaculty basketball game last night in the upper gym. Despite the score the game was snappy and hard fought to the last whistle.

Emmanuel started the game with a rush, scoring two baskets in the first few minutes before the Wycliffe squad could reply with a foul shot. Neither team displayed good combination and, for the most part, the play was very ragged. Emmanuel continued to pile up a lead and the half ended with a 14-5 score.

The squads improved considerably in the last half, with Emmanuel in particular showing some fine bits of combination. With a distinct advantage in height, Emmanuel ran the score up to 36-15 before the final whistle blew.

Vaughan and J. Bates played well for Emmanuel, while Kaminsky and Fairweather were best for Wycliffe.

Emmanuel—King 6, Griffith 1, East 1, Gladman 4, Vaughan 8, B. Bates, J. Bates 5, Bath 2, Sinson 8, Stuart 1, Wycliffe—Fairweather 5, Kaminsky 2, Morrissey 2, Lancaster 1, Chaves 1, Emmets 4, Cross, Huefner, Kibblewhite.

PHIL GOLD

and incidentally to cause a three team tie for the group leadership. Jr. U.C. can thank the Engineers for keeping them in the running since this was the last game of the schedule. Umpire Shulman had no end of trouble in keeping the battling boys from the little red schoolhouse in check after a few close decisions.

However, S.P.S. deserved the win, playing good ball behind the pitching of McLaughlin, who struck out eleven of the Medicals in five innings. The Engineers held the upper hand throughout, scoring one run in each of the first two innings, and then driving home one in the fourth and two in the fifth to put the game away. Gould was the best man for the losers, having a perfect day at bat, besides doing some effective hurling.

Jr. S.P.S.—Pidduck, Quance, McMillan, McLaughlin, Jaffe, Marks, Miller, Carveth, Padden.

Jr. Meds—Gould, Hodge, Baeman, Tomlinson, Graham, Wise, Stevenson, Johnson, Mikasikin, Zarsky.

Umpires—Shulman, Burt-Gerrans.

Students desiring employment during summer. Apply Box W, "Varsity" at once.

Several positions now available.

Testimonies of Christian Science Healing

To-night at 8 o'clock at St. George St. cor. Lower Ave. In the main auditorium of First Church of Christ Scientist

These testimonies are a feature of the regular Wednesday evening meeting, and present a convenient opportunity for all students of the University of Toronto to become informed of the demonstrable results of the Science of Christianity or Christian Science.

TORONTO DEFEAT BLUES

(Continued from Page 1)

ality of the game and Durnan was hard-pressed to hold off the student thrusters, which kept play in the red, white and green end of the Gardens. After 17 minutes of sparkling play, B. Paul and Mann caught the Blue defence flat-footed to again leave Stevens' warriors in the lurch. Seconds later Paul again had Shipp at his mercy but Frank dove into the shot to stop a sure goal.

Varsity collapsed completely in the final session and Halliwell's charges fattened their scoring averages, garnering no less than 18 scoring points. Loose back checking, poor covering up, and sloppy clearing permitted the third-placers to sweep in on the unprotected Shipp with monotonous regularity, the latter having no chance on the majority of the tallies marked up against him. Bill Durnan proved to be a mountainous stumbling block to the seniors, his clever catching and blocking saving almost certain goals on several occasions. Give the Blues credit for the fact that they never quit trying, that even with a double-figure count against them, they bore in on the rocky Toronto defence. The fact that they were caught in this manner accounted for six of the goals during that last period onslaught.

For Toronto, Smith with two goals and three assists, and Mann with three goals and two assists were the pick of the forwards, the Paul brothers and Durnan getting the call defensively. For Varsity, McClelland, Rey and McPherson stood out.

Varsity—Goal, Shipp; defence, Campbell, Rey; centre, McClelland; wings, Cunningham, McPherson; subs, McConvey, Jeffrey, Fullerton, Williamson.

Toronto—Goal, Durnan; defence, B. Paul, Whittaker; centre, Lough; wings, Mann, Kitchen; subs, Oliver, Smith, Conacher, R. Paul.
Referee—Duke McCurry.

BRONZE BABY GAMES TO BE AT WESTERN

(Continued from Page 1)

The women's organizations at Western have arranged a most enjoyable programme for the visitors. On Saturday afternoon following the games there will be a tea for the guest players and in the evening there will be a banquet and dance in Convocation Hall. Members of the University Dance Club will present entertainment, during the dance, in the form of a floor show. Western's team will be considerably revised this year, Dorothy Timpany, Mary Wong and Cae Hartigan being the only members of last year's team competing.

YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO MISS THE . . . EIGHTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE U.C. LIT Get Your Tickets To-day

The Event of a Lifetime!

Coming Events

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21
4.15—Players' Guild present Euripides' "Medea" under direction of Miss Dorothy Walker.

12.02 p.m.—Open meeting of the Commerce Club in the Debates Room of Hart House. Mr. H. S. Ross, K.C., D.C.L., of Montreal, will speak on "The Road to Permanent Peace and Prosperity for All", stressing the necessity of a universal monetary system and suggesting a medium of exchange for it.

8 p.m.—Hart House debate attended by the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett. Members of Hart House only.

1 p.m.—Macdonald-Cartier Club luncheon. Speaker, Right Hon. R. B. Bennett.

8 p.m.—Vic Classical Club will meet at 92 Wychwood Park. Speaker, Prof. E. T. Owen.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22
5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club, Music Room, Hart House.

8.30—Dentistics. The annual Dental stunt night at Hart House Theatre, presents a three-act play, "The Torch Bearers".

5 p.m.—Special session of U.C. Parliamentary Club in junior common room.

7 p.m.—Dinner, Great Hall, Hart House.

9 p.m.—Regular meeting of U.C. Lit. Society, junior common room.

7.30 p.m.—S.P.S. Debating Club in Debates Room, Hart House. The first of the inter-year debates.

Sale of the Undergraduate Magazine, U.C. rotunda and elsewhere.

5 p.m.—U.C. Parliamentary Club.

7 p.m.—Anniversary dinner, Great Hall.

9 p.m.—Lit meeting, junior common room.

Celebration of the eightieth anniversary of the founding of the U.C. Lit. Parliamentary Club, banquet, Lit. meeting.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23
5 p.m.—Hart House Friday Afternoon Recital by Men's Glee Club. All music should be in by this date.

8.30 p.m.—Important membership meeting of the Student League of Canada. Common room, Women's Union. All members and candidates for membership are urged to attend.

8.30—Dentistics. The annual Dental stunt night at Hart House Theatre, presents a three-act play, "The Torch Bearers".

9.30.2.30—Victoria College elections in Alumni Hall.

9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Standing Committees open. These nominations close Wednesday, 28th February at 6 p.m.

7.30.10.30—Biological Club will hold its Quadrennial Conversation in the Botany and Biology Bldgs.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24
8 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., 150 St. George St. Speaker, Dr. A. C. Hill.

9.12 a.m.—Biological Club will hold its Quadrennial Conversation in the Botany and Biology Bldgs.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 25
4.30 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U. 16 Spadina Road. Speaker, Rev. T. W. Isherwood.

9 p.m.—Wymulwood recital. Mr. Northrop Frye will give a piano recital of special interest. Mr. Frye is a graduate of Victoria.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27
5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in S.C.M. library, Hart House.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28
8.30 p.m.—U.C. Soph-Frosh party at Women's Union.

9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Debates Committee open. These nominations close Monday, 5th Mar. at 6 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7
Hart House Elections.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8
Hart House Debates Committee Elections.

FOOTLIGHT PARADE
(Continued from Page 2)

ing any more plays this year. Public support doesn't seem to be demanding amateur dramas. However, Hart House is entering three groups in the Festival and with the extra time they ought to be able to do great things.

0000
This afternoon the Players' Guild goes classic and is producing part of Euripides' Medea, with Miss Dorothy Walker directing. Miss Walker directed Socrates by Clifford Bax and used all women in the cast.

0000 Wonder of wonders, or miracles never cease. Bernard Shaw has given permission to Lennox Robertson to re-write Funny's First Play for production at the Abbey Theatre, Dublin. Evidently the grand old man of the theatre was so amused by the idea that he laughed an approval immediately.

0000
Last night the Players' Studio Group presented some more of its naive Canadian plays. Canadian playwrighting is getting encouragement, and by all appearances, it needs it.

Which reminds us that the Players' Guild is preparing to do a play by True Davidson called An Academic Problem, which is one of the better Canadian plays that has come to our notice.

0000
And as an au revoir, let me remind you all that the picture The Road to Life at the Madison Theatre even surpasses Maedchen in Uniform for dramatic plot and excellent photography. Besides it is an interesting glimpse of the reconstruction work, both moral and material, in the Soviet Union. Don't ever miss it.

VICTORIA COLLEGE UNION ADVOCATES CHANGES

(Continued from Page 1)

gestions and representations to the Executive-in-Council first, and that the president of the Union should be the chairman, with two members from the second and third years completing the committee. Mr. Davidson scored the treatment of the room by undergraduates and emphasized that the voting of a large sum toward its redecoration and refurbishing would be futile. "I would ask that no money be spent on it except a small allocation from the property committee to clean the room up," he said.

J. R. Okell supported the original motion strongly and stated, "We feel that direct action should be taken at once."

Ted Avison, president of the Union, in rising to speak on the motion from the floor, stated that, contrary to a report in The Varsity asserting that he was dubious concerning the success of the motion, he was absolutely impartial on the matter and wished to correct any impression to the contrary. "I think," he said, "that this is the largest open meeting of the V.C.U. in the five years I have been at college." The majority of members attending were men, there being only five women present.

Mr. Avison observed that the amendment satisfactorily covered the original motion and put it to the vote after an amendment to the amendment, moved by Jim Sissons, which changed the membership of the committee from three to five, had passed. The amendment passed unanimously and a representation will be made to the Executive-in-Council by the investigating committee on March 6th.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

After the ante each player is allowed to discard from one to four cards, for which he receives the same number from the dealer. His hand is now complete and when he has appraised its total value carefully, he may either drop out of the game for that round or go on to bid.

C-C
At this point let us pause to explain the values of the hands. Much controversy rages about the superiority of some over others, but Hoyle, our contemporary authority, agrees on the following gradation. Most valuable hand first.

C-C
Royal Flush—the five highest cards of any suit.

Straight Flush—an uninterrupted sequence of five cards in the same suit.

Four of a Kind—four cards of equal value (as four tens).

Full House or Tight—three of a kind and a pair (see below).

Flush—any five cards in the same suit.

Straight—any five cards in uninterrupted sequence (as 6-7-8-9-10).

Three of a kind—
Two Pairs—
One Pair—
High Card—

C-C
The bidding progresses from each player in turn until some one "calls". The hands are then placed on the table and after the judging is completed the winner receives the pot. The game is over when one player has all the chips.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. Notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE
The U.C. Soph-Frosh dance will take place on Wednesday, Feb. 28 in the Women's Union, 79 St. George St. Two orchestras. Tickets may be obtained from year executives or in rotunda on Feb. 27 and 28 from 12 to 2.

COMMERCE CLUB
An open meeting of the Commerce Club will be held today at 12.00 p.m. in the Debates Room, Hart House. Mr. H. S. Ross, K.C., D.C.L., of Montreal, will speak on "The Road to Permanent Peace and Prosperity for All", stressing the necessity of a universal monetary system and suggesting a suitable medium of exchange.

3T4 VICTORIA
Members of 3T4 are reminded of their final (formal) party at Wymulwood on Friday at 8.30. Admission by card only. Fees must be paid in full before Friday.

VIC CLASSICAL CLUB
On Wednesday, February 21st, at 8 o'clock the Victoria Classical Club will meet at the home of Prof. Woodside, 92 Wychwood Park. Prof. E. T. Owen will be the speaker. A social period will follow. Subject, "Aeschylean Tragedy".

VIC MUSICALE TICKETS
Sign the lists in the college hall today from 1.45 to 2 p.m. for double tickets for this week's musicale. The tickets will be given out Thursday at the same time.

THE UNDERGRADUATE
Registration cards must be presented to secure the special reduced rates in the sale of the Undergraduate of 10c for one copy for each U.C. woman, 15c for one copy for each U.C. man. First year students who paid for their copies may obtain their copies in the U.C. rotunda on February 22.

VICTORIA MEN
Principal Brown will lead a short discussion for men at Alumni Hall tonight at 7.30. Subject, "A College Man's Religion". Your opinion will be welcome.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION
This is the last day for the February spoon shoot. This match must be shot in order to qualify for the Henderson Pin. R. L. Broad please note.

E. AND H. COURSE MEETS WITH CRITICISM

(Continued from Page 1)

fourth years. Mr. Stobie, on the other hand, declared that Latin, if not too little, was at least inadequately organized.

Then Miss Saunders suggested adding several subjects to the course, such as current events and economic theory; while Mr. Stobie urged increased specialization.

Members of the staffs in History and English were present to discuss the matter with the students, and accepted all suggestions not only with interest, but also with considerable stoicism. This was necessary when the students suggested that the history groups were badly conducted, that the new English tutorials were a failure, that lectures were perfectly useless, and other ideas of that sort.

The general opinion seemed to be that the fault was not in the History, but in the English. The History Department, it was stated, has neglected the more important periods of history for study, while the English Department vainly endeavours to cover the whole field of English literature, starting with Anglo-Saxon.

The meeting broke up in a confusion of violent discussion, without definite result.

C-C

The game of poker is a real gentleman's game, and as such is conducive to straightforwardness and honesty, being ranked in the category of cricket in this respect.

Hiccup.

THIRD YEAR VIC WOMEN
Nominations for the women's senior and athletic sticks for the year 1934-5 will be received in the college hall on Thursday, Feb. 22 from 10-1. Every third year woman is urged to submit five names for each office. Voting will take place on Friday, Feb. 23 at 1.30 in Room 18.

U.C. PARLIAMENTARY CLUB
Members are requested to note that the special session of the Parliamentary Club on Thursday will convene at 5 p.m. rather than 4 p.m. G. K. Drynan will introduce the resolution: "Resolved that the influence of graduates upon this university is a pernicious one." W. E. Beamish, B.A., will oppose.

THE FORUM
The next regular meeting of the Forum will be held Friday, Feb. 23 at 4 p.m. in Room 4, U.C. Messrs. Medcalf and J. Minsky will speak and Mr. A. C. Smith will be in the chair.

VICTORIA NOMINATIONS
Nominations for the associate presidents of I, II and III years will remain open until 5 p.m. today. No nomination received later than this hour will be considered. The chief returning officer will be in the college hall from 2.30 to 3.10 p.m. to receive nominations.

PHYSICS SEMINAR
Thursday, February 22, 1934, at 4.15 in Room 43, McLennan Laboratory: Structure of Real Crystals, F. Zwicky, Helv. Phys. Acta 6-3, 210, 1933. Dr. H. Grayson Smith. Mechanism of Crystal Growth, W. P. Davey, Amer. Soc. Steel Treating, Oct. 1933. Mr. J. O. Wilhelm. On the Mosaic Structure of Crystals, F. Blank, Phys. Zeits., May 1, 1933. Mr. A. D. Misener. Chairman—Professor Gilchrist.

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD
The Guild presents a part of Euripides' Medea, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Walker at 4.15 p.m. today in the Women's Union.

CHEMISTRY SEMINAR
Thirteenth regular meeting, Wednesday, Feb. 21, 1934, at 5.05 p.m. in the Small Lecture Room of the Chemical Building. Speaker, H. Bernard, M.Sc. Subject, "The Beckmann Rearrangement".

RECIPROCITY PACT DEEMED UNLIKELY

(Continued from Page 1)

under the N.R.A. codes, it is most unlikely that the United States would be willing to lower barriers on Canadian goods at the present time, as it has more to lose by such an action than for a long time past. At the same time, owing to higher domestic costs of production, the United States has little to gain through larger foreign markets, due to the difficulty which it now encounters in competing in those markets with a higher scale of domestic costs.

Professor MacGregor pointed out that there have been in recent months several instances where Canadian products have been imported in much larger volume by the United States, because the cheaper labour costs made it profitable to do so. It is in view of this fact that there is a great possibility that tariffs against certain Canadian products may be raised rather than lowered in the near future. However, in the event of a reciprocity agreement being effected, he thought that cattle and perhaps milk would be the chief products to be benefited.

Despite other purposes to the contrary, however, Professor MacGregor felt that the whole reciprocity issue compares very favourably with the "mass buying" inquiry as an attempt to divert attention from the more fundamental issues, chief of which, probably, is the establishment of a central bank. He believed that the "mass buying" of departmental stores is being used rather effectively to bring industrial wages down to conform with the reduced incomes of agriculturists.

ELECTIONEERING WILL CONTINUE

(Continued from Page 1)

also felt that elections would probably lose some of their interest if the pre-election "ballyhoo" were eliminated.

Mr. A. Murdoch Keith, IV Victoria, also a member of the House Committee, further explained that the Committee in making this decision are merely acting as they think they interpret public opinion. If students should show themselves definitely opposed to the present methods, the Committee would probably follow the will of the voters. The House Committee feels further that men can be elected without ballyhoo, but if candidates choose to carry on this form of campaigning it is willing to maintain it. Many people, explained Mr. Keith, regard this part of the election work as a great joke, and seem to enjoy it thoroughly.

Mr. H. Gordon Skilling, president of the University College Literary Society stated that the U.C. elections this year will be devoid of all pre-election ballyhoo. The Lit. has decided that there is nothing to be gained by this form of publicizing, and has already abolished it in the first year elections held last fall. The election was carried on quietly, but was very successful, with an excellent vote turned in. This system will be extended to the general elections, and a similar successful vote is anticipated.

The women's elections have always been carried on in a much quieter way, although in past years the elections of the Women's Undergraduate Association of University College featured gaily coloured posters, the usual chocolate bars made famous by the men, and the customary deluge of blotters before elections. Miss Jean Hunnisset, president of the W.U.A., explained that last year a great deal of the publicity attendant on elections was abolished. At present there are no individual posters permitted for candidates, but the executive of the W.U.A. posts a bulletin of all candidates in suitable places about the college, to familiarize the voters with the names of their potential leaders, and the election quietly follows these announcements.

The opinions of students on this question vary. W. L. Halperin, if M. and P., U.C., believes that pre-election ballyhoo has its value for the candidates, in that it attracts many voters. "Personally, I enjoy all the fuss—and the cigarettes," he declared.

A. Miller, VI Meds, also stated that "Cigarettes are not so bad." He believes, however, that while students enjoy receiving these inducements, they are rarely induced to vote for their donor. The names of candidates are frequently unknown to a great majority of the voters, and the blotters and other such forms of publicity are effective, he believes, in that they acquaint the voters with the names of the candidates. "Most fellows have no definite platform," continued Mr. Miller; "they run more or less for the honour of the thing, and it doesn't much matter whom you vote for, unless you know the person."

Miss Lillian Segal, IV Arts, declared that men at the University do not seem to take their elections seriously enough. "It's a childish practice," was her opinion. "Like joining the parade . . . follow the piper who gives the peanuts and talks the most impressively."

CENTENNIAL SPORTS SHOW WIDE SCOPE
(Continued from Page 1)

ronto the International Dinghy Race, held last year on Long Island Sound, in which boats from England, United States, Canada and other countries will compete. A sea-flea tournament is also being arranged.

In the air the showing will be international, armadas from Camp Borden, Rockcliffe, Selfridge Field and Great Britain coming to put on formation flying displays.

In the late summer season, an international soccer competition will bring teams from St. Louis, Montreal, New York and more cities to meet the Toronto Scottish team, present North American champions.

Balls will bound over nets in the Canadian tennis championships, to be played on Toronto Tennis Club courts. Badminton, until recently almost unknown in United States, is "coming" very quickly there, and the international tournament to be held in Toronto will bring many Americans.

Here are Stockings that are looking for Trouble

Not for them ladylike tea dancing in dainty pumps! Theirs is the active life of Varsity, of games, of shopping, of sport clothes, of ACTION!

They crave action—just to show that they can take it. They get attention—just because of their smart appearance.

All silk service weight in the newest shades and styles . . . 69c. Also in sheer Chiffon.

No. 5000—
"The choice of smart women everywhere." So dill, so long wearing and only $1.00

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI, 3600
4 other shops in Toronto

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

sky's Suite from the Ballet Petrouchka, formed an interesting contrast. The former is by a musician whose significance deserves an examination which it may not yet be easy to give. Sibelius is a composer of undoubted ability, but free from any of the affectation or cleverness which is the limitation of much modern music. His music represents a sort of return to the dark soil, a seriousness of primitive emotion which is disturbing to the spirit of one accustomed to breathe a less elemental atmosphere. In art of this order there is something sinister, suggestive of death and madness; prophetic, perhaps, of the awful time when according to Hardy, men will prefer Egdon Heath to the vineyards of France. But the beauty is rare and compelling, and the orchestra provided a very impressive importance.

The Stravinsky has all the energy and technical virtuosity—though in Stravinsky that latter quality is hard to estimate—for which the Russian musician was famous. It also has all the elements of unpleasant sound. One might reasonably call it hideous; but unfortunately Stravinsky cannot be so dismissed, and the fact is that even the very fastidious cannot help listening with a certain horrid fascination! Mr. Alberto Guerrero, who is a master of modern music, took the piano part. It is not, of course, anything like a concerto; the piano is simply another instrument in the extraordinarily noisy orchestra.

N.F.L.

MUSEUM LECTURE
(Continued from Page 2)
Nova Scotia and the district around Port Arthur were regions which produce Canadian agates and amethysts, the latter stones not of such rich and deep colouring, however, as those of other countries. Renfrew County bears large quantities of beryl and Hastings is rich in both feldspar and sodalite.

U.C. LIT

Get your ticket for the anniversary celebrations in the college rotunda between 12 and 2 p.m. today.

With an overtime goal, Canadiens defeated Maple Leafs 3-2 in Montreal last night, giving the Frenchies a tie with Maroons for second place in the International section of the N.H.L.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22nd, 1934

No. 91

AFFIRMATIVES WIN HART HOUSE DEBATE

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Berlin—Chancellor Adolph Hitler will join forces with Great Britain in an effort to start a new movement for disarmament, it was reported here. Hitler's "approval" of Britain's plan has revived hopes for the reopening of the Geneva Conference.

New York—A plan for educating University students with great rapidity by inducing a hypnotic sleep will be tried here shortly.

Moscow—One hundred and one survivors of the sunken steamer Chelivsk were reported in grave danger of perishing on a drifting and breaking ice flow.

Mendoza, Argentine—San Juan Province was in the hands of rebels today, after a two hour battle, in which an unknown number of persons were killed and wounded.

London—Efforts to induce Prince Sigvard of Sweden to give up his romance with a German actress continued to meet with failure.

Ottawa—Revision of the Canadian constitution to meet present conditions is under consideration by federal authorities.

Brussels—Thousands of Belgians thronged the city to pay their last respects to their sovereign as the flag draped casket lay in state awaiting the funeral services today.

MONARCHY POPULAR IN BELGIUM TODAY

Little Likelihood of Republican Disorder at Coronation

LEOPOLD IN FAVOUR

While there is strong possibility of a demonstration by republican interests during the coronation of Prince Leopold of Belgium today, there is little likelihood of any such action assuming the proportions of an attempt to overthrow the monarchy. This opinion was advanced to The Varsity by Roger Guyot, of the Brazilian Light and Traction Company of Toronto, who is an authority on Belgium.

"I think that the monarchy, under the late King Albert, was generally popular with the people of Belgium. When I was last in Belgium, some years ago, Prince Leopold did not enjoy quite the same popularity as did

NEW PHENOMENON TREATED IN BOOK BY PHYSICS STAFF

Superconductivity Discussed by Toronto Scientists in Recent Work

DISCOVERED IN 1911

Many New Plants for Study Although No Practical Application

Dr. E. F. Burton, head of the department of physics, assisted by six other members of his staff, has just published an important scientific book entitled "The Phenomenon of Superconductivity". Superconductivity is an entirely new subject and the book was written to fulfil the need for a simple but comprehensive statement of the facts which are known about it. Much of the material deals with work accomplished at Toronto by the authors themselves and by others who have previously carried out experiments in the laboratory here under Professor McLennan, former head of the department.

"The phenomenon of superconductivity," said Dr. Burton, "was first discovered in the low-temperature laboratory of the late Professor Kamerlingh Onnes in 1911, and, with the growing interest in this low-temperature region, this curious phenomenon has become of quite wide interest in the scientific world. Certain metals, e.g., mercury, tin and lead, become perfect conductors of electricity at very low temperatures distinctly above the absolute zero of temperature—the scientific will-o-the-wisp temperature at which theoretically many strange things would come about.

(Continued on Page 4)

Copp Scholarship

Due to the part the University of Toronto undergraduates have in the raising of the John Copp Scholarship, the committee would like to outline its progress up to the present.

The committee has felt that owing to the nature of the scholarship and the reason for its inception, that the undergraduates would want to accept the main responsibility of raising the necessary amount. On this premise the committee has organized the University under the various faculties. The president and other officers of each faculty have been personally enthusiastic enough to offer their wholehearted support and co-operation. It is through these officers that facilities are being arranged to enable each student, if he so wishes, to contribute. It has been

(Continued on Page 2)

SIR WILLIAM MULOCK

Chief Justice of Ontario, Chancellor of the University, and one of the foremost of Canadian statesmen and financiers, who will address the Engineering Society this afternoon on the subject "Comments on Current Conditions". Sir William, who recently celebrated his ninety-third birthday, will be introduced by Professor T. R. London of the Faculty of Applied Science.

DRAMATIC IRONY CRITICALLY VIEWED

Professor Sedgewick Gives Second of Alexander Series

LECTURES AT HART HOUSE

"The concept of dramatic irony is a direct inheritance of German Romanticism," said Professor G. G. Sedgewick, speaking on "Irony in Drama" in the second of the annual series of Alexander lectures, at Hart House Theatre yesterday afternoon.

The attitude of the spectator is ironic: he goes to the theatre to enjoy dramatic illusion with a "willing suspension of disbelief". He cannot interfere with the life being portrayed on the stage, but he can view it with the detached sympathy of one who has a foreknowledge of that life. This is the general dramatic irony which is always present with the spectator as he waits for it to be awakened into specific dramatic irony by some party.

(Continued on Page 4)

ELECTION POSTERS

Arrangements have been made as in the past by the Sketch Committee and the House Committee for the display of election posters of candidates in Hart House during the week previous to the elections on 7th March. Each candidate who so desires may place one poster in the corridor leading from the Hall Porter's desk to the Great Hall at any time after 8 a.m. on Thursday 1st March.

Posters may be no larger than 24" x 36" and may be done by professionals as well as by amateur members of the House.

It has been the practice in the past to select a few of the outstanding posters to add to the permanent collection owned by Hart House. Only posters done by non-professional members will be judged and the designer of the poster is asked to place his name, faculty and year on the face of the poster. Any member who wishes to make election posters may leave his name at the Warden's office and it will be posted on the notice board at the Hall Porter's desk.

SENIOR A SQUAD DEFEAT M'MASTER BY WIDE MARGIN

Consistent Basketball by Varsity Clinches Game from Start

REVERSE PREVIOUS DEFEAT

Sniderman, Bodrug and Levy Were Score Makers for Blues

Leslie Mackay

The formidable University of Toronto senior basketball team handed the rival squad from McMaster a merciless 38-21 lacing in the gymnasium in Hart House last night. The winners played heads-up basketball to dominate almost every minute of play. Her crushing defeat was a bitter pill for McMaster to take after her win in the last encounter.

From the first whistle the result was never in doubt. Varsity turned in consistently even basketball, with clean passes and well-oiled plays. The lads from the Ambitious City, however, played a ragged game, scoring almost half their points on foul shots, most of their baskets being netted on wild rushes or from mid-floor. Willis, who was shifted for most of the game from centre to guard, with Gold, worked together on a defence that allowed the maroon and grey players but a single basket in the first half.

Varsity swept into the lead from the start, garnering points with such success.

(Continued on Page 3)

BIOLOGICAL CLUB SHOWS RARE EXHIBITS

Curious Subjects Illustrated by Display at Quadrennial Conversazione

"Unusual exhibits of great value and rare interest will be on display in the Botany and Biology Buildings on Friday evening when the Biological Club, assisted by the Departments of Botany, Zoology, Biochemistry and Psychology, presents its Quadrennial Conversazione. I strongly urge all who can to attend, and promise them a most entertaining and worthwhile evening." Mr. H. V. Pritchard, secretary of the Biological Club, told The Varsity in an interview yesterday afternoon. Mr. Pritchard went on to outline some of the features of the Conversazione. "Those who do not know what makes a water flea go around will have a chance to find out when this minute animal, magnified thousands of times, is projected on a screen in such a way as to show the movements

(Continued on Page 4)

PREMIER BENNETT GIVEN OVATION AS "AYES" TAKE LARGE MAJORITY

Decision of House Solidly Supports Imperial Preference When Prime Minister Debates with Undergraduates Before Enthusiastic Gathering

By P. M. Morley

"My answer to the criticism that imperial preference has been injurious to Canadian trade is that in a recent League of Nations report, Canada was accorded fifth position in the export nations of the world," said the Right Hon. R. B. Bennett, Prime Minister of Canada, speaking on the motion "That in the opinion of this House it is in the best interests of Canada to retain her present preferred position in Empire markets", which was upheld by 311-190 in a packed and enthusiastic house.

WILL PASS BILL ON CENTRAL BANK

Premier Bennett Discusses Current Questions with "The Varsity"

POPULAR WITH STUDENTS

By Reg. E. Watters

"I would say that the reason the student body in Canada is less intensely nationalistic than those in some European countries or in the Orient consists mainly in the fact that the political ideals of our country and the type and character of our institutions give an entirely different outlet to their energies," declared the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett in a very brief interview with The Varsity, conducted in the few moments available to the eminent guest at the University yesterday—an interview that took place amid a small barrage of requests for autographs, a host of congratulations on the address delivered just previously at a Hart House luncheon, and constant interruptions from an admiring coterie during the short drive to the club Premier Bennett was next addressing.

"Another cause of this lack of nationalism," (Continued on Page 4)

HART HOUSE ELECTIONS

Nominations for the standing committees and the Squash Racquets and Camera Committees of Hart House open tomorrow morning at 9 a.m. They will not as in former years be listed in order of their receipt at the Warden's office, but the names of nominees will be pooled. Nomination forms are available at the Warden's office. Nominations close at 6 p.m. Wednesday 28th February and withdrawals are permitted only until 6 p.m. on Thursday 1st March.

"Imperial preference has been the natural goal of Canadian trade ever since it was proposed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1902," said the Premier. After a short resume of events leading up to the Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa, he stressed the fact that there was no comparison between the position of the farmer in pre-preference days with that under present conditions when their produce was assured of being received in the greatest market in the world.

Dealing with special reference to Soviet Russia, Mr. Bennett said that this country would receive the same treatment as other trading nations except in the case of certain embargoes which had been imposed because they were sold with no relation to the cost, permitting them to be "dumped" on other countries. "Britain does not hope, nor even expect to be self-sufficient with regard to wheat or cattle," he concluded, in reply to an earlier statement from the opposite side of the house. "We are living in an age of realities and it is only natural that when during the years 1921-31, every country in the world had raised their tariff walls against Canada, we should make an arrangement which is both practical and at the same time fulfils the old dream of an imperial preference."

As a fitting opening to a second decade of Hart House debates, Professor Gilbert Jackson, a former Speaker of the House, introduced Premier Bennett and expressed the hope that similar to Oxford and Cambridge Unions, (Continued on Page 4)

S.C.M. Corner

A writer in a recent issue of the Canadian Student has drawn attention to the amount of anti-war propaganda which is abroad in Canada today. His comment is significant. While pointing out that any move in the direction of a just and lasting peace between the nations of the world must meet with widespread approval, he asks whether much of the current propaganda is not designed to defeat its own end. "What is needed," he points out, "is not negative propaganda but positive anti-war agitation, but pro-peace." The need of the world today is for peace-makers; and today, as ever, such persons are "blessed".

The possible ways in which students may use their influence as makers of peace—and that positively and constructively—deserve the attention of all students who are interested in averting another World War. "How may they promote sympathetic understanding and appreciation of the problems and points of view of students of other nations? How may they promote mutual understanding and goodwill among students of differing race? How may they foster right attitudes toward persons who differ with them? And how can their thinking attitudes and relationships be dominated by their

(Continued on Page 2)

Eighty Candles Burning Bright Lit To Celebrate Birthday Night

By G. H. Jack

An exquisitely and artistically modelled replica of University College will be the birthday cake at the Octogenarian Birthday Party of University College Literary and Athletic Society in the Great Hall of Hart House this evening. The Varsity was accorded a special preview of this extraordinary feature in the kitchens of the House yesterday, so we know whereof we speak.

Eighty years!

The cake was made by a Swiss baker, Gustave Buechi, entirely in the Hart House kitchens and its beauty and perfection indicate that a craftsman's hand has been at work. Not a detail has been overlooked in its design; even the famous and intricate main doorway has been accurately reproduced. The model brings to the attention of the observer many significant features of the exterior of the college building that frequently pass unnoticed.

Eighty years!

The replica measures some forty-two inches across and is about fourteen inches high. All measurements are in

(Continued on Page 2)

Big and Little Fight and Wrangle Policies Poked From Every Angle

By Milton Shulman

The question before the house now is: Who is more popular, Mr. Bennett or Mr. Woodsworth? And if so, what of it?

Hurrah for Mr. Bennett!
Mr. Bell: "Bluff, bluster, ballyhoo and hunkum." We presume he was referring to the coming Hart House elections.

Hurrah for Premier Bennett!
Heckler: "Where will Mitch Hepburn be?" A. D. B. Marshall: "You'll find out when the election comes."

Hurrah for R. B. Bennett!
Mr. Sam Hughes bewildered the house with the word "tergiversation" no less than three times during his speech. Page Mr. Webster!

Hurrah for Prime Minister Bennett!
Mr. J. L. Lay: "The Liberal Government may have left behind a baby in the form of the depression, but the present government certainly suckled it well." Mr. S. Hughes: "Will the speaker acknowledge the parentage of that joke?"

Hurrah for the Member from West Calgary!

Mr. H. G. Skilling: "The definition (Continued on Page 4)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper
Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '34
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOER, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35,
Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crocker, '39.
Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Ken G. Robb Assistant—N. F. Langford

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22nd, 1934

HART HOUSE DEBATES

Last night's tongue-fest at Hart House afforded one more demonstration of the absurdity of debates, and another revelation of the political vacillation of the loquacious patrons of these vocal circuses. That students are "swayed by every wind of doctrine" and are utterly devoid of any profound convictions on political matters is obvious from the fact that, whereas last night Mr. Bennett enjoyed the shallow plaudits of the House, Mr. Woodsworth revelled in a similar reception some weeks ago. It would scarcely be believed that allegedly thoughtful undergraduates could be hypnotized by the effusive oratory of these two gentlemen from Ottawa. Surely the Prime Minister, with all his impassioned eloquence, did not succeed in converting his pliant critics to Conservative doctrine so soon after Mr. Woodsworth had evoked their sophomoric back-slapping.

The sole justification for the existence of Hart House debates would seem to be that of entertainment by displays of immature logic and cascades of superficial dialectic. In any case, they ought not to be taken seriously. The very wording of the question for last night's debate, "That in the opinion of this House it is in the best interests of Canada to retain her present preferred position in Empire markets" precluded any vital discussion, since all parties are pledged to such a policy. It simply afforded the Prime Minister and the politically-ambitious members of the Macdonald-Carter Club an opportunity to volubly defend their party's prosecution of that policy, and gave the liberal and C.C.F. devotees a chance to let us know that they are "agin the government". No one spoke to the question, for all were agreed on it. The debate served to show the hideousness of party allegiance when the whole issue plainly amounts to "you're in and I'm out".

Youthful orators were enabled to vent their egoism with supposedly clever but really senseless chatter about nothing at all. It is nothing less than shameful that leaders in political and educational circles should sit in audience at last night's debate, grinning complacently as their particular party megaphones attempted to vindicate or condemn—as the case may be—their public conduct, when the plight of thousands of our citizens clamours for something more substantial than a wordy three-hour debate upon a question which already commands unanimous support.

But then, in the last analysis, the function of Hart House debates is to prepare men who will one day take the place—as Mr. Bennett himself suggested—of those who, even in these times, spend their energies and the finances of the country in delivering in the House of Commons speeches of four and a half hours' length.

LIGHT EIGHTY CANDLES FOR U.C. ANNIVERSARY

(Continued from Page 1)
exact proportion to those of the original. The cake will carry eighty red and white candles in appropriate commemoration of the society's ripe old age.

Eighty years!

When seen yesterday, there still remained a number of finishing touches to be added to the model and conjectures concerning the nature of certain of them are being rather recklessly made. It is rumoured, for instance, that a photograph of Syd Herment will adorn the front doorway, and that, in order to balance the solitary tower over the said entrance, a bust of Dick Bell will be superimposed on the structure. The rumours are not altogether without foundation, it is understood, so the well-Lit. birthday cake should be a centre of interest this evening.

Eighty years!

This delightful bit of confectionery will stand at the head table in the Great Hall but placed so that it will not obstruct the features of the chairman of the banquet, Mr. Bell, should the rumoured bust be missing.

Eighty years!

The toast of the evening, the one to the Literary Society, will be proposed by Sir William Mulock and will be responded to by Dr. Cody on behalf of past members and officers and by Gordon Skilling on behalf of present members and officers.

Eighty years!

The society will adjourn to the Junior Common Room at nine o'clock for the regular meeting of the society. This meeting is to be featured by gratis supplies of the iniquitous weed and the flowing bowl (of cider (?)).

S.C.M. CORNER

(Continued from Page 1)

loyalty to Jesus Christ? These are not mere academic questions, but questions which demand thought, action, and prayer, and that immediately."

Art, Music and Drama

A.C. Players' Guild

This week the Players' Guild turned classical, for Miss Dorothy Walker presented Euripides' Medea at yesterday's performance. If the choice of the play was for the purpose of getting as many people on the stage as possible, the decision was justified. The cast amounted to twelve, all women with the exception of Jason, who did a meritable performance. Medea was done by Betty Fraser; the messenger by Bernice Merrick; the guardian of the children, Betty Robinson; the children, Dorothy Linklater, Doris Cooper; and the chorus of Corinthian women, Nora Loeb, Harriet Clarke, Dorothy Richardson, Helen McLennan, Amy Smith, Mary Grey.

As the play is a departure from the usual lines of production of the Guild, a criticism is difficult. The choruses might have achieved more colour, and the action could have been smoother. Gordon Robertson, as Jason, and Bernice Merrick, as the Messenger, were the only two who made anything vital out of their parts. Perhaps, also, Betty Robinson, who had a short part as the guardian of the children, but accomplished with some power. Medea might have done better had she been less poetic and melodramatic. The costumes were some of the best that the Guild has seen this year, and the make-ups, especially of Medea, were good. The set was simple and, therefore, effective. J.P.M.

(Continued on Page 4)

After weeks of investigation in all corners of the world, it has at last been indisputably determined just what happened to the long missing Feature Editor of "The Varsity", whose disappearance some weeks ago caused a mild sensation about the campus. It has been ascertained that he was abducted by agents of the Soviet, translated across the Atlantic, and sentenced to a slow and painful death in the Salt Mines of Siberia. The following snapshots, retouched by a staff artist, depict various episodes leading up to the tragedy.

On our left we see the Feature Editor as he often appeared while supposedly engaged on Varsity business. The pleased expression on his face leads us to believe that this touching photo was taken as he was in the act of carrying on a conversation with Phannie, his favourite canary. The next picture is a remarkable likeness to the missing editor's headgear, which he was alleged to have worn on the eventful night of his abduction. A significant stain will be noted in the lower left hand corner. With this we show the exact replica of his shoe, which he had a habit of removing to throw at the night editor, when interrupted during the formulation of his plans for a footlight parade.

On the left we show a facsimile of Phannie, the sorrowing canary, whose love for her master has resulted in her losing some fourteen pounds and becoming a mere shadow. The shadow at the bottom, representing Phannie, is not very distinct, but the rest of the picture is good, so we're running it anyway. Next we present an action photo, slightly retouched, of the car in which he was last seen leaving for parts unknown. The figure bound and gagged on the floor of the rumble seat can readily be recognized as the beloved "Nell" himself. The Soviet agent in the front seat is believed to be a former officer in the Cossacks, who has successfully disguised himself by removing his beard. The touching picture that follows gives the artist's conception of the poor Feature Editor, bent with the labour of his toil, manfully endeavouring to pick holes in something or other. His previous experience along this line has proved the only factor in prolonging his precarious, wretched, and utterly miserable existence. Last of all we show a remarkable flashlight shot of the typewriter on which this story was written, which at present is among the valuable collection of antiques remaining in Hart House. The Feature Editor is believed to have used this in some of his weaker moments, or in other words, when he wrote something. Photos courtesy of Ashcan and Crippled.

Special to The Varsity, copyrighted and all rights reserved by C.I.P., U.P., A.P., C.P., and the A. & P. Kugur.

COPP SCHOLARSHIP
(Continued from Page 1)

left to the student heads of each college and faculty to arrange their own method of collection. Several other organized subscriptions are being raised, U.T.S. students and Old Boys, the fraternities, staff of the University of Toronto, and some of the University graduate organizations are making collective contributions. There also have been a number of private contributions from personal friends and admirers of the youth in whose name this scholarship is founded.

The scholarship is being presented to the University by each contributor. The opportunity of giving this scholarship its greatest support is offered to the undergraduates of the University; it is hoped they will accept the responsibility.

When you smoke
Winchester cigarettes you enjoy the finest tobaccos, Blended Right! Nothing equals the satisfaction
they give.

Winchester
CIGARETTES

SAVE THE POKER HANDS

Blended Right!

Study the Art of Living

Toronto is a part of the great world of travel and society, in the Royal York Hotel. Come here to mingle with the city's notables and their most interesting guests, and to add your share to the atmosphere of gay sophistication.

Afternoon Tea Musicals—4.30 to 6 p.m.
Rex Battle's Concert Orchestra. In the Palm Room off the Main Lobby.

Supper Dance—Introducing a new star, Billy Bisset, with his Royal Yorkers. 9 to 1.30 a.m., nightly (except Sunday).

Special Rates for College Parties
Phone Wa. 2511

THE ROYAL YORK
A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance.
They are up to the minute.
Also complete outfits and evening wraps.
Two stores to serve you.
Special rates for students.

FREEMAN'S

256 College Street
KI. 0981

571 Yonge Street
KI. 3270

Copyrights and Patents

J. R. Cadwell, M.A.
Barrister, Solicitor, etc.
300 BLOOR ST. EAST
Ra. 212-2122

THE HOSTESS DRAWING ROOM
Toronto's unique social rendezvous, where you may entertain graciously, economically and without personal effort. Reserve your dates for bridges, teas, receptions, banquets, business meetings, etc. 891 Bay St., between Grosvenor and Broad-albani. KI. 9861.

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you
consult Luke.
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps
8 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1885

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
CREST PINS or RINGS
(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body. Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

ON SALE TO-DAY THE "UNDERGRADUATE"

BLUES PLAY HOSTS TO MCGILL REDMEN TO-MORROW

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

The Vagabonds won the City League championship last night when they defeated Varsity for the third time. The better team won, but the Varsity squad gave them real opposition and the result was never a foregone conclusion. The Vagabonds have a powerful team with Margot Thompson and Fran Westman, two of the best hockey players who have ever played for Varsity, heading the lineup. Betty Winlow also made her presence very much felt. She is well up on the scoring honours this season.

While this year's hockey team isn't the best that has ever represented the University, it would be hard to find their match in the "never say die" spirit, as the games this year have amply demonstrated. Nevertheless, Jimmie McPherson has a lot in his mind that he will probably take pains to let them know, and which if acted upon, will make for visible improvement. There is a possibility that a fourth game will be played against the Vagabonds next week and also that there will be an exhibition game with an out-of-town team in the near future.

St. Hilda's clinched their group title last night by defeating Vic II who were strong contenders. The score, 1-0, shows just about the relative difference between those teams who fought to a tie in their previous games. Having disposed of one Vic team, the Saints will meet the Scarlet and Gold first team next week in the playoffs.

The intercollegiate team will have to show a different brand of basketball than they exhibited in their game with the Grads last night, if they intend to bring the Bronze Baby back with them from London this week-end. 14-10 isn't much of a score, even if they were on top, which they weren't.

The Grads had a smart team with the star forward line of several years back, Wilma Hault, Louise Crouch, Eleanor Stewart and Sally Ballard. These combined with Phil Griffiths, Jean Allen, Loretto McGarry and Murid Atkin on defence, were just too good for the Blue team.

With the score 10-5 in their favour, the Grads ran wild in the last half and only the excellent work of the Varsity defence held them down to two baskets. The Varsity forwards weren't on their shots at all, and couldn't seem to break into the basket to score.

Sport Notices

Sr. Vic Baseball—

Game today with Forestry at 4 p.m. Everybody out.

U.C. Athletic Board—

It will be to the advantage of all members to meet Friday at 1 p.m. in the Lit. offices.

MONARCHY POPULAR IN BELGIUM TODAY

(Continued from Page 1)
his father. However, a great deal has happened since, and he may now be more in the public favour.

There is little danger, in the opinion of Mr. Guyot, of the radical forces gaining control of the army. "In the event of an uprising, however, I am unable to say whether or not the police would be strong enough to cope with the situation."

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By B. J. McGuire

"And that's that," said the Varsity cagers as they sauntered off the Hart House floor with a double victory over McMaster last night. The victory for Mac McCutcheon's intermediates was more or less expected. Mac has the boys playing real ball and as a result they are now deadlocked with O.A.C. for first place. However with the seniors it was different. McMaster had a forward line which averaged six foot two. Now being six foot two may be slightly inconvenient if you have a preference for friends of the Janet Gaylor stature, but it comes in mighty handy in a game where the general idea is to flip a ball through a loop eight feet off the floor. This extra yardage was expected to be a big help to McMaster but for some reason or other they were unable to click and dropped from their pedestal of supremacy at the head of the league into a tie with Yelles. While on the subject we must say something about Irvin Levy who starred for the Blue team last night. Levy must have his sights regulated to perfection because he was sinking them from all angles.

Tonight is the night when Tommy Loughran and Primo Carnera were scheduled to put on their waltz for the heavyweight title. The difficulty appears to have been that there was another dance scheduled for the same night. Evidently some thought that Primo's and Loughran's dances did not come up to par so it is being held over until next week. We'd like to bet that Tex Rickard turned over in his grave when he heard that one. And speaking of the manly art of self defence we would like to draw attention to a body of students who take the sandist sausage for a new record of being rough, tough and nasty. We are referring to the fourth year of the department of mining engineers which in case of doubt is a department of S.P.S. This class which numbers less than a dozen contains three intercollegiate champions. Ned Hallett won the middleweight boxing crown by a knockout, while George Dimitroff won the intercollegiate wrestling crown at 155 lbs. The other Son of Haultian to capture a title was Eaton, who took the welterweight wrestling. In addition to this another chap of pugilistic tendencies in this same department is Paul Headley, who except for a broken hand sustained earlier in the season would have probably been fighting at 135. Assuming that boys in the mining game are necessarily well able to take care of themselves, we must admit that three intercollegiate champions out of a class of a dozen is reaching a high degree of proficiency.

This week will see concluded most of the athletic activities around the campus. At Hart House we will see McGill and Varsity tangle in a crucial game in their intercollegiate basketball series. This fixture is scheduled for Friday night. The following night swimmers from McGill, McMaster and Varsity will splash it out for possession of the swimming title. In Montreal Varsity's gym team will match stunts with the McGill squad in their annual gyma meet, while the Varsity women's basketball team will go to London where they anticipate a victory in the annual tournament and a return of the Bronze Baby to Toronto.

University Occasions

ARCADIAN COURT

caters for all university affairs—for teas, receptions, dinners, balls, at-homes—telephone the hostess, AD. 8711

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

SENIOR A SQUAD DEFEAT MCMASTER

(Continued from Page 1)

cess that the half-time scoreboard marked 18-6. The Baptists could do little more than race around the floor in desperate efforts to check the blue and white axes; Dilworth and Laughlin alone played steady games for McMaster. With her defence functioning perfectly the Varsity forwards supplied a powerful scoring punch. Her stellar sniper, Levy, reeled off four baskets in a row, and Mitchell, Willis and Gold also contributed liberally to the Blue total.

The first eight minutes of the second period found both teams featuring lengthy passes, dribbles and shots. This suited the McMaster squad but finding it too expensive, Lou Hayman's men forced their opponents to play their brand of game and again began piling up the score. Sniderman and Bodrug at last hit their stride in the final frame, and with Levy, who looped five more points, made it a walk-over for the Toronto team. Only rarely did the team from Hamilton merit the spotlight; they worked too hard to play even good orthodox basketball, let alone brilliantly. The winners were seldom flustered, cool heads and crafty plays accounting for a well-deserved victory.

The standouts of the game were Levy, Sniderman and Willis who amassed 13, 8 and 6 points respectively. Mitchell, Gold and Bodrug, also of the winners, claim more than honourable mention. High-point men for the losers were Stroud, Dilworth and Dingwall, while their team-mates Palmer and Laughlin also turned in fine efforts.

Varsity—Levy, Bodrug, Mitchell, Willis, Gold, Prince, Sniderman. McMaster—Dilworth, Palmer, Fittin, Laughlin, Dingwall, Moore, Lenni, Stroud, Hill. Referee—T. Pogue.

LADY PUCKSTERS SUFFER DEFEAT

Vagabonds Take Blues to Camp with Score of 4-0

MARGOT THOMPSON SCORES

Battling gamely to the end the Varsity women's hockey team took their third defeat in the City League series at the hands of the Vagabonds last night at the Arena, losing a hard fought game 4-0. A fourth game may be played but the Vagabonds are now champions. Varsity matched the winners for speed and certainly had an equal share of the territorial play, but just didn't seem to have what it takes to get goals.

Margot Thompson opened the scoring for the Vagabonds in the first two minutes. Showing speed and splendid back checking in centre ice, the Varsity squad was disorganized, and careless about covering up in front of the net and Betty Winlow, sharpshooting Vagabond right wing, scored the second counter. After a rest the Blue team skated in to try and surmount the two-goal lead. They forced the pace for a while, but without managing to beat M. Boulty. The Vagabonds came back hard and in a scramble in front of the net Betty Winlow slipped the puck past Gladys Munroe, Varsity goalie, who had been pulling off some spectacular saves.

Margot Thompson again scored in the first two minutes of the third period. With everything to win, the Varsity (Continued on Page 4)

Quebec Dog Derby Thrills

Names to conjure with in the dog sled derby world are now on the lists of drivers who will contend for the premier honors of the Quebec Dog Sled Derby to be staged in the Ancient Capital, February 23rd, 24th, and 25th. Emile St. Godard, mighty musher from Le Pas, Man., will again match dogs, stamina and wits against his great rival Leonard Seppala, the Alaskan whose feats on the trail will both meet strenuous competition from such famous mushers as Jack DeFalco, of Ottawa, Fred Wheeler, of St. Jovite, Que., and Raymond Ritsl, of Orient, Ont. It is expected that the total entries will run well over 30 teams.

The 120 mile classic is famous the world over, and followers of the great hearted dogs and gallant drivers are arranging to make their headquarters at the Canadian Pacific Railway's Chateau Frontenac, where special music, dancing and light-hearted gaiety will feature each evening during Dog Sled Derby Week. Winter sport enthusiasts from European, United States and Canadian centers are this year more than ever before making Quebec their winter playground. Ski-ing, tobogganing, curling and skating are among the popular activities under the direction of Jack Straithdee winter sports director at the Chateau Frontenac.

In regard to the swimming meet it looks like thumbs down for Varsity. The Blue swimmers are somewhat slower than they were last season while McGill appear stronger. The Varsity team is built mostly around the two McCarty boys who are expected to figure largely in the result of the meet. Last season McGill took the title by chopping 1-5 of a second off the relay time set by Varsity. The relay was the final event and the teams were tied at that stage. Win, lose or draw, the meet Saturday night should be well worth looking over and in case this happens to be news there will be several swimmers in the Hart House tank who will line up with Canada in the British Empire games this summer.

BLUE BASKETEERS TAKE TOP PLACE Intermediates Capture Lead by Defeating McMaster 31-23

By Ed Shortt

The Varsity intermediate basketball team came to the top of the league last night, when they defeated the McMaster squad 31-23 in one of the fastest games played in Hart House this season.

Right from the start the game was a fight both teams playing for all they were worth. Varsity couldn't seem to get going at first and allowed the visitors to take the lead till Applebaum sank one of his long shots and started a scoring streak. McMaster also rallied and tied the score at 13-all; then Dingwell scored only to be followed by a nice shot by Gibson to bring the half time score up to 15-all.

In the last period the play was much looser and the passing was wide open. Vanderlick started the scoring, quickly followed by Applebaum, who was put off immediately afterwards. Although deprived of their star shot, Varsity fought to a one-point lead which they extended to 8 points.

Vanderlick and Newman were the outstanding Varsity stalwarts, while Holland and Etherington nobly led the losers. Varsity meets the O.A.C. team in their next game and if they win they will have the championship. Varsity—Vanderlick 9, Mitchell 5, Gibson 6, Newman 4, Applebaum 4, Young 2, Stronach, Magwood. McMaster—Etherington 6, Fudge 4, Hill 4, Sharpe 3, Dingwell 3, Holland 3, Connors, Torrance. Referee—T. Pogue.

EMMANUEL AND SR. S.P.S. ARE HOCKEY VICTORS 3 to 1 Scores in Both Games—Contests Vigorous and Snappy

Outskating, outplaying and outscoring their rivals, Emmanuel College defeated Knox by the score of 3-1 and Sr. S.P.S. emerged victorious over Sr. Meds by the score of 3-1. Both contests were snappy and vigorous with a clean brand of hockey shown throughout.

In the first game Edwards opened the scoring for Emmanuel on a lone effort, neatly picking the corner of the net, shortly after Marsh Laverty made the score 2-0 on a pass from Kerr. Towards the dying moments of the game Knox featured five-man rushes with the result that Cuthbertson slammed one home. However, Edwards for Emmanuel, came right back for his second goal of the game. Edwards, Kerr and Laverty starred for Emmanuel, while Cuthbertson and Neilson played well for Knox.

(Continued on Page 4)

DENTANTICS presents a three act comedy

"THE TORCHBEARERS"

AT HART HOUSE THEATRE, Feb. 22 and 23, 8.30 p.m.

Tickets 80c. including tax, From all Dental Students and at Box Office

Coming Events

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22
 5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club, Music Room, Hart House.
 8.30—Dentantics. The annual Dental stunt night at Hart House Theatre, presents a three-act play, "The Torch Bearers".
 5 p.m.—Special session of U.C. Parliamentary Club in junior common room.
 7 p.m.—Dinner, Great Hall, Hart House.
 9 p.m.—Regular meeting of U.C. Lit. Society, junior common room.
 7.30 p.m.—S.P.S. Debating Club in Debates Room, Hart House. The first of the inter-year debates.
 Sale of the Undergraduate Magazine, U.C. rounda and elsewhere.
 5 p.m.—U.C. Parliamentary Club.
 7 p.m.—Anniversary dinner, Great Hall.
 9 p.m.—Lit meeting, junior common room.
 Celebration of the eightieth anniversary of the founding of the U.C. Lit., Parliamentary Club, banquet, Lit. meeting.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23

5 p.m.—Hart House Friday Afternoon Recital by Men's Glee Club. All music should be in by this date.
 8.30 p.m.—Important membership meeting of the Student League of Canada, common room, Women's Union. All members and candidates for membership are urged to attend.
 8.30—Dentantics. The annual Dental stunt night at Hart House Theatre, presents a three-act play, "The Torch Bearers".

9.30.2.30—Victoria College elections in Alumni Hall.

9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Standing Committees open. These nominations close Wednesday, 28th February at 6 p.m.

7.30.10.30—Biological Club will hold its Quadrennial Conversation in the Botany and Biology Bldgs.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24

4.30 p.m.—Mr. H. Napier Moore, editor of Maclean's Magazine, will speak at the meeting of the University Women's Press Club on the subject of "An Editor's Point of View". All interested are welcome.

8 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., 150 St. George St. Speaker, Dr. A. C. Hill.

9.12 a.m.—Biological Club will hold its Quadrennial Conversation in the Botany and Biology Bldgs.

ST. HILDA'S VICTORIOUS WILL ENTER PLAYOFFS

In one of the best exhibitions in inter-faculty hockey this year, St. Hilda's defeated Vic II 1-0 last night, thereby gaining the right to go on into the playoffs.

The Saints had an evenly balanced team and deserved the win because of their clever work around the net. Ruth Leavens and Dorothy MacDonald were best for Vic.

St. Hilda's — Goal, M. MacDonald; defence, K. Grubbe, E. Palmer; forwards, I. Wallbridge, K. Symons, P. Harrison; alternates, M. Dignam, J. Kirk, P. Cleland, R. Hopkins.

Vic II — Goal, B. Gordon; defence, D. MacDonald, J. Blundell; forwards, R. Leavens, M. Turner, E. Hart; alternates, G. Workman, M. Pratt, D. Burgess, A. Jones.

Referee—O. Dyke.

Have You Lost Anything?
Have You Anything For Sale?

For quick results put a Classified Ad. in "The Varsity."

Phone Midway 6221

DRAMATIC IRONY CRITICALLY VIEWED

(Continued from Page 1)

ticular event in the play.
 "That little word irony has a different meaning for everyone who utters it; it is an animate, changing thing. Sophoclean irony is that wherein the words convey to the audience a meaning (usually ominous) unlike that which the actors receive. Passages from Sophocles' 'Electra' were effectively used in illustration. The play is full of ambiguous words and 'double-entendres'; but the irony is created by more than these verbal incongruities. Opposing forces of action diverge under the spectator's eye — the ironic effect is heightened by the fact that the actor is ignorant of a powerful conflict in which he is a participant."

In Shakespeare there's a long list of "self-deceivers" existing solely for ironic purposes; as also those "dark forebodings" so favoured by the Elizabethan dramatist. In Ibsen's "Ghosts" how dramatic, how almost repulsively dramatic is the irony—but how powerful!

Anticipation in dramatic irony drives the mind forward; this is especially notable in the Greek drama since all their plots were old and revered. Aeschylus seems to say "Compare the present with the future you already know." Reminiscence in dramatic irony occurs when the mind of the actor as well as of the spectator is ironically recalled by mention of a certain word or phrase to a relative incident in the past. With the aid of dramatic irony, the mind of the spectator moves backwards and forwards into the past and future.

AFFIRMATIVES WIN HART HOUSE OEBATE

(Continued from Page 1)

the Hart House debates would be the cradle of future parliamentarians.

"In the world today we are faced with an economic nationalism, in which all countries are anxious to sell and none are ready to buy," said R. A. Bell, introducing the motion. "The Hawley-Smoot tariff in particular has brought about a rapprochement between the nations of the Commonwealth which has resulted in Canada being inside, instead of excluded from, one of the hardest tariff walls to surmount, and has opened up colonial markets hitherto barred to her, by means of bilateral agreements at the Imperial Conference."

"Piling on more barriers to trade will never solve the problem of economic nationalism," said D. Bruce Marshall, replying for the negative. He was not opposed to imperial preference but wanted preference which would permit wholesale lowering of tariff walls to all the nations of the world. "What is the use of an imperial agreement which lets Canada's export trade fall to a greater extent than that of other countries in the depression years?" he concluded.

Mr. John Anderson, speaking for the affirmative, accused the last speaker of producing muddled statistics for Canada's export trade and for omitting to mention that tariff walls had been originally raised by foreign countries against Canada under Mackenzie King's government.

"A nation's commercial standing is determined by the international balance of its indebtedness and not by the excess of its exports over its imports," said H. G. Skilling. A depreciation of the exchange rate was the solution that he offered to cure the country's present ills.

EMMANUEL AND SR. S.P.S. ARE HOCKEY VICTORS

(Continued from Page 3)

S.P.S. had little difficulty in overpowering Meds in the second game, although the contest was fairly close throughout. Hodgson, McLachlan and McNichol were the scorers for the Engineers, while Colman scored for Meds.

Knox — Weir, Stewart, Prowse, Neilson, Caslor, Cuthbertson, McEachern, Campbell, Baugh.

Emmanuel — Williams, Witzel, Edwards, Kerr, Crosby, Laverty, G. Hunter, Gamble, C. Ruser, Martin.

S.P.S. — Ysiss, Kennedy, Hewitt, Dolbear, Patterson, McLachlan, Caldwell, Hodgson, McNichol, Johnston.

Meds — McCreary, Sniffen, Lynch, Colman, Regitt, Preston, Scott, Starr, Oille, Thompson.

Referee—Fullerton.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

VIC DRAMATIC SOCIETY

Tickets will be on sale for the At-Home in the college hall Friday at 1.30 o'clock. They will be sold separately. Every member is expected to buy his or her own ticket. Fees must be paid before tickets can be obtained.

SUNDAY EVENING CONCERT

Eighty single tickets, which will admit men students only for the concert on Sunday next, will be issued at the Hall Porter's desk at 1 p.m. today.

DENTAL AT-HOME

The annual At-Home of the Faculty of Dentistry will be held in the Roof Gardens of the Royal York Hotel on Friday, March 2nd. Don Romanelli and his orchestra will supply the music.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Anyone who has not yet shot the February spoon shoot may do so on Friday. This will be the last chance.

VARSITY BAND

No practice tonight, but any men wishing to settle ticket accounts may do so at 5 p.m. in Room 5, S.P.S.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Final rehearsal today at 5 p.m. in Hart House. A full attendance is requested even if you have been absent previously. Please send in all music for the recital to Mr. Patrick, or the Hall Porter.

NEW PHENOMENON TREATED IN BOOK

(Continued from Page 1)

"It is due to the possible light which superconductivity can throw on the electron theory of matter, that this phenomenon has become of interest to the physicist. The present book is the first monograph in any language on this subject; it deals with the methods of producing and measuring the lowest possible temperatures and with the facts and theories connected with superconductivity. Although there is no apparent practical application of these experimental results, extensive plants for the study of such low temperatures are at present being erected in Cambridge, England, in Pasadena, California, and in Russia. Until the present time these experiments have only been possible in Toronto, Washington, Leiden (Holland), and Berlin." The foregoing statement was made by Dr. Burton in discussing the book. Because of the advanced nature of the subject dealt with it will not be used as a text-book.

LADY PUCKSTERS DEFEATED

(Continued from Page 3)

sity team opened up the play but while the Vagabond netminder had plenty of work, she couldn't be fooled. The Blue outfit gave everything they had but couldn't make their mark on the scoring sheet.

Betty Winlow and Margot Thompson were outstanding for the winners. Margot Rous and Jean Atkinson turned in fine games for Varsity, though all the team deserve credit for fighting well against losing odds.

Vagabonds — Goal, M. Boulby; defence, F. Westman, M. Trincel; centre, M. Thompson; wings, B. Winlow, M. Porter; alternates, E. Broad, B. Barr. Varsity — Goal, G. Munroe; defence, M. Rous, C. Grant; centre, B. Fowler; wings, E. Sanson, J. Atkinson; alternates, P. Thompson, J. Hogg, M. Morris, B. Mark.

JR. U.C. DEFEAT JR. VIC IN BASKETBALL TILT

In an interfaculty basketball game played last night on the upper gym, Jr. U.C. earned a 25-19 decision over Jr. Vic. The game did not affect the standing of the league as Jr. Meds have already won their group.

Vic were badly outclassed in the first half, only being able to score two baskets while U.C. netted ten points.

Jr. U.C. — MacFarlane 7, Damsky, David 4, Hicks, Krieger, Humenick 6, Lipman 8, Shiner, Mirsky, Neill.

Jr. Vic — Vaughan, Elsey 3, Fauss, Drifton, Morrison 4, Cockfield, Wolfe, Saunders 6, Higgins 4, Maitland 2.

THIRD YEAR VIC WOMEN

The senior and athletic sticks will be elected on Friday, Feb. 23 at 1.30 p.m. in Room 18. These important elections deserve a full attendance. Nominations will be received in the college hall today from 10-1. Nominate five people for each position.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE MEN

Tickets for the Anniversary Dinner will be on sale today in the main rounda between 12 and 2 p.m. If any are unsold at that time they will be available at 6.30 p.m. in Hart House.

PHILOSOPHICAL CLUB

The Philosophical Club will meet Thursday in Trinity House at 8 p.m. The paper will be read by Mr. D. C. Walsh.

VIC MUSIC CLUB

The party is getting nearer. All men of the club must inform the executive by Saturday, Feb. 24, who their partner will be in order that final arrangements might be made. There is a list of all the paid up members of the club on the notice board in the college hall.

O.C.E. MEN

Sign Friday morning for tickets to the Hart House Sunday Evening Concert. Tickets will be given out from 8.45 to 9 a.m.

HART HOUSE WRANGLE GETS IN A TANGLE

(Continued from Page 1)

of an import is a commodity Canada buys from abroad." Voice: "What's a broad?"

Hurrah for the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett!

Mr. Saul Rae: "I suggest that the essential Nobility, Aesthetic Idealism, and Mystic Altruism which shone like a halo above those working at the Conference—" Mistah Rae! Such language!

Hurrah for Richard Bennett! — The cheers, yells and songs that greeted Mr. Bennett's appearance on the floor must have given Mr. Henry a little more confidence about his probable reception in the spring.

Hurrah for the Leader of the Conservatives!

Question from the floor: "What about Sir William Beveridge?" Mr. Bennett: "As far as I know he is still living." Always ready with a quick comeback, eh Mr. Premier?

Hurrah for R. B. Bennett, M.P.!

"If you want to know the real facts of their argument, I'll tell you where to go." Please, Mr. Bennett, not during session. It's unparliamentary!

Hurrah for Richard Bennett, Esq. — Mr. Bennett, shaking his finger menacingly: "I said to Mr. Baldwin, 'I'll tell you what we'll do with you.' We bet Mr. Baldwin was scared."

Hurrah for Bennett!

After the Prime Minister's magnificent speech of an hour and ten minutes, the House must have felt obliged to give him that overwhelming victory.

BIOLOGICAL CLUB SHOWS RARE EXHIBITS

(Continued from Page 1)

in its digestive tract, heart and appendages.

"What is coal made of; to what is due the colouring of plants; of what value are the predatory birds and animals; to what extent is sterilization practicable and useful; these are some of the questions we will attempt to answer and illustrate in our exhibit," Mr. Pritchard said. "An evolutionary series illustrating the development of the seed and viviparous habits will be on display; an anthropological exhibit will show the development of the human skull; the preparation of infinitely thin sections of wood will be demonstrated. Other exhibits will embrace the realms of Genetics, Psychology, Biochemistry, Ecology, Palaeontology and Physiology. In short, Mr. Pritchard concluded, "the scale of this exhibition is such that its presentation is possible only once in four years. For this reason the staff and students of the University should not miss the

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

HERE are the advantages that make Dominion Ring Books longer lasting, more convenient to use and better looking:—

Steel Hinges, anchored right into the leather cover, not only make the book flat-opening for easy writing, but prolong its life at the point where ordinary books wear out first.

Fibre Back, coloured and grained to match the leather, prevents scuffing.

Flattened Steel Rings have greater capacity and are easier on punched sheets. Available in 3 or 7 rings.

Yet with all these advantages Dominion Steel Hinge Equipment costs no more than ordinary ring books.

Made in Canada by

DOMINION BLANK BOOK CO., LTD.

ST. JOHNS, QUE.

WILL PASS BILL ON CENTRAL BANK

(Continued from Page 1)

tionalistic fervour," he continued, "may be that our universities and schools are organized in the main on a provincial basis rather than a national."

"What do you think is the significance to the Canadian people of the present European tendency towards a Fascist form of government, or at least a national centralization of power?" we asked.

"Without an understanding of the peculiar conditions of Europe," Premier Bennett answered, "it is impossible to express in a few words and in the limited time, any opinion of value, but it is highly improbable that, having regard to our population, size and political history, the Canadian people should swing towards a Fascist form of government. The division of power under our constitution between the federal and provincial governments is a further factor mitigating against the adoption of Fascist centralization."

"Will the Central Bank bill being presented on Thursday go through in the same form as that advocated in the MacMillan Report?" we inquired.

"There may be some differences made in the details," was the reply, "but I am sure the measure finally adopted will be approved as generally acceptable."

"What is your opinion of the C.C.F. movement?" we went on hurriedly.

"It is difficult to answer your question as it is put," replied Premier Bennett after a pause. "It would take more time than is available, but politically any group of men constituting themselves into a party have the full opportunity to present their views to the public provided that they do not counsel destruction by force of existing institutions."

"Do you think the C.C.F. will gain any large support at the next election?"

"You are probably as well fitted to answer that question yourself as I am," was the response. "However, it is our job to see that they do not."

"Will there be a general election this year?" we inquired finally, as our time had drawn to a close.

"That is a question that should be asked, rather than answered," Premier Bennett concluded with a smile.

opportunity which is afforded them now. We anticipate great interest on the part of the general public. Invitations have been extended to the members of the Provincial Parliament and many have signified their intention of attending this unique offering of the Biological Club."

IMPORTANT

All Torontonensis Write-Ups, Group Photographs, Dean's Messages, must be handed in to the Student's Council, Hart House, not later than Saturday, February 24th. This is the final date with the exception of some Athletic Groups for whom arrangements have been made. After that date no space can be reserved.

ART, MUSIC AND ORAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

Glee Club

On Friday afternoon the Glee Club which was organized in the Fall will give the regular recital. This organization was formed primarily to give the men of the University an opportunity to enjoy part singing. The idea was not to conflict with the songsters but rather to offer a more formal study of part singing with a definite group for each part. It was decided that no voice tests or experience would be required. All men who were interested enough to attend were welcome.

The experiment has proved a great success. Interest has been keen at all the rehearsals. The credit for this is largely due to Mr. Allan B. Sly, who has directed the Club. Mr. Sly's fine musicianship has contributed greatly to the rapid advancement of the Club.

The programme on Friday will be such as to show how much pleasure can be obtained with a very small expenditure of time and effort spent in the study of excellent music by largely untrained singers. The programme will contain selections by Bach and Handel, Rounds and canons, a group of Tudor songs and the "Liebeslieder" Waltzes of Brahms. One very interesting feature of the programme will be the performance of the Sea Shanty "Haul Away, Joe" as arranged by Prof. J. W. Melson of the Faculty of Applied Science.

In addition to the Glee Club numbers, a group of duets, trios will be performed on Recorders of Fipple Flutes by Prof. L. A. Mackay, F. L. Kay and Mr. Sly.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23rd, 1934

No. 92

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Ottawa—A central bank, to be called the Bank of Canada, was instituted yesterday. The bank will take over all gold holdings and its notes will eventually replace all the present currency.

Brussels—King Leopold III will be crowned today in traditional style. The late King Albert was laid to rest yesterday with a solemn ceremony.

Cleveland—Two more fliers were killed to bring the death toll to five in the six days' operation of the new United States army mail service.

Attorney-General Price announced his intention to smash the insurance policy racket which is said to have been carried on in large Ontario centres.

Managua—After the slaughter of military leaders by national guardsmen, a state of siege was declared throughout Nicaragua.

Guelph—O.A.C. cagers defeated Trinity 27 to 17.

HISTORICAL ISSUE OF UNDERGRADUATE

Commemorates Anniversary of Literary and Athletic Society

UPHOLDS HIGH STANDARDS

The historical issue of the Undergraduate appeared yesterday to commemorate the eightieth anniversary of the Literary and Athletic Society of University College. It follows a long succession of U.C. publications and holds high the standards set by its predecessors.

The magazine is well arranged, there is a complete change of cover, number of pages, type and features. This is due to the financial backing secured which makes possible a finer publication. The most striking feature is the cover design by Owen Staples. Mr. Staples' work is well known about the University and the etching the editors have chosen is a very appropriate picture of the college.

(Continued on Page 4)

SOCIALISTS DEFEATED BRITAIN SYMPATHETIC

Young Men too Lazy to Work
Canadian Flag Under Discussion

Commenting on a news item from New York which stated that the Department of Sanitation refused to employ men under thirty because they are too lazy, Mr. Lautenslager said that this would become a general thing as the result of conditions of unemployment and relief work. This is a part of the whole tremendous social problem that is going to face our generation.

"The Canadian national flag has been debated at Ottawa and has appeared as a live issue for the first time. The lack of a flag is rather embarrassing in some situations and I see no reason why we should not have one." Mr. Lautenslager went on to say that probably the most important thing Canada could do to have the British people taxed for her share, as part of the empire, or protection by the British navy.

In speaking of the death of the King of the Belgians, he mentioned the striking fact that though this news has spread all over the world the political repercussions have amounted to nothing.

LITERARY AND ATHLETIC SOCIETY CELEBRATES EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY

Regular Meeting of the Lit.
Attended by Distinguished Speakers

NEW PRINCIPLES ADVANCED

Perhaps the largest gathering of graduates and undergraduates of University College that the Junior Common Room has witnessed in many years attended the regular meeting of the U.C. Literary and Athletic Society held last evening as a part of the Eightieth Anniversary celebrations of the Society. Mr. A. F. W. Plumtree, Hon. President, occupied the chair and introduced the distinguished speakers.

"I think that you can see that the coming people are making a real contribution to the life of the world in that weaknesses are being discarded and new principles are coming to the fore. I don't doubt that in the least. I think also that there is a more definite and earnest purpose in the undergraduates of today than there was before, although I don't want to disparage those who have gone before," said Sir Robert Falconer, the first speaker of the evening. "I hope that before many years have gone by you will be so tested and purified by the conditions which you will be obliged to meet, that this country will have risen greatly in the character of its people."

Before the other speakers were heard the committee on honorary membership made its report to the effect that Col. W. C. Mitchell, Mr. E. A. Macdonald, W. E. Beamish, N. H. Shaw, M. Laskin, G. E. McDonald, D. J. Agnew, and D. Fowell had been elected to honorary membership in the Literary Society.

Dr. Wallace, principal of the college, spoke next, and stated that "I believe that a celebration such as we have had today is extraordinarily well worth while." He emphasized that the scholarship of the University has never been in danger. "I do not believe that

(Continued on Page 4)

SIR JOSEPH FLAVELLE SPEAKS TO ENGINEERS

Banking and National Debts Subject of Address on Current Conditions

Sir Joseph Flavelle was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Engineering Society in the Mining Building yesterday, presenting an address on "Comments on Current Conditions". The Varsity apologizes for an erroneous announcement that Chancellor Sir William Mulock was to be the speaker, which appeared in yesterday's paper. The speaker was introduced by Professor T. R. Loudon, who related some amusing incidents of the days when he was the president of the society.

Sir Joseph confined himself chiefly to economics and banking, a subject with which he is thoroughly familiar as a director of one of the prominent Canadian banks. He pointed out the increases in the various national debts since the commencement of the Great War, and many of the mistakes which had caused the increasing debts. The lecture was liberally illustrated with statistics relating to the national debts and the banking situation. One item which he demonstrated was the tremendous number of one and two dollar deposits on record in Canadian banks during recent years. He also briefly mentioned the central bank system.

Sir Joseph also gave a lucid description of the relation between industry, capital, labour and the consumer, and indicated the ratio between these sections of our civilization to permit the functioning of the capitalistic system. He advised caution and a careful watch for the "red light" in financial dealings. The railway situation and the operation of the board investigating transportation, of which Sir Joseph was a member, was also discussed.

Sir William Mulock Concludes Toast by Reading New U.C. Song

DR. COOY REMINISCES

"To those who find it hard to work I would say this: the most divine blessing conferred on man was that of the necessity to work. Let your devotion to your work here be the example of your purpose in coming here," said the Rt. Hon. Sir William Mulock, P.C., K.C.M.G., LL.D., in proposing the toast to "The Lit.", at the Octogenarian Banquet of the University College Literary and Athletic Society held in the Great Hall of Hart House last evening.

Sir William described the Society as it existed in his day. "In my day the Society took no part as a Society in athletics, although we were at that time deeply interested in the game of Association football. I am pleased to note that the interests of the Society today are not limited to athletics. For example, where will you find more beautiful poetry than I have here?" At this point, Sir William read to the gathering the words of a song composed just before the banquet by Saul Reed and set to music by Ted Livingstone. The song was sung at the regular meeting of the Society afterwards and adopted unanimously as the official song of University College. It is as follows:

University College,
Learned halls of knowledge.
Queen of Varsity's campus,
Red and White are we,
Frosh, soph, junior, senior,
Every man-jack cheer:
University College
All thy sons revere,
University College,
Alma Mater dear!"

"What can compare with that?" asked Sir William. The speaker concluded his remarks by mentioning the long list of illustrious graduates of the college and reminding the students that the present undergraduates are the ones who must take their place.

The toast was responded to by H. Gordon Skilling on behalf of the present members of the Literary Society. "The Lit. has had a real life in miniature. It has been for us a great teacher. We have done those things in it which we will do in later life. For the Lit. then, we give thanks." Dr. H. J. Cody responded to the health on behalf of the former members.

(Continued on Page 4)

VISITORS' DAY

Sunday 25th February will be Visitors' Day in Hart House when members may introduce visitors including ladies into the House between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. Members will be asked to show their membership cards at the door.

The building will be open for inspection. Tea will be served in the Graduate Dining Room between 3 and 4.30 p.m. at 25c per cover.

Birthday Cake of the U.C. Lit.

Made in Hart House kitchen, this replica of University College complete in every detail, formed the piece de resistance of the eightieth celebration of the founding of the University College Literary and Athletic Society in Hart House last night.

GRADUATES DENY HARMFUL EFFECT ON UNIVERSITY

University College Parliament
Retains Hermant
Government

GIVE MANY SCHOLARSHIPS

Opposition Claims Graduates
Do Not Foster Freedom of Speech

"That the influence of graduates upon this University is a pernicious one", was the subject of a lively debate between graduates and undergraduates in the U.C. Parliamentary Club yesterday afternoon. The graduates distinguished themselves admirably by defeating the motion by a vote of 37 to 14.

Mr. Drynan led off for the government by saying that the graduates could be of great assistance in assuring freedom of speech within the university, so that professors could teach what they thought right and undergraduates could enjoy freedom of discussion. But Mr. Drynan didn't think they were doing so and insofar as the graduates failed in this duty they exerted a pernicious influence upon the University.

"Young man, consult your father, he is as old as you are, and sometimes knows as much," quoted one of the Miskys twins, who bewildered the House by debating from opposite sides. Bill Stobie, who out bangs Mr. Bea-

(Continued on Page 4)

ARTHUR LISMER SPEAKS ON POST IMPRESSIONISM

Louvre Begs Now for Canvases by Artists Who Were Once Scorned

"The academic order of artists who stick to traditional methods show up and label those who paint what they see as they see it. To this latter classification belong the Post Impressionists," stated Mr. Arthur Lismer in his lecture on Post Impressionism at the Art Gallery yesterday afternoon. Classification is a very inadequate means of description, but a very prevalent one, and so we say that Cezanne was a Realist, Gauguin a Romantic and Van Gogh an Idealist.

Cezanne, a peasant, living in Aix-la-Chapelle, had the power and individuality to paint nature as it affected him. He felt that world forces were permanent and solid things. He was a great admirer of Virgil and used to see into his landscapes the sweeping descriptions of Virgil's landscapes. Gauguin went to Tahiti to paint. His subjects were beautifully modelled figures, his backgrounds were in luscious colours. He wrote to Strindberg, "Civilization as you know it is a disease and barbarism its only cure." He was more than a little mad but his canvases are masterpieces.

(Continued on Page 4)

VARSITY'S CAGERS MEET MCGILL IN DECISIVE BASKETBALL TILT

Redmen's Squad Considerably Changed Since Last Season

PREPARE FOR STIFF FIGHT

By A. Gruber
Montreal, Que., Feb. 22.—McGill's Big Red basketball squad are taking Western's stunning upset victory over Toronto with the usual steady grain of salt. The Mustangs demonstrated their undeniable possibilities a couple of weeks ago here in Montreal when they held the intercollegiate champs to a 26-23 win, and sniped the Redmen practically into heart failure in the second half to make the final whistle a welcome relief to the eventual victors.

Varsity has usually managed to give McGill a pretty stiff fight on any floor, but the Hart House gym with its usual rabid supply of fans would put quads into any basketball team. The Blue-boys inflicted the first Canadian intercollegiate defeat in three years on the Red squad, when they noised them out last season in Toronto by 32-31. Varsity supporters are warned to expect the same kind of a game Saturday night, for, according to all reports, both teams are just about as evenly matched this year.

Coach Van Wagner has had to remodel his squad considerably since last season, due to the graduation of Mel Rice and Bob Calhoun, who formed one of the finest defences McGill ever had. In their place this year are Oakie Ross and Eddie Silverman, both of whom have seen action in Red colours, the former with the intermediates and the latter four years ago with the seniors. Last year's sensational forward line is intact, with Don Young at centre, and George Faulkner and Captain Reed Lewin on the wings, combining to form one of the most

(Continued on Page 4)

STUDENT SERVICE IN GRAVE DANGER

Dr. Kotschnig Deplores Lack of Financial Help for I.S.S.

AIOS PEACE PROSPECT

The International Student Service, which has been doing valuable work in helping students to get a clear conception of international affairs, is in grave danger of being disbanded for financial reasons. Dr. Kotschnig, the General Secretary of the International Student Service at Geneva, asked for the financial support of the Student's Administrative Council of this University. "The matter is being considered at their next meeting, but I cannot forecast the result," stated Mr. E. A. Macdonald, secretary-treasurer of the Student's Administrative Council, when asked by The Varsity to give his opinion on the action which would be taken.

Professor George M. Wrong, who is very interested in the work done by the Service, said, "The International Student Service is very badly in need of funds today in order to aid the excited students of Germany. During recent years the funds have dropped, whereas the necessities have increased." During the last few years the Canadian universities have fallen down in their contributions to the I.S.S. Other countries too have been forced to reduce their donations. Until two years ago funds were obtained at the University of Toronto by means of a tag day, aside from the outside contributions. However, "tagging" is no longer allowed on the campus so that practically the only source for funds is from outside donations and these too

(Continued on Page 4)

A Win Will Make Blues Tie for First Place with McGill

TEAM IN FINE SHAPE

By W. A. Crochower
Fresh from a decisive win over McMaster in the Big Six, Varsity's Blue cagers expect to resume their winning ways in the intercollegiate senior basketball series when they tackle the invading McGill Redmen at Hart House tonight in what promises to be the crucial game of the series. The Redmen, last year's intercollegiate eagle titleholders, have not lost a game this year, which gives them a record of having lost only one game in four seasons. The lone loss was a 32-31 defeat at the hands of the Blues at Hart House last year.

As has been the custom in the past few years, this year's title will be held by either one of the Montreal or Toronto squads and consequently tonight's game is of great importance. A loss for the Blues will virtually put them out of the running and a win will put them very much in the race as it will mean a tie for first place with the Redmen.

A glimpse at the records of the three intercollegiate games in which Hayman's men have taken part clearly shows that despite their loss in London last week the Blues lead their opponents in every phase of the cage pastime. A feature of the records is that the Blues' aggressiveness on the floor has given them a large number of personal fouls. However, since this aggressiveness tends to make interesting games the fans are putting in no protests.

Coach Hayman will probably start his team with Mitchell at centre, Bodrug and Newman on the wings and his ever-reliable defence pair, Gold and Sniderman as guards. Doc Mitchell has just reached his true form and is expected to turn in his best game of the season. Bodrug and Newman will give Coach Van Wagner's Redmen plenty of trouble. Bodrug is the team's leading scorer in the intercollegiate series, while Newman, the youngster who has made good in his first year as a senior ball player, is

(Continued on Page 4)

GREEK DRAMATISTS ADEPT IN IRONY

Professor Sedgewick Quotes
Aeschylus, Euripides and Sophocles

VARIOUS TYPES OF IRONY

"Irony is employed in drama to point the significance of the situation," stated Professor G. G. Sedgewick in the third of his series of Alexander lectures on "Irony" delivered at Hart House Theatre yesterday afternoon. "It emphasizes the dramatic conflict, and heightens the sense of pity and terror."

The Greeks had no single word to describe what we call irony, although they must have been more strongly affected by it than we are. The Greek audience carried to the theatre a knowledge of the plots, and therefore were armed with foreknowledge, which pointed the language of the personages in the dramas. The audience knew the eventuality, the inevitable, while the person who spoke was ignorant. Ambiguous speech was not necessary for ironic effect; various dramatists employed irony in different ways, giving a heightened contrast of effects.

Professor Sedgewick discussed the Clytemnestra theme, which is the basis for the tragedies written by Aeschylus,

(Continued on Page 4)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper
Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... RAndolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night 'Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COVERN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '34
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '36
Drama ..... M. B. LOER, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35,
Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crookover, '39.
Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.
Night Editor—Florence R. King Assistant—Dorothy G. Walker

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23rd, 1934

STUDENTS ON STRIKE

Observers comparing student groups in Canada and the United States with those in Europe frequently remark on the extent to which the latter take an impelling part in any radical movement, political or social, and though their influence is not always constructive, they at least are not entirely negative or passive, as we so generally are.

By and large, students here are either too blasé and sophisticated to take serious matters seriously, or too immature intellectually to exert any influence. We assume the disgustingly superior attitude of the thoughtless egotist who snubs all individuals who do think seriously, and we think the Europeans naïve because of their enthusiasms.

Yet all students seem to agree on one thing: the universal maladjustment in modern relationships. Those, however, who have the will to protest, are held back by the thousands who passively accept the status quo, and who are too dull to rouse themselves from the ever-deepening rut. They cannot see beyond the rut, they fear the risks of exploration, and their inactivity impedes progress.

The present mass production system of education gives us no encouragement for the future. We are standardized, even in our leisure hours, and any attempt at original thinking merely rouses the contempt of the masses, or the wrath of those who run our educational machinery. We are merely cogs—and the system to which we must subscribe is little more than a memorization process in which docility and receptiveness are the accepted virtues.

It is largely because education in America today is so superficial that our youth refuse to take a serious, active interest in any subject not prescribed for examination. Europeans give higher education only to about ten per cent. of the population, but with the favoured few some care is taken, not to rush them through a set curriculum, but to give them a knowledge and comprehension of the whole business of living. We in America teach from forty to fifty per cent., and because mass educational methods can play no favourites, the upper ten per cent. are held back by the mental incapacity, not even of the general mean, but of the lowest and slowest tenth of the masses. Even our secondary school system, in its efforts to enlighten the dullest, has pulled us all down into the rut from which it meant to raise us.

Thorndyke says that no teacher improves after three years of teaching. Such generalizations must have their exceptions, but it is evident from the lack of intellectual progress made by most high school students, that a large part of the teaching is hopelessly ineffective. Part of the responsibility lies in our teachers' training schools, where method has been confused with routine, and where postgraduate courses are given to students who have almost no teaching experience. The rest of it lies in our school system, which requires the teacher to forego the thrill of bringing the best out of one or two really intelligent pupils because forty dullards must somehow be crammed through the examinations, and which with its deadly routine kills all the initiative of the average teacher.

It is time that both students and teachers throughout Canada and the United States should be awakened to the urgent need for protest—protest against the whole system of mass production and spoon-feeding which permeates the educational system of this continent.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

The Editor,
The Varsity.
Dear Sir:

Recently an article appeared in the columns of The Varsity expressing the sentiments of the Student League, whose meeting was broken up by General Draper's trusty cohorts. Permit me to say a few words on the subject.

In the first place, it is my view that each member of this great British Dominion has the right to freedom of speech. However, this fact should be emphasized, no British citizen has the right to abuse cherished privilege. I will readily admit that changes in our economic and social system must be effected at once, and that university students are particularly suited to initiate such changes; however, I believe that university men and women should be careful lest they incite revolt by their utterances. The masses often place a great deal of faith in the statements of the intelligentsia—no matter how rash those statements may be. Thus the student's duty is to guard this right of free expression, to initiate reform and at the same time to maintain peace and harmony in the state. Furthermore, leaders of the communist party in Russia, Germany, Czechoslovakia and other countries are

(Continued on Page 4)

Art, Music and Drama

Glee Club

The Men's Glee Club under the direction of Allan B. Sly will give this week's recital to be held at 5 p.m. in the Music Room of Hart House on 23rd February. The following programme has been arranged:

I
Chorale from the Cantata "Sleepers, Wake!" ..... Bach
Chorale Prelude on the same melody ..... Bach

(arranged for two pianos)
II Rounds and Canons
Eight Part Canon: Praise God .. Tallis
Three Part Canon: Non Nobis, Domine ..... Byrd
Round: Summer is a-cumen in ..... Old English

III Tudor Group
Trios and Duet for Recorders—
John come kiss me now.....Old English
The Jolly Plough-Boy .. Old English
Now is the month of maying ..... Morley

Madrigals—
Now is the month of maying ..... Morley
Sweet Kate ..... Robert Jones
My Bonny Lass ..... Morley
Recorders—
My Little Pretty One ..... Anonymous
Non Nobis, Domine ..... Byrd

IV Part and Unison Songs

The Anglers' Song ..... Lawes
Calino Custurame ..... Cambridge Lute Book
Cavaliers' Song ..... Welsh Melody

V Modern Group
Drei Liebeslieder Walzer (with piano duet accompaniment) Brahms
Sea Shanty: Haul Away, Joel ..... arrangement by Prof. J. W. Melson

VI Chorus
Hallelujah, Amen from "Judas Maccabeus" ..... Handel
Pianist: Frederick B. Skitch, Frank L. Kay and Allan B. Sly
Recorders: Professor L. A. MacKay, Frank L. Kay and Allan B. Sly Madrigal Singers: F. G. Ongley, A. W. Brown, W. K. W. Baldwin, E. H. Barrett and L. E. Jones.

St. Thomas' Church

As promised last Sunday during the regular Sunday half hour of Choral music presented by CFRB at 5.45 p.m. the Choir will sing a Lenten Cantata "The Last Supper," by Cecil Forsyth. The solo passages for Baritone will be sung by Wm. Mason. A setting of the Lord's Prayer for Male Chorus by a Cleveland musician, will also be included on this unique programme.

In all their slender symmetry
They tear your pants from waist to knee
Rip-p-p-p! Then merry breezes play
Where woolly gantries once held sway.
C-C

The students and the Powers, that-be
I'm sure will all agree with me
These samples of artistic grace
Are a public menace in this case.
C-C

So if you chance to tear your clothes
Here's good advice from one who knows:
"Your tattered state is quite all right
As long as you keep out of sight
As long as you conceal your plight
And wait for all the garish light
Of day to fade into the night
Before you take your homeward flight Else you will be embarrassed—quite."
Kilkenny.

THE HANDLES ON THE HART HOUSE DOORS

In the good old golden days of yore
The latch-string hung outside the door:
One pull the portal opened wide
And warmth and welcome glowed inside.
C-C

'Tis sad that such old customs die
Here's ample cause to weep and sigh:
Ere many years their course had sped
A door became a thing to dread.
C-C

At Hart House let the man beware
Who swiftly tries to enter there.
Two doors his progress will retard,
The left one open, the right one barred.
C-C

The out-going crowd enjoy a
"squeeze"
While in-going students stand and freeze.
This liberty-loving generation
Should seek some speedy alteration.
C-C

By dint of superhuman strength
The inner precincts (gained at length)
Another hazard will reveal,
Enough to test a heart of steel.
C-C

The sunlight through the windows streaming
Sets handles on the doors a-gleaming
Like beacon flares dispense the gloom.
Beware! Those handles are your doom.
C-C

St. Paul's Church

Bloor Street East

THE RT. REV. R. J. RENISON,
Rector

University students are specially invited to the Sunday Evening
Services at 7 o'clock.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject Sunday:

First Church of Christ, Scientist
St. George St. at Lower Ave.
Close to residences and fraternity houses
Sunday Services 11 a.m., 7.30 p.m.

The morning service is broadcast over
CFRB. A Sunday School for students
under twenty is held at 11 a.m.
On Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the main auditorium is held a meeting at which Testimonies of Christian Science
Healing are given.

Downtown on the 15th floor of the Metropolitan Bldg. at Adelaide at Victoria, a Free Public Reading Room is open from 9.30 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily except Sunday, for rest, quiet meditation and study, where the Bible, and authorized Christian Science
Literature including the text book, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, may be read, borrowed or purchased.

Each and every student is cordially invited to attend the services, and to enjoy the privilege of the reading room.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

Huron Street—Just below Bloor
Holy Eucharists at 7 a.m., 8 a.m.
and 9.30 a.m.

11 a.m.—Choral Eucharist
Liturgy Sung in Procession
Missa Brevis in E flat and Missa Sancta Maria Magdalena
(Willan)

Prescher, The Rector.
7 p.m.—Choral Evensong
Prescher, The Rev. W. Lyndon
Smith, M.A.

Antem, "I will lay me down" (Noble)
"Misereere mei, Deus" arr by Stainer

Broadcast Cantata, "The Last Supper." CFRB 5.45 p.m.

THEOSOPIHY

52 Isabella Street

Sunday Evening at 7.15 p.m.

Lecture by

MR. DUDLEY W. BARR

on

"SEVENFOLD MAN"

Questions Answered.

Free Lending Library.

GIRLS WITHOUT MEN!

School walls tried to shut out even the thought of men. . . .

BUT! - - -

STARTING MON. FEBRUARY 26

The Most Beautiful Picture of Girlhood Since---

"MAEDCHEN IN UNIFORM"

Featuring

DOUGLASS MONTGOMERY

(Laurie of Little Women)

DOROTHY WILSON

KAY JOHNSON WALTER CONNOLLY

HOLLYWOOD Cont. 2.15 to 11.30
25c. to 7 p.m.

"For many years

I've been a very heavy pipe smoker and have tried all brands of tobacco but for a long time I've been using Wakefield. It's the only brand that gives me satisfaction. It doesn't nip the tongue, and it's a cooling, refreshing smoke. For smokers desiring a real good smoke, I would suggest a trial of Wakefield."

H. K.—Toronto.

Wakefield

ENGLISH
MIXTURE

Packages 15c and 25c Large Home Tin $1.00

TED ROBINS' Dance Orchestra

TEN PIECES--OPEN FOR ENGAGEMENTS

Both Canadian and United States experience

Best of References - - Terms Reasonable

Auditions on request

Elgin 0949

Night: Junction 2865

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit
for the coming dance.
They are up to the minute.
Also complete outfits and evening wraps.
Special rates for students.
Two stores to serve you.

FREEMAN'S

256 College Street
KI. 0991

571 Yonge Street
KI. 8270

McGILL, VARSITY IN CRUCIAL CAGE TEST HERE TO-NIGHT

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

Tonight in London, the intercollegiate basketball team begin their battle for the recovery of the Bronze Baby which they lost to McGill last year. The draw has worked out much better than last year, when the two best teams, Varsity and McGill, met in the first round. Tonight Varsity take on Queen's, and McGill meet Western, the first team in each group being favoured to win. Of course Western and Queen's may have some surprise packages up their sleeves and turn out something much better than their previous offerings. Tomorrow afternoon the winners and losers play off.

Western are giving the basketballers a sample of their famous hospitality. A tea, a banquet and a dance have been arranged for the entertainment of the visiting players. So win, or lose, it should be a week-end well spent.

Varsity have a team this year which is expected to bring glory to itself and to the university. The players have had some stiff opposition in practice games and should be set to take on all comers. Eleanor Wallace and Al Butler of last year's team form the backbone of the defence, with Grace Becker and Billie McGarry, two players who have moved up from the intermediates, filling the other guard positions. Bea Longley and Grace McClintock are the only forwards who are veterans from last year. Mary Louise Carre, Kay Brown and Mary Rose complete the personnel of a team on which rests Varsity's chances of acquiring a second intercollegiate title this year. Good luck to them.

St. Hilda's seem to go in for 1-0 wins, for that was the score in their game with St. Mike's last night. It was their fourth win and it gives them a convincing leadership in Group II. The game was scrappy and not productive of good hockey. Rosamund McCullough for St. Mike's turned in the best performance and kept the Saints' defence busy.

The first game of the playoffs is next Monday and will be Vic's home game. The second is on Wednesday with St. Hilda's at home to Vic. The managers of the two teams will see to it that the hours are arranged, and that all interested parties are informed.

Lolo Boehmer, president of the Badminton Club, would like any faculties who are desirous of entering the badminton tournament, to do so immediately if they have overlooked the matter. Meds, O.C.E. and Social Science are among those who have made no entry to date. The tournament will likely be held the afternoon of March 10th.

U.C. are having their badminton tournament next Tuesday afternoon. There will be a further notice in The Varsity and all who have signed the list are requested to keep this date in mind.

How about some feminine support at the men's basketball fray tonight. Varsity and McGill are the teams, and Varsity have to win. It will be an exciting game—and there is a dance afterwards.

PING PONG AT MCGILL
McGill University students have turned out in such numbers for ping pong matches at the school that a special bleacher section has been erected to accommodate all spectators.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By B. J. McGuire

Tonight the Varsity cage squad get their big test in the intercollegiate circles. To date Varsity has lost one game, while McGill are undefeated, which would indicate that Varsity must win tonight or pass from the picture. The game is to be the first half of a double header in the big gym. The second half of the programme will feature Nels Kelly and his Kampus Katz. That's it—a dance. To date there has been a noticeable lack of feminine attendance at these games which is hard to understand considering the gentlemanly way in which the players conduct themselves. Anyway, tomorrow night's shindig ought to attract quite a crowd as these shows followed by a dance are becoming increasingly popular around the campus. A student coupon or 35 cents is the admission.

Tonight Varsity's gym team hits the breeze for Montreal, where they will engage the McGill team in an exhibition of flips, tumbling and general cut-up acts. Varsity at present hold the title and their lineup looks imposing enough to repeat their victory of last year when they relieved McGill of the crown they had worn for five years previous.

Tonight the McGill swimming team is due in Toronto for the annual intercollegiate swimming meet in Hart House Saturday night. McGill has an impressive array of performers and headed by Johnny Borne and Phil Stien they are full of confidence in their ability to again capture the title they have held for the past four years. Varsity, however, also have a strong squad and expect to improve on last year's performance. There was just one-fifth of a second between them and the title in this meet as McGill took the relay by just that margin and the relay decided the issue.

HAROLD SNIDERMAN

Veteran guard of the Blue squad who is turning in his last season as a Blue cager and who, as a result, is expected to do great things against the Redmen tonight.

Varsity Squad Defends Title Against McGill

Champion Gymnasts Compete for Caron Cup at Montreal

Tomorrow night in Montreal Varsity's gym team will make the first defence of their title when they clash with the powerful McGill team. Previous to their defeat last season McGill held the Caron Cup for five years straight and it's their avowed intention to again return the cup to Montreal.

However, Varsity are going to give them plenty of trouble. Of last year's championship squad all are back except one. Johnny Kirk who captains the squad, reports them to be in excellent condition and ready to make things very difficult for McGill. The lineup also contains Stew McDonald, who holds the Canadian junior championship. Stew is going to add a lot of strength to the Varsity team.

Allan Keith, who coaches the squad, has built up a smart club mostly of last year's veterans. In this he has

INTERCOLLEGIATE SWIMMING MEET

Compete for Douglass Trophy in Hart House Pool on Saturday

McMASTER ENTERS

Hart House pool on Saturday night will be the scene of the annual intercollegiate swimming meet when McGill, McMaster and Varsity will meet for possession of the Douglass Trophy now held by McGill. The meet promises to be a success from every angle and there is plenty of confidence in the Blue camp in their ability to again annex the trophy.

The entry of McMaster into the formerly dual meet is more or less by way of test for the Hamilton team. For some time past McMaster has been seeking admittance to this sport and this season they have been allowed to enter a team. The success of this entry will more or less decide the future of swimming around McMaster as it is highly improbable that they will continue unless they make a reasonable showing in their first attempt.

The meet will consist of ten events in which each team will have entered two men. McGill as usual have a strong aggregation which is headed by Johnny Borne, brother of the famous Munro of Olympic fame. Another clasp in this contingent who has been travelling at near record speed is Phil Stein.

Varsity also has a strong squad of swimmers, who have been active in this line of sport for some time. Wince McCarty at present holds the Canadian breaststroke title at 200 yards and should be good for a win in this event. Crecy McCarty is also in there and will be Varsity's big threat in the diving and backstroke events. Stratton, a newly discovered speed artist from Trinity, has added considerable strength to the squad which, taken all in all, should stand more than an even chance of bringing the mug back to town.

been aided by Zwyggert, who held the Canadian senior title before turning pro this year. The squad consists of Johnny Keith (Captain), Jack Farrar, Stew McDonald, Bill Barber, George Beard and Bev Lewis.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Toronto

St. George St. at Lowther Ave. extends to you and your friends a very cordial invitation to a

FREE LECTURE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Entitled
"Christian Science and the Harvest of Humanity"

By DR. JOHN M. TUTT, C.S.B. of Kansas City, Mo.

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church
The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts

MASSEY MUSIC HALL SHUTTER STREET AT VICTORIA

Sunday Afternoon, Feb. 25th, 1934, at 3.15 o'clock
Doors open to the public at 2 p.m.

(Special to "The Varsity")

Calgary, Alta. February 22. — Following the successful holding of the first summer art school in the history of the Dominion at the Brewster Dude Ranch at Kananaskis in the Canadian Pacific Rockies, which was attended last year by fifteen specially selected students from the province of Alberta, A. C. Leighton, R.B.A., president of the government art college here, announced today that this unique summer school will again be held this year.

Mr. Leighton, who is a grand nephew of the late Lord Leighton, president of the British Academy from 1878 to 1896, has painted in the Banff vicinity for many years. Coming to Canada in 1925 on a painting commission for the Canadian Pacific Railway, Mr. Leighton decided to make his home at Calgary and four years ago was appointed head of the Institute of Technology and Art in connection with the University of Alberta.

Mr. Leighton has become a great publicist for Canada, as his paintings of the Rockies have been shown in exhibitions throughout Great Britain and the United States. He has also shown in Toronto with marked success. It was Mr. Leighton's paintings some years ago of the old windmills of Kent and Sussex that led to their retention and restoration as historic landmarks.

PHIL GOLD

Who pairs up with Sniderman on the Blue defence. Gold is extremely steady as a guard and is expected to hold the Redmen in check tonight.

NEW POSSIBILITIES FOR MONEY VALUE

Commerce Club Hears Plan to Make Dollar Equal Fifty

END WAR AND CRIME

"The present economic system is unjust to everyone," stated Mr. Ross, prominent Montreal lawyer, in an address to the Commerce Club yesterday in Hart House. "The idea today is to get all the natural resources possible in one's control, that we may live on it and the work of others."

"This plan is wrong. Can we not have scientific economics? I dislike people baiting our public men, when they cannot do any better with a wrong system. It is unjust to everyone. In business now the farther you get from work the more you are paid."

"The important thing is to agree on an economic plan fair to everyone, if it is not fair to everyone, it is not fair to anyone."

"Economics, the new economic planning, will put the dollar on a basis of one hour of human labour. Money will be so pure that it will give no interest, a non-tribute breeding exchange. Its value would be that of fifty dollars today, automatically ending all war and crime. For these pestilences are merely symptoms of economic distress. We want money such as this, which will not incite us to get something for nothing. We are all trying to do this; no one is to blame."

Sport Notices

Jr. S.P.S. Softball—

Important practice Saturday at 1.

Sr. U.C. Baseball—

Game with O.C.E. today at 4 p.m.

Sr. Vic Baseball—

Game with Forestry on Saturday at 2 p.m. All out.

U.C. Athletic Board—

Important meeting today at 1 p.m. in the Lit. office. All members please attend.

Baseball Umpires—

Saturday, Carveth and Cragg.
Monday, Gould and Burt-Gerrans.
Tuesday, Dyke and Wong.
Wednesday, Gould and Anten.
Friday, Dyke and Wong.

Future Baseball Games—

Saturday—Sr. Vic vs Forestry, at 2 p.m.; Monday—Jr. Vic vs Wycliffe; Tuesday—Jr. Meds vs Jr. U.C.; Friday—Jr. S.P.S. vs winner Jr. U.C.-Jr. Meds. Last three games start at 4 p.m.

A professor of Latin and Greek
Can smoke cigarettes like a streak.
But it's not for his knowledge
Folks are joining his college,
But the odd BRITISH CONSOLS
to smoke.

10 for 10c. — 25 for 25c.
and in tins of 10's and 100's

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

BRITISH CONSOLS
COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

STUTTERING
Stammer no more. Lowered my free, helpful pamphlet and "Ten Commandments of Speech" will help you. Write W. Denison, 41 St. Clair E., Toronto

Volleyball Players—

All interested are invited to see a champion team from Rochester play at Central Y on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 24 from 2 to 5 p.m.

Interfaculty Hockey Schedule—

Mon. Feb. 26 at Arena—
4 p.m.—Jr. U.C. vs Jr. Meds
5 p.m.—Pharmacy vs O.C.E.
Tues. Feb. 27 at Arena—
3.30 p.m.—Trinity vs Knox.
4.30 p.m.—Sr. S.P.S. vs Sr. U.C.
Wed. Feb. 28 at Arena—
4 p.m.—Jr. U.C. vs Jr. Meds.
5 p.m.—O.C.E. vs Forestry.
Fri. Mar. 2 at Arena—
4 p.m.—Knox vs Emmanuel.
5 p.m.—Pharmacy vs Forestry.

Rugby Managers—

Applications for the position of manager of the Senior, Intermediate or Junior Intercollegiate Rugby teams must be in the Athletic Office not later than Tuesday, February 27th.

DENTANTICS presents "THE TORCHBEARERS" a three act comedy
AT HART HOUSE THEATRE, Feb. 22 and 23, 8.30 p.m. Tickets 80c. including tax, at Box Office, Hart House

More Gorgeous Slips

Of real silk Crepe de Chine. Beautifully cut in smooth fitting style. Lavish treatment of fine lace at the yoke and hem. All sizes, in Tealose and White ..... $1.49

Pyjamas—
Of Suede Taffeta. Smartly cut in one or two piece styles. Richly enhanced with imported lazes. All sizes and shades. Drop in and see these new garments. You'll love them ..... $1.98

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KL 3600
4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

- FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23
5 p.m.—Hart House Friday Afternoon Recital by Men's Glee Club. All music should be in by this date.
8.30 p.m.—Important membership meeting of the Student League of Canada, common room, Women's Union. All members and candidates for membership are urged to attend.
8.30—Dentistics. The annual Dental stunt night at Hart House Theatre, presents a three-act play, "The Torch Bearers".
9.30-2.30—Victoria College elections in Alumni Hall.
9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Standing Committees open. These nominations close Wednesday, 28th February at 6 p.m.
7.30-10.30—Biological Club will hold its Quadrennial Conversation in the Botany and Biology Bldgs.
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24
8 p.m.—T.L.C.C.U., 150 St. George St. Speaker, Dr. A. C. Hill.
9-12 a.m.—Biological Club will hold its Quadrennial Conversation in the Botany and Biology Bldgs.
SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 25
4.30 p.m.—T.L.C.C.U. 16 Spadina Road. Speaker, Rev. T. W. Isherwood.
9 p.m.—Wynilwood recital. Mr. Northrop Frye will give a piano recital of special interest. Mr. Frye is a graduate of Victoria.
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27
4.30 p.m.—Mr. H. Napier Moore, editor of Maclean's Magazine, will speak at the meeting of the University Women's Press Club on the subject of "An Editor's Point of View". All interested are welcome.
8.15 p.m.—Liberal Club meeting in the Music Room, Hart House. Mr. D. W. Lang, K.C., will speak.
3.30 p.m.—Trinity College Library. Professor Chester Martin on "The Loyalties in New Brunswick." 150th anniversary of the creation of that province. Ontario Historical Society's lecture.
5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in S.C.M. library, Hart House.

Classified Advertisements

ROOM TO RENT
Cawthra Mansions, well furnished, large, warm, sunny room, suitable for two, reasonable; board or grill privileges optional. Kl. 6804.

AUSTRALIAN STATE DRAWS PETITION

Dr. Kennedy Comments on Western Australia's Desire for Independence

AGRICULTURAL SECTION

According to a recent despatch from Perth, Australia, the state of Western Australia has determined to secede from the Commonwealth and is preparing a petition for independence which will shortly be forwarded to the Imperial Parliament in London. In doing this the state is ignoring the federal government entirely and is making an appeal to the original authority under which the states of Australia were brought into confederation.

Commenting on this news, Dr. W. P. M. Kennedy, Professor of Constitutional Law, yesterday made the following statement to The Varsity: "The state of Western Australia is right from a legal point of view in petitioning the government in London for independence, since the Commonwealth of Australia has never accepted the Statute of Westminster and any constitutional changes must still emanate from the Imperial Parliament. It is highly improbable, however, that the Imperial Parliament will approve the petition in the event that it is forwarded. In fact, Australians of my acquaintance have told me that this is largely a political manoeuvre which Western Australia expects it can use as a lever to make the Federal government more amenable to its demands."

Professor Kennedy confirmed The Varsity's suggestion that the situation in Australia is a parallel to that which is found in Canada and in the United States. "Western Australia," he said, "has a population of some 340,000 compared with about 5,500,000 people in the whole commonwealth. The larger part of the inhabitants follow agriculture, and they find the heavy tariffs which surround the commonwealth particularly oppressive at the present time. These tariffs have been passed by the large eastern industrial states of New South Wales and Victoria, which make up more than half the population and which hold more than half the 76 seats in the House of Representatives, in which Western Australia has 6 or 7 members. Because of this disproportionate representation the agricultural west finds it quite impossible to get any legislation passed which is at all favourable to itself. This seems to be just the age-old conflict between the agricultural and industrial community repeating itself all over again." Professor Kennedy concluded.

HISTORICAL ISSUE OF UNDERGRADUATE

(Continued from Page 1)
There is a complete summary of the various activities of college life and in addition some interesting notes on their history. In particular the story of University College publications brings out some sidelights on the forebears of the present Undergraduate. There are also histories of both men and women's sports and dramatics.

The articles and stories cover a wide range. Discussions on University courses, politics, and author all appear. There are several pieces of poetry. Humorous poetry and prose prevent any dull mood from pervading the magazines. It is an all-round journal covering every aspect of the students' life.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28
8.30 p.m.—U.C. Soph-Frosh party at Women's Union.

9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Debates Committee open. These nominations close Monday, 5th Mar. at 6 p.m.

THURSDAY, MARCH 1
8 p.m.—M. and P. Society open meeting, Women's Union. Skits, dancing.
FRIDAY, MARCH 2
Dental At-Home, Roof Gardens of Royal York.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7
Hart House Elections.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8
Hart House Debates Committee Elections.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

As some members have not yet fired their February spoon shoot the range will be opened today from 5 to 5.30 and will then be closed due to shortage of ammunition. The novelty shoot will be held next month.

M. AND P. SOCIETY

The open meeting of the M. and P. Society will be held in the Women's Union on Thursday, March 1st at 8 p.m. Skits and dancing. Everybody out, and make this the best party of the year.

T.L.C.C.U. OPEN MEETINGS

On Saturday at 8 Dr. H. C. Hill, the general secretary, will speak in the hall at 150 St. George Street. At tea time on Sunday Professor T. W. Isherwood will be the speaker in the common room of the Bible College, 16 Spadina Road. Both these meetings are open to all students.

VICTORIA ELECTIONS

Voting will take place in Alumni Hall from 9.30 to 2.30 today. Every undergraduate in Victoria College may vote in the V.C.U. elections, in his year elections and in any society to which he may belong.

VICTORIA DRAMATIC CLUB

Tickets and programmes for the At-Home will be distributed today in the college hall at 1.30 p.m. Separate tickets will be sold to men and women. Please be on hand, on time.

REDMEN SET FOR TIFF WITH VARSITY TEAM

(Continued from Page 1)
feared front lines in Canadian cage circles. Don Small, veteran of five years' standing, is once more with the squad.

Completing the roster are two newcomers, both of whom are Americans. Marty Bowes, has been filling in at guard duty, and is also available for front line action, while Gene Gourmley has been used on the forward line, to form different combinations with the other wings in very effective fashion. Both men are efficient ball-handlers, with the latter particularly dangerous on the business end of an attack.

With the intercollegiate race probably the tightest it has been in years, the Redmen are taking no chances in their remaining games. The battle in Toronto Saturday night should be a corker from every angle.

VARSIITY'S BLUE CAGERS READY FOR MCGILL

(Continued from Page 1)
only a scant three baskets behind although he has played in only two of the three games. Sniderman and Gold can be depended on to turn in the usual total of 12 to 15 points between them, in addition to turning in steady defensive efforts. Willis, who will be used to substitute at centre, is going to cause McGill a lot of grief tonight. Levy and Gordon will be used to relieve the wings and if the former keeps up the pace he set on Wednesday night against McMaster he should be a great help to Hayman.

The game will be followed by a dance, the music being supplied by Nels Kelly and his Kampus Katz. Since this form of double bill, made up of intercollegiate basketball and dancing, has proven highly favourable with the fans, a large turnout is expected tonight.

SOCIALISTS DEFEATED BRITAIN SYMPATHETIC

"In Austria the Socialists have been definitely defeated. Opinion in Great Britain has swung to their side and Ramsay MacDonald has come out to express sympathy for Socialists who have suffered in Austria. Now there is a suggestion that the government deliberately planned the outbreak," said Mr. Earl Lautenslager, speaking to the Current Events Group of Victoria College at Wynilwood yesterday afternoon. He expressed the belief that it is only a matter of time until Germany and Austria unite and that both will improve their condition by doing so.

VICTORIA NOMINATIONS

Nominations for all offices not filled today must be in the hands of the Chief Returning Officer not later than 6 p.m. next Tuesday, Feb. 27.

UNDERGRADUATE MAGAZINE

All first year students must call for The Undergraduate today, Friday, in the rotunda between 10 and 12. All students are warned that the supply is limited and any wishing copies must act promptly.

THIRD YEAR VIC WOMEN

Election for Senior and Athletic Sticks! Voting today, 1.30, in Room 18. Everybody out! For Senior Sticks, H. Forbes, M. Pixley, J. Ross, E. Stewart, D. Traill. For Athletic Sticks, J. Batho, J. Blundell, M. Eastwood, G. McClintock, R. Swartz.

LIBERAL CLUB

A regular meeting of the Liberal Club will be held Tuesday, February 27th at 8.15 p.m. in the Music Room, Hart House. Mr. D. W. Long, K.C., a prominent Toronto lawyer, will speak.

THIRD YEAR VIC MEN

Every Junior is expected to come to Alumni Hall today between 9.30 and 2.30 to nominate men for the Senior and Athletic Sticks.

3TS VICTORIA WOMEN

Tickets for the junior-senior dinner will be issued from 9-12 a.m. Friday, Feb. 23, in the college hall.

GREEK DRAMATISTS ADEPT IN DRAMATIC IRONY

(Continued from Page 1)
Euripides and Sophocles. It is "a tale of blood", the story of vengeance and a racial course, variously employed by the three great Greek tragedians in their greatest works.

Aeschylus, in his Agamemnon emphasizes the contrast between the knowledge of the spectator and the ignorance of the characters. The conflict between forces is brought into bold relief; but it is not merely a conflict which we have before us, but a spectacle now terrible, and now pitiable, as the eye lights on the avenger and the victim.

The entire Aeschylus trilogy is the working out of a single theme; in the first play, Agamemnon, the interest is centred on the characters of Orestis, Agamemnon and Clytemnestra, in the second, the scene is suspended on a vast tide of reminiscence, so that the individuals are but the tools in the workings of fate, in the third, the furies overtake them. In these plays, Aeschylus opens the floodgates of ironic reminiscence and forecast, to achieve a dramatic power brought to ruin, of the relentlessness of the gods, with the dreadful knowledge of the spectator brooding over the myth.

Euripides centres his attention not on the racial curse but on the characters of the two women, Clytemnestra and Electra. Clytemnestra becomes more a pitiful than a terrible figure, with the sense of fear and pity centred in her, and pointed by irony. Aeschylus stresses plot, Euripides character.

In the Sophocles cycle no vision of the furies, no promise of their coming haunts the characters. Sophocles is the greatest contriver of ambiguous language, to which he gives his name. His words achieve a certain neutrality, so that the hearer lends his own interpretation to the words expressed. This double-edged language achieves a power and force which is the signal quality of irony. This type of irony heightens the sense of contradiction, and is the form of irony most familiar to us.

Professor Sedgewick illustrated his lecture with excerpts from the dramas he discussed, pointing out their ironic significance, and the types of irony employed in each. The concluding lecture in this series will be delivered this afternoon.

The CHATEAU LAURIER

Ottawa's
Hotel of Distinction

To be assured of comfortable accommodation—stay at the CHATEAU LAURIER. Here you will find accommodation for 1,000 guests—with rates that have been adjusted to meet the demands of present day economy, but where, though your stay be of short duration, or of extended nature, the traditions of Canadian National Railways—Courtesy and Service—have been maintained.

Full details from any Agent of

CANADIAN NATIONAL

T15

U.C. LITERARY SOCIETY CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

(Continued from Page 1)

bers of the Society. The President paid tribute to Sir William Mulock: "The people throughout this Dominion look on themselves with fresh hope and courage when they think of Sir William." Dr. Cody reminisced upon the earlier days of the University College Literary and Scientific Society, as it was then called, particularly upon the elections that took place in Moss Hall. "The Lit. had no small part in creating and maintaining a loyalty to the college. Let us not forget today, however, our broader loyalty to the institution of the University as a whole," he concluded.

R. A. Bell presided at the celebration banquet, which was attended by over 250 guests, including a large number of graduates. Mr. Bell attributed the success of the Literary Society in past years to the tremendous influence of the graduates. "The graduates have been the very life blood of the Society in the past," he stated.

ARTHUR LISMER SPEAKS ON POST IMPRESSIONISM

(Continued from Page 1)

Van Gogh tried to make the earth conform to his imagination. He was a phlegmatic Northerner plunged into the brilliant atmosphere of the South of France where he went mad. He knew that he was mad and went to an asylum for treatment. His physician saw in him a man willing to sacrifice sanity and even life itself for art. He was literally burned up by his subject."

These three great artists symbolize the movement of Post Impressionism. While alive they were not recognized by their native country but it is significant that a portrait by Cezanne, worth seventy-five francs when painted, is now valued at sixty thousand dollars. The Louvre is now begging for canvases by these very artists whose work it once scorned.

STUDENT SERVICE LACKS SUFFICIENT BACKING

(Continued from Page 1)

have decreased during the last few years.

The Service is doing a splendid work and is worthy of student support. Mrs. J. D. H. Hutchinson, general secretary of the Student's Christian Movement, when interviewed, stated, "The International Student Service was founded to help students in need all over the world. Financial aid has been in the foreground due to the emergency after the war but the Service has been equally active in promoting conferences, cultural co-operation and understanding among students of all nationalities."

Professor Wrong stated in last night's Star, "To suspend this work would be a real blow to the prospects of peace in Europe."

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps
6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1665

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from Page 2)

nearby all Uryan (not Aryans). The situation may be readily summed up. One group of people tends to stir up a revolution, without thought for the vast majority who might be affected in case of a bloody struggle. What is needed is the development of a spirit of friendliness and humanitarianism among mankind. In the meantime, artificial steps may have to be taken, but the ultimate aim of all sociological work should be to inculcate in the people the hatred of strife and the love of universal amity and co-operation. Thanking you, Yours very truly,
"LILLIUS".

REGULAR MEETING OF LIT. ATTENDED BY GRADUATES

(Continued from Page 1)
you can over-estimate the importance of this scholarship, constantly augmented as it is by men of the Old World universities."

Col. Mitchell spoke on the elections of 1888 in the college and appealed for the support of the students when they graduated. Dean A. T. DeLury suggested that the Lit. should have a celebration every ten years.

GRADUATES DENY CHARGE OF PERNICIOUS INFLUENCE

(Continued from Page 1)

mish as a table banger, accused the government of trying any plan, no matter how contradictory to its former policy, to enable it to gain power. Other debaters showed that but for the graduates there would be no incentive for the undergrads to come to the university since they all hoped to become graduates some day. Then again it was pointed out that graduates have given us many scholarships so that the journey of many students through college has been facilitated.

When the vote was taken it was found that the influence of the graduates was not a pernicious one, the House dividing 14 to 37 on the question. However, due to the fact that guest members of the club had been allowed to vote, the Hermant government retained its position.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 26th, 1934

No. 93

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

New York—John J. McGraw, colourful baseball manager, died yesterday at the age of sixty.

Hanover, N.H.—Nine residents of a fraternity house at Dartmouth College were found dead as the result of coal-gas poisoning.

Vienna—An early agreement between Dollfuss and Hitler is expected.

Moncton—Three trains arrived yesterday from Montreal after having been blocked by snow for upwards of 24 hours.

A move was made by Ontario C.C.F. Clubs to expel the Labor conference due to its attitude towards the A. E. Smith case.

Frank storms and an airplane crash in which eight were killed swelled the weekend toll in the United States. At least 23 persons lost their lives in a western blizzard and a southern tornado.

Toronto Leafs 8—Rangers 3.
St. Michael's 6—Young Rangers 0.

URGES INTEREST IN H. H. THEATRE

Edgar Stone May Retire from Directorship in the Fall

ROMOUROUS CHANGES

"I don't know yet whether there will be any big changes in the policy of Hart House Theatre next season or not. The Chair of Fine Arts with a lectureship in Dramatics and a workshop in Hart House is something I have always worked for here. It has the sympathy of the university staff, but economic conditions make it unlikely that any definite step will be taken next year," Mr. Edgar Stone, director of Hart House Theatre, told The Varsity. "My term is up in the fall and I do not know if I will be back or not, he added."

"What is the policy of the Theatre towards undergraduates?" Mr. Stone was asked. "When I came to this position five years ago there were no students even among the technicians or the scene shifters," he answered. "I have tried consistently to interest them in the stage and once more we have St. Hilda's girls doing property work, S.P.S. men doing electrical work and students generally as ushers and workers. Undergraduates have been allowed to do everything in this theatre that they were willing to do. No student organization is refused a date for a production if they make arrangements before our programme is full. In the afternoons such groups as the Victoria Dramatic Society use the theatre free of charge, and there are special student rates for full-time productions."

Mr. Stone found the chief difficulty in getting the students to avail themselves of Hart House privileges in the fact that there is no central dramatic organization on the campus. He was instrumental in starting one two years ago, but it died out. The individual college associations do not seem to want to co-operate.

"As for students in the regular Hart House productions, though there have been many of them, there are yet not enough positions to satisfy everyone—especially since the finances have made it necessary to curtail the number of productions. The Syndics, with whose policy the director has nothing to do, have made it plain to me

(Continued on Page 4)

Lay Blame On Prep Schools For Our Educational Ills

Students Urge Change in the Present System of Education

"GENERATION OF ROBOTS"

The general student opinion of the editorial of last Friday, "Students on Strike", is that many of the ills of our present educational system have their birth and development in the primary and secondary schools, and that some definite change must be effected in these fields if we are not to have a generation of robot citizens. "Students give consideration to problems of public interest among themselves," stated John E. R. Blakely, II Greek and Hebrew, U.C., "but I doubt how great their influence is on public opinion. It is not the immediate leadership of students which will prove so important as the attitude they will adopt in their later life. Therefore, the intellectual training they receive is the primary problem in our educational system."

Mr. Blakely went on to explain that the present system which keeps the examination always in sight of the students, makes them concentrate most on absorbing bare facts. The students are not exactly spoonfed, but the prescriptions in most courses prevent rapid progress in subjects of interest such as is achieved in educational systems like that of England. There are too many prescribed texts, and too few opportunities for choice of books. The nature of the subjects studied largely determines whether or not the students are going to exercise original thought in what they learn, and later in what they accomplish.

"We are spoonfed too much in the high schools," was the opinion of Miss Miriam Shapiro, I English and History, "and there is too sudden a change to the university. Even the average person could do more than they have us do in the high schools, and they

(Continued on Page 4)

INTERESTS IN WEST DIFFER FROM OURS

Sedgewick Says Possibility of Secession is Very Slight

UNLIKE AUSTRALIA

By N. C. Phillips

"The possibility of cleavage between the east and the west is very slight at the present moment although in times like these one would expect it to be greatest," Professor G. G. Sedgewick of the University of British Columbia told The Varsity in an interview Friday. Professor Sedgewick, who was delivering the Alexander lectures, spent last week at Hart House, where we met him soon after breakfast Friday morning.

"Of course," he went on, "while there is always the feeling during a depression that the two might part, their interests are so different. But certainly there is no movement on foot in this country as in Australia where Western Australia is petitioning for her independence from the confederation. There is a tendency to regard the east as the employer and the west as the employee, but I do not think anything of consequence will result from it."

"How do prices in the west compare with prices in the east; can you get more for your dollar here?" we asked this son of Nova Scotia who went west. "Twenty-eight years ago when I first went out there," was the answer, "money didn't mean so much to the people. It was boom time and prices were much higher, at the same time

(Continued on Page 4)

Prof. McCullough Would Have Thorough Appraisal of System

IN RUT OF TRAITORION

Professors interviewed regarding Friday's editorial showed the usual reluctance in giving their opinions of our modern university student. Is he blasé, sophisticated, disgustingly superior as stated in the editorial? Does he in his intellectual immaturity look down upon the "naive" political meanderings of European students?

Professor W. S. McCullough of the University College Department of Orientals stated: "On the basis of my experience with students—and I believe I am representative—I hesitate to make any sweeping generalizations. We have so little opportunity for personal contact. As to 'mass education,' many of us feel the whole educational system

(Continued on Page 4)

J. B. BICKERSTETH

He is Warden of Hart House, but his title is rather a misnomer. He is rather friend and guide of undergraduate men. He has a very gracious and kindly appearance, but he can be exceedingly firm, especially with young ladies who come unscathed to Hart House Musicals. He is a graduate of Oxford. He has an uncanny memory for names and faces. This is a very useful quality for a man in his position. At the same time his versatility makes him the expert and most capable member on all Hart House committees. He is very intimate with Prof. Coventry. It has been said that this is because both of them are more than a little inclined to be misogynists. He believes that there are too many mixed affairs held at Hart House.

Coup D'etat at The Trinity Lit While Rebels Lusty Cheers Emit

In one of the most hectic meetings of its history the Trinity Literary Institute succumbed to the whirlwind attack of Chancellor Adolf Broughall. Thin faces, pale by the privation imposed during years of oppression, flushed happily as the blue-shirted dictator belittled his manifesto. Throats long dry, gave forth a thunderous cheer as the Chancellor sprang to the throne vacated by the Speaker.

The coup d'etat was precipitated when Herr Johnston entered the House carrying a bared sword. The Speaker ordered the Sergeant-at-Arms to eject the member. The Sergeant-at-Arms was not present. The Government had forgotten to appoint him. For a moment the Speaker was nonplussed. Then with a fine dramatic gesture, he swept out of his chair and stood on the floor of the House. With the roar of a bull ape bereft of its mate, Chancellor Broughall sprang for the vacant seat. There he stood, the very personification of social justice, while his followers cheered hysterically. Swinging a chair and shouting hoarse imprecations the Speaker fought valiantly for his lost estate. Rallying strongly around their idol the Chancellor's men gradually dispelled the shouting conservatives and ejected them from the House. The last to leave was a slightly untidy Speaker, bathed in blood, and panting out a challenge to take on anyone. The triumphant patriots enthusiastically applauded the Chancellor's inaugural address. Great mirth rocked the assembly when it was learned that Col. Dufréne, speaker and arch foe of freedom, was planning a counter attack. The brain trust, which had placed the Chancellor in power, told off a follower to assassinate the Colonel.

A new day dawned! Liberty, Equality and Fraternity for every man! Three cheers for Chancellor Adolf Broughall and death to the obscur-

BABY COMES TO VARSITY WOMEN IN BOUNCING CONTEST

Retrieve Ancient Trophy in Cage Tournament at London

FIRST GAME 20-17

Defeat Western Ladies and Famous Mary Wong
20 to 16

By defeating Queen's 20-17 and Western 20-16 the women's basketball team earned the right to bring back to Toronto the bouncing "Bronze Baby", emblematic of the intercollegiate championship. Few contests in recent years have provided so much excitement, and the large crowds that filled the gymnasium of the Technical School in London showed their appreciation.

Varsity drew Queen's on Friday and secured a three point lead over the Tricolour which gave them the right to enter the finals. Both teams were slow in getting started. The play was jerky and many fumbles lowered the quality of the game. Tall Queen's defence players baffled the Varsity forward line and kept them away from the basket, so that the half time score was 11-8 for Queen's. However, in the second half the Blue defence tightened up and the score started to mount for Varsity. It was anybody's game at three minutes to go, with D. Naphali and E. Rickard showing the brand of basketball that the Tricolour could produce, and the whole Varsity line working valiantly with seconds to go. Kay Brown clinched the game by scoring on a pass from M. L. Carre and the game ended with a 20-17 win for the Blue team.

The second game provided many thrills and a few surprises when the diminutive Western squad outplayed McGill 23-14. Luck didn't favour the Red and White and their star forward, F. Jones, was forced out of the game with personals, and Babs Gould, jag, guard and jumping centre, injured her ankle, all of this in the first half. Mary Wong added to the general discomfiture of the McGill team by playing marvellous basketball, scoring 21 of her team's 23 points by covering the floor with lightning speed.

(Continued on Page 4)

MASTHEAD MEETING

There will be a full meeting of the masthead of The Varsity tomorrow at 5 in the Women's Office, U.C.

VARSITY, MCGILL DIVIDE TITLES IN SWIMMING AND GYM MEETS

Blue Gymnastic Stars Keep Carron Cup by Win in Montreal

SCORE 2730 POINTS

Yet another title was added to Varsity's already impressive total when Allan Keith's starchy gym team invaded Montreal Saturday night and for the second time in two years won the Carron Cup, defeating the McGill team 2730 to 2537. The Blue and White team gave a thrilling performance to capture the championship, and clearly demonstrated their superiority by winning events on every piece of apparatus.

The individual championship and the Verry Cup went to George Dodd, a McGill performer, who held the highest single score at the conclusion of the meet. However, the Varsity men were tramping right on his heels, with Kirk giving him the closest run, and three other Varsity performers finishing in the first five.

The meet lived well up to the records of the past and in most cases the standard of performance was higher than usual. Varsity asserted their supremacy chiefly on the gym horse, although they also held a commanding lead in the matt work. The team as a whole worked well with the performance of Lewis, the Varsity alternate, turning in an exceptionally brilliant performance.

Another bright spot in the gym sport is the fact that the Varsity team will be intact next year and with few graduations in the next three years, the Blue squad look to be well on their way to a long period of gym supremacy.

The teams and the order in which they finished are as follows:

Dodd (M), Kirk (V), Farrar (V), McDonald (V), Beard (V), Stewart (M), Barber (V), Walker (M), Saunders (M), McArthur (M).

BIOLOGICAL CLUB HOLOS CONVERSAZIONE

Many Interesting Exhibits Are Viewed by Huge Crowd

Guests of the Biological Club of the University of Toronto at its Quadrant Conversazione held Friday evening and Saturday morning last, numbered more than 2,000. Mr. Carl J. Medoff, president of the club, told The Varsity. The crowds of people at times taxed the accommodation of the Botany and Biology Buildings, and at all times the demonstrators in charge of the various exhibits were constantly plied with questions by the interested throngs. Many flattering comments were made on the success of the undertaking. Dr. Hutton, president of the

Medical Elections

Roy G. Clarke was elected president of the Medical Society in the elections held Friday last. Eric Davey heads the Medical Athletic Society and R. C. Dickson, by acclamation, the permanent executive of JTA. Results follow:

MEDICAL SOCIETY
Pres., R. G. Clarke; Vice-Pres., F. P. McNair; Sec'y Treas., R. N. Storey; Ass't Sec'y, J. H. Baillie.

MEDICAL ATHLETIC SOCIETY
Pres., Eric Davey; Vice-Pres., H. A. Henderson; Sec'y Treas., J. D. Caldwell.

PERMANENT EXECUTIVE JTA
Pres., R. C. Dickson; Vice-Pres., A. B. Noble; Sec., Miss Vera Peters; Treas., H. M. Coleman. All by acclamation.

Presidents of the years are: 6th, J. W. McGladdery; 5th, E. M. Warden; 4th, M. McCutcheon; 3rd, E. B. Tovee; 2nd, G. M. Beall.

McCatty Brothers Feature Swim Tourney in Hart House

MCGILL OUTPOINTS BLUES

On Saturday night in Hart House pool McGill took another intercollegiate championship when they nosed out Toronto for the swimming title. The McCatty brothers again made things interesting for their opponents when they each set a new intercollegiate record, Winston breaking his own mark of last year in the 200 yd. breast stroke and Cressy bettering Munro Bourne's time for the 100 yd. back stroke.

McMaster University were invited to compete as guests with a view to possible entry in next year's meet. They were good enough to take three firsts and two thirds and even then they met score, counting McMaster's points, showed Varsity and McGill tied with twenty-seven each and McMaster only ten points behind at seventeen. The latter's points did not count for the title, the official score of which was 35-29 for McGill.

In the first event, the medley relay, Cressy McCatty opened up a sizable lead in the back stroke and his brother increased it to fifteen yards in the breast stroke. A. Bourne, of McGill, dove in just that much behind Murray on the last lap and settled down to pick it up. This brother of the great Munro upheld the family tradition and got down in front by a bare three-fifths of a second. Murray is no slouch either, and to pick up fifteen yards in a hundred against him is some job. McWhirter won the diving event for McMaster with a very neat display. Not to be outdone by his team-mate,

(Continued on Page 3)

SEDGEWICK CLOSES LECTURES ON IRONY

Uses Ironic Insight in His Unique Criticism of "Othello"

ALEXANDER LECTURES

"I am going to try to show that Shakespeare's Othello may be regarded as a study in dramatic irony," said Professor G. G. Sedgewick in the last of his series of Alexander lectures on Irony Friday afternoon in Hart House Theatre. "The gauntlet has often been thrown in the face of impressionistic criticism by those who favour the historical method. The method I am going to use is that provided by ironic insight. I read the play with the sense of dramatic irony playing all around me; it is interesting if not profitable to take that method sometimes."

No play, not even any of the Greek plays, is more deeply dyed with ironic sense than Othello. The body of knowledge possessed by the spectator is given shape, direction and momentum by a force within the play, the mind of Iago. Iago is the arch-ironist and the main creator of the ironic attitude. The play not only builds up a structure of knowledge in the mind of the spectator but also creates in him a mental attitude which leads him to demand the tragedy. The temptation scene is demanded by the emotions aroused in the spectator. In this respect Othello is truly Aristotelian."

Professor Sedgewick reviewed the play act by act, commenting on the instances of dramatic irony. In Act I Brabantio's final farewell is like one of the famous ironic passages in a Greek play. The ironic sense of the spectator tells him that Iago might have said that and later Iago did say it. The spectator knows and his irony controlling his knowledge is bent to

(Continued on Page 4)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '34
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—E. C. Phelan

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 26th, 1934

COMFORTED DESPAIR?

In a day when nations regard each other with envy, fear and hatred, when armed camps but wait the signal to claw at each other's naked throats with diabolical fury, and when the streets of cities run with blood from civil war, then do such pious words as "internationalism", "national security", and brotherhood" sound strangely hollow and remote. In a day when the cherished institutions in society—government, law and order, education, conventional morality and religion are called in question and found wanting; when democracy gives way to spread-eagle nationalism and to tyrannies that thrive by might; when the Age of Rationalism, begun in the 18th century, draws rapidly to a close; when Romanticism and Idealism are disparaged, and the pursuit of wild-eyed Pleasure and grim Materialism has sated us to the point of vomiting disgust; when the optimism of the 19th century is blasted, and the idea of progress—that precious child of our fathers—is sneered at as a grand illusion; when we are told that we enter upon a new age, the Age of the Caesars; when the simple virtues are forfeited for strong instincts of race, will of the strong, will for possession and power; when we are forced to see on all sides change, death and decay and no escape from this burden of history; when, finally, the world is no longer amenable to our strivings and our selfish prayers (as witness the collapse of the League of Nations), when things have somehow got beyond our control and we lose faith in ourselves (as witness the ever-deepening skepticism of this age, the spiritual poverty and the lack of reverence) . . . then defeatism would seem to be the only legitimate view of life for our times. Despair, the first child of an empirical skepticism, would seem to be the inevitable lot of an already nerve-wracked, weary, haggard people.

This may not be your reading of our times. But you have felt it at one time or another. In any case, have we good reason to believe it will not become the accepted reading in the immediate days that lie ahead? What ray of light or hope confirms you otherwise? when you see all things round about you crashing to the dust,—the authority and certainty of science, the sanctity of democracy, the validity of idealism, the reliability of either experience or reason, faith in the essential goodness of society, the authority of Scriptures or the Church, and the sacredness of the home. This is a true picture of our time. We may refuse to believe it, we may attempt to ridicule it, or laugh it out of court. Such a picture "doth make cowards of us all". Perhaps we can no longer bear to view tragedy. We crave happy endings and a world of make-believe. Concocting seemingly perfectly good reasons to prove reality a hideous lie, is known as "whistling in the dark". It may be likened to an ostrich burying his head in the sand.

And yet . . . is there not another picture of our times every bit as true as the pessimistic painting we have made, a picture which gives promise of victory, of life, of beauty and of peace. Yes! precisely in defeat, in death, in ugliness and chaos. Perhaps, after all we are justified in a dialectical view of the history of our times. Perhaps we may regard it as a crisis, a turning-point. But what ground have we for this two-sided view of life when all we can see is a great passing away of the highest and most perfect of human possibilities, an utter depreciation and disintegration of those things which constitute civilization?

DR. TUTT LECTURES ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Mary Baker Eddy alone, since Jesus, has furnished, in Christian Science, the true explanation of good, comprised in both quantity and quality as God and man, divine Mind and idea; and of evil comprised in a supposed opposite, so-called mortal mind and matter—or negation of all that good actually is," said Dr. John M. Tutt, of Kansas City, speaking at Massey Hall last night on the subject of "Christian Science in the Harvest of Humanity".

Dr. Tutt, in dealing with the problem of good versus evil since the beginning of the human race, said, "Since the beginning of the human race mortal thought has made the mistake of considering evil personal, and thus has lined up good persons on the one hand and evil persons on the other. And so in the history of all races, religious teaching has held to some phase or other of the doctrine of salvation for some people and damnation for the rest. And this misinterpretation of salvation has come down the centuries to us today as 'orthodox theology'."

Art, Music and Drama

Sunday Evening Concert

Harry and Frances Adaskin gave the usual large audience of the Sunday Evening Concerts in the Great Hall of Hart House a taste of real classical music last night. The first selection was the Mozart A Major Concerto, with Mrs. Adaskin at the piano. This concerto was one of six Mozart wrote as a form of exercise in composition when he was composing under the stern eye of "Papa" Haydn. This particular concerto was written in three movements, the first a rather sprightly allegro, the second a very moving adagio, and the third of Haydn influence, written in tempo di minuetto, naive and especially melodious. Mr. Adaskin plays his violin with ease and precision and with an interpretation full of understanding.

The second half of the programme was the 4th of Beethoven's violin Sonatas, written in the key of G minor. Mr. Adaskin explained that this Sonata followed the famous Kreutzer and preceded the so-called "Springtime" but that this 4th Sonata equalled if not outshone the Kreutzer in depth and form. The Adaskins have dubbed the G minor Sonata "the Springtime" because of its spirited and simple melodies. The music is classic and typical of Beethoven's middle period of composition and except in the last movement showing no manifestation of the abstruseness of his later work.

Frances Adaskin at the piano not so much accompanied Mr. Adaskin as played the piano as half of the scored music. The young couple play extremely well together but it would have been a treat to have heard Mrs. Adaskin in a solo piece.

The programme was not all too difficult for the audience but was the sort of music that undergraduates have the desire to hear and the intelligence to understand.

M.B.L.

OBITUARY

The late Feature Editor of The Varsity, known to thousands of readers as "Nell"—he always said, "The simple titles are best"—entered this vale of tears in a railway box car, travelled half fare to the Pacific coast, and spent his first years among the byways of the Vancouver gas house district. Interested in journalism from the early age of three, he was encouraged by his parents to borrow newspapers from the doorsteps of well-to-do citizens and sell them at democratic prices to residents of his own district. Entering the University of Toronto, he found himself, as one acquainted with the finer amenities of slum life, unable to bear the manners of his educational superiors, and retired to assume the duties of Feature Editor of The Varsity. During this period he was loved and respected by many who were unaware of his connection with the Champus Cat. Although a friend of the common people, he stood out firmly against the insidious influence of Communism and the C.C.F., even at the risk of being dubbed a Russophobic crank. His resolute stand led to his abduction by Soviet agents a few weeks ago, transportation to Russia, and a cruel sentence to penal servitude in the Salt Mines of Siberia. Little is yet known of the details of this tragic affair, but it is established that he perished last Wednesday night, because he lingered behind to feed and water the mule which had been his sole friend and companion in the days of his grim incarceration. Caught in a saline landscape, he quickly passed from mortal ken, crying loudly and loudly "Did you ever hear the one about . . ."

Applications for the position of Feature Editor are now being received at the S.C.M. office. Up to date, applications from the following have been acknowledged:

Herbert Hoover.
Mahatma Gandhi.
3 of the 4 Marx Brothers.
The Three Little Pigs.
The Hart House String Quartet.

Dentautics

A satirical comedy, "The Torch-bearers", was presented by the Dental Dramatic Society, Thursday and Friday last. The play is a take-off on amateur dramatics and although it does succeed in poking fun at the amateurs it does so at the expense of being far-fetched. The plot shows a husband who returns unexpectedly to find his young and beautiful wife rehearsing for a one-act play. The showers of congratulations which fall upon her head as a result of her first attempt on the stage leave her husband cold. The situations which result from the production of the play and the reactions of the husband provide the humour.

Nan Braidwood as Mrs. Ritter provided the most capable performance as the budding actress who is mocked by her skeptical husband. She was the only genuine character on the stage. Mr. Ritter, Gerry Hayes, only warmed up to his part spasmodically and was generally too stiff. His most convincing scene was a fall down stairs which he executed very naturally. Mrs. Pampanelli, the enthusiastic producer and culture-monger, was played by Margaret Cowan with the exaggeration which is necessary. The rest of the cast seemed to think that an over-exaggeration was desirable to produce the effect of novices. The result was that the audience laughed not because the scene was funny but because it was ludicrous.

N.C.P.

Appreciation

Want to make a hit with that cute little co-ed? Take her out to Murray's. The food's simply marvellous, and it's easy on the old wallet. And will your stock go up? Just watch the appreciation!

TORONTO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA MacMILLAN, Conductor POPULAR CONCERT To-morrow Night 8.20 p.m.

PROGRAMME

Overture "Merry Wives of Windsor" ..... Nicolai
Nutcracker Suite ..... Tchaikovsky
Overture "Tannhauser" ..... Wagner
Gavotte ..... Bach
Minuet ..... Boccherini
Waltz "Artist's Life" ..... Strauss
Two Norwegian Dances ..... Grieg
Shepherd's Dance (from Henry VIII) ..... German Hungarian Dance No. 5 ..... Brahms
Bolero ..... Ravel

1000 Seats at 50c 1000 Seats at $1 6 rows (centre balcony) at $2
SEAT SALE NOW BOX OFFICE, Adelaide 7301

The CHATEAU LAURIER

Ottawa's Hotel of Distinction

To be assured of comfortable accommodation—stay at the CHATEAU LAURIER.

Here you will find accommodation for 1,000 guests—with rates that have been adjusted to meet the demands of present day economy, but where, though your stay be of short duration, or of extended nature, the traditions of Canadian National Railways—Courtesy and Service—have been maintained.

Full details from any Agent of

CANADIAN NATIONAL

T15

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute.

Also complete outfits and evening wraps. Special rates for students. Two stores to serve you.

FREEMAN'S

256 College Street
K1. 0991

571 Yonge Street
K1. 3270

VARSITY CAGERS SET FOR LAST GAME WITH ST. MIKE'S

BLUE CAGERS ON SHORT END TWICE IN CLOSE WEEK-END ENCOUNTERS

St. Kitt's Win Big Six Game Over Crippled Varsity Crew

OVERCOME BLUE LEAD

By Leslie Mackay
In a rough and rowdy Big Six basketball tilt St. Catharines "Grads" stormed their way to a 31-28 win over the crippled University of Toronto senior team on the winner's home floor Saturday night. The whistle shrilling four times for fouls-out and thirty-one times for fouls, an 8 point deficit for Varsity converted to a 5 point lead which was wiped out in the dying moments of play—that was the game.

The Blue team played every disadvantage. Only six players were able to make the trip and among the absentees were Varsity's stellar defence pair, Sniderman and Gold. Moreover, before play had settled down in the first half Varsity's brilliant sniper, Levy, sprained his ankle badly and had to retire, thus leaving the burden of the game on the remaining Toronto quintet.

The Grads started off with a bang, reeling off 13 points to Varsity's 5 before the visitors found their feet. Both teams were checking closely and time and again missed almost certain shots. Of the five baskets sunk by St. Kitt's four were dropped home from mid-floor while both Varsity scores were counted on neat plays. From the start Referee Keller began calling fouls frequently; of all the points scored 21 were on foul shots. The period ended with a 15-9 lead for the home team.

Varsity came back fast in the second half; working together well Lew Hayman's Blues slipped in 7 baskets to their rivals' 3, racing ahead to a 26-21 lead. In the final frame occasional wild passes, lengthy dribbles, desperate long shots, the whole being punctuated with frequent free throws, produced wildly exciting but ragged play. Battling for life the teams entered the last half minute of play with the Grads holding a slim 29-28 lead—then Newman found the hoop; ten seconds later the whistle blew for the last time.

His clever passes and rushes made Newman outstanding for St. Catharines, while "Porky" Peart and the Cambray brothers, also of the winners, no less deserved the limelight. Every Varsity man played crafty unselfish basketball, which makes it hard to pick the stars from a five-man team such as theirs; "Lofty" Willis, however, was high scorer for both squads. St. Catharines — H. Cambray 6, Peart 6, Newman 8, Meacher 4, Diggins, C. Cambray 4, Fitzgerald, Dixon, Graham 3.

Varsity — Levy, Gordon 3, Willis 9, Bodrug 6, Prince 5, Mitchell 5. Referee — Cal Keller.

MCGILL WINS SWIM MEET IN HART HOUSE POOL

(Continued from Page 1)

Gordie New, after getting away to a bad start, romped home half a body-length ahead of Stein to give McMaster their second successive first place. Win McCarty won the 440 yd. free style quite handily and then Cressey stepped in to clip two and three-fifths seconds from the 100 yds. back stroke record.

In the next event Win did the first 100 yds. of his 200 yds. breast stroke in the exceptional time of 1:17.3.5 sec. and ended up 3.3.5 seconds ahead of his own Canadian mark set last year. He finished the 100 yard free style, after three false starts, with McWhirter, Stein, Shaw and Eggert less than one second apart. Varsity turned the tables on McGill in the last event, 200 yd. relay, and won it by 1.5 sec. McGill won the same event by the same margin last year to give them the title.

During the two intermissions the Varsity intercollegiate water polo team

Redmen Take Decision Over Homesters in Collegiate Series

FINAL SCORE 30-21

By W. A. Crocker
Lew Hayman's dream of an intercollegiate cage title was given another jolt on Friday night when a lanky squad of McGill Redmen invaded the big gym at Hart House and carried off a 30-21 decision over the Blues. The victory kept Coach Van Wagner's squad at the top of the intercollegiate senior race, while the loss for the Blues just about put an end to their chances for this year's cage crown.

A few minutes after the opening whistle the inevitable outcome of the game was quite apparent as the Redmen completely baffled the Blues with as smooth a passing attack as has been displayed at Hart House this year. The lankies from McGill took an early lead and except for two occasions when the Blues drew up on even terms to make the score 3-3 and later 5-5, they held and increased their well-deserved margin of points.

The game as a whole was very dull and the performance of the Blues was a thorough disappointment to the large number of fans who packed all available space in the gym. The only exciting moment of the contest came in the second period when the Blues ran in four baskets in the space of one and one-half minutes after Young, McGill's centre, had been banished for 4 personal fouls. At this point in the contest the Blues were only 6 points behind but they faded badly and the final whistle found them a thoroughly beaten squad.

In the first half the Blues played like a group of youngsters as they seemed to be unable to do anything with the ball after they brought it down to the McGill end of the floor. As a result they resorted to shooting often and but for the worst kind of luck the final score might have been different. After being tied at 5-5 the Redmen pulled ahead and were leading at half time 15-6. In this first half the Blues only sank a single basket.

The second half was a repetition of the first, with the Blues losing many chances on bad passes. Young and Lewin of McGill were put off but the champions from Montreal refused to give up and held their lead. A few minutes later Gold was banished and Gordon replaced him. The game ended with listless ball being displayed by both squads.

The Redmen as a unit played good ball throughout and clearly deserved their win. Outstanding in their victory were Faulkner, Lewin and Young. The Blues as a whole turned in another of their mediocre performances and again proved their inconsistency. (Continued on Page 4) played a picked team from Trinity and Sr. School, the Eckhardt Cup finalists, winning 4-0. Incidentally all their goals were counted in the first half. Medley Relay — 1st, McGill; 2nd, Varsity. Time, 3:22.2.5 sec.

Diving — 1st, McWhirter (McM); 2nd, Mills (McG); 3rd, Eggert (T); 4th, Butterfield (McG).

50 yd. free style — 1, New (McM); 2, Stein (McG); 3, Horwood (McG); 4, Murray (T). Time, 26 sec.

440 yd. free style — 1, W. McCarty (T); 2, A. Bourne (McG); 3, Skinner (McG). (McMaster not entered.) Time, 5:37.1.5.

100 yd. back stroke — 1, C. McCarty (T); 2, Sprenger (McG); 3, New (McM); 4, Jennings (T). Time, 1 min. 6.4.5 sec.

200 yd. breast stroke — 1, W. McCarty (T); 2, Collins (T); 3, Wilson (McG). Time, 2:45.3.5.

100 yds. free style — 1, McWhirter (McM); 2, Stein (McG); 3, Shaw (McG); 4, Eggert (T). Time, 59 sec.

200 yd. relay — 1, Varsity; 2, McGill; 3, McMaster. Time, 1:45.3.5.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

It takes the ladies to bring home the bacon or the bronze baby or something. Whereas the basketball team failed to come through in the pinch, the swimming team almost won their meet in Hart House and the Gym team carried the honours for men's sport over the weekend all alone. They succeeded in winning from McGill in Montreal to keep their title for the second term in U. of T. halls. It took the gymnasts a long time to get that crown but they copped it last year and won again this time.

The cagers were a big disappointment to the crowd of fans present at the game. They're probably a bit sour over the loss themselves. They should have taken the Redmen here without difficulty, but once more they had what is called an off night and it cost them the title. They couldn't do anything right offensively. The Blues had about four times as many shots as their opponents but that didn't help any. Sometimes they call it tough luck but it is purely inaccuracy that can't be helped by luck or anything else that hovers over a basketball court.

McGill's quintet went on to London and defeated Western 27-15 Saturday night to clinch the title for the fifth successive term and Varsity's high hopes sank into oblivion. To make matters worse the Blues went over to St. Catharines for their fourth game in six days and lost to the Garden City Grads, which eliminates the student quintet from the Big Six playoffs.

Tonight Varsity will play St. Michael's College in Hart House at 8:30 o'clock. While there isn't much in the game for the U. of T. outfit it will be another battle royal between these two teams. Every time they play it is worth watching because there is just enough rivalry between the two quintets to put an edge on the contest that gets very keen at times. St. Mike's have won from Varsity in three starts but each time by one or two points which is an indication of how the game goes from start to finish.

We have a request by correspondence at hand which may be of interest to some of the intercollegiate hockey teams. It comes from John Arbuthnot, Secretary of the Athletic Society of the Ontario Veterinary College at Guelph. He asks that any faculty team interested in playing home-and-home games with O.V.C. communicate with him. Apparently they have not been successful in attempts to enter the intercollegiate series and are desirous of obtaining exhibition games. If it is impossible for the local team to make a trip to Guelph they will come down and play on Toronto ice anyway.

Now that the hockey team has hung up its blades for the season a word or two is not amiss in giving credit where credit is due for the remarkable post-Christmas performances of the Varsity team. When the team did so poorly before the holidays considerable criticism was directed at Warren Stevens for their losses. When the outfit reversed the story and started winning games the credit was all given to the team and the coach was omitted from all due praise. "Steve" hadn't much senior class to work on but he deserves a big hand for the results he produced. Next year you may expect to see the intercollegiate title come to Varsity with McGill's sextet being made up of new material as was the case here this season.

NOMINATIONS HELD FOR VICTORIA POSTS

Some Positions Filled Now; Other Elections on Friday

The women of third year Victoria College elected Helen Forbes to hold the Senior Stick in closely contested elections of the Victoria College Union held last Friday. Miss Forbes was also elected Associate President of the V.C.U. The Senior Women's Athletic Stick will be held by Muriel Eastwood.

The elections held Friday were for the purpose of electing the Associate President of the Union, the associate presidents of the federated mixed societies, and the presidents of the federated women's societies of the Victoria College Union. The second election day will be held on Friday, March 2, to fill all other offices of the V.C.U., federated mixed societies, men's federated societies, women's federated societies, and all four years. Nominations for any of the above offices will close at 5 p.m. on the Tuesday preceding election day. All Victoria undergraduates are being urged to take an active part in these important forthcoming elections. The elections will take place in Alumni Hall from 9:30 until 2:30.

The following results were also announced by Dick Davidson, chief returning officer. Doris Trail was elected Associate President of the Victoria College Music Club by acclamation, and Evelyn Stewart Associate President of the Dramatic Club, also by acclamation. Gladys LaChance will be president of the French Club next year and Elsie Roger president of the Women's Literary Society. Jean Ross was elected president of the Women's S.C.M. The following associate presidents of the first three years were elected: Margaret Haygarth, 3T5; Margaret Milne, 3T6 (acclamation); Edith Lewis, 3T7.

Nominations for the Men's Senior Stick, to be elected on March 2 were:

DR. ELIOT LECTURES AT CONVOCATION HALL

"York was a dismal place," said Dr. Eliot at Convocation Hall Saturday evening, in his lecture describing the "Part Surgeons Played in York", "not even possessing the aspect of a village." This was four years after York had been opened for settlement and Dr. James MacAuley was at that time the only surgeon in the settlement. He served in the Queen's Rangers, never setting himself up as a private practitioner.

In the early days surgeons played various roles; among the most important of these was the part of minister in the marriage service.

Doctors of note because of their tireless works of mercy in the increasingly larger community were Hon. Peter Russell, who came to Canada as Receiver General in Simcoe's government; Dr. Lee, whose work among the Indians took him miles away into wild and uncivilized country.

The names of Dr. Richardson and Dr. W. W. Baldwin have an undeniably distinguished place on the medical annals of York. Up until the year 1815 these were the only two private practitioners in York, but after the close of the war there came others who set up offices.

STUDENT RELIEF

One hundred and fourteen men and women whose educations were interrupted by the depression returned to classes at the University of Denver under the Federal Emergency Relief Plan.

Elliot Anger, Dick Davidson, George Dickie, Frank Dingman and Norman Nichol. For Men's Athletic Stick the following were nominated, also to be elected March 2: George Dickie, Milner Fisher, Albert Monzie, Norman Richardson, Jerry Vanderleek, Doug Walker.

A Hand-made French Blouse

to suit the Spring

THE French collection in the Blouse Shop will certainly make you want three or four.

This flowered Swiss muslin, with fagottini finishing the neckline and short sleeves . . . 4.95

Third Floor

THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By M. P. P.

The infant treasured by generations of feminine basketballers, as the men's sports staff would say, has once more travelled home with the Varsity team to rest in peace and dust upon the shelf in Room 82, U.C. There is just enough space for this year's shield on this ancient trophy and since Varsity has more names than any other university it would seem right and proper and gracious for Varsity to contribute the next trophy for competition.

The McGill team tried the overhead shots almost exclusively but this method didn't work against the guarding that the new rules allow. If the object of this ruling was to kill overhead shots it appears to be extremely successful. McGill had plenty of opportunities to shoot but practically every one utilized this obsolete method and it didn't work.

The casualties of the tournament were many and various. Ruth Fishleigh injured her knee and Grace McCintock and "Babs" Goulding are both suffering from damaged ankles. It must not be inferred from this that anyone was at all rough. Accidents will happen!

To pick out the stars of the games would be impossible but an honours list might serve the purpose just as well. From the forwards we nominate all the Varsity crew with special mention for Bea Longley and Kay Brown, a freshee, who played spectacular basketball; Evelyn Rickard, Queen's, and Western's Mary Wong, who was quite unequalled.

The guard list is longer but the quality wouldn't be higher. Eleanor Wallace and Al Butler for Varsity, lived up to their reputations, and even excelled themselves; Dorothy Naphthali the Queen's captain, "Babs" Goulding, McGill, and Dorothy Rintoul and Dorothy Timpany from Western.

The "Bronze Baby" was formally presented to the team by Dr. Turville, Dean of Women at Western, at a banquet on Saturday night. The hospitality that was extended to visitors was remarkable both as to quality and quantity. It can be accurately said "a good time was had by all".

Sport Notices

U.C. Badminton Tournament—All women playing in the tournament are requested to be at the York Badminton Club on Tuesday, Feb. 27 at 2 p.m.

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps

6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1896

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

THE EPICURE GRILL AND TEA ROOM upstairs

opp. Eaton's College St.

433 YONGE STREET

Special attention to Students

Full Course Meals from 25c. up

We serve economical plate luncheon 20c.

HART HOUSE ELECTIONS

It will pay every Candidate to advertise in "The Varsity". The cost is very small and the results will be very great.

Call at the S.A.C. Office, Hart House, and ask for particulars.

Interfaculty Results—BASEBALL
Sr. U.C. 9 O.C.E. 5
BASKETBALL
Sr. Meds. 31 Jr. School 11

U.C. SOPH-FROSH PARTY, WED., FEB. 28, 8.30 p.m., WOMEN'S UNION - Kamps Katz. Tickets 60c. Tues. & Wed., 12-2 Rotunda

Glove Values

Kid Gloves—

Quality gloves from Enrope's foremost glove makers. A great variety to choose from, in tailored and novelty styles .....$1.00

Satin Teddies—

With shaped top, and ribbon girdle. Enhanced with lace. In Pastel shades .....$1.98

Crepe de Chine Slips—

With adjustable straps, lavishly lace trimmed, in White and Tealose .....$1.49

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 8900
4 other shops in Toronto

Coming Events

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 26
1.40 p.m.—Prayer, Room 38, U.C.
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27
5.00 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., Wymilwood.
Speaker, Rev. F. Noel Palmer.
4.30 p.m.—Mr. H. Napier Moore, editor of Maclean's Magazine, will speak at the meeting of the University Women's Press Club on the subject of "An Editor's Point of View". All interested are welcome.
8.15 p.m.—Liberal Club meeting in the Music Room, Hart House. Mr. D. W. Lang, K.C., will speak.
3.30 p.m.—Trinity College Library. Professor Chester Martin on "The Loyallists in New Brunswick" 150th anniversary of the creation of that province. Ontario Historical Society's lecture.
5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in S.C.M. library, Hart House.
8.15—A meeting of the German Study Club will be held in the Women's Union. Mr. and Mrs. Geza de Kresz, assisted by Mrs. Whitehead, will give a musical evening. Refreshments.

Have You Lost Anything?

Have You Anything For Sale?

For quick results put a Classified Ad. in "The Varsity."

Phone Midway 6221

Classified Advertisements

LOST

Will the person who took by mistake the book "The Metallurgy of Steel, Vol. 2" by Harbord and Hall, on Wednesday, Feb. 21, please leave it at the Hall Porter's desk? This will be greatly appreciated as it is a borrowed book.

STUDENTS URGE CHANGE IN EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM

(Continued from Page 1)
pull down not only the ten per cent of exceptional students, but also a great many average scholars. The educational system should develop in students a sense of comparison and criticism. To do this, the students should be shown more sides to the problem under consideration. Instead, we are given the opinions of one person, and our attempts to cover too wide a field give us too little time for original thinking."

"In the medical course, students are given the material to work on, and never get the chance to think about it," declared Philip Sneed, III M.D., "and that is about the only system possible for such a course, because one must get the groundwork first. Then, perhaps the students may advance further by their own thought. The function of the doctor is different from that of the other members of society; he is not meant to be a social luminary, but a means of assistance to humanity. And that is what the medical course tries to prepare its students for."

INTERESTS IN WEST DIFFER FROM OURS

(Continued from Page 1)
wages kept at a corresponding level. In the last ten years, however, prices have been much the same. In fact a great deal of our present trouble is due to indebtedness incurred when money was obtainable at cheap rates."

"We have heard quite a bit about the last election in your province. The C.C.F. are now the official opposition in British Columbia, are they not?"

"Yes, we had a very interesting election," replied the professor, "and if Proportional Representation had been used the C.C.F. would certainly have had more seats. It was the first time I have ever seen the government fade out before the election. British Columbia depends upon her export trade. Today it is all shot to pieces, and as a result her problem is not the same as that of Ontario. There has been a small boom in gold mining but the province is honeycombed with abandoned mines. Other industries upon which we depend, such as timber and fishing, are equally hard hit. Farming does not occupy the same important part that it does here."

"Is there anything you would like to say about Professor Alexander?" we inquired while leaving.

"Professor Alexander has done more for scholarship than most any ten other men in this country," Professor Sedgewick replied. And with that eulogy ringing in our ears, we left.

STONE URGES INTEREST IN HART HOUSE THEATRE

(Continued from Page 1)
that they do not hold themselves responsible to the students in this matter. Besides, I have more refusals to play from students than from outsiders. The theatre run of a week interferes with their studies and the professors have often intimated to me that the plays must not be allowed to do that."

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28

8.30 p.m.—Meeting of Student Branch of the F.S.U. at 200 Shaw Street. Mr. J. Friedman will speak on "Soviet Foreign Policy, Past and Present". All students interested and their friends most cordially invited.

8.30 p.m.—U.C. Soph-Frosh party at Women's Union.

9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Debates Committee open. These nominations close Monday, 5th Mar. at 6 p.m.

THURSDAY, MARCH 1

8.15 p.m.—Joint meeting of French Clubs of Trinity, Victoria, St. Michael's and University Colleges. Women's Union, 79 St. George St.

8.15 p.m.—Final meeting of the U.C. Lit. in Junior common room.

8 p.m.—M. and P. Society open meeting. Women's Union. Skits, dancing.

FRIDAY, MARCH 2

9.30-2.30—Victoria College general elections in Alumni Hall.

Dental At-Home, Roof Gardens of Royal York.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7

Hart House Elections.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8

Hart House Debates Committee Elections.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

HAMILTON CONFERENCE REPORT

The Report of the Canadian-American Conference conducted by the S.C.M. at Hamilton during the Christmas holidays is now available. Copies may be obtained from either of the S.C.M. offices.

GERMAN STUDY CLUB

The University German Study Club is very fortunate to have with them Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Geza de Kresz. Their delightful musical renderings are well-known. Be sure to attend this meeting and bring your friends.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The Annual Novelty Match will be shot this week. Cash prizes and banquet tickets will go to the winners. The competition has been arranged so that everyone will have an equal chance. Let's have every member out, as this is the last shooting of the year. See notice in the range.

FACULTY CRITICAL OF PRESENT SYSTEM

(Continued from Page 1)
tem of the province, particularly of the universities, should be critically appraised, and its objectives, technique and ideals re-examined by some competent group of men. We are at present following obediently the traditional methods of education, and it seems more than likely we shall continue doing so until definite steps are taken in an attempt for improvement."

Professor Boeschstein of the U.C. German staff declared emphatically: "Yes, unfortunately, European students are more active in political organizations. A student's first business is his studies—he should not continually meddle in public affairs. As to your system of education—I should not like to say anything—foreigners should let Canadians solve their own problems."

In the opinion of Professor E. K. Brown of the English staff of U.C., it is not an intellectual indolence that is responsible for the inertia of our undergraduates toward social and political movements. In Europe there are drastic differences of policy between the alternately governing parties, whereas in Canada, students do not consider an issue of capital importance whether the Conservatives of Liberals are in.

"Our primary and secondary schools, attempt to give an education to the largest possible number," continued Professor Brown. If that ideal is to be achieved, you must plan your courses with the majority in mind.

Professor A. Mackay of the U.C. Classics Department: "Like any other system, ours could be improved, but I would hate to give any suggestions. We exaggerate this 'mass production' idea. Mass production does not hinder good students from doing work on their own initiative. Perhaps it would be too paradoxical to say that, in the final analysis, the system is really advantageous—surmount the obstacles!"

Mr. Mackay thought that no teacher improves until after three years of experience.

"In many cases, high school teachers are teaching subjects they never took in college—but that is not the fault of the system so much as the individual school board who will hire the cheapest rather than the best."

SEDGEWICK CLOSING LECTURES ON IRONY

(Continued from Page 1)
wards the catastrophe. In Act II the ironic sense watches Cassio with pity and there is the beginning of terror at the thought of the Moor and his wife. The ironic sense is further aroused throughout Act II by the revelation in asides and soliloquies of Iago's mind at work. The only difficulty is that the spectator has so much knowledge that he cannot keep the two Iagos in water-tight compartments. It is hard for him to realize that the Iago he knows is not the one known to the others in the play.

VICTORIA NOMINATIONS

Nominations for all offices in the V.C.U. and federated societies must be in the hands of the Chief Returning Officer by 6 p.m. on Tuesday, February 27. Forms of nomination may be secured from the desk in the college office. The Chief Returning Officer will be in the College Hall to receive nominations from 4 to 5 p.m. tomorrow.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

The annual nomination meeting of the University College Literary and Athletic Society will be held in the junior common room on Thursday, March 1st at 8.15 p.m. Final Robinette Trophy debate—adoption of new yell, and other important business.

JTS VICTORIA WOMEN

Tickets for the junior-senior dinner will be issued in the college hall 9-12 a.m. These tickets are necessary for your admission to the Arcadian Court. Monday is the last day for procuring them.

Edgar Stone

Director of Hart House Theatre for the last five years, who states that his intentions of continuing in that position this fall are uncertain.

Bronze Baby Returns With Varsity Women

(Continued from Page 1)
The victory gave the purple and white the right to meet Varsity in the finals on Saturday afternoon.

The final game provided the best exhibition of basketball that has been given for some time in intercollegiate competition.

There was little difference, generally speaking, between the contestants. The floor work of the Blue forwards was the factor that gave them the winning punch. Bea Longley started the scoring by tossing in two nice ones in the first few moments of the game. From then on it was anybody's game and the pace was breath taking. Varsity's six-man defence worked with rare efficiency and was the means of breaking up the attack on numerous occasions. The Western defence led by D. Timpany played stellar basketball, intercepting passes and getting rebounds, but they were unable to prevent Blue forwards from scoring 10 points to Western's 9 in the first half of the game.

Kay Brown's floor work featured the second half, while Alice Butler and Eleanor Wallace made spectacular saves again and again under the Western basket. The personal fouls meted out to the Varsity defence slowed up the game when Western was in position to score and prevented them from counting, so that at the final whistle the score was 20-16 in Varsity's favour.

McGill and Queen's played a consolation game as a preliminary to the finals in which Queen's led by a 22-17 score. This left the final standing of the four teams in the following order. Varsity, Western, Queen's, McGill.

Varsity — B. Longley, K. Brown, H. McGarry, M. Rose, E. Wallace, A. Butler, M. L. Carre, G. Becker, G. McIntosh.

Queen's — D. Nathali, N. McGinnis, R. Fishleigh, E. Rickard, F. Kimmins, E. Mason, G. Heintz, K. Way-

They Call it . . .

THE CALIFORNIA WRAPAROUND

—and it's just like a man's, as it swaggers into the Spring Fashion arena with all the nonchalance of the Hollywood hero, who made it the hit of the season. You'll be as thrilled with the coat as we were . . . the easy "he-man" fit . . . the buttonless tie-on fastening . . . the mannish cloth, either in camel's hair and wool, or tweed. Sizes 14 to 18.

$25

MISSSES' COAT SALON
FOURTH FLOOR
JAMES STREET

THE T. EATON CO. LIMITED

ling, P. Norton.

McGill — V. Goulding, R. Smith, F. Jones, C. Bazin, J. Dobson, J. Clouston, H. Fyfe, E. Crutchlow, E. Millar. Western — C. Hargan, C. Cherry, E. Croft, A. Magee, M. Wong, H. Timpany, R. Davis, D. Rintoul.

BIOLOGICAL CLUB HOLDS CONVERSAZIONE

(Continued from Page 1)
Canadian Eugenics Society, described the exhibition as the most interesting and comprehensive of its kind which he had seen. Another prominent guest, Dr. Lulu Gazer, head of the Genetics Department at McMaster University, expressed delight at the many instructive and entertaining exhibits and congratulated the Biological Club on its initiative. Among a host of other prominent guests who were interested in all features of the Conversazione were Dr. Brown, principal of Victoria College, Dr. Burton and Dr. Satterly of the Physics Department, Dr. Bott of the Psychology Department, Dr. Watt of the Faculty of Medicine and Mr. Ainsley, principal of York Memorial Collegiate. The Toronto Field Naturalists' Club and the Brodie Club were largely represented, and students and staff of Haverall College attended in a body; many members of the provincial legislature took advantage of the invitations accorded them and were much impressed by the nature of the work being done in the Biology and associated departments.

Perhaps one of the most spectacular exhibits, certainly one which attracted a great deal of attention was a quivering, pulsating turtle's heart, kept alive chemically though completely isolated from the body. In the same physiological display the electric changes in the contracting muscles of a dead frog's heart were illustrated by means of a loud speaker attachment. The genetics and eugenics display, in view of the present discussions of sterilization today, proved intensely interesting.

McGILL CAGERS BEAT VARSITY BY 30 TO 21

(Continued from Page 3)
No one on the Blue squad stood out and the performances of most of the squad were decidedly miserable. In addition Hayman's squad had considerable difficulty all evening in sinking long shots.

McGill — Gormley 5, Lewin 7, Young 3, Faulkner 12, Ross 1, Jeffries, Bowes and Small 2.

Varsity — Newman, Gordon 4, Willis 4, Mitchell 4, Gold 4, Sniderman 3, Bodrug and Levy 2.

PROF. MARTIN SPEAKS ON LOYALISTS IN N.B.

"The province of New Brunswick," stated Professor Chester Martin in his lecture on "The Landing of the Loyallists in New Brunswick", "is unique in the history of Canada. In comparison with the rest of Canada, the rise of this 'Province of Loyallists', as it soon came to be called, is placid and uneventful."

Professor Martin then went on to point out that the province was really founded by these loyal English subjects. Some of them settled about the present site of St. John, and in 1785 St. John became the first incorporated city of Canada. Soon family after family plunged into the wilderness and it is to these courageous people that we owe our heritage of New Brunswick.

Outlining the gradual growth of the country Professor Martin attributed its political smoothness to the fact that the equal social plane on which all the United Empire Loyallists stood led to a democracy unknown in the other provinces of the Dominion. "Where everybody is somebody, nobody is anybody."

In driving out United Empire Loyallists, the United States laid the foundation for a Dominion of Canada founded on ties of loyalty which were strengthened by love.

NO ELECTIONEERING

No posters or sample ballots advertising candidates are allowed on the campus during election week at Purdue University.

MARRIAGE BUNGLED

"Marriage is the most crowded profession in the world today and the least prepared for," Dr. Wicks told a group of 300 seniors in a "Marital Talk" at Purdue University.

SECOND FIVE-YEAR PLAN

The second five-year plan was formally approved by the 18th All-Union Congress of the Communist party recently. The intention of the program is to triple industrial and agricultural production so that Soviet Russia will be self-reliant for all necessities. The new five-year plan begins in 1933 and ends in 1937 notwithstanding the fact that the plan was only recently completed.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27th, 1934

No. 94

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Pittsburgh—At least ten were killed when passenger train crashed through a bridge in this city last night.

Vienna—Rumours of a move to restore the monarchy in Austria spread throughout the city yesterday.

Montreal—McGill University authorities banned the questionnaire to be circulated among students—"Do you believe Canada should support Britain in another war?"

Paris—The government ordered a complete air fleet to be built at an estimated cost of $260,000,000.

New York—The number of deaths due to winter storms and blizzards in the United States in the last week mounted to sixty.

PESSIMISTIC VIEWS SHARPLY JUDGED

Modern Frankness Often Taken for Scepticism Says One

OPINIONS VARY

The consensus of opinion around the campus regarding yesterday's editorial is that it was greatly overdrawn and pessimistic to a fault. Barbara Watts, I med, after criticizing the writer's pessimism, went on to say that the age was no more one of "ever-deepening scepticism and spiritual poverty" than any other. "We are merely franker about our ideas and are in that way likely to appear more sceptical."

Dot McLeod, I Vic, feels that the author bases his opinion too much on conditions in Germany and Austria. "The rest of the world has managed to retain its sanity and should not be judged merely by a few European countries. The editorial is entirely too one-sided to be of any great value in attempting to solve the problems of today."

According to Kathleen Coleman, I Vic, Philosophy, the world has faced just as difficult situations as this before and has successfully won through. "If it were really as bad as it sounds we might as well go out and shoot ourselves. It looks as if the editor had indignation when he wrote it. Maybe too much 'Campus'."

Miss E. M. Wagner, I St. Mike's, said that the editorial was pointless, since it merely pointed out the horrors of our civilization without making any attempt to remedy them. While admitting its truth to a certain extent she felt that there was a great deal of exaggeration and thoroughly disagreed with the statement that "all we can see is . . . an utter depreciation and disintegration of those things which constitute civilization."

On the other hand, Lynette Roddy, I B. and M., stated that her views thoroughly coincided with those of the editorial, and that she did not think that the situation was overdrawn. "Chaotic modern conditions are the natural result of modern methods and without some drastic changes 'all things round about us will be crashing to the ground.'"

EXAMINATION FORMS

Students registered in the Faculty of Arts are reminded that applications for the annual examinations must be filed on or before March 1st. Forms of application may be obtained at the Registrar's Office, Simcoe Hall, or at the College Registrar's Offices.

C.C.F. PLATFORM DISTINCT FROM COMMUNISTIC VIEW

Different Opinions as Shown by Left and Right Wing Admitted

CLASH WITH LABOUR GROUP

Disapproval Caused by Participation on Behalf of Smith

"A communist is not a socialist and if he accepts the platform of the C. C. F. Club and retains his communistic views, he has no right to remain in the C.C.F." Mr. George Skilling stated to The Varsity last night when asked to comment on the action of the executive of the C.C.F. in expelling the communist labour group from their midst.

When questioned concerning the existence of a left and right wing in the C.C.F., Mr. Skilling stated that such a division of opinion did exist as in every political party, but he remarked that "The two wings have more in common than in disagreement, and those holding communistic opinions are not a real part of either group."

The U.F.O. section and the C.C.F. clubs section of the provincial council both petitioned headquarters at Ottawa last weekend for the expulsion of the labour section from the Ontario C. C. F., following the participation of the communist element of the labour group (Continued on Page 3)

FRENCH CLUBS PLAN JOINT MEETING

Attempt to Foster More Intimate Social Relations

FELIX WALTER TO SPEAK

In the interests of more intimate social relations between the societies, the four French Clubs of the University will hold a joint meeting in the Women's Union, on Thursday evening, March 1st. The societies met in this way three years ago, but the plan has since been allowed to lapse. Miss Royce Robertson, president of the Victoria French Club, suggested a joint social evening this year. "It is up to the societies of each year whether it is continued or not," said John Lay, president of the University College French Club.

Professor Walter of Trinity College will give an address on "The Universities of Europe." Professor Walter intends to sketch his general impressions of European universities. He will begin with the French universities and continue to speak on those in Spain, Portugal and Russia.

The French societies of the different (Continued on Page 4)

U.C. Senior Formal

This year the graduating class of U.C. is holding a Senior Formal Party. This innovation for which the men have been clamouring has been approved by the college authorities and all that is more necessary is the hearty co-operation of all the men of the senior year.

The party is being held in the Roof Garden of the Royal York Hotel on Wednesday, March 7 and is being largely supported by the class treasury, and the tickets are selling for the ridiculously low price of $1.25 per couple.

A very high calibre band is being employed and this last function will be a fitting finale to a splendid social year.

Masthead Meeting

There will be an important meeting of the masthead of The Varsity in the Women's office at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

COCKNEY IS BASIS OF OXFORD ACCENT

Affected Drawl Dying Out as New Simplicity Becomes Popular

KING'S ENGLISH PLEASING

"We do not mind being called Reds or Communists, we can tolerate the fun poked at our gray flannel trousers and our blue-stockinged undergraduates, we scarcely murmur when we are called woody-minded, but we refuse utterly to shoulder responsibility for the Oxford accent." Thus the editor of the Oxford undergraduate magazine refuses, in a leading article, in accept any credit or blame directed towards that University for what, he states, is nothing more than a form of snobbery, and has in the past few years vanished along with all false values.

Just what is the Oxford accent? Miss Sally Lunn, Cambridge graduate, traces the basis of it to nothing more refined than Cockney. "Some students of Oxford use it, and at Cambridge to a lesser degree. The Church of England clergyman is the most typical example. It embodies an affected drawl, and an 'a' which, while very broad has some resemblance to the bleat of a lamb. As simplicity of speech becomes popular this accent is dying out. The British Broadcasting Corporation is down on it."

Professor Knox, of the English Department at University College, stated that this accent is undoubtedly to be heard at Oxford, but not so much in the speech of the latest generation as formerly. "There is no proof that that educational centre was its source. People are looking more and more to the King's English, in the true sense of the phrase, for their pattern. While some difference in accent may be desirable to distinguish between English and American, the Oxford accent, in the sense of its exaggerated usage which the name now signifies to most people, is not acceptable to us. The King's English may be called universal, is pleasing to everyone, and has no trace of affectation or snobbery."

DENTS ARE VICTORS IN RAGGED BASKETBALL

Vic Cagers Defeated 26-18 in Uninteresting
Game

In an uninteresting and slow basketball match in the upper gym last night, Dents defeated Sr. Vic by a 26-18 score. The game, with nothing at stake, was very ragged, with few demonstrations of good basketball.

Dents had the edge for the greater part of the match, leading at half time by an 11-7 score and finishing eight points ahead. Victoria started with a rush that almost held them until the end of the first half and started a rather belated rally in the last few minutes.

Read for Sr. Vic was the high scorer of the game with four field goals. Dempster and Kingsburg scored three field goals and one foul shot each for Dents, while Stubbs sank three shots in the closing minutes of the game for Victoria.

Dempster and Kingsburg played a splendid game for Sr. Dents, while Read, Stubbs and McKibbin starred for Sr. Victoria.

Sr. Vic - Stubbs, Neeb, Vinells, Read, Barry, McKibbin.

Dents - Dempster, Harris, Kingsburg, Brower, O'Shaughnessy, Potashin, McHugh.

BILL BEFORE HOUSE FOR CENTRAL BANK PROGRESSIVE STEP

Type Now Considered Won't Completely Control Commercial Banks

TO MANAGE FISCAL AFFAIRS

Borrowing System Practiced by Governments is not Generally Sound

In the opinion of Mr. A. F. W. Plumptre of the Economics Department, the bill now before parliament at Ottawa for the setting up of a central bank may be considered a step towards the nationalization of our financial institutions. "However," he said, "let no one be misguided into believing that a central bank such as is now under consideration is going to have any great control over the commercial banks of the country. It is popularly believed today that credit control is the way to regulate national prosperity, and that a central bank is a logical step in this trend. As to the extent to which this kind of a bank will help bring back prosperity, there is bound to be popular disappointment."

"What then, would you say is its chief function?" The Varsity inquired. "The central bank," Mr. Plumptre replied, "will neither produce prosperity nor hamper to any great extent the activities of our commercial banks. It is an organization for the management of the fiscal affairs of this country. In this capacity it will make for increased efficiency and if properly managed can establish a sounder basis of government finances. Generally (Continued on Page 3)

U.C. SOPH-FROSH PARTY TO BE GALA EVENT

Jovial Atmosphere Created by Informality of Annual Affair

One of the gala events of U.C. social life is the annual soph-frosh party. By this time the freshmen have lost most of their naivete and gained enough sophistication to feel that the sophomores are "what we will be next year". This spirit creates an atmosphere of joviality which is given an opportunity to expand and give way to down-right hilarity at the annual get-together.

Added to this traditional rite of having a good time are two orchestras brought up and nurtured by the popular Nels Kelly, who appears in person. And what is more, there are rumours of plenty of good food.

The party is under the distinguished patronage of Miss Ferguson, the Dean of Women; Dean DeLury, Dean and Mrs. Cochrane, Principal and Mrs. Wallace, and Professor and Mrs. MacAndrew.

The Woman Pays At Western University

At Western it is the woman who pays! At least, this is to be the case on Wednesday, February 28, when the Annual Co-ed Prom will be held in Convocation Hall there. It is the third annual function for which the woman loots the entire bill, including tickets, flowers, food and transportation, and professes to like it. The whole evening is devoted to the entertainment and glorification of the male, a procedure which, happening but once a year, has so far proven a wonderful success, and shows promise of eclipsing all past affairs this year.

It is expected that, as a result of this issue of The Varsity, there will be a considerable exodus of male students from Varsity to the University of Western Ontario next fall.

ARCHITECTURAL CONTEST WINNERS

Results of the student competition held by the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada were announced yesterday at Montreal as follows:

Senior problem - Phyllis Willson Cook, University of Toronto, gold medal; J. B. Langley, University of Toronto, honorable mention.

Junior problem - Wilson Salter, University of Toronto, gold medal; W. D. Lount (University of Manitoba), J. T. Ridley (University of Toronto), H. W. Levin (University of Manitoba), Robert D. Powrie and W. E. Fleury (University of Toronto), honorable mention.

STUDENTS VICTIMS OF POISON GAS

Larger Death-Toll Prevented by Absence of Many for Weekend

NINE FIGURE IN TRAGEDY

Victims of carbon-monoxide poisoning, nine members of Dartmouth College, were found dead in the Theta Chi fraternity house Sunday morning. A greater death toll was prevented only by the fact that the accident happened during the weekend and several of the residents of the house were absent.

The tragedy took place during the night, and the first hint of what had transpired came when the janitor, Merton B. Little, entered the house Sunday afternoon and found the students still in their beds. He had made his usual round in the morning and had discovered a broken pipe in the furnace-room without noticing any trace of gas. Entering the bedrooms as usual to close the windows, he did not realize that anything was amiss, as the men seemed to be sleeping naturally.

The disaster was apparently caused by an explosion which blew open the door of the furnace and broke the pipe. Apparently one of the students closed the furnace door after the explosion, but in the darkness failed to notice the broken pipe.

VIC WINS GROUP TITLE IN INTERFACULTY BALL

Losers Tie Score in Third but Fade Badly at
The End

Victoria won their group title last night in the lower gym when they trimmed Wycliffe, their nearest rivals, by a 13 to 4 score in an interfaculty baseball match. The game was very evenly played until the third inning when the winners scored a five-run lead and after then were never headed, holding their opponents scoreless.

Wycliffe started in a very shaky manner and before they tightened down Victoria had piled up a four run lead. In the second inning they managed to tie the score after playing heads up baseball and retiring the other side without one player reaching first base. They faded rather badly in the third and trailed from then until the end of the match.

Victoria were superior in almost every department of the game, outscoring their opponents in every inning except the second. Heavy hitting, with almost errorless fielding backing fast but tricky pitching should send them a long way on their quest for the title.

Hunt, Kaminsky and Fairweather were the pick of Wycliffe, while Edwards, Saunders and Cummings starred for Victoria.

Vic - Grills, Cummings, Colmer, Cowan, Gaste, Fallis, Clipperton, Edwards, Saunders.

Wycliffe - Fairweather, Pegler, Kaminsky, Nickle, Emmet, Chevis, Lancaster, Morrissey, Hunt.

ST. MIKE'S CARRIES THE DAY OVER VARSITY BLUES.

Varsity's 28-25 Lead Changed in Final Five Minutes to Defeat

PLAY REACHES USUAL HIGH

Crowley and Connelly Are Stars of Last-Minute Play

Lew Hayman's senior basketball team concluded their Big Six activities at Hart House last night when they were forced to absorb a heart-breaking 30-28 defeat at the hands of a fighting St. Michael's College quintet. Leg weary, after playing five games in eight days, and with only six men to compete with the fast stepping Irish squad, the Blue team had a good margin on the play throughout most of the game but just couldn't match a last minute drive by St. Mike's.

With less than 5 minutes to play Varsity was enjoying a 28-25 lead, but a foul and two baskets by Crowley and Connelly saw victory and any remaining hope that the Blues had of getting into the playoffs snatched from their grasp.

The game was a replica of the three previous Varsity-St. Mike's clashes, close hard fought and the winner in doubt till the final whistle. Hayman's charges drew into an 11-2 lead early in the first half due to the sterling scoring efforts of Willis, Bodrug and Mitchell. St. Mike's came back very (Continued on Page 3)

VIC BEAT SAINTS IN HOCKEY FINALS

Score 2-1 in First Game of Intercollegiate Series

HARO-FOUGHT BATTLE

Victoria scored a 2-1 lead over St. Hilda's last night in the first game of the interfaculty hockey finals played at the Little Vic Rink. The Seniors displayed a superior brand of hockey, but the Saints fought hard and held the score at 1-1 until the last half of the final period.

Within the first ten minutes of the game Marrie Faulds had scored a goal for the Scarlet and Gold sextet, quickly followed by a point for the Saints, for which Kay Symons was responsible. Ann Scott made numerous rushes but was followed by Marg McDonald, St. Hilda's stellar goalie. The bulk of the play was at the Saints' end, although M. Cowan, Vic goalie, availed herself of several opportunities to make spectacular saves.

During the second period play was fairly even with both sides holding well. Several solo rushes failed to mount up scores for either team. Ann Scott and Molly Sclater ably defended the Vic goal against Mary Dignam, who was the chief threat on the blue and grey forward line. During the last period Vic distinctly had the edge on St. Hilda's. Molly Sclater made the spectacular play of the game when she rushed from centre ice down to the Saints' goal to put in the winning point for Vic. In the last few minutes of play Vic were shooting wildly but made no further score.

Victoria - Goal, M. Cowan; defence, M. Scater, A. Scott; forwards, M. Eastwood, M. McKay, J. Batho; alternates, M. Faulds, M. Clements, J. Fenton.

St. Hilda's - Goal, M. McDonald; defence, K. Grube, E. Palmer; forwards, K. Symons, P. Harrison, I. Wallbridge; alternates, M. Dignam, P. Cleland, J. Kirk, L. Hopkins.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... RAndolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night 'Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... P. C. PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '34
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Mabel Gorbam Assistant—Francine Shapiro

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27th, 1934

AGE OF JAZZ

Mr. F. Scott Fitzgerald, who named the "Jazz Age", says that it ended with the stock market crash of 1929. It is probably too soon to judge; but there are clear signs that the excessive vulgarity, the sanction of the racketeering spirit, the glamour of wild dissipation, and all such characteristics of the decade which passed away so dramatically, fled with our unnatural prosperity. Sobered by shattered confidence and actual necessity, material extravagance and spiritual recklessness, this continent expressed its soul blatantly and unforgettably.

So far as the popular music of the "Jazz Age" represented this excited heaving of spirit, it doubtless has run its course. Even though institutions of the late era linger on in much the same form—Hollywood, for instance—and entertainers demand a perpetuation of the old mood, mere rapidity of motion can no longer stay the process of disintegration which is so powerfully upon us. Jazz as an articulation of the ancient phrase "Whirl is King" would seem to have exhausted its wild energies. In so far as jazz was chiefly expressive as a phenomenon, as an indication of general iconoclasm, the age is over. Mere flouting of tradition, the existence of art simply for the morbid pleasure of defying authority, of producing the hectic and the bizarre—these things are no longer alive in any important measure, any more than the flapper of a few years ago is alive. It is past the time for enjoying a complete lack of reflectiveness and moderation. If there is any prolongation of the change, it is because there are many who struggle against the realization that in a world of grim forebodings there is an end to superficial gaiety.

But in another sense, jazz goes deeper, and is by no means out of date. Beyond the ephemeral joy of an iconoclastic dash, there is an intrinsic expressiveness, a way in which the writers of jazz have given us a true and significant record of contemporary moods. There is the combination of a sincere and perhaps not valueless enthusiasm for energy and ambition—and a profound wistfulness, a pathos of arresting import. The significance of this is demonstrated not only in music of the "blues" type, but in the ordinary run of jazz. A book on jazz written a few years back by an English critic, Mr. R. W. S. Mendel, makes this interesting suggestion:

"Jazz is by no means wholly cheerful. In some way it seems to express a hilarity which, just because it is intense or even feverish in quality, is also short-lived, even as is the popularity of practically every ragtime tune that has been written—and the knowledge that this cheerfulness is only on the surface and must soon pass away, tends to stir an under-current of melancholy or of pathos. I have already observed that the old negro folk songs frequently reveal a wistful regret—the yearning of the negro for the home from which he or his ancestors had been wrested—the sad, yet patient sentiments of an oppressed race. This characteristic seems in a small measure to have been inherited by the syncopated dance music of the twentieth century. . . ."

That passage was written in 1927. Since then the depression has come upon the world, including this continent, the natural home of jazz, intensifying this underlying melancholy, even bringing it to the surface. We believe that in the jazz creations of the last two or three years this is quite evident. Examples of these come at once to mind—"Old Man Ribber", "Shadow Waltz", from The Gold Diggers of 1933, "Lazy Bones", "Smoke gets in your eyes". The zest and recklessness is disappearing: no longer must one seek beneath the speed and sound for the fundamental element of sadness. The aesthetic future of the jazz idiom makes an interesting study in itself. But far more important is the mode of feeling producing it—the depression and weariness of a disintegrating civilization, undone by a world struggle and crushed by disillusionment. "Only until this cigarette is ended," begins Edna St. Vincent Millay in one of her sonnets; and in that phrase she crystallizes the inescapable knowledge of the transitoriness of our traditional hopes and our contemporary satisfactions.

"Only until this cigarette is ended,
A little moment at the end of all . . ."

Art, Music and Drama

Print Room

While the Art Gallery is having a very interesting exhibition of French Painting in the XIX century, showing us the development of this art from classicism to impressionism and post-impressionism, the Sketch Room Committee has just hung a very good selection of reproductions of French paintings of the same period. More lucky than the Art Gallery that had to content itself with whatever paintings they could obtain, we have in the Print Room not only a very representative selection from the best French painters of the last century, but also a series of excellent notes on painters and the various movements which they personify.

These notes enable us to follow more intelligently the reasons that brought about the break from classicism and a decadent romanticism by painters who sought to find in nature and realism a truer medium for their art than the refined works of previous generations. Alike to contemporary painting it sought a more sincere technique, as well as a choice of subjects outside of their literary significance.

In the reproductions of Manet and Courbet we can see this effort towards realism, which brought a greater boldness of expression. Daumier, as well as Degas, impressionistic painters, were more interested in human beings than in nature, their subjects are humble ones, but treated with an intense emotion and understanding, a strong irony even in Daumier. Some artists, like Seurat and Sisley, typify the group of impressionistic painters who following a pure impressionism, created the pointillist painting, i.e., painting by mere dots or points, leaving to the eye of the onlooker to reconstruct them into a whole.

Cezanne was in a sense a reaction against this period of painting that turned to a science. He tried always to render only his impressions of any subject, rather than adopting any special method to express it, as many of his friends did then. The reproductions shown are a fine selection, and we can understand from them why this man has had such a strong influence. His art being largely a personal matter, it is not surprising that most of those who admit his influence have come, for the same reason, to paint in a very different manner, without having always his genius, however. Renoir was another great painter of the last century, who in revolt against the flat painting, tried to express depth, roundness in his painting, which led him to a wonderful mastery of shadows, as well as to a new understanding of the gradation of colours. After a visit to the Print Room students may do well by going to the Art Gallery, whose present exhibition will close on Thursday night, and is worthwhile seeing.

C. de M.

Modernistic Rugs

Note. We are greatly indebted to Mr. Ralph M. Pearson, an independent artist in New York, for obtaining permission to reproduce parts of some of his articles on the modernistic movement in rug manufacturing in New England, under the leadership of a group of modern artists. Mr. Pearson, instructor at the New Social Research in New York, director of the Design Workshop—which has an annual summer school of Creative Art, at Gloucester, Mass.—was first trained as an etcher, and for the last ten years has been interested in the application of modern art in industry. He is the head of a group of artists who have created a new style in rugs to express contemporary trends. He is also the author of "How to See Modern Painting" and "Experiencing Pictures".

C. de M.

"The hooked rug has grown out of our soil. Because of its background it distinctly belongs to us. Like the Navajo blanket, the hooked rug was,"

(Continued on Page 4)

(The following description of the death of Nell, late Feature Editor of "The Varsity", has just been received from our Special Siberian Correspondent. It was smuggled out of Russia in a volume of Dickens' "Old Curiosity Shop", disguised as a treatise on the Marxist Theory of Incremental Ideology as Applied to the Manufacture of Universal Joints for Ten Ton Tractor Treads. All rights reserved, including transcription for Symphony Orchestra.)

THE DEATH OF NELL

He has been dead six days. The end was sad. Broken and wracked by unremitting toil, digging up salt on cold Siberian steppes, slowly he pined and faded day by day, till but a shadow of his former self.

There was a mule, whom he named Portia, for, he said, his milk was never strained, nor was her love for him who in that gang of sullen slaves alone had called her brother, and his friend. This mule was with him to the last. From time to time, her gentle tongue would stroke his wasted cheek, and this alone would raise him from that sleep, more like death's stupor, into which he sank. Some, seeing this, broke down and frankly wept, knowing not which to call the greater soul of these two kindred spirits.

We were all with him at the end. We knew his time was drawing near. At dawn he died. Earlier in the night we talked to him, but as the hours crept on, he sunk to sleep. We knew, by what he muttered in his dreams, that they were of those far-off golden days, when he was Editor of Champus Cat.

(Continued on Page 4)

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

THE LETTER FROM A NAZI

The Editor, The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

In replying to the criticisms directed against you for publishing the "letter" from the "German Nazi to" etc., you offer the well-known excuse that "you must not be guilty of the Nazi practice of suppressing news". While I do not think that the "letter", because of its stupidity (so characteristic of the Nazi mind), constitutes any danger, I cannot agree with you regarding the ideas that prompted you to publish it. You are not serving democracy when you give freedom of expression to people who advocate the most brutal suppression of it.

As for the "letter" itself, the Nazi, in spite of his erudition, is just repeating the "wisdom" expressed in such books as "Mein Kampf" and "The Protocols of the Elders of Zion". Our Nazi friend forgot to tell us of a Nazi feat which would certainly rectify the Nazis in the eyes of the world. "It seems (according to the Minister of 'Enlightenment') that the Nazis have just discovered that toward the end of the 18th century several Elders held a meeting at which they

(Continued on Page 4)

LET POKER HANDS
Bring You This Alarm Clock Free!

A dependable, sturdy and attractive timepiece with a musical ring that will wake you pleasantly in the morning! It's easy to get and is guaranteed—just save Poker Hands, use the Turret Poker Hand exchange boards at cigarette counters which will enable you to hasten the completion of your sets. Soon you will have Poker Hands enough for any of the many splendid gifts.

Turret
CIGARETTES
SAVE THE POKER HANDS

Poker Hands are also packed with Turret Pipe Tobacco and Turret Cigarette Tobacco. Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Ltd.

TED ROBINS' Dance Orchestra

TEN PIECES—OPEN FOR ENGAGEMENTS

Both Canadian and United States experience

Best of References - - Terms Reasonable

Auditions on request

Elgin 0949

Night: Junction 2865

FOOTLIGHT PARADE

MARTIN B. LOEB
O O O O O O O O

This week at the Toronto show houses provides variety to say the least and what is something unusual, the four main shows are all fairly good.

O O O O

SHEA'S

At Shea's there is a very amusing song and dance vaudeville show of the all-coloured variety and known to fame as Lew Leslie's "Blackbirds of 1934". Personally there is nothing I like better in vaudeville than lots of the "hooper" stuff and they sure hand out plenty. The singing isn't bad, and the whole stage show is as satisfying as I have seen for a long while. Clive Brook and Irene Dunne in "If I Were Free" do some good acting in a fine play. "If I Were Free" is a screen adaptation of John Van Druten's "Behold, We Live" and unlike the cinema version of Noel Coward's "Design for Living", the screen version follows the stage play, quite closely. If I had to rate the Toronto shows (and I don't) Shea's would come first.

O O O O

LOEW'S

Perhaps because I am biased when it comes to Greta Garbo, I would rate "Queen Christina" at least in second place. Unfortunately the plot is a bit "too-too" and supplies poor dramatic setting for the great movie star. John Gilbert plays adequately opposite the Swedish queen but of course is overshadowed by the personality of the Garbo. Pardon me if I got a bit romantic about the Swedish girl but I find that whenever I see her acting I forget that Hollywood ever laid claim to anything even nearly so good. Greta Garbo has the faculty of acting with every muscle and nerve in her body so that the script can almost be read on her face. "Queen Christina" gives

(Continued on Page 4)

EYESAVING BOND

REGISTERED

Insist on this watermark, visible in every full size sheet

Long hours of night study ahead of you?

Try EYESAVING BOND and avoid that "Tired Eye" feeling. Just try it. You will be surprised.

It has extra strength that resists tearing at the punching

For sale at your Book or Stationery Store

LUCKETT'S
STERLING
LINE
Made in Canada

Insist on this Trade Mark in all your Loose Leaf Books and Refills.

The Lockett Loose Leaf, Limited - Toronto

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps. Special rates for students. Two stores to serve you.

FREEMAN'S

256 College Street
K1. 0991

571 Yonge Street
K1. 3270

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

Copyrights and Patents

3. R. Cadwell, M.D.

Barrister, Solicitor, etc.

300 Bloor St. East

Ra. 2121-2122

U.C. SENIOR FORMAL DANCE, ROOF GARDENS, ROYAL YORK HOTEL, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7

JUNIOR. U.C. AND O.C.E. WIN IN HOCKEY DOUBLEHEADER

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By M. A. F.

By displaying truly superior hockey last night Vic Seniors stole a march over St. Hilda's and have now only to win the game on Wednesday to be hailed as interfaculty women's hockey champions. But the Saints displayed a fighting spirit which shows that they will not submit to a second defeat without a tussle to the finish. The game Wednesday will be a good one—to say nothing of the third game (if it is played!).

Mary McDonald, the St. Hilda's goalie, certainly deserves credit for her splendid performance. She has played brilliantly all season, and had it not been for her, last night, Vic might easily have piled up a record score. The puck was perilously close to the Saints' goal for a goodly part of the game, but only twice could they make it count.

Every member of the Vic team was well on her mettle. Ann Scott, Molly Schater and Marlene Faulds were outstanding. Ann and Molly did noble service as defence, and both made numerous solo rushes. M. Cowan, Vic goalie, also deserves mention for turning in a fine performance. The Vic aggregation showed better organization than the Saints, and made their plays count for more. It was a good game all around and deserves more support—Trinity, this means you! There were plenty of Scarlet and Gold rooters but "The Salt of the Earth" were conspicuous by their absence.

March 7 is the big day in the women's swimming annuals. The meet this year promises to be a good one. It is expected that U.C. and St. Hilda's will be neck and neck for the title; the former showing much promise in speed events, the latter in ornamental swimming and diving. In addition to the spirited competition there is a unique feature scheduled this year which will be worth while. So do not forget Wednesday, March 7, at 8 p.m. Show up at the Hart House pool and really support your faculty!

Did you ever realize that in 99 cases out of 100 swimming is the one sport you enter at University which you will continue all your life? With this idea in view, and also for furthering pleasant associations of undergraduate years, it has been suggested that a swimming club be formed by Varsity Grads. Some of the proceeds from the interfaculty meet could advantageously be given to securing a pool for such an organization, and Mr. Cochran and Billy would give instruction for practices one night a week. Any brilliant, or even mediocre, views as to this plan would be gladly received if addressed to this column.

ST. MIKE'S BEATS VARSITY BLUES

(Continued from Page 1)

strongly in the latter part of the half to bring the score up to 14-13 at the half way mark, with the Blues hanging on to the slim one point margin.

The second canto had the small crowd in an uproar as both teams were fighting hard to pull out a win. Two baskets and a foul by Bodrug coupled with a Sniderman hoop save the Blue lead mount to eight points early in the second half. Two baskets by Hickey cut it down to four. Mitchell's counter was followed by two beautiful long shots from Meagher and Marks to give Varsity a meagre 23-21 advantage, when Bill Bodrug had to go off for repairs necessitated by a gash over the eye. Marks and Willis sunk a foul apiece, after which a basket and foul by Meagher gave St. Mike's a 25-24 advantage for the first time. At this juncture the Blue team was weakened considerably by the forced departure of Sniderman through the "4 personal" route. Two brilliant counters

JR. U.C. AND O.C.E. HOCKEY VICTORS

Junior Meds and Pharmacy Are Losers in Close Games

SCORES 2-0 AND 5-1

Two more games were run off in the Varsity Arena yesterday afternoon when U.C. Juniors downed Medical Juniors 2-0 and O.C.E. downed Pharmacy 5-1. Both games were fast and fairly even, although in the first, U.C. were not two goals better than Meds.

In winning their first game of the season U.C. blasted Meds' hopes of forcing a first place tie with Vic, who have now clinched their group. Meds had most of the speed and in the last period nearly all the play, but Campbell, in the winners' goal, was simply unbeatable. Morlock opened the scoring after eight minutes of play when he skated in fast to bang Thompson's rebound past Williams. Meds seemed unable to organize their attack and their rushes usually wound up in the corner.

In the second half, Meds were all over their opponents, but at the 17 minute mark, U.C. forced a scramble in front of the Doctors' net, and Piggott clapped in Thompson's pass. Campbell and Thompson scintillated for the Arts men, with Gray and McEwen starring for the Bonesetters.

O.C.E. were just too good for Pharmacy, their back checking holding the Defenders at bay. They whipped in three goals in the first canto and rifled home two more in the last session while Pharmacy rang up one. The Druggists were outskated throughout the whole game, their goalward thrusts being mostly one-man affairs, their only close-in chances being capably handled by Donahue, Dorion and McKinnon with two goals each. Scollie with one, and Donahue were the pick of the teachers, while Cottrell and Evans tried to keep Pharmacy in the hunt.

U.C. — Campbell, Keirle, McPherson, Morlock, Thompson, Fowler, Morrison, Piggott.

Meds — Williams, Charles, Gary, McEwen, McKee, Coxon, Button, Anderson.

Pharmacy — Briscoe, Cottrell, Bingman, Evans, Walgin, Anderson, McDougall, McDonald.

O.C.E. — Donahue, Passmore, Moffatt, Scollie, Bunt, McKinnon, Davidson, Pugh, Dorion.

Referee — Normie McClelland.

by Bodrug and Mitchell gave the Blues back their lead but they couldn't resist the powerful last minute attack of Bill Storen's cagers, and for the fourth time this season suffered a St. Mike's defeat, the final score reading 30-28.

Once again the St. Mike's win depended on their foul shooting ability as they scored on 8 out of 17 tries, while the Blues were only successful on 4 out of 8.

Meagher played a starring role in St. Mike's victory, being their high scorer with 10 points. Marks, Connelly and Hickey also turned in their usual effective games. A lot of credit must be given the Blue team for their valiant efforts in the face of such great odds. The whole team of Bodrug, Willis, Mitchell, Sniderman and Gold turned in sterling efforts, Bodrug being high scorer of the game with eleven points.

St. Mike's — Hickey 5, Hynes, Peck, Massucci 2, Carey, Connelly 4, Marks 5, Meagher 10, Sullivan, Crowley 4, Cloney.

Varsity — Bodrug 11, Willis 7, Mitchell 8, Sniderman 2, Gold, Prince. Referee — L. Irwin.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

Last night in Hart House the St. Michael's College Big Six basketball team once more took a close victory over Lew Hayman's Varsity quintet. In four starts for these two teams this season the St. Mike's outfit has won each time by two points, with one exception, and that time it was one point. Last year these two teams were keen rivals in the Big Five series when Varsity won two of the three league games with St. Mike's. The Blues finished on top of the heap but the Double Blues finished second and they played three games in the playoffs for the Toronto and District title which Varsity won by a very close margin, being a decision in two of the three contests.

This year St. Mike's are out in front with four wins in four league games played and will be in the playoffs with Yolles A.C. The series last year was a much better one and drew a much larger and more interested crowd of fans. Basketball has had a hard row to hoe in Toronto and doesn't seem to be gaining headway. It was very satisfying to note, however, that the two college teams finished on top last year. They were admitted to the league as fill-ins and upset the dope by taking everything before them. They introduced a new style of basketball which has since proved very popular besides having shown its value against the scramble-ball type that was in use previously. The introduction of American coaches and players has been for the most part responsible for the improvement. And so we are glad to see St. Mike's still in the fight, and wish them luck in their playoff series with Yolles.

Today we take up the cudgel against the McMaster Silhouette in defence of Varsity's basketball team on the occasion of their Big Six game in Hamilton not long ago when McMaster won 41-39. The Hamilton college publication also takes objection to our saying that the loss was a "gyp" for Varsity. It hasn't been our policy to alibi for any team that loses and our remarks of Feb. 14th uphold that policy, which nevertheless is not averse to criticizing injustices when they are as flagrant as they were that night in Hamilton. A few facts that were admitted on the scene of the contest will illustrate our point. First of all Varsity was ahead when full time had really been reached. But due to the admitted efforts of the timekeeper, full time was delayed until McMaster was ahead. The timekeeper admitted his mistake (we are willing to give him the benefit of any possible doubt) at the time but when an argument arose he would not sign a statement to that effect. Applebaum, a Varsity intermediate player who noticed what was going on, had to forcibly secure the timekeeper's whistle to put a stop to proceedings. In contradiction to the rules, the timekeeper was taking time out for about the last five minutes whenever there was a toss-up.

The McMaster Silhouette states that Varsity's basketball team resembled a debating team more than anything else because of their frequent vocal objections to the referee's decisions. For the most part they objected during the game to the elbows and high knees that were handed out by their opponents. It is not the part of the players as a group or individually to argue about the official's decisions or a lack of them. Frequently such treatment by the opposing team is unintentional. However, we can point out that Moe Mitchell, acting captain of the Blues, came out of that game with a broken nose, a cracked rib, a cut lip and a black eye. Those injuries may have been inflicted accidentally.

The McMaster Silhouette quotes the Hamilton Herald as being in sympathy with its sentiments. The latter publication points out that Boley Jeffers is rated by basketball officials as one of the best referees in the game today. Yet Jeffers admitted an infraction of the rules of which he was guilty. He was throwing the ball to the McMaster team when they were throwing it in under the Varsity basket. Twice that occurred and the result was two baskets scored for the home team which won the game. He was supposed to hand it to the McMaster player at the place where the ball went out which would give the defending team a chance to pick up their checks. Jeffers was also guilty of an infraction of the rules when he expelled Captain Mitchell from the floor for talking to him and objecting strenuously to his, Jeffers', infractions of the rules. That is the legitimate right of any captain and an action for which there can be no penalty unless the offender is insulting in his remarks. Mitchell was not insulting Jeffers.

We would like to point out to the writer of the editorial in question that we are not criticizing the McMaster team. We watched them here last Friday night when they were defeated by Varsity very decisively. The McMaster team conducted itself in the proper manner and no difficulty arose. The reason was that the game was efficiently handled by a competent set of officials. If that had been the case in Hamilton the hard feelings which resulted would not have been incurred. It is to be regretted that they exist. Probably the Varsity team as a whole are to be criticized for their too frequent vocal objections to the treatment they received by the officials but it would be a natural reaction on the part of most players. In conclusion may we remind the editorial writer that refutations of the accusations in the form of admitted facts that have not been forthcoming. The McMaster team is not to blame for the unfortunate occurrences. They and their coach said they would give the game to Varsity if they were going to protest. But the U. of T. never protests games under any circumstances. The McMaster Silhouette should look a little more carefully into the facts of the case before it brands the Varsity senior basketball players as poor sports and crabbies. And we still maintain that the loss was a "gyp".

C.C.F. DISTINCT FROM COMMUNISTIC VIEW

(Continued from Page 1)

in demonstrations on behalf of A. E. Smith, contrary to orders from Ottawa that no members should affiliate themselves with this movement.

It was made clear by C.C.F. leaders that the action did not aim at the complete expulsion of labour from all activities of the party but merely the reorganization of the provincial body so that the labour section would be better represented by true adherents to the party and at the same time exclude the communist element altogether.

CANADIAN CENTRAL BANK PROSPECT

(Continued from Page 1)

speaking, the system of borrowing practised by the federal and provincial governments, has not been a sound one. An efficient central bank would correct this tendency, thus producing greater confidence throughout the country. Since this bank is to be the only one with the right to issue money, by varying the amount of legal tender in circulation it can influence the volume of credit as conditions demand. Both these factors are valuable in improving business conditions.

"Everything which may be said about

COLLEGE MEN

Seeking Summer Employment!

Maclean's Magazine offers students an opportunity by which they can earn money in worthwhile amounts (salary and bonus) during the summer vacation. The work is congenial—territory can be arranged by writing to the student sales manager. Write, call or phone to-day for particulars and interview, to Student Sales Managers, Room 46, 481 University Avenue, Toronto.

THE MACLEAN PUBLISHING CO. LTD.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body. Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

this bank ought to be qualified by a regard for what type of men are appointed to govern it. Once these appointments are made, the governors of the bank, whoever they may be at the time, will elect any vacancies that henceforth will naturally arise. In the first instance there must be political appointments. From then on it would be a self-perpetuating institution since the stockholders would not be able to exert any influence over its deliberations."

"What is your opinion," The Varsity asked, "as to the dangers which the supporters of the government at Ottawa claim would result if the proposed privately controlled banks were nationalized?"

"By making the central bank a private one, they think they are keeping politics out of it, but that is largely a delusion," Mr. Plompre replied. "No matter what party is in power, if it wants to advance a certain financial policy it will do it regardless of whether we have a privately or publicly owned central bank."

"We can put the whole situation this way. The steering wheel of a motor car is both necessary and valuable only when driving along a highway at a speed which allows you to keep the car under control. But what good is a steering wheel if your car is lying in the ditch? A central bank is a country's financial steering wheel, valuable and necessary under normal conditions. A central bank is a sound financial measure. It won't make prosperity for Canada in itself, but it will pave the way for a sounder financial system."

A Med., who paid his first visit to church last Sunday, says that the people who make the pews know plenty about Deuteronomy, and nothing about Anatomy.—U. of Western Ontario.

Sport Notices

Baseball Playoffs—Wednesday, Feb. 28—Jr. Vic vs Sr. U.C. All games from now on must start at 4 p.m. sharp. Seven innings. O.A.C. at Dents likely on Thursday.

Baseball Umpires—Wednesday—Carveth and Anten. Thursday—Carveth and Gould. Games start at 4 p.m. sharp.

Jr. U.C. Baseball—Game with Jr. Meds, Tuesday 4-5.

Swimmers—Swimming team will continue to practice at usual time and place.

Women's Athletic Team—Photographs of the women's intercollegiate tennis, hockey and basketball senior "T" holders and intermediate basketball will be taken in the University Photography Department, Room 40, School of Science Building, on Wednesday, at 1 p.m.

U.C. Badminton Tournament—All women playing please be at the York Badminton Club on Cawthra Square, entering from east side of Jarvis Street on Tuesday (today), Feb. 27 at 2 p.m.

Basketball Club—Tues. Feb. 27, 5 p.m., Room 82, U.C.—Meeting of the executive of the Basketball Club. All out please. Important business.

Isn't it strange how mad a cop is when he races with you and wins.—U. of Saskatchewan.

U.C. SOPH-FROSH PARTY, WED., FEB. 28, 8.30 p.m., WOMEN'S UNION - Kampus Katz. Tickets 60c. Tues. & Wed., 12-2 Rotunda

MILD
TO THE LAST PUFF—LET'S SEE

YES—IT STARTS OFF WELL...
NICE FLAVOUR TOO.

SMOKES COOL AND SMOOTH—RIGHT THROUGH SORRY I DIDN'T TAKE TO THIS BRAND BEFORE

MILD
TO THE LAST PUFF
THAT'S SO!

It's "throat-easy"
Smoke
Buckingham
PREMIUM CARDS IN EVERY PACK

Coming Events

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27
5.00 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., Wymilwood.
Speaker, Rev. F. Noel Palmer.
4.30 p.m.—Mr. H. Napier Moore, editor of Maclean's Magazine, will speak at the meeting of the University Women's Press Club on the subject of "An Editor's Point of View".
All interested are welcome.

8 p.m.—Commerce Club smoker in the Music Room, Hart House. Prof.
Ashley will lead a discussion on "Business Morality and Government Control".

8.15 p.m.—Liberal Club meeting in the Music Room, Hart House. Mr. D.
W. Lang, K.C., will speak.

3.30 p.m.—Trinity College Library.
Professor Chester Martin on "The Loyalists in New Brunswick," 150th anniversary of the creation of that province. Ontario Historical Society's lecture.

5.10—Mr. Sime's S.P.S. discussion group in S.C.M. library, Hart House.

8.15—A meeting of the German Study Club will be held in the Women's Union. Mr. and Mrs. Geza de Kress, assisted by Mrs. Whitehead, will give a musical evening. Refreshments.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28
5 p.m.—In Room 18, Victoria College, Vocational Guidance Group on Advertising.

8.30 p.m.—Meeting of Student Branch of the F.S.U. at 200 Shaw Street.
Mr. J. Friedman will speak on "Soviet Foreign Policy, Past and Present". All students interested and their friends most cordially invited.

8.30 p.m.—U.C. Soph-Fresh party at Women's Union.

9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Debates Committee open. These nominations close Monday, 5th Mar.
at 6 p.m.

THURSDAY, MARCH 1
4 p.m.—U.C. Parliamentary Club in the junior common room.

8.15 p.m.—Joint meeting of French Clubs of Trinity, Victoria, St.
Michael's and University Colleges.
Women's Union, 79 St. George St.
8.15 p.m.—Final meeting of the U.C.
Lit. in junior common room.

Classified Advertisements

LOST

Black Leather Notebook on Tuesday, February 20th, in Hart House or Chemistry Building, containing Chemistry and Science and Civilization notes. Liberal reward. Return to George E. Penfold, Medicine 1.
Kingsdale 0316.

LOST

The bottom of a grey and red
Parker pen. Finder phone Ki.
3266.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from Page 2)

laid plans for the conquest of the "white race" about 1940. So, you see, the Nazis discovered the plot just in time to save the white race.

Just as stupid is his pitiable attempt to minimize the fact that the militaristic spirit is rampant in Germany today. Our learned Nazi would like us to believe that an elaborate system of military training is necessary to teach the Nazi "boys" not to step on one another's toes when they attend a convention. He might have told us that all those guns that are being secretly manufactured are just so many toys for the 100 per cent pure
Aryan children that Hitler is breeding.
Max Izenberg, III B. & M.

RADIO FOR THE GREAT HALL

The Editor, The Varsity.

Dear Sir:

We have often noticed with interest two amplifiers in the south end of Great Hall, yet we have never seen them used. Since most persons enjoy music with their meals we would like to suggest that by means of an electrical transcription vitrola, a daily noon-hour programme be provided. If this were found too expensive, because of records, a small radio similar to that in U.C. common room would be sufficient and perhaps even preferable.

We would like to see other opinions on the subject expressed in your paper, since we feel that it is an idea well worth consideration by the Hall Committee.

Thanking you for the valuable space
we remain, yours truly,

B.C. and H.H.

COMMERCE CLUB SMOKER

The Commerce Club are holding their final smoker tonight in the Music Room, Hart House, at 8 p.m. Professor Ashley will lead a discussion on Business Morality and Government Control. Among those taking part will be Mr. Macdonald of the National Trust Co., Mr. Chalmers of the Financial Post, and Professor Urwick.
Smokes and refreshments.

Students Still Search For Feminine Ideal

Students at the University of Western Ontario, recently held a poll to determine the popular standards for the perfect girl.

"According to the results of the quiz, the girl our men seem to want to take home to dad and mother, although not one depicted her exactly, is of medium height, five foot five and one-half inches tall, and weighs one hundred and twenty-two pounds. She will have long black hair, blue eyes and a fair complexion. She will be good at athletics and card games, particularly bridge, very good at dancing, have a keen sense of humour, and just be fair in academic work. She must be of the romantic type and primarily beautiful."

Other interesting statistics garnered during the quiz include: 74 per cent of Western men prefer to marry college girls, while 39 per cent have already met their ideals. The most decided fact was that men prefer romantic friendships to platonic ones, and next was their preference for fair complexions. The question showing the most indecision was that on eye colour.

Worthy of mention are: nobody wants a redhead although two prefer green eyes; no one loves a girl because she is athletic; only one young man doesn't want a bridge player and two don't want dancers.

8 p.m.—M. and P. Society open meeting, Women's Union. Skits, dancing.
FRIDAY, MARCH 2

North Toronto Collegiate Institute is holding its annual At-Home in the Eaton Auditorium. Dancing to Stanley St. John's orchestra. Special welcome to the alumni.

5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club annual meeting. Elections. Programme for spring and next year. Members bring friends interested.

9.30-2.30—Victoria College general elections in Alumni Hall.
Dental At-Home, Roof Gardens of Royal York.

SATURDAY, MARCH 3
9-12 p.m.—Alpha Chi Omega subscription dance, in Alexandrian Room,
King Edward Hotel.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7
Hart House Elections.

Heavenly Hawaii, How To Act Pride & Prejudice, Tears & Tact

Dear Aunt Caddochis:

I'm so THRILLED! I've just won another BEAUTY Contest. Can you TIE that! What I really mean of course is—no but REALLY isn't it PERFECTLY MARVELOUS? But of COURSE that isn't anything in my life any MORE. DID I ever tell you about the beauty contest I won when I was NINE months old? It was sponsored by the Consumers' Gas Company (no, NOT the Star Fresh Air Fund) and now David—the WREtch (cousins are so UNFEELING) insists that that's where I first contracted my gas on the STOMACH. I didn't really—I've merely got electricity in my hair. Sometimes, in an idle moment, I wonder whether the Little Red Schoolhouse might not be responsible for THAT.

HowEver, to return to the main issue—I've been awarded a cruise to the Hawaiians. DARING, isn't it WONDERful?

You know Aunt Caddy, it's SO hard to concentrate on ONE thing at a time. What I MEAN is that I find it easy to go off on a tangent. It must be my mathematical training. Which reminds me of the exercise "P is a point without a circle . . ." and the teacher insisted that I first draw a circle, of ALL things. But I refused, because it said very clearly in black and WHITE that P is a point WITH-OUT a circle.

The problem of clothes for the trip has me all adither. I saw the DUCK-test white linen suit downtown. On the Other hand, Native costume might be more INTRIGUING from the MASculine point of view. But do you HONESTLY think a lei is sufficient protection from the weather?

Yours in haste (of course, I don't mean that Literally but it looks so BUSINESSlike I couldn't reSIST.)

Gitel Long.

P.S. DO you think the rate of exchange would affect the price of pink hairpins in the Hawaiians?—Git.

My dear Gitel:

Life is a vale of vanity. The wages of beauty is sin, and I cannot but deplore the lack of propriety that induced you, the eldest blossom of my sister's elaste nosegay to display those physical qualities which you were given by the bounty of Providence. That pride, I piously fear, has made you unfably attract the attention of the members of a sex essentially indelicate.

I can only hope that you will have the strength of character to resist those temptations which, I am afraid, are only too easily yielded to by us weak-willed and dependent creatures. I can only remind you, my poor child, of that wise saying, "Be good, sweet maid, and let who will, be fair."

I am especially flattered that you have chosen to ask my advice on all questions of manners, the heart, and the digestion. I have been deeply concerned about the latter, and am sending you my favourite remedy for sea-sickness, which I employed with great efficacy on my last voyage to the Toronto Islands.

I trust the long sea voyage will not prove too bothersome to you, and that you will profit by the long stretches of unemployment to cultivate the acquaintance of all the worth-while people on board with you. It is regrettable that you will have to suffer contact with such individuals who may attempt to divert your time in frivolous pursuits.
I am also sending you my favourite volume of "Pride and Prejudice" which will, I am sure, assist you immeasurably in the full enjoyment of your good fortune.

As to the problem of appropriate costumes, I cannot be certain of the suitability of the lei, as I fear that I have no acquaintance with that form of dress. My Webster's International gives no description of the native costume of the Hawaiians and I should think that the sweet little navy blue suit that Cousin Letty knitted you would cover the difficulty beautifully.
Don't forget to wear that warm hug-mug-mug on chilly evenings on deck.

Devotedly, your

Aunt Caddochis

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

VIC VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

At 5 p.m. tomorrow, Wed. Feb. 28, in Room 18, Victoria College, Messrs.
George Beavers, How Martyn and Scott Stockwell will speak on Advertising. This group promises to be one of the most interesting and a large attendance is expected.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB

Mr. H. Napier Moore, editor of Maclean's Magazine, is speaking at today's meeting of the University Women's Press Club, on the subject, "The Editor's Point of View". Everybody out! Tea at 4.30, address at 5.

VIC NOMINATIONS

Nominations for all offices not filled at the election last Friday must be in the hands of the Chief Returning Officer by 6 p.m. today. As well as the executive of the V.C.U., of federated societies and year executives, this includes nominations in I, II and III years for the Bob Committee and in IV for the Permanent Executive.
The Chief Returning Officer will be in the college hall today from 1.30 to 2.10 p.m. and from 4 to 5 p.m. to receive nominations.

BANDSMEN ATTENTION

The dinner for the Blue and White Band will be held in the Great Hall of Hart House at 6.30 p.m., Feb. 28.

AT-HOME

North Toronto Collegiate Institute is holding its annual At-Home in the Eaton Auditorium on Friday, March
2. Dancing to Stanley St. John's orchestra. Special welcome to the alumni.

LIBERAL CLUB

Meeting tonight at 8.15 p.m. in the Music Room, Hart House. Mr. D.
W. Lang, K.C., president of the Toronto Men's Liberal Association, will speak. Election of officers.

U.C. PARLIAMENT

Session on Thursday, March 1st, at 4 p.m.—The Hermant Government will propose "That there is not a law for the rich and a law for the poor in Canada".

T.I.C.C.U.

Rev. F. Noel Palmer, former General Secretary of the I.V.C.F., and now Rector of Saint Anne's Parish, will be the speaker at the regular meeting in Wymilwood at 5 this afternoon. The meeting is open to all, especially those who knew him in the Fellowship in England or here.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The Annual Novelty Match will be held this week, after which the Range will be closed. Cash prizes and banquet tickets will be given to the winners. See notice in the Range.

U.C. FRESHMEN

First year U.C. students call for Undergraduate today in the rotunda.
Those unable to do so write or get in touch with Fred Branscombe, the first year representative on the staff.

UNDERGRADUATE

The few remaining copies of The Undergraduate will go on sale today in the rotunda from ten till two o'clock.
First year students are reminded to get their copies in the rotunda.

SYMPHONY TICKETS

Student tickets for the special popular concert tonight of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra will be on sale at the Hall Porter's desk today from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

SCHOOLMEN!!!

The Mechanical Club and A.S.M.E. combined annual dinner will be held tonight at 6.30 p.m. in the Engineers'
Club, 350 Bay St. Guest speaker—
Col. H. V. McVean. Entertainment.

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

in its early days, a product of necessity created from the materials at hand by simple and natural methods.
It was beautified as naturally by designs that grew out of the worker's environment. So has all authentic art grown out of human experience . . .
The pressure of several generations of backward-looking art appreciation has warped our vision. Art, like charity, should begin at home. Art can function at home in many different things —including hand-hooked rugs.

"When we claim our age-old right to fashion things ourselves two ways are open. We can use our own hands and mind, or those of contemporary artists. Both ways have overlapping merits. Self-expression is said to be the happiest of all activities. By doing, we better understand another's more able doing. Doing bridges the imaginary chasm that so often seems to exist between artist and layman by discovering that both are kin. Artists cease to be pedestalled and personally meaningless heroes and become normal members of the clan one whose special task is that of adding distinction to utility . . . The hooked rug is a logical medium, then, for modern renaissance in rug design. In addition to being a typical American process, it is extremely flexible and therefore adaptable to modern creative designs with its informality and daring colours, lines, and spaces . . . It is a hand craft. Thus it is adapted to keeping the autographic quality of an artist's original sketch. . . .

"What is the significance of these contemporary American rugs to you, their potential buyer, to the nation, and to the artists who made them? Their significance to you or me can be exactly what we let it be. There are surprises in them. And surprises in a work of art mean that the artist is leading us into new pastures, which distinctly is the artist's job. They are creations. And creations mean differences that can be studied and valued as differences. They vibrate with simple and sophisticated design. And design pays dividends that are not yet too well understood. Now rhythm and harmony are words whose meaning we know better in music than in line and colour. If we give ourselves to the influence of such works they have the power to set vibrating in us creative chords long silent. Sufficient to say that we dance and we are in tune with dancers. We sing and we are in tune with singers. We plan the colour scheme of the walls of our house and we are in tune with artists and designers of rugs. In these events we are functioning. Part of their significance may lie in the break with routine they offer—in the escape from the standardized environment and the bor-dom of the expected. We crave adventure. Adventurous rugs for the adventurous!

"To the nation, works such as these are of importance because they recreate the national advance in the grace of living, in meeting the general social need for antidote to standardization, in recovering a cultural independence from slavish deference to foreign influences. Adventurers in the useful arts, as in science and literature, do bring credit to their country."

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

No painful dreams were they, but of his friends, contributors whom he remembered still, for oft he said, "G** bless you!" or, "My G**", has Kugur written more of this g**** rot?" or,
"This is just tripe, but run it, I've no brain to think of better."

Opening his eyes at last, from quiet sleep, he begged that we would kiss him once again. This done, he turned toward the weeping mule, a smile of happiness upon his face—such as we never had seen, nor could forget—and clung with both his arms about her neck. "Cousin," he cried, "good-bye.
We'll meet in Heaven!" Then sank to sleep. We did not know at first that he was dead.

Then the mule sank upon her knees and wept, to see her dearest friend and brother dead. No sound she uttered, but tears filled her eyes, and dribbled down her cheeks, and slowly dropped upon that silent form, till quite a little puddle marked her grief. She would not eat, nor would she leave that spot, but stayed beside him till she passed away, and faded like the light of summer evening. We buried them together, in one grave, that they who,

This joyous young couple, quite happy,
Have discovered a way to be happy
Just to ask for a smoke
They consider a joke—
You must say "BRITISH CONSOLS"
Old Chappell

Smoke a FRESH cigarette
BRITISH CONSOLS
COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

living, had so dearly loved, might meet in death, till mingled were their bones.
And over them we placed a modest stone:

"Here lie two sister souls. Their spirits were akin.

One but a Feature Editor, and one a mule,

One man, one beast, but underneath
the skin,

Sisters they were, and happy as a rule."

Chaz.

FOOTLIGHT PARADE

(Continued from Page 2)

her the chance of acting as usual, a part which shows her carrying all the ills of the world on her shoulders.
The settings are gorgeous and regal but never overdone, which perhaps is the result of the direction of Rouben Mamoulian.

OOOO

IMPERIAL

At the Imperial the picture "Beloved" is an attempt to trace the evolution of the great American melodic theme. The idea is good and the acting of John Boles and Gloria Stuart quite up to the mark, but the story is a bit too sentimental and the production a bit ragged.

The vaudeville is a real show. There are the three Radio Rogues with their notorious imitations of famous people, and Donald Novis, who gives the answer to "the maiden's prayer" with "Trees". Little Mary Brown and others also provide heart-pulls and humour in old and new ways.

OOOO

TIVOLI

"What Price Innocence", at the Tivoli gives the lowdown on what mother should have told us about the facts of life. The difficult theme is handled very tactfully and frankly.

Though the picture is fundamentally educational, the message is completely veiled in a pleasantly dramatic plot.
The acting of Jean Parker and Willard Mack is an outstanding feature of the presentation. Perhaps the mention of "sex" will send you all to the Tivoli, so that's enough.

FRENCH CLUBS PLAN

JOINT MEETING

(Continued from Page 1)

colleges have no point of contact except through the French play presented by the University College society. All join in supporting that.

On Friday, March 2nd, the members of the club in University College will meet to discuss a scholarship to be given out of the balance which has accumulated from the proceeds of the French plays for the past few years.
This is an unusual thing, for any undergraduate society to present a scholarship to the university.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28th, 1934

No. 95

BOARD OF GOVERNORS BANS JAZZ ISSUE

BEER SERVICE IN HART HOUSE

BEER AND ALE IS NEW INNOVATION BEGINNING TO-DAY IN THE TUCK SHOP

Seen by Premier As Step Towards Furtherance of Education

DISGUSTING SAYS W.C.T.U.

Will Stimulate the Crawling Breath in Opinion of Ramsbottom

The persistent rumour which has pervaded the university has at last come to a head. The Hart House Tuck Shop will retail beer, ale and other light beverages to the denizens of the house beginning today.

Premier Henry in a special bulletin issued to The Varsity last night stated that furthering his policy of allowing beer and wine in hotels, clubs and restaurants, he has deemed it advisable to begin his plan by legally allowing the sale of beer in university buildings.

"This innovation will undoubtedly relieve the students from many of their arduous studies and I am sure that it will considerably decrease the number of psychiatric cases now so prevalent on the campus," reads the bulletin.

Premier Bennett, who was interviewed by leased wire from the Varsity Press last night, said, "The sale of beer in the university buildings is to be highly commended as a step towards the furtherance of higher education."

NEWS OF THE WORLD MAN THE PUMPS!! IN GRIEF

Vienna—Germany declared war on Austria yesterday evening. The immediate cause was said to be an International Incident at the border when three Austrian Guards by the names of Schwartzbaum, Kalbfleisch and O'Hagan spat in the eye of a Nazi Heimwehrarbeitdienstmannsgroßmutternkelcousine.

Berlin—France declared war on Germany last night.

Paris—Italy declared war on France late last night.

Rome—Russia declared war on Italy sharp at midnight.

Moscow—Japan declared war on Russia at a very early hour this morning.

Tokio—The United States declared war on Japan at an early hour today.

Washington—Great Britain declared war on the United States early today. The C.O.T.C. will march on Buffalo immediately.

London—Scotland has declared war on Ramsay MacDonald.

Dublin—Eamonn de Valera declared at dawn that he was ready to declare war on almost anybody, as soon as he could make up his mind.

Toronto—The Orange Order has declared war on Eamonn de Valera. Koboonk, Ont.—A six-headed calf was born to Si Perkins of the Seventh Concession at an early hour this morning.

PUNCTUATION?

SISTER MISTER

DOWN WITH SYSTEM CRY OF MORMONS

Millionaires Put in Breadline Unemployed for Stock Exchange

SYSTEM IS NUTS; ARE YOU?

"Am I a millionaire? Are you? No! We will not tolerate such a system any longer!" With these dramatic words, Professor E. A. ("I love the Classics") Havelock closed his address yesterday to the Movement for a Mormon Social Order.

"What are we to make of an order where men are forced to subsist on peanut shells and senna tea? Is there no better use for peanut shells? What about senna? A man approached me yesterday and said, 'Could you spare me a quarter for a can of coffee?' I replied 'I was just going to put the same question to you myself.' The system is nuts!

"And the way advertisers exploit a gullible public. Even literateurs like myself have been sucked in. You know the slogan 'Reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet.' Luckys are lousy smokes. Why don't you mugs get up and do something? Leave the talking to intellectuals and use elbow grease, that's what I say.

"Some time we'll all be saying 'The King is dead. Long live the President of Soviet Russia,' or something."

Commenting on Professor Havelock's address, Professor Shoota Line said said that he was altogether in agreement with it. "Capitalism is drunk, as with strong wine," he announced. "Soon we will put the millionaires in the bread line, and put the unemployed on the Stock Exchange. That is the Mormon ideal." A moment later he added cryptically, "X Marx the spot."

THE MILLIE-ADD

Gt. American Epic They told me to pick a hero—A tall big handsome hero—Who did things—and Said things. And I'd have an epic But heroes should be Greek And I hate olive oil. Besides, I like to do my own cooking.

MAN THE PUMPS!!

BENNETT GIVES EDDY HOUSE TO CO-ED STUDENTS

The Dream of the University Realized by the Premier's Generosity

WORK TO START IN SPRING

Through the generosity of Canada's Prime Minister, R. B. Bennett, a "Hart House" for women—the dream of University women for the past decade—will be available by next spring, it was announced by the Warden of Hart House last night. Mr. Bickersteth stated that at the time of the last Hart House debate he had discussed the idea with Mr. Bennett, who has been giving the matter considerable attention in spite of his duties in Parliament. After a hurried conference with the architects, Sproatt and Rolph, Mr. Bennett wired last night that he would contribute half the necessary funds, and that the rest would be easily forthcoming from various prominent citizens. It will be remembered that at the time of his sister's marriage to Mr. Herridge, the premier made her a gift of $2,000,000.

The new structure will be in keeping with the collegiate Gothic design of Hart House, the tower will be equipped with a set of Westminster chimes, and the whole edifice will be equipped with the same good taste as its male counterpart, with gymnasiums, swimming pool and shuffle-board courts.

The women's swimming pool will even excel the present Hart House (Continued on Page 4)

HART HOUSE DEBATE ROUGH ON TARIFFS

Henry J. Howenfefenflinger Castigates Bennett in Speech

ANTI-WAR HEAD FAINTS

"Bennett is nerts!" gleefully shouted H. J. Howenfefenflinger, leader of the affirmative, speaking on the subject, "That this house disapproves of tariffs being high when skirts and bass-singers are so low," at the annual Hart House debate last night, held in the upper right hand corner of the third squash court, reading from left to right. "Furthermore democracy is dead and we must stamp it out with an iron heel." ("Bennett's a heel!" brilliantly heckled one of the brilliant hecklers in the audience, but the speaker wittily answered "Oh yeah!" and the heckler was thoroughly abashed.)

"Mr. Speaker sir," brilliantly led off N. F. S. Smith, leader of the opposition, vigorously blowing his nose. "I believe sir, that light wines and beers are as inevitable as light wine and beers. Why you ask? Because sir, they just are. Ask any four men on the street what they think of the tariffs and they will ask you for a ten cent piece. Ask any four men on the street for a ten cent piece and they will tell you of the high tariffs. Sirs, it is all a vicious circle and the opposition heartily vicious we were out of it."

At this juncture, the debate had to be stopped while the guest speaker, (Continued on Page 4)

MORALITY SQUAD MAKE RAID ON UNION

Clean-Up Campaign Begun by Commissioner of Police

FRATERNITIES NEXT

The Women's Union was raided last night by the morality squad. Seventeen female prisoners were taken, and thirteen of doubtful gender, as the doughty policemen fought their way through the opium haze to the dismal den of vice (located in what is known to the unsuspecting public as the kitchen).

As was expected, there was a violent struggle before the guardians of the public morals could make their way into the heavily guarded building. Five people were wounded in the opening scrimmage, and two were immediately removed to close confinement, after some further skirmish, the police emerged with their prisoners, who were sober enough to go fairly quietly to the police station, where they were lodged for the night, pending their final indictment and trial which will be carried out early today.

The Police Commissioner, when questioned as to the further prosecution of this case, declared, "Toronto must be cleaned up. We shall begin with these college carousers and carry on valiantly. Back to Toronto the Good!"

It is expected that the police will shortly carry on their investigations in the fraternity houses.

MAN THE PUMPS!!

STUDENT OPINION ON STUDENT OPINION

Varsity Reporters Pester Leading Campus Celebrities Incessantly

REPORTERS IN SOUP

"One more interview and I will scream," vigorously exclaimed Emil Lotta Ferment when asked to give his opinion on student opinion.

"In the tuck shop, in the library, in the squash courts, why even yesterday when I was in the Hart House tank, someone bobbed up between my breast stroke and asked me what I thought of the distilled water in the pool. It is getting so bad that I am afraid to eat the soup in Hart House for fear the next spoonful will bring up a Varsity reporter," declared John Pestifer IV, first year Vic.

"I believe the question is a paradoxical one," claimed J. R. Bullfinch, I. Social Science. "For when I give my opinion on student opinion I am already heartily endorsing an opinion in the student opinion column for my opinion will be in a story on student opinion and therefore will not be a valid representation of my opinion, or have you a different opinion?"

"The intellectual atmosphere that permeates the insipid vapourings of our bombastic intelligentsia is a situation that has aroused in me the mist vitriolic denunciations, denunciation with which my vocabulary is inadequately equipped to cope," stated Bartholomew St. Clair, IV Philosophy.

"I can no speak da Anglesish," declared Otto Zullich, IV Oriental Languages.

ANNUAL HUMOUROUS SUPPLEMENT REFUSED PUBLICATION BY BOARD

WEE MIST

In an exclusive interview with Wee Mist, she confirmed the report that she was engaged to Hymmie Wymmler.

There will be no jazz issue of "The Varsity" this year! At a meeting held late last night, authorities decided to suppress the annual humorous issue of the student newspaper. It is understood that this drastic action was taken in the interests of the moral standards of the University. Never before has a ban been placed on the jazz issue before its publication although on one or two occasions the circulation of the paper has been stopped.

BAND PLAYS WHILE MASSEY HALL BURNS

Cigarette Butt of Patron Causes Conflagration in Balcony

BEER USELESS TO QUENCH

The fire was caused by a gentleman sitting in the second gallery dropping a cigarette butt which ignited the dress of a patroness sitting below. When arrested on a charge of criminal negligence, the malefactor only mumbled "They told me they were menthol-cooled!"

It was planned to extinguish the flames by application of a large supply of beer kept on hand for such emergencies by the Board of Directors. However, on discovering that this liquid was equally suitable for purposes of refreshments, the firemen hit upon the happy expedient of applying water instead.

Even after the outbreak of the conflagration, the orchestra continued to play for some minutes. When interviewed by The Varsity on this peculiar circumstance, the conductor, Dr. Makea Million stated that he and his colleagues attributed the noticeable rise in temperature to the fact that they were playing hot music, and that women's screams were drowned out by the sound of the horn-players' wrong notes.

(Continued on Page 4)

MAN THE PUMPS!!

See a Coroner

At the spectacularly successful conference held last Xmas at Hamilton, Ohio, by the Student Whiskey Movement, the problem of world peace was definitely solved. It only remains for statesmen to put into practice the principles laid down by those who attended this conclave.

It was pointed out by the first guest speaker, "Hardwood" Teddy, that that is necessary is to establish brotherly love through the whole world. Once this simple task is accomplished, war and class conflict will automatically disappear. "See that your neighbour loves you as himself," demanded Dr. Freddy, "and eliminate the necessity of locking your cutlery." Thus, cryptically, he summarized the whole import of ideal ethics. He pointed out that the only reason why there were wars was that one group or nation disagreed with some other group or nation, on some matter. If that difficulty were eradicated, there would no longer be any need for a League of Nations.

Dr. Dizzy Crew, the prominent Chinese orator, in an inspiring address declared, (Continued on Page 4)

PROFESSOR'S LOVE LIFE EXPOSED

Valentine is Clue to Attempt at Intimidation by Co-ed

AIM TO FORCE GOOD MARKS

Members of Hart House are reminded that they will have to be able to produce birth certificates, driving licenses and liquor permits before they will be allowed to vote at the coming elections. The rooms in Hart House will be allotted for the voting to the colleges and faculties as follows:

Pump room—Faculty of Medicine. Nip and Tuck Shop—S.P.S. and Forestry.

Fire place, Great Hall—University College.

(Continued on Page 4)

GRAFT REVEALED IN HART HOUSE

Snooping Reporter Finds Some Startling Facts in Warden's Office

S.C.M. PREDOMINANT

The Varsity is publishing today the results of the Hart House elections which are to be held in the near future. These results were found in a false drawer of the Warden's desk by a Varsity reporter snooping around the office at a late hour last night. It is hoped that by publishing these figures that we will be able to save the candidates who have not yet posted their $200 deposit.

The results show the widely divergent interests of the members of Hart House. The very fact that Aimee (Continued on Page 4)

S. A. C.
WE DO OUR PART

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published for a change by the staff of "The Varsity". Member of the Canadian Extra Collegiate Pressers, except when we want a wire from McGill. Local papers please copy.

Editorial Rooms ..... See Liquor Control Board
Business Office ..... Closed for Repairs
Night Office ..... Transferred to Jarvis St.
Women's Office ..... If E. C. Phelan answers, hang up
Editor and Beef ..... T. A. Weed
Women's Editor ..... Kl. 2789, by appointment only Sociable Editors ..... You've got your own list Damaging Editor ..... Does not choose to run
Booze Editor ..... Samuel Stuhges, Trinity House
Women's Who's Whose Editor ..... Whose? Hughes
Horse Editor ..... I. Chase Fillies, Hart House
Meet Yer Editor ..... O.K., Mr. Avison!
Drama ..... Kl. 2789, has appointment
Art ..... Mr. Cochrane to you, lady

INSISTENT EDITOR

A. E. M. Larkes, '16
Busy Criticizing Editor
Sandy (in absinthia)
Night Editors ..... DeCourcy H. Rayner

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28th, 1934

SEXTON TOADY

In an exclusive interlude with The Varsity Sexton Toady stated that there should be no lectures and no examinations at the University of Toronto. Sexton Toady said that he had secured the consent of the writer of this column to give his opinion and has even been generous enough to admit where he got the bright idea. Toady, in the opinion of this columnist is not a bad egg even if he does hake long speeches and leaves a banquet immediately after he introduces the guest speaker with a 40-minute peroration.

Sexton Toady must be given credit for being an enthusiastic supporter of the rugby team, and for bringing to his exalted position an air of sanctity straight from Bloor Street. Rector of Athletics Snorren Leavings has intimated his appreciation of the way in which Toady always manages to turn up at crucial fixtures of the Big Boob Team, in spite of fashionable matrimonial splurges.

Toady is not only an authority on something or other, he is versatile. He brought his mighty mind to bear to popularize cancer. With his extraordinary store of erudition, he is the Man Who Sold Cancer to the Masses. The commission was extremely grateful.

Just to demonstrate his gargantuan broad-mindedness he has recently informed a bewildered public that every professor should jump into politics with both feet, Professor Thunderstill not excepted.

There have been a lot of dirty insinuations concerning how Toady got the Sexton of such an intellectual centre—but personally we don't believe them. We are behind him from start to finish and we feel that Sexton Toady will ever cherish the support of this influential organ.

ECCENTRICITIES

One mortal is willing, should voters elect him,
To take public office and keep in the "big swim";
A second, if Fortune provides feagre gleanings,
Is happy to store even these in his buildings;
That man whose one hobby is hoeing potatoes
Can never be tempted, though offered tomatoes,
To ship as a sailor on costliest yacht
That ploughs the Atlantic, for nerve he has not;
The sailor, when frightened by mountainous waves
On restless Pacific, in terror oft craves
The quiet, monotonous town of his birth—
At least, he could feel that he's standing on earth—
But soon he is shipping on storm-battered craft,
Contending that hard times are driving him daft;
And who doesn't relish the odd cup of Vernor's
To polish off tempers when sharpened like corners;
Or stretched in the shade by some murmuring stream,
Forget all his worries in mid-summer's dream;
Unmindful that newly-wed wife will sigh,
The hunter remains 'neath a snow-clouded sky
Intent on a moose that has given him trouble
Or maybe some ducks near his "blind" in the stubble;
These personal habits will always seem boring

TO A FLIRT

Who's coming tonight?
One more impetuous
Youngster, heedless of plight,
Rashly infatuous?
I'll bet he sent roses.
Hope the nit-wit proposes!
Peroxide tresses may fool;
Elegant witchery
Seems sincere—by a pool!
Picture his misery
When tempests are raging,
His intense love assuaging!
Disillusioned in life—
Epitaph reckons him;
Soaked in skin in storm's strife,
Rescued from siren whim,
I offer wet relics—
Humble thanks to Angelics.

J. E. M.

Inconsequence

Inconsequence?
YOU'RE DEVASTATING and I'LL BE HARD TO HANDLE.
—Columbia 2847-D.
SHE LOVES ME NOT and AFTER ALL YOU'RE ALL I'M AFTER.
—Brunswick 6700.
I'D BE TELLING A LIE and SEE WHAT YOU MEAN.
—Victor 2446.
SATURDAY NIGHT FUNCTION and BEGGARS BLUES.
—Columbia 2833-D.
LADY WITH A FAN and FATHER'S GOT HIS GLASSES OUT.
—Victor 24451.
To those who themselves are addicted to snoring.

Rot Guts and Stammer

Hart House String Quartet

For the first time on record, The Varsity's music critic was given access to the rehearsal of the Hart House String Quartet. This famous undergraduate organization is at present preparing for its next Sunday morning concert in Hart House Chapel, after which it will make an extensive tour of Italy, taking in Berlin, Athens, Moscow, Timbuctoo, and Jerusalem. The programme to be given is modern in scope, including Unravel's Quartet in B Double Sharp Minor, and Debussée's Love in A Flat.

Many students have been inquiring as to the instruments composing a string quartet. For their edification we explain that it consists of one trombone, one bassoon, two kettle drums and a harp. It may safely be called a quartet, since the kettle drums play in unison.

Mr. De Crust, '36, the trombonist of this amateur ensemble, has improved in technique since the last performance, though he is still shaky on glissando passages. Especially commendable is his chord work. Mr. Alaskin, '38, who blows the bassoon, is especially strong on discords, in which Love in A Flat abounds. The work of Mr. Backbone, '36, kettle drummer, lacks variety of tonal colour, but this is compensated for by the massive effects obtained by Mr. Ham-burger, the bale harpist, also securing remarkable overtones by rubbing his celluloid cuffs gently against the strings of his instrument.

The Hart House String Quartet operates under the Musicians' Preventive Union, and the Workmen's Compensation Act of Ontario.

Nihil.

Art Gallery

At last Canadian painters are returning to a sane art—such is the conclusion that imposes itself after attending to the hanging of the O.S.A. annual exhibitions which will be open to the public on March 3—and to the "hipplines" of Toronto the Good, on Friday evening. After suffering for over two decades a flood of paintings that was only the expression of the weird moods of decadent artists—such as those whose works cover unfortunately the walls of Hart House and the girls' residences, for the greatest contamination of innocent juvenile minds—we have at last the proof that Canada is not to turn into a modernistic country.

Even the cultured and all-wise critic of The Star could not contain his joy at the sight of this true expression of an art that glorifies so magnificently the staunch conservatism of British minded people. He could be heard, pacing the rooms of the Grange, and exclaiming with as much enthusiasm as he had—in a moment of aberration!—at the first appearance of the Soup of Heaven; "There are painters, who when they paint a cow are not afraid to give us a picture that even a photograph could not equal for it lacks colour. . . . At least here are twenty of the exhibitors of the O.S.A. who have translated the smugness, the perfect peace of mind of true Orange Lodge people and environment, the peaceful picturesqueness of Canada. . . . Oh, for more critics like Grivel! He has a lonely glory in the annals of Canadian criticism—take this for you, you wretched and impudent Damitall!—Following the great (Continued on Page 4)

The Mid-Wife Charade

By Lucas U. Kann

A column devoted to appraisal of the Holy-wood attempt to nudyify the American girl.

The Proxy

The Proxy, Toronto's most popular theatre, continues its fearless policy of revealing the bare facts of life (slightly varnished). The chorus, engaging in Grecian exercises, enthalls the large audiences with a Platonic conception of Nature in the Raw. This theatre is the only one in the city developing the new creative art emanating from Russia demanding the exercise of imagination on the part of the spectators. Actually there is little left to the imagination but what is speaks volumes for the popularity of this new vogue. Their latest presentation, undoching the great drama of life, will satisfy the most exacting temperament. If yours is not exact we urge you to go anyhow and see the show you have always dreamed about.

LOWS

Greet A Garbel features the programme in an original setting in "Green Virginia". Greet A is undoubtedly the only woman in Holy-wood with enough acumen to play the role. She depicts with tremendous pathos the difficulties of people with sectional interests in a disintegrated world. Returning "To electrify the world" she chocks some of her audience by bringing them into contact with a different current of life. She points the way for those who care to follow in the quest of whatever they are seeking. Believe it or not she achieves success "because her heart is pure".

GLUPTOWN

"Eskimo", the only attraction at the Gluptown, will leave you cold. The story based on the once-believed fable of innocence, is a little unconvincing. However, a white man, who has the leniency of a college education, wanting to apply for the job of dog-catcher on the Byrd expedition, comes to the North Pole for experience and brings the picture so we can understand it. Having quit school in the fourth year of his medical course he knows enough to warm up the atmosphere and take advantage of her innocence. He instructs her in the elements of psychology and realism in literature, converting her to Hedonism. After the first lesson she wants to ask him so (Continued on Page 4)

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps. Special rates for students. Two stores to serve you.

FREEMAN'S

256 College Street
Kl. 0991

571 Yonge Street
Kl. 3270

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps

6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1886

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

The CHATEAU LAURIER

Ottawa's Hotel of Distinction

To be assured of comfortable accommodation—stay at the CHATEAU LAURIER.

Here you will find accommodation for 1,000 guests—with rates that have been adjusted to meet the demands of present day economy, but where, though your stay be of short duration, or of extended nature, the traditions of Canadian National Railways—Courtesy and Service—have been maintained.

Full details from any Agent of

CANADIAN NATIONAL

T18

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body. Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL
Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for eweater, gym suit or blazer.

TORONTONENSIS

THIS IS FINAL

Saturday, March 3rd, is the last day for handing in to the S.A.C. office write-ups and photographs, unless, as in the case of athletic groups, definite arrangements have been made to the contrary.

HEASO SQUEAMISH

famous Philistine Club, which is hold-

SLICTORIA GETS FURNITURE TO PLAY MUSICAL CHAIRS

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By Angorina Fibbs

Varsity's blue co-ed loaf-sobbers were entranced in their encounter with the Quing's ladyettes last night. It was perfectly lovely to see Frances Exstine, throw those baskets into the lap of our dear opponents.

The follyball fixment in Hart House gym (where men are excluded of course) was symbolic of dissimilar practices practiced at Lady Wymbeldon's emporium. Of course, we realize that follyball is not just approved of by Miss Spraks due to the deficiency in the costumes. But we must consider that the men squashers can get away with almost nothing.

Women's hockey games at Little Wee Wee have been attended by the hugest crowds of late. Apart from the players themselves we must attribute this success to the many innovations which the women have introduced into the game. The idea of three pucks, for instance, which allows every player an even chance in the fun, is particularly commendable, and the fact that the goals are boarded up, dispenses with the disgraceful attitude of competition which has crept into women's sports of late. The feeling of unneighbourliness towards one's neighbour is to be particularly deplored and it is most edifying to see that it has been overcome by Varsity's women picksters.

The most enticing piece of news which this column has to report this morning is the appointment of Clarke Gable as coach for women athletics in general. Of course it is expected that this will result in a general falling-off at women's sport practices, but the quality of athletics produced should be definitely higher.

Sport Notices

Mid-Victorian Basketball—

All players meet in Room 6, second floor of the Women's Union at 3 sharp this morning. A game will be played at Jingist Chapter of the I.O.D.E. Be on time as a jolly time will be had by all.

Sr. and Jr. P.S.S.—

Ping-pongs pictures of the Sr. and Jr. beach-ball and bathing beauties will be posed for on the front campus from 12 to 3 today. The teams are reminded that the snapshots will be sold to the public so that they are requested to look their boldest and bravest in their newest and finest outfits.

A member of the Political Science and Economics staff, in fact Mr. Morgan, has confessed to be the recipient of a questionable missive from a fair young member of one of his intimate and personal Economic History groups. By methods only known to the staff members, The Varsity was able to "view with alarm" the aforesaid missive. It may be said that it lives up to all advance reports.

The rumour that the letter contained enormous statements to the effect that the sender was "not good looking, but oh how I can love", were established as true. Professor Morgan was requested in a final sentence to journey up and view her sometime.

Such insidious methods of gaining marks are deplorable by the student body, especially by those of the opposite and thus handicapped sex.

It has not been revealed whether the attempt on the professor's integrity was successful but the fact that the missive was in the form of a Valentine and Mr. Morgan is a married man is felt to have created a very difficult situation.

BABY COMES TO VARSITY WOMEN IN BOUNCING GAME

Illegitimate Headline Appears on Account of Victory of Pucksters

IT'S A BASTARD!! (HEAD)

When a story came in to The Varsity office the other night to the effect that the Varsity women had won the Bronze Baby, the night editor in his hurry misunderstood the contents of the story and promptly put a headline on the story which was perfectly in accord with his interpretation of the report.

For the uninitiate, we should explain that each line of a headline should contain a complete thought and when a phrase is split, the headline is viewed as coming from doubtful parentage (commonly known among newspaper men as a bastard head).

The Varsity wishes to correct any false impressions which may have arisen as a result of this unfortunate occurrence.

WHERE DID NELL GO TO HEAVEN OR?

Limerick Lads Discuss Case of the Murdered Feature Editor

SPOUTER IN SPASMS

Yesterday the Varsity and others went to the gathering of the University Limerick Grub, held in a lower hall of the Hart House just outside the Barber Shop. This pleasant retreat was chosen as a change from the Music Room, whose vastness and emptiness was becoming disconcerting to the executive of the Grub.

From the lofty eminence of the shoe shine (10c) chair, Professor S. A. S. Spouter, the noted author of "Potting and Unpotting Potted Pansies", and speaker of the evening, addressed the small circle of eager shining faces with considerable vim and zip on the topic which has recently rocked the campus to its very severies. "Did Nell the Murdered Feature Editor of the Varsity, Depart from Hence to Heaven, OR?" A heated dissertation was delivered on this subject, during which the speaker developed an annoying habit of cutting chunks from the cushion of the shoe-shine chair with his penknife and hurling them at those present when either of them seemed to be dozing off. Professor Spouter finally brought his oration to a long-awaited close with the trite remark that "it would be otiose to expatiate further on the matter."

Whereupon the Varsity gently eased the wheezing head of the other half of the audience from his shoulder and slunk out over the prostrate form of the Professor, who had sunk down in a stupor as he gave vent to the what-go-you-call-it quoted above. Oh me!

MAN THE PUMPS!!

BELCHING OF BURPS

By Bone T. Steaks

Whoops! Whoops! McFluffy! The intercollegiate assault at legs or the women's B. W. and F. title will be desisted in Dear House Tuesday morning of last month at 13 D—N. Who won't be there when the roll is called down yonder? All members of the caste of Epixesus will be eligible for the meat. Harpo Marx will act as referee.

Blurp!!!

She's over the blue line. She scores. She scores a direct hit to the senter of the polar sexus. Whoops again McFluffy! The finals will take place tomorrow and will be reported to you, my brief-organged friends, in the Gass Issue then.

Blurp again!!!

Chesty Martin, better known as One-Round Martin, has been appointed head coach by reason of his experience in the chesferfield game.

Blurp again and again!!!

The Bologney, Weeners and Frankfurters Club is confident of victory over Shredley Leaves Frycolour outpith. Who wouldn't be? The McGill Shredmen haven't a chance. Long live their Teddy!

Now it's just belch!!!

The female fence-jumpers have found it necessary to exchange uniforms with the football team in order to foil their opponents. The swimming team expresses its approval and desire to enter the meat with loud exclamations of "Our Pals".

What do you think it is this time?

Have you guessed who McFluffy is yet? He won the seven chest stroke title last Saturday night. He had to trim the Bourne of McFill to do it too.

What's the use!

The wrestling match is being anticipated with great joy by all the contestants. In preparation for the finals the girls are going to partake of the name of this columnist. Much pain is bound to result but the imbibing of

Too late!!!

Do you think you'll make it? Stakes didn't! He tripped over the wire. Yes, that's old stuff but you'll get an awful jolt any time you trip over it just the same. He who fumbles last fumbles and fumbles . . . and fumbles. Touch!!!

Got any copy paper Eddy!

The Blues cleaned up and now this column is going to get clean. Way West is entered in the 355 lb. boxing event. Clarke Gable is entered in dis-also in disguise. He has climbed the heights of idiocy too.

More paper Eddy!!!

They tell us the paper is all gone but there are still a few copies of the wassity left so who cares about that worm? Did you ever see a dream walking? Well, we did. Good night!

Sports Flash—A newcomer to the ranks of one of the university's chief executives was announced at an early hour this morning. Already he is known to have athlete's foot from coming a long way in a hurry.

SKETCHERS MOBBED AT NUDE RUMOUR

Prominent Visitors Honour Sketch Club With Presence

UNEXPECTED STIMULUS

The Sketch Club was a great success this year with a specially large attendance during the final sessions. Rattling of the door during classes since Christmas revealed a surprising interest of the general public in the club's activities. Refreshments were served to the club members after each class and the remarkable fact that the Hart House assistant persisted in arriving late with the wagon of foodstuffs was a total mystery to the recipients.

Complaints have been received from the Board of Governors and the Dean of Women concerning the activities of the club but despite the condemnation levelled at it, it is expected to have even a larger membership next year.

Warden Bickersteth displayed a remarkable interest during the final week and this is heralded as testimony of at least one supporter from the powers that be. Several students expressed the desire to join in the middle of the year, but it is called to the attention of all students desiring to join the club that membership enrolment is taken at the beginning of the course.

A rumour that the unexpected interest in the Sketch Club was due to the presence of the nude models was branded as "practically unfounded" by club members.

VIC VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

In Room 18, Victoria College, at 5 p.m. this afternoon all those interested in Advertising will gather to hear Messrs. George Beavers, How Martyn, and Scott Stockwell speak. This group promises to be one of the most interesting and a large attendance is expected.

P.T. UNIFORMS ARE DECLARED UNFIT

U Change to Rompers of New Mode Advocated by Directors

STYLE ESSENTIAL FACTOR

The shorts of an antiquated cut worn by the male P.T. classes of the university are classed as "definitely out-moded and positively dated," by female members of the campus. It is rumoured around Hart House that the well-dressed gymnast must appear next season in rompers similar to those worn by the Annesley athletes this past year. They have proved so becoming that it is felt they would be a great improvement on the garb at present considered as chic by the athletic directorate.

The outfit suggested is a powder blue ensemble trimmed with white pearl buttons as accessories. It is form-fitting to the waist, where they extend in a balloon like flare. This cut has been designed to allow the free movement of the limbs.

From the aesthetic standpoint it is felt that this change will foster a great gracefulness of movement in the exercises of the gym classes which is so sadly lacking at present. By popular demand the costumes worn in the squash courts will not be changed.

All women of the University are requested to gather in the reading room of Hart House today at 4 p.m. in order to organize for the Hart House elections. It has been decided to allow two women to be elected to each of the Hart House committees, in order to train a nucleus of women for the board of stewards of the new "Women's Hart House" which is to be known as "Eddy House". Enquire at the Hall Porter's desk.

CLLARK GABLE

Who has been appointed chief director of women's athletics.

WHISKEY STUDENTS SOLVE PROBLEMS

Brotherly Love Advocated As Cure-All for World ills

LEAGUE UNNECESSARY

John Bull Sees it Through.

We're still wondering why. And maybe you could tell us, so please read the book.

Frankly, we think this must be an obscene book. The French translation was (roughly translated) "John Bull Sees Through It", but then again we couldn't imagine what it was. Do you think we ought to get some literature on the subject? Or should we convince our parent to take us to the Tivoli this week? We'd really like to know.

Answers received till 10 p.m. Phannie the Canary.

Is Sex Necessary? — Thurben and White.

As summer reading, we should recommend this non-fiction novel on the Great American Tragedy. The plot is rather involved, but will probably provide a few interesting moments to those who are curious enough to follow the mystery to its lair. The hero, primitive man, has a difficult problem to face, but faces it frankly and fearlessly. He realizes that life has its worries, and that setbacks are inevitable. But in man's usual way, he looks upon the bright side of things and decides that perhaps the N. R. A. will bring back the corner and the future of mankind is assured. Humanity cannot be doomed. It just musn't be!

The book is written with a charming naïveté, and is sure to please the younger generation. The description of seasonal sports in the introduction will appeal to all college students. Not recommended for adults, as it is too involved. The pictures are simply too adorable!

Pfennig.

Members are reminded that nominations for the Standing Committees and the Squash Racquet and Camera Committees of Hart House close tonight at 6 p.m. at the Warden's office.

Candidates will this year be listed on the ballot in alphabetical order. There is thus no need to delay handing in nomination forms.

4 A.M.

Posters may be put up in the corridor leading from the Hall Porter's desk to the Great Hall any time after 8 a.m. on Thursday, 1st March. Each candidate may have one poster on display limited in size to 24" x 36".

UNIVERSITY Travel Club of Toronto
Tenth Annual Tours
EUROPE BY MOTOR
OR
EUROPE BY TRAIN AND MOTOR
Via St. Lawrence and North Atlantic
CRUISE TOURS
Acres, Lisbon, Gibraltar, Mallorca, Palma, Cadiz—prior to land tour
SAILINGS—June 28, 29, July 6, 14
Write for Descriptive Booklet to G. W. LUCAS, Secretary, Bloor Bldg., 57 Bloor St. W., Toronto

Testimonies of Christian Science Healing
To-night at 8 o'clock
at St. George St. cor. Lowther Ave.
In the main auditorium of First Church of Christ Scientist
These testimonies are a feature of the regular Wednesday evening meeting, and present a convenient opportunity for all students of the University of Toronto to become informed of the demonstrable results of the Science of Christianity or Christian Science.

ELECTION BLOTTERS
500—$2.25 1000—$3.50
KENWOOD 0946

HART HOUSE ELECTIONS

It will pay every Candidate to advertise in "The Varsity". The cost is very small and the results will be very great.

Call at the S.A.C. Office, Hart House, and ask for particulars.

CO-ED JOTTINGS

Publicity man wanted for steady position in radio station, preferably young man who has ambitions to announce. (Adv. N.Y. Times.)
Too bad. We're young and ambitious, but don't like to brag about it.

A young lady from Larchemound, N.Y., sent to the New Yorker an announcement from a local theatre.
MAE WEST

I'VE NO ANGLE
We suspected it.

POLICEMEN FIND MONTREAL MISSING
(Headline in the Daily Mirror.)
Try 73.34° W. long.; 45.30° N. Lat.

Boners:
Moses died before he reached Canada, but he saw it from a mountain.
When Mohammed grew more mature he entered the service of a wealthy widow.

Coming Events

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28
Players' Guild will hear Miss Jocelyn Moore, M.A., in a monologue, "As We Keep Saying".

St. Michael's College presents "The Marriage of St. Francis", in Hart House Theatre.

5 p.m.—In Room 18, Victoria College, Vocational Guidance Group on Advertising.

8.30 p.m.—Meeting of Student Branch of the F.S.U. at 200 Shaw Street. Mr. J. Friedman will speak on "Soviet Foreign Policy, Past and Present". All students interested and their friends most cordially invited.

8.30 p.m.—U.C. Soph-Frosh party at Women's Union.

9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Debates Committee open. These nominations close Monday, 5th Mar. at 6 p.m.

THURSDAY, MARCH 1
Marriage of St. Francis, in Hart House Theatre.

St. Michael's College presents "The 4 p.m.—U.C. Parliamentary Club in the junior common room.

8.15 p.m.—Joint meeting of French Clubs of Trinity, Victoria, St. Michael's and University Colleges. Women's Union, 79 St. George St.

8.15 p.m.—Final meeting of the U.C. Lit. in junior common room.

8 p.m.—M. and P. Society open meeting, Women's Union. Skits, dancing.

FRIDAY, MARCH 2
St. Michael's College presents "The Marriage of St. Francis", in Hart House Theatre.

North Toronto Collegiate Institute is holding its annual At-Home in the Eaton Auditorium. Dancing to Stanley St. John's orchestra. Special welcome to the alumni.

5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club annual meeting. Elections. Programme for spring and next year. Members bring friends interested.

9.30-2.30 — Victoria College general elections in Alumni Hall.

Dental At-Home, Roof Gardens of Royal York.

SATURDAY, MARCH 3
9-12 p.m.—Alpha Chi Omega subscription dance, in Alexandrian Room, King Edward Hotel.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7
Hart House Elections.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8
Hart House Debates Committee Elections.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9
8.30 p.m.—Student League of Canada theatre night and dance, New Theatre, Labor Lyceum, Spadina Ave.

SAT MAR 18
Cent Hop of Les Bou Vivants down at the Union. NO! We cant run that rot about tickets in the kolym.

LOST AND FOUND DEPT.
Found last night in the left pocket of the Art Critic: One white little hand bag containing one mirror, one light blue comb, two compacts, one dollar bill, one lip stick and a Yale key.

The lady in a light dress who trusted too confidently an unworthy and inebriated member of The Varsity staff is requested to be in Victoria College lobby, today, at 11.00 a.m. by the door of Alumni Hall. THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU MAD.

File Advance.

Classified Advertisements

ROOMS

Warm single and double rooms, comfortably furnished, continuous hot water, grill privileges, rates from $2.00 up. 318 Huron St., Kingsdale 0724.

LOST

The bottom of a grey and red Parker pen. Finder phone KI. 3266.

TYPING

Stenographer wishes to do typing for students. Reasonable rates, KI. 9954.

RADIO FOR GREAT HALL SUPPORTED

Hope That Soup Guzzling Will Be Drowned in Roar

MANY REASONS

The student body, as impervious as usual to the humble solicitations of Varsity reporters, was delightfully obscure when questioned recently regarding the advisability of installing a radio or phonograph in the Great Hall.

Oswald Canthowby, III Household Science, was interviewed while having a finger wave in the Barber Shoppe and was emphatic in his approval. "Goody, goody!" he exclaimed. When pressed for a further statement, he said, "I think it would be divine!" There are rumours that Mr. Canthowby was last seen drifting lazily along in the mucky waters of the Don, in a very inanimate state.

Zulauf Yancovitch, an occasional student from United States, was of the opinion that such a move called for commendation. "You've need around here is more actify in the musical line," he stated. "Many adempt vot is made to pring moosic into the life of the hungergraduate should be give much subort. It seems like a goot ting to me!"

This was a little more encouraging, so the Varsity launched another assault on an innocent bystander who turned out to be Wallie Wunibald, VIII Forestry. Wallie, who was found dozing lustily on a chesterfield in the Hart House Library, was rather sharp in his comment. "If anything can be done to drown out the unearthly noise that the animals make when they are guzzling pea soup, then, by all the laws of ping pong, let it be done!" Wallie then rolled over and resumed his nasal intonations.

MAN THE PUMPS!!

S.C.M. CORNER

(Continued from Page 1)

Livered in Chinese, dwell on the necessity of promoting international understandings as a means of removing international misunderstandings. In order to illustrate this, he gave a three-hour recital on his Chinese whistle. He also pointed out the ways in which interchange of customs had already taken place. "You like our opium, we like your beer!" he said simply. "Remember that Chinamen are men, just as Canadians are men, or even Irishmen. This will do away with distrust and conflict, and there will be an end to war."

The conference passed a motion that illuminated copies of the leading speeches and resolutions be sent to Prime Minister Bennett and President Roosevelt, with a view to getting effective legislation on the matter at the earliest opportunity.

FIRE IN MASSEY HALL

(Continued from Page 1)

Mr. Jeans, the Manager of Massey Hall, when interviewed, merely observed stoically: "Oh well, the walls were tobacco stained anyway."

A serious fire breaking out in Massey Music Hall last night during a popular concert by the Toronto Symphony orchestra, scattered a capacity audience to the streets, leaving programmes and gobshes to feed the flames. It is reported that upholstery on the seats was badly damaged, and the expensive Persian draperies completely destroyed. The extent of the damage cannot be accurately computed until economists have agreed on whether or not Canada may be considered to be on the gold standard.

C. O. T. C.

Action came in large consignments as the Victoria College juniors clashed with the seniors in the annual assault-at-table in the Arcadian Court last night. Seldom if ever has the excitement reached such a high pitch as the seniors nosed out a win in the coffee test which was the concluding number on the programme, to leave the juniors far behind, still wrestling with the turkey.

BULL?

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. Notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

CHEMISTRY SEMINAR

Umptenth irregular meet this aft. in the loft. J. K. Watson (the nerdle) on Organic derivatives of Si.

F.S.U.

The student branch of the N. F. C. U. S. R. T. V. S. E. Y. C. F. S. U. U. SSR will hold a secret meeting to-night at 8.30 p.m. at 200 Shaw St. (The address is correct.) J. Friedman on the History of Soviet foreign policy from 1917 to the present. If the place isn't raided we'll elect a new executive. On second thought we will anyway.

PLAYERS' GUILD

Miss Jocelyn Moore, M.A., will give a monologue, "As We Keep Saying". Everybody invited.

VIC NOMINATIONS

A tentative list of nominations for all offices has been posted on the V. C. U. Bulletin Board. If there are any errors or omissions please get in touch with Dick Davidson, Ki. 7209, before 9 p.m. tonight. Elections will take place on Friday, March 2nd from 9.30 to 2.30 in Alumni Hall.

University college

The annual U.C. Softie-Frostie party will be held for the boys and girls this afternoon in the Women's Union at 4 o'clock. The children are requested to bring their parents or older sisters or brothers. The party will be over by 6, so that the Frosties will be able to get home in time for their afternoon sleep. Ice cream and cake will served so all you kiddies be sure and come.

RIFLE ASSOC.

Annual AMATEUR Novelty match this week after which the anti war society is going to close the range. Cash prizes and meal tickets to the winners. R. L. Broad only got 94 which means that the rest of you has got a good chance.

IV YEAR VICTORIA

Nominations for the Moss Scholarship will take place in the College Hall tomorrow, Thursday, from 9.30 to 2.15. Elections will take place on the following day. The attention of all men and women of the senior year is drawn to the conditions upon which this scholarship is awarded, as set forth on page 80 of the Calendar.

The above is a scene at the Women's Union shortly after the raid conducted by the morality squad. In the foreground is the bathtub used for distilling gin.

MAN THE PUMPS!!

Thoughts On Discovering A Dead Mouse in a Keg

By Liquorbreath

When to the sessions of sweet silent thought
I summon up remembrance of past drunks,
How I chewed cheese and pretzels in huge hunks
And quaffed th' inspiring liquid draught on draught.
(Preferably in an Oxford accent)
I generally sit down and weep a lot,
Not for th' intoxicating nights now past
But for the oaths that each would be the last,
Ne'er kept—Aye! Call me drunken sot,
Inconstant fool, poltroon or wallowing swill!
Yet have a drunk again—and like it still.

BEER AND ALE IN HART HOUSE

(Continued from Page 1)

cation. It is at this great institution of ours that our Canadian youth are being moulded to take over the reign of this government. Beer as a stimulant to the intellect has been heartily approved by all European scientists and we must see to it that our sons get nothing but the best."

"What is so disgusting as a beer burp from a half-baked university student?" asked Miss Cornelia Uphs of the W.C.T.U., when interviewed by a staff reporter. "I have heard of nothing so foul since the time of Carrie Nation. What the women of this country need are bigger and better axes and I will see to it that the insidious influence is not permitted to corrupt the gullible minds of our sons and daughters."

"We view with favour this uplifting influence and it is a fact for which the Conservative Party must be heartily commended," stated Mr. J. R. Ramsbottom, ninth vice-president of the Blistierine Antiseptic Company. "Over the length and breadth of this great country of ours, university students will saturate the atmosphere with the alluring aroma of beer. This stimulant to crawling breath is heralded as a marked upward trend in the industry of Canada. Breathes there the man with soul so dead, who has never drank beer that went to his head?" he concluded dramatically.

EDDY HOUSE FOR WOMEN

(Continued from Page 1)

tank. Sufficient facilities for sun bathing will be installed and the water kept at a temperature of 98 degrees. Attempts are being made to secure Mr. James London, the Greek Adonis to coach the wrestling team.

Nor will the cultural aspect be neglected. Knitting and sewing rooms will train our maidens for home life. The reading room will be stocked with copies of the Boston Cook Book, Vanity Faire and back files of Dotty Dix.

Until the building is completed the west common room and the reading room are being reserved for the use of women students and the pool will be available on Tuesdays and Thursday by special permission of the Board of Cynics.

In order that they may become acquainted with the running of such an institution women will be allowed to enter the lists of the forthcoming elections in Hart House. Nominations will be received opposite the squash courts up to Friday at ten thirty.

MAN THE PUMPS!!

HART HOUSE DEBATE

(Continued from Page 1)

Mr. Zilch, first vice-president of the Penny-anti-war Society was carried out, having been overcome with tears after the heart-tearing remarks of the last speaker.

"Free love is vrey expensive," declared K. N. Schultz, the second leader of the government and the first leader to speak on the subject. "Experience is a great teacher and love is a funny thing. Ask a man who owns one. My heart bleeds for my opponents and murder will out."

After this most interesting and self-explanatory account of the situation, half the audience and two other guys left the room to don squash uniforms, as this was a very formal debate.

The 4th speaker spoke from the floor with the rest of the floor-walkers, so his speech is on the feature page with all the rest of the lousy features.

MAN THE PUMPS!!

LOVE LIFE EXPOSED

(Continued from Page 1)

Warden's Drawing Room—Dentistry and Faculty of Arts.

Rowing Room—Trinity, Victoria and St. Mike's. (no crowding please).

Chess Room—Wycliffe, Emmanuel and O.C.E.

Candidates are reminded that the three thousand rule will be in force. This means that any candidate who gets 3,000 votes will be disqualified for cheating. No electioneering is allowed in the rooms and any attempt at bribery there will be suppressed by the poll (not to be confused with pool) clerk.

Voting will take place between the hours of 8 and 9 in the morning after which breakfast will be served in the gymnasium.

GRAFT IN HART HOUSE

(Continued from Page 1)

Samuel MacPherson was returned at the head of the poll for the House Committee indicates what good work is being done by the S.C.M. That Litvinov was relegated to last place among candidates for the library shows that no insidious dumping will be allowed in the library.

The results are as follows:

House Committee
Aimee MacPherson	539
Saint Hitlerius	422
Lord Blessums of Diddums-then	397
Hall Committee
Anonymous	519
Desmond Dimple	475
Horatio Romaniffisso	371
Library Committee
Anthony Adverse	543
Lord Preservus	434
Maxim Litvinov	222

ANTICS AFIELD

"I want stockings that wear . . . ."

No seconds or substandards for me, with their hidden flaws and unexpected runs. Especially when I can buy first quality hose for as little as 69c.

No. 690—

An all silk Chiffon or Service Weight, cleverly reinforced where toes usually poke through and heels are apt to rub. Smartly coloured to go with the new spring costumes. Ask for it by number 690, and the price just . . . . . 69c.

No. 5000—

Full fashioned, of all silk chiffon, whose very high twist makes it so breathlessly sheer—so beautifully dull. Worn by smart women every— $1.00 where

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 8800
4 other shops in Toronto

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

nian I heard him say: "Let us hope for more of the same . . . this, again, is realistic and truly photographic art with a great joy!"

A joy, oh Augustus, which too few of your countrymen know!

Canada indeed may be proud of its artist sons and daughters, for it is setting an example for the whole world by accepting again the standards of painting laid by the immortal Sir Geneva Reysull. Boop a doopl! No more thin and hot soup but the solid tasteless Irish stew. After seeing this revolutionary—I mean reactionary—exhibition all visitors will be convinced that Impressionism is dead at last. A new era is opening in front of us with set conventions, a beautiful finish in painting, and no more futurism.

Klod Demalster.

MAN THE PUMPS!!

THE MID-WIFE CHARADE

(Continued from Page 2)

many questions. He, being essentially a humourist, kids her during the long winter-night until sun-up. The picture ends with her North Pole lover displaying his prior rights and demanding the right to handle the matter without any further foreign influence.

THE DRIVOLI

The management of the Drivoli, Toronto's most jcwicious theatre, following their expedient policy, replace "Rowman Scandals" with "What price innocence?" introducing the fact that women always pay in a sense. Mean Parker, discovering, too late, another kind of love, puts her innocence on the slightly damaged counter at reduced rates. This picture tells, in an impressive manner, all the things your mother ought to have told you but didn't know herself. It is not recommended for fresh-men.

FOR SALE

TWO BEER KEGS (EMPTY)
CHEAP
Apply Room 82 U.C. Today

ANTI-WAR! Watch for it!

An urgent meeting of the Anti-War Society will be held at the hall at 274 College Street, north-west corner of Spadina, at 8.30 to-morrow night, to make preparations for distribution of the paper, which is now on the press. Peter Hunter, delegate to the Paris Youth Conference Against War, will speak.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, MARCH 1st, 1934

No. 96

DISTURBANCE AT MCGILL OVER LABOUR CLUB

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Hsinking, Manchoukuo—Henry Pu Yi, once boy emperor, today became the first Emperor of Manchoukuo.

Vienna—Late last night persistent but unconfirmed rumours were rampant that Chancellor Dollfuss had made a tentative truce with the Nazis.

Ottawa—Prof. H. M. Cassidy of the University of Toronto yesterday testified before the parliamentary committee on mass buying. He urged a National Control Board to regulate wages in the clothing industry.

Tokio—A new Russo-Japanese controversy has been started by identical protests concerning aeroplane flights in forbidden territories made yesterday in Moscow and Tokio. Both governments denied the respective charges.

London—Prince Felix Youssouppoff, Russian nobleman, related in court yesterday how he clubbed the life out of "the mad monk" Rasputin.

Ottawa—Steps were taken yesterday to prevent any further distribution of literature from the office of Dr. L. Kempf, German consul-general, which was declared to be of an anti-Semitic and pro-Nazi nature.

MOORE EXPLAINS EDITOR'S VIEW

Main Reason for Rejection is Poor Writing Says Editor

PRESS CLUB MEETS

"No publishing house is a philanthropic institution," declared Mr. H. Napier Moore, editor of Maclean's Magazine, when addressing the Women's Press Club at the Women's Union Tuesday afternoon on the subject An Editor's Point of View. "An editor must choose his material to satisfy all types of people, and in this choice he must be right much more often than wrong."

The editor realizes that he is publishing a national magazine. That magazine must have something to interest people in all parts of the country. Canada is highly sectionalized; there is a greatly varying outlook on (Continued on Page 4)

OPINIONS VARY ON HUMOUR ISSUE

Some Students Very Stern Concerning Annual Oddity

STEWED VERSE WELL DONE

Opinion hither and you varied on the Jazz Issue of The Varsity. Some people were very stern. Fred Branscombe, I English and History, remarked: "An example of the worst type of pink or yellow rag." An anonymous female had her jab. "Today's Varsity was really too asinine for me to be bothered with it. Criticism can go too far even in satire—I refer to the editorial. On the whole I was merely amused."

Another student retorted acidly "The (Continued on Page 4)

WAR NOT IMMINENT STATES LOCKHART WHEN INTERVIEWED

Russia One of Great Factors for Peace in World Today

NO ONE ANXIOUS FOR WAR

Russian Recognition Means Little Increase in Trade with U.S.

War is not particularly imminent either in Europe or between Russia and Japan, believes R. H. Bruce Lockhart, former British Consul-General at Moscow, who was in Toronto Tuesday and with whom The Varsity was granted a brief interview.

"Russia is one of the greatest factors for peace in the world today," Mr. Lockhart asserted. "Although she is in a comparatively stronger position today than she was a few years ago, she does not want war and will take every reasonable means to avoid it. However, if Japan takes any aggressive action, Russia will not deliberately side-step a war to protect her own rights. Therefore, although I do not think there is any great possibility of war between Russia and Japan in the near future, the threat of such a conflict lies with Japan."

"Russia as a factor in world affairs must continue to take a relatively insignificant part so long as she is concentrating on developing and building up her own country. The Russians (Continued on Page 4)

OSGOODE COMMITTEE ADVISES LAW SOCIETY

Recommendations Made Concerning the Entrance Requirements

A committee of the law students at Osgoode Hall recently made recommendations to the Benchers of the Law Society concerning entrance requirements for the Law School and suggested improvements in the system of training.

The committee recommended that the entrance requirements be raised, requiring all students registering to have at least a B.A. degree. The committee maintained that students should not be admitted after only two years at a university as they are under the present rules.

The other important question which the committee brought up for discussion concerned the relation between office work and lectures while students are attending the Law School. Various proposals were made with the object of making the training at the Law School more complete by reducing (Continued on Page 4)

NOTABLES VISIT CHURCH

A service of unusual interest will be held on Sunday morning at St. Paul's Church, Bloor Street East. The Lieutenant-Governor will be present with his staff. The Chief Justice of Ontario and several of the Judges of the Supreme Court will represent the legal profession. The Prime Minister and members of his cabinet, the G.O.C. of the military district and several commanding officers, together symbolizing the life of the city. His Honor will read the lessons and the service will conclude with the singing of the Te Deum. A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the university to attend.

Staff Meeting

There will be a very important meeting of the entire "Varsity" staff at the Women's Union at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Several pressing matters of business must be settled at this, the last meeting of the staff before publication ceases. Arrangements for the annual dinner-dance of the staff will be announced. Tea will be served at 4.30 sharp.

V.C.U. NOMINATIONS ARE ANNOUNCED

Auger and Davidson to Contest Presidency of College Union

ELECTIONS NEXT FRIDAY

The following are the V.C.U. nominations submitted to The Varsity by Dick Davidson the Chief Returning Officer. Elections for all the offices in the V.C.U., year executives and federated societies will be held in the Alumni Hall, Victoria College, on Friday from 9.30 a.m. to 2.30 p.m.

Nominations for offices in the Victoria College Union

President—Elliot Auger, Dick Davidson.

Vice-President—Ross McDonald, George Morrison, Jim Sissons.

Secretary—Helen Babe, Maisie Cowan, Dorothy Scott, Isabel Weddell. Treasurer—Mort Devitt, Albert Menzies.

Social Director—George Dickie, Frank Dingman.

Social Directress—Donalda McLeod, Helen Rogers.

Assistant Social Director—Ron Dalziel, Roger Priddle.

Assistant Social Directress—Alice Belfry, Doris Johnston, Dorothy Lindney.

Nominations for IV Year Permanent Executive

President—Laurie Cragg, elected by acclamation.

Associate President—Jean Dowling, Ann Scott.

Vice-President—Merv. Bury, Cam Strachan, Marsh Lavery.

(Continued on Page 4)

SPORTS STAFF

There will be a meeting of the Sports Staff of The Varsity today at 1.30 p.m. in The Varsity office. Everyone must be on hand.

University Extension Course Trains Men of Many Trades

By R. G. A.

Are you a worker? Are you a printer, a painter, a candle stick maker? If not, can you qualify as a plumber, carpenter, policeman, fireman or ditch digger? You can? Then you can attend the "Workers' Varsity", higher learning is within your grasp, and the truth shall set you free!

There are over fourteen hundred workers in Ontario who have registered—and paid a two dollar registration fee, if they are employed, in the special classes conducted by the Department of Extension of Toronto University. Half of these are Torontonians, attending night classes here, while the others meet in schools, labs, our temples and public halls in cities and towns throughout the province. The courses, which include economics, psychology and public speaking, are given by qualified instructors from universities and colleges in each vicinity.

You have to be a worker, though, or you haven't a chance of getting accepted. Doctors, lawyers, and dentists just aren't eligible. Professional men need not apply. Taxi drivers—zone or mileage, are o.k., musicians? Well, if you belong to that union they might let you in.

"How about War Correspondents?" asked The Varsity's War Correspondent, but he never did find out. They may admit him to the "Workers' Varsity" but they ushered him politely out of the Simcoe Hall offices of the Extension Department.

NEW PUBLICATION ANTI-WAR PAPER DUE TOMORROW

Will Consist of Eight Pages with Many Feature Articles

TO BE WIDELY CIRCULATED

Peter Hunter to be Present at Society's Meeting This Evening

"A new student publication will appear on the campus Friday morning in Anti-War, published by the Anti-War Society," stated C. L. Coburn, Executive Chairman, in an interview with The Varsity yesterday. "It will consist of eight pages, featuring articles by Henri Barbusse, Lord Marley, Vice-President of the House of Lords and chairman of the European delegation to the Shanghai Anti-War Congress last year, and Peter Hunter, delegate to the Paris Youth Conference against War and Fascism. There will also be a portion of the speech written by Sir Arthur Currie shortly before his death, to be delivered before the University Veterans' League last Remembrance Day."

"We are particularly anxious that as many members as possible should attend the meeting tonight at the Avenue Chambers, 274 College Street, as the paper will have been received from the printers and we shall have (Continued on Page 4)

MEET TO ELECT REPRESENTATIVES

Student Representatives to Directorate Elected Today

MEET IN DEBATES ROOM

The electoral meeting of the University of Toronto Athletic Association to elect student representatives to the Directorate for 1934-35 will be held on Thursday, March 15th, 1934, at 4.15 p.m. sharp in the Debates Room, Hart House (south side, upstairs).

Under the Constitution of the Athletic Association (Article IX, sec. 4) all Clubs and Athletic Associations are entitled to send representatives to that meeting. These representatives must (Continued on Page 4)

STUDENT QUESTIONNAIRE IS BANNED BY MCGILL UNIVERSITY AUTHORITIES

Editor of McGill Daily Claims Matter Completely Closed

PAPER RESIGNS FROM CIP

CIP President Says He Had not Heard of Daily's Resignation

The following wire from the editor of the "McGill Daily," was received by the editor of "The Varsity" at an early hour this morning. The wire is a contradiction of the story appearing elsewhere on this page which "The Varsity" obtained from a member of the "McGill Daily" staff by long distance telephone.

A. C. Cochrane, Editor, Toronto Varsity.

Did not send you big story on questionnaire because there was no story. We have printed nothing. There are no further developments and affair has died a natural death, as students take no interest whatsoever in the publication concerned. Ban was not laid because of anti-war matter, but because of violation of agreements made by managing board of Alarm Clock regarding use of university buildings. The matter is considered by all as completely closed. Please disregard unofficial misinformation given to you allegedly by telephone. The McGill Daily has resigned from the C.I.P. Do you want story on release of Alarm Clock Magazine tomorrow? Have copy and can give you story before one-thirty tonight.

Douglas, Editor in Chief, McGill Daily.

DeCourcy H. Rayner, president of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press, when informed by The Varsity at an early hour this morning that McGill Daily had resigned from the CIP said "This is the first word regarding the CIP that I have had from McGill. As far as I know the McGill Daily has not paid the fee which is levied annually (Continued on Page 4)

BAND BANQUETS IN HART HOUSE

Dr. Cody Congratulates Varsity Band on Effective Work

REPRESENTS UNIVERSITY

The Varsity Students' Band relaxed last night after a strenuous year's work and thoroughly enjoyed a banquet in Hart House. The banquet was attended by some fifty odd members of the Band and their guests, among whom were President Cody, Colonel Cockburn, O.C. of the C.O.T.C., Captain John Slater, bandmaster, and Mr. Bruce Murray and Mr. Macdonald, president and secretary respectively of the S.A.C.

In replying to a toast to the University (Continued on Page 4)

EXAMINATION FORMS

Students registered in the Faculty of Arts are reminded that applications for the Annual Examinations must be filed on or before March 1st. Forms of application may be obtained at the Registrar's Office, Simcoe Hall, or at the College Registrars' Offices.

Questionnaire is Said to be Unbecoming McGill Students

TREATED AS JOKE

Submitted to Undergraduate Body by Labour Club

A questionnaire containing a number of provocative queries, submitted to the undergraduates of McGill University by the McGill Labour Club, a recognized socialist organization on the campus, has been prohibited and the ballots disposed of on the order of the Dean of the Faculty of Arts, Dr. R. R. MacKay. The Varsity learned last night from the McGill Daily by long distance telephone.

No reason for this action was given other than that the questionnaire was not becoming to undergraduates of McGill University.

The questionnaire was first submitted by the Labour Club to the Dean who struck out three of the questions, one of which was "Do you believe in chastity before marriage?" The other two were religious in nature. The forms were about to be submitted to the students when the Dean changed his mind and decided to cancel the questionnaire altogether. The ballots were collected and taken to Strathcona Hall where they were disposed of. Some of the questions submitted to the students were as follows:

Do you believe in a personal God?

Would you support Great Britain in the event of another European War?

Would you rather go to war or to jail?

Should the C.O.T.C. be abolished?

Do you believe in public ownership of private property?

Which party do you intend to support in the next Dominion elections?

Do you believe in immortality of the soul?

Do you think fraternities should be abolished?

A number of the students voted but treated the whole matter very lightly, more as a joke than anything else. None of the ballots were signed.

The Alarm Clock, official publication of the McGill Labour Club, appears on McGill campus today and will carry a complete story of the (Continued on Page 3)

S.C.M. Corner

The last few years have witnessed the publishing of an increasing number of books on science and religion. Most of these attempts, at least in part, to show how much religion may profit from an understanding of science. The fact is that science is gradually establishing a mode of thought so universal that religion cannot but be profoundly affected.

Science, above all, lays claim to universality; its results are verifiable by anyone with the means at his disposal. Hitherto the scientific examination of religion has been to a large extent confined to the expert who may write a book or deliver a radio address. There is now a need for a more general understanding of this approach. We, as students, are in an ideal position to democratize such a research.

The S.C.M. is a convenient means of bringing together those who would be interested in this problem. The fellowship afforded by such an arrangement stimulates interesting discussion and makes for a broad approach.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '34
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35,
Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.
Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.
Night Editor—Gordon H. Jack Assistant—F. R. Leggett

THURSDAY, MARCH 1st, 1934

CENSORSHIP AT MCGILL

A questionnaire issued by the Labour Club of McGill University for distribution among the students has been banned by the Dean, and the printed forms confiscated and disposed of. Apparently the question to which greatest objection was raised, was: "Would you support Great Britain in the event of another European War?"

This is censorship in its most objectionable form. Even if the Labour Club had issued a statement urging McGill students not to support Great Britain in the event of war in Europe, it would be highly questionable whether the authorities should have the right to prevent them from airing their views, but when they are even forbidden to determine the opinions of the student body, the situation becomes intolerable. No authority, and particularly no authority in a university which claims to develop independence of thought in its students, should have any right to ban the gathering and publication of public opinion on such a vital question.

On the war question Canadian opinion in general and official opinion in particular has advanced greatly in the last twenty years. In 1912 Sir Wilfrid Laurier expressed the pre-war attitude when he said, "When Britain is at war, Canada is at war." Ten eventful years later, in 1922, the British Government, on the verge of war with Turkey, cabled Prime Minister Mackenzie King asking whether Canada would support Britain if war eventuated. Mr. King replied that in any case Parliament must be consulted, and refused to commit himself blindly without full information as to the exact situation. Finally in his famous Hamilton Speech in 1925, Prime Minister Meighen declared definitely that the whole people of Canada should be given an opportunity of deciding the question through a general election before any troops should leave the country. Mr. Meighen said:

"The government would have to act on its judgment, but before there was anything in the way of participation involving the despatch of troops the will of the people of Canada should first be obtained. I have myself not the slightest fear, but that, if danger threatened Canada again, the country would respond as it responded in 1914. But I believe in future it will be best for all that, before a government takes a step so momentous as the despatch of troops, the will of the people should be known."

Now that that simple faith in the stainless purity of Great Britain's dealings with other Powers, which so permeated popular sentiment during the war years, has been slowly dissipated by fifteen years of "peace", no one will question the fact that she might possibly become involved in hostilities with other nations in which Canada could have no interest. Surely no one will propose that we should support Great Britain in any war, blindly regardless of the rights of the case.

But even if the McGill authorities felt that there was no question as to whether Canada should support Britain in any war, still they had no right to prevent the students from formulating and expressing their own opinions on the matter. It has been suggested that the whole affair is being dealt with as a joke. It is no joke! It is this very spirit of refusing to consider the rights and wrongs of international crises, of taking it for granted that "Our side is the right side because it is our side," which in the past has made it so easy for the war spirit to flame up on the slightest provocation. It is the failure to deliberate while calm deliberation is still possible upon the best course of action in the event of war, which allowed jingoistic demagogues to rush nations time and again into positions from which they could not retreat.

We understand that the McGill Labour Club does not intend to take this censorship lying down. Their publication, The Alarm Clock, is raising the whole question of the right of the university authorities to follow a policy of suppression of student opinion. Both because we feel that students should be given every opportunity to express themselves on controversial questions, and because we consider any possibility of Canada's being involved in another war a question which merits the most serious consideration of students who will be the first to be conscripted, The Varsity extends its heartiest support to those McGill students who have the courage to demand the right to form their own opinions.

Since the above was written "The Varsity" has received a rush wire from the Editor of the "McGill Daily" stating that there is no story, and that the matter is closed. This is the only

Art, Music and Drama

Massey Hall

The special symphony programme of popular selections given at Massey Hall on Tuesday night was, for the layman, an outstanding musical event. To the musician, it represented an excellent attempt to render artistically numbers frequently used and so abused that their actual musical value has depreciated considerably. In some cases, the attempt was highly successful; in others, too great confidence was put in the popular appeal of the music without enough emphasis being placed upon achieving an artistically sound performance.

The compositions themselves are too well known to require description here. Nicola's Overture to the Merry Wives of Windsor was treated with precision and appreciation—more than is usually attained in an opening number. It was followed by the Nutcracker Suite, actually not as well done as the other, but more popular with the audience. The most notable thing about it was the retention throughout of that curious dream quality so characteristic of Tchaikovsky and so difficult to maintain, once caught, by anything so unwieldy as an orchestra. It might also be noted that in the brass gave one of the few really good performances with which it can credit itself. There was nothing unusual or particularly pleasing about the Tannhauser Overture. The symphony has played it much better on occasion: it could have been played considerably worse.

The second part of the programme was a panorama of characteristic dance music. The Boccherini Minuet, in spite of all it has suffered during its career, still has that limpidity and beauty of construction so characteristic of the composer, but unfortunately the orchestra, even after the intermission, failed to throw off its Wagnerian mood and played with a reckless abandon that proved most distracting. However, this boldness was quite in place in the two Grieg dances—particularly the second with its typically Norwegian effects. The Strauss "Artists' Life" Waltz was dull, draggy and generally uninteresting, but Edward German's Shepherd Dance and Hungarian Dance Number 2 by Brahms were done in the orchestra's more sympathetic and tasteful style.

It is exceedingly difficult to criticize Ravel's Bolero. As always, the complexity of its form was impressive; so was the manner in which MacMillan graduated tone from the merest ripple of indistinct sound to the crazy climax with its mad whirling discord and sudden change of key. But the composition itself is so confusing that the performance may be quite poor and still give the desired effect. Fine enunciation of the theme, (with the striking exception of the trumpets, who had worn themselves out on the Tchaikovsky, no doubt), evenness of tempo and some truly remarkable violin work made this interpretation of it quite adequate. In any case, it appealed to the audience as a fitting climax to a very fair concert.

M.M.R.

Hart House String Quartet

The last student concert of the Hart House String Quartet will take place next Friday evening in Convocation Hall at half past eight o'clock. A special opportunity is being opened up to undergraduates for this final concert by the Quartet. Those who do not have the subscription tickets to the series will be enabled to attend for an admission price of twenty-five cents. This charge should not keep anyone away and undergraduates are especially urged to take advantage of this opportunity to hear the renowned Quartet.

St. Michael's Dramatics

The Marriage of St. Francis, a spiritual play from the pen of Henri Gheon, was chosen by St. Michael's College Dramatic Society after long consideration as the best possible offering that the society could make to university theatre art.

The cast for this difficult piece was happily chosen by the Director, Rev. J. L. O'Connell, who showed excellent judgment in his choice. The leading role was played by William Bennett, who combines a pleasing voice with a good stage manner and fine delivery.

Others characters were equally well portrayed. The voices of the leads were well-modulated, pitched in a low key, and showed the results of good directing.

The vehicle itself can be criticized only for its lack of appeal as a medium of entertainment. Having a spiritual background it necessarily tries to exert an uplifting influence, although a trickle of humour does run through the story. There are so many long monologues that the play tends to drag slightly in spots, but good managing

TO-MORROW
8.30 P.M.

CONVOCATION HALL

HART HOUSE STRING QUARTET

ADMISSION 25c.

ANTI-WAR! On Sale To-morrow

Published by the Anti-War Society

Articles by Henri Barbusse, Lord Marley, Peter Hunter, and the late Sir Arthur Currie

Urgent meeting of the Anti-War Society in the Avenue Chambers at 274 College Street, north-west corner of Spadina, at 8.30 to-night. All members are specially requested to attend. All others welcome.

reply "The Varsity" has received to two urgent wires requesting information, and was not sent till another member of the "Daily" staff had been interviewed by telephone. A few pertinent questions seem to be in order. Why does the "Daily" consider such a question unimportant? Why did the "Daily" refuse any information till it had been unguardedly given "The Varsity"? Does the policy of suppression extend to the "Daily", or is the "Daily" itself in a conspiracy with the McGill authorities to ridicule the whole question and prevent it from being thoroughly discussed? The matter would seem to bear investigation.

and some striking effects help to overcome this defect.

The translation of the play, which was done by C. C. Martindale, S.J., unfortunately combines much beautiful mediaeval language with a few ill-chosen slang expressions by lesser characters. The American accents of some of these seemed out of place in contrast to the other actors.—E.C.P.

School of Creative Art

Note: Thanks to the courtesy of Mr. Ralph M. Pearson, an independent (Continued on Page 4)

Owing to the fact that the assistant to the Feature Editor (the latter now being departed from this world, alas!) got lost somewhere sometime this morning, the Cat was afraid to come out of her accustomed ashen until The Varsity had been put to bed. In spite of her pitiful mewings we regret that she will have to go back to her ashen until tomorrow.

GET YOUR RAZOR BLADES FREE

Five keen, double edged blades to fit any Gillette-type razor, for only one complete set of Poker Hands! Many other useful and attractive gifts far men and women. Ask your dealer for a copy of the latest list.

Quality and Mildness
Turret
CIGARETTES

SAVE THE POKER HANDS

Poker Hands are also backed with Turret Pipe Tobacco and Turret Cigarette Tobacco
Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Ltd.

Study the Art of Living

Toronto is a part of the great world of travel and society, in the Royal York Hotel. Come here to mingle with the city's notables and their most interesting guests, and to add your share to the atmosphere of gay sophistication.

Afternoon Tea Musicale—4.30 to 6 p.m.
Rex Battle's Concert Orchestra. In the Palm Room off the Main Lobby.

Supper Dance—Introducing a new star, Billy Bissett, with his Royal Yorkers. 9 to 1.30 a.m., nightly (except Sunday).

Special Rates for College Parties
Phone Wa. 2511

THE ROYAL YORK
A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL

SINCE 1843 WE HAVE HAD THE HONOUR OF SUPPLYING THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO WITH

HOODS, GOWNS,
MORTAR-BOARD CAPS,
ROBES, Etc.

We have imported the correct shades of silk, our patterns are authentic. Highest quality materials and workmanship.

HARCOURT AND SON,
LIMITED

Clerical Tailors, Robe Makers

103 KING ST. WEST, TORONTO

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps. Special rates for students. Two stores to serve you.

FREEMAN'S

256 College Street
K1. 0991

571 Yonge Street
K1. 3270

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

Copyrights and Patents

J. R. Cadwell, M.A.
Barrister, Solicitor, etc.
800 Bloor St. East
Ra. 2121-2122

SR. SCHOOL NOSES OUT SR. U.C. 2-1 IN HOCKEY GAME

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

Interfaculty hockey has ended its most successful season in years. For a month, outside ice has been available for the teams and consequently practices and games have been carried through without a hitch. The brand of hockey displayed has steadily improved, and games full of action and competition have not been confined to the playoffs, but all teams entered have had exciting contests.

The Victoria senior women's hockey team won the interfaculty championship last night, and showed themselves worthy victors by outplaying the Saints in two stanzas and holding them successfully when they turned on their power plays. Both teams were evenly matched in speed but the Scarlet and Gold players showed better combination work.

Both goalies were outstanding and turned in practically faultless performances. The defensive work was much better than the attack; Kay Grubbe was outstanding for St. Hilda's while Anne Scott and Molly Selater were bulwarks of strength for the Scarlet and Gold. K. Symons and Mary Dignam turned in the best performances on the Saints' forward line. Honours must be evenly divided among the Vic women for they all played a sterling brand of hockey.

Ruth Knowlton, president of the Swimming Club, has an announcement to make regarding the meet next Wednesday night, which is too good to keep. R. Blomfield, the world's champion trick canoeist, is going to be on hand, and as well as demonstrating his art, is going to give practical advice on the business of navigating a canoe. Enthusiastic interest in such an unusual event is expected and along with the antics of the women nators should draw a record crowd.

U.C. held a successful badminton tournament on Tuesday. Lenore Fraser was the individual winner. The team is not to be announced yet; it is subject to change as the position are open to challenges.

KNOX SWAMPS WYCLIFFE 49-6 IN BASKETBALL

Wycliffe Put Up Good Fight in First Period with Score 21-4

Knox completely swamped Wycliffe 49-6 in a one-sided basketball game played last night in the upper gym at Hart House.

Wycliffe's feeble defence could not cope with the Knox offensive led by the two guards, Paulin and Neilson. Paulin was the star of the game, scoring 18 of his team's points. Neilson and Shortt each scored 10 for Knox. While there was no doubt about the winners from the start, Wycliffe put up a good fight in the first period, leaving the score 21-4 at half time. In the latter half Knox ran wild, scoring practically at will.

Knox — Paulin 18, Neilson 10, Shortt 10, Mutrie 5, McKay 2, McLean 2, Stewart 2, Brown.

Wycliffe — Kaminsky 2, Emmet 2, Fairweather 2, Chevis, Morinsky, Lancaster, Huether.

Sport Notices

Interfaculty Hockey,

Tuesday—
Trinity 4, Knox 1.
Sr. S.P.S. 2, Sr. U.C. 1.

Rugby Club Elections—
Hart House today at 5 p.m.

Hockey Club Elections—

Annual meeting of the Hockey Club on Friday, March 16th. Nominations for officers in Hockey Club to be handed in not later than March 10th.

SR. S.P.S.; TRINITY GROUP CHAMPIONS

Victoria and O.C.E. to Oppose Them in Playoffs for Jennings Cup

ANNOUNCE STANDINGS

By virtue of their wins Tuesday night, Senior School and Trinity won the final leadership of their respective groups in the interfaculty hockey series and as Vic and O.C.E. had previously clinched their group titles, the four aspirants to continue in the playoffs for the Jennings Cup have been decided. The schedule will be completed this week and the remaining games can bring no change in the leadership of the groups.

Victoria, the cupholders of last year, have led the way with one tie and no defeats against them. However the other three group winners are right behind them with one loss each and will provide the Vic squad with plenty of argument before the 1934 champion is crowned.

The playoff dates have not yet been arranged but it is expected to start their early next week. The fans can be assured of some fast, hard fought games as each of the four teams had to wade through some very stiff opposition before they reached the top.

The standing, including the games of last night, is as follows:

Won Lost Draw Pts.
GROUP I
Sr. School	5	1	0	10
Sr. U.C.	3	2	1	7
Dents	2	2	1	5
Sr. Meds	0	5	0	0
GROUP II
Victoria	5	0	1	11
Jr. S.P.S.	3	1	2	8
Jr. Meds	1	4	1	3
Jr. U.C.	1	5	0	2
GROUP III
Trinity	5	1	0	10
Knox	3	2	0	6
Emmanuel	3	2	0	6
Wycliffe	0	6	0	0
GROUP IV
O. C. E.	5	1	0	10
Forestry	1	3	0	2
Pharmacy	1	3	0	2

SR. U.C. WIN 6-5 OUTPLAYING JR. VIC

Sensational, Closely Fought Baseball; Result Doubtful to Last

Outplaying their opponents in the field, Senior U.C. eked out a 6-5 win over Junior Vic in the first game of a two-game series, played yesterday afternoon in the big gym in Hart House. The game was sensational, well played and closely fought all the way, keeping the result in doubt until the very last man was retired.

Edwards, the stellar Victorian pitcher, was the star of the game, collecting seventeen strikeouts and allowing but seven hits and three walks. Robins for U.C. also pitched sterling ball, allowing only eleven hits and three walks.

For three full innings Edwards dazzled the U.C. men with plenty of speed, keeping the sheet scoreless, but in the fourth and fifth innings of the game he weakened slightly with the result that U.C. were able to collect six runs. Following this he again resumed his stride and five more men fell victims to his speed. Himel was the heavy hitter for U.C. being the only man to continually outguess Edwards. Although Vic collected more hits than their rivals they failed to score mainly because of the U.C. air-tight infield.

U.C. — Karr, Luckett, Himel, Warner, Keirle, Gray, Haas, Haig, Robins, Shulman.

Jr. Vic — Grills, Cumming, Colmer, Cowan, Hamilton, Clipperton, Willis, Edwards, Barry, Gastie.

Jr. and Sr. S.P.S.—

Photos of water polo and swimming teams will be taken today at 1 p.m. sharp in the School Building. Bring your suits.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

Friday afternoon the Varsity senior basketball team will take the train for the Limestone City for their doubleheader trip with Queen's that night and McGill Saturday night. It's up to the home stretch for the cagers with nothing at stake except a chance to add to their questionable prestige by defeating the Tricolour and the Redmen.

The Tricolour were nosed out decisively but not decisively since they came very close to taking the Redmen, now titlholders for the fifth time, in their first game. Varsity took the Queen's team handily here but it's not going to be so easy in Kingston as the boys learned last year when they were beaten 21-18.

The Blues' performance last Friday night against McGill here cost them the title. They can do better but will they? Their season's performances necessitated asking that question. After several games before one could give them a call in the next one. The Redmen have to be checked to be beaten. The same goes for Queen's. The Tricolour are a bunch of smart snipers on their own floor and long shots count the same as hard-earned ones under the hoop. Hayman's spotty crew checked the McGill machine but they faltered offensively which lost the game. That's the dope as we see it so you can judge for yourself.

Saturday Varsity will make an attempt to annex their second B. W. & F. title when they clash with McMaster, Western and O.A.C. at Guelph. On the face of it Varsity's attempt looks to be rather feeble. Their boxing team is composed of five men who, with the exception of Millson in the 125 lb. class, have had little experience. The wrestling team is also composed of novices who, however, have picked up a lot of the fine points of the game in their course of training with Mr. Martin.

Interfaculty sport is now rounding the turn into the last stretch which leads to championships and examinations. The first of the last in baseball started last night when Jr. Vic and U.C. met in the first of their two-game series, which incidentally gives U.C. a one-run lead for the second game. Basketball playoffs are slated for the beginning of the week while the hockey teams also line up for the Jennings Cup finals next week.

In the first of their two-game series with Yolles A.C. for the Toronto group title of the Big Six basketball series St. Mike's lost last night 36-32. A few tough breaks kept the Bay St. Lads, led by the Marks, Connelly, Hickey trio, from winning. The next game is Saturday night at West End Y and if Bill Storen's crew battle like they did last year they should come out on top. We're pulling for the college team to win out.

The O.H.A. junior playoffs are arousing keen interest again this year. Young Rangers were eliminated last night by the classy St. Mike's crew 7-3 and won the round 13-3. Speaking of the St. Mike's hockey team, there has been considerable comment of late about their players attending school for hockey purposes only. Nobody can be positive about that. One thing is certain. They are bona fide students at least, because they have to study or they can't play. One had learned that quite decisively we are told. They play Stratford in the first game of the next round of the playoffs Saturday afternoon.

VICTORIA SENIORS DEFEAT ST. HILDA'S

Scarlet and Gold Women Win 1-0 in Fast Exhibition of Hockey

WIN INTERFACULTY TILT

In a fast exhibition of hockey the Victoria Senior women won the interfaculty title last night at Little Vic by scoring their second 1-0 win against St. Hilda's. The Scarlet and Gold outfit were much superior to the Saints but the excellent work of the latter's defence consistently broke up dangerous rushes.

Anne Scott on Vic's defence, scored the only counter of the game in the first two minutes when she slipped the puck past Marg McDonald to successfully complete a spectacular solo effort. Vic dominated the play in the first period but were unable to score again.

The Saints came back strong in the second period with Kay Symons leading the attack. Maisie Cowan, Vic goalie, was forced to make some brilliant saves to prevent them from tying the score. Jennie Batho and Muriel Eastwood were the chief threats on the Vic forward line and their able back checking was effective in breaking up plays in centre ice.

St. Hilda's faded again in the third period. They rarely managed to work the puck past the Vic defence, but their own defensive work was particularly effective. The checking of K. Grubbe and P. Harrison was outstanding and Marg McDonald in goal was more than equal to all shots that came her way.

St. Hilda's — Goal, M. McDonald; defence, K. Grubbe, E. Palmer; forwards, K. Symons, P. Harrison, I. Wallbridge; alternates, M. Dignam, J. Kirk, L. Hopkins.

Victoria — Goal, M. Cowan; defence, M. Selater, A. Scott; forwards,

O.C.E. NOSE OUT 3-2 VICTORY OVER FORESTRY

O.C.E. last night extended their winning streak in the interfaculty hockey series when they nosed out a 3-2 victory over Forestry in yesterday's twin bill at Varsity Arena. In the second half of the programme Junior Meds reversed their decision of last week over Junior U.C. and smothered the Red and White squad under a 3-1 defeat.

The victory for the Teachers over the Woodsman eliminates the Greenshirts from the Jennings Cup race and gives O.C.E. the group title and a playoff position. Forestry, however, gave a gallant display before bowing to the O.C.E. sextet and were still threatening when the final whistle brought an end to hostilities. The Woodsman opened the scoring in the first period but a pair of counters by Scollie and Bunt again forced Forestry to come from behind to tie up the count. With only a few minutes left Scollie again broke into the scoring column for the winning goal.

Meds and U.C. fought a hectic battle with nothing at stake but an opportunity for Meds to square the count with U.C., who last week eliminated them from the playoffs when they chalked up their first victory of the season. The Meds proved their superiority and had little trouble in winning 3-1.

QUESTIONNAIRE BANNED BY MCGILL AUTHORITIES

(Continued from Page 1)
whole matter of suppressing the questionnaire. The Alarm Clock, being an unofficial publication as far as the university is concerned, must be sold outside the campus owing to a ruling which obtains at McGill. The ruling was made after some trouble of a similar nature last year.

M. Eastwood, M. McKay, J. Batho; alternates, M. Fauds, M. Clements, J. Fenton, R. Schwartz.
Referee — Charles Sweeney.

The California Wraparound

The original appeared first in Hollywood on the most attractive man in the movies. It's big, loose and roomy, with the slouchy chic that nobody but a man's tailor seems able to achieve.

This good-looking understudy in swagger tweeds is in misses' sizes, 14 to 20.

Featured in Simpson's February Coat Sale at $23

Third Floor

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

ANNOUNCE WINNERS IN BASEBALL GROUP

Senior Vic, Senior U.C., Dents, O.A.C., Are Group Winners

JR. S.P.S. AND U.C. TIED

The interfaculty baseball schedule has been finished and the following are the group winners: Senior Vic, Senior U.C., Dents, O.A.C. and the winner of Jr. S.P.S. and Jr. U.C., who tied in group three. The basketball schedule runs to March 9, but the standings of the respective teams give a good indication of the group winners. Senior S.P.S., Jr. Meds, Sr. Meds, Forestry and Emmanuel will all be playoff contestants, while if O.A.C. defeats Trinity on March 3, a sudden death game will be necessary to determine the winner of group three.

GROUP I

Feb. 28 Jr. Vic vs Sr. U.C.
Mar. 5 Jr. S.P.S. or Jr. U.C. vs Sr. U.C.

Mar. 7 Jr. Vic vs Jr. U.C. or Jr. S.P.S.

Mar. 9 Sr. U.C. vs Jr. Vic
Mar. 12 Sr. U.C. vs Jr. U.C. or Jr. S.P.S.

Mar. 14 Jr. S.P.S. or Jr. U.C. vs Jr. Vic

Each team plays four games and the team with the most wins is one of the finalists.

GROUP II
Mar. 3 O.A.C. at Dents
Mar. 7 Dents at O.A.C.

The winners of group two enter group three.

GROUP III
Mar. 10 Sr. Vic vs winner of Group II.

Mar. 13 Winner of Group III vs Sr. Vic

If O.A.C. wins group two the playoffs in group three will be two games with runs to count. If Dents win it will be the best two out of three games. This will determine a second finalist.

The dates for the finals have been set as March 17, 19 and 21, but are subject to change in case of ties. Games are to be seven innings and will start at 3:55 p.m.

AWARD CODY PRIZE AT LIT TODAY

Debate for Robinette Trophy Will Take Place at Meeting

WILL DISCUSS ELECTIONS

This year's winner of the Maurice Cody Prize will be nominated and elected at today's meeting of the U. C. Literary and Athletic Society. This prize is awarded to the graduating member of the society who has shown the greatest interest in the activities of the U.C. Lit., particularly in public speaking.

The new University College song has been accepted and the new yell will be proposed again.

Second and fourth year will debate for the Robinette trophy and the subject will be, "Resolved that Peace is impossible under the Capitalistic System." Saul Rae and Arnold Smith will speak for second year and George Drynan and Dick Bell for fourth year.

A discussion of the manner in which the elections will be conducted this year will take place. It is rumoured that someone will suggest cutting out the ballyhoo and advertising that has always characterized the Literary Society elections.

A point of added interest is that this is the last meeting at which Mr. A. F. W. Plumtre, the Honorary President, will be in the chair, after a period of two years in office.

Max Patrick of the Undergraduate, reported that the sale of the Historical Issue was extremely good. The few copies left may be obtained from any member of the staff of that magazine or of the literary executive.

A certain number of copies are being reserved for future years, due to the permanent value of the historical material and the realization that future undergraduates will be desirous of easy access to it.

Miami—Rain forced postponement of the heavyweight titular bout scheduled between Primo Carnera and Tommy Loughran.

COLLEGE MEN Seeking Summer Employment!

Maclean's Magazine offers students an opportunity by which they can earn money in worthwhile amounts (salary and bonus) during the summer vacation. The work is congenial—territory can be arranged by writing to the student sales manager.

Write, call or phone to-day for particulars and interview, to Student Sales Managers, Room 46, 481 University Avenue, Toronto.

THE MACLEAN PUBLISHING CO. LTD.

Coming Events

THURSDAY, MARCH 1

8.30 p.m.—Meeting of the Anti-War Society in the Avenue Chambers at 274 College Street, north-west corner of Spadina. Final arrangements will be made for distribution of the paper, and Peter Hunter will speak. St. Michael's College presents "The Marriage of St. Francis", in Hart House Theatre.

4 p.m.—U.C. Parliamentary Club in the junior common room.

8.15 p.m.—Joint meeting of French Clubs of Trinity, Victoria, St. Michael's and University Colleges. Women's Union, 79 St. George St.

8.15 p.m.—Final meeting of the U.C. Lit. in junior common room.

8 p.m.—M. and P. Society open meeting, Women's Union. Skits, dancing.

FRIDAY, MARCH 2

St. Michael's College presents "The Marriage of St. Francis", in Hart House Theatre.

North Toronto Collegiate Institute is holding its annual At-Home in the Eaton Auditorium. Dancing to Stanley St. John's orchestra. Special welcome to the alumni.

5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club annual meeting. Elections. Programme for spring and next year. Members bring friends interested.

9.30-2.30—Victoria College general elections in Alumni Hall.

Dental At-Home, Roof Gardens of Royal York.

SATURDAY, MARCH 3

8 p.m.—T.L.C.C.U., 150 St. George St. Subject, "Society and the Fellowship of the Cross".

3.30 p.m.—Trinity College Library—Dr. George H. Locke (Toronto Public Library), on "The Loyalists in Ontario", 150th anniversary of the Loyalists' settlement in the province.

9-12 p.m.—Alpha Chi Omega subscription dance, in Alexandrian Room, King Edward Hotel.

SUNDAY, MARCH 4

9 p.m.—The last musicale will be given in Wymilwood this Sunday by Mrs. Whitehead, soprano, and Mme. de Kresz, pianist. A large attendance requested.

MONDAY, MARCH 5

5 p.m.—The Music Group will meet with Mme. de Kresz in Wymilwood.

TUESDAY, MARCH 6

Trinity College Science Club open meeting. Prof. Parks, "Dinosaurs".

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7

9-1 U.C. Senior Formal Dance, Roof Garden, Royal York Hotel.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8

Hart House Debates Committee Elections.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9

8.30 p.m.—Student League of Canada theatre night and dance, New Theatre, Labor Lyceum, Spadina Ave.

Classified Advertisements

Typing

Notes, Essays, and Theses typed, neat and accurate work guaranteed, 25c. per 1000 words. Miss Lewis. Kingsdale 9237.

The Hostess Drawing Room

Toronto's unique social rendezvous, where you may entertain graciously, economically and without personal effort. Reserve your dates for bridges, teas, receptions, banquets, business meetings, etc. 891 Bay St., between Grosvenor and Broad-albani. Kl. 9861.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

Tickets for the U.C. Senior Formal Dance to be held in the Roof Garden of the Royal York Hotel will be on sale in the college rotunda on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Number of tickets restricted so come early.

WYMWILWOOD MUSICALS

The last musicale will be given by Mrs. Whitehead, soprano, and Mme. de Kresz, pianist, on Sunday, March 4th, at 9 p.m. Large attendance requested.

FRENCH CLUB, U.C.

The French Club of U.C. is holding a special meeting tonight in the Women's Union at 8.15 to which members of the French Clubs of all colleges are cordially invited. Professor Felix Walter is to give an address on "European Universities", and refreshments and dancing will follow.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

The Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity is holding its subscription dance on Saturday, March 10th, in the Crystal Ballroom of the King Edward Hotel. Luigi Romanelli will supply the music. Tickets may be obtained from any of the fraternity's members.

OPINIONS VARY ON JAZZ ISSUE

(Continued from Page 1)

editorial was in bad taste and unfair." (Where is your cents of u-mor, Un-known?)

All criticism was not so biting. "Don't tell me that's been banned! Why, I don't see anything wrong with it. I think it's good," contributed Bruce and A. Noble.

"The pictures are so sweet" most people think, but very puzzling. "Did you get that?" brightly queried K.B., III Arts.

"No—I do wish I saw it—cissed her—hissed her—missed her, oh bother!" wistfully replied L.P., III Arts.

Three Schoolmen, Ed Ewens, Fred Sweet and Pat Morgan, were very dubious when interviewed by The Varsity. "You see," they explained, "it takes us some time to collect our thoughts, and The Varsity was late this morning." Thus wailed the Three Musketeers.

"Poetry, however, is deeply appreciated by the masses."

"Let me see that one—let me see this one. Oh, oh, oh, oh! Now I know I'm going to college," chorled a U.C. freshee. (She isn't so fresh.)

"The stewed verse is certainly well-done," said a heroine of the column proudly.

OSGOODE COMMITTEE ADVISES LAW SOCIETY

(Continued from Page 1)

ing the amount of office work a student must do in his early years at Osgoode and by increasing if necessary the amount of office work in his final year of the course or after he has completed his examinations.

The committee is composed of seven students of the Law School elected by their fellows to discuss the questions outlined above with the Benchers. Five members of the committee are graduates of the University of Toronto, and include Don Carriek, Fred Hume and Don Keith.

A member of the committee assured The Varsity that no change has so far been made, as a result of the committee's recommendations. These ideas have been presented to the Benchers and it remains to be seen whether any action will be taken.

Cockburn praised the work of the C. O.T.C. band, many members of which are in the Varsity Band. The student body's appreciation was officially expressed by Mr. Bruce Murray, who also presented crests to freshmen members of the band. Others who spoke richly were Captain Slater, Mr. MacDonald, Mr. Heddon, Mr. Spiegel and Mr. McCutcheon.

IV YEAR VICTORIA

Nominations for the Moss Scholarship will take place in the College Hall today from 9.30 to 2.15. All fourth year men and women are urged to come out to nominate the best all-round man or woman in the college, according to the stipulations for the award of the scholarship as set forth on page 80 of the Calendar.

ANTI-WAR SOCIETY

All members of the Anti-War Society are urgently requested to attend tonight's meeting at the Avenue Chambers, 274 College Street, north-west corner of Spadina, at 8.30 o'clock. The paper, Anti-War, will have been received from the printers, and arrangements must be made for distribution, in which as many members as possible are requested to cooperate. Peter Hunter, delegate to the Paris Youth Conference against War and Fascism, will speak.

M. AND P. OPEN MEETING

The annual open meeting of the M. and P. Society will be held on Thursday, March the first, in the Women's Union at 8 p.m. Skits, nominations, dancing. Everybody welcome. Members of the Honour Science Club are invited to attend.

MOORE EXPLAINS EDITOR'S VIEW

(Continued from Page 1)

Life according to the districts, and widely differing reading tastes prevail. The editor works on a basis of gaining the interest of those people who have no original interest in the topics discussed. He must make a study of local prejudices and prejudices, so as to offend none who may read the magazine. He must avoid partisan jealousies, all "local breezes".

Mr. Moore's advice to all would-be magazine writers was to be sure, in all the little things they do, that there is no mistake in fact, no petty source of irritation to spoil the effect of their story. Readers are very observant, very critical of details. The editor, for this reason, must know a little more about most things than the writer himself, in order to be able to detect errors. He cannot afford to overlook flaws, no matter how apparently trivial.

The main reason for rejection of material is poor writing. It is an excellent idea to read aloud what you have written, to follow the sense and the rhythm. The chief virtue of work is originality, to express your thoughts in your own way. Conscious attempts to be literary spoil the work.

The great secret of good fiction writing is to have one or two characters that the reader himself would like to be.

Miss Florence King, the president of the Press Club, announced that the club will have one more meeting this year, an original work meeting which will take place on Tuesday, March 13. At this meeting the election of officers will be held.

WAR NOT IMMINENT STATES LOCKHART

(Continued from Page 1)

have all they can do for the next 50 years to raise the standard of living of their people."

"What immediate effects on Russo-American trade will result from the American recognition of Russia?" The Varsity inquired.

"Russian recognition will mean very little if any increase in trade with the United States unless the Americans are willing to extend a great number of long-term credits to the Soviet state. Only if such credits are made available can the Americans expect to do any appreciably increased business with Russia."

Replying to a question concerning the possibility of an early war in Europe, Mr. Lockhart said, "Europe is in a pretty bad state of affairs at present, but no one is anxious for war and I think that they will be able to come through all right, somehow. At least, that is a pious hope," he added smilingly as he hurried away to a dinner engagement.

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

artist in New York, The Varsity is able to reproduce a most interesting radio address, by Mrs. Elizabeth N. Erfanger, who spent one summer at the School of Creative Art, at Gloucester, Mass. We are greatly indebted to these artists for putting such valuable information and ideas at our disposal.—C. de M.

To tell about my experience last summer is a joy. I had expected to be a mere chaprone for a daughter attending an art school. But the air of Gloucester and the delightful old schooner that Ralph M. Pearson has so artistically and attractively rebuilt as a studio soon produced an indelible impression of mind. Should I, or should I not study with these happy looking mortals? Was it worth while when I had never studied art in my youth? How much could I hope to accomplish in the short period of one summer? These and many similar questions I argued back and forth for two days in my mind. Finally I decided. The atmosphere was too strong, the desire to try much greater than the year of failure. A summer to be spent as chaprone to a daughter who would be preoccupied most of every day did not hold the prospect of much excitement. A summer to be spent learning creative art did. All these others were so fascinated by their work—it would be an adventure to join their crew.

Let me describe the good ship "Herbert" which Mr. Pearson has remodelled into a design workshop. An old coasting schooner with a roomy comfortable cabin built amidships over the entire width of the broad deck houses the indoor workshop. Moored to a shipbuilding dock at Rocky Neck in East Gloucester the ship swings gently to the tides and the wash of passing boats but never so much as to distract attention. Fore and after decks are pleasant open places for sunning. Cabin walls are hung with artist-designed hand hooked rugs, hand-blocked textiles, modern prints and student paintings. The colour encasing the windows is a deep rich green, harmonizing with the countless changes of the sea. There are deck chairs outside and in for dreaming and straight chairs for work.

Mr. Pearson started me by suggesting that I play with water-colours. "Don't think," he said, "just feel the quality of one colour against another. Don't try to paint anything concrete. Forget you have a mind and let your emotions run riot." After the first week I felt a release, a freedom to enjoy these thrills of colour in any way I liked. How often have I wished to place deep rich purple next to exotic blue, or dark brown beside brilliant yellow. To be able to do this oneself gives an inner satisfaction that can come only from the doing. After I had become colour-conscious I tried clay as a medium for moulding abstract forms—large curves next to angular planes, a large form cut into by a smaller, a busy mass with many irregularities breaking into a quiet one. I learned that abstraction, telling no story and with no subject, can produce exciting visual results.

The next step was to place straight and curved lines into drawn squares starting very simply and gradually evolving more complex and interesting relationships. This may sound vague, but try it and see how simple and clear the method is, and how it makes you see relationships of line and space wherever you look. Before another week had passed I had cut and printed a linoleum block and felt ready to tackle more difficult problems.

The knowledge of painting colour plastically plus the feeling for form combined with a limited comprehension of design made me eager to create, using all of these forces. I designed a rug. Crudely I made my first colour sketch. Mr. Pearson said, "Good" and I was very proud. But to my consternation he said that by "good" he meant a good beginning. Refining, planning, developing a centre of interest—all these elements were necessary to a more complete whole. I worked very hard, each day painting many sketches, until, at the end of five days, my design was completely satisfactory, considering the length of time I had studied.

(To be continued)

A professor of Latin and Greek
Can smoke cigarettes like a streak
But it's not for his knowledge
Falls are joining his college
But the odd BRITISH CONSOLS
to sneak.

10 for 10c.—25 for 25c.
and in tins of 50's and 100's

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

BRITISH CONSOLS
COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

V.C.U. NOMINATIONS ARE ANNOUNCED

(Continued from Page 1)

Secretary — Grace Becker, Jean Fenton, Eileen Pile.
Treasurer — Gord Hilborn, Bert McLean.

Nominations in 111 Year to hold office next year

President — Ken Cash, John Dix, Wallis Field.

Vice-President — Dick Middleton, Hugh Peart, Doug Walker.

Secretary — Agnes Bruce, Helen Muir.

Treasurer — George Hay, Ralph McKibbin.

In addition to the above there will be an election in the first two years, in the Men's and Women's S.C.M., the Women's Literary Society, the Women's Athletic Club, the Victoria University Athletic Union, the Music Club, the Dramatic Club, the French Club and the Bob Committee. Nominations for all the above societies are posted on the V.C.U. Bulletin Board in the College Hall.

EDITOR CLAIMS MATTER CLOSED

(Continued from Page 1)

ally on member papers and so has forfeited the membership privileges automatically. Unless the McGill Daily has notified the executive editor of CIP, Mr. Parker Wearing of McMaster, recently to this effect, it is not now a member of the CIP in good standing and has not been since May of last year."

MEET TO ELECT REPRESENTATIVES

(Continued from Page 1)

be male undergraduates of the University of Toronto or one of the affiliated colleges, who are proceeding to a degree, are in actual attendance upon lectures and who have paid the annual fee required (By-Law I). Athletic Clubs and Associations are being notified to have these representatives appointed at an early meeting of their executives.

A student to be elected to the Directorate must at the time of his nomination be in the second, or a higher year of his course at the University, but not in the final year. The nomination must be made in writing on the form provided for the purpose, signed by two male undergraduate members of the Athletic Association in good standing and filed with the Secretary of the Association at least five days prior to the election (i.e., not later than 1 p.m. Saturday, March 10th). Forms can be obtained at the office of the Association.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, MARCH 2nd, 1934

No. 97

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

WHAT ABOUT OUR LIBRARY?

The Kingston Board of Works approved a relief plan involving the expenditure of $170,000 under which three buildings of Queen's University would be fireproofed. The cost will be shared by the city of Kingston and the Provincial and Federal governments.

Miami—Primo Camera, the Italian giant, successfully defended his heavyweight boxing crown when he out-pointed the veteran Tommy Loughran in 15 rounds last night.

Ottawa—Mayor Kerr of Stratford levelled further charges at the Ontario Minimum Wage Board during a session of the parliamentary committee on mass buying yesterday.

Johnstown—Four men were killed in a mine explosion here last night.

In his presentation of the budget to the Ontario House, Premier Henry expressed confidence in his party to further the return of prosperity to the province.

After his auto had been sandwiched between two Bloor St. cars and completely demolished, a man was dragged out of the wreckage without a scratch. He said that the gates of Paradise had opened wide before him and then slammed in his face.

DEBATERS AGREED LAWS INEQUITABLE

U.C. Parliament Decides One Law for Rich, One for Poor

GOVERNMENT DEFEATED

The motion "that in the opinion of this House there is not a law for the rich and a law for the poor", was defeated in the U.C. Parliamentary Club yesterday by a vote of 3 to 10.

The meeting, which had the poorest attendance this session, was one of the liveliest to date and the Hermant Government was roundly scored by opposition leaders; chief of whom were the honorable members from Stobie, Skilling, Gelber and Pivnick.

Prime Minister Hermant, in leading the debate, pointed out that in Canada we have the finest system of law in the world and one that insures equal rights to the rich and poor.

Mr. Pivnick, in speaking for the opposition, pointed out that there were not two systems of law but that the one system was not fair to both rich and poor.

VOTING REGULATIONS

Special attention is drawn to the regulation that no voting permits will be issued this year to those who have forgotten their registration cards. Bring your registration card to the elections if you wish to vote.

The attention of members is drawn to the following procedure:

Voting will take place from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. continuously in the Reading Room and from 12 noon to 2 p.m. in the Music Room. Any undergraduate member of Hart House may vote in either room.

Voting takes place only on presentation of registration cards. No voting permits will be issued and the whole process of voting will be speeded up.

CANADA BACKWARD IN ANTI-WAR WORK DECLARES HUNTER

Describes World Youth Congress to Anti-War Society

1092 DELEGATES PRESENT

Delegation from Soviet Union Tells of Difference in Armies

"Canada is very backward in its Anti-War work compared with other countries," said Peter Hunter, Canadian delegate to the World Youth Congress against War and Fascism, held in Paris last September. He was describing the conference to the Anti-War Society last night and stressed the rapid growth of the Anti-War Movement in Fascist countries, where discovery means death. Many of the delegates to the conference never arrived in Paris, as they were stopped at the border or arrested even before they set out. Ten out of the twelve Polish delegates were stopped in Berlin and sent back to imprisonment in Poland. However, forty young Germans managed to be present. The largest number ever to leave the British Isles for such a conference were there. Altogether there were 1092 delegates, representing nearly forty countries. There were soldiers, students, transport workers, factory workers, among whom were many from armament factories. There were varying shades of opinion, Socialists, Communists, Pacifists, Christians and others.

Soldiers, transport and munition workers described the work they were doing towards mutiny and strikes if war should break out. Delegates from Fascist Italy and Nazi Germany told of the growing discontent with the governments in their countries. "Although the youth may be wearing black or brown shirts and giving the fascist salute, they will easily return to 'Rot Front'." The red salute was used by all those at the conference.

There was a delegation of seven from the Soviet Union, four of them girls. They told of the difference between the armies of the capitalist countries and their own Red Army, which consisted of workers and peasants.

(Continued on Page 4)

SKITS PRESENTED AT M. & P. MEETING

Prize Goes to Fourth Year; Dramatize Life of Archimedes

RIDICULOUS TO SUBLINE

Everything from the ridiculous to the sublime was featured last night at the annual open meeting of the Mathematics and Physics Society, held last night in the Women's Union. According to custom, each of the four years put on a skit supposedly indicative of the temperament of the class and they drew a large enough crowd for the treasurer, in a private interview, to declare a surplus. The prize of the evening went to the fourth year who successfully dramatized that memorable incident in the life of Archimedes, the first Mathematical Physicist, whose fame has come down to the masses in the one word "Eureka". The skit was complete with the "bath-tub scene", which was artfully screened from the crowd by two attendants. The climax arrived when Archimedes, brought before the King of Syracuse, announced his great discovery made with elephant tusk soap as the find of

(Continued on Page 3)

New U.C. Yell Adopted

"Fight-fight-fight-fight! University Red and White! Red and White! On to Victory Parum Claris Lucem Dare First of all are we Home of Knowledge—Finest College University."

Selected as the best yell of those received in a contest held by the Undergraduate magazine and the University College Literary and Athletic Society, the above battle cry was selected at the meeting of the Lit. last night as the new official cheer of University College.

A prize of seven dollars was offered as an incentive to contributors and the new cry is the combination of two four-line yells which the executive blended together. The old Uni-Yell was defeated only after a close vote, and the two undergraduates who composed the present official battle cry, Messrs. Milton Shulman and Daniel Webster, will share the prize money between them.

ROME SCHOLARSHIP IS OFFERED HERE

British School at Rome Announces Elections for This May

The Faculty of Archaeology, History and Letters in the British School at Rome give notice that an election will be made in May, 1934, to a Scholarship for research in Roman or Italian history, antiquities or literature. The Scholarship is of the annual value of £150. It is awarded for one year in the first instance. It may be extended for a second year if the Director makes a favourable report on the scholar's work. The scholar must work in Rome (or such other places abroad as the Faculty may approve) for at least six months in each year, and will be required at the end of each Session of the School to send to the Director a written report of his progress.

Candidates may be of either sex, and must be under 30 years of age on (Continued on Page 3)

Hart House Elections

The list of candidates for the various Hart House committees is as follows:

HOUSE COMMITTEE

W. R. Alexander, III S.P.S.; R. M. Armstrong, II Victoria; R. J. Brennan, II Trinity; H. Fine, II U.C.; S. T. Flynn, II Trinity; W. G. Goddard, II U.C.; N. C. S. Goldring, II Wycliffe; L. H. Gray, I U.C.; W. G. C. Howland, II U.C.; P. B. J. Hussey, II St. Michael's; I. Madachian, II Medicine; B. H. McNeil, IV Medicine; W. S. Mahon, IV Medicine; P. M. Morley, II Forestry; B. Pennington, I Victoria; F. C. Richardson, III S.P.S.; A. B. Ridley, III S.P.S.; S. T. Rogers, III Medicine; W. W. Seccombe, II U.C.; W. J. Smith, II Dentistry; H. A. Taylor, III Victoria; F. W. Woods, III U.C.

HALL COMMITTEE

C. L. Annis, III S.P.S.; R. E. Bates, II S.P.S.; H. O. Bowman, II Medicine; R. G. Burrows, II Trinity; G. Campbell, II U.C.; J. L. Farrar, II Forestry; E. D. Graham, III S.P.S.; J. G. McKenzie, V Medicine; D. G. McKerracher, V Medicine; B. B. McNeerney, II St. Michael's; J. Mirsky, II U.C.; D. S. Perigo, III Victoria; W. S. Rogers, I Trinity; B. L. Smith, III Victoria; A. F. Taylor, V Medicine.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE

S. H. Ambrose, II Trinity; R. D. Appleford, IV Medicine; C. N. Brebner, III Medicine; H. Buck, II U.C.; C. F. Carter, II St. Michael's; A. DeMaio, II S.P.S.; J. J. Dutton, II S.P.S.; I. E. Gordon, I Medicine; G.

R. A. BELL WINS MAURICE CODY MEMORIAL PRIZE

U.C. Literary Society Moves that Electioneering be Restricted

OFFICERS NOMINATED

Robinette Trophy Awarded; Smith and Rae Debate for Second Year

The final meeting for the year of the U.C. Literary Society was held last night in the junior common room. Mr. A. F. W. Plumtree, honorary president, presiding.

Mr. S. M. Hermant read the minutes of the last meeting, which were a record of the 80th anniversary of this society. The various officers of the executive in turn submitted their reports summarizing the year's activities.

A motion was introduced for the abolition of ballyhoo from electioneering, and for a definite restriction on advertising. After a brisk discussion the motion was put to a vote and carried.

Mr. R. A. Bell was honoured by being awarded, by acclamation, the Maurice Cody Memorial Prize. This prize is awarded in honour of the late Maurice Cody, a former honorary president of the society. It consists of books to the value of thirty dollars donated annually by the U.C. Lit and Athletic Society for public speaking and interest in the college. It goes to a member of the society in his fourth year or upon graduation. In proceeding with the business, a new yell received its audition and was adopted by the members.

The feature of the evening's programme took the form of the Robinette Trophy debate. The subject was "That Peace is Impossible Under Capitalism". Mr. R. A. Bell and Mr. G. K. Drynan represented fourth year and upheld the negative side of the question. The second year was (Continued on Page 3)

THREE WEEK-END SPORT EVENTS SCHEDULED FOR VARSITY TEAMS

Varsity B. W. & F. Team Seeks Intercollegiate Title at Guelph

WRESTLERS WELL TRAINED

Boxing Team Will Do Well; Expect to Emulate Senior Success

Under the capable guidance of Dr. Les Black, and Mr. Martin, Varsity's intermediate boxing, wrestling and fencing team will invade Guelph tomorrow with the anticipation of giving the gladiators of McMaster, Western and O.A.C. a great battle for the intermediate intercollegiate B. W. & F. title.

Although comparatively inexperienced, Varsity's boxing team of five are sure to give a good account of themselves in their quest to emulate the success of the senior boxing squad who scored a sensational surprise when they annexed three of the boxing titles. The only experienced boxer on the Varsity squad is Milson who will fight at 125 lbs. Jessup will compete in the 135 class, while Brunke, who sustained a fractured rib before the senior meet, has been chosen for the 155 lb. class. In the 165 lb. class O'Kelly will represent Varsity.

The wrestling team has been training carefully under the eagle eye of Mr. Martin, who always manages to develop capable performers and this team is no exception. Despite the fact that the wrestling team are practically all new to the game, they have been moulded into the semblance of a good fighting team, and without a doubt should provide the opposition with plenty of stiff competition before the tournament is over. In Holden, the 125 lb. contender the Blue team has an aggressive wrestler who should go through to the final round. Minkler, Hunnicutt, Sutton and Turner will represent Varsity in the light, welter and middleweight classes respectively. Jim Van Allen will wrestle at 175 lbs. and although being a new man, he has shown good style in his workouts.

Varsity's entries in the fencing look like sure point winners, having in Richardson, Newton, Smith and Tushingham, capable performers, who have shown good form in their daily workouts under the tutelage of Mr. Walters. Taking everything into consideration the Varsity boxing, wrestling and fencing team will undoubtedly give the O.A.C. team, last year's intermediate intercollegiate champions, plenty to worry about before the assault-at-arms is over.

MUSEUM UNAWARE OF STAFF ADDITION

Rev. Dr. White of Honan, China Returns to Canada This Year

BOOK ON CHINESE TOMBS

The University of Toronto knows nothing whatever about the rumour of the appointment of the Rev. Dr. W. C. White, Bishop of Honan, China, who is retiring this summer, to the staff of the Royal Ontario Museum. It is hoped, however, that on his return to Canada, the Bishop will devote some of his spare time to the Chinese department of the Museum. In this he has always been vitally interested, and has been a most generous benefactor. Among his many contributions to the Chinese collection are the valuable bronzes which date as far back as 1600 B.C. His latest important donation made in collaboration with Sigmund Samuel, Dr. Ferguson and Sir Robert Mond, was the "Mu Lib" (Continued on Page 3)

Intermediate Basketeers Are Varsity's Last Hope for Championship

ONLY DEFEATED ONCE

Annual Queen's-McGill Trip Promises Hard-Fought Contests

Varsity's last hope for an intercollegiate basketball championship rests with Coach Mac McCutcheon's Blue intermediate squad when they meet O.A.C. in an intercollegiate intermediate encounter at Hart House on Saturday night. Mac's charges have gone through their schedule with but one defeat, and that a close 25-24 decision at the hands of the Aggies in Guelph and they will be out to even "matters up, while at the same time grabbing off Varsity's first intercollegiate basketball title in quite a while.

The Aggies are sending down a hard fighting, last-breaking bunch of sharpshooters that are sure to give the Blue seconds all the competition they can handle. The Blue team seems to have reached the peak of its form in the intercollegiate series and will be hard to beat on their home floor. In Vanderleek, Applebaum and Gibson (Continued on Page 3)

CAGERS ON ROAD TRIP

Today Lew Hayman and his collection of Blue basketeers will be heading for the last round-up when they depart on the annual Queen's-McGill basketball trip. The team will play Queen's at Kingston tonight and McGill in Montreal on Saturday night.

Although the games to be played have no importance or bearing on this year's title race as the latter has already been decided, Coach Hayman is desirous of finishing up a disappointing season in a blaze of glory. A couple of wins at this stage of the proceedings would do a great deal to appease the U. of T. fans who have been forced to watch some pretty bad exhibitions of the cage pastime in the big gym at Hart House this season.

In the Queen's game anything is likely to happen. The Red squad from McGill barely nosed out a win over the Limestone City aggregation in Kingston. This means that the Queen's aggregation will be hard to take on their home floor. However, taking the Blues' showing against Queen's here as a criterion when the Toronto squad won handily, Hayman's men should be the victors.

The game at Montreal promises to be the hardest fought contest of the year. Needless to say the Blues are quite peeved at the McGill team because of the beating the Redmen gave them at Hart House. If determination (Continued on Page 3)

MCGILL LABOUR CLUB PUBLISHES 'ALARM CLOCK'

Results of Questionnaire Show Students in Favour of C.O.T.C.

Montreal, March 1.—This morning the Alarm Clock, official organ of the Labour Club at McGill, makes its fourth appearance for the year, being sold off the campus for five cents each. This number features the results of the recently circulated student questionnaire which was responded to by 275 students. A history of the troubled career which the questionnaire has had since its circulation last Monday is also included with an explanatory note by the editors.

The findings, which represent the opinion of only 275 students of the University, showed that this group was in favour of maintaining the C. O.T.C. and fraternities on this campus (Continued on Page 2)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34
Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '35
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '34
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crockower, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Marion Ridout Assistant—Nora Loeb

FRIDAY, MARCH 2nd, 1934

PROFESSORS AND PUBLIC WELFARE

Professors of this university have been incessantly criticized and attacked by people who, believe they are qualified to denounce any action or opinion of these self-same professors, if it doesn't coincide with their own. Professors, they claim, should not dabble in politics, or business or in any other field of activity that might take them away from, or have some insidious influence upon, the youth whose education it is their predestined duty to mould. The fact that a professor, with his thorough and specialized knowledge of one particular field, would undoubtedly bring to light certain facts that might prove of inestimable value to humanity, does not enter into the question, with them. Regardless of what he may be able to do, he must keep out of it, and keep strictly to his cap and gown, protecting his mind and soul from all contamination that may possibly creep in through a too close connection with mundane affairs. But we are very glad to see that the professors of the University are beginning to disregard all such threats, and to take a keen and active part in the affairs of this country.

A case in point, of course, is the invaluable work done by Professor Plumtre of the Economics Department, in his capacity as a member of the recent Banking Commission. The report of the commission, which heartily recommended a Central Bank, was undoubtedly largely due to the ready co-operation of Professor Plumtre, and the academic knowledge at his disposal was very likely one of the chief causes of the approval and success with which most of its recommendations were greeted.

At the present time another professor of this university has taken an interest in extra-academic activities and has brought forth startling revelations which will put an end definitely to many of the terrible working conditions under which a considerable number of Canadian people are labouring. Professor H. M. Cassidy, of the department of Social Service, in a report brought before the Stevens' Committee on price spreads and mass buying, has shown the incredibly inhuman conditions existing in many Ontario sweatshops today. Men and women working for fifty hours a week for seven dollars and less was one of the many brutal ways in which many people were being exploited, and numerous other examples of slavery produced by Professor Cassidy show the extent and intensity of his research. Not only did he show up these conditions in their true colours, but he also presented before the commission a series of constructive proposals by which he believed the present situation could be alleviated, and to a great extent eliminated.

The University of Toronto may well be proud of a man who has so thoroughly investigated a problem which is of vital interest to the thousands of working-people of this country and whose findings have resulted in a number of revelations and recommendations which will undoubtedly lead to an eradication of the impossible condition of affairs existing today. Professor Cassidy has proved once again that the university professor is a capable and practical individual who, if given the opportunity, will use his academic knowledge as usefully and effectively outside the sheltered cloisters of this institution as he will within the protection of its walls. That Professors Cassidy and Plumtre and a few others have ventured beyond the strict confines of the university and carried out successfully their work in these fields shows, beyond the shadow of a doubt, the value and worth of such men in the public activities of this country. That work of this nature should be carried on by professors despite the protests of a few narrow-minded individuals, can easily be seen by any clear-thinking person. The Varsity takes this opportunity of congratulating these men on their contributions to the welfare of the people of Canada, and hopes that they and their colleagues will continue to lend their inestimable aid to the many serious and human problems facing our country today.

Art, Music and Drama

Hart House String Quartet

The Hart House Quartet will give the final concert of its Toronto series tonight (Friday, March 2nd) in Convocation Hall, when they will play the Quartet by Ernest Bloch, Swiss-Jewish composer, and the Quartet by Maurice Ravel. This concert precedes the extensive four-week American tour which the Hart House Quartet will make, as follows: Buffalo, Great Neck, N.Y.; Burlington, Vt.; Scanton, Pa.; Williamsport, Pa.; Elmira, N.Y.; Washington, Pa.; Cincinnati, O.; Knoxville, Tenn.; Lexington, Ky.; St. Paul, Minn.; Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Winona, Minn.

The next Toronto appearance of the Quartet will take place in connection with the Toronto Centennial Music Week, when they will appear on April 18th, together with Ossip Gabrilowitsch, eminent pianist, in a programme of Mozart, Beethoven and Brahms.

St. Thomas' Church

With the eight-part Rachmaninoff "Ave Maria" starting off the programme, the half hour of choral music over CFRB on Sunday at 5:45 p.m. promises to be one of great interest. Mr. Hodgins sings a Lenten Carol with choral background. Dr. Moore's "God so loved the world" with a soprano solo running throughout, sung by Master Arthur Cooper, will be another feature. The Male Chorus will be heard in "The Ballad of the Master and the Trees" (Nevin), the broadcast concluding with the Cathedral evening anthem "I will lay me down in peace" by Dr. Tertius Noble.

Sunday Evening Songster

The eighth songster of the year will be held in the Music Room of Hart House on Sunday evening next at 8:45 p.m.

Disons le chapelet.
The Glory of God.
The Londonderry Air.
O Lord, who dares to smite Thee.
I attempt from love's sickness to fly.
Wiengetried.

Mr. J. Campbell McInnes will conduct the following programme:
Hymn: The Church's One Foundation.

My Old Dutch.
Trade Winds.
The Wearing of the Green.
Land of Hope and Glory.
Golden Slumbers.
O Canada.

(Continued on Page 4)

In searching among the refuse that commonly clutters the Feature Editor's (request in pace) desk, we unearthed the following gem, whose vintage is rather doubtful, and parentage even more so. Whether the dear soul was saving it to laugh with or at is an unsolved mystery, but it has escaped the terrors of that bottomless waste basket that overflows beside his desk, and so must be worthy of mention for some obscure reason. We let you have it in the pure unadulterated form, exactly as it was discovered, and if you don't think the lines are the right number of feet to scan, try taking an average.

C-C
Lacking a suitable title, we supply the following suggestion:
RHAPSODIES ON B.V.D.'S

C-C
Thee we hail with praises rich,
Thou minion of the great god Itch,
Our winter wear of bright red flannel,
Seldom, sad to say, designed by Chanel.
For that heavenly joy we feel where we scratch

The one no other feeling can match;
For delicious warmth in weather zero
With which we are able to brave cold like a hero;
For all this we hail thee and all thy ilk,
But nevertheless we still prefer silk.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject Sunday: "CHRIST JESUS"

First Church of Christ, Scientist

St. George St. at Leavelle Ave.

Close to residences and fraternity houses

Sunday Services 11 a.m., 7:30 p.m.

The morning service is broadcast over CFRB.

A Sunday School for students under twenty is held at 11 a.m.

On Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the main auditorium is held a meeting at which Testimonies of Christian Science Healing are given.

Down town on the 16th floor of the Metropolitan Bldg., Adelaide at Victoria,

a Free Public Reading Room is open from

9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily except Sunday, for rest, quiet meditation and study, where the Bible, and authorized Christian Science

literature including the text book, Science

and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, may be read, borrowed

or purchased.

Each and every student is cordially inited to attend the services, and to enjoy the privileges of the reading room.

THEOSOPHY

52 Isabella Street

Sunday Evening at 7.15 p.m.

Lecture by

MR. ALBERT E. S. SMYTHE

on

"THE GERMAN GODS"

Questions Answered.

Free Lending Library.

There is something in knowing how to make cigarettes. Look around you and notice how many men and women smoke

Winchesters!

Winchester CIGARETTES

SAVE THE POKER HAND!

Blended Right!

HART HOUSE BARBER SHOP

PRICES—

Hair Cut = = 30c.

Shoe Shine = 5c.

(with hair cut coupon)

Commencing March 6th, a coupon will be given with each Hair Cut. This Coupon and 5c. is good for a first class Shoe Shine.

Have your shoes shined while waiting for, during or after your hair cut.

SINCE 1843 WE HAVE HAD THE HONOUR OF SUPPLYING THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO WITH

HOODS, GOWNS, MORTAR-BOARD CAPS, ROBES, Etc.

We have imported the correct shades of silk, our patterns are authentic. Highest quality materials and workmanship.

HARCOURT AND SON, LIMITED

Clerical Tailors, Robe Makers

103 KING ST. WEST, TORONTO

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dance. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps. Special rates for students. Two stores to serve you.

FREEMAN'S

256 College Street
KI. 0891

571 Yonge Street
KI. 3270

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps

6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1665

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

TORONTONENSIS

THIS IS FINAL

Saturday, March 3rd, is the last day for handing in to the S.A.C. office write-ups and photographs, unless, as in the case of athletic groups, definite arrangements have been made to the contrary.

MCGILL LABOUR CLUB PUBLISHES 'ALARM CLOCK'

(Continued from Page 1)

by a small majority. About half felt willing to resist conscription to the point of going to jail while opinions were not very clear on the subject of public ownership of Canada's main industries. The C.C.F. party was favoured in the ballots, winning about 40 per cent of the votes cast, the remainder being fairly evenly distributed between the Conservatives and Liberals.

Circulation for this issue is placed at about one thousand.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING MEET AT HART HOUSE ON WEDNESDAY

WOMEN'S SWIMMING MEET AT HART HOUSE ON WEDNESDAY

UNIVERSITY
Travel Club of Toronto
Tenth Annual Tour
EUROPE BY MOTOR
OR
EUROPE BY TRAIN
AND MOTOR
Via St. Lawrence and North Atlantic
CRUISE TOURS
Acores, Lisbon, Gibraltar, Malaga, Palma de Maiorca, Cadiz, Seville, and back to land tour
SAILINGS—June 28, 29, July 6, 14
Write for Descriptive Booklet to G. H. LUCAS, Secretary
Bloor Bldg., 57 Bloor St. W., Toronto

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

With the basketball and hockey trophies nicely accounted for both intercollegiate and interfaculty, almost all that seems to be left on the books is swimming and badminton.

After their brilliant finish last week and the senior basketball team decided to rest on their laurels, and pack the Blue and White uniforms away in mothballs for yet another year. The intermediates haven't had their fill and last night they took on the Parkdale Grads, who number among their ranks such stellar players as Phil Griffiths, Jean Allen, Wilma Hazlett and Billie McGarry, to mention only a few of an all star team. The Grads piled up a sizable score, but the Varsity outfit showed lots of spunk and altogether everybody seemed to be having a very good time. Lorna Read was a stand-out on the Blue and White defence while Mary McEachern, jumping centre, displayed an accurate shot to take the scoring honours.

The Varsity hockey team journeyed to Port Dover tonight to fill the place of the Vagabonds, who had to discontinue the Port Dover sextet on account of a league game with Bracebridge. Judging from all reports there will be plenty of competition forthcoming, for the intercollegiate winners, but they can take it and like it.

The chief interest at the moment in interfaculty circles is the swimming meet, which comes off on Wednesday. The elimination meet will be on Tuesday night and on Wednesday the pick of the women swimmers and divers in the university will be showing their stuff. There are additional attractions and all for the price of twenty-five cents (25cts.).

Trinity's hopes received a back kick the other day when Vi Ord received an injury to her wrist which will keep her out of the competition. Vi was showing real class in the try-outs and an Ruth Knowlton a close record for the individual honours.

Badminton enthusiasts are working hard in preparation for their tournament, at the end of next week. Graduation didn't deplete the ranks of the outstanding players and all colleges are expected to put in strong entries.

Varsity Team Leaves ON BASKETBALL TRIP

(Continued from Page 1)

counts for anything the Blues should make a good showing. The most biased critic however will fail to call a win for the Blues in Montreal as the Redmen, titholders for the fifth year in succession, have lost only one game in four seasons. That certainly is a record which will take some beating and whether the Blues can make another blotch in that record remains to be seen.

Taking the record of the Blues in the Big Six and intercollegiate series for the season it must be admitted that their showing has been anything but wonderful. The squad on paper is capable of doing far better than their record would lead one to believe and since this is the last trip the team will make this year the Blues will certainly want to make amends for previous performances and one win out of two is therefore not too much to expect.

LAVAL CHAMPION OF RADIO DEBATE

Debates Will Be Again Carried on During Next Autumn

In the final Canadian Intercollegiate radio debate held Tuesday night, Laval University, in Quebec, defeated the University of Manitoba, supporting the motion "Resolved that more crime is due to wealth than to poverty."

An unique feature of the debate was that, while the two Laval speakers were French-Canadian students, one of them spoke in English, and one member of the Manitoba team spoke in French. The judges were the Honorable Maurice Dupre, of Ottawa, Mr. G. V. Ferguson, City Editor of the Manitoba Free Press, Winnipeg, and Professor P. C. G. Campbell of Queen's University. Although the judges agreed in their decision, the Laval team was awarded the victory by only three points.

The last of the series of intercollegiate radio debates inaugurated last fall, Tuesday's verbal encounter gives Laval University the Dominion championship. As a result of the success and popularity of the new venture, it is intended that a series of university debates will again be broadcast next season.

U.C. GRADUATING PARTY

On Wednesday evening at the Roof Gardens of the Royal York Hotel the graduating class of University College will gather for their last undergraduate party.

Special plans have been made to make this party a fitting finale to four happy years at the University. Although the party is advertised as formal, dress is optional and there will be nothing stiff or formal about the dances although it is understood that the seniors will preserve their dignity. Most class parties are crowded but since there are in the treasury funds which the committee plans to exhaust on this party, the dancers will be able to enjoy the beautiful Roof Gardens and dance to the lively music of a fine orchestra and still not be crowded since only 125 tickets are being sold.

It is expected that these will be quickly disposed of since the price is merely $1.25 per couple.

EXAMINATION FEES

"The examination fees are coming in very well," the Bursar's office at Simcoe Hall informed The Varsity yesterday.

Asked whether an additional fee of one dollar will be charged students who have not yet paid the examination fee, the Bursar replied, "The regulations in the calendar must be lived up to but we will endeavour to interpret them as leniently as possible."

THERAPY COURSE UNDER DOMINION

"The course in occupational therapy as given by the University of Toronto has no connection with the Toronto Occupational Therapy Association but comes under Dominion supervision," explained Dr. Goldwin Howland, questioner of medicine here, when questioned by The Varsity concerning a recent address delivered by him to the Occupational Therapy Association. Dr. Howland, of the Board of Directors of the Association, in his address advocated several reforms, especially that occupational therapy needed more medical attention. But as his work is more with the graduates of this course he had no criticism one way or the other, to offer about the university course.

"A point of interest to this university is that a graduate from here took a post in Scotland as a result of which a course in occupational therapy is being established at Edinburgh University," said Dr. Howland. Beyond that, he felt he had nothing to say of interest to those not connected with the work.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By D. J. McGuire

It looks as though O.A.C. has a mortgage on the intermediate B.W. and F. title, which is being fought out at Guelph Saturday afternoon and evening. The Aggies just coasted through to a victory in the interfaculty assault and look to be good for a repeat order. Another factor worthy of consideration is that in the interfaculty meet the Aggies were a last minute entry, going into the fray with less than a week of active training. Such will not be the case in this event, which together with their natural ability to make themselves generally disagreeable once the bell goes, and the referee indicates that war is declared, would indicate that the Aggies should have little difficulty in repeating last year's victory. It will be recalled that O.A.C. made an effort to get into the senior intercollegiate assault and were disappointed only when they were blackballed by Queens. On the face of it they look powerful enough even to overcome the handicap of being called upon to win by this column and do just that.

Tonight Jimmie McPherson and his Bluettes will be down in Port Dover in an attempt to wrest a decision from the Port Dover ladies' hockey team. Whether or not Jimmie's feminine puckchaser will be able to handle the assignment is difficult to predict, but win, lose or draw, the Blue and White representatives will play a brand of hockey that is a credit to the university as well as the coach.

Varsity get their last crack at a basketball title this weekend when they travel eastward via Kingston and Montreal in search of an intercollegiate title. The Blues' chances received quite a set-back when they lost to Western in their return game and then lost again to McGill. Such being the case McGill have already captured the title, which reduces the weekend contest to an engagement and nothing else. However this is the last game many of the players will be playing in Blue and White and it is probable that the boys will turn in their blue ribbon game. If they can stop the Redmen in their own floor they will at least be accomplishing something which has been impossible for the past five years.

Tommy Loughran last night set a new record for the mile run but still failed to lift the heavyweight boxing crown from the head of the ponderous Camera. There were many peculiar angles to this scrap. In the first place no man probably ever spotted another individual one hundred-weight of fighting equipment and still expected to win. In the second place this is the first time in the history of the big-time boxing game that it has been necessary to erect barbed wire entanglements to keep the customers in for the main set-to. Yet that was the only plausible excuse for the architecture of the Miami lay-out last night. Again the weatherman did everything in his power to keep the Madison Square Gardens from taking it on the chin in the pocket-book. For three days he favoured them with a steady downpour of rain in order to avoid paying their bills. Said bills amounted to somewhere in the neighbourhood of one hundred grand, while receipts were estimated at $30,000. Despite all this they failed to take the hint and went through with the procedure to the detriment of the mortgage on the family wigwag.

Assuming that this is nominally a sports column we are running the risk of irrelevancy in discussing a favourite pastime known as "rasslin'". We never just could figure out to what category of the calendar this game should be relegated but in view of the similarity to the old time wrestling acts we will call it a sport. This may or may not be the case as the shows are in many ways strangely reminiscent of the old circus acts where the boys call signals before doing their flips. All this is merely leading up to what we consider a timely suggestion as suggested by G. C. Alexander in the recent edition of the "Dominion Sports". To us it has always been a source of sorrow to see a chap who had piled up a long lead in the sprints, had an obvious advantage in the fistic exchanges, did three flips to the opponents' one, made grimaces that the party of the second part could never hope to imitate, lose the decision because he happened to ease up for a minute while the second party in the argument pinned his shoulders to the ground, thereby winning the fight.

And so we are heartily in accord with Mr. Alexander's idea, which is to discontinue the idea of paying off in falls. His idea is to have each movement assigned a certain number of points as in a gym meet and total up at the end of a certain time to decide the winner. For example, a wrestler who heaves his opponent out of the ring would be given, say 100 points. If he heaved him off the platform on to the floor he would be given a bonus of 50. A flying tackle over the top rope should be worth 200 while through the middle rope only 100. Other points would be given for extras such as appropriate grunts, grimaces, facial evidence of extreme pain, anger, joy, etc. A sock at the referee would merit 50 points while the grappler's total would be increased by 150 if he booted the said referee out of the ring entirely. Heaving stools would give him 20 if he hit a spectator, 50 for hitting either (a) a judge, (b) a commissioner, (c) a newspaperman, (d) his opponent.

Then of course there would have to be demerit marks. 100 would be deducted should any performer turn up (a) without a shave, (b) without bathing with life buoy soap previously, (c) in need of a hair cut. Such omissions as lack of facial expression when kicked, failing to grapple three minutes with the referee, not looking groggy after a healthy kick in the face, and not trying to strangle the opponent at least twice, would of course lose him marks. Also it would be against the rules to apply a headlock when the opponent called for a wrist lock or to signal a kick at the bread basket and then try a flying tackle.

These of course are merely suggestions, beneficial we believe, to the game, and affording a much fairer test of ability. We don't know how long before these rules are apt to go into effect but when and if they do we would suggest that you come up and see it some time.

MUSEUM UNAWARE OF STAFF ADDITION

(Continued from Page 1)

rary" of more than 40,000 volumes. This collection which will arrive in Canada this summer, will be the third largest collection on the continent. It, together with the collection at McGill University, will give Canada the honour of having one of the biggest and best collections of Chinese literature in the world.

In his last annual report Dr. H. J. Cody intimated the possibility of establishing a department in Chinese at the University. It was suggested at the Royal Ontario Museum that such a chair in Chinese literature and art would be a very suitable part of the recently suggested Faculty of Fine Arts.

When Bishop White returns, it is hoped that he will undertake the writing of articles and books on the Chinese collection at the Royal Ontario Museum, even if he does so in an official capacity. As yet practically nothing has been done for this department, due to the lack of individuals sufficiently acquainted with the subject. Bishop White has already written a book to be published in China next month, on ancient Chinese tombs, of which many specimens are in the collection at the Royal Ontario Museum.

Science - Medicine - Arts All Faculties - All Years

If your Crest Pin was designed and supplied by this firm, it may be duplicated at any time if lost. It is guaranteed to be the finest possible. In short—

It bears our name and guarantee. In designing new Crests, please remember we are always glad to be of service.

A. E. EDWARDS

Insignia Jeweller
22 YONGE ST. ARCADE
ELGIN 3669 TORONTO

SKITS PRESENTED AT M. AND P. MEETING

(Continued from Page 1)

the age "Ivory soap—it floats". And in keeping with this sentiment, the prize awarded was one beautiful cake of Ivory Soap.

This winning presentation, combined with the third year skit, which depicted Professor Saterly's class of beginners doing their little bit in three-year-old attire, provided the ridiculous. The sublime was attended to by second year, featuring Hart Buck, Bert Chadburn, and quite a scintillating young lady, Miss Irene Walsh, who gave a pleasing rendition of two original songs from the pen of Frank E. Pujolas under the names of "My Dancing Serenade" and "I've got those Mathematical Blues". The dancing for the former number was adequately supplied.

First year reverted to the age old tradition of a take-off on Professors Saterly and D. A. F. Robinson, which was taken as expected but was very well enacted. In between the skits examinations were made for the various positions on the executive of the society for next year. These were followed by refreshments and dancing to a piano while second year discreetly retired behind the scenes to devour a delicious ten pound turkey specially cooked for the occasion by Miss Agnes Pike. The party, as usual with the Women's Union, was officially over at the unconventional hour of eleven-thirty but most of the crowd journeyed to the "Slipper" to carry on into the wee small hours.

ROME SCHOLARSHIP TO BE AWARDED

(Continued from Page 1)

October 1st in the year of the award. They must submit a scheme of the research that they propose to undertake, together with evidence of their academic record and of their ability. Papers already published or written may be submitted, and not more than three testimonials. Applications should be addressed to the Secretary, The British School at Rome (Faculty of Archaeology, etc.), 50 Bedford Square, London, W.C.1, and must be delivered not later than May 15th, 1934.

R. A. BELL WINS

MEMORIAL PRIZE

(Continued from Page 1)

represented by Mr. A. C. Smith and Mr. S. F. Rae, who upheld the affirmative. Mr. Plumtree, Mr. MacAndrews and Mr. Skilling judged the debate. Their decision was that the trophy should go to the second year.

Following are the results of the nomination of officers for the coming year:

Honorary President — Mr. G. McGillivray.

President — S. M. Hermant, F. W. Woods.

Literary Director — N. M. Pivnick, W. Goddard.

Athletic Director — F. Morlock, J. Hamilton.

Social Director — S. F. Rae, K. A. Foulds, L. Rowntree.

Secretary — A. C. Smith.

Treasurer — L. Gray, P. A. Bridle.

Year Presidents: IV Year — R. E. Watters, E. T. Bell, A. S. Lanning, J. Penman, D. Dadson.

III Year — L. Rowntree, W. G. Howland, B. Shaffer, A. W. Kirkpatrick.

II Year — F. Branscombe, T. W. Elliott, D. Stewart.

Candidates for office availed themselves of the opportunity to address the members present. The meeting was closed by the members appropriately expressing their appreciation to the retiring executive for their excellent service rendered during the past year.

TO-NIGHT
8.30 P.M.

CONVOCATION HALL

HART HOUSE
STRING QUARTET

ADMISSION 25c.

SOMEWHERE TO GO
TO-NIGHT

at 8.00 p.m.

CAPT. F. H. REID

on

"WITH A CAMERA

THROUGH EUROPE"

Admission only 25c.

THE COSMOPOLITAN HALL

52 Isabella St.

Sport Notices

Jr. S.P.S. Softball—

Group playoff game today with Jr. U.C. Please be on hand at 3.45 p.m.

Baseball—

O.A.C. at Dents (big gym), Saturday, March 3, 4 p.m.

Jr. U.C. Baseball—

Game with S.P.S. Friday, 4-5. Every man out early.

Sr. S.P.S. Baseball—

The group picture will be taken on the front steps of the Engineering Building at 12 noon on Monday, March 5. Everyone is requested to be present with their sweater.

Women's Swimming Meet—

Women's Interfaculty Swimming meet in Hart House on Wednesday, March 7, at 8.30 p.m.

Varsity BASKETEERS

MEET D.A.C. SATURDAY

(Continued from Page 1)

they have three snipers capable of holding their own in senior company, while H. Newman and Young on defence can be relied on to keep the opposition from rolling up a high score. Mitchell, Magwood and Young form an excellent reserve squad.

Varsity juniors take on the O.A.C. junior squad in an exhibition curtain raiser at 7.30 to start the evening's cage entertainment. As nothing is at stake a wide open high scoring game should result. What will probably meet with the approval of most is the fact that there will be no admission charge.

Crepe de Chine Panties

In the popular step-in styles. Bias cut. Lavishly trimmed with lace. In White or Tealrose. All sizes ..... 89c.

Pyjamas

Of Pongee silk, in one piece styles. Some have blue, green or red polka dots on a soft cream coloured background. Others have high neck and long sleeves. Very ..... $1.98

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 3800
4 other shops in Toronto

This joyous young couple, quite snappy. Have discovered a way to be happy. Just to ask for a smoke. They consider a joke— You must try "BRITISH CONSOLS," Old Chappell

10 for 10c. — 25 for 25c. — and in tins of 50's and 100's

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

Classified Advertisements

LOST

Man's brown hat initialed H.T.B. Wednesday night near the Women's Union. Ly. 4802.

FOUND

In Bank of Montreal, St. George and Bloor Branch, a container in which were the following keys: 1 Yale key, 1 small key marked "Presto", 1 master door key marked "Germany", 1 small key. Container is stamped "Compliments. . . Campus Coffee Shop", 311 Huron Street.

FOUND

A woman's handbag in the vicinity of Central Heating Plant last week. Make enquiries at Superintendent's Office, Simcoe Hall.

Coming Events

FRIDAY, MARCH 2

St. Michael's College presents "The Marriage of St. Francis", in Hart House Theatre.

North Toronto Collegiate Institute is holding its annual At-Home in the Eaton Auditorium. Dancing to Stanley St. John's orchestra. Special welcome to the alumni.

5 p.m.—Men's Glee Club annual meeting. Elections. Programme for spring and next year. Members bring friends interested.

9.30.2.30—Victoria College general elections in Alumni Hall.

Dental At-Home, Roof Gardens of Royal York.

SATURDAY, MARCH 3

8 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., 150 St. George St. Subject, "Society and the Fellowship of the Cross".

3.30 p.m.—Trinity College Library—Dr. George H. Locke (Toronto Public Library), on "The Loyalists in Ontario", 150th anniversary of the Loyalists' settlement in the province.

9-12 p.m.—Alpha Chi Omega subscription dance, in Alexandrian Room, King Edward Hotel.

SUNDAY, MARCH 4

9 p.m.—The last musicale will be given in Wymulwood this Sunday by Mrs. Whitehead, soprano, and Mme. de Kresz, pianist. A large attendance requested.

MONDAY, MARCH 5

5 p.m.—The Music Group will meet with Mme. de Kresz in Wymulwood.

TUESDAY, MARCH 6

Trinity College Science Club open meeting. Prof. Parks, "Dinosaurs".

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7

9-1—U.C. Senior Formal Dance, Roof Garden, Royal York Hotel.

8 p.m.—Oriental Society holds its final meeting at Dr. W. R. Taylor's. Address by J. Halpern.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8

Hart House Debates Committee Elections.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9

8.30 p.m.—Student League of Canada theatre night and dance, New Theatre, Labor Lyceum, Spadina Ave.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10

9 p.m.—Kappa Kappa Gamma subscription dance, Crystal Ballroom, King Edward Hotel, Romanelli's orchestra.

DEBATERS AGREE LAWS INEQUITABLE

(Continued from Page 1)
and poor since only the rich could afford to take an appeal to the Privy Council. The phrase "ten dollars or ten days" is heard every day. Ten dollars is nothing to a rich man, but ten days in jail brands a man, he explained.

Mr. Gelber, also speaking for the opposition, pointed out that law is based upon private property, that private property is a mark of wealth and that the present judicial system is upheld by the wealthy.

Mr. O'Kell of Victoria College explained that both rich and poor were accorded the same treatment in court and were tried before the same judge. Mr. Beamish stoutly criticized the former speaker since the rich have charges against them reduced before they come to court trial.

The vote was against the government 10 to 3 and a vote of want of confidence was carried by a vote of 9 to 4. The Prime Minister resigned and Mr. Pivnick took his place, the member from Martin becoming leader of the opposition.

CANADA BACKWARD IN ANTI-WAR WORK

(Continued from Page 1)
ants who elected their own officers, and were allowed to criticize or dismiss them.

On the final day of the conference, 125 of the delegates were arrested after a demonstration, but they were almost immediately released because there was a threat of a general strike in Paris in protest.

ELECTION BLOTTERS

500-$2.25 1000-$3.50
KENWOOD 6946

Gitel Makes Friends Aboard Ship Auntie's Warnings Give Her Pip

By Gertrude (Gitel) Reichman and Fanny Schwartz

Dear Aunt Caddochis:

Life is SO exciting on board! The very first day I coaxed the captain (he's such a Ducky old man) to take me below stairs and watch the little wheels go round. It's MOST fascinating—what I MEAN is that the engineer was VERY good-looking. Which reminds me that the REST of the people on board are so QUEER. At my table there's a little Scotsman who looks like a resurrection of dry bones. You know Aunt Caddy, I've always LONGED to know what they wear under those kilts and now I KNOW—it's the DUCKiest white frilled panties, no less. The old crony next to him calls herself Mrs. Tabitha Killiecrankie (my DEAR, isn't it a PRICELESS name?) And the most DIVINE looking fellow sits opposite me. His name is Llewellyn Kartoffel but I just call him Louie for short. When our eyes first met across the pancakes, I KNEW that a PURPOSE had entered my life and that I had been merely EXISTING for that moment. But when he passed me the pancakes and asked "What will you have it with? Honey?" I coolly retorted, despite my INNER tumult, "Oh, just call me Gitel". So THEN of course, we were introduced and I could tell him my whole life history between the first and second courses. Of COURSE I told him all about you. He has the CUTest way of pronouncing your name. It sounds JUST like a vacuum cleaner out of order.

That evening after the lemon dance, I went up on the poop. My language is getting so NAUGHTICAL. (You know, I have a suspicion that word is misspelt but it's only a suspicion.) Oh yes, I was on the poop and as I was stargazing through the smoke of the cigarette I was creaming he joined me and we both watched Venus go into conjunction with Jupiter (or some'n). As his hand rested on mine, I murmured softly: "The pulse that refreshes?" Did I ever get MOON-burned?

Yours for the present,

Gitel Long.

Miss Gitel Long, S.S. Galicia.
My dear Gitel:
Life is real, life is earnest. All this frivolous dilly-dallying on ship-board which you describe with such pathetic eagerness pains me deeply. Although I should be the last to ask you to blush unseen, dear child, I shudder to think that you are wasting your sweetness on the desert air. Please, I beg of you, do not permit the pleasant flattery of shallow philanderers to lead you from the path of duty and your Aunt's book-keeping.

My dearest Gitel, what you need to redeem you from the desires of the flesh is the love of a good man and a true. Save yourself, child. Woman, after all, was meant to have a little home and sweet innocent offspring (although I fear that to one of your years such a topic is indecency—yet perhaps your acquaintance with university students has provided you with some knowledge of the fundamentals of life.)

I often thank a merciful fate which spared me the humiliation of having men propose to me. Perhaps I owe that blissful fact to the propriety which I have always been careful to observe. I fear that if I had been approached in such a way, the first abject confusion of the moment would probably have drawn a hesitant acceptance from my abashed lips, and I should be spending the rest of my life reading the advice which I now give you.

My dear child, you hurt me in your flippant discussion of names. All of us cannot be fortunate enough to have names from a long and distinguished family line. My own name, Caddochis, is one which is exceptionally fortunate—and I fear I am inordinately proud of this nomenclature (which in the original Sanskrit describes an old family trait—Malaria).

I have been hearing about a new fashion in clothing which I do hope you will not rashly adopt—a new sort of "Windblown" fashion which surely cannot be properly delicate. Still, it's an ill wind . . . .

Be careful of your diet, child. (The quality of Grade A milk is not strained, you know.) And please avoid foods which will stimulate indecent conversation at table.

Have a pleasant journey, and return your old sweet innocent self, to your devoted

Aunt Caddochis.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the "Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

ANTI-WAR PAPER

Anti-War will go on sale this morning. All members of the Anti-War Society who can help in selling it are requested to be in the U.C. Rotunda at one o'clock today. Co-operation is necessary if the sale is to be a success.

THE FORUM

A regular meeting of the Forum will be held today at 4 p.m. in Room 4, U.C. Messrs. Medafle and M. Minsky will speak and Mr. Shaffer will be in the chair.

IV YEAR VICTORIA

The election of Victoria's representative for the Moss Scholarship takes place in Alumni Hall today. The following are the nominations: Ted Avizon, Grace Becker, Laurie Cragg, Corinne Dempsey, Jean Dowling.

VIC DRAMATICS

Symphonic Pathétique by Sidney Bach will be presented at 5 o'clock on March 7th in Hart House Theatre by Evelyn Stewart's group. Everybody out.

VIC ELECTIONS

Elections take place in Alumni Hall today from 9.30 a.m. to 2.30 p.m. Besides the Victoria College Union the following societies are represented—Women's Lit., V.U. Athletic Union, Bob Committee, Men's and Women's S.C.M., Music Club, Dramatic Club, French Club, Asga, four year executives, senior and athletic sticks and the Moss Scholarship.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Annual general meeting in Hart House Music Room, 5 p.m. Business reports, future activities. Members are urged to bring all friends interested. Activities will start next fall immediately term opens.

IV YEAR U.C. WOMEN

The graduation dinner will be held on March 14th. Don't forget to leave the date open.

III YEAR VIC MEN

The election of the men to hold the senior and athletic sticks takes place today in Alumni Hall. All juniors are urged to turn out to make the vote as representative as possible.

VIC BOB COMMITTEE

Every male member of the first three years may vote for the year representatives of the Bob Committee. He need not have paid his year fees to vote.

U.C. PARLIAMENT

Next session, Thursday, March 8th, at 4 p.m. The Pivnick Government will present the resolution, "That this House congratulates Toronto on attaining her hundredth birthday." Opposition led by G. A. Martin.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING MEET

The women's interfaculty swimming meet will take place on Wednesday, March 7, in Hart House at 8.30 p.m. R. Blomfield, world's champion trick canoeist, will be a feature attraction. Students are urged to keep this date in mind.

Everything Smart in the Sweater Vogue

Of course, you may buy them, high priced importations away beyond a college budget. But it's much more fun, much swankier to knit your own, and get the style you want, the stitch you want, and the color you want in

Lady Four Yarns

Fingering, 1 oz. ball, 18c.

THIRD FLOOR, JAMES ST.

THE T. EATON CO. LIMITED

P61

10 for 10c. 25 for 25c

CELLOPHANE WRAPPED FOR FRESHNESS

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)

School of Creative Art

Thanks to the courtesy of Mr. Ralph M. Pearson, an independent artist in New York, "The Varsity" is able to reproduce a most interesting radio address by Mrs. Elizabeth N. Erlanger, who spent one summer at the School of Creative Art at Gloucester, Mass. We are greatly indebted to these artists for putting such valuable information and ideas at our disposal. The second part of the address follows.—C. de M.

There are few pleasures as great as creating a useful as well as a decorative product. The rug lives in my bedroom, functioning by tying up and dramatizing the grey, blue and rose colour scheme of window curtains, bedspread and wallpaper.

After I had started working colour began to take on added beauty. It had previously been impossible for me to see the varied shades of green in a group of trees, or to appreciate truly the subtle shadings in a grey smoky day. To watch the play of colours with each other, or even a single subtle colour can produce an emotional thrill akin to that of music.

I went home feeling that all the lecture courses I had taken on the subject of modern art and all the trips through Europe's renowned museums were as nothing compared to this one month of actual achievement. One cannot understand pictures or enter thoroughly into the artist's conception without having worked in some medium of expression. And the right way to begin is from abstract to concrete, from the inside out, from unknown to known. The results from such an experience are manifold. From the most insignificant kitchen utensil to a genuine object of art selectivity is apparent. Not the type of understanding which says, "I like this or dislike that", and cannot produce definite reasons for the reaction, but an understanding coming from this plastic knowledge of colour, form and design. A conscious grasp of these elements makes one truly cognizant of the real worth of things. The new discernment is soon reflected in the choice of the surroundings of daily life—in a new resistance to the commercialized productions of profit-seeking industry.

This winter I heard Tristan and Isolde. I had heard the opera many times, always immersed in the music, unaware of the beauty of colour in sections, but not all, of the settings. But dating from this year I shall always remember one scene as vividly as any part of the music. To the right foreground stood a table and chair. They were both covered. Over the chair was thrown a rich, luxurious scarlet and black sear with gold design, half hidden beneath the full deep purple cover of the table. Beside stood folded the servant in a clear, vivid dark green costume. I ran my eye continually over this group as long as I could and felt a visual enjoyment as deep as any I have ever experienced. Colour lives for me now excitingly.

An increased sensitiveness to design in all fields becomes apparent. In recognizing motifs from the Wagnerian "Ring Cycle" there is the thrill of knowing whence they come and how each is used in the arrangement of the whole. So too, one can feel the actual construction and architecture which design builds into a poem, a play, a house or a picture.

(To be continued)

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

Shucks, arsenic's quicker.

C-C

If you're thinking of applying for the vacancy, bring your own aspirin, or borrow some from Kugur.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, MONDAY, MARCH 5th, 1934

No. 98

NEWS OF THE WORLD IN BRIEF

Western Ontario prepared for floods in many sections. Reports from London, Galt and other centres told of rivers rapidly rising and damage to cellars and other property imminent.

London, Ont.—Two firemen were killed in a spectacular flour mill blaze, and three persons lost their lives when their car crashed into a bus at dawn Sunday.

Crown Point, Ind.—John Dillinger, the notorious laughing bandit, executed the most amazing escape on record with the aid of a hand-carved wooden gun and a colossal nerve. He has evidently made a clean getaway.

Madrid—Rumours spread that Samuel Insull was attempting to buy the crown of Andorra, a tiny nation lying between France and Spain.

Montreal—Senator Wilson, benefactor who recently gave a gift of $25,000 to Queen's University, died here Saturday.

St. Michael's 7, Stratford O. Maple Leafs 6, Detroit 4.

ANTI-WAR PAPER ENJOYS BIG SALE

Articles Are of Such Nature as to Attract Popular Attention

SATIRIZES C.O.T.C.

Anti-War, the publication of the Anti-War Society, of which the first issue appeared last Friday, has been very well received. The Varsity learned yesterday. Already about three hundred copies have been sold, and a large demand is also anticipated today.

Due to the fact that the members of the Anti-War Society are representative of several different groups upon the campus, an effort has been made to present their various points of view. Supporters of Socialism, of Marxism, of a Christian social order and students with no other affiliations have worked together in producing it, and the result has been, not a compromise, but a fair statement of every ground upon which war can be opposed.

Among the articles, perhaps the most striking is a portion of the speech written by the late Sir Arthur Currie (Continued on Page 2)

CHOOSE EXECUTIVES FOR WOMEN'S TEAMS

Voting Regulations Announced for the Annual Elections

The annual elections for the women's basketball, hockey, swimming, tennis and baseball club executives will be held in the Lecture Room, Household Science Building, on Tuesday, March 20, at 5 p.m. sharp.

Nominations for each club should be signed by two voting members of the club in question and filed with the Secretary of the Athletic Association, Room 82, U.C., not later than Friday, March 16. Voting members for each club are restricted to those who have been registered with the Secretary of the W.A.A. as members of university or interfaculty teams in that particular sport during the academic year, or who are certified by a team manager to have attended at least 50 per cent of the practices of that team; members of the club executive and managers of all teams playing under the club.

PROFESSOR CASSIDY AND MISS LUNN DISCUSS STEVENS COMMITTEE WORK

Cassidy Reveals Exploitation of Workers in Clothing Trade

RELUCTANT INTERVIEW

In the investigations being conducted at the present time by the Stevens Committee at Ottawa, Canada is witnessing perhaps the greatest single advance in the field of industrial economics, in the opinion of Professor Cassidy, Professor of Social Science at this University, who recently presented a report on the men's clothing trade to the committee. The investigations are revealing startling conditions of exploitation of workers and evasions of the Minimum Wage Act by unscrupulous employers. Professor Cassidy, granted a special interview to The Varsity with great reluctance. "I have been given too much publicity already," he complained.

"Although the Stevens Committee," he declared, "is itself constituted like the usual committee set up by the House of Commons composed only of members of the House under the chairmanship of a Cabinet Minister, it has this unusual feature, that it has been given the power to appoint special investigators who carry on detailed studies of particular problems in the various industries for presentation to the Committee."

"The pressure for the investigation," he went on, "comes largely from small manufacturers and retailers who feel that they are being squeezed by the large retail organizations who have great power because of the volume of sales they control. According to the statement of intentions, the Committee is not only going to consider labour conditions in the various industries but also general merchandising practices with reference both to buying and selling of goods by retailers."

"What will be the result of the investigation?" we asked. "Do you think the legislature will take effective action of some manner of industrial codification?"

"I do not care to give an opinion on the political outcome," was the reply, "but if competent investigators are appointed and given sufficient time for careful studies, the net result of their reports to the Committee should be the accumulation of a great deal of" (Continued on Page 4)

WOMEN WILL ELECT ATHLETIC DIRECTORATE

The electoral meeting of the University of Toronto Women's Athletic Association to elect the five student representatives on the Women's Athletic Directorate for 1934-35 will be held in the Lecture Room, Household Science Building, on Thursday, March 15, at 5 p.m. sharp.

Nominations will be received by the Secretary of the Association until Monday, March 12, at 5 p.m. Nominations must be signed by two members of the U. of T. W. A.A. and must be obtained from the Secretary, Room 82, U.C.

A student eligible for nomination must be at the time of nomination be in her second or higher year, but not in her final year, at the University.

Representatives to the Electoral Body must be elected and sent to the meeting as follows: University College, Victoria, St. Michael's, St. Hilda's, Medical and Household Science W.A.A.'s, four representatives; Swimming Club, four representatives; Tennis Club, four representatives; Baseball Club, two representatives; the undergraduate members of the 1933-34 Directorate. Names of representatives must be given to the Secretary not later than Monday, March 12, and no substitutions nor proxies will be permitted.

Proper Administration Required to Cure Evils Rather Than Legislation

DOING RESEARCH WORK

By Reg E. Walters

"It is not legislation that will cure the ills of underpayment in the various sweated industries, but administration," declared Miss Sally Lunn, B.A., Cambridge graduate doing special research work here on industrial conditions, with special study of the Ontario Minimum Wage Act. The Varsity had approached Miss Lunn for her opinions on the recent spectacular findings brought to light before the Stevens Committee on Mass Buying now sitting in Ottawa.

"It is useless to pass laws regulating the amount of wages and hours of work," Miss Lunn explained, "unless by rigid inspection these laws are effectively enforced. The Ontario Minimum Wage Board, for example, should have, as inspectors for each industry, men who thoroughly understand this particular industry, its seasonal variations and other features. Until the recent appointment of Mr. H. A. Odell, Ontario had no inspector properly trained to investigate wage conditions and ordinary Factory Act inspectors tried to combine this function with their own duties."

"The need for special investigators is revealed in the fact that the Wage Board must depend on the complaints" (Continued on Page 4)

RITCHIE PRESIDENT ENGINEERING SOCIETY

President, Don Ritchie; first vice-president, N. M. Kelly; second vice-president, Robert B. McIntyre (acclamation); treasurer, W. M. Lawason; secretary, L. B. Sharpe.

Athletic Association—President, T. B. Bruce; vice-president, Art Upper; secretary-treasurer, J. J. Dutton. Permanent Executive—President, H. K. C. McNichol; vice-president, H. L. Shepherd; secretary-treasurer, J. N. Gilles.

Councillors—W. W. Farquhar, Lee D. Dougan, C. W. Tyson, J. P. Borney and D. F. Cornish.

He is Professor E. F. Burton. He succeeded Dr. J. C. MacLennan as head of the Physics Department and Director of the Research Laboratory, but he is not particularly conceited about it. He believes that physics is one way of separating the sheep from the goats, which shows how little he knows about biology. He is a stout churchman and doesn't smoke. He is affectionately known to his students as Bunny Burton. He is intolerant of inattention in his classes. He is prominent among authorities on the subject of the physics of colloids, and can play God Save The King on a set of musical blocks.

CLOSING DEBATE AT HART HOUSE

Will Discuss the Withdrawal of Canada from League

TO HOLO ELECTIONS

The final Hart House debate will be held on Thursday March 8th at 8 p.m. in the Debates Room. Mr. S. M. Hermant of U.C. will move the resolution "That in the opinion of this house Canada should withdraw from the League of Nations." Mr. H. V. Rice, M.S., will oppose the resolution. G. K. Dryden, IV Law, will speak third and Professor N. A. McKenzie of the law department and professor of international law will speak fourth. (Continued on Page 3)

School Elections Mostly Noise Riotous Electors Discard Poise

By Ken G. Robb

With all the traditional noise, noise, and noise, the inmates of the Red Schoolhouse gathered on Friday afternoon to participate in the annual brawl which runs under the name of School Elections. All who participated are reported to be doing nicely today.

S.P.S. At twelve p.m. promptly, all labs and lectures were unanimously cancelled and a reckless horde of thirsty Schoolmen were let loose upon the unsuspecting campus. While candidates with sirens, (the inanimate kind), candidates with loudspeaker equipped buses, and candidates with lusty lungs, hooted and thundered, three brave Highland pipers led a procession to Hart House after negotiating the mud bespattered campus. The police are investigating.

S.P.S. The introduction of the sirens to the halls of the above institution nearly caused a minor panic, which was prevented by the mobs of Schoolmen who blocked all exits. A mad rush was made for Great Hall, and after being revivified, the mob again charged, with disastrous results for all in the path.

S.P.S. Newsboy M. Wayman, who was blithely selling copies of the "Anti-War" in the doorway of Hart House, was relieved of some twenty of thirty copies for the small sum of nothing, he said copies furnishing the basis for a bonfire in the centre of the campus, much to the consternation of the pacifists. A war will shortly be declared on the Engineers.

S.P.S. Inside the building, it was necessary to give the returning officers the voters names via sign talking, as the reverberations of the combined efforts of fifty-seven different noise makers rendered voices inaudible. Schoolmen were only permitted to vote once apiece, but two St. Mike's men who were attracted by the sound of someone debugging a keg, succeeded in voting two and three times apiece respectively. Attempts by the faculty to carry on academic work in the Engineering Building met with overwhelming failure. Lectures at various downtown theatres however were unusually well attended. Other patrons followed the Provincial Hospital at 999 Queen West to find out how such a large number had obtained their freedom at once, and succeeded in obtaining a Royal Commission to investigate. The Schoolmen, as usual, maintained a dignified silence.

VARSITY ENDS BASKETBALL SEASON DEFEAT QUEEN'S, LOSE TO MCGILL

IMPORTANT NOTICE

This is the last regular issue of The Varsity for this term. There will be two weekly issues published on Friday, March 9, and Friday, March 16. All members of the staff will please see bulletin boards in the men's and women's offices as soon as possible for important notices.

AGGIE FIGHTERS SWAMP OPPONENTS

Win Eleven Out of Thirteen Events in Intermediate Assault

VAN ALLEN WINS

By B. J. McGuire Guelph, Ont.—The hard hitting Guelph Aggies Saturday pounded their way to an intermediate intercollegiate B. W. and F. title when they stopped cold everything the combined forces of McMaster, Western and Varsity could offer. Of the thirteen events the O.A.C. team captured eleven, to stage a brilliant defence of the title they won last season.

Clearly and distinctly did the Aggies achieve their victory. With five of their first string boxers out of action the second team went out and captured five of the six boxing events. In the wrestling also their supremacy was clearly indicated, losing only one match, the light heavyweight, which went to Varsity. Even the fencing, in which O.A.C. was given only an outside chance went to the winners of the meet, who emphasized their superiority by having their three-man team finish one-two-three in the individual scoring.

Varsity have Jim Van Allen, clever 175 wrestler, to thank for saving them from a shut out in Saturday's meet. Van Allen met Vickers of O.A.C. in the preliminary round and had to go an extra round to get the decision. In the final of this class the Varsity man met Willis of Western and although he was unable to record a fall he held the upper hand throughout the match.

BOXING 118—Cruikshanks (O.A.C.) def. Longhurst (W). 125—Milton (V) def. Cranfield (O.A.C.); Ponsford (W) def. Milson (V). 135—Pierney (O.A.C.) def. Jessup (V); Jurney (O.A.C.) def. State (W). 145—Archibald (O.A.C.) def. McCubbin (W). 155—Counsell (O.A.C.) def. McCubbin (W). (Continued on Page 4)

Hart House Elections

Each member who intends to vote at the Hart House elections on Wednesday next must carry and show his registration card. No voting permits will be issued to those who have forgotten their registration cards.

Polling will take place from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. continuously in the Reading Room and from 12 noon to 2 p.m. in the Music Room. Any undergraduate member of Hart House may vote in either room.

The Squash Raquets Committee elections will be held in the Sketch Room from 12.30 to 2 p.m. and from 5 to 6 p.m. on Thursday 8th March. All regular squash players are entitled to vote.

The Debates Committee elections will take place at the final debate of the year to be held on Thursday 8th March. Nominations for this committee close at 6 p.m. tonight.

Blue Defeat Due to Tough Breaks Despite Brilliant Play

REO GOROON TOP SCORER

Queen's Holds Varsity for First Half but Lose 33-23

By John T. Stubbs

Concluding their season's activities with two feature performances in Kingston and Montreal, the University of Toronto senior basketball team broke even on the weekend's double-header, defeating Queen's 33-23 Friday night and dropping a close and exciting decision to the McGill quintet 33-31 Saturday night. The Blue eagles turned in two excellent games and should have won out in the thrilling contest in Montreal had it not been for sheer tough breaks.

Red Gordon was high scorer for both games, piling up nine points in Kingston against the Tricolour and thirteen against McGill. Don Bews turned in a good game for Queen's, sinking three sensational long shots which kept his team in the running until the last ten minutes of the game when Varsity forged ahead with a determined offensive that gave them a ten point lead at full time. "Bucks" McGill was high scorer for the Tricolour with seven points. Bodrug performed well in Kingston but was below form in Montreal. Mitchell, Willis and Gold also drew the attention of the fans with their defensive ability.

Lewin was high scorer for the Red-men with 12 points while Gormley trailed close behind with 10. Although not scoring many points, Don Young was again the feature of the Red-men's attack with his brilliant play-making and passing plays. Small on the McGill front line was very effective, also fooling the Varsity checks for four hours.

Varsity vs Queen's Varsity opened the game with a successful attack which gave them a 10-3 lead after twelve minutes of play. The Tricolour staged a comeback, however, led by Bews and his long shots which tied the score up just before the half time horn was sounded with the score 10-10. As the second half opened McGill stepped into the limelight and kept his team-mates in the contest with some accurate shooting both of hoops and free throws but the Blues gradually crept out in front where they stayed, lengthening their lead continually until they finished on top of the heap 33-23.

Varsity's 33 points were made up of 15 baskets and 3 foul shots scored from 10 awarded. The Queen's score of 23 points consisted of 8 baskets and 7 free throws made good on 19 awarded.

Varsity vs McGill Sniderman opened the encounter at the Montreal High School with a smart set shot from outside after he received a pass from Gold at the tip off. Willis flipped it over the rim for another two points immediately afterwards to put the Blues out in front. Their lead was very short lived as two cleverly executed plays by Young resulted in baskets by Lewin and Gormley. From then on the lead changed hands continually with both teams staying right in the fight throughout. At one time in the second half Varsity had a lead of six points at 28-22 but that was only for a brief moment or two.

The game was a very hectic battle from start to finish with everything allowed from shoving to slashing. Both teams kept up a terrific speed in play and checked closely when not in possession. Gordon ran in two sensational baskets to keep Varsity in the running as the first ended. A beautiful set shot by Gold on a fake out put Varsity out in front once again as the half ended and the score at 15-14. A disallowed basket in the first half would have given Varsity a three point lead if it had been counted.

(Continued on Page 3)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611
Night Phone—Midway 8745

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors ..... ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor ..... C. L. COBURN, '35
News Editor ..... B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor ..... FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor ..... J. T. STUBBS, '34
Women's Sports Editor ..... JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '35
Feature Editor ..... N. F. LANGFORD, '36
Drama ..... M. B. LOEB, '36
Art ..... C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crookover, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:

E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—E. C. Phelan Assistants—E. M. Shortt, R. A. Finney

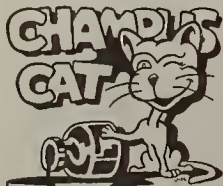

MONDAY, MARCH 5th, 1934

ST. MATTHEW PASSION

Last year, when it was learned that the expected annual performance of Bach's "Passion According to St. Matthew" would not take place, a vigorous protest was expressed in the columns of The Varsity. After staff writers and correspondents had made vocal their disappointment, The Varsity officially took up the cause. It was, however, too late for any change of intention, and there was probably little reason to think that enough enthusiasm had been aroused to make the project financially safe. Sound financial backing is what the producers of the St. Matthew Passion in Toronto have needed from year to year, and evidently the experience of 1932 did not give much promise of success in 1933.

In view of all this, University people will be pleased to know that the St. Matthew Passion will definitely be performed this year, under the direction, as always before, of Dr. Ernest MacMillan. The event has been planned, partly in consideration of the demand for it made by students last winter, and it is they who should provide its basic support now. The chorus of objections when the affair was withdrawn was impressive; but far more important will be the actual response now that this announcement is made. We would stress not merely the gratifying opportunity which is offered, but also—and very urgently—the duty of active support which is laid upon all serious minded students.

Last year the wide fame of the Toronto performances of the St. Matthew Passion was pointed out. Much was made of the fact that we are credited with having the best annual presentation of this work on the American continent. Let these very accurate assertions be borne in mind now. The St. Matthew Passion is one of the profoundest and most difficult religious works ever written, and the reputation which Toronto has gained is manifestly to be cherished. Moreover, the event has become peculiarly associated with the University, and is therefore doubly valuable to those whose ties are here. The date fixed is Wednesday, March 28: let us make certain that our connection with a great religious and musical occasion will be strengthened.

Nell Returns!

The entire University will shortly be rejoicing at the spectacular news of the return of the allegedly deceased Feature Editor, who was reported to have been pickled in brine (the brine) at the bottom of a Salt Mine in Siberia. On his return it was discovered that he was actually pickled with nothing but vodka.

Nell re-appeared late Saturday afternoon. He was disguised as the iodine in a barrel of free-running salt designed for consumption in the Great Hall. Stepping blithely from his peripatetic container, he flicked a crystal of salt off his vest and lit one of File Advance's beloved Rajahs. His first utterance was to correct the rumour circulated in some quarters that he had been confined in a salt mine. "Sally nonsense," he said, going on to relate that his rescue had been brought about by the Society Existing for the Purpose of Rescuing Feature Editors Condemned to Siberian Salt Mines for Publishing the Malicious Lies and Fanciful Fabrications of Russophobia.

Agents. (At this juncture he dashed to the phone to relieve the anxiety which his absence had caused the Night Editor.)

Nell was naturally tired after his salty journey, and declined to comment further. In subsequent issues, however, he plans to describe his printable experiences in the hands of the Soviets.

ANTI-WAR PAPER ENJOYS BIG SALE

(Continued from Page 1)

for the University Veterans' League. It represents the attitude of one who sincerely believed, fifteen years ago, that the Great War was fought in a righteous cause, that the overwhelming sacrifices it enforced were well worth while—a belief which was shattered by the failure of the world to learn its lessons.

Other articles describe some of the preparations being made, especially in Canada and Great Britain, for another war, the political situation throughout the world which seems to make a second holocaust inevitable, and the steps which are being taken, particularly the work done by students, in the Anti-War Movement in all countries, to make that war impossible.

There is also a translation of the story of a mass murder of French troops in 1917, written by Henri Barbusse, and a satirical description of the "heroic" role of the C.O.T.C. in the next war.

Art, Music and Drama

A.C. Players' Guild

The Players' Guild presents an original play this week in the production of "An Academic Problem", by Miss True Davidson. The story is laid in a girl's school and is a character study of four well-defined types, to each of which a key is given in the name which the author has applied to her.

The plot centres in Sappho de Lesbos, head-mistress of the school, who is faced simultaneously with two identical problems, from opposite points of view. The first concerns Timas Virgin, a new girl, and her mother. This Sappho settles in so purely objective a fashion that Mrs. Virgin is constrained to remark somewhat bitterly that it is only "an academic problem" to Miss de Lesbos. When the same situation arises, however, in connection with herself and Anactoria Cyprian, a junior mistress to whom she is deeply attached, she settles it in an equally objective fashion.

The self-imposed distress of Mrs. Virgin, who is a sentimental nonentity, stands in sharp contrast to the courageous sacrifice of Miss de Lesbos. The final triumph of brutal objectivity is achieved when Sappho refuses to console herself in a way which would make Mrs. Virgin's rather negligible sacrifice quite pointless.

The repetition of a somewhat petty situation in a broader and more vital aspect is a dramatic device which is used with telling effect. It is heightened by the fact that neither Timas nor Anactoria are aware that any problem exists. Since Mrs. Virgin does not really accept the responsibility for her problem, Sappho stands out in clear dramatic emphasis with the whole weight on her own shoulders.

The difficult role of Sappho, who must display a highly responsive nature, consciously repressed, is portrayed adequately by Miss Pat Palmer. The pretty and charming Anactoria is carried off delightfully by Miss Jo Harley. Mrs. Virgin is played by Miss Jocelyn Moore, a Guild actress with a reputation for middle-aged and elderly parts, and Timas Virgin will be done by Miss Dorothy Walker. The play is under the direction of Mr. Martin Loeb. D.G.W.

Toronto Symphony

On Tuesday night, the Toronto Symphony, together with the Conservatory Choir, will present The Children's Crusade, by Holst.

Eaton Auditorium

The most novel feature of Brownlow Card's production of Macbeth this Saturday is the treatment of the Three Weird Sisters. They are being played in specially designed masks, and will be definitely stylized, one woman and two men undertaking the parts. Another unusual feature is the designing of each costume especially to emphasize the traits or moods salient in each scene. Patricia Card, who designed the superb costumes for The Merchant of Venice last November, is again in charge of this department.

This time, too, the settings have been so devised that there will be only one actual break in the action during the evening. This has permitted the retaining of several scenes which are usually cut, without the prolongation of the performance into the small hours.

The cast is headed by Francis Peddie, whose splendid voice ought to render him even more effective as Macbeth than as Shylock, and by Dora Macmillan, whose work at Hart House Theatre is well known, her Red Queen in Alice in Wonderland being one of this writer's fondest memories. Others in the cast are G. Wilson Knight, Harold Anderson, Norman Green, Cecil DaCosta, Audrey Pratt and Catherine Coleman.

Dramatic societies, and others, may note that students presenting registration cards will be given a considerably reduced rate on seats for the evening performance. The date is Saturday, March tenth (two performances), at the Eaton Auditorium.

P. A. G.

Hart House String Quartet

Quartet in B Minor ..... Bloch
Poco Andante from Quartet in E

Minor ..... Elgar
Quartet in F Major ..... Ravel

Friday night's programme of the Hart House String Quartet was entirely modern, but three modern composers more different one from another than Bloch, Elgar and Ravel it would be difficult to conceive. Bloch and Ravel, particularly, represent two diametrically opposed modern trends. Bloch is vehemently self-expressive; his music surges forth, raw, uncontrolled, painfully self-revelatory. Ravel also bases his compositions on emotion, but the emotion is merely the basis, upon which is built a deft musical structure.

Bloch is inescapable. This quartet, written in 1916, when his soul was overwhelmed by the agony of Europe in chaos, and by his enforced removal to New York is, to quote the programme notes, "a work of formidable intensity, which it is impossible to hear without a shudder." The music itself shudders; it screams in anguish, it roars with unavailing rage. The whole composition is the spiritual death-agony of mankind, trapped in a chaotic world, in a world gone mad and raving towards its own destruction. Even in the more peaceful passages there is no sense of peace, of sanctuary, nor more than a hopeless yearning for forgetfulness in memories of beauty now destroyed. This quartet is undoubtedly one of the most remarkable compositions of modern times. It cannot be appreciated in one or two hearings; it must be heard again and again. It is to be hoped that it be repeated.

After Bloch, Ravel, with all his colour, seems almost pale. In this quartet particularly Ravel depends rather on rhythm than on colour for his effectiveness. This is not to say that colour is by any means lacking, but where Bloch depends entirely upon it, Ravel subordinates it. The same thing is true even of the Bohème; the tonal colour is there, unmistakable and ever changing, but it is that insistent, hypnotic rhythm, repeated and repeated till the whole of body, mind and spirit are caught up with it, which makes the Bohème unforgettable. The rhythms of this quartet, though more complex, are no less impressive, and upon them has been built a musical structure of the first rank. This too is a quartet of which we cannot hear too much.

C.L.C.

The programme notes at the Saturday night performance of the Hart House String Quartet described with vividness the desolation of Bloch's Quartet in B Minor. This, of course, is the significance of the work. Apart from the musical skill which went into the writing of it—a skill of undoubted high order—the important character

(Continued on Page 4)

LET POKER HANDS Bring You This Alarm Clock Free!

A dependable, sturdy and attractive timepiece with a musical ring that will wake you pleasantly in the morning! It's easy to get and is guaranteed—just save Poker Hands, use the Turret Poker Hand exchange boards at cigarette counters which will enable you to hasten the completion of your sets. Soon you will have Poker Hands, enough for any of the many splendid gifts.

Quality and Mildness
Turret
CIGARETTES
SAVE THE POKER HANDS
Poker Hands are also packed with Turret Pipe Tobacco and Turret Cigarette Tobacco.
Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Ltd.

NOTHING satisfies a candy hunger like Sweet Marie. A luscious fudge centre, covered with caramel, loaded with tasty nut meats, and deep-coated in creamy chocolate. Try one—now!

Willards

SWEET MARIE

Always fresh

Where the Lights
Flicker Bright
There's a

Murray's

Murray's branches are conveniently located . . . close to the shops, the theatres—wherever students meet. In each branch you find the same delicious food . . . the same consideration for your pocket-book. And that's why Murray's rates an alpha under any test.

Branches for your convenience

12 Queen St. E.
Metropolitan Bldg.
(Basement)
285 Yonge St.
770 Yonge St.
62 Front St. W.
(Opposite New Union Station)
1600 Yonge St.

EYESAVING BOND
REGISTERED

Insist on this watermark, visible in every full size sheet

Long hours of night study ahead of you?

Try EYESAVING BOND and avoid that "Tired Eye" feeling. Just try it. You will be surprised.

It has extra strength that resists tearing at the punching

For sale at your Book or Stationery Store

LUCKETT'S
STERLING
LINE
Made in Canada

Insist on this Trade Mark in all your Loose Leaf Books and Refills.

The Lockett Loose Leaf, Limited - Toronto

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps
6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1865

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you
consult Luke.
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

U.C. SENIOR FORMAL, Roof Gardens, Royal York Hotel, Wed., Mar. 7 Karl Mueller and his Varsity Entertainers $1.25 per couple

WOMEN'S SWIMMING MEET AT HART HOUSE ON WEDNESDAY

COLLEGE MEN

Seeking Summer Employment!

Maclean's Magazine offers students an opportunity by which they can earn money in worthwhile amounts (salary and bonus) during the summer vacation. The work is congenial—territory can be arranged by writing to the student sales manager. Write, call or phone to-day for particulars and interview, to Student Sales Managers, Room 46, 481 University Avenue, Toronto.

THE MACLEAN PUBLISHING CO. LTD.

FELT CRESTS

Official University felt crests are on sale at S.A.C. office, Hart House, or Room 82, University College.

50c.

To be worn only on University Blue. Suitable for sweater, gym suit or blazer.

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By M. A. F.

The big event in the women's sports world this week is the interfaculty swimming meet on Wednesday, March 7, in the Hart House pool. In a previous column we announced the time as 8.30, which is wrong. The meet is to begin at 8 p.m. and each college and faculty needs support. It looks as though U.C. and St. Hilda's will be fighting for the championship, as is usual in these meets. U.C. is counting on Kay Brown and Joyce Tedman to clinch the speed events. Even without Vi Ord, St. Hilda's plans to put forth a good showing and is looking to Ruth Knowlton to clinch a good number of points.

The preliminaries for the meet are to be held on Tuesday night at Hart House. This year these are not to be restricted to the plunge, diving, style and ornamental swimming. Any races in which there are more than ten contestants entered will be run off so that on Wednesday there will be only two heats in each event.

Monday, March 12 is the day of the badminton finals, which it is hoped will take place at the Granite Club courts. Vic, U.C., St. Mike's, St. Hilda's, Household Science and Public Health Nursing are scheduled to enter teams, and it promises to be a real tournament.

The Varsity women's hockey team played Port Dover on Friday night; for a good time it was great, but not so for hockey. Incidentally Port Dover won 4-1, but each of their four goals was decidedly feeble. Varsity's one point was the result of a spectacular shot which Billie Fowler made from the blue line. Weather, roads, etc., were so bad that by nine o'clock only one-half of our team had appeared. Port Dover lent us a goalie and the game began; the other half were on deck shortly. The game was an unusual ice which was a decided innovation for the Varsity team. It flatters that slush to call it ice, for it was so bad that they could hardly push the puck along. Stick-handling was impossible, and only by shooting was any headway made. Port Dover turned out

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

Lew Hayman and the boys that went down to Kingston and Montreal to polish off the intercollegiate basketball series were satisfied with the results in Kingston which were quite evident of the play of both teams. The score, 33-23, which gave Varsity a ten point lead, was secured in the second half mostly. The first half was very dull and slow. The game in Montreal will never be forgotten by those who saw it and had to put up with what was tolerated by both teams. McGill's team was almost as disgusted as were the Varsity players but not quite. Young and Lewin wanted to play overtime and settle the issue satisfactorily but the referee ruled otherwise.

With the score 33-31 for McGill, Gold shot from nearly centre at the side and right in front of the press table which gave us a perfect opportunity to view proceedings in this particular incident. After he shot the final ball rang; after that the shot scored and tied the game; after that the referee blew his whistle and disallowed the basket. His decision was illegal since he was so slow that he blew it after the game was over. It matters not how long after, whether it be a second or an hour; it just can't be done. He disallowed another basket in the first half when Gordon made a long pass to Mitchell who shot and scored. As Gordon passed, a spectator blew a whistle of his own but Mitchell went on in and scored. As he shot, the referee, having heard the offending whistle, blew his own and stopped the play, ruling out Varsity's two points. There again he was wrong because with the ball in play and one team in possession, he had no right to do so according to the rules. The same case holds good if an injury occurs. Play cannot be stopped by the referee without the consent of the team in possession. All the reasoning and remonstrances of Captain Mitchell and Coach Hayman made no difference. He simply let the game go wild, which spoiled the contest for both teams and the fans besides, even though it was exciting and close all the way. Coach Van Wagner and the McGill team were very sportsmanlike in their attitude as were the McGill rooters. It was unfortunate and that's all there is to it.

The student farmers rather took the wind out of Western's, McMaster's and Varsity's sails Saturday night in the intermediate assault at Guelph. Varsity took one event and that was won by Jim Van Allan of St. Mike's in the 175 lb. wrestling class. Western took a boxing title and the rest of the 13 events were taken by the defending titleholders from O.A.C. Will someone give us three good reasons why O.A.C. should be excluded from the senior assault?

A team representing Hart House visited the Hamilton Squash Club on Saturday afternoon and made virtually a clean sweep of the matches which were played, losing only one of the ten. Playing for Hart House were McCutcheon, Noyes, Woods, Centner, Draper, Crowson, Gunn, Pivnick, Boegel and Aldridge. After the match the visiting Hart House team was entertained at a banquet given by the Hamilton Squash Club at the Royal Connaught Hotel.

Thanks again to the masterhead of The Queen's Journal who entertained the Sports Editor of The Varsity so royally in Kingston.

Congratulations to the coach and players of the Varsity intermediate basketball team who won the intercollegiate title Saturday night by virtue of their win over O.A.C. on a 29-21 score. Varsity juniors played O.A.C. jrs. and won 56-21. The final game against McGill was the ninth in 12 days for the seniors.

Congratulations are also in order for Tubby Bell, senior football snap, who was awarded the much-coveted bronze "S" by the graduating class of S.P.S. as the most outstanding athlete at School this year.

VARSITY SECONDS WIN CAGE TITLE

Outscore O. A. C. 29 to 21 to Capture Intercollegiate Crown

JUNIORS WIN 56-21

Saturday night in Hart House Mac McCutcheon's intermediate basketball squad brought the only intercollegiate title to Varsity when they defeated O.A.C. 29-21 in the second half of the night's twin bill. In the first contest the juniors took a one-sided 56-21 decision from the Aggie juniors.

The intermediate game was a close one right from the starting whistle with both teams fighting for a win. O.A.C. beat Varsity in their game in Guelph by one point mainly on long, risky passes, but it was a different team that invaded the big gym on Saturday. They broke away on the offensive with lightning swiftness and only the steady checking of the Varsity guards kept them from running up a high score. Their defence was of the live-man, zone type and bothered the Blue forwards for a while so that close to the end of the first half Varsity were on the short end of a 10-6 score. Applebaum and Gibson were sent in with instructions to tie it up and in the last minute they each scored once to make the half-time count 10-10.

After the interval Varsity came out and scored 12 points while O.A.C. were stalling two free throws. The Agriculturists had plenty of fight left, however, and in spite of the fact that their star forward, Hutchinson, suffered a sprained ankle and had to drop out of the game in this period they drew closer and closer with some nicely executed plays. The Blues matched their speed and combination and baskets by Stronach, Gibson and Applebaum kept them out in front.

The highlight of the junior game was Pete Kinsey's score of twenty points. Krakauer and Stoughton were not far behind, collecting ten each.

Intermediates—Varsity — Young 2, Applebaum 9, Vanderleek 2, Newman 1, Stronach 9, Mitchell 2, Gibson 4, Henderson.

O.A.C. — Brechin 4, Hutchinson 5, Aude 5, Thorpe 5, Aitken 2, Cook, Buchanan, Alexander.

Juniors—Varsity — Miller 6, Kinsey 20, Harlock 6, Stoughton 10, Krakauer 10, Mullin, Doon 4.

O.A.C. — Monnell 11, Pannet 6, Stuart 2, Swain 5, Gauthier, Hunter, Barret.

VARSITY COMPLETES BASKETBALL SEASON

(Continued from Page 1)

Two quick hoops by Small as the second half opened put McGill in the lead again but two baskets by Gordon and Mitchell closed the gap for the "Pumpkin" time. Shortly afterwards the game was tied up at 20-all and then again at 22-all. Gold set up another long shot, Bodrug made a smart play boring in on the McGill basket only to pass to Gordon for a hoop as Bodrug and Gold were taken out of

CLOSING DEBATE AT HART HOUSE

(Continued from Page 1)

The elections to the debates committee for the ensuing year will take place at this debate. The members are reminded that ballots will be given out until the beginning of the third speech on the paper and the voting will commence at 9.30. It is of special note that no voting will take place until 9.30 and that no ballots will be given out after the commencement of the third speech. All candidates are advised to send their names into the warden's office beforehand if they intend to speak.

At the debate, which is of great significance at the present time, several prominent proponents of the League of Nations may speak if the time allows. Preference will be given to candidates for the committee who wish to speak.

features all the newest works of fiction—only 3c. a day per volume.

Library—Street Floor

THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

EATON AUDITORIUM

SATURDAY, MARCH 10th

At 2.30 p.m. and 8.30 p.m.

MACBETH

Matinee

General Admission 25c

Reserved Seats 50c

Evening 50c, 75c and $1.00 Plus Tax

Special Student Rates for Evening Performance

Phone Orders AD. 0575

University Crest Pins or Fings

Faculty Crest Pins and Guards

Small things no doubt, and perhaps a bit expensive, but they surely help you carry throughout the remainder of your life, memories of some of life's happiest years.

Make sure they are made to last and bear our name and guarantee.

A. E. EDWARDS

Insignia Jeweller

22 YONGE ST. ARCADE

ELGIN 3669

TORONTO

OLD FRAMED PRINTS

This week only

$1.00 each

Old flower prints
Old Canadian Prints
Old sporting prints

MARY MARY

29 Bloor St. East

THE EPICURE GRILL

AND TEA ROOM upstairs

opp. Eaton's College St.
433 YONGE STREET

Special attention to Students

Full Course Meals from 25c. up

We serve economical plate luncheon 20c.

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit

for the coming dance.

They are up to the minute.

Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Special rates for students.

Two stores to serve you.

FREEMAN'S

256 College Street
KI. 0891

571 Yonge Street
KI. 3270

the play by their checks. Gordon came right back with another to give Varsity a 28-22 margin but Young and Gormley scored to keep the Redmen in the battle. Gold took another shot from outside which missed by an inch but Bodrug popped it back up and in. The pace became terrific as both teams turned it on with everything they had. Gormley scored again on a fake to make it 30-28 for Varsity. Gordon was hacked by Lewin and sank his charity throw. Lewin was given two free throws when Sniderman brought him down while shooting and the McGill captain made one of them. Gormley tied the game up with one and a half minutes to go at 31-31 with a fast dog shot. Gormley put the game on ice a moment later when he sank a free throw to make it 32-31 and another to make it 33-31. Varsity tried to draw a deliberate foul in the dying seconds of the game as a means of securing possession but were unsuccessful. Don Young was forced to make an exit with two minutes to go

(Continued on Page 4)

The U.C. Lit Elections will be held Tuesday, March 6th, in the Junior Common Room, from 11 a.m. to 2.15 p.m.
All University College Men are eligible to vote.

To be really smart in that little space between shoe top and skirt bottom—this is really all you need to know—

1st... that you wear No. 5000 hose.

2nd... that you wear—Shadow with Green or Grey Mink with Green or Navy Tobacco with Black or Brown Peter Pan with any costume Mirage with Wine, Brown or Black Smokestone with Gunmetal or Black.

No. 5000

Full fashioned, of all silk chiffon. So breathlessly sheer—so beautifully dull. Worn by discriminating women everywhere

$1.00

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
 (Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
 Phone KI. 8800
 4 other shops in Toronto

A professor of Latin and Greek
 Can smoke cigarette like a tank.
 But it's not for his knowledge
 Folks are joining his college
 But the odd BRITISH CONSOLS
 to sneak.

10 for 10c. — 25 for 25c.
 and in lots of 50's and 100's

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

BRITISH CONSOLS
 COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.
 Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL
 Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

Coming Events

MONDAY, MARCH 5
 5 p.m.—The Music Group will meet with Mme. de Kress in Wymilwood.

TUESDAY, MARCH 6
 5.00 p.m.—T.L.C.C.U., Wymilwood.
 Speaker, Rev. William Allan.
 6-8 p.m.—U.C. men's S.C.M. Supper party. Speaker, Dr. Thomas. Subject, "Should the Church take any part in State affairs?"
 Trinity College Science Club open meeting. Prof. Parks, "Dinosaurs".

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7
 4.15 p.m.—"An Academic Problem" by True Davidson, at the U.C. Players' Guild.

9-11—U.C. Senior Formal Dance, Roof Garden, Royal York Hotel.
Hart House Elections.
 8 p.m.—Oriental Society holds its final meeting at Dr. W. R. Taylor's. Address by J. Halpern.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8
 8.15—Meeting of the Italian-Spanish Club in Wymilwood. Everyone is requested to come, as the annual nominations and elections for next year are taking place.

4 p.m.—Closing session of U.C. Parliamentary Club.
Hart House Debates Committee Elections.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9
 8.30 p.m.—Student League of Canada theatre night and dance, New Theatre, Labor Lyceum, Spadina Ave.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10
 8 p.m.—T.L.C.C.U., 48 Mountview Ave. (Bloor, Keele).

8.30 p.m.—Honour Science Club dollar dance at Malloney's Art Galleries.
 9 p.m.—Kappa Kappa Gamma subscription dance, Crystal Ballroom, King Edward Hotel, Romanelli's orchestra.

TUESDAY, MARCH 13
 5 p.m.—T.L.C.C.U., Wymilwood, Elections.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14
 6.30—Graduation banquet, 374 U.C. women, Royal York Hotel, mezzanine floor, Room 9. Admission by ticket only.

SATURDAY, MARCH 17
 8.30 p.m.—"Les Bons Vivants", Toronto Jewish Journalists' Fraternity, centennial dance at the Oak Room of the Toronto Union Station. For reservations, Ha. 9934 or GL 1283.

SUNDAY, MARCH 18
 9 a.m.—Holy Communion, Hart House Chapel.

PROFESSOR CASSIDY SHOWS EXPLOITATION

(Continued from Page 1)
 valuable information about Canadian economic conditions that has hitherto not been available to students of the economic scene in Canada. Certainly those of us who are trying to teach economics here with altogether inadequate data at our command will have cause to be very grateful to this investigation.

"What are the chief arguments of those who oppose a minimum wage law for men?" we asked after Professor Cassidy for various reasons had refused to answer several other questions.

"The argument most commonly employed," was the reply, "is that men are capable of looking after themselves and that the factor of competition will see that wages are adequate. But this hardly holds at the present time. Also trade unions feel that protection of wages by law will discourage workers from joining the unions."

VARSITY COMPLETES BASKETBALL SEASON

(Continued from Page 3)
 for four persons. Normie Newman went on and as he bored his way to the basket was shoved out of bounds. McGill was given possession and kept the ball under control with Varsity trying desperately to get their hands on it. Then came the big moment of the contest which resulted in Varsity's loss at the hands of the referee who ruled out the tying basket by Gold. The latter, who has won several games for Varsity in the past two seasons with last second scores, dribbled up the floor, crossed the centre line and let the ball go. With the ball in mid-air the timekeeper rang the final gong. The shot was dead on and rippled the twine with a swish but just as it went through the rim the referee blew his whistle and disallowed the basket. He claimed that Gold had taken a double dribble. The heat of the contest brought the crowd down from the benches to learn the referee's decision and turned away disappointed that there would be no overtime to settle the issue.

Varsity's 31 points consisted of 13 baskets and 5 free throws from 8 attempted. McGill scored 11 baskets and 9 foul shots from 15 awarded.

Queen's — Finley, Rooke 3, Brown 4, Bews 6, McGill 7, Somshie 1, Eby 2.
 Varsity — Bodrug 7, Willis 3, Sniderman 4, Gold 4, Prince, Gordon 9, Levy, Newman 2.

Referee — Percy Miller, Toronto.
 McGill — Lewin 12, Gormley 10, Young 3, Ross, Bowes, Conklin, Scriver, Small 8.

Varsity — Bodrug 4, Willis 2, Sniderman 2, Mitchell 4, Gold 6, Gordon 13, Prince, Levy, Newman.
 Referee — S. O. Levy, Montreal.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

U.C. PARLIAMENTARY CLUB

The closing session of the U.C. Parliament will be held on Thursday, March 8th at 4 p.m. His Excellency the Governor-General will prorogue the House. Topic: "That this House congratulates the city of Toronto on attaining her 100th birthday." M. M. Pivnick, Prime Minister; G. A. Martin, Leader of the Opposition.

U.C. MEN'S S.C.M.

Dr. Thomas will speak on the subject, "Should the Church take any part in State affairs?" at a supper party to be held in the S.C.M. library in Hart House on Tuesday, March 6th from 6.8 p.m. Meet at S.C.M. office at 6 p.m. for supper in Great Hall or at 6.45 in library for the meeting. Everyone welcome.

VICTORIA

Final S.C.M. supper party will be held in Wymilwood, Tuesday, March 13. Rev. Stanley G. Russell will speak on "Albert Schweitzer". Everybody invited. 6-8 p.m.

GRADUATION BANQUET

U.C. women, Wednesday, March 14, Royal York Hotel, Mezzanine floor. Please return cards immediately and buy tickets on Monday, March 12, and Tuesday, March 13 in U.C. rotunda and rotunda of Lillian Massey between 12-2. Admission by ticket only.

T. I. C. C. U.

The Rev. William Allan, who is known to many who have heard his morning meditations, will be the guest speaker at an open meeting of the T.L.C.C.U. at Wymilwood at five tomorrow afternoon. All interested are cordially invited.

VIC DRAMATICS

Symphonic Pathetic by Sidney Box, will be presented in Hart House Theatre, Wed, March 9 at 5 o'clock by Evelyn Stewart's group.

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

The U.C. Players' Guild presents "An Academic Problem" by True Davidson on Wednesday, March 7th at 4.15 p.m. in the Women's Union.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Singing meeting under direction of Mr. Sly, Thursday, March 8, at 5 p.m. in Hart House Music Room. Prospective members especially invited and present members are urged to bring friends. Further singing meetings are planned and those interested are asked to watch Hart House Notice Board for announcements.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

There will be a practice for the University team from 5 to 6 p.m. on Tuesday. There are a number of the members who have not yet received their tickets for the Association banquet on Wednesday night. They may obtain their tickets by dropping down to the range any time between 5 and 6 p.m. on Tuesday. Don't miss the banquet.

SYMPHONY TICKETS

Special student tickets for the Toronto Symphony concert tomorrow night will be on sale at the Hall Porter's desk from 12 noon to 2 p.m. Tuesday.

U.C. SENIOR FORMAL

Tickets will be on sale in the rotunda, U.C., and the Economics Bldg., from 12.2 p.m. today, Tuesday and Wednesday. Seniors are advised to purchase their tickets promptly, as the number is limited and tickets will be sold to other years if a sufficient number are not purchased by seniors in the near future.

VIC VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

For this week two interesting groups have been planned. On Tuesday at 5 p.m. in Room 14, Prof. J. B. Ferguson will speak on Industrial Research, and in Room 18, Messrs. C. Lear White, and M. G. Wyatt will speak on Life Insurance. All Vic men are invited to attend these groups.

LECTURE DEMONSTRATION

A lecture demonstration of "The Children's Crusade" by Pierre to be given by the Toronto Symphony Orchestra and choir on Tuesday, 6th March, will take place in Hart House Theatre at 5 p.m. tonight.

AGGIE FIGHTERS SWAMP OPPONENTS

(Continued from Page 1)
 Leod (W); Counsell (O.A.C.) def. Brunkle (V).

165—Marks (O.A.C.) def. Stewart (W); Marks (O.A.C.) def. O'Kell (V).

WRESTLING

118—McAlpine (O.A.C.) def. Henderson (McM).

125—Taylor (O.A.C.) def. Scherr (McM); Holden (V) def. Lockhart (W); Taylor (O.A.C.) def. Holden (V).

135—Minnaker (T) def. Anderson (W); Rattle (O.A.C.) def. Minnaker (T).

145 — Beach (W) def. Hummsett (T); Shackleton (O.A.C.) def. Orlick (M); Shackleton (O.A.C.) def. Beach (W).

155—Sutton (T) def. Dunan (W); Hagey (O.A.C.) def. Owen (M); Hagey (O.A.C.) def. Sutton (T).

175—Willis (W) def. Telford (M); Van Allen (T) def. Vickars (O.A.C.); Van Allen (T) def. Willis (W).

SALLY LUNN DISCUSSES STEVENS COMMITTEE

(Continued from Page 1)
 from employees, who naturally are hesitant in doing this through fear of being discharged if their complaints are acted upon. At present there is no effective means of preventing employers from retaliating on those employees who enter complaints. Although employers are forced to send in annual questionnaires to the Wage Board, these can often be falsified, and unless there are complaints from the employees there is little likelihood of detection. Employers are all too willing to risk the small fine usually imposed after conviction as they have more than made it up beforehand.

EATON'S

"THE TYROLEAN" A NEW STYLE IN Eaton's HATS

The idea for this new style came from Switzerland. For years Tyrolean mountaineers have worn a cone of felt twisted up at the back and decorated with a feather. Now, a clever adaptation of this Tyrolean hat has been created into a smart new style for young men who want something different in headwear. It has a rakish line. Worn low in the back, and up at the front as sketched. The snap brim and extreme taper crown make it a hat that will take lots of abuse and still look clever on the head. In light grey, green and blue-grey. Sizes 6 1/2 to 7 1/2.

Main Floor—Queen Street

T. EATON & CO. LIMITED

"Ere, beat that.
 Yer busby hat.
 It trims them all a mile.
 It's the throat-easy blend
 With pleasure no end—
 Smoke
Buckingham
 —and Smile."

It's "Throat-Easy"

Copyrights and Patents

J. R. Cadwell, M.A.
 Barrister, Solicitor, etc.
 800 Bloor St. East
 Ra. 2121-2122

ELECTION BLOTTERS

600—$2.25 1000—$3.50
KENWOOD 0946

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)
 characteristic of the Quartet is its sense of utter failure and weakness. The word "weakness" must be emphasized. There is no heroism in the struggle: there is nothing but devastating futility. This is a vital point, for in some works which represent tragic conflict, a basic strength in the writer's spirit is revealed. But in this no strength exists at all. Take the phrase which opens the second movement: it has no artistic coherence or force. But the movement altogether builds up an altogether crushing effect, born of sheer weakness and wildness. The power of the work comes not in any sense from a personal grip, but from the wonderful ability of the composer in creating "musically" the sense of personal annihilation. The portions of the work which relieve the frenzy of the rest make this even clearer: for what repose there is comes not from any kind of triumph, not from rising above the tumult, but from an attempt to lose one's defeated soul in the "harmony of nature".

In memory of the late Sir Edward Elgar, the quartet played the most attractive movement of Elgar's Quartet in E Minor. The sensuously lovely Ravel Quartet in F Major contrasted effectively with the Bloch. The Ravel, incidentally, will be remembered by those who heard it played at the first Sunday Evening Concert last October. N.F.L.

Victoria College "Buy a Blazer" Week, Mar. 5-10 Newly adopted Official Blazer with Crest, on display in College Hall

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, MARCH 9th, 1934

No. 99

$15,000 BEQUEST LEFT TO VARSITY BY PROF. WRIGHT

Former Vice-President and Biology Professor at Varsity

OIEO LAST SUMMER

To Establish Scholarship for Zoological Research

A bequest of $15,000 has been left to the University of Toronto in the will of the late Professor R. Ramsay Wright, authorities were notified yesterday. Professor Wright, who died last summer in Edinburgh, was before his retirement Professor of Biology and Vice-President of this University.

Besides being an internationally known biologist, he was also a multi-linguist. Each summer he went to Europe and mastered a new language. At the time of his death he was engaged in translating a treatise on astrology written in 1482 by an Arab, Al Biruni Tathim. Professor Ramsay Wright took photostat copies of the original manuscript which is in the Bibliothèque Nationale, in Paris. He prepared a glossary and had done about half the work of translation before his death. In his will he directed that this work and all his notes should be sent to the Library of the University of Toronto. The three volumes along with his academic gowns and hood reached President Cody yesterday afternoon. The books will be on display in the University Library in a few days.

Professor Ramsay Wright also directed that his estate be divided evenly between the University of Toronto and the University of Edinburgh. Although the exact amount is not yet known, it is expected that this University will receive about $15,000. This amount will be used to establish a scholarship for the encouragement of research in zoology.

Coming Events

FRIDAY, MARCH 9

Last day for nominations for Commerce Club executive.

8.30 p.m.—Student League of Canada theatre night and dance, New Theatre, Labor Lyceum, Spadina Ave.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10

3.30 p.m.—Professor A. H. Young on "Toronto: How and Why It Grew". Trinity College Library. 100th anniversary of the city.

8 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., 48 Mountainview Ave. (Bloor, Keele)

8.30 p.m.—Honour Science Club dollar dance at Mallory's Art Galleries.

9 p.m.—Kappa Kappa Gamma subscription dance, Crystal Ballroom, King Edward Hotel, Romanelli's orchestra.

MONDAY, MARCH 12

8 p.m.—Women's Union, W.U.A. mass meeting. Reports, nominations, refreshments, fashion show. All U.C. women welcome.

TUESDAY, MARCH 13

4.30 p.m.—Final meeting of the University Women's Press Club at the Women's Union. Original work meeting. Bring your contributions for "Youth Tells". Elections for next year's executive. Everybody out. Tea.

1.30 p.m.—Commerce Club spring luncheon in the Great Hall, Hart House. Free for members.

10 a.m.-1 p.m.—Commerce Club elections in Economics Building.

5 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., Wymilwood, Elections.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14

8 p.m.—C.C.F. Club, Wymilwood. Mr. (Continued on Page 4)

Staff Notice

Members of The Varsity staff will hold their formal dinner and dance at Hart House on Wednesday evening, March 14 at 7 p.m. sharp. Anyone arriving later than 7.15 will not be served. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.

Anyone desirous of attending the party and who has not yet signed the list must communicate with the committee at once.

FINAL GATHERING OF C.C.F. CLUB

Mr. Thomas Cruden to Speak on Place of Labour in C. C. F.

A VITAL QUESTION

Next Wednesday the C.C.F. Club concludes its activities for the present year with an open meeting at Wymilwood at 8 p.m. The meeting will be addressed by Mr. Thomas Cruden representative of Ontario on the National Council of the C.C.F.

The main theme of the address and the discussion that will follow will be the position occupied by labour in the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation. This is particularly a vital question at the present time when the final status which will be held by the Labour Conference in this province is so much in doubt. Whether the more radical elements of the labour group in Ontario will be allowed to retain their membership in the C.C.F. in Ontario cannot be foreseen. It is then very appropriate that one who has been for twenty years intimately connected with the labour movement in this province should explain to the university club the main currents that are at present agitating the surface of the movement at the present time.

The final meeting will serve to round out the programme of the year. Among others, the C.C.F. has heard Mr. Woodworth, the president of the Federation, who spoke in a general way of the aims and the difficulties of the movement. Mr. Graham Spry, who spoke on the first plank of the C.C.F. platform, planning; Mr. Frank Underhill, who spoke on the constitutional problems involved in the execution of the programme, and Mr. H. H. Hannam, of the United Farmers of Ontario, who spoke from the point of view of the farmers. At this meeting the viewpoint of the labour group in the Federation will be presented by one whose experience in the movement has been long and intimate.

TWO TEAMS RACE FOR JENNINGS CUP

Trinity and Education Are Eliminated in Semi-Finals

FAVOUR SCARLET AND GOLO

Once again, as in the conclusion of every year since the turn in the century we find the powers in the inter-faculty circles plunged into the last lap of their war for the right to hold the Jennings Cup for the coming year. Trinity, Victoria, O.C.E. and S.P.S. survived their group eliminations and entered the finals, but already Trinity has met with elimination. Victims of the speedy attack of the hard fighting Engineers, Victoria are at present enjoying a three-point lead over O.C.E. whom they face tonight in the final fixture of their two game series.

The semi-finals are as usual being declared on the two games, goals on the round basis. In the first fixture Trinity and School tangled at the Arena, and the Engineers fought their (Continued on Page 4)

RUTH KNOWLTON CAPTURES HONORS AT AQUATIC MEET

University College Leads by Scoring 25
Points

ST. HILOA'S SECONO

Kay Brown and Joan Knowlton Are the High Scorers for U.C.

U.C. again captured the women's inter-faculty swimming title on Wednesday night in Hart House by a convincing margin, although Ruth Knowlton of St. Hilda's swam off with the individual honours, collecting 25 points. Kay Brown and Joan Knowlton starred for U.C. with 17 and 16 points respectively.

Long Plunge — I, R. Knowlton; 2, S. Currelly (V); 3, M. McCullough (St. H.). Distance, 62' 6".

Free Style, 50 yards — 1, K. Brown; 2, J. Tedman (C); 3, B. Cummings (H.Sc.). Time, 30 2.5.

Diving — I, R. Knowlton; 2, K. Brown; 3, B. Cummings.

Back Stroke, 25 yards — 1, K. Brown; 2, B. Cummings; 3, M. Stevens (C). M. Hall (St.H.) (seq.). Time, 17 4.5.

Ornamental Swimming — 1, J. Knowlton; 2, R. Knowlton; 3, M. Stevens.

Breast Stroke, 50 yards — 1, B. Cummings; 2, J. Knowlton; 3, E. Palmer (St.H.). Time, 45.

Style Swimming — 1, J. Knowlton; 2, R. Knowlton; 3, B. Guest (C).

Relay Race — U.C. Team Score — U.C. 44 1-2, St. Hilda's 27 1-2, Hs. Sc. 11, Vic 3.

Individual Winner — Ruth Knowlton (U.C.), 25.

Diving Championship—Ruth Knowlton (U.C.).

BASEBALL SCHEDULE NEARING COMPLETION

The inter-faculty baseball playoffs are well on their way. Sr. U.C. are leading group I with two wins while Jr. Vic has one win and one loss while Jr. S.P.S. occupying the cellar position with two losses. Each team plays four games, meeting each team twice and the squad finishing with the most number of wins is one finalist. Dents and O.A.C. play off for the right to meet Sr. Vic and determine a second finalist.

This afternoon Sr. U.C. and Jr. Vic for the second time in what promises to be a keenly contested fixture since the United Church boys have to stop the Redmen from clinching a position on the top rung of the playoff ladder. Last Thursday the two teams met and the U.C. nine came out on top after a 6-5 seven inning battle.

Wednesday afternoon Jr. Vic sadly (Continued on Page 3)

HART HOUSE ELECTIONS

Results of the elections for Hart House committees were announced Wednesday night. Complete figures may be obtained from Mr. Cowan, Assistant Comptroller of Hart House, who was chief returning officer.

HOUSE COMMITTEE

W. R. Alexander, III S.P.S.; R. J. Brennan, II Trinity; S. T. Flynn, II Trinity; N. C. S. Goldring, III Wycliffe; P. B. J. Hussey, II St. Michael's; B. Penlington, I Victoria; B. T. Rogers, III Medicine; W. W. Secombe, II U.C.

HALL COMMITTEE

C. L. Annis, III S.P.S.; R. E. Bates, II S.P.S.; R. G. Burrows, II Trinity; G. Campbell, II U.C.; J. L. Farrar, II Forestry; B. B. McNeerney, II St. Michael's; W. S. Rogers, I Trinity; B. L. Smith, III Victoria; A. F. Taylor, V Medicine.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE

S. H. Ambrose, II Trinity; C. N. Brebner, III Medicine; C. F. Carter, II St. Michael's; A. DeMaio, II S.P.S.; G. H. Jack, II Victoria; A. W. M. Kirkpatrick, I U.C.; G. K. McKeown, II Dentistry; F. G. Walker, I S.P.S.

MUSIC COMMITTEE

P. A. Bridle, I U.C.; H. J. Bright, IV Medicine; R. L. Campbell, II S.P.S.; P. Cremasco, II St. Michael's; D. C. Geddes, III Dentistry; H. V. Rice, IV Medicine; C. Stangeby, II Forestry; J. G. Warden, I Trinity.

SKETCH COMMITTEE

A. H. Armstrong, I S.P.S.; R. A. Daly, II U.C.; G. R. Hall, IV Medicine; E. M. Henry, II St. Michael's; J. A. Kemp, I Trinity; R. C. Mitchell, IV S.P.S.; O. J. Rowe, II Victoria; B. N. Smith, II S.P.S.

SQUASH COMMITTEE

F. S. Leibel, J. V. McCutcheon, A. A. Mutteroff, C. G. Robinson, all of U.C.

WOMEN DEBATORS DECIDE 'VARSITY' REPRESENTATIVE

"Minus all faults, would The Varsity be representative of the University of Toronto?" asked Miss Mary Matthews of University College, speaking for the negative on the motion: "Resolved that The Varsity is an Inferior Publication to be Representative of such a University as Toronto."

"The name University stands for all activities and interests that have being under the University crest, and the first requisite of our publication is that it represent every phase of life on the campus. This it does well," asserted Miss Matthews. "Music and art are handled intelligently and the world news is adequate and stimulating. The Cat wanders sometimes from the 'straight and narrow', and there is occasional obscene humour, but The Varsity cannot be perfect as it represents the whole of the undergraduate body."

Miss Jean Ross and Miss Harriet Christie of Victoria College, speaking for the affirmative, objected that too much space is used for sports and not (Continued on Page 3)

HOUSE APPROVES OF LEAGUE; DEBATES COMMITTEE IS ELECTED

Athletic Directorate Elections

The annual elections of the Athletic Directorate will be held on Thursday next, March 15th at 4 p.m. All nominations must be filed in the office of the Athletic Association by 1 o'clock tomorrow.

STUDENTS' STATUS TOPIC OF DEBATE

V.C.U. Considers Third Year Pass Students as Juniors

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE

The status of students of the three year pass course became the topic of a rather lively debate at an open meeting of the Victoria College Union at five o'clock yesterday. The attitude has been taken that a student in the final year of the three year course is a junior, and is not eligible for the senior offices at Victoria College. This policy was set forth in a recommendation to the chief returning officer from the executive of the Union at the recent election. M. Devitt became a minority of one to oppose the motion to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Devitt claimed that this was unfair discrimination against the student in the pass course. The chairman explained that the matter was too complicated to permit a speedy solution, because of the option which the pass course student has, of entering the General course at the end of his second year. The matter was referred to a committee of five, appointed to investigate the problem.

BASKETBALL TEAMS NEAR SEMI-FINALS

Eight Teams Still in Running for Inter-faculty Title

JUNIOR MEDS FAVOURITES

As the smoke clears after a hard fought schedule of inter-faculty basketball games, eight teams are still in the race for the inter-faculty cage title. The eight remaining teams are Junior Meds, last year's titlholders, Senior S.P.S., finalists last year, Senior Meds, Senior U.C., Emmanuel, Knox, Forestry and O.C.E. By Saturday afternoon two more teams will have passed out of the picture as Forestry and O.C.E. play off for their group title tonight and Emmanuel and Knox will meet tomorrow night to decide their group winner.

Of the six teams which will enter the semi-finals four have yet to lose a game. All this means that the competition is bound to be keen and some interesting games should be displayed by the various teams. Junior Meds, on their record to date, are still the (Continued on Page 3)

Professor Parks Honoured

Professor W. A. Parks, head of the Department of Geology here and Director of the Royal Ontario Museum of Palaeontology, has been elected Fellow of the Royal Society, London, Eng., it was learned officially by the University yesterday. This honour has been accorded Professor Parks in recognition of his life work and his contribution to science.

House Expresses Approval of Canada's Connection with League

MOTION DEFEATED 120-77

Dr. W. L. Grant Strongly in Favour of Continuance and Against Motion

Hart House, last night, expressed approval of a continuance of Canada's connection with the League of Nations by a vote of 120 to 77.

Mr. S. M. Hermant, in introducing a motion to terminate Canada's membership in the League, dwelt on the fact that Canada's support of the League would inevitably involve her in European wars. Mr. H. V. Rice, in leading the opposition, stressed the fact that as we were all seeking peace, we must support the League.

Mr. G. K. Drynan spoke third, and the opposition was supported by Professor N. A. M. Mackenzie.

Mr. W. L. Grant, Headmaster of Upper Canada College, as Honorable Visitor, spoke earnestly against the motion.

The annual election of the Debates Committee followed. The members chosen to serve on this committee for 1934-35 are: A. D. Harris, I St. Michael's; A. D. B. Marshall, II U.C.; R. J. Miller, II St. Michael's; N. M. Pivnick, III U.C.; S. F. Rae, II U.C.; A. C. Smith, II U.C.

Inconsequence

IMPRESSIONS OF TWO PIANISTS

The fact of Walter Gieseking coming to Toronto within two months of Josef Hofmann, makes it inevitable that these two giants will be compared. Such comparisons are only for the purpose of seeking the truth, and are not meant to belittle anybody. In this spirit I write this article, recording what I do not claim to be anything but my own impressions.

A few weeks ago, after I reviewed Hofmann, Mr. Augustus Bridle saw fit to write a column in The Star, which contained the following observations:

"The young lady who criticised Hofmann for 'Varsity' found half his programme 'distasteful'. He played no 'modern' music. This giant was hopelessly of 'the old school'." The whole article is written indignantly, and with the assumption that I had in mind Gershwin and his school as an effective contrast, or at any rate, that I despised music written before the twentieth century. Referring to Menchinn, and his romantic strands of feeling, he asks sarcastically: "Will any ingenuitè think he is of 'the old school'?"

I forgive Mr. Bridle for mistaking my sex, but not for mistaking my meaning. I had in mind nothing like jazz, or the music of very young artists. Rather, I was thinking of first-rate piano playing of what seemed to me a more modern cast, and of this Gieseking is the crowning glory. With Gieseking, there is a sensitivity to detail, a grasp of the finest dynamic and tonal subtleties which makes his playing not only almost perfect, but positively hypnotic. This infinite delicacy seems to me much more modern in its significance, and much more fascinating than even the stirring force of Hofmann's conceptions and execution.

Gieseking is not, as Mr. Olin Downes emphasizes, a miniaturist, but a musician with real intellectual sweep: I do not, however, suggest that in that regard he is above Hofmann. But I do say that he is Hofmann's superior in sheer charm and in versatility. Whether in Mozart or Chopin or Debussy, Gieseking is entirely at home, extracting the purest essence of the music and giving it to the listener in all its boundless delight. He plays (Continued on Page 3)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms ..... Randolph 3730
Business Office ..... Midway 6221
Women's Office ..... Midway 6611

Editor-in-Chief ..... A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor ..... PATRICIA PALMER, '34

Business and Advertising Manager:
E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor—Patricia Palmer Assistant—Nora Loeb

FRIDAY, MARCH 9th, 1934

THE DINNER TO DEAN DELURY

On Wednesday evening the Students' Administrative Council, on behalf of the undergraduates of this University, gave a dinner in honour of Dr. Alfred D. DeLury, Dean of the Faculty of Arts, who is retiring at the end of this term. Fitting tribute was paid to Dr. DeLury for his wise administration, his personal influence with the students, and for his scholarship by Dr. Cody, Miss Jean Hunnisett and Mr. Gordon Skilling.

Dr. DeLury, in replying to the toast which was drunk to his health, with characteristic modesty, and with a certain well-known deftness at diverting a discussion into channels more congenial to his own laudable purposes, reiterated his faith in the integrity and wisdom of youth. He maintained that what little he may have been able to accomplish among students was due to their sanity and their anxiety to discover a solution to the problems that presented themselves which would redound to the credit of the University of Toronto.

No doubt these words represent Dr. DeLury's profound conviction, but we must be forgiven for eliding him for an overstatement of the truth. Those who have been closely connected with undergraduate affairs for the past six years know that had it not been for Dr. DeLury's patience, his sagacity and his unflinching sense of humour at critical periods, unseemly consequences would have followed situations created by rash and careless students. Dean DeLury, in his own quiet way, has shown us that complete self-government for the students at this University would never be in the best interests of the students or of the University.

The Varsity acknowledges its indebtedness to Dean DeLury for his wise counsel and sympathetic support on numerous occasions. We extend to him sincere congratulations upon the termination of his active connection with the U. of T. and wish for him continued opportunities for expression of that philosophy which has possessed his life and which he has so diligently imparted to his students by precept and example.

AN ADVANCE IN CANADIAN LITERARY CRITICISM

The scholar critic is a rarity in Canadian criticism. He is the critic of whom, at present, we have most need. Canadian literature will never take that turn for the better to which we all look forward, unless criticism is placed upon an authoritative basis.

The publication of Professor Edgar's Art of the Novel is a step in the right direction. The fruit of long study, the book reveals the careful judgment of the man, the scholar and the critic. Professor Edgar's recognition of the need for authoritative criticism is conditioned, but not limited by his academic position. And it is from scholars of his temper that we are most likely to get direction and depth in criticism.

To criticise with the Canadian public in mind is to be aware of the problem of partial culture in the audience addressed. Professor Edgar has attempted to solve this problem in part by publishing his book in two editions. The one is intended to provide an adequate text book for students of fiction, and, to our knowledge, contains the most complete bibliography of modern fiction in readily accessible form. In addition to this it contains notes and suggestions for class essays which are of use both to student and teacher. The second edition is intended for the common reader, and omits the notes. It is more attractively bound and more expensive.

Professor Edgar's approach to the study of fiction is through form, an approach with which, after his previous studies of Henry James, he is competent to deal. The book is the first to take up the suggestions thrown out by James concerning the importance of viewing fiction formally and duplicates no other study of the novel in its treatment.

With respect to the book as a college text, the approach through form offers minor difficulties. The field of fiction is so vast that it is impossible to give to the course dealing with the novel the same attention to technique as is given to courses which deal with poetry. And the importance of fiction in the field of literary history is intellectual rather than aesthetic; so that the James approach to the novel does not yield all that a University English course demands.

On the other hand, the formal approach is the most salutary and needful for the common reader. Fiction has long suffered from the lack of standards and analysis. Journalists have handled the reviewing of fiction with less sense of responsibility than the literary critics of poetry and essays, and have done much to confuse the standards of life and art in their judgment of the novel. Professor Edgar does much to put these standards back in their proper places, and his style, happily unites generalisation with documentation. His generalisations are expressed in concrete images which emphasise their point and make for brevity and distinctness. An example of this sound and forceful use of image is to be found on the second last page where the course of fiction is compared to a ship launched by Henry James.

Much of Professor Edgar's writing is informed with the urbanity of James' Prefaces, but he reveals a taste for the raw which would have disconcerted James. In remarks about William Faulkner he gives unqualified praise to the Sound and Fury, which cannot be considered satisfactorily from any formal standards. In this instance, Professor Edgar fails to apply with sufficient rigour the Jamesian ideal of clarity in the judgment of a work which needlessly complicates expression to no valid aesthetic purpose.

In his estimate of Joyce, however, Professor Edgar is more aware of this distinction, and he emphasizes the transitional importance of Ulysses, without giving sanction to disintegration as a fictional principle.

If his estimates of modern writers are just and temperate, with the exception of Faulkner, Professor Edgar reveals an even greater discrimination in his treatment of nineteenth century novelists. He reveals a singular ability to appreciate such writers as Dickens and Thackeray without undue reference to the sentimental attachment which all readers have formed for them in childhood; at the same time, being careful not to detract from their value through a superficial comparison to the modern school. To place the nineteenth century novelists in a clear light is even more difficult than to place the poets, since fictional standards have been formulated. This, Professor Edgar, depending upon a wide experience and sympathetic reading, has done.

There is, perhaps, not enough attention given to the Elizabethan novel, but since the book is a comprehensive one, this omission is not to be regretted unduly. Considered as a whole, the book is not only a valuable contribution to Canadian letters, but, by reason of its formal approach, is a contribution to international scholarship, and will do much to give Canadian criticism a higher place in the world.

Art, Music and Drama

A.C. Players' Guild

The most important Players' Guild meeting of the year will be held on Wednesday, March 14th at 4.15 p.m. in the Women's Union. The meeting will open with a short play, of which the director has refused to disclose even the title. We have done a little snooping on our own, however, and discovered that at least two prominent Guild actors will take part in the production.

This will be followed by the annual elections, which take place traditionally at the second last meeting of the year. The constitution will be read on this occasion. A Guild member of six years' standing will be present to enlighten the curious on various points in the organization of the Guild which have been subject to rather critical scrutiny of late. The outgoing executive will defend itself against the taunts of the populace.

After the election of the new executive, programmes will be suggested for next year and plans made for the improvement of the stage and equipment. At the end of the meeting tea will be served in the common room. A large turnout is expected as some positions on the executive will not be elected but will be open to volunteers.

St. Thomas' Church

Commemorating Toronto's Centennial the musical note of this programme presented by CFRB at 5.45 p.m. on Sunday is that of thanksgiving. We shall hear Handel's "Holy Art Thou", followed by an Aria from Mendelssohn's "Elijah", sung by another new soloist, Master Nelson Swift, the great hymn of thanksgiving "Te Deum", Stanford's setting, Goss's beautiful Lenten anthem "O Saviour of the World", and "Lord of our Life" set to the plainsong melody "Iste Confessor", with a specially arranged decant sung by the Choirboys.

Masses Hall

Last Tuesday night the Toronto Symphony, the Conservatory Choir, a Children's Chorus, and other singers, performed The Children's Crusade, by Perner. This work, typically French, is graceful and, in the last analysis, rather trivial, but none the less enjoyable for that. There is no really intense drama in the work, based on a tragic episode of 1212, but it has an attractive ebullience and flow, and in places, particularly at the end, the building (Continued on Page 4)

We observed in the Women's Varsity Office—a well-known sanctum of male reporters—a notice which runs very much like this.

(Continued on Page 4)

St. Paul's Church

Bloor Street East

THE RT. REV. R. J. RENISON,
Rector

University students are specially invited to the Sunday Evening Services at 7 o'clock.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

Huron Street—Just below Bloor

Holy Eucharists at 7 a.m., 8 a.m. and 9.30 a.m.

11 a.m.—Choral Eucharist
Litanies Sung in Procession Tallis
Missa Sung in E flat and Missa Sancta Maria Magdalena (Willan)

Preacher, The Rector.

7 p.m.—Choral Evensong
Preacher, The Rev. W. Lyndon Smith, M.A.

Antiphon, "O Saviour of the world"

Psalm 51, "Miserere mei, Deus" Goss
arr by Stainer

Broadcast of Choral Music over CFRB, 5.45 p.m.

Students' Handbook

Secretaries of all College and Faculty organizations and secretaries of all University clubs, Faculty and College clubs and societies are requested to hand in now to the Students' Administrative Council Office, Hart House, a list of the officers for the year 1934-35, together with their names and addresses for the 1934 edition of the Student's Handbook. Fraternities please note. Any changes in address or telephone numbers for the year 1934-1935 should be handed in now to the Students' Council Office.

"THE VARSITY"

Editor-in-Chief

Applications for the above position will be received by the Associate Secretary of the Joint Executive, Students' Administrative Councils, up to 1.00 p.m., Monday, March 26th, 1934, Room 82, University College.

(Miss) A. E. M. Parkes, B.A.,
Associate Secretary,
Students' Administrative Council.

TORONTONENSIS

1935

Applications for Editor of Torontonensis will be received by the Associate Secretary of the Joint Executive, Students' Administrative Council, up to 1.00 p.m., Monday, March 26th, 1934, Room 82, University College.

Students' Administrative Council.
Associate Secretary,
(Miss) A. E. M. Parkes, B.A.,

THIS IS MY FAVOURITE PRESCRIPTION

"When I've got a job of work to do, what's the first thing? I just naturally fill my pipe—with Picobac."

"And after supper—at the end of a long, hard day—when the time comes for a man to lean back in his chair and crack a smile with his friends—what do I do? Why, I light up my pipe and pass the Picobac. Of course I do. Just like I'm going to do again now."

"I want to tell you, gentlemen, the up-to-date Burley tobacco from Kentucky seed, such as we grow down here in Essex County now—along out Lake Erie from—cured... graded... matured and manufactured in Canada the way Picobac is today... well... it has the flavour. It has the fragrance. TRY it! That's all. "Good for making cigarettes, too—and don't forget, you get more tobacco for your money."

NEW SEAL-TIGHT POUCH 15¢
HANDY POCKET TIN 10¢
ALSO IN ½ POUND HUMIDOR TINS

"IT DOES TASTE GOOD IN A PIPE!"
Picobac
GROWN IN SUNNY, SOUTHERN ONTARIO

U.C. = VIC. = MEDS. = FORESTRY

1934 Graduates may now purchase their Faculty Pin or Ring at the MANUFACTURER'S price.

Pins with 374 Guard at 65c.
Sterling Signet Rings at $1.75 up.

LACKIE MANUFACTURING CO.

College and Society Jewellers

102-8 Lombard St. Elgin 8080.

EATON AUDITORIUM

SATURDAY, MARCH 10th

At 2.30 p.m. and 8.30 p.m.

MACBETH

Matinee

General Admission 25c

Reserved Seats 50c

Evening 50c, 75c and $1.00 Plus Tax

Special Student Rates for Evening Performance

Phone Orders AD. 0575

Students will appreciate the food and service at the ROUMANIAN GRILL, 276 College Street

Special rates for students. Full course meal, 25c.

SINCE 1843 WE HAVE HAD THE HONOUR OF SUPPLYING THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO WITH

HOODS, GOWNS, MORTAR-BOARD CAPS, ROBES, Etc.

We have imported the correct shades of silk, our patterns are authentic. Highest quality materials and workmanship.

HARCOURT AND SON, LIMITED

Clerical Tailors, Robe Makers

103 KING ST. WEST, TORONTO

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY
Travel Club of Toronto
Tenth Annual Tours

EUROPE BY MOTOR
OR
EUROPE BY TRAIN
AND MOTOR
Via St. Lawrence and North Atlantic

CRUISE TOURS
Azores, Lisbon, Gibraltar, Mallorca,
Delmatian Coast—prior to land tour

SAILINGS—June 28, 29, July 6, 14

Write for Descriptive Booklet
to G. H. LUCAS, Secretary
Block Bldg., 57 Bloor St. W., Toronto

You Do ... I Do ... We All Do

Do you like to sit down in comfort for a meal? Do you like a good variety on the menu? Do you like a little consideration for your wallet? and do you prefer ... well, not an unattractive girl to serve you? Maybe we're a little bit particular, but what the heck! You do, I do. We all do. And that's why we go to Murray's.

Murray's
GOOD FOOD

WEAR A VARSITY BLAZER

The ideal garment for Tennis, Boating and other summer sports. Varsity blazers are stylish and attractive in appearance. Men's and Ladies' sizes in stock.

$10.00

Orders authorizing the purchase of a blazer may be secured at the office of the S.A.C.

THE
HAROLD A. WILSON
COMPANY LIMITED
299 Yonge St., Toronto

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

U.C. demonstrated their ability to catch the interfaculty swimming honours, even without their erstwhile champion, Betty Edwards, when they piled up a total of 45 points. Kay Brown, a freshman, captured the speed events, and Joan Knowlton won the ornamental and style swimming. Altogether it was quite a night for the Knowltons, for Ruth, at St. Hilda's, in the individual honours and the diving championship. Billie Cummings deserves special mention—as a team of one from Household Science she won third place for that faculty with 11 points. R. Blomfield's exhibition was spectacular and certainly opened the eyes of the audience to the fine points of paddling one's own canoe.

The badminton tournament has been postponed from the 12th and will possibly be played on the 17th at the Granite Club. U.C.'s team is chosen and is stronger than ever with Dot Dempster and Kay Palmer, who were entered in the Dominion championship tournament last week, as well as Lolo Boehmer, Leonore Fraser and Mary MacFarland. There is a possibility that invitations will be extended to other universities to send representatives to a tournament to be held later—not strictly an intercollegiate affair, but the beginnings of one. In view of the prominence that badminton is gaining as a sport, this seems like a very good move.

BACH CHOIR

REGINALD STEWART
conductor
ST. JOHN PASSION
J. S. Bach
Full Orchestra
Eminent Soloists
CONVOCATION HALL
Mon., Mar. 19, 8.30
Reserved seats $1.65,
$1.10, 83c., tax included.
Special Reserved Tickets
for University Students
55c., tax included
On sale Hart House,
March 14th and 15th, 12
to 2 o'clock.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By B. J. McGuire

One more issue and The Varsity folds up its tent for the season, which reminds us that we come to bat for the last time tonight and start back to school in the morning. At such a time it is customary to pay pleasing compliments to all and sundry, but even the education we received as a result of the recently concluded elections leaves us still unable to compete with our political friends. However, we may frankly state that, on the whole, the athletes of Varsity have been very faithful in supplying us with copy even if the linotype operator did set a special lead which read, "Battling desperately against superior odds Varsity's hard fighting Blue team went down to a defeat".

The coming year will undoubtedly bring many changes but there are several things which to our mind are worthy of attention. One change we would like to see effected is the advent of O.A.C. into senior intercollegiate sport. The Aggies are fast approaching the position of the fighting champions who are unable to get a bout. To date the Guelph team has swept aside all opposition in the intermediate ranks and are still looking for new worlds to conquer but evidently they will have to continue looking. During the football season the intermediate squad coasted through for Dominion honours for the second time in two years. Application was made for admission into senior company but the powers that be said No. More recently they applied for admission into the senior B. W. & F. tournament, but Queen's blackballed them. Last week the Aggie B. W. & F. squad allowed only two points to the combined attacks of Western, McMaster and Varsity intermediates. This would certainly indicate that the Aggies are worthy of senior company and should not be forced to confine their activities to contests with second string teams.

Another change which strikes us as desirable is the return of St. Mike's to interfaculty sport. The Irish, one of the smallest faculties in the University, have always been well represented in competition. A misunderstanding, however, has removed the Double Blue from competition. At present we have the situation of a team of stars sweeping onwards to Dominion honours while the boys who were not quite good enough for the big time company remain inactive. If a remedy of this situation could be arrived at we believe it would be to the best interests of the college and the University.

INTERFACULTY BASKETBALL (Continued from Page 1)

favourites to repeat and as the squad is going great guns a present it will take a pretty good team to take them. The schedule for the playoffs has already been drawn up and the first game will be played next Monday.
Group One — Jr. Meds, winner of Group VI (Emmanuel or Knox), and Sr. U.C.

Group Two — Sr. S.P.S., Sr. Meds, winner of Group V (Forestry or O.C.E.).

PLAYOFF SCHEDULE

Mon. Mar. 12—Sr. Meds vs. Sr.

Have You a Summer Job?

Earn your fees and large bonus. Salary and transportation allowance.

75 Varsity men have done this in 3 years.

Apply Art Minden, 3T2, Alumni Office, Saturday, 10-12 a.m., Monday, 2-5 p.m.

CO-EDS

Get your Spring Outfit

Moderately Priced Dresses and Hats

Charmaine Shoppe

501 Bloor St. West, Near Borden St.

Purchases can be made with a small deposit and small weekly payments.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO CREST PINS or RINGS

(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.

Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

SPORTS STAFF OF 'VARSITY' HOLD LUNCHEON MEETING

Warren Stevens Pays Tribute to Work of 'Varsity' Reporters

Heartily commendation of the work of the sporting department of The Varsity and sincere appreciation of its work during the past year was expressed by Warren Stevens at an informal luncheon of the sports staff yesterday noon.

Declaring that, in his opinion, the New York Times presented to its readers one of the best sporting pages on the continent, Mr. Stevens lamented the fact that much sporting "copy" is written by men who know little more than the rudiments of the game and capture nothing of the "inside stuff" so interesting to the sporting fan.

we cater-- for dinners, luncheons, receptions, teas—for every formal or informal affair. Telephone the Arcadian Court Hostess--

ADelaide 8711

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

That young fellow blowing smoke-rings isn't the college idiot. He's merely a homesick freshman seeking advice. Which "Banjo Benny" gives him in two words—"Telephone home". Ben does it regularly—hence his contented look and rep for optimism. Why not try it out yourself?

For 30 cents
you can telephone about 100 miles

by making an "anyone" call (station-to-station) after 8.30 p.m. See list of rates in front of directory.

Crest Pins that are Distinctive

Did it ever occur to you, dear Reader, that when you leave "Varsity" you will have years ahead in which you will be mighty proud to wear the University Crest or perhaps your Faculty pin and guard?

Doesn't the old slogan seem true then—"It pays to buy the best"? Cheap pins last for months—ours for a lifetime.

A. E. EDWARDS

Insignia Jeweller

22 YONGE ST. ARCADE

ELGIN 3669 TORONTO

Sport Notices

Basketball—

Group playoff. 5 p.m. U.C. Srs. vs O.A.C. Big gym.

STUTTERING
Stammer no more. I overcame it. My free, helpful pamphlet and "Ten Commandments of Speech" will help you. Write W. Dennison, 11 St. Clair E., Toronto

Copyrights and Patents

J. R. Cadwell, M.A.
Barrister, Solicitor, etc.
300 BLOOR ST. EAST
Ra. 2121-2122

U.C. Women's Undergraduate Association Nominations Meeting

Fashion Show

Monday, March 12, at 8 p.m., 79 St. George Street

Refreshments

Now New Costume Slips

to enhance new Spring Costumes. Heavy quality real silk Crepe de Chine, in Tealose or White. Generous length with rich lace at the hem and yoke. Adjustable straps, too. You'll want lots of these at this $1.49 price

Military Panties

Perfectly tailored of Glue-silk or Ripplesilk. In Nile, Flesh, White or Tealose, with a smart White stripe up each side. Lovely and smooth under fitted frocks. An unusual value 89c.

Crepe de Chine Panties

In Tealose or White. Lavish treatment of lace. A fine addition to the spring wardrobe. 89c.

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)
Phone KI. 8800
4 other shops in Toronto

This joyous young couple, quite snappy. Have discovered a way to be happy. Just to ask for a smoke. They consider a joke—"You must say 'BRITISH CONSOLS,' Old Chapel!"

10 for 10c. — 25 for 25c. and in tins of 50's and 100's

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

Classified Advertisements

LOST

Second-hand Aristophanes (Bird's). Name in front, Maud Zuern. Finder please telephone Mi. 3149.

LOST

Gold hunting-case watch, key winder. Finder please phone KI. 3527. Reward.

TYPING

Notes, Essays, and Theses typed, neat and accurate work guaranteed, 25c. per 1000 words. Miss Lewis. Kingsdale 9237.

TYPING

Typewriting done by competent typist including all types of work. By contract or hourly rate of fifty cents. Work handled carefully and expeditiously. Telephone Junction 1228.

COMING EVENTS

(Continued from Page 1)

Thos. Cruden will speak. Officers to be elected.

7.30 p.m.—S.P.S. Debating Club in the Debates Room, Hart House. Debate and oratorical contest. Final meeting of the year.

1.2 p.m.—Foresters' Club elections will be held in the main common room of the Forestry Building. All active members of the club entitled to vote.

4.15 p.m.—important meeting of the U.C. Players' Guild. Elections

6.30—Graduation banquet, 374 U.C. women, Royal York Hotel, mezzanine floor, Room 9. Admission by ticket only.

THURSDAY, MARCH 15

7.30 p.m.—A regular meeting of the Foresters' Club will be held in the Music Room of Hart House. I. C. Marritt of the Ontario Forestry Branch will address the club on "Farm Forestry". Installation of the club executive for 1934-35 will follow.

5.45 p.m.—U.C. Women's S.C.M. supper party at the Union.

JENNINGS CUP

(Continued from Page 1)

way to a 3-0 lead. For the second contest, however, the Trinity squad showed considerable strength and succeeded in defeating the School sextet 3-2, but lost the round 5-3.

Victoria, in their contest with O.C.E., flashed the form which carried them to a title last season.

Monzon and Farrell are the best looking performers on the Scarlet and Gold lineup and were the two big reasons for Vic's 5-2 victory over the Teachers Tuesday night, as a result of which Vic will carry a three goal margin into the deciding contest at the Arena tonight.

VIC VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

Mr. Morley Smith, a well known authority and a graduate of Victoria in 1914, will give an address on Merchandising, followed by a discussion, to all Vic men interested in this subject. The meeting will be held in Room 18, on Wednesday, March 14th at 5 p.m.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

"If any attractive unmarried woman on the staff in the draw for the party wishes to go in a car with a dashing young spark on the men's staff, will she communicate with HU—"

"P.S. You bring the car."

This will at least prompt many female inquiries as to the rates charged by the managers of the Hertz Drive-urself Stations.

And even with this, the Cat is pronounced too long. NEL.

THE EPICUR GRILL AND TEA ROOM upstairs

opp. Eaton's College St.
433 YONGE STREET
Special attention to Students
Full Course Meals from 25c. up

We serve economical plate luncheon 20c.

FOR SALE

Two dress suits: 1 tuxedo, 1 long tails, slightly worn, $15.00 each. Owner is 5' 10 1/2"; chest measurement 38". Phone any evening 6 to 7. Midway 9783.

BULLETIN BOARD.

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

HONOUR SCIENCE CLUB

Honour Science Club Dollar Dance at Malloney's, 66 Grenville St. Let's make this the best party of the year. Everybody welcome.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Singing meeting, Thursday, March 15 at 5 p.m. in Hart House Music Room under the direction of Mr. Sly. Prospective members especially invited to attend. Please watch Hart House notice board for further particulars.

VICTORIA COLLEGE

The final debate of the year will take place on Monday, March 12 at 8 p.m. It is resolved that "This House deplores the administration of the present Radio Commission of Canada." Speakers on the paper: Jean Fenton, Ross Macdonald, Masie Cowan, Ken Woodsworth. Mr. Graham Spry, the chairman of the Canadian Radio League, will be the guest speaker. Refreshments.

S. V. M.

Supper meeting on Saturday, March 10th at 5 p.m. at 135 St. Clair W., corner of Avenue Rd. Speaker, Mr. James Endicott. Those interested are welcome.

FORUM

A regular meeting of the Forum will be held today at 4 p.m. in Room 4, U.C., Messrs. McCann and Keenan will speak and Mr. Levine will be in the chair.

S.C.M. ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the S.C.M. will be held on Thursday, March 22 at 8 p.m. in the Women's Union, 79 St. George St. Brief reports of the year's work will be presented. The address will be given by Sir Robert Falconer on "Religion in the Life of the Student". All students and members of staff are cordially invited.

T. I. C. C. U.

"But when the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son", will be the subject for meditation and discussion at the meeting of T.I.C.C.U. at 48 Mountainview Ave., at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

An important meeting will be held on Wednesday, March 14, at 4.15 p.m. in the Women's Union. There will be a play and elections. See A.M. & D. column.

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)
up of tone is impressive. The performance was much better than rumour in some quarters anticipated. The orchestra itself was first rate, and the choir, though lacking the grip it might have had, was effective enough. Miss Enid Gray surpasses Mrs. Park in tonal beauty, but not in musical artistry. Especially commendable was the Children's Chorus, which Miss Todd has trained to be technically sure, and pure and limpid in tone quality.

N.E.L.

U.C. WOMEN'S S.C.M.

At the Women's Union, 79 St. George St., on Thursday, March 15th, 5.45 p.m., the U.C. Women's S.C.M. will hold its final meeting in the form of a supper party. Prof. N. A. Mackenzie will speak on "The International Situation". Elections will be held for next year's executive.

VICTORIA

Final S.C.M. supper party at Wymilwood, Tuesday, March 13th. Rev. Stanley Russell will speak on "Albert Schweitzer". 5.45-8.30 p.m. Everybody invited.

SCHOOLMEN

The S.P.S. Debating Club meets in the Debates Room, Hart House, Wednesday evening, March 14th. A brief, snappy debate, an oratorical contest, cash prizes, light refreshments, smokes. All free. The last meeting of the year.

YOU ARE INVITED TO VISIT THE NEW MEN'S SHOP AT EATON'S-COLLEGE STREET

Here you will find a complete stock of smart clothing and accessories for men.

The shop includes:

Men's Furnishings
Men's Clothing
Custom Tailored Clothes
Custom Made Shirts
Men's Shoes, and Hats

MAIN FLOOR, EATON'S-COLLEGE STREET
BAY AND COLLEGE STREETS WING

Praise from a railroader

"... In adding to the large measure of praise which has already been accorded your Wakefield tobacco, I do so in the knowledge that this brand will supply a long-felt want to dissatisfied smokers. As a regular consumer of Wakefield, I can enjoin tobacco users in Canada who have looked for a blend that 'pecks well in the pipe,' is free from superfluous moisture, and 'does not burn the tongue,' to switch to Wakefield..."
"J. L.—St. Lambert, Que."

Wakefield

ENGLISH
MIXTURE

Packages 15c and 25c Large Home Tin $1.00

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dances

Latest Steps

6 Strictly Private Lessons $5.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1865

Your Eyes

will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

STUDENT LEAGUE OF CANADA presents

8 MEN REEK!

A Musical Extravaganza

Lyrics by Oscar Hammerickde. Scores by Comrade Zilch, O.G.P.U.

Other Stage Distractions

Dance to the music of Algonern Percival Votanitch and his Red Hot Bolsheviks

TO-NIGHT, AT 8.30 P.M.—25 KOPEKS

LABOR LYCEUM, 346 SPADINA AVE.

We're not Stalin—Come and have a Hotsky-Trotsky Time!

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit

for the coming dance.

They are up to the minute.

Also complete outfits and evening wraps.

Special rates for students.

Two stores to serve you.

FREEMAN'S

256 College Street

KI. 0991

571 Yonge Street

KI. 3270

Kappa Kappa Gamma Subscription Dance

Crystal Ballroom, King Edward Hotel SATURDAY, MARCH 10 Romanelli's Orchestra, Subscription $2.20 tax included

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. LIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, MARCH 16th, 1934

No. 100

FAMOUS PIANIST IN GENIAL MOOD DISCUSSES NEW TREND IN MUSIC

Mr. Walter Gieseking Explains the Reaction Towards Chopin-Liszt

ALPINE HDBBY

From Mountains to Concert Tour Without Practice is His Custom

By Norman Langford

Mr. Walter Gieseking, famous German pianist who played at Eaton Auditorium last night, is one of the most courteous and agreeable gentlemen I ever expect to meet. Sitting informally on the bed in his Royal York Apartment, he talked to me yesterday, earnestly and graciously, for a longer time than I had any right to ask.

"There are many strange stories about your methods of work, Mr. Gieseking," I remarked. "Is it true, for example, that you climb mountains all summer, then come back and give recitals without any practice?"

He smiled in affirmation. "It must sound strange," he replied, "and perhaps you would like me to explain it. When I was at the Conservatory I practiced a good deal—not too much, for that seemed silly. But I learned to concentrate. One must know exactly what kind of tone is going to come out next. When one has learned the fundamentals, it is merely a matter of analysis, and the effect comes out by itself. Perhaps, however," he added, "my hand is especially well built for the work."

"One theory about your playing," I suggested, "is that it represents a newer and more dispassionate style, a reaction against the sentimental school."

"Today," he responded, "there is a reaction against the Chopin-Liszt style, which gives too much liberty to the interpreter. That kind of playing is too individual, and not enough thought is given to the composer. Now the sentimental manner of playing Bach is quite wrong, though it is impossible to kill Bach, even if a brass band played him. But there are so many

(Continued on Page 6)

RUGBY VACANCIES CAPABLY FILLED

Stevens Confident that Next Year's Team Will Retain Old Prestige

10 PLAYERS GRADUATE

Perhaps the most encouraging prospect in view at present for the 1934 football season is the confidence expressed by Warren Stevens in his squad which will assemble next September for practice. Warren has a great deal of confidence in next season's Blue team as they look on paper right now. Notwithstanding the fact that he loses about ten of last year's squad by graduation, the vacancies will be filled by players of real calibre.

"Steve" expressed satisfaction with the performance of last year's team in consideration of the handicaps from injuries and academic mishaps that were encountered. When questioned about next fall's prospects he hesitated to make any statement but ventured the opinion that Varsity will be right in the thick of the fight when the series goes into snowy weather. He claims that the team will have enough dark horses not being considered now to step into the best that intercollegiate competition can present. Too much can't be said in certainty until the players assemble next fall but as things look right now Varsity's chances should be every bit as good as they were last fall.

The probable return to the job of snap in the person of George Hees is a cheerful bit of news in itself.

(Continued on Page 6)

Visitors' Day

Sunday, 25th March, will be the last Visitors' Day of the academic year in Hart House when members may introduce visitors, including ladies, into the House between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. Members will be asked to show their membership cards at the door. The building will be open for inspection.

Tea will be served in the Graduate Dining Room between 3 and 4.30 p.m. at 25c per cover. The exhibition of work by senior members of Hart House, which is on display from Monday, 19th March to Friday, 30th March, will be open to visitors.

SPLIT WITH U.F.O. WAS ANTICIPATED

H. G. Skilling Explains Present
Status of C. C. F.

Party

UNIVERSITY CLUB ACTIVE

"To the officials of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation the recent disturbances have been expected for a long time. The provincial set-up with its three constituent organizations, U.F.O., C.C.F. Clubs, and Labour Conferences, has been obviously unstable and as Mr. Thomas Cruden said on Tuesday at the University C. C. F. Club, has accomplished nothing constructive since its inception." In these words, Mr. H. G. Skilling summed up the situation as it now stands.

"It has always been doubtful whether such people as Agnes McPhail and H. H. Hannam of the U.F.O. have been actually in harmony with the C.C.F. platform. Their withdrawal was not surprising; they merely took advantage of the disturbance over the Communists to get out. However, their action may not have been satisfactory to the farmers in the U.F.O., who in their December convention voted unanimously to stay in the C.C.F. There is still a place for a farmer's movement in Ontario working within the Federation.

"The Labour Conference also has never been completely satisfactory, due to the membership of many communists of various types. They do not properly belong to the C.C.F., and have only given the movement a bad name.

"In fact, the whole disturbance," continued Mr. Skilling, "may prove completely salutary. The new set-up in Ontario may be a unitary system, consisting of many branches—C.C.F. Club branches, I.L.P. branches, Farmer Group branches, Socialists and so

(Continued on Page 6)

University Loses Two Benefactors

Typical of the interest which he took in all university affairs, one of the last acts of the late Lt. Colonel W. C. Michell, M.C., was to make out a check for the Johnny Copp Memorial Scholarship fund. Colonel Michell, whose unfortunate death occurred last week, took an active part in the university. He was a member of the Senate of the university and was president of the University College Alumni Association. On Friday last Colonel Michell gave a small dinner at the Military Institute, later leaving to attend a meeting of the Senate. It was on the way home, while discussing plans for the graduation programme with President Cody that death overcame him. His loss will be felt very deeply about the campus.

The sudden death of E. A. Armour, K.C., on Monday, removed another prominent member of the University Board of Governors.

Election Results

Foresters' Club Executive
Honorary president, Dr. C. D. Howe; president, D. I. Crossley; vice-president, J. Farrar; secretary, J. H. Phelps; treasurer, J. M. Yeomans; graduate representative, A. P. Leslie; Torontensis representative, K. M. Mayall.

Foresters' Athletics

Hon. president, Prof. T. W. Dwight; president, G. Millson; vice-president, S. R. Knott; secretary, C. H. Stangeby; treasurer, M. Taylor.

M. and P. Society

Honorary president, Dr. McTaggart; president, George Hay; vice-president, S. A. Jennings; corresponding secretary, Miss Lydia Newton; recording secretary, Miss Freda Crutcher; treasurer, Peter Sandford; graduate representatives, C. Strachan and D. McKinley; fourth year rep, John Levitt; third year rep, Frank E. Pujolas; second year rep, C. Williams.

Commerce Club

President, G. T. Parmenter; vice-president, P. Griggs; secretary, F. M. Vanstone; treasurer, T. J. Bell; third year representatives, G. P. Hamilton and R. Putnam; second year representatives, R. Ripley and G. Ferguson.

C.C.F. Club

President, N. M. Pivnick; vice-president, S. F. Rae; secretary-treasurer, A. C. Smith; editor of "change", W. E. Finbow.

W.U.A. Nominations

(Elections on Monday, March 19)
President, Mary Salter; athletic director, Jean Atkinson; secretary, Jane McKee, Joyce Arnold, Mary Owens, Betty Sifton; treasurer, Doris Huston, Marnie Hill, Kay Nesbitt.

Athletic Directorate

G. A. Hendry, J. W. Maglader, J. H. MacPherson, F. L. Shipp, A. H. Squires.

U.C. Literary and Athletic Society

President, S. M. Hermant; literary director, H. M. Pivnick; athletic director, J. B. Hamilton; social director, S. F. Rae; secretary, A. C. Smith; treasurer, P. A. Bridge.

JT5—President, E. T. Bell; secretary, J. Corrigan; treasurer, C. R. Gallow.

JT6—President, H. L. Rowntree; secretary, D. C. Carter; treasurer, E. C. Forbes.

JT7—President, D. Stewart; secretary, W. J. Thompson; treasurer, W. K. Bryden.

Press Gang Rollick, Gulp & Prance Roisterers Revel in Rare Romance

By Hugh Canthys Chuck Felloughby Chas. Kugur Nell Cherub Etain Shrdin Sally Whiskers . . . Hiccup

The denizens of Hart House were reminded on Wednesday night—forcibly reminded—that an event of unusual mirth and hilarity was taking place in the House. Inquiries revealed the source to be the annual dinner and dance of The Varsity staff—a much heralded but little publicized occurrence.

Andy Allan, whose velvet voice is now a "household threnody", to quote the writer of this column, came out flat-footed for "good old-fashioned prejudices". Tsk! a fallen-arch angel!

The same gentleman performed with ease the astonishing feat of rising for the first time in years to the level of a teen-age audience . . . or perhaps, as friend M.B.L. whispers in our eager ear, he shifted from an unseen to an obscene audience.

Professor Anderson's collation of journalistic incredibilities, allegedly culled from these columns, caused nineteen sports writers and a critic to offer earnest vows of future stylistic impeccability. Just scan today's third page and note the almost pedantic

DR. G. E. REAMAN

Principal, Glen-Lawrence School and consultant on psychological and educational questions, who will address the Vocational Guidance meeting at Victoria College on Tuesday, March 20th.

S.C.M. CONFERENCE A NATIONAL EVENT

Attracts Students from Whole Dominion and United States

AT LAKE COUCHICHIING

"The annual conference of the Student Christian Movement at Lake Couchiching is now more of a national affair than a provincial one. It brings together students from all over Canada and from the United States as well as students from other countries who attend as visitors," said Miss Gertrude L. Rutherford, one of the National Secretaries of the Student Christian Movement in Canada in an interview with The Varsity yesterday.

"The conference will be developed around the theme of Christianity and its relevance to the present world situation," said Miss Rutherford. "An attempt will be made to examine the message of Jesus as it applies to our own time. An effort will be made this year to have the students face the question of how they will determine their vocation in the face of the present need, and how they will carry out their life work."

A special feature of the recreational side of the conference this year is that it will be directed to show how leisure time may be most profitably spent. The leaders will help students in the leading

(Continued on Page 6)

JOY, SORROW, SUCCESS, DEFEAT IN POTPOURRI OF YEAR'S NEWS

REDUCED FARES

The Easter vacation extends this year from March 30th to April 2nd inclusive. Reduced rates on the railways will be available. Should any students be permitted to leave the city at an earlier date for Easter a certificate granting a round trip ticket for a fare and a quarter may be obtained from the Registrar's office on presentation of a letter from the secretary of his faculty or the Registrar of his college.

PROSPECTS ROSIER FOR PUCK-CHASERS

Expect to Regain Much Lost Prestige in Coming Season

ALMOST SAME SQUAD

By B. J. McGuire

Despite the appearance of several robins heralding the approach of spring time, roses and examinations, a practical turn of mind leads us to conclude that beyond the long period of mental relaxation known as the summer holidays, beyond the autumn and football season, lies a time when once again the thermometer hits the toboggan and then ice and hockey.

The time was when hockey held a position of major importance on the sports calendar, when Blue and White teams were always to be found on the top of the heap—when Varsity was a power in the hockey world. Of late the student teams have lost considerable prestige but with the coming season we may hopefully look forward to a decided remedy in this direction.

A resume of the year just past would on first glance prove anything but impressive. However, several factors must be considered, the first of which would be the decided lack of experience of the two dozen players who responded to the call to practice last fall. Warren Stevens, embarking on his first year as a coach, was facing the strongest teams to represent the O.H.A. in several years, and that with a group of players new to senior company. Despite all this we find Varsity after a shaky start up fighting for a playoff place in the final drive, tramping on the heels of the leaders.

This is particularly encouraging when we realize that next year with the exception of Win Cunningham and Alex Williamson this year's squad will be intact. New players are bound to

(Continued on Page 6)

NEW HUMOUR MAGAZINE WILL APPEAR TODAY

The Barker, new humorous magazine scheduled to appear this weekend, contains a word-portrait of the average college man, "Poor Joe College", written by Milton Shulman of The Varsity staff. The second issue will contain an African adventure of the Bobbey Twins and a well-known uncle of theirs, by Hugh Canthys Felloughby. Carroll Coburn and Martin Loeb will write for future issues. Along with their writing will be caricatures by Hugh Forbes and drawings by Dick Taylor ("Ricardo"), well-known for his work in the old Goblin, whose erstwhile editor, Joe MacDougall, is contributing to the second issue.

Although humour will be the predominant feature of The Barker, short stories and verse will also be published, as well as reviews of cinema, books and current periodicals, and articles on sport. Distribution will be coast-to-coast, and it is hoped that The Barker will fill the place, long since vacated by Goblin, of Canada's national humorous magazine.

Fifty-Third Year of Paper's Publication not Lacking in Interest

NEW FEATURES

Scoops and Extras, Hot News,
Rewrites and a Brand
New Column

With this issue, The Varsity completes its fifty-third year of publication. Let's look back through the files and glance at the headlines.

Sept. 28—Dr. Cody, in his opening address to students declares respect for education growing. Election ballyhoo done away with by U.C. Lit.

Sept. 29—C.C.F. Club organizes on campus.

Oct. 3—Varsity scoops the world on the failure of the takeoff of the Molson's on their projected transatlantic flight. Two editions printed.

Oct. 5—Medical faculty members declare in favour of State medicine.

Oct. 12—Royal Ontario Museum officially reopened.

Oct. 24—R. B. Bennett informs The Gateway, University of Alberta newspaper, that university students are too "choosy", that they like to pick out the work they want to do instead of taking what is available.

Oct. 28—Anti-War Society organizes. Nov. 1—Campus interest aroused by reprinting in The Globe of editorial by the Forcipine Advance which charged that all was not well at the U. of T.

Nov. 5—Thief gets away with ten purses at Wymilwood dance.

Nov. 30—Death of Sir Arthur Currie. C. C. F. endorsed by vote of 167 to 127 at Hart House debate.

Nov. 30—Tragic wounding of John Copp in fight with armed burglar.

Dec. 3—Death of Johnny Copp.

Dec. 8—Official University circles defend action in enforcing new fees ruling.

Dec. 10—Gordon Skilling named as Rhodes scholar.

(Continued on Page 2)

S.C.M. Corner

COUCHICHIING, 1934

For more than a decade now, students have gathered each fall from every part of Canada in a co-operative venture toward the solution of their problems, and the problems of their generation. Elsewhere in this issue appears an outline of the plans for this year's conference. What have these students gained that has made it worth while to repeat the venture year after year?

Perhaps the most important thing that happens there may be described as a discovery of life. At first, it is true, there may be only a glimpse, like the explorer's first glimpses of a new country, as yet unexplored, but holding forth great possibilities. The leaders, men and women who have found life, may occasionally reveal the secret of that life to others in an atmosphere of warmth and friendliness. Undergraduates find a great premium placed on their small treasure of life, and are more apt to share it with others. The student feels the life within him rising in response to corporate acts of worship, to the stimulus of group study, and to the unfolding picture of Jesus; he senses the quickening of his social conscience.

This year the conference centres its study around the Christian Message. What does Christ say to us, with our twentieth century background, in the midst of world chaos? How strange that, when we petitionarily cry to Him about our fear of unemployment, of war, and all the rest, He quietly nods his sympathy, and shows us, as the answer to our questions, the secret of abundant life.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Council of the University of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Intercollegiate Press.

Editorial Rooms — RANDOLPH 3730
Business Office — MIDWAY 6221
Women's Office — MIDWAY 6611
Night Phone — MIDWAY 8745

Editor-in-Chief — A. C. COCHRANE, B.A.
Women's Editor — PATRICIA PALMER, '34
Associate Editors — ISABEL JORDAN, B.A., JEAN P. MORTON, B.A.
M. SHULMAN, '34

Managing Editor — C. L. COSUM, '35
News Editor — B. L. SMITH, '35
Women's News Editor — FLORENCE KING, '34
Sports Editor — J. T. STUBBS, '34
Women's Sports Editor — JOSEPHINE B. HARLEY, '34
Feature Editor — N. F. LANGFORD, '35
Drama — M. B. LOER, '36
Art — C. DE MESTRAL, '34

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Managing: E. C. Phelan, '36, K. G. Robb, '36; News: K. E. Prentice, '35, Mary White, '35; Sports: B. J. McGuire, '35, W. A. Crocker, '39.

Business and Advertising Manager:

E. A. MACDONALD, B.A.

Night Editor — E. C. Phelan

FRIDAY, MARCH 16th, 1934

TO THE GRADUATING YEAR

With this issue The Varsity ceases publication for another year. It is a reminder that the annual grind for examinations, so meekly submitted to by students who are either lacking in sufficient moral courage or intellectual independence to protest against the abominable system, is in the offing. It is also a reminder that many students will be graduating in another two months from an institution where they have been taught to memorize, into a sphere where they will be compelled to think—at least pragmatically. At graduate banquets and in final editions of The Varsity it is customary to congratulate those who will shortly write B.A., B.Sc., or M.D. after their names, as the case may be, and to console them with some such fatuous remark as "there is always room at the top". Braver souls, however, will admit that they have little to boast about and less to look forward to.

One thing is certain: the uncertainty of the future! Security, so earnestly wooed by the timid, does not await the graduates of 3T4. The slightest rise in the stock exchange is sufficient to reassure the romanticist; but he may as well realize that the present economic order is tottering into a belated grave and that any business or profession he may enter is in jeopardy. Faith in democracy—which at best was never more than a beautiful theory wholly impracticable in a world of evil men—has definitely been undermined and will go by the boards; and this in spite of, yea because of the idealists, those people who take flight from history into imaginary, far-away systems and end in a world-denying mysticism. Christianity, having been reduced to an insipid social ethic, will battle for its very existence in the face of spread-eagle nationalism and the doctrine "will to power". Instead of the invasions which completed Rome's fall, international war will usher in the end of our civilization. Think not, ye optimists and sentimentalists, that Beverley Nichol's Cry Havoc and the Star's circulation gag can stay the hand of Mars when Europe, the very scene of those literary and photographic pictures, is today an armed camp!

And what happier prospect can we have when the people are being fed on the dole—over three millions of them in England—and like the Roman mob are content so long as they are given bread and kept amused by circuses? When Eddie Cantor and Babe Ruth are our national heroes; when Jean Harlow and Daffodil Nite are more attractive to our so-called educated class of 3T4 than an Ibsen tragedy; when a newspaper advertises a Life of Christ as it does an extra three-page comic section, and will conceivably come out next week with a Life of Mae West for the edification of a public utterly devoid of reverence, refinement of taste, and conscience.

This is the Age of Jazz. It is therefore an age when men and women do not pray, or if they do, it is to their ideals which are a trifle higher than their appetites, like the ideal of world-peace.

To the Graduating Year this editorial has been addressed. You probably will refuse to believe it, for . . . "there are none so blind as those who will not see".

"From ignorance our comfort flows,
The only wretched are the wise".

YEAR'S NEWS REVIEWED IN BRIEF RESUME

(Continued from Page 1)

Dec. 12—Vic parliament denounces downtown press.

Jan. 4—New column appears in The Varsity, "News of the World".

Jan. 4—Dr. Cotton charges that a "family compact" exists in Medical faculty.

Jan. 11—Evening Telegram carries story stating that "Red Flag" sung by students at Wycliffe on occasion of visit of Governor General. Story is denied by students—Progressive Arts

Club play "Eight Men Speak" cancelled

under pressure from Queen's Park.

Jan. 16—Announcement of a bequest to the University of $15,000 from the estate of the late Dr. R. Ramsay

Wright.

Jan. 18—P.A.C. presents one act of the banned play "Eight Men Speak" at a mass meeting in Hygieia Hall.

Jan. 19—President's report stresses need for larger library.

Jan. 22—Death of Dr. B. A. Bensley, head of the Biology department.

Jan. 24—Campaign for a new library began in The Varsity. Premier Henry refuses to discuss matter.

Jan. 25—Campaign for library endorsed by campus dignitaries.

Jan. 26—Front page editorial urges immediate action on library question.

Feb. 2—Thirty students suspended for non-payment of fees.

Feb. 6—Sherwood Eddy says Germany greatest danger zone in Europe.

Feb. 8—Raymond Massey tells The Varsity that University should have course in journalism.—$100,000 bequest to University from estate of the late

Mrs. Mary Prescott MacArthur.

Feb. 9—Queen's students declare necking is in poor taste.

Feb. 9—Mass meeting of Queen's students places ban on fraternities

there.

Feb. 12—Senator Cote, in interview with The Varsity, defends value of Senate in Canada.

Feb. 14—First installment appears in

The Varsity of letter from German student giving an authentic picture of the Nazi viewpoint.

Feb. 15—Fire destroys residence at St. Michael's College.

Feb. 19—Police interfere with meeting. (Continued on Page 5)

Art, Music and Drama

St. Matthew Passion

Great interest has been aroused by the announcement that Bach's St. Matthew Passion will again be given this year in Convocation Hall on the evening of Wednesday March 28th. This, the most outstanding musical interpretation of the story of Christ's crucifixion and burial, was given its first complete performance in 1923 under Dr. Ernest MacMillan, and thereafter given annually during Holy Week until 1932. It has been universally regarded not only as an outstanding event in the musical season of Toronto, but also as a great religious and spiritual experience for those who are fortunately able to attend.

When the news became public last year that annual performances were to suffer an interruption, many voices were raised in protest and there can be no doubt that the resumption of these performances will meet everywhere with hearty approval.

The work will be given this year by the Conservatory Choir of some 200 voices, with full orchestral accompaniment. The parts of Christus and the Narrator will be taken by Mr. J. Campbell McInnes and Mr. Hubert Eisdell respectively, and a number of additional soloists will also be heard.

Realizing that cleanliness is next to godliness, the owners that be have decreed that Pussy's final appearance for this season must be of snow white purity, and 99 per cent of our ideas thusly eliminated, we have purged the puss with Lifebuoy (Adv.), and chiseled a few excerpts from our predecessors. The following explanation seems to be in order.

C-C

We editors dig and toil

Until our brains (?) are sore

But some poor fish is sure to say

"I've heard that joke before."

C-C

And if you think we got that out of a previous "Cat", you're nerds. We copied it from College Humour, the same as Life did.

C-C

Generally speaking, women are generally speaking. This is an example

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject Sunday:

"SUBSTANCE"

First Church of Christ, Scientist

St. George St. at Lower Ave.

Close to residences and fraternity houses

Sunday Services 11 a.m., 7:30 p.m.

The morning service is radio-cast over

CFRB. A Sunday School for students

under twenty is held at 11 a.m.

On Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the main auditorium is held a meeting at which

Testimonies of Christian Science

Readings are given.

Down-town on the 15th floor of the Metropolitan Bldg., Adelaide at Victoria.

A Free Public Reading Room is open from

8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily except Sunday, for rest, quiet meditation and study, where the Bible, and authorized Christian Science

Books are including the best book, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, may be read, borrowed

or purchased.

Each and every student is cordially invited to attend the services, and to enjoy the privilege of the reading room.

THEOSOPHY

52 Isabella Street
Sunday Evening at 7.15 p.m.

A SYMPOSIUM

on

"THEOSOPHY AND SOCIAL ORGANIZATION"

"Is There an Archetypal Plan?"

"Modern Society"

"Democracy and the Democratic Man"

Questions Answered.

MR. L. W. ROGERS

will give a series of lectures during week commencing April 1st.

Mrs. Nichols of

THE LANTERN TEA ROOMS

5 WILLCOCKS ST.

Wishes to thank her many friends among the student body for their kind patronage during the year.

To those who are graduating go her best wishes. To those who are returning she is looking forward to seeing them next year at the Lantern, where everything is designed for their comfort.

Delicious Meals.

Most Reasonable Prices.

St. John Passion

The performance by the Bach Choir on Monday evening, March 19, at Convocation Hall, of the St. John Passion, will be eagerly looked forward to by all music lovers. A full orchestra will assist and the soloists will include Hubert Eisdell (whose magnificent rendering of the Narrator's part last season will be gratefully remembered), Campbell McInnes singing the Christus, Eileen Law Marshall, Frances James, Sara Barkin, Adolph Wantroff, Irving Levine, Norman Cherrie, Lawrence De Foe, W. R. Black and Meredith Hooper.

St. Thomas' Church

On Sunday the following music will be sung. At the Choral Eucharist at 11 a.m. the Litany will be sung in Procession, and the Missa Brevis in E flat and Missa Sancta Maria Magdalena will be heard during the service. Next Sunday being Passion Sunday at Choral Evensong at 7 p.m. Sir John Stainer's Meditation on the Sacred Passion of the Holy Redeemer, "The Crucifixion", will be sung by two solo voices, Choir and Organ. The half hour of Choral music over Station CFRB at 5.45 p.m. will include (Continued on Page 5) of a conversation we overheard in the U.C. rotunda. U.C. the girls all gather round for a talk fest, and this is how it runs . . .

C-C

Ceylon time since I've Spokane to you. Java good time at the dance . . . Kenya beat that. . . Well, Abasynia.

C-C

Watson, the antidote!

C-C

We believe that the following crowning masterpiece will suffice to disturb your digestion throughout the long summer months we are now experiencing.

C-C

(Continued on Page 5)

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

Huron Street—Just below Bloor

Holy Eucharists at 7 a.m., 8 a.m.

and 9.30 a.m.

11 a.m.—Choral Eucharist

Litany Sung in Procession Tallis

Missa Brevis in E flat and

Missa Sancta Maria Magdalena (Willan)

Preacher, The Rector.

7 p.m.—Choral Evensong

Followed by "The Crucifixion"

Stainer

A meditation on the Sacred Passion of the Holy Redeemer.

Broadcast of Choral Music over

CFRB, 6.45 p.m.

St. Paul's Church

Bloor Street East

THE RT. REV. R. J. RENISON,

Rector

University students are specially invited to the Sunday Evening

Services at 7 o'clock.

The pick of the World's Tobacco crops assures you
of a mild and matchless
flavour when you Smoke
these famous cigarettes

Winchester
CIGARETTES

SAVE THE
POKER HANDS

Blended Right!

ARE YOU GOING TO EUROPE THIS SUMMER?

Association for University Tours.

Rates $212.00
and up.

Especially attractive for University students.

Consult students who have travelled with us.

See your own Varsity representatives,

W. G. Goddard,
Lo. 7414

H. C. Skilling,
Gr. 0977

SINCE 1843 WE HAVE HAD THE HONOUR OF SUPPLYING THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO WITH

HOODS, GOWNS,
MORTAR-BOARD CAPS,
ROBES, Etc.

We have imported the correct shades of silk, our patterns are authentic. Highest quality materials and workmanship.

HARCOURT AND SON,
LIMITED

Clerical Tailors, Robe Makers

103 KING ST. WEST, TORONTO

U.C. - VIC. - MEDS - FORESTRY

1934 Graduates may now purchase their Faculty Pin or Ring at the MANUFACTURER'S price.

Pins with 3T4 Guard at 65c.
Sterling Signet Rings at $1.75 up.

LACKIE MANUFACTURING CO.

College and Society Jewellers
102-8 Lombard St. Elgin 8080.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
CREST PINS or RINGS
(Official—Registered)

The Students' Administrative Council control the exclusive manufacture and sale of these for the sole use of the student body.

Crest Pins or Signet Rings may be obtained at any time at Room 82, University College, or from the Council's office in Hart House.

A supply of Rings and Pins is kept in stock.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Room 82, University College and Hart House

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest.

EMERALD

UNIVERSITY
Travel Club of Toronto
Tenth Annual Tours

EUROPE BY MOTOR
OR
EUROPE BY TRAIN
AND MOTOR
Via St. Lawrence and North Atlantic

CRUISE TOURS
Azores, Lisbon, Gibraltar, Mallorca,
Dalmatian Coast—prior to land tour

SAILINGS—June 28, 29, July 6, 14

Write for Descriptive Booklet
to G. H. LUCAS, Secretary
Bloor Bldg., 57 Bloor St. W., Toronto

Coffee
with a KICK

We've all told the boarding house missis that it smelt like coffee when she said "It looks like rain". But for coffee that is coffee, we go to Murray's. It may be all right to sterilize this and devitalize that but if we can't have a cup of full-blooded coffee . . . well! No we don't just go to Murray's because the second cup comes free . . . though it does.

Murray's
GOOD FOOD

LIVE in FRENCH

Residential Summer School (co-educational) in the heart of French Canada. Old country French State. Only French spoken. Elementary, Intermediate, Advanced, Certificate College credit. French entertainment, sight seeing, sports, etc.
Fee $10.00, Board and Tuition. June 27—August 1. Write for Circular to Secretary, French Summer School.

McGILL UNIVERSITY
Montreal - - Canada

BACH
CHOIR

REGINALD STEWART
conductor
ST. JOHN PASSION
J. S. Bach
Full Orchestra
Eminent Soloists
CONVOCAION HALL
Mon., Mar. 19, 8.30
Reserved seats $1.65,
$1.10, 83c., tax included.
Special Reserved Tickets
for University Students
55c., tax included
On sale Hart House,
March 14th and 15th. 12
to 2 o'clock.

DANCING LESSONS
GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps
6 Strictly Private Lessons $8.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1868

THE SPORTSWOMAN

By J. B. H.

C'est fini. Athletic activities of 1933-34 are now history, a memory, and a pleasant one at that. Three times in the past season have the Varsity women engaged in intercollegiate contests and twice has the blue and white flag been raised as a symbol of victory.

Shall we congratulate our columnist of last year for prophesying the return of the Bronze Infant to our hospitable but none the less sacred precincts or should the Blue team that played such excellent basketball be the recipients of our excess enthusiasm?

Five players on the team are graduating. Bea Longley, who deserves a gold medal for the calibre of basketball that she has turned in during her four years at college; Eleanor Wallace, another veteran of four years who shares honours with Bea; the number of games that her defensive work has saved is beyond the memory of this Sportsman. Al Butler's last two years have been glorious in the annals of basketball. In the final game alone of this year's tournament she more than qualified for a place on the roll of honour. Grace Becker and Marg Rose played intercollegiate for the first time this year and helped to round out a well-balanced and well-organized team. The remainder of the team will remain with us, Kay Brown, Billie McGarry, Mary Louise Carr, Grace McClintock. Kay Brown's athletic career at the University of Toronto has begun and for that we are extremely thankful. To have Kay three more years with the intercollegiate team is a pleasing prospect and basketball of the sort that she can produce is a nice thing to think about. With hopes for Marion Forward as a coach and the four players that remain of this year's team as a nucleus for the new team we should be able to repeat this year's performance and keep the child for our own.

Varsity's hockey team once again displayed the class which brought them ten titles in twelve years and added another championship to their already impressive total. Under the tuition of Jummie MacPherson the Blue sextet went into Kingston and took a 1-0 decision from the Tricolour and then held them to a 1-1 draw in the return game to take the round 2-1 and win the title.

Next year, however, will find Eleanor Sanson, Billie Fowler, Pat Thompson, Mary Rons and Mary Morris missing from the lineup which will necessitate the remodelling of the team considerably.

Varsity was fortunate in having last year players Agnes Gardner, Kay Symons, Jean Davey and Pat Callen to send down to the tennis tournament at Kingston. The Tricolour star, Doris Kenny, was too good for them and they lost out in both the singles and doubles. Agnes and Jean will be back next fall, which should give the 1934 team a good start.

The honours in the interfaculty contests have been fairly evenly divided with St. Mike's taking the tennis honours last fall. Vic followed next with the baseball but lost out to St. Hilda's in the basketball finals. The Scarlet and Gohl retaliated by defeating the Saints in the hockey playoffs. U.C. put their name on the list by winning the swimming title. Badminton is yet to be heard from but U.C. are favoured to win that again.

The Athletic Directorate was elected yesterday afternoon with five faculties placing representatives, Jean Atkinson, U.C.; Marie Faids, Vic; Charlotte Small, Meds; Agnes Gardner, St. Mike's, and Edith Ardagh, St. Hilda's. Next Tuesday at five o'clock at the Lillian Massey the executives of and representatives to the various athletic clubs will be elected.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

By John T. Stubbs

This time you see the light flash after the last shot of the season. As far as this column is concerned these keys rattle for the last time. It has been a year of intense satisfaction for the most part with a few disappointments thrown in to make things balance. The football title stayed at home. Let's hope it is made to feel at home for some time to come at U. of T. Next season is going to see a tough battle between Varsity and Queen's again with McGill running close behind. Western will not be in the picture for a couple of seasons yet. Queen's are conceded the odds in many quarters but one never can tell what will happen in a football series.

The Varsity natators put up a real fight for the water polo and swimming titles only to lose by small margins. The B. W. & F. crown stays with us although Queen's made it tough to win. Lew Hayman's cagers looked good enough on paper to take the basketball trophy from the Redmen but faltered in the pines even though they displayed superior class on several occasions. Coach Tommy London's oarsmen kept up their winning streak and although they cut their weight and experience with junior men they were still good enough to stay out in front of the McGill crew at the finish in the closest race to date. The Toronto soccer and English rugby teams took titles in their series. Coach Barton's gymnasts captured another piece of headgear to make Varsity's championships total at six. The Redmen have the other eight which excludes Western and Queen's altogether this year. This state of affairs does not occur very often in intercollegiate senior sport. In finishing off this summary may we ask you to watch Varsity displace McGill next year for first place in the senior title race. Changes should be seen in the hockey, swimming, water polo and basketball championships. We hope the rest stay intact unless the Londoners and the Tricolour-clad athletes step in and take some of the quota of fourteen to be had by the Big Four Canadian Colleges.

The Jennings Cup has not been decided yet. Vic, having flashed the red light behind the S.P.S. goal four times and the School team not at all, have qualified to meet O.A.C. in the finals. Vic won the semi-final series but it is rumoured that S.P.S. won the fights so maybe it's square all round. Jr. Meds, present basketball titleholders, look good enough to hang onto the silverware again. Sr. School, Sr. Meds and Sr. U.C. will be their opposition which means it will be a close race. We are giving Meds the call because they have shown more aggressiveness than the others, while their opposition measure up in every other respect. Sr. U.C. and Sr. Vic remain in the race for the basketball championship. Here it looks like a win for the Red and White because Jr. Vic was better than Sr. Vic and the former were eliminated by Sr. U.C.

Warren Stevens has been working hard for some time now to line up an international intercollegiate hockey series. Prospects for some games with the American colleges are assuming definite proportions. Next year with enough of these series lined up you won't find Varsity in the O.H.A. we hope. If these plans reach their aim you will see the Varsity Arena packed instead of the faithful few hundred spread around the bleachers.

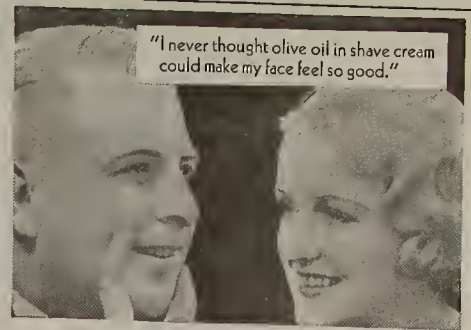

Most of the students who cross the front campus while wending their weary way to the Library these days have been wondering about the cause of the potent odour that pervades that grassy plot. We have it on good authority that it is merely an aftermath of the soccer playoffs last fall but maybe it is some of the food that the boys at Kinnex couldn't stomach.

The Staff of Victoria College have announced their donation of an inter-faculty volleyball trophy to be presented for annual competition. It will be called the Vic Staff Cup. It is silver, stands 12" on a base 5" high. The volleyball club is trying to get two teams together which will be entered in the provincial Y.M.C.A. tournament being held on the afternoon of Saturday, April 7th at Central Y. All players of inter-faculty teams who are interested are asked to turn out.

The Varsity box lacrosse team which made an impression in Rochester some time ago against the best team across the line, are going to try it again next week end and then will play Cornell in addition. The local lads have plenty of class and will put up a good fight with any aggregation. The fact that they have not been playing together and still show the ability they displayed in their last sortie is fair indication that there is plenty of good material for the creation of a regular team to represent U. of T. in the future.

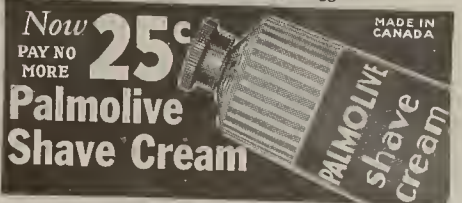

We would like to thank all those around the University of Toronto's athletic circles who have contributed generously throughout the year with their co-operation in making the Sports Page of The Varsity what it has been this year. We have appreciated their support and assistance. As a student publication we have tried to carry out the function of presenting in this limited space all the sports in which the university and the faculty teams participate. Coaches, teams and managers have all done their part well in co-operating with the Sports Staff to this end and we thank you for that co-operation. In conclusion we trust that this column too has given you some insight into the things about the place in athletics. Incidents of interest and humour have been plentiful this year. Tragedy and misfortune have found their way into Varsity's athletics also, but all these go together in sport as in every other activity of life. Varsity's true sportsmanship has been maintained and upheld as a great tradition which will be passed on next year to the athletes coming up who replace those now graduating. In May the University of Toronto will lose Jack Sinclair, one of the greatest football players in the intercollegiate. In the memory of students of the past five years he will join the ranks of such luminaries as Smirle Lawson and Warren Snyder. With him go Tubby Bell, Harold Armp, Bill Bryers, Hal Richardson, Albie Booth, Dan McQuigge, Ken Peacock and Bill Burgoyne from the football team. The death of Johnny Cope removed another fine sportsman.

The basketball team loses Sniderman, Mitchell, Prince and Young. From the B. W. & F. team go Gray, Bannister, Snellman, Watt and Hallitt. Win Cunningham and Alex Williamson are the only graduates from the hockey team. To these fellows are extended congratulations and best wishes. But even with these losses from the ranks there are plenty of newcomers to senior teams who will be in there with everything they have. So you can look forward to 1934-35 as a leaner year in sport for Varsity. On with the exams and let joy be unconfined! Thank you.

Palmolive Shaves mean smooth faces

SHAVE FASTER! Shave closer! Yet keep that tender face of yours soothed and refreshed. What's the secret? Palmolive Shave Cream is made with olive oil. Lets you shave as close as you like. Leaves your skin cool and comfortable. Only Palmolive Shave Cream gives you these 5 Palmolive features. And men! The price is only 25c. Buy a tube today—25c at all druggists

DOZENS HAVE DONE IT BEFORE

Varsity men have earned hundreds of dollars in the past by clean, interesting, congenial work.

How about your summer job?

Salaries, bonuses, travelling expenses. Only 15 men required.

Apply Art Minden, 3T2, Alumni Office, 43 St. George St.
Sat. 10-12 a.m., Mon. 2-5 p.m.

Order Your Easter Suit and Topcoat THIS WEEK-END

Smart Cambridge Topcoats
In all the New Styles

at $17.50 to $30

Cambridge Tailored Suits
$25 and $27.50

"You'll like our clothes."
Real.

FITZPATRICK & O'CONNELL
LIMITED
310 YONGE ST. Just North of Dundas

Drawing to a Close--

Another academic year will soon be over—for some it is "Finis",—for others, "just another year". No matter which—College years are precious, and memories doubly so—your Crest Pin or Faculty Pin help retain these memories. Make sure they are lasting, bearing our name and guarantee.

A. E. EDWARDS
Jeweller
22 YONGE ST. ARCADE
ELGIN 3669 TORONTO

BEAUX ARTS BALL, April 3rd, Royal York Hotel, In aid of Unemployed Draughtsmen
Single Tickets $2.00 - obtainable from students in the School of Architecture

Bach's St. Matthew Passion

CONSERVATORY CHOIR
Soloists and Orchestra
MacMILLAN — CONDUCTOR

CONVOCATION HALL

WEDNESDAY, 28th MARCH, 8.15 p.m.

Tickets $2.00, $1.50, $1.00 plus tax.

University and Conservatory Students—.50 cents plus tax at Hart House and Conservatory.

CAGE RECRUITS WILL BE NEEDED

Loss of Six Players Will Weaken Next Year's Team

SNIDERMAN MISSING

When the curtain rises on intercollegiate senior basketball next year the important question will be "Who will succeed McGill as intercollegiate senior cage champs?" The Redmen, titleholders for the past five years, will have to suffer a few setbacks by the graduation route and it is considered that next year's cage race will be wide open and waiting for the squad with the best replacements.

The Varsity situation is none too hopeful although graduation will not be the evil it has been in previous years. Of this year's senior squad, Sniderman, Mitchell, Prince and Young intend to depart while of the intermediates Applebaum and Henderson have donned a Blue uniform for the last time this past season.

The loss of Sniderman, Mitchell and Applebaum will certainly be clearly evident when the Blue squads take to the floors next year. There seems to be no one to fill the shoes of the veteran Sniderman and the Blue coaches next year will have a hard time in digging up anybody who will measure up to Sniderman's standard of play. The same, apparently, is true of Applebaum. The passing one of Moe Mitchell will not cause too much grief as Lofty Willis' record for the season shows that he has the necessary stuff. The departure of Prince, Young and Henderson, it is believed, will be no sign for worry as the men coming up are expected to do as well as these three departing athletes.

The intermediate and junior squads although not full of useful material, offer a few stalwarts who may make good on the senior quintet next year. In Stronach Coach McCutcheon has a reliable defence man who will no doubt make a good attempt at partnering up with Gold on the Blue defence. The play of Kinsey, Krakauer and Miller of the juniors has attracted a great deal of attention and it is to be hoped that this trio will measure up to the required standards.

Aside from Stronach, Kinsey, Krakauer and Miller there seems to be nobody capable of stepping up very far. However, it is to be hoped that the coaches develop some hidden power next year and weld a team which will relieve the Redmen of the title at long last.

SIFTON CUP SERIES WELL UNDER WAY

Sr. Meds Defeat Sr. S.P.S. in Spectacular
Game

POSSIBLE ALL-MED FINAL

With the representation of five university faculties vying for basketball supremacy, the interfaculty championship series got under way on Monday at Hart House. The draw found two three-team groups, each playing a four game schedule, with the group winners engaging in the finals. In Group I, composed of Sr. Meds, Sr. S.P.S. and Forestry, the Medicos provided one of the greatest upsets of the year when they defeated the highly touted School aggregation 24-22 on Monday. Down 12-4 at half time and 12 points in the second half, Meds gave a fighting display seldom ever duplicated on the Hart House floor and emerged victors in the final seconds of the tilt. All indications point to the return game between the age-long rivals as the tidbit of the interfaculty season and the winner should be a good bet for the championship. Forestry appears to be the weak sister of this group as they were badly beaten by S.P.S. on Wednesday by a 37-21 count. In Group II, Jr. Meds will attempt to retain the Sifton Cup, but they will have a hard nut to crack in Sr. U.C., who defeated Knox on Tuesday by a 39-30 score. The champions trimmed the Presbyterians yesterday in a close, hard-

VICTORIA COLLEGE IN HOCKEY FINALS

Blank Senior School in Both Games of Gruelling
Series

ANCIENT RIVALRY FLARES

More than slightly reminiscent of the memorable midnight battle of three years ago, was the clash of Victoria College and Senior School as they met last week in the senior finals of the interfaculty hockey series at Varsity Arena. Victoria College won the round 4-0, taking a 2-0 decision from the Engineers in both encounters, but there are numerous rumours afloat to the effect that the Schoolmen won the fight.

All the old rivalry of the two faculties flared up as the teams went into action on Monday night, and it was a slugging match from the opening bell. For the first two periods the boys were stepping into each other with everything they had for could borrow and late in the final session Jimmie Hodgson precipitated a free for all when he clashed with Bill Bryers. Harold Arnpup went to the rescue and for a few minutes fists were flying fast and thick but little damage was done.

The second game was very similar to the first but the good work of Referee McPherson kept the game in hand. However, there were several exciting moments when the fireworks threatened to break, but outside of a flock of high sticks, butt ends, loose knees and elbows, nothing happened.

On the play Vic deserved their win and look to be well on their way to a second title. They were faster, and displayed more combination than the Engineers. The Schoolmen played their usual aggressive game but inefficiency around the nets kept them off the score sheet, while Vic registered twice in each game.

Dyke opened the scoring in the first encounter and Harold Arnpup completed the damage on a solo rush late in the second period. Glover, one of the three newcomers to last year's champions, was a stand-out in the second game, notching the first counter and laying down a pass to Tackaberry which accounted for the second.

School — Vessie, Kennedy, Hewitt, McNichol, Hodgson, Johnson, Patterson, MacLachlan, Caldwell.

Vic — Young, Bryers, Dyke, Farrell, Monzon, Arnpup, Gregory, Pratt, Tackaberry, Glover.

HUGE CROWD TO CAVORT AT BEAUX ARTS BALL

The Beaux Arts Ball, sponsored by the Ontario Architects' Association in aid of unemployed draughtsmen, will be staged this year on April the third in the Royal York. This now annual event, which can only be compared with affairs of the same nature held in London, New York and Paris, will occupy the entire structure of the Empire's largest hotel. Gay couples will be celebrating from the ground floor to the roof garden, to the music of several of Toronto's best orchestras.

Inaugurated last year the party proved to be such a success that it now occupies an envied place in the city's social life. Provisions are being made to accommodate three thousand people. New and different attractions are being planned and the climax will be the crowning of the king of the ball.

The Varsity was told last night that invitations have already been sent to Miss Mae West and Miss Mary Pickford and it is expected that if these ladies are not present in person they will appear by proxy. Messrs. Ashley and Crippen are making arrangements to take photographs of costumed couples to appear in the newspapers.

The decorations this year are under the supervision of Bryant Fryer, whose posters have already appeared. A large corps of artists are assisting him in producing original designs.

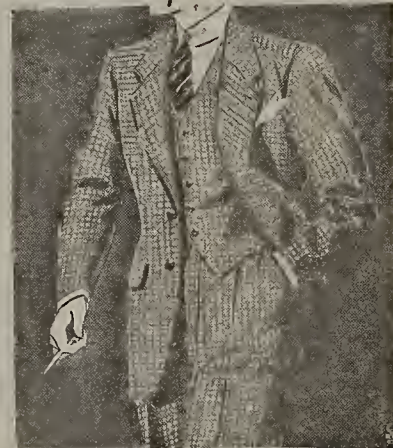

fought game by a 31-25 score after they were down 15-4 at half time. With the calibre of the basketball as displayed in the playoffs as a criterion, the Sifton Cup should find a worthy haven for the year 1934.

FOR the smartest graduation apparel . . . you'll enjoy shopping at

Simpsons

Dress up-It's SPRING

and Easter's on the Way

Everything that is new for Spring—all the new fabrics, patterns and high-priced innovations in accepted styling . . . without the high price! Choose your new Spring suit from Pascoes extensive showing of quality garments.

Two Pascoe Feature Values

$22.50

$27.50

Both with Extra Trousers

Pascoes
LIMITED

TWO SHOPS

156 Yonge St.
2nd Floor

Uptown Shop,
Yonge & Bloor

"THE VARSITY" Editor-in-Chief

Applications for the above position will be received by the Associate Secretary of the Joint Executive, Students' Administrative Councils, up to 1.00 p.m., Monday, March 26th, 1934, Room 82, University College.

(Miss) A. E. M. Parkes, B.A.,
Associate Secretary,
Students' Administrative Council.

TORONTONENSIS 1935

Applications for Editor of Torontonensis will be received by the Associate Secretary of the Joint Executive, Students' Administrative Council, up to 1.00 p.m., Monday, March 26th, 1934, Room 82, University College.

Students' Administrative Council.
Associate Secretary,
(Miss) A. E. M. Parkes, B.A.,

Students' Handbook

Secretaries of all College and Faculty organizations and secretaries of all University clubs, Faculty and College clubs and societies are requested to hand in now to the Students' Administrative Council Office, Hart House, a list of the officers for the year 1934-35, together with their names and addresses for the 1934 edition of the Student's Handbook. Fraternities please note. Any changes in address or telephone numbers for the year 1934-1935 should be handed in now to the Students' Council Office.

Sport Notices

Track and Harrier Men—

Watch Hart House Notice Boards for information regarding spring training.

U.C. Athletic Board—

Last meeting on Monday at 1 p.m. It is particularly important that all members be present.

Interfaculty Hockey Finals—

The Jennings Cup finals between Victoria College and the Ontario Agricultural College will take place on Monday and Wednesday, March 19th and 21st at 3 o'clock in the Varsity Arena. Coupon No 35.

B. W. & F. Club—

Meeting of the club will be held in the Debates Room, Hart House, at 5.00 o'clock Monday, 19th to elect the new executive.

Rowing Club—

All men expecting to continue training on the water in May must turn out regularly on the machines from now on.

Volleyball Practice—

It is the intention to enter two teams in the Ontario championships to be held early in April. Practices will be held on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday on the upper gym from 1 to 2 p.m. All volleyball players are welcome.

The Pictorial Review Co.
has openings for several experienced subscription salesmen. Apply R. W. Taylor, 45 Richmond St. W., Room 405. Phone EL 1502.

Your Eyes
will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

THE EPICURE GRILL
AND
TEA ROOM upstairs
opp. Eaton's College St.
433 YONGE STREET
Special attention to Students
Full Course Meals from 25c. up
We serve economical plate luncheon 20c.

WEAR A VARSITY BLAZER

The ideal garment for Tennis, Boating and other summer sports. Varsity blazers are stylish and attractive in appearance. Men's and Ladies' sizes in stock.

$10.00

Orders authorizing the purchase of a blazer may be secured at the office of the S.A.C.

THE HAROLD A. WILSON COMPANY LIMITED
299 Yonge St., Toronto

Copyrights and Patents

J. R. Cadwell, M.A.
Barrister, Solicitor, etc.
800 BLOOR ST. EAST
Ra. 2121-2123

STUTTERING
Stammer no more. I overcame it. My free, helpful pamphlet and "Ten Commandments of Speech" will help you. Write W. Dennison, 41 St. Clair E., Toronto

YEAR'S NEWS REVIEW

(Continued from Page 2)

Feb. 20—Varsity scoops downtown press by three months on story of the establishment here by Rome of institution for propagation of Italian culture.

Feb. 22—R. B. Bennett's Empire trade policy endorsed by Hart House debaters 311 to 190.

Feb. 23—U.C. Lit celebrates eightieth anniversary.

Mar. 1—Questionnaire on war banned at McGill.

Mar. 2—Kingston board of works approves expenditure of $170,000 on fireproofing of buildings at Queen's.

Mar. 9—Hart House approves of continuance of Canada's connection with League of Nations.

Mar. 16—Vol. LIII No. 100 of The Varsity.

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA

(Continued from Page 2)
excerpts from "The Crucifixion". For out of town listeners, not able to attend the Church services, Master Paul Fokett sings a little known "Ave Maria" by John Worth, and Master Arthur Cooper will be heard in Spohr's setting of "As pants the hart for cooling streams".

Sketch Room

When an artist, born amidst the tropical vegetation is brought to a northern country, such as Canada, some day, the nostalgia of the luxuriant jungle is bound to take hold of him . . . and then . . . nothing will stop him from going back. Such is the story of Will Ogilvie's exhibition in the Sketch Room. About two years ago he felt a strong longing to go back to Africa, his native land; losing no time he jumped into the first cargo boat and travelled, thus, along the East African coast. To the usual traveller coasting navigation presents little interest, but to the artist it offers unlimited possibilities to spend many days in small ports, even to take some trips inland.

Ogilvie's exhibition is strangely fascinating—especially for those who have been to the tropics—for it brings us an entirely new note, and a range of colours that is mostly lacking in Canada. His many oil paintings reveal a marvellous sense for colours, backed by a fine drawing and an instinctive feeling for composition; the same applies to his sketches, whether in pencil or in water-colours. His picture of two natives in a boat, with the bright sun shining upon their backs, with a dark blue sea for background, is really striking, and would command attention in any gallery. A smaller painting presents the heads of two negro girls, in profile with a few palm trees and a deep sky; the colour gradation, together with the firmness of design make it one of the best works shown. Ogilvie has also a remarkable sense for decoration, as his many paintings of tropical flowers prove it abundantly. A large painting of two native girls, in bright red dress doing their laundry outside the village, as well as many other paintings of negroes' studies complete his oil paintings.

Of his many pencil sketches the best is probably the one, near the Print Room door, showing a street in Zanzibar, for it gives, in a few lines, the spirit of the country, as well as the character of the native women, strong and erect girls that one instinctively imagines moving along with their baskets on their head. Now that Ogilvie is back in Canada it will be interesting to follow him and see him apply his very sure technique and art to an entirely different landscape, that too many try to represent in an almost conventional and stylized genre.

C. de M.

FUTURE EXHIBITIONS

From March 19 to March 31—

Graduate Exhibition.

From April 3 to April 21—

Paintings by Isabel McLaughlin, Prudence Heward and Sara Robertson.

From April 23 on—Exhibition of the Canadian Society of Graphic Art.

Art Gallery

The present exhibition, by the Ontario Society of Artists, is rather disappointing, on the whole. If one expects about half a dozen portraits and a few landscapes, the O.S.A. shows itself to be rather dead, and greatly lacking in creativity, as in personality. Some will say that the last exhibition of French painting, of the XIX century, with its strong originality and struggling was bound to make the following exhibit look rather pale, yet, even if we judge the O.S.A. entirely upon its present show, it is impossible not to feel that this is a "let down". The paintings represent, no doubt, much study, very good technique in many works, but a "nice finish" will never redeem a lack of personality, not more than any modernistic effort will ever make up for a lack of training, and absence of sure drawing.

For the first time, however, we see two very fine nude paintings, one by J. Clynes, and the other by Dorothy Stevens. Both are strong works, backed by an excellent quality of painting, though both poses are very similar, each reflects very different personalities and have something to say to their onlookers. Clynes has also an interesting painting of a Spanish girl, called "Reverie", while his other large work, "Forest Haunt", has a great beauty of colour, and a most decorative effect. Among the half-dozen portraits mentioned above, it is difficult to decide by which one to choose, without being partial. While the downtown press has mostly praised the fine portrait of Mr. Lewis, by Sampson, it seems to me that Murray Bonnycastle's painting of a woman, called "Repose" is probably the finest exhibited; every detail is extremely well rendered—notice the hands, for example—and from the whole emanates a real sense of repose.

Before reviewing some of the landscapes the two portraits of an old man and an old woman, by Alfson, done in a Rembrandt manner are worthy of this short mention. Marie C. Gerard, has a painting A la Pucier de Chavannes, representing an Arcadian scene with much sensitiveness. The lovers of flowers will all feel strongly charmed by Beatrice Robertson, painting of white cyclamens, that have a very delicate quality. Hennessy, who, alone, deals in pastels, exhibits three works which transcend realism by their rendering of the inner character of the landscapes. In the same room Margot Wilson shows an excellent still life of an axe and a copper pitcher. Among the other landscapes the ones showing the greatest personality and striving are probably those by Weston, together with G. H. Griffin's "Bay of Chaleur", though a title like "sotern land" might be more appropriate. G. Thomson has two interesting landscapes, where he tries to express his subject by a new technique, a fact worth noticing, in this rather conventional exhibit. C. Pepper has also two paintings, one of which has already been shown in the Sketch Room. This review, is, per force, incomplete, but I believe that the most outstanding paintings are all included, though I regret that it can be done in such short space.

C. de M.

H.C. Players' Guild

On Wednesday, March the 21st at 4.15 the Players' Guild will present the Mystery of The Three Maries in the theatre of the Women's Union. This play is an old Cornish mystery dealing with the visit to the tomb on Easter morning. It is impossible to assign the composition of the play to any definite year or century. The mediaeval drama grew slowly and textual alterations were frequent. The Christmas pantomime has its roots in the religious drama connected with that season. Easter morning plays were among the first mystery plays, making their appearance as early as the eleventh century. They were an attempt to make the gospel stories more real to the general mind and took the form of additions to the liturgy of the church. For centuries they were acted before the High Altar of scores of churches throughout western Europe. The Cornish Mystery of the Three Maries was probably imported from France toward the close of the Middle Ages. The text was translated from French or Latin and has been done into English at a recent date. Like all the mediaeval drama, the play is simple and direct in its appeal.

In the Guild's production the chief role, that of Mary Magdalen, will be taken by Dorothy Upjohn. Betty Robinson and Bernice Merrick take the parts of Mary Salome and Mary the mother of James. Donald Ryerson appears as the Gardener (Christ) and Robin Godfrey as the Angel. Three Bach chorales from the St. Matthew Passion and an incidental dirge will be sung by a small choir under the direction of Mr. Ryerson. The production is under the direction of Gordon Robertson. The Three Maries was acted intermittently in Cornwall in huge open-air amphitheatres until well into the eighteenth century. Mr. Robertson's production, so far as is known, is the first since that time.

As this is the last meeting of the season, all interested undergraduates are invited to attend. There will be no charge for admission.

D.G.W.

Eaton Auditorium

With the piano recital by Walter Gieseking in Eaton Auditorium last night the concert season draws to a close. It has been a season of very great interest indeed, and this concert in some respects marked a culmination. Mr. Gieseking, who seems to me perhaps the most important modern pianist, is guaranteed to delight high-brow and the great run of listeners alike.

It must be admitted, to save argument, that the concert last night was not of the merit of his performance here two years ago. And this fact I attribute in some measure to his choice of programme. The stature of a man like this is best revealed in programmes of similar stature, and even if he can do the familiar classics perfectly and extraordinarily, he hardly shows himself at his greatest. As for his playing of the Rigoletto transcription as an encore—a circumstance somewhat embarrassing to Gieseking enthusiasts—I cling to an interesting theory I have heard propounded. This theory is that on former visits to Toronto he has not been used by the public and press as was most fitting, and he at length decided, as I heard it put, "to slap the audience in the face and make them like it". I enjoy thinking that Mr. Gieseking did this disconcerting thing sardonically!

However, one must not cavil. His mastery of the instrument, his sureness of balance and form, his sheer exqu Coastness are most exhilarating. The Beethoven "Waldstein" Sonata was subjected to peculiar and most effective treatment, especially in the magnificent last movement. On the Bach I cannot comment, for the deplorable reason that I arrived late. The Brahms numbers were extremely beautiful, and the Chopin eloquent indeed. For his Debussy Mr. Gieseking is justly famous; in that composer's work his wonderful delicacy, his perfection of sensuous beauty, and his infallible good taste have full play. Let us hope that succeeding seasons will witness the return, many times, of this truly great pianist.

N.F.L.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from Page 2)

The train ran up the railroad track The rain it poured you bet The train ran down the railroad track The bell was ringing wet.

C—C

Or again—

There was a young Scotchman named Rosen Who sloop on a river half frozen But he trope as he trod And slooped as he sloop

And drowed in the drink with his close'n.

C—C

In this case, enough is too much. The gentleman who wielded the shovel in gathering this odorous conglomeration of rhinases was as usual Kugur.

C—C

P.S. (Adeline) wishes us to say that she hopes your exam marks will be as high as Eddie Cantor's opinion of himself, and your failures as low as his humour.

Above, the "Aberdeen", latest addition to Dack's "Bond Street" line, below, the "Savoy" smart Custom-Grade model.

This Easter —choice of well-dressed men

FOR more than 100 Easters, Dack shoes have added distinction to the attire of Canadian gentlemen. This year we offer an unusually wide selection of smart models for business, dress, and sports wear styled in the West-End-of-London manner and built by master craftsmen from selected leathers. See them. Begin now to enjoy the exclusive quality of Canada's finest shoes. Look your best this Easter—and always.

Dack's

SHOES FOR MEN

SHOPS IN MOST PRINCIPAL CITIES

CO-EDS

Get your Spring Outfit

Moderately Priced Dresses and Hats

Charmaine Shoppe

501 Bloor St. West, Near Borden St.

Purchases can be made with a small deposit and small weekly payments.

LOW EASTER FARES

Between all points in Canada

Also to certain United States Destinations

Short Week-end

Single Fare for Round Trip

Good going from 5 A.M. Saturday, March 31st, to midnight, Sunday, April 1st. Return limit leaving up to midnight, Monday, April 2nd.

Long Week-end

Fare and one quarter for Round Trip

Good going from 5 A.M. Thursday, March 29th, to midnight, Sunday, April 1st. Return limit leaving up to midnight, Tuesday, April 3rd.

For fares and further information apply to Railway Ticket Agents Safety - Speed - Comfort

CANADIAN NATIONAL

T-29

Gay Gloves Just off the boat

These imported slip-ons are the last word of the Paris decree, with their novel gussets, scallops, pipings and punchwork. They are carefully cut from the highest grade skins, in combinations of the smartest colours: Brown, Beige, Navy, White, Grey and Black. Also plain styles for the tailored costume. These chic imports will add so much to your spring ensemble. Priced at $1.98

Crape Hosa
A beautiful, clear, all silk crepe. So permanently dull, with all the smartness that spring demands, and in the latest shades, too. They will wear and wear $1.00

No. 5000
The same high quality, the same gossamer sheerness, together with the new spring shades are making No. 5000 even more popular than ever before. Truly the hose of discriminating women $1.00

Virginia Dare

At your own Varsity Shop
768 YONGE STREET
(Next door to the Uptown Theatre)

Phone KI. 8600
4 other shops in Toronto

A professor of Latin and Greek
Can smoke cigarettes like a streak.
But it's not for his knowledge
Folks are joining his college,
But the odd BRITISH CONSOLS
to smoke.

10 for 10c. — 25 for 25c.
and in tins of 50's and 100's

Smoke a FRESH cigarette

BRITISH CONSOLS
COLLECT THE CARD PICTURES

SPLIT WITH U.F.O.

WAS ANTICIPATED

(Continued from Page 1)

on. Communists will be definitely kept out. The endless bickerings between the three groups on the present council will be lessened."

When asked about the University Club, Mr. Skilling replied, "The club has a splendid executive and has good prospects for next year. They plan to continue their work during the summer by holding study groups. Next year they hope to enlarge their activities by holding regular study groups and by assisting organizations outside the university with speakers."

Coming Events

SATURDAY, MARCH 17

3.30 p.m.—T. A. Reed, Esq., "The Story of Toronto," with lantern illustrations. Trinity College library. Centennial celebration.

8 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., "The Prodigal," at Apt. E, 655 Spadina Ave.

8.30 p.m.—"Les Bons Vivants," Toronto Jewish Journalists' Fraternity, centennial dance at the Oak Room of the Toronto Union Station. For reservations, Ha. 9934 or Gl. 1283.

SUNDAY, MARCH 18

9 a.m.—Holy Communion, Hart House Chapel.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21

4.15 p.m.—U.C. Players' Guild presents The Mystery of the Three Maries. Everybody welcome.

8.15 p.m.—Meeting of the German Study Club at 79 St. George Street. Elections and scenes from Goethe and Schiller.

THURSDAY, MARCH 22

8 p.m.—Annual meeting of the S.C.M. Address by Sir Robert Falconer, on "Religion in the life of the Student". 79 St. George St.

SATURDAY, MARCH 24

8 p.m.—T.I.C.C.U., 77 Charles St. W.

TUESDAY, MARCH 27

8.15 p.m.—Final meeting of Victoria College French Club will be held in Wymilwood. An interesting play, "La Nouvelle Benne" will be presented and this will be followed by games. Everyone is invited.

MR. WALTER GIESEKING EXPLAINS NEW TREND
(Continued from Page 1)

transcriptions of Bach's organ music for the piano, that students forget that when writing for the piano Bach had an earlier instrument with no big tone. Bach wrote nothing not adapted to his instrument, and when I play him I try to imitate the harpsichord, and keep within the range of the original.

"What significance do you attach to this reaction?" I asked.

Mr. Gieseking hesitated, "It is difficult," he said, "to tell what is a general and what is a local tendency. But I would say that it indicates a more serious conception of music. Young people, in Europe at least, and I suppose here also, are interested in efficiency. The efficiency of an interpreter consists of bringing out everything the composer put into the music. Not an easy thing to do," he interjected seriously. "And to a masterpiece nothing can be added."

I asked him concerning the artistic life in Germany under the present political regime.

"The position of the artist in Germany is now very high—he gets much more consideration than before the revolution. Musical activity is regarded as an important part of the national culture. The interest in Fascism on the part of so many young Europeans he attributed to the care for efficiency he had mentioned before. "Many of those who criticize the revolution," he remarked, "do not know what it was like before."

RUGBY VACANCIES CAPABLY FILLED
(Continued from Page 1)

He is better than any other man in the position in the Canadian college series. Grady Laing will be eligible again as will Doug Webber and perhaps Art Upper too. Bob Isbister is another probable addition to the backfield although he will take some polishing to fill the shoes of Jack Sinclair. His ability to kick and plunge will make his presence on the lineup valuable.

Bobby Coulter, who is as good as the best of them at quarter, will again handle the team's field strategy. Andy Henderson will again be at outside as the outstanding tackler of the series. Alison and Keith will fill the same jobs capably, which leaves room for one more end man. Jack Dawson, star of most of last year's games, will be hitting them hard and last next fall again. Gus Greco's plunging will move the yard sticks. Chuck Warner will be seen at inside with Ken Harris on the other side. Laing will perform at middle with Greco. Webber is another probable middle as is Chuck Newton. Hennessy will alternate at flying wing. Max Fullerton may be seen in senior costume too.

This collection, if assembled completely, will present a line better than last year's and one that will equal even the Tricolour wall. The backfield is going to be the weak spot since it will be all new material. The prospects include Jackson, Gray, Isbister, Williams, Holden, Fullerton and Taylor.

BULLETIN BOARD

Bulletin Board and Coming Event notices must be handed in at either the men's office in Hart House, or at the women's office in University College. No notices will be taken over the telephone, after 6 p.m. notices must be taken to the Press Building. Notices for the Bulletin Board are limited to ONE insertion only.

HART HOUSE CHAPEL

Professor de Pauley of Trinity College will give a series of addresses in the Chapel of Hart House on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of Passion Week, March 26-29. The services will begin at 1.30 p.m. and close before 2 o'clock. All members of the House are invited to attend.

Y. M. C. A.

Dr. E. M. Best, National General Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., will address a meeting of students in the S.C.M. Library, Hart House, on Tuesday, March 20th at 5.10 p.m. on "The Young Men's Christian Association in Canadian Life". All interested students will be welcome.

S.P.S. RUGBY

There are still some men who have not returned all the rugby equipment loaned them. This must be returned at once to the Engineering Society office or the offenders will have to take the consequences.

SCHOOL "S" & "T" HOLDERS

Picture will be taken at 1.45 Friday, March 16 on the east steps of the School Building.

U.C. FRENCH CLUB

Holding last meeting on Wednesday, March 28th in the Women's Union at 8.15. There will be elections for next year's executive, a competition in French recitation for which there is a prize. Mrs. Shore will play some French selections on the piano. As this is the last meeting all members are requested to come.

THE FORUM

The final regular meeting of the Forum for this term will be held today at 4 p.m. in Room 4, U.C. The new members, Messrs. Bridle, Robertson, Robinette, Howland and Cohen, will speak. Mr. Levine will be in the chair. At this meeting the executive for next year will be elected.

WOMEN'S BOOK EXCHANGE

Students who still have books in the Women's Book Exchange, Room 82, U.C., must call for these before April 1. The secretary will not be responsible for books left after that date. Book-Exchange hours: 10.30 to 1 p.m. except Saturday.

U.T.S. OLD BOYS

Annual dinner, Simpson's Arcadian Court, Wednesday, March 21st, 6.30 p.m.

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

An open meeting of the Guild will be held on Wednesday, March 21st at 4.15 p.m. in the Women's Union. Mr. Gordon Robertson will produce The Mystery of the Three Maries. Everybody welcome.

Look over this lineup and see for yourself the power that will trot onto the field as the Big Blue team next October. Here's hoping they all turn up for practice in September.

S.C.M. CONFERENCE

A NATIONAL EVENT

(Continued from Page 1)

of recreational activities which may be applied to their own community life when they return home.

The Conference will be held at the Y.M.C.A. Park on Lake Couchiching from September 12 to 21. A number of very prominent and interesting people have been invited to lead in the discussions, forums and groups, a number of whom have already accepted. Those invited include Dr. Robert Calhoun of Yale Theological College, Prof. H. H. Farmer, a British professor from Hartford, Connecticut, and Prof. W. J. Rose of Dartmouth, a graduate of the University of Guelph and a Canadian who has just completed two years study of international relations in Poland.

Other leaders expected to attend are Dr. R. B. Y. Scott and Professor King Gordon of McGill, Dr. and Mrs. Vlastos of Queen's, Mr. E. L. Wasson, Dr. John Linc, Dr. W. R. Taylor of Toronto, Raymond Currier of the Student Volunteer Movement in New York and Canon H. G. Herklots of Winnipeg.

HART HOUSE CHAPEL

The monthly service of Holy Communion will be held in Hart House Chapel next Sunday, March 18th at 9 a.m. All members of the House who desire to attend are welcome to do so.

UNDERGRADUATE MAGAZINE

Applications for the position of Editor and Associate Editor for 1934-5 must be sent to the U.C. Lit. and Ath. Society and the Women's Undergraduate Association on or before Wednesday, March 21st, at 12 noon.

S. C. M.

Sir Robert Falconer will give the address at the annual meeting of the S.C.M. on Thursday, March 22nd at 8 p.m. in the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street, on "Religion in the Life of the Student". All students and members of staff are invited to attend.

LECTURE DEMONSTRATION

The lecture demonstration scheduled for Monday, 19th March in Hart House Theatre has been cancelled.

SYMPHONY TICKETS

A limited number of special student tickets for the final concert of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra this season will be on sale at the Hall Porter's desk on Tuesday, 20th March from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

BIOLOGICAL CLUB

The final meeting of the Biological Club will be held at Wymilwood on Wednesday, 21st, 7.45 p.m. The speaker will be Mr. Jacobsen, who was a member of the Canadian Polar Expedition to the Western Arctic.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Singing-meeting on Thursday, March 22 at 5 p.m. in Hart House Music Room, under direction of Mr. Sly. Prospective members especially invited. Please watch Hart House Notice Board for further announcements.

TRINITY FRENCH SOCIETY

The final meeting of the Trinity French Society will be held in Room IV, Trinity College, at 8 p.m. Thursday, March 22. The first year will present a play. Elections will be held for next year's executive. Refreshments.

GRADUATE STUDIES-O.C.E.

EMMANUEL

The graduate unit of the S.C.M. is holding its final tea on Sunday, March 18th, at 4.30, in the Women's Union, 79 St. George St. The meeting will be addressed by Professor Havelock.

T.I.C.C.U.

"The Prodigal," will be the subject for discussion at the meeting of the T.I.C.C.U. in Apt. E, 655 Spadina Ave., at eight tomorrow evening, Saturday, March 17.

PROSPECTS ROSIER FOR PUCK-CHASERS
(Continued from Page 1)

appear that will materially enhance the Blues' chances in senior company. On the forward line next year will again be performing Jimmie MacPherson, Charlie Sweeney, Norm McLelland, Mickey McConvey, all creditable performers during the past season, while Ray and Campbell will again line up on the defence. Frank Shipp, of course, can again be counted on to turn in his usual brilliant performance in the Varsity nets.

At present it is difficult to predict in just what loop Varsity will be engaged. Sufficient intercollegiate games would make it unnecessary to play O.H.A. hockey while an international intercollegiate league looms up as a not unlikely possibility. But regardless of what league the Blue and White team is performing in we may confidently expect a better team, with improved results, and Warren Stevens again leading Varsity back to its former position of hockey eminence, even as he led the football.

The question of large scale lotteries has been revived again. The University of Montreal has opened a subscription lottery for the purpose of raising funds to complete buildings on Mount Royal.

STUDENTS REMEMBER . . . Exam Time Is A Hard Time On Your Eyes

Do not let your eyes deceive you. Perhaps they feel all right—but even though they do not bother you now, remember that you'll be doing a lot of reading and "late-hours" studying in the next two months.

Why not make sure of their condition and have them examined at EATON'S OPTICAL DEPARTMENT? One of our registered Optometrists will give your eyes a thorough examination without any charge, and prescribe the proper glasses at moderate cost, if needed. Then, too, at EATON'S, spectacles and eyeglassware are modern and varied and prices moderate.

EATON'S—THIRD FLOOR—YONGE ST.

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

The CHATEAU LAURIER

Ottawa's
Hotel of Distinction

To be assured of comfortable accommodation—stay at the CHATEAU LAURIER.

Here you will find accommodation for 1,000 guests—with rates that have been adjusted to meet the demands of present day economy, but where, though your stay be of short duration, or of extended nature, the traditions of Canadian National Railways—Courtesy and Service—have been maintained.

Full details from any Agent of

CANADIAN NATIONAL

T18

Nothing But

A Freeman Dress or Tuxedo Suit for the coming dancos. They are up to the minute. Also complete outfits and evening wraps. Special rates for students. Two stores to serve you.

FREEMAN'S

256 College Street
KI. 0991

571 Yonge Street
KI. 3270

Classified Advertisements

ROOMS

Single or double room, with or without board. 721 Spadina Ave., Ki. 2038.

GERMAN

German lessons and translations by German university graduate. Ra. 2227.

LOST

Silver ring with green stone in antique setting, about three weeks ago. Reward. Finder please phone Li. 4330.

ROOM TO RENT

Cawthra Mansions, well furnished, large, warm, sunny room, suitable for two, reasonable; board or grill privileges optional. Ki. 6804.

